President B. young & Jas. P.}

President B. young & Jas. P.

The Substance

of the revelation by Joseph

S. Smith, jun., was 1st, to tell them that the glory of the Lord was about to be revealed to them, and that they should prepare for it by living a holy life and keeping the commandments of God.

2nd, to tell them that they should prepare for the coming of the Lord

by strengthening their faith

and by living a holy life.

3rd, to tell them that they should

prepare for the coming of the Lord

by strengthening their faith

and by living a holy life.

4th, to tell them that they should

prepare for the coming of the Lord

by strengthening their faith

and by living a holy life.

5th, to tell them that they should

prepare for the coming of the Lord

by strengthening their faith

and by living a holy life.

6th, to tell them that they should

prepare for the coming of the Lord

by strengthening their faith

and by living a holy life.

7th, to tell them that they should

prepare for the coming of the Lord

by strengthening their faith

and by living a holy life.