Married Emma Hale Jan. 13, 1827, at South Bainbridge, Chenango Co., N.Y. (daughter of Isaac Hale of Harmony, Susquehanna Co., Pa.) Their children: Joseph, Frederick G. W.; Alexander; Don Carlos; David H. The last named was born about five months after the assassination of his father.

Pioneers and Prominent Men of Utah, p.1278

Married Helen Mary Kimball (daughter of Heber Chase Kimball and Vilate Murray). The authority for this statement is on page 339 of the "Life of Heber C. Kimball," by Orson F. Whitney. This author says, "Seen after the revelation (see revelation on celestial marriage, written July 12, 1843, page 1304. * * * Helen Mar, the eldest daughter of Heber Chase and Vilate Murray Kimball, was given to the Prophet in the holy bonds of celestial marriage."

Pioneers and Prominent Men of Utah, p.1278

In 1905, there was issued from the press of the Deseret News at Salt Lake City, Utah, a publication entitled "Blood Atonement and the Origin of Plural Marriage." In the first part of this publication, is the "Correspondence between Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and Richard C. Evans, second counselor in the Presidency of the 'Reorganized' Church." Following this correspondence on page 81 under the heading "Introduction of Celestial and Plural Marriage," are a number of affidavits, among them, those of Lorenzo Snow, Elizabeth Ann Whitney, Sarah A. Kimball, Catherine Phillips Smith, Martha McBride Kimball, and Melissa Lott Willes, setting forth the following marriages of Joseph Smith, Jr.

Pioneers and Prominent Men of Utah, p.1278

Married Louisa Beaman, April 5, 1841, at Nauvoo, Ill.

Pioneers and Prominent Men of Utah, p.1278
On page 81 of "Blood Atonement and the Origin of Plural Marriage," the following statement is made: "One hundred or more affidavits in relation to the introduction of celestial and plural marriage are on file in the Historian's office, Salt Lake City, and are expressions of eye and ear witnesses, who know that the Prophet Joseph Smith introduced and taught celestial and plural marriage. Most of these witnesses are members of the Church, but some of them are not, and have not been connected with the Church from before the martyrdom of the Prophet and Patriarch." [p. 1279] Letter of Joseph Smith III (son of Joseph Smith) to John Smith (son of Hyrum Smith), 21 March 1848. Both boys were 15 years old.

Nauvoo Hancock Co March 21st

Cousin, You know me better than to suppose for a moment that I will or would condescend to be dictated by any person what I shall write & what I shall not write....

You expiate [sic] largely upon helpin -g to roll on the great work in the track of our father) if you mean by this I must support [crossed out word] Spiritual wifery & the other institutions which have been instituted Since their deaths (for you very well know that they never upheld such doctrines in public or practised them in private) I most assuredly shall be your most Ze intolerate adversary.

I do not now nor shall I ever countenance such iniquity so help me heaven.... You perhaps do not want to change your situation at present but time will show and the Lord judge between you and me.

Your Cousin
