OK, I just spent some time with Randy. He told me the Eliza R. Snow letter to John Taylor would have been relocated from the "Eliza R. Snow letter file" to the First Presidency's incoming correspondence files. The letter has some sensitive content—Eliza is recommending Hannah Ells for her second anointings! But, having alerted him to this, I emphasize the importance of the letter. He's looking for it and will probably have it for me early next week. 8-)

And in other news...the Salt Lake Temple sealing record book covering 1899 just arrived from the Granite Mountain Vault. Randy took me back to his office to view it. And...it says Bapson! We both looked at the form of the letter, and it is simply a cursive "B". I suggested also comparing with how this same clerk wrote his other uppercase "B"s and "R"s, and this comparison raises to the level of certainty that the clerk wrote "B." He may have done so in error, intending to write an "R"; or, more likely, he misread someone else's capital "R." But in either case, he wrote "Bapson."

The entry, by the way, is dated April 4, 1899, and numbered 4265. It is found on page 243 of the sealing record book. 8-)

Hey Brian,

Got it! I haven't encountered this other researcher again yet, but may yet today. We'll see...

BTW, I just got off the phone with Jill. The December 12, 1886 letter from Eliza to John Taylor is proving elusive, since the CHD catalog shows no collection of her materials covering this time period. She's going to check for it in her papers when she's in the office next week. If we can obtain that letter, it will also be the closest known example of Eliza's handwriting to the February 1887 list of wives she provides Jenson, making it the best document for comparison!

Jill's also going to be checking the DUP for new Eliza materials, and says she'll keep a special eye out for anything on Joseph Smith and plural marriage. The way she said this it seemed she was saying she would share such things with us--and certainly hope that!

I should be meeting with her next week; so I'll let you know the results.

29 - Mary Naomi Born in Jackson Co. June 11, 1812. She married Henry Kimball and was living in one of the cabins on Smith's place. In 1846, she was sealed to Smith for eternity, and to Kimball for time.

30 - Martha McBrine Knight, wife of Asp. Uriam Knight. Born in Clark Co. Feb. 17, 1823. She married Jos. Smith in the summer of 1842 (See Block Agreement and the register of plural marriage, p. 49). It is not clear whether this was before or after the death of Knight, which occurred in July 1842 (Hist. of Ch., Ⅳ, 49). On Jan. 26, 1846, she was sealed to Smith for eternity and to H.C. Kimball for time. She died at Hesper, Utah, Nov. 20, 1901 (L. E. Kimball, Nov. 21, 1901).

31 - Sarah Scott. She is listed by Whitney as one of the wives of Jos. Smith taken by H.C. Kimball. Early in 1846, "Sarah Scott Smith" was born in Bunkert Hill, Dec. 9, 1846, and sealed to Kimball for time. She was sealed to Smith for time, along with Sarah Scott and Sarah Shuler, who is also listed by Whitney as a wife of H.C. Kimball.

32 - Sarah Shuler. Early in 1846, "Sarah B. Smith" was born in Oxford Co., N.Y., May 13, 1846, and sealed to Kimball for time, along with Sarah Scott and Sarah Shuler, who is also listed by Whitney as a wife of H.C. Kimball.

33 - Sarah Baskamp. Born in Clinch Co., June 27, 1798. On Apr. 8, 1807, she was married by proxy to Jos. Smith. A note accompanying the registry record states that she was sealed to Smith during her life, "and that she is to receive the end," as the registry record being above again.

Mrs. Durkee - W. Wyle (Merrim. Patrots, p. 3, 4) quoted Sarah in as saying that Jos. Smith took a young girl of Nancie, as may be inferred from J. L. Page's (Merrim. Patrots, p. 2, 5) note about Jos. Smith among Smith's leftovers.

Mrs. B. S. - Bement (p. 2, 2) says she was married to Jos. Smith by H. Young. She is not further identified.

Mrs. B. S. - She is not listed by Bement (p. 3, 6) as a wife of Jos. Smith. She might be Sarah Johnson, sealed to him by Young, apr. 17, 1807.

Mrs. Edward Blossom - W. Wyle (Merrim. Patrots, p. 6, 6) quotes Richard Rudder, steward at the Mansions House in Nancie, as telling of finding Jos. Smith in bed with the wife of Elder Edward Blossom; she is not further identified.

Mrs. Ford - Wyle (p. 5, 6) tells how a man found, only of a resource merchant, examined Jos. Smith, and the said when her husband was away.

