

Brother Clyde having been given permission by our Father in heaven I lay my hands on your head to give you a blessing. Brother Clyde in the past there has been a protection around you and from this time on it shall be increased.

You have had many experiences that you might grow in knowledge. You shall have your desires fulfilled in regards to your future work in the Kingdom of God.

I bless you with the gift of free speech. You shall have the gift of explaining the gospel to the Saints in clearness and power. At such times beware of praise.

I bless you with the gift of Aaron and the blessings of Oliver Cowdery and David Whitmore. You shall bear a number. It shall be No. 2 and you shall stand next to me through out all time if you are faithful. Your wives shall bear you sons and daughters and many of them shall become the servants of God and bring honor to your name.

I bless you with the gift of discerning of spirits and the gift of prophesy. Be faithful and humble and prayerful always acknowledging the hand of God in all things.

I seal these blessings on your head according to your faithfulness by the authority given me of God and in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.
