Cold Weather. - The Quebec Gazette, of the 1st inst. says - Yesterday was the coldest day we have had this winter. The thermometer in an exposition fell to 32 degrees below zero. At Kingston, Upper Canada, the quantity of snow which had fallen had not be equalled for several years. - The lake (Ontario) was frozen, and crossing had become general.

The Countryman 1 (7 Sept. 1830):[2]:

The Palmyra Sentinel makes high pretensions to purity. It professes to have a great aversion to all kinds of disrespectful publications; and feigns to be one of the most immaculate journals of the day! But in order to show its hypocrisy, it is necessary only to state, that "The Reflector," a sarcastical, obscene little paper, the character of which is so well known in this quarter, that comment from us, respecting it, would be useless, is issued from that office; as also was the infamous, catch-penny work, entitled the "Book of Mormon," or, as it is generally called, the "Golden Bible." These two publications have cast a lasting reproach upon the Sentinel -- a reproach which years of penance would not wipe away.

A spark of Throop's wisdom which flickers in the gutters as the Messenger of a "small light," in this section, says: - 'The Book of Mormon was advertised for sale at the Phoenix office, last spring; and those who have curiosity to see the [t]hing, can probably find it there.' This same masonic paper once published an advertisement ...
