Pride gets no pleasure out of having something, only out of having more of it than the next man. We say that people are proud of being rich, or clever, or good-looking, but they are not. They are proud of being richer, or cleverer, or better-looking than others. It is the comparison that makes you proud -- the pleasure of being above the rest. Nearly all those evils which people put down to greed or selfishness are really far more the result of pride.

Greed will certainly make a man want money, for the sake of a better house, better holidays, better things to eat and drink. But only up to a point. What is it that makes a man with $50,000 a year anxious to get $100,000 a year? It is not the greed for more pleasure; $50,000 will give all the luxuries that any man can really enjoy.

Maybe that is all right for a monogamist. Big families kind of change that picture.

It is pride -- the wish to be richer than some other rich man, and (still more) the wish for power.

Note that.

For power is what pride really enjoys: nothing makes a man feel so superior to others as being able to move them about like toy soldiers.  It is pride. What is it that makes a political leader or a whole nation go on and on, demanding more and more? Pride again.

It is pride that has been the chief cause of misery in every nation and every family since the world began. Other vices may sometimes bring people together: you may find good fellowship and jokes and friendliness among drunken people or unchaste people. But pride always means enmity -- it is enmity. And not only enmity between man and man, but enmity to God.

In God you come up against something immeasurably superior to yourself. Unless you know God as that -- and, therefore, know yourself as nothing in comparison -- you do not know God at all. As long as you are proud, you cannot know God. A proud man is always looking down on things and people; and as long as you are looking down, you cannot see something that is above you.

That raises a terrible question. How is it that people who are eaten up with pride can say they believe in God and appear to themselves very religious? I am afraid it means they are worshiping an imaginary God. They are all the time imagining how He approves of them and thinks them far better than ordinary people. They pay a penny-worth of imaginary humility to Him, The Lord.

...and get a pound's worth of pride toward their fellow men. Whenever we find that our religious life is making us feel that we are better than someone else, we may be sure that we are being acted on, not by God, but by the devil.

Better than someone else.

Pride can often be used to beat down the simpler vices. Teachers, in fact, often appeal to a boy's pride or, as they call it, his self-respect, to make him behave decently. Many a man has overcome cowardice, or lust, or ill temper by learning to think that these vices are beneath his dignity -- that is, he overcomes them by pride. The devil laughs. He is perfectly content to see you becoming chaste and brave and self-controlled, provided, all the time, he is setting up in you the dictatorship of pride. Just as he would be quite content to see your chilblains cured if he was allowed, in return, to give you cancer. For pride is spiritual cancer: it eats up the very possibility of love, or contentment, or even common sense.

Pleasure in being praised is not pride. The child who is patted on the back for doing a lesson well,  the saved soul to whom Christ says, "Well done," are pleased and ought to be. For here the pleasure lies not in what you are but in the fact that you have pleased someone you rightly wanted to please.

The trouble begins when you pass from thinking, "I have pleased him; all is well," to thinking, "What a fine person I must be to have done it." The more you delight in yourself, and the less you delight in the praise, the worse you are becoming.
The vain person wants praise too much and is always angling for it. It is a fault, but a childlike and even humble fault. It shows that you are not yet completely contented with your own admiration. You value other people enough to want them to look at you. You are, in fact, still human. The real black, diabolical pride comes when you look down on others so much that you do not care what they think of you.

When we say that a man is proud of his son, or his father, or his school, it may be asked whether pride in this sense is a sin. I think it depends on what, exactly, we mean by "proud of." Very often "proud of" means to have a warmhearted admiration for. Such admiration is far from being a sin. But it might, perhaps, mean that the person in question gives himself airs on the ground of his distinguished father. This would be a fault, but even then it would be better than being proud simply of himself. To love and admire anything outside oneself is to take one step away from spiritual ruin; though we shall not be well so long as we love and admire anything more than we love and admire God.

Do not imagine that if you meet a really humble man he will be what most people call "humble" nowadays. In short, he will not be the sort of person who is always telling you that, of course, he is nobody. Probably all you will think about him is that he seems a cheerful, intelligent sort who takes a real interest in what you said to him. If you dislike him, it will be because you feel a little envious of anyone who seems to enjoy life so easily. He will not be thinking about humility; he will not be thinking about himself at all.

If anyone would like to acquire humility, I can, I think, tell him the first step. The first step is to realize that one is proud. It is a big step, too. Nothing whatever can be done before it. If you think you are not conceited, it means you are very conceited indeed.

It gets complicated doesn't it? So, brothers and sisters, in humility there is strength. And I heard one say, "When you think and say you are humble, that you have humility, you have lost it." I would like to leave as a final thought, brothers and sisters, something a wise man said.

The secret of success consists not in the habit of making numerous resolutions about various faults and sins, but in one great, absorbing, controlling purpose to serve God and do His will! If this be the controlling motive of life, all other motives will be swept into the force of its mighty current and guided aright.

So here it is again, one hundred percent commitment to God that we love Him and keep His commandments, and we love and serve our neighbor, seeking the interest of our neighbor. That is the very sense of the United Order.

D.& C. 82

14. For Zion must increase in beauty, and in holiness; her borders must be enlarged; her stakes must be strengthened; yea, verily I say unto you, Zion must arise and put on her beautiful garments.

15. Therefore, I give unto you this commandment, that ye bind yourselves by this covenant, and it shall be done according to the laws of the Lord. This was a time when men were joining together in separate United Orders as, in this case, the Prophet Joseph and the leading brethren.

16. Behold, here is wisdom also in me for your good.

17. And you are to be equal, or in other words, you are to have equal claims on the properties, for the benefit of managing the concerns of your stewardships, every man according to his wants and his needs, inasmuch as his wants are just --

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

There is loving God with all our heart, and loving our neighbor as ourself, the only way we can live and abide the United Order.

20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

21. And the soul that sins against this covenant, and hardeneth his heart against it, shall be dealt with according to the laws of my church, and shall be delivered over to the buffetings of Satan until the day of redemption.

23. Leave judgment alone with me, for it is mine and I will repay. Peace be with you; my blessings continue with you.

24. For even yet the kingdom is yours, and shall be forever, if you fall not from your steadfastness. Even so. Amen.

Amen.

RTJ 6:542  May 29, 1988  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 29, 1988
The Godhead Are One Through the Fullness of the Holy Spirit; We Become Like God Through the Holy Spirit

We have had a wonderful feast, brothers and sisters. The Spirit of God has been here, and I want to close this meeting again on the subject of the Holy Spirit. We can see these few words that we have in Lecture Five of the Lectures on Faith, tell the whole story, and it lets us understand the Godhead. Jesus Christ:

Lecture Five

2. ...being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one;

The Holy Spirit binds Them together.

2. ...or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments

This is how we get it.
2. ...shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; Through adoption, if I may add. He is the only Heir. We are heirs by adoption.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

The saints of God. Thus, by being full of that Holy Spirit, and in unity with the Father and the Son, we become like Him. That is how we become like Him, by coming to the point where we are full of the Holy Ghost. So we are constantly faced with that matter that we have been stressing, to get and keep the Spirit of God. We cannot become one without it; all alike, enjoying that Spirit as we strive for perfection; which I pray we may do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Volume Seven

RTJ 7:1  May 25, 1988  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
RTJ 7:5  June 4, 1988  SLC
RTJ 7:9  June 5, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:11  June 12, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:13  June 19, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:19  June 26, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:20  July 3, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:30  July 10, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:32  July 17, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:35  July 24, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:38  August 7, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:44  August 14, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:44  August 21, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:51  August 28, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:55  September 4, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:60  September 11, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:65  September 25, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:68  October 2, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:70  October 9, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:74  October 16, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:77  October 23, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:79  November 6, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:82  November 11, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:84  November 20, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:86  November 27, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:86  December 4, 1988  Sandy
RTJ 7:87  December 11, 1988  CCA
RTJ 7:90  January 1, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:93  January 8, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:96  January 15, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:101  January 29, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:102  February 5, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:105  February 19, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:110  February 26, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:110  March 19, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:112  March 26, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:116  April 2, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:118  April 9, 1989  CCA  Conference
RTJ 7:121  April 16, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:124  May 7, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:127  May 10, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:130  May 14, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:130  May 21, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:130  May 28, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:131  May 31, 1989  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
RTJ 7:132  June 4, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:140  June 11, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:141  June 30, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:145  July 2, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:146  July 5, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:148  July 9, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:149  July 16, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:154  August 13, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:154  August 20, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:156  August 23, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:158  September 5, 1989  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
RTJ 7:166  September 10, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:168  September 17, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:168  October 8, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:169  October 9, 1989  Sandy  Alta Academy Opening Exercises
RTJ 7:173  October 15, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:173  October 22, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:174  October 29, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:174  November 5, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:174  November 19, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:177  November 26, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:178  December 3, 1989  Sandy
RTJ 7:179  December 6, 1989  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:180  December 24, 1989  CCA
RTJ 7:182  January 5, 1990  Affidavit
RTJ 7:184  January 7, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:188  January 14, 1990  CCA  Priesthood Meeting
RTJ 7:197  January 21, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:200  January 28, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:201  February 4, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:202  February 18, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:204  February 20, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:207  March 11, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:209  March 15, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:210  March 25, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:214  March 26, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:216  April 1, 1990  CCA  Conference
RTJ 7:222  April 29, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:223  May 2, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:224  May 6, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:227  May 13, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:227  May 20, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:230  May 24, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:232  May 27, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:232  May 29, 1990  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
RTJ 7:239  June 3, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:241  July 8, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:241  July 21, 1990  Creston, Canada
RTJ 7:243  August 7, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:246  August 19, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:247  September 2, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:251  September 3, 1990  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
RTJ 7:255  September 9, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:255  September 16, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:258  September 23, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:259  October 28, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:260  November 11, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:266  November 18, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:266  November 25, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:267  December 2, 1990  Sandy  Sunday School
RTJ 7:281  December 2, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:282  December 6, 1990  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:284  December 8, 1990  CCA
RTJ 7:286  December 13, 1990  Sandy  Birthday Program at His Home
RTJ 7:287  December 16, 1990  Sandy
RTJ 7:288  January 6, 1991  Sandy
RTJ 7:293  January 13, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:294  February 17, 1991  Sandy  Sunday School
RTJ 7:307  February 17, 1991  Sandy
RTJ 7:308  February 24, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:308  March 3, 1991  Sandy
RTJ 7:309  March 17, 1991  Sandy
RTJ 7:312  March 24, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:312  March 31, 1991  CCA  Conference
RTJ 7:313  May 12, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:314  Sunday Evening, May 26, 1991  CCA  Special Seminary Assembly
RTJ 7:316  May 29, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:318  May 30, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
RTJ 7:321  June 2, 1991  The Godhead
RTJ 7:340  July 30, 1991  Affidavit
RTJ 7:349  June 9, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:350  August 18, 1991  Sandy
RTJ 7:354  August 29, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
RTJ 7:363  September 13, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:363  October 1, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Opening Exercises
RTJ 7:367  December 6, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:368  December 15, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:370  December 21, 1991  CCA
RTJ 7:371  December 29, 1991 and January 5, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:373  January 26, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:373  February 23, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:374  March 1, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:374  March 15, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:375  March 29, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:382  April 5, 1992  CCA  Conference
RTJ 7:383  April 19, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:383  May 3, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:384  May 16, 1992  Sandy  Priesthood Meeting
RTJ 7:385  June 7, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:385  June 14, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:385  June 28, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:385  July 5, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:386  July 19, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:389  August 2, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:389  August 16, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:390  September 6, 1992  Sandy
RTJ 7:390  September 7, 1992  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
RTJ 7:395  September 13, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:395  September 27, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:395  October 25, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:397  November 15, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:397  November 21, 1992  Sandy  Priesthood Meeting
RTJ 7:398  November 23, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:399  November 29, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:400  December 4, 1992  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:403  December 13, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:403  December 27, 1992  CCA
RTJ 7:404  January 10, 1993  CCA
RTJ 7:404  January 24, 1993  CCA
RTJ 7:404 February 23, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:406 March 14, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:406 March 28, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:406 April 18, 1993 Sandy
RTJ 7:407 April 25, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:407 May 23, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:407 May 26, 1993 Sandy Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
RTJ 7:408 Saturday, June 12, 1993 7:00 A.M. Hildale
RTJ 7:411 June 13, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:411 July 25, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:411 August 13, 1993 Letter
RTJ 7:413 August 15, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:413 September 3, 1993 Letter
RTJ 7:414 September 7, 1993 Sandy Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
RTJ 7:417 September 12, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:417 September 19, 1993 Sandy
RTJ 7:418 October 24, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:419 November 7, 1993 Sandy Sunday School
RTJ 7:420 November 14, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:420 November 28, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:421 December 6, 1993 Sandy Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:423 December 26, 1993 CCA
RTJ 7:424 January 16, 1994 Sandy
RTJ 7:425 February 13, 1994 CCA
RTJ 7:425 February 20, 1994 Sandy
RTJ 7:425 February 27, 1994 CCA
RTJ 7:427 March 13, 1994 CCA
RTJ 7:427 May 29, 1994 CCA
RTJ 7:427  May 31, 1994  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional
RTJ 7:428  May 31, 1994  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
RTJ 7:429  June 26, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:430  July 12, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:431  July 17, 1994  Sandy
RTJ 7:432  July 24, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:433  August 28, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:433  September 11, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:434  September 18, 1994  Sandy  Sunday School
RTJ 7:437  September 18, 1994  Sandy
RTJ 7:438  September 30, 1994  Sandy
RTJ 7:440  October 2, 1994  Sandy  Sunday School
RTJ 7:440  October 9, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:441  October 11, 1994  Sandy  Alta Academy Opening Exercises
RTJ 7:443  October 16, 1994  Sandy  Sunday School
RTJ 7:444  October 23, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:445  November 5, 1994  Sandy  Saturday Work Project
RTJ 7:445  November 27, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:445  December 11, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:446  December 25, 1994  CCA
RTJ 7:446  January 8, 1995  Sandy
RTJ 7:446  January 22, 1995  Sandy
RTJ 7:447  January 29, 1995  CCA
RTJ 7:447  February 26, 1995  Sandy  Sunday School
RTJ 7:448  April 16, 1995  Sandy
RTJ 7:449  April 23, 1995  CCA
RTJ 7:450  May 13, 1995  CCA
RTJ 7:451  May 14, 1995  CCA
RTJ 7:482  December 7, 1947  Widtsoe  Sunday School
RTJ 7:483  July 25, 1948  SLC
RTJ 7:487  November 28, 1948  SLC
RTJ 7:488  February 26, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:491  March 27, 1949  -- 7:00 P.M.  SLC
RTJ 7:492  June 19, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:495  July 3, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:496  July 31, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:499  September 11, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:501  October 27, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:504  November 3, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:507  November 7, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:509  November 23, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:513  November 26, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:514  December 14, 1949  SLC  Salt Lake City, Utah
RTJ 7:517  December 22, 1949  SLC
RTJ 7:523  January 1, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:525  January 15, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:528  January 29, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:529  February 8, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:531  February 12, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:534  February 15, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:536  February 22, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:539  March 12, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:542  March 22, 1950  SLC
RTJ 7:544  March 26, 1950  SLC

RTJ 7:1  May 25, 1988  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation
I have been deeply moved, my dear brothers and sisters, by the program that has been carried out before us here tonight. This motto, "Never Stop Till We're Home in Zion," is very dear to my heart. And I certainly feel that in choosing that motto for this year, it has been a marvelous motive and guide to the children; and I am sure we see the results of that in their music, in their speaking, and in their words. Brother LeRoy Draper expressed what was in my heart to all of you teachers, all of you students who labored faithfully under your teachers, and you parents who have supported and sustained us in this school. I am especially grateful for the wonderful work of these teachers who have served in the labor of love. That is the motivating power, because they love the children, they love the Gospel of Jesus Christ, they love their parents and friends, and above all, the Lord their God. I nearly always speak of this poem at the beginning of school, and I think it has borne fruit this year.

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.
I am sure that is how they have labored. Now I want everyone to understand here tonight that this school had as its founder the Prophet Leroy Johnson. I considered it his school. I called it the "Johnson School" until Brother Johnson, in his great humility, said, "Please don't call it by that name. This is a school that belongs to the Lord." And I want you to understand, too, that Uncle Roy taught me by example, a perfect example of a God in human form. He is one of the Council of the Gods that were sent to this earth as God's rulers. And I want to express in these words how and why I loved him so.

RTJ Book of Quotes, Page 93
I love you not only for what you are,
But for what I am when I am with you.
I love you not only for what you have made of yourself,
But for what you are making of me.
I love you for closing your ears to the discords in me,
And for adding to the music in me by your listening.
I love you because you are helping me to make of my lumber of life
Not a tavern but a temple,
And of my every day words, not a reproach
but a song.
I love you because you have done more than any creed could have done,
Why? Because he lived that creed.
To make me good, and more than any faith could have done to make me happy.
The example.
You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sign,
You have done it just by being yourself,
God's Prophet and God's friend.
And perhaps that is what love means,
after all.
So I just wanted to express my feelings that I have entertained here tonight as I have seen this wonderful program progress. Now, I want to congratulate these students who are graduating here tonight. I always think of the occasion when I graduated. I was valedictorian of my class at the LDS High School, Latter-day Saints High School. We held the commencement exercises in the Salt Lake Tabernacle. I know my knees knocked together. But I looked over that audience and I was not -- I was only eighteen -- but I was not aware of what lay before me.

I love the story that Brother Lloyd has taught us here tonight about learning to fly. It was a beautiful example of what we are trying to do with the Priesthood of God in teaching, teaching through love and through example; and by precept, of course; by our testimonies of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, helping them now to go out on their own in the labors of life to fulfill a mission in the earth, to begin forming families under the Celestial Law, under the Kingdom of God, on their way to Celestial Glory. The Celestial Law must be abided in order to enter into the highest degree of the Celestial Kingdom and Glory. That is the Family Order of Heaven. And in bringing young people together in the bonds of holy matrimony, I like to read these thing to them:

D. & C. 131
1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

In the marriage covenant and ceremony and the words of it, the first part is the covenant, which they enter into in the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage. The last part is an endowment and the sealing. Listen to what is here, spoken of in verse 19 of Section 132.

D. & C. 132
19. And again, verily I say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word, which is my law, and by the new and everlasting covenant, and it is sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise, by him who is anointed, unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood; and it shall be said unto them -- Ye shall come forth in the first resurrection; and if it be after the first resurrection, in the next resurrection; and shall inherit thrones, kingdoms, principalities, and powers, dominions, all heights and depths --

These are spoken of in the endowment part of the marriage covenant.

19. ...then shall it be written in the Lamb's Book of Life, that he shall commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, and if ye abide in my covenant, and commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, it shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my servant hath put upon them, in time, and through all eternity; and shall be of full force when they are out of the world; and they shall pass by the angels, and the gods, which are set there, to their exaltation and glory in all things, as hath been sealed upon their heads, which glory shall be a fulness and a continuation of the seeds forever and ever.

20. Then shall they be gods, because they have no end; therefore shall they be from everlasting to everlasting, because they continue; then shall they be above all, because all things are subject unto them. Then shall they be gods, because they have all power, and the angels are subject unto them.

21. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye abide my law ye cannot attain to this glory.

So that is the business in which we are engaged under God, our Father; and Jesus Christ, our Savior; and Joseph Smith, Jun., standing in the office of the Holy Ghost, he being Their Witness and Testator. God bless us all to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen. [President Jeffs then presented the diplomas.]

RTJ 7:5  June 4, 1988  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
June 4, 1988
Funeral of Dorothy May Chatwin

I am grateful to be here and have a part in this sacred occasion, in behalf of Sister Dorothy and Brother Frank. There has been some wonderful things said here and they are true. Uncle Roy truly said, "I have never known of a woman who has suffered and been persecuted more than this girl, Dorothy."
The beatitudes described here are very applicable as to this wonderful girl. For my part, I feel to present to us here remarks of the Prophet Joseph Smith on the death of Lorenzo Barnes, because of the things that are applicable here in this case are described here. Dorothy had all prepared long since, obtaining the grave site, obtaining the grave lot in the Santaquin cemetery, to be at the side of her husband, William Edward Chatwin, Sen.

Almost all who have fallen in these last days in the Church have fallen in a strange land. This is a strange land to those who have come from a distance. We should cultivate sympathy for the afflicted among us. If there is a place on earth where men should cultivate the spirit and pour in the oil and wine in the bosoms of the afflicted, it is in this place; and this spirit is manifest here; and although a stranger and afflicted when he arrives, he finds a brother and a friend ready to administer to his necessities.

I would esteem it one of the greatest blessings, if I am to be afflicted in this world, to have my lot cast where I can find brothers and friends all around me. But this is not the thing I referred to: it is to have the privilege of having our dead buried on the land where God has appointed to gather His Saints together, and where there will be none but Saints, where they may have the privilege of laying their bodies where the Son of Man will make His appearance, and where they may hear the sound of the trump that shall call them forth to behold Him, that in the morn of the resurrection they may come forth in a body, and come up out of their graves and strike hands immediately in eternal glory and felicity, rather than be scattered thousands of miles apart. There is something good and sacred to me in this thing. The place where a man is buried is sacred to me. This subject is made mention of in the Book of Mormon and other scriptures. Even to the aborigines of this land, the burying places of their fathers are more sacred than anything else.

When I heard of the death of our beloved Brother Barnes, it would not have affected me so much, if I had the opportunity of burying him in the land of Zion.

I believe those who have buried their friends here, their condition is enviable. Look at Jacob and Joseph in Egypt, how they required their friends to bury them in the tomb of their fathers. See the expense which attended the embalming and the going up of the great company to the burial.

It has always been considered a great calamity not to obtain an honorable burial: and one of the greatest curses the ancient prophets could put on any man, was that he should go without a burial.

I have said, Father, I desire to die here among the Saints. But if this is not Thy will, and I go hence and die, wilt Thou find some kind friend to bring my body back, and gather my friends who have fallen in foreign lands, and bring them up hither, that we may all lie together.

I will tell you what I want. If tomorrow I shall be called to lie in yonder tomb, in the morning of the resurrection let me strike hands with my father, and cry, "My father," and he will say, "My son, my son," as soon as the rock rends and before we come out of our graves.

And may we contemplate these things so? Yes, if we learn how to live and how to die. When we lie down we contemplate how we may rise in the morning; and it is pleasing for friends to lie down together, locked in the arms of love, to sleep and wake in each other’s embrace and renew their conversation.

Would you think it strange if I relate what I have seen in vision in relation to this interesting theme? Those who have died in Jesus Christ may expect to enter into all that fruition of joy when they come forth, which they possessed or anticipated here.

So plain was the vision, that I actually saw men, before they had ascended from the tomb, as though they were getting up slowly. They took each other by the hand and said to each other, "My father, my son, my mother, my daughter, my brother, my sister." And when the voice calls for the dead to arise, suppose I am laid by the side of my father, what would be the first joy of my heart? To meet my father, my mother, my brother, my sister; and when they are by my side, I embrace them and they me.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.
More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates (Sister Dorothy), let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion (William Edward Chatwin) in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes (her friends) and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

God bless the memory of this good woman. She is at rest and shall rise on the morning of the first resurrection. God bless you all, amen.
President Johnson's Words Given at Alta Academy;
Be Careful How You Act Around Little Children, Because They Know What You Are Talking About

My dear brothers and sisters, I have been greatly moved by these words of Uncle Roy. I had a short sermon I was going to read of his. I think I will do it, because it was given at the Alta Academy. All of you were not there. It gives instructions regarding our children May 17, 1985.

I am grateful, my brothers and sisters, for the privilege of being here today and of hearing what I have heard. I trust that the Lord will put in my mouth the things I should say during the few moments I speak.

Possibly I will speak more to the fathers and mothers than to the children, but I want to say first that when the Savior was upon the earth, He said something like this, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of God." Reflect upon it a little bit as I have done over the years and see what it means to you. I find that a little reflection as I read the scriptures is more enlightening to me than just to read them. Try it. Reflection after we read it.

I want the fathers and mothers of these little children that have come out of the first and second grades and the other grades to gather your children around you and teach them this song: "Ere You Left Your Room This Morning, did you think to pray?" See what an impression it will make upon them.

[President Johnson hesitated, and after wiping away his tears, he said:] Excuse me for being so tenderhearted. I had a little granddaughter a few years ago. She was crawling upon the floor. I was lying in my bed suffering. I could hardly move around, but I had bought her some little toys to play with. She came over and was playing with her toys. My bedroom door happened to be ajar a little bit -- about halfway open. I said, "I wish somebody would close my door for me." That little girl looked up at me, and then she looked at the door. She left her playthings, crawled over to the door, pushed it a little, crawled a little further and pushed it closed.

I had another incident happen to me just a few days ago. I have a little grandson. His name is Leroy Joseph. Apparently his mother had been telling him about the '53 raid when the officers came and took me to prison. He could hardly understand her. Anyhow, he came over to see me. He came in the door, and he rolled up his sleeves and doubled up both fists. He said, "Grandpa, did the mean men ever put you in jail?" I said, "Yes, they put me in jail, but they let me out the next day." "Oh, all right." He pulled down his sleeves and opened his fists and said, "I'm glad they didn't keep you in jail." He is only three years old.

These little children know what you talk about. They know what you act about. So be careful how you act around them and how you allow other people to act around them because they can catch on right quick.

I'm grateful for the way this school has operated this year. I tried to get one just like it in Colorado City years ago, but I couldn't make it. The devil got the advantage of that school, and we lost it; but I think I'm getting a little the best of him now, so I will try to keep the little ball a rolling that the Lord has told me to roll until it fills the earth.

By the way, the [Colorado City] Academy buildings have been torn down, and we have a beautiful, clean landscape.

I think we will make it if I can get the cooperation of this body of young people as well as the young people of Colorado City. I have a great following down there of young men and young boys. Even though their fathers are against me, some of them are coming and wanting me to teach them, and I am teaching them. I don't know what the results will be, but just the same, when a little child comes and wants to know something, I will tell him because I know he will understand me.

I don't wish to say anymore at this time, but I ask the blessings of God to be upon this body of young boys and girls and keep them within the realms of the lines of the Priesthood.

Learn to obey your fathers and mothers and do what they say and then do what President Jeffs says. I certainly am pleased with Warren's operations this winter. I am pleased with the way he has handled things. I am pleased with all the teachers, how they have come in from all walks of life and done their little bit to help teach these little boys and girls. We won't save them all, but we will save most of them.

President Barlow told me this once when we were riding along together. He said, "Brother Johnson, this work is going to soon fall on your shoulders. You will see many eruptions like we are having just now.” That was when the United Trust broke up. The United Effort Plan was organized when the United Trust was broken up. He said, "You will have many break-ups like this, but every time it breaks up, you will have more than you had before, and finally, you will have a body of men and women that you can take up to the Prophet Joseph and say, 'Here they are.'"

So, I ask the blessings of God upon you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:11 June 12, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 12, 1988
President Leroy S. Johnson Will Be at the Redemption of Zion

It is overwhelming, these things that have been said for and about Uncle Roy. I feel exactly the same way and always have done, as has been expressed so beautifully here today. I sprang from John Y. Barlow, the Prophet, and Leroy S. Johnson, the Prophet; and I desire with all my soul to carry on what Uncle Roy has established. Indeed, he is one of the greatest Prophets that have come to the earth.

For the benefit of those who may not have been at the cemetery yesterday at the laying of the headstone of the Prophet Leroy Johnson, I will read his words May 17, 1985, at the end of a beautiful sermon telling how much our little ones know and understand, though they even be crawling upon the floor. He was innocent and as humble as a little child.

LSJ Vol.7 Page 447 May 17, 1985 Alta Academy Sandy, Utah

President Barlow told me this once when we were riding along together. He said, "Brother Johnson, this work is going to soon fall on your shoulders. You will see many eruptions like we are having just now.” That was when the United Trust broke up. The United Effort Plan was organized when the United Trust was broken up. He said, "You will have many break-ups like this, but every time it breaks up, you will have more than you had before,

How well and perfectly fulfilled we have seen it.

...and finally, you will have a body of men and women that you can take
"Here they are." I know Uncle Roy will be there on that occasion and at that time. He once said, "If I go, I will be back." He also said, "I will still have a part in the redemption of Zion." And I know he will. I want to be there under him. So I ask the blessings of God upon you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:13  June 19, 1988  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
June 19, 1988
Zion Is the Pure in Heart;
Why the Saints Were Driven from Jackson County;
The United Effort Plan Will Survive if We Will Be United

Brothers and sisters, Brother Truman spoke for me here today. I had that very thing in mind, and I asked the Lord to have him give it to you and explain it as he has very beautifully done. That Section 82 was given by the Lord to Joseph Smith in Jackson County, Missouri, April 26, 1832, showing the order given to Enoch and the Church in his day. The occasion was a general council of the Church, at which Joseph Smith the Prophet was sustained as the President of the High Priesthood, to which office he had previously been ordained at a conference of High Priests, Elders, and members, at Amherst, Ohio, January 1832.

While my very good and dear friends from Canada were sitting in my office before the meeting, I read the whole Section to them and we discussed it some. I would like to add another thing or two here. As is mentioned, this was the occasion of a group of brethren, the leading brethren entering into a bond and covenant that could not be broken by transgression, under the Holy United Order.

D.& C. 82

11. Therefore, verily I say unto you, that it is expedient for my servants Alam and Ahashdah [Newel K. Whitney], Mahalaleel and Pelagoram [Sidney Rigdon], and my servant Gazelem [Joseph Smith], and Horah and Olijah [Oliver Cowdery], and Shalemanasseh and Mahemson [Martin Harris], to be bound together by a bond and covenant that cannot be broken by transgression, except judgment shall immediately follow, in
21. And the soul that sins against this covenant, and hardeneth his heart against it, shall be dealt with according to the laws of my church, and shall be delivered over to the buffetings of Satan until the day of redemption.

There is the penalty for a covenant entered into of that nature. In Section 97, the Lord speaks to the saints commending them for their work in Zion, and He gives these words that I think amplify the words of Section 82 in the carrying out of the Holy United Order.

D.& C. 97

18. And, now, behold, if Zion do these things she shall prosper, Zion is a union of the saints, the people. It is also a place, the whole of America, revealed by the Prophet Joseph Smith.

18. And, now, behold, if Zion do these things she shall prosper, and spread herself and become very glorious, very great, and very terrible.

19. And the nations of the earth shall honor her, and shall say: Surely Zion is the city of our God, and surely Zion cannot fall, neither be moved out of her place, for God is there, and the hand of the Lord is there;

20. And he hath sworn by the power of his might to be her salvation and her high tower.

21. Therefore, verily, thus saith the Lord, let Zion rejoice, for this is Zion -- THE PURE IN HEART; therefore, let Zion rejoice, while all the wicked shall mourn.

22. For behold, and lo, vengeance cometh speedily upon the ungodly as the whirlwind; and who shall escape it?

23. The Lord's scourge shall pass over by night and by day, and the report thereof shall vex all people; yea, it shall not be stayed until the Lord come;

That is described in Section 45, and in the 24th chapter of Matthew.

24. For the indignation of the Lord is kindled against their abominations and all their wicked works.

25. Nevertheless, Zion shall escape if she observe to do all things whatsoever I have commanded her.

26. But if she observe not to do whatsoever I have commanded her, I will
That was in August of 1833. That fall, those things were visited upon the saints in Zion, and they were driven out and many died. We have all read the story, I am sure. Brother Joseph asked the Lord, "Why were they driven out?" Section 101 gives the answer.

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;
3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.
4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.
6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; Not pure in heart.
7. Therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

8. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.
9. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.
10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

11. Mine indignation is soon to be poured out without measure upon all nations; and this will I do when the cup of their iniquity is full.

And it will be as a whirlwind, beginning at the House of God, as we have it in Section 112. Speaking of dedicated homes and their families within, these set out in verse 6 are the means by which we violate the dedication. The Spirit of God is grieved and it is withdrawn, and it has need to be dedicated again. But we cannot dedicate a home time and time again after a violent quarrel in the family. By violent, I mean by words, jarrings, contentions, envyings, strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them. They must be overcome before we can have Zion. We are in the business now of preparing a people to redeem Zion. It has been constantly before us from Uncle Roy.

In the following year the Lord called upon the Prophet to get five hundred men to go back and redeem the saints who had been stricken and driven. The requirement, brothers and sisters, was they shall go without murmuring, not even a murmuring. They did not get to the Mississippi River on that journey, Zion's Camp, before Sylvester Smith and others criticized the Prophet and accused him. Wilford Woodruff gives this account of what was the result:

Wilford Woodruff, Conference Report, April 1898, Page 29

I will refer to one instance. A short time before we landed in Missouri, Joseph called the camp together. He there prophesied unto us, and told us what lay before us. He gave us the reason why chastisement was before us. He says: "You consider me a boy with the rest of you. You have not realized my position before the Lord. But there is a chastisement before this camp." He told us that this would come upon us because he had not been obeyed in his counsels. In one hour after we landed in Missouri and pitched our tents at Mr. Burkett's, one man began to fall here,

Another there -- fourteen of them.

He said afterwards: "I told you what was coming to pass, and when affliction came I stretched out my hand to stay it, and I came very near falling by it myself."
The cholera. The Lord will not be mocked. Now, what about us? I have read this before, and I think it is appropriate to read it again here, in connection with the things that have been spoken so well of here.

You hear brethren talk of coming to Zion to enjoy the blessings of this land; but do you not see that it is the shortsightedness of men which causes their disappointment when they arrive here? They gather here with the spirit of Zion resting upon them, and expecting to find Zion in its glory, whereas their own doctrine should teach them that they are coming here to make Zion.

We can make Zion, or we can make Babylon, just as we please. We can make just what we please of this place. The people can make Zion: they can make a heaven within themselves. When people gather here, they should come with a determination to make Zion within themselves, pure in heart; loving God with all their heart, might, mind, and strength, and their neighbor as themselves. Uncle Roy said so many times, "The Holy United Order is the loving of our neighbors as ourselves, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God," as Section 82 sets it out.

...with the resolution that "I will carry myself full of the Spirit of Zion wherever I go;
That is the Holy Spirit of God, if you please.
...and this is the way in which I will control evil spirits; for I mean that my spirit shall have control over evil." and do you not see that such a course will make Zion?

This American continent will be Zion; for it is so spoken of by the prophets. Jerusalem will be rebuilt and will be the place of gathering, and the tribe of Judah will gather there; but this continent of America is the land of Zion.

That is what is upon us, brothers and sisters. We have got to make a Zion ourselves where we are. The Priesthood has picked the area of Short Creek, the Arizona Strip, if you please, to prepare a people to redeem Zion.

The United Effort Plan was by the inspiration of God, put together to give us the physical framework for abiding the Holy United Order, the maintenance of property that could not be broken up by selfishness and greed. We are in that great battle now, for its continuance and survival, and I know it will survive if we will come together and not permit the devil to get any of his shafts into a united people. That is the only way we are going to win this battle that we are in.

The Order of Enoch is the Order by which we shall abide the Holy United Order, and the details will have to be revealed. But we have a beautiful description of the Order of Enoch in Section 82, which Brother Truman has read here today. The United Effort Plan gives us our land upon which we can dwell as one people.

The thing that makes Zion terrible, according to the description I read, is their perfect unity. It could not be penetrated; and that is how we are going to bind satan -- by our righteousness and becoming like God, being one with the Father, the Son, by the Holy Ghost; one people under God.

God bless us, my dear brothers and sisters, that we make this necessary preparation. First we must make our families one. Zion will be a community of families as one people. Join up. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:19 June 26, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 26, 1988
The United Order Described; The Lawsuit;
Build a Unity That Cannot Be Penetrated

We all know how Uncle Roy described the Holy United Order in a few words: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, might, mind, and strength, and love your neighbors as yourself." There is the touchstone -- every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, loving him, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God. May we prepare for this great work in which we are engaged in bringing about the purposes of God in His own due time and way; and may we look forward, through the principle of unity, to redeem Zion, the work in which Uncle Roy was so greatly engaged, anxiously engaged, seeking to do the will of God along with his people. May we do this and prepare for the great day; and especially now, prepare for the judgments which are about to be poured out without measure, beginning at the House of God. They are now coming upon us.
I want to express my gratitude for the labors and work of Brother Sam Barlow in doing the great work that was done in preparing and bringing about the defense of the Holy Celestial Law, the Family Order of Heaven in this lawsuit. He is a fine example of it in practice. He did much, most of it, in educating our lawyers, Mr. Ditsch and Mr. Cavness, in the handling of this case; and I pray the Lord to bless him to continue in the same kind of work as we now proceed in the lawsuit involving the United Effort Plan. He is doing the same thing for our lawyers in that firm, educating them on our way of life and the things that we stand for, and they are anxiously carrying on their work with great interest and a desire to genuinely help us in winning this case. I say, praise be to God for this recent decision, and for His continued blessings as we continue against the work of the adversary which has been launched against this United Effort Plan, which was inspired and formed by the inspiration of God through His Prophet John Y. Barlow and those who worked with him.

May we now, brothers and sisters, build up a unity that cannot be penetrated. The enemy is in disarray. Heber C. Kimball stated, "This principle of Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order will sail triumphant over all opposition, until Zion has been built and we go on into the Millennium." God bless us all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:20  July 3, 1988  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
July 3, 1988
Decision on the ALEOAC Case of Samuel S. Barlow;
Enoch and His City

There has been such a beautiful Spirit of peace and love in this meeting, which I pray will continue as I say a few words to you and read to you some very beautiful things. And I deeply appreciate the testimonies that have been borne. I will first read the decree of the court of honorable J. D. Howe, June 22, 1988, to Phoenix, Maricopa County, Arizona.

Samuel S. Barlow vs. John A. Blackburn and others.
Blackburn is the chairman of the governing board that passes on the certification of police officers in Arizona, before whom Sam Barlow's case was taken by a group of about twenty-one in our community, who swore out affidavits against him as to his conduct in the carrying out of his duties as a police officer in our community, by our opposition. In the conduct of that case, Brother Sam did a marvelous work and a wonder in helping our attorneys prepare the case and in carrying it out.

I called on him last Sunday, in our meeting there, to read this decree and comment upon it and speak regarding the principles involved. Charles A. Ditch and Mark C. Cavness, attorneys for Samuel Barlow; Attorney General of the State of Arizona, William S. Jameson, Jr., for the State of Arizona.

This matter having been under advisement on the amended petition for special action. Relief is granted. Adhering council argue. Petitioner offers 18 exhibits to which the respondent's object on grounds of relevance and hearsay. Both objections are overruled. The exhibits are admitted in evidence.

Note how short and to the point to cover the ground that he covers.

The court noted that respondents'

The respondent is the Attorney General for John A. Blackburn and others. The petitioner is Samuel Barlow as you hear these.

*The court noted that respondents' literal charge against petitioner is his alleged verbal conduct of:

TO WIT: Openly admitted the practice of polygamy,

After all of the petitions were dismissed in his case, the State of Utah urged upon the governing board of Arizona to include a charge of breaking a law; and by that term, meaning that he was immoral and not fit to act as a peace officer, when Sam applied for recertification. They urged it upon Arizona, and that was the last and only remaining charge to be considered. And it was taken out of the hands of ALEOAC, the governing board, by our attorneys and brought before the superior court of Arizona, which is the same as the district courts in Utah.

*Council stipulated that the court should consider the broader issue of whether respondents may inquire into or threaten to revoke petitioner's peace officer certification on account of his alleged practice of polygamy,

And so forth.

Petitioner argues that the State has failed to show a compelling State interest sufficient to override his First Amendment religious rights.
Compelling state interest had concerns for sustaining monogamy as the standard, which, as this brings out, was overcome.

The court agrees the Arizona Constitution guarantees religious freedom; it also prohibits polygamous marriages and cohabitation; That was required of the State of Arizona and of Utah by Congress before they could be admitted to the Union in 1896.

...both may be given effect, but not in this case, where the one collides with the other. The court holds, in essence, that the Constitutional proscription of polygamy may be applied except where it would interfere with genuine religious practices,

There is the key to it all.

...and where, as here, the state has demonstrated no compelling interest upon which to justify the interference. Further, in the absence of an implementing statute, it is doubtful that respondents are granted, by mere implication or fortuity, power to enforce the anti-polygamy provision of the Constitution.

Masterful handling.

And, as Professor Davis noted 15 years ago, times have changed. Quoting from Davis, "Plural Marriage", an article in Arizona Law Review.

Perhaps there was a National Morality to which the courts of last century could cling, but petitioner's exhibits demonstrate poignantly that today -- with state acquiescence -- it is no more.

The George Reynolds decision of 1879, when there was a deliberate case taken up to the Supreme Court of the United States, decided the issue not on the language of the Constitution of the United States, which says, "Congress shall make no law respecting the establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." The object of that case was the Cullom Bill passed by Congress, against the Constitution of the United States, prohibiting polygamy in the territories of the United States. And the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the Cullom Bill, but they ignored the wording of the Constitution and went to the mores, or moralities of the day, saying simply that polygamy was an abomination under the morality of the day. And as far as it being a religious belief is concerned, the court said: "Yes, you can believe anything you want, but when it comes to the practice of it, if it collides with the mores of the day, we must give way to it;" and compared polygamy, practiced by the Latter-day Saints, to that of a cult, or religion which believed in human sacrifice, which they would not stand for. The one destroys life, the other brings life.

The Arizona legislature's sole effort to implement the Constitutional prohibition of polygamy went down to defeat 33 years ago.

Arizona never implemented its Constitutional provision with a law, as Utah did.

There is no evidence that the government's stated policies relating to laws that presume monogamy are in any way threatened in this case.

They tried to pass a law twenty-three years ago against it, but it went down to defeat in both parts of the legislature. That is the end of that description; and here is the judgment:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

Granting petitioner's prayed relief.

1. The respondents are enjoined from, and shall not proceed to consider the revocation, refusal or suspension of the certified peace officer status of petitioner Samuel S. Barlow on account of his practice of polygamy.

2. Respondents are directed to dismiss the proceedings pending against petitioner Samuel S. Barlow.

So that ended the case.

3. Petitioner is awarded his attorneys' fees... That is court costs. That is Sam Barlow.

4. The court will consider any documentation in support of, and authority relating to, an award of attorney's fees.

Which we have paid. The loser in this action was the state, and if the judge so orders, they will have to pay us our costs and attorneys' fees.

Petitioner's council is requested to lodge an order form. Filed, work sheet.

Well, I will leave it to Brother Sam when he is here in a couple of weeks, to go over this with you again and explain to you what a signal and landmark decision this is. Uncle Roy is doing his work for us over there, which he could not do from his sickbed here.

Now, as to our great work under Uncle Roy of getting five hundred men to redeem Zion, I thought it would be a beautiful thing for us to hear a description of Enoch and his city. This appeared in the Seventies Journal back in the 1800's, under the presidency over the Seventies Quorum -- First Council of Seventy and the First Quorum of Seventy -- Joseph Young, brother of Brigham Young. In this he recalls the teachings and information given by the Prophet Joseph Smith regarding Enoch and his city, and makes some very interesting comments on it. I will ask Brother Truman to read this for you, and apply to that Section 82, which gives us the Order of Enoch revealed by the Lord God of Israel. Do you want to take the time to hear it?

Enoch and His City
From the "Seventies Journal" by Joseph Young

Enoch, the seventh from Adam, stands among the greatest spirits of antiquity, and foremost among those whom the Lord declared should be his rulers. One of the mightiest for the work he was destined to perform. Predisposed from his infancy to accept of everything that was revealed from God; and it being instinctively incorporated in his very nature to be eligible to every divine manifestation, he finally grew to be a God in humanity, and he received this testimony from his heavenly Father that he pleased Him.

We read, from modern revelations given through Joseph Smith the Prophet, that Enoch was born in the 622d year of the world; was 25 years old when ordained under the hands of Adam, and was blessed (by God) at the age of 65. He walked with him 365 years, making him 430 years old when he and his city were translated. He obtained such favor with the Lord, that at his voice the mountains shook from their foundations, the rivers were turned out of their courses, and the lands came up out of the depths of the sea, upon which his enemies took refuge through fear.

The City of Enoch implies a problem, which is difficult of solution. It stands alone, without precedent or succession to the present period. The author is not advised that there is any published history, or any manuscript brought forth, which has survived the antediluvian dispensation, leaving any details of such extraordinary events as the gathering together of a righteous people called Zion, and of the building of so large and beautiful a city. Indeed, such an one as the Lord called "His abode for ever." The knowledge of such events must therefore have been the productions of inspired men.

From these revelations it may be inferred that the disciples of Enoch were gathered together. At his suggestion they built a city, on the site which he had selected. He had seen the heavens opened; had gazed upon cities that were celestial; had been familiar with the gorgeousness of the heavenly mansions, and the splendor of their architecture. Acquiring thereby a superior intelligence and that spirit of refinement and taste, which enabled him to instruct his brethren to build after the pattern of the heavenly.

The gathering of the people and the building of the city increased and continued for a great length of time, until it was consummated. The form, the order and the architecture of the buildings of the City of Enoch, presented to the eye a glory and splendor surpassing our sublimest conceptions of art. The gardens, orchards and vineyards; the lawns, shades and floral fields, partaking of the best selections of fruits, flowers and evergreens that could be collected, from far and near. Such had been the perfection attained by the favored persons who had listened to the voice and preaching of Enoch, and who comprised the inhabitants of his city.

Since the period of the first acquaintance of the author with Joseph Smith, the Prophet, he occasionally referred particularly to this subject, which transpired in the author's hearing. Once in Kirtland, and once in Nauvoo. At the former place, in a meeting held in the year 1832, on the occasion of Elder Brigham Young speaking in tongues, the Prophet being present; it was the first time that the exercise of this gift had come under his notice. The congregation was at the time in a kneeling posture. As soon as Bro. Brigham had concluded his prayer, the Prophet rose to his feet and invited them to rise and be seated. Joseph then addressed them, and said: "Brethren, this tongue that we have heard is the gift of God, for He has made it known unto me, and I shall never oppose anything that comes from Him. I feel the spirit that Bro. Brigham has manifested in this gift of tongues, and I wish to speak myself in the tongue that it will please the Lord to give me." He accordingly spoke in what may be called an open and fluent language; more so than was commonly heard. He occupied some minutes in the exercise of the gift. After he had concluded he said, "Brethren, this is the language of our father Adam while he dwelt in Eden; and the time will again come, that when the Lord brings again Zion, the Zion of Enoch, this people will then all speak the language which I have just spoken."

Ten years subsequently, at Nauvoo, while naming historical incidents of antiquity, he alluded to the Church, or Zion of Enoch, and discoursed some time upon the nature of its organization, order and progress. He spoke with a view of correcting the teachings of some of the elders who had maintained the doctrine that the people of that church had passed through the ordeals necessary to consummate the work of complete immortality, and that they would be prepared to enter into the presence of the Father and the Son. This idea the Prophet took up, and revealed it in a different light -- in what may be styled a divine philosophy. He declared of the Church of Enoch "that they did not die; that they had not then gone through their last changes and greatest refinement; and that they had, nevertheless, triumphed over death. That the people, and the city, and the foundations of the earth on which it stood, had partaken of so much of the immortal elements, bestowed upon them by God through the teachings of Enoch, that it became philosophically impossible for them to remain any longer upon the earth; consequently, Enoch and his people, with the city which they occupied, and the foundations on which it stood, with a large piece of earth immediately connected with the foundations and the city, had assumed an aerial position within the limits of our solar system; and this in consequence of their faith."

He further said, "that inasmuch as they did not pass through all the refinement which was necessary, as the Lord lives, they would return to the earth, when they and the city would pass through the same fiery ordeals that yet await the earth; when it shall be transformed into a sea of glass, mingled with fire, and their preparations for a celestial abode of the glorified Saints shall be perfected." (Footnote: Joseph said, on another occasion, in the hearing of some of the Saints still surviving, that the City of Enoch would again take its place in the identical spot from which it had been detached, now forming that chasm of the earth, filled with water, called the Gulf of Mexico.)

The reader will naturally ask, What are the keys of the commencement of this city of Zion? The Scriptures say, in Paul's address to the Saints, "Know ye not that your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost?" and modern revelation says, "This is Zion -- THE PURE IN HEART." Who can doubt, then, that Zion is within us; a temple adorned with all the attributes of our Father in heaven. In that view of it, the recipient thereof beholds within himself the work of his Father, and hears the voice of His Spirit; obeys all of His commandments, spiritual and temporal, without the least hesitation or mental reservation. When this spirit is fully established in the hearts of all the Saints, then there will be no idol in the way of their progress. One word, or command, is just as easy for them to hearken to and obey as another; and they realize the saying, "God is love; he that dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him." Then they have a Zion first within their hearts; a germ of an abiding inheritance upon the new earth.

The Saints are looking for a modern Zion which shall be after the identical order of the ancient one; and for a time when the Apostles, with their President at their head, will rise up and thunder so loud, that if they do not shake the mountains from their foundations, they will have the effect of shaking pride and covetousness out of the hearts of the Saints, who will be filled with righteousness -- Their only motive, the building up of Zion; making their faith and their works, their means and substance to bow to that end, and that only; and so continuing their labors in this good work, answering to the Zion within them, and erecting and adorning temples and mansions; building cities, and spreading abroad, until they shall become a model of the Zion of old, built by Enoch.

Whether these designs of the Saints will be consummated in a very short period of time, or at a "set time" still more remote, it will and must be the fruits of their faith in the Lord God, or they will not be acknowledged as His people, according to the revelations which He has given concerning Zion. Taking this view of the subject, the Seventies and the Elders of Israel will be endowed with the power of their calling, in preaching the Gospel and gathering the people from the uttermost parts of the earth. Their words will be as the words of God to the people, in strengthening their hands and cheering their hearts to persevere, until Zion is built up and perfected on the earth, and the Lord shall appear in his glory and acknowledge it His abode, as He did the Zion of old.

[President Jeffs then continued:] In the meantime, what are we doing towards the end -- and to honor Uncle Roy's whole life -- to get a people prepared to redeem Zion? And as I have read to us before, Brigham Young shows how we must, where we are, have Zion in our hearts, each individual.
Then we will be truly one. God help us and bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:30  July 10, 1988  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 10, 1988
Dream of Brigham Young; Get and Keep the Spirit of God

I pray the Lord will direct my few remarks with His Spirit, that it may be carried over to us. I feel to close this meeting with an account of a dream had by Brigham Young.

Truth 10:221

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? So I feel about Uncle Roy. You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:

"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:

"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the Priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:
"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

May we all have it, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:32 July 17, 1988 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
July 17, 1988
Needs Five Hundred Men With United Families;
I pray God will put words in my mouth to say what He wishes to be said here today. Some emphasis has been made here, brothers and sisters; and I want to say before that, as Brother Louis brought out, messages I have had in my heart to give here today have already been expressed to some degree. But I desire to add a few more remarks that I hope will enable us to accomplish this great work. Five hundred men. As was mentioned, that means five hundred families: father, mothers, and children. Everyone of those five hundred men must have a united family, or they can't go. There cannot be jarrings, strifes, contentions, envyings, and lustful and covetous desires in our families, and as a community in Zion. The Lord gave as a reason for them having to be driven out was for having that condition among them. We are not going to please God until we have united families, brethren. Your families.

I have pointed this out before, but I want to paint a little stronger picture before us. In the revelation given to the Prophet Joseph Smith in which he called for five hundred men, and which became the Camp of Zion, they were only able to bring together two hundred, I think two hundred and five. Before they were called, the Lord said this to the Prophet Joseph. Now this occurred before Zion's Camp was gathered together and went over to Missouri to redeem the saints there. He must have known ahead of time that they were not going to do it. But this paints to us, brothers and sisters, how and what condition is going to have to be among that five hundred, how Zion is to be redeemed. He gave the warning:

D.& C. 103

12. For after much tribulation, as I have said unto you in a former commandment, cometh the blessing.

13. Behold, this is the blessing which I have promised after your tribulations, and the tribulations of your brethren -- your redemption, and the redemption of your brethren, even their restoration to the land of Zion, to be established, no more to be thrown down.

14. Nevertheless, if they pollute their inheritances they shall be thrown down; for I will not spare them if they pollute their inheritances.

Now He tells them how Zion must finally be redeemed:

15. Behold, I say unto you, the redemption of Zion must needs come by
The power of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the power of God Himself, who is Jesus Christ.

16. Therefore, I will raise up unto my people a man, who shall lead them like as Moses led the children of Israel.

17. For ye are the children of Israel, and of the seed of Abraham, and ye must needs be led out of bondage by power, and with a stretched-out arm.

18. And as your fathers were led at the first, even so shall the redemption of Zion be.

19. Therefore, let not your hearts faint, for I say not unto you as I said unto your fathers: Mine angel shall go up before you, but not my presence.

20. But I say unto you: Mine angels shall go up before you, and also my presence, and in time ye shall possess the goodly land.

In time. That effort was made in 1834, in the spring, which failed because jarrings and strifes showed their heads among the brethren who were following the Prophet. Given this picture, brothers and sisters, can we not see that we must be pure and holy, pure in heart? That is Zion. We must have the Holy Spirit of God upon us. That is the power through faith, by which all things are done. We cannot stand in the presence of Jesus Christ without the Spirit of God. That is what it shows here. He is going to go before. "Also My presence," He said. We cannot stand in the presence of Jesus Christ unless we are clean and holy, full of the Holy Ghost. I mean full of it. We must, in short, be like Him to stand in His presence. That means our families must have the same condition. So it is no small thing we talk about, wanting to be among those, brothers and sisters. We must be like God.

I would like to repeat what I said in the final remarks last night. To be like God we must have His attributes. The attributes of God are first, knowledge, which is power; faith, which is power; justice, which is power; judgment, which is power; mercy and love, which is power -- God is love -- and truth, which is power. These make God what He is. And again:

Moroni 7

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.
48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, We work by faith through the exertion of the mind and the heart.
48. ...that ye may be filled with this love, Filled with it. This is the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost.
48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

Which I pray we may be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:35 July 24, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 24, 1988
Faith; Charity; President Johnson Is Still Laboring for This People

Dear brothers and sisters, we have had some wonderful things brought before us here today. I desire the Holy Spirit of God to direct my remarks, in continuation of the spirit that is here. On the subject of faith, here is a summary of the Lectures on Faith that the Prophet Joseph Smith delivered to the School of the Prophets in 1833:

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts Page 145-146
The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

I speak of the central theme here: Is our course in life pleasing to God?
Coming to know that, by the revelation of the Spirit of God to us, will render faith perfect and enable us to accomplish the object of our sojourn here upon the earth. I would just like to read an instance of the results that we have from this grand principle.

Isaiah 38 (Inspired Version)

1. In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.
2. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the Lord,
3. And said, Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.
4. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying,
5. Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears; behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.
6. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city.
7. And this Shall be a sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken;
8. Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.
9. The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness;
10. I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave; I am deprived of the residue of my years.
11. I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord, in the land of the living; I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.
12. Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent; I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sickness; from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.
13. I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones; from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.
15. What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath healed me. I shall go softly all my years, that I may not walk in the bitterness of my soul.

16. O Lord, thou who art the life of my spirit, in whom I live; so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live; and in all these things I will praise thee.

Now, brothers and sisters, the key is to know, as did Abel, as did Enoch, as did Noah, and as did Moses; they had this testimony that they pleased God. So let us go on to perfection, dear brothers and sisters. And again, Moroni 7:

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,
All the energy of heart, knowing that our course is pleasing to God.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

In the great work which Uncle Roy and his predecessors, beginning with Joseph Smith, Jun., their great labor was to bring again Zion. Uncle Roy is continuing his labors now. He is on his feet as he said he would be, and he is laboring more than we know on the other side for us, in bringing about the object of his great and pure life, the redemption of Zion, and of this people. May we follow in that course, in coming to know that our course in life is pleasing to God, and thus have power with God to accomplish all that He requires of us in this great latter-day work, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:38  August 7, 1988  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
August 7, 1988
One Man Doctrine; Must Be Clean Every Whit to Survive the Judgments of God

Before I continue, brothers and sisters, I want to call on a sermon of President Leroy Johnson, February 12, 1984, at Colorado City. Brother Truman read this in our meeting last time I was down there. This was given six days before the event on February 18, 1984. President Johnson handled J. Marion Hammon and Alma A. Timpson; and [this sermon] leads into some thinking that I would like to bring before you here today.

LSJ Vol.7  Page 351  February 12, 1984  CCA

My dear brothers and sisters, I stand before you today in great humility, having been humbled by my Father in heaven to suffer some six years this coming April since I was struck down with the shingles. I don't want to say anything that will displease my Father in heaven, so I am asking Him to put into my mouth the words that He would like me to say because I only want to do that which is necessary for me to do to bring about the purposes of God in the earth.

I have been called into this position by the revelations of God by a man who held this position before me, and he was a prophet of God. So, I feel, my brothers and sisters, that I have a right to speak.

I was struck down in the early part of 1979. I had been called upon by some of my brethren to have the word of God changed in our Doctrine & Covenants, and this, I objected to.
Referring to the phrase in verse 7 of Section 132: "And there is never but one man on the earth at a time upon whom this power," the sealing power, "and the keys of the holy Priesthood are conferred;" changing that to the wording of the 1880 Revelation to Wilford Woodruff, who had no right to receive such a revelation.

Shortly after that, I was branded as a fallen prophet. I want to say a few words to these men who sit here on the stand today. (He turned to face J. Marion Hammon and Alma A. Timpson.) The Lord gave you men five and a half years to change your thinking on this principle of having one man holding the sealing powers in the earth at a time, and you have made a miserable mess of it by coming here and preaching over this pulpit that I was about to die because of my attitude towards this principle. (Turning again to the audience).

Now then, if the Lord doesn't want me to speak, I want Him to take me out of this pulpit. If He wants me to speak, I want to speak freely, and I don't want to be high-minded or raise my voice so high that I can't talk, but I want to talk plainly to this body of people.

I know there are people here today who don't believe in me. They feel like I have forfeited all my privileges to the Melchizedek Priesthood, but as long as the Lord will allow me to speak, I will tell you that I am not afraid to speak. There is only one man at a time, and that is the way it has been throughout all the history of God's dealings with people, both in this world and the world before this one, and the world before that one. Only one man at a time holds the keys and power of the sealing power, and those who act during his administration are only acting under a delegated authority.

That he advised the Priesthood Council before this time. He was here speaking:

That is what I told these men. I am coming back now. I am going to take my place, my position at the pulpit as long as God will allow me to, and I am not afraid to speak for Him. I'll tell you why -- simply because it is only a short time until He is going to come and visit this earth with great judgments. They have already started. He said, "In My house shall it begin." I'll tell you, it began with this council -- six years ago this coming April. This Priesthood Council was broken up. Since then, we have suffered the death, first of Brother Richard Seth Jessop, and then Brother Guy H. Musser. So there are only four of us left. For about three and a half years, neither I nor Brother Rulon Jeffs were allowed to speak to the people. Why? Because I was stricken down and I couldn't speak, but I am speaking today. They would not allow Brother Jeffs to speak because he sustained me.

I want to tell you, the Lord did a great thing. His judgments started in His own house; they started with the Priesthood, and He cleaned us up. From now on, there will be nobody in the Priesthood Council only those who sustain the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith. There is only one man at a time that holds the keys of the sealing power while he lives.

It is hard for me to speak because of my heart condition, but I will talk as long as the Lord will let me. The work of God must go on! Great judgments are coming upon this great Church of ours. When Wilford Woodruff signed the Manifesto, he didn't only sign away his rights to the Celestial Law,

Of marriage, may I add.

...but he also signed away his right to the Holy Priesthood. Now what kind of priesthood has the Church been operating under for ninety years? -- yea, ninety-four years? Is the "Coming Crisis and How to Meet It" being fulfilled right under our eyes and there is nobody here to defend the Gospel of Jesus Christ?

We will see the judgments of God poured out more and more from this time forth until this part of the earth is empty of its inhabitants -- those who are not able to say, "I am clean every whit," and have the Lord call us up. So we are working under a great handicap, my dear brothers and sisters. If this people that I am speaking to today don't hasten to lay away their sins and their wrong-doings and come clean before the Lord, they are going to find the Lord is not pleased with them, and they will have to go down with the wicked.

Now, I pray that God's blessings will be upon us, because He has granted us a few days more to clean up our lives and get down on our knees and pray night and day for deliverance as He has said. This is the time we will have to begin that practice. God bless you, amen.

Going further with what he commenced to talk about here, I want to call our attention to what the Lord told the Prophet Joseph Smith. Section 112, starting at verse 23:

D.& C. 112

23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.

Some of these figures given to you here by Brother Truman bear it out. If it was so then, it is much worse now, and the cup is full, the cup of iniquity.

24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

The Prophet Joseph Smith very early, 1833, wrote a letter to Editor Seaton, editor of a publication, a newspaper. They were then in the midst of gathering to Zion in Jackson County, Missouri. This was January 1833.

TPJS  Page 17

The Book of Mormon is a record of the forefathers of our western tribes of Indians; having been found through the ministration of an holy angel, and translated into our own language by the gift and power of God, after having been hid up in the earth for the last fourteen hundred years, containing the word of God which was delivered unto them. By it we learn that our western tribes of Indians are descendants from that Joseph who was sold into Egypt, and that the land of America is a promised land unto them, and unto it all the tribes of Israel will come, with as many of the Gentiles as shall comply with the requisitions of the new covenant. But the tribe of Judah will return to old Jerusalem. The city of Zion spoken of by David, in the one hundred and second Psalm, will be built upon the land of America, "And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads." (Isaiah xxxv:10); and then they will be delivered from the overflowing scourge that shall pass through the land.
That is on its way.

But Judah shall obtain deliverance at Jerusalem. See Joel ii:32; Isaiah xxvi:20 and 21; Jeremiah xxxi:12; Psalms 1:5; Ezekiel xxxiv:11, 12 and 13. These are testimonies that the Good Shepherd will put forth His own sheep, and lead them out from all nations where they have been scattered in a cloudy and dark day, to Zion, and to Jerusalem; besides many more testimonies which might be brought.

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; The Civil War was only a foretaste.

...pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land,
The words of Uncle Roy in that sermon.

...to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

Therefore, they will not come until that destruction shall take place, the wicked swept off from the face of the land.

The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri;

We are now gathering in Short Creek, preparing to live the Holy United Order. The judgments will hit there as well as here. Brother Johnson said they are going to hit hardest and first in the areas where the greatest population of the Mormon Church are gathered.

...therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come."

"The Coming Crisis" is being fulfilled before our eyes.

Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

And these are the words I wish to repeat, from your unworthy servant, Rulon Jeffs, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:44 August 14, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 14, 1988
"If You Are Not For Me, You Are Against Me"

All I feel like saying at this point is, "Hallelujah." God is with us. These brethren have said all I wanted said here today. And to follow up the final remarks of Brother Fred, I say to those who are halfhearted: "If you are not for me, you are against me." God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:44 August 21, 1988 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
August 21, 1988
Affidavit and Events Relating to the Fischer Adoption Court Case

The Spirit of God has indeed been with us today, as He has been many times before; and I desire a continuation of that power and Spirit, as I lay before you a few things.

In his wonderful sermon given to us a month ago, Brother Sam spoke of an affidavit which was filed in the action against him by the State of Arizona regarding his certification as a peace officer, which resulted in the trial before Judge Howe, who has ruled in his favor. It brings out something we haven't been having much to say about, but now it comes out. I felt like I ought to read this affidavit to you, that you may know what is behind these things.

STATE OF UTAH, COUNTY OF SALT LAKE
RULON T. JEFFS states under oath:

1. I reside at 3601 Little Cottonwood Road, Sandy, Utah 84092.
2. I am the spiritual leader of a continuing religious congregation which is known as the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
3. As spiritual leader of this religious community I am the immediate successor of the prophet Leroy S. Johnson in the priesthood established by Joseph Smith through revelation of the Lord. The priesthood so established has been continued under the leadership of the following successors of Joseph Smith: Brigham Young, John Taylor, John W. Woolley, Lorin C. Woolley, John Y. Barlow, Leroy S. Johnson, and myself, Rulon T. Jeffs.

4. The Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints believes on faith and subscribes to the principles which were revealed by the Lord to Joseph Smith and his successors, including those published in Doctrine and Covenants Section 132, which provides in part, and in substance that:
   a. Members of the priesthood which consists of all of the righteous males who accept our beliefs and who are admitted to membership are commanded for the purpose of procreation and to carry out the will of the Lord to marry and with the consent of his wife(s) to take additional wives who are not married to others;
   b. That all such marriages entered into as an everlasting covenant sealed by the Holy Spirit and his representative on earth are celestial and eternal, and shall last for eternity beyond the time of this earth; and
   c. That the glory of heaven cannot be attained except by observance of this law. All those to whom this law has been revealed must obey it, and those who do not abide by it shall be damned; and no one who rejects this law shall be permitted to enter into the Lord's glory.

5. These principles have been consistently held and adhered to by the religious community of which I am spiritual leader since they were revealed through the prophet Joseph Smith and through the present time. These truths revealed through Joseph Smith are accepted on faith, and are not debatable.

6. Samuel S. Barlow of Colorado City, Arizona was reared in and is a member of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and as a member of its priesthood conducts his life in accordance with its beliefs.

(Signed) RULON T. JEFFS

Subscribed and sworn to before me September 15, 1987.  A.L. Barlow
(Notary Public)

Brother Sam, who has had a working relationship with the security officer of the Church -- the security officer works with the First Presidency, protects him and other leaders of the Church, I suppose -- but he took occasion to mention to this security officer to tell him the name of this organization of which he is a member. The man said, "Well, you can do that, I am sure. The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints tacked on a name."

But we are getting back to the beginning, brothers and sisters. This is the original Priesthood and Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. That Corporate Church, with six million members or more, left the Priesthood in 1890. We did not leave the Church. They ostracized us and excommunicated some of us, but this work has been carried on. I want to read you an article in this morning's Deseret News, Sunday, August 21.

Deseret News  August 21, 1988

Fifth District Judge, J. Philips Eves has granted a motion allowing attorneys to take depositions from the leader of a polygamous sect in connection with a contested adoption case. Eves granted permission for attorney Tim Anderson to depose Rulon Jeffs, head of a group that maintains twin communities straddling the Utah-Arizona state line. Anderson is representing Oregon relatives of six children who a Hildale, Washington County, polygamous couple are attempting to adopt.

The children, ranging in age from four to eighteen, are currently in the custody of Vaughn and Charane Fischer. But relatives are opposing the Fischers' attempt to permanently adopt the minor children. They are the children of Brenda Johanson Thornton, formerly of Salem, Oregon, who died of cancer nearly a year ago, shortly after she became the plural wife of Fischer. Her family is seeking custody of the children.

Jeffs, according to public records, is head of the "Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints". The LDS Church, which is officially called The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, banned its members from practicing polygamy in 1890. Anderson said he wants to obtain testimony from Jeffs because "that is a closely knit religious cult" and the leader,
Quoting Anderson,
"could have information that could lead to evidence that would be relevant in this case." Legal proceedings in the contested adoption has been scheduled for Dec. 5.

That interesting, Sam? You can see what Tim Anderson is trying to do. One thing that he has started; he is demanding that Vaughn go down a list of one hundred sixty names of men, heads of families, in Colorado City and Hildale, asking him to admit that "so and so is living in plural marriage," one hundred and sixty of them. One of them is mentioned three times, and there are two complete alphabetical lists. Did you notice that, Sam?

Our attorneys are preparing for a filing of the protective order to avoid having to do that. This man, Tim Anderson, demanded of the county attorney of Washington County that he prosecute Vaughn Fischer for unlawful cohabitation, something which has not been done for thirty-five years. The county attorney refused to do so. What do you suppose he is trying to do to get all this information, and get me before him to pick my brain of the congregation over which I preside in their private affairs, invading their privacy? The Lord has allowed the judge to allow for this deposition, but I know the Lord God of Israel will be with me. My attorney is going to see that he cannot ask and have answered questions not relevant to the adoption of those children, and treat any revelation of the private lives of the individuals of that community as privileged information, as between minister and his congregation, and thus avoid having to answer questions like he has asked Brother Vaughn to do. The man has a vendetta, therefore, against the Family Order of Heaven, which he calls "immoral", trying to say that these children should not be raised in that community where they are law-breaking and immoral in breaking the laws. It is far worse to raise children in Salt Lake City.

Well, pray for this, that this work will prevail, and these efforts we are being assailed with now will come to naught; and those who lift a hand against the Lord's anointed, lift the heel, will, as the revelation says -- and this goes for those who are fighting this Priesthood, and another law of the holy Priesthood, the Holy United Order, the United Effort Plan. Joseph cried unto the Lord:

D. & C. 121
5. Let thine anger be kindled against our enemies; and, in the fury of thine heart, with thy sword avenge us of our wrongs.
6. Remember thy suffering saints, O our God; and thy servants will rejoice in thy name forever.

7. My son,
Says the Lord,
7. ...peace be unto thy soul; thine adversity and thine afflictions shall be but a small moment;

8. And then, if thou endure it well, God shall exalt thee on high; thou shalt triumph over all thy foes.
9. Thy friends do stand by thee, and they shall hail thee again with warm hearts and friendly hands.

10. Thou art not yet as Job;
Certainly, I am not; nothing like Joseph.
10. ...thy friends do not contend against thee, neither charge thee with transgression, as they did Job.

11. And they who do charge thee with transgression, their hope shall be blasted, and their prospects shall melt away as the hoar frost melteth before the burning rays of the rising sun;
12. And also that God hath set his hand and seal to change the times and seasons, and to blind their minds, that they may not understand his marvelous workings; that he may prove them also and take them in their own crafiness;

13. Also because their hearts are corrupted, and the things which they are willing to bring upon others, and love to have others suffer, may come upon themselves to the very uttermost;
14. That they may be disappointed also, and their hopes may be cut off;
15. And not many years hence, that they and their posterity shall be swept from under heaven, saith God, that not one of them is left to stand by the wall.
16. Cursed are all those that shall lift up the heel against mine anointed, saith the Lord, and cry they have sinned when they have not sinned before me, saith the Lord, but have done that which was meet in mine eyes, and which I commanded them.
17. But those who cry transgression do it because they are the servants of sin, and are the children of disobedience themselves. That is how it always is. Oliver Cowdery, charging Joseph Smith with adultery, and was guilty of it himself.

18. And those who swear falsely against my servants, Which they are doing in these lawsuits.

18. ...that they might bring them into bondage and death --

19. Wo unto them; because they have offended my little ones they shall be severed from the ordinances of mine house.

20. Their basket shall not be full, their houses and their barns shall perish, and they themselves shall be despised by those that flattered them.

21. They shall not have right to the priesthood, nor their posterity after them from generation to generation.

22. It had been better for them that a millstone had been hanged about their necks, and they drowned in the depth of the sea.

23. Wo unto all those that discomfort my people, and drive, and murder, and testify against them, saith the Lord of Hosts; a generation of vipers shall not escape the damnation of hell.

24. Behold, mine eyes see and know all their works, and I have in reserve a swift judgment in the season thereof, for them all;

25. For there is a time appointed for every man, according as his works shall be.

I call upon you, my dear brothers and sisters, to remember, to remember me with prayers, faith in your prayers, that this work shall prevail and this Priesthood carry on in the assigned duties that God has given us to perform, and bring on the redemption of Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I appreciate that hardy "Amen". We had to scold the congregation in Short Creek last time because they did not respond with a good solid "Amen".
"The Apostates Are Fighting God, and Not Me"

I have rejoiced in the things that I have heard here today, and the message I wanted given has been given you by the power and gift of the Holy Ghost. I just want to point out one more thing. These quotations that have been given from Sections 58 and 59 were at the very beginning, when Joseph had with him a party which went to Independence, Missouri, and then and there dedicated the land and the temple site for the gathering of the saints to the City of Zion. What I have uppermost, as I see the will of God concerning this people, is to prepare for Zion, the redemption of Zion. That was the burden of Uncle Roy's remarks and his labors, to prepare a people. We have heard so very well here today how that preparation can be made.

These remarks that we have heard from these two Sections, let me repeat, were to the saints as they were beginning to gather then to Zion. Another one is Section 64, which I would like to repeat. The preparation concerns loving God and keeping His commandments, and learning how to live together as one.

D. & C. 64

5. And the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom shall not be taken from my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., through the means I have appointed, while he liveth, inasmuch as he obeyeth mine ordinances.

6. There are those who have sought occasion against him without cause;

7. Nevertheless, he has sinned; but verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, forgive sins unto those who confess their sins before me and ask forgiveness, who have not sinned unto death.

8. My disciples, in days of old, sought occasion against one another and forgave not one another in their hearts; and for this evil they were afflicted and sorely chastened.

9. Wherefore, I say unto you, that ye ought to forgive one another; for he that forgiveth not his brother his trespasses standeth condemned before the Lord; for there remaineth in him the greater sin.

10. I, the Lord, will forgive whom I will forgive, but of you it is required to forgive all men.

11. And ye ought to say in your hearts -- let God judge between me and thee, and reward thee according to thy deeds.

12. And him that repenteth not of his sins, and confesseth them not, ye shall bring before the church, and do with him as the scripture saith unto you, either by commandment or by revelation.

13. And this ye shall do that God may be glorified -- not because ye forgive not, having not compassion, but that ye may be justified in the eyes of the law, that ye may not offend him who is your lawgiver --

14. Verily I say, for this cause ye shall do these things.

Then instructions were given concerning a few of the brethren who were to engage in a consecration and enter into a covenant to abide the Holy United Order.

23. Behold, now it is called today until the coming of the Son of Man, and verily it is a day of sacrifice, and a day for the tithing of my people; for he that is tithed shall not be burned at his coming.

24. For after today cometh the burning -- this is speaking after the manner of the Lord -- for verily I say, tomorrow all the proud and they that do wickedly shall be as stubble; and I will burn them up, for I am the Lord of Hosts; and I will not spare any that remain in Babylon.

25. Wherefore, if ye believe me, ye will labor while it is called today.

29. Wherefore, as ye are agents, ye are on the Lord's errand; and whatever ye do according to the will of the Lord is the Lord's business.

30. And he hath set you to provide for his saints in these last days, that they may obtain an inheritance in the land of Zion.

31. And behold, I, the Lord, declare unto you, and my words are sure and shall not fail, that they shall obtain it.

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

We are in the midst, brothers and sisters, of that procedure right now.

34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; Anxiously engaged.

34. ...and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.
36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.

37. Behold, I, the Lord, have made my church in these last days like unto a judge sitting on a hill, or in a high place, to judge the nations.

38. For it shall come to pass that the inhabitants of Zion shall judge all things pertaining to Zion.

39. And liars and hypocrites shall be proved by them, and they who are not apostles and prophets shall be known.

40. And even the bishop, who is a judge, and his counselors, if they are not faithful in their stewardships shall be condemned, and others shall be planted in their stead.

41. For, behold, I say unto you that Zion shall flourish, and the glory of the Lord shall be upon her;

42. And she shall be an ensign unto the people, and there shall come unto her out of every nation under heaven.

43. And the day shall come when the nations of the earth shall tremble because of her, and shall fear because of her terrible ones. The Lord hath spoken it. Amen.

And one more last thought:

Parley P. Pratt  Millennial Star 6:93

Priesthood Claims Need No Support

Brethren, no one's claims need any support. Those who hold the Keys of the kingdom of God will be supported by the spirit of God, and by his angels, and also by the aid and prayers of the Saints. And they will say nothing about their `claims,' nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them.

If men hold the keys of the kingdom of God, they are not dependent upon men to support their claims; but the church and all the world is dependent on them and on the keys committed to them for the ministration of salvation. They can shut and no more open, or open and no more shut. And to these authorities all must bow, so far as to be ministered to, and governed in the things of salvation, or else remain without the blessing of the kingdom.

We are in the midst of a lawsuit that has been brought to bear against the United Effort Plan and the Priesthood of God. And I want to say that these words I have read here will apply in our maintaining this effort to break the United Effort Plan, and God will fight our battles and will handle those who fight against the United Effort Plan and against God. They are fighting against God, not me, as the Prophet Leroy Johnson said, and I feel to invoke the same words at this time, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:55  September 4, 1988  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
September 4, 1988
The Time to Prepare Is Short;
We Must Exert Our Faith and Prayers to Be Free from Lawsuits;
The Lord Will Fight the Battles of a Prepared, Clean People

I am grateful to the Lord for the way His Spirit has dictated the things that have been said here today. I desire to fulfill, with all my heart, the labors that the Lord has placed upon me. I desire to do nothing that would be harmful to His Spirit. I desire to be an instrument in the hands of God to bless this people as we go down the road to Zion, the Zion of our God.

Everything that has been said here today I had in mind, and I wanted to be said. It is marvelous how that Spirit is transferred to the mouths of these, my dear brethren. We have heard enough now, I think, that we can close this meeting; but I want to hear from Uncle Roy. I will ask Truman to read a sermon that is very applicable for us here today.

Just might observe, Uncle Fred Jessop called me before their meeting convened down south today. He asked what my message was to the saints there. I said, "Repent and prepare, for the day is very short in which God will bring about His judgments," the day of visitation which Uncle Roy so often spoke of. It was short, twelve years ago, as mentioned here. How much shorter now, as we draw near to the end of the century, the Saturday night of time. Brother Truman, will you read this sermon? He can do it better than I. God bless you, amen.

LSJ Vol.4  Page 1264  August 22, 1976  SLC

It is good to be here, my brothers and sisters, and to hear the word of the Lord that we have heard this afternoon. I pray that the Lord will bless me with words that I might continue to edify you in the proper manner. I have nothing in my heart but the desire to see you all prepare yourselves for a
We have heard some of the prophecies today of what would transpire in the latter days, or just prior to the redemption of Zion. In looking back over the length of time, the short length of time, that I have been acquainted with this work, I marvel at the many incidents that have transpired in accordance with these prophecies and revelations. Ever since I met John Y. Barlow and Joseph Musser, this order of the Priesthood, I have had to battle for the existence of this work. There have been many times that we have had to go into the courts, but with the help of the Lord we have been able to free ourselves. Although we haven't been able to keep some of our number out of the jails, they haven't been permitted to stay there for any length of time, more than was necessary for them to prepare themselves against the day of visitation.

Many of the early leaders of the work have also spent time in jail, but we know not what is in the future; for we have men around us that are continually harassing the saints, especially the servants of God. The Lord set up this work under the instrumentality of Joseph Smith, the Prophet, as we have heard here this afternoon, and it has been handed down from generation to generation until our day. Men have been called to lead and direct the work, and many times they have had to answer to the courts. John Y. Barlow and Joseph Musser had to spend time, and Charles Zitting had to spend time in the penitentiary for this work. President Louis Kelsch spent many years in the penitentiary because of the faith that he had. Our women and children have been taken away from us by the enemy of righteousness. But in all this, the Lord has delivered us. When our wives and children were taken away, they were held in bondage for some two and a half or three years before they were permitted to come back to their homes, but they finally made it.

The women -- I can't help but speak of it -- the women that were taken in the 1953 raid from Colorado City (then called Short Creek) were the main factors in winning the freedom of our people from the clutches of the enemy of righteousness. Welfare officers, workers who had charge of our people, tried continually over that time to break down the faith of these faithful women, but they wouldn't break. The Lord was satisfied with that bunch of women, and He granted unto them the blessing of returning to their homes. It is true, there were a few of the children that did not return...
-- the Lord took them home.

What is happening today? Today the United Effort Plan is on trial in the courts of Arizona, and if this instrument can be picked to pieces and broken, then we will be in deep trouble again. And what I mean, we will be in deep trouble; and it will be costly to our people. But, I have faith that the Lord will fight our battles at this time if we will rally to with our faith and prayers, clean up our minds and our hearts and not rail against our enemies -- those who are bringing these things upon us. But let the Lord have a free hand, and let Him work. He has said, "Try me and see if I won't pour out blessings that you cannot contain." We have seen Him bless us from time to time in a small way that our problems might not grow into big trials. We have been able to progress in our efforts to prepare ourselves to be used in the establishment of Zion. We don't know what the outcome will be. But I do know this, that we have a body of people who have gathered themselves around this order of the Priesthood who can have faith enough to free us from the bondage that we are under if we will exercise our faith and prayers.

The Lord has said, "I will have a tried people." And this is one of the testings that He is giving us. Let us not let Him down. This is His work; it isn't ours. It is His work. He knows how to handle the wrong-doers a lot better than we do, and I don't feel to put a straw in His way. But I do believe that we ought to exercise our faith and prayers and do the thing that Brother Musser read to us -- that we should cry night and day for deliverance. The Lord says, "Pray always that My Spirit might be with you, that in your days of trouble I might be found." So let us start in. This isn't all, we are threatened with many other suits. We know we have to answer to the courts in this case, and we are threatened with other suits. So, we are in a precarious condition, much more serious than a lot of us think.

In the early days of the Church when persecution came among them, it was because the saints would not rally to when they were called upon by the Prophets. Let us not let this happen again. The Book of Mormon is full of incidents where the servants of God have asked the people to rally to and repent of their sins, and they have repented, and the Lord has honored them. Let us see to it that He honors us this time, that we might prepare ourselves against the day of visitation when God is pouring out
His judgments upon the wicked. For the decree has gone forth. The Lord says that He will make a full end to all nations because of their wickedness. This land upon which we live is a choice land -- choice above all other lands. It is the land of Joseph, the land upon which Zion will be redeemed, where the City will be built and a cloud hang over it by day and a pillar of fire by night. And I don't believe that the Lord is ready to see this people destroyed. Why? Because He has inspired His servants to preach the doctrine of preparation for so long a time. Ever since I have known this work, that is what has been taught -- Get the Spirit of God and keep it; Prepare yourselves against the day of visitation -- has been the cry.

The cheapest lawyer that we can hire is our God. Let us rally around Him. We know that we have the Priesthood. We know that we have been endowed with power from on High to prepare a people. The opportunity is ours for the Lord to stretch forth His hand and show forth His arm in defense of His people. Remember that He has said, "I will protect my saints if I have to send fire from heaven to do so." And I believe He will. I have faith, my brothers and sisters, that we have pleased Him enough so that if we will exercise our faith and our prayers, we can free ourselves from this great calamity that is being brought upon us at this time.

I pray that God will bless us with a determination to serve Him and keep His commandments, to rid ourselves of all unrighteousness, and give Him an opportunity to establish His work, to redeem His people and establish Zion. I pray for wisdom, knowledge and understanding, and I hope the Lord will pour out upon us this wonderful blessing that we might bring ourselves out from under the bondage of unrighteousness. The Lord placed us under condemnation soon after the Church was organized, and He said we would remain under that condemnation until we repented. So, let us repent of our sins, and let us be determined in our minds and in our hearts to live so that the Lord will recognize that we are ready to be added upon, and that we can prepare a people quickly that He can use if He calls for them.

Now, let us go to and show forth our faith and prayers that we might be able to free ourselves from this great bondage that is upon us, I humbly pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Before we close, brothers and sisters, I want to acknowledge the hand of God in answers to our prayers, which I called upon you to render. I am released from the necessity of giving a deposition before Attorney Tim Anderson on the 14th of this month. Praise God, and Uncle Roy. [Congregation said, "Amen!"]

RTJ 7:60 September 11, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
September 11, 1988
Personal History

I am deeply moved, brethren and sisters, with these expressions of support and strength, and praise the Lord. As I have sat here contemplating what I might say, I feel now to give you a little account of my beginnings, my life and parentage. Would you like to hear that? I ask the Lord to bring to my remembrance things that I should say here.

My paternal parents came from Gloucestershire in England -- Samuel Jeffs. His son, William Y. Jeffs, was born there, too. I don't recall who emigrated to the United States first. Samuel Jeffs abided this Celestial Law, plural marriage, receiving four wives, three of whom were sealed to him shortly after he came to Utah. He died a couple of years later. My maternal parents were John W. Timpson. He was born in Nottinghamshire in England in the area next to Wales, where the family of Christ came in Avalon when they were set to drift upon the sea and finally arrived in the British Isles. My mother was the oldest daughter of John W. Timpson and Nettie Timpson. Nettie Timpson was an adopted daughter of my grandfather, William Yemm Jeffs. They were both in Iona, Idaho, both of those families, at the time my mother began working for father in his building business. Mother worked in the building supply store in Iona.

My father's first wife was Mother Phoebe Woolley, daughter of Samuel W. Woolley, who was a brother to John W. Woolley. So I am tied in with the Woolleys back there. Mother Phoebe had a dream that my mother should be married to her husband, and father had been, through Lorin Woolley, appointed with the work that was going on in continuing Celestial Marriage, which we now know is the work that was given to John W. Woolley and Lorin and those around them at that time. So my father, agreeing with mother that they should marry, sent my mother down to Salt Lake area. They had to be in hiding.

Mother stayed with the Emery family, a plural family on the west side, part of the year that transpired between then and the time they were married. She stayed at the home of John W. Taylor, whose wife, Nettie, was a sister of Mother Phoebe, staying there in hiding. So father was well acquainted with John W. Taylor and with Matthias F. Cowley, who were dropped from the Quorum in about 1906, the Quorum of the Twelve, for their activities in perpetuating Celestial and Plural Marriage. They were brought together finally through the work of John W. Taylor and Matthias Cowley.

Patriarch Judson Tolman of Davis County had been set apart by those brethren working together to seal marriages as they were prepared for them for him to take care of. Judson Tolman sealed Mother Phoebe to my father in 1901. He sealed my mother to my father on March 2, 1909. Judson Tolman is the one that Heber J. Grant spoke derogatory of in his day, and in speaking derogatory of the new "polygamists" as they were called at that time. I was born December 6, 1909 at 1478 South West Temple, in hiding. Horace Kowlton's mother was a midwife. She delivered me. Brother Knowlton, you know, is married to the Clarks, who are connected with Newel and Woodruff Steed. See how we all got together?

