- Farmer

Comments: Brackenbury, Benjamin Blanchard (Male)
- Benjamin was a member of the Nauvoo 4th ward.

In 1850, Benjamin owned $40 in real wealth.

Benjamin was a witness against the murderers of Joseph and Hyrum Smith. In 1845 a mob intended to bring him to trial, however the party prosecuting said they were not ready. Brackenbury offered to admit the charge, and give bonds for his appearance at next court, which was all justice of the peace could require, if the trial had proceeded and the charge had been sustained; but the justice would not do it, so determined was the mob to annoy Benjamin and do him personal violence. Benjamin was arrested for perjury; but the real intention of the mob was to get him into their own hands and murder him, to prevent him from being a witness against the murderers of Joseph and Hyrum Smith.

Comments: Brackenbury, Joseph Blanchett (Male)
Joseph emigrated from England to America when he was quite young.

While filling his mission to Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York, Joseph died suddenly from the effects of poison administered by his enemies. The doctors attempted to dig him up to use his body as a subject for dissection, but were hindered in their intentions by Elder Joel H. Johnson, who was warned in a dream of the matter in progress, and rose from his bed at 11:00 p.m. Together with his brother David he went to the grave and succeeded in arresting one of the parties while at work with a spade and a hand sledge. The intended robber was bound to appear at court, being placed under $1000 bond, but his case never came to trial.

Joseph was the first Elder in the Church who died as a martyr in the missionary field.

MILLINERY AND DRESS MAKING.
MISS H. S. Ells begs leave to respectfully inform the Ladies of Nauvoo, and its vicinity, that she intends carrying on the above business, in all its varied branches: and further states, that she has had several years experience in one of the most fashionable French establishments in Philadelphia.
"I think President Taylor will recollect a young English sister in Nauvoo by the name of Hannal Els. She was sealed to Joseph the Prophet before his death. She died in Nauvoo in sister Sarah Kimball's house. I loved her very much—was present at her death."

(Letter of Eliza R. Snow to President John Taylor, 12 December 1886, LDS archives, typed copy)
