ous extracts from the "Book of Mormon." The historical part was immediately recognized by all the older inhabitants, as the identical work of Mr. S., in which they had been so deeply interested years before. Mr. John Spaulding was present, who is an eminent newspaper man, and recognized perfectly the work of his brother. He was amazed and afflicted, that it should have been perverted to so wicked a purpose. His grief found vent in a flood of tears, and he arose on the spot and expressed in the meeting his deep sorrow and regret, that the writings of his sainted brother should be used for a purpose so vile and shocking. The excitement in New Salem became so great, that the inhabitants had a meeting, and deputed Dr. Philastus Hurlbut, one of their number, to repair to this place, and obtain from me the original manuscript of Mr. Spaulding, for the purpose of comparing it with "the Mormon Bible," to satisfy their own minds, and to prevent their friends from embracing an error so delusive. This was in the year 1834. Dr. Hurlbut brought with him an introduction, and request for the manuscript, signed by Messrs. Henry Laws, Aaron Wright, and others, with whom L. was acquainted, as they were my neighbours when I resided in New Salem.

I am sure that nothing could grieve my husband more were he living, that the use which has been made of his work. The air of antiquity which was thrown about the composition, doubtless suggested the idea of converting it to purposes of delusion. This an historical romance, with additions of a few portions and extracts from the Sacred Scriptures, has been introduced into a New Bible, and printed to upon a company of poor debased families, as Divinity. I have given the prevailing belief in this work, of deep deception and wickedness, may be traced to the foundation, and its wider exposure to the contempt and execration he so justly deserves.