I don't remember my earliest years, but my name was Rulon Jennings in hiding, until I was about ten years old. Then I was told about my beginnings. Father had not been going to the Church meetings in all those years. But when that time came, over on the west side, father sat me down and told me the story of Joseph Smith, and I leaped for joy in my heart. We started going to the 34th Ward on the west side, active in the Church. Father moved his family around a good deal.

The next day after my mother was sealed to father, Florence Rice was sealed to my father. She died about a year later. Mother Phoebe, along the way, separated herself, so I did not know about her until much later.

I finally got enrolled in High School to the LDS High School up on North Temple and Main, between Main and State, and went through the High School course there. The graduating class of 1928, they asked me to be valedictorian at the graduation exercises, which were held in the Salt Lake Tabernacle. My knees knocked together like they are now with this dizzy problem I have.
After graduating from High School in 1928, I went to work for the LDS College for about two years and was called on a mission and left on June 1, 1930. June 1, 1934 is when my wife Zola was married to me. I went to the British Isles, was in London and London District, and wound up in three months in the Mission Headquarters as assistant secretary of the mission. I finally became secretary, returning home August of 1932, in the midst of the Great Depression.

My wife was Zola Brown, daughter of Hugh B. Brown and Zina Young Card. Zina Young Card was a granddaughter of Brigham Young, by Zina Huntington Young. Grandmother Card kind of shepherded Zola while I was on a mission, told her not to faint. We hadn't agreed to be married before I went on the mission, but Grandmother Card gave me a mother's blessing. Have you ever heard of those before? It was beautiful. So she kept Zola in tow and she was very faithful. Upon my return in 1932, I proposed marriage to her. By the way, she asked me for the first date, [Laughter] after I had graduated from High School.

While I was working in that office, I got a letter addressed to Zola of Beaver, put it on the bulletin board. This girl who was in the same ward, Highland Park Ward, with me, came to the window, gave me her name. She said, "I'm not from Beaver, but I'm Zola." So we got acquainted in the Ward, and she asked me for the first date in a girls' dance. We had our ups and downs before we were finally married June 1, 1934.

In 1938, on September 25, my mother was over on the west coast visiting with her brothers. I took father to dinner on his birthday. David William Ward Jeffs was his name. Grandfather, William Y. Jeffs, was a Patriarch. My father was a Patriarch in the last few years of his life, in this work. I'm sure some of you remember him.

Father handed me a copy of the Truth Magazine on the evening we had dinner together. By the way, I was Ward Clerk when I got back from the mission, secretary of everything I went into. Anyway, after I got this Truth Magazine, I asked father, "What is this?" He told me it was a publication put out by Joseph W. Musser. I said, "By what authority?" So he told me, and he took me to see Brother Musser. Brother Musser received me like a father into the work, and I got well acquainted with him.

When I was told about the Priesthood Council, I said, "Father, who is the head man?" "Well, he has to be in kind of hiding." I said, "I want to see him." So I finally got to see Uncle John over on 809 East, 700 South, met him in his home there. My heart leaped for joy finding the Prophet. I guess I know why now, but I didn't then know why John and Joseph had me be on the Board of Trustees of the United Effort Plan, which was put together and filed November 9, 1942.

We had some great times in those days in cottage meetings. On one trip, John and Joseph took me and Guy into Idaho. (By the way, on February 14, 1942, Joseph gave me my wife Kathleen Jessop.) In 1943, in the fall, we took this trip to Idaho, and at a cottage meeting at Brother Carl Holm, Sen.'s, in Ammon, Idaho, Uncle John was not well. During the meeting, he stepped to the door from the bedroom where he had been laying, and he said, "We are here, folks, to help Brother Jeffs and Brother Musser get additional family, in preparation for blessings to come."

So that trip resulted in taking me up to meet my wife LaRue at Davis Hunter's place in northeastern Idaho. So that brings us down to 1944, when the raid came. I then had three lovely ladies. I had been working up in Idaho in 1943, 1944, and worked around until the spring of 1945, working my way down permanently to come back to Salt Lake. I had been commuting to go up there to work, and had my wife Kathleen, Kay, up there with me. But I was alone on this occasion on the way back, the 19th of April of 1945. I got a phone call from my father. He said, "Rulon, it is important that you see Joseph Musser first when you come to town. Joseph wants you to see him before you see anyone else," the first thing the next morning. I knew what it was. The Spirit told me. And I said to myself right then and there, "Why not the head?" I knew it was for the ordination.

So I appeared at the home of John Y. Barlow early in the morning, first thing in the morning about 8:00 at Lincoln Street, 2157 Lincoln Street. When I arrived he was not available, so I sat there praying in that front room in the office where Guy Musser later had his office. I had my head bowed and praying, and I looked up and Uncle John stood in the archway between the dining room and the front room there. He was covered with light. He said, "Brother Rulon, step into my office." And he then and there ordained me an Apostle and Patriarch, and designated me a member of the Church of the Firstborn.

Later on that day, I went up to see Joseph, and he was obviously disappointed. But he congratulated me and rejoiced with me. That was a critical occasion in my life, as we see from the events that have transpired since then.

I thank God for the way He, as it were, held me in the palm of His hand, coming down through to the present time. I desire to be a faithful and a valiant servant to God. I must say, I want it said and understood, Leroy Johnson took me under his wing. How I love that man. I love John Y. Barlow. I have a letter he wrote me, but I haven't it with me. I will read it to you sometime.

Well, I call upon you all now, my dear brothers and sisters, let us be one. I have envisioned for some years that it is necessary that those men who are called to go and redeem Zion would have to have their individual families one, united as one. And when we have enough of them, the Lord will call a community of united families to be one, and prepare for the beginnings of Zion, right where we are.

You have heard Uncle Roy say in his sermon, "The Priesthood back in the 1930's picked out this area for the people to gather and prepare to redeem Zion." That has always been in the mind and heart, the labors of John Y. Barlow and Leroy Johnson. So I am grateful to say I sprang from John Y. Barlow and Leroy Johnson. The rest is history. God bless you, amen.
My dear brothers and sisters, we have indeed had the word of God given to us here today. I just want to take a few moments to leave a grand key for us all to labor for. It is in keeping with the greatest instruction of all: Get and keep the Spirit of God. Be filled with this great attribute charity, the pure love of Christ. It has to do with one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of revelation. I will simply read the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph in doing so. And note them and study them. Oliver Cowdery, Section 8, using his experience as an example for us:

D.& C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.

5. Oh, remember these words, and keep my commandments. Remember, this is your gift.

Oliver tried, but it was short-lived; and we have in Section 9 why he failed.

D.& C. 9

1. Behold, I say unto you, my son, that because you did not translate according to that which you desired of me, and did commence again to write for my servant, Joseph Smith, Jun., even so I would that ye should continue until you have finished this record, which I have entrusted unto him.

That was his mission in the first place, to be the scribe for the dictation of the translation of the Book of Mormon.

2. And then, behold, other records have I, that I will give unto you power that you may assist to translate.

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

Your bosom and your mind, may I add.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

10. Now, if you had known this you could have translated; nevertheless, it is not expedient that you should translate now.

Page 151, the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph:

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Without revelation, dear brothers and sisters, there is no salvation, so said the Prophet also. God bless you all, that we may learn this great gift and obtain this great gift, because we cannot be saved without it, and learn the whisperings of the Spirit. Get it and keep it first, of course. I would adjure you also to read the last verses of chapter 7 of Moroni again, which says the same thing. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:68 October 2, 1988 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
October 2, 1988
The Ordinances of the Priesthood Are All Endowments; Preparation; Do Not Seek Entertainment from the World

To get down to business, as Uncle Roy has always said, get and keep the Spirit of God. We cannot become one without it; we cannot be saved without it. Only those who are filled with the Holy Ghost, having complied with all of the laws and commandments of God, fulfilled all of the rites, laws, and ordinances of the holy Gospel of Jesus Christ, can enter into that highest degree of the Celestial Glory. These two holy laws, Celestial and Plural Marriage, and the Holy United Order, are both endowments. Uncle Roy said so in his sermon I want to read very briefly for you.

LSJ Vol.4 Page 1571 May 28, 1978 CCA

This is what the Lord does to a people who forget Him and serve Baal. Having described how the town of Grafton was destroyed when the saints failed to abide the Holy United Order.

He says, "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve, the God of Israel or the god of Baal." And that is what He meant. He means it today! We could say the same thing and it would be a commandment of God to us to turn from our evil ways and serve God and keep His commandments. Then the Lord would smile upon us and we could control the elements. We could control the weather. We could control the winds so that they would only blow when we wanted them to. And if we wanted the Heavens to give us a little moisture, we could get it. Or if we wanted it to stop while we gathered in our crop, we could do it. It can all be done through faith.

Faith is the first principle of our Gospel. Faith, and then repentance, and then baptism for the remission of sins. And that is the only way we can get into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. It is the only way we can get into the Kingdom of God. It is the only way that we will ever get into the Church of the First Born, by traveling that trail and having all those endowments endowed upon our heads. So, the Lord is not waiting because we are worthy to be endowed from one blessing to another, but He is waiting for us to prepare ourselves so that we will be worthy of these great endowments.

I think that is a revelation to us, these two principles that we are so anxious about, which constitute the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ -- Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order. We abide them, and we have abided all of the commandments of God.

The Lord is surely kind to us, my brothers and sisters, to give us a little more time. Go read the story of Jonah and the city of Ninevah, how Jonah wanted to hide himself from the Lord because he had told the people of Ninevah that the Lord was going to destroy the city if they didn't repent. But they repented in the nighttime when Jonah wasn't looking, and the Lord accepted their offering and preserved the city. So he tried to hide himself from the Lord and the people, but it didn't work. The Lord wanted to teach Jonah a lesson. He wanted to teach him that people have the right to repent, and when they repent, they have the right to receive the blessing of repentance. This is an offer made to every individual that can hear the voice of the speaker.

This is a beautiful work when we can look at it from the standpoint of its beauty. It is a pleasant work, but it can be made a very hard job when we try to serve two masters. Let us go to, my brothers and sisters, and repent of the evils that are among us, because there are many evils among this people, and the Lord is not pleased with us until we repent and turn unto Him.

And so it is today, brethren and sisters.

Let us cease to go out of this town for entertainment. For the Lord meant what He said when He said, "Come out of her, Oh ye, my people, and be not partakers of her sins."
The devil has come into our homes through TV. We don't have to go out of town for entertainment, but we get it right at home, and it has a far worse effect if we allow it to be there.

When we go out among the Gentiles and partake of their hospitality and be at peace with them, we displease the Lord. Let us draw in the wanderings of our minds. Let us gather our people around us and determine to serve God and keep His commandments, that He might turn away the day of visitation from our doors, for it is fast coming, a good deal faster than we think it is. So, let us do it.

Do it now!

...I humbly pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:70 October 9, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 9, 1988
Be One in Our Families; We Are Here to Make Zion; Charity; Why the Saints Were Driven from Jackson County

It keeps ringing in my ears, dear brothers and sisters: "If you are not one, you are not Mine." The only way we can be one is first in our families. Our families must be united, so says the direction of Uncle Roy. It must begin there. When the Lord has enough united families -- the Lord has suggested five hundred -- then we will have Zion. I would just like to close with this that I have read to you before. Brigham Young:

JD 5:4 Brigham Young July 5, 1857 SLC

You hear brethren talk of coming to Zion to enjoy the blessings of this land; but do you not see that it is the short-sightedness of men which causes their disappointment when they arrive here?

People used to feel that if they could get to Short Creek they would be saved.

They gather here with the spirit of Zion resting upon them, and expecting to find Zion in its glory, whereas their own doctrine should teach them that they are coming here to make Zion.

We can make Zion, or we can make Babylon, just as we please. We can make just what we please of this place. The people can make Zion: they can make a heaven within themselves. When people gather here, they should come with a determination to make Zion within themselves, with the resolution that "I will carry myself full of the Spirit of Zion wherever I go; and this is the way in which I will control evil spirits; for I mean that my spirit shall have control over evil:" and do you not see that such a course will make Zion?

This American continent will be Zion; for it is so spoken of by the prophets. Jerusalem will be rebuilt and will be the place of gathering, and the tribe of Judah will gather there; but this continent of America is the land of Zion.

Where, may I add, the New Jerusalem will be built. I would like to close this meeting by reading again the beautiful words of Moroni.

Moroni 7

39. But behold, my beloved brethren, I judge better things of you, for I judge that ye have faith in Christ because of your meekness; for if ye have not faith in him then ye are not fit to be numbered among the people of his church.

40. And again, my beloved brethren, I would speak unto you concerning hope. How is it that ye can attain unto faith, save ye shall have hope?

41. And what is it that ye shall hope for? Behold I say unto you that ye shall have hope through the atonement of Christ and the power of his resurrection, to be raised unto life eternal, and this because of your faith in him according to the promise.

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

In the place of charity, I will finish by saying that which it is, the pure love of Christ.

45. And charity
The pure love of Christ,
45. ...suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity

The pure love of Christ,
46. ...never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity

The pure love of Christ,
46. ...which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity

The pure love of Christ,
47. ...endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, Which is the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit of God.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ;

If we be filled with it, brethren and sisters, we are like God.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

Zion, let me remind you, is the pure in heart. There is the great work we have to do, to become pure in heart. The saints were driven out of Zion two years after it was established. The Prophet said to the Lord, "Why?" The answer came thundering down -- Section 101:

D.& C. 101

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; Lustful and covetous desires among them. Some were not pure in heart.

6. ...therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

So there have been efforts to live the United Order. Since then, 1834, the Lord sent Zion's Camp, two hundred five men, described by Brother Truman here today. There have been many efforts under Brigham Young. There were under John Taylor, but to no avail. Now, brethren and sisters, this is the last time. This is it. Let us become pure in heart, obedient. Be one, filled with the Holy Spirit of God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:74 October 16, 1988 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
October 16, 1988
Faith; Perfect Obedience Brings Oneness

I pray God to give me utterance, that my voice will hold up. I would like to add a capstone to what has been said here by Brother Truman and Brother Wendell. How do you acquire these great and glorious blessings? The first law of heaven is obedience. All things are done by faith in God through the power of the holy Priesthood.

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts Page 145-146

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.
And thus, my dear brothers and sisters, with faith in our prayers, listen to this:

Moroni 7
48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, The pure love of Christ, the Holy Spirit of God.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the Sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; We cannot be in His presence except we be like Him.
48. ...that we may have this hope, that we may be purified even as he is pure.
So I say again, as I have many times before, the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son.

Lecture Five
2. ...all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

And thus, by coming into a fullness of the Holy Spirit, being filled with it, with this pure love of Christ, we may become one in the Father and the Son, and see Them as one man sees another. Thus the great admonition: Lay hold on the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Become filled with it, keep it, and it will bring us to perfection. Be ye perfect as God is perfect, and then we will become one in the Father and the Son. There is how it is done.

Brother Truman spoke of the grand principle by which we become like the Father and the Son: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, and with all thy strength; thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. The Prophet John said, "How can you say you love God whom you cannot see, if you love not your neighbor, your brother, your sister?" We are all brothers and sisters, children of our Father in heaven. If we love not them, how can we say we love God? We see one another. We hear, we feel, we are filled with the Holy Spirit; and as all together are full of it, we become perfect and attain to the heavenly gift, which I pray we may have, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:77 October 23, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 23, 1988
The Spirit of God Is the Answer to All of Our Problems;
A Royal Priesthood; Overcome Through Oneness

The Lord has been with us and has given a marvelous message to us here today. The words that Brother Fred read from the Prophet Leroy Johnson are my words again to you at this time. And I would like to add something further. The Holy Spirit of God, dear brothers and sisters, is the answer to all of our problems. We must have it. We must keep it. We must live by it. The Prophet Joseph, some more of his words regarding this glorious principle:

Truth 10:221
Dream of Brigham Young at Winter Quarters

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire...
I have had ringing in my ears the words of Peter.

1 Peter 2

1. Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and all hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,
2. As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3. If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.
4. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
8. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:
10. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
12. Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

And many more lessons are given thereafter. May God bless us, dear brothers and sisters. We are, as Brother Fred has read us here from Uncle Roy, in the midst of a great battle. Those words are being fulfilled today, and we cannot overcome unless we are one. "Blessed are those who overcome," said Paul in the acts, "for they shall sit down with the Father in heaven." Let us be one, I humbly pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:79 November 6, 1988 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
November 6, 1988
Two Comforters; The Spirit of Revelation

We have had a wonderful time, brothers and sisters. The Spirit of God has been upon our speakers, and we are fed full and overflowing with the Spirit. Just a short teaching of the Prophet Joseph Smith I would like to pass on to you. I cannot teach anymore than the Prophet Joseph did.

TPJS Page 149
The Two Comforters

There are two Comforters spoken of. One is the Holy Ghost, the same as given on the day of Pentecost, and that all Saints receive after faith, repentance, and baptism. This first Comforter or Holy Ghost has no other effect than pure intelligence. It is more powerful in expanding the mind, enlightening the understanding, and storing the intellect with present knowledge, of a man who is of the literal seed of Abraham, than one that is a Gentile, though it may not have half as much visible effect upon the body; for as the Holy Ghost falls upon one of the literal seed of Abraham, it is calm and serene; and his whole soul and body are only exercised by the pure spirit of intelligence; while the effect of the Holy Ghost upon a Gentile, is to purge out the old blood, and make him actually of the seed of Abraham.

Have you ever thought of that, brothers and sisters?

That man that has none of the blood of Abraham naturally must have a new creation by the Holy Ghost. In such a case, there may be more of a powerful effect upon the body, and visible to the eye, than upon an Israelite, while the Israelite at first might be far before the Gentile in pure intelligence.

The other Comforter spoken of is a subject of great interest, and perhaps understood by few of this generation. After a person has faith in Christ, repents of his sins, and is baptized for the remission of his sins and receives the Holy Ghost, (by the laying on of hands), which is the first Comforter, then let him continue to humble himself before God, hungering and thirsting after righteousness, and living by every word of God, and the Lord will soon say unto him, Son, thou shalt be exalted. When the Lord has thoroughly proved him, and finds that the man is determined to serve Him at all hazards, then the man will find his calling and his election made sure, then it will be his privilege to receive the other Comforter, which the Lord hath promised the Saints, as is recorded in the testimony of St. John,

Quoting:
"16. And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever;
"17. Even the Spirit of Truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.
"18. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.* *

"21. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.
"23. If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Now what is this other Comforter? It is no more nor less than the Lord Jesus Christ Himself; and this is the sum and substance of the whole matter; that when any man obtains this last Comforter, he will have the personage of Jesus Christ to attend him, or appear unto him from time to time, and even He will manifest the Father unto him, and they will take up their abode with him, and the visions of the heavens will be opened unto him, and the Lord will teach him face to face, and he may have a perfect knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God; and this is the state and place the ancient Saints arrived at when they had such glorious visions -- Isaiah, Ezekiel, John upon the Isle of Patmos, St. Paul in the three heavens, and all the Saints who held communion with the general assembly and Church of the Firstborn.

Now, how is this all received? By the Spirit of revelation, one of the gifts of the Holy Ghost.

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

If you want to know how to operate by the Spirit of revelation, read Sections 8 and 9 of the Doctrine and Covenants. That gives us the modus operandi so we may know when we have the Holy Spirit of God. It is teaching us and bringing into our hearts and minds pure intelligence. So again, let us pray with all the energy of heart, that we may be filled with this love, the pure love of Christ, which is the Holy Spirit, which God confers upon all who obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ; which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:82 November 11, 1988 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
November 11, 1988
Funeral of Elder Thomas Steed
Son of Elder Newel Steed
I am deeply grateful to have a part in this beautiful service, and pray the Lord to direct me in my remarks. I was privileged to be at the hospital when Brother Thomas was about to depart, and privileged to take part in commending the spirit of Thomas Steed to the Lord, our God; after which the life supports were taken and I was able to hold his hand as he passed.

The Spirit of God told me this man had earned his salvation and exaltation. He kept his covenants. He is an exemplary father, and a noble husband and lord to his beautiful companions. I would like to read and apply what the Prophet Joseph Smith said at the passing of Lorenzo Barnes in 1843.

Would you think it strange if I relate what I have seen in vision in relation to this interesting theme? Those who have died in Jesus Christ may expect to enter into all that fruition of joy when they come forth, which they possessed or anticipated here.

So plain was the vision, that I actually saw men, before they had ascended from the tomb, as though they were getting up slowly. They took each other by the hand and said to each other, "My father, my son, my mother, my daughter, my brother, my sister." And when the voice calls for the dead to arise, suppose I am laid by the side of my father, what would be the first joy of my heart? To meet my father, my mother, my brother, my sister; and when they are by my side, I embrace them and they me.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it. More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates (To these companions of Brother Steed) let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

I pray God to add His blessings, and I add mine upon this beautiful family of Brother Thomas Steed. All is well with Thomas. All is well with you if you will follow his example and go on to your salvation and exaltation in the Celestial Kingdom of God. Thomas abided all of the laws of the Celestial Order of Marriage. He is a candidate for the Celestial Kingdom.

Now, I pray God to bless his family and all of us, that we may go on now to perfection and become like God, be filled with the Holy Ghost, that we may live out our lives to become like God and stand in His presence, even the Lord Jesus Christ, which I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:84 November 20, 1988 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
November 20, 1988
How to Raise Children and Get the Spirit of God

The message has been given, brothers and sisters. I would like to cap it with the words of the Lord, how we raise our children and how we get and keep the Spirit of God.

D. & C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile —

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

Make sure it is not in a fit of temper; but it can be a reproof by sharpness, by the Holy Ghost.

43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith,

Our brethren and sisters in the cause of God.

45. ...and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly;

Pure in heart.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Keeping all of the commandments of God, coming to know that our course is pleasing to God, our faith is perfect, according to that last verse of chapter 7 of Moroni. It is repeated time and time again here:

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love,

The Holy Ghost,

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Colorado City, Arizona
November 27, 1988
Blesses the People

I am overwhelmed with gratitude, dear brothers and sisters, to the Lord and these, my brethren, my beloved brethren who have given you the word of the Lord here today, and all that I could have had in mind to be said here. I add no more. I add my blessings so far as God gives me power to bless you, and say thank-you. God be with us as we proceed to go down the road to Zion with Uncle Roy and all who preceded him as Prophets of God in this dispensation, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Sandy, Utah
December 4, 1988
Seek Blessings According to the Will of God;
The Lawyers Are Seeking a Protective Order in the Fischer Adoption Case

My dear brothers and sisters, I have rejoiced in the things that have been brought to our attention here today. I know that it has been directed by the Spirit of God, for everything that I had in mind to be said has been said. It is marvelous how this thing works.

I want only the will of the Lord to be done in this matter that is coming before us this coming week, but I am sure the Lord expects us to approach Him for the blessing. In all things that we ask for, we should always say, "Nevertheless, thy will be done." That is all I want. I am not afraid to face this man, Tim Anderson, but I don't relish sitting across the table from a devil, for he is bent on destruction. I am scheduled by subpoena to give a deposition on Friday, and to bring all the papers and numerous things that he has mentioned in the subpoena, to bring them on the day before. But our attorney has filed a memorandum and a motion for a protective order for this non-party deponent, Rulon Jeffs, so that discovery should not be had from him. That is the petition to the court. I am showing him in a memorandum that all of the things that Anderson wants are not relevant. They are oppressive, embarrassing, and of none effect as to the relevance of the adoption that is taking place. So all I can say is, God be praised. His will be done, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:87  December 11, 1988  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 11, 1988
D.& C. 121

Again, my dear brothers and sisters, the messages I had in mind have been given here today. Again, how may these things be accomplished? By getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God. That will take care of all of your problems. Our problems are multiplied because of the lack of that great gift which God has given us. That is my answer to all who come to me about their family problems. How do we get and keep the Spirit of God? By perfect obedience and coming to know that our course is pleasing to Him. Then we have power with God. That power is His Holy Spirit.

I can't think of a better message to give us than what is couched in Section 121. Brother Truman read the whole of this Section just recently, and covers what is happening to us in our problems in the courts, where we are defending the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; the crowning principles thereof being the Family Order of Heaven, the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, and the Holy United Order. Those things have been assailed in the courts where we have recently been active.

D.& C. 121

16. Cursed are all those that shall lift up the heel against mine anointed, saith the Lord, and cry they have sinned when they have not sinned before me, saith the Lord, but have done that which was meet in mine eyes, and which I commanded them.

17. But those who cry transgression do it because they are the servants of sin, and are the children of disobedience themselves.

18. And those who swear falsely against my servants, that they might bring them into bondage and death --

19. Wo unto them; because they have offended my little ones they shall be severed from the ordinances of mine house.
20. Their basket shall not be full, their houses and their barns shall perish, and they themselves shall be despised by those that flattered them.

21. They shall not have right to the priesthood, nor their posterity after them from generation to generation.

22. It had been better for them that a millstone had been hanged about their necks, and they drowned in the depth of the sea.

23. Wo unto all those that discomfort my people, and drive, and murder, and testify against them, saith the Lord of Hosts; a generation of vipers shall not escape the damnation of hell.

By these means they have fulfilled this.

37. That they

The rights of the Priesthood,

37. ...may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride,

Pride is behind these efforts that have assailed us.

37. ...our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.

38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.

Those words are couched by our Prophet Leroy Johnson on February 12, 1984. He said, "They are not fighting against me; they are fighting against God, and the Lord God of Israel will handle them." Now here again:

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

That is why we must have it all the time.

43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, The pure love of Christ.

45. ...and to the household of faith, Our brothers and sisters in the common cause.

45. ...and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; Become pure in heart. Have clean hands and pure hearts, obeying perfectly the laws of God.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

That dominion is obtained in the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, as outlined in Section 132. And that is where it is promised if they abide, they shall become like God and become Gods. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:90 January 1, 1989 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 1, 1989
Judgments of God Upon This Generation

I just feel to say I want these words you have heard here today to be my words. They have been dictated by the Holy Spirit of God. I just want to add one more thing regarding a matter of these judgments and the great day of visitation which is upon us; this in connection with the reading of Brother Dan of Section 45.

D.& C. 112

23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.
24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

We see the beginnings of that whirlwind.

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

Uncle Roy, in dealing with two brethren who had turned away from him, spoke of how this has been fulfilled: "Upon My house shall it begin," when he set in order the Priesthood Council.

26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

That was Section 112. We are in the process of preparing to live the Holy United Order. And here is how it is going forward, which the Lord described in Section 64, as they were then preparing to enter into the Holy United Order and to build up the City of Zion in Missouri.

D. & C. 64

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.

The rebellious are now being handled.

36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.

37. Behold, I, the Lord, have made my church in these last days like unto a judge sitting on a hill, or in a high place, to judge the nations.

38. For it shall come to pass that the inhabitants of Zion shall judge all things pertaining to Zion.
39. And liars and hypocrites shall be proved by them, and they who are not apostles and prophets shall be known.

40. And even the bishop, who is a judge, and his counselors, if they are not faithful in their stewardships shall be condemned, and others shall be planted in their stead.

41. For, behold, I say unto you that Zion shall flourish, and the glory of the Lord shall be upon her;

42. And she shall be an ensign unto the people, and there shall come unto her out of every nation under heaven.

43. And the day shall come when the nations of the earth shall tremble because of her, and shall fear because of her terrible ones. The Lord hath spoken it.

The Prophet Joseph Smith described somewhat the order of things that we have mentioned in Section 133, in a letter to Editor Seaton.

TPJS Page 17
And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake

Those things spoken of in Section 45,
...will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

That is the order of things, brothers and sisters. These judgments which are now started, are accelerating, and verily will be like a whirlwind, to sweep the wicked from off the face of the land. Can we understand what is being said here, as Uncle Roy pointed out so many times? The same thing is going to happen in this generation this last time, that has happened to the Jaredites and the wicked among the Nephites and Lamanites. Then the Ten Tribes will come.

The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, That is what we are doing here, brothers and sisters.

...which is in the state of Missouri;
That is where it must be finally, but we have much to go through in preparation for that great journey.

...therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.
And Rulon Jeffs. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:93 January 8, 1989 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
January 8, 1989
D.& C. 93; Be Ye Clean

Things have been said and done here, the very things I have had in mind, and I want to sum it up with the word of the Lord through the Prophet Joseph Smith -- Section 93, verse 24 on:

D.& C. 93

24. And truth is knowledge of things as they are, and as they were, and as they are to come;
25. And whatsoever is more or less than this is the spirit of that wicked one who was a liar from the beginning.

26. The Spirit of truth is of God. I Jesus Christ,

26. ...am the Spirit of truth, and John bore record of me, saying: He received a fulness of truth, yea, even of all truth;

27. And no man receiveth a fulness unless he keepeth his commandments.
That "fullness" is described in the discussion of the Godhead under Lecture Five of the Lectures on Faith. If we love Him, we keep His commandments. If we do not keep His commandments, then I am sure we do not love Him.

28. He that keepeth his commandments receiveth truth and light, until he is glorified in truth and knoweth all things.

29. Man was also in the beginning with God. Intelligence, or the light of truth, was not created or made, neither indeed can be.

These are divine, eternal truths.

30. All truth is independent in that sphere in which God has placed it, to act for itself, as all intelligence also; otherwise there is no existence.

31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, The body,

33. ...inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

Be ye clean that bear the vessels of God -- clean hands and pure hearts. Pure hearts means to be sexually pure, if you want the truth. That is why Uncle Roy was all through the years, calling upon us to clean up our minds and our bodies.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.
40. But I have commanded you to bring up your children in light and truth.

Here we are.

41. But verily I say unto you, my servant Frederick G. Williams, you have continued under this condemnation;
42. You have not taught your children light and truth, according to the commandments; and that wicked one hath power, as yet, over you, and this is the cause of your affliction.

43. And now a commandment I give unto you -- if you will be delivered you shall set in order your own house, for there are many things that are not right in your house.

44. Verily, I say unto my servant Sidney Rigdon,
He is talking now to the Presidency.
44. ...that in some things he hath not kept the commandments concerning his children; therefore, first set in order thy house.

45. Verily, I say unto my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., or in other words, I will call you friends, for you are my friends, and ye shall have an inheritance with me --
46. I called you servants for the world’s sake, and ye are their servants for my sake --

47. And now, verily I say unto Joseph Smith, Jun. -- You have not kept the commandments, and must needs stand rebuked before the Lord;
I am in the same condition by those standards.

48. Your family must needs repent and forsake some things, and give more earnest heed unto your sayings, or be removed out of their place.
49. What I say unto one I say unto all; pray always lest that wicked one have power in you, and remove you out of your place.

50. My servant Newel K. Whitney also, a bishop of my church, hath need to be chastened, and set in order his family, and see that they are more diligent and concerned at home, and pray always, or they shall be removed out of their place.

That is a terrible judgment for us to contemplate, brothers and sisters. I feel to say no more. The word of the Lord has been given us. God bless you all.
I love you all, and I want only to follow in the footsteps of Leroy Sunderland
Johnson, whom I loved with all my soul, and still love and know him. So I need to repent, as all of us do. May we do so, and may we go on unto perfection, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:96  January 15, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 15, 1989
The Holy Spirit; The Spirit of Revelation;
Set Families in Order

I do love you all and I want you all to be saved in the Celestial Kingdom of God. I know all won't, but that is my desire. Uncle Roy is a light of my life, Uncle John before him; and I simply want to follow in their footsteps in accomplishing the work that lies before us.

The only way any of these things that we have been talking about here today can be accomplished is by getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God. There is no other way. That is the great gift of God to us, His Holy Spirit, which we receive after faith, repentance, and baptism, and by the laying on of hands for that great and glorious gift, which we should cultivate and know. Brother Joseph put it in these terms that I would like to read to you:

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

I want to review again how that works, as was given to Oliver Cowdery in Sections 8 and 9. These are simple, elementary things that we need to cultivate, dear brothers and sisters. Oliver Cowdery desired to translate as Joseph did, and he was allowed to do so. And the Lord said to him.

D.& C. 8

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.
3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.
5. Oh, remember these words, and keep my commandments. Remember, this is your gift.

He tried, but he failed.

D.& C. 9

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.
4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.
6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; The workings of the Spirit.

8. ...then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

10. Now, if you had known this you could have translated; nevertheless, it is not expedient that you should translate now.

So there are some keys, brothers and sisters, how we may know. Section 93 gives us some more. It is relating to intelligence; as the Prophet Joseph said,
"pure intelligence flowing into you."

D.& C. 93

26. The Spirit of truth is of God. I am the Spirit of truth, and John bore record of me, saying: He received a fulness of truth, yea, even of all truth; 27. And no man receiveth a fulness unless he keepeth his commandments.

28. He that keepeth his commandments receiveth truth and light, until he is glorified in truth and knoweth all things.

29. Man was also in the beginning with God. Intelligence, or the light of truth, was not created or made, neither indeed can be.

30. All truth is independent in that sphere in which God has placed it, to act for itself, as all intelligence also; otherwise there is no existence.

31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God;

The body.

35. yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

Then it goes on to speak of setting our families in order, which I think would be wisdom for me to read to you to conclude here today.

40. But I have commanded you to bring up your children in light and truth.

41. But verily I say unto you, my servant Frederick G. Williams, you have continued under this condemnation;

42. You have not taught your children light and truth, according to the commandments; and that wicked one hath power, as yet, over you, and this is the cause of your affliction.

43. And now a commandment I give unto you -- if you will be delivered you shall set in order your own house, for there are many things that are not right in your house.

44. Verily, I say unto my servant Sidney Rigdon, that in some things he hath not kept the commandments concerning his children; therefore, first set in order thy house.

45. Verily, I say unto my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., or in other words, I will call you friends, for you are my friends, and ye shall have an inheritance with me --

46. I called you servants for the world's sake, and ye are their servants for my sake --

47. And now, verily I say unto Joseph Smith, Jun. -- You have not kept the commandments, and must needs stand rebuked before the Lord;

48. Your family must needs repent and forsake some things, and give more earnest heed unto your sayings, or be removed out of their place.

49. What I say unto one I say unto all; pray always lest that wicked one have power in you, and remove you out of your place.

Regarding our tabernacles, brethren and sisters:

D.& C. 38

42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord.

God help us to do so, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
We have indeed been given the word of God here today, especially designed for us who have chosen to obtain the better part. But we have much, much more to accomplish to become one. "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine," said the Lord. And the formula is always, in order to accomplish that, to be filled with the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit of God. Brother Truman spoke the words that I had in my heart to say here today, as though he were speaking for me, and he was. Just this additional, beautiful picture the Prophet lays before us in Lecture Five:

Lecture Five

2. And He (Jesus Christ) being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or in other words the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; Jesus Christ is the only Heir. We are heirs by adoption, by keeping all of the commandments.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Which I pray we may be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:102  February 5, 1989  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
February 5, 1989
Sermon of President Johnson:
The Line Between Us and the Mormon Church Must Widen;
We Have the True Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints;
Must Have Unity

Brothers and sisters, I am grateful beyond words to express for the wonderful support that is being given in these arduous times. I love you all as a father, and I want you all saved in the presence of God. This won't be, for some are yet to be sifted out. I want these words of Leroy S. Johnson to be my words here today for you. This is what I want to get over to you.

LSJ Vol.7  Page 418  January 6, 1985  CCA

I pray that the Lord will bless me with words of encouragement to you while I speak, for I know that we are living in a very precarious time -- when Lucifer is trying again to destroy this people.

I want to lay emphasis on this, brothers and sisters. He is working harder than ever, because he sees this work going on, and it is going on.

Every time the Lord's work has come out in the open, the evil powers have been there to try to knock it down. We have undertaken to bring ourselves out from under the curse that was placed upon us soon after the Church was organized in 1832; and the Lord said we would remain under that condemnation until we repented and remembered the commandments, the Book of Mormon, not only to say but to keep according to what He has written. We have the record, so you can go to it and find out just what that was.

Now, today, we are trying to bring up a people that will prepare their bodies for a greater day. That little line between us and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has got to be greatly widened so that the Lord will know what we are trying to do.

You see the import of that, where we are and where we are headed. That Church is an apostate church. That Church by itself is not going to be set in order. This order of Priesthood has the true Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and to distinguish it from this other one, which is now apostate, we are going back to fundamentals by saying the name is "The Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints", and we will go from here until the One Mighty and Strong comes to carry out the great final work. Many will come out of that church. They will have to come to this order of Priesthood.

I think He is anxiously waiting for us to bring up a people that will cease to criticize and cease to find fault and learn to love their neighbors as themselves. Then they will be ready for further instructions such as the United Order and other commandments the Lord has asked us to do.

It is my belief, my brothers and sisters, that we will win the battle that is being fought at this time if we can prove to the Lord that we mean business.

Make a commitment, and keep it with all our heart, might, mind, and strength to love God and our neighbors.

All who feel to support me in this great work will win the fight. The Lord has done it before when we have humbled ourselves to a point where He could work with us. He can't work with a people who are divided among themselves. He has to have a unified people.

"If ye are not one, ye are not Mine," says the Lord.

This thing has come in such a way that today it has divided the people. There are only a few in comparison with the many millions upon the earth today who are striving with their might to come up to the line and serve God and keep His commandments.

I hope that this people will this once come to the fore and pray night and day for deliverance that we might be delivered from this great monster who has thrust out his hand and laid it on our shoulders.

I have gone over this thing in my mind quite thoroughly in the past two or three months, and I can find no place where I have had it in my heart to do harm to any man or woman, but I have tried to teach the spirit of peace and the Spirit of God to the people so that they could come up to this mark at this time. My great concern is, brothers and sisters, how we can carry out this counsel at this time -- pray night and day for deliverance from the evil powers that are trying to destroy that which the Lord has given us for our safety in the earth (The United Effort Plan) during these last few years of time.

We are in the Saturday night, late Saturday night of time before the great Millennium.

Now, I pray that the Spirit of God will settle upon us and that we will strive with our might to assist in this great battle with our faith and prayers. I am talking to the boys, the young boys, and the young girls, as well as the older people. When you say your prayers, ask the Lord to bless Brother Johnson

And Brother Jeffs,

...in his efforts to save this great United Effort Plan which the Lord has placed here for our benefit if we treat it right. So ask the Lord to bless me and hedge up the way of those who seek to destroy it.

Now, I pray the blessings of God upon you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:105 February 19, 1989 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
February 19, 1989
Affidavit of President Rulon Jeffs Filed in the Fischer Adoption and the ALEOAC Court Cases; President Johnson and Joseph Smith at His Elbow Guiding Him; Judgments to Come on Those Who Have Filed Lawsuits Against the Priesthood

I feel very weak and humble before the Lord as I read you this affidavit which the Lord told me to sign. It has been used in Sam's litigation, in the Fischer litigation, and also Sam is using it in the United Effort Plan litigation.

STATE OF UTAH,
COUNTY OF SALT LAKE
RULON T. JEFFS States under oath:
1. I reside at 3601 Little Cottonwood Road, Sandy Utah, 84092.
2. I am the spiritual leader of a continuing religious congregation which is known as the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
3. As spiritual leader of this religious community I am the immediate successor of the prophet Leroy S. Johnson in the Priesthood established by Joseph Smith through revelation of the Lord. The Priesthood so established has been continued under the leadership of the following successors of Joseph Smith: Brigham Young, John Taylor, John W. Woolley, Lorin C. Woolley, John Y. Barlow, Leroy S. Johnson, and myself, Rulon T. Jeffs.
4. The Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints believes on faith and subscribes to the principles which were revealed by the Lord to Joseph Smith and his successors, including those published in Doctrine and Covenants Section 132, which provides in part, and in substance that:
   a. Members of the Priesthood which consists of all of the righteous males who accept our beliefs and who are admitted to membership are commanded for the purpose of procreation and to carry out the will of the Lord to marry and with the consent of his wife(s) to take additional wives who are not married to others;
   b. That all such marriages entered into as an everlasting covenant sealed by the Holy Spirit and his representative on earth are celestial and eternal, and shall last for eternity beyond the time of this earth; and
   c. That the glory of heaven cannot be attained except by observance of this law. All those to whom this law has been revealed must obey it, and those who do not abide by it shall be damned; and no one who rejects this law shall be permitted to enter into the Lord’s glory.
5. These principles have been consistently held and adhered to by the religious community of which I am spiritual leader since they were revealed through the prophet Joseph Smith, and through the present time.
These truths revealed through Joseph Smith are accepted on faith, and are not debatable.

For Sam's case this paragraph was added, not in the other two:

6. Samuel S. Barlow of Colorado City, Arizona was reared in and is a member of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and as a member of its Priesthood conducts his life in accordance with its beliefs.

(Signed) RULON T. JEFFS

Subscribed and sworn to before me September 15, 1987. -- A. L. Barlow (Notary Public).

Nearly a year and a half ago. I deeply appreciate the expressions of support and testimony that have been given, and I want to carry on as Uncle Roy has pointed out. That is the pledge I made in my remarks at his funeral November 30, 1986, and I mean to carry on in that vein; and he is indeed at my elbow. As time goes on in the carrying out of these obligations and promises and oaths and covenants, I desire to be worthy of the continued presence and aid of the Prophet Joseph, whom I love, as I love each and every one of these brethren who have preceded me. I feel a very near kinship to them in the Councils of the holy Priesthood.

Now I want to point out what the Lord considers His words, pronounced by the Prophet Joseph Smith, which he wrote in Liberty Jail, March 20, 1839, regarding those who have been persecuting the saints. He cried out to the Lord:

D.& C. 121

6. Remember thy suffering saints, O our God; and thy servants will rejoice in thy name forever.

These are the final words of his prayer.

7. My son, peace be unto thy soul; thine adversity and thine afflictions shall be but a small moment;

8. And then, if thou endure it well, God shall exalt thee on high; thou shalt triumph over all thy foes.

9. Thy friends do stand by thee, and they shall hail thee again with warm hearts and friendly hands.

10. Thou art not yet as Job; thy friends do not contend against thee, neither charge thee with transgression, as they did Job.
11. And they who do charge thee with transgression, their hope shall be blasted, and their prospects shall melt away as the hoar frost melteth before the burning rays of the rising sun;
12. And also that God hath set his hand and seal to change the times and seasons, and to blind their minds, that they may not understand his marvelous workings; that he may prove them also and take them in their own craftiness;
13. Also because their hearts are corrupted, and the things which they are willing to bring upon others, and love to have others suffer, may come upon themselves to the very uttermost;
14. That they may be disappointed also, and their hopes may be cut off;
15. And not many years hence, that they and their posterity shall be swept from under heaven, saith God, that not one of them is left to stand by the wall.

I consider that these things, which I will now read, apply to those who have entered into these vexatious lawsuits against the Kingdom of God and against God and His Christ and His Prophets.

16. Cursed are all those that shall lift up the heel against mine anointed, saith the Lord, and cry they have sinned when they have not sinned before me, saith the Lord, but have done that which was meet in mine eyes, and which I commanded them.
17. But those who cry transgression do it because they are the servants of sin, and are the children of disobedience themselves.
18. And those who swear falsely against my servants, Which they have done in this lawsuit. ...
18. ...that they might bring them into bondage and death -- That they might destroy the United Effort Plan.
19. Wo unto them; because they have offended my little ones they shall be severed from the ordinances of mine house.
20. Their basket shall not be full, their houses and their barns shall perish, and they themselves shall be despised by those that flattered them.
21. They shall not have right to the priesthood, nor their posterity after them from generation to generation.
22. It had been better for them that a millstone had been hanged about their necks, and they drowned in the depth of the sea.

23. Wo unto all those that discomfort my people, and drive, and murder, and testify against them, saith the Lord of Hosts; a generation of vipers shall not escape the damnation of hell.

24. Behold, mine eyes see and know all their works, and I have in reserve a swift judgment in the season thereof, for them all;

25. For there is a time appointed for every man, according as his works shall be.

26. God shall give unto you knowledge by his Holy Spirit, yea, by the unspeakable gift of the Holy Ghost, that has not been revealed since the world was until now;

27. Which our forefathers have awaited with anxious expectation to be revealed in the last times, which their minds were pointed to by the angels, as held in reserve for the fulness of their glory;

28. A time to come in which nothing shall be withheld, whether there be one God or many gods, they shall be manifest.

29. All thrones and dominions, principalities and powers, shall be revealed and set forth upon all who have endured valiantly for the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Which I pray we may all do as one people -- united soul, heart, and hand. As one people God will overcome in our behalf. And I delight in the promises made by Uncle Roy when he told how we shall now prevail where they have gone as they have, as described here in former times. The key has been turned and God's name be glorified in these things, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Colorado City, Arizona
February 26, 1989
Gratitude for the Lord's Blessings Upon Him
While in the Hospital

It is wonderful, my brothers and sisters, to be here again with you. I acknowledge the hand of God in recovering from the experience in the hospital; acknowledge His hand and feel that Uncle Roy is here watching and helping us. We need him, in the hands of the Lord, of course, carrying on at this time. I feel to invoke the Holy Spirit of God upon us as we meet today and consider the blessings of God upon this people.

Sandy, Utah
March 19, 1989
The Pure Love of Christ

I would just like to conclude, brothers and sisters, with the words of Moroni. Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

That is the foundation for all of these first principles of the Gospel.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up,

No pride.

45. ...seeketh not her own,
No covetousness.

45. ...is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever;

The Spirit of Christ, the Spirit of God.

47. ...and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

Joseph Smith in the Lectures speaks of how we work when we work by faith. It is by the exertion of the mind, which is another way of saying "all the energy of heart".

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love,

The Holy Spirit of God, if you please.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God;

By becoming like Him, filled with this love, the attributes of God.

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him,

We cannot see Him unless we are like Him, brothers and sisters.

48. ...for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

RTJ 7:112  March 26, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
March 26, 1989
Judgments of God Upon the Wicked of This Generation; They Will Be First and Worst Where the Mormons Are; Loving God and One Another Is Our Only Safety

I am grateful to be with you here today, and to hear the things I have heard, for they are indeed the word of God to us here today. The Spirit of God has been upon all who have spoken, as I am sure you readily recognize.

Brother Wendell made mention of something that has indeed been upon my mind, and has been all this day, as to the judgments that are about to come upon us. I am going to read from the scriptures from Joseph Smith the Prophet. Here is a scenario about where we are at this time:

TPJS  Page 17

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; As to that time, probably the Civil War partially fulfilled that. But he was looking beyond.

...pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

This great sweeping of the wicked from off the face of the land is to take place before the Ten Tribes come from the North and the remnant of Jacob from the South.

The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri;

That is what they were doing then. They failed in many efforts to follow. But we are on the brink of that again, brothers and sisters.

...therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion,

That is what we are here in preparation to accomplish, brothers and sisters.

...before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.
(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.
Writing to Editor Seaton in 1833, January.

D. & C. 45

28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;
29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.

30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

I asked Uncle Roy one time, "When was that?" He said it was in 1890, when the Priesthood and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints rejected the fullness of the Gospel, the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven.

31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge;

That which the Prophet mentioned here.

31. ...for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations;

"Desolations" is to cause a sweeping from off the face of the land of the wicked.

33. ...yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

Brigham Young in a sermon described that it is similar to the times of the Jaredites when they fought to the last man.

34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.
35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.

Section 112 brings it down to our time.
D. & C. 112
23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.

24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

Uncle Roy, on March 18, 1984, spoke of that very thing, those judgments beginning at the House of God, and the setting in order of the House of God. Uncle Roy, after having seen a vision of a destruction that will take place, stated that these judgments would come first and worst upon the areas where the Mormons are gathered together. They are along the whole Wasatch Fault, including down to here. And this earthquake which has been predicted -- not if, but when -- is going to cover over this land as well as the North. Living in Short Creek is not going to save us. Being full of the Holy Ghost, loving one another as one people will save us, and none others, and laboring together as one people, dear brothers and sisters.

In preparation for these things, I pray that we may love God will all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and one another; and do all things necessary to meet the coming crisis, or that which is already here -- the fiery darts of the adversary and the things that are going to precede this scenario that I have brought before you here today. May God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:116 April 2, 1989 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
April 2, 1989
Love of God and of President Johnson; Satan Is Getting in Our Homes Through Television and the Media; Save Our Children
We have heard some wonderful things here today, brothers and sisters, and the things have been said that I had in my mind. It has been wonderful how the brethren are led to speak of the things that the Lord puts in my mind to have spoken here today.

This song we just sang in the middle depicts the greatest and eternal act of love in the existence of this world in which we live, the love of the Lord Jesus Christ, sacrificing and suffering as He did because the Father loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that they might be saved from their sins. The Prophet John Taylor depicts that in the Mediation and Atonement so beautifully, it makes me weep every time I read of how the superincumbent load was borne by the Savior as He hung upon the cross. It is incomprehensible to us how He could do that, speaking of love. God is love. And He says, "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." Brother Lloyd put it into a few different words, but that is what he was talking about; and that is the least we can do in return for the great sacrifice and act of love that He performed for you and me, and for all the sons and daughters of God.

As I contemplate how Uncle Roy suffered, he was called upon to suffer as he did because he loved this people, and he was performing an act of a savior in that suffering. I have made a few remarks about it during the time that he was going through it. How I love that man.

So, brothers and sisters, the first law of heaven is obedience to the commandments of God. The first commandment is to love the Lord our God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; and the second is like unto it, love thy neighbor as thyself. The Prophet John put it in these words: "How can ye say ye love God whom ye cannot see, if ye love not your neighbor whom you can see," and with whom you live and move and have your being? So it is love, the greatest attribute of the Holy Spirit of God, for God is love. That is the best way I can define it.

Now, brothers and sisters, I appreciate the remarks of Brother Truman about this moral fight. Satanism is gaining a terrible foothold among the young people in these tops of the mountains, and it has come pretty close to home, my home. So be on guard, brothers and sisters. Know where your children are. Guard them with your love, the love that is in the home. Let there be love at home. That is where the children abide. And if you love them, watch over them, know what they are doing, where they are going. That is the great problem we have in Short Creek. The children of the apostates are running wild, and many of ours who are still, as we like to feel are with us, our children are running with them.

Television -- oh, what a satanic instrument -- that is how satan gets into our homes. If they never move among gentiles in the world, they get it at home, and they want to imitate it. So reserve television for news and documentaries, and that is all!; and the same with radio, hard rock, iron instruments that rock the soul. So let us close in our homes, brothers and sisters. Don't run out among the gentiles in the outside world for your entertainment. No movies! There isn't a clean movie made, hardly. I know, because I know from experience from what is in my home, has been. So guard against it, brothers and sisters. Let us save our children. Let us be saviors to our children. God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:118  April 9, 1989  CCA Conference

Conference
Colorado City, Arizona
April 9, 1989
Must Be Pure and Clean to Survive

Morning Session
Dear brothers and sisters, I was able to announce last night and do again now, that the Prophet Leroy Johnson is here watching over us in this Conference. This is a glorious sight, to look into this vast congregation; and as Brother Fred has just remarked, this should make that great Church and its leaders envious of this occasion. There is true faith and love among this people. I rejoice in meeting here with you this morning, and invoke the Holy Spirit of God upon this congregation as we meet together in joy and rejoicing and acknowledgement of the blessings of God to us as a people.

There is advancement and improvement that I am sure Uncle Roy is rejoicing over. This beautiful lovely morning is reminiscent of the time when the Prophet Joseph Smith was visited by the Father and the Son. And we will sing now regarding that glorious occasion, "Oh, How Lovely Was the Morning".

[After the invocation, President Jeffs said:] I am reminded at this time by a true statement that appeared in the Deseret News, June 7, 1873:
JD 16:41 Brigham Young May 18, 1873 Ogden, Utah

A declaratory statement is sufficient for those who are prepared to receive the spirit of revelation for themselves, but with most of the human family we have to reason and explain. A really pure person is very scarce, And we have gathered together, largely, such a people.

...but when the heart is truly pure, the Lord can write upon it, and the truth is received without argument, or doubt, or disputation.

The Spirit of revelation, I pray, may be abundantly manifest here today as we listen to the servants of God declaring His word by the Spirit of revelation.

Afternoon Session
We now continue, dear brothers and sisters, with this glorious Conference. Last night there were one thousand eighty bearers of the Priesthood in Conference. This morning's session, we had two thousand one hundred ninety. It looks like we have more than that this afternoon -- very gratifying. May the God of Israel shed forth His Spirit upon us this afternoon and continue the wonderful time that we are having here.

[After the invocation, President Jeffs read from Section 136:]
D.& C. 136

37. Therefore, marvel not at these things, for ye are not yet pure; ye can not yet bear my glory; but ye shall behold it if ye are faithful in keeping all my words that I have given you, from the days of Adam to Abraham, from Abraham to Moses, from Moses to Jesus and his apostles, and from Jesus and his apostles to Joseph Smith, whom I did call upon by mine angels, my ministering servants, and by mine own voice out of the heavens, to bring forth my work;

38. Which foundation he did lay, and was faithful; and I took him to myself.
39. Many have marveled because of his death; but it was needful that he should seal his testimony with his blood, that he might be honored and the wicked might be condemned.

40. Have I not delivered you from your enemies, only in that I have left a witness of my name?
41. Now, therefore, hearken, O ye people of my church; and ye elders listen together; you have received my kingdom.
42. Be diligent in keeping all my commandments, lest judgments come upon you, and your faith fail you and your enemies triumph over you. So no more at present. Amen and Amen.

This along the theme of this Conference.

I am speechless in my ability to express my gratitude for the good will and love of my brethren with whom I am under covenant to keep all the commandments of God, and to love God and my neighbor as myself. Everything that I had in mind to be covered under the theme of this Conference has been brought out. It is miraculous to me, but I only add some more of the words of the Lord through the Prophet Joseph Smith. Section 38:

D.& C. 38

1. Thus saith the Lord your God, even Jesus Christ, the Great I AM, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the same which looked upon the wide expanse of eternity, and all the seraphic hosts of heaven, before the world was made;

2. The same which knoweth all things, for all things are present before mine eyes;

3. I am the same which spake, and the world was made, and all things came by me.

4. I am the same which have taken the Zion of Enoch into mine own bosom; and verily, I say, even as many as have believed in my name, for I am Christ, and in mine own name, by the virtue of the blood which I have spilt, have I pleaded before the Father for them.

5. But behold, the residue of the wicked have I kept in chains of darkness until the judgment of the great day, which shall come at the end of the earth;

6. And even so will I cause the wicked to be kept, that will not hear my voice but harden their hearts, and wo, wo, wo, is their doom.

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you.

So is it now.

7. ...I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;

8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.
He that is not purified, then, will not abide the great judgments that are soon to come upon us. The simplest terms I would like to bring to our minds about what a pure heart is, is that we are filled with the Holy Ghost. That covers it all. And as I have said so many times, the Holy Ghost cannot dwell in impure tabernacles. At the end of this chapter, here is the final admonition:

D.& C. 38

42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. Even so. Amen.

And amen. God bless you.

RTJ 7:121  April 16, 1989  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
April 16, 1989
Brought to a Test: D.& C. 38 --
Only the Pure in Heart Will Survive the Destructions

Another grand time, fed by the Holy Spirit of God. I just want to close by reading a prophecy of Heber C. Kimball, which I read down south.

JD 4:375  Heber C. Kimball  August 16, 1857

There will also be a day when you will be brought to the test -- when your very hearts and your inmost souls will melt within you because of the scenes that many of you will witness. Yes, you will be brought to that test, when you will feel as if every thing within you would dissolve. Brother Johnson saw in vision things like they here describe.

Then will be the time you will be tried whether you will stand the test or fall away.

I have not a doubt but there will be hundreds who will leave us and go away to our enemies. I wish they would go this fall: it might relieve us from much trouble; for if men turn traitors to God and His servants, their blood will surely be shed, or else they will be damned, and that too according to their covenants.

Brother Brigham would rather go to battle against the whole world with three hundred men filled with the Holy Ghost, than to have the whole of you, except you are united with us; and I am sure I would.
The day is to come when one shall chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight. When that day comes, the Lord will make the enemies of His people flee as if there were thousands after them, when there is only one; and that is the way that God will deal with our enemies. The day of God Almighty is at hand, when He will show forth His power, and when He will deliver His people from all their enemies.

This reminds us of the story that Brother Dan once told us, when Israel was trying to get an army together, and the Lord called for three hundred men and they accomplished that which the Lord would desire to be done because they were one and pure in heart. There is a legend of the knights of ancient England about a knight who was called Sir Galahad, whose strength was the strength of ten because his heart was pure. Think on that. I want to say a little more concerning what was given in our meeting last night.

D.& C. 38

1. Thus saith the Lord your God, even Jesus Christ, the Great I AM, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the same which looked upon the wide expanse of eternity, and all the seraphic hosts of heaven, before the world was made;
2. The same which knoweth all things, for all things are present before mine eyes;
3. I am the same which spake, and the world was made, and all things came by me.
4. I am the same which have taken the Zion of Enoch into mine own bosom; and verily, I say, even as many as have believed in my name, for I am Christ, and in mine own name, by the virtue of the blood which I have spilt, have I pleaded before the Father for them.
Zion is the pure in heart. The people that were taken up were pure in heart with Enoch, and one people.

5. But behold, the residue of the wicked have I kept in chains of darkness until the judgment of the great day, which shall come at the end of the earth;
6. And even so will I cause the wicked to be kept, that will not hear my voice but harden their hearts, and wo, wo, wo, is their doom.
7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;
8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

This was mentioned here today before. Only the pure in heart who are filled with the Holy Ghost will be able to abide through the great destructions and judgments that are soon to come about. That must have been what it was with the twenty-five hundred that Jesus Christ came to of the Nephites after His crucifixion, and having appeared to them after the darkness of three days. Twenty-five hundred men, women, and children. That is all there were left from those terrible judgments that took place when He was crucified. The face of the land was changed, cities sunk, cities fallen into the sea, and the wicked swept off from the face of the land.

9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.

10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;

11. For all flesh is corrupted before me; and the powers of darkness prevail upon the earth, among the children of men, in the presence of all the hosts of heaven --

12. Which causeth silence to reign, and all eternity is pained, and the angels are waiting the great command to reap down the earth, to gather the tares that they may be burned; and, behold, the enemy is combined.

13. And now I show unto you a mystery, a thing which is had in secret chambers, to bring to pass even your destruction in process of time, and ye knew it not;

14. But now I tell it unto you, and ye are blessed, not because of your iniquity, neither your hearts of unbelief; for verily some of you are guilty before me, but I will be merciful unto your weakness.

15. Therefore, be ye strong from henceforth; fear not, for the kingdom is yours.

And the last verse:

42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. Even so. Amen.

God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
These brethren have said it about our children, just what I hoped and prayed would be said. There comes to mind this to add; chapter 17 of Third Nephi is so full of the things we have been speaking of here today. After having shown Himself to the people, and great and glorious miracles had been wrought:

3 Nephi 17

10. And they did all, both they who had been healed and they who were whole, bow down at his feet, and did worship him; The Lord Jesus Christ,

10. ...and as many as could come for the multitude did kiss his feet, insomuch that they did bathe his feet with their tears.

11. And it came to pass that he commanded that their little children should be brought.

12. So they brought their little children and set them down upon the ground round about him, and Jesus stood in the midst; and the multitude gave way till they had all been brought unto him.

13. And it came to pass that when they had all been brought, and Jesus stood in the midst, he commanded the multitude that they should kneel down upon the ground.

14. And it came to pass that when they had knelt upon the ground, Jesus groaned within himself, and said: Father, I am troubled because of the wickedness of the people of the house of Israel.

15. And when he had said these words, he himself also knelt upon the earth; and behold he prayed unto the Father, and the things which he prayed cannot be written, and the multitude did bear record who heard him.

16. And after this manner do they bear record: The eye hath never seen, neither hath the ear heard, before, so great and marvelous things as we saw and heard Jesus speak unto the Father;
17. And no tongue can speak, neither can there be written by any man, neither can the hearts of men conceive so great and marvelous things as we both saw and heard Jesus speak; and no one can conceive of the joy which filled our souls at the time we heard him pray for us unto the Father.

18. And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of praying unto the Father, he arose; but so great was the joy of the multitude that they were overcome.

19. And it came to pass that Jesus spake unto them, and bade them arise.

20. And they arose from the earth, and he said unto them: Blessed are ye because of your faith. And now behold, my joy is full.

21. And when he had said these words, he wept, and the multitude bare record of it, and he took their little children, one by one, and blessed them, and prayed unto the Father for them.

22. And when he had done this he wept again;

23. And he spake unto the multitude, and said unto them: Behold your little ones.

24. And as they looked to behold they cast their eyes towards heaven, and they saw the heavens open, and they saw angels descending out of heaven as it were in the midst of fire; and they came down and encircled those little ones about, and they were encircled about with fire; and the angels did minister unto them.

25. And the multitude did see and hear and bear record; and they know that their record is true for they all of them did see and hear, every man for himself; and they were in number about two thousand and five hundred souls; and they did consist of men, women, and children.

These were they who survived the great destructions that took place upon the earth at the time of the crucifixion of the Savior, and out of which destruction He appeared to them, these twenty-five hundred that He came to. I have envisioned that same scene to occur after the great destructions that are to come upon us in a few years. The whole earth is going to be changed on the face, the earth in commotion, going through the same things that the earth went through at the crucifixion of Christ. Now, who were these? They had to be like Him to stand in His presence, pure as He was pure. Is it any wonder that this nucleus grew to fulfill the Holy United Order and live with perfect confidence for nearly two hundred years? We are about to enter into the great Millennium. What is it going to take for us to remember for one thousand years? What are we going to have to go through? Satan will be bound by the righteousness and the perfection of the lives of the saints of God, no other way. That is what is ahead.

How many of us are going to survive these great destructions? And as Warren mentioned, how many of us will be able to be raised up, caught up when these destructions come? It will be only they who are pure as He, Jesus Christ, is pure. Again the picture is drawn here:

Moroni 7

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him. They who are full of the Holy Ghost will survive.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;

We cannot stand in His presence unless we are like Him, dear brothers and sisters.

48. ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

God bless you to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:127  May 10, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 10, 1989
Funeral of Parley Joseph Harker
Son of Elder Sterling Harker

I, too, consider it a privilege to be here at the services of Parley Joseph Harker. I know he was a fine young man. Brother Truman laid out very beautifully the situation that this young man is in, and I feel to confirm it to you. So I would just like to add some beautiful words of the Prophet Joseph Smith, pertaining to children passing on.

TPJS Page 196

President Smith read the 14th chapter of Revelation, and said -- We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst, which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, why it is that infants, innocent children, are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting. The strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these: This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the "world grows weaker and wiser"; if that is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt. In the earlier ages of the world a righteous man, and a man of God and of intelligence, had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth, and he has much sorrow to pass through here. The Lord takes many away even in infancy, that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore, if rightly considered, instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.

What chance is there for infidelity when we are parting with our friends almost daily? None at all. The infidel will grasp at every straw for help until death stares him in the face, and then his infidelity takes its flight, for the realities of the eternal world are resting upon him in mighty power; and when every earthly support and prop fails him, he then sensibly feels the eternal truths of the immortality of the soul. We should take warning and not wait for the death-bed to repent, as we see the infant taken away by death, so may the youth and middle-aged, as well as the infant be suddenly called into eternity. Let this, then, prove as a warning to all not to procrastinate repentance, or wait till a death-bed, for it is the will of God that man should repent and serve Him in health, and in the strength and power of his mind, in order to secure his blessing, and not wait until he is called to die.

The doctrine of baptizing children, or sprinkling them, or they must welter in hell, is a doctrine not true, not supported in Holy Writ, and is not consistent with the character of God. All children are redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, and the moment that children leave this world, they are taken to the bosom of Abraham. The only difference between the old and young dying is, one lives longer in heaven and eternal light and glory.
than the other, and is freed a little sooner from this miserable wicked world. Notwithstanding all this glory, we for a moment lose sight of it, and mourn the loss, but we do not mourn as those without hope.

I have not had to pass through this ordeal with a grown child, but have laid away five who died in infancy after living only a few hours. One was three months old, Lorin, who died of bronchial pneumonia, quick pneumonia at three months of age. These things lay upon me as grand truths that we can find comfort and strength in carrying on. May the Lord bless Brother Parley, Sterling, Phyllis, and all of their family. May we give glory and honor to God, for all that He does is right, and put all things in His hands to do according to His will. May we all do this, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:130  May 14, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 14, 1989
The Lord Will Fight the Battles for the United Effort Plan

I thank God from the bottom of my heart for the way He has blessed us here today, giving us His word through these, my brethren, in whom I have unbounded confidence. I would like to conclude this service by delivering a message delivered by Uncle Roy, which I want to be his words as well as mine to this people at this time; and because it is appropriate in the great battle we are engaged in.

[He then read the sermon of President Johnson, found in LSJ Vol.7  Page 418, January 6, 1985; also on page 103 of this volume.]

RTJ 7:130  May 21, 1989  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
May 21, 1989
I will now preach the shortest sermon I have ever preached. If you are not with me, you are against me. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:130  May 28, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 28, 1989
Experience at Deposition for Law Case

I am delighted, my dear brothers and sisters, to meet with you again on this beautiful Sabbath day. I feel to acknowledge the hand of God in blessing me in the depositions of last Monday and Tuesday, as a result of your great faith in fasting and your prayers; and all is well. Our attorneys said to me afterwards, "They did not touch you with a glove." That was good news from the attorneys.

I invoke the Holy Spirit of God upon us here as we meet, that we may have a time of rejoicing and instruction together.

RTJ 7:131  May 31, 1989  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises

Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
Sandy, Utah
May 31, 1989
In All Your Learning, Learn the Spirit of God

The Spirit of God is indeed here and directing these exercises. As I was trying to get an idea of the message I would like to deliver to these graduates and to all of the students and parents of Alta Academy, and it still centers -- the most important thing for us is to get and keep the Spirit of God. The phrase came to mind: "In all thy getting, get and keep the Spirit of God." The primary function of the Spirit of God is the Spirit of revelation. There is no salvation without revelation. Joseph Smith said:

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings.

Which were recounted as to the Two Comforters -- the Holy Ghost and the personage of Jesus Christ, by which our calling and election is made sure. And Joseph said this:

A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God
Let me emphasize that.
...and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

There is recently transcribed a sermon that I gave August 6, 1978, in Colorado City. And I feel as to learning the Spirit of God and how to become like Him and come into His presence, there is outlined in this sermon that which I would like these graduates and all of the students of this Academy to do. I think you will learn something from this. "In all thy learning, learn the Spirit of God." I will ask Warren to read it to you.

[After the sermon was read, President Jeffs then said:] I want to say to these graduates, you are graduating from a course of study required in giving us a broad education in preparation for our lives as we go from this time forward.
I desire that these words that have been read will help you to graduate into eternal life, and to a holy resurrection. I will now present the diplomas.

RTJ 7:132 June 4, 1989 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
June 4, 1989
Judgments of God; Prepare; We Are Here to Make Zion

Dear brothers and sisters, all I can say is, "I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me," as the Prophet said in the meridian of time. I desire but to be an instrument in the hands of God to do His will and bring to pass that which our Father has in store for His children in this great and last dispensation. At this time I just feel to bring to our attention again what we have yet to go through. It will be a flood of destructions. The Lord has outlined it in Section 45. This tells what is to happen, speaking in the beginning of the blessed state of Enoch. This goes on to show how Christ shall come after all these things transpire. I think that is a sermon.

D. & C. 45

1. Hearken, O ye people of my church, to whom the kingdom has been given; hearken ye and give ear to him who laid the foundation of the earth, who made the heavens and all the hosts thereof, and by whom all things were made which live, and move, and have a being.
2. And again I say, hearken unto my voice, lest death shall overtake you; in an hour when ye think not the summer shall be past, and the harvest ended, and your souls not saved.

3. Listen to him who is the advocate with the Father, who is pleading your cause before him --
4. Saying: Father, behold the sufferings and death of him who did no sin, in whom thou wast well pleased; behold the blood of thy Son which was shed, the blood of him whom thou gavest that thyself might be glorified;

5. Wherefore, Father, spare these my brethren that believe on my name, that they may come unto me and have everlasting life.
6. Hearken, O ye people of my church, and ye elders listen together, and hear my voice while it is called today, and harden not your hearts;

7. For verily I say unto you that I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the light and the life of the world -- a light that shineth in darkness and the darkness comprehendeth it not.
8. I came unto mine own, and mine own received me not; but unto as many as received me gave I power to do many miracles, and to become the sons of God; and even unto them that believed on my name gave I power to obtain eternal life.

9. And even so I have sent mine everlasting covenant into the world, to be a light to the world, and to be a standard for my people, and for the Gentiles to seek to it, and to be a messenger before my face to prepare the way before me.
10. Wherefore, come ye unto it, and with him that cometh I will reason as with men in days of old, and I will show unto you my strong reasoning.

11. Wherefore, hearken ye together and let me show unto you even my wisdom -- the wisdom of him whom ye say is the God of Enoch, and his brethren,
12. Who were separated from the earth, and were received unto myself -- a city reserved until a day of righteousness shall come -- a day which was sought for by all holy men, and they found it not because of wickedness and abominations;

13. And confessed they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth;
14. But obtained a promise that they should find it and see it in their flesh.
15. Wherefore, hearken and I will reason with you, and I will speak unto you and prophesy, as unto men in days of old.
16. And I will show it plainly as I showed it unto my disciples as I stood before them in the flesh, and spake unto them, saying: As ye have asked of me concerning the signs of my coming, in the day when I shall come in my glory in the clouds of heaven, to fulfil the promises that I have made unto your fathers,
17. For as ye have looked upon the long absence of your spirits from your bodies to be a bondage, I will show unto you how the day of redemption shall come, and also the restoration of the scattered Israel.
18. And now ye behold this temple which is in Jerusalem, which ye call the house of God, and your enemies say that this house shall never fall.
19. But, verily I say unto you, that desolation shall come upon this generation as a thief in the night, and this people that is the Jews in Jerusalem,
19. ...shall be destroyed and scattered among all nations.
20. And this temple which ye now see shall be thrown down that there shall not be left one stone upon another.
21. And it shall come to pass, that this generation of Jews shall not pass away until every desolation which I have told you concerning them shall come to pass.
22. Ye say that ye know that the end of the world cometh; ye say also that ye know that the heavens and the earth shall pass away;
23. And in this ye say truly, for so it is; but these things which I have told you shall not pass away until all shall be fulfilled.
24. And this I have told you concerning Jerusalem; and when that day shall come, shall a remnant be scattered among all nations;
And now it starts in on our day.
25. But they shall be gathered again; but they shall remain until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
26. And in that day
The last days.
26. ...shall be heard of wars and rumors of wars, and the whole earth shall be in commotion, and men's hearts shall fail them, and they shall say that Christ delayeth his coming until the end of the earth.
27. And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.
28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;
29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.
30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.
32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.
33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.
34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.
35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.
36. And when the light shall begin to break forth, it shall be with them like unto a parable which I will show you --
37. Ye look and behold the fig-trees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;
38. Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.

That brings us to where we are. Let us look at a thing or two here:

D. & C. 45
28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;
29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.
30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
You see how the issue of the Manifesto was the fulfillment of the times of the gentiles. They rejected the fullness of the Gospel, so said the Prophet Leroy Johnson. Now there is laid out briefly here all of the things that are to come to pass -- a desolating sickness, many desolations. To show you how it will come about, Section 112, as to the people of God:

D. & C. 112

23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.

24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

We have seen that, the judgments beginning at the House of God. The Prophet Leroy Johnson set about to set in order the Priesthood Council, February 18, 1984. So the day is near. We are now gathering a people as they tried to do in 1831. Joseph Smith, writing to Editor Seaton, says this, page 17 of the Teachings:

TPJS Page 17

The Book of Mormon is a record of the forefathers of our western tribes of Indians; having been found through the ministration of an holy angel, and translated into our own language by the gift and power of God, after having been hid up in the earth for the last fourteen hundred years, containing the word of God which was delivered unto them. By it we learn that our western tribes of Indians are descendants from that Joseph who was sold into Egypt, and that the land of America is a promised land unto them, and unto it all the tribes of Israel will come, with as many of the Gentiles as shall comply with the requisitions of the new covenant. But the tribe of Judah will return to old Jerusalem. The city of Zion spoken of by David, in the one hundred and second Psalm, will be built upon the land of America,
"And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads." (Isaiah xxxv:10); and then they will be delivered from the overflowing scourge that shall pass through the land. But Judah shall obtain deliverance at Jerusalem. See Joel ii:32; Isaiah xxvi:20 and 21; Jeremiah xxxi:12; Psalms 1:5; Ezekiel xxxiv:11, 12 and 13. These are testimonies that the Good Shepherd will put forth His own sheep, and lead them out from all nations where they have been scattered in a cloudy and dark day, to Zion, and to Jerusalem; besides many more testimonies which might be brought.

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; That was the great Civil War.

...pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, Of America, the whole of America. North America, the Prophet Joseph said, is Zion.

...to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; They failed. But Zion shall be redeemed, he was promised, after that failure. And the Prophets since then have been trying to get a people to abide the Holy United Order, without which Zion cannot be built.

The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation;

You see that the wicked must be swept off from the face of this land to prepare for Israel, the Ten Tribes, to come from the north country. All these things must be done before they come. Section 133 describes how they will come in that great day. We are now gathering a people in the Arizona Strip, to prepare, by living the Holy United Order; and the enemy, with satan, are trying to destroy the United Effort Plan; which was inspired of God through the Prophets John Y. Barlow and Leroy Johnson; and Joseph Musser did a great deal in putting it together. I had the honor of being among those brethren when the United Effort Plan was formed and signed, the declaration of trust. But we are here now, gathering a people to a place which we must call, or make Zion. Brigham Young describes the sort of thing that we must do here.

JD 5:4  Brigham Young  July 5, 1857  SLC

We can make Zion, or we can make Babylon, just as we please. We can make just what we please of this place. The people can make Zion: they can make a heaven within themselves. When people gather here, they should come with a determination to make Zion within themselves, with the resolution that "I will carry myself full of the Spirit of Zion wherever I go; and this is the way in which I will control evil spirits; for I mean that my spirit shall have control over evil:" and do you not see that such a course will make Zion?

This American continent will be Zion; for it is so spoken of by the prophets. Jerusalem will be rebuilt and will be the place of gathering, and the tribe of Judah will gather there; but this continent of America is the land of Zion.

These judgments which have been spoken of in Section 45 will be the means by which the wicked will be swept off from the face of the land, and we have to go through that. No wonder the Prophet Leroy Johnson called upon us to have and build up nerves of steel. Let me tell you, only those who are filled with the Holy Spirit of Christ, the pure love of Christ, the Holy Ghost, will survive. Only such could be caught up when these judgments go forth. See how few were left when the face of the land was changed at the time of the coming of Christ to the Nephites after His resurrection. Twenty-five hundred men, women, and children was the number of those He came to and established the Holy United Order, and they made a Zion for a period of nearly two hundred years. They remembered the destructions long enough to do that. Think what it will be for us to remember for a thousand years. So, let us close by the words of the Prophet.
...therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.
And may I add my name under his, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:140  June 11, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 11, 1989
Oneness
I am going to ask Brother Fred now to sum up for me. I want you to know, brothers and sisters, these men who have spoken to you today are one with me. Many of you are one with me. Let us make it more, until we have five hundred men and their families one, that we may build that Zion that the Prophets have worked for from the beginning, from the time of Enoch until now.

RTJ 7:141  June 30, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 30, 1989
Funeral of Sharon Lacy Hunter Holm
I am deeply grateful, brothers and sisters and friends, to be here on this occasion and be asked to have a part in this solemn occasion. My feelings for my dear brother and fellow Apostle, Carl O. N. Holm, was a true love of brethren. I loved Brother Carl, a fellow servant and Apostle of Jesus Christ under the direction of John Y. Barlow, the Prophet who ordained Carl to that high and holy calling. Brother Carl was, I feel, a man after the Prophet's own heart -- John Y. Barlow and Leroy Sunderland Johnson -- whom he served and loved with all his heart; and I feel, as I think now on the words of
42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.
43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

I am trying to portray the character of Brother Carl.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --
47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

I never heard a word of criticism from the lips of Carl Holm, and he labored with all his might to abide the holy Celestial Law, which includes Celestial and Plural Marriage and the Holy United Order. These cannot be abided save we be filled with this pure love of Christ, the Holy Spirit of God. We must abide the order of unity in our families as we abide the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. He was full of charity, the pure love of Christ, and he loved his family. I was closely associated with him in his labors in the Priesthood Council, under John Y. Barlow and Leroy S.
These words that have been spoken of Sister Sharon are a part of Brother Carl's abiding the Celestial Law, as to his wives and his children. He tried mightily to be united in his family and with his brethren, and with his head, the Prophets John Y. Barlow and Leroy Johnson. I just feel to read a few verses of Section 82 as to the law of unity, the Order of Enoch.

D.& C. 82

17. And you are to be equal, or in other words, you are to have equal claims on the properties, for the benefit of managing the concerns of your stewardships, every man according to his wants and his needs, inasmuch as his wants are just --

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

These two crowning principles of the Gospel must be lived in that spirit. There is the heart of the United Order. A community of families united and full of the Spirit of God and abiding the Celestial Law, the Family Order of Heaven, is the only way that they can be lived. As to the Celestial Law of the Family Order of Heaven, it says in Section 131:

D.& C. 131

1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

D.& C. 132

19. And again, verily I say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word, which is my law, and by the new and everlasting covenant, and it is sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise, by him who is anointed, unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood; and it shall be said unto them -- Ye shall come forth in the first resurrection; and if it be after the first resurrection, in the next resurrection; and shall inherit thrones, kingdoms, principalities and powers, dominions, all heights and depths --

There is the endowment involved in the holy Celestial Law.

19. ...then shall it be written in the Lamb's Book of Life, that he shall commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, and if ye abide in my covenant, and commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, it shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my servant hath put upon them, in time, and through all eternity; and shall be of full force when they are out of the world; and they shall pass by the angels, and the gods, which are set there, to their exaltation and glory in all things, as hath been sealed upon their heads, which glory shall be a fullness and a continuation of the seeds forever and ever.

A plurality of wives is enjoined in the remaining verses of this Section 132. The continuation of these holy laws has been the object of the labors of the men set apart and ordained by John Taylor in September 1886. That is what this community is established to accomplish. What a glorious and wonderful experience it has been to labor under John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson, who were under covenant with other of the Priesthood Council to continue in the fullness of the Gospel, the crowning principles of which are the Holy United Order and the Celestial Law of Marriage, including the plurality of wives.

Carl had a large and beautiful family. Sister Sharon was a vital part of that family in the heart of Brother Carl, and I am sure he is about to take her over there as her spirit lingers here at this time until she is laid away. God bless the family of Brother Carl. May they find comfort and strength in the example set by their sister wife and mother, Sharon Hunter Holm. She set a beautiful example, with her sister wives, to accomplish the mission and the labors of dear Brother Carl Holm. God bless them all. God bless all of us, that we may realize that we must abide the Celestial Law in order to enter into the highest glory of the Celestial Kingdom, which is the purpose of it; that we may become like God. May this be our lot and our great blessing, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Sandy, Utah
July 2, 1989
Clean Hands and Pure Hearts Are Required

Brother Newel Steed passed away at 5:50 this morning, in Hildale, Utah. The funeral will be Wednesday at 1:00.

I am sure you all recognize that Brother Truman was speaking for me. In this great message that we are trying to get over, we cannot have clean hands and pure hearts without the Spirit of God. We cannot get the Spirit of God if we are unclean and impure. I just want to close by calling our attention to the word of the Lord to the saints, through the Prophet Joseph.

D.& C. 38

5. But behold, the residue of the wicked have I kept in chains of darkness until the judgment of the great day, which shall come at the end of the earth;

6. And even so will I cause the wicked to be kept, that will not hear my voice but harden their hearts, and wo, wo, wo, is their doom.

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;

8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me,

When we are like Him.

8. ... and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

Only those who are filled with the pure love of Christ, the Holy Spirit of God, will be able to abide the day for the judgments that are soon to come upon us. So I say with Uncle Roy, let us come to have nerves of steel and not be moved.

9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.

10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;

11. For all flesh is corrupted before me; and the powers of darkness prevail upon the earth, among the children of men, in the presence of all the hosts of heaven --

12. Which causeth silence to reign, and all eternity is pained, and the angels are waiting the great commandment to reap down the earth, to gather the tares that they may be burned; and, behold, the enemy is combined.

13. And now I show unto you a mystery, a thing which is had in secret chambers, to bring to pass even your destruction in process of time, and ye knew it not;

14. But now I tell it unto you, and ye are blessed, not because of your iniquity, neither your hearts of unbelief; for verily some of you are guilty before me, but I will be merciful unto your weakness.

15. Therefore, be ye strong from henceforth; fear not, for the kingdom is yours.

Which I pray may be, under God, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:146  July 5, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 5, 1989
Funeral of Elder Newel Steed

This has been a very emotional experience for me, and I ask the Lord to put words in my mouth that I may say and do those things that are pleasing to Him; and in honoring His servant Newel Steed, who has abided and honored the holy Celestial Patriarchal Order of Marriage, as Brother Parley read to us out of Section 131.

Brother Newel has touched the lives of so many of us. Brother Truman and I were mentioning, as we discussed it together, he has beautifully touched our lives in raising up daughters who love the holy Celestial Law of Marriage. I happen to be a beneficiary of it, which Brother Newel brought to me and the Lord told me to receive her. This is called Celestial or Plural Marriage, which is also Patriarchal Marriage. I would like to add a few more words from Section 132. I must say, Brother Newel and his wives abided this holy law.

D.& C. 132

19. And again, verily I say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word, which is my law, and by the new and everlasting covenant, and it is sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise, by him who is anointed, unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood; and it shall be said unto them -- Ye shall come forth in the first resurrection; and if it be after the first resurrection, in the next resurrection; and shall inherit thrones, kingdoms, principalities, and powers, dominions, all heights and depths -- then shall it be written in the Lamb's Book of Life, that he shall commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, and if ye abide in my covenant, and commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, it shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my servant hath put upon them, in time, and through all eternity; and shall be of full force when they are out of the world; and they shall pass by the angels, and the gods, which are set there, to their exaltation and glory in all things, as hath been sealed upon their heads, which glory shall be a fulness and a continuation of the seeds forever and ever.

20. Then shall they be gods, because they have no end; therefore shall they be from everlasting to everlasting, because they continue; then shall they be above all, because all things are subject unto them. Then shall they be gods, because they have all power, and the angels are subject unto them.

21. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye abide my law ye cannot attain to this glory.

22. For strait is the gate, and narrow the way that leadeth unto the exaltation and continuation of the lives, and few there be that find it, because ye receive me not in the world neither do ye know me.

RTJ 7:148  July 9, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 9, 1989
Become One Through the Holy Spirit of God

As a sort of a capstone on what we have heard here today, I want to read the following regarding the Godhead.

Lecture Five

2. ...And he (Jesus Christ) being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

That is how we must come to be one. I am going to ask Brother Fred now to speak to us and instruct us on another fast and prayer, trusting that we will join with him as he concludes his remarks with a closing prayer. Concentrate your faith and your heart in the prayer. That is how we can have great power with the Lord. Let us unite in asking the Lord for rain to give us moisture that is so badly needed at this time.
We Must Abide the Celestial Law of Marriage and the United Order Together;
We Are Here to Build a Zion Like Unto Enoch and His City

Dear brothers and sisters, let us draw in the wanderings of our minds and concentrate our minds on that which is to be given us here today by the Holy Spirit of God. We all need to know more how to pray and how to exert our minds in faith. By the power of faith, all things were accomplished, even that by the Father in the creation.

Brother Truman told you the truth about me. I love Uncle Roy. The Lord has put upon us, brothers and sisters, the matter of abiding the Holy United Order. He has provided the physical means by which we can accomplish it in working under the United Effort Plan. We cannot live Celestial Marriage without simultaneously living the Holy United Order, and then say we are living the fullness of the Gospel. It takes both together for the fullness of the Gospel; and it contemplates all of the laws and ordinances of Gospel of Jesus Christ, which enables us to bring these families up in the Celestial Order and come before the face of God.

I want to paint a picture from an article that we have had read here to us, "Enoch and His City", by Joseph Young, brother of Brigham Young, recorded in the Seventies Journal back in Brigham Young’s time. The saints have been trying, the Prophets have been trying from the beginning to get us into that order. It was the first commandment and law that the Lord gave after they had organized the Church. In August of 1831, the Lord revealed where the City of Zion was to be built and where they were to gather and begin their labors to become one people under God. After having described in beautiful terms the City of Enoch, the writer goes on this way and paints a picture that I think most beautifully expresses what our work is now. The Prophet Joseph Smith alluded to the Church or Zion of Enoch. This is what occurred in Nauvoo, and Joseph Young was there and recorded his remarks and this is what he said.
Enoch and His City
From the "Seventies Journal" by Joseph Young

(Joseph Smith) ...discoursed some time upon the nature of its organization, order and progress. He spoke with a view of correcting the teachings of some of the elders who had maintained the doctrine that the people of that church had passed through the ordeals necessary to consummate the work of complete immortality, and that they would be prepared to enter into the presence of the Father and the Son. This idea the Prophet took up, and revealed it in a different light -- in what may be styled a divine philosophy.

He declared of the Church of Enoch "that they did not die; that they had not then gone through their last changes and greatest refinement; and that they had, nevertheless, triumphed over death. That the people, and the city, and the foundations of the earth on which it stood, had partaken of so much of the immortal elements, bestowed upon them by God through the teachings of Enoch, that it became philosophically impossible for them to remain any longer upon the earth; consequently, Enoch and his people, with the city which they occupied, and the foundations on which it stood, with a large piece of earth immediately connected with the foundations and the city, had assumed an aerial position within the limits of our solar system; and this in consequence of their faith."

