Lydia Dibble

Benjamin F. Johnson mentions the name of Dibble as a wife of Joseph Smith. The woman's name was Lydia Dibble Granger. It appears that she was sealed to Hyrum Smith and not Joseph Smith. The year of the sealing may have been 1843.

Lyndon W. Cook has her sealed to Joseph Smith: "Lydia Dibble, also sealed to the Prophet during his life-time, was sealed a second time in the Salt Lake Endowment House 8 June 1851." (Revelations of the Prophet Joseph Smith, 120)