Augusta Adams Craft, infant of Henry Craft, born in Mass., Dec. 4, 1800. In 1802, she married H. Young, and she had several children. On Jan. 3, 1843, she married J. Young (id. 31, 1st May, p. 3.) She returned to Boston, but on Feb. 3, 1846, she left with her husband and was sealed to Young in the Temple. She left with him, and, later in 1847, her husband received a divorce. Nov. 6, 1847, she wrote briefly for the sealing of her Adams husband to Jos. Smith. She said thereunder the sealing, "Augusta Adams, wife of Smith," indicating that she had been sealed to Smith. She died in Mass. City, Feb. 3, 1846.

Cheift Adam Smith, born, Oxford (Ox.), 1641, Sept. 24, 1747. She was sealed, for three years, to J. B. Young, on Jan. 18, 1846. She was evidently the widow of one of the Smiths.

Sarah Bland Smith, born in May, 1794, at Duxbury, Mass., Jan. 20, 1846. She was married to Peter Harps, for three years.

PHERIS PUTLON, from the ENDOPLANT HOUSE SEALING RECORDS, enclosed, is listed as sealed to the Prophet Joseph Smith, Junior, on 26 Nov 1873.

SARAH RAUSIN, from the ENDOPLANT HOUSE SEALING RECORDS, enclosed, is listed as sealed to the Prophet Joseph Smith, Junior, on 11 Mar 1856. SPECIAL NOTATION: This person may be the same as Sarah Rapson, born 27 Mar 1793 at Ashton, Sussex, England. (See page 53 of this record.)

Hi Don and Randy,

Hey I’m trying to figure out the Sarah Bapson thing and encountered something new.

- Tinney page 41 has Sarah Bapson born March 27, 1793, in Ashton, Sussex, England.
- Tinney page 48A has Sarah Rapsin born March 27, 1792 at Ashburn Sussix, England and sealed on March 11, 1856 by proxy to Joseph Smith
- LDSVR (LDS vital records CDROM) has Sarah Royson born March 7, 1791, in Sussex, England (she is listed under the names Poulter and Royson with no Sarah Bapson/Rapson/Rapsin listed in a search of the LDSVR records)
- IGI has Sarah Royson born March 7, 1891, Sussex, England marrying someone named “Poulterer”
- IGI also has Sarah Rapson marrying Stephen Poulterer on March 3, 1817, in England (no BD)

Do you recall the information that accompanied the original 1899 temple record (date and place of birth?)

I’m confused – any thoughts?

Thanks,

Brian

Lake who doubts the fact of that boy being Smith's own child." The chief opposing evidence is Hannah's eternal marriage to Dibble in the Nauvoo temple (Sealing and Adoption Book A, 243). Joseph Smith performed the marriage to Dibble: "On the 11th of February, 1841, I married a second wife—a Widow Smith of Philadelphia, who was living in the family of the Prophet. He performed the ceremony at his house, and Sister Emma Smith insisted upon getting up a wedding supper for us. It was a splendid affair, and quite a large party of our friends were assembled." Philo Dibble, "Philo Dibble's Narrative," Early Scenes in Church History (Salt Lake City: Juvenile Instructor Office, 1882), 92-93. This does not sound like a "pretend" marriage, as was the case with the Sarah Ann Whitney-Joseph Kingsbury marriage.

3. SARAH BAPSON: Bennett, History of the Saints, 256: "Miss B*." The best candidate for this woman is Sarah Bapson, listed in a 4 April 1899 sealing: "The sealings of those named below were performed during the life of the Prophet Joseph but there is no record thereof. President Lorenzo Snow decided that they be repeated in order that a record might exist; and that this explanation be made." Fannie Alger, Lucinda Harris, Almera W. Johnson, Sarah Bapson, Flora Ann Woodworth, Fanny Young, Hannah Ells, Olive Frost, Sarah M. Cleveland, Sylvia Sessions (Lyon), Ruth Vose. Salt Lake Temple Sealing Records, Book D, 243, GS Film 184,590, Family History Library, as cited in Tinney, "Royal Family," 41, 63.

4. MRS. G: Bennett, History of the Saints, 256. As the other names in Bennett's list have been reliable, there is no good reason to doubt this one. However, there are at least nine women whose married names start with G, have six letters, and who were in Nauvoo in 1842. Without further evidence, it is difficult to narrow that group down. A leading candidate is Phebe Palmer (Graves), who received her endowment with Sarah Kingsley (Cleveland) (Smith) on 19 October 1845.