He further said, "that inasmuch as they did not pass through all the refinement which was necessary, as the Lord lives, they would return to the earth, when they and the city would pass through the same fiery ordeals that yet await the earth; when it shall be transformed into a sea of glass, mingled with fire, and their preparations for a celestial abode of the glorified Saints shall be perfected.

There is a footnote at this point that states;

(Footnote: Joseph Smith said, on another occasion, in the hearing of some of the saints still surviving, that the City of Enoch would again take its place in the identical spot from which it had been detached, now forming that chasm of the earth, filled with water, called the Gulf of Mexico.)

The reader will naturally ask, What are the keys of the commencement of this city of Zion? The Scriptures say, in Paul's address to the Saints, "Know ye not that your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost?" and modern revelation says, "This is Zion -- THE PURE IN HEART."
can doubt, then, that Zion is within us;
That is the point I want to make here today.

...a temple adorned with all the attributes of our Father in heaven. In that view of it, the recipient thereof beholds within himself the work of his Father, and hears the voice of His Spirit; obeys all of His commandments, spiritual and temporal, without the least hesitation or mental reservation. When this spirit is fully established in the hearts of all the Saints, then there will be no idol in the way of their progress. One word, or command, is just as easy for them to hearken to and obey as another; and they realize the saying, "God is love; he that dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him." Then they have a Zion first within their hearts; a germ of an abiding inheritance upon the new earth.

The Saints are looking for a modern Zion which shall be after the identical order of the ancient one; and for a time when the Apostles, with their President at their head, will rise up and thunder so loud, that if they do not shake the mountains from their foundations, they will have the effect of shaking pride and covetousness out of the hearts of the Saints, who will be filled with righteousness -- Their only motive, the building up of Zion; making their faith and their works, their means and substance to bow to that end, and that only; and so continuing their labors in this good work, answering to the Zion within them, and erecting and adorning temples and mansions; building cities, and spreading abroad, until they shall become a model of the Zion of old, built by Enoch.

Whether these designs of the Saints will be consummated in a very short period of time, or at a "set time" still more remote, it will and must be the fruits of their faith in the Lord God, or they will not be acknowledged as His people, according to the revelations which He has given concerning Zion. Taking this view of the subject, the Seventies and the Elders of Israel will be endowed with the power of their calling, in preaching the Gospel and gathering the people from the uttermost parts of the earth.

That is what they were doing then. The times of the gentiles has been fulfilled, and we are now facing the last great call to perfect ourselves, that we may abide the day when the judgments come and fulfill the words of God.

Their words will be as the words of God to the people, in strengthening their hands and cheering their hearts to persevere, until Zion is built up and perfected on the earth, and the Lord shall appear in his glory and That is what we are about, dear brothers and sisters. Let us have Zion in our hearts. Like I read on one other occasion from Brigham Young:

JD 5:4  Brigham Young  July 5, 1857  SLC

_We can make Zion, or we can make Babylon, just as we please. We can make just what we please of this place. The people can make Zion: they can make a heaven within themselves. When people gather here, they should come with a determination to make Zion within themselves, with the resolution that "I will carry myself full of the Spirit of Zion wherever I go; and this is the way in which I will control evil spirits; for I mean that my spirit shall have control over evil:" and do you not see that such a course will make Zion?_

This American continent will be Zion; for it is so spoken of by the prophets. Jerusalem will be rebuilt and will be the place of gathering, and the tribe of Judah will gather there; but this continent of America is the land of Zion.

May we be about the Lord's business then, my dear brothers and sisters, to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:154  August 13, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 13, 1989
Become One

Uncle Fred has been my spokesman exactly for the words to close this meeting upon. I love you with all my heart, and I want you all to be saved; that we can all be one and saved as a people. The great battles are yet to come before us in the form of judgments, and the things that are going to destroy and wipe off the wicked from the face of this land. This battle over the United Effort Plan is just a practice as to what is coming yet. May we be humble and contrite, meek and lowly in heart, and be obedient to all the commandments of God. May we be one. May the Holy Spirit of God be shed forth upon us all. That is the uniting power, which I pray may be with us, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:154  August 20, 1989  Sandy
Sandy, Utah
August 20, 1989
Lecture Five

I would like to cap all these marvelous truths that we have heard here today, by reading from Lecture Five, as I have done before; but this tells how it is done -- to be filled with the Holy Spirit of God.

Lecture Five

2. ...And he (Christ) being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit,
Which makes Them one.

2. ...that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ;
For He is the only Heir. We are adopted as joint heirs.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Amen.

RTJ 7:156  August 23, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 23, 1989
Funeral of Joseph Sutherland Holm
I, too, deem it a privilege and honor to be called upon to make a contribution to these sacred services, and pray for the Spirit of God to guide me. I can't think of anything better than the words of Joseph Smith appropriate to this occasion.

TPJS  Page 196
We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst, which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, why it is that infants, innocent children, are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting. The strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these: This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the "world grows weaker and wiser"; if that is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt. In the earlier ages of the world a righteous man, and a man of God and of intelligence, had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth, and he has much sorrow to pass through here. The Lord takes many away even in infancy, that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore, if rightly considered, instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.

What chance is there for infidelity when we are parting with our friends almost daily? None at all. The infidel will grasp at every straw for help until death stares him in the face, and then his infidelity takes its flight, for the realities of the eternal world are resting upon him in mighty power; and when every earthly support and prop fails him, he then sensibly feels the eternal truths of the immortality of the soul. We should take warning and not wait for the death-bed to repent, as we see the infant taken away by death, so may the youth and middle-aged, as well as the infant be suddenly called into eternity. Let this, then, prove as a warning to all not to procrastinate repentance, or wait till a death-bed, for it is the will of God that man should repent and serve Him in health, and in the strength and power of his mind, in order to secure his blessing, and not wait until he is called to die.

TPJS  Page 367
All men are born to die, and all men must rise; all must enter eternity. In order for you to receive your children to yourselves you must have a promise -- some ordinance; some blessing, in order to ascend above principalities, or else it may be an angel. They must rise just as they died; we can there hail our lovely infants with the same glory -- the same loveliness in the celestial glory, where they all enjoy alike. They differ in stature, in size, the same glorious spirit gives them the likeness of glory and bloom; the old man with his silvery hairs will glory in bloom and beauty. No man can describe it to you -- no man can write it.

I pray God to bless and sustain this family of Brother Paul Holm, and to find comfort in these words, as well as the great and wonderful words that have been spoken here on this occasion. And may God bless us all that we may prepare for the day when we are called home, and go innocent as this young man has gone. God bless you all, amen.
September 5, 1989
Comments About the Seminary in Short Creek; School Rules; The Responsibility Resting on Mothers;
Teach Children Obedience by the Time They Are Three Years Old;
Spirit of Revelation

I thought it might be of a welcome interest to you to advise you on what has been done in Short Creek by way of religious training in our schools. We have set up a seminary that will be held in the LSJ Meeting House on released time from the school board. They release them for an hour to go to our own premises and conduct a school of religion, Priesthood teachings. They don't get any school credits for it as I understand they do in Utah. This is on the Arizona side, but the Seventh and Eighth Grades in the Phelps School will be welcome to come. They get released time there, too. Brother Louis Barlow is administrator. Instructors along with him are John Johnson and Arthur Barlow. They may add some more by that time. A week ago yesterday they had over three hundred registered, so that is going to be a wonderful thing for our young people; and they have to qualify to come into that class on the same rules of qualifying to come into this school. They have borrowed them from us.

Just to mention a thing or two on the letters that went out to the parents, dated August 21, 1989. No prayers or Jesus Christ's name can be mentioned in public schools. We are being assailed in this United Effort Plan lawsuit -- accusing us, saying we are mixing church and state.

But if you desire them to be taught as the Prophet desires them to be taught, then this is where they can receive such teachings. The first requirement of invitation is on the parents. The parents must be one hundred percent in support and loyalty to President Jeffs. Everyone doing the will of our Prophet will create the unity and love the Lord is looking for.

In the seminary they are going on that, too. Just that word for you to welcome and be aware of.

I commend this first item of Brigham Young's, speaking to the mothers. I hope we don't have mothers who expect us to raise their children for them, correct them. They are not going to take it from us if they are not going to take it from you, you mothers. These are wonderful instructions here.
Taking parts of this first sermon of Brigham Young, I will read what I have read.

JD 1:66-67  Brigham Young  April 8, 1852  SLC
It has been hinted that education commences with the first dawn of knowledge upon the mental faculties of the child, and continues with it till death. But I will trace it a little further back still, and say that education commences with the mother, and the child in connection. I will state the facts in the case, as you will find them to be hereafter, in the education of your children. It depends in a great degree upon the mother, as to what children receive, in early age, of principle of every description, pertaining to all that can be learned by the human family. When will mothers understand this? Knowing that this is the case, I am perplexed with grief when I see such a wanton diversion from the real design of life, it causes me to mourn for my poor, ignorant, fellow mortals, and sometimes almost goads me to anger. I can see mothers pay attention to everything under heaven, but the training up of their children in the way they should go, and they will even make it appear obligatory on the father to take care of the child at a year old. How often is it the case that mothers will say --
"Why, Pa, this child is growing up in ignorance, he is going to ruin.
Really, dear husband, what shall we do with him?" I will tell you the truth as you will find it in eternity. If your children do not receive impressions of true piety, virtue, tenderness, and every principle of the holy Gospel, you may be assured that their sins will not be required at the hands of the father, but of the mother. Lay it to heart, ye mothers, for it will unavoidably be so. The duty of the mother is to watch over her children, and give them their early education, for impressions received in infancy are lasting.

I want to emphasize that.

You know, yourselves, by experience, that the impressions you have received in the dawn of your mortal existence, bear, to this day, with the greatest weight upon your mind. It is the experience of people generally, that what they imbibe from their mothers in infancy, is the most lasting upon the mind through life.
So, those years are preschool. That is where the foundation is laid, before we
This is natural, it is reasonable, it is right. I do not suppose you can find one person among five hundred, who does not think his mother to be the best woman that ever lived. This is right, it is planted in the human heart.

But when we address ourselves to the Saints of the Most High God, it is very different and in a different light. It is for my sisters to be mothers of holy men and holy women -- to receive and conceive in the name and by the power of the Holy Ghost -- to bring forth their fruits to the praise and honour of the God of heaven.

Sisters, do not ask whether you can make yourselves happy, but whether you can do your husband's will, if he is a good man. Teach your children; for you are their guardians, to act as father and mother to them until they are out of your care. The teachings and examples of our mothers have formed, to a great extent, our characters and directed our lives. This is their right, when they act by the power of the Priesthood, to direct the child until it is of a proper age, and then hand it over to the husband and father, and into the hands of God.

My father used to teach us, "The child that has not learned obedience by the time they are three, you have practically lost them." So when that happens, the damage is done before we get them in school. It is too late.

There are some wonderful things in here of Brother Johnson's. Take them to heart. It has to do with instructions for teachers out of his sermons. It is a fine collection, Warren. There are some from John Taylor.

When Brigham Young was approached by Karl G. Maeser, who was the first administrator in the Brigham Young University, Brother Maeser asked Brother Young for instructions. He said, "Brother Maeser, I want you to teach by the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost." That covers it all. You have got to have it to teach it. We have to learn the Spirit of God; so that is my instruction to you. But if you should like to get a few words from me tonight, I will read you a little scripture.

Early in the history of the Church, Oliver Cowdery was getting mixed up with a man who had seen a seer stone, as he supposed, and was giving some revelations. So Oliver came to the Prophet about it and he got this revelation.
from the Lord, directed to Oliver:

D.& C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

The Lord was not there, and no angels were. He was guided by the Holy Ghost. Oliver here was given the gift of translation.

7. Behold, there is no other power, save the power of God, that can cause this gift of Aaron to be with you.

He seemed to work on it, but was not able with the power of his faith to obtain it.

D.& C. 9

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

That means he did not exert his mind. The Lord told Moroni, "With all the energy of heart, you pray for the Holy Spirit of God."

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

We cannot carry on our labors of the Kingdom without that same Spirit of God. So the gift of translation was taken from him. It was a great lesson to him. In connection with this, the Prophet Joseph Smith says this. He at first was talking about the First and Second Comforter, the First being the Holy Ghost. The Second is the appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

In connection with endowments, we have an endowment in the marriage covenant. It is sufficient to take us to the Celestial Kingdom, as stated by the Prophet Leroy Johnson.

TPJS  Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

The gift of the Holy Ghost is upon us all. We have received it by the laying on of hands. The great work we have now is to attain to this great object which Section 121 gives us. You ladies, I want you to understand, in your laboring under the direction of the holy Priesthood, you should be very much aware of the fact that that is the power of your husband over you; and that is the power of the Priesthood over the saints. So when it says what I read to you from Brigham Young, "by the power of the Priesthood," doesn't mean you do anything in the authority of the Priesthood. Joseph Smith said females can lay hands on the sick by the prayer of faith to heal them. My grandmother Timpson hardly ever called a doctor. She had the gift of healing through her faith.

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

This is a rule to use when disciplining the children by the power of love; and you can betimes speak to them with sharpness, but make sure it is the Holy Ghost doing it, not a fit of temper or losing control of yourself. So govern these children by love and kindness and pure knowledge.

43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly;

Clean hands and pure hearts. The Holy Ghost cannot dwell in an unclean tabernacle.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

Knowledge, faith, justice, judgment, charity -- yes, charity -- mercy, and truth. God is a God of truth and cannot lie.

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

It will be naturally flowing into you. That is what it means "without compulsory means." When we are full of the fullness of the Holy Ghost, we are like God, and only those who are full of it are going to survive these last judgments -- the overflowing scourge, the desolating sickness, earthquakes, flood, fire. This land of America will be swept clean of its inhabitants. The same thing happened when God appeared to the Nephites after the crucifixion and resurrection. The whole face of the land was changed. He found there when He came, according to chapter 17 of Third Nephi, about twenty-five hundred men, women, and children. That is all He had to work with, setting up the United Order and organizing the Church under the direction of the Twelve Apostles that were called then. The Three Nephites remained with them until 200 A.D. They were able to stand in His presence when He came. You could not stand in the presence of Jesus Christ unless you are full of the Holy Ghost. After having blessed the children, this beautiful statement comes:

3 Nephi 17

23. And he spake unto the multitude, and said unto them: Behold your little ones.
24. And as they looked to behold they cast their eyes towards heaven, and they saw the heavens open, and they saw angels descending out of heaven as it were in the midst of fire; and they came down and encircled those little ones about, and they were encircled about with fire; and the angels did minister unto them.

25. And the multitude did see and hear and bear record; and they know that their record is true for they all of them did see and hear, every man for himself; and they were in number about two thousand and five hundred souls; and they did consist of men, women, and children.

So that is what I would like to have you hear from me. Follow these beautiful things that you have in here, the teachings that Uncle Roy gives.

I will be available to you when I am here if you need further help than what Warren could give. He is a man that lives and works by the Spirit of God. I have full confidence in him and his labors, and not just because he is my son. He is a good man. You know he is trying to direct the spirit of this school by the Spirit of God himself. You would do well by following his example. God bless you all in your labors this year. I will try to get in and see your devotionals more than I have in the past. Do you have anything else? Do you have any questions you want to ask me?

I would just like to point out one more thing in Section 82, which is how we live together under the Holy United Order.

D.& C. 82

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor,
Loving God with all your heart, might, mind, and strength, and loving our neighbor as yourself.

19. ...and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

So lend us your prayers and faith as we contest with the enemies that are trying to destroy the UEP. They are getting vicious now in their motions, and we will conquer them only by the power of the Holy Ghost, with faith in our prayers, as one people. That is all.

RTJ 7:166  September 10, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
September 10, 1989
The Apostates Are Fighting Against God;
The People Called Upon to Fast and Pray

I love these, my brethren, with the love of brethren, and all of you with all my heart. I love the Lord, my God, who is my strength. I feel to bring you the words of the Prophet Leroy Johnson in connection with what is going on now in the courts, February 1985.

LSJ Vol.7  Page 424  February 10, 1985   CCA

The United Effort Plan was given to us by the Lord for a protection to His people -- His saints -- and I am not afraid to speak in defense of it. Because every man who has lifted his hand against the United Effort Plan and against this work that I profess to be the head of, is fighting against God and not against me. They had better look out because if they push it any further, God will lay a heavy hand on their shoulders, and I am not afraid to say it because I have the Spirit of God upon me, and He is dictating my words at the present time, and they had better take it. They had better not push me any further towards the wall until I can get on my feet and get my people behind me and get the non-believers out of this place. I want everyone of them to get discouraged and leave right away.

The Lord will handle that, and I tell you that in the name of the Lord. They have entered a vexatious lawsuit against the United Effort Plan, and God will handle them.

Now, I want to say a few words to the faithful. The Lord is pleased with your actions so far -- you who have determined in your minds to serve God and keep His commandments at all hazards and believe in the Lord our Savior, Jesus Christ, and in the Prophet Joseph Smith and his works.

But those who try to change the words of Joseph Smith as they are contained in the Doctrine & Covenants had better walk carefully, because the judgments of God are terrible when they come upon a disobedient people. Now, I pray that the Lord will bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I would like to hear you "amen" to that. [The congregation said, "Amen."]

The immediate matter before us in the courts comes up next Wednesday, the 13th of September, which has been set by the court as pretrial. But with all of the motions that have been filed, and all of the things that have to be done before that is done, I am sure there will be some decisions made on that day, and we need the help of the Lord to overrule. So will you, with me, fast on Wednesday next, as you have in the past? Unite your hearts together with me that God will overrule in these actions as they come along. There are more ahead. And I bless you with all the power I have to bless, under God, that we may be one people in the hands of God to redeem Zion, which is our ultimate goal; and God's truth will prevail; I tell you in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:168 September 17, 1989 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
September 17, 1989
Pray for the Lord's Blessings in the Court Action

These have all spoken for me. I need add nothing more. I call on you again on Thursday next, to conduct a fast, with faith in our prayers that we will have a righteous judgment made in this very critical setting that we are facing. I am going to be at that hearing and try and translate this faith into action, with the Lord blessing us for this united effort. God bless you, amen.
We have been having some wonderful times in our meetings, and God is favoring us because of our faith, our faith in our prayers. Let us exert them together today that we may be fed the bread of life.

RTJ 7:169 - October 8, 1989 Sandy

* * * * *

I feel like reading one of the grandest statements I have heard or read about, in a few sentences here by the Prophet Brigham Young.

JD 9:36 Brigham Young April 7, 1861 SLC

But when we address ourselves to the Saints of the Most High God, it is very different and in a different light. It is for my sisters to be mothers of holy men and holy women -- to receive and conceive in the name and by the power of the Holy Ghost -- to bring forth their fruits to the praise and honour of the God of heaven.

RTJ 7:169 - October 8, 1989 Sandy

Speaking further to the sisters:

JD 9:38 Brigham Young April 7, 1861 SLC

Sisters, do not ask whether you can make yourselves happy, but whether you can do your husband's will, if he is a good man. Teach your children; for you are their guardians, to act as father and mother to them until they are out of your care. The teachings and examples of our mothers have formed, to a great extent, our characters and directed our lives. This is their right, when they act by the power of the Priesthood, to direct the child until it is of a proper age, and then hand it over to the husband and father, and into the hands of God.

Here is how to abide Celestial Marriage. God bless you all, amen.

RTJ 7:169 October 9, 1989 Sandy Alta Academy Opening Exercises

Alta Academy Opening Exercises
Sandy, Utah
October 9, 1989
Our Families Must Be One;
Condition of a Priesthood Home and Priesthood School

I ask the Lord to direct me by His Holy Spirit and the things that He desires me to say here for the benefit of these beautiful children and their faithful parents. The overriding principle that we are concerned with now is union, unity; looking to the grand goal ahead -- the redemption of Zion. Those who go will be a community of united families. That circle that will comprise the saints of Zion can be no stronger than its weakest link. Just a few similes here which I desire to enlarge upon in later occasions.

The Holy Spirit of God is the secret to our success in becoming one. We cannot become one without it. That is the uniting power. So the grand theme of the Prophets from Joseph on down has been: Get the Holy Spirit of God and keep it. I think I will take time to read again the dream of Brigham Young.

Truth 10:221

President Young said: "The brethren you know well, Speaking to Joseph, who appeared in that dream.

..."The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the Priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

So, about the immediate business of teaching and learning, education; primary education, the foundation for it all is the Spirit of God. Without taking up too much time, I will give you the word of the Lord regarding these
D.& C. 88

117. Therefore, verily I say unto you, my friends, call your solemn assembly, as I have commanded you. We are calling a school together now, and these rules should apply.

118. And as all have not faith, seek ye diligently and teach one another words of wisdom; yea, seek ye out of the best books words of wisdom; seek learning, even by study and also by faith.

119. Organize yourselves; prepare every needful thing; and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God; That is how our homes should be, dear brethren, preparing them for their journey through life.

120. That your incomings may be in the name of the Lord; that your outgoings may be in the name of the Lord; that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands unto the Most High. Now this would be in a Priesthood Meeting, of course, but this is a Priesthood School.

121. Therefore, cease from all your light speeches, from all laughter, from all your lustful desires, from all your pride and light-mindedness, and from all your wicked doings. Beware of pride.

122. Appoint among yourselves a teacher, and let not all be spokesmen at once; We have had to take our teachers from among our own numbers, serving without pay, except the pay of joy of service.

122. ...and let not all be spokesmen at once; but let one speak at a time and let all listen unto his sayings, that when all have spoken that all may be edified of all, and that every man may have an equal privilege.

123. See that ye love one another; cease to be covetous; Greedy.

123. ...learn to impart one to another as the gospel requires.

124. Cease to be idle; cease to be unclean; cease to find fault one with another; cease to sleep longer than is needful; retire to thy bed early, that ye may not be weary; arise early, that your bodies and your minds may be invigorated.

125. And above all things, clothe yourselves with the bond of charity, as with a mantle, which is the bond of perfectness and peace.

126. Pray always, that ye may not faint, until I come. Behold, and lo, I will come quickly, and receive you unto myself. Amen.

I want to suggest that you read in the Student Star of last year -- May 31st, the last issue [August 6, 1978, found in volume 4, page 350.] -- the sermon by President Rulon Jeffs, which tells in as good a way as I could tell it now, how to get and keep the Spirit of God, and some other things that will be helpful. Read it carefully, you parents, and teach your children to pray, with faith in their prayers; teach your children to learn the Spirit of God. Teach them how. That is the basic education.

Joseph Smith gives us some good counsel in these words. The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of revelation. Revelation comes by the Holy Spirit of God. That is one of its gifts and attributes, the greatest of all.

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Which I pray we may all attain to, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:173 October 15, 1989 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 15, 1989
Complete Loyalty Required

Dear brothers and sisters, when we were in the critical moment -- the brethren of the Priesthood Council on March 18, 1978 -- for my part I stood up and said, "President Johnson, I accept what you have given us here today as coming from God, and I am with you all the way." I will conclude this wonderful session by saying again, "If you are not with me, you are against me," as the Savior said. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:173  October 22, 1989  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
October 22, 1989
"If You Are Not With Me, You Are Against Me"

All that I wanted said has been said very eloquently by my brethren. I will only add this: If you are not with me, you are against me. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:174  October 29, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 29, 1989
Efforts in the Court

I want to call our attention, dear brothers and sisters, to one thing. Each of you are beneficiaries of the United Effort Plan Trust. The judge required us to give him a list. We listed everyone on the United Effort land -- fathers, mothers, children, down to the age of five. Thirty-five hundred fifteen names are on that list. Included in that list are the families of the apostates, five hundred and two. They are suing themselves and the rest of us. As beneficiaries of the United Effort Plan, we are defendants of this action. So that is where it lies. Just wanted to call your attention to this situation.

RTJ 7:174  November 5, 1989  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
November 5, 1989
Calls Upon the People to Fast and Pray

We will, therefore, dear brothers and sisters, fast on Thursday. The court will be in session the full day on this case, for they will hear some twenty motions, two of which are our motions for a dismissal. Let us lend our faith to this end, and that the judge will render this righteous decision, and it will be done. God bless you, amen.
The Lord answered my prayers in calling on Brother Wendell to speak on this grand principle of faith. And I would like to add a few more instructions with the help of the Lord. At the beginning of the meeting last night, I read this paragraph, the last paragraph of Lecture One.

Lecture One

24. Faith, then, is the first great governing principle which has power, dominion, and authority over all things; by it they exist, by it they are upheld, by it they are changed, or by it they remain, agreeable to the will of God. Without it there is no power, and with out power there could be no creation nor existence!

The Seventh Lecture:

Lecture Seven

3. ...We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force. It is by words, instead of exerting his physical powers, with which every being works when he works by faith. God said, "Let there be light, and there was light." Joshua spake, and the great lights which God had created stood still. Elijah commanded, and the heavens were stayed for the space of three years and six months, so that it did not rain: he again commanded and the heavens gave forth rain. All this was done by faith. And the Savior says, "If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, say to this mountain, 'Remove,' and it will remove; or say to that sycamine tree, 'Be ye plucked up, and planted in the midst of the sea,' and it shall obey you." Faith, then, works by words; and with these its mightiest works have been, and will be, performed.

I have observed on occasion, in connection with this, that it is mental or spiritual laziness that afflicts so many of us. Mental exertion is required to exercise faith.
Moroni 7

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren,

Says Moroni in the last verse of the seventh chapter.

48. ...pray unto the Father with all energy of heart,

That is exertion of the mind and heart.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this (pure) love (of Christ), Which is the Holy Spirit of God.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

Oliver Cowdery was given the gift of translation, and as an illustration of this lack of energy of heart and the exertion of the mind:

D.& C. 9

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me

With all the energy of heart,

8. ...if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

There is a good illustration of spiritual laziness. He took no thought save it was to merely ask. I will just close with this wonderful statement on faith.

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts Page 145-146

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

"Perfect obedience will produce perfect faith." There is the touchstone.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

God bless us all to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:177  November 26, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona

November 26, 1989

The Apostates Are Fighting Against God;
The People Called Upon to Fast and Pray

These words of the Prophet Leroy Sunderland Johnson I desire to take as mine in our behalf at this time, as we now face the battle for the United Effort Plan. February 10, 1985:

LSJ Vol.7  Page 424  February 10, 1985  CCA

I feel very humble, my brothers and sisters, in trying to say something to you, and I pray that the Lord will put in my mouth the words He wants me to say.

This ship that has been portrayed to us today is under fire -- the United Effort Plan. I can't see who is in the room, but I hope that there is someone here who will carry this message to the opposite people, because they haven't had manhood enough to come out in the open and let us know who they are. We know who some of them are, but we don't know who they all are. So, I am talking to you today to let you know that there is not going to be any deeds to any part of the United Effort Plan given to the enemy of the United Effort Plan. You can take it or leave it!

The United Effort Plan was given to us by the Lord for a protection to His people -- His saints -- and I am not afraid to speak in defense of it. Because every man who has lifted his hand against the United Effort Plan and against this work that I profess to be the head of, is fighting against God and not against me. They had better look out because if they push it any further, God will lay a heavy hand on their shoulders, and I am not afraid to say it because I have the Spirit of God upon me, and He is dictating my words at the present time, and they had better take it. They had better not push me any further towards the wall until I can get on my feet and get my people behind me and get the non-believers out of this place.
He is on his feet and with us still.
I want everyone of them to get discouraged and leave right away.

Now, I want to say a few words to the faithful. The Lord is pleased with your actions so far -- you who have determined in your minds to serve God and keep His commandments at all hazards and believe in the Lord our Savior, Jesus Christ, and in the Prophet Joseph Smith and his works.

But those who try to change the words of Joseph Smith as they are contained in the Doctrine & Covenants had better walk carefully, because the judgments of God are terrible when they come upon a disobedient people. Now, I pray that the Lord will bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:178  December 3, 1989  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
December 3, 1989

For my part, brothers and sisters, I want to have read to you a sermon of mine, August 6, 1978, which repeats the means by which we may get and keep the Spirit of God and have faith in our prayers, working unto perfection. [The sermon of President Jeffs was read, as found in volume 4, page 350.]
President Jeffs spoke to the Seminary Class by phone. The microphone from the meeting room was brought into President Jeffs' office.

I would like to bring to your remembrance the marvelous things that are in Section 4 of the Doctrine and Covenants.

D. & C. 4

1. Now behold, a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

That is still the case. We are in the midst.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God qualify him for the work.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Amen.

And I would add, the first law of heaven is obedience. The first commandment is that we are to love the Lord our God with an eye single to His glory. The second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself; and all of this through getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God, which can only dwell in a clean and holy tabernacle. Thus, we go on to salvation and the highest degree of glory in the Celestial Kingdom as God's people.
Our great object at this time is a preparation for the Holy United Order and the redemption of Zion. Let us ever keep that before our view. And with these fundamental principles, I bless you all in the authority of the Priesthood, and say, let us be one and march on with Uncle Roy down the road that he has so often talked about. God bless you all.

RTJ 7:180 December 24, 1989 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 24, 1989
Joseph Smith Is the Witness and Testator and the Third Member of the Godhead

Let us praise the Lord for the beautiful day we have to come together and worship Him. It is the 184th anniversary of the birth of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the grand head of this last dispensation.

I say "amen" to all that has been said here today as having been directed by the Spirit of God. I love the Prophet Joseph Smith. I feel a near kinship to him. I testify to you, as did John Taylor, that Joseph Smith did more than any other person that has come into the earth for the salvation of men, next to Jesus Christ Himself. And he is, as I will read to you here, and acts in the office of the Holy Ghost. Repeating what Brother Wendell said:

Joseph Smith (Compendium Page 289)

* * * * *

Joseph was Witness to the Father and the Son in the opening vision, which opened up this dispensation. Heber C. Kimball said:

JD 5:179 Heber C. Kimball August 23, 1857 SLC

...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; he is one of the sons of our Father and our God, and he is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ.

That man is Joseph Smith, Jun., acting in the office of the Holy Ghost.

Joseph Smith (RTJ Book of Quotes, Page 43)
Would to God, brethren, I could tell you who I am! Would to God I could tell you what I know! But you would call it blasphemy, and there are men upon this stand who would want to take my life. If the Church knew all the commandments, one half they would reject through prejudice and ignorance.

If you find out who Joseph was, you will know as much about God as you need to at present;

Reading from the Journal of Discourses now.

Jesus was a God to the people when he was upon earth, was so before he came to this earth, and is yet. Moses was a God to the children of Israel, and in this manner you may go right back to Father Adam.

If I can pass brother Joseph, I shall stand a good chance for passing Peter, Jesus, the Prophets, Moses, Abraham, and all back to Father Adam, and be pretty sure of receiving his approbation.

That is how I feel -- the approbation of Leroy S. Johnson, John Y. Barlow, Lorin Woolley, John W. Woolley, John Taylor, Brigham Young, and Joseph. May we stand together, brothers and sisters, in the crisis that has come before us at this time, the great effort that is being waged to destroy the United Effort Plan. We shall come off victorious, I know this. But let us be alert. Let us pray with all the energy of heart, the exertion of the mind, together; that we may be full of the Holy Ghost and go on to perfection, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Affidavit of Rulon T. Jeffs
January 5, 1990

STATE OF UTAH
COUNTY OF SALT LAKE
RULON T. JEFFS, being first duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:
1. That I reside at 3611 Little Cottonwood Road, Sandy, Utah, 84092.
2. I am the spiritual leader of a continuing religious congregation which is known as the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
3. As spiritual leader of this religious community, I am the immediate successor of the prophet Leroy S. Johnson in the Priesthood established by Joseph Smith through revelation of the Lord. The Priesthood so established has been continued under the leadership of the following successors of Joseph Smith: Brigham Young, John Taylor, John W. Woolley, Lorin C. Woolley, John Y. Barlow, Leroy S. Johnson and myself, Rulon T. Jeffs.

4. The Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints believes on faith and subscribes to the principles which have been revealed by the prophets of the Lord, as set forth in the Holy Bible, and by the prophet Joseph Smith, and his successors, as set forth in the Book of Mormon and the Doctrine and Covenants.

5. That it is my belief as the spiritual leader of the above-mentioned religious community that the production of checking account records relating for the operational checking accounts of the Fundamentalist Church would violate the religious tenets of the church. The proscription against revealing these records arises from the following scriptural authority:

3 Nephi 13
1. Verily, verily, I say that I would that ye should do alms unto the poor; but take heed that ye do not your alms before men to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father who is in heaven.
2. Therefore, when ye shall do your alms do not sound a trumpet before you, as will hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.
3. But when thou doest alms let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth;
4. That thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

D.& C. 119
1. Verily, thus saith the Lord, I require all their surplus property to be put into the hands of the bishop of my church in Zion,
2. For the building of mine house, and for the laying of the foundation of Zion and for the priesthood, and for the debts of the Presidency of my Church.
3. And this shall be the beginning of the tithing of my people.
4. And after that, those who have thus been tithed shall pay one-tenth of all their interest annually; and this shall be a standing law unto them forever, for my holy priesthood, saith the Lord.

5. Verily I say unto you, it shall come to pass that all those who gather unto the land of Zion shall be tithed of their surplus properties, and shall observe this law, or they shall not be found worthy to abide among you.

6. And I say unto you, if my people observe not this law, to keep it holy, and by this law sanctify the land of Zion unto me, that my statutes and my judgments may be kept thereon, that it may be most holy, behold, verily I say unto you, it shall not be a land of Zion unto you.

7. And this shall be an ensample unto all the stakes of Zion. Even so. Amen.

6. It is my belief as spiritual leader of the above-mentioned religious congregation that the production of the checking account records of the operational accounts of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints would constitute a serious and substantial impairment of the congregation's free exercise of religion, freedom of religious association, and the right to ecclesiastical self-government.

(Signed) RULON T. JEFFS

RTJ 7:184 January 7, 1990 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
January 7, 1990

Keeping the Holy Spirit Solves Our Family Problems;
The Result of Living by Faith Is to Become Like God

I would like to conclude this service by reading the teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith to Brigham Young. Family troubles come to my attention continuously. The only way I can counsel to overcome all of those troubles is to do what Brigham Young gives us here as coming from the Prophet Joseph Smith. I have read it before, but I think it bears repeating. If we could get ourselves in possession of that glorious gift, there would never be any troubles in our families, as the Prophet brings out in this:

Truth 10:221

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time.
President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed it many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:

"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:

"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they come into the world. Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

God bless us to gain that great and glorious gift, dear brothers and sisters. Let us be full of it. And I can't think of a better way to describe the results than to read from the Fifth Lecture on Faith, which I have done many times before.

Lecture Five

2. And he (Jesus Christ) being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit,

Can we get that basic concept, the source of this great and glorious thing which makes Gods of men?

2. ...that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

2. ...the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments;

Perfect obedience produces perfect faith.

2. ...and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ;

Jesus is the only Heir of God. We are adopted, and become one with Him.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation,

Faith, or power.

3. ...through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Which I pray may be our happy lot, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
important instructions on Priesthood, in light of our present growth and advancement in the Priesthood that has been made. I will do it by first reading some that I have from the record of John Y. Barlow:

John Taylor  Millennial Star 9:321  RTJ 7:188 January 14, 1990  CCA  Priesthood Meeting

What is Priesthood? Without circumlocution
That means "beating around the bush".

...I shall as briefly answer that it is the government of God, whether on the earth or in the heavens, for it is by that power, agency, or principle that all things are governed on the earth and in the heavens, and by that power that all things are upheld and sustained. It governs all things -- it directs all things -- it sustains all things -- and has to do with all things that God and truth are associated with. It is the power of God delegated to intelligences in the heavens and to men on the earth.

That is a beautiful description of it. That is John Taylor.

JD 2:139  Brigham Young  December 3, 1854  SLC

When we talk of the celestial law which is revealed from heaven, that is, the Priesthood, we are talking about the principle of salvation, a perfect system of government, of laws and ordinances, by which we can be prepared to pass from one gate to another, and from one sentinel to another, until we go into the presence of our Father and God. This law has not always been upon the earth; and in its absence, other laws have been given to the children of men for their improvement, for their education, for their government, and to prove what they would do when left to control themselves; and what we now call tradition has grown out of these circumstances.

JD 11:249  Brigham Young  June 17, 1866  SLC

The priesthood of the Son of God in its operations comprises the kingdom of God,...

On keys and lineage:

JD 4:248  Heber C. Kimball  March 7, 1857  SLC

What do you suppose we are going to do with you? Are you ever going to be prepared to see God, Jesus Christ, His angels, or comprehend His servants, unless you take a faithful and prayerful course? Did you actually know Joseph Smith? No. Do you know brother Brigham? No. Do you know brother Heber? No, you do not. Do you know the Twelve? You do not. If you did, you would begin to know God, and learn that those men who are chosen to direct and counsel you are near kindred to God and to Jesus Christ, for the keys, power, and authority of the Kingdom of God are in that lineage. I speak of these things with a view to arouse your feelings and your faithfulness towards God the Father, and His Son Jesus Christ, that you may pray and be humble, and penitent. These are general observations. I want to go into the scripture in the Teachings of Joseph before I am through.

JD 1:134  Brigham Young  April 6, 1853  SLC

I speak thus to show you the order of the Priesthood. We will now commence with the Apostleship, where Joseph commenced. Joseph was ordained an Apostle -- that you can read and understand. After he was ordained to this office, then he had the right to organize and build up the kingdom of God, for he had committed unto him the keys of the Priesthood, which is after the order of Melchisedec -- the High Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God. And this, remember, by being ordained an Apostle.

Could he have built up the Kingdom of God, without first being an Apostle? No, he never could. The keys of the eternal Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God, are comprehended by being an Apostle. All the Priesthood, all the keys, all the gifts, all the endowments, and everything preparatory to entering into the presence of the Father and of the Son, are in, composed of, circumscribed by, or I might say incorporated within the circumference of, the Apostleship.

JD 13:320  Wilford Woodruff  September 5, 1869  SLC

Joseph was ordained to the Apostleship under the hands of men holding the keys of the kingdom of God in the days of Jesus -- namely Peter, James and John.

The Lord afterwards

Following the appearance of John the Baptist,

...sent Peter, James and John, who held the keys of the kingdom in their day and generation upon the earth, and they ordained him an Apostle, and sealed upon his head every key, power and blessing, and all the authority which they exercised in their day.

JD 9:87  Brigham Young  May 7, 1861  Mill Creek Ward

...Moses held the keys and authority above all the rest upon the earth. He holds the keys of the Priesthood of Melchizedek, which is the Priesthood of the Son of God, which holds the keys of all these Priesthoods, dispensing the blessings and privileges of both Priesthoods to the people, as he did in the days of the children of Israel when he led them out of Egypt. This Priesthood has been on the earth at various times. Adam had it, Seth had it, Enoch had it, Noah had it, Abraham and Lot had it, and it was handed down to the days of the Prophets, long after the days of the ancients. But the people would not receive the Prophets, but persecuted them, stoned them and thrust them out of their cities, and they had to wander in the wilderness and make dens and caves their homes. The children of Israel never received the Melchizedek Priesthood; they went into bondage to enjoy it in part, but all its privileges and blessings they never would receive in full, until Jesus came, and then but a few of them would receive it. This High Priesthood rules, directs, governs, and controls all the Priesthoods, because it is the highest of all.

What ordination should a man receive to possess all the keys and powers of the Holy Priesthood that were delivered to the sons of Adam? He should be ordained an Apostle of Jesus Christ. That office puts him in possession of every key, every power, every authority, communication, benefit, blessing, glory, and kingdom that was ever revealed to man. That pertains to the office of an Apostle of Jesus Christ.

Parley P. Pratt Millennial Star 6:93

Brethren, no one's claims need any support. Those who hold the Keys of the kingdom of God will be supported by the spirit of God, and by his angels, and also by the aid and prayers of the Saints. And they will say nothing about their `claims,' nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them.

If men hold the keys of the kingdom of God, they are not dependent upon men to support their claims; but the church and all the world is dependent on them and on the keys committed to them for the ministration of salvation. They can shut and no more open, or open and no more shut. And to these authorities all must bow, so far as to be ministered to, and governed in the things of salvation, or else remain without the blessing of the kingdom.

Now, some specific instructions -- Doctrine and Covenants, Section 20. This talks about ordinations.
D. & C. 20

60. Every elder, priest, teacher, or deacon is to be ordained according to the gifts and callings of God unto him; and he is to be ordained by the power of the Holy Ghost, which is in the one who ordains him. That tells us that the Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood. And if it isn't done by the power of the Holy Ghost, it isn't done. More on that later.

Section 84:

D. & C. 84

33. For whoso is faithful unto the obtaining these two priesthoods of which I have spoken, and the magnifying their calling, are sanctified by the Spirit unto the renewing of their bodies.

34. They become the sons of Moses and of Aaron and the seed of Abraham, and the church and kingdom, and the elect of God.

35. And also all they who receive this priesthood receive me, saith the Lord;

36. For he that receiveth my servants receiveth me;

37. And he that receiveth me receiveth my Father;

38. And he that receiveth my Father receiveth my Father's kingdom; therefore all that my Father hath shall be given unto him.

39. And this is according to the oath and covenant which belongeth to the priesthood.

40. Therefore, all those who receive the priesthood, receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved.

41. But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come.

42. And wo unto all those who come not unto this priesthood which ye have received, which I now confirm upon you who are present this day, by mine own voice out of the heavens; and even I have given the heavenly hosts and mine angels charge concerning you.

63. And as I said unto mine apostles, even so I say unto you, for you are mine apostles, even God's high priests; ye are they whom my Father hath given me; ye are my friends;

D. & C. 121
34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?
35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --
36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.
37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.
38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.
39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.
40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.
41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.
45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.
46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall be flow unto thee forever and ever.

Page 322 of the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith:

TPJS Page 322

Three Grand Orders

There are three grand orders of priesthood referred to here. 1st. The King of Shiloam (Salem) had power and authority over that of Abraham, holding the key and the power of endless life. Angels desire to look into it, but they have set up too many stakes. God cursed the children of Israel because they would not receive the last law from Moses.

The sacrifice required of Abraham in the offering up of Isaac, shows that if a man would attain to the keys of the kingdom of an endless life; he must sacrifice all things. When God offers a blessing or knowledge to a man, and he refuses to receive it, he will be damned. The Israelites prayed that God would speak to Moses and not to them; in consequence of which he cursed them with a carnal law.

What was the power of Melchizedek? 'Twas not the Priesthood of Aaron which administers in outward ordinances, and the offering of sacrifices. Those holding the fulness of the Melchizedek Priesthood are kings and priests of the Most High God, holding the keys of power and blessings. In fact, that Priesthood is a perfect law of theocracy, and stands as God to give laws to the people, administering endless lives to the sons and daughters of Adam.

Abraham says to Melchizedek, I believe all that thou hast taught me concerning the priesthood and the coming of the Son of Man; so Melchizedek ordained Abraham and sent him away. Abraham rejoiced, saying, Now I have a priesthood.

The Mission of Elijah

Salvation could not come to the world without the mediation of Jesus Christ.

How shall God come to the rescue of this generation? He will send Elijah the prophet. The law revealed to Moses in Horeb never was revealed to the children of Israel as a nation. Elijah shall reveal the covenants to seal the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the children to the fathers.

The anointing and sealing is to be called, elected and made sure.
"Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually." The Melchizedek Priesthood holds the right from the eternal God, and not by descent from father and mother; and that priesthood is as eternal as God Himself, having neither beginning of days nor end of life.

The 2nd Priesthood is Patriarchal authority. Go to and finish the temple, and God will fill it with power, and you will then receive more knowledge concerning this priesthood.
The 3rd is what is called the Levitical Priesthood, consisting of priests to administer in outward ordinances, made without an oath; but the Priesthood of Melchizedek is by an oath and covenant.
The Holy Ghost is God's messenger to administer in all those priesthoods.
Jesus Christ is the heir of this Kingdom -- the Only Begotten of the Father according to the flesh, and holds the keys over all this world.
Men have to suffer that they may come upon Mount Zion and be exalted above the heavens.
I know a man that has been caught up to the third heavens, and can say, with Paul, that we have seen and heard things that are not lawful to utter.

D.& C. 132
45. For I have conferred upon you the keys and power of the priesthood, wherein I restore all things, and make known unto you all things in due time.
46. And verily, verily, I say unto you, that whatsoever you seal on earth shall be sealed in heaven; and whatsoever you bind on earth, in my name and by my word, saith the Lord, it shall be eternally bound in the heavens; and whosesoever sins you remit on earth shall be remitted eternally in the heavens; and whosesoever sins you retain on earth shall be retained in heaven.
47. And again, verily I say, whomssoever you bless I will bless, and whomsoever you curse I will curse, saith the Lord; for I, the Lord, am thy God.
48. And again, verily I say unto you, my servant Joseph, that whatsoever you give on earth, and to whomsoever you give any one on earth, by my word and according to my law, it shall be visited with blessings and not cursings, and with my power, saith the Lord, and shall be without condemnation on earth and in heaven.

49. For I am the Lord thy God, and will be with thee even unto the end of the world, and through all eternity; for verily I seal upon you your exaltation, and prepare a throne for you in the kingdom of my Father, with Abraham your father.

50. Behold, I have seen your sacrifices, and will forgive all your sins; I have seen your sacrifices in obedience to that which I have told you. Go, therefore, and I make a way for your escape, as I accepted the offering of Abraham of his son Isaac.

That is what constitutes the fullness of the Priesthood.

RTJ 7:197  January 21, 1990  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
January 21, 1990
Testimony Concerning President Johnson and the One Man Rule; President Jeffs Declares Himself as Standing With President Johnson; President Johnson
Cannot Give a Delusion, and Is Suffering for This People

Well, we have had a wonderful time together today, particularly in contemplation of the blessings we have received under the hands of the Lord through Uncle Roy. I am indebted to Brother Sam for the tape that was recorded June 7th and June 21st of 1981, at a time when controversy was being conducted over the pulpit. I played that tape at our Sunday School this morning, and I felt like you would like to hear a sermon of mine on that occasion.

To explain the circumstances, June 7th of 1981, this was all here in Salt Lake. When I was called upon, I entered into the effort to establish the one man rule that Uncle Roy said he and I had to do. And so, I took that occasion to speak on that. It was a rather long one.

In the meeting in Short Creek, June 14th, was the sermon that Marion Hammon preached, in which he defied God two times. I have that transcript. On the 21st of June, Marion Hammon called upon Alfred Olschewski to present the views of those who had already apostatized. Brother Johnson had carried on and had given them time to repent; and at this time, after these occasions that I am now speaking of, was when they stopped calling on me to speak over the pulpit; and that lasted for two and a half years. It was rather significant because it all surrounds what happened in these few meetings. So, with your indulgence, I will play that tape over for you to hear.

I desire the help from the Spirit of God in what I shall be led to say. President Johnson, through all the sermons that we have in the books, nearly always would say, "I pray God to put words in my mouth that I might tell you the truth." I desire the same thing.

I am constrained to say, brothers and sisters, and follow the direction of President Johnson, that I will not debate or contend over this pulpit. I appreciated the statement of President Hammon when he spoke of holding up the Three-in-One, the word and the will of God to this generation unto us, His people, the Lord's people. I am given to understand that Lorin Woolley made that statement as President Johnson has to us, that if what we say or do does not square with this book, the word of God, we may give it no heed. And that is the basis on which I have been trying to give a message to this people in the stead of President Johnson, who is unable to be with us. I have borne my testimony regarding him and regarding his illness, and I don't think it necessary to repeat it again. I said what I said last meeting here two weeks ago as I was moved upon by the Spirit of God, and I will let it stand. I have repeatedly quoted the Section of the Doctrine and Covenants and the statement of Joseph Smith, Jun., in the subsequent entry in the history, as well as the revelation to John Taylor regarding the "one man". These are the words of Joseph and the words of the Lord, and the words written by John Taylor as dictated in a revelation to him.

What we are talking about, brothers and sisters, goes to the fundamental grand principle which has been spoken of so many times over the pulpit. Remember whose right it is to rule. And this strikes at the present controversy; but I am not going to debate or contend here. These are the fundamental principles upon which I have acted, and upon which President Johnson has acted and done his work. There are some things that can and must be told that President Johnson himself will tell.

The Doctrine and Covenants is the word of God to this generation and people. It wasn't given only for that people in Joseph's day and Brigham's day. It was to this generation and to all the world. The Doctrine and Covenants cannot be done away without the penalties that were enunciated by Joseph Smith the Prophet. I stand with President Leroy Sunderland Johnson in what he has delivered to this people and to this Council of Priesthood. He has given us no delusion. As I said last time, President Johnson cannot give a delusion or lead this people astray, or God would take him.

What has happened to President Johnson in his illness is according to the will and purposes of God, for it has brought out what is in the hearts of all of us. He has suffered for this people, and he is suffering for the sake of those who love and want the truth. He is buying them with a price. And he will live, be restored and renewed, and go on and preside over this work and this people who desire to follow him as the mouthpiece of God, as the only one to whom revelation can be given to this people -- revelations and commandments. And he is the only one who holds the keys and sealing powers as set forth in Section 132, verse 7. He is the fountainhead by which we may receive the gifts of the Holy Ghost and the powers of heaven. That is the channel, as I am led to say and know by the revelations of the Holy Ghost to me.

I am not going to go into particulars. I am just setting forth the grand principles by which God has set forth in His word and His scripture, by which we must be governed, and by which Leroy Sunderland Johnson is being governed. I will repeat some of the words of Joseph. [He hesitated]. I forebear. I am speaking for myself as I say these things, but I am standing for President Leroy Sunderland Johnson against all who would not follow him in the position which he holds before God. I testify to you that these keys and these powers have been conferred upon him by God Himself. And it is my testimony that Joseph Smith, Jun., is at his elbow, continuing the great work of the setting in order of the House of God, which commenced September 26-27, 1886, when Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith visited John Taylor to commence the setting in order of the House of God. And I testify to you that Leroy Sunderland Johnson is the legal successor -- to us, this people this day -- to Joseph Smith, Jun., and those who stood in the same position in their day. And I testify of this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Well, that is part of the history that I must write. I want to continue in the footsteps of that great mentor and teacher, Leroy Sunderland Johnson, in carrying on the labors that he so nobly and perfectly performed in the service of the Master. Let us all unite together now, finish the work that he started. He is doing more on the other side for us than we know, continuing his work, doing things that he could not do from his sickbed. So he is still close by. Let us join together in memory of that great man, and labor together to accomplish the word and will of God and preparing of a people to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:200 January 28, 1990 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 28, 1990
Here and Now Prove Worthy of the Presence of God

We have had a wonderful time together again -- praise be to the Lord. Brother Truman spoke what was in my heart to be said here today, and I am grateful that the Lord inspired him to say the things he did. Let us emphasize: Here and now, prove ourselves worthy to be exalted into the presence of God. And I would like to sum up with Moroni again.

Moroni 7

47. ...charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

And thus become like Him. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:201 February 4, 1990 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
February 4, 1990
Be Ye Clean That Bear the Vessels of the Lord
I appreciate the mention, Brother Truman, of the thing I emphasized down south last week. Uncle Roy delivered a sermon in 1961, twenty-eight years ago, in which he asked the question, "Is it too late to repent?" That was twenty-eight years ago. Here we are now on the very verge of the judgments and destruction that are about to be poured out. So that is why that emphasis last time, and I am glad he brought it up today.

There are some items in Section 38 of the Doctrine and Covenants that I wish to bring to our attention here today. At this time, the Lord is pointing to the time when He would give to the saints the land of their inheritance. I think it would be worthwhile for us to listen to the whole Section, but I want you to note one thing here:

D. & C. 38

8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

If we are purified, we are full of the Holy Ghost. Only those who have it sufficiently will abide the day of the great judgments and destruction that are about to come about. Brother Truman, will you read this Section, please?

Section 38 was then read, including the heading. President Jeffs then continued: Well, that is the message I want to give you here today, the word of the Lord. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. Even so, amen.

Sandy, Utah
February 18, 1990
Perfect Obedience Produces Perfect Faith

I would like to be brief, but very much to the point in setting forth principles for us to follow. I will just take the time now to read again what I have so often read, which is a short but pointed summary of what is in the Lectures on Faith. It is from this that I was led to make the statement, "Perfect obedience produces perfect faith," because it takes perfect faith for us to become like God; and an example of how our course of life is all-powerful and gives us power with God, if we render perfect obedience.

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts  Page 145-146
The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

In the book of Isaiah we have a beautiful example of what comes from knowing our course is pleasing to God. Chapter 38:
Isaiah 38
1. In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.
2. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the Lord,
3. And said, Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.
4. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying,
5. Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears; behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.
6. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city.
7. And this shall be a sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken;
So that is power with God. And we have it in Section 82, which we so often need to be reminded of.
D.& C. 82
8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;
9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.
10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

Let us render perfect obedience that we may have this faith, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:204  February 20, 1990  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 20, 1990
Funeral of Elder Vergel Yeates Jessop

I pray God to bless the things that I shall say in behalf of this beloved friend and brother, Vergel Yeates Jessop. Brother Vergel abided the fullness of the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven.
That, together with the Holy United Order, constitutes a fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

D.& C. 131
1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

I will pick up from where Brother Parley left off in Section 132, at verse 19.

D.& C. 19
19. And again, verily I say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word, which is my law, and by the new and everlasting covenant, and it is sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise, by him who is anointed, unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood; and it shall be said unto them -- Ye shall come forth in the first resurrection; and if it be after the first resurrection, in the next resurrection; and shall inherit thrones, kingdoms, principalities, and powers, dominions, all heights and depths -- then shall it be written in the Lamb's Book of Life, that he shall commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, and if ye abide in my covenant, and commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, it shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my servant hath put upon them, in time, and through all eternity; and shall be of full force when they are out of the world; and they shall pass by the angels, and the gods, which are set there, to their exaltation and glory in all things, as hath been sealed upon their heads, which glory shall be a fullness and a continuation of the seeds forever and ever.

20. Then shall they be gods, because they have no end; therefore shall they be from everlasting to everlasting, because they continue; then shall they be above all, because all things are subject unto them. Then shall they be gods, because they have all power and the angels are subject unto them.

21. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye abide my law ye cannot attain to this glory.

Brother Vergel abided that law. And as far as we have been able to practice the Holy United Order, he has done that, too. He has a beautiful family. The fruits prove the truth of it. Just a little regarding what he was, and is.

Speaking of Patriarch James Adams at his funeral service, the Prophet Joseph said this:

Patriarch Adams is now one of the spirits of the just men made perfect; and, if revealed now, must be revealed in fire; and the glory could not be endured. Jesus showed Himself to His disciples, and they thought it was His spirit, and they were afraid to approach His spirit. Angels have advanced higher in knowledge and power than spirits.

Concerning Brother James Adams, it should appear strange that so good and so great a man was hated. The deceased ought never to have had an enemy. But so it was. Wherever light shone, it stirred up darkness. Truth and error, good and evil cannot be reconciled. Judge Adams had some enemies, but such a man ought not to have had one. I saw him first at Springfield, when on my way from Missouri to Washington. He sought me out when a stranger, took me to his home, encouraged and cheered me, and gave me money. He has been a most intimate friend. I anointed him to the patriarchal power -- to receive the keys of knowledge and power, by revelation to himself. He has had revelations concerning his departure, and has gone to a more important work. When men are prepared, they are better off to go hence. Brother Adams has gone to open up a more effectual door for the dead. The spirits of the just are exalted to a greater and more glorious work; hence they are blessed in their departure to the world of spirits. Enveloped in flaming fire, they are not far from us, and know and understand our thoughts, feelings, and motions, and are often pained therewith.

Flesh and blood cannot go there; but flesh and bones, quickened by the Spirit of God, can.
If we would be sober and watch in fasting and prayer, God would turn away sickness from our midst.

Hasten the work in the Temple, renew your exertions to forward all the work of the last days, and walk before the Lord in soberness and righteousness. Let the Elders and Saints do away with lightmindedness, and be sober.

So I commend this great and good man. He was indeed, and he left with clean hands and a pure heart. Such shall inherit the Kingdom of God and see God. God bless his family and his associations. I commend him to you, dear Lord, and do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Colorado City, Arizona
March 11, 1990
Must Be Purified and Full of the Holy Ghost to Be Lifted Up; Perfect Obedience Produces Perfect Faith

I am deeply grateful for the wonderful support of my brethren, and of all you, my dear brothers and sisters. I am grateful for the wonderful time we have had here today. The messages that have been given were dictated by the Holy Spirit of God. Section 38 has been on my mind a great deal of late, and I was very happy that Brother Truman read it here today. I want to point out one or two specifics that stand out to me.

D.& C. 38

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I testify to you that this is the case with our Lord.
7. ...I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;

8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.

10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;

This tells me, dear brothers and sisters, the day that must be abided is the day of judgment when the Lord is going to sweep off the wicked from the face of the land. The whole face of the land will be changed by earthquake and other means. All of these things we must be purified to abide. And why? I say simply, only they who are full of the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit of God, will abide the day.

Brother Wendell was telling me yesterday that Uncle Roy, in talking to him, counseled him what to do: "Live your religion, be faithful and true, be full of the Spirit of God, and you will be qualified to be lifted up in the day of judgment." How could we be lifted up, brothers and sisters, unless we were full of the Holy Ghost? So that is why that great commandment: "Be ye clean," clean hands, pure hearts. The Holy Ghost cannot dwell in an unclean tabernacle. There is the great goal. And Lecture Five tells us the whole picture, and what our reward shall be -- to see the Savior, as he says here:

Lecture Five

2. ...And he (Jesus Christ) being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit,

The Holy Spirit, then, is the mind of the Father and the Son. Now listen to what comes of this as far as we are concerned:

2. ...that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, Perfect obedience produces perfect faith, without which we cannot see the Father and the Son.

2. ...and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ is the only Heir. We become joint heirs with Him by adoption, through becoming like God. If we are full of the Holy Spirit we are like God, as this proves to us. "Be ye perfect," says the Lord. May God bless us to this end, and prepare us that we may be able to abide the day and go on to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Colorado City, Arizona
March 15, 1990
There Will Not Be Money in the United Order
RTJ 7:209 - 210  March 15, 1990  CCA

We have had some very pertinent and beautiful principles brought out here today. Brother Louis speaking of stewardships is right along the line with the sermon of mine back in 1963, on the Holy United Order. We are fighting for a continuation of the United Effort Plan, the foundation of this holy order; and I feel it is time for us to begin to think on how it is going to have to be lived. One thing I will say, which Uncle Roy said so often -- there will not be money. I am going to ask Brother Truman to read this sermon and add any words he sees fit to add.

[President Jeffs' sermon given May 12, 1963, was then read. See volume 1, page 269.]

RTJ 7:210  March 25, 1990  CCA

We have had a wonderful time, brothers and sisters, and I praise God for His goodness and mercy to us as we go along now in our labors to build up the Kingdom of God and to redeem Zion. The Kingdom of God must rise out of the ashes of the destruction that will take place in sweeping the wicked from off the face of the land. Section 133 pictures a beautiful thing. Sometime I would like to have that read at a meeting.

I just want to make mention of the Prophet Joseph Smith. It was in the spring of 1820, one hundred seventy years ago that he went into the woods and prayed; a boy fourteen years of age, but a God in embryo. He had read from the Epistle of James:

James 1

5. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

He went with that faith. He knew that he would get an answer to it in his prayer. We all know the story, but I would like to read that part.
15. After I had retired to the place where I had previously designed to go, having looked around me, and finding myself alone, I kneeled down and began to offer up the desires of my heart to God. I had scarcely done so, when immediately I was seized upon by some power which entirely overcame me, and had such an astonishing influence over me as to bind my tongue so that I could not speak. Thick darkness gathered around me, and it seemed to me for a time as if I were doomed to sudden destruction.

16. But, exerting all my powers to call upon God to deliver me out of the power of this enemy which had seized upon me, and at the very moment when I was ready to sink into despair and abandon myself to destruction -- not to some imaginary ruin, but to the power of some actual being from the unseen world, who had such marvelous power as I had never before felt in any being -- just at this moment of great alarm, I saw a pillar of light exactly over my head, above the brightness of the sun, which descended gradually until it fell upon me.

17. It no sooner appeared than I found myself delivered from the enemy which held me bound. When the light rested upon me I saw two Personages, whose brightness and glory defy all description, standing above me in the air. One of them spake unto me, calling me by name and said, pointing to the other -- This is My Beloved Son. Hear Him!

Ordained in the Council of the Gods before, to come forth in this last dispensation of the earth -- he is the Witness of the Father and the Son. He stands in the office of the Holy Ghost.

Joseph Smith (RTJ Book of Quotes, Page 43)

Would to God, brethren, I could tell you who I am! Would to God I could tell you what I know! But you would call it blasphemy, and there are men upon this stand who would want to take my life. If the Church knew all the commandments, one half they would reject through prejudice, and ignorance.

The Prophet said this:

JD 4:271 Brigham Young March 8, 1857 SLC

If you find out who Joseph was, you will know as much about God as you need to at the present, Jesus was a God to the people when he was upon the earth, was so before He came to this earth, and is yet. Moses was a God to the children of Israel, and in this manner you may go right back to Father Adam.

If I can pass brother Joseph, I shall stand a good chance for passing Peter, Jesus, the Prophets, Moses, Abraham, and all back to Father
Adam, and be pretty sure of receiving his approbation.

Heber C. Kimball said:

JD 5:179  Heber C. Kimball  August 23, 1857  SLC

...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; he is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and he is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ, Joseph Smith. He stands in the office of the Holy Ghost. So we have the Godhead of this earth -- God the Creator, God the Redeemer, and God the Witness and Testator. You know who They are. I just say these things in remembrance of the great work and mission of the Prophet.

The Prophet Joseph Smith, on one occasion, was offered the help of one who was going to run for office of Governor of Illinois, and he offered to be Joseph's right-hand man in some effort of politics, I suppose. In the letter to that man, the following is what he said:

DHC 6:78

Shall I, who have witnessed the visions of eternity, and beheld the glorious mansions of bliss, and the regions and the misery of the damned, -- shall I turn to be a Judas? Shall I, who have heard the voice of God, and communed with angels, and spake as moved by the Holy Ghost for the renewal of the everlasting covenant, and for the gathering of Israel in the last days, -- shall I worm myself into a political hypocrite? Shall I, who hold the keys of the last kingdom, in which is the dispensation of the fullness of all things spoken by the mouths of all the holy Prophets since the world began, under the sealing power of the Melchizedek Priesthood, shall I stoop from the sublime authority of Almighty God, to be handled as a monkey's cat-paw, and pettify myself into a clown to act the farce of political demagoguery? No -- verily no! The whole earth shall bear me witness that I, like the towering rock in the midst of the ocean, which has withstood the mighty surges of the warring waves for centuries, am impregnable, and am a faithful friend to virtue, and a fearless foe to vice,
-- no odds whether the former was sold as a pearl in Asia or hid as a gem in America, and the latter dazzles in palaces or glimmers among the
I combat the errors of ages; I meet the violence of mobs; I cope with illegal proceedings from executive authority; I cut the gordian knot of powers, and I solve mathematical problems of universities, with truth -- diamond truth; and God is my "right hand man."

And to close, let me say in the name of Jesus Christ to you, and to presidents, emperors, kings, queens, governors, rulers, nobles, and men in authority everywhere, Do the works of righteousness, execute justice and judgment in the earth, that God may bless you and her inhabitants;

That is my testimony of the Prophet Joseph Smith. I love his memory and I feel very close to him. May we follow in the footsteps of that man, who stood next to Jesus Christ. And the Prophets who have followed him have set the example likewise. We have much to be grateful for as we enter into this last phase, bringing on the judgments of God and the preparation of a people to redeem Zion. God bless you, amen.

Colorado City, Arizona
March 26, 1990
Funeral of Elder Clark Steed
Son of Elder Newel Steed

I have been deeply moved by the remarks of the brethren, who have spoken the truth to you here today. Brother Truman and Brother Parley have laid out all of the conditions under which we live, and under which we pass over to the other side. I just wish to add the remarks of the Prophet Joseph Smith to further instruct us on how it is here and over there.

The great thing for us to know is to comprehend what God did institute before the foundation of the world. Who knows it? It is the constitutional disposition of mankind to set up stakes and set bounds to the works and ways of the Almighty.

But I will give you a more painful thought. Suppose you have an idea of a resurrection, etc., and yet know nothing at all of the Gospel, nor comprehend one principle of the order of heaven, but find yourselves disappointed -- yes, at last find yourselves disappointed in every hope or anticipation, when the decision goes forth from the lips of the Almighty. Would not this be a greater disappointment -- a more painful thought than annihilation?

Had I inspiration, revelation, and lungs to communicate what my soul has contemplated in times past, there is not a soul in this congregation but would go to their homes and shut their mouths in everlasting silence on religion till they had learned something.

Why be so certain that you comprehend the things of God, when all things with you are so uncertain. You are welcome to all the knowledge and intelligence I can impart to you. I do not grudge the world all the religion they have got: they are welcome to all the knowledge they possess.

The sound saluted my ears -- "Ye are come unto Mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant" (Hebrew xii:22, 23, 24). What would it profit us to come unto the spirits of the just men, but to learn and come up to the standard of their knowledge?

Where has Judge Higbee gone? (Where has Brother Clark gone?) Who is there that would not give all his goods to feed the poor, and pour out his gold and silver to the four winds, to go where Judge Higbee (Where Brother Clark) has gone? That which hath been hid from before the foundation of the world is revealed to babes and sucklings in the last days.

The world is reserved unto burning in the last days. He shall send Elijah the prophet, and he shall reveal the covenants of the fathers in relation to the children, and the covenants of the children in relation to the fathers.

Four destroying angels holding power over the four quarters of the earth until the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads, which signifies sealing the blessing upon their heads, meaning the everlasting covenant, thereby making their calling and election sure. When a seal is put upon the father and mother, it secures their posterity, so that they cannot be lost, but will be saved by virtue of the covenant of their father and mother.
To the mourners I would say -- Do as the husband and the father would instruct you, and you shall be reunited.

So I say, God bless the family of this good man. He has been faithful and true to all that he has undertaken. And the completion of our ordinances and blessings that are necessary to come up to see the face of God, they will be taken care of in the work for the dead in the temples in Zion where we have it, for the great work of the Millennium is the work for the dead. All things will be made up to us that we have been unable to do under our present limited circumstances. The great work this people is engaged in is to perfect ourselves, to be pure in heart and have clean hands; to have the Holy Spirit of God as our constant companion; to become a united people under the Holy United Order and the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven -- these two principles constituting the fullness of the Gospel, and one cannot be lived without the other. We must live it in our families. And the community of families will constitute the population of the City of Zion. Zion is the pure in heart. That is what we are all striving for now.

May God bless you all; and especially, I bless this family, the Steed family and Brother Clark's family by all the power I have to bless, and I do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:216 April 1, 1990 CCA Conference

Conference
Colorado City, Arizona
April 1, 1990
President Johnson's Sermon Answering the Apostates; They Are Fighting Against God; His Encouragement to the Obedient; Enoch and His City

Morning Session
My heart swells with joy and praise to the Lord for this beautiful building which has been built as a monument to the Prophet Leroy Sunderland Johnson, who is with us today. Let us draw in the wanderings of our minds. Let us, with faith in our prayers, call upon the Lord for His word and instructions to us today through His servants. There are about thirty-five hundred souls here this morning, Uncle Fred estimates. Ground was broken in August of 1985; commenced having meetings, as I recall, in September of 1986. It will not be long before this is too small, at least for multiplying and replenishing, as we have been under covenant to do. We will commence by singing "Oh, How Lovely Was the Morning", reminiscent to the spring of 1820, when the Prophet, the boy Prophet went into the grove and prayed for light, the commencement of this great dispensation which he heads.

As I have listened to these marvelous teachings that have been given us here today by the Spirit of God, I have felt to note that this season, around the 6th of April, is the true birth date of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. At and near that time He was crucified and resurrected. And it is fitting that we note this; and I appreciate the remarks of Brother Wendell regarding our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I want the last word here today to be that of Uncle Roy, and I am going to ask his dear friend Truman Barlow to read it for me.

[President Johnson's sermon, dated November 11, 1984 was then read. See page 512 of volume 6.]

Afternoon Session

Those final words of Warren bring me to the City of Enoch. We have a beautiful description of this by Joseph Young, printed in the Seventies Journal back in the 1870's, and describes the City of Enoch, which we are looking forward to come and join us when Zion is redeemed, in the New Jerusalem. Brother Truman will read it for me.

Enoch and His City

From the "Seventies Journal" by Joseph Young

Enoch, the seventh from Adam, stands among the greatest spirits of antiquity, and foremost among those whom the Lord declared should be his rulers. One of the mightiest for the work he was destined to perform. Predisposed from his infancy to accept of everything that was revealed from God; and it being instinctively incorporated in his very nature to be eligible to every divine manifestation, he finally grew to be a God in humanity, and he received this testimony from his heavenly Father that he pleased Him.

We read, from modern revelations given through Joseph Smith the Prophet, that Enoch was born in the 622d year of the world; was 25 years old when ordained under the hands of Adam, and was blessed (by God) at the age of 65. He walked with him 365 years, making him 430 years old when he and his city were translated. He obtained such favor with the Lord, that at his voice the mountains shook from their foundations, the rivers were turned out of their courses, and the lands came up out of the depths of the sea, upon which his enemies took refuge through fear.

The City of Enoch implies a problem, which is difficult of solution. It stands alone, without precedent or succession to the present period. The author is not advised that there is any published history, or any manuscript brought forth, which has survived the antediluvian dispensation, leaving any details of such extraordinary events as the gathering together of a righteous people called Zion, and of the building of so large and beautiful a city. Indeed, such an one as the Lord called "His abode for ever." The knowledge of such events must therefore have been the productions of inspired men.

From these revelations it may be inferred that the disciples of Enoch were gathered together. At his suggestion they built a city, on the site which he had selected. He had seen the heavens opened; had gazed upon cities that were celestial; had been familiar with the gorgeousness of the heavenly mansions, and the splendor of their architecture. Acquiring thereby a superior intelligence and that spirit of refinement and taste, which enabled him to instruct his brethren to build after the pattern of the heavenly.

The gathering of the people and the building of the city increased and continued for a great length of time, until it was consummated. The form, the order and the architecture of the buildings of the City of Enoch, presented to the eye a glory and splendor surpassing our sublimest conceptions of art. The gardens, orchards and vineyards; the lawns, shades and floral fields, partaking of the best selections of fruits, flowers and evergreens that could be collected, from far and near. Such had been the perfection attained by the favored persons who had listened to the voice and preaching of Enoch, and who comprised the inhabitants of his city.

Since the period of the first acquaintance of the author with Joseph Smith, the Prophet, he occasionally referred particularly to this subject, which transpired in the author’s hearing. Once in Kirtland, and once in Nauvoo. At the former place, in a meeting held in the year 1832, on the occasion of Elder Brigham Young speaking in tongues, the Prophet being present; it was the first time that the exercise of this gift had come under his notice. The congregation was at the time in a kneeling posture. As soon as Bro. Brigham had concluded his prayer, the Prophet rose to his feet and invited them to rise and be seated. Joseph then addressed them, and said: "Brethren, this tongue that we have heard is the gift of God, for He has made it known unto me, and I shall never oppose anything that comes from Him. I feel the spirit that Bro. Brigham has manifested in this gift of tongues, and I wish to speak myself in the tongue that it will please the Lord to give me." He accordingly spoke in what may be called an open and fluent language; more so than was commonly heard. He occupied some minutes in the exercise of the gift. After he had concluded he said, "Brethren, this is the language of our father Adam while he dwelt in Eden; and the time will again come, that when the Lord brings again Zion, the Zion of Enoch, this people will then all speak the language which I have just spoken."

Ten years subsequently, at Nauvoo, while naming historical incidents of antiquity, he alluded to the Church, or Zion of Enoch, and discoursed some time upon the nature of its organization, order and progress. He spoke with a view of correcting the teachings of some of the elders who had maintained the doctrine that the people of that church had passed through the ordeals necessary to consummate the work of complete immortality, and that they would be prepared to enter into the presence of the Father and the Son. This idea the Prophet took up, and revealed it in a different light -- in what may be styled a divine philosophy. He declared of the Church of Enoch "that they did not die; that they had not then gone through their last changes and greatest refinement; and that they had, nevertheless, triumphed over death. That the people, and the city, and the foundations of the earth on which it stood, had partaken of so much of the immortal elements, bestowed upon them by God through the teachings of Enoch, that it became philosophically impossible for them to remain any longer upon the earth; consequently, Enoch and his people, with the city which they occupied, and the foundations on which it stood, with a large piece of earth immediately connected with the foundations and the city, had assumed an aerial position within the limits of our solar system; and this in consequence of their faith."

He further said, "that inasmuch as they did not pass through all the refinement which was necessary, as the Lord lives, they would return to the earth, when they and the city would pass through the same fiery ordeals that yet await the earth; when it shall be transformed into a sea of glass, mingled with fire, and their preparations for a celestial abode of the glorified Saints shall be perfected." (Footnote: Joseph said, on another occasion, in the hearing of some of the Saints still surviving, that the City of Enoch would again take its place in the identical spot from which it had been detached, now forming that chasm of the earth, filled with water, called the Gulf of Mexico.)

The reader will naturally ask, What are the keys of the commencement of this city of Zion? The Scriptures say, in Paul's address to the Saints, "Know ye not that your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost?" and modern revelation says, "This is Zion -- THE PURE IN HEART." Who can doubt, then, that Zion is within us; a temple adorned with all the attributes of our Father in heaven. In that view of it, the recipient thereof beholds within himself the work of his Father, and hears the voice of His Spirit; obeys all of His commandments, spiritual and temporal, without the least hesitation or mental reservation. When this spirit is fully established in the hearts of all the Saints, then there will be no idol in the way of their progress. One word, or command, is just as easy for them to hearken to and obey as another; and they realize the saying, "God is love; he that dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him." Then they have a Zion first within their hearts; a germ of an abiding inheritance upon the new earth.

The Saints are looking for a modern Zion which shall be after the identical order of the ancient one; and for a time when the Apostles, with their President at their head, will rise up and thunder so loud, that if they do not shake the mountains from their foundations, they will have the effect of shaking pride and covetousness out of the hearts of the Saints, who will be filled with righteousness -- Their only motive, the building up of Zion; making their faith and their works, their means and substance to bow to that end, and that only; and so continuing their labors in this good work, answering to the Zion within them, and erecting and adorning temples and mansions; building cities, and spreading abroad, until they shall become a model of the Zion of old, built by Enoch.

Whether these designs of the Saints will be consummated in a very short period of time, or at a "set time" still more remote, it will and must be the fruits of their faith in the Lord God, or they will not be acknowledged as His people, according to the revelations which He has given concerning Zion. Taking this view of the subject, the Seventies and the Elders of Israel will be endowed with the power of their calling, in preaching the Gospel and gathering the people from the uttermost parts of the earth. Their words will be as the words of God to the people, in strengthening their hands and cheering their hearts to persevere, until Zion is built up and perfected on the earth, and the Lord shall appear in his glory and acknowledge it His abode, as He did the Zion of old.

There is a picture of what we are going to be a party to. I am going to call on Uncle Fred now to sum up for me. I love the way he sums up wonderful occasions like this. I feel too slow of speech, but I think I will overcome that too. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:222  April 29, 1990  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
April 29, 1990
Lecture Five

These words of the Prophet Joseph Smith:

Lecture Five

2. ...the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Which I pray we may grow to be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:223  May 2, 1990  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 2, 1990
Funeral of Elder Wayne Hunter

I am honored in being asked to have a part in this beautiful service. I am having in mind what Brother Fred said. Funeral services are for the living. I will read you what the Prophet Joseph Smith said at the funeral services of Lorenzo Barnes.

TPJS  Page 296

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it. More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

May we all be prepared to die tomorrow, and so live that we can go to our reward, which we have earned through righteous living, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:224 May 6, 1990 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
May 6, 1990
Joseph Smith Is the Third Member of the Godhead; Dream of Brigham Young Concerning the Spirit of God

We have had a wonderful time here today, brothers and sisters. The Spirit of God has been with us. I feel to close this meeting by reading of a dream given Brigham Young of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

I just want to speak briefly about the connection of the Prophet Joseph Smith and the Godhead of this earth.

TPJS Page 190

Everlasting covenant was made between three personages before the organization of this earth, and relates to their dispensation of things to men on the earth; These personages, according to Abraham's record, are called God the first, the Creator; God the second, the Redeemer; and God the third, the witness or Testator.

As to the flesh and us here upon the earth, They are Michael; Jesus Christ, come into the earth, who was fathered by Adam, begotten by him; and Joseph Smith is the Witness or Testator of the Father and the Son. What a beautiful, beautiful Trinity, the Godhead of this earth. Heber C. Kimball said:

JD 5:179 Heber C. Kimball August 23, 1857 SLC
...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; he is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and he is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ, He stands as the Holy Ghost, in the office of the Holy Ghost, in other words. He is not the Holy Ghost as such, because that is what centers in the Father, and issues forth from Himself into all of His dominions. It is the power of the Godhead. It is the power of the Priesthood. God is Priesthood, Priesthood is God; and the Priesthood power is the Holy Ghost. That is the great gift that we have, having complied with the fundamental principles of the Gospel, first principles. I want to read briefly this dream of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

Truth 10:221

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:

"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:

"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the Priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."
Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

God bless you, amen.
Colorado City, Arizona
May 13, 1990
Opening Remarks

It is thrilling to stand before this beautiful audience, and I always think of Uncle Roy. What a monument this building and community is to Leroy Sunderland Johnson. Let us draw in the wanderings of our minds, unite, pray with all the energy of heart that we will be filled with the pure love of Christ as we meet here.

Sandy, Utah
May 20, 1990
Nature of the Spirit of God

I feel impressed to take a moment to give the beautiful description of the Holy Spirit of God.

Parley P. Pratt  Key to Theology  Pages 39-42

The purest, most refined and subtle of all these substances,
That surround us in the earth,
...and the one least understood, or even recognized, by the less informed among mankind, is that substance called the Holy Spirit.

This substance, like all others, is one of the elements of material or physical existence, and therefore subject to the necessary laws which govern all matter as before enumerated.

Like all other elements its whole is composed of individual particles. Like them, each particle occupies space, possesses the power of motion, requires time to move from one part of space to another, and can in no wise occupy two spaces at once. In all these respects it differs nothing from all other matter.

This substance is widely diffused among the elements of space. This Holy Spirit, under the control of the Great Eloheim, is the grand moving cause of all intelligences and by which they act.
This is the great, positive, controlling element of all other elements. It is omnipresent.

Everywhere present.

...by reason of the infinitude of its particles, and it comprehends all things.

It is the controlling agent or executive, which organizes and puts in motion all worlds, and which, by the mandate of the Almighty, or any of His commissioned agents, performs all the mighty wonders, signs and miracles ever manifested in the name of the Lord, the turning of the earth backward on its axis, the dividing of the sea, the removing of a mountain, the raising of the dead, or the healing of the sick.

It penetrates the pores of the most solid substances, pierces the human system to its most inward recesses, discerns the thoughts and intents of the heart. It has power to move through space with inconceivable velocity, far exceeding the tardy motions of electricity, or of physical light.

It comprehends the past, present, and future, in all their fullness.

Through the Urim and Thummim, which the earth will be to us.

Its inherent properties embrace all the attributes of intelligence and affection.

It is endowed with knowledge, wisdom, truth, love, charity, justice and mercy, in all their ramification.

In short, it is the attributes of the eternal power and Godhead.

To be filled with the Holy Ghost is to become like God; I mean a fullness.

Those beings who receive of its fullness are called sons of God, because they are perfected in all its attributes and powers, and, being in communication with it, can, by its use, perform all things. Those beings who receive not a fullness, but a measure of it, can know and perform some things, but not all.

This is the true light, which in some measure illuminates all men. It is, in its less refined particles, the physical light which reflects from the sun, moon and stars, and other substances; and by reflection on the eye, makes visible the truths of the outward world.

It is, also, in its higher degrees, the intellectual light of our inward and spiritual organs, by which we reason, discern, judge, compare, comprehend and remember the subjects within our reach.
Its inspiration constitutes instinct in animal life, reason in man, vision in the Prophets, and is continually flowing from the Godhead throughout all His creatures.

Such is the Godhead, as manifested in His words, and in His works. He dwells in His own eternal palaces of precious stones and gold, in the Royal City of the heavenly Jerusalem.

He sits enthroned in the midst of His creations, and is filled and encircled with light unapproachable by those of the lower spheres.

He associates with myriads of His own begotten sons and daughters who, by translation or resurrection, have triumphed over death.

His ministers are sent forth from His presence to all parts of His dominions.

His Holy Spirit centers in His presence, and communicates with and extends to the utmost verge of His dominions, comprehending and controlling all things under the immediate direction of His own will, and the will of all those in communication with Him, in worlds without end!

The attributes enumerated in the Lectures on Faith of the Holy Spirit are: Knowledge, or power; faith, or power -- faith turns into knowledge, you understand -- justice, or power; judgment, or power; mercy and love, which is power; and truth, which is power. These are all the powers and attributes of the Holy Ghost. Thus, the all-continual admonition: We cannot be saved and exalted without it; and by it we become like God, which I pray we may all do so, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:230 May 24, 1990 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 24, 1990
Funeral of Arleen Jessop Bateman

I am honored to have a part in this splendid program and I deeply appreciate the beautiful tribute paid David and Arleen by my beloved brother, Fred Jessop.

I have not been closely associated with David and his family through the years, but in the last three and half years I have had some wonderful times with David and his sons, and come to love the beautiful spirit that David carries. And I love him for his pure loyalty to the Prophet Leroy Johnson, whom he called "Dad", which he is now calling me. Without prolonging these exercises too long, I will add the words of the Prophet Joseph.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates (David) let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow. May we all be so, in the bonds of truth, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ,
amen.

RTJ 7:232 May 27, 1990 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 27, 1990
Funeral of LaVern Barlow Johnson

I feel honored in having a part in this beautiful service. Brother Truman spoke of our holding her hand. I had a hand on her head praying for the Spirit of life to be in her. She had previously stated she would like to have this over with. She wanted to go and see and be with Uncle Roy; and I am sure Uncle Roy was there to receive her when she passed.

She and her children were sealed to Leroy Sunderland Johnson, our Prophet, for time and all eternity, and she has gone home now. I felt impressed to have read here my sermon at the funeral of the Prophet Leroy Sunderland Johnson, and I will ask Brother Truman to read it.

RTJ 7:232 May 29, 1990 Sandy Alta Academy Graduation Exercises

Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
Sandy, Utah
May 29, 1990
Expression of His Love for the People;
The Holy Spirit Is Known by Its Attributes; Faith Unto Knowledge; Must Have Clean Hands and Pure Hearts

I don't know that I can continue, so deeply moved I am by these wonderful words from my beloved brothers and sisters; and I thank God for all of you, and I love you with all my heart, enough that I would lay down my life for you. I would like very much to have Leroy Johnson, our Prophet, have a part in it. He spoke to the Alta Academy in a Devotional, and I would like my beloved brother Truman who was such a close associate of the Prophet, to read the beautiful words that the Prophet Leroy Johnson spoke at an assembly here, May 17, 1985. Will you come and read this please?

LSJ Vol. 7 Page 445 May 17, 1985 Alta Academy Sandy, Utah

* I am grateful, my brothers and sisters, for the privilege of being here today and of hearing what I have heard. I trust that the Lord will put in my mouth the things I should say during the few moments I speak.

Possibly I will speak more to the fathers and mothers than to the children, but I want to say first that when the Savior was upon the earth, He said something like this, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of God." Reflect upon it a little bit as I have done over the years and see what it means to you. I find that a little reflection as I read the scriptures is more enlightening to me than just to read them. Try it.

I want the fathers and mothers of these little children that have come out of the first and second grades and the other grades to gather your children around you and teach them this song: "Ere You Left Your Room This Morning, did you think to pray?" See what an impression it will make upon them.

[President Johnson hesitated, and after wiping away his tears, he said:] Excuse me for being so tenderhearted. I had a little granddaughter a few years ago. She was crawling upon the floor. I was lying in my bed suffering. I could hardly move around, but I had bought her some little toys to play with. She came over and was playing with her toys. My bedroom door happened to be ajar a little bit -- about halfway open. I said, "I wish somebody would close my door for me." That little girl looked up at me, and then she looked at the door. She left her playthings, crawled over to the door, pushed it a little, crawled a little further and pushed it closed.

I had another incident happen to me just a few days ago. I have a little grandson. His name is Leroy Joseph. Apparently his mother had been telling him about the '53 raid when the officers came and took me to prison. He could hardly understand her. Anyhow, he came over to see me. He came in the door, and he rolled up his sleeves and doubled up both fists. He said, "Grandpa, did the mean men ever put you in jail?" I said, "Yes, they put me in jail, but they let me out the next day." "Oh, all right." He pulled down his sleeves and opened his fists and said, "I'm glad they didn't keep you in jail." He is only three years old.

These little children know what you talk about. They know what you act about. So be careful how you act around them and how you allow other people to act around them because they can catch on right quick.
I'm grateful for the way this school has operated this year. I tried to get one just like it in Colorado City years ago, but I couldn't make it. The devil got the advantage of that school, and we lost it; but I think I'm getting a little the best of him now, so I will try to keep the little ball a rolling that the Lord has told me to roll until it fills the earth.

