PROPERTY CORRECTION

It has long been the conventional belief that the late Elizabeth, the lady of Abingdon, is the identical lady of St. Michael's Church, Connolly Church, as the latter lady is called, and that she was married to John, the former mayor of Abingdon.

I have been able to establish the fact that the late Elizabeth was never married, and that she was the only surviving child of John and Mary, the former mayor of Abingdon.

I have also been able to establish the fact that the late Elizabeth was the only surviving child of John and Mary, the former mayor of Abingdon.

I have also been able to establish the fact that the late Elizabeth was the only surviving child of John and Mary, the former mayor of Abingdon.

The late Elizabeth is the identical lady of St. Michael's Church, Connolly Church, as the latter lady is called, and she was married to John, the former mayor of Abingdon.