Mormonism—Shocking Disclosures—Elder Rutgers Magazine for January, published at Pittsburg, gives some disclosures of corruption at the meetings among the Mormons in New York, New Fessey, &c. It appears that the degrading polygamy founded by Joe Smith, and established at Navoo a short time before his death, had been encouraged and sustained by people of intelligence, who were afraid for the safety of their stock of British Goods spreading among the deluded followers. He says: Among the churches we visited, there was a great deal of excitement; many of the principal members had withdrawn from the church or had been cut off, and of this number were the residing elders of the church of Philadelphia, New York, Boston, New Egypt, N. J. and Woodstown, N. J. On enquiring into the cause of the difficulties, in every instance, it was the spiritual wife system, which had caused the separation or exclusion. The course pursued by the advocates of this system, who were the travelling elders, was, that as soon as a man became dissatisfied with the teachings of those believers in polygamy, and was bold enough to express his dissatisfaction, call the doctrine incestuous, and adulterous, he or she was immediately arraigned before the church, and charged with disobedience to the authorities, and with slandering the heads of the church; an artful appeal was made to the members of the church, at the time of the trial and every one who dared to vote in favor of the person charged, was threatened with immediate excommunication from the church and thus intimidated, and compelled to obey the mandates of their masters. A notable instance of this was related to me while in Boston. Old Elder Nickerson, a man highly esteemed in Boston, and the father of the church there, when this system of a plurality of wives first made its appearance there, rose up against it, as every man of virtue would, and was so deeply affected with it, that he went over the corruption that was creeping into the church, and declared his intention and determination to lift his voice against it; this was no sooner known, than he was bestirred by two of these so called authorities, and threatened with exclusion, if he dare give testimony against those whom he had declared he knew were guilty of great improprieties, such as called for the interference of Corn men; Horse Peal & Bran. ## WILLIAM'S ACCOMMODATION STAGE.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the public, that he has placed upon the Nereis Road, for the accommodation of passengers between Frederiction and Saint John, his well known COMFORTABLE STAGE formerly owned by Sir Archibald Campbell, which he, servants, & others, who went west of his face, were in charge of. It was an in-door patient in Charlottetown Hospital for six months, without being able to find a cure. He expected that nothing could save his life until he was admitted, as a last resource, to use HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT and PILLS; which immediately stayed the ravages of this terrible complaint and ultimately healed all the Cancerous sores, and with the exception of frightful marks in his face, he is as well as ever he was.

As a case of a Leathorne Skin Disease, attended with Dreadful Swellings of the Whole Body, that had resisted the treatment of nearly all the Hospitals in London, cured by Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

JAMES WEBB, a Lawyer's drayman, residing in Robin Hood Court, Leather Lane, Holborn, London, had a logo hole which went over both sides of his face, and out of which flesh from it. He was an in-door patient in Charlottetown Hospital for six months, without being able to find a cure. He expected that nothing could save his life until he was admitted, as a last resource, to use Holloway's Ointment and Pills; which immediately stayed the ravages of this terrible complaint and eventually healed all the Cancerous sores, and with the exception of frightful marks in his face, he is as well as ever he was.

As a child five years of age, named JONES, whose father was a shoemaker, living in No. 4, Horne Sloe Alley, Finsbury, London, had been afflicted from the age of sixteen months old, with fearful and dreadful swellings all over her body, which used to affect her periodically; at such times her face, would change its color and remain perfectly BLACK; her body was always covered with many malignant sores. For this unknown complaint, the child was taken by her mother to nearly all the Hospitals in London, and most of the surgeons of eminence, none appeared to understand her disease, and shortly after, from their treatment, and long HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT and PILLS, which not only gave relief, but completely eradicated the disease from the system, so that the child is now restored to perfect health, and not the least vestige of the former complaint remains.