I think we will make it if I can get the cooperation of this body of young people as well as the young people of Colorado City. I have a great following down there of young men and young boys. Even though their fathers are against me, some of them are coming and wanting me to teach them, and I am teaching them. I don't know what the results will be, but just the same, when a little child comes and wants to know something, I will tell him because I know he will understand me.

I don't wish to say anymore at this time, but I ask the blessings of God to be upon this body of young boys and girls and keep them within the realms of the lines of the Priesthood.

Learn to obey your fathers and mothers and do what they say and then do what President Jeffs says. I certainly am pleased with Warren's operations this winter. I am pleased with the way he has handled things. I am pleased with all the teachers, how they have come in from all walks of life and done their little bit to help teach these little boys and girls. We won't save them all, but we will save most of them.

President Barlow told me this once when we were riding along together. He said, "Brother Johnson, this work is going to soon fall on your shoulders. You will see many eruptions like we are having just now." That was when the United Trust broke up. The United Effort Plan was organized when the United Trust was broken up. He said, "You will have many break-ups like this, but every time it breaks up, you will have more than you had before, and finally, you will have a body of men and women that you can take up to the Prophet Joseph and say, 'Here they are.'"

So, I ask the blessings of God upon you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Well, I feel the same way about the school as it has been handled this last year. Like Warren says, it is the best year we have had yet, and it is improving. The lives and actions of these children are being watched very carefully, at least while they are here in school. He loves them as I do, and desires only their salvation. And speaking now of how to become like God, I would like to read again the words of the Prophet Moroni:

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

Jesus told the saints in His day, "I am meek and lowly in heart."

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, Who suffered for the salvation of His children, His brothers and sisters, that they might be saved by obedience to Him and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

47. ...and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love,

When we work by faith, brothers and sisters, we work by the energy of our heart and mind; exertion, if you can understand how to exert one's mind, just like you have to exert the muscles of your body to accomplish whatever task may be at hand.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ;

That is the Holy Spirit of God, dear brothers and sisters, which centers in the Father and issues forth from His bosom to all of His creations, as Brigham Young described it, and as we have it in Section 88 and 84.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

Now put very simply, brothers and sisters, the Holy Spirit of God is known by its attributes, which the Prophet speaks of in the Lectures on Faith. Knowledge, it has all knowledge; faith, it has perfect faith; justice and judgment -- all of these are powers of the Holy Spirit -- mercy, or love; and truth. These are the attributes of the Holy Spirit of God, which He calls upon us to get and keep and follow through all the days of our lives, that we may become like Him. These attributes are spoken of in Lecture Three, the character of God is spoken of there. He is unchangeable, the same yesterday, today, and forever, and goes from round to round, one eternal round. He is no respecter of persons. He is love. God is love because this Holy Spirit centers in Him, and all of these characteristics and attributes are manifest through us by having and keeping it and learning by it, until we become like Him. So we must become full of it.

Lecture Five speaks on getting a fullness of the Holy Spirit. That means having it continually and fully, all of the time. That will make us like God. So we can see the all-important purpose in calling upon us to get and keep the Spirit of God until, as it is put in the Lectures on Faith -- I would like to read again this summary how we obtain this perfect faith:

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge

Faith ripening into knowledge.

...or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, Calling and election is made sure by that means.

...with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Knowledge is feeling, seeing, and hearing something, someone -- God Himself. Then we know God and can stand in His presence. Now, brothers and sisters, one more beautiful statement as to where we are at now. The Lord speaks to the Church in January of 1831:

D.& C. 38

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;
8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

Clean hands and pure hearts. Only they will abide the great judgments that are to come upon us, to the point where we could be caught up. That is how perfect we must be.

9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.
10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;

That is a comfort.

11. For all flesh is corrupted before me; and the powers of darkness prevail upon the earth, among the children of men, in the presence of all the hosts of heaven --
12. Which causeth silence to reign, and all eternity is pained, and the angels are waiting the great command to reap down the earth, to gather the tares that they may be burned; and, behold, the enemy is combined.
13. And now I show unto you a mystery, a thing which is had in secret chambers, to bring to pass even your destruction in process of time, and ye knew it not;
14. But now I tell it unto you, and ye are blessed, not because of your iniquity, neither your hearts of unbelief; for verily some of you are guilty before me, but I will be merciful unto your weakness.

15. Therefore, be ye strong from henceforth; fear not, for the kingdom is yours.

Section 38 ends up this way:
42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord.

Full of the Holy Ghost. It cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles. Now, I say unto these young men and women -- be ye clean that you may be put under the bonds of matrimony in ways that our dear, beloved Prophet Leroy Johnson and John Y. Barlow have laid out. Be ye prepared -- clean hands and pure hearts -- that you may join in the bonds of the holy Family Order of Heaven. Be faithful; keep the Spirit of God and walk righteously before your God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

[President Jeffs then presented the diplomas to the senior class. Before he sat down, he turned to the seniors and said:] Be sure to come see me.

RTJ 7:239 June 3, 1990 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 3, 1990
Faith

Well, brothers and sisters, we have had laid before us today the very things that I wanted very much to get before us. And I want to sum it up with this item on faith:

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts Page 145-146

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

He has the testimony that he pleased God, as did Enoch and did all of the holy Prophets before.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.
An example of coming to know that you please God -- Hezekiah, in the time of Isaiah, has this story:

Isaiah 38

1. In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz come unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.
2. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the Lord,

3. And said, Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.
4. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying,

5. Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

7. And this shall be a sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken;

Perfect faith is power with God; and He will reward us accordingly, until that faith ripens into knowledge and our course for eternal life is set, through having our calling and election made sure. May we all work to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:241  July 8, 1990  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
July 8, 1990

We Will Survive Only by the Power of Faith

I can't tell you how greatly moved I am, this wonderful support that has been expressed here today. God be praised. And I do love all of you. Let us be one. And I bless you with all I have to bless, that we may labor together with an eye single to the glory of God. Let us build up our faith. That is what we need most now. We are not going to be able to go through the judgments and the other great things that are to come upon the earth, without faith and knowing that we please God. That is the power of faith. God bless you,
I am deeply moved by the spirit of this occasion and feel to echo the remarks of Brother Fred and Brother Truman. I am grateful to be here and feel now to add some sentiments of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst, which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, why it is that infants, innocent children, are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting. The strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these: This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the "world grows weaker and wiser"; if that is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt. In the earlier ages of the world a righteous man, and a man of God and of intelligence, had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth, and he has much sorrow to pass through here. The Lord takes many away even in infancy, that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore, if rightly considered, instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.

At the funeral of Ephraim Marks he said this:

...it calls to mind the death of my oldest brother, Alvin, who died in New York, and my youngest brother, Don Carlos Smith, who died in Nauvoo. It has been hard for me to live on earth and see these young men upon whom we have leaned for support and comfort taken from us in the midst of their youth. Yes, it has been hard to be reconciled to these things. I have sometimes thought that I should have felt more reconciled to have been called away myself if it had been the will of God; yet I know we ought to be still and know it is of God, and be reconciled to His will; all is right. It will be but a short time before we shall all in like manner be called: it may be the case with me as well as you. ***

When we lose a near and dear friend, upon whom we have set our hearts, it should be a caution unto us not to set our affections too firmly upon others, knowing that they in like manner be taken from us. Our affections should be placed upon God and His work, more intensely than upon our fellow beings.

And another sentiment that we all need to be concerned with:

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people. Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

I wish to add my blessing upon the family of Brother Mac, and wish them consolation and the assurance that all is well with this dear girl. I was struck by the angelic look upon her face, as others have been. All is well for her. The sentiments the other brethren have given us are something for all of us to consider, and I add my blessing and the thanks unto God for having been brought here for this sacred occasion. God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
crowning principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ are the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage, including the plurality of wives, and the Holy United Order, the law of consecration, which I think was mentioned in this letter of Sister Josephine to her children. These two principles cannot be abided except by and through the Holy Spirit of God. We cannot love our Father and God, and our neighbor as ourself, without the Spirit of God, which centers in the Father and goes throughout His dominions to those who love Him and keep His commandments, through perfect faith; which is accomplished by perfect obedience to the laws and commandments of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Prophet Leroy Johnson very often called upon the Elders, the brethren, to make queens of their wives. And that is the object of that great and glorious principle. The grand object is to have our calling and election made sure, by which a man becomes, called and elected, a King and Priest unto the Most High God, and his wives as Queens and Priestesses with their husband, unto the Most High God. I believe Sister Josephine has qualified for that designation.

Her sister, Norma, remarked to me, before I saw the remains in the casket, she looked very much like a queen. And I believe she is, and is qualified to become an elect lady. That is what queenship is. I would like to read a verse in Section 132, that we may understand how these things are done. First:

D.& C. 131

1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage;
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

D.& C. 132

19. And again, verily I say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word, which is my law, and by the new and everlasting covenant, and it is sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise, by him who is anointed, unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood; and it shall be said unto them -- Ye shall come forth in the first resurrection; and if it be after the first resurrection, in the next resurrection; and shall inherit thrones, kingdoms, principalities, and powers, dominions, all heights and depths -- then shall it be written in the Lamb’s Book of Life, that he shall commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, and if ye abide in my covenant, and commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, it shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my servant hath put upon them, in time, and through all eternity; and shall be of full force when they are out of the world; and they shall pass by the angels, and the gods, which are set there, to their exaltation and glory in all things, as hath been sealed upon their heads, which glory shall be a fulness and a continuation of the seeds forever and ever.

20. Then shall they be gods, because they have no end; therefore shall they be from everlasting to everlasting, because they continue; then shall they be above all, because all things are subject unto them. Then shall they be gods, because they have all power, and the angels are subject unto them.

21. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except you abide my law ye cannot attain to this glory.

48. And again, verily I say unto you, my servant Joseph, that whatsoever you give on earth, and to whomsoever you give any one on earth, by my word and according to my law, it shall be visited with blessings and not cursings, and with my power, saith the Lord, and shall be without condemnation on earth and in heaven.

There it is, brothers and sisters. And keeping in mind what Brother Parley read from Joseph F. Smith, plurality must be abided.

Well, like Brother Fred says, what we say and do here does not add or detract from what this dear sister has earned and is entitled to by her faithful life which she led, and the great and beautiful example that she was to her family. If we only knew and understood, brothers and sisters, the power of mothers. Brigham Young said they rule the world the way they raise their sons and their daughters. They are also made rulers in the Kingdom of God by them, in teaching their children the laws and ordinances and all of the beautiful things concerning the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, to make us become like God.

May God bless this family; and give praise, and honor, and glory to Him for His grand blessings that have been vouchsafed to them and to all of us. And may we all feel the same, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
You heard the word "doomsday war". This has the makings, I am strongly impressed, of bringing about the great battle of Armageddon, because these two nations have, as allies -- Israel has the United States, and Iraq has Russia, who has furnished a great deal of the armaments Iraq is using now. Gorbachev is going to turn on the United States. It is described in chapter sixteen in the Book of Revelations, if you want to read it.

So, I want to endorse the remarks of Brother Truman. This is here and now in our preparation! I just want to emphasize that with everything in me. We don't know what is going to happen to the stock markets, and the banks, and the Savings and Loan institutions that are going broke. So, we have stark conditions that are facing us now, and we are getting very near. God help us to realize this, and pray night and day for deliverance; both from the things that were spoken of by Brother Truman, as well as the great destructions and judgments which are about to be poured out upon the earth. The whole world is in commotion, and it is going to get worse from day to day. So, let us prepare!, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I wish to add, for my part, the reading of Section 38 of the Doctrine and Covenants, the grand revelation given to the Prophet Joseph Smith from the Lord Jesus Christ, with some emphasis on verses 8 and 42. Warren, will you come and read this for me?

1. Thus saith the Lord your God, even Jesus Christ, the Great I AM, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the same which looked upon the wide expanse of eternity, and all the seraphic hosts of heaven, before the world was made;
2. The same which knoweth all things, for all things are present before mine eyes;
3. I am the same which spake, and the world was made, and all things came by me.
4. I am the same which have taken the Zion of Enoch into mine own bosom; and verily, I say, even as many as have believed in my name, for I am Christ, and in mine own name, by the virtue of the blood which I have spilt, have I pleaded before the Father for them.
5. But behold, the residue of the wicked have I kept in chains of darkness until the judgment of the great day, which shall come at the end of the earth;
6. And even so will I cause the wicked to be kept, that will not hear my voice but harden their hearts, and wo, wo, wo, is their doom.
7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;
8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.
9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.
10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;
11. For all flesh is corrupted before me; and the powers of darkness prevail upon the earth, among the children of men, in the presence of all the hosts of heaven --
12. Which causeth silence to reign, and all eternity is pained, and the angels are waiting the great command to reap down the earth, to gather the tares that they may be burned; and, behold, the enemy is combined.
13. And now I show unto you a mystery, a thing which is had in secret chambers, to bring to pass even your destruction in process of time, and ye knew it not;
14. But now I tell it unto you, and ye are blessed, not because of your iniquity, neither your hearts of unbelief; for verily some of you are guilty before me, but I will be merciful unto your weakness.
15. Therefore, be ye strong from henceforth; fear not, for the kingdom is yours.
16. And for your salvation I give unto you a commandment, for I have heard your prayers, and the poor have complained before me, and the rich have I made, and all flesh is mine, and I am no respecter of persons.
17. And I have made the earth rich, and behold it is my footstool, wherefore, again I will stand upon it.
18. And I hold forth and deign to give unto you greater riches, even a land of promise, a land flowing with milk and honey, upon which there shall be no curse when the Lord cometh;
19. And I will give it unto you for the land of your inheritance, if you seek it with all your hearts.
20. And this shall be my covenant with you, ye shall have it for the land of your inheritance, and for the inheritance of your children forever, while the earth shall stand, and ye shall possess it again in eternity, no more to pass away.
21. But, verily I say unto you that in time ye shall have no king nor ruler, for I will be your king and watch over you.
22. Wherefore, hear my voice and follow me, and you shall be a free people, and ye shall have no laws but my laws when I come, for I am your lawgiver, and what can stay my hand?
23. But, verily I say unto you, teach one another according to the office wherewith I have appointed you;
24. And let every man esteem his brother as himself, and practise virtue and holiness before me.
25. And again I say unto you, let every man esteem his brother as himself.
26. For what man among you having twelve sons, and is no respecter of them, and they serve him obediently, and he saith unto the one: Be thou clothed in robes and sit thou here; and to the other: Be thou clothed in rags and sit thou there -- and looketh upon his sons and saith I am just?
27. Behold, this I have given unto you as a parable, and it is even as I am. I say unto you, be one; and if ye are not one ye are not mine.
28. And again, I say unto you that the enemy in the secret chambers seeketh your lives.
29. Ye hear of wars in far countries, and you say that there will soon be great wars in far countries, but ye know not the hearts of men in your own land.
30. I tell you these things because of your prayers; wherefore, treasure up wisdom in your bosoms, lest the wickedness of men reveal these things unto you by their wickedness, in a manner which shall speak in your ears with a voice louder than that which shall shake the earth; but if ye are prepared ye shall not fear.
31. And that ye might escape the power of the enemy, and be gathered unto me a righteous people, without spot and blameless -- 32. Wherefore, for this cause I gave unto you the commandment that ye should go to the Ohio; and there I will give unto you my law; and there you shall be endowed with power from on high;
33. And from thence, whosoever I will shall go forth among all nations, and it shall be told them what they shall do; for I have a great work laid up in store, for Israel shall be saved, and I will lead them whithersoever I will, and no power shall stay my hand.
34. And now, I give unto the church in these parts a commandment, that certain men among them shall be appointed, and they shall be appointed by the voice of the church;
35. And they shall look to the poor and the needy, and administer to their relief that they shall not suffer; and send them forth to the place which I have commanded them;
36. And this shall be their work, to govern the affairs of the property of this church.
37. And they that have farms that cannot be sold, let them be left or rented as seemeth them good.
38. See that all things are preserved; and when men are endowed with power from on high and sent forth, all these things shall be gathered unto the bosom of the church.
39. And if ye seek the riches which it is the will of the Father to give unto you, ye shall be the richest of all people, for ye shall have the riches of evernity; and it must needs be that the riches of the earth are mine to give;
but beware of pride, lest ye become as the Nephites of old.
40. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a commandment, that every man, both elder, priest, teacher, and also member, go to with his might, with the labor of his hands, to prepare and accomplish the things which I have commanded.

41. And let your preaching be the warning voice, every man to his neighbor, in mildness and in meekness.
42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. Even so. Amen.

What the Lord God says to one, He says unto all, as He says many times in the Doctrine and Covenants. And I feel that this revelation perfectly describes the situation we are in right now; and the Lord desires to bless us as He said in this beautiful revelation. All throughout this session we have had today -- If ye are not one, ye are not mine. Let us remember that. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:251  September 3, 1990  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting

Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
Sandy, Utah
September 3, 1990
How to Govern in the Priesthood;
John Y. Barlow University Being Established in Colorado City

Whenever I think of Priesthood sponsored education I think of the occasion when Brigham Young gave instructions to Karl G. Maeser when he founded the Brigham Young University. Brother Maeser asked the Prophet for instructions, and he said simply, "Teach by the Holy Ghost." That is the thing that is continually being enjoined upon all of us. We should be raising our children at home with that principle in mind.

I usually like to read this at the beginning of the year, the poem, "The Teacher's Prayer".

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

We have had some wonderful instructions here from the speakers before. I just want to add a few things from the Prophets.

D. & C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood,
That is what we are all under. This is a Priesthood school. This is how to do it.
41. ...only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;
And then here is the crux of the whole matter:
43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.
45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.
46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion,
That is what we must all come to or we will not survive or abide the day of these judgments.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

So our labors as teachers are the same as those in the families. We should receive students here to train in academics and the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And it is a fearful responsibility. So let us always approach our work with a spirit of prayer, every day when you begin your classes, and love these children as your own.

I want to express my deep appreciation for the labors that you all perform as an unpaid faculty here. And it is indeed a labor of love. I appreciate the sacrifices that you make in order to be here and continue in this wonderful work. When I see what goes on in our public school, even in Short Creek, and what we have to put up with -- the children of dissidents, without using the harsher word -- it is very hard. Some thirty students this year are being kept home to receive home instruction. The interesting thing is that it is mostly teachers' children who are being kept at home. They know better than anybody what the dangers are in the associations with the world. And that is what is brought into the school there.

I am constantly being asked, "When can we have an Alta Academy here, a private school, a Priesthood school?" But I want to assure you that the seminary work being done down there has had a remarkable effect upon the children -- ours. None are allowed there unless they sign a pledge of one hundred percent support of the Priesthood. So that keeps out any of the outsiders. They are doing a wonderful job of bringing a spirit into those children when they go back to their classes. They are very sober and take care of their business, their work.

You may have heard -- we are starting up John Y. Barlow University in the community there. It is starting to play a little havoc on the community college, Mohave County. But that is one reason we are starting that up, so the children don't have to go to the state universities to get their training. It is on a very small scale to begin with. We don't know how long we can go on with it. But the same instructions are to be given there as we are given at the beginning of the Brigham Young University. For some reason or another they made me Chancellor. [Laughter]
Brother Louis Barlow is the administrator. We have a board of regents of twenty-five brethren. Sounds big, doesn't it? But it is a small beginning we trust will bear great fruit. Louis Barlow had organized a corporation back in the 1970's, John Y. Barlow University, and it just lay dormant since then, until this year.

So the Lord's work is progressing in the educational field, and I want to leave my blessing upon all of you. I express my deepest appreciation for your faithful and true labors, and do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Colorado City, Arizona
September 9, 1990
Persecution by the Authorities in Canada;
D.& C. 38 Applies to Us Today

I just got a phone call from Bishop Winston Blackmore of Canada. Some reporters are coming in on them up there. Authorities are talking of another campaign against plural marriage in the community up there. Dear brothers and sisters, with an increase of faith the Lord will bless and sustain us in our course. Let it not be said, "Oh ye of little faith." We have much to overcome yet, as a people. We are a peculiar people, a royal Priesthood, and God is our Captain in the great struggle.

I am going to ask Brother Truman to read Section 38 of the Doctrine and Covenants, which I consider to be right on as to where we stand before the Lord, as He spoke to the saints in 1831, just a few months before they started moving to Jackson County to abide the Holy United Order. And I will ask him to make any comments and add any other truths that the Lord puts into his mind, for me.

Sandy, Utah
September 16, 1990
We Will Only Survive the Judgments if We Are Full of the Holy Ghost; D.& C. 38
The things that have been said here today are awesome and very humbling to me. I love this people as Uncle Roy loved this people, as Uncle John loved this people, though there were few in that day. And I want only to do the will of God in all things. These verses that Brother Dan read are awesome. They constitute a fullness of the holy Priesthood.

Uncle John revealed one of the grandest principles that ever came to my attention at that time. How did Abraham, how did the Three Hebrews come through the fiery furnace? They were enveloped, he said, by the Holy Ghost. Natural fire could not reach them, the fires of this earth, because they were enveloped by fire and the Holy Ghost, which is living, which brings life and which glorifies God.

Brothers and sisters, I have been saying over and over again, the only ones who will survive these great judgments that are about to come upon us are those who are full of the Holy Ghost. There is going to be a partial burning. There are going to be great earthquakes. There are going to be wars, many desolations. A desolating sickness will be the most destructive of the judgments that are coming upon us. We will not be able to survive them unless we have the Spirit of God upon us as our constant companion.

This was read here last Sunday, in which I had repeated in Short Creek last Sunday, Section 38.

D. & C. 38

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;

Yes, Uncle Roy is here. We cannot see him.

8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

To be purified is to be full of the Holy Ghost. It cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles.

9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.

That is the most encouraging thing as I read these scriptures.

10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;
11. For all flesh is corrupted before me; and the powers of darkness prevail upon the earth, among the children of men, in the presence of all the hosts of heaven --

12. Which causeth silence to reign, and all eternity is pained, and the angels are waiting the great command to reap down the earth, to gather the tares that they may be burned; and, behold, the enemy is combined.

13. And now I show unto you a mystery, a thing which is had in secret chambers, to bring to pass even your destruction in process of time, and ye knew it not;

This is going on right now again.

14. But now I tell it unto you, and ye are blessed, not because of your iniquity, neither your hearts of unbelief; for verily some of you are guilty before me, but I will be merciful unto your weakness.

15. Therefore, be ye strong from henceforth; fear not, for the kingdom is yours.

16. And for your salvation I give unto you a commandment, for I have heard your prayers, and the poor have complained before me, and the rich have I made, and all flesh is mine, and I am no respecter of persons.

17. And I have made the earth rich, and behold it is my footstool, wherefore, again I will stand upon it.

18. And I hold forth and deign to give unto you greater riches, even a land of promise, a land flowing with milk and honey, upon which there shall be no curse when the Lord cometh;

19. And I will give it unto you for the land of your inheritance, if you seek it with all your hearts.

20. And this shall be my covenant with you, ye shall have it for the land of your inheritance, and for the inheritance of your children forever, while the earth shall stand, and ye shall possess it again in eternity, no more to pass away.

We are in the midst of these words, dear brothers and sisters. Let us be encouraged. On, on to the victory, over death, hell, and the devil; and go on to the redemption of Zion, when the City of Enoch will come down and join the Zion on earth and Christ will come and rule and reign during the great Millennium. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I would like to announce at this time that we have volume 7 of the sermons of Leroy S. Johnson. They are available. Call on Aunt Mildred Johnson. She can provide them for you. They are twenty-five dollars. We have been waiting a long time for this, and it is wonderful work that has been put together. I commend it to you.

These brethren have spoken along the lines, particularly as I prayed, and asked for the Holy Spirit of God by Brother Joseph, Brother Wendell, and Brother Warren, and continued on by some of the other speakers. Section 121 is a very wonderful way upon which we can summarize here today, verse 41 to the end.

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;
Not in a fit of anger.

43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion,
That is the great aim and object of our lives, and all will be well.

46. ...and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

God bless us all to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:259  October 28, 1990  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 28, 1990
Oneness; Charity

Brothers and sisters, I do love you and this work, and I love the Lord my God, who has sent me; and I want to do only what He requires of me to do. The real theme I have seen in this meeting today has to do with oneness. The Lord said, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." We cannot be one except we be in possession of the Holy Spirit of God. That is the unifying power which we obtain by loving God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and our neighbors as ourselves.

As Brigham Young once said, "I can only teach you Latter-day Saints what I have learned from Joseph Smith, the Prophet," and I feel the same. And I would like to close with this wonderful admonition that we have from Moroni, which I have read so many times, and which I feel is the crux of the whole matter.

Moroni 7

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

The Prophet says in the Lectures, how we work when we work by faith is by the exertion of the mind. That is the same as saying "the energy of heart".

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:260  November 11, 1990  CCA
The Holy Spirit; Bless Wives With Nerves of Steel; The Spirit of God Our Only Protection

[President Jeffs had the following article read to the congregation:]

Parley P. Pratt  Millennial Star 14:483-484
The Holy Spirit of Truth

Truth is light.
Light is spirit.
Light cleaveth unto light.
Truth embraceth truth.
Intelligence comprehendeth intelligence.
Spirit recognizeth spirit.
Like embraceth like in all spiritual things.

These are some of the laws of nature in the spiritual world, and are as true, and as capable of demonstration, as any physical law of the universe.

Two balls of quicksilver, placed in contact, immediately recognize and embrace each other. Two blazes of fire, placed in near proximity, will immediately spring toward each other and blend in one. Two drops of water placed upon a table, will remain in a round or globular form. So it is in spiritual things. There is in every man a portion of the spirit of truth; a germ of light; a spiritual test or touchstone, which if strictly observed, studied, and followed by its possessor, will witness to him, and will, as it were, leap forward with a warm glow of joy and sympathy, to every truthful spirit with which it comes in contact: while by a shudder of disgust, it will recognize a false spirit, a lie. Call this spiritual magnetism, or what you please; it is so, and is a law of nature.

Herein consists the mystery of the agency of man. This is the reason why a man is under condemnation for rejecting any spiritual truth, or for embracing any spiritual error. A man's deeds are evil: his monitor is unheeded; his good angel, and the good spirit within, are grieved; and, after many admonitions which are not heeded, they retire, and leave him in the dark; he loves his own; he cleaves to a lie; he rejects the truth; darkness still increases; the world, the flesh, and the evil demons allure him onward, till death closes the scene, and ushers his spirit from the rudimentary state of man, into the next sphere, when his evil demons and companions in darkness surround him, and dwell with him; each contributes his portion of the darkness, till cloud mingled with cloud, envelopes the whole in black despair, obscures the vision, forbids the eye to behold, the tongue to utter, or the pen to describe.

On the other hand; a man's deeds are good -- as saith the Scriptures, "He that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest that they are wrought in God" -- he obeys his monitor within him; he welcomes to his bosom every true and holy principle within his reach; he puts it into practice, and seeks for more; his mind expands; the field of intelligence opens around, above, beneath him; wide and more widely extends the vision; the past, the present, the future, opens to his view; earth, with its tribes; heaven, with its planets and intelligences; the heaven of heavens, with its brilliant circles of suns, and their myriads of angels and sons of God, basking in sun-beams of pure intelligence, and streams of light and love; each adding to, and mingling in the light of the other, till the whole enlightens the vast universe, both spiritual and physical; and the vision loses itself in its very immensity, on the confines of its own infinitude.

Let a person look back on his past life, carefully review and examine the days of his innocent childhood, his first approaches to temptation, immorality, or crime. Does he not remember to have felt a disagreeable burning in his bosom, a disgust, a trembling of nerve and muscles, a hesitation, in short, a something disapproving of the act he was about to commit? And, if he still persisted, did not this burning and uneasy feeling increase almost to a fever.

Well, reader, this was your monitor -- the Spirit of God within you. Had you heeded it, it would have kept you from every temptation and crime.

On the other hand, do you not remember, many times in the course of your life, a fire, a warm glow of joy, a pleasing burning or sensation of pure light and pleasure in your bosom, approving of a good act, or prompting you to do the same? in short, a feeling of pure good will, kind sympathy, and boundless love to all good intelligences, and to man? -- a purifying of heart and sentiment, as if you would wish to do good continually, and never sin? They were the promptings of the spark of divinity within you.
They were the teachings, inspirations, and whisperings of that light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. It is sweeter than honey; more harmonious than music; more pure than the drops of dew on the roses of Paradise; more tender than the apple of thine eye; and more valuable than the gold of Australia. Blessed are they who cultivate and nourish it in their bosoms, and carry it out in their lives; for it is an emanation from the fountain of eternal life: and those who follow up from whence it came, will arrive at that fountain, as surely as a sunbeam leads upward to the centre of light.

Parley P. Pratt, Key to Theology  Pages 39-42
The purest, most refined and subtle of all these substances, and the one least understood, or even recognized, by the less informed among mankind, is that substance called the Holy Spirit.

This substance, like all others, is one of the elements of material or physical existence, and therefore subject to the necessary laws which govern all matter as before enumerated.

Like all other elements its whole is composed of individual particles. Like them, each particle occupies space, possesses the power of motion, requires time to move from one part of space to another, and can in no wise occupy two spaces at once. In all these respects it differs nothing from all other matter.

This substance is widely diffused among the elements of space. This Holy Spirit, under the control of the Great Eloheim, is the grand moving cause of all intelligences and by which they act.

This is the great, positive, controlling element of all other elements. It is omnipresent by reason of the infinitude of its particles, and it comprehends all things.

It is the controlling agent or executive, which organizes and puts in motion all worlds, and which, by the mandate of the Almighty, or any of His commissioned agents, performs all the mighty wonders, signs and miracles ever manifested in the name of the Lord, the turning of the earth backward on its axis, the dividing of the sea, the removing of a mountain, the raising of the dead, or the healing of the sick.

It penetrates the pores of the most solid substances, pierces the human system to its most inward recesses, discerns the thoughts and intents of the heart. It has power to move through space with inconceivable velocity, far exceeding the tardy motions of electricity, or of physical light.

It comprehends the past, present and future, in all their fullness. Its inherent properties embrace all the attributes of intelligence and affection. It is endowed with knowledge, wisdom, truth, love, charity, justice and mercy, in all their ramification. In short, it is the attributes of the eternal power and Godhead.

Those beings who receive of its fullness are called sons of God, because they are perfected in all its attributes and powers, and, being in communication with it, can, by its use, perform all things. Those beings who receive not a fullness, but a measure of it, can know and perform some things, but not all.

This is the true light, which in some measure illuminates all men. It is, in its less refined particles, the physical light which reflects from the sun, moon and stars, and other substances; and by reflection on the eye, makes visible the truths of the outward world. It is, also, in its higher degrees, the intellectual light of our inward and spiritual organs, by which we reason, discern, judge, compare, comprehend and remember the subjects within our reach.

Its inspiration constitutes instinct in animal life, reason in man, vision in the Prophets, and is continually flowing from the Godhead throughout all His creatures. Such is the Godhead, as manifested in His words, and in His works. He dwells in His own eternal palaces of precious stones and gold, in the Royal City of the heavenly Jerusalem.

He sits enthroned in the midst of His creations, and is filled and encircled with light unapproachable by those of the lower spheres. He associates with myriads of His own begotten sons and daughters who, by translation or resurrection, have triumphed over death.

His ministers are sent forth from His presence to all parts of His dominions. His Holy Spirit centres in His presence, and communicates with and extends to the utmost verge of His dominions, comprehending and controlling all things under the immediate direction of His own will, and the will of all those in communication with Him, in worlds without end!

[President Jeffs then continued:] I just want to add one beautiful experience that came into my life. It was also transmitted to others around August of 1984. I got a phone call from Uncle Roy. He said, "Brother Rulon, I want you to call your wives together and bless them with nerves of steel to prepare them for what we have to go through in the judgments." I want to testify to you that the Holy Spirit of God will give us nerves of steel. It accomplishes so much, as we have read here. Again, get and keep the Spirit of God, that it may be our constant guide and companion. It is the secret of life. It is the secret of our survival for what we are going to have to go through. Be filled with it.

This brings to mind, as I have mentioned, Uncle John's story of how the Three Hebrews in their time, Abraham in his time, was cast into a fiery furnace and came through. What protected them from that fire? It was the greater fire of the Holy Spirit of God surrounding those men, that protected them, because it was the Spirit of life, transcending the mere flames of mortality. So let us get it and keep it. And as Uncle John so frequently said, and I say every day, "Keep sweet." That means keep the Spirit of God. God bless you, amen.
Moroni 7

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of His Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

That is my message to you, the burden of my prayers, like it is described at the beginning of that verse: "Pray with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this pure love of Christ" -- filled with it. Only those who are filled with it will survive what we have yet to go through. Only they will be able to go on that great journey to redeem Zion who are filled with it, and be able to stand in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. All other things develop into that -- maintaining, having as our constant guide and companion the Holy Spirit of God, which will make us like God, and become His sons; which I pray we may be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Colorado City, Arizona
November 25, 1990
Perfect Faith

I cannot tell you how full my heart is from these grand expressions of support and strength that have been expressed here today. I am sure the brethren have covered the subject in every way that I had in mind about this matter of getting people behind me.

What I am after, dear brothers and sisters, is an increase in faith, which calls for more perfect obedience. Perfect obedience produces perfect faith, so that we can approach the Lord in accomplishing that which we must do which lies before us. When we work by faith, says the Prophet, we work by the exertion of the mind. The Prophet Moroni said, "Pray with all the energy of heart that you might be filled with this love," the pure love of Christ, which is the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God. When we have that sufficient, we are like God, when we are filled with the Holy Ghost; and He can then bless us. We can become like Him by being full of the Holy Ghost. And that is the summum bonum of the whole matter.

God bless us to increase our faith. Get more of the Holy Spirit of God. Be filled with it that we may become perfect, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:267  December 2, 1990  Sandy  Sunday School

Sunday School
Sandy, Utah
December 2, 1990
Judgments of God on This Generation;
The Desolating Sickness

I think we will read some of these items.

D.& C. 112

23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.

24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation,

Desolation means it is swept clean, or left desolate, without a place to be.

24. ...of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

26. First among those among you,

You Mormons.

26. ...saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not
The Lord cleaned up the Priesthood Council right at the top, beginning in March 18, 1978. Then He goes on to say these words to the saints:

27. Therefore, see to it that ye trouble not yourselves concerning the affairs of my church in this place, saith the Lord.

28. But purify your hearts before me; and then go ye into all the world, and preach my gospel unto every creature who has not received it;

That was to the Twelve who have the job of proclaiming the Gospel to all the world. Now let's read what they are. Section 45 of the Doctrine and Covenants speaks of how the Savior talked to His Twelve.

D. & C. 45

26. And in that day shall be heard of wars and rumors of wars, and the whole earth shall be in commotion, and men's hearts shall fail them, and they shall say that Christ delayeth his coming until the end of the earth.

27. And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.

28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;

29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.

30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

That overflowing scourge denotes plague, the scourges of disease, sickness, and so forth. Then it goes on:

31. ...for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

We might just as well be told what Uncle Roy had to say about that, he said to a group of brethren around his bed in the Steed home, August of 1984. The Lamanites were upon the land here when the land was discovered. Millions of them were killed. And before that, they killed each other. But Uncle Roy said those Lamanites have been resurrected to become destroying angels. He saw them and he said some were in that room at that time that could not be seen, dressed for war. They had a knife or something like that, and a tomahawk in the other hand, and they would go out when they are sent, and all they would need to do is touch a man with his weapon and he would die suddenly of a heart attack. That is how the people would look upon it at that time. He saw bodies laying over the land, for you couldn't step on the land, for bodies. He saw that they had to dig deep trenches and use whatever machinery they had to push the bodies into it and cover them up. He said
"Don't ask to see one. You couldn't stand it." I am sure there is going to be many desolations, and you can go on now and read that.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.

35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.

36. And when the light shall begin to break forth, it shall be with them like unto a parable which I will show you --

37. Ye look and behold the fig-trees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;

38. Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.

39. And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

40. And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.

41. And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.

42. And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.

43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;
Who are the remnant? Those who are full of the Holy Ghost and capable of being lifted up while these things go through the land. There is always a remnant. This tells me that this is the people who will be the remnant that will go to Jackson County to redeem Zion. Uncle Roy has said many times to many people about how it was going to be.

Let us read something now that the Prophet says about the time of the coming of the Ten Tribes, which would be after what has been read here has taken place.

The Book of Mormon is a record of the forefathers of our western tribes of Indians; having been found through the ministration of an holy angel, and translated into our own language by the gift and power of God, after having been hid up in the earth for the last fourteen hundred years, containing the word of God which was delivered unto them. By it we learn that our western tribes of Indians are descendants from that Joseph who was sold into Egypt, and that the land of America is a promised land unto them, and unto it all the tribes of Israel will come, with as many of the Gentiles as shall comply with the requisitions of the new covenant. But the tribe of Judah will return to old Jerusalem. The city of Zion spoken of by David, in the one hundred and second Psalm, will be built upon the land of America, "And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads." (Isaiah xxxv:10); and then they will be delivered from the overflowing scourge that shall pass through the land. But Judah shall obtain deliverance at Jerusalem. See Joel ii:32; Isaiah xxvi:20 and 21; Jeremiah xxxi:12; Psalms 1:5; Ezekiel xxxiv:11, 12 and 13. These are testimonies that the Good Shepherd will put forth His own sheep, and lead them out from all nations where they have been scattered in a cloudy and dark day, to Zion, and to Jerusalem; besides many more testimonies which might be brought.

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

I prophesy, that that man who tarry after he has an opportunity of going, will be afflicted by the devil. Wars are at hand; we must not delay; but are not required to sacrifice. We ought to have the building up of Zion as our greatest object. When wars come, we shall have to flee to Zion. The cry is to make haste. The last revelation says, Ye shall not have time to have gone over the earth, until these things come. It will come as did the cholera, war, fires, and earthquakes; one pestilence after another, until the Ancient of Days comes, then judgment will be given to the Saints.

Whatever you may hear about me or Kirtland, take no notice of it; for if it be a place of refuge, the devil will use his greatest efforts to trap the Saints. You must make yourselves acquainted with those men who like Daniel pray three times a day toward the House of the Lord. Look to the Presidency and receive instruction. Every man who is afraid, covetous, will be taken in a snare. The time is soon coming, when no man will have any peace but in Zion and her stakes.

I saw men hunting the lives of their own sons, and brother murdering brother, women killing their own daughters, and daughters seeking the lives of their mothers. I saw armies arrayed against armies. I saw blood, desolation, fires. The Son of Man has said that the mother shall be against the daughters, and the daughter against the mother. These things are at our doors. They will follow the Saints of God from city to city. Satan will rage, and the spirit of the devil is now enraged. I know not how soon these things will take place; but with a view of them, shall I cry peace? No; I will lift up my voice and testify of them. How long you will have good crops, and the famine be kept off, I do not know; when the fig tree leaves, know then that the summer is nigh at hand.

"Desolation" spoken of there. Now here is Brigham Young:

JD 8:123  Brigham Young  July 15, 1860  SLC

"Do you think there is calamity abroad now among the people?" Not much. All we have yet heard and all we have experienced is scarcely a preface to the sermon that is going to be preached. When the testimony of the Elders ceases to be given, and the Lord says to them, "Come home; I will now preach my own sermons to the nations of the earth," all you now know can scarcely be called a preface to the sermon that will be preached with fire and sword, tempests, earthquakes, hail, rain, thunders and lightnings, and fearful destruction. What matters the destruction of a few railway cars? You will hear of magnificent cities, now idolized by the people, sinking in the earth, entombing the inhabitants. The sea will heave itself beyond its bounds, engulphing mighty cities. Famine will spread over the nations, and nation will rise up against nation, kingdom against kingdom, and states against states, in our own country and in foreign lands; and they will destroy each other, caring not for the blood and lives of their neighbours, of their families, or for their own lives. They will be like the Jaredites who preceded the Nephites upon this continent, and will destroy each other to the last man, through the anger that the Devil will place in their hearts, because they have rejected the words of life and are given over to Satan to do whatever he listeth to do with them. You may think that the little you hear of now is grievous; yet the faithful of God's people will see days that will cause them to close their eyes because of the sorrow that will come upon the wicked nations. The hearts of the faithful will be filled with pain and anguish for them.

This now describes how the last days will come, and describes the coming of the Ten Tribes. Uncle Roy has said we are going to have the job done of teaching the Ten Tribes. The Prophet said on another occasion, people will think there won't be time to build the city and the temple, but with the help of the Ten Tribes, it can be done in a relatively short time. The way these things
D. & C. 133

10. Yea, let the cry go forth among all people: Awake and arise and go forth to meet the Bridegroom; behold and lo, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Prepare yourselves for the great day of the Lord.

11. Watch, therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour.

12. Let them, therefore, who are among the Gentiles flee unto Zion.

13. And let them who be of Judah flee unto Jerusalem, unto the mountains of the Lord's house.

14. Go ye out from among the nations, even from Babylon, from the midst of wickedness, which is spiritual Babylon.

15. But verily, thus saith the Lord, let not your flight be in haste, but let all things be prepared before you; and he that goeth, let him not look back lest sudden destruction shall come upon him.

16. Hearken and hear, O ye inhabitants of the earth. Listen, ye elders of my church together, and hear the voice of the Lord; for he calleth upon all men, and he commandeth all men everywhere to repent.

17. For behold, the Lord God hath sent forth the angel crying through the midst of heaven, saying: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight, for the hour of his coming is nigh --

18. When the Lamb shall stand upon Mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand, having his Father's name written on their foreheads.

19. Wherefore, prepare ye for the coming of the Bridegroom; go ye, go ye out to meet him.

20. For behold, he shall stand upon the mount of Olivet, and upon the mighty ocean, even the great deep, and upon the islands of the sea, and upon the land of Zion.

21. And he shall utter his voice out of Zion, and he shall speak from Jerusalem, and his voice shall be heard among all people;

22. And it shall be a voice as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder, which shall break down the mountains, and the valleys shall not be found.

23. He shall command the great deep, and it shall be driven back into the north countries, and the islands shall become one land;
That is continents.

24. And the land of Jerusalem and the land of Zion shall be turned back into their own place, and the earth shall be like as it was in the days before it was divided.
25. And the Lord, even the Savior, shall stand in the midst of his people, and shall reign over all flesh.

26. And they who are in the north countries shall come in remembrance before the Lord; and their prophets shall hear his voice, and shall no longer stay themselves; and they shall smite the rocks, and the ice shall flow down at their presence.
27. And an highway shall be cast up in the midst of the great deep.

28. Their enemies shall become a prey unto them,
Unto the Ten Tribes. And that orb is to come down below Alaska, the Bering Sea, and then a highway will be thrown up for them to come down.

29. And in the barren deserts there shall come forth pools of living water; and the parched ground shall no longer be a thirsty land.

30. And they shall bring forth their rich treasures unto the children of Ephraim, my servants.
31. And the boundaries of the everlasting hills shall tremble at their presence.

32. And there shall they fall down and be crowned with glory, even in Zion, by the hands of the servants of the Lord, even the children of Ephraim.
33. And they shall be filled with songs of everlasting joy.

34. Behold, this is the blessing of the everlasting God upon the tribes of Israel, and the richer blessing upon the head of Ephraim and his fellows.
35. And they also of the tribe of Judah, after their pain, shall be sanctified in holiness before the Lord, to dwell in his presence day and night, forever and ever.

36. And now, verily saith the Lord, that these things might be known among you, O inhabitants of the earth, I have sent forth mine angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel, who hath appeared unto some and hath committed it unto man, who shall appear unto many that dwell on the earth.

37. And this gospel shall be preached unto every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

38. And the servants of God shall go forth, saying with a loud voice: Fear God and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgment is come;

39. And worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters --

40. Calling upon the name of the Lord day and night, saying: O that thou wouldst rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence.

41. And it shall be answered upon their heads; for the presence of the Lord shall be as the melting fire that burneth, and as the fire which causeth the waters to boil.

42. O Lord, thou shalt come down to make thy name known to thine adversaries, and all nations shall tremble at thy presence --

43. When thou doest terrible things, things they look not for;

44. Yea, when thou comest down, and the mountains flow down at thy presence, thou shalt meet him who rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, who remembereth thee in thy ways.

45. For since the beginning of the world have not men heard nor perceived by the ear, neither hath any eye seen, O God, besides thee, how great things thou hast prepared for him that waiteth for thee.

46. And it shall be said: Who is this that cometh down from God in heaven with dyed garments; yea, from the regions which are not known, clothed in his glorious apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength?

47. And he shall say: I am he who spake in righteousness, mighty to save.

48. And the Lord shall be red in his apparel, and his garments like him that treadeth in the wine-vat.

49. And so great shall be the glory of his presence that the sun shall hide his face in shame, and the moon shall withhold its light, and the stars shall be hurled from their places.

50. And his voice shall be heard: I have trodden the wine-press alone, and have brought judgment upon all people; and none were with me;

51. And I have trampled them in my fury, and I did tread upon them in mine anger, and their blood have I sprinkled upon my garments, and stained all my raiment; for this was the day of vengeance which was in my heart.

I want to wind it up with some words of the Prophet Leroy Johnson, February 12, 1984. This was six days before Uncle Roy came here to a Priesthood Meeting, February 18, 1984, when he put down Marion Hammon and Alma Timpson. I think it would be well to just read all that.

My dear brothers and sisters, I stand before you today in great humility, having been humbled by my Father in heaven to suffer some six years this coming April since I was struck down with the shingles. I don't want to say anything that will displease my Father in heaven, so I am asking Him to put into my mouth the words that He would like me to say because I only want to do that which is necessary for me to do to bring about the purposes of God in the earth.

I have been called into this position by the revelations of God by a man who held this position before me, and he was a prophet of God. So, I feel, my brothers and sisters, that I have a right to speak.

I was struck down in the early part of 1979. I had been called upon by some of my brethren to have the word of God changed in our Doctrine & Covenants, and this, I objected to. Shortly after that, I was branded as a fallen prophet. I want to say a few words to these men who sit here on the stand today. (He turned to face J. Marion Hammon and Alma A. Timpson.) The Lord gave you men five and a half years to change your thinking on this principle of having one man holding the sealing powers in the earth at a time, and you have made a miserable mess of it by coming here and preaching over this pulpit that I was about to die because of my attitude towards this principle. (Turning again to the audience).

Now then, if the Lord doesn't want me to speak, I want Him to take me out of this pulpit. If He wants me to speak, I want to speak freely, and I don't want to be high-minded or raise my voice so high that I can't talk, but I want to talk plainly to this body of people.

I know there are people here today who don't believe in me. They feel like I have forfeited all my privileges to the Melchizedek Priesthood, but as long as the Lord will allow me to speak, I will tell you that I am not afraid to speak. There is only one man at a time, and that is the way it has been throughout all the history of God's dealings with people, both in this world and the world before this one, and the world before that one. Only one man at a time holds the keys and power of the sealing power, and those who act during his administration are only acting under a delegated authority. That is what I told these men.

I am coming back now. I am going to take my place, my position at the pulpit as long as God will allow me to, and I am not afraid to speak for Him. I'll tell you why -- simply because it is only a short time until He is going to come and visit this earth with great judgments. They have already started. He said, "In My house shall it begin." I'll tell you, it began with this council -- six years ago this coming April. This Priesthood Council was broken up. Since then, we have suffered the death, first of Brother Richard Seth Jessop, and then Brother Guy H. Musser. So there are only four of us left. For about three and a half years, neither I nor Brother Rulon Jeffs were allowed to speak to the people. Why? Because I was stricken down and I couldn't speak, but I am speaking today. They would not allow Brother Jeffs to speak because he sustained me.

I want to tell you, the Lord did a great thing. His judgments started in His own house; they started with the Priesthood, and He cleaned us up. From now on, there will be nobody in the Priesthood Council only those who sustain the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith. There is only one man at a time that holds the keys of the sealing power while he lives.

It is hard for me to speak because of my heart condition, but I will talk as long as the Lord will let me. The work of God must go on! Great judgments are coming upon this great Church of ours. When Wilford Woodruff signed the Manifesto, he didn't only sign away his rights to the Celestial Law, but he also signed away his right to the Holy Priesthood. Now what kind of priesthood has the Church been operating under for ninety years? -- yea, ninety-four years? Is the "Coming Crisis and How to Meet It" being fulfilled right under our eyes and there is nobody here to defend the Gospel of Jesus Christ?

We will see the judgments of God poured out more and more from this time forth until this part of the earth is empty of its inhabitants -- those who are not able to say, "I am clean every whit," and have the Lord call us up. So we are working under a great handicap, my dear brothers and sisters. If this people that I am speaking to today don't hasten to lay away their sins and their wrong-doings and come clean before the Lord, they are going to find the Lord is not pleased with them, and they will have to go down with the wicked.

Now, I pray that God's blessings will be upon us, because He has granted us a few days more to clean up our lives and get down on our knees and pray night and day for deliverance as He has said. This is the time we will have to begin that practice. God bless you, amen.

The wicked that will be swept off are they who come not unto Christ. How can they come unto Christ, except through him whom Christ has sent? Those men were preaching, during those years when we couldn't speak, that you bypass Leroy Johnson and go direct to the Lord. It cannot be done.

So there we have it, and I have been repeating some of these things as we have gone along here. We must be filled with the Holy Ghost, capable of being caught up, as Uncle Roy said right here, in order to survive. So you see why so much emphasis is being laid on getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God all of the time. Well, that will be enough for today. Send for the classes, please.

RTJ 7:281  December 2, 1990  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
December 2, 1990
Judgments Will Begin at the House of God;
Prayers Must "Go Above the Ceiling"

This morning I had rehearsed before family Sunday School dissertations from the Prophet, from the Doctrine and Covenants, Brigham Young, and Uncle Roy regarding the judgments. And I am asking Warren, since my eyes aren't so good, to read what he read this morning to the class. I just want to say in the beginning, the judgments are to begin in the House of God. Brother Johnson made the statement, "They are going to hit first and hardest where the Mormons are." That is beginning at the House of God, where we are trying to carry on the work of the holy Priesthood, preparing a people to redeem Zion. So he will start with Section 112 and go on through with what he read this morning.
[After many quotes of the judgments were read, President Jeffs said:] The time is far spent, by those words Brother Truman mentioned, getting my people behind me. What I am calling for is more and greater, an increase of faith. I am afraid we are spiritually lazy. Perfect obedience produces perfect faith. Let us call upon the Lord in our prayers with faith in our prayers. That is when He hears them. The prayers go beyond the ceiling, through the Holy Spirit of God, to reach Him. So let us unite now, overcoming this great crisis that is upon us.

I reminded those in that meeting with the attorneys two weeks ago tonight, of the words of the Prophet Leroy Johnson when he said, "There will be no deeds given. You are not fighting against me. You are fighting against God and He will handle you. I want you to get discouraged and leave." That is the agreement that we have had. Any hope of a settlement that they would have to make, and that is to leave. But they won't. They are trying to break the Trust, and me, and Brother Fred in the bargain. But we will have access to the appeals of the court however long the Lord sees fit to continue this thing. But God Almighty will handle them, as the Prophet Leroy Johnson said. Let us keep our faith to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:282 December 6, 1990 Sandy Alta Academy Devotional

Alta Academy Devotional
Sandy, Utah
December 6, 1990
Greatness of the Prophet Joseph Smith

My love and loyalty to the Prophet before me overwhelms me as I listen to the things that have been said. The Prophet Leroy Johnson was the founder of this school and he asked me to administer it. He also chose Warren to be the principal. So my love and loyalty is swallowed up for that man. And he taught us as you all know and understand, from his sermons. It reminds me of this piece that Warren referred to. It is called "The Prophet".

RTJ Book of Quotes, Page 83
The Prophet
He said, "I see." And they said: "He's crazy; crucify him." He still said: "I see." And they said: "He's an extremist." And they tolerated him. And he continued to say: "I see." And they said: "He's eccentric." And they rather liked him, but smiled at him. And he stubbornly said again: "I see." And they said: "There's something in what he says." And they gave him half an ear. But he said as if he's never said it before: "I see." And at last they were awake; and they gathered about him and built a temple in his name. And yet he only said: "I see." And they wanted to do something for him. "What can we do to express to you our regret?" He answered. He touched them with the ends of his fingers and kissed them. What could they do for him? "Nothing more than you have done," he answered. And what was that? they wanted to know. "You see," he said, "that's reward enough; you see, you see."

That is what Warren has been saying to you here this morning. I am trying to pattern my life after Uncle Roy and Uncle John who went before, and going clear back to Joseph Smith, Jun., the great Prophet of the last and the greatest of all the dispensations upon the earth in which all the other dispensations will be brought together in one, in this last great dispensation, leading into the last day, the Sabbath of this creation, the great Millennium. Joseph stands at the head of this last dispensation, and because of his position as to the Godhead of this earth, he stands in the office of the Holy Ghost. Heber C. Kimball said this:

JD 5:179 Heber C. Kimball August 23, 1857 SLC
...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; He is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and He is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ.

To understand and appreciate that statement we need to read Section 135, regarding the martyrdom of the Prophet Joseph Smith, who was the third member of the Godhead.

Joseph Smith (Compendium Page 289)

Everlasting covenant was made between three personages before the organization of this earth, and relates to their dispensation of things to men on the earth; These personages, according to Abraham's record, are called God the first, The Creator, Michael.

...God the second, the Redeemer;

Jesus Christ, who was Jehovah before this world.
...and God the third, the witness or Testator.

Which was Joseph Smith, Jun. He stands next to Jesus Christ as to the Godhead to us in the flesh. Let us hark back to our beginnings. That is where it is. When the Father and the Son appeared to Joseph, a fourteen-year-old lad, who inquired of Him which of the churches to join, which were much agitated in that day, there appeared to him then the Father and the Son. The Holy Ghost was before them. He was Their Witness. Joseph Smith, Jun., was the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son.

Let us hearken to these grand truths and be obedient, and obtain perfect faith through perfect obedience. I appreciate these remarks of Brother Warren. And I want to bless you with all the power that I have to bless you, my children, so to speak. I love you with all my heart, and I want only your salvation, and want to see you exalted in your salvation; which I pray you will be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:284 December 8, 1990  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 8, 1990
Funeral of Brent Jason Steed
Son of Elder Clark Steed

I am honored to be asked to speak on this sacred occasion. I pray the Lord to bless the words that are given here, which I desire to have read, the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith that so beautifully pertain to this occasion.

I just want to say one thing to this family. God chooses His own crucible through which we must pass in the tests that are made to live or to pass over; and these words of Brother Parley, "Thy will, O God, not mine be done," I invoke upon this family.

Because of some difficulty reading, I am asking Brother Truman to read two messages from the Prophet Joseph Smith applicable to this occasion.

TPJS Page 196

President Smith read the 14th chapter of Revelation, and said -- We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst, which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, why it is that infants, innocent children, are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting. The strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these: This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the "world grows weaker and wiser"; if that is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt. In the earlier ages of the world a righteous man, and a man of God and of intelligence, had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth, and he has much sorrow to pass through here. The Lord takes many away even in infancy, that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore, if rightly considered, instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.

TPJS  Page 107

The heavens were opened upon us, and I beheld the celestial kingdom of God, and the glory thereof, whether in the body or out I cannot tell. I saw the transcendent beauty of the gate through which the heirs of that kingdom will enter, which was like unto circling flames of fire; also the blazing throne of God, whereon was seated the Father and the Son. I saw the beautiful streets of that kingdom, which had the appearance of being paved with gold. I saw Father Adam and Abraham, and my father and my mother, my brother, Alvin, that has long since slept, and marvelled how it was that he had obtained an inheritance in that kingdom, seeing that he had departed this life before the Lord had set his hand to gather Israel the second time, and had not been baptized for the remission of sins.

Thus came the voice of the Lord unto me, saying --

All who have died without a knowledge of this Gospel, who would have received it if they had been permitted to tarry, shall be heirs of the celestial kingdom of God; also all that shall die henceforth without a knowledge of it, who would have received it with all their hearts, shall be heirs of that kingdom, for I, the Lord, will judge all men according to their works, according to the desire of their hearts. And I also behold that all children who die before they arrive at the years of accountability are saved in the celestial kingdom of heaven. -- D.H.C. 2:380-381.
[There was present most of his unmarried children, with several of his wives. A few songs and a reading were presented. The family members each hugged him. He then said:]

I can't thank you enough. Very beautiful. Well, I am mighty thankful for all of you, grateful for your spirit and desires in righteousness. Carry on and do the things you said here. That reading was splendid. I don't think you can say you haven't been taught.

I must account for all of you. Don't ever let me down. And I love you all, each one and all, and I bless you with all the power the Lord gives me to bless. Let us stand together as we go through the crucible that is being prepared for us, and all will be well. But above all, keep the Spirit of God. That is the only way we will survive. And keep your eye on Zion, the pure in heart.

The Lord is requiring us, His servants, to get a pure people. One purpose that we have of going through this lawsuit is to bring the powers of heaven down to take out from our midst all that is not clean and pure. There is not room for the least amount of impurity when we have an understanding of what Zion is, the Zion of our God. In building Zion, we are building it for a dwelling place of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who will govern us during the great Millennium. None can stand in His presence except they be filled with the Holy Spirit of God.

So, let us all go down the road together, shall we, on the way to Zion. I am grateful for each and every one of you, and these dear mothers, these queen mothers. Honor thy father and thy mothers that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. God bless you all that you may endure to the end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Sandy, Utah
December 16, 1990
God Will Handle the Apostates; Zion Must Be Pure; Zion Will Be Redeemed

Well, the Lord has spoken through these brethren as I have prayed for each of them, and I don't feel there is any more to add at this point except this: God Almighty is governing and is overruling in this court action. It is in His hands, as to the enemy and as to the judge. I just want to express my gratitude to the Lord for these great blessings that have come to us. There is more to go through, but God is at the helm. Let us stand as one man, and God will deliver the enemy into the hands where they belong. We are dealing with apostates. Just read what the Prophet Joseph had to say about them. And we will make no agreements with them.

They proposed in a settlement that we give them ten-year leases, renewable and assignable. Uncle Roy said, "I want you to get discouraged and leave," and they have got to agree to leave before we can go any further. Zion must be made clean and pure. We are building a Zion where we are, dear brethren and sisters. Each of us in our hearts must have Zion, and as a whole, one people acting as one man, preparing to live that holy order. The enemy is trying to destroy it, but God will be our "Right-hand Man".

God bless you all, and continue in your faith. We are having a wonderful time in our Priesthood Meetings, learning more how to get more faith. You families, stand behind your head, and those brethren bearing the holy Priesthood will stand by me; and we will go down the road together to Zion. Let us keep our eye on Zion, dear brothers and sisters. Zion must be made pure and clean, and God will have His people redeemed. Zion will be redeemed. God bless you, amen.

Sandy, Utah
January 6, 1991
How Faith Works; The Remnant Will Be from Among This Priesthood People
I desire, dear brothers and sisters, to give some pointed instructions that the Lord has given in the Doctrine and Covenants and through the Prophet Joseph regarding faith. I don’t know that I can read them. I am still having trouble with my left eye. I had a hemorrhage in it and the blood cleared away. Now I have the scar tissue to see through. So things are pretty fuzzy. Brother Truman, will you read some key scriptures here for me?

Moroni 7

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

Lecture Seven

3. Let us here offer some explanation in relation to faith, that our meaning may be clearly comprehended. We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force. It is by words, instead of exerting his physical powers, with which every being works when he works by faith. God said, "Let there be light, and there was light." Joshua spake, and the great lights which God had created stood still. Elijah commanded, and the heavens were stayed for the space of three years and six months, so that it did not rain: he again commanded and the heavens gave forth rain. All this was done by faith. And the Savior says, "If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, say to this mountain, 'Remove,' and it will remove; or say to that sycamine tree, 'Be ye plucked up, and planted in the midst of the sea,' and it shall obey you." Faith, then, works by words; and with these its mightiest works have been, and will be, performed.

D.& C. 8

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry
4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.

D.& C. 9

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.
7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.
8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.
9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

[President Jeffs then continued:] The point I want to make, dear brothers and sisters, is what is made there for Oliver Cowdery. He was called on to assist in the translation of the Book of Mormon, and he was told how he could do it, under the Spirit of revelation mentioned in Section 8. He failed because all he thought he had to do was ask. Exertion of the mind, in the Lecture on Faith, and the one in Moroni, with all the energy of heart; we pray unto the Lord if we want our faith to be rewarded and answered. Can we understand what is required? Spiritual energy. The mind is the spirit in man. It takes exertion of that spirit. And putting it the way Moroni does, "with all the energy of heart," heart and mind. The mind is the spirit in man. The heart is... the central organ of our physical being. So that is how we have faith in our prayers. I just wanted to emphasize these things for us.

Now turn to Section 45. This has to do with what is before us. The Lord told the Prophet Joseph that the great destructions and judgments would commence at the House of God. From there it should go forth to all the nations. So we can expect these judgments to commence right here. Uncle Roy said those judgments are going to be first and worst where the Mormons are. That means the great Mormon Church, which is now completely apostate from the Priesthood of God. The Prophet Joseph tells us that these judgments are to come and sweep the wicked from off the face of the land. And here is how that will be done.

D.& C. 45

30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

Overflowing scourge, a desolating sickness.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.
33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.
35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.

36. And when the light shall begin to break forth, it shall be with them like unto a parable which I will show you --
37. Ye look and behold the fig-trees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;

38. Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.
39. And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

40. And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.
41. And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.
42. And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.

Now here is a significant point I want to make:

43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;
The remnant left after the judgments and destruction have taken place.
43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;
The Spirit of God tells me that this people will be that remnant, those that are left of them after going through the scourges and the judgments that are to come. That is when they will be taken to Zion with Jesus Christ going before them and His angels. I just want to make that point, which came to me so strongly as I read these words.

44. And then they shall look for me, and, behold, I will come; and they shall see me in the clouds of heaven, clothed with power and great glory; with all the holy angels; and he that watches not for me shall be cut off.

These judgments are to take place, and the wicked swept off from the face of the land preparatory to the coming of the Ten Tribes. And they from the North and the remnant of Jacob from the South will assist Ephraim in building the New Jerusalem, the temple and the city. That is the brief scenario that we may contemplate and what part we may have to play. I pray God will bless us all, that we may be one people, keeping our eye on Zion. So we have much to go through. God bless us all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:293  January 13, 1991  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 13, 1991
Faith Unto Eternal Life

Praise and honor be unto God. I desire but to be an instrument in His hands.
to carry out the work that He has set for us to do. Here is a beautiful summary on the subject of faith, which is a short summary of the Lectures on Faith, which I would like to read again, which I have a good many times.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect,

From this I say, "Perfect obedience produces perfect faith."

...will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Knowledge is power. Faith is power. All of the attributes listed in Lecture Four are principles of power, and they are the attributes of the Holy Spirit of God; which, if we have in fullness, we are like God. May God help us to this end, and bless us that we may carry on His work with full purpose of heart, perfect faith. And the praise and the honor be unto God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Even so, amen.

RTJ 7:294  February 17, 1991  Sandy  Sunday School

Sunday School
Sandy, Utah
February 17, 1991
Cannot Compromise With Apostates; Beware of Pride

I feel impressed to talk a little about apostasy and apostates. We are having to deal with so many of them in this lawsuit, but all of the apostates are not on the lawsuit; and by the word of God, through Uncle Roy, they must leave our community. During the past two months, the opposition lawyers approached our lawyers and asked that they consider a settlement out of court. They are tired of the case. They know they don't have a case. But they started it and they have got to finish it.

As of the week before this past week, exchange of letters between the two sides concluded all negotiations, and we are now working to next Friday for the pretrial conference, where this prejudiced and unjust judge -- one of the attorneys called him a "jackass judge" -- has brought down to pretrial sixteen motions that he hasn't ruled on yet, including Harold Blackmore, on whom we filed a motion to dismiss two and a half years ago. He stated in one hearing that there may be a "residual interest" for those who are no longer members of the Trust. That means he is looking down to breaking up the Trust, distributing it, giving deeds to both sides, "cut the baby in two," in remembrance of Solomon. That cannot be. In the negotiations, they are demanding that we pay back their consecrations, the value of their homes. It flies in opposition to all concepts of the Holy United Order, from which they are apostate. So, having settled that issue, they wanted us to pay them for their homes so they could pay their attorneys' fees. That is what the attorneys were working for. Big deal! Any agreement that would be made with them wouldn't be kept. We are dealing with devils.

Millennial Star 42:395 1880

There are grades of apostasy. The person who embraces the Gospel, rejoices in the sunlight of truth for a season, and then, through cold indifference, falls asleep as to the things of God, is an apostate in the incipient sense. Having received but a glimmering of light, he has not had a great deal to apostatize from. His case is the mildest form, from which he is susceptible of being aroused, when the expiring spark of the Gospel in his bosom is fanned to a glow by a genial breath of the Spirit of truth.

There are degrees from that moderate condition all the way to the culminating point. When that is reached, the doom of the apostate is sealed beyond the reach of redemption. This is the situation referred to by the Savior, when he said a certain class of persons should not be forgiven in this world, neither in the world to come. They commit the blasphemy or sin against the Holy Ghost. In a revelation given through Joseph the Seer, in September, 1832, the Lord instructed the prophet and six elders on the nature and duties of the Aaronic and the High Priesthood. The following passage occurs: "Therefore all those who receive the Priesthood receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved, but whoso breaketh this covenant, after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world, nor in the world to come."

The highest point of apostasy can only be reached by those who fall away and turn against the light after having made considerable advancement in the work. Such become the sons of perdition, vessels of wrath, the only beings on whom the second death shall have power. They sin away the day of grace, never more to return. The Lord has said, "My Spirit shall not always strive with man." When that Spirit eternally forsakes an individual, woeful is his condition. Even repentance is beyond his reach, for that process is the result of the workings of the Spirit of God in the heart of man.

Apostasy is the result of pride. Beware of pride.

Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy, and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance, and asking forgiveness; and should we even forgive our brother, or even our enemy, before he repent or ask forgiveness, our heavenly Father would be equally as merciful unto us.

Again, let the Twelve and all Saints be willing to confess all their sins, and not keep back a part; and let the Twelve be humble, and not be exalted, and beware of pride, and not seek to excel one above another, but act for each other's good, and pray for one another, and honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name, and not backbite and devour our brother. Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world, when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us, and not be obliged to learn by sad experience everything we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen, of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exalt themselves, until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall, and go wallowing through the mud and mire and darkness, Judas-like, to the buffetings of Satan, as several of the quorum have done, or will they learn wisdom and be wise? O God! give them wisdom, and keep them humble, I pray.

When the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the congregations of the earth, and they preach in the power and demonstration of the Spirit of God, and the people are astonished and confounded at the doctrine, and say, "That man has preached a powerful discourse, a great sermon," then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves, but be careful that they are humble, and ascribe the praise and glory to God and the Lamb; for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood and the Holy Ghost that they have power thus to speak. What art thou, O man, but dust? And from whom receivest thou thy power and blessings, but from God?

Then, O ye Twelve! notice this Key, and be wise for Christ's sake, and your own soul's sake. Ye are not sent out to be taught, but to teach. Let every word be seasoned with grace. Be vigilant; be sober. It is a day of warning, and not of many words. Act honestly before God and man. Beware of Gentile sophistry; such as bowing and scraping unto men in whom you have no confidence. Be honest, open, and frank in all your intercourse with mankind.

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

The greatest and worst starting point in that process is criticism, and faultfinding, and false accusing of one another, of the brethren particularly. We will hear a sermon of Uncle Roy's on that subject now.

My dear brothers and sisters, I greatly feel my weaknesses in trying to speak to you this afternoon. After hearing what I have heard, the testimonies of not only our own elders, but the testimonies of the prophets of God, I feel greatly humbled in my efforts to try to instruct you, but I pray that the Lord will put into my mouth the words that I need to speak
Of late, I have been greatly humiliated in my feelings in regard to some of our elders and some of our women who take it upon themselves to become laws unto themselves and to deviate from the teachings they have received from the servants of God.

Some time ago, a young man came to us and wanted to know what the Priesthood would have him do to better his life and better serve the Priesthood. This happened to be in President Barlow's time. President Barlow asked the young man to go and take a training. He told him if he would be prayerful and sincere in trying to get the Spirit of God and go out with a determination to learn that the Lord would bless him.

Soon after this, I received a letter from the young man wanting to know how he could better arrange his life so that he could get better marks in his learning. I wrote him a little letter. I quoted to him the words of the Savior wherein he said, "Pray always, that you might get the Spirit of God." It went on for sometime, and the young man apparently was failing in his efforts to make the marks that were necessary in his schooling. At the same time, he said, "I have spent two-thirds of my time on my knees, praying for the Lord to give me His Spirit and give me the answers to the questions that I had to answer. For a while, I thought I was receiving answers to my prayers, and I got along fine until it finally shut off." So then I quoted to him what the Savior had said about praying always. You don't have to spend this time on your knees all the time. He found it difficult to spend all his time on his knees praying and still get his lessons. I said, "If you will stay off your knees and get down to hard work in getting your lessons, but at the same time when you start to work ask the Lord to bless you and help you to get your lessons, and continue your research of the problem that you have, you will find it easier to make the goal that you're after."

So this is what I quoted him. The Lord, here in Third Nephi, after the great destruction, told the people to kneel down and pray and to continue to pray and they did so for some time, and then He asked them to get upon their feet.

3 Nephi 20

1. And it came to pass that he commanded the multitude that they should cease to pray and also His disciples. And He commanded them that they should not cease to pray in their hearts.
2. And He commanded them that they should arise and stand upon their feet. And they arose and stood upon their feet.

Now this is the thing that the Lord meant when He said, "Pray always." Have a prayer in your heart continually that you might keep the Spirit of God to direct you in all your labors. He didn't mean that we should kneel down before Him and stay on our knees from daylight till dark, but He did mean that we should go into our secret chambers and beseech Him and kneel and pray to Him. He has also commanded that we gather our families around us, morning and night, and kneel with them and pray with them. Teach our children to pray, and then pray always within ourselves that we might keep His Spirit with us.

If we will learn to do this, we will learn how to get and keep the Spirit of God. We have had a lot of the scripture read to us today, but this much I wanted you to know, that we can pray for the Lord to bless us when we are working in the field. We can pray for the Lord to bless our crop, bless the seed that we plant and our crop that it might yield in abundance, to bless the ground without kneeling on our knees to be conspicuous among our neighbors. I believe that there are times when we should kneel upon the ground and ask the Lord to bless it that it might yield in abundance.

I found that, even in my own work, in my life, I have had the experience of having the Lord bless me in the labors that were placed upon me even though I had no experience in it before. He's blessed me abundantly. He's blessed me to the point where I've been able to draw the highest wage in accomplishing the work that I had to do, and I satisfied the employer.

We've had lots of experiences in our lives to teach us that prayer should be the soul's sincere desire, but we don't have to flaunt our prayers before the devils of the earth. I have been thrown into conditions where Satan's spirit ruled. I didn't have to partake of the evil. When I've been in these conditions, I've asked the Lord in my heart to protect my soul from partaking of the spirit of the devil. And I've gone through it in peace and safety. There have been many times that I've had to implore the Lord for His blessings to be able to stand under some of the pressures that were placed upon me. You can do the same.
The things that have been told to us here today are verily true. This people are in dire danger of some of you losing the way unless you can get your feet under you and be able to withstand the temptations that come.

There are a few men that we have had to call into our council and handle them and tell them that what they had to do in order to align themselves with this Priesthood again. Some have confessed their sins, and some have not. Some have come along and tried to overcome, and some have not. We have many conditions come up. We have conditions before us at the present time that are very vexing to us. That's the reason that we talk like we do, to try to get our people to overcome their weaknesses and imperfections, for there are none of us who can say that we have made it.

On one occasion, a man came to the Prophet Joseph and told him that it didn't make any difference what happened to him, that even if he were to lose the faith, he would not say anything against the Prophet, but the Prophet's answer to him was, "You don't know what you'll do, brother. Once you lose the Spirit of God, you don't know what you'll do." I find that to be the case. I've heard men tell John and Joseph that they knew that they held the keys of the Priesthood and it didn't make any difference what happened to them, they would never deny it. But before the year was up, they denied the testimony that they had that John and Joseph were prophets of God. I'll tell you, we don't know what we'll do once we lose the Spirit of God.

I hope that our people will take notice of the sermons this afternoon and that we will repent of the things that beset us and our people. If we are having trials in our families, there is something wrong and we should get to the bottom of it. If I have trials in my family, I begin to look this bird over and see what he's doing, and I very often find that I've stepped out of the way somewhere. If I can get myself straightened up, it's not hard to straighten up the rest of the trials. There's not a man in this audience who is so high and mighty that he knows all that the Lord requires him to do, because when he gets to that point, he is on dangerous ground. There's not a man here that can say that he has perfected himself to a point where he can rule and rule righteously over his family because he'd better begin to look and see whether he has any faults and failings.

And you women, I want you to understand that it's your duty to strive with yourselves and see to it that you don't have bad feelings one towards another. If you do have bad feelings towards another, then begin to look your own lives over.

Let's do what the Lord has said, "Come out of her, O Ye my people, and be not partakers of her sins," because this is one of the worst sins that deceive the people of the earth today -- the sin of criticism, the sin of fault-finding. I'll tell you, it's a hard thing.

It's one of Satan's greatest weapons among a people. It was the cause of the fall of the Jaredite nation. It was the cause of the fall of the Nephite nation.

We want to remember this, that the Lord has said through the mouths of His prophets that those who possess this land shall be a people that serve the God of the land, and this is the land of Joseph. This is the land that received the great blessing by the Lord that it should be a land choice above all other lands and those who shall possess it shall be a God-fearing people or else when they have ripened in iniquity, "I will destroy them."

I don't know how much more wicked the Lord will allow this people to become before He starts His great work of destruction. When we begin to hear of the things that men want our legislature to pass, and they begin to come out in the papers and begin to be mulled over by the public, sooner or later, they come into law. Brother Barlow used to say this, "When they begin to make instruments of war, sooner or later, they'll use them."

So what greater war is there than war against the purposes of our Father?

I read in the paper the other day where they were advocating that our legislature pass laws, not only in the state, but in the nation, that women should be restricted to two children. Anyone having more than that should be prosecuted by the law. One of the senators asked the supreme judge that was advocating the passing of this law what the penalty would be if a woman happened to have three. He said they would have to suffer the condition of the law whatever it was. It would be like any other law. Anyone breaking it would be subject to prosecution. This hasn't come into effect yet, but they are talking about it. Well, we will leave it in the hands of the Lord.
We've been together long enough. I ask God to bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

TPJS Page 66

Apostates Excluded from Fellowship

The Messiah's kingdom on earth is of that kind of government, that there has always been numerous apostates, for the reason that it admits of no sins unrepented of without excluding the individual from its fellowship. Our Lord said, "Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." And again, many are called, but few are chosen. Paul said to the elders of the Church at Ephesus, after he had labored three years with them, that he knew that some of their own number would turn away from the faith, and seek to lead away disciples after them. None, we presume, in this generation will pretend that he has the experience of Paul in building up the Church of Christ and yet, after his departure from the Church at Ephesus, many, even of the elders turned away from the truth; and what is almost always the case, sought to lead away disciples after them. Strange as it may appear at first thought, yet it is no less strange than true, that notwithstanding all the professed determination to live godly, apostates after turning from the faith of Christ, unless they have speedily repented, have sooner or later fallen into the snares of the wicked one, and have been left destitute of the Spirit of God, to manifest their wickedness in the eyes of multitudes. From apostates the faithful have received the severest persecutions. Judas was rebuked and immediately betrayed his Lord into the hands of His enemies, because Satan entered into him. There is a superior intelligence bestowed upon such as obey the Gospel with full purpose of heart, which, if sinned against, the apostate is left naked and destitute of the Spirit of God, and he is, in truth, nigh unto cursing, and his end is to be burned. When once that light which was in them is taken from them, they become as much darkened as they were previously enlightened, and then, no marvel, if all their power should be enlisted against the truth, and they, Judas like, seek the destruction of those who were their greatest benefactors. What nearer friend on earth, or in heaven, had Judas than the Savior? And his first object was to destroy Him. Who, among all the Saints in these last days can consider himself as good as our Lord? Who is as perfect? Who is as pure? Who is as holy as He was? Are they to be found? He never transgressed or broke a commandment or law of heaven no deceit was in His mouth, neither was guile found in His heart. And yet one that ate with Him, who had often drunk of the same cup, was the first to lift up his heel against Him. Where is one like Christ? He cannot be found on earth. Then why should His followers complain, if from those whom they once called brethren, and considered as standing in the nearest relation in the everlasting covenant they should receive persecution? From what source emanated the principle which has ever been manifest by apostates from the true Church to persecute with double diligence, and seek with double perseverance, to destroy those whom they once professed to love, with whom they once communed, and with whom they once covenanted to strive with every power in righteousness to obtain the rest of God? Perhaps our brethren will say the same that caused Satan to seek to overthrow the kingdom of God, because he himself was evil, and God's kingdom is holy.

Now, a few verses of Section 121. After the Lord was called upon by the Prophet Joseph in Liberty Jail:

D.& C. 121

6. Remember thy suffering saints, O our God, and thy servants will rejoice in thy name forever.

And the answer starts:

7. My son, peace be unto thy soul; thine adversity and thine afflictions shall be but a small moment;

8. And then, if thou endure it well, God shall exalt thee on high; thou shalt triumph over all thy foes.

9. Thy friends do stand by thee, and they shall hail thee again with warm hearts and friendly hands.

10. Thou art not yet as Job; thy friends do not contend against thee, neither charge thee with transgressions, as they did Job.

11. And they who do charge thee with transgression, their hope shall be blasted, and their prospects shall melt away as the hoar frost melteth before the burning rays of the rising sun;

12. And also that God hath set his hand and seal to change the times and seasons, and to blind their minds, that they may not understand his marvelous workings; that he may prove them also and take them in their own craftiness;
13. Also because their hearts are corrupted, and the things which they are willing to bring upon others, and love to have others suffer, may come upon themselves to the very uttermost;

14. That they may be disappointed also, and their hopes may be cut off;
15. And not many years hence, that they and their posterity shall be swept from under heaven, saith God, that not one of them is left to stand by the wall.

16. Cursed are all those that shall lift up the heel against mine anointed, saith the Lord, and cry they have sinned when they have not sinned before me, saith the Lord, but have done that which was meet in mine eyes, and which I commanded them.
17. But those who cry transgression do it because they are the servants of sin, and are the children of disobedience themselves.
18. And those who swear falsely against my servants, that they might bring them into bondage and death --
19. Wo unto them; because they have offended my little ones they shall be severed from the ordinances of mine house.
20. Their basket shall not be full, their houses and their barns shall perish, and they themselves shall be despised by those that flattered them.
21. They shall not have right to the priesthood, nor their posterity after them from generation to generation.
22. It had been better for them that a millstone had been hanged about their necks, and they drowned in the depth of the sea.
23. Wo unto all those that discomfort my people, and drive, and murder, and testify against them, saith the Lord of Hosts; a generation of vipers shall not escape the damnation of hell.

As we all know, those connected with that lawsuit have been threatening bloodshed -- Merrill Harker, the Williams brothers, Mike Pipkin. So, that brings in our need for faith in God, that He will deal with them as He says in the scriptures.
Faith

Brother Truman was speaking for me, and I wish to add one more thing that I have read so many times on the subject of faith.

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts  Page  145-146

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect,

Perfect obedience produces perfect faith.

...will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold a communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Which I pray may be our lot and our great ambition.  I love the wonderful remark that Uncle Roy once made: "I know who God is.  I know how to become like Him."  May we do this, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:308  February 24, 1991  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 24, 1991
Make Sure Your Children Are in Their Own Home by Dark

Uncle Fred has spoken for me, and so have the other brethren.  The Lord has surely shed forth His Spirit upon us, and I invoke the Spirit of God upon all of you.  I love you, and I would lay my life down for you, if the Lord required it.  "Obedience is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams."

I acknowledge the blessings of God unto me.  I acknowledge the great blessing that the Prophet Leroy Sunderland Johnson was to me as he vouchsafed the grand teachings that he has, as well as John Y. Barlow.
I want to add and renew an admonition of the Prophet Leroy Johnson, a simple thing for the benefit of our children, dear brothers and sisters. See that your children are in the house by dark. We are losing too many children. Control the television. If you cannot control it and monitor it, then get rid of it, because that is where our children are turning their attention; and that is right in the home. Satan is reaching into the home through that instrument. I have seen it work in my family, and I am sure you have, too. For the sake of our children, let us draw them in near and teach them the love of God.

There is a letter that I wrote to my beloved wife when she was in Sacramento in 1956, March. It is published in the "Desert Rose" that the Barlow University puts out. But I commend those words to all of you as my message here today. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:308  March 3, 1991  Sandy

I just want to express before the Lord now, my love and appreciation for my brethren. I have sometimes quoted from Heber C. Kimball: "The love of brethren transcends the love of a man for a woman." All due respects to womankind, of course, but it is a different kind. It involves a love of God. God is love. God is Priesthood. And I want to express my love and appreciation to all of you, for the marvelous support that you have given me, and acknowledge the hand of God in all of these things. I pray God to continue to prosper this work. I know He will. He is at the helm. May we be meek and lowly in heart, full of the Holy Ghost, full of faith, full of love, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:309  March 17, 1991  Sandy

A circle is no stronger than its weakest link. We are trying to form a circle who are full of integrity.

D.& C. 64

31. And behold, I, the Lord, declare unto you, and my words are sure and shall not fail, that they shall obtain it.
32. But all things must come to pass in their time.
33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.
34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.
35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.
36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.
37. Behold, I, the Lord, have made my church in these last days like unto a judge sitting on a hill, or in a high place, to judge the nations.
38. For it shall come to pass that the inhabitants of Zion shall judge all things pertaining to Zion.
39. And liars and hypocrites shall be proved by them, and they who are not apostles and prophets shall be known.

The saints then had revealed to them the location of the City of Zion, and it had been dedicated August 1, 1831. This was given September 11, 1831, and they were preparing to go to Zion. We are preparing to live the Holy United Order, and to go to Zion and redeem it. And I take it the Lord is going to clean us up just like He had to here. It was at the beginning and it still stands. We have apostates among us. Uncle Roy said, "We have got to clean up this place." And he asked the people that were around him to let the apostates know that he wanted them to get discouraged and leave. Zion must be pure. Zion is the pure in heart, and that is what we are trying to do now, is prepare a people to live the Holy United Order. And the disobedient and the sinners will have to be plucked out and have no inheritance. It winds up by saying this:

41. For, behold, I say unto you that Zion shall flourish, and the glory of the Lord shall be upon her;
42. And she shall be an ensign unto the people, and there shall come unto her out of every nation under heaven.

43. And the day shall come when the nations of the earth shall tremble because of her, and shall fear because of her terrible ones. The Lord hath spoken it. Amen.

That is the great object we have. So let us continue our quest for greater faith, dear brothers and sisters. I appreciate the remarks of Brother Truman. Let us go to now, be full of the Holy Ghost, get the Holy Spirit of God and keep it. We cannot survive what is coming just ahead without it.

D.& C. 38

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;
8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

9. Wherefore, gird up your loins and be prepared. Behold, the kingdom is yours, and the enemy shall not overcome.
10. Verily I say unto you, ye are clean, but not all; and there is none else with whom I am well pleased;
11. For all flesh is corrupted before me; and the powers of darkness prevail upon the earth, among the children of men, in the presence of all the hosts of heaven --
12. Which causeth silence to reign, and all eternity is pained, and the angels are waiting the great command to reap down the earth, to gather the tares that they may be burned; and, behold, the enemy is combined.
13. And now I show unto you a mystery, a thing which is had in secret chambers, to bring to pass even your destruction in process of time, and ye knew it not;
14. But now I tell it unto you, and ye are blessed, not because of your iniquity, neither your hearts of unbelief; for verily some of you are guilty before me, but I will be merciful unto your weakness.
15. Therefore, be ye strong from henceforth; fear not, for the kingdom is yours.

That is a wonderful encouragement for us. And go to the last verse.
42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. Even so. Amen.

And amen!

RTJ 7:312  March 24, 1991  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
March 24, 1991
Pray for the Lord to Handle the Events in the Court Action

We have an appointment in the Federal District Court for 1:30 on Tuesday next, set by the Court. We don't know what the judge will do on that occasion. There are so many things to be done, and certainly much cannot be done in an hour and a half that the court has allowed. But let us unite our faith to the end that this judge will bring this case to a close. Let us have a fast for Tuesday, from Monday night until Tuesday evening, and call upon the Lord to overrule in the events of that session.

I again announce that we are having a Conference of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on the 30th and the 31st of this month. Saturday evening at 7:30 will be held a Priesthood Meeting. There will be two sessions on Sunday, one at ten in the morning, one at two in the afternoon. We should have a wonderful time. We will come together, praise the Lord for His blessings; and I want to again acknowledge the hand of God in sending us these marvelous rains and moisture that has come upon our land here. We acknowledge His hand in all that is coming on at this time. Let us show our faith by our gratitude, and by our love for one another, and for our total love for God, our Father. God bless you, amen

RTJ 7:312  March 31, 1991  CCA  Conference

Conference
Colorado City, Arizona
March 31, 1991
Come to Know Who God Is and How to Become Like Him

Morning Session
This is a Conference of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. We are legally and officially filed under that name, and I just want to have it very clear in all of our minds that this is a continuation of the original Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, founded by the Prophet Joseph Smith in 1830. The name wasn't clear until some years after, but this has been the true and living Church of Jesus Christ. What has happened is that that great Church, which is now seven million strong, left this Church and the Priesthood which presided over it. We did not leave that Church. They ostracized and cut us off for living the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel. So let us rejoice, dear brothers and sisters, in the grand and glorious blessings that God Almighty has bestowed upon us. Let us walk with our heads high, knowing that we are approved of our Father and His Beloved Son. Let us unite our faith and pray that the Holy Spirit of God may rest upon us in rich abundance as we meet on this sacred occasion.

