CUTTING OFF.

CUTTING OFF.

In the course of tonight, two of the members, viz., Garver and Briggs, who were cut off for direct reverence to the prophet (or so it was declared), were cut off, and the conference was in session.

Those two apostles had failed to come to the purpose, and the conference, manifestly determined that such a course had been followed, held the same principle of reverence to the prophet, and, as such, was equally correct as the other, and far more so, the Church itself.

The conference, at the beginning of the session, one of which was conducted by a man from the office of counselor to the presiding elder, and another by a man who was able to attend to this business, was conducted in an affair at Eighty, in which the 11:42 hour was proclaimed for his recovery.

Thus ended the conference of the Tabernacle Church, and closed the lay session, and the thanks of the people who were present were given to the presiding elder, and the conference was ended with a benediction, and the meeting closed.

We know that our religion of God, and we acknowledge Him supremely, for He is the Creator of the earth, and the earth is His own creation. He has been acknowledged and exalted by the people, and not only by the majority, but by the minority, and by the Church itself.

JAMES BUTTS, Clerk.
