"Whether by mine (God's) own voice, or the voice of my servants (Mormon priesthood) it is the same."

—Revelation to Jos. Smith (Ev. & Morn. Star, 155).

"Revelation on the patriarchal order of matrimony or plurality of wives given to Joseph Smith, the Seer, in Nauvoo, July 12th, 1843."

Such is the heading given to that after-thought revelation by which the latter-day Prophet of Mormondom attempted to allay the righteous indignation of his betrayed wife. Having been conceived in lust and promulgated as a license for sensual gratification, this revelation failed to receive such open endorsement as we expect from those with whom religious error is a matter of honest self-deception.