We will commence by singing "Oh, How Lovely Was the Morning," page 136, appropriate to this season when the Prophet Joseph Smith was visited by the Father and the Son.

I would like for the theme of this Conference to be the words of the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson: "Let us come to know who God is and how to become like Him." The great admonition to the sons and daughters of God is to "be ye perfect, even as your Father in Heaven is perfect."

Afternoon Session
We need to get on with our work and say good-bye until the next time we come. I love you. I want to serve you and my God according to that which He requires of me. Thank-you very much.
Colorado City, Arizona
May 12, 1991
"He That Is Not With Me Is Against Me"
My message to you is couched in Matthew, chapter 12, verse 30.
Matthew 12

  30.  He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

I had something to say about apostates this morning. It is apostates who are the plaintiffs in the lawsuit titled "Williams verses the United Effort Plan". And it will help us understand who we are dealing with, these words of the Savior:

  46.  While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.
  47.  Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.
  48.  But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?
  49.  And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!
  50.  For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

God bless you, amen.

Special Seminary Assembly
Colorado City, Arizona
Sunday Evening, May 26, 1991
Specific Counsel to the Young People; Be Clean; Come Out of the World; Keep Sweet

I am delighted and grateful to be here on this splendid occasion. The youth of Zion is uppermost in the mind of our Father in heaven. It is the young and the middle-aged that will go to redeem Zion. So in preparation for that, young people, keep your eye on Zion. Purify your lives. Live clean, with clean hands, that's honest hands, and pure hearts. That means pure morals, sexual morals. The pure in heart shall see God.

I would like to recommend you young people during the summer months, and all through the year as you go along, when you have time for introspection, looking inward to your souls which you are trying to save in the presence of God, what do you put into your minds? As a man thinketh, so is he. So I want to say again, young people: Leave television alone! Do away with the videos! Do away with the headphones, listening to radio, hard metallic music. It is of the devil. That is how he is getting into our homes. Believe me, dear people, leave it alone!

Follow the example of our Prophet Leroy Johnson. For his novel (Novels were the means of reading in the recreational form in those days), his novel was the Three-in-One -- the Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, the Pearl of Great Price. Continue to study the Gospel, dear young people. Put these thoughts in your minds in place of all of these devilish and satanic media operations. Media is television. Pornographic books and magazines, leave them alone! If there are any in the community, get them out! We don't want them here! They must not be here!

As Uncle Truman spoke this afternoon, the devil and his garbage is filling the community. Perhaps he could make a little better description of it. But if you want instructions that will be uplifting, and for the salvation of your souls, you will leave all of this media trash, garbage out of your lives.

Grow up with clean hands and pure hearts to honor the Priesthood, to honor our Father in heaven, and honor our parents, young people. "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." And above all, be obedient. Obedience is the first law of heaven. Obedience to what? The commandments of God. What are the first commandments? "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, might, mind, and strength;" and secondly, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." How can we love our God if we don't love our neighbors? How can we love our God whom we cannot see, if we do not love our neighbors whom we can see? Let us learn to be friends of God. Honor the Priesthood. Honor our father and mother. Honor the God of heaven. Honor and have self-respect for yourselves. "First to thine own self be true, and it must follow as the day, the night, you cannot be false to anyone." Just a few things I wanted put by here at this time.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the plan of God unto salvation. If we want our salvation we must pay a price, the price of obedience. Be sweet. "Keep sweet," as Uncle John always said, and which I can't help but repeat every day in talking to people. Keeping sweet means keeping the Holy Spirit of God. That is the grand, all-powerful influence, and power of the Gods, and by which we become like God, to have a fullness of that Holy Spirit in us. Seek for it and live by it, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:316  May 29, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional

Alta Academy Devotional
Sandy, Utah
May 29, 1991
Counsel to the Young People;
Must Be Pure to Be Part of the Redemption of Zion;
Glory of the Man and the Woman in the Celestial Law

Last Sunday evening in the LSJ Meeting Hall, we had a final seminary meeting, all of the seminary students coming to our seminary from the public schools in the community. I was asked to speak there, and I feel like giving you the same message here today. That big hall was half full. It was an inspiring sight to see the young people who are interested in their spiritual salvation. I want you to hang on every word of this. Consider it to be important enough to make copies available for every household, or as many other individuals as feels like they want to have something to read sometime.

Well, my eyes aren't very good this morning. I am afraid I will have to ask Warren to read it. Hang on every word. I love the way Warren reads and speaks, so that you can understand it as you are listening.

[President Jeffs' sermon given at Seminary, May 26, 1991, was read, as found on page 314 of this volume. President Jeffs then continued:] Just one or two other observations along the same lines. We are trying to raise up a people and prepare a pure people who can go in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ to redeem Zion. Only those who are full of the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, will be able to stand in His presence, because you will be like Him.
Only those will be prepared, and only those will survive the great judgments that are about to be poured out upon the earth; first at the House of God, where the Mormons are, where it will be first and greatest; and then, like a whirlwind to the nations, as Section 112 reads.

Section 103 tells about the grand plan of the Gods to build Zion. Zion is the pure in heart. It tells how one like unto Moses would be raised up to lead the people to Zion. The Lord had already designated in Section 103 that He wanted five hundred men, young and middle-aged, to go up to redeem Zion. That will consist of families who are united and full of the Holy Ghost in order to stand in the presence of Christ, who said He would go before, along with His angels.

Zion must be redeemed by power, said the Lord; and that power will be the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. And I want to tell you, the remnant will be the only ones who will be going. This people, the faithful and pure, are that remnant. The wicked are going to be swept off from the face of the land -- this land of North America, at least, if not South America, too -- so that only the remnant will be left, and that will be those who can stand in the presence of Christ.

Christ came in the meridian of time to twenty-five hundred, consisting of men, women, and children. And with them He commenced the Holy United Order; and they remembered for nearly two hundred years. Then they became rich and selfish and clannish. Finally, all of the Nephites were swept off the face of the land, except twenty-four who got away. We don't know where they went. That left only the Lamanites who degenerated and degenerated into the condition we see today.

So let us strive to be in that remnant, along with the Ten Tribes who will come to the feet of Ephraim, and come to build the City of Zion and the temples, after the land has been swept clean of its wicked inhabitants. We are going to have to teach them. Section 133 describes their joining with the saints of God. So I urge upon you again -- clean hands, honest hands; pure hearts, sexually pure.

Brigham Young stated on one occasion something you young ladies should remember. The glory of the man is the woman. The glory of the woman is her virginity. That is a pure woman. So let us strive now, that we may be blessed of the Lord as I have described, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ,
I want this class, or this group of graduates in class, the senior class, to have copies of the sermon I delivered last Sunday evening to the final program of the seminary in Colorado City. I am going to ask Brother Warren to read that sermon and I am going to send through the mail a copy for each of these graduates so they can have it for their guidance. It is brief, but it is to the point. I will have more to say when we deliver the diplomas.

[Warren Jeffs then read President Jeffs' sermon dated May 26, 1991, found on page 314 of this volume. President Jeffs then continued:]

I want to read to you, class, what I consider to be a beautiful, short summary of the Lectures on Faith, by the Prophet Joseph Smith. It is the way to become like God.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life being pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect.

Perfect obedience produces perfect faith.

...will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election made
The Holy Spirit of God is the attributes of God. If we have this Holy Spirit, full of it, we then become like God. It is indicated here, having a fullness thereof. So we must learn, as was emphasized recently in our Conference, learn to know who God is and how to become like Him. That is what I am trying to get over to the saints at the present time. The attributes mentioned by the Prophet in Lecture Four are: knowledge, or power; faith, or power; justice, or power; judgment, or power; charity, or love, which is power; and truth, which is power -- all elements of power. That is why it is the all-powerful element by which the Gods became Gods and govern all things. So, again, get and keep the Spirit of God. Never be without it. Section 121 I commend to you, the last few verses:

D. & C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.
45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.
46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

I present now these diplomas to you, young men and women. You are entering now into the phase when you are adult people, responsible for everything you say and do. Most of you are no longer minors. Men and women, be men and women of God. I hope to have a good part in your next steps in life. Stay close, will you, for your own good. [Holding up a diploma, he said:] These are the diplomas, folks. Don't think you get a diploma like that anywhere.
[After the presentation of diplomas, President Jeffs said:] Keep sweet.

RTJ 7:321  June 2, 1991  The Godhead

The Godhead
June 2, 1991
We Must Learn Who God Is and How to Become Like Him

WHO GOD IS
A good many questions have been raised from a reading of a sermon of the Prophet Leroy Johnson, July 25, 1976, in which the matter of the Godhead is treated. It is a very good introduction to the subject that we have at hand.
The following are the quotations to be considered:

LSJ Vol. 4  Page 1252  July 25, 1976  CCA
In our preparation there are many points of doctrine that are lightly spoken of that need to be brought to the attention of our people in their true light and manner, that we might be properly instructed. I have been taught all my life, and I have heard my father and other men talk when I was by his side waiting for him to call upon me to help, I have heard many things transpire. I suppose that is where I got my determination to stay put when I found the Priesthood that bore the keys of salvation. But I have been taught all my life that long before the foundation of this earth was prepared, the personnel for the governing of this earth were called.
They were called and set apart to come forth in their day and time to take their place in the governing of this earth. We have been taught that there are three personages in the Godhead -- God the Father, God the Son, and God the Testator or the Holy Ghost. Now, these three governing powers were called and set apart to come forth in their day and time to govern the destiny of the peopling of this earth.

One reason I speak upon this subject, the question was asked me this morning: When Adam met with His posterity at the close of His time upon this earth, He called His posterity together and blessed them, and He said that He had been instructed by His Father to do this work. Who was the man that He had reference to? Who was the man He had reference to in the Garden of Eden when He was asked by Lucifer, "Why do you offer sacrifice?" He said, "I know not, except I have been commanded by my Father." Do you think it was some foreign spirit other than the ones that had been called to govern the earth? I don't think so.

We are told by the brother of Jared that he went before the Lord when he needed light for the barges while they were upon the great deep. He had prepared these eight barges to haul his people to a choice land, a land that was choice above all other lands, said the Lord to him. If he was the Lord, then was it Adam speaking to him, or was it someone else? When he asked for the Lord to touch the stones that they might bring forth light, he saw the finger of the Lord. What did He tell him? The brother of Jared fell to the earth, and then the voice spoke and said, "Why do you fall?" He said, "I was afraid for I knew not that you had flesh and bones." He said, "Did you see more than My finger?" The brother of Jared said, "No. But I would like you to show yourself to me." The Lord said, "Would you believe if I showed myself to you? Would you believe?" "Yea, Lord, I will believe." So, then He unveiled Himself and showed Himself to the brother of Jared. He said, "This is the body that I will have when I appear in the flesh," meaning that He was Jesus Christ,

The Father and the Son. The actual reading is:

Ether 3
16. Behold, this body, which ye now behold, is the body of my spirit; and man have I created after the body of my spirit; and even as I appear unto thee to be in the spirit will I appear unto my people in the flesh.

17. And now, as I, Moroni, said I could not make a full account of these things which are written therefore it sufficeth me to say that Jesus showed himself unto this man in the spirit, even after the manner and in the likeness of the same body even as he showed himself unto the Nephites.

LSJ Vol. 4 Page 1252 July 25, 1976 CCA
...the same man
His Father, Jehovah.
...that appeared to Adam in the Garden of Eden and in the Valley of Adam-Ondi-Ahman when He told our Father Adam to bless His posterity and all the generations of time from then on.

These are some of the truths that we should ponder upon, and not think that someone else had the governing powers of this earth until a certain time, and then another took it. These men had to come in their time and place and take their bodies. They were called, according to Brigham Young, millions of years before the foundation of this earth was formed.
They were ordained and set apart for the governing of this earth and the peopling of it, to bless the people that they might be built up in their faith and determination to serve God and keep His commandments.

Go into this book, the Three-in-One; go into the Doctrine & Covenants, read the headings and the first few verses of each revelation and see how important it is that we keep all the commandments of God. He does not look upon sin with the least degree of allowance, He said. And this He means. He says, "Haven't I spoken plainly? So plain that a child could understand?" It is there, and it is in plain language, and every person who has any understanding at all can understand what the Lord has said and what He expects of us. We approach Him as our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We don't pray unto Adam. We pray -- Our Father who art in Heaven, and in the name of Jesus Christ. Can you understand it?

We will go back to the Godhead before this earth was formed, which we must distinguish from the Godhead here as to the flesh, after the creation.

It is true that the earth was organized by three distinct characters, namely Eloheim, Yahovah
Jehovah, sometimes said in English.
...and Michael, these three forming a quorum, as in all heavenly bodies, and in organizing element, perfectly represented in the Deity, as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. (Millennial Star Vol. 15:769,770)

In that Godhead, Michael, an exalted God, was in the office of the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is also this all-pervading substance, self-existent, had no beginning, has no end, the powers of the eternal Godhead. Again, reading from the Book of Ether, Jesus Christ said; now understand, this is before He came in the flesh; He was the God of Adam, Jehovah, the same Character.

Ether 3

14. Behold, I am he who was prepared from the foundation of the world to redeem my people. Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father and the Son.
That is the great mystery, but is simplified when we understand.

14. ...In me shall all mankind have life, and that eternally, even they who shall believe on my name; and they shall become my sons and my daughters.

15. And never have I showed myself unto man whom I have created, for never has man believed in me as thou hast. Seest thou that ye are created after mine own image? Yea, even all men were created in the beginning after mine own image.

16. Behold, this body, which ye now behold, is the body of my spirit; and man have I created after the body of my spirit; and even as I appear unto thee to be in the spirit will I appear unto my people in the flesh.

I will appear in the flesh. Now Moroni speaks, having recorded these things:

17. And now, as I, Moroni, said I could not make a full account of these things which are written therefore it sufficeth me to say that Jesus showed himself unto this man in the spirit, even after the manner and in the likeness of the same body even as he showed himself unto the Nephites.

In the meridian of time, after He was crucified and resurrected, He came and visited the Nephites.

18. And he ministered unto him even as he ministered unto the Nephites; and all this, that this man might know that he was God, because of the many great works which the Lord had showed unto him.

In Brigham Young's sermon, we will see how this same character comes on down. Jesus, our Elder Brother, was begotten in the flesh by the same Character that was in the Garden of Eden, and who is our Father in heaven. This Jehovah, now, the one who is Jesus Christ in the Trinity before, now comes down and becomes Jesus Christ in the flesh. This same Character was born again into this world even as Mary. And she had to be a wife of Adam in another world, born into this flesh, to bring forth the Son of God.

Therefore, I must ask the question: Who did Joseph Smith see when the Godhead, when the Father and the Son appeared to him -- the Godhead as to the earth in the flesh? Michael was the Father. Jesus Christ was the Son, as to the flesh. Here Joseph Smith, Jun., Their Witness and Testator, becomes the third member of the Godhead.

Heber C. Kimball made the following statement:
...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; He is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and He is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ.

As to the flesh, this earth, He is the head. Now Joseph steps into that office of the Holy Ghost. He has charge of this last dispensation into which all the other dispensations will be gathered as one. That is the only recording we have where the Father and the Son appeared together to a man. This was to Joseph, who is now one of the Godhead with those two, as to this earth.

There has always been a mystery. Having discussed the personages involved here, how is this Character able to say, "I am the Father and the Son"? He was the Father of Michael and He is the Son of Michael, or Adam. Who resurrected Jesus when He rose from the tomb? It was Adam, who begot Him in the flesh.

When Christ came forth from the tomb, who do you think came and raised Him up? He had to have somebody come and take Him by the hand and bring Him forth from the grave. Who do you think it was? It was the same Character that sired Him in the first place, nobody but our Father Adam. He was right there and brought Him forth from the grave and blessed Him, the same Father of the world.

Can you understand? He is also the Son of Man; Jesus Christ is called the Son of Man, isn't He? Adam is Man. He is the Son of Adam, or Michael.

1. And now Abinadi said unto them: I would that ye should understand that God himself shall come down among the children of men, and shall redeem his people.

As He had appeared to the brother of Jared, He said that.

2. And because he dwelleth in flesh he shall be called the Son of God, and having subjected the flesh to the will of the Father, being the Father and the Son --

3. The Father, because he was conceived by the power of God; The Holy Ghost overshadowed Mary, and Adam begat Jesus in the flesh. The world out there says that Jesus was begotten by the Holy Ghost. Then Brigham Young disposes of that very effectively in that sermon.

3. The Father, because he was conceived by the power of God; and the Son, because of the flesh; thus becoming the Father and Son --

4. And they are one God, yea, the very Eternal Father of heaven and of earth.

They are united.

5. And thus the flesh becoming subject to the Spirit, or the Son to the Father, being one God, suffereth temptation, and yieldeth not to the temptation, but suffereth himself to be mocked, and scourged, and cast out, and disowned by his people.

7. Yea, even so he shall be led, crucified, and slain, the flesh becoming subject even unto death, the will of the Son being swallowed up in the will of the Father.

We have a mystery here. I asked President Johnson, "How did this glorified God, Jehovah, the Creator with Michael, of the earth, a body of tangible flesh and bones, glorified of course -- how was that Character born again as a little child into the flesh? How can that be?" The answer was, "It cannot be revealed, only in a sacred place in the temple." Now I will read you another item on page 312 of the Teachings, which leaves us still with that mystery.

TPJS Page 312

As the Father hath power in Himself, so hath the Son power in Himself, to lay down His life and take it again, so He has a body of His own. The Son doeth what He hath seen the Father do: then the Father hath some day laid down His life and taken it again; so he has a body of His own; each one will be in His own body;

Gods have an ascendency over the angels, who are ministering servants. In the resurrection, some are raised to be angels, others are raised to become Gods.

And here is the answer:

These things are revealed in the most holy places in a Temple prepared for that purpose.

Still that mystery. And that is as much as we are permitted to know till we are capable of being administered to by the Second Comforter, even Jesus Christ. (See TPJS Pages 149-151, "The Two Comforters")

The following quotation will explain something regarding Joseph Smith and the Holy Ghost.
Now, I ask all who hear me, why the learned men who are preaching salvation, say that God created the heavens and the earth out of nothing? The reason is, that they are unlearned in the things of God, and have not the gift of the Holy Ghost; they account it blasphemy in any one to contradict their idea. If you tell them that God made the world out of something, they will call you a fool. But I am learned, and know more than all the world put together. The Holy Ghost does, anyhow, and He is within me, and comprehends more than all the world: and I will associate myself with Him.

I am going to read you Section 38, the forepart of it. This whole Section 38 is a beautiful sermon, applicable to us, very definitely now as it was then. That was in January of 1831.

D.& C. 38

1. Thus saith the Lord your God, even Jesus Christ, the Great I AM, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the same which looked upon the wide expanse of eternity, and all the seraphic hosts of heaven, before the world was made;

2. The same which knoweth all things, for all things are present before mine eyes;

3. I am the same which spake, and the world was made, and all things came by me.

4. I am the same which have taken the Zion of Enoch into mine own bosom; and verily, I say, even as many as have believed in my name, for I am Christ, and in mine own name, by the virtue of the blood which I have spilt, have I pleaded before the Father for them.

5. But behold, the residue of the wicked have I kept in chains of darkness until the judgment of the great day, which shall come at the end of the earth;

To show you that it doesn't conflict when we understand, with Adam being our Father and God; Father Michael is the Father of our spirits, and He is the Father of our bodies. Jehovah created the earth with Father Michael's assistance. He helped to create it, as Brigham Young explains. Being our Father in the flesh as well as the spirit, is He not God?

So this great mystery of the relationship of the Father and the Son has much to be revealed concerning it. But in the matter of the creation to taking place as they were ordained to do, Jehovah is the Father of Adam, He comes down, is born into the flesh, and He is the Son of Adam. "I am the Father and the Son." Very simple, isn't it? We know that much, but there is still more, according to what was read from page 312 of the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

As to the relationship and position between Jesus Christ and Michael, we have the following quotation:

TPJS Page 157

The Priesthood was first given to Adam; he obtained the First Presidency, and held the keys of it from generation to generation. He obtained it in the Creation, before the world was formed, as in Genesis 1:26, 27, 28. He had dominion given him over every living creature. He is Michael the Archangel, spoken of in the Scriptures. Then to Noah, who is Gabriel: he stands next in authority to Adam in the Priesthood; he was called of God to this office, and was the father of all living in this day, and to him was given the dominion. These men held keys first on earth, and then in heaven.

Daniel in his seventh chapter speaks of the Ancient of Days; he means the oldest man, our Father Adam, Michael, he will call his children together and hold a council with them to prepare them for the coming of the Son of Man. He (Adam) is the father of the human family, and presides over the spirits of all men, and all that have had the keys must stand before him in this grand council. This may take place before some of us leave this stage of action. The Son of Man stands before him (Michael), and there is given him glory and dominion. Adam delivers up his stewardship to Christ, that which was delivered to him as holding the keys of the universe, but retains his standing as head of the human family.

The spirit of man is not a created being; it existed from eternity, and will exist to eternity. Anything created cannot be eternal; and earth, water, etc., had their existence in an elementary state, from eternity. Our Savior speaks of children and says, Their angels always stand before my Father.
The Father called all spirits before Him at the creation of man, and organized them. He (Adam) is the head, and was told to multiply. The keys were first given to him, and by him to others. He will have to give an account of his stewardship, and they to him.

The Priesthood is everlasting. The Savior, Moses, and Elias, gave the keys to Peter, James and John, on the mount, when they were transfigured before him. The Priesthood is everlasting -- without beginning of days or end of years; without father, mother, etc. If there is no change of ordinances there is no change of Priesthood. Wherever the ordinances of the Gospel are administered, there is the Priesthood.

How have we come at the Priesthood in the last days? It came down, down, in regular succession. Peter, James, and John had it given to them and they gave it to others. Christ is the Great High Priest; Adam next. Paul speaks of the Church coming to an innumerable company of angels - - to God the Judge of all -- the spirits of just men made perfect; to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant. (Hebrews 12:22-24.)

I saw Adam in the valley of Adam-ondi-Ahman. He called together his children and blessed them with a patriarchal blessing. The Lord appeared in their midst, and he (Adam) blessed them all, and foretold what should befall them to the latest generation.

This is why Adam blessed his posterity; he wanted to bring them into the presence of God. They looked for a city, etc., "whose builder and maker is God." (Hebrews 11:10.) Moses sought to bring the children of Israel into the presence of God, through the power of the Priesthood, but he could not. In the first ages of the world they tried to establish the same thing; and there were Eliasies raised up who tried to restore these very glories, but did not obtain them; but they prophesied of a day when this glory would be revealed. Paul spoke of the dispensation of the fullness of times, when God would gather together all things in one, etc.; and those men to whom these keys have been given, will have to be there; and they without us cannot be made perfect.

These men are in heaven, but their children are on the earth. Their bowels yearn over us. God sends down men for this reason. "And the Son of Man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that give offense and them that do iniquity." (Matthew 13:41.) All these authoritative characters will come down and join hand in hand in bringing about this work.

HOW TO BECOME LIKE GOD
Treating on the grand subject of becoming like God, the following quotation from Section 93 of the Doctrine and Covenants is presented.

D. & C. 93
1. Verily, thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that every soul who forsaketh his sins and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name, and obeyeth my voice, and keepeth my commandments, shall see my face and know that I am;
2. And that I am the true light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world;
3. And that I am in the Father, and the Father in me, and the Father and I are one --
4. The Father because he gave me of his fulness, and the Son because I was in the world and made flesh my tabernacle, and dwelt among the sons of men.
5. I was in the world and received of my Father, and the works of him were plainly manifest.
6. And John saw and bore record of the fulness of my glory, and the fulness of John's record is hereafter to be revealed.
7. And he bore record, saying: I saw his glory, that he was in the beginning, before the world was;
8. Therefore, in the beginning the Word was, for he was the Word, even the messenger of salvation --
9. The light and the Redeemer of the world; the Spirit of truth, who came into the world, because the world was made by him, and in him was the life of men and the light of men.
10. The worlds were made by him; men were made by him; all things were made by him, and through him, and of him.
11. And I, John, bear record that I beheld his glory, as the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, even the Spirit of truth, which came and dwelt in the flesh, and dwelt among us.
12. And I, John, saw that he received not of the fulness at first, but
13. And he received not of the fulness at first, but continued from grace to grace, until he received a fulness;
14. And thus he was called the Son of God, because he received not of the fulness at the first.
15. And I, John, bear record, and lo, the heavens were opened, and the Holy Ghost descended upon him in the form of a dove, and sat upon him, and there came a voice out of heaven saying: This is my beloved Son.
16. And I, John, bear record that he received a fulness of the glory of the Father.
17. And he received all power, both in heaven and on earth, and the glory of the Father was with him, for he dwelt in him.
18. And it shall come to pass, that if you are faithful you shall receive the fulness of the record of John.
19. I give unto you these sayings that you may understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship, that you may come unto the Father in my name, and in due time receive of his fulness.
20. For if you keep my commandments you shall receive of his fulness, and be glorified in me as I am in the Father; therefore, I say unto you, you shall receive grace for grace.
21. And now, verily I say unto you, I was in the beginning with the Father, and am the Firstborn;
22. And all those who are begotten through me are partakers of the glory of the same, and are the church of the Firstborn.
23. Ye were also in the beginning with the Father; that which is Spirit, even the Spirit of truth;
24. And truth is knowledge of things as they are, and as they were, and as they are to come;
25. And whatsoever is more or less than this is the spirit of that wicked one who was a liar from the beginning.
26. The Spirit of truth is of God. I am the Spirit of truth, and John bore record of me, saying: He received a fulness of truth, yea, even of all truth;
27. And no man receiveth a fulness unless he keepeth his commandments.
28. He that keepeth his commandments receiveth truth and light, until he is glorified in truth and knoweth all things.

29. Man was also in the beginning with God. Intelligence, or the light of truth, was not created or made, neither indeed can be.

30. All truth is independent in that sphere in which God has placed it, to act for itself, as all intelligence also; otherwise there is no existence.

31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

"How to become like God" is summarized so beautifully in one grand writing by the Prophet Joseph, Lecture Five. And that is to obtain a fullness of the Holy Spirit of God. When we have that we are like God. That is how we become like Him. It is a fitting summary of the matter.

Lecture Five

1. In our former lectures we treated of the being, character, perfections, and attributes, of God. What we mean by perfections is, the perfections which belong to all the attributes of his nature. We shall, in this lecture, speak of the Godhead -- we mean the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

2. There are two personages who constitute the great, matchless, governing, and supreme power over all things, by whom all things were created and made, that are created and made, whether visible or invisible, whether in heaven, on earth, or in the earth, under the earth, or throughout the immensity of space. They are the Father and the Son -- the Father being a personage of spirit, glory, and power, possessing all perfection and fullness, the Son, who was in the bosom of the Father, a personage of tabernacle, made or fashioned like unto man, or being in the form and likeness of man, or rather man was formed after his likeness and in his image; he is also the express image and likeness of the personage of the Father, possessing all the fullness of the Father, or the same fullness with the Father; being begotten of him, and ordained from before the foundation of the world to be a propitiation for the sins of all those who would believe on his name, and is called the Son because of the flesh, and descended in suffering below that which man can suffer; or, in other words, suffered greater sufferings, and was exposed to more powerful contradictions than any man can be. But, notwithstanding all this, he kept the law of God, and remained without sin, showing thereby that it is in the power of man to keep the law and remain also without sin; and also, that by him a righteous judgment might come upon all flesh, and that all who walk not in the law of God may justly be condemned by the law, and have no excuse for their sins. And he being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit.

Emphasize that. The Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son.

2. ...possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. Through the Spirit. Keep that in mind.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

There is only one Heir. That is Jesus Christ. We become joint heirs by adoption when we attain unto Godhood. Section 132 tells us about becoming Gods. The following from Section 132 tells us how to become Gods:

D.& C. 132

19. And again, verily I say unto you, if a man marry a wife by my word, which is my law, and by the new and everlasting covenant, and it is sealed unto them by the Holy Spirit of promise, by him who is anointed, unto whom I have appointed this power and the keys of this priesthood; and it shall be said unto them -- Ye shall come forth in the first resurrection; and if it be after the first resurrection, in the next resurrection; and shall inherit thrones, kingdoms, principalities and powers, dominions, all heights and depths -- then shall it be written in the Lamb's Book of Life, that he shall commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, and if ye abide in my covenant, and commit no murder whereby to shed innocent blood, it shall be done unto them in all things whatsoever my servant hath put upon them, in time, and through all eternity; and shall be of full force when they are out of the world; and they shall pass by the angels, and the gods, which are set there, to their exaltation and glory in all things, as hath been sealed upon their heads, which glory shall be a fulness and a continuation of the seeds forever and ever.

20. Then shall they be gods, because they have no end; therefore shall they be from everlasting to everlasting, because they continue; then shall they be above all, because all things are subject unto them. Then shall they be Gods, because they have all power and the angels are subject unto them.

21. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye abide my law ye cannot attain to this glory.

22. For strait is the gate, and narrow the way that leadeth unto the exaltation and continuation of the lives, and few there be that find it, because ye receive me not in the world neither do ye know me.

23. But if ye receive me in the world, then shall ye know me, and shall receive your exaltation; that where I am ye shall be also.

24. This is eternal lives -- to know the only wise and true God, and Jesus Christ, whom he hath sent. I am he. Receive ye, therefore my law.

Additional confirmation of these great truths is found in the following:

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Moroni 7

39. But behold, my beloved brethren, I judge better things of you, for I judge that ye have faith in Christ because of your meekness; for if ye have not faith in him then ye are not fit to be numbered among the people of his church.

40. And again, my beloved brethren, I would speak unto you concerning hope. How is it that ye can attain unto faith, save ye shall have hope?
41. And what is it that ye shall hope for? Behold I say unto you that ye shall have hope through the atonement of Christ and the power of his resurrection, to be raised unto life eternal, and this because of your faith in him according to the promise.

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, The Holy Spirit.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

This concludes the present grand object of knowing who God is and how to become like Him. Becoming like Him is becoming Gods. As the great object of our probation in this sphere of our existence, be ye perfect, as our Father in heaven is perfect. This means we become perfect in this sphere as God is perfect in His sphere; and is the same as becoming like God.
RTJ 7:340  July 30, 1991  Affidavit

Affidavit of President Jeffs
July 30, 1991

In The United States District Court
District Of Utah, Central Division
United Effort Plan, Et Al.,
RULON T. JEFFS, being first duly sworn upon oath, deposes and says:

1. I make this affidavit in connection with my personal account and the tithing account of the church which are being delivered to the court herewith.

2. I do this with great reservations in that this court has been the prosecutor of our people, and may not understand our feelings about the sacred nature of church finances, and the extreme feelings of invasion of our privacy that we feel in being compelled to divulge very confidential records because of claims made by our former friends who have now become our enemies and who have turned their backs on the teachings that we have long taught and believed in.

3. Following the death of Leroy S. Johnson, by his appointment, and by virtue of my position as next senior member in good standing of the Priesthood Council, I have become the leader of this people. The people have sustained me in this position. I have been most grateful for the trust and confidence that they have reposed in me and I have tried all my life to merit that trust and confidence.

4. It is because of that trust and confidence that they regard me as a representative of the Lord through which they pay their tithes and offerings.
These accounts hold those tithes and offerings, and these records are sacred to this people.

Deliberations Leading to the Creation of the United Effort Plan

5. I am the only person now living who has personal knowledge of the deliberations that resulted in the creation of the United Effort Plan. Because the "sacerdotal status" of the United Effort Plan is an issue that must be resolved in this litigation, and relates to the court's determination of what records must be disclosed by compulsion to the plaintiffs, I wish to let the court know the true nature of the United Effort Plan.
6. In early 1942, Joseph Musser, then a member of the Priesthood Council of the fundamentalist church, asked me to be a member of a committee to help create an organization that would allow our people to live the United Order. Other members of that committee included Marion Hammon, George Dockstader, Joseph Musser, Leroy S. Johnson, and John Y. Barlow. The meetings were held in Salt Lake City, Utah.

7. Our purpose was to attempt to create an organization prominently mentioned by early leaders of the church, such as Brigham Young and John Taylor, which the lawyers could not pick apart and which would allow the people to live the law of consecration. Brigham Young said:

   JD 16:122  Brigham Young  June 29, 1873  Logan, UT

   It is a matter that I am paying particular attention to, with some of my brethren, to see if we have skill enough to get up an organization and draw up papers to bind ourselves together under the laws of the United States, so that we can put our means and labor together and join as one family. As soon as we can accomplish this, and get an instrument that lawyers cannot pick to pieces and destroy, and apostates cannot afflict us, we expect to get up this institution, and enter most firmly into it.

   It is our belief that the people cannot be exalted unless they live both the law of celestial marriage and the law of consecration. This, therefore, was a very important undertaking in our attempt to live the gospel as we believe it.

8. Before each meeting to discuss the United Effort Plan, we prayed that we might have the inspiration of the Lord in our efforts. We relied heavily on scripture to guide us in the creation of the instrument.

9. George Dockstader had some legal experience as a justice of the peace in Idaho, but he was not a lawyer and did not profess to be one. No one on the committee had any legal expertise.

10. The purpose of the United Effort Plan was to allow all of the property of the people to be held in common, and to do away with the selfishness inherent in the concept of private ownership and the attempt to exclude others from what we have. It is our belief that the Lord owns all things and that we are merely stewards of property, not the owners thereof.

11. Therefore, we provided in the document that there would be no private ownership of property. Any representation to the contrary, as alleged by the plaintiffs, would be completely contrary to the spirit and intent of the document.

12. The United Effort Plan is a spiritual organization. It is not the church, but it is designed entirely to live an important principle of the church and has no meaning apart from it.

13. The United Effort Plan provides that a person can be expelled for conduct prejudicial to the interests of the Plan. In our deliberations, this directly relates to the instructions of the Lord in Doctrine & Covenants 42:37, in which one who sins and repents not shall be cast out and shall not receive back that which he consecrated.

14. The Plan is to assist the church in providing for the "just wants and needs" of the people, as set forth in scripture.

15. Following the creation of the document, the Declaration of Trust was filed in various counties where the property that had been consecrated was located.

16. The primary purpose of the United Effort Plan was to hold real property that had been consecrated to the priesthood work. In the early days of the United Effort Plan, we attempted to operate other businesses, such as a sawmill at Mile and a Half Spring in the Kaibab National Forest, and a farm at Bloomington as provided in the Declaration of Trust, but these attempts were ultimately abandoned because they could not pay for themselves and became a burden on the consecrations of the people. Following the late 40's, the ownership of the United Effort Plan was limited to real property, which is still the case today.

17. There are no UEP funds. There are funds of the church that are derived from the religious offerings of the people. The UEP itself does not generate any funds whatever. Therefore, it is impossible that any of the accounts could contain UEP assets, because those assets, for the last nearly 40 years, have been limited to real property.

18. At the time that the Declaration of Trust was drafted, we used the term "member" to describe those who participated in the Order. The term has reference to members of the Church who were found worthy to participate in the plan based on consecrations that the trustees deemed adequate. We did not use the term "beneficiary" and the term was never used in our deliberations. It was not our intent to give persons rights that were not scriptural, nor to impose on ourselves any duties that the Lord did not require of his leaders.

19. It was also a prominent item of our discussions that we were not trying to duplicate the law of consecration, but rather to form an organization that would allow the people to come closer to the concepts inherent in that law, with the hope that some day we would be able to live the complete law.

20. During the summer of 1942, when we were involved in these deliberations, I talked with the people several times about the purposes of the United Effort Plan. In October of that year, shortly before the Declaration of Trust was finalized, I stated:

..."I want to testify in the name of the Lord that that is the place to build up our faith and walk by faith. In Brigham Young's day men told him that this land was not worth a cent. We have the same thing here. We have a promise here, brothers and sisters, and I feel to say amen to all that Brother Joseph [Musser] and Marion [Hammon] said. Here the Lord is giving us an opportunity to build up another Zion. It has been prophesied that a temple would be built there. I Testify that God's servants have been vindicated to build up that place."

In 1963, I gave a sermon to the people in Colorado City relative to the nature of the United Effort Plan. I have attached a copy to this affidavit. This sermon sets forth the spiritual framework of the United Effort Plan. The principles that I enunciated at that time have been consistently taught to the people and have never changed, and clearly illustrate the religious nature of the United Effort Plan.

21. The United Effort Plan has been a part of our church since 1942, and is important to us. Because its purposes are completely religious, we have not made a distinction between the United Effort Plan and the church, because they have the same purpose: the exaltation of the people. Therefore, the United Effort Plan deserves the same protections as the church because it is a part of the church. Before the records of the United Effort Plan are divulged to the apostates of our faith, I desire the opportunity to be heard about the true nature of the United Effort Plan so that it obtains the constitutional protections that it deserves.

22. I explained in some detail the law of consecration in a sermon that I gave in 1963. Because this sermon also explains the religious purposes of the United Effort Plan, I include a copy of this sermon as well.

23. Truman Barlow has been authorized by the Priesthood Council since 1962 to receive the donations of the people for the payment of real estate taxes. These contributions are entirely voluntary on the part of the people; there is no compulsion whatever, and the amount donated by the people toward the tax obligation on UEP property is more an index of a person's commitment to the church than anything else. We do not "assess" any person relative to these contributions, but rather ask for a donation which is measured more by the person's ability and willingness to pay than the amount of tax that might be assessed on property that such person resides in.

Information Pertaining to Specific Accounts

Subpoenaed by the Plaintiffs

24. There are two accounts over which I have control that are being sought by the plaintiffs: my personal family account, and the tithing and contributions account of the church. First, I will talk about the account that contains the tithing and other contributions of the church. Since it was located in Valley Bank, I will call it the "Valley Account."

25. Under the direction of Leroy S. Johnson, I started receiving tithing in about August of 1984. I retired from a CPA practice in 1982. In connection with that practice, I had established a trust account in Valley Bank. The word "trust" account has nothing whatever to do with the United Effort Plan, but only with the CPA practice.

26. Since 1986, the sole use of the Valley account has been to receive the consecrations of the people. There has never been a time that any contributors have placed any limitations on the use of the funds placed in my care. None of the funds have come from the United Effort Plan, but only from free-will contributions of the people.

27. In my discretion, I have applied these funds towards various church purposes, including the support of the church's parochial school, the payment of legal expense to defend our people, the expenses to operate our church and school properties in Salt Lake City and in Colorado City, care of the poor, the purchase of property for religious purposes, the support of persons who give full time service to the church, the support of President Johnson's widows, and other religious purposes.
28. I have chosen from time to time to use tithing funds to assist in the payment of real estate taxes. I wish to make it clear that I receive no contributions and have never received contributions from the people of Colorado City or Hildale for the payment of UEP real property taxes. This account contains no such funds.

29. When I first received tithing, I placed the contributions in that account. During this early time, I had used the account for personal purposes.

30. I want to unequivocally state to the court that I have never received a consecration from any of the plaintiffs. None of my accounts, so far as I am aware, have ever had funds received from any plaintiff.

31. From about 1986 and following, all of the family income, which at one time had been deposited in the trust account, was put in our personal account, and the Valley Bank account was then devoted almost exclusively to deposit the tithing and other free-will offerings of the people.

32. I ask most fervently that the confidentiality of this account be maintained. The persons who have received assistance from the church are entitled to their dignity. The persons who gave freely with the expectation that their donations would be received in confidence are entitled to their privacy as well. The funds that we have spent in the defense of our religion and the causes that we believe in are not the business of our enemies who have long since withdrawn their support. And I state again that I have never received a consecration of money from any plaintiff, and therefore no funds from any plaintiff has ever been deposited in this account.

33. Mr. Swinton has pointed out to the court that I testified that funds from this account have been used to pay the expenses on church buildings, some of which are located on United Effort Plan property. Further, some funds have been received from the people for the purpose of purchasing property that at some point we may want to put in the United Effort Plan. These funds are not United Effort Plan funds. These are religious donations of the people given to me as a representative of the Lord for religious purposes. Never at any time has any person donating to me put conditions or stipulations on how the money should be spent. And none of the funds used for the upkeep of church buildings or for the purchase of property from this account has ever been received from any plaintiff.

34. The funds in this account have been used, in accordance with scripture,
"for the building of mine house, and for the laying of the foundation of Zion and for the priesthood, and for the debts of the Presidency of my Church."
Doctrine & Covenants 119:2.

35. Under our religious doctrine, I am responsible to the Lord how I spend these funds. As stated in Section 120 of the Doctrine & Covenants, these funds "shall be disposed of by a council, composed of the First Presidency of my Church, and of the bishop and his council, and by my high council, and by mine own voice unto them, saith the Lord." Nowhere in our scripture are we required by the Lord to account to the people, and the faithful members have never requested it. It is ironic to me that the non-contributors are the ones who claim this right.

36. As to my personal account at First Security, this account has been used exclusively for the personal needs of myself and my family, and the deposits to this account consist almost entirely of income from members of the family or loan proceeds to members of the family.

37. I have tried to minimize the assistance that I receive from the church, and the court will find that the subsistence I receive from the church is very limited. These are the only funds in this account that are derived from the contributions of the people.

38. Obviously, the information in this account is confidential to me and my family, and I ask that the court not divulge it to the plaintiffs herein. No funds in this account have ever come from the UEP.

(Signed) RULON T. JEFFS
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of July, 1991. (Notary Public)

RTJ 7:349 June 9, 1991 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 9, 1991
Perfect Obedience Produces Power;
Must Be Pure to Abide the Day

I just want to close with a beautiful summary of the power of faith.
The Gospel by B. H. Roberts Page 145-146
Faith
The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

And thus become like God. Let us render perfect obedience, dear brothers and sisters. That will produce perfect faith and give us the power, being one of the great attributes of the Holy Spirit of God, to overcome and to be saved from the holocaust that is about to come about. I just want to repeat Section 38, a verse that keeps ringing in my ears, verse 7.

D.& C. 38

7. But behold, verily, verily, I say unto you that mine eyes are upon you. I am in your midst and ye cannot see me;
8. But the day soon cometh that ye shall see me, and know that I am; for the veil of darkness shall soon be rent, and he that is not purified shall not abide the day.

Zion is the pure in heart. That is what we are striving for. God help us to be on our way and be prepared against the judgments and the great day of the Lord, the dreadful day of the Lord, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:350 August 18, 1991 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
August 18, 1991
Proper Dress and Hair; United Families

I appreciate the grand support that has been expressed here. And praise God for the blessings He has poured out upon me and mine. I am grateful for these, my brethren bearing the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, being one with me. We have got to have more of it here, brothers and sisters. I had my son Warren scan the sermons of Uncle Roy regarding our dress and our hair. And I think he has kindly called this to our attention at this time. I wish I could read it myself, but I am going to ask brother Warren to read it here, these few items Uncle Roy left on the matter of this, which I consider to be very important. We have been called upon to come out of the world. Section 93 says it. It says it all through the scriptures. We are a peculiar people, a royal Priesthood, and we should honor God for the way He has honored us; and do as He has given us to do through His servants, the Prophets.

I have been listening to some of the sermons of the Church apostles, presidents of seventies, and so forth, and I can't help but notice that the word of the Lord is being fulfilled as it has been spoken by the prophets of God. We have been told by our early leaders that if certain principles of the Gospel were not lived and practiced by the Church, they would go into darkness. Their minds would be darkened; and when the time comes for the judgments of God to commence to spread forth upon the land, they would want to repent, but they will have waited too long.

I couldn't help but think of this yesterday when I listened to some of the sermons that were preached. We are beginning to wake up to the fact that the women of the Latter-day Saints are promoting immorality in their dress, in their make up and actions. This is a sad situation for our people to be in. We have been trying for the last thirty-five years that I know of, since I have been acquainted with this work, to get our women folks to notice their dresses, bring them down where they ought to be, cover up their nakedness, and let us not be found wanting when the day of grace is over. For I am afraid that at this late hour, it is going to be hard to remodel the dress of our lady folks throughout the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. They have been allowed to cut their hair. Their hair was given to them for a purpose, for a sacred purpose. But men are different. He has condemned men for having long hair. It is a shame to them, He says. But look at our people on the streets today.

I am grateful, my brothers and sisters, for the testimony that God has given us for our benefit, for our edification and for our preparation to take part in the redemption of God's great work in the earth. As far back as the Prophet Joseph Smith, we have been taught these principles. We have been taught to come out of the world and to be not partakers of her sins, and to become a peculiar people, a people who would put to the fore the commandments of God and live them. This is what the servants of God have been trying to get our people to do. We should have two or three times as many people gathered together here in Salt Lake City today than we have here, because this is a great and glorious opportunity that the Lord has offered to the generation in which we live, to clean up our lives, to prepare ourselves. For what? For a glorious resurrection.

I want to enlarge a little upon the principle of grooming ourselves. I had a man come into my office the other day with hair down to his shoulders. After conversing with him for a little while, I told him that he shouldn't try to be connected with this people unless he could properly groom himself. He said, "What do you mean?" "In our day in which we are living today, the length of your hair tells me that you are trying to ride two horses, or wear two yokes." He looked up at the pictures I had on the wall of Brigham Young and Joseph Smith. He said, "I notice that Brigham had his hair down almost as long as mine." I said, "I want to call your attention to something. You see the difference in the look of the two men. The Lord picked on a boy that was well groomed, slick-shaven, and he continued that way throughout his life. He didn't allow his whiskers to grow; he didn't allow his hair to grow any longer than is necessary for him to be well-groomed. And, the reason for it is this, Joseph Smith was tutored and trained under the angels of heaven. I don't doubt for a moment but what Brigham Young, John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, and Heber C. Kimball were tutored under the inspiration of heaven or they wouldn't have been such staunch men in the Kingdom of our Father. But they had imbibed the superstitions of the Gentiles, and this is one of them - long hair for men." One of the prophets tells us that it is a shame for a man to have long hair. He goes on to say that the woman's hair is her glory; it was given to her for a covering of her head, and there are certain ordinances of the Priesthood that she will need beautiful hair in order to perform. They should be well-groomed, well taken care of. But I agree with President Hammon in not allowing it to hang loose in the back or around the face. In my growing-up days, I have heard the leaders of the Church tell us how they would like to have the women take care of their hair, and I never heard any of them advise them to let it hang loose in the back, but to have it done up neatly. This is necessary for the women of the Latter-day Saints. I call you Latter-day Saints because you are the only people that are trying to keep the Latter-day Saint principles alive, both men and women. We want to keep them in a way so that the Lord can put His finger on us if He needs us, or when He needs us.

The Lord is trying to prepare a people to be used in the redemption of His work, and it is necessary that we get rid of the superstitions of the Gentiles that we have imbibed in our daily life, cast them off and bring ourselves to a point where we can be acceptable unto the Lord. All we need to do is study the scriptures, read them, and we will get out of them the kind of a character that the Lord is pleased with.

[President Jeffs then called on Elder Truman Barlow to speak:]
Elder Truman Barlow: President Jeffs said, do I want to get up and finish it? I would like to speak about this for just a minute because it so well touches us; and particularly I wished it could be spoken down south as well, among all our young ladies. You remember, at the time when Uncle Roy called the people to clean up, the very issue that started to divide the people was hair. Of course, rebellion was down underneath all that, but when he asked the people to clean up their hair, their faces, it was the thing that caused them to say, "We will leave this work and apostatize." So it is an interesting thing, brothers and sisters, how strong we want to tie to our own traditions or the traditions of the world. I expect ere long our Prophet leader to call upon us to make some adjustments somewhere, somehow -- if not collectively, individually -- and we ought to, as a people, be ready and willing to sacrifice all for the excellency of the Spirit of Christ. I want to say also to you, Uncle Roy told me personally that the pictures that they have of Jesus Christ in the Bible are not what Jesus looked like. He told me Jesus was a clean-shaven man. May the Lord bless us to do the things we need to do to be acceptable of the Lord, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

[President Jeffs then continued:] Let us get and keep the Spirit of God. If we don't have it we will not survive what is before us. And again, as I said down south, quoting Matthew, chapter 12, verse 30, the Savior speaking said: "He who is not with Me is against Me. He that gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." It tells the whole picture, doesn't it?

Let us be one. We must have united families. Uncle Roy said on one occasion a number of years ago: "There is not one family in this work that is fully united." I wonder what progress has been made since. The Lord called for five hundred Elders, I take it, to go back and redeem Zion. I want to add to that, five hundred families. It may, however, include single Elders who are prepared. But Uncle Roy called for united families, and called upon us to continue until we had it done. We are going to have five hundred families, as it were, to go and redeem Zion. So let us get down to business.

RTJ 7:354  August 29, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting

Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
Sandy, Utah
August 29, 1991
Teach by the Spirit of God, Which Is the Spirit of Revelation; Faith; Keep Sweet

[Talking to Warren, President Jeffs said:] I will have a correction for you. ["Yes, sir." ] Please don't refer to these children as "kids". We are not goats. ["I will do better." ] Okay. They are children. I detected that a couple of times in your remarks.

I still have some more of these "The Teacher's Prayer." If you want one, come and get it afterwards. I am going to read it as part of my remarks. And I always feel to quote Brigham Young talking to Karl G. Maeser. Karl G. Maeser was appointed to conduct the Brigham Young University. Karl Maeser asked the Prophet, "Do you have any direction?" He said, "Teach and act by the Holy Spirit of God."

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

We are to teach correct principles. The Prophet Joseph Smith is quoted in what I am about to read on that grand subject:

JD 24:159 Erastus Snow June 24, 1883 Parowan

Brother Cannon speaks of President Young and President Taylor, and other good men, our leaders, being led, as it were, by a hair in obedience to the Priesthood, which implies simply obedience to truth and correct doctrine, and to righteousness. This is the explanation the Prophet Joseph Smith gave to a certain lawyer in his time who came to see him and his people and expressed astonishment and surprise at the ease with which he controlled the people, and said it was something that was not to be found among the learned men of the world. Said he: "We cannot do it. What is the secret of your success?" "Why," said the Prophet, "I do not govern the people. I teach them correct principles and they govern themselves."

It is a world of meaning.

JD 1:69 Brigham Young April 8, 1852 SLC

I exhort you, masters, fathers, and husbands, to be affectionate and kind to those you preside over. And let them be obedient, let the wife to subject to her husband, and the children to their parents. Mothers, let your minds be sanctified before the Lord, for this is the commencement, the true foundation of a proper education in your children, the beginning point to form a disposition in your offspring, that will bring honor, glory, comfort, and satisfaction to you all your life...

We must do all we can in this school to carry out correct principles. You, as teachers, are sort of mothers and fathers to them while they are in your care. I think Brother Warren mentioned something here that I want to emphasize. I hope there aren't any parents here who are so negligent in the raising of their children that you think you have to send them here as a school of correction. We don't have time. We want this to be the extension of an obedient family. I am going to repeat something I have said many times. Mothers:

JD 1:66 Brigham Young April 8, 1852 SLC

It has been hinted that education commences with the first dawn of knowledge upon the mental faculties of the child, and continues with it till... death. But I will trace it a little further back still, and say that education commences with the mother, and the child in connection. I will state the facts in the case, as you will find them to be hereafter, in the education of your children. It depends in a great degree upon the mother, as to what children receive, in early age, of principle of every description, pertaining to all that can be learned by the human family. When will mothers understand this? * * * * I will tell you the truth as you will find it in eternity. If your children do not receive impressions of true piety, virtue, tenderness, and every principle of the Holy Gospel, you may be assured that their sins will not be required at the hands of the father, but of the mother. Lay it to heart, ye mothers, for it will unavoidably be so. The duty of the mother is to watch over her children, and give them their early education, for impressions received in infancy are lasting. You know, yourselves, by experience, that the impressions you have received in the dawn of your mortal existence, bear, to this day, with the greatest weight upon your mind. It is the experience of people generally, that what they imbibe from their mothers in infancy, is the most lasting upon the mind through life. This is natural, it is reasonable, it is right. I do not suppose you can find one person among five hundred, who does not think his mother to be the best woman that ever lived. This is right, it is planted in the human heart.

That was Brigham Young in volume 1, page 66. Brigham Young in volume 9, pages 36, 37, and 38 concludes with this:

Sisters, do not ask whether you can make yourselves happy, but whether you can do your husband's will, if he is a good man. Teach your children; for you are their guardians, to act as father and mother to them until they are out of your care.

The father teaches the mothers correct principles.

The teachings and examples of our mothers have formed, to a great extent, our characters and directed our lives. This is their right, when they act by the power of the Priesthood,

Of their husband,

...to direct the child until it is of a proper age, and then hand it over to the husband and father, and into the hands of God.

In the work that I have been engaged in since Uncle Roy passed, I have had many, many cases of rebellious children. Invariably, and I should say there are some exceptions of course, but I have found, you show me a rebellious child, I will show you a rebellious mother to your husband, if he is a good man. I am very delighted to see that we have mothers and mothers-to-be on our teaching staff here. Like has been said, we want this to be an extension of a righteous and completely principled family. We are not a corrective institution. We are here to educate our children in all of the subjects required in getting a good education. From what I read you here, the damage has already been done in the home, if there be any, before they even start school. It is awesome, the responsibility we have of our children. If there are any objections of any of our parents about our school rules, dress, girl-boy relationships, and similar matters; if they are not satisfied with those rules and willing to follow them, we urge them to take their children to the gentile schools, which is what they are trying to be like, rebellious children. That may sound pretty hard, but we do the best we can with them. As I say, the damage has already been done when we get them at six years of age. So much for that problem that we have.

The grand and glorious subject we have to accomplish is to keep sweet, keep the Spirit of God. I want to teach a few principles regarding the Spirit of God, how we know it.

D.& C. 8

2. Yea, behold,
Said the Lord to Oliver Cowdery through the Prophet,

2. ...I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation;
These are instructions to Oliver to aid him in translating the scriptures, which he had asked for and the Lord granted.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

4. Therefore, this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.

5. Oh, remember these words, and keep my commandments. Remember, this is your gift.
He applied, tried to go ahead and translate, but he failed. It is all tied up in the Spirit of God.

D.& C. 9

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; Simply asking. Those kind of prayers don't go above the ceiling, so to speak.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; Exert your mind. Pray with all the energy of heart.

8. ...then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

10. Now, if you had known this you could have translated; nevertheless, it is not expedient that you should translate now.

11. Behold, it was expedient when you commenced; but you feared, Fear and faith cannot exist in the same person at the same time.

11. ...and the time is past, and it is not expedient now;

On the Spirit of revelation the Prophet Joseph says this:

TPJS  Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) these things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus."

We all have the gift of revelation in connection with the place we have been chosen to serve. The woman is entitled to revelation in the raising of her children. A man is entitled to revelation concerning the work he is appointed to do, but only one man is to receive revelation for the Church and the cause of Zion, that is the Prophet. Joseph Smith explains that in Section 28. The Lord explains it.

The Holy Spirit of God is the Spirit of revelation, very simply put. You cannot have the Spirit of revelation without having the Spirit of God to begin with. So again I say, seek unto it with all the energy of heart, the exertion of the mind. Pray fervently. That is exertion of the mind. That is how we work by faith. You must have confidence in yourselves and remain humble, meek and lowly in heart. Beware of pride. Beware of pride. That is the father and mother of all sin. So let us walk by faith and seek to attain perfect faith.

The attributes of God, or of the Holy Spirit, are knowledge, faith, justice, judgment, mercy or love, and truth -- all principles of power. All power is found in the Holy Spirit of God. That is what makes men gods -- perfect obedience, being filled with the Holy Ghost. Lecture Five, you find in the dissertation on the Godhead. I will add a little more emphasis, the last paragraph:

Lecture Five

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

So when I say, "Keep sweet," keep the Holy Spirit of God, as Joseph Smith pled with the saints through Brigham Young, when he had a dream in which he saw and talked with the Prophet Joseph Smith, who had passed on. So when you are teaching, dear brothers and sisters, do it by the Holy Spirit of God. God bless you, amen.

One more item for you. Make a note of Section 121, verses 41 through the end, 46. That tells you how to govern by the Holy Ghost, govern your children, these student children.

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
Not a fit of temper.

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

There is the key, working by the Holy Ghost. Thank-you very much.

RTJ 7:363 September 13, 1991 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
September 13, 1991
Funeral of Diane Saundra Barlow

I just wish to say with all my heart, "Amen" to that which has been presented before us here today, to the beautiful words that were spoken by Brother Alvin, and I think covers the ground for this occasion. I would like to add some of the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

TPJS Page 368

In order for you to receive your children to yourselves you must have a promise -- some ordinance; some blessing, in order to ascend above principalities, or else it may be an angel. They must rise just as they died; we can there hail our lovely infants with the same glory -- the same loveliness in the celestial glory, where they all enjoy alike. They differ in stature, in size, the same glorious spirit gives them the likeness of glory and bloom; the old man with his silvery hairs will glory in bloom and beauty. No man can describe it to you -- no man can write it

So, I just wish to add my blessing upon Brother Curtis and Sister Christel. I bless you with the gifts of the Holy Spirit of God, the Spirit of peace, of love and joy and rejoicing in the blessings of God, which have been vouchsafed to you through the blessings of the holy Priesthood by Uncle Roy, for his part in having brought you together; together with your children. God bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:363  October 1, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Opening Exercises

Alta Academy Opening Exercises
Sandy, Utah
October 1, 1991
Education Begins With the Mother and Child in Connection; Keep Sweet

I appreciate being with you here today, dear brothers and sisters. I don't feel up to standing or speaking at any great length. But I do want to say that Brother Warren has spoken exactly the things that I had mind, or would have done, to be given you here this day. Give it heed. For my part I would like Warren to read.

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

JD 1:66  Brigham Young  April 8, 1852  SLC

It has been hinted that education commences with the first dawn of knowledge upon the mental faculties of the child, and continues with it till death. But I will trace it a little further back still, and say that education commences with the mother, and the child in connection. I will state the facts in the case, as you will find them to be hereafter, in the education of your children. It depends in a great degree upon the mother, as to what children receive, in early age, of principle of every description, pertaining to all that can be learned by the human family. When will mothers understand this? Knowing that this is the case, I am perplexed with grief when I see such a wanton diversion from the real design of life, it causes me to mourn for my poor, ignorant, fellow mortals, and sometimes almost goads me to anger. I can see mothers pay attention to everything under heaven, but the training up of their children in the way they should go, and they will even make it appear obligatory on the father to take care of the child at a year old. How often is it the case that mothers will say -- "Why, Pa, this child is growing up in ignorance, he is going to ruin. Really, dear husband, what shall we do with him?" I will tell you the truth as you will find it in eternity. If your children do not receive impressions of true piety, virtue, tenderness, and every principle of the holy Gospel, you may be assured that their sins will not be required at the hands of the father, but of the mother. Lay it to heart, ye mothers, for it will unavoidably be so. The duty of the mother is to watch over her children, and give them their early education, for impressions received in infancy are lasting. You know, yourselves, by experience, that the impressions you have received in the dawn of your mortal existence, bear, to this day, with the greatest weight upon your mind. It is the experience of people generally, that what they imbibe from their mothers in infancy, is the most lasting upon the mind through life. This is natural, it is reasonable, it is right. I do not suppose you can find one person among five hundred, who does not think his mother to be the best woman that ever lived. This is right, it is planted in the human heart.

Truth 10:221

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:
"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from
Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:
"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:
"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the Priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:
"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from you."
the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

[President Jeffs then continued:] In a word or two, keep sweet! Keep the Spirit of God. That will take care of all of your problems. These instructions of Brigham Young bear out what a great power and blessing it is. I say, "Amen," again to what Brother Warren has spoken to you here this day, and add my blessing in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:367  December 6, 1991  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional

Alta Academy Devotional
Sandy, Utah
December 6, 1991
Keep Sweet;
Only Those Full of the Holy Ghost Will Be Lifted Up;
The Mormon Church Cannot Be Set in Order

[Elder Warren Jeffs read a short history of the life of President Jeffs, found in Student Star volume 15, page 77; after which President Jeffs said:] All I can say is that what Brother Warren has written here has about said all I could say now, except thank-you. I love you all with this same love that Uncle Roy had for us. I would have you again instructed to keep your eye on Zion, the holy city, the New Jerusalem, in preparation for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in power, to govern the earth during the great Millennium.

I want you all to understand the continual use of the two words "keep sweet", means keep the Holy Spirit of the Lord, until you are full of it. Only those who have it will survive the judgments of God which are about to be poured out without let or hindrance upon the earth, beginning at the House of God, where the Mormons are. I mean the Mormon Church, which is now apostate completely, and will never be set in order. We have the true and living Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints under our administration. And we add the word "Fundamentalist" in order to distinguish the true Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints from the name of the one that now is a complete gentile sectarian church. The Lord has rejected it.

So let us continue on down the road with our brethren, beginning with Joseph Smith the Prophet, Brigham Young, John Taylor, John W. Woolley, Lorin C. Woolley, John Y. Barlow, and Leroy Sunderland Johnson, on our journey to Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:368 December 15, 1991 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 15, 1991
Testimony of the Prophet Joseph Smith

I just thought I would pass on to you some sayings and information about the Prophet Joseph Smith.

Joseph Smith (RTJ Book of Quotes, Page 43)

Would to God, brethren, I could tell you who I am! Would to God I could tell you what I know! But you would call it blasphemy, and there are men upon this stand who would want to take my life. If the Church knew all the commandments, one half they would reject through prejudice and ignorance.

In the Journal of Discourses by Brigham Young:

JD 4:271  Brigham Young  March 8, 1857 SLC

*If you find out who Joseph was, you will know as much about God as you need to at present;  Jesus was a God to the people when He was upon earth, was so before he came to this earth, and is yet. Moses was a God to the children of Israel, and in this manner you may go right back to Father Adam.

If I can pass brother Joseph, I shall stand a good chance for passing Peter, Jesus, the Prophets, Moses, Abraham, and all back to Father Adam, and be pretty sure of receiving his approbation.

And an interesting thing I glean from the sermons of Leroy S. Johnson. He said this, volume 4, page 1508:
This has been the case in all of God's work among the children of men. Since the beginning of time until now, whenever God sent a messenger to the earth, he came to a Servant that had been called by Him to receive him. Joseph was called. There is no doubt in my mind but what Joseph obeyed the call the morning he went into the woods to pray. He may not have seen the messenger. He may not have seen anyone, but when he woke up, he woke up full of the Spirit of God upon him. He was impressed so deeply, so plainly that he could go to the woods and kneel down and ask God; for he believed in a God, his mother had taught him that there was a God. He thought that the churches of the day were followers after the order of Jesus Christ. He was greatly surprised when he saw these two personages and one introduced the other to him, then left. One was left to give him instructions. Then he found out that all the churches were wrong, and that he should join none of them. For they were all an abomination in His sight. They teach for doctrine the commandments of men, but they deny the power that leads them.

I just commend these things to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:370  December 21, 1991  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 21, 1991
Funeral of Edna Zitting

I wish to confirm and say "amen" to the remarks of Uncle Fred Jessop and Parley Harker. I had many interviews with Sister Edna, at her request, and among the last sentiments, she asked that I conduct the funeral service to be held in her honor. Brother Fred has taken on, by my appointment, the handling of this service.

This great lady has indeed gone to her place among the sanctified. And she is going to have her reward, as she lived as perfectly and abided as perfectly as a woman can do living the law of Sarah, among the sanctified.

I just want to add some teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith. I am going to ask Uncle Fred to read them here, as they were given at the funeral service of Lorenzo D. Barnes. My eyesight is not the best at the present, and I will be glad to have Brother Fred read this to you in my behalf.
It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man. O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.
On December 29, 1991, President Jeffs said: Uncle Fred Jessop will now address us, and for me I am going to ask him to read Section 38, which is a most encouraging and explicit word of the Lord for us that I feel we need at this time. I want to urge upon all of you to read the dissertation on "Who God Is and How to Become Like Him." How to become like Him is treated on in this one simple statement: "Keep sweet." Keep the Holy Spirit of God. It is the only way we are going to get through the narrows and overcome this complacency, lack of faith. We need more faith, brothers and sisters, and to clean up our lives, heed the words of Section 38, after Brother Fred gets through.

After Uncle Fred spoke, President Jeffs continued, December 29, 1991: As the brethren have spoken here today, I have been overwhelmed with gratitude for those men of God from whom I have sprung. That man of God, David William Ward Jeffs, was my father, and I came into the world as he entered into plurality. I sprang in the Priesthood from John Y. Barlow and Leroy Sunderland Johnson. I am grateful to the Lord for all of His blessings unto me and to have been associated with these great Prophets and men of our day. God bless us all that we may come together as one to serve Him, to build up the Kingdom, to establish Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

After playing the tape of the December 29, 1991 meeting, President Jeffs said, January 5, 1992: Just one more thought rests upon me. One of the brethren mentioned that complacency is the opposite of faith. So I have to conclude we lack faith necessary to accomplish that which is before us. "O ye of little faith," said the Savior, as Peter was unable to walk upon the water as He did.

I recommend again, now, that we take up the Lectures on Faith and learn more as we go through it again. Mention was made about fervency in our prayers, faith in our prayers. I am afraid, too often, our prayers do not go above the ceiling. In Lecture Seven, we are told when we work by faith we work by exertion of the mind. Can you picture what is involved? Moroni puts it, "Pray with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love," the pure love of Christ, which is the Holy Spirit of God. Combine our faith and let pleadings go before God that we will be filled with the Holy Ghost. And that will have to come by faith. Just this last observation, and I want to add my blessings upon you all.

RTJ 7:373 December 29, 1991 and January 5, 1992 Sandy
I appreciate the wonderful support that has been given me, particularly by those brethren that have spoken, here and in the South and in the North. We are heading into the narrows, dear brothers and sisters. Let us walk by faith, perfect faith, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:373 January 26, 1992 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 26, 1992
Funeral of Fern Carlson Shapley Jessop (Aunt Fern)

I wish to say "amen", particularly to the remarks of Bishop Fred M. Jessop at the beginning of this service, and he spoke for me. I rejoice on this sacred occasion with my beloved brother Richard S. Jessop in his being united on the other side with one of his queens; and just simply want to say, certainly this dear sister goes with my blessing, and I rejoice with my beloved brother on this occasion. I am sure he is here. And I pray God to bless all of Uncle Rich's family, and honor him through keeping the commandments of God which he delivered unto them, to follow him in his family kingdom there. May God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:373 February 23, 1992 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 23, 1992
Get and Keep the Spirit of God

We have had some marvelous instructions here today coming from the Lord. For my part, I would like to pass on to you what was recorded as a teaching to my family about the Holy Spirit of God -- how to get it, how to keep it, and to keep from losing it -- in keeping with what I am pressing very strongly and strenuously. I am dead serious about keeping sweet! We either have the Holy Spirit of God, or we do not. When we have it we have it in varying degrees, according to the needs of the time. So we cannot afford to lose it. It is hard to get back, as this will explain. I ask Brother Truman to read that. [His sermon, dated February 26, 1978, was then read, found in volume 4, page 259.]
Sandy, Utah
March 1, 1992
Perfect Obedience Produces Perfect Faith

My sermon is still the same. It covers all the rest. Get and keep the Spirit of the Lord. Keep sweet. That is the means by which we accomplish our obedience.

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts  Page 145-146

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect,

Perfect obedience produces perfect faith.

...will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

God bless you, amen.

Colorado City, Arizona
March 15, 1992
Beware Immorality

I just want to close by reading, in connection with what has been said, particularly by Brother Truman and Brother Fred, and in connection with what I had to say this morning:

D.& C. 63
14. There were among you adulterers and adulteresses; some of whom have turned away from you, and others remain with you that hereafter shall be revealed.

15. Let such beware and repent speedily, lest judgment shall come upon them as a snare, and their folly shall be made manifest, and their works shall follow them in the eyes of the people.

16. And verily I say unto you, as I have said before, he that looketh on a woman to lust after her, or if any shall commit adultery in their hearts, they shall not have the Spirit, but shall deny the faith and shall fear.

Young people, beware; and elderly, beware with your children of coming under this. And one other statement I have read in the words of Brigham Young: "The glory of the man is the woman; the glory of the woman is her virginity." Remember this, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:375  March 29, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
March 29, 1992
Parents Should Train Children in Proper Morals; Keep Sweet

I have a deep feeling of gratitude at this time to our Father in heaven for the marvelous blessings we have received in this area in the way of rain. I just feel to acknowledge the hand of God in our behalf and in answer to our prayers. Thank God from whom all blessings flow.

RTJ 7:375  March 29, 1992  CCA

In the light of what has been developing here in the last couple of months, I feel very strongly to have read here the next sermon, which will be that of the Prophet Leroy Johnson on the responsibility of fathers and mothers in the training of morals to their children. I will ask Brother Fred to read this in its entirety, what was gleaned from our computer on this subject.

LSJ Vol.5  Page 328  June 16, 1963   SLC

This people who have been taught by the mouths of holy prophets, prophets who have walked and talked with God, with His angels, received the laying on of hands of angels, they were commanded to go forth and search out the righteous from the ends of the earth. "Come out of her, Oh ye, my people, and be not partakers of her sins," was the cry. Then the Lord tried to lay before the people the necessity -- get into the minds of the people the necessity of cleaning up their lives and purifying their spirits that they might be numbered with His people.

You can go back into history, and you will find that in almost every instance where the Lord has destroyed people, cities, and nations, that the old prophets talked about one great evil that was creeping in among the people when they commenced to cry repentance to them. That evil was adultery. The Lord plainly tells us that if a man looks upon a woman and lusts after her, he has already committed adultery in his heart.

I want to tell you, my brothers and sisters, we are facing a crucial time among this people. It is a time that we most need to take to heart the word repentance and begin to apply it to our souls. You fathers and mothers who are winking at what you call little things that go on among your children, if you don't correct it, the sin is upon your heads and not so much upon the heads of your children. I will tell you, if you study the scriptures, you will find out what responsibility the Lord places upon fathers and mothers; it is not the children who are going to lose their souls as much as it is the fathers and mothers. The hearts of people are going to be judged. You want to remember that we lived a life before we came here. We came here under covenant to live and obey the laws of God and apply to our lives those principles that would bring us back into the presence of our Father in Heaven. If we allow our children to partake of the evils of this earth under the covenants that we have made with our Father, who is going to be responsible? I want to tell you there is a responsibility upon the fathers and mothers. Why? What did the Lord tell the Prophet Joseph in the case of his brother Alvin, when Joseph saw him sitting on the right hand of God? Joseph said, "The boy has never received baptism. How can he be there?" The answer was, "If the boy had lived, he would have obeyed all the laws that God revealed to man on the earth."

Now, knowing the works of these children that are being born under the Covenant, the Lord knows what they did in the time before this, and they must have risen to a high state in the mind of God, or they would not be permitted to be born under the Covenant. Now, what is the responsibility of fathers and mothers who have made covenants with the Lord that they would do thus and so in order to be saved in the Celestial Kingdom and then allow these things to creep into the minds of the children? The responsibility is this: When these children are brought up for judgment, what is going to be the deal? One of your teenagers does something he shouldn't and you are brought into juvenile court. The child testifies that, "Father and Mother allowed me to do such and such." Who is going to suffer? They might as soon pronounce judgment upon the parents. In some cases, they have had to go to prison for a good long time, because they contributed to the delinquency of these children. What about these pure babies that are coming through the Celestial Law?

We have been going over the "weathers" of some of our people that we found were doing things that they hadn't ought to do. But now we are going to lay the responsibility back in the laps of the people it should be laid on -- that is, the fathers and mothers of this people. Your children are going to have to suffer, of course, because they have become of age, and now they are partaking of sin, and they are going to have to be cast out from among the Saints unless they repent. If they will repent and come make right the wrongs they have done and be rebaptized and show by their works that they are going to go straight from now on, they have a chance.

But, some are defiant, we find. There is a great responsibility upon this people. The sooner we realize it, the better off we will be. The Lord has made known to me that unless an immediate -- an immediate repentance comes over this people, we are going to see serious trouble -- a lot more serious than we think it is! So, we had better begin to do something about it. We had better begin digging into the lives of these young people and get them to see the errors of their ways and begin to seek for the Spirit of God, because if these spirits made covenants before they came here that they would do such and such, and they chose their parents, and those parents allowed them to be loose and go to the dogs, as we call it, who is going to pay for it? Are those children going to be judged according to what they would have done if they had received proper teaching, or are they going to be judged otherwise? You had better stop and think a little bit upon what is going on. Why do I speak this way? Because my heart is torn out because of the bright spirits that are among this people who are doing things that are going to damn them just as sure as they keep it up.

We called one man in to talk with him. He laughed at us. He said, "I know my heart, I know that God knows my heart," And he had already confessed to the sin of adultery. "It makes no difference what you men say. If I can't settle this thing peaceably, I will go the other route." And he has gone the other route. Now who is going to pay for it?

We had better start taking notice of what is going on around us and begin cleaning up our houses. We have been trying to pound this into the heads of this people ever since I have been acquainted with this Priesthood circle. It was being pounded in by President Musser. It was pounded in by President Barlow when I first got acquainted with them. I have heard it all my life. I have heard my father try to pound it into the heads of his hardheaded kids, and I was one of them. I thank the Lord that I took notice enough to keep myself clean from that one evil that crept into the lives of many of my associates. I have seen them go by the wayside.

I know that these other men are bleeding at the heart as much as I am, because of the condition that exists among the so-called Latter-day Saints. I don't have to go back to the mother Church to back up that part of my statement. I can stop right here in this room -- simply because of the slackness in the minds of the Latter-day Saints in gathering their children around them and teaching them correct principles.

One man told me the other day that if we took the route that we are trying to that it would drive the children all away from us. I have noticed that if you go at it in a proper manner that you can draw these children around you. You can make saints out of them, if you go at it right and teach them with kindness and not with the spirit of force. Satan said, "I will go down and save them all, that not any will be lost." Christ said, "I will give them their agency." All you need to do is teach them correct principles and let them take their course. When you teach them correct principles, put it into their minds that it is an evil to do anything that will lead up to this great evil that we find among us.

I have been made to understand, my brothers and sisters, that there must be a change in the minds of this people. Where there are examples of these evils and men have not repented, and they have come under the wings of this Priesthood, they are treading on mighty thin ice right now if they expect to remain under the jurisdiction of this Priesthood. The Lord has shown me that we are going to have some very, very difficult conditions come upon us if we don't clean up. Because the Lord says that He does not look upon sin with the least degree of allowance. He means just that. If we are the servants of God, we are going to be held responsible for the conditions of the people over whom we preside. We have got to be men that can stand up to the situation that confronts us without fear or trembling and go through and clean up the flock. So, we had better begin to watch. I will tell you, you had better be on the inside and in the good graces of this Priesthood circle, than to be on the outside looking in and laughing at what is going on at the present time. You might not laugh long. There has never been a time when the Lord has had to come out and chastise a people that they have laughed at the prophets very long. Just go read what happened in the days of Alma and Amulek. When they began to preach repentance to an apostate people, they began to persecute them, put them in prison, tied them up, then people went by and spit on them and they laughed at their condition. After they had gone so far, what happened to them although they were tied inside the prison? The story says that everyone that was inside the prison was killed except Alma and Amulek.

Whenever we see people begin to apply to their lives the spirit of repentance, we rejoice. We actually rejoice in our hearts, because we know that God is just. He has said that we are obligated to forgive all men, and He will forgive whom He will. He has never released the responsibility of the fathers and mothers from the teaching of the children. Just go back and read what He told the Prophet Joseph Smith when the Prophet failed to teach his children correct principles. He told him that he was nigh unto cursing. I am afraid there are a lot of us that will come under the curse because of the actions of our children.

Now, let us hasten -- let us hasten to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Remember that we can't get the Spirit of God and at the same time condone wickedness in our homes, or evil-doing. But we can clean up our homes and get the Spirit of God and keep it. Let us hasten to do so, my brothers and sisters. Let us take to heart the counsel that is given to us from month to month, from Sunday to Sunday here. Let us get the Lord to smile upon us so that we can become that people that He will be pleased to send down fire from Heaven if necessary to protect us in the day of visitation, when He is visiting the nations of the earth with His judgments and destruction.
These words of the Prophet Leroy Johnson are mine to this people at this time. We are seeking to establish Zion.

JD 5:4  Brigham Young  July 5, 1857  SLC

You hear brethren talk of coming to Zion to enjoy the blessings of this land; but do you not see that it is the shortsightedness of men which causes their disappointment when they arrive here? They gather here with the spirit of Zion resting upon them, and expecting to find Zion in its glory, whereas their own doctrine should teach them that they are coming here to make Zion.

RTJ 7:381  March 29, 1992  CCA

We can make Zion, or we can make Babylon, just as we please. We can make just what we please of this place. The people can make Zion: they can make a heaven within themselves. When people gather here, they should come with a determination to make Zion within themselves, with the resolution that "I will carry myself full of the Spirit of Zion wherever I go; and this is the way in which I will control evil spirits; for I mean that my spirit shall have control over evil:" and do you not see that such a course will make Zion?

RTJ 7:382  March 29, 1992  CCA

This American continent will be Zion; for it is so spoken of by the prophets. Jerusalem will be rebuilt and will be the place of gathering, and the tribe of Judah will gather there; but this continent of America is the land of Zion.

Zion is the pure in heart. We must be filled with the Holy Spirit of God in order to stand in His presence, when Zion is to be redeemed by power, as Section 103 relates to us. So, brothers and sisters, time is marching on. The judgments of God will be poured out beginning at the House of God, according to Section 112, and from there it will go as a whirlwind to all nations. President Johnson has made some beautiful sermons in which he relates how, in order to pass through and survive the judgments, we must have the Holy Spirit of God sufficient that we can be caught up while the judgments go through the land. So I say, keep sweet. It is a matter of life or death. God bless you, amen.
Dear brothers and sisters, this is a grand and glorious sight, convening of Conference, the one hundred sixty-second anniversary of the organization of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. This is a continuation of that organization. The so-called mainstream Church left the Priesthood which had organized it, and the organization to be continued was continued through the Prophet John W. Woolley, who was in hiding, and he presided in the Priesthood for forty-one years, 1887 to 1928. We have had to add "Fundamentalist" in front of the name in order to distinguish from what is now the apostate church. It is a grand and glorious thing to contemplate what the Lord has done in seeing this Priesthood through the continuation of the organization and labors of the Prophet Joseph Smith. I rejoice with you in contemplating these things. May we have this day a rich outpouring of the Holy Spirit of God as we sing and speak praises unto God our Father.

Sandy, Utah
April 19, 1992
Rebellious Child Usually Has a Rebellious Mother

[Elder Warren Jeffs read the ten rules on how to raise children from Brigham Young. Then President Jeffs said:] Just add a little thought continuing what Brother Warren has said. I have had a good many problems come before me, as you can understand. But in general -- and there are exceptions, of course -- you show me a rebellious child, I will show you a rebellious mother to a good man. Think about it. Keep sweet!

Sandy, Utah
May 3, 1992
Who Will Be the Remnant That Survive the Judgments

In connection with this which Brother Truman has read from Moroni 7, I urge upon you to read and reread the dissertation I have prepared: "Who God Is, and How to Become Like Him." It takes more than one reading -- many readings, as we find as we read scriptures. That is what we have got to be in order to go back and redeem Zion. We have got to be like our Lord Jesus Christ, who will go before with His angels. That people will be the remnant that will go back. If we do not have the Holy Spirit of God capable of being lifted up, we will not survive the judgments, and we will not be in that concourse that will go to redeem Zion.

Think of what happened when the Lord came to the Nephites after the great judgments that were poured out then. The face of the land changed, cities sunk in the sea and under mountains. He came to twenty-five hundred men, women, and children. You know the beautiful story. They had to be pure in order for Him to come and personally administer to them, and they stood in His presence. With that remnant, the Lord Jesus Christ organized His Church in full, and caused them to enter into the Holy United Order, which they continued for nearly two hundred years, with full confidence in one another. There was no evil among them. Each loved his neighbor as himself. So I say again, keep sweet. It is a matter of life if we survive what is ahead of us, or death. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:384 May 16, 1992 Sandy Priesthood Meeting

Priesthood Meeting
Sandy, Utah
May 16, 1992
A Man Loses the Priesthood if He Commits Adultery
("Principles and Ordinances of the Holy Priesthood" Page 72)
There is the endowment connected with the holy ordinance of celestial marriage. To sin by adultery, I want it understood, you lose the Priesthood, you lose the Holy Spirit of God, and if you are married, you have lost your Priesthood, and you cannot hold your wife. To go on living a lie after committing that sin is a horrible thing. An adulterer dishonors his Priesthood and he loses it, and he dishonors his marriage covenants. Priesthood covenants are dishonored. You bear the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, you take that on by oath and covenant. John Taylor had this to say:

John Taylor (RTJ Book of Quotes, Page 11)
A man dishonoring his Priesthood and his marriage covenants, forfeits his wives and children; the wives being released by the same authority that sealed them, are free to marry other men -- worthy, their children automatically going to their new husband without an adoption ceremony. They follow their mother and her sealing to a husband takes them with her.

RTJ 7:385  June 7, 1992  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
June 7, 1992
Keep Sweet; The Remnant Will Be Those Full of the Holy Ghost

The Lord has surely answered my prayers, giving the messages that I wanted given here. It has been marvelous. I want you all to know I love you, and I want to save you, by the power of God. My sermon is: Keep sweet. It is a matter of life or death. The remnant spoken of will be those who are full of the Holy Ghost. May we all be there, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:385  June 14, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 14, 1992
Keep Sweet

And may I add again: Keep sweet. Keep the Holy Spirit of God; and stand ye in holy places, as we approach the oncoming onslaught of the judgments of God upon the wicked.

RTJ 7:385  June 28, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 28, 1992
Keep Sweet

Again, my message: Let us pray with all the energy of heart, in faith, that we may be filled with the pure love of Christ, which is the Holy Spirit of God.
Keep sweet. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:385  July 5, 1992  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
July 5, 1992
Keep Sweet

And I say "Amen" to what has been delivered here today. These have all spoken for me. Please, dear brothers and sisters, keep ever before you: "Keep sweet." Keep the Holy Spirit of the Lord. We will not stand the test without it. It is the only way we can. May we have it in great abundance according to our need, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:386  July 19, 1992  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
July 19, 1992
Happiness; Education of Children

For my message to you, brothers and sisters, I want to have Warren come up and read a message from the Prophet Joseph Smith and from Brigham Young. And to preface it, along the lines that Brother Truman has been speaking, my experience in dealing with delinquent children, rebellious children, it is a general rule; there are exceptions: "Show me a rebellious child, and I will show you a rebellious mother to a good man."

JD 5:1  Brigham Young  July 5, 1857  SLC

It is a mistaken idea in the inhabitants of the earth to conclude that it will not do for them to yield obedience to the commandments of heaven, lest it should abridge them in their comforts and in their enjoyments; for there is no real peace, there is no real happiness in anything in heaven or on the earth, except to those who serve the Lord. In His service there is joy, there is happiness; but they are not to be found anywhere else. In it there are peace and comfort; but when the soul is filled with joy, with peace, and with glory, and is perfectly satisfied therewith, a person even then has but little idea of that which is in store for all the faithful.

TPJS  Page 255

Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof, if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping all the commandments of God. But we cannot keep all the commandments without first knowing them, and we cannot expect to know all, or more than we now know unless we comply with or keep those we have already received. That which is wrong under one circumstance, may be, and often is, right under another.

God said, "Thou shalt not kill;" at another time He said, "Thou shalt utterly destroy." This is the principle on which the government of heaven is conducted -- by revelation adapted to the circumstances in which the children of the kingdom are placed. Whatever God requires is right, no matter what it is, although we may not see the reason thereof till long after the events transpire. If we seek first the kingdom of God, all good things will be added. So with Solomon: first he asked wisdom, and God gave it him, and with it every desire of his heart, even things which might be considered abominable to all who understand the order of heaven only in part, but which in reality were right because God gave and sanctioned by special revelation.

A parent may whip a child, and justly, too, because he stole an apple; whereas if the child had asked for the apple, and the parent had given it, the child would have eaten it with a better appetite; there would have been no stripes; all the pleasure of the apple would have been secured, all the misery of stealing lost.

This principle will justly apply to all of God's dealings with His children. Everything that God gives us is lawful and right; and it is proper that we should enjoy His gifts and blessings whenever and wherever He is disposed to bestow; but if we should seize upon those same blessings and enjoyments without law, without revelation, without commandment, those blessings and enjoyments would prove cursings and vexations in the end, and we should have to lie down in sorrow and wailings of everlasting regret. But in obedience there is joy and peace unspotted, unalloyed; and as God has designed our happiness -- and the happiness of all His creatures, he never has -- He never will institute an ordinance or give a commandment to His people that is not calculated in its nature to promote that happiness which He has designed, and which will not end in the greatest amount of good and glory to those who become the recipients of his law and ordinances. Blessing offered, but rejected, are no longer blessings,

JD 1:66 Brigham Young April 8, 1852 SLC

It has been hinted that education commences with the first dawn of knowledge upon the mental faculties of the child, and continues with it till death. But I will trace it a little further back still, and say that education commences with the mother, and the child in connection. I will state the facts in the case, as you will find them to be hereafter, in the education of your children. It depends in a great degree upon the mother, as to what children receive, in early age, of principle of every description, pertaining to all that can be learned by the human family. When will mothers understand this? Knowing that this is the case, I am perplexed with grief when I see such a wanton diversion from the real design of life, it causes me to mourn for my poor, ignorant, fellow mortals, and sometimes almost goads me to anger. I can see mothers pay attention to everything under heaven, but the training up of their children in the way they should go, and they will even make it appear obligatory on the father to take care of the child at a year old. How often is it the case that mothers will say -- "Why, Pa, this child is growing up in ignorance, he is going to ruin. Really, dear husband, what shall we do with him?" I will tell you the truth as you will find it in eternity. If your children do not receive impressions of true piety, virtue, tenderness, and every principle of the holy Gospel, you may be assured that their sins will not be required at the hands of the father, but of the mother. Lay it to heart, ye mothers, for it will unavoidably be so. The duty of the mother is to watch over her children, and give them their early education, for impressions received in infancy are lasting. You know, yourselves, by experience, that the impressions you have received in the dawn of your mortal existence, bear, to this day, with the greatest weight upon your mind. It is the experience of people generally, that what they imbibe from their mothers in infancy, is the most lasting upon the mind through life. This is natural, it is reasonable, it is right. I do not suppose you can find one person among five hundred, who does not think his mother to be the best woman that ever lived. This is right, it is planted in the human heart.
August 2, 1992
Repent Here and Now

There is one more thought I want to put over. Uncle Roy said on more than one occasion, "Be vigilant and repent here and now, or you may not have enough time to repent when the judgments pass over." Just a thought. It takes time to repent, dear brothers and sisters. May the Spirit of God be upon us all to the end that we may be saved and be found worthy to be caught up, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:389  August 16, 1992  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
August 16, 1992
The Arizona Strip Is Our Zion Today

Change Missouri to the Arizona Strip. That is our Zion. That is where we are going to see a great deal of the fulfillment of these things.

