MISCELLANEOUS.

FROST, (OLIVE GREY,) daughter of Aaron Frost and Susan Grey, was born in the town of Bethel, Oxford Co., Maine, July 24, 1816. She possessed a happy and genial disposition, and gained many friends, whose friendship grew stronger as time advanced and they learned to appreciate her good qualities. When quite young she was religiously inclined, and would often retire to some private place, with a chosen companion, to pour out her soul in secret prayer to that

Being, who rewards openly, and frequently she incurred ridicule thereby from those who were less sober minded. When about eighteen years of age she and her particular friend, Miss Louisa Foster, learned the tailors trade, and they went together from place to place, among their acquaintances, to work at this business, thereby being able to lighten the labors of the busy housewives. While engaged at this work in the neighboring town of Dixfield, Elder Duncan Me-
