The following notes relate to the lesser-known of President Taylor's wives.

5. Mary Amanda Utley may not have come west. To date we have no indication that she did. Our present information consists of one family group sheet of her parents Seth Utley and Patsheba Wood. On this record, Mary Amanda's name appears as the third of eleven children born in Tennessee or North Carolina.

6. Mercy Rachel Thompson was born Mercy Rachel Fielding. She was a sister to Mary Fielding, the first wife of Hyrum Smith. She md. (1) Robert Blashel Thompson who was born 14 Oct 1811 and died 27 August 1841. She was later sealed to Hyrum Smith for time. He was Martyred. On 23 Jan. 1846 she was sealed to Robert Blashel Thompson for eternity. John Taylor served as proxy and Heber C. Kimball officiated. She was then sealed to John Taylor for time (the same day)

7. Mary Ramshottom is less known in our records. Of her we know only the bare necessities as indicated on the chart.

8. Sarah Thornton was first married to Prime Coleman (abt. 1826) He was apparently a member of the Church and eight children were born to their union before his death on 11 June 1844. On 30 Jan 1846 she was sealed to John Taylor for eternity. Six years later she took action to be sealed to her first husband, Prime Coleman for eternity and was at the same time sealed for time to David Evans. Evans was proxy for Coleman. These sealings were performed on 18 Oct 1852. We find no record of cancellation for the sealing to John Taylor. Sarah Thornton must have been pleased with her marriage to David Evans for her sixteen year old daughter, Rebecca was sealed to him for eternity just four years later 18 Nov. 1856.