RTJ 7:390  September 6, 1992  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
September 6, 1992
Keep Sweet No Matter What

These have all spoken for me. I am grateful. The Lord has directed the messages that have been given here today. Let us be meek and lowly in heart. Let us repent. Let us obtain perfect faith by perfect obedience. Let us go down the road with Uncle Roy, Uncle John. This term "keep sweet", I borrowed from Uncle John. He said, "Keep sweet no matter what." That covers the whole ground, brothers and sisters. Let us do it to our salvation and exaltation, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:390  September 7, 1992  Sandy  Alta Academy Teacher Meeting

Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
Sandy, Utah
September 7, 1992
Continuing the Work of President Johnson; Spirit of Revelation

I appreciate this introduction that Brother Warren has given us. Those remarks concerning President Johnson, I realize I am to carry on for him, as to the redemption of Zion.

I feel that this work that has been passed out to the Elders and lesser Priesthood on the Holy United Order and the City of Enoch, that is the text we are using in our Priesthood classes. So the work that is being done there is part of this work outlined by Uncle Roy.

All through the years, and particularly when he fell ill, he whispered to me, "I am going to be renewed to carry on this great work." I expected that would go right on through. He was renewed all right, in going when he was supposed to go. But he is still with us. I never dreamed that I would be in this position. I expected him to go on physically here and accomplish that work of the redemption of Zion. God willing and helping me, I want to carry on exactly as he has outlined. He said when he was in his last days there, "I want you to know that I am going to be there," at the redemption of Zion. That is what I pledged when I took over, that I was to carry on exactly as he has, build on the foundation he has laid. He is a grand and great Prophet, thirty-seven years at the helm of the Kingdom of God. Only John W. Woolley exceeded him in time, forty-one years, all that time in hiding.

He went to visit John Woolley, Uncle Roy did, a few months before he died. He and his brother Price went to visit with him, and after a very fine interview, as Uncle Roy was about to leave, Uncle John summoned him back. He took his hand and said, "My boy, you will do." I have had much the same association with Uncle Roy. As you know, he turned you all to me.

As to our children, our great effort must be, and especially beginning with their parents, is to come out of the world. That is the greatest problem we have in dealing with our children in the schools and in our homes. Keep them home. This is an effort that was established by President Johnson. He appointed Brother Warren to be Principal of this school. I didn't, and I have appreciated that. Brother Warren has been a great mouthpiece for me in our meetings. I want you all to know I have complete confidence and love for this, my son, in the work that he is called to do.

The recent letter that went out to parents was carefully written and considered between Warren and myself, and I feel is very timely. I hope no parents feel that we are trying to intervene or interfere into their homes concerning their children, but we have had to simply set up standards, that is all. I fully sustain what was said in that letter. I added my signature to it.

Well, your labors, dear people, are to be carried on the same as our labors in the Kingdom. This is a part, one of the rooms of the Kingdom, the House of God. I wish we could extend it fully in Short Creek.

So as to your part, just some principles that should govern us all in our personal lives as well: Get and keep the Holy Spirit of God. KEEP SWEET!, no matter what. These are the words of Uncle John Y. Barlow, and I am grateful to carry his message on. By the way, I am sure you recognize as I do as to the hiding of the Priesthood. Uncle John is the one that brought us out of hiding. We are now before the people of the whole world, actually, the "Fundamentalist Movement", so to speak. We are now being recognized not as a cult, but as a movement that must be dealt with.

So let us do our part, build up the Kingdom by building up our children under the Priesthood and the Spirit of God. When we have the Spirit of God we have the Spirit of revelation. That is one of the grand gifts of the Spirit. So, when we have the Holy Spirit of God with all of its attributes -- they are outlined in the Lectures on Faith -- we have the attributes of God, and we are like God, if we cultivate and carry it on, as the last few words of Section 121 tell us. But as to the Spirit of revelation, I want to repeat what I had to say last year.

Oliver Cowdery was called upon, or at his own request, to be able to translate the plates of the Book of Mormon. And the Lord granted him that privilege with this instruction:

D.& C. 8

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.
5. Oh, remember these words, and keep my commandments. Remember, this is your gift. But he failed. Section 9 tells why and how.

D. & C. 9

1. Behold, I say unto you, my son, that because you did not translate according to that which you desired of me, and did commence again to write for my servant, Joseph Smith, Jun., even so I would that ye should continue until you have finished this record, which I have entrusted unto him.

2. And then, behold, other records have I, that I will give unto you power that you may assist to translate.

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

In other words, he did not act under the terms that are shown in Lecture Seven. How do we work when we work by faith? By the exertion of the mind. Moroni puts it much the same way: "Pray with all the energy of heart that you may be filled with this pure love of Christ," which was described. That is the Spirit of God.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.
10. Now, if you had known this you could have translated; nevertheless, it is not expedient that you should translate now.

Page 151 of the Teachings:

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) these things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Having a fullness of the Holy Spirit of God makes you like God, Lecture Five. I would like to read my favorite saying to you teachers.

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:395  September 13, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
September 13, 1992
"Keep Sweet" Is Having an Effect; Preparation

This morning Uncle Fred and I were talking in the office here, and he asked me, "Are we making progress?" I want to tell you, my dear people, I love you all, and I am encouraged in that in my interviews with the brethren, I find in the families, "Keep Sweet" is being used to the uttermost. That is the best sign I can give now that we are indeed making progress, and I am greatly encouraged. God bless you and keep you, and continue in your faith. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, and strength, and your neighbor as yourself. We are preparing to enter into the Holy United Order down the road. Let us prepare for it. There can be no sin in Zion and in the Holy United Order. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:395  September 27, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
September 27, 1992
Love God Above All, and Thy Neighbor as Thyself

The first law of heaven is obedience to the commandments of God. The first commandment is, thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, might, mind, and strength; and the second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. How can we love God whom we cannot see, if we love not our neighbors, whom we can see? God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:395  October 25, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 25, 1992
Happiness

Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof, if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping all the commandments of God. But we cannot keep all the commandments without first knowing them, and we cannot expect to know all, or more than we now know unless we comply with or keep those we have already received. That which is wrong under one circumstance, may be, and often is, right under another.
God said, "Thou shalt not kill;" at another time He said, "Thou shalt utterly destroy." This is the principle on which the government of heaven is conducted -- by revelation adapted to the circumstances in which the children of the kingdom are placed. Whatever God requires is right, no matter what it is, although we may not see the reason thereof till long after the events transpire. If we seek first the kingdom of God, all good things will be added. So with Solomon: first he asked wisdom, and God gave it him, and with it every desire of his heart, even things which might be considered abominable to all who understand the order of heaven only in part, but which in reality were right because God gave and sanctioned by special revelation.

A parent may whip a child, and justly, too, because he stole an apple; whereas if the child had asked for the apple, and the parent had given it, the child would have eaten it with a better appetite; there would have been no stripes; all the pleasure of the apple would have been secured, all the misery of stealing lost.

This principle will justly apply to all of God's dealings with His children. Everything that God gives us is lawful and right; and it is proper that we should enjoy His gifts and blessings whenever and wherever He is disposed to bestow; but if we should seize upon those same blessings and enjoyments without law, without revelation, without commandment, those blessings and enjoyments would prove cursings and vexations in the end, and we should have to lie down in sorrow and wailings of everlasting regret. But in obedience there is joy and peace unspotted, unalloyed; and as God has designed our happiness -- and the happiness of all His creatures, he never has -- He never will institute an ordinance or give a commandment to His people that is not calculated in its nature to promote that happiness which He has designed, and which will not end in the greatest amount of good and glory to those who become the recipients of his law and ordinances. Blessing offered, but rejected, are no longer blessings,

A word to the brethren about this "red" business. I would rather you did not wear red ties.

RTJ 7:397  November 15, 1992  CCA
In a very few words I often recall what I read Brigham Young to say to the mothers. "Don't ask me, `Where is my husband?' I ask you, `Where are your children?'" Something to ponder. God bless you, amen.

Priesthood Meeting
Sandy, Utah
November 21, 1992
A Man Forfeits His Family if He Commits Adultery
("Principles and Ordinances of the Holy Priesthood" Page 72)
I am going to read page 81 of volume six of the Documentary History of the Church, November 15, 1843:

If a man commit adultery, he cannot receive the celestial kingdom of God. Even if he is saved in any kingdom, it cannot be the celestial kingdom.

As read here, the whoremonger, adulterer, shall receive the second death. This is something I want all of you to understand. If a man commit adultery and living under the new and everlasting covenant, the moment he does so, he loses his Priesthood. He forfeits his family. And to continue on living a lie after having done so is a very, very serious thing. So, we have the element of the liar spoken of here as well as adultery. I have run across so many cases in calling upon the brethren for confessions. It has been a very grave thing and a very great burden to handle these.

Funeral of E. Jack Knudson, Jun.

I appreciate deeply the friendship and association I had with Brother Jack, and I say amen to what my brethren have said here, some who have labored with him more than I. I was associated with him in the National Land Corporation and one or two others. And as Brother Truman has said, he was very generous in helping the Priesthood in their various projects. I have a message taken from the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, which I desire to add to this occasion, and ask Brother Truman to present it to you.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

RTJ 7:399  November 29, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
November 29, 1992
Perfect Obedience Produces Perfect Faith

I thank the Lord that these, my beloved brethren, have spoken for me here this day. Let us remember, perfect obedience produces perfect faith, by which we have power with God. Keep sweet.

RTJ 7:400  December 4, 1992  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional

Alta Academy Devotional
Sandy, Utah
December 4, 1992
Seizing on Blessings Turns to Cursings

Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof, if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping all the commandments of God. But we cannot keep all the commandments without first knowing them, and we cannot expect to know all, or more than we now know unless we comply with or keep those we have already received. That which is wrong under one circumstance, may be, and often is, right under another.

God said, "Thou shalt not kill;" at another time He said, "Thou shalt utterly destroy." This is the principle on which the government of heaven is conducted -- by revelation adapted to the circumstances in which the children of the kingdom are placed. Whatever God requires is right, no matter what it is, although we may not see the reason thereof till long after the events transpire. If we seek first the kingdom of God, all good things will be added.
A parent may whip a child, and justly, too, because he stole an apple; whereas if the child had asked for the apple, and the parent had given it, the child would have eaten it with a better appetite; there would have been no stripes; all the pleasure of the apple would have been secured, all the misery of stealing lost.

This principle will justly apply to all of God's dealings with His children. Everything that God gives us is lawful and right; and it is proper that we should enjoy His gifts and blessings whenever and wherever He is disposed to bestow; but if we should seize upon those same blessings and enjoyments without law, without revelation, without commandment, those blessings and enjoyments would prove cursings and vexations in the end, and we should have to lie down in sorrow and wailings of everlasting regret. But in obedience there is joy and peace unspotted, unalloyed; and as God has designed our happiness -- and the happiness of all His creatures, he never has -- He never will institute an ordinance or give a commandment to His people that is not calculated in its nature to promote that happiness which He has designed, and which will not end in the greatest amount of good and glory to those who become the recipients of his law and ordinances. Blessing offered, but rejected, are no longer blessings,

I just wanted to have this read to you dear young people, directing mostly to the High School students. After having this read in Colorado City, six young brethren came and confessed to me that they had seized on the blessing of picking their own companion. What you just heard read is the heart of the placement system that has been instituted by the holy Priesthood, through President Barlow and President Johnson. After that was read, as I say, six young men came and confessed to me -- and they are mostly out of High School down south -- about having connected themselves with a young lady. Most of them got together in their High School activities. Word was going around the community, and this was what came of it: "We can pick our own companions. We may have to be married legally, but we can wait a year and then get a sealing." I cannot tell you how grave that is, young people. How do you know that you will get such a sealing in a year, or two, or three, whatever it takes? And, will you still be around?

Earlier on I had taken care of three young men who had connection with young ladies. The men had come to me, they waited a year and were sealed.
But I tell you, what a spirit when the sealing was done -- in private, no family around; a baby born out of the covenant during that year. So I just want to warn you. Your boy and girl relationships here, young people, are being closely watched, as you are quite aware.

President Johnson in his time taught the young people, the boys particularly, "Treat the girls in your acquaintance as though they were snakes. Hands off!" And the girls should treat the boys the same way until they are placed by the Prophet. What a difference between the two. When they are placed properly, what a glorious spirit there is at the sealing. Compare that with having stolen an apple, instead of having it given to them; seized on a blessing, which could turn to cursing.

Just these brief words, dear young people. I love you, and I want to save you in the Celestial Kingdom of God. So, if you will keep the grand teaching that we are trying to get over: Keep the Holy Spirit of God. KEEP SWEET! It is a matter of life or death.

You have had the teaching regarding what is required in order for us to survive the judgments, sufficient of the Holy Spirit of God that we can be lifted up and then set down after it is over. That will be the remnant which will go to redeem Zion. The wicked will be swept off from the face of this land. The wicked are they who come not unto Christ. There is only one people who comes unto Christ, and that is this people under His servant. I don't need to go into the judgments and that sort of thing. We will hear those in General Meeting.

So, dear young people, walk a straight path. Wander not from it, with the Spirit of God upon you at all times. It will be your only protection when the judgments come first and worst upon this area where the House of God is established. From there it shall go as a whirlwind to all nations. The wicked will be swept off the face of this land of North America to prepare the way for the coming of the Ten Tribes, who will help us build the city and the temples. Let us be among that people, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:403  December 13, 1992  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 13, 1992
Keep Sweet No Matter What -- It Is a Matter of Life and Death

Keep sweet no matter what. It is a matter of life and death. We must have sufficient of the Holy Spirit of God in us that we can be caught up when the judgments pass through, and set down again. That will be the remnant which shall go back to redeem Zion. The wicked will be swept off from the face of this land, preparatory to the coming of the Ten Tribes to build the city of Zion and the temples. Just these few words. I love you. I want you with me. Back me up.

Let us have this once the favor of the Lord in answering our prayers, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:403 December 27, 1992 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 27, 1992

Faith

It is wonderful to meet again in the name of the Lord. I am grateful to be with you and grateful that all of you have come out today. Let us pray with all the energy of heart, that we may be filled with the pure love of Christ as we meet together.

RTJ 7:403 December 27, 1992 CCA

* * * * *

I would like to read a most profound statement of the Prophet Joseph Smith in the final verse of Lecture One on the subject of faith.

Lecture One

24. Faith, then, is the first great governing principle which has power, dominion, and authority over all things; by it they exist, by it they are upheld, by it they are changed, or by it they remain, agreeable to the will of God. Without it there is no power, and with out power there could be no creation nor existence!

Let us build up our most holy faith in preparation for the great events to come, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:404 January 10, 1993 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 10, 1993
Be Filled With Charity

I think we can sum up what we are trying to accomplish in these few words as they are found in Moroni 7, verse 48.

Moroni 7

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

RTJ 7:404 January 24, 1993 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 24, 1993
Keep the Spirit of God

These have all spoken for me. Praise the Lord for His many blessings as we are being taught. Keep the Spirit of God no matter what, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:404 February 23, 1993 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 23, 1993
Funeral of Wilford A. Draper

For my part, I just feel to say "Amen" to the remarks of Uncle Fred and Uncle Parley. And I wish to add some beautiful sentiments of the Prophet Joseph Smith at the funeral of Lorenzo Barnes for the remarks; and say unto you all, God bless you. Brother Truman will read this for me.

TPJS Page 296

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.
All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life.

This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

RTJ 7:406 March 14, 1993 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
March 14, 1993
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"

I will say a few simple words the Lord Jesus Christ gave. He, whose servant I am, said, "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me, scattereth abroad." God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:406 March 28, 1993 CCA
Colorado City, Arizona
March 28, 1993
Determined to Carry On the Work of President Johnson

I cannot tell you, dear brothers and sisters, how much I appreciate this grand show of support and strength behind me, of this people and my dear brethren who are laboring at my side. I want to say, as I did say at the funeral of the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, I intend to carry out and carry on with the great work and the foundation which he, Leroy S. Johnson, had laid for us. He said on one occasion, "The great stone has been cut out of the mountain" and he was rolling it on. And I desire to carry it on with him at my side, and also the Prophet John Y. Barlow, both of whom from whom I sprang and have been trying to carry on. So, "Keep sweet no matter what," were the words of John Y. Barlow. Let us carry on to the redemption of Zion and the establishment of righteousness in the earth, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:406  April 18, 1993  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
April 18, 1993
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"

I desire to express the words of the Lord Jesus Christ, whose servant I am. "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." Let us be one people, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:407  April 25, 1993  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
April 25, 1993
"I Sprang from John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson"

That sermon is printed in the Student Star of February 8, 1993. If you would all like a copy of it, I will print it up separately, have it as a handout.

Praise the Lord for what He has done for me. I can't be thankful enough for what the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson has vouchsafed to me. I sprang from John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson. John Y. Barlow ordained me; Leroy S. Johnson confirmed and blessed me like a son. I love his memory and I am trying to carry on that which he has so wonderfully established, which I do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:407  May 23, 1993  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 23, 1993
Beware Ingratitude

I feel to praise the Lord for the many, many bounteous blessings that He pours out upon us. One of the great sins is the sin of ingratitude, and we need to watch ourselves on that very important score. Let us pray with all the energy of heart, that we may have a rich outpouring of the Holy Spirit of God as we meet in praise of God.

* * * * *

Uncle Fred has spoken for me. I add again, keep sweet.

RTJ 7:407  May 26, 1993  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises

Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
Sandy, Utah
May 26, 1993
Graduation Exercises

[President Jeffs had his sermon read, dated December 4, 1992, found on page 400 of this volume. He then said:]

I am deeply grateful, dear graduates, to be able to present to you a diploma showing your faithfulness in carrying on your education in the Kingdom of God. The words that I feel for you have been already expressed in this sermon. It is with great joy and satisfaction now that I present to you your diplomas, completing a full High School course at Alta Academy, a Priesthood school; directed in the first place by the Prophet Leroy Johnson. It was set up according to his direction. He chose Elder Warren S. Jeffs as Principal of this school. We organized a corporation for a private school, and we have operated under that, having received information from the highest Board of Education of the State, the assurance that we were carrying on lawfully, and that there would be no interference in the direction and the performing of the work under this corporate charter. You have had no interference whatever from the State or local school authorities in going under the protection of the Lord in accomplishing His purposes in you and your lives.

I give you my blessing, that you will live long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Love and obey your parents. Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Obey the Lord through His Prophet, and keep all of the commandments that you have been taught here, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:408  Saturday, June 12, 1993  7:00 A.M.  Hildale

Hildale Utah
Saturday, June 12, 1993  7:00 A.M.
105th Birthday Celebration for President Leroy S. Johnson; President Johnson Is the "Marred Servant";
He Will Be at the Redemption of Zion

The remarks of the brethren here have gone deep into my soul as I contemplate my love for the great Prophet, Leroy S. Johnson. Dear Brother Truman, a close associate in the latter part of his life, has been a great sustaining power to me in carrying on the glorious mission that President Leroy S. Johnson commenced and laid the foundation of.

President Johnson said he was rolling forth that great stone cut out from the mountain. I feel honored in being able to carry on after him. At the time when he passed over, I dedicated my life and labors to carrying on and building up upon the foundation laid by that great and glorious Prophet, and that is what I am trying to do. That is behind everything I do. I am going to ask Brother Truman to read a few verses from Third Nephi, Chapter 21, verses 7 to 11. As you hear the words concerning the marred servant, I would have you know that that was the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson. He was healed when the Lord took him.

3 Nephi 21

7. And when these things come to pass that thy seed shall begin to know these things -- it shall be a sign unto them, that they may know that the work of the Father hath already commenced unto the fulfilling of the covenant which he hath made unto the people who are of the house of Israel.

8. And when that day shall come, it shall come to pass that kings shall shut their mouths; for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

9. For in that day, for my sake shall the Father work a work, which shall be a great and a marvelous work among them; and there shall be among them those who will not believe it, although a man shall declare it unto them.

10. But behold, the life of my servant shall be in my hand; therefore they shall not hurt him, although he shall be marred because of them. Yet I will heal him, for I will show unto them that my wisdom is greater than the cunning of the devil.

11. Therefore it shall come to pass that whosoever will not believe in my words, who am Jesus Christ, which the Father shall cause him to bring forth unto the Gentiles, and shall give unto him power that he shall bring them forth unto the Gentiles, (it shall be done even as Moses said) they shall be cut off from among my people who are of the covenant.

That which follows in that chapter 21 depicts what we are going through now in the winding-up scene; the coming of the judgments of God and what will transpire, which is also set forth in Section 45 of the Doctrine and Covenants, describing the judgments which shall come upon the earth. After describing them and the signs of the coming of the Son of Man, the verse reads: "And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place." The remnant will be they who survive the judgments and the destruction that shall come upon all the face of the earth.

The Prophet Leroy S. Johnson said, "I will be there when we go to redeem Zion," as described in Section 103 of the Doctrine and Covenants. I dare say the angels that the Lord said would go before would be the Prophets of this last dispensation, beginning with the Prophet Joseph Smith at the head, then Brigham Young, John Taylor, John W. Woolley, Lorin Woolley, John Y. Barlow, Leroy S. Johnson. "Mine Angels," said the Lord, "shall go before, and also my presence." That is the scenario I see before us at this time.

God bless you all. Let us rise to the great expectations and faith of the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, in fulfilling the great work and mission which he performed before the Lord. And may He grant unto me the same powers and blessings that He gave that great man whom we honor today. I loved him with all my heart, above any man on the face of this earth. I desire but to follow in his footsteps, and carry out the work that he envisioned should come to pass; to the redemption of Zion and the final scenes, and the coming of the Son of Man, which I pray for in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:411  June 13, 1993  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 13, 1993
Keep the Holy Spirit of God

The Prophet John Y. Barlow set forth and provided what I recall a torch: "Keep the Holy Spirit of God," or "Keep sweet no matter what." He passed that down to the Prophet Leroy Johnson, who passed it on to myself; and I hold it now out to you with all the love that I can muster to exalt and glorify this people to the honor and glory of God. May we carry on, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:411  July 25, 1993  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 25, 1993
Neither Give nor Take Offense

Another hint to enable us to keep sweet, the Holy Spirit of God -- we neither give nor take offense. That is a great help to us if we remember it as we go forth.

RTJ 7:411  August 13, 1993  Letter

Letter of President Jeffs
August 13, 1993
Letter of President Jeffs to Forty-five Apostates Residing on United Effort Plan Property

To: (Name and Address)
The United Effort Plan, created in 1942 by the church now organized as the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, is a religious and charitable institution operated through a board of trustees on behalf of the Presidency of the Church. The United Effort Plan was established to advance the principles and purposes of the United Order. These principles are described in many places in the scriptures, including Doctrine and Covenants, Section 42:33-37; Section 82:14-24; Section 104:55-56, 70-80; Section 119; Section 120; Section 85:1-5.

All contributions, in any form whatever, including those used by the Fundamentalist Church to meet the needs of the United Effort Plan, are deemed to be religious consecrations, freely donated to support the work of the Church.

The Fundamentalist Church recognizes a solemn obligation to preserve and advance the religious purposes of the United Effort Plan. To meet that obligation, those individuals who voluntarily and publicly reject the Priesthood must be disassociated from the United Effort Plan, and from its parent, the Fundamentalist Church (See Section 84, verses 35 through 44; Also see the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, pages 155 and 156). To allow otherwise would result in compromise of the effort to implement the eternal principles of the United Order, as restored by revelation through the Prophet Joseph Smith.

The United Order effort, to be acceptable to God, must be directed by the President of the Church and the holder of the keys of the holy Priesthood. President Rulon T. Jeffs holds those keys and that responsibility at the present time. Those who have altogether turned away from the President and his teachings are apostates, and must be excluded from the congregation of saints whose labor and devotion give visible expression and vitality to the principles of the United Order.

Your words and actions over a period of many years show that you have forsaken the Fundamentalist Church and the teachings of President Johnson and President Jeffs. The Fundamentalist Church hereby recognizes your withdrawal from the congregation of saints, and declares you disassociated from the Fundamentalist Church, including the United Effort Plan.

For this reason, the Fundamentalist Church declines to accept any further donations or offerings from you.

For the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the United Effort Plan Trust:
(Signed):  Rulon T. Jeffs, President of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and President of the Board of Trustees of the United Effort Plan Trust.

RTJ 7:413  August 15, 1993  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 15, 1993
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"

The Savior, whose servant I am, said, "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me, scattereth abroad."

RTJ 7:413  September 3, 1993  Letter

Letter of President Jeffs
September 3, 1993
Letter of President Jeffs to Forty-five Apostates Residing on United Effort Plan Property

To: (Name and address)
The Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, including the United Effort Plan, has always deemed all improvements to land owned by the United Effort Plan to be religious consecrations to the Fundamentalist Church, freely donated to support the work of the Church. All persons who actively participated in Church services during the last half century are aware that President Johnson and other Church leaders always included this principle in their religious teachings, based on holy scripture.

As I stated in my letter to you dated August 13, 1993, the Church has recognized your withdrawal from the congregation of the saints, and declared you disassociated from the Fundamentalist Church, including the United Effort Plan. The Fundamentalist Church declines to accept offerings or contributions from you, including improvements which you may desire to make to United Effort Plan property.

Because donations or offerings from you are not acceptable, you are hereby directed to not make any substantial improvement to the property at the above mentioned address. A substantial improvement is any improvement in which the cost of materials and/or labor exceeds five hundred dollars. Until arrangements are made for your relocation, you are directed to maintain the property in its present condition, and to take reasonable care to protect the safety of the persons residing on or using the property.

This decision is based upon scriptural references included in my letter to you of August 13, 1993, and in the teachings of President Johnson, delivered in his sermon of February 10, 1985, a copy of which is included for your review.

For the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the United Effort Plan Trust:
(Signed): Rulon T. Jeffs, President

RTJ 7:414 September 7, 1993 Sandy Alta Academy Teacher Meeting

Alta Academy Teacher Meeting
Sandy, Utah
September 7, 1993
Be Not Weary in Well-Doing;
Conform to the Law and Will of God

I guess the favorite thing I like to present before this body of teachers is "The Teacher's Prayer", which you are familiar with; but it brings to bear the necessity for getting and keeping the Spirit of God, keeping sweet, and relying on the Lord for inspiration to teach His children the words of life. We are all His children. These little ones that we have in our care, the Lord will hold us accountable for, as parents and as teachers.

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

There is some wonderful exhortations the Lord has given us that I want to pass on to you at this time, in the preparation of the saints going to Zion to abide the Celestial Law, the Holy United Order and the holy order of Celestial Marriage. They go hand in hand. And these products of our marriages are in our hands, and the Lord is going to hold us accountable for. Consider yourselves as agents.

D. & C. 64

29. Wherefore, as ye are agents, ye are on the Lord's errand; and whatever ye do according to the will of the Lord is the Lord's business.
30. And he hath set you to provide for his saints in these last days, that they may obtain an inheritance in the land of Zion.
31. And behold, I, the Lord, declare unto you, and my words are sure and shall not fail, that they shall obtain it.

That is what we are about now.

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.
33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.
34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

Section 64. And in Section 58, when they were told to bring their families to the land:

D. & C. 58

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.
27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, We have the greatest cause on earth under our God, to abide the holy Celestial Law of Marriage and the Holy United Order, companion laws by which we will be exalted. I will start that again:

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?

32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.

So, as we begin another school year, I invoke the Holy Spirit of God upon you, that you may teach thereby. Keep sweet, no matter what! Let there be no contention, or strife, or envyings, or lustful and covetous desires among us, as there were when they finally were driven out of Zion, after having been gathered together. Those are the things we must hold to: our code of ethics, our code of dress, our code of behavior. All must conform to the law and will of God, which I pray we may all do together, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Do you all have "The Teacher's Prayer"? Keep on using it.

[At the end of the meeting, President Jeffs said:] Keep sweet, no matter what! That solves all your problems, covers the whole ground. And it is a matter of survival when the judgments come. Okay?
We have had some grand messages delivered to us here by the grace of God, and our main objective now is in the two words "keep sweet", and add to that "no matter what". That will solve all of our problems. When we have the Spirit of God we become like Him. We have those attributes of God when we are full of it. Let us labor to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:417  September 19, 1993  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
September 19, 1993
Attitude Toward Apostates

Before we begin, in a sermon of the Prophet Leroy Johnson, volume 6, page 381:

> One of the latter-day prophets told us that the time would come when we would not be able to hold meetings, and when this time came, the Lord would pour out judgments upon the people.

Let us pray with all the energy of heart, that we may be filled with the Holy Spirit of God, and have a time of rejoicing here today.

Matthew 12

46. While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.
47. Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.
48. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?
49. And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!
50. For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

Much has been said here today about apostates. We have blood relatives connected with those apostates. And I wanted this read for the benefit of all those who may be grieving. My mother's brother is at the head, nominally, of that group of people upon our land in Short Creek. But the Lord has asked they be removed. And I am grateful that what has been said here about apostates has been given.

So just keep it in mind, dear brethren and sisters, and God bless us that we may carry on; become full of the Holy Ghost, that we may survive as the remnant, after the judgments have passed over. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:418  October 24, 1993  CCA

Clean Up Our Lives; The Holy Spirit Must Be Our Constant Companion

These have all spoke for me, and I thank God that he has put into the mouths of these brethren the words that He desired that we should have this day. I cannot tell you how deeply I feel for the grand support and strength it has given me through the labors and love of my brethren in the direction of this work. Let us rally now and continue; clean up our lives, be prepared for the days to come when God sends forth the judgments that are going to destroy the wicked. And may we survive by getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God. Dear people, the Holy Spirit of God must be our constant companion. We do not just turn it off and on like a switch. We must have it at all times.

I want to ask Brother Truman to read the last verses of Section 121 regarding that grand principle, which is going to be the only means that we will survive that which is to come, and become that remnant that the Lord will use to redeem Zion in preparation for the coming of the lost tribes of Israel.

The Prophet Joseph Smith said in one sentence how it is going to be. Pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked -- they who come not unto Christ -- from off the face of the land; in preparation for the return of the lost tribes of Israel, who will come to build the New Jerusalem in preparation for the great Millennium to come. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:419  November 7, 1993  Sandy  Sunday School

Sunday School
Sandy, Utah
November 7, 1993
Those Full of the Holy Ghost Will Be Lifted Up

[President Jeffs had Warren Jeffs read "The Now Crisis" section in the pamphlet "The Coming Crisis and How to Meet It". After the last quotes on how the Lord will protect us by lifting up the faithful from the earth, President Jeffs had Warren read Section 45, verse 43, which says:]

43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;

[President Jeffs then said:] That is this people, those of us who have enough of the Holy Ghost in us when the fire comes down from heaven. Like cleaves to like. The Holy Ghost is called "fire and the Holy Ghost." The Holy Ghost will come down and take hold of the Holy Ghost in us to lift us up. (He brought his right hand down onto his left, and then lifted up his right hand to signify "lifting up"). Those who are lifted up will be the remnant. So, that can take parts of a family. We don't have to wait to have our family completely unified if there are those in the family who are not obedient and full of the Holy Ghost. Those full of the Holy Ghost will be lifted up; and those who do not have it will be left to be destroyed. It is a matter of life and death.

RTJ 7:420 November 14, 1993 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
November 14, 1993
Keep Sweet

Uncle Fred observed this is bigger than a Stake Conference in the big Church. I like to think of it as the first Stake of Zion. This is Zion's Stake. We still have people up in Salt Lake and Canada. It is good to meet together. I pray the Lord to shed forth His Holy Spirit upon us as we worship the Lord.

RTJ 7:428 November 14, 1993 CCA

Keep sweet no matter what, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:420 November 28, 1993 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
November 28, 1993
The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

And one last word. The Lord Jesus Christ, whose servant I am, made this declaration: "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." Let us be one, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Alta Academy Devotional
Sandy, Utah
December 6, 1993
Birthday of President Rulon Jeffs
Priesthood Marriage; Happiness Through Priesthood-Appointed Marriages

I am deeply moved by what has been said here today; grateful beyond expression of words for the wonderful support that is being given me by this people. Brother Warren has headed this school as Principal since its inception. I want you to know that President Leroy S. Johnson appointed him, and for that I am grateful. And he is doing a splendid work in that position. I want to express my deep appreciation for the teaching staff, giving of your time and labors unstintingly, with love for these children that we are laboring with.
I desire to give you today a message from the Prophet Joseph Smith, whose servant I am. He stands next to Jesus in performing the great work of redemption and the exaltation of the sons and daughters of God. The Godhead as to the flesh is Michael, the Father; Jesus Christ, His Son; and Joseph Smith, Their Witness and Testator, standing in the office of the Holy Ghost. He now stands at the head of this last dispensation, to bring about the great work of redemption under the Lord Jesus Christ. I want you to listen to this message on "Happiness", and is the lesson to you young people as you come into womanhood and manhood, to carry on your labors under the Celestial Law, the Family Order of Heaven.

Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof, if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping all the commandments of God. But we cannot keep all the commandments without first knowing them, and we cannot expect to know all, or more than we now know unless we comply with or keep those we have already received. That which is wrong under one circumstance, may be, and often is, right under another.

God said, "Thou shalt not kill;" at another time He said, "Thou shalt utterly destroy." This is the principle on which the government of heaven is conducted -- by revelation adapted to the circumstances in which the children of the kingdom are placed. Whatever God requires is right, no matter what it is, although we may not see the reason thereof till long after the events transpire. If we seek first the kingdom of God, all good things will be added. So with Solomon: first he asked wisdom, and God gave it him, and with it every desire of his heart, even things which might be considered abominable to all who understand the order of heaven only in part, but which in reality were right because God gave and sanctioned by special revelation.

A parent may whip a child, and justly, too, because he stole an apple; whereas if the child had asked for the apple, and the parent had given it, the child would have eaten it with a better appetite; there would have been no stripes; all the pleasure of the apple would have been secured, all the misery of stealing lost.

This principle will justly apply to all of God's dealings with His children.
Everything that God gives us is lawful and right; and it is proper that we should enjoy His gifts and blessings whenever and wherever He is disposed to bestow; but if we should seize upon those same blessings and enjoyments without law, without revelation, without commandment, those blessings and enjoyments would prove cursings and vexations in the end, and we should have to lie down in sorrow and wailings of everlasting regret. But in obedience there is joy and peace unspotted, unalloyed; and as God has designed our happiness -- and the happiness of all His creatures, he never has -- He never will institute an ordinance or give a commandment to His people that is not calculated in its nature to promote that happiness which He has designed, and which will not end in the greatest amount of good and glory to those who become the recipients of his law and ordinances. Blessings offered, but rejected, are no longer blessings.

Section 132 contains all of the instructions embodied in this that has been given and is the basis for the Priesthood law concerning placement in marriage. I want you to note it and live it. Come to me and I will be able to administer the blessing, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:423  December 26, 1993  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 26, 1993
God Is Priesthood
God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us.

RTJ 7:424  January 16, 1994  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
January 16, 1994
"I Will Carry On With the Work of President Leroy S. Johnson"; His Love for Joseph Smith

We have had a wonderful time together here, brothers and sisters. I can't tell you how I am moved by the loyalty of these, my brethren, sustaining as they are in all the ways of the Lord.

I made at the beginning of my administration the statement that I would carry on the program laid out by the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson. That is what I have been doing all along. All of these teachings that I have been passing out to you, you will notice Uncle Roy is cited as a foundation for that subject matter. And I am grateful beyond words to the Lord for having the privilege of following in the footsteps of that great and noble man. He presided for thirty-eight years. I sprang from John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson, my immediate predecessors. And I am thankful to the Lord that the Prophet Joseph Smith and Uncle Roy have been at my elbow.

How I love the memory of that great and noble man who is in the Godhead, Joseph Smith. He was Witness of the Father and the Son, and head of this last dispensation, and was ordained before the foundations of this earth were laid to carry on the work of this last dispensation. He then becomes the third member of the Godhead, standing in the office of the Holy Ghost, the Witness and Testator. That is the foundation of all that we are doing.

God bless you, my dear brothers and sisters. I thank you for your loyalty and support, and pray that we may go on together now to accomplish the work that has been laid out for us by the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson in this day and time. And I dedicate myself with all that I have and am to that object and to the glory of God, which I do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:425  February 13, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 13, 1994
Keeping Sweet Is Our Survival

I have been very grateful to have been able to use the saying of President John Y. Barlow: "Keep sweet, no matter what." Keep the Holy Spirit of God. It is the only way we can become like Him, and the only way we can survive the judgments to come, to be lifted up by the Holy Ghost, which is fire from heaven. God bless you. I love you all. And I want only your salvation and your happiness in the Kingdom of God, which I do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:425  February 20, 1994  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
February 20, 1994
"Keeping Sweet" Is the Basis on Which We Will Go to the Celestial Kingdom

I will preach a sermon in a few words: God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us. That is what the brethren have been speaking about today. "Keep sweet no matter what," I borrowed from the Prophet John Y. Barlow; and that is the basis on which we will survive and go into the Celestial Kingdom.

RTJ 7:425  February 27, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 27, 1994
Begins Meeting When There Is No Movement; Faith Unto Salvation

I like to know that everyone is here before we start, that there be no movements in the congregation, so that we may prepare with full attention to what we are about, as we meet as saints of God. Let us pray with all the energy of heart that we may be filled with the pure love of Christ, which is the Holy Ghost, that we may have a rich outpouring of the blessings of God upon us as we meet today.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

Perfect obedience produces perfect faith.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

"He who is not with Me is against Me. He that gathereth not with Me, scattereth abroad." Let us go down the road together, that we may accomplish the final objective of the work that has been set up by the Prophet Joseph Smith to redeem Zion. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:427  March 13, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
March 13, 1994
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"

A short word. The Lord Jesus Christ, whose servant I am, declared the great truth: "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me, scattereth abroad." Let us keep sweet, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:427  May 29, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 29, 1994
Gratitude for John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson

I would just like to make an acknowledgement that I borrowed this statement, "Keep sweet no matter what," from the Prophet John Y. Barlow. I sprang from him and Leroy Johnson, both Prophets of God who proceeded. I remember the first Priesthood Meeting I attended in Short Creek, first visit to the community. When he introduced me to the brethren, he made the comment, "He is sweet and sound." That is what Uncle John was, is. That is what Leroy S. Johnson is. And I want to acknowledge with gratitude to the Lord that I have been able to receive so many of the grand teachings that I have enjoyed from John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson, Prophets of God; and I do this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Brother Warren has spoken for me. I don't know that I can add more to what he has said here. But I would just like to add one more thought for us as to our present progress and condition. Keeping sweet no matter what is a matter of life or death, as we approach the day of the great judgments that are to go over the earth. We will have to have enough of the Holy Spirit of God to be lifted up when those judgments roll forth, as Uncle Roy, the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson said in the last item in our "Coming Crisis".

The Lord said He would send down fire from heaven, if necessary, to protect His saints. That fire from heaven, young people, is the Holy Ghost, the third member of the Godhead. That Holy Ghost must have something inside of us to take hold of, so to speak, and lift us up while the judgments roll forth. That is what is meant by the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is fire, eternal fire. The Gods dwell in eternal burnings, and that is a manifestation of the Holy Ghost.

Let us get it and keep it. You don't turn it off and on. It must be a permanent thing in our very nature, and a part of our character. The attributes of the Holy Spirit of God are what make God what He is. God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us, represented by His servant. God bless you all, amen.
President Jeffs then said:] I have in my quote book an item called "The Prophet," which I would like to paraphrase by including, instead of the word, "I see," I will say, "Keep sweet."

He said, "Keep Sweet." And they said: "He's crazy; crucify him." He still said: "Keep Sweet." And they said: "He's an extremist." And they tolerated him. And he continued to say: "Keep Sweet." And they said: "He's eccentric." And they rather liked him, but smiled at him. And he stubbornly said again: "Keep Sweet." And they said: "There's something in what he says." And they gave him half an ear. But he said as if he'd never said it before: "Keep Sweet." And at last they were awake; and they gathered about him and built a temple in his name. And yet he only said: "Keep Sweet." And they wanted to do something for him. "What can we do to express to you our regret?" He only smiled. He touched them with the ends of his fingers and kissed them. What could they do for him? "Nothing more than you have done," he answered. And what was that? they wanted to know. "You are keeping sweet," he said, "that's reward enough; you are keeping sweet, you are keeping sweet."

God bless you, amen.

[At the presentation of diplomas, he said:] It is my very great pleasure to award you these diplomas, which you have so very well earned. I want you to all know I love you, and I desire above all else your being saved and exalted in the Kingdom of God under the Celestial Law of Marriage and the Holy United Order, which is the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I thrill to see this beautiful assembly of graduates sitting before us here today, and I pray God's blessings to be upon all of you. Keep close through your father. That goes for the girls and the boys. I would be delighted to talk with you anytime. I will now present the diplomas.

Colorado City, Arizona
June 26, 1994
Perfect Obedience Produces Perfect Faith
In a few words, perfect obedience produces perfect faith. Perfect faith makes us like God and brings us into His presence. That is what we are here for. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:430  July 12, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 12, 1994
Funeral of Elder Wilford Woodruff Steed

For my part, dear brothers and sisters, I just feel to say amen to all of these wonderful statements of history, and their love for this great and good man. I am a beneficiary of his family, Celestial Marriage family. I am a son-in-law of Woodruff Steed, who gave me a queen mother companion in Celestial Marriage, Mother Merilyn. She carried out all of the teachings of her father, and mother, Zavenda, and came to me by placement by the Priesthood in a way that God has given to us. I just wish to say that I am grateful for that gift, and for the love and friendship of this great and good man. And I call upon his family to follow his example, and keep sweet. That covers the whole ground.

I am going to ask Brother Truman to read the remarks of the Prophet Joseph Smith at the funeral of Lorenzo Barnes, which is a beautiful, and comforting, and inspirational statement of what we are doing in this great cause in which we are engaged. I ask Brother Truman to read this item.

TPJS  Page 296

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

God bless you all, and especially the family of this dear friend of mine. Hang in there, and keep sweet no matter what. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:431  July 12, 1994  CCA

Sandy, Utah
July 17, 1994
Do Not Lose the Confidence of the Prophet

Our time has been well spent here, brothers and sisters. I am grateful for the marvelous support that is being given me by these brethren who have spoken today, and I would like to emphasize one thing brought out by Brother Dan. I used to say as regard to my association with the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, to lose the confidence of the Prophet of God would be a devastating thing to me. There is a principle we must all relate to in our relations with one another -- fathers with their children, and the Prophet with his brethren. Let us keep on going down the road, dear brethren and sisters, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:432  July 24, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 24, 1994
Repent, and Prepare for the Judgments

I am going to ask Brother Truman to conclude with the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith found on page 17 of the Teachings.

TPJS Page 17

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

RTJ 7:433 August 28, 1994 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 28, 1994
Love God and Our Neighbor

I love the messages that have been given here. And as a final word, let us remember God is love. God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us. Let us love God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:433 September 11, 1994 CCA
Colorado City, Arizona
September 11, 1994

There Are No Neutrals;
This Is the Only People Who Are With the Lord Jesus Christ

These dear brethren have all spoken for me. Certainly they have spoken about me, and I cannot express how grateful I am for their marvelous and effective support in getting the work done that rests upon our shoulders. The Lord Jesus Christ said, "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." We are drawing towards God through the Holy Spirit of God, or we are drawing towards the devil -- one way or the other. There is nothing in between, nothing neutral. It is all or nothing at all! God bless you, my dear people, and bless me that I may serve the Lord for and in behalf of you all, whom I love with all my heart. Let us go down the road together.

I sprang from the Prophet John Barlow and the Prophet Leroy Johnson, who going back, all sprang from the Prophet Joseph Smith. What a blessing the Lord has for this people. This is the only people that are with the Lord Jesus Christ. The wicked are they who come not unto Christ. The Prophet Joseph Smith said regarding the judgments:

TPJS  Page 17
...pestilence,
That is the overflowing scourge, the desolating sickness.
...hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

There is the scenario. This will be the remnant spoken of in Section 45, after describing the signs of the coming of the Son of Man and the judgments that are to go forth, Section 45. The next verse says, "And the remnant shall be gathered to this place." That is Zion. The remnant will be they who survive, as described by the Prophet Leroy Johnson, being caught up with sufficient of the Holy Spirit of God. Who will survive? The Prophet Leroy Johnson describes it in that glorious revelation listed on the back of "The Coming Crisis", which was quoted here this morning. Read it carefully and act accordingly, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:434  September 18, 1994  Sandy  Sunday School
Sunday School
Sandy, Utah
September 18, 1994
Lifted Up; The Remnant

[President Jeffs had the following words of President Johnson read:]

LSJ Vol.7  Page 394  June 24, 1984  Canada

It is our place now to clean up our minds and get the Spirit of God and keep it, because the Spirit of God is the only protection that we will have. The scriptures tell us that there will be two working at the mill; one will be taken and the other left. Two will be working in the field; one will be taken and the other left, and so forth. This is true. We will have to have the Spirit of God upon us enough to be caught up when the judgments of God go over the earth, then we will be let down again. That is the only way the Lord can protect His people. He says He will protect His saints if He has to send fire from heaven to do so; and this, He will do.

LSJ Vol.4  Page 1597  July 16, 1978  SLC

Now, may God bless us to hasten to prepare ourselves against the day of visitation when He is visiting the earth with great destruction, that we might be worthy to be caught up while destruction goes on, that we might be let down again, as the people were in the days of the Savior when He visited the Nephite nation upon this continent. While great destruction went on, certain people were caught up and preserved from the great destruction that took place. And the record tells us that only the more righteous were left.

So, let us be among the "more righteous" in this day and hour when the Lord is working so hard to preserve a few of the souls of men in this generation in which we live.

[President Jeffs then said:] I want to describe just what it is that will lift us up. He says: "I will send fire from heaven to protect My saints." That fire from heaven is the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost and fire are talked about together in places in the Doctrine and Covenants. Abraham in the fiery furnace was saved from being burned up by carnal fire. He was surrounded by the Holy Ghost and fire -- eternal fire. The Three Hebrews were the same way. In the case of Abraham, his brother Haran was also cast in and was killed.
So, we must have enough of the Holy Spirit of God in our beings, full of it, in order for the Holy Ghost to come down in fire to lift us up. "Like" cleaves to "like." That is what is understood by fire from heaven to protect His saints, for that is going to be the final sifting of this people. Those who remain, those who are caught up and set down again, will be the remnant spoken of in Section 45. After describing the judgments in Section 45, the Prophet Joseph Smith said that in a sentence, which I will relate again.

D.& C. 45

41. And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.
42. And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.

43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place; Zion. Twenty-five hundred were saved in the days of the meridian of time when Christ visited the Nephites -- twenty-five hundred men, women, and children. The rest were destroyed. They were set down again, according to that statement of the Prophet Leroy Johnson. They were returned to their homes. So there is how it is.

If there remains anyone in a man's family who does not have the Holy Spirit of God, that one will be left to be destroyed. And coming out of this "lifting up," and being set down again, a man's family will be united -- only they who have the Holy Spirit of God enough to have been lifted up. So one not united in a family cannot hold up the whole family. Section 101 tells us how it shall be.

D.& C. 101

22. Behold, it is my will, that all they who call on my name, and worship me according to mine everlasting gospel, should gather together, and stand in holy places;
23. And prepare for the revelation which is to come, when the veil of the covering of my temple, in my tabernacle, which hideth the earth, shall be taken off, and all flesh shall see me together.
24. And every corruptible thing, both of man, or of the beasts of the field, or of the fowls of the heavens, or of the fish of the sea, that dwells upon all the face of the earth, shall be consumed;
25. And also that of element shall melt with fervent heat;

That fervent heat is the partial burning of the whole earth. It will
And terrestrialize the globe. Now we read what is left:

25. And also that of element shall melt with fervent heat; and all things shall become new, that my knowledge and glory may dwell upon all the earth.

26. And in that day the enmity of man, and the enmity of beasts, yea, the enmity of all flesh, shall cease from before my face.

27. And in that day, whatsoever any man shall ask, it shall be given unto him.

28. And in that day Satan shall not have power to tempt any man.

29. And there shall be no sorrow because there is no death.

30. In that day an infant shall not die until he is old; and his life shall be as the age of a tree;

31. And when he dies he shall not sleep, that is to say in the earth, but shall be changed in the twinkling of an eye, and shall be caught up, and his rest shall be glorious.

32. Yea, verily I say unto you, in that day when the Lord shall come, he shall reveal all things --

33. Things which have passed, and hidden things which no man knew, things of the earth, by which it was made, and the purpose and the end thereof --

34. Things most precious, things that are above, and things that are beneath, things that are in the earth, and upon the earth, and in heaven.

RTJ 7:437  September 18, 1994  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
September 18, 1994
Continually Have the Spirit of God

We have had a wonderful feast, brothers and sisters. Let us partake. Let us go on now to perfection, that we may have continually the Holy Spirit of God for all that we now face. I love you with all my heart, and I want to see you saved and exalted and not go by the way. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:438  September 30, 1994  Sandy
Sandy, Utah
September 30, 1994
Letter from President Jeffs to All Elders and Their Sons in the Salt Lake Area

To All Elders and Their Sons:
I have called on Brother Ron Rohbock to continue the training of your sons in our school construction program. He was called by President Johnson to this work, and has faithfully fulfilled his calling. I recommend him to you, and call on the fathers to support me in an expanded program of fathers working with their sons with other brethren.

I desire these work projects to extend into Saturdays, fathers with their sons of all ages who can be monitored and guided, to volunteer your time and labors. I will be personally involved in approving the projects this work effort will accomplish.

These quotes of President Johnson were brought to my attention, which I fully support, as I am only trying to continue the program established by Uncle Roy. He said:

\[\text{LSJ Vol.7 Page 359 March 4, 1984 CCA}\]

\textit{The reason I speak this way is because I know our time is short. There are many happenings to take place between now and when the call comes for us to go back and build the city. We haven't time for foolishness any longer.}

\[\text{RTJ 7:439 - 439 September 30, 1994 Sandy}\]

\textit{You young men, boys, and girls that think you are smart -- doing smart things to cause disharmony among our people -- I want you to stop long enough to listen to what the Lord tells you over the pulpit, to straighten up your lives so that you can be counted in the great army that has got to go back to the land where the Lord has designated that Zion will be built up.}

\[\text{RTJ 7:438 - 439 September 30, 1994 Sandy}\]

\textit{I am grateful for the great preparation that is being made among our young boys in crafts -- in building houses -- in building cabinets and all other kinds of crafts that can be used in the building of a city. We want our boys to be among those who are most efficient in these things. If you have an opportunity to learn a trade, learn it and learn it good. If you have an opportunity to excel in woodwork, excel in it, and give the Lord the credit for it, for He is the one that guides our hands when we are working. It is by His power that we walk from one place to another. It is} by His power that we are able to saw a straight line or use a plane in a straight and pleasing way.

This is a little different time than that. This is preparing a people now for the great Millennial Reign which the Lord has promised to all the generations of time that would be for a thousand years, and this is what He expects us to do. He expects us to clean up all unrighteousness and to get a people together that can be tutored and trained in all the arts of living, all the arts of building, all the arts of mechanics. These are the ones that are going to have to be prepared when this great work-call comes for us to go and to perform the work that is ahead of us. We haven't got very many years left to accomplish this work.

Through these work projects, I hope to see a spirit of cooperation and love increase among the brethren, while building up the Kingdom of God and one another. This will also give sons the opportunity to more wisely use their time and energies on Saturdays.

Please contact Brother Ron each week to inform him who can assist in our work projects. I have also asked him to call on the fathers and others to assist in presenting training classes on Fridays. We will give more details during our opening session of school next Monday.

Thank-you. Your humble servant,
(Signed) Rulon Jeffs

---

We Are the True Church of Christ

It is well for us to remember that we are all members of the true Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the continuation of the Church established by the Prophet Joseph Smith. The nominal church, the Mormon church, the great and abominable church now, is apostate from the holy Priesthood. We should always remember this. The true Church has never ceased. But when Wilford Woodruff signed the Manifesto, he signed away the rights of the Celestial Law -- the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage -- and the rights to the Priesthood. That is set out in two items on the back of "The Coming Crisis" pamphlet.

In order to establish us legally, we are having to add "Fundamentalist" Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. But when we baptize, we baptize them into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and of the Kingdom of God. To make it legal we have filed Articles of Incorporation, what is called "Corporation Sole", corporation of the President of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. That establishes us legally as a church. That apostate church has designated anyone, or any group of men, of people, who teach the practice of plural marriage as a cult. Legally they can't call us a cult. But that is what the great Mormon church has called us and was stated in the Salt Lake Tribune a year ago.

RTJ 7:440  October 9, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 9, 1994
When Our Meetings Are Stopped, the Judgments of God Will Be Poured Out

I have carefully obtained the sermons of the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, references made to the time when we would be unable to hold meetings. There is one that I have memorized, that, "One of the latter-day Prophets -- I take that to mean John or Lorin Woolley -- told us (speaking of Uncle Roy and John), the time would come when we would be unable to hold and attend meetings. And when that time comes, the judgments of God will go forth among the people of the earth." We have ominous indications of the beginnings of that coming to pass. Let us be prepared, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Come Out of the World; Must Be Like God; Must Be Full of the Holy Ghost to Be Lifted Up; Dissolution

I ask Brother Warren to speak and give general instructions for the school year. I want everyone here to know that those letters that were sent out to parents and students will be carried out and implemented. Dear people, the great struggle now before this people is to come out of the world, shun gentilisms. Dress and act as saints of God, and stop imitating the immoral ways and the dress ways of the world. We are sent here to come out of the world and become like God. That is the only way we are going to see the Celestial Kingdom. You must be like God. And the grand principle of becoming like Him is couched in the words we are now being instructed to live by: "Keep Sweet. Get and keep the Holy Spirit of God. It is indeed a matter of life or death."

The instructions that we have printed on the back of "The Coming Crisis" by the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, I want you to read and reread that last item. Therein is couched what is before us. We must have sufficient of the Holy Spirit of God in our beings in order to be caught up while the judgments of God go forth in all the world, for the wicked of this generation will be swept off from the face of this land, as the Prophet Joseph Smith states. He goes on to say:

...pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

So that means they will come after the wicked have been swept off. The remnant will be this people, those who can be caught up while the judgments go forth, and are set down again. The Holy Spirit of God is accompanied by fire. The Lord said He would send fire from heaven to protect His saints.
That fire and the Holy Ghost is what will take hold of us if we have enough of that Spirit in us to be caught up. Then we will be set down again. The remnant will be gathered to Zion. This people will be that remnant, those who are caught up and set down again. Do you see now why it is a matter of life eternal, or death and finally dissolution?

The Prophet Leroy Johnson said, "Those who do not attain to the highest degree of the Celestial glory will, if it takes millions of years, ultimately be dissolved and go back to native element." The second death is the death of the spirit, and thus dissolution. That is the general picture here, brothers and sisters. We are here to obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the fullness of it. The Holy Celestial Law of Marriage and the Holy United Order constitute a fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us. Perfect obedience produces perfect faith. Perfect faith will make us like God through the gift and power of the Holy Spirit of God. When we have that in fullness we are like God. God help us to be able to attain unto that great glorious day, and that we may go into the Millennium a pure and perfect people, where there will be no sin because there will be no death.

Section 101 printed in the pamphlet "The Coming Crisis" describes how it will be during the Millennium. The earth is to be baptized by fire, by a fervent heat, a partial burning of the earth. In Noah's day the earth was baptized with water. The earth will be quickened and baptized with fire at the beginning of the Millennium, when all things are pure and there is no sin. Satan cannot tempt us because of our righteousness. He will be bound. God help us to that end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:443  October 16, 1994  Sandy  Sunday School

Sunday School
Sandy, Utah
October 16, 1994
Jehovah Was Chosen to Be the Savior;
Lucifer Is a Fallen God; Lesson on Overcoming; Repentance

The spirit children of Father Michael were gathered together, and the earth, this earth was created and made by Michael, directed and assisted by Jehovah. The Godhead there were Elohim, Jehovah, and Michael, representing Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
In presenting the program to be followed upon this earth for His children, the question was given, "Who shall I send?" -- that is, Elohim, one in the Councils of the Gods -- "Who shall I send to redeem the children of men after the fall of Adam?", or man. Lucifer stepped forward and said, "Send me. I will save all of the souls of men. Give me the glory." Jehovah stepped forth and said, "Send me; I will go and redeem the sons and daughters of man, and the glory be to the Father." Father, Son, and Holy Ghost were those three.
Jehovah Christ was chosen.

We are sent, then, to be subject to the temptation and the wiles and efforts of Lucifer, a fallen God. He was a son of the morning, a fallen God. He was to tempt the children of men, and he became the author of death, hell, and the devil. We are sent into this earth to overcome death, hell, and the devil, or probably in reverse order -- the devil, hell, and finally death. We are sent into a telestial world, which is hell where the devil does his work to tempt the children of men. We are here to overcome those conditions. We will now have a lesson on "overcoming".

[After the lesson, President Jeffs said:] Beautiful statement by Joseph F.
Smith:

JD 19:189  Joseph F. Smith  September 30, 1877  SLC Having this faith, it becomes necessary to repent. Repent of what? Of every sin of which we may have been guilty. How shall we repent of these sins? Does repentance consist of sorrow for wrong doing? Yes; but is this all? By no means. True repentance only is acceptable to God, nothing short of it will answer the purpose. Then what is true repentance? True repentance is not only sorrow for sins, and humble penitence and contrition before God, but it involves the necessity of turning away from them, a discontinuance of all evil practices and deeds, a thorough reformation of life, a vital change from evil to good, from vice to virtue, from darkness to light. Not only so, but to make restitution, so far as it possible, for all the wrongs we have done, to pay our debts, and restore to God and man their rights -- that which is due to them from us.
This is true repentance, and the exercise of the will and all the powers of body and mind is demanded, to complete this glorious work of repentance;
then God will accept it.

D.& C. 58
43. By this ye may know if a man repenteth of his sins -- behold, he will confess them and forsake them.

RTJ 7:444 October 23, 1994 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 23, 1994
There Is Little Time Left

These beloved brethren have all spoken for me. We have had a most quiet and attentive audience, exceptionally so this day, and I bless you for your attention and call upon you to speedily get and keep the Holy Spirit of God. There is little time left.

RTJ 7:445 November 5, 1994 Sandy Saturday Work Project

Saturday Work Project Meeting 7:00 A.M.
Sandy, Utah
November 5, 1994
Calls for the Support of the Saturday Work Project

I want you all to understand that this program has been entirely outlined under my direction, and Brother Ron is proceeding to carry it out. I just want you to know that I am behind this one hundred percent, and I want you to be behind me one hundred percent in carrying this program out. I just want to add my blessings. Keep sweet in all you do. Do nothing to cause you to lose the Holy Spirit of God. Then you will be one. God bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:445 November 27, 1994 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
November 27, 1994
Strength from the Former Prophets; Prepare to Be the Remnant

And I would like to add, to close -- the Prophets John Y. Barlow and Leroy S. Johnson have been helping me carry out the work that they began. I am grateful to the Lord for it, and desire to carry it out according to the mind and will of God, as they direct it. God bless us all that we may labor together, go down the road and be prepared to be lifted up and become the remnant that will go to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:445  December 11, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 11, 1994
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"

I feel impressed to repeat the words of the Lord Jesus Christ, whose servant I am. "He who is not with Me, is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me, scattereth abroad." God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:446  December 25, 1994  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
December 25, 1994
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"; Keep Sweet

The Lord Jesus Christ, whose servant I am, said, "He who is not with Me, is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad." There is our direction dear brothers and sisters. Keep sweet, no matter what! God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:446  January 8, 1995  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
January 8, 1995
Rebellious Child Usually Has a Rebellious Mother

I deeply appreciate this summation by Brother Truman, and the remarks of Brother Warren and all the rest. They have indeed spoken for me. I would just like to make one observation, things that have been spoken of here by Brother Warren and Brother Truman. I have to deal with all these delinquent young people. The basic ingredient is in these words: You show me a rebellious child, I will show you a rebellious mother to a good man. Think about it. Of course, the man can be rebellious, and then they have got hell. God bless you, amen.
Sandy, Utah
January 22, 1995
Keep Sweet

All of these brethren have spoken for me, and they certainly have spoken a lot about me, which I pray the Lord will bless them for. So again, keep sweet no matter what. That covers the whole ground to get where you want to go. God bless you, amen.

Colorado City, Arizona
January 29, 1995
Perfect Obedience Produces Perfect Faith

Brothers and sisters, let us as a community pour out our hearts in gratitude to the Lord for the glorious rain and moisture that has come upon our land, and never let us be found guilty of the sin of ingratitude before our Lord. Let us join our faith, calling upon the Lord to pour out His Spirit upon us as we meet today in His name.

Perfect obedience produces perfect faith. "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with Me, scattereth abroad." God bless you, amen.

Sunday School
Sandy, Utah
February 26, 1995
The Lord Healed President Jeffs of a Blood Clot

I am very glad to be able to be with you today and thought we ought to at least have a family Sunday School. Friday morning I got up to get ready; my hands went numb. I could hardly hold a knife or fork in my fingers at breakfast. It had to be a blood clot similar to what I had eight years ago. I had asked the Lord to destroy it on the way down in the plane, and He did.
They couldn't find any sign of a blood clot at the hospital. They did two ultrasounds on me, one on the torso and one on my legs, and I went through a four million dollar installation they have there -- MRI. It takes pictures while you hold still in a long tube. Some people get claustrophobia in there. They couldn't find anything there. They did find a little hole in the top of one ventricle of the heart. I have had it since birth, they had to say, a little hole that lets blood go from side to the other. One side would go to the brain.

Doctor Smith came and visited me yesterday morning in the hospital room, shook hands. He said, "Well, you have done it again," baffled the doctors, thanks be to God.

RTJ 7:448  April 16, 1995  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
April 16, 1995
The Remnant, After the "Lifting Up", Will Be United as One;
Do Not Procrastinate

Well, we have had a wonderful time here today. And I am grateful beyond expression for the support and love that is given, and I desire to save and exalt the people. We are approaching a judgment. If we do not have sufficient of the Holy Spirit of God in us, we will not be lifted up, but left to be destroyed. The Prophet Leroy Johnson says in that last item on the back of "The Coming Crisis", which I want you to read and reread, tells us how it is going to be. This judgment we bring upon ourselves. He said the Lord would send fire from heaven to protect His saints if need be. That fire from heaven is the Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters. If we do not have it, we cannot be lifted up, and be left.

Uncle Roy quotes, "Two will be at the mill; one will be taken," taken up, "the other left. Two will be in the field; one taken, the other left." That is how it will be among the members of our families who will not be united and full of the Spirit of God. And I dare say, coming out as the remnant, those who are lifted up and set down again, will have perfectly united families to commence into the holy day of God, the Millennium. And we will be able to live the Holy United Order in the holy bonds of matrimony, the fullness of the Gospel. And around them will the holy Millennium be.

The Prophet Joseph Smith, as I repeat again, page 17 of the Teachings, the scenario of what is before us. He said,

TPJS Page 17
...pestilence,
That is the overflowing scourge, the desolating sickness, and other desolations.
...hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

So they will come and help that remnant build the city and the temples in Zion. After the destructions and the judgments, there will be a remnant left, same as the one in the time when the Lord visited the Nephites. There were only twenty-five hundred men, and women, and children that the Savior came to. And they were such, after being taught the Gospel of Jesus Christ, having been living under the law of Moses, He brought a people together to live the Holy United Order and the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage, the fullness of the Gospel. It is here and now, brothers and sisters. Do not procrastinate, as Brother Truman said. The day of judgment is not very far yet before us. God bless you all. I love you and want you to be with me, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:449 April 23, 1995 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
April 23, 1995
Beware of Pride, Which Is Selfishness

Dear brothers and sisters, my heart is full to overflowing for the grand blessing that we have had from our Father in the way of moisture and the needs and necessities of life. We have a beautiful Sabbath Day today. Let us pray with all the energy of heart that we may have a rich outpouring of the Holy Spirit of God as we meet in His name.

I am deeply grateful for these brethren, for the remarks they have made in response to what has been presented here. These beautiful remarks of Uncle Fred -- take heed, dear brothers and sisters. Beware of pride. It is the foundation of all sin. Another word is "selfishness". And keep sweet no matter what, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Dear brothers and sisters, Brother LaMar and some of his family visited me just the other day, and it was a remarkable thing how LaMar looked at this as being the will of God, the way it happened and all about it, and how he comforted the heart of Brother Jacob, a brother. He was being an instrument in the hands of the Lord to accomplish what the Lord had willed be done. As an "amen" to this occasion to what we have heard, I ask Brother Truman to read two extracts of the Prophet Joseph Smith, regarding our children.

TPJS  Page 197

The doctrine of baptizing children, or sprinkling them, or they must welter in hell, is a doctrine not true, not supported in Holy Writ, and is not consistent with the character of God. All children are redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, and the moment that children leave this world, they are taken to the bosom of Abraham. The only difference between the old and young dying is, one lives longer in heaven and eternal light and glory than the other, and is freed a little sooner from this miserable wicked world. Notwithstanding all this glory, we for a moment lose sight of it, and mourn the loss, but we do not mourn as those without hope.

TPJS  Page 368

In order for you to receive your children to yourselves you must have a promise -- some ordinance; some blessing, in order to ascend above principalities, or else it may be an angel. They must rise just as they died; we can there hail our lovely infants with the same glory -- the same loveliness in the celestial glory, where they all enjoy alike. They differ in stature, in size, the same glorious spirit gives them the likeness of glory and bloom; the old man with his silvery hairs will glory in bloom and beauty. No man can describe it to you -- no man can write it.
Let Us Go Down the Road Together With the Prophets

These have all spoken for me. Praise God for the messages that have been given for us to follow in the immediate future -- I mean immediate, lest we fail. God bless you. I bless you with all my heart and pray that we can go down the road together with Uncle Roy, Uncle John, and the others, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:451  May 21, 1995  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
May 21, 1995
The Wicked Will Be Swept Off

I can't tell you how much I appreciate what has been said here today, and these brethren who sustain me so beautifully and fully. And I pray God will be merciful to all of us, carry on the work that has been vouchsafed to us as a people, that people which will redeem Zion. That people will be the remnant that will be lifted up, set down, and prepared to go and redeem Zion with the angels and the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ going before.

Section 45, after describing the judgments and the signs of the coming of the Son of Man, then stated:

D.& C. 45
43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;

That is the place designated by the Lord in what is now Missouri, and it won't be known as Missouri then. I want to repeat again the statement that was made from page 17 of the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith. After describing what was the Civil War, he said:

TPJS  Page 17
...pestilence,
That is the overflowing scourge, the desolating sickness.
...hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

That sets the stage. That is the overall picture that we are entering into. And when the Prophet said, "swept off," he meant it. The time would come when everyone, except the saints, would be swept off the face of this land.
tribes of Israel will help Ephraim build the temple and the city, to go on into the Millennium. That is a brief picture I paint of what is before us.

God be with and bless every one of you, my dear friends, my dear brothers and sisters. May we be one and go before the Lord, forward to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:452  May 31, 1995  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises

Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
Sandy, Utah
May 31, 1995
Graduation Exercises

[President Jeffs had his sermon read, dated May 17, 1985, found in volume 6, page 46. He then continued:]

Dear graduates, I want you all to understand, President Johnson is directly responsible for creating this Alta Academy. We called it after his name at times. So let us keep in remembrance this great Prophet of God, who set us on our course as he presided over the Priesthood for thirty-seven years. I am trying to build on his foundation, and look forward to the day when he and I may strike hands, in the day of judgment; and pray that we all may work with our might to become like God, through the examples you see. God bless you, amen.

[President Jeffs then presented the diplomas.]

RTJ 7:453  June 4, 1995  Sandy

Keeping the Spirit of God Will Solve Every Problem

My word: Get and keep the Holy Spirit of God no matter what. That will cover every problem you have. Brigham Young had this dream connected with the Prophet Joseph. We have heard it many times, but I think it bears repeating here.

Truth 10:221

Dream of Brigham Young at Winter Quarters
While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:

"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:

"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the Priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

RTJ 7:455  June 11, 1995  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 11, 1995
Gratitude; Oneness

And may God bless dear Uncle Fred, who does so much for this people, and continually abides in the Holy Spirit of God in his administrations. I am grateful that he is recovering now from the ordeal he has been in. The Lord has brought about a miracle in his behalf, as He has several times in recent years in my behalf. May we all be one, dear people. Let us join together in this last great effort to get and keep the Holy Spirit of God, and all will be well. Keep sweet no matter what, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:455  June 18, 1995  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
June 18, 1995
Keep Sweet
These have all spoken for me. I add no more, except, "Keep sweet no matter what; it is a matter of life or death." God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:455  June 25, 1995  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
June 25, 1995
Keep Sweet

And I add, "Amen and Amen," to these glorious truths that have been brought to our attention here today, for all have spoken for me. Keep sweet, dear brothers and sisters.

RTJ 7:456  July 23, 1995  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
July 23, 1995
Give Heed to the Warnings

Well, brothers and sisters, the Lord has given one of the final messages to this people. These have all spoken for me. I am often asked, "What do I do to prepare for the day of visitation, the judgments of God upon the earth?" They have been described in "The Coming Crisis" pamphlet. I have now had prepared another message called "Prepare for the Day of Visitation", about which the Prophet Leroy Johnson spoke so many times, and will be quoted in this message. That will be handed out at our next Priesthood Meeting. I call upon you to give heed to what has been said this day, and I do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:456  August 3, 1995  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 3, 1995
Funeral of Leroy Steed Allred
Son of Elder James Allred

I feel deeply impressed towards the words of my son Warren, as applicable to all of us, and as to this sweet young man, this fine young man, this obedient young man. Using the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith, in the temples of Zion and the work of the great Millennium, this man will receive all those things that he would have received had he been permitted to remain. That is the great work of the Millennium, the work for the dead; and they will receive blessings that they have earned while here in mortality.

God bless the memory of this sweet, sweet young man. It was a delight to me to talk with him. God bless his memory to the end that we may likewise keep sweet no matter what. That is the only way we will be protected when the great judgments come upon the earth. That is for those who have sufficient of the Holy Spirit of God in them to be caught up. And those that remain, that remnant, will have perfectly united families. And we will have to have, in the great journey to Zion, we must be like Christ to stand in His presence, as He leads that great concourse with the Prophets, with the Prophet Joseph Smith at the head, present and going before. May we be that people, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:457 August 27, 1995 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 27, 1995
Be Ye Clean

We have had a wonderful time here this afternoon. I would like to add the words of the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 38. I ask Brother Truman to read the last verse, along the lines we have been hearing today.

D.& C. 38

42. And go ye out from among the wicked. Save yourselves. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord.

RTJ 7:457 October 22, 1995 Sandy

Sandy, Utah
October 22, 1995
The Way to Perfection Is Getting and Keeping the Holy Spirit of God

And I would like to preach a very short sermon, which is the center of our great program to keep sweet. The way to perfection is getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God. The degree we have it, we are more like God, because that is the character and attributes of the Godhead. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:458 October 29, 1995 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
October 29, 1995
Keep Sweet for Heaven's Sake

Thank-you, dear Brother Fred. I love this man, and I love all of the brethren who are standing for God and the redemption of Zion. Keep sweet, for heaven's sake, no matter what. That will solve all of our problems. That will bring us close to God. It will make us like Him. If we have enough of the Holy Spirit of God, we will be like God, because the Holy Spirit is the attributes and the character of God. I have continually in mind a sermon of the Prophet Leroy Johnson printed on the back of "The Coming Crisis". I want you to read it over and over again. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:458 November 12, 1995 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
November 12, 1995
We Must Be Lifted Up to Be Protected;
Reread the Lectures on Faith

Praise be to God for the beautiful messages that have been given through His Spirit this day. Brother Warren and I are preparing to produce my sermons. There are enough for seven volumes. More are being brought out from shorthand notes of Sister Marjorie. That will make an eighth volume which will include sermons unpublished of Uncle Roy's and Uncle John's. Volume 1 is now in the hands of the printer. The Student Star, the one now prepared which features the One Man Rule, will be delivered to this congregation today, instead of through the usual channels. You will pick one up as you go by here. We printed two thousand of them.

So God bless you, dear people. I love you. I want you all to go if you will do so. Get and keep the Holy Spirit of God. It is a matter of life or death. I again ask you to read "The Coming Crisis" items on the back, the "Now Crisis", including the scriptures describing the judgments and the beginning of the Millennium, Section 101. The last item on the back page, of President Johnson's, is the one I want you to digest completely. That puts us where we are going to be our own judges.

The Spirit of God is a Spirit of fire. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Gods. It is the attributes of the Gods, and makes them Gods. "We must have enough of the Holy Spirit of God," says Uncle Roy, "so that we can be caught up as the judgments go forth to wipe out the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land." As Joseph Smith describes it, page 17 of the Teachings:

TPJS  Page 17

...pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country.

That he delivered in the name of Jesus Christ, the Prophet Joseph Smith. The wicked are they who come not unto Christ. We do not come unto Christ unless we have His Spirit. Then we will become like Him -- Lecture Five of the Lectures on Faith. Read it and reread it. It tells us who God is and how to become like Him. The attributes of God are the attributes of the Holy Spirit. Those attributes make God what He is. Lecture Four speaks of the attributes of God; Lecture Three, the character of God. They both work together, and they are summed up in Lecture Five. And the "hows" and the "wherefores" are discussed in Lectures Six and Seven -- how we work by faith, so forth. Read it and reread it, dear brothers and sisters, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Regarding the events tomorrow, brothers and sisters, I announced it in Priesthood Meeting this morning, calling for a fast and prayer, being conscious, calling upon the Lord to overrule in this court case as He wills. Fasting for a day, your meal this evening is your last, and you lay off of breakfast and lunch tomorrow, and take up your evening meal after that. Let us speak as one man to the Lord tomorrow, in our prayers, in our faith, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:460  November 19, 1995  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
November 19, 1995
Must Be Caught Up to Be Protected

I am grateful for the messages that have been given here today, and I pray God that we will be that people who can go to redeem Zion. This "being caught up" is the dividing. That last message of the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson on the back of "The Coming Crisis" you should digest. There is the key. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:460  December 6, 1995  Sandy  Alta Academy Devotional

Alta Academy Devotional
Sandy, Utah
December 6, 1995
"Keep Sweet" -- It Is a Matter of Life or Death;
How the "Lifting Up" Will Take Place

I borrowed the words of the Prophet John Y. Barlow to emphasize the course that we are now in, preparing to redeem Zion: "Keep sweet no matter what." We all know what that means: "Be full of the Holy Ghost, that we may be lifted up and become that remnant that will go back to redeem Zion after the judgments. The scenario is pretty well laid out by the Prophet Joseph Smith. He said, "Pestilence" -- that's the overflowing scourge, the desolating sickness -- "hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land." North and South America are Zion. All will be swept off. And then he added, "That, in preparation for the coming of the lost Tribes of Israel from the north country," which is described in Section 133.

God bless you all, that you may be lifted up. But we will be our own judges, the measurement of which will be the degree or the amount of the Holy Spirit of God that you have in you, which will do through fire and the Holy Ghost, the work of lifting us up and setting us down again. I again call your attention to the last item on the back of "The Coming Crisis", beautiful statement of the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, that I have just described to you. God bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:461  December 24, 1995  CCA
Colorado City, Arizona
December 24, 1995
We Are Like God to the Degree We Love

I wish to enjoin upon all of you, my dear brothers and sisters, that you carefully study the Lectures on Faith, particularly Lecture Five, which shows us we are like God to the degree that we have and act upon, and love our neighbor as ourselves, and our God above all; by becoming like God through having a fullness of the Holy Spirit of God. We will then have all of the attributes and the character of God, and be like Him, and be able to stand in His presence as we go on to redeem Zion; for He and His angels will go before, and only those who can stand in His presence will be in that entourage. God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:461 January 28, 1996 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 28, 1996
Become Like God Through the Spirit of God

Dear brothers and sisters, in bringing forth this statement which I borrowed from the Prophet John Y. Barlow: "Keep sweet no matter what," we are here to become like God so that we can stand in His presence. We must be full of the same Spirit that our Father in heaven has, and that governs and directs all of the Gods. The Holy Spirit of God has all of the attributes of God. If we have it sufficiently, we are like God, and we will love Him with all of our heart, might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. I pray that we may all have sufficient of that Holy Spirit of God that we may be caught up when the judgments go forth upon the land and the whole earth. Keep sweet! That is the bottom line. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:462 February 10, 1996 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 10, 1996
(Family Gathering of Elder Louis Barlow and Sons)
Personal and Priesthood History

I don't mind giving an account of what happened in those days after the passing of the Prophet John Y. Barlow. Another general observation and the final result, John Y. Barlow told the Prophet Leroy Johnson -- I don't know at what point -- but he was told, "This work is going to fall on your shoulders, Roy." And as I understand it, he said, "How can that be? There are four senior to me in the Council." Uncle John said, "Nevertheless, that will be." Joseph Musser was the center of all of the apostasies that have taken place. He is the one that fulfilled Section 85:

D. & C. 85

8. While that man, who was called of God and appointed, that putteth forth his hand to steady the ark of God, shall fall by the shaft of death, like as a tree that is smitten by the vivid shaft of lightning.

As a tree is stricken. Joseph White Musser fulfilled that statement in Section 85. He had Leslie Broadbent on his side on that issue. Leslie Broadbent's first small book published was "Celestial Marriage?", in the issue of 1929. It carried the recitation of the 1880 Revelation to Wilford Woodruff. That is why Leslie Broadbent was taken six months after the passing of the Prophet Lorin Woolley. Leslie Broadbent passed away at age forty-six, a man in his prime. He was taken. And it came down through members of the Zitting family that on his deathbed, Leslie Broadbent said, "I just don't have it." He was ordained first by Lorin Woolley, when the Prophet John Y. Barlow was ordained -- the same day, just hours before. Leslie Broadbent was a very close friend to Lorin Woolley, and that ordination didn't come by revelation. It came by friendship.

The 1880 Revelation was the center of the business that was taken care of by Uncle Roy, March 18, 1978, when the apostasy of Marion Hammon, Guy Musser, and Alma Timpson began. During those days, after the passing of Uncle John, there were all kinds of doubts flying around, who was the head. Alma Timpson made the statement that Guy Musser held the keys for his father after the passing of John. He said it publicly, of course. And he claimed he was ordained by Joseph Musser. Marion and Guy were ordained by Joseph Musser. They were two that left.

Joseph tried to get me to come to see him when I was in Idaho. Through my father, on my way back to stay, I was asked by Joseph to see him first when I came to town. Said I to myself, "Why not the head?" I knew what it was all about. So I showed up in the residence office of John Y. Barlow the following morning at 8:30. That was April 20th of 1945. He wasn't available when I arrived, and I sat there in the room praying. I looked up and Uncle John stood in the archway between the dining room and the living room where we met. I looked up and I saw him standing there covered with light. He said, "Brother Jeffs, step into my office." He took me in there alone, and then and there ordained me. After noon of that day, I went up to see Joseph Musser. He was cordial and congratulated me, but it was cold. So that was that.

The day was on December 27, 1949. President Barlow called Guy and myself up to his bedside. This was at the Lincoln Street residence. Standing by his bedside, Uncle John said to us, "I have in mind two men for ordination -- Rulon Allred and Alma Timpson." And he said, "Which?" I said, "Alma Timpson." He said, "That is right." We were instructed to see that he was ordained immediately. Guy sent for his father, who had had a massive stroke in June of 1949, six months before the death of John Y. Barlow. Joseph "died" then.

Joseph, Guy, and myself had our hands on Alma's head. Joseph couldn't do it; opened his mouth and couldn't say a word. So he was dismissed and Guy got Charles Zitting; and that same time, that same day, Charles Zitting, Guy, and I had our hands on Alma's head, and he ordained him. Alma Timpson said down the line that Joseph Musser had ordained him. No such thing.

Rulon Allred, in September of 1950, went up to see Joseph Musser, who was very ill in bed. That was nine months after the passing of John Y. Barlow. He went up to the bedside of Joseph. Lucy Musser was standing by. Rulon got Joseph to put his hands on his head for an ordination. Leona, Rulon Allred's wife, told me about what had happened. Rulon claimed he was ordained on that occasion.

Going down to December of 1950, in a Priesthood Council meeting. By the way, Joseph Musser appointed that special "Priesthood Circle" group as his prayer circle. Along the line there, in 1948, when that was done, he made Olschewskis and Mussers members of that circle. One meeting, very soon after it was started, I was in it, Alma was in it, Guy; then a bunch of Olschewskis and Allreds. I asked Joseph, "What about John Y. Barlow in this thing?" He said, "Oh, he is welcome whenever he is here." Quite significant. And that just made me sick.

Anyway, in that December Council Meeting, Joseph brought Rulon Allred along with him. Guy, looking at them said, "What is he doing here?" Joseph says, "I want you to listen." As he spoke, Rulon Allred spoke about how he was ordained, which wasn't true. After he got through presenting his case, they dismissed Rulon Allred from the meeting. Guy asked Joseph, his father, "Did you ordain him an Apostle?" He said, "No." Guy said, "Well, what did you give him?" Joseph said, "Well, I don't remember." And Guy suggested, "Did you give him a delegated authority?" "Well, yes."

Two months later, February of 1951, we held a circle meeting. Joseph took charge of it. Understand, he didn't have a mind. But he had a chair set out in the middle. Then he turned to my father and said, "David, come up here and sit down. I want to ordain you." Father said, "I am sorry, this isn't the right way." Then Joseph invited Guy to come up with him. Guy said the same thing. Then he asked me to come and join him. I said the same thing. With that, Rulon Allred jumped up, took the arm of Joseph, and they walked out, with Olschewskis and Allreds and others going with him. And Rulon Allred said, "This is the last time you will see us;" and it was. They took Joseph bodily and spiritually captive. And he did some more ordaining for them for their "Council".

Well, that was the end of that. Uncle Roy was coming out of Mexico at the time of the passing of Uncle John. So I had a very clear knowledge that Leroy Johnson was the head to succeed John Y. Barlow.

Warren is preparing seven volumes of my sermons. We have the first and second printed, and the third one on the way. The first volume we have bound and in our possession. I just mention this. There will be an eighth volume, in which, since having preparing the seven, more sermons came to light, principally Marjorie Holm's shorthand reports back in the 1940's and 1950's.

In the fall of 1977, Guy Musser started gathering around himself a following. He first asked me and his son Joseph to lunch there on 13th South Windsor Street. Then he got a whole bunch more, some of those same ones that were in the Circle -- I mean those who were following Uncle John and Uncle Roy - - Uncle Woodruff and several others. On one occasion he invited Uncle Roy to lunch. And on that occasion, they had sat down in the backyard, common to three houses on the corner, a replica of the Salt Lake Temple. They set it up on a pedestal in an archway in the backyard. Uncle Roy saw that (Truman was with him) and as he came out, he said, "That is when I smelled a rat."
They were worshipping the workmanship of their own hands -- idolatry. That is what he called it.

Well, I began to see in those luncheons; once Guy made the remark, "The Barlows boys brainwashed Uncle Roy." That was a lot of their talk. That was the last. I had Guy in the front room of his house after that meeting. I said, "Guy, I am all through with this." Further on I got word from some of the men who were there in later meetings; he made the remark that Rulon Jeffs had apostatized. And then it was Woodruff Steed. Then there was a few others that finally did. After about a year, I was permitted to talk about it. Wow!

On January 8th of 1978, at a General Meeting in the meeting house in Salt Lake, I was assigned, along with Marion and Alma, for that meeting. Before the meeting I just turned sick. I said, "Marion, I can't speak. I am sick." Well, we went on and he put Alma Timpson in charge of the meeting, and Alma Timpson called on Alfred Olschewski first. In that talk, Alfred made the crack that the parenthetical matter of verse 7 of Section 132 was not true, the one man rule. Then he went on to try and explain why, something to the effect that it wasn't in the first draft of the revelation, but later put in. Well, if that did happen, if Joseph did it, what matter? I understood why I was sick. Marion got up later, and Alma got up later, and confirmed Alfred's statement as being true. That was 1978.