6. MARY HOUSTON: Whitney, Life of Heber C. Kimball, 431. "The wives of the Prophet who wedded Heber C. Kimball were ... Mary Houston." Proxy marriage to Smith/Kimball, Book of Proxy Sealings, Nauvoo #159; Sealing and Adoption Book A, 513.

7. MRS. TAILOR: Jackson, A Narrative, 14, links her with Patty Sessions and Elizabeth Durfee. As Patty Sessions and Elizabeth Durfee have been substantiated as wives of Joseph, there is no good reason to suspect Mrs. Tailor. Which Mrs. Tailor is another problem; there are at least three older women in 1842 Nauvoo with the married name Taylor: Agnes Taylor (Taylor), the mother of John Taylor; Elizabeth Patrick (Taylor); and Surviah (Taylor).
Mother Poulterer Dead.—Sister Sarah Poulterer, more commonly known as "Mother Poulterer," died this morning at 1 o'clock at her residence in the 17th Ward. She was well and widely known among the Latter day Saints, with whom she has been identified from the early history of the Church, and remained staunch and faithful to the end. She was born on the 27th day of March, 1803, was originally from England, but came from Philadelphia with President Jedediah M. Grant, arriving here just 27 years ago, on this the day of her death. She was in Nauvoo in early days, and was intimately acquainted with the Prophet Joseph. For the past three months she has been sick and most of the time, and has slowly dwindled away, dying peacefully of old age.

The funeral will take place at the residence to morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Brian,

Can you take more complications?

Sarah P. had two patriarchal blessings. One from 28 June 1843 gives her birth date as 7 March 1791 with her maiden name Rapson. A second from 18 May 1853 gives her birth as 7 March 1792 with her maiden name Rapton.

Her obit, however, gives her birth as 27 March 1793, no maiden name mentioned (Deseret Evening News 20 Aug. 1879 [p. 3]. This date agrees with the 1899 temple record. The Salt Lake cemetery record has the same birth date.

Hey Brian,

I've been digging a bit in the genealogical sources on Sarah Royson Poulterer, and believe I can identify the most solid information.

The Salt Lake City cemetery records, as extracted in the Utah Cemetery Index and other sources, show a Sarah Poulterer, born March 27, 1793, in England, and dying August 20, 1879, in Salt Lake City.

In September of that same year, the couple is shown on various user-provided family trees as having a daughter Sarah Poulterer in Portsmouth. The younger Sarah married a Joseph Harrison in 1836.

The 1850 census for Philadelphia shows a Stephen and Sarah Poulterer, both born in England, but under the ages of 62 and 64, which would have to erroneous. And--remarkably--the 1851 census for the United Kingdom shows Sarah Poulterer (listed as married, but without an accompanying husband) listed with her "son-in-law" Joseph Harrison, her daughter Sarah, their American-born children, and Sarah's own American-born son George W. [Washington] Poulterer, all in Devonshire.

This is no doubt the right family; so Sarah is caught in this snapshot during a visit to England. She is there shown as 58 years old, consistent with a 1793 birth, and is reported to have been born in Chichester, Sussex. (Although I was tipped off to the existence of this record by a partial transcription that has been published, it was very difficult to find because the Ancestry.com indexers misread almost every name on the page. However, the other transcriber shows the names correctly. Because of this source's accuracy, I am also trusting their reading of Sarah's age. The second digit is written oddly, and could be a "6," a "0," or an "8"; but the otherwise accurate transcriber gives it as an "8.") I'm attaching a copy of this census page.

A "Sarah Poulterer" later shows up in the 1860 Utah Territorial Census, listed as 66 years old and born in Pennsylvania(!). And Sarah seems to disappear entirely from the 1870 census.

Under the name "Sarah Royson," I can find almost nothing, and certainly nothing reflecting this individual. "Royson" is almost certainly just a misreading of the handwritten name "Rapson."

I don't have my transcription from the Salt Lake Temple records at hand, but will check this later. From what I can recall, the temple recorder did not have a great deal of information about Sarah, beyond her (misspelled) name; but I will verify this.

Based on the sources presently available, I think it almost certain that Sarah's married name was Poulterer, and that she was born in England around 1793. I also think her maiden was probably (though not as certainly) Rapson, and that she was born in Chichester in exactly 1793.

I'm confused – any thoughts?

Thanks,
