

THE DEAD.

Peaceful be their Rest.

WHITE.—On Sunday, at 6 p. m., William White, aged 74 years.

HAVEN.—In this city November 13, 1893, Maria A., wife of George D. Haven; aged 53 years.

ROBERTSON.—In Salt Lake City, November 15, of pneumonia, James Robertson, in the 65th year of his age.

BIRD.—In this city, Nov. 13, 1893, of bronchitis, Mrs. Elizabeth Bird, wife of James Bird; aged 72 years. Deceased was a native of England.

EDWARDS.—At Goshen, Utah county, November 11, 1893, at 12 o'clock p.m., Eleazer Edwards, aged sixty-nine years and one month.

HADDOCK.—Died in Salt Lake City, November 13th, 1893, of heart failure, Margaret Haddock, in the 62nd year of her age.

Millennial Star, please copy.

GEORGE.—In Salt Lake City, 542 south Ninth West street, Jane L. George, wife of William L. George, of general debility, November 20th, 1893. The deceased was in her 67th year. She leaves a husband but no children. She was a native of South Wales, where she joined the Church in 1845. She was a faithful member of the Church to the very last.

DIBBLE.—Sister Hannah Ann Dubois Dibble, beloved wife of Father Philo Dibble, departed this life on the 28th of October at 6 p.m. The immediate cause of her demise was tumor in the side, commencing on the 13th of September, which seemed to grow in intensity until she finally succumbed. She bore her affliction with great and enduring fortitude, retaining faculties of mind to the last moment of her life, for which she had often expressed a wish and prayed.

Mother Dibble was born in the state of New Jersey in 1808, and spent her early life in her native state. She joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1839, and suffered many trials incident to those days. In 1841 she was married to Philo Dibble at Nauvoo, Ill., Joseph the prophet performing the ceremony and Sister Emma Smith gave the wedding supper at her house. She came to Utah in the autumn of 1851 and made her first home in Davis county. In the spring of 1858 they came in the great Move south to Springville, where they have since resided.

Sister Dibble was a quiet, neighborly, exemplary lady and well beloved by all acquaintances. For the past three years she has been almost blind, having been left so by an attack of la grippe. A few days before her demise, she dictated as to how her funeral should be conducted, desiring no costly display. She also selected her speakers.

On Monday services were held at 2 p.m. The choir sang, O My Father, after which Nephi Packard, O. B. Huntington and Bishop John Tucket offered consolatory remarks, referring to the virtues of the deceased and the hopes of a future life. Elder B. H. Roberts, of Salt Lake, being present gave a most eloquent discourse, full of comfort and consolation to the bereaved. The choir sang Farewell All Karthly Honors, after which the body was followed to the cemetery by a large concourse, Brother W. H. Kelsey offering the dedicatory prayer.

W. A. PEIRCE.