Dear Brian,

Please find enclosed?

1) Samuel Bateman diaries - typescript -
8/26/86 to 2/13/88.

2) James E. Talmage diary - photocopied excerpts on fundamentalists - 1914 to 1924.

This diary covers the excommunication of John W. Woolley, the excommunication of Thomas J. Steed (and his wives, Pamela Barlow & Josie Steed - probably married to him by John W. Woolley), ~~the~~ in detail the Gudmundson group, ~~and~~ the appointment of James E. Talmage to aid state presidents in excommunicating fundamentalists, and the excommunication of Lorin C. Woolley.

3) General Conference address by Heber J. Grant on fundamentalists. This talk gives the background info. on Lorin Woolley's excommunication (p. 10), making Lorin Woolley perhaps the only man in our century to be publically vilified - by name - over the General Conference pulpit!

4) An interview with a former wife of Owen LeBaron - containing many details about the LeBaron situation.

P.P.S. New address

This is all very good info
I inquired about the wages of undergraduate research assistants in history. BYU pays them $7.00/hour.
If that's too steep, let me know.

I'm keeping a running total of expenditures. Here's what it looks like so far.

$20	(leftover from before)
+$125	(recent check)
$145.00
-45.00	(3 x $15.00 - priesthood lectures)
-5.00	(Postage on priesthood lectures)
<hr/>
$95.00
-12.10	(Enclosed copies + postage)
$82.90
-	(Hourly wage x 4)

Whatever my hourly wage is, multiply it by four and subtract that from $82.90, and that's how much I have left in the Fundamentalists fund. (If the wage is $7/hour, then the total <sup>remaining</sup> would be $54.90.)

If you can't read all ~~not~~ image diary, let me know. Let me know what you decide on the hourly wage.

Enjoy!

P.S. Thanks a bunch for wanting out this arrangement with me. It helps!