Three months later, March 18, 1978, the Council Meeting, the six of us met at the Lincoln Street front room. President Johnson stood up and said, "Brethren, the Lord has sent me here this day to correct some very serious things that have been said over the pulpit." He turned to Marion Hammon. He said, "Marion, you have said that the one man rule, Section 132 verse 7, is not so, is not true. Would you change the scriptures?" Marion answered, "What about the 1880 Revelation to Wilford Woodruff?" Uncle Roy said, "That was a delusion given by satan." Marion in later times said Uncle Roy gave us a delusion then.

Then Uncle Roy asked me to read Section 28, in which the Lord tells Joseph that all revelations concerning the Kingdom of God and the cause of Zion, "must come through My servant Joseph," and other things confirming that position. After that, Uncle Roy called for comments from each of us. Marion said, and Guy said, and Alma said the same thing: "We sustain you as President of Priesthood, President Johnson." That is all. I stood up and said, "President Johnson, I am with you all the way, as the one man, and Prophet, Seer, and Revelator for this people." And so it was. And Uncle Rich stood up and said the same thing as I did.

After that meeting, Marion and Alma and I had left, leaving Guy, and Uncle Roy, and Rich standing in that room. Guy suddenly raised his hand, and pointing at Uncle Roy: "Roy Johnson, you are senile and apostate." Uncle Rich moved over to the side of Uncle Roy, fearing some violence; but it didn't happen and that was the end. I was forbidden to say anything about what happened in the March 18 meeting, until Uncle Roy said, "You may talk." That was for about a year.

On the couch at Lincoln Street, second floor, I visited Uncle Roy in the fall of 1979. We had a wonderful talk, and I started to leave. He called me back. He said, "Brother Rulon, I and you must establish once and for all the one man rule."

In June of 1981, Uncle Roy was ill. But he left those men in their senior positions to take charge of meetings. It started a period, after I made a very strong sermon on the one man rule, for two and a half years, in our own home there, and the meeting house, they wouldn't let me speak. Once, in a Priesthood Meeting, Marion in charge, called on me to speak -- he made a mistake; it was supposed to be Alma -- and I laid it on. [Laughter] Later I learned that he meant to call on Alma.

In that same time frame, I was at Uncle Roy's home, and he then told me about the treachery of Guy Musser. He said, "I had more pain over that treachery than I had ever suffered with the shingles" -- betrayed. And to show you the end of Guy Musser, in June of 1983, Guy, sick in bed, very sick, called for Uncle Roy to come down and see him. They carried Uncle Roy in a wheelchair down the steps and into his room in that round room in the front. He sat there in his chair. Guy was weeping, weeping, weeping. Margaret, standing by, said, "He has been doing that for three days and nights." He couldn't talk, didn't talk; so Uncle Roy turned around and they took him back up.

In about two or three weeks, in July of 1983, Guy died. Marie, his daughter, told me -- she was there -- she said that room was as dark as she was ever in, in daylight when Guy passed. The impression came over me very strongly that satan came and claimed his own. Some time afterwards, Margaret died, and Marie said it was the same thing there. And by the way, when the Lincoln Street property was paid for, Guy took title, joint tenancy with Margaret, not putting it in the United Effort Plan. When Guy died, Margaret made a deed to herself and Clayne Wayman. So Clayne got the whole thing when Margaret died. And he somehow got title to the property on 13th South and Windsor Street. It was all sold and he kept the money.

I have got to write a history. I am taking the luminous notes. Warren told me, in all of my sermons that we have in these books, I stood for Leroy Johnson and John Y. Barlow as the one man, the Prophet, going clear back into the 1940's. Well, here we are. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:468  February 11, 1996  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
February 11, 1996
Covenants Are Made in This Life

I come now to a point where I want to present to this people the truth about whether or not we made covenants of marriage and parenthood on the other side before we came here, as outlined in an article, "The Origin and Destiny of Woman", appearing in "The Mormon" publication by John Taylor, who was in New York at the time, bearing testimony regarding Celestial and Plural Marriage. I ask Brother Warren to now present to us the results of research made on it. I could not understand how John Taylor could have put out that item. So we now have the truth, and I will ask Warren to outline it for us. I might say, on one occasion in Lava Hot Springs, Uncle Roy was asked by one of the brethren if that was true, what appears in that article, as supposedly under the name of John Taylor. He was asked this, and Uncle Roy's simple answer was, "The covenants are made here, not there."

[See Student Star volume 18, page 264, the article titled "Correction on the Article 'Origin and Destiny of Woman'".]

RTJ 7:469  February 18, 1996  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
February 18, 1996
Covenants Are Made in This Life
I call upon Brother Warren to repeat what he gave, what I called upon him to give last Sunday in Short Creek. Ever since I heard President Johnson answer a question; the question was, "Did we covenant with each other in the formation of our families before we came here?" His simple answer was, "The covenants are made here." I have been disturbed by that item called "Origin and Destiny of Woman", attributed to John Taylor. I could not understand how he would have been applied to that. So I asked Warren to make a thorough search, and he has come up with the truth about the matter, something we need to keep in mind.

[See Student Star volume 18, page 264, the article titled "Correction on the Article 'Origin and Destiny of Woman'".]

Conference
Colorado City, Arizona
April 14, 1996
Morning Session
Love; Let Us Be One

Dear brothers and sisters, it is with unbounded love I greet this great and beautiful audience, congregation of Latter-day Saints in the true Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. I call upon you all to love one another; and above all, to love the Lord our God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

We have had a count made, brothers and sisters, of how many we have here - three thousand three hundred and thirty. I think it is almost our full capacity. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Afternoon Session

Dear brothers and sisters, words cannot express the love and appreciation I have for these, my brethren who are working with me in the Presidency. These closing remarks of Uncle Fred, I cannot express how deeply I love and appreciate him and Brother Parley, Brother Truman, who are so close; and the other brethren who work and sustain the work we are engaged in. God bless them, and God bless all of you for your wonderful support, your desires in righteousness, and your love of the truth. Let us be one, as has been explained in these other remarks that were given at the close of the last session. And praise God for His wonderful blessings and Spirit and power that He places in this, His humble servant, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
All these have spoken for me. I cannot tell you how grateful I am to the Lord for the wonderful support of these my brethren and sisters; for all of you. I love you with all of my heart, and I want nothing less than your salvation and exaltation in the Kingdom of God. For my part I have called upon Brother Truman to read from Joseph Smith, something for us to ponder how close things are to the end, the judgments that are coming. Brother Truman will read a few paragraphs.

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.
Colorado City, Arizona
May 24, 1996
Funeral of Lydia Johnson Jessop (Aunt Lydia)
Wife of Elder Fred M. Jessop

I am grateful to the Lord to be able to be here with you on this glorious occasion of the graduation of Sister Lydia to the next sphere of existence, the spirit world, in her preparation and on her journey to become a queen mother in the kingdom of her Lord, Frederick Meade Jessop. God bless her memory, and may it be an inspiration to all of us, how we should live; and especially these mothers and wives of good men. I love this man, Frederick M. Jessop. God bless him in his continued preparation as he advances into the Celestial Kingdom of God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:472  May 31, 1996  Sandy  Alta Academy Graduation Exercises

Alta Academy Graduation Exercises
Sandy, Utah
May 31, 1996
Graduation Exercises

[President Jeffs had the tape of the following played over the speakers:]
Fred M. Jessop  May 25, 1996  Graduation Exercises  CCA

President Jeffs, school superintendent, principals, and staff, and graduating class; I salute you in the bonds of brotherhood, and pray the good Spirit to inspire my words. No doubt the graduating class are anticipating receiving some solemn and wonderful word that will send them on their way without very much effort on their part. This is not the case, dear people!

From King Benjamin:
Mosiah 2

16. Behold, I say unto you that because I said unto you that I had spent my days in your service, I do not desire to boast, for I have only been in the service of God.

17. And behold, I tell you these things that ye may learn wisdom; that ye may learn that when ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God.
18. Behold, ye have called me your king; and if I, whom ye call your king, do labor to serve you, then ought not ye to labor to serve one another?

19. And behold also, if I, whom ye call your king, who has spent his days in your service, and yet has been in the service of God, do merit any thanks from you, O how you ought to thank your heavenly King!
20. I say unto you, my brethren, that if you should render all the thanks and praise which your whole soul has power to possess, to that God who has created you, and has kept and preserved you, and has caused that ye should rejoice, and has granted that ye should live in peace one with another --

21. I say unto you that if ye should serve him who has created you from the beginning, and is preserving you from day to day, by lending you breath, that ye may live and move and do according to your own will, and even supporting you from one moment to another -- I say, if ye should serve him with all your whole souls yet ye would be unprofitable servants.

22. And behold, all that he requires of you is to keep his commandments; and he has promised you that if ye would keep his commandments ye should prosper in the land; and he never doth vary from that which he hath said; therefore, if ye do keep his commandments he doth bless you and prosper you.

23. And now, in the first place, he hath created you, and granted unto you your lives, for which ye are indebted unto him.
24. And secondly, he doth require that ye should do as he hath commanded you; for which if ye do, he doth immediately bless you; and therefore he hath paid you. And ye are still indebted unto him, and are, and will be, forever and ever; therefore, of what have ye to boast?

25. And now I ask, can ye say aught of yourselves? I answer you, Nay. Ye cannot say that ye are even as much as the dust of the earth; yet ye were created of the dust of the earth; but behold, it belongeth to him who created you.
26. And I, even I, whom ye call your king, am no better than ye yourselves are; for I am also of the dust. And ye behold that I am old, and am about to yield up this mortal frame to its mother earth.

27. Therefore, as I said unto you that I had served you, walking with a clear conscience before God, even so I at this time have caused that ye should assemble yourselves together, that I might be found blameless, and that your blood should not come upon me, when I shall stand to be judged of God of the things whereof he hath commanded me concerning you.

Isn't that wonderful? You are to be congratulated, and you are in this service, being congratulated for your labors, your achievements, and the things that you have done for yourselves in the school. You have been trusted to do right, and I suppose in a measure you have satisfied the school authorities -- at least made that appearance. And inasmuch as this is the commencement -- not the culmination of your education, this is the commencement -- and you are now set upon the business of life that you make of yourself what you will. Remember this:

You tell on yourself by the friends you seek,
By the very manner in which you speak,
By the way you employ your leisure time,
By the use you make of your dollar and dime,
You tell what you are by the things you wear,
By the spirit in which you your burdens bear,
By the kind of things at which you laugh,
By the records you play on the phonograph.
This was written before tapes.
You tell what you are by the way you walk,
By the things of which you delight to talk,
By the manner in which you bear defeat,
By so simple a thing as the way you eat,
By the books you choose from the well-filled shelf,
You really truly tell on yourself.
So there is really no particle of sense,
In an effort to keep up false pretense.
Remember that:
All the water in the world, however hard it tried,
Can never sink the smallest ship, unless it gets inside.
And all the evil in the world, the blackest kind of sin,
Can never hurt you the least little bit, unless you let it in.

Now you dear people, you have acted in such a way that you are very much loved by your parents, by the brethren, by the school officials, and all of us who have feelings for your welfare and well-being. But now, as in the commencement of your future life, in a way you are the captain of your soul. And as you have been taught the word of the Lord and the principles of righteousness, you have come to know that you must serve your fellow man. And how will you know what to do to perform that service? The kind and loving Father that caused your being to come to life, has made arrangements for you to be taught what to do to serve your fellow men. You were created, you were sent down here to go through this experience and learn what to do and how to serve God as King Benjamin explained. There is a way to find out: our Father in Heaven has caused Prophets and teachers and parents and associates that you can look to, to see how they do in serving one another.

Now what you will have to do in your life to learn those things -- and that is what you agreed to do when you were granted the privilege to come down here and become who you are. You look good. You are clean. You are well-groomed. You are a joy to behold. And there is lots of love and hope extended in your direction that you will make good. So you have that responsibility upon you. Don't ever think that now you are graduated your work is done. It is just begun! And one of the best ways that I can recommend to you men, dear sisters, is to make yourselves available. You didn't get here all by yourselves; neither are you set free to do as you please without the guidance that is extended to you. So you are indebted. You have got an obligation on you. You are now in the commencement of fulfilling that obligation. That is as fundamental and true as the Gospel is true. Make yourselves available. There is joy in it. There is growth in it. There is safety in it. But of course, you know, I know, we all know to whom we should make ourselves available, and to what.

Most people are quite obedient. One of the old Prophets said, "We all serve our masters, but we don't all serve the same fellow." You have been brought up to this point, and you know which fellow we should make ourselves available to. Now that is the road of safety to you. Your prophet, your parents, your friends, all the good people love you and want you to succeed. And it is a transaction. You have to do something to get something. Just like buying anything, just like serving for any cause, you have to do something to get something. And as King Benjamin has taught us that our grand, wise and Heavenly Father immediately blesses us on our obedience. There is a thrill that goes with it. I hope and pray that we all can experience it. Seek for it! Reach for it! Obtain it! This is my prayer for you and all of us in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

[President Jeffs then said:] Dear people, dear graduates of this Priesthood school, what you have heard Bishop Frederick Mead Jessop deliver to you here tonight is in essence what I have in my heart to say, and I simply want to add, "Amen and Amen." Remember the teachings given in the address of King Benjamin. I feel the same as he as to this people. I desire to express with all my heart the gratitude I have for the marvelous support that this school and you students have given me and are now being manifest in your words. Thank-you, thank-you; and God bless you that you may go on to perfection, serving God and keeping His commandments, serving your fellow men as Uncle Fred has explained here tonight. I love you with all my heart, and I want nothing less than your salvation and exaltation in the Kingdom of God, in the Celestial Kingdom of God; and I say all of this with all my heart, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I am very pleased to give you these graduation certificates, and call upon you to be faithful and true to your God, to your parents, your Prophet. Carry on, carry on!

[President Jeffs then presented the diplomas.]

RTJ 7:476  June 10, 1996  CCA Birthday Celebration for President Johnson

Birthday Celebration for President Johnson
Colorado City, Arizona
June 10, 1996

President Johnson Is One of the Gods

I love the Prophet Leroy Sunderland Johnson with all my heart, as I love God. He is one of Them. I think that says it all.

RTJ 7:476  August 4, 1996  Sandy Steed Meeting

Steed Meeting
Sandy, Utah
August 4, 1996
"Keeping Sweet" Is How We Prepare for the Great Events Ahead;
The Holy Spirit Is the Heavenly Fire
That Will Protect the Faithful

RTJ 7:476 August 4, 1996 Sandy Steed Meeting

I am frequently asked, "What preparation do we make individually, in preparation for that which is to come?" I have the easiest answer in the world: Keep sweet no matter what. The Prophet Leroy Johnson said our only salvation, survival, is to have enough of the Holy Spirit of God to be caught up.

LSJ Vol.7 Page 394 June 24, 1984 Canada

It is our place now to clean up our minds and get the Spirit of God and keep it, because the Spirit of God is the only protection that we will have. The scriptures tell us that there will be two working at the mill; one will be taken and the other left. Two will be working in the field; one will be taken and the other left, and so forth. This is true. We will have to have the Spirit of God upon us enough to be caught up when the judgments of God go over the earth, then we will be let down again. That is the only way the Lord can protect His people. He says He will protect His saints if He has to send fire from heaven to do so; and this, He will do.

Well that is fire and the Holy Ghost.

TPJS Page 367

God Almighty Himself dwells in eternal fire; flesh and blood cannot go there, for all corruption is devoured by the fire. "Our God is a consuming fire." When our flesh is quickened by the Spirit, there will be no blood in this tabernacle. Some dwell in higher glory than others.

Then he inserts this statement:

Those who have done wrong

That means serious wrongs.

...always have that wrong gnawing them.

Then he goes on:

Immortality dwells in everlasting burnings.

That is the fire that will be sent down from heaven -- the Holy Spirit of the Gods. That is where They dwell, in eternal fire, the Holy Spirit of the Gods. That is how everything is accomplished. Abraham and his brother Haran were cast into the fiery furnace. Haran was consumed. Abraham survived because he had the Holy Spirit of God in and around him, so that the fire of the furnace did not affect him. That fire is life, not death. It is a Spirit of life eternal.

[He then had quotes read from the pamphlet "Prepare for the Day of Visitation." Then he continued:] Keep sweet. That is the bottom line.

RTJ 7:478  August 11, 1996  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
August 11, 1996
Calls for a Fast Day

I instructed the Priesthood Meeting this morning that we will have a day of fasting and praying tomorrow, to the end that in this last hearing of our law case, that God will overrule for our good, and for the truth. We will dispense with breakfast and lunch tomorrow, and break the fast for evening meal. And pray that my prayers will be answered in behalf of this people. God bless you all, amen.

RTJ 7:478  August 18, 1996  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
August 18, 1996
"He Who Is Not With Me Is Against Me"

Dear brothers and sisters, welcome to a meeting in would-be Zion. That is where we are -- on the way.

I will add a very short sermon. The Savior said, "He who is not with Me is against Me. He who gathereth not with me scattereth abroad," -- the words of the Savior -- and I am His servant. God bless you, amen.

Appendix
Sermons of President Rulon Jeffs
October 1946 - March 1950

The following sermons were found after the first volumes were printed.
We insert them here in date order. This Appendix to President Jeffs' volumes continues in Volume Eight.

RTJ 7:481  June 8, 1947  SCA  Meeting Minutes
Meeting Minutes
Short Creek, Arizona
June 8, 1947
Reported by Edson P. Jessop

I Am a "Yes-Man" for the Truth; Love for His Brethren

I am very happy to be here. The saints in Salt Lake could meet if they wanted to. I am delighted to have Brother Barlow here today. As a people we have been trifling with sacred things. I am accused of being a "yes-man". When I find out the truth, you bet I will say yes.

I do not know of a better definition of the word "faith" than "confidence". If you wish to be edified, call upon the Lord in your heart that He will enlighten His servants. The opposite of confidence is fear and doubt. There is not a more miserable man than one who doubts and wonders. Do you have a testimony of the Priesthood of God? Then place your confidence there. Why aren't you receiving more of the mysteries of the Kingdom? It is because you do not place your confidence or love in your leaders.

Heber said, "The man who does not love his brethren more than he does his wives, he is not worthy of his Priesthood." Do we love one another and our leaders enough? I admonish you to be at peace with our loved ones, our leaders, and our Lord. I have taken it on myself to go before my brethren and ask forgiveness of anyone I have offended.

Brother John, I love you. I love Brother Joseph, Brother Guy, Brother Rich, and the other brethren. God help us to love one another.

Sunday School
Widtsoe, Utah
December 7, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm

Prayer of Faith

I will add just a few thoughts very briefly, and sit down. The subject of prayer, my brothers and sisters and children, I want you children to pay particular attention to this matter of prayer.

How many of you pray every morning and every night? Do you say prayers when you go through the day? In your school work do you think of Heavenly Father? Do you know that you need Heavenly Father in your school so that when you grow up you will be men and women that our Father wants us to be? Think of Heavenly Father while you are sitting in your chairs.

Brothers and sisters, have you ever stopped to think what an important place prayer has in the Gospel of Jesus Christ? It is the simplest form of speech that infant lips can try. The greatest manifestation of faith you can find in this life is the infant lips praying to our Heavenly Father -- pure and noble souls praying to their Maker. I have seen the prayers of little children being answered on the head of grown-ups when the grown-up's prayers failed.

What is a greater way of showing one's faith than through prayer? The prayer of faith shall heal the sick, shall move mountains, shall accomplish anything. The prayer of repentance draws us near to God and wipes out the "old man of sin". You go into the waters of baptism, and the prayer unto God accomplishes it. A man is buried in the water and raises up unto a newness of life. The bestowal of the Holy Ghost is through prayer; the obtaining and keeping of the Holy Ghost through life requires constant prayer. A man who receives the Priesthood and goes through the temple and receives his endowments, it requires prayer. As we go through life, we cannot keep the Spirit of God in anything we do except as we pray to God, and as we ascend unto God. Prayer will do it.

Brothers and sisters, let us watch and pray. Avoid the very appearance of evil. As a man thinketh, so is he. Let a man's prayer be unto God day by day. Let us not turn a hand to our duties but that we pray to God that we might accomplish it acceptably to Him and to ourselves. God help us to do these things, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:483 July 25, 1948 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
July 25, 1948
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Apostasy of the Church; Kingdom of God or Nothing
Alma 29

1. O that I were an angel, and could have the wish of mine heart, that I might go forth and speak with the trump of God, with a voice to shake the earth, and cry repentance unto every people!

2. Yea, I would declare unto every soul, as with the voice of thunder, repentance and the plan of redemption, that they should repent and come unto our God, that there might not be more sorrow upon all the face of the earth.

3. But behold, I am a man, and do sin in my wish; for I ought to be content with the things which the Lord hath allotted unto me.

4. I ought not to harrow up in my desires, the firm decree of a just God, for I know that he granteth unto men according to their desire, whether it be unto death or unto life; yea, I know that he allotteth unto men according to their wills, whether they be unto salvation or unto destruction.

5. Yea, and I know that good and evil have come before all men; he that knoweth not good from evil is blameless; but he that knoweth good and evil, to him it is given according to his desires, whether he desireth good or evil, life or death, joy or remorse of conscience.

6. Now, seeing that I know these things, why should I desire more than to perform the work to which I have been called?

7. Why should I desire that I were an angel, that I could speak unto all the ends of the earth?

8. For behold, the Lord doth grant unto all nations, of their own nation and tongue, to teach his word, yea, in wisdom, all that he seeth fit that they should have; therefore we see that the Lord doth counsel in wisdom, according to that which is just and true.

9. I know that which the Lord hath commanded me, and I glory in it. I do not glory of myself, but I glory in that which the Lord hath commanded me; yea, and this is my glory, that perhaps I may be an instrument in the hands of God to bring some soul to repentance; and this is my joy.

10. And behold, when I see many of my brethren truly penitent, and coming to the Lord their God, then is my soul filled with joy; then do I remember what the Lord has done for me, yea, even that he hath heard my prayer; yea, then do I remember his merciful arm which he extended towards me.

This is indeed a time of repentance. Last fall I felt that we were on a new and greater phase of this work. The message is going out -- the truth published in the Truth Magazine. It is time for us to arise and declare ourselves. Cowards cannot be used by the Lord God. It is time to be wise. It is time to repent. We can see a great apostasy going on in the Church.

D.& C. 1

2. For verily the voice of the Lord is unto all men, and there is none to escape; and there is no eye that shall not see, neither ear that shall not hear, neither heart that shall not be penetrated.

3. And the rebellious shall be pierced with much sorrow; for their iniquities shall be spoken upon the housetops, and their secret acts shall be revealed.

4. And the voice of warning shall be unto all people, by the mouths of my disciples, whom I have chosen in these last days.

5. And they shall go forth and none shall stay them, for I the Lord have commanded them.

Remember the apostasy after the time of Christ. There is a great apostasy in the Church at this time.

11. Wherefore the voice of the Lord is unto the ends of the earth, that all that will hear may hear:

12. Prepare ye, prepare ye for that which is to come, for the Lord is nigh;

13. And the anger of the Lord is kindled, and his sword is bathed in heaven, and it shall fall upon the inhabitants of the earth.

14. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people;

I wonder who has been cut off. Many have cut themselves off from the fullness of the Gospel and the Priesthood and the servants of God who bear the fullness of Priesthood.

15. For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;

16. They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way, and after the image of his own god, whose image is in the likeness of the world, and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great, which shall fall.
D. & C. 85

7. And it shall come to pass that I, the Lord God, will send one mighty and strong, holding the scepter of power in his hand, clothed with light for a covering, whose mouth shall utter words, eternal words; while his bowels shall be a fountain of truth, to set in order the house of God, and to arrange by lot the inheritances of the saints whose names are found, and the names of their fathers, and of their children, enrolled in the book of the law of God;

The Lord tells us very definitely that He will not take away this work until the One Mighty and Strong does come.

The Coming Crisis  Page 2

Now remember, that it is no modern wicked man that is going to claim divine honors. No, it is that old Serpent, the Devil. He it is that will head the opposition against God and His Christ. And he, the son of perdition it is, that will be allowed a much longer chain than heretofore. And such will be the greatness of his power, that it will seem to many that he is entirely loose. He will be so far unshackled and unchained that his power will deceive all nations, even the world. And the elect will barely escape the power of his sorceries, enchantments, and miracles! And even God himself, the true God, will contribute to put means and instruments in his way and at hand for his use, so that he can have a full trial of his strength and cunning, with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish.

The time will come when the Lord will choose a people from out of this people. Who is this choice people? It is this group of people. It is time that we begin setting an example that all the world may come and see and glorify God; that people may say, "Here is a people that can be used by God."

Are we preparing ourselves for the coming of the One Mighty and Strong? We should set in order our families, first and foremost. We should clean up our lives, our habits, our clothes, our hearts; and above all, we should become a perfectly virtuous people. The Spirit of God should be in our homes, so if someone should come in, they can say, "Here is a man of God, a people of God." It is the Kingdom of God or nothing. Indeed it will be. I desire to be the humblest of all. Let us here rededicate our lives. Let the Holy Spirit be our constant guide. Let us live the United Order in our families, that we may live it as a group.

RTJ 7:487  November 28, 1948  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
November 28, 1948
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Gratitude for Birthright and Priesthood Heritage

My heart is full of nothing but gratitude in my heart tonight. I feel grateful for the blessings of the Father. We are of all men the richest. We should be grateful to our God, for we have the means to go back into the presence of Father, to receive crowns of glory, to mingle with the Gods and Christ. I was born under the law of the covenant, the law of Abraham. I feel not to boast in it. I wonder why the Lord singled me out to mingle with such as Brother Musser. I do not know, but I am grateful.

I have filled a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. I have been active in the Church. I am grateful for my father and his teachings. I am grateful for my angel mother. We talk of sacrifices. So far as I know, my mother has made a supreme sacrifice and has stood by my father for principle's sake, for truth's sake. (He told how his mother came into the principle of Celestial Marriage.) I am glad and grateful with all my soul that I was a plural child of that marriage.

I am not ashamed of being a "polygamist" son, as Brother Clark is. I am grateful that father and mother led me to the home of Brother Musser. Why should we be so grateful? Because the Priesthood holds high the banner of truth. These things have been lost to the leaders of the Church. If President George Albert Smith should come out and teach what these brethren are teaching, what would happen? It is up to us to get the Spirit of God and keep it and have it all the day long, that we may be used and follow the footsteps of our Savior. Let us always be found serving God.

May we all be found at the feast of the Lord, and one of the five virgins at the feast of the Groom, and be caught into the clouds of heaven at His coming; and be found magnifying our calling, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:488  February 26, 1949  SLC
I have greatly missed the last two meetings that I was not able to be at. It seems ages -- eight weeks -- and I am happy to see by the turnout tonight that you feel the same way. I love this work, and I love my brethren above all on earth. Without them, life would be null and void.

As we were singing "Praise to the Man", the last line, "Sacrifice brings forth the blessings of heaven", rang through my mind. "If a man asks you for a cloak, give two. If he asks you to go a mile, go two." If I am asked to do something in the work, would it be a great trial? The Prophet Joseph, in the Lectures on Faith, points out that in order to obtain the faith unto life and salvation, we must have an assurance that our life is pleasing in the sight of God. If there is some nasty little habit we have, we know we don't please God. What sacrifices are we making for the building up of the Kingdom of God?

Lecture Six

5. For a man to lay down his all, his character and reputation, his honor, and applause, his good name among men, his houses, his lands, his brothers and sisters, his wife and children, and even his own life also -- counting all things but filth and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ -- requires more than mere belief or supposition that he is doing the will of God; but actual knowledge, realizing that, when these sufferings are ended, he will enter into eternal rest, and be a partaker of the glory of God.

6. For unless a person does know that he is walking according to the will of God, it would be offering an insult to the dignity of the Creator were he to say that he would be a partaker of his glory when he should be done with the things of this life. But when he has this knowledge, and most assuredly knows that he is doing the will of God, his confidence can be equally strong that he will be a partaker of the glory of God.

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God. When a man has offered in sacrifice all that he has for the truth's sake, not even withholding his life, and believing before God that he has been called to make this sacrifice because he seeks to do his will, he does know, most assuredly, that God does and will accept his sacrifice and offering, and that he has not, nor will not seek his face in vain. Under these circumstances, then, he can obtain the faith necessary for him to lay hold on eternal life.

The grandest example we have in this life are the sacrifices of the Lord Jesus Christ. They were many. As He made one sacrifice after another, He gained strength. But think of the power He had to go and stand with His Father, and lay hold on eternal life, brothers and sisters, after He made the last great sacrifice.

Brother Johnson and Brother John and others made the sacrifice, and don't you think that after coming out of prison, that their strength and power is greater now than it was? They now have power over their traducers, those who have striven to take their lives. How can we go before the Lord and have confidence that He will answer when we know we are doing some wrong? Let us resolve to clean up our lives. "If ye love Me, keep My commandments."

The Prophet Joseph is an example of true sacrifice. He went to take his place in the heavens, and is there now, standing there directing the work of this last and greatest dispensation of all dispensations. Of what have we to boast?
We should, of all men, be more humble, and acknowledge the hand of God in our lives. Much light has been given.

If you haven't already been skinned to the bone, you will if you do anything in this work. It is the highest law. The greatest laws require the greatest obedience and sacrifices. You don't have to wait for calamities to come upon us. We must make sacrifices without being forced. "Show me the law the man is living, and I will show you the mansion he will inherit." Let us be wise virgins and get oil in our lamps.
Joseph the Prophet will soon be here to direct his work. Jesus will be in His temple and direct it. Sisters, be worthy of the confidence of your husbands. Have respect for those for whom you should have confidence in, and uphold the hands of the servants of God.

May the Lord bless me in my weaknesses and sins. Let us repent with full purpose of heart, and place our hand to the plow and never turn back, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:490 February 26, 1949 SLC

RTJ 7:491 March 27, 1949 -- 7:00 P.M. SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 27, 1949 -- 7:00 P.M.
Reported by Leona Jeffs
My Sacrifice Is to Keep My Covenants;
Dignify the Celestial Law

I pray God to loosen my tongue that the Spirit of God may flow through me to the edification of you, my brothers and sisters. I feel the weight and responsibility of it. There are so many of you hearing it; we, every one of us, have come to be fed.

There is one thought that has been going through my mind tonight. Do we know where we are going? Do we know the road which is required of us to follow? Is there any doubt in your mind as to what is required of you by the laws of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ? If there is, you must be a miserable man or woman.

I gave up the association of a beautiful wife and two boys for this work, knowing full well that I was going to prepare a way that I would have them eternally, if not here. I gave up the association of loved ones. And why? Because I knew that there was a Priesthood that was greater than the one in the Church. I knew then that there was a Priesthood that would enable me to bring that good woman and two boys up before the bar of judgment.

The Lord has blessed me for that sacrifice a hundredfold. I can tell you what my sacrifice is -- I have made covenants with my brethren. My course is to follow and keep those covenants. I would not mention them here except that it is to place my all on the altar. I have made covenants with the Lord my God that I will love His commandments and every law that is necessary. I have made covenants with my family. God has entrusted in my care beautiful children, and it is my duty to rear them in light and truth.

I know that it is my duty to sustain financially the Priesthood of God. I know it is of a temporal as well as a spiritual nature. To me, the course is plain, and it is made simply with the covenants I have made with my brethren. I know how I should live the laws of Celestial Marriage and the law of consecration. There is no doubt in my mind. Above all, I know who my brethren and file leaders are, and I know they are going to the Celestial Kingdom of God, and I am going to follow them.

I know where the keys are. I know the men I should sustain and support and strengthen. I know that it is my duty to help build up the Kingdom of God. Do you know where the Kingdom of God is? If not, you had better stop going to these meetings. Let us be careful that we don't trifle with sacred and beautiful things. All the fiery darts of the adversary and persecution may come, and you must give all your sustenance, and your life if necessary, joyfully.

Let us give you a little bit of advice with regard to your families. You know what your covenants are. You say to your family, "I am going right down the road, and you can follow me." But you must use the attributes of God. Love is the greatest. What can you promise those who come into your family? I promised mine blood and sweat and tears, and the love of a faithful husband. The great responsibility is entrusted to us, sent from the mansions on high. Dignify yourselves in the state that befits this holy law. Consecrate yourselves and your all to the Priesthood of God. Let us be humble to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
way, that I love my brethren and the Priesthood of God more than I could possibly love any woman. Of course, I feel as I live up to that standard that my family will more perfectly follow me.

Brethren and sisters, I wish that we could take hold of and see and understand that it is an effort to dignify the principles we profess. Throughout the Church, there are so many who look down upon this group of people as low and unclean and undignified people. But there are those among us who have been striving to prove quite the opposite. I can't conceive the Lord having lived these principles among the children of men, and live it any other way.

One of the brethren in the Church made the remark that in spite of Joseph Smith being brought before forty-six courts of the land, not one breath of immorality was uttered against him. Oliver Cowdery once accused him of it and lost his place because of it. Of course, I realize in spite of the trials we have had, and the raid, they still give us credit for having and considering more than one wife. It is time that we were living so humbly and purely that we may be set up on a hill as a light, and to which we as saints must rally.

Are we that people spoken of as a nucleus of the Millennial reign, the heart's core that would come out of the Latter-day Saints and carry on until the Savior came? I know this is the people. Then we should be busily engaged in living and teaching these principles in purity. The greatest responsibility we have is to live and preach these principles by example.

There are two things the Lord has upheld this people in. The first is in living the law of plural marriage and United Order; and secondly, in living and teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we have the responsibility of saving this reduced population of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. I say this humbly, asking the Lord to make us equal to the task.

I love these principles. What a glorious thing it would be if we would act on principle and not according to our interpretation and desires and personal whims. Too many of us ride a hobbyhorse. But there is only one safe course. Seek the Kingdom of God in its righteousness. Learn and gain a testimony from God who and what the Priesthood is that leads us. Through that Priesthood and the Holy Spirit, we will learn what God means. God will honor it and deal with it personally. We do not need to worry too much. What good is it to worry? God will take care of those who lead us. His work is going on in a pace. I bear you that testimony in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.
Christ.

D.& C. 121
45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Let us follow the counsel that Brother Barlow gave us. Several years back, the Lord told him to tell the people to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Let us not run away with our own enthusiasm. Let us get the Spirit of God and keep it, and we will win the victory. Many will come and many will go.

Brothers and sisters, let us seek to be sound and sweet; sound in doctrine and sweet and loving in character and the attributes of godliness with us all the time, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
July 3, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs

Encouragement to Press Forward and Become One

Brothers and sisters, as Brother Guy said in his prayer and dedication, the saints have been driven to and fro. We bought the Priesthood home on Lincoln Street and went to the expense of two or three thousand dollars; and it wasn't long until the enemy came and things changed. But it was not without avail. As we were told at the time, if we met there but once, our efforts would not have been in vain. And so we have met in the homes of the saints before and since.

We don't feel concerned about the conspiracy that is against us, because the Supreme Court of the United States has handed down a decision, though the State has not. We have a right to meet and we must fight for the rights we have. We again feel to thank those who have opened their homes to us. We sincerely hope and pray we may become united. Let us unite our hearts as one.

I wonder how much the saints desire to receive the blessings they come out here for, and attach themselves to the Priesthood Council for. Is it worth giving up our selfish interests? Is it worth having confidence in one another to the extent that we may have the Spirit felt throughout all Israel? We are not starting another church. The Church is the Church of Christ, but it is out of order. It is the purpose of this nucleus to bring to the fore that Joseph Smith did not start his work under the direction of the Lord in vain.

If we have complete confidence in the Lord, nothing can divide us. If we have the Spirit of the Lord, nothing can divide us. Whether we go along in this work is entirely up to us, individually. This work is going on. God is taking care of His work, and if we want to go on with it, let us make ourselves part of it, and forget our petty differences. Let us go forward so that when the One Mighty and Strong comes, we can go on with it.

Salt Lake City, Utah
July 31, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Have Embraced the True Order of God;
The Church Has Changed the Laws and Ordinances

While I am on my feet, I feel I want to bear testimony to this work. I feel keenly the responsibility on such occasions. I desire the promptings of the Spirit of God that we may be edified. I hope to be nothing more than a vessel of righteousness in the hands of the Lord in whatever capacity He sees fit to call me to. It should not be our desires we seek, but those of the Lord. In considering the Lectures on Faith, a few sentences I would like to read about our course of life being pleasing unto God, that we may have confidence in the Lord and in ourselves.

Lecture Six

4. Such was, and always will be, the situation of the saints of God, that unless they have an actual knowledge that the course they are pursuing is according to the will of God they will grow weary in their minds, and faint; for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers and those that know not God against the pure and unadulterated religion of heaven (the only thing which insures eternal life), that they will persecute to the uttermost all that worship God according to His revelations, receive the truth in the love of it.

Am I doing this thing that I may have the same faith, receive the truth in the love of it?

4. ...and submit themselves to be guided and directed by his will; and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven, and of their having embraced the order of things which God has established for the redemption of man, will enable them to exercise that confidence in him, necessary for them to overcome the world, and obtain that crown of glory which is laid up for them that fear God.

Have we embraced the order of things as established by God? It brings us right back again to the Priesthood issue and the Priesthood Council of this group, which has been called out from the Latter-day Saints to bring to the fore and keep alive the Everlasting Gospel. What is the order of things and how was it established, and through whom? Are we preaching the same doctrines and the same order of things as taught by Him? If we are not, then we had better walk out of here. What are they doing in the wards and stakes? It is the order and mission of this Priesthood to put things in order, in the order of things as established by the Prophet Joseph Smith, a few things that have been changed.

D.& C. 1

14. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people; Who are being cut off? Is it those who are living the Gospel, or those that are doing the cutting?

15. For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;

16. They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way, and after the image of his own god, whose image is in the likeness of the world,
The world loves the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and that because they are like the world.

16. ...and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great, which shall fall.

17. Wherefore, I the Lord, knowing the calamity which should come upon the inhabitants of the earth, called upon my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and spake unto him from heaven, and gave him commandments;
18. And also gave commandments to others, that they should proclaim these things unto the world; and all this that it might be fulfilled, which was written by the prophets --

19. The weak things of the world shall come forth and break down the mighty and strong ones, that man should not counsel his fellow man, neither trust in the arm of flesh --
20. But that every man might speak in the name of God the Lord, even the Savior of the world;
21. That faith also might increase in the earth;
22. That mine everlasting covenant might be established;
23. That the fulness of my gospel might be proclaimed by the weak and the simple unto the ends of the world, and before kings and rulers.
24. Behold, I am God and have spoken it; these commandments are of me, and were given unto my servants in their weakness, after the manner of their language, that they might come to understanding.

So the Lord spoke these things to the Prophet Joseph Smith. Now let us consider some of the lesser principles of the Gospel. We should take the preaching of the Gospel and apply it to ourselves.

The Church has changed many of the principles and ordinances. The Lord commanded us to preach the Gospel without purse or scrip. Just try to do it today and you will be sent home. Brother Guy did it some fifteen or twenty years ago. What about the laying on of hands in conferring the Priesthood? The Lord gave us a beautiful example when John the Baptist conferred the lesser Priesthood; and later Peter, James, and John conferred the Melchizedek Priesthood upon Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery. There is another ordinance changed. What about the garment? That garment was revealed from heaven, but changed due to pressure of some of the sisters. They prevailed upon some of the authorities to mutilate the garments of the holy Priesthood. Suppose the Lord should send out His holy angels and ask you, "Have you the holy garments on, or have you cast them off?"

What about the United Order, the Economic Order of Heaven? There have been efforts to live it, but finally tithing was revealed, the least that is required, and only about twenty percent are living up to that. The crowning principle is Celestial or Plural Marriage. The Lord seeing that the saints could not accept it, He gave it to the Priesthood. It is probably the reason that Oliver Cowdery could not take it, and finally gave in under all the pressure and left.

In 1886 the pressure was too great, and in the days of John Taylor, Joseph Smith appeared to him and the revelation was given to keep the Gospel alive in its purity. Then in 1890, the Church gave it up. Where can you find the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel and the fullness of the everlasting Priesthood? Those who are strangers here must ask themselves that question. If I had not known that it was a higher order of the Priesthood, I would have stayed just where I was.

This is the work of God. I know as I live and breathe, the presence of God is leading us. The time is short when the House of God will be put in order. It is time to ask ourselves, "What are we doing to build up the Kingdom of God?" Are we bringing souls unto God in the Everlasting Covenant? Are we teaching our children the laws of God? Let us set our own houses in order. Let us be ready to be used in the preparation of the work to set the House of God in order. I pray we will be ready.

RTJ 7:499 September 11, 1949 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
September 11, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Priesthood Is United; Disaffection Is the Result of Losing Faith

I pray God to give me utterance as I bear my testimony concerning this work and Priesthood. I love Brother Barlow, Brother Musser, and my other co-laborers more than I love any man or woman upon the face of this earth; and I am bound by covenant to uphold them and sustain their hand in this great work to the end; and I pray God to help me do that until my last breath in mortal life.

We love you people as we love our lives, and we appreciate hearing the testimonies that you have borne tonight. We know that what you, the saints of God, say will ring on down through this dispensation.

This man, John Y. Barlow, I have testified before, is a link between John Taylor and his co-laborers in this work today, because he is sent to testify unto you as a servant of God. You had better give heed at the peril of your salvation. [He then read D.& C. 121.]

My brothers and sisters speak of the situation in prison. I regret, too, Brother Zitting, that so many misgivings and misunderstandings came about from that situation. I have mingled with these brethren and know it as fact for myself, at the time this document was under consideration, I inquired of the Lord and it was made known to me that the Lord commanded the men to sign who did sign. If He did not command the others, that is His business. I know Brother John and Joseph were united in this. We were all united in these matters. The Priesthood is united! Don't forget it!

Why do we have these divisions? I will tell you why. At least the Prophet Joseph Smith shall tell you in the Seventh Lecture on Faith.

Lecture Seven

20. ...This is the reason that the Former-day Saints knew more, and understood more, of heaven and of heavenly things than all others beside, because this information is the effect of faith -- to be obtained by no other means. And this is the reason that men, as soon as they lose their faith, run into strifes, contentions, darkness, and difficulties; for the knowledge which tends to life disappears with faith, but returns when faith returns; for when faith comes it brings its train of attendants with it -- apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, gifts, wisdom, knowledge, miracles, healings, tongues, interpretation of tongues, etc. All these appear when faith appears on the earth, and disappear when it disappears from the earth; for these are the effects of faith, and always have attended, and always will, attend it. For where faith is, there will the knowledge of God be also, with all things which pertain thereto -- revelations, visions, and dreams, as well as every necessary thing, in order that the possessors of faith may be perfected, and obtain salvation; for God must change, otherwise faith will prevail with him. And he who possesses it will, through it, obtain all necessary knowledge and wisdom, until he shall know God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, whom he has sent -- whom to know is eternal life. Amen.

If any of you have become disaffected in this work it is because you have lost faith in the brethren or the Lord. It is only through faith that you receive knowledge. I know this work is true, and this is the Priesthood holding the keys of the Kingdom in all the world. In due time, the One Mighty and Strong, Joseph Smith, shall come to cleanse this people. God help us to become united and stand firm behind the servant of God, and be humble in teaching His principles, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:501  October 27, 1949  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
October 27, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Show Gratitude Through Obedience to the Living Oracles

This is indeed a delightful occasion. I feel very humble and weak in standing in this position, for I realize it is a great responsibility. I feel that it is taking hold of our people, a spirit that is the greatest and most wholesome; and that is the spirit of repentance and gratitude. I pray God it will spread throughout the length and breadth of the land.

The work of the Lord is going on a pace, and it is up to us to lay hold of the plow for this last time, never to turn back. These are the more momentous times of the whole earth, and we as a people are most blessed. So we have great need to be grateful, for the greatest sin of all sins is ingratitude. The Lord has said:

D. & C. 59

21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

The best way we can show our gratitude is to keep the Lord's commandments. The Prophet Joseph Smith said he made the rule in his life to learn the will of God and then do it. How will we learn and know the will of God except through the living oracles of God? And how can we obtain except we have a preacher? The preachers, then, should be the servants of God; and the teacher, together with the word of the Lord, will lead us to the truth and the light of the Lord.

We of all people are the most blessed. To me the sweetest and loveliest prayer is the prayer of gratitude. We must keep the commandments of the Lord which He has delivered through His servants.

We can treat with lightness these things. We must first of all be true to ourselves, and then we must be true to God. Let us show our gratitude by our good works, and that is done by following the channels that the Lord gives us. Section 84 should be studied carefully, I feel.

One of the greatest blessings we should be grateful for is the Priesthood of the Son of God. The Lord blessed ancient Israel and brought them out of the wilderness, and sent seventy Elders that they might go up and see God face to face. But the children of Israel were afraid, and they asked Moses to go up for them. This has happened in latter-day Israel in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He has taken their "Moses" from them. But He has set up the Priesthood. It began its setting in order process in 1886. We have got to set in order our lives so that we might be used.

D.& C. 84

1. A revelation of Jesus Christ unto his servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and six elders, as they united their hearts and lifted their voices on high.

31. Therefore, as I said concerning the sons of Moses -- for the sons of Moses and also the sons of Aaron shall offer an acceptable offering and sacrifice in the house of the Lord, which house shall be built unto the Lord in this generation, upon the consecrated spot as I have appointed -- 32. And the sons of Moses and of Aaron shall be filled with the glory of the Lord, upon Mount Zion in the Lord’s house, whose sons are ye; and also many whom I have called and sent forth to build up my church.

33. For whoso is faithful unto the obtaining these two priesthoods of which I have spoken, and the magnifying their calling, are sanctified by the Spirit unto the renewing of their bodies.
34. They become the sons of Moses and of Aaron and the seed of Abraham, and the church and kingdom, and the elect of God.

35. And also all they who receive this priesthood receive me, saith the Lord;
36. For he that receiveth my servants receiveth me;

37. And he that receiveth me receiveth my Father;
38. And he that receiveth my Father receiveth my Father's kingdom; therefore all that my Father hath shall be given unto him.

39. And this is according to the oath and covenant which belongeth to the priesthood.
40. Therefore, all those who receive the priesthood, receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved.

41. But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come.
42. And wo unto all those who come not unto this priesthood which ye have received, which I now confirm upon you who are present this day, by mine own voice out of the heavens; and even I have given the heavenly hosts and mine angels charge concerning you.

That Priesthood is among us. It has been said and was prophesied in early times by many of the leading brethren that out of the Church would come a nucleus that would help in the Millennium; and it has also been prophesied that out of this nucleus will come those who will redeem Zion.

I feel that we are on the threshold that the Lord will call His young men to redeem Zion. How grateful we should be, and humble, if we were ever humble in our lives. Let us get our lives in order so that we can lead our families aright. Let us then go forth to preach the Gospel by word and example, to bring about a reformation that God has set up. Let us be worthy of the Church of the Firstborn, which is set up by the High Priesthood. I want to bear testimony that I know that this is the Priesthood of God; and the highest authority is in our midst.

RTJ 7:504  November 3, 1949  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
November 3, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Redemption of Zion Through the Celestial Law;
The Holy Spirit Is Truth

I, too, rejoice in the spirit here tonight and in being in the home of our beloved brother, Rulon Allred. I rejoice also in the increase of love and desire of doing for others that has come upon our people.

We should guard our testimonies with our lives and seek to make it grow from this time forward, in obtaining the blessings this people need so much in our welfare, and in building up the Kingdom of God. In a revelation of the Lord to Zion's Camp at Fishing River, Missouri, I see in it an exact parallel in our present condition.

D.& C. 105

1. Verily I say unto you who have assembled yourselves together that you may learn my will concerning the redemption of mine afflicted people --
2. Behold, I say unto you, were it not for the transgressions of my people, speaking concerning the church and not individuals, they might have been redeemed even now.
3. But behold, they have not learned to be obedient to the things which I required at their hands, but are full of all manner of evil, and do not impart of their substance, as becometh saints, to the poor and afflicted among them;

That involved United Order and Celestial Marriage. The saints in Jackson County had failed, and the enemy was permitted to come upon them to drive them out of their place. Apostasy came, and later the companion principle of Celestial Marriage caused apostasy. What did they stumble upon? Behind these two great truths that were revealed, it was that they did not have burned into their bosoms that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God. Now here is the crux of the matter:

4. And are not united according to the union required by the law of the celestial kingdom;
5. And Zion cannot be built up unless it is by the principles of the law of the celestial kingdom; otherwise I cannot receive her unto myself.
6. And my people must needs be chastened until they learn obedience, if it must needs be, by the things which they suffer.
7. I speak not concerning those who are appointed to lead my people, who are the first elders of my church, for they are not all under this condemnation;
8. But I speak concerning my churches abroad -- there are many who will say: Where is their God? Behold, he will deliver them in time of trouble, otherwise we will not go up unto Zion, and will keep our moneys.

9. Therefore, in consequence of the transgressions of my people, it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season for the redemption of Zion --

10. That they themselves may be prepared, and that my people may be taught more perfectly, and have experience, and know more perfectly concerning their duty, and the things which I require at their hands.

11. And this cannot be brought to pass until mine elders are endowed with power from on high.

12. For behold, I have prepared a great endowment and blessing to be poured out upon them, inasmuch as they are faithful and continue in humility before me.

13. Therefore it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season, for the redemption of Zion.

14. For behold, I do not require at their hands to fight the battles of Zion; for, as I said in a former commandment, even so will I fulfill -- I will fight your battles.

I admire the simple statement of Brother Zitting, but we must be careful that we do not fall in the traps set by the enemy. I want to bear my testimony that these things are at our very doors. As Brother Guy said, this people have received more truth than any other people since the dawn of this dispensation. It is time to unite ourselves to go according to the laws of the Celestial Kingdom and according to the Priesthood that is among us, and go forward as a humble band.

The time of calling is about past. The time of choosing is now about here. Let us lay hold of the plow and never cease striving and wrestling with the Lord, and prevail; and never lose this testimony that God lives. How can we say we know but by the Spirit of God? So far as I can see, that Spirit is just as tangible as what these eyes can see and these ears can hear. The beauty of it is that it never lies. The Spirit of God unites all people in the same truths.

I love you people. I love my brethren and my family. And I desire to unite with you people in this work, in the Kingdom of God or nothing, and I say this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Salt Lake City, Utah
November 7, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Priesthood Work Grows Through Persecution;
Those That Fight the Celestial Law Will Be Destroyed

My dear brothers and sisters, the Spirit of God is burning in this place tonight. A wayfaring man, though a fool, cannot help seeing God's work is rolling on, and that the work of the Priesthood of Almighty God is well under way. And there are men under covenant to see that it is, by the power and help of the Lord.

Every hand that is turning against this work is turned to naught, and the steps taken by the enemies only make it grow. The imprisonments against this people only served to scatter the word far and wide throughout that length and breadth of the earth. And so it will continue if we will be humble and look to our responsibility, and make our desires useful to that end.

The principle of plural marriage is so often spoken of. That is our job, to see that it is kept alive. Why it is maintained above all others is because it is the principle that will make a man a God, and nothing short of it will. And when the Church of Jesus Christ and the government of the United States all combine to stand against this law, they shall fail, and they shall be wasted away as God lives. Through that law our Father and God, Adam, became a God. That is how he came down upon this earth, through Eve and other wives, and inhabited this earth.

I cannot help remarking how my mission President called me up to his office in 1940. He said, "You cannot help who your parents are," and called me a bastard, in so many words.

The power of Almighty God sealed this man and my mother that brought me forth in the principle. In 1886, two of the Gods stood by. Why shouldn't I be willing to be called a "bastard"? They want to stop me from becoming a God.

Abraham Lincoln signed the Cullom Bill in 1862. Heber C. Kimball prophesied he would meet an untimely death, because he fought against God. Steven A. Douglas, when he urged that this people be cast out, he died a broken-hearted man. Members of the quorum of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints have met their death, and others will fall as sure as God lives. Up until Joseph Smith gave his life, the saints were driven to and fro so that the Prophet would give up his life. When the saints came out to the Rocky Mountains, the wheel was turned. The Lord knew what would be out here. He led Brigham Young coming out here and He is still leading his successors. What is the situation of the Latter-day Saints? Heber C. Kimball:

JD 5:203 Heber C. Kimball October 12, 1856 SLC

Let the Presidency of this Church, and the Twelve Apostles, and all the authorities unite and say with one voice that they will oppose that doctrine, and the whole of them would be damned.

In 1890, that was fulfilled in the statement they signed, denying these things. They lost their Priesthood then.

D.& C. 121

34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?
35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --
36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.
37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins; or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.
38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.

What a glorious thing it was for the Lord to have that revelation of 1886! We must be faithful and true to the covenants we have made, and see that this Priesthood is established upon the earth.

I want to testify to you that these things are true, that God does live, and that we must bear off His Kingdom. The time of choosing is at hand! God help
Salt Lake City, Utah
November 23, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Faith; Blessings on His Mother

There has been a beautiful spirit here tonight. As I look upon you and feel your spirit, I feel sure we are one. It seems like the grandest truths are drawn out by the goodness of God through the Spirit of the Lord.

I was thrilled by the remarks of Brother Timpson about the Spirit of God. This work is going on so fast now that unless we have, touch, and feel that all-wise Spirit in our bodies day and night, we are going to lose the opportunity of going on. Sometimes it takes so little to take it from us.

I love the truths brought out about the love of our brethren. Dear sisters, you have got to learn the same lesson. You have got to learn to accept others in your families and become one. Also, the love and unity of your families is the blessing of the oneness of it.

I know of no better example to give than the one in the Lectures on Faith, given by the Prophet Joseph. I pray we may seek from this day forward to become men perfect in love and the gifts of the Holy Spirit. I pray the Spirit of God may actuate this to our good.

Lecture Five

1. In our former lectures we treated of the being, character, perfections, and attributes, of God. What we mean by perfections is, the perfections which belong to all the attributes of his nature. We shall, in this lecture, speak of the Godhead -- we mean the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

2. There are two personages who constitute the great, matchless, governing, and supreme power over all things, by whom all things were created and made, that are created and made, whether visible or invisible, whether in heaven, on earth, or in the earth, under the earth, or throughout the immensity of space. They are the Father and the Son -- the Father being a personage of spirit, glory, and power, possessing all perfection and fullness, the Son, who was in the bosom of the Father, a personage of tabernacle, made or fashioned like unto man, or being in the form and likeness of man, or rather man was formed after his likeness and in his image; he is also the express image and likeness of the personage of the Father, possessing all the fullness of the Father, or the same fullness with the Father; being begotten of him, and ordained from before the foundation of the world to be a propitiation for the sins of all those who should believe on his name, and is called the Son because of the flesh, and descended in suffering below that which man can suffer; or, in other words, suffered greater sufferings, and was exposed to more powerful contradictions than any man can be. But, notwithstanding all this, he kept the law of God, and remained without sin, showing thereby that it is in the power of man to keep the law and remain also without sin; and also, that by him a righteous judgment might come upon all flesh, and that all who walk not in the law of God may justly be condemned by the law, and have no excuse for their sins. And he being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

So we must become one with the servants of God. Heber C. Kimball said, "How do you expect to get the Spirit of God except through us?" speaking of Brigham Young.

Last night I saw a beautiful example of the Spirit of God coming down upon my dear mother through my own hands. All fear is gone now. She is ready to meet her Maker, and has been for some time. But that peace and love of God is resting down upon her now. Brothers and sisters, let us get the Spirit of God in like manner, I pray in Jesus Christ's name, amen.

One of the sisters that was called upon to speak tonight was anxious and was steadfast and true through all the requirements of the Gospel. I have a wife who stands true to all the same particulars of the Gospel. She said one time, "Dear, I do not know how well I can follow you. You have higher motives than I have. You have higher ideals than I have, but you go on and I will try and stand in your shadow." She has done that in a lovely manner, and she is the one that I mention, in hopes that she will endure and sustain the truth of the Gospel.

I just want to leave that message with us tonight. It is a splendid message, and it is one that can be actuated by all of us. May the Lord bless us is my sincere desire, amen.
I sincerely trust that the same spirit that has actuated the other speakers will be given to me. My only desire is to be an instrument of the Spirit of God. I desire the Spirit of revelation. A new day is dawning, and if that has not dawned on you yet, you had better begin looking around and see what is going on.

The Lord, in 1829, gave a commandment that the Three Witnesses were to search out the Twelve at a future time. In connection with that I was reading something that gave me a key.

D. & C. 18

37. And now, behold, I give unto you, Oliver Cowdery, and also unto David Whitmer, that you shall search out the Twelve, who shall have the desires of which I have spoken;

38. And by their desires and their works you shall know them.

We should be placing that measuring rod on everything that pertains to truth. The measuring rod that I place on the latter-day work is that of the Prophet Joseph Smith. If any Apostle of the Church or otherwise does not speak the truth, the truth is not in him. If any man thinks he can go on and pass up Joseph Smith, he is mistaken. Does the Church teach the things that Joseph Smith taught? If their works are like him, then follow them. If they are not, then follow those whose works are like him. My testimony is to you, that the story is the same from the Prophet Joseph to the present. The Lord has given the dispensation of the Gospel and Priesthood for the last time. Joseph Smith and Jesus Christ came again to John Taylor in 1886.

Now, what is our duty and obligation? It is to obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ and draw near to the Priesthood, and thus, near to the Lord. I would to God that all would be saved through the life and redemption of Jesus Christ, but they will not. We call upon the people to repent in the name of Jesus Christ, and purify their lives and hearts and follow after these things, for they will be life and salvation to you. Seek out the truth at the peril of your life, through the right source and through the Prophet Joseph Smith. I testify to you in the name of the Lord that he is leading this Priesthood today.

Are we going to be found in the right places? Are we going to be found able to go into the temples? I pray God we may be able to. But many shall fall by the wayside. I am afraid some won't stay faithful, for all don't serve in righteousness in that respect. We have seen one group of faces after another take hold of this work, and many drop out. May we take hold of the iron rod and hold fast at the peril of our salvation. May we find peace in that love of Jesus Christ, and teach these things to our neighbors; and seek to testify righteousness and be vessels in righteousness, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:514  December 14, 1949  SLC  Salt Lake City, Utah

Salt Lake City, Utah
At His Parent's Home
December 14, 1949
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Family History

I pray God to direct my words tonight and give me control of my emotions. This is a very sacred occasion to me, and I know it is to mother. It is far more important than any post-mortem remarks or gatherings that could be conducted. And I humbly pray that all that may be said will be a comfort and strength to my dear mother and to father, for I know this occasion means as much to him as to her.

I have nothing but gratitude in my heart for the blessings that have been bestowed upon me, particularly to have been sired by this noble man and born by this angel mother. I have had the testimony on a number of occasions that my spirit on the other side helped to bring the man and woman together, that the covenants that have been made might be fulfilled. They have had the same testimony, and it is wonderful that the Lord has had us in the hollow of His hand to this point. I have seen that those who have made covenants to perform here upon the earth, He will see that they have the chance to do it.

I cannot help but reflect upon the things that brought father and mother together -- how the Lord, in time, revealed to father and Phoebe that mother was to come into the family. Aunt Phoebe brought it up first and brought it up to mother; and it was shown to father in vision, about the same time, the man who would perform the ceremony. When the time came, mother's father was upset about it. Stake members felt the Manifesto settled this law. So mother was whisked off to another town; but the Lord knew better and she came to Salt Lake.

John W. Taylor's wife took her in, in Provo. She was able to go into the temple at Manti to get her endowments; and certain things were revealed to father. When the time came, Father contacted Matthias F. Cowley, and it wasn't long before Judson Tolman came and they were sealed. They were really in hiding in those days. My name, brothers and sisters, for the first nine years of my life was Jennings. Not a ripple went through my being when I was told my real name. It has been all second nature. You know, President Grant's wife was given the name of Bennett in New York City; and a number of others have done the same.

The Lord has had a hand in this in His time. I am grateful beyond words that I came through a pure mother, a pure birth, and a pure father. Words cannot explain my feelings. My father and mother have abided the principle. Mother has gone on suffering, and it has been revealed that she can go clean. I pray God that I may have the same opportunity.

Now, what is my duty under these circumstances? The only thing I can do is to make a monument of my life for the principles which they stood for. Thank God for the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the life of Jesus Christ, and for the privileges we have tonight. Let us go forth from this day and hour and avoid the very appearance of evil, with a newness of life through a thorough and complete repentance from our sins and follies.

We don't realize what a mission is before us. You sisters have a marvelous mission ahead of you through your life and example, and through precept, when the servants of the Lord call you to go forth. As great a mission is upon your shoulders as the men of the Priesthood to cry repentance. Let us prepare for this glorious mission. The importance of it is borne so upon my soul of late, that I wonder why we can fiddle around the way we are. Let us be about our Father's business. Think of the responsibility Lorin bore alone after his father died. See what is today. It will please our Heavenly Father to go forsake our sins, and to get an opportunity to see His face again. I want to bear testimony with all the fervor of my soul that I was born of goodly parents under the law and covenant of God; but I am branded a "bastard".

Mother, father, I want you to know that God loves you for the great and glorious things you have done to establish His laws upon the earth. God loves you. God is pleased with the efforts of His people today. Let us go forth to show we appreciate our blessings with all our might, mind, and strength. This is prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:517  December 22, 1949  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
December 22, 1949
Funeral of
Nettie Lenora Timpson Jeffs, Mother of President Jeffs; History of His Father's Family

I realize, my dear brothers and sisters and friends, that this is most unusual for a son to talk at his mother's funeral, but I told mother two or three years ago while she was in her bed, that I did not wish to hide her light under a bushel; that if she desired, I would be happy, with the help of God, to tell about her life at her funeral; and she asked that it be so. So with the aid of God and His Spirit, I desire to tell a little of what mother went through so that I might be. I speak of myself, brothers and sisters, only because I am a part of her. Mother was the first daughter of John H. Timpson and Jennetta Ann Timpson. Her mother, Jennetta Ann, was an adopted daughter of my grandfather William Y. Jeffs' plural wife, Elizabeth Ann Wilding Jeffs. The families were thrown together in those early years. Aunt Phoebe Woolley Jeffs was married to father in 1900. Shortly after, they went to Iona, Idaho where some acreage was offered them. While in Idaho, father and his brothers went into the building materials and construction business and they built homes for many of the early people up there in Iona and Sugar City. Mother and all of grandfather Timpson's first family followed up in that section of country in about 1904. Father, needing some help in the office, and mother, desiring to help out her family financially, was employed in father's office as a secretary, bookkeeper.

Now, brethren and sisters, when Aunt Phoebe married my father, there was a covenant made between them, according to the import of the marriage covenant that sealed them, that father would enter into the principle of plural marriage. It was her intent and desire to live the law of Sarah. In the fall of 1906, Aunt Phoebe came to father and said that she had been directed by the Spirit of God, and had seen in vision that mother should enter into his family. Accordingly, she invited mother to her home and told her about her feelings in the matter, and invited her into the family. She went home and prayed with all her might and received a testimony that stayed with her, to her dying day, that the Lord required of her to enter into that principle.

I might go back and add, brethren and sisters, that at a Patriarchal Meeting in Farmington in 1901, Patriarch Judson Tolman turned to my father and said, "The Lord requires you to enter into the principle of Celestial and Plural Marriage." So they had their course set before them by covenant and promise.

Immediately after this meeting with father and Aunt Phoebe, opposition began to take form in the family, naturally, because of the supposed intent of the Manifesto. Father was haled before the Bishop, being a member of the bishopric by the way, charges having been preferred that father had already married mother. Of course, it hadn't taken place. Later, charges were preferred before the stake presidency, and he was haled before them, the charge having been that Grandfather William Y. Jeffs had sealed them, or John W. Taylor. But that was not a fact, and they asked father upon testimony what he intended to do about it. He said, "If the Lord reveals it to me, I will do it." That was enough, and the case was dismissed.

From that time on, mother began to suffer great contradictions. Naturally, the family opposed it. Grandfather Timpson had two wives taken before the Manifesto. But in order to bring to your minds, brethren and sisters, the way the Lord works, I want to tell you how these things came about. Elizabeth Ann Jeffs had been killed in 1904, shortly after coming to Idaho, in a runaway carriage accident; and she appeared to Grandmother Jennetta Ann Timpson in a dream in about 1907, and told her that it was the will of the Lord that mother enter into father's family; and that stopped opposition from that quarter.

Uncle Will Timpson (mother's oldest brother) went to Sugar City. Father gave mother forty dollars to go up there in order to help out, and she stayed through the winter months, coming down to Iona to visit once in awhile. In the meantime, Aunt Phoebe was finding means whereby the marriage could be accomplished. She made arrangements with Nettie Taylor, Phoebe's sister in Provo, for her to come down here. Mother came in the fall of 1908, and was in hiding for months. There she obtained a recommend to go to the Manti Temple. Father desired to know the will of God, and for the Lord to show him who was to perform the sealing. I don't know what more any man can ask other than that, to find the will of God and do it. That night, he saw in vision Patriarch Tolman, and a voice said, "This is the man." He didn't know the significance of it until later when he was in Salt Lake.

There was a meeting arranged between Matthias F. Cowley and John W. Woolley and Brother Judson to come to the home of Brother Cowley, and father saw the fulfillment of his vision. On the 2nd of March 1909, they were sealed for time and all eternity under the Priesthood borne by Patriarch Tolman, and mother stuck by those principles until her dying day. Later on, contradictions came, misrepresentations were made to her mother. She bore testimony of these events from that day on. Her family was very kind and helpful to her, and I am grateful for that. I am so grateful for the sister-love that has been exhibited between these Timpson girls, and the love shown by these Timpson boys.

Later on, brethren and sisters, greater contradictions came along. Mother had suffered greatly. My sister Arlene was born to her. She is now in the American Fork School for the handicapped; and that was a great trial to her. I dare say, Arlene will be going to meet mother before long.

All this time, nothing was said much about these things to us children. We knew about Aunt Phoebe. By the way, there was another wife sealed the next day after mother. She died shortly after. We didn't have much said about these things to us and I am grateful that it came about so. Mother was going through a great deal during my mission, but she was always able to furnish a little money to help out. Leona worked at LDS College in my job after I went on a mission and gave money to mother for rent, expenses, etc. When I was about to be released, she sent money for a suit of clothes. She always seemed to be able to save a little money to help out in pinches.

I began to wonder, brethren and sisters, along about 1937, about my birth because of teachings I had had in the mission field, teachings in the Church and so forth, about the Manifesto. If you don't think it places you in a position where you want to know something, then you would be placed in that position. Mother was staying at our place, at the home of Zola and myself. We wanted to help her out with her health and give her some comfort. She went to California to her brother Frank's place in Los Angeles, and then she went on up to San Francisco where Leona was working to be with her.
In the meantime, I went to father's home and said, "Now father, I want to know about Judson Tolman. I want to know about these things. There is only one marriage recognized by God the Eternal Father, in heaven, and I want to know that I was born under that kind of marriage." And so he told me the story. I came and asked for it, and if anyone thinks that any undue influence was brought to bear upon me, upon Leona, upon mother, they are sadly mistaken. Mother was waver a little as she was on this trip to California. But while she was sick in bed, in Oakland with Leona, the urge came upon her, no doubt by the events taking place at home, to get home as fast as she could and stand at the side of her husband; and there she has stood, lovingly, helpfully, truthfully ever since.

It was about a year or two later that I began to inquire about some things that were brought to my attention concerning the work of the so-called "fundamentalists". Father brought some things to my attention. Father had met Brother Joseph Musser on the street and he had given him a copy of the Truth Magazine, and he found truth and light in the pages thereof. He called these things to my attention and it wasn't long, of course, until we began to attend meetings and to find the things that our souls were longing for. For revelation, truth, the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel -- which these two wonderful people have praised so many years before; the significance of all the things they had been through in those early years -- began to come forth in knowing how this work was perpetuated through the instrumentality of John Taylor in 1886. Five men were set apart and given the Apostleship, with authority to continue this work and keep the plural marriage relationship alive, keep that law intact so that a year should never pass when a child should not be born under this covenant. I speak of these things because after mother became acquainted with it, she found the dearest friends she ever had.

Now, I care not what man can do. It is by sacrifice that we obtain our blessings, and I intend to uphold the principles that my mother stood for under which I was born, so help me God. I was born under the covenant of Celestial Marriage. My father lived it, my grandfather lived it, my great grandfather lived it, and I am grateful for it. I was asked in the mission field at one time when I was speaking at the street corner at Birmingham, by a heckler, "How many wives has Heber J. Grant got?" I said, "I don't know." He asked how many wives Brigham Young had, and so on down the line. "How many wives has your father got?" I said he had three and I am proud. of it. I am grateful that I was directed to uphold that principle upon that occasion. I have nothing to apologize for. My father has nothing to apologize for, as far as our desires in righteousness and our attempts to live the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel.

Now I want to tell you why mother's place is secured. She went clean. The Spirit of God revealed that to me as plainly as I have ever had anything revealed. Her suffering, her laying in bed for the last four years of her life with heart trouble, all of her other sufferings and sacrifices combined, went to make her pure and clean. She will be exalted in the Celestial Glory of our God. She was met by her mother, taken and escorted on the other side when she passed away. How did mother earn this place?

Lecture Six

5. For a man to lay down his all, his character and reputation, his honor, and applause, his good name among men, his houses, his lands, his brothers and sisters, his wife and children, and even his own life also -- counting all things but filth and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ -- requires more than mere belief or supposition that he is doing the will of God; but actual knowledge, realizing that, when these sufferings are ended, he will enter into eternal rest, and be a partaker of the glory of God.

6. For unless a person does know that he is walking according to the will of God, it would be offering an insult to the dignity of the Creator were he to say that he would be a partaker of his glory when he should be done with the things of this life. But when he has this knowledge, and most assuredly knows that he is doing the will of God, his confidence can be equally strong that he will be a partaker of the glory of God.

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God. When a man has offered in sacrifice all that he has for the truth's sake, not even withholding his life, and believing before God that he has been called to make this sacrifice because he seeks to do his will, he does know, most assuredly, that God does and will accept his sacrifice and offering, and that he has not, nor will not seek his face in vain. Under these circumstances, then, he can obtain the faith necessary for him to lay hold on eternal life.

8. It is in vain for persons to fancy to themselves that they are heirs with those, or can be heirs with them, who have offered their all in sacrifice, and by this means obtained faith in God and favor with him so as to obtain eternal life, unless they, in like manner, offer unto him the same sacrifice, and through that offering obtain the knowledge that they are accepted of him.

Mother made that sacrifice. I testify of that to you in the name of Jesus Christ. If I could sum up her life in just a very few words, I would say that she chose the better part and lived it. God bless you, amen.

RTJ 7:523  January 1, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
January 1, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Testimony of President John Y. Barlow

I feel it a great honor and privilege to bear my testimony here tonight. Brothers and sisters, if you do not know about the Priesthood here tonight, then there is no light and truth in you.

In England, they have a king who is a figurehead by his symbol. When the king dies, there is a motto: "The king is dead. Long live the king!" The same symbol I wish to apply here tonight. "The President of the Priesthood is dead. Long live the Priesthood!" I say, "Long live it," for the Priesthood lives forever.

I know as I know I live that John Y. Barlow was the President and leader of the Priesthood upon the earth. I received a testimony of that myself. I was working in Idaho, 1945, and there came a call for me to see Brother Barlow. I went into the front room. As I stood and looked at Brother Barlow, his countenance shone as a light. I knew instantly what he wanted, and I received that great blessing at his hands.
I, too, had the privilege of being with him at his last suffering. In his suffering, as we talked of this work, it was marvelous how he rallied. Brother Guy asked him, "What about the Truth Magazine?" and he rallied, and he said that that magazine would bail out the work of the Lord. No man would know the suffering of those that oppose it. God bless Brother Joseph Musser for his wonderful work in that respect, and Brother Guy now, who is directing the magazine now. Brothers and sisters, this is indeed the work of God.

D.& C. 84

33. For whoso is faithful unto the obtaining these two priesthoods of which I have spoken, and the magnifying their calling, are sanctified by the Spirit unto the renewing of their bodies.
34. They become the sons of Moses and of Aaron and the seed of Abraham, and the church and kingdom, and the elect of God.
35. And also all they who receive this priesthood receive me, saith the Lord;
36. For he that receiveth my servants receiveth me;
37. And he that receiveth me receiveth my Father;
38. And he that receiveth my Father receiveth my Father's kingdom; therefore all that my Father hath shall be given unto him.

That is the word of the Lord to us tonight. That is a word of warning.

D.& C. 132

59. Verily, if a man be called of my Father, as was Aaron, by mine own voice, and by the voice of him that sent me, and I have endowed him with the keys of the power of this priesthood, if he do anything in my name, and according to my law and by my word, he will not commit sin, and I will justify him.
60. Let no one, therefore, set on my servant Joseph; for I will justify him; for he shall do the sacrifice which I require at his hands for his transgressions, saith the Lord your God.

And let no man set upon the name of any who preceded John Y. Barlow, and John Y. Barlow himself; for I would stand between him and you, if you would. I want to tell you, John Y. Barlow was a servant of God. The scars of their imprisonment have left marks upon the bodies of John Y. Barlow and Joseph W. Musser.
No one can destroy this Priesthood or the principles of the Everlasting Gospel, and though I lay down my life for it, it will go on. It will take the best blood of this generation yet. I would consider it a privilege and honor to give mine, if it would be needed. Let us see to our knitting.

Sister Gwen Barlow expressed to me one or two times what she had heard him say; he said: "You will see far greater trials and far greater tribulations on the earth than you ever dreamed of," and that time is nearly upon us. God help us, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:525 January 15, 1950 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah  January 15, 1950  Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Proper Steps of Preparation; Sacrifice

The Spirit of the Lord is here, brothers and sisters, and I humbly pray it will take possession of my mind and heart to reveal truths that will build us up here tonight. The words of God have been expressed here. They are spoken every day, that all saints might understand the Priesthood of Almighty God. I rejoice in seeing so many here tonight to learn more concerning God.

As I have been sitting here contemplating the truths that have been spoken, the world "confidence" has been going through my mind. That is the same as "faith". Another word for it is "loyalty". Brethren and sisters, we cannot obtain the faith sufficient to lay hold on eternal life unless, first, we obtain the confidence of those presiding over us; and second, the confidence of the Lord Himself. First we must obtain the word of God. We must know who we worship and how to worship before we can obtain confidence.

Brigham Young told us that Adam is our Father and God, and that he was sent down by Eloheim to create this earth, that he might create tabernacles to populate this earth. He brought Eve, one of his wives, with him.

We will never obtain the principles of the Gospel until we know who God is. We cannot dethrone Him, as many are trying to do today. We must realize that He was once mortal as we are, and He went on until He became God. Fundamentally, confidence is obtained through knowledge of the truth.
What is the next step? It is to repent of our sins and to clean up our lives and purify them; and then by going through the waters of baptism, you have confidence, and your sins are washed clean. If we sin again, the former sins return. That is how important it is that we put evil far from us. Then what is the next step? It is to begin to obey the principles of the Gospel, and then consecrate our property, and our lives, and even our wives and children. Heber C. Kimball said:

JD 4:248  Heber C. Kimball  March 1, 1857  SLC

What do you suppose we are going to do with you? Are you ever going to be prepared to see God, Jesus Christ, His angels, or comprehend His servants, unless you take a faithful and prayerful course? Did you actually know Joseph Smith? No. Do you know brother Brigham? No. Do you know brother Heber? No, you do not. Do you know the Twelve? You do not, if you did, you would begin to know God, and learn that those men who are chosen to direct and counsel you are near kindred to God and to Jesus Christ, for the keys, power, and authority of the kingdom of God are in that lineage.

That is how we know whom the Lord has placed His finger upon. When you begin to obey, then you will have all the liberty that man can lay hold of. John Taylor said, "I am God's free man." Why? Because he was obedient. Another way is to make sacrifices and continue to make them. I would like to read a few of the words of Joseph Smith on that.

Lecture Six

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God. When a man has offered in sacrifice all that he has for the truth's sake, not even withholding his life, and believing before God that he has been called to make this sacrifice because he seeks to do his will, he does know, most assuredly, that God does and will accept his sacrifice and offering, and that he has not, nor will not seek his face in vain. Under these circumstances, then, he can obtain the faith necessary for him to lay hold on eternal life.

When we have come forth with our offering and tithings as a minimum, and consecrate what we have to the Lord and laid everything on the altar, then you may rest assured that the servants of the Lord will be directed to do the proper things with them.

I will remark when my first wife and I were going along seeking to understand this work, I finally told the Lord that I would be willing to go through anything He wanted me to. If you desire these things you have got to pay the price. It was not long before she and my boys were taken from me. "If you leave me," I told her, "I go to prepare a way for you and these boys, whether you see it or not."

In order to find out the way, you have faith in your prayers, and you pray constantly day and night for the things you desire, for they shall be given. "Blessed is he that seeketh after righteousness. He shall receive eternal life."

Never be traitors to the brethren, for God will spew you out of His mouth. God help us to do these things, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:528  January 29, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
January 29, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Wearing Two Yokes; Sacrifice of Feelings;
Submit to Priesthood Authority

I want to bear testimony, my brothers and sisters, the words spoken by Brother Guy are the everlasting truth, and I rejoice in them with you. Had he felt to take the time, he could have gone on to explain why the yoke of Christ is light and His burden easy. If we find it hard, it is because we are carrying two yokes -- the yoke of Christ and of the world.

As he was speaking, I had a train of thought that I would like to give to you tonight. If these jarrings are within us, it is because we have not made the necessary sacrifice. The very events that gave us our testimony are not enough for the peace and joy that is within. It requires sacrifice. It is very easy to sacrifice a home, money, food, or clothing. Sometimes it is easy for a man to separate himself from his family -- comparatively easy -- but he still may have jarrings within. Why? Because he has not sacrificed his feelings, his preconceived notions.

"Fear bringeth torment." Men continue to cling on to a source of religion or a group of people because they fear what they do teach might be right; yet they are not willing to make the necessary sacrifice of their feelings. A man may have many wives or try to live the United Order, and he may think he is living the letter of the law, and still he demands to be left alone with his feelings, and he will continue to have jarrings within him. It is necessary to make some kind of sacrifice, and if necessary, every drop of blood would have to be changed to the new blood of Israel. A man of gentile blood accepting the Gospel must have a complete make-over in his whole being. These things require that we get down on our knees and submit ourselves to authority. Perhaps you must submit yourself to the authority of your husband in order to do so. The authority of Priesthood -- that must be required of you. You brethren, sacrifice your feelings and "bow `neath the rod" to the man the Lord puts His finger on. No one asks that we bow to a man as such, but to God through His representative. If we cannot do that, we will never go on in this work. Authority -- as Guy has spoken of Joseph Smith, the rock that brought this Priesthood to us through the instrumentality of John Taylor -- if you cannot get those facts in your hearts, you cannot support the Priesthood of God until you get that picture.

God help us to be faithful and true to our covenants. Whether we realize it or not, we have come to the point now where we have got to know our testimony of Priesthood is true; and unless we can make a covenant and accept His authority upon the earth, we cannot expect to go back to the presence of God. The Lord help us to do this thing, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:529 February 8, 1950 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
February 8, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Spirit of Revelation

I have been deeply moved, as I imagine you people have been, by the remarks so far, and I humbly pray that the same sweet Spirit may actuate mine. If we have not known before, we should know by these activities what the Spirit of revelation is tonight.

I would like to talk on the Spirit of revelation. It seems to be the vein of this meeting. I am satisfied that the Lord desires us to understand it. I pray the Lord to be the means in helping me say what He would have me say. My mind always reflects back to the early Sections of the Doctrine and Covenants -- Oliver Cowdery, desiring to translate from the plates of the Book of Mormon.

D. & C. 8

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.

5. Oh, remember these words, and keep my commandments. Remember, this is your gift.

Oliver didn't comply, as the following revelation tells us:

D. & C. 9

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

We do the same thing. We just ask and put forth no effort ourselves.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.
9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

These meetings are being led by revelation. If you do not get it, you have no ears to hear, eyes to see, or hearts to feel. We must fall if we don't have the gift of revelation. It is of most importance to me that Joseph Smith is standing at the elbow of these brethren. I know it to be true by the Spirit of revelation.

Let us be about the Lord's work, and help to establish and build up the Kingdom of God and establish the Priesthood of God upon the earth, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:531 February 12, 1950 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
February 12, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Spirit of Revelation; One Mighty and Strong; Purity

I saw visions of the temples of God in singing that song, and I just can't control myself. If ever a people had something to live for, this people has. We have been taught by revelation this night, as on many other occasions, which we have for many years past.

If you are seeking for open revelations and manifestations, you will seek for that which you should not. Wilford Woodruff was approached by a man who asked to see an angel of light. He was told to get the Spirit of God and the Spirit of revelation through the Spirit of God. Joseph Smith the Prophet obtained revelation by means of the seer stone early in his work of the Book of Mormon. But the majority of his revelations were by the Spirit of the Holy Ghost. The Lord gives us a key as He gave it to Oliver Cowdery.

D.& C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

Very simple, isn't it? It is in our very hands. You will get it in no other way.
Now, brothers and sisters, this people is that nucleus that the Prophets have spoken about that would rise out of this Church, and be zealous in spiritual things, and be used during the Millennium. Do you believe it? Do you sense the seriousness of it to obtain the things we have been told for yourselves? I feel it. I feel at many times to lay all that I have on the altar in the spirit of consecration. Do you want to live the United Order? All you have to do is to obtain the spirit of consecration. All you have will be given to the Lord. We call on the Latter-day Saints, the true saints here, to be zealous in spiritual things and get behind this work with all you have and are, and not be lukewarm, lest the Lord will spew us out of His mouth. Lay your hand to the plow will all you have, or nothing at all -- "the Kingdom of God or nothing!"

The desire of our hearts should be to obtain the Spirit of God through these brethren. You must obtain a testimony of Joseph Smith. Nothing will be obtained except through him. What other people claim to have the Priesthood? What other people claim to have the Spirit of revelation? Find out for yourselves. You will not find it in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints today. If you want the truth as given by the Prophet Joseph Smith in this day, you will find it in the Priesthood Council. I feel impressed to bear testimony about the following:

D.& C. 85

6. Yea, thus saith the still small voice, which whispereth through and pierceth all things, and often times it maketh my bones to quake while it maketh manifest, saying:

7. And it shall come to pass that I, the Lord God, will send one mighty and strong, holding the scepter of power in his hand, clothed with light for a covering, whose mouth shall utter words, eternal words; while his bowels shall be a fountain of truth, to set in order the house of God, and to arrange by lot the inheritances of the saints whose names are found, and the names of their fathers, and of their children, enrolled in the book of the law of God;

That One Mighty and Strong, I testify to you, is Joseph Smith himself, and has already started this work. He will come and has already come and set it in motion in 1886.

8. While that man, who was called of God and appointed, that putteth forth his hand to steady the ark of God, shall fall by the shaft of death, like as a tree that is smitten by the vivid shaft of lightning.

Let us set a worthy example and be pure above all things. The Spirit of God cannot dwell in us unless we are living humble, pure lives, and I mean sexual purity. I mean it. The law of plural marriage is set forth by the Gods because it calls for purity, and it makes Gods and Goddesses of us.

RTJ 7:534  February 15, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
February 15, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Abide the Celestial Law; Turn Children to the Father

We are under the great obligation of leading others if we are exemplifying our lives. If we do then we are left without excuse. We have often asked ourselves and others, what is meant by abiding the law. Section 132 -- the crux is given in that Section.

D.& C. 132

6. And as pertaining to the new and everlasting covenant, it was instituted for the fullness of my glory; and he that receiveth a fullness thereof must and shall abide the law, or he shall be damned, saith the Lord God.

7. And verily I say unto you, that the conditions of this law are these: All covenants, contracts, bonds, obligations, oaths, vows, performances, connections, associations, or expectations, that are not made and entered into and sealed by the Holy Spirit of promise, of him who is anointed, both as well for time and for all eternity, and that too most holy, by revelation and commandment through the medium of mine anointed, whom I have appointed on the earth to hold this power (and I have appointed unto my servant Joseph to hold this power in the last days, and there is never but one on the earth at a time on whom this power and the keys of this priesthood are conferred), are of no efficacy, virtue, or force in and after the resurrection from the dead; for all contracts that are not made unto this end have an end when men are dead.

These things must be sealed and revealed of and by the holy servant of God. The aim and object of all of this should be that, therefore, and must be abided in these most holy bonds of matrimony. That which is holy is pure.

Now, brothers and sisters, I sometimes wonder how really serious these contracts and obligations are. I don't care how many wives a man has. He may have hundreds and thousands. There are many men who have taken a hold of this work and had many wives and then gone on to the ends of the earth and are set in what they have done, but that is only the beginning.

Now, I can't tell you how it touched my heart to hear these sisters say their obligation of their children are one of the most important things in their lives. Why are we asked to go into this principle?

D.&C. 132

63. But if one or either of the ten virgins, after she is espoused, shall be with another man, she has committed adultery, and shall be destroyed; for they are given unto him to multiply and replenish the earth, according to my commandment, and to fulfil the promise which was given by my Father before the foundation of the world, and for their exaltation in the eternal worlds, that they may bear the souls of men; for herein is the work of my Father continued, that he may be glorified.

These souls are in our hands. "By our fruits shall we be known." That is how we glorify this principle. In our children we shall be glorified. Therefore we must raise them up in cleanliness, love, and in the everlasting truth. It is up to us to raise a generation to do more than we have done. We must bring them forth in such a way that they will be prophets and prophetesses. That is our mission. If you have decided to enter into this holy law, you must receive these things by virtue of Jesus Christ, and through the medium of God's anointed. I am most grateful to say that that is how I received mine, and through the desires of those good women. Sisters, seek to go into the family of a man whom the Lord may reveal that can exalt you. That is how we fill our mission.
Never, never let a word pass from your lips that will detract your children from the integrity of their father. Many of the sisters spoke of my mother. She is a perfect example of loyalty. There was a time when she could have led us from this principle. God bless that sainted woman. We have seen it so much. I have seen it in the lives of those around my house. A woman can lead her children down to hell because she does not teach them to abide in the laws of their father. Never forget your children, sisters; never forget them. Set them upon their own two feet and make them know for themselves who God is. Don't tie them to your apron strings. Set them on their feet. You mothers are the architects of the lives of these children. Fathers, spend as much time as you can with these boys and girls. They long for it. I have seen it in the lives of my own children.

