they were "one of the mere of Joseph Smith, Brigham Young Cox, Susannah Wams and Ruth Jane Field." (Ashley Ancestry for 11) Mrs. Powers and Harriet Cox can be identified as town of B. Young, and Susannah Wams was named to B. Hunter.

Leaving Ruth Jane Field as a probable wife of Jno. Smith, no confirmation concerning her has been found.

63 - Mary C. Field - Alvina H. Field - Jane T. Field - Algerny J. Field Audubia T. - daughters of C. P. Field and sister of Melissa Field.
B. F. Johnson (my life's review) said that Jno. Smith

On Nov. 2, 1847 she voted proxy for the sealing of young Adams to Jos. Smith. She died under the riding, (August, Adams Young Smith, Heir). Indicating that she had been sealed to Smith, she died in S. City, Feb. 2, 1886.

revelation record said: "The sealings of these individuals were performed during the life of the Prophet Joseph, but there is no record thereof. Priest Emerick Snow decided that they be sealed in order that a record might exist; and that this explanation be made." This incident suggests that others of the many dead women to whom Smith was sealed, by proxy, in the time when married during his life, Salome and those who, by their birth dating, could tell them his merits are.
