REMINISCENCES

OF

JOHN W. WOOLLEY and LORIN C. WOOLLEY

Volume I

Reported by

MARK J. and RHEA A. BAIRD

And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

For there is nothing hid which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

Mark 4:21, 22

PREFACE
to Series of "Reminiscences"

Two generations have grown to adulthood since John Wickersham Woolley and his son, Lorin Calvin Woolley, passed from this life.

At the time these two men were with us, few people had enough knowledge to appreciate their goodness or their greatness; yet each in his turn held the highest Keys of Priesthood. One can, indeed, count easily on one hand the men of this dispensation who preceded them in this great honor and rare responsibility. In this series of "REMINISCENCES" many evidences will appear to attest to the Woolleys' Priesthood calling.

Brief life sketches of John and Lorin Woolley precede the discussions or interviews, which will be identified by names of the guest participants and also by Roman numerals.
