P.P.S. New address

This is all very good info.
I inquired about the wages of undergraduate research assistants in history. BYU pays them $7.00/hour. If that's too steep, let me know.

I'm keeping a running total of expenditures. Here's what it looks like so far.

$20 (leftover from before)
+$125 (recent check)

$145.00
- 45.00 (3 x $15.00 - priesthood lectures)
- 5.00 (Postage on priesthood lectures)

$95.00
- 12.10 (Enclosed copies + postage)

$82.90
- (Hourly wage x 4)

P.S. Thanks a bunch for wanting out this arrangement with me. If helps!

Whatever my hourly wage is, multiply it by four and subtract that from $82.90, and that's how much I have left in the Fundamentalists fund. (If the wage is $7/hour, then the total ^{remaining} would be $54.90.)

If you can't read all the image diary, let me know. Let me know what you decide on the hourly wage.