May God help us realize our own responsibilities. Let it be the goal and desire to follow after the lives of those who have been examples before us. May we truly seek to establish the Kingdom and Priesthood of God forever.

RTJ 7:536  February 22, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
February 22, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Seek the Lord in the Details of Life;
Nature of the Spirit of God;
We Get the Spirit of God Through That One Man

Though I am very much swamped in my income tax business at home, I just can't let these meetings go by, and I find that I am lifted up in my doing so. In these everyday cares, we so often lose the touch that we desire to be with us -- the Spirit of God to lighten our way. Yet, I have found that in big problems in the accounting work and tax work, I offer a little prayer to help me work them out. It is marvelous how the answers come. We cannot insult the Lord in asking for help even in the little details of our lives. We do insult the Lord when we leave Him out, even in those little things. I owe to the Lord and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit the obtaining of the CPA business that I have. I went up there after no study. I had been about His business, and He helped me through.

I would like to discuss a little more in detail the Holy Spirit and how it can
The Lord tells us of the mission and power and authority of Jesus Christ and of the fullness of God, that we might know whom and how we worship. It takes forthright effort. The finest and most precious things cannot be obtained without effort. I am aware that by an inward feeling in us we seem to know that certain things are true. Still, it devolves upon us to lay hold of the Spirit of God and keep it, even in our everyday work. If our every effort is done in an effort to the glory of the Lord and the building up of the Kingdom of God and establishing the Priesthood, we will know where we are. I have put the Lord to the test, and I am grateful for the way in which He has blessed me. It seems as though He has had me in the palm of His hand. Who do we worship and how? -- Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Let us see how this works.

D.& C. 88

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord unto you who have assembled yourselves together to receive his will concerning you:

2. Behold, this is pleasing unto your Lord, and the angels rejoice over you; the alms of your prayers have come up into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth, and are recorded in the book of the names of the sanctified, even them of the celestial world.

3. Wherefore, I now send upon you another Comforter, even upon you my friends, that it may abide in your hearts, even the Holy Spirit of promise; which other Comforter is the same that I promised unto my disciples, as is recorded in the testimony of John.

It was after the Apostles had received the Second Comforter that they went forth and preached in power.

4. This Comforter is the promise which I give unto you of eternal life, even the glory of the celestial kingdom;
Which comes by covenant and by promise, and it comes through the Holy Spirit.

5. Which glory is that of the church of the Firstborn, even of God, the holiest of all, through Jesus Christ his Son --
6. He that ascended up on high, as also he descended below all things, in that he comprehended all things, that he might be in all and through all things, the light of truth;
We are required to follow that Prototype, and stoop, as it were. We must be humble as the dust, and then we shall receive the blessing of this Comforter, for it is in very deed a Comforter, for it is the final sanctifier.

7. Which truth shineth. This is the light of Christ.

He is the light of all truth.

7. ...As also he is in the sun, and the light of the sun, and the power thereof by which it was made.

8. As also he is in the moon, and is the light of the moon, and the power thereof by which it was made;

9. As also the light of the stars, and the power thereof by which they were made;

10. And the earth also, and the power thereof, even the earth upon which you stand.

11. And the light which shineth, which giveth you light, is through him who enlighteneth your eyes, which is the same light that quickeneth your understandings;

12. Which light proceedeth forth from the presence of God to fill the immensity of space --

13. The light which is in all things, which giveth life to all things, which is the law by which all things are governed, even the power of God who sitteth upon his throne, who is in the bosom of eternity, who is in the midst of all things.

It is the messenger of the Gods. It is that which carries out the mind and will of God. It is the mind that unites Jesus and the Father as one, and the fathers with them, as the Lectures on Faith tell us. It is the light of our Father Adam, and it sets forth all light that sets forth from him.

"Priesthood is God." When you think of it and work with it, it is God, and it will help you obtain your proper place and niche in life. Therefore, that Spirit centers in the servants of God, and especially the one at the head; and from him it goes out. You cannot get the Spirit of God except through that man, because God has placed that power upon him, and power to administer to the saints that they may obtain that blessing. Now, the brethren must acquire it, and the families must obtain it through their righteous head and father; and the father may obtain it from the one over him. It is the gift of faith, of healing, of revelation, and of the other gifts and attributes of the Godhead. It is the power by which the Priesthood operates, and the husband operates, and all the saints, both male and female.

I pray we may call upon this great and glorious gift that is before us, that we might be of the same mind, and in time come up to the Father, that we may have Him be with us and teach us and direct us. This calls for sanctification to purify our lives and bodies and sanctify them, that the Holy Spirit may dwell upon us. Let us keep these things in mind continually, that we may lay hold of eternal life, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:539  March 12, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 12, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Powers of the Priesthood; To Get the Spirit of God, We Must Give Our All

I was impressed with something to add to the remarks of Brother Marion. If you don't believe that the Spirit of God is inseparably connected with the Priesthood of God, then you have but to read Section 121 of the Doctrine and Covenants over again. What are the powers of Priesthood by which the emissaries of God operate?

D.& C. 121

34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?
35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --
36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.
37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.
38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.
39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.
41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.
45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Do you not see why it is necessary to draw near to the Priesthood of God? It is a likelihood that a complacency will rest upon too many of us. Have you stopped to think of what would happen to you? Others marry, others pay tithing. Others are taught to be kind and love our fellow men, to go to church. What is the distinction of us from the rest of the world, then? How will you find joy in your work by doing that which is mandatory? Have you in your heart and soul been able to go to your Lord and to His servants and say, "I lay my all upon the altar," especially feelings, opinions, everything, withholding nothing? When we get to the point that we can give all for the Lord, we will then get the Spirit of God.
There are blessings in store for this people that cannot be named or numbered if we will follow the counsel of the Lord and your brethren. Just make this offering. I pray we may seek to do this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 7:542  March 22, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 22, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Love and Obey God Through Priesthood; Purity

I don't know what feelings have surged through your heart, but I do know what has gone through mine. Marion's remarks about God having a tried people struck me. God is going to have a tried people. Have you contemplated what might come along to take you? [He talked of the apostasy in Nauvoo and its cause.]

Orson Pratt lost his place in the quorum because of a trial given to him. Do you, with all your heart and soul, believe you can say to your brethren, "I believe you to be a man of God and your word is truth to me?" Can you sisters say to your husbands that, "I believe you to be a man of God, and I will stand by you to the end"? Loyalty to God is loyalty to Priesthood. You sisters, you are loyal to the Priesthood when you sustain your husband. Look upon your husbands as bearers of the Priesthood. As you look upon these brethren as bearers of the Priesthood, you will have all the surety they will bring you safely to the day of exaltation.

Brethren must have confidence in one another in such a way that nothing can break them apart -- imprisonment, lies, etc. -- Nothing!! We have got to come to this before the Lord can use us.

I have been moved by the Spirit, brothers and sisters, to speak upon the subject of love in connection with these things. We think we have so much faith and know the books from cover to cover, and all the knowledge in the world; but unless your actions are motivated by the Priesthood you just will not stand. The prelude to faith is a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and is the principle of repentance. We must love the Lord to such an extent that we cannot help but stand.

Moroni 7
44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

Apply these words to your daily lives.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, Not jealous.
45. ...and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, Is not selfish. How many of you are seeking to gain the love of your husbands, and not to serve God and keep His commandments?
45. ...is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, Is pure in heart.
45. ...and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Take this tonight and read and pray about it, and ask the Lord if you really love this Priesthood, your husbands, your brethren.

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

This subject of purity is the sum and substance of it all.

RTJ 7:544 March 26, 1950 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 26, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Charity; Eternal Inheritances

The Spirit of God is here, brothers and sisters, and I feel certain that the prayer that Brother Timpson offered is answered and being answered in our behalf. There are some very important things being said here in this meeting and will be recorded on the other side; and I humbly pray I will be used as a vessel in this vein.

This subject was touched upon in Sunday School this morning, and Brother Marion has enlarged upon it. Moroni, in telling his people what they should do about this thing, speaks of charity, brothers and sisters.

Moroni 7

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.
48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

It came to my attention at the funeral, that some say that they heard the "same old things". It makes my heart grieve when I see men who have received blessings of the Priesthood and then go off with them and complain. I know what Heber C. Kimball meant when he said, "One dying at a slow rate." If you think just having a few wives is going to save you, you are mistaken. Brigham Young said that more people will be damned by this principle than saved. Until you receive your second washings and anointings and have the word from God that your calling and election is made sure, you are crazy to think you have your wives and family. Brigham Young made a statement about inheritance.

JD 17:117  Brigham Young June 28, 1874  Brigham City

When shall we receive our inheritances so that we can say they are our own? When the Savior has completed the work, when the faithful Saints have preached the Gospel to the last of the spirits who have lived here and who are designed to come to this earth; when the thousand years of rest shall come and thousands and thousands of Temples shall be built, and the servants and handmaids of the Lord shall have entered therein and officiated for themselves, and for their dead friends back to the days of Adam; when the last of the spirits in prison who will receive the Gospel has received it; when the Savior comes and receives his ready bride, and all who can be are saved in the various kingdoms of God -- celestial, terrestrial and telestial, according to their several capacities and opportunities; when sin and iniquity are driven from the earth, and the spirits that now float in this atmosphere are driven into the place prepared for them; and when the earth is sanctified from the effects of the fall, and baptized, cleansed, and purified by fire, and returns to its paradisiacal state, and has become like a sea of glass, a urim and thummim; when all this is done, and the Savior has presented the earth to his Father, and it is placed in the cluster of the celestial kingdoms, and the Son and all his faithful brethren and sisters have received the welcome plaudit -- "Enter ye into the joy of your Lord," and the Savior is crowned, then and not till then, will the Saints receive their everlasting inheritances. I want you to understand this. We seem to have something now, but how long shall we keep it?

I love this people with all my soul. The Priesthood Council wants to save everyone who is willing to be saved, and all who will come under their influence, if they will. But the time has come when we have got to quit diddling around. We must live the law of Celestial Marriage purely, as it should be lived, that we can present our wives and children before the throne of God. That is the desire of my life, to save my own, and then others if I can.

Win the confidence of these pure and good women, and set an example to these pure spirits and children, and bring forth children that will be prophets and prophetesses of God. We must become pure, even as He is pure. I pray God to help us to do this, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Volume Eight

RTJ 8:1  March 29, 1950  SLC
RTJ 8:2  September 24, 1950  SLC
RTJ 8:4  October 8, 1950  SLC
RTJ 8:5  November 12, 1950  SLC
RTJ 8:8  January 28, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:12  March 11, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:14  April 8, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:15  April 29, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:18  May 13, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:20  June 3, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:21  June 17, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:24  July 1, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:27  July 29, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:28  August 19, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:31  September 2, 1951  SLC
RTJ 8:33  October 19, 1958  SLC
RTJ 8:37  August 30, 1959  SLC
RTJ 8:40  October 4, 1959  SLC
RTJ 8:41  August 21, 1960  SLC
RTJ 8:42  November 20, 1960  SLC
RTJ 8:44  September 16, 1962  SLC
RTJ 8:44  August 4, 1963  SLC
RTJ 8:51  September 22, 1963  SLC
RTJ 8:52  May 31, 1964  Hildale
RTJ 8:56  May 30, 1965  CCA
There has been a very sweet Spirit here tonight, and I sincerely trust that that Spirit may continue in this home, and in even greater abundance than this. I have observed some very sweet things in my family of late that I would like to apply for this occasion.

The greatest thing in trying to establish the Priesthood of God upon the earth is unity. And it must be in the families. There is too much among our families of taking one another for granted. Another feeling that arises in the bosoms of some women is, "I am sealed to a good man. I am safe. He is in the Priesthood Council. I am safe." I wonder how much there is of that among us.

Sisters, to abide the law, it is as much as you do in seeking out and doing little things for your sister wives as for your husband, and you will never uphold the hand of your husband any other way. You may be jealous of what the other wife may have. You may think you are not getting enough of his time. You may be sitting and moping and feeling sorry for yourself, feeling you are not getting your "just dues". You should be uniting your spirit and heart with hers, and thereby upholding the hand of your husband. You may help him iron out the leading troubles, and how much more you can do than in this other way. Thereby you will get the Spirit of God, which you must obtain through him, and thereby gain the power of God.

You may put your arms around your sister wives, but the spirit in the home tells the story. I can tell about the home by the spirit you have got -- to say that you love your sister wives and mean it, and that you are bringing up your children in light and truth. If you love the children of your sister wives as well as your own, then you are helping to establish the Priesthood of God upon the earth.

Motherhood is a part of the Priesthood. One can't be kept without the other. Be real mothers and wives, and strengthen and uphold the hand of your husband and get behind the work of God upon the earth. If you have had some troubles, go to your husband and tell him you are sorry, and rededicate yourself to the Lord. Be sure of it. Never let there pass from your lips a word of disloyalty about your husband to your children. Criticism of such nature has sown the seeds of destruction in the faith of children. Never let a derogatory word leave your lips concerning their father and your husband. I am only trying to help you to live and abide the Celestial Law.

I will have to differ just a little in the statement made about plural marriage. I think Alma meant "polygamy". It is being lived throughout the earth every day. Plural and Celestial Marriage is that law established by the Priesthood of God. It must be entered into by God's authority.

Now you sisters, unite and let Priesthood be the basis of all things you do and say. Your husband holds the Priesthood and power of God as the brethren, except they do not hold the Apostleship. Think of these brethren as such.
We hear so much about Priesthood, which is right and proper. What God honors we must honor. May God help us to go forward, and help us establish the Priesthood, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:2 September 24, 1950 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
September 24, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs

Personal History

If the Lord will help me control my emotions and put words into my heart and mouth to speak to you tonight, I will be grateful. My mind has been led tonight, speaking of the subject of integrity, to speak on the integrity of my father, my patriarchal head. I feel impelled to give a little bit of his history, for he has carried on the integrity that his father and his father before him have shown in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

He was the youngest son of Grandfather Jeffs’ second wife, born and raised in Farmington, going about his youthful days in the Church until the time came when he received a letter calling him by the Presidency by revelation to a mission to the South. His life has been directed by revelation. He couldn’t speak hardly a word in public before he went on his mission. He sought a testimony from God, and received a testimony that it was His will that he should go on the mission and travel without purse or scrip. He performed an outstanding mission, as Brother Joseph Musser and others have done.

He returned and carried on, and was led by revelation to marry Phebe Woolley, it having been revealed to his father. Patriarch Tolman told him that God would expect him to enter the principle of plural marriage. A Bishop also told him that it would be required of him. And by revelation in 1907 to Aunt Phebe, it was made known that my mother was to come into the family. Mother received the same testimony, and by revelation, Patriarch Tolman was led to direct him to come to him to enter that principle; and I am grateful to be the very first fruits of it.

My name was Jennings until I was nine years old. It made not a quiver in my heart when I learned my name was Jeffs. I took to the Gospel when I was baptized, like a duck took to water. Father also received by revelation a third wife. In 1937, he was led to Brother Joseph Musser, through the Truth Magazine which Joseph handed to him on Main Street. And so it has gone on.

Now, is it in you? If it isn't, you had better get it, or you will not be able to stand through what is coming. Are you going to stand for principle for principle's sake? I do not want anyone to stand by my side who cannot stand for principle. It is life or death. If you are not able to stand upon those premises, you had better start running now.

I pray I may be able to stand as my father has done. I pray that I may have a son that I may pass the torch on to in that particular. God bless you, father. God bless you, Joseph, my father in the Priesthood, amen.

RTJ 8:4 October 8, 1950  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
October 8, 1950
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Be Fully Converted and Loyal

There is something that goes through me when I see aged men who have stood faithful in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, standing firm like Joseph Jessop and my father. There is something in the spirit of these men, and I love it. It is that spirit that we are seeking. If we could only be firm and faithful to the end. We have seen men and women in the ranks of this dispensation soar to the top in a few weeks, and I am scared at that performance. Men who have come plodding along and stand firm are the ones I have confidence in. I size men up by their capacity.

Are you converted? Sisters, are you converted to the law of your husbands, or do you expect your husbands to come up to your way of life? I tell you in the name of the Lord, that unless you are converted, you will fall. Are we ready for persecution in its worst forms, as the Early-day Saints saw it? That is one of the tests.

We must be found loyal. Loyalty is faith and confidence. You lose confidence in your husband and the Priesthood to the degree in which you fail in the living of the laws of that Priesthood and laws of God.

RTJ 8:5 November 12, 1950  SLC
This is a very great responsibility, knowing that so much is expected, and feeling as a weak mortal as I do. I have rejoiced in the opportunity of this occasion thus far, and desire only to edify this people and teach the truth above all else.

It occurs to me that we cannot be united until we are converted, and we cannot become converted unless we have made a sacrifice worthy of this work. I would like to discuss the subject of sacrifice tonight, the Lord being my Helper.

Lecture Six

9. ...And in the last days, before the Lord comes, he is to gather together his saints who have made a covenant with him by sacrifice. Psalms 1:3, 4, 5: "Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people. Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

This is the purpose of the Lord in calling this people together. What have we done in this work? We don't have to put on some ridiculous attire or a front. I mean to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ daily, by paying tithes and offerings; and we cast from us all those things that keep us from doing the things necessary to fill ourselves with this work.

It has been the prayer of my heart that God Almighty would put me through whatever sacrifice it takes to bring me to obedience and to fill my niche. One of the great difficulties with many men is that they do not fill their niche. They aspire to fill and perform a mission that they are not foreordained to perform. The Lord is calling His saints together, those who have made a covenant through sacrifice. Adam, our Father and God, has all power and is our Father and is near us, and He does His work through His Son, Jesus Christ.

Being born in this work and having come to an understanding of the truths of the Gospel, let us learn obedience by sacrifice.

Lecture Six

2. ...An actual knowledge to any person, that the course of life which he pursues is according to the will of God, is essentially necessary to enable him to have that confidence in God without which no person can obtain eternal life.

The Lord does not plant confidence in your hearts. You have got to obtain it through obedience. We must seek God. He will be inquired of; and having inquired, we must obey, and thereby attain confidence in Him.

2. ...It was this that enabled the ancient saints to endure all their afflictions and persecutions, and to take joyfully the spoiling of their goods, knowing (not believing merely) that they had a more enduring substance. Hebrews x.34.

3. Having the assurance that they were pursuing a course which was agreeable to the will of God, they were enabled to take, not only the spoiling of their goods, and the wasting of their substance, joyfully, but also to suffer death in its most horrid forms; knowing (not merely believing) that when this earthly house of their tabernacle was dissolved, they had a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Corinthians v.1.

God has the power to unite the spirit and body in the resurrection.

4. Such was, and always will be, the situation of the saints of God, that unless they have an actual knowledge that the course they are pursuing is according to the will of God they will grow weary in their minds, and faint; for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers and those that know not God against the pure and unadulterated religion of heaven (the only thing which insures eternal life), that they will persecute to the uttermost all that worship God according to his revelations, receive the truth in the love of it, Not willingly because we have to, but because of the love of it.

4. ...and submit themselves to be guided and directed by his will; and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven, and of their having embraced the order of things which God has established for the redemption of man, will enable them to exercise that confidence in him, necessary for them to overcome the world, and obtain that crown of glory which is laid up for them that fear God.

5. For a man to lay down his all, his character and reputation, his honor, and applause, his good name among men, his houses, his lands, his brothers and sisters, his wife and children, and even his own life also -- counting all things but filth and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ -- requires more than mere belief or supposition that he is doing the will of God; but actual knowledge, realizing that, when these sufferings are ended, he will enter into eternal rest, and be a partaker of the glory of God.

There are millions who believe they are doing the will of God. Men in the Church today think they are doing the will of God in trying to destroy this work and the Priesthood.

6. For unless a person does know that he is walking according to the will of God, it would be offering an insult to the dignity of the Creator were he to say that he would be a partaker of his glory when he should be done with the things of this life. But when he has this knowledge, and most assuredly knows that he is doing the will of God, his confidence can be equally strong that he will be a partaker of the glory of God.

We will not be used as Job and Noah and others were, until we have become united and have been stripped of everything but this work. "Faith is a loyalty to knowledge that we obtained ages and ages ago." God will call to the heavens, and then He will call to the saints that have made a sacrifice. The real saint is the man or woman who is able to live the Gospel of Christ in the quiet hours. It isn't these auspicious moments before the crowd. Give me the man who, before God in his secret closet, knows where he is going and what he is about, and knows where God's Priesthood authority is. Those are the men the Priesthood have confidence in, and they build it up by having confidence in the Priesthood. "Draw near to Me," God says, "and I will draw near to you." Let us draw near to God. Stay near to the Priesthood of God.

God bless this people that we may be united, and that we may be able to stand the test and bear off triumphant, and to His glory and praise, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
My heart has been overwhelmed with emotion listening to this beautiful music and listening to these sweet heartfelt testimonies. The song "Sweet Is the Work, My God, My King" has been going through my mind. There is nothing sweeter in the earth than to hear these young people bear their testimonies and put these things into their lives.

Brothers and sisters, do we understand what we are doing, and appreciate what we have? I appreciate the fact that this people is coming up to the plain and precious truths that will save and exalt us. They are obtained only by one medium, and that is by the revelations of the Spirit of God.

Brother Guy and I were talking the other night about these things, as we often do. It is not a matter with many of us of suddenly being converted out of the blue. "My sheep know My voice," says the Lord, and it is only a matter of being informed of the Gospel and doctrines of the Everlasting Priesthood. And so we say in our prayers, "Thank God for this revelation." It is how we grow -- I am speaking now of the sheep -- that is how the sheep grow and learn to live by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. There is no neutral ground.

Every once in awhile I am impelled to read an article in the Millennial Star to give encouragement and point the way so that I and mine will not be deceived.

The Coming Crisis  Page 8
Revelation Necessary

And who shall be able to withstand? Do you think that your great sagacity and the compass of your profound, philosophical turn of mind will enable you to detect the error and delusion of these arts? Oh, man, this is a vain hope. Your mind will not be competent to detect the delusion. God Himself will allow Satan to ply your scrutinizing eye with powers and sophistications far beyond your capacity to detect. Do you say then, I will stand aloof from investigation, I will shun all acquaintance with these mysterious workings, in order that I may not be carried away with their delusive influence? Vain hope. Oh man, you cannot be neutral.
You must choose your side and put on your armor. Those that come not up to the help of the Lord in the day of battle, will be sorely cursed. The captive Hebrew Daniel stood up boldly against all the governors and whole realm of Babylon with their monarch at their head. Daniel readily acknowledged that it was not from any wisdom in him, above other men, that he could surpass the astrologers and magicians. But holding intercourse with the God of heaven, he became endowed with a supernatural comprehension that effectually shielded him against supernatural delusion. Thereby he escaped the snare that entwined around the great statesmen and governors of that immense empire of Babylon. Thereby those who take refuge in the name of the Lord and in immediate revelation from heaven, will be safe, and no others. He that is not for God and the principle of immediate revelation, will inevitably be ensnared, overcome, and destroyed. Because he that is not for Him must be against Him. No man in any age was ever for God or even a friend of God, that did not hold intercourse with Him personally, and receive for himself the revelations of His will. The rock of revelation, by which Peter knew Jesus Christ, is the only basis upon which any man can escape the strong delusion which God will send among the nations, through Satan and his mediums and coadjutors. Reader, if you live long, you will be compelled to take a side for God or for Satan. Satan was allowed to try a compulsory process upon as good a man as Job. The whirlwind and tempestuous elements, with disease and death, were put into Satan's hand that he might compel Job to abandon his integrity. Had not Job possessed the key of revelation from God, he would have been compelled to have made peace with Satan and forsake the Lord. His wife urged him to do so -- says she, "Curse God and die"; or, in other words, take the side of Satan against God.

Now, brothers and sisters, that is the situation. How do these young people say they know this work is true? Because they have had the revelations of the Spirit. Satan is as equally capable to give revelations as God. So we must take one side or the other, and I believe we must keep the Spirit of the Lord in order to know whether they are of satan or God.

Are some of you grieving because you are not receiving visions from the other side? One man came to Wilford Woodruff and said he was grieved because he had not had visitors from the other side. I say unto you, get the Spirit of God and keep it, and learn to get the Spirit of revelation through that medium.

Joseph Smith translated the Book of Mormon by the Urim and Thummim, but through experience and the Spirit of God he soon could write by revelation. He wrote and spoke on these occasions by the Spirit of revelation. Sometimes the Spirit of revelation came upon him and he had William Clayton write it down. Get the Spirit of God and keep it. Joseph came to Brigham Young in the trek across the plains and told him that, and others were told the same thing.

Oliver Cowdery wanted to translate some of the Book of Mormon, and he picked up the instruments and thought that was all there was to it. But he found out different. The Spirit of God must be by and with it.

D.& C. 8

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.
3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.
5. Oh, remember these words, and keep my commandments. Remember, this is your gift.

But Oliver Cowdery failed. So the revelation following came to him.

D.& C. 9

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.
8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.
9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the things which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

These are the plain and simple workings of the Spirit of God. If a woman comes and says she has a revelation concerning Priesthood, you know it is not a correct revelation. No woman is given revelation that involves the Priesthood Council. If she receives revelation concerning the direction of her husband, you know it is wrong. We must study it out in our minds. We must take it from the fountainhead. We must learn to receive correct principles in the future in the Spirit of revelation. We must learn the attributes of our Father and God and apply them.

RTJ 8:12  March 11, 1951  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 11, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
United Families; Unity With Our Head

When the Lord offers us blessings, He will not have them rejected without penalties. Therefore we should be instructing our families. We have seen three or four generations past, and yet what progress have the saints gained? Three generations rejected the law of plural marriage through the Manifesto.

We have nearly another generation here on whom have been bestowed blessings of the Priesthood of God. The Lord cannot use any of us until we have first united our families with us. Are you having trouble in your families? Is there a bad spirit there? I want to tell you, brethren, it is your fault. It is my fault if I have a bad spirit in my family, as long as I have at least one spirit not united with me. We have got to stand up and lead our families. No one respects a mollycoddle, a weak man.

Some want peace at any price, and you will have to pay a big price until you accept these things and put them into practice. There is only one kind of peace I hope to have, and that is of the constant presence of the Holy Ghost. If I have not the peace of God and unity with my file leader, I will have plenty of trouble, and you will, too. Begin to unite your families and get the Spirit of God yourselves and dispense it in your families. I have learned it by experience.
The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element, suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children.

Salt Lake City, Utah
April 8, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Stand on Our Own Testimony
We must realize the importance of the work upon us. I appreciate the sentiments expressed by the brethren so far. I need to be instructed, as you do, of the Spirit of God. I marvel in reading the life of the Prophet Joseph Smith and others in the same position. I marvel in the accomplishment of the work they have been called to do.

The difficulty of this work is proved by the life and work of Joseph Smith. When anyone sits down and discusses this work, the first question I want answered is, "Where do you place the Prophet Joseph Smith?" I had experience this week that brought this to my mind. I want to tell you that we are going to have greater contradictions than we have ever faced before. Christ faced greater contradictions than any of us will be called to endure. We are going to have greater contradictions than before, because it is going to come from within and without. [He then read part of "The Coming
This is at our very doors. We have seen a very peaceful time so far. I thank the Lord that we have been privileged to meet as peacefully as we have. The Lord requires us to get our families and houses in order, brethren! The Priesthood cannot use you if you do not lead your families. We cannot be used by the Lord unless we can prove in our family life that we can be used, and take care of our stewardships in truth and righteousness. We receive one wife, and we are taught by Brigham Young that that one is given to see if we can receive that one before He gives us more. The same applies to children.

So, I feel very keenly the things that are upon us at this time -- the changes that are being made in the leadership of the Church, the things that are facing us from within, and it should keep us on our toes. The time has come, and it has been here for some time, when we must stand on our own testimony. Why? Because of the contradiction that will come in our lives. The Lord is going to place means in satan's hands to try us. No matter what our trials are, as step by step we go forward; as a stone wall is before us, that wall will be moved. Let us have the stern faith that no matter what happens to us, if we are keeping the commandments of God, the Lord will come to our rescue. Know where the Priesthood is, following the Priesthood, not the man!

Let us be humble and contrite, and go forward in the performance of our labors in life. Let us reach out to serve and instruct in the path of truth and righteousness, those that can be saved by the servants of the Lord, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
April 29, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Continued Testing of the Saints; Sacrifice Is Required; Gain Confidence With Your Priesthood Head Through Sacrifice; Enduring Love Comes Through Suffering

I do not know when I have felt more dependent upon the power and Spirit of God than tonight. I am not here entirely for my own good. I feel the weight of responsibility that rests upon me in bearing off the calling that God has given me, and in leading my family in truth and righteousness. When I contemplate these things, I am overwhelmed. And when I contemplate the magnitude of the work in which we are engaged, I am overwhelmed. I am confident that God is our power and strength, and that the arm of flesh cannot be relied upon.

Heber C. Kimball told the saints that a great test was coming upon the Latter-day Saints. I would say that the prophecy began to be fulfilled from the time uttered, and is still. More particularly, he referred to the time when the Presidency and Twelve could not be with the saints all the time, and they cannot live on borrowed light. The saints in the 1880's, if not before, in the leadership of Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, and others went through trials without deviations -- I would say "learning because they had to". But when these things passed from the saints, many sighed with relief. Thus, the martyrdom of John Taylor was brought about.

In 1843, Joseph Smith told the saints to go to a place where they could live their religion. Brigham Young also told the saints in coming west, that he would go and build up a kingdom among another people. John Taylor did that thing. He gave it to the faithful, that God's promises would not be brought to naught. Now we are daily being faced with similar situations. By way of comparison, from 1880 to 1890 they were required to endure not on borrowed light. It is always the minority that is right; that is, with God and with the Priesthood of God.

I have reflected on Brother Guy's remarks last Sunday night. If we would follow the counsel which Guy gave last Sunday night, we would know that our course is pleasing to God, as is said here:

Lecture Six

3. Having the assurance that they were pursuing a course which was agreeable to the will of God, they were enabled to take, not only the spoiling of their goods, and the wasting of their substance, joyfully, but also to suffer death in its most horrid forms; knowing (not merely believing) that when this earthly house of their tabernacle was dissolved, they had a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Corinthians v.1.

4. Such was, and always will be, the situation of the saints of God, that unless they have an actual knowledge that the course they are pursuing is according to the will of God they will grow weary in their minds, and faint; for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers and those that know not God against the pure and unadulterated religion of heaven (the only thing which insures eternal life), that they will persecute to the uttermost all that worship God according to his revelations, receive the truth in the love of it, and submit themselves to be guided and directed by his will; and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven, and of their having embraced the order of things which God has established for the redemption of man, will enable them to exercise that confidence in him necessary for them to overcome the world, and obtain that crown of glory which is laid up for them that fear God.

Do we know that we are the favorites of heaven? How can we unless we are pleasing God? Which wife pleases her husband? Which child pleases his parents? Which of you enjoy the confidence of the Priesthood? How are we going to know that our course is pleasing? The Prophet has taught us in the course of this Lecture that it requires the sacrifice of all earthly things. The Lord has taught us it requires the sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit. If our hearts are right before God, that is all He is concerned about. In the earthly goods -- lands, wives, and children will be blessed in the Lord's hands for His use. It is a beautiful thing if we can come to it.

Sisters, go to your husband and make an offering. "What shall I do? How can I be more useful, that I may enjoy your confidence and the confidence of God?" Brethren, go to the Priesthood. I have had a little experience along this line, and I have found in the course I have taken that this is the correct procedure. Some years ago, I went before the Lord and told Him that I would do anything "to fulfill the mission you have sent me to do." I have made some few sacrifices, but not one-tenth what I expect to have to make. To get ourselves in a position for this is to go to the Lord, and then to His servants and those responsible with authority over us. If you go with a contrite heart, if you have gone to them and got your answer, then do it! And you will enjoy unbounding peace and love that surpasses all understanding -- the pure love of Christ. A love that will endure is one brought about through great suffering and great pain. That is the true love of Christ, through which He suffered on the cross.

If we haven't already made the necessary sacrifice, we are going to have to. At least let us make the offering. It is so simple if our hearts are right. One of the greatest examples is the brethren offering to go to Zion's Camp. Those men said good-bye to their families in Kirtland, "knowing full well I might not set my eyes upon them in this life again," said Heber C. Kimball and Brigham Young. They offered in tears in Kirtland an offering as great as Abraham had offered, as Joseph Smith said. In one way or another we are going to have to make such a sacrifice as that. May we accomplish it, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:18 May 13, 1951 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
May 13, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Mission of Mother Eve; Priesthood and Motherhood; Tribute to His Parents

I would like to enjoy the Spirit of God as the others have, for I have enjoyed the spirit given by them. Naturally, all of our thoughts have been running along the same line. The picture that stood out in my mind, along with others, is the picture of Mother Eve. I have tried to visualize that. With the Spirit of God we can understand the truth.

Eve is an office meaning the "mother of all living". We understand that Mother Eve and Father Adam lived on another earth in glory, and she was the queen standing at the side of her Lord and God, having mothered many, many spirits who were the chosen seed under her Lord. And desiring, of course, to see them progress, she desired to come down to this earth, which was created by her Lord.

Prior to this, Lucifer had been striving to get glory unto himself, and get the spirits of this earth to follow him. He had a mission. It was necessary that we have the opposite power here. He was cast down and given dominion in this world to a certain extent. So in the Garden of Eden, she met Lucifer, and he offered her very pleasant fruit and she said, "Is there no other way?" He said, "There is no other way." And she said, "I will partake." Why? That she might bring forth her children and all the other spirit children of her husband and Lord. Yes, she transgressed. She had to go through those conditions. She had to go through the veil of death, and Adam partook with her. What a beautiful picture, instead of the silly picture painted by the people of the world. What a beautiful picture given by Eliza R. Snow; that is, the true picture given by this Priesthood through the Spirit of God. Thank God for them.

Now, brethren, if you think you are so almighty powerful that because you bear the Priesthood, that that is enough, how long would you bear the Priesthood if you had no kingdom to rule over? Priesthood and motherhood is the beautiful picture of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Thank God for these mothers. Mothers, you are the architects of the souls placed in your care. Give children their free agency. Don't tie them to your apron strings.

I want to pay tribute to my father and mother, who chose the better part in 1907 as a result of revelation to father and his first wife to go ahead in this holy law, and gave me birth. I am so grateful for that. I can look back and see how plainly she could have turned me away from this work and away from my father. She herself taught me those truths. At that point she could have turned us away. But she chose the better part and has gone on her way to exaltation. God bless all mothers, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:20 June 3, 1951 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
June 3, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Faith, Through Knowing We Please God; Fear Bringeth Torment

I feel very humble in occupying this position after hearing a sermon like that. It is the word and will of God to us tonight. I humbly pray we will take it to ourselves and apply these principles to our lives; that we will take the armor of faith and the sword of truth, and we will all come out in faith and truth. I desire an interest in your faith and prayers.

I have been reflecting on that type of faith that Job had and others that we have observed in our lives, as well as in history. How could he do that if he did not know his course in life was right? How could he say, "I know that my Redeemer lived"? That is the touchstone, brothers and sisters, and enables us to face every problem with determination to carry on. If we are weak, sick unto death, we should know if we die, we die in the Lord; if we live, we live unto the Lord. Whatever does come, the answer will be the same and the result will be the same.

Fear brings torment. Mobs, against Joseph and Sidney Rigdon, they went out and eluded mobs and took a route not expected to take. Sidney Rigdon was stricken with fear, and Joseph had to carry him on his back most of the way to Kirtland. The one man knew where he was going, and the other feared and lost physical and spiritual strength. Fear comes because our course of life was not pleasing to God; else we would have faith unto salvation.

We have need, if our course is not pleasing tonight, we need to repent, to come up to the point where we keep the confidence of the Lord. Faith is confidence.

I pray we will repent of our sins and get in the path that will lead us to life eternal and make our lives pleasing to God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
June 17, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Wives Should Uphold Their Husband;
A Man Loses the Priesthood if a Woman Leads Him;
Oath of the Priesthood

I humbly pray for an interest in your faith and prayers tonight. My heart, too, goes out to this people in a desire to serve and to buildup my brothers and sisters in the Kingdom of God. I was struck by a remark quoted by Brother Fischer tonight concerning the love of brethren. Heber C. Kimball made the statement that a man who did not love his file leader more than his wife is not worthy to bear the Priesthood. That may sound strange to modern Israel. We are living in a day and time as that spoken of by Isaiah. "Children will be their oppressors and women rule over them." Brethren, lead your women. She should be submitting herself to be dictated by him through the Spirit of God.

I say to the sisters, seek to have confidence in your husbands, and believe that they are capable of leading you; and when you seek instruction, believe them capable of giving it to you; and be faithful, humble, and obedient to them. Their feelings should not be concentrated in you, but your feelings should be in them, and their’s should be in those who lead them in the Priesthood. Their feelings are concentrated in the Lord their God and what is ahead and there is where they should be. You should be glad to see them step forward and walk onward in the path of their duty, and not require them to devote themselves to you to the exclusion of things and duties of life which lie before them. As they progress and lead on, you will feel to travel in the same road. This is the order, and if order is maintained in this thing, you will see the beauty of it; and it will be a satisfaction to you and them to believe that your husband, he who is at your head, is progressing in the things of God. That should be a satisfaction to you, and it will be, if you are inspired by the right spirit and feeling. In this way you will have happiness, and see good times.

Sisters should rejoice in seeing their husbands carry on in the Priesthood and loving the brethren. In doing that, he is raising his standards, and as a bearer of the Priesthood has the right to dispense the Spirit of God to his family. Our sisters should rejoice in seeing their husbands carry on in the labors of the Priesthood. Whenever Priesthood duties begin, help him!! Don't stand in the door and try to throw a lasso around him. Rejoice that you can help him.

Sisters, you do not bear the Priesthood. Priesthood is God, and man has been given the rights to the Priesthood. You share in the blessings of the Priesthood. Sisters, can you lay on hands in the authority of the Priesthood? You cannot. You cannot bear the Priesthood with him, but you do share in the blessings of the Priesthood. Seek to uphold the hands of those who preside over you, so they can dispense the blessings to you. Heber C. Kimball said, "Were I to let a woman lead me, I would not be worthy to bear the Priesthood. Shall I force her? No. If I did she would be leading me."

Brethren, lead your families by being righteous examples to your families; and if they love you they will keep your laws. Go right down the path and they will follow you. You can tell your families that in going on, they can expect nothing but sweat, blood, and tears. We are in the time when we must live by pure naked principle. We must stand on our own testimony and receive it.

Brother Joseph Musser has been my teacher and father in the Priesthood, and I love him who has taught me in righteousness. And I love his son Guy with words I cannot express, as David and Jonathan. "If you love me, show it." If you want your families to follow you, you must lead them in righteousness. "Be ye clean that bear the vessels of God." As bearers of Priesthood, this is our responsibility:

D. & C. 84

33. For whoso is faithful unto the obtaining these two priesth oods of which I have spoken, and the magnifying their calling, are sanctified by the Spirit unto the renewing of their bodies.
34. They become the sons of Moses and of Aaron and the seed of Abraham, and the church and kingdom, and the elect of God.
35. And also all they who receive this priesthood receive me, saith the Lord;
36. For he that receiveth my servants receiveth me;
37. And he that receiveth me receiveth my Father;
38. And he that receiveth my Father receiveth my Father's kingdom; therefore all that my Father hath shall be given unto him.
39. And this is according to the oath and covenant which belongeth to the priesthood.
40. Therefore, all those who receive the priesthood, receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved.
41. But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come.
42. And wo unto all those who come not unto this priesthood which ye have received, which I now confirm upon you who are present this day, by mine own voice out of the heavens; and even I have given the heavenly hosts and mine angels charge concerning you.

Brethren, by oath and covenant you have undertaken things of such a serious nature, that if you were to turn back, you would go back into dissolution.

D. & C. 93

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy.
34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.
35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

As Brother Joseph said in the letter, the great sin of the age is the sin connected with sexual indulgences. Brethren and sisters, let us clean up our lives and live the law of chastity. The Spirit of God cannot dwell in unclean bodies. You cannot adulterate the channels of life and keep the Spirit of God. Let us begin to purify our lives so that we may see God and receive endowments, and be endowed from on high, and receive the blessing of God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:24  July 1, 1951  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
July 1, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Will Be Tested in Our Weak Points;
Must Be Clean; Be Prompt

Kind of warm, isn't it? Brothers and sisters, I am grateful to be here again with you and enjoy the sweet spirit of this occasion, and bear testimony of the truths of heaven. These are indeed momentous times in which we are living. I am reminded of the statement of one of the Prophets, that the Lord is going to try His people with heavy trials that each one of us needs. Each of us is going to be tried individually in the way in which we need to be tried. And it is my experience that before we get very far along in the work of God, we will be stripped clean, if we want this blessing and the desire that God would have us attain. And it should be the desire of each one of us to have the Lord give us just what will strip us clean.

What price would you pay after passing this veil of tears and find yourself wanting, as very many have? We should not be praying for judgments to be poured out on us; and it isn't wisdom to pray for them, as we are not ready for them; and He will send them in His own time and way. This people is going through a trial, the worst trial we have yet had -- prosperity. And we have need to repent and become more humble and become more submissive to His desire.

If we don't use our constant means for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God, no matter what our circumstances, we will be found wanting. Live today for today’s sake. Let us do the work that is, never returning. That will take care of tomorrow and what comes.

What about our daily lives being clean? You who bear the vessels of God, the Spirit of God cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles and unclean spirits. We have need to be men clean in our personal habits and our houses, and teach our children to be the same.

D. & C. 42

39. For it shall come to pass, that which I spake by the mouths of my prophets shall be fulfilled; for I will consecrate of the riches of those who embrace my gospel among the Gentiles unto the poor of my people who are of the house of Israel.

40. And again, thou shalt not be proud in thy heart; let all thy garments be plain, and their beauty the beauty of the work of thine own hands;

41. And let all things be done in cleanliness before me.

42. Thou shalt not be idle; for he that is idle shall not eat the bread nor wear the garments of the laborer.

Some of us feel that the United Order is getting something for nothing. The very first law given in the Garden of Eden was that the bread shall be earned by the sweat of the brow. The greatest habit to raise up in your children is work, not only in temporal things, but mainly in the work of the Lord.

D. & C. 88

123. See that ye love one another; cease to be covetous; learn to impart one to another as the gospel requires.

124. Cease to be idle; cease to be unclean; cease to find fault one with another; cease to sleep longer than is needful; retire to thy bed early, that ye may not be weary; arise early, that your bodies and your minds may be invigorated.

125. And above all things, clothe yourselves with the bond of charity, as with a mantle, which is the bond of perfectness and peace.

126. Pray always, that ye may not faint, until I come. Behold, and lo, I will come quickly, and receive you unto myself. Amen.

The habit of sleeping in in the morning when there is work to be done is a damning thing. It is one thing that Brother Joseph has set an example -- that is, in going to bed early and rising early. Being prompt!! Some of these old virtues -- being prompt. "First to thine ownself be true; as the night follows the day, thou canst not be false to any man." If we have our own self-respect we will have the respect of others. These are plain everyday things, but we must get back to them. First of all, we must, in order to have the Spirit of God, we must be clean.

D.& C. 93

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy.
34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.
35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.
36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.

Let us get to work, brothers and sisters -- I mean spiritually. All things are spiritual in the sight of God. We have need to repent and get busy. Every one of us can build up the Kingdom of God by building up our families in unity and self-respect. It is necessary to raise the standard of this people. One of these days we will see the gentile nations bow the knee to the Priesthood of God.

RTJ 8:27  July 29, 1951  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
July 29, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Gratitude for His Parents;
Submit to the Priesthood Over Us;
Love by Serving One Another;
Support the Priesthood

I love that sister of mine next to my own mother. I have never seen a person with a greater desire to serve God than she has. She is a choice spirit and she is going to fulfill her mission. I, too, desire to fill my mission. I know my dear mother is watching from the other side, Leona, myself, and father, as far as she is able. I contemplate the wonderful way she stood by her husband, how she rejoiced as we took hold of the plow in seeking to serve God and keep His commandments. I haven't appreciated as much as I should have her great work and that of my noble father. He has the Spirit of revelation and prophecy. I appreciate that I came through noble parentage and rights to the Priesthood.

We should acknowledge God in our incomings and outgoings all the day long. Seek to have a greater spirit of gratitude, that we humble ourselves before the Lord, that we may keep His commandments. "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." If we love those who stand over us and keep their counsel and direction, we would be a more united people.

I have been impressed very much today in contemplating the things near and dear to our hearts. It is necessary to receive them, to humble ourselves before the Lord and submit ourselves to those who lead us, and especially have the Spirit of God. Many of us grieve the Spirit of the Lord and we have need to repent. Let us love the Lord and love our neighbors. We can love our neighbors more perfectly by serving them and offering to help them. If we want to love the Priesthood, we should support them with our means, tithes, and offerings. Let us bear up and support His Priesthood in the earth, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:28 August 19, 1951 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
August 19, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs

Proper Dress; Must Keep Our Bodies Covered;
We Have Received the Greater Light

I am grateful to be here today, dear brothers and sisters, and enjoy these fine things we have heard. We have some fine examples in our midst of the things Guy has talked about. There are some young ladies who have been going to High School and dressed in the way Brother Guy has spoken.

If I can add one more thing to this -- we all know those who have been in the temples. The garments of the holy Priesthood will require us to dress properly. Those who are not wearing garments, if you will begin to wear as though they were our garments, you will not be troubled with these things. We cannot go to public swimming pools and expose ourselves to the evils and danger. We cannot go upon the basketball floor and dress as they dress, and keep our sacred covenants. Let us remember this, and pretty soon we will be able to go to the temples and receive them.

As I have been sitting here, I have been impressed with the light and intelligence that has been given us. What is light? It is the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God. Some of us have been taught by that Spirit more or less today.

While I was upon my mission, I bore testimony frequently, according to the best knowledge that I had, that Heber J. Grant was a Prophet of God. It was the only leadership I knew and the only light I had. The mission president, after I returned, reminded me of that. But I received a greater light since I came home from my mission, and I am trying to tell the truth today. I told him, "I know, Brother Lund, that the Priesthood I know is higher than they at the head of Main Street."

Intelligence is light and truth. Peter was able at the time Christ was coming up for trial and said, "I deny this man" thrice, and yet have the keys of the Kingdom rest upon him later. Christ promised it. What was it that would not condemn him? He lacked the testimony of the Holy Ghost. The Apostles were told to tarry in Jerusalem until the Pentecost came. After that, Peter could not have denied Christ without assuming responsibility. How much more have we been taught that we would receive according to the light and intelligence we have received. All of us have seen it.

D.& C. 82

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation.
4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;
6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.

7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge; go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.
8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;
9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

D. & C. 84

40. Therefore, all those who receive the priesthood, receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved.

41. But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come.

Now, more has been given from this stand, and it may be to your condemnation. Certainly this people is being left without excuse, and each of you brethren should be leaving your wives and children without excuse. And the Spirit of God should be dispensed to them through you. Much light has been given and received through the testimony of the Holy Ghost, and we are not doing anything about it. We are under condemnation.

I hope we will turn altogether from that which is evil and go about our labors daily with a spirit of dedication -- the things we eat, the things we wear, our course and entertainments -- with the idea that we are dedicating our minds and spirits to the Lord; that in our countenance the light of God may shine. It is the duty of this people to conduct our lives that all may see and be led to glorify God in humility and kindness, in trying to serve Him and keep His commandments; which I pray we may do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:31 September 2, 1951 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
September 2, 1951
Reported by Leona Jeffs

Love

I rejoice in being with you again tonight. I desire to be led of the Lord and say something that will help all. It is an interesting thing to me that the remarks of the brethren have been along the lines I have been thinking of myself -- those particularly of Brother Rich regarding love. I feel to add a few thoughts, the Lord being willing.
I was thinking of the first great commandment, to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, might, mind, and strength; and love thy neighbor as thyself. Upon these hang all the law and the Prophets. That is God's truth, if you will reflect upon it. The Savior said, "If you love Me, keep My commandments. If you say you love Me and keep not My commandments, you are a liar and the truth is not in you."

We are at a loss to know how to get the Spirit of God and keep it. In those words it is wound up. If we keep the commandments of God we cannot help having the love of God. God is love. If we have that great attribute, we will have the love of God and seek to have the attributes of God; and then we will have faith, and the Spirit of God will be with us at all times.

I want to read something to you. If we will only follow its precepts, it will be of benefit to us. We ought to read this every day.

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity;

Can you imagine a man with hate and envy, having the Spirit of God and say Jesus is the Christ?

44. ...for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

Let us apply these in our everyday lives with our sister wives, husbands, and Priesthood. It:

45. ... envieth not, and is not puffed up,

Is not an aspiring man.

45. ... seeketh not her own,

Covet not things that are not our own.

45. ... is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --
47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

Can you see how we cannot truly love Christ and truly be friends unless we are one?

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him,

Charity is a gift of God because it is an attribute of God, and we must obtain it to be like God.

48. ...for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

We should be diligent in our daily, active life to seek to have this love, and above all, seek to love our true and living God, Adam, who loved us so much that He sent His Only Begotten Son that we might be redeemed, that we might be joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

He is reaching out with His love now, with all His might, mind, and strength to us. Unless we have it we cannot have the Spirit of God, and without the Spirit of God we have no revelation. It is like the brightness of the noon day sun.

It is a struggle to overcome our bickerings and characteristics. If we cast out these awful things, the Spirit of God and light will enter in so we might become like Him; which may we do, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:33 October 19, 1958 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
October 19, 1958
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Be Loyal to Your Decision of Obeying the Keyholder;
Do Not Hold Back; Do Not Trifle With Sacred Things;
There Is a Continual Sifting Going On

I humbly pray that I may be actuated by the Spirit of God in my remarks here today. That is my only desire in filling the responsibility of this position, that you will exercise your faith in common, that we may all understand alike and be led to glorify our Father in heaven.

Brother Johnson stated the truth when he said you are here because you are interested. I would like to carry that a little further, brothers and sisters. If you aren't here because you are more than just interested, I don't think you will last long. Like he said, the nature of this work savors of life or death, depending on which course we follow. If you are having troubles, brothers and sisters, in your daily contacts with one another, or in this work deciding what you should do, I would like to simplify it a little, if I may.

I hope that in accepting this work, you accepted it with the idea that it was life or death, and you chose life. Heber C. Kimball meant it when he said, "It is the Kingdom of God or nothing." If it isn't the Kingdom of God to you, I testify it will be nothing. There is only one decision you need to have made up to this time, brothers and sisters. Your present activities should merely be a matter of maintaining that decision. That decision should have been that you chose this work because God revealed it, and you have a testimony that it holds the keys of life for us.

There is only one decision so far as this work is concerned. Having made it, it is a matter of being loyal to it. Heber C. Kimball said once: "Where do you think you came from if you didn't come out of this Priesthood?" The greatest blessing of my life is the knowledge of God, that His Priesthood is here. There is just no halfway house, and I am afraid that is one trouble with a great many. They are trifling themselves down to hell, trifling with these sacred principles. I have nothing but pity for the man or woman that comes into this work on an experimental basis and tries it, because he will go on to something else, and then likely something else again.

Either President Johnson holds the keys to this Priesthood or he doesn't. And his predecessors may have the same thing said of them. Either they have these keys or they don't. Having decided they have them, that is the only decision we need to have made. That is where the keys of power are, and that is where our blessings will have to come from. It is a matter of keeping ourselves in tune with the Spirit of God which emanates from that Priesthood. Heber C. Kimball said, "How do you think you are going to have the Spirit of God except through us?" speaking of Brigham Young and himself and the Priesthood at that time. How do you wives think you are going to get the Spirit of God except you are in harmony with your husband? And you brethren, the same thing applies to the Priesthood over you.

The thing I am trying to get over today, brothers and sisters, is that we go after these blessings with a whole heart, instead of messing around and trifling with these sacred principles. We will never be one sufficiently strong in unity that the Lord can use us unless we get into that frame of mind. It must be a full dedication of all we have and are to His Priesthood. Nothing must be held back. I would like to read again some of these simple truths we have in the Lectures on Faith:

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God. When a man has offered in sacrifice all that he has for the truth’s sake, not even withholding his life, and believing before God that he has been called to make this sacrifice because he seeks to do his will, he does know, most assuredly, that God does and will accept his sacrifice and offering, and that he has not, nor will not seek his face in vain. Under these circumstances, then, he can obtain the faith necessary for him to lay hold on eternal life.

I think it is well for us to take inventory, brothers and sisters, to determine if we are holding back anything in reserve. If you hold any mental reservation about the authority President Johnson and these brethren hold, if you have any mental reservations about the authority that sealed you men and women together in the holy bonds of matrimony -- is there any doubt in your minds that it might have been a mistake? -- I feel sorry for you if you are in that frame of mind. I have found in the experience of observing people who have come into this work, those who are faithful to the knowledge they had while they were in the Church, then have found higher things, greater authority and Priesthood to lay hold upon, and have been faithful and true in this work. Those who have been rebellious, they will be rebellious here, and will continue from one place to another as they have gone.

There is a sifting going on all the time, brothers and sisters. I hope and pray we will be sifted out and remain among the faithful and chosen. This work is going to go on whether we go with it or not. You can be very sure of that. I want to bear my testimony that I know as I know I live and breathe that this is the work of God. There is none other upon the whole earth by which we can gain the presence of God again. There is no other place where we can obtain the keys, power, and knowledge necessary for us to become like God, and enter into His presence again. I know that as I know I live, though I haven't seen God. I accept these things as having seen them by the testimony of the Holy Ghost. That is as much knowledge to me as if I had felt with my hands, heard with my ears, etc. That is how I know President Johnson holds the keys to this Priesthood today.

I hope and pray for the time when we will be instructed of our brethren on the other side; that we will be a united people. These brethren want nothing more than your salvation and unity -- your whole heart for this work. God doesn't want your money, your children, or anything else. What He wants is your heart. If He has that, He has everything.

May we get into this condition that we may be useful, that God will not have to spew us out of His mouth for us being lukewarm. Stop trifling around. Get in or get out. The Kingdom of God or nothing! And may it be the Kingdom of God to us all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
August 30, 1959
Reported by Marjorie Holm

We Should Be Most Grateful; Sacrifice Our Earthly Character to Become Like God; Much Is Required of This People

I, too, am very grateful to be with you this afternoon, brothers and sisters. I sincerely pray that the Spirit of God will actuate my remarks here this afternoon. I am grateful for the knowledge and testimony I have of the character of God and of His Priesthood here upon the earth. I often think back to the day when my father told me that I didn't hold the Priesthood. I had come back from my mission and married and had a son. That was rather shocking news. But I am grateful now that my father met Brother Joseph Musser back in 1937, and had the concern for me, as well as the rest of his family, to tell me where I stood.

As I have been contemplating the past here today, I thought back to the days when I first came into this work, when inspiration and revelation was given to me regarding these principles, and especially regarding the keys of Priesthood in the earth, and how grateful I am to be numbered among the brethren who bear the holy Melchizedek Priesthood; that I am acquainted with him who holds the keys. This is a great blessing, brothers and sisters, and I can't help being grateful enough; I know I am not.

Ingratitude, I think, is one of the greatest sins, and I don't think we think of these things enough, brothers and sisters. But we have the power of God in our midst to administer the pure religion, which was administered by the Prophet Joseph Smith. We have a legal administrator, blessings unto us where we can come back into the presence of God.

When I look at this little people that have come out of the heart's core of the Latter-day Saints, which I guess now numbers a million and a half, how the Lord has brought us together under the banner of the holy Priesthood, we should be of all men the most grateful, and we should be the most perfect because of the light that has come to us. Where much is given, much is expected. Much is required of the Lord. Do we think of this daily as we go through our lives? Do we realize we live and breathe by the grace of God, that without His Spirit we would be nothing?

Brothers and sisters, we need to get the Spirit of God more, to have it with us more often, until we get to the point where it is our constant guide and companion, as Section 121 promises, if we will fulfill the law and keep the commandments; for if we do, then God is bound. He said, "If ye do not what I say, ye have no promise. If you follow the commandments, then I am bound." The Spirit of God is the greatest need. It is the only way we are going to become one. Brothers and sisters, we need greater faith. I know I do. I feel to read again a little from the Lectures on Faith. It might be a help to us, and I feel especially to myself.
Lecture Six

5. For a man to lay down his all, his character and reputation, his honor, and applause, his good name among men, his houses, his lands, his brothers and sisters, his wife and children, and even his own life also -- counting all things but filth and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ -- requires more than mere belief or supposition that he is doing the will of God; but actual knowledge, realizing that, when these sufferings are ended, he will enter into eternal rest, and be a partaker of the glory of God.

Too many of us have a mere supposition that we are doing the will of God. It goes on to say:

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God. When a man has offered in sacrifice all that he has for the truth's sake, not even withholding his life, and believing before God that he has been called to make this sacrifice because he seeks to do his will, he does know, most assuredly, that God does and will accept his sacrifice and offering, and that he has not, nor will not seek his face in vain. Under these circumstances, then, he can obtain the faith necessary for him to lay hold on eternal life.

Now the Prophet mentioned these things, a few of the earthly sacrifices we must make -- houses, lands, wife, children, brothers and sisters, and our own life also; but I am sure that above and beyond all this, he meant that it was required that we sacrifice our traditions, our old and evil habits; for only through this medium, brothers and sisters, can we obtain that character, or assimilate ourselves into the character of God. These are the hardest things to do. It is comparatively easy to say many things, to think we are doing the will of God. We must sacrifice our traditions and the characteristics that are not like unto that of God. And I am sure when we have attained, then, to this condition, only then will we know our course is pleasing to Him. He will then have confidence in us, because our character is like unto His.

I am impressed always with the thought that we cannot see Him unless we are like Him. It is just that simple. Do we have any idea that in our present condition and this character we have, could we endure His presence if we were called on by God tonight or tomorrow? I know it frightens me. We are just not thinking of these things enough as we go about our daily walks and talks of life. Everything we put our hand to we should think according to this principle: "Is this according to the character of God? Would God do it this way?" After having come into some detail as to who is a saved being, he said:

Lecture Seven

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and for any portion of the human family to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved; and to be unlike them is to be destroyed; and on this hinge turns the door of salvation.

What is faith? It is the exercise of the mind.

Lecture Seven

3. ...We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force. It is by words, instead of exerting his physical powers, with which every being works when he works by faith.

Lecture Seven tells this. Are we praying enough? Are we forsaking our old ways daily? If we are not, we are not pleasing God, and will not please Him until we come unto perfection. May we do this, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.
O God, the Eternal Father, we pour out our hearts in gratitude unto thee for the words of life, encouragement, and instruction, and of chastisement which have come to us this day; and pray thee to help us now to profit thereby, to so order our lives that we may perfect the same to thy name's honor and glory.

Help us to keep our covenants and grow in knowledge, wisdom, and understanding, mind our own business, sanctify our lives, and do all we can for those for whom we are responsible. Be with us until we meet again. Wilt thou shield us from the eyes and ears of those who seek to harm your people.
Protect us from the investigators who are prying into the business of your saints.

Forgive us of our imperfections and shortcomings. Help us to perfect our lives unto thy name's honor and glory, we pray in the name of Jesus Christ,
amen.

RTJ 8:41  August 21, 1960  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
August 21, 1960
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Are Greatly Blessed; We Need Greater Faith

I am indeed grateful to be able to meet again with you on this beautiful day, and to be numbered with the people of God. When I realize how blessed we are, I wonder how much real gratitude is in our hearts. We are so far trying to keep the commandments of God and to be loyal to the Priesthood on earth; yet this few could become the mightiest force of the earth. We can obtain the faith of the ancients in seeking the approbation of the God from heaven. I know we are not yet grateful enough for the things that we have.

This stems from the things Brother John Y. Barlow has taught us, that we are not as serious about the things of God as we should be. We do not have the necessary faith. According to our faith, so shall it be, according to the Lord.
I feel to pour out my gratitude to the Lord for His blessings, and repent of my sins. I know I should depend more on the Lord than on the flesh. [He then read Ether 3.]
Brother Johnson and the other four brethren are excused tonight, in other parts of the Lord's vineyard performing a mission. Brother Timpson and I felt a little lonesome up here, so we felt like we better fill up these seats.

It is wonderful to get together, brothers and sisters. What you and all of us get out of this meeting is going to depend on what we give it in faith; calling upon each and every one of us that we might be fed and directed through the mouths of those that are called on to speak, in such a way that we may take to heart those instructions and put them into our lives, that we won't just go away from this meeting and just talk about it. Let us do something about it, brothers and sisters. I am going to call upon some of the brothers and sisters from the congregation tonight. We want to hear your testimony and feel your spirit.

We have been together quite a long while, brothers and sisters, but I would like to add just an admonition or two, with the help of the Lord. I love Brother Timpson and I love all of my other brethren. And I think I can testify as well as any, how I miss the love and association of my brethren in the Council, and particularly Brother Johnson, in being away as much as I am. I came through Albuquerque last Tuesday morning and I had breakfast with them; and it was like life from heaven, in the midst of that wicked city and environment, to sit down for a few moments on their journey, and counsel with them and meet them in their motel room and pray with them. I don't know when I felt more lonesome than I did when they left. I miss them tonight, but I know they are doing a great work; and some of the saints who need them more than we do are being blessed by their administrations today.

I love my brethren more than I love my wife, and I pray it will ever be so. I don't think my wife could follow me if I didn't. If I weren't faithful and true to the authority over me, I couldn't expect my folks to be likewise with me. And until I get out of the way of my Priesthood, they can never get away from me, worlds without end. These are very simple and plain truths.

Now, brothers and sisters, we talk a great deal about faith and faithfulness, but I don’t think we understand yet the real modus operandi. The Seventh Lecture tells us that when we work by faith, we work by mental exertion, instead of physical force. By this measure I wonder how many of us could be judged lazy, spiritually lazy, or lacking in faith. One wise man has said this about faith, that I think might be worth passing on. Sometimes we can understand some of these things. "All the strength and force of man comes from faith in things unseen."

We were sent into the world to walk by faith and prove that we would just go and refuse evil and come again into the presence of God. And that is the sum and substance of our labor here upon the earth, that our faith should be so perfect that we see Him who is unseen. We must come to that point, when our calling and election is made sure through our receiving our anointings, and finally through the administration of the Savior Himself, who will then show the Father unto us. "He who believes is strong; he who doubts is sick. The man strongly possessed of an idea is the master of all who are uncertain and waiving."

If we have a conviction of the truths of the holy Priesthood and the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the saints will rule the world, and not until. There must be an inner fire, a burning within our inner breast that reaches out to God through prayer, and through obedience, before we can be working by faith and come up to see His face.

Are we so exerting ourselves, brothers and sisters? We exert ourselves mentally through words, which then requires that we pray constantly in our actions, in our thinking, in all of our labors. We should be constantly praying to the Lord and seeking to fulfill the measure of our creation. The Holy Spirit, brothers and sisters, is the attributes of God. We must be filled with it; and we will be through obedience.

Salt Lake City, Utah
September 16, 1962
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Faith; "Kingdom of God or Nothing"
Faith is repentance unto God. If we would only yield to legitimate authority, this would indeed be a blessing among our people. I wonder, as we have these little warnings that are given of the Lord, if fear doesn't come. Fear is the opposite of faith.

I am wondering if many of us keep coming here because of fear, fear that this might be the work of God, that this might be the Priesthood of God. If you have any hope that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints with its present leadership is going to offer you anything in heaven, then you are in the wrong place.

It is the Kingdom of God or nothing. Joseph Smith is the One Mighty and Strong. President Barlow told some people if they did not believe that, they would apostatize as sure as God lives. All of us need to be set in order and work as one in this great work.

RTJ 8:44  August 4, 1963  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
August 4, 1963
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Become Like God; Lesson on Priesthood

I am grateful, brothers and sisters, for the spirit that is here, and for the messages that we have been given. Much the same has gone through my mind as has been expressed here tonight, partly that which was voiced by Brother Jessop. Now I pray that that which I may add may be dictated by the Holy Spirit. I feel very keenly this responsibility standing before you and particularly in the office and calling that I have, for which I am grateful to the Lord. The greatest desire of my life is to magnify the holy Priesthood.

Brothers and sisters, I feel impressed to dwell on this most important subject to a little length tonight regarding the holy Priesthood. Brother Jessop mentioned that President Johnson holds the keys of Priesthood on the earth, and mentioned here that he holds the highest authority that God has given to men, and for this we should be most grateful and obedient and humble before the Lord.

Now, in laying the groundwork for this, I would like to read an item or two; first of all, something we have heard many times -- Lecture Seven:
Lecture Seven

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and for any portion of the human family to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved; and to be unlike them is to be destroyed; and on this hinge turns the door of salvation.

The work and glory of God is to bring to pass the immortality and eternal life of His children. And this is the means by which He does it -- to make them like unto Himself; for many of the scriptures tell us, unless we become like Him, we cannot be with Him. This seems to be a very fundamental and simple statement of the truth, doesn't it?

How do we get to be like Him? There are two great gifts that God has granted us as the means by which we accomplish or become like God -- first, Priesthood; and second, the power of the Priesthood, the gift of the Holy Ghost. I wonder how much we appreciate this all-important truth, brothers and sisters. I ask the question, "How?" We all realize, or should be realizing, the weaknesses that we have, the characteristics of our nature that are not like God. And we become very busy -- sometimes not enough, even, doing that -- making various resolutions about this weakness or that weakness. But there is one all-important means by which it may be done, and I would like to read it in the words of a man. I copied it down here; I don't even remember his name:

The secret of success consists not in the habit of making numerous resolutions about various faults and sins, but in one great, absorbing, controlling purpose to serve God and do His will! If this be the controlling motive of life, all other motives will be swept into the force of its mighty current and guided aright.

We have heard it stated in many other ways. We learn His will and do it; but we have got to have faith and the desire to do it, brothers and sisters. And I think that if we will only realize the importance of these gifts, that maybe I can call your attention to through some little reading here -- the nature of this Priesthood with which we are dealing.
First of all, every man here who bears the holy Melchizedek Priesthood is a part of God. Have you ever realized this? And it is a means by which you can hold wives and children. There is a revelation that has not been published which has been called to our attention, and it might help us to realize what I am saying when I say, those that bear this Priesthood are part of God, because God is Priesthood:

JD 2:342  Orson Pratt  February 18, 1855  SLC

There is one revelation that this people are not generally acquainted with. I think it has never been published, but probably it will be in the Church History. It is given in questions and answers. The first question is, "What is the name of God in the pure language?" The answer says, "Ahman." "What is the name of the Son of God?" Answer, "Son Ahman -- the greatest of all the parts of God excepting Ahman." "What is the name of men?" "Sons Ahman," is the answer. "What is the name of angels in the pure language?" "Anglo-man."

Now, if we would but realize that in bearing this power, this delegated authority which God gives to act in His name, which we need to direct wives and train up children -- believe me, we need it, and we cannot do the job without it. If any man thinks he can engage in this work without magnifying his Priesthood, he better try, for he will go out.

The power of the Priesthood is given you. Are the blessings that are given you not sacred blessings? And no man can magnify and raise up these families without the power of the Priesthood; and the power of the Priesthood is the Holy Ghost. Any man who tries to govern his families under that Priesthood without the Holy Ghost will fail miserably. It isn't done; not in the sight of God.

What is the source of this gift of the Priesthood and the gift of the Holy Ghost? Of course, it is God Himself. And He has called men to lead and direct and stand in His place and stand upon the earth. God Himself can't be here. So He has raised up humble and pure men to lead us -- men in whom we can have confidence sufficient to attain this salvation that we speak of.

Now, what is Priesthood? John Taylor, I think, gives a great, beautiful definition:

John Taylor  Millennial Star 9:321

What is Priesthood? Without circumlocution, I shall as briefly answer that it is the government of God, whether on the earth or in the heavens, for it is by that power, agency, or principle that all things are governed on the earth and in the heavens, and by that power that all things are upheld and sustained. It governs all things -- it directs all things -- it sustains all things -- and has to do with all things that God and truth are associated with. It is the power of God delegated to intelligences in the heavens and to men on the earth;

This earth would go into chaos if it weren't for a man whom God has appointed and anointed and directed upon the earth to stand upon it. Though we have had periods of great apostasy, the Lord has seen to it that men holding the high authority of this Priesthood were standing on it. During the periods of time when mortal men did not hold the Priesthood, there were men here holding that Priesthood who were in a translated condition. We know of at least four men -- John the Beloved and the Three Nephites were here. This was when the fullness of the Priesthood was not upon the earth among mortal men.

Now, let me have defined for you the nature of this Priesthood, or that which we deal with. Brigham Young says:

I speak thus to show you the order of the Priesthood. We will now commence with the Apostleship, where Joseph commenced. Joseph was ordained an Apostle -- that you can read and understand. After he was ordained to this office, then he had the right to organize and build up the kingdom of God, for he had committed unto him the keys of the Priesthood, which is after the order of Melchisedec -- the High Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God. And this, remember, by being ordained an Apostle.

Could he have built up the Kingdom of God, without first being an Apostle? No, he never could. The keys of the eternal Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God, are comprehended by being an Apostle. All the Priesthood, all the keys, all the gifts, all the endowments, and everything preparatory to entering into the presence of the Father and of the Son, are in, composed of, circumscribed by, or I might say incorporated within the circumference of, the Apostleship.

In the dedication of the Salt Lake Temple, the southeast cornerstone was laid by the First Presidency, the southwest cornerstone by the Presiding
Bishopric, the northwest cornerstone by the High Priests, and the northeast cornerstone by the Twelve Apostles. And he illustrated in this -- Brigham Young did -- that we begin with the Apostleship, and we end with it. This is what we are dealing with, brothers and sisters, and I sometimes think we don't realize the nature of it. I think another very interesting thing is the statement here of Parley P. Pratt. People feel we are placing too much emphasis upon obedience to Priesthood, and so forth.

Parley P. Pratt  Millennial Star 6:93

Brethren, no one's claims need any support. Those who hold the keys of the kingdom of God will be supported by the spirit of God, and by his angels, and also by the aid and prayers of the Saints. And they will say nothing about their `claims', nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them.

If men hold the keys of the kingdom of God, they are not dependent upon men to support their claims; but the church and all the world is dependent on them and on the keys committed to them for the ministration of salvation. They can shut and no more open, or open and no more shut. And to these authorities all must bow, so far as to be ministered to, and governed in the things of salvation, or else remain without the blessing of the kingdom.

Joseph Smith presided, not by reason of being President of the Church, but by his being an Apostle. I said that the power of the Priesthood is the Holy Ghost. This first item that I read -- the all-powerful principle of doing the will of God and becoming like Him -- the gift of the Holy Ghost was given for this purpose, and the Holy Spirit is the attributes of God. If we learn to get and keep it all the time, as others have demonstrated it can be done, then we will be like God, because the Holy Spirit is the attributes of God. The more skillful we become in attaining it and keeping it, the more we will become like God.

When we do these things that hold us back, it is because we have lost the Spirit of God. Do you think that anyone having the Spirit of God could lie, or deceive, or commit any unclean act or evil? How could he do anything but have faith, attain knowledge, exercise justice, judgment, mercy, and live the truth? How could he be anything but love?

So it seems to me, it comes down to a point, brothers and sisters, that we have had the authority and gifts of God through the Priesthood conferred upon us; and in order to magnify it, it is a matter of getting and keeping the Holy Spirit as our constant guide and companion.

Section 121 -- it should be with us always. I would like to repeat that again:

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

The power of the Priesthood, if you please, cannot be exercised on any other basis.

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

And aren't all of these things the same nature as the attributes of God, under those six categories?

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

The order of Priesthood that presides over us. Who is your father, mother, brother, and sister? Pray tell me. Is it your natural father and mother? I should say not. Those who love the same principles I love, bear the same order of Priesthood, these are my brothers and my sisters, and those who are associated with them. And I have had fathers and mothers in the Priesthood. If they are not of the Priesthood, they are of no relation to me.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Which I pray we may realize in our lives, and that we will be more faithful from this time forward. Brothers and sisters, yesterday is gone. Let us not dwell upon it except to learn a lesson from it -- to do better today. Tomorrow isn't here yet. What are we doing with today? Time is a most precious gift.
Having been partakers of this covenant, let us live for each day, getting and keeping the Spirit of God each day, and never let it go from us. We know when we have lost it, we are most uncomfortable. When it begins to go, we better see what is causing it to go, and check it immediately, day after day and throughout all our lives; which I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:51  September 22, 1963  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
September 22, 1963
Reported by Marjorie Holm
A Prayer

Our Father and our God, we feel grateful at the close of these services for thy word and the testimonies of the truth that have been borne through thy servants, and we pray that thou wilt sanctify them to our good, and cause that our hearts may be pricked, that we may repent and overcome and submit ourselves wholly unto thee and thy servants; that we may begin from this time forth to prepare ourselves to be indeed thy saints, that we may merit the blessings that have been promised to the faithful.

Grant us thy Spirit. May it distil upon our souls, and may it be our constant guide and companion until we meet again. Dear Father, let thy Spirit be upon our head and Prophet, Leroy S. Johnson. Go with us to our homes in peace and safety, and may all things be done with an eye single to thy glory, dedicating ourselves unto thee, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:52  May 31, 1964  Hildale

Hildale, Utah
May 31, 1964
Reported by Marjorie Holm
We Lack Faith; Must We Suffer the Judgments to Cause Us to Repent?; Protected by Fire From Heaven;
Be Fully Submissive Because We Love the Truth;
This is a wonderful sight again, brothers and sisters, and I am grateful to be here, and pray for the Spirit of God to direct my remarks today. I pray that you will be attentive and exercise your faith in my behalf and in behalf of all the other brethren who speak to you. We little realize what power is here, brothers and sisters, if the faith of each and every one collectively were sufficient. If we were sufficiently obedient to the laws and commandments of God, the veil might as well be rent now as any other time, as the Prophet told the saints in his day; I do not know why not in this if our faith were sufficient.

The Spirit of God, my brothers and sisters, is the means by which we can be that people that Brother Johnson has been striving so with all his heart, might, mind, and strength, as those who preceded him in the Presidency of the Priesthood, that they might be used by our Father in heaven. We are not enjoying that strength and power and faith that the Lord wants us to have, or we would have the blessings that we need and desire in righteousness. We would have endowments and other things. There would be such a strength and encouragement to us to grow faster. But the Lord is not going to be mocked, and He is not going to see sacred things treated lightly as they have in times gone by.

Now, what is it going to take to bring this people up to that stage of progress where God can fight our battles, where we as a people can be used by Him to accomplish His work and His will and purposes in the earth? Are we going to have to suffer some of these judgments to bring us around? I pray this will not be the case. Or will we, by the power of our faith and faithfulness, through our obedience, through our getting and keeping the Spirit of God, come to that unity of strength of purpose and faith that He can indeed fight our battles when these judgments do come? Is this community in such a condition that God can do this? This is something we need to ask ourselves. The saints everywhere need to ask themselves this question. There are a good many in Salt Lake City erring.

President Johnson has told us if we have sufficient purity and are sufficiently obedient and faithful, the fire can be called down from heaven to protect us -- this area, as well as our individual homes and wherever the saints have congregated. I have the faith that the Lord can protect my homes if they are kept in a dedicated condition, and my families are sufficiently obedient and Brother Holm has raised a very serious question we need to dwell upon individually and collectively. It is a subject I feel very strongly about, too, at the present time, and have for a number of years. If we were true and faithful and honest, we would find joy and rejoicing in living the Gospel and abiding in the principles of Celestial and Plural Marriage and the United Order.

If I may be permitted, if the Lord will help me, I would like to ask you a few more questions on this subject. Are you truly, in your heart, living these laws because you love them, or are you living them under protest? Withholding nothing we have, either in spirit or the things of this world -- all must be offered in sacrifice. No mental or physical reservations must be maintained, or we cannot enjoy the Spirit of God. To put it another way, have I fully submitted myself to my legitimate head? This isn't accomplished in one single act, believe me. It is a continuing thing from day to day -- a spirit of submission, a spirit of humility, obedience to legitimate authority, and rendering obedience because we love to, and because we love our head and God Almighty who has made these great and glorious blessings available to us. In nothing is God more displeased than to have the blessings of the holy Priesthood offered to people and to have them reject them in any degree whatsoever; because once having been offered and rejected, there may not be another opportunity to receive them. If we reject anything that the servants of God have offered us, we may find ourselves in a condition that we will not be able to receive them if we find them again.

What I am talking about, my brothers and sisters, is a full submission; a desire to obey the Gospel, to live and abide in these laws because we love them; because we love the truth; because God has given them through His servants; and we desire with all our heart to receive its blessings, and grow and assimilate our character into that of our Father. The very nature of this Gospel in its entirety is that these blessings and ordinances that are offered to us and given to us enable us to bring our character in line with our Father's and make ourselves like Him. We are not sufficiently aware of these abiding, great principles the brethren have been teaching us in our daily affairs. We hear about it on Sunday, and then go about our daily affairs and forget all about it -- bearing false witness, jealousies, faultfinding, and all other things that are so contrary to the Spirit of God. Then we wonder why we are not making progress and why we are not receiving these blessings we desire. If you have the spirit of respect, and are honest with yourselves, you will be honest with God's servants, your Priesthood head and with God Himself. Can any respecting person do otherwise?

Another thing is plain -- old hypocrisy. One of the servants of God once said in a public meeting -- J. Golden Kimball: "God, how I hate hypocrisy." I think Joseph Smith himself said it. So, are we appearing to be one thing from the outside and in our hearts something else? This is dishonesty; this is hypocrisy.

Now, how are we going to overcome these things, brothers and sisters? The law is simple, the formula is sure. It is within the reach of every man, woman, and child. Love the Father in heaven with all our might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. Can any of us say we love God and hate our fellow men? Brother Guy has over his desk a statement I think we need to bear in mind: "The path I walk with others is the path God walks with me." If you want the love and approbation of God, our Father, then love one another and be one people under the direction of the servants of God. Come together in the Spirit of God, desiring one thing only, and that is to serve Him and love Him with all our might, mind, and strength.

My dear brothers and sisters, if we will learn to love President Johnson with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, we will have a rallying point second to none other, that will enable us to be a people who are one, loving one another as Jesus told His disciples, to be as He was, as He was about to leave them. He said to them, "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." This is all Brother Johnson wants of this people -- be that people he is struggling with all his might, mind, and strength to make, one with our Father in heaven. May we be that people, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:56 May 30, 1965 CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
May 30, 1965
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Honorably Fulfill Our Mission;
The Law of Obedience Calls Upon the People to Give Complete Loyalty

I have truly enjoyed the spirit of this occasion and conference, and I feel very keenly the feelings of these young men who are sent and perform missions in this community here and other places to labor. A mission really is one that occupies all of our labors, especially this people who have been called out of the world and out of the LDS Church, and have become that peculiar people that is to rule in the Millennium.

This people as a whole have a special mission, for these spirits that occupy your bodies have been reserved at this time to carry on this work. Not all will be honorably fulfilling that mission, but a majority will. I pray that these children we are raising out of our loins will. Those who are valiant and true will continue, and not close their eyes in death until their missions are complete. This is the scope of the missions, as I see it.

Too often we do not realize the importance and gravity of it -- who we are and what we are -- the sons and daughters of Ephraim, and Jacob. This is the people of Ephraim, and to whom all the tribes of Israel will have to come for their blessings -- those in Jerusalem, North and South America. The remnants of Jacob will have to come to us for their blessings in marriage. That key man who holds the holy Priesthood is with us directing us today, and I bear my testimony of this in the name of Jesus Christ.

To the young men and people in the missionary work -- carry on. Here is how the Lord expects us to do His work:

D.& C. 4

1. Now behold, a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

We have got to with all our heart, might, mind, and strength in the last days.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

Only he who is true and faithful and endures to the last will be that people.

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

Hope, love, and charity are the key to this work.
6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.
7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

And according to your faith, so shall it be. I promise you in the name of Jesus Christ, any blessing that the Lord has reserved for the last days, you shall receive if you are worthy; even in temples, and have your calling and election made sure and hold concourse with the angels and dwell in the presence of God.

I cannot understand how anyone connected in this work can in any way hold to any principles than those laid out by Joseph Smith. How can anyone stay on the fringes of this work -- one half in, one half out? Either get in or out! The law of obedience calls for one hundred percent loyalty to the principles of God. It is this order of the Kingdom of God and of the Priesthood of God, or nothing; and it will be nothing, I promise you, unless you repent and get in and live the principles of this work. Doing things in a halfhearted way is slothful. We cannot treat lightly these things, or God will spew us out of His mouth. It is obtainable through prayer and in obtaining it in our hearts through actions. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:58 February 2, 1969 Hildale

Hildale, Utah
February 2, 1969
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Our Faith Is Perfect When We Are Like God; Attain Unto Faith and Knowledge Through Sacrifice

Brothers and sisters, the time has arrived to commence this service. We were just remarking what a fine thing it is to be in our seats in advance of the time appointed for a meeting, to sit in meditation and silence preparatory for its commencement. We certainly need more introspection and a preparation in our meetings to get the Spirit of God, and enable us to then be in condition to receive from its dictates by those who are called upon to instruct us. It is good to be here, brothers and sisters, and I pray that the Spirit of God will be shed forth upon us in mighty power to accomplish the work of God, and to bring His mind and will to bear upon us.

I have often said, my brothers and sisters, that we could make a meeting or an occasion of this kind just what we want to make of it. This is measured by the degree of our faith, the exertion of our minds and concentrating on the things of God and those things that are being brought to our attention. Let us, then, do this, that we might have a time of rejoicing here again today.

I rejoice in being with you again, my brothers and sisters, and feel to repeat the prayer in my behalf, because I desire only to teach the truth. If there is anything I desire more than that, it is to live it and to become like God.

The subject of faith has been on my mind today, brothers and sisters, and if the Lord will give me His Spirit, I would like to call a few points regarding this subject to our attention. Whenever I speak, I feel it applies more to me than it does to my listeners.

Brother Joseph Smith, Jr., said: We have assembled together to do the business of the Lord and it is through the great mercy of our God that we are spared to assemble together, many of us have gone at the command of the Lord in defiance of everything evil, and obtained blessings unspeakable, in consequence of which our names are sealed in the Lamb’s book of life, for the Lord has spoken it. It is the privilege of every Elder to speak of the things of God; and could we all come together with one heart and one mind in perfect faith the veil might as well be rent today as next week, or any other time, and if we will but cleanse ourselves and covenant before God, to serve Him, it is our privilege to have an assurance that God will protect us at all times. -- F.W.R., pp. 13-14. (Oct. 25, 1831.)

Joseph said more in those few words than we realize, brothers and sisters, and I would to God we would realize the importance of it and act upon perfect faith. I was asked once, "What is perfect faith?" I will have to go to the words of Joseph again to get the answer for that.

Lecture Seven

8. When men begin to live by faith they begin to draw near to God; and when faith is perfected they are like him; and because he is saved they are saved also; for they will be in the same situation he is in, because they have come to him; and when he appears they shall be like him, for they will see him as he is.

Our faith is perfected then, brothers and sisters, when we are like Him. And I would probably conclude that this is because faith has ripened into knowledge; a person coming to a point where he knows that his course is pleasing to God, and that he acts, feels, and thinks like God does. And this is the object of our faith.

With the help of the Lord, I feel like I would like to go through parts, if not all, of Lecture Six, in this connection which deals so much on the subject connected with faith and the sacrifice of all things; because if we see this in its pure and true context, the sacrifice of all things, we give up all things that are worldly -- our old character and the things of the world we place our hearts on so much and everything pertaining to it; so that all things are done in the light of eternity, as God thinks and does everything in the light of eternity, so we become like Him.

Lecture Six

3. Having the assurance that they were pursuing a course which was agreeable to the will of God, they were enabled to take, not only the spoiling of their goods, and the wasting of their substance, joyfully, but also to suffer death in its most horrid forms; knowing (not merely believing) that when this earthly house of their tabernacle was dissolved, they had a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Corinthians v.1.

4. Such was, and always will be, the situation of the saints of God, that unless they have an actual knowledge that the course they are pursuing is according to the will of God they will grow weary in their minds, and faint;

So you can see how a man can apostatize. A man knowing that his course is not pleasing to God will cause him to grow weary in his mind and he will faint and fade away. Watch and see how it goes from time to time, as people leave the work of God. It is a sense of guilt. I have seen it very close. I have seen it afar off. We have all seen and read of it time and again in the history of Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, and John Taylor; and sadly we are acquainted with it today.

4. ...for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers and those that know not God against the pure and unadulterated religion of heaven (the only thing which insures eternal life), that they will persecute to the uttermost all that worship God according to his revelations, receive the truth in the love of it, and submit themselves to be guided and directed by his will; and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven, and of their having embraced the order of things which God has established for the redemption of man, will enable them to exercise that confidence in him, necessary for them to overcome the world, and obtain that crown of glory which is laid up for them that fear God.

Let us not suppose that because they have embraced the work of God that that is sufficient. Think not because you live in this place that that is going to take care of you. Obedience is required of all, regardless of where they live, what they are doing, or what their part is in this work. By obedience we obtain these things, this knowledge that our course is pleasing to God. By obedience we will do the things that are outlined in the verses that follow:

5. For a man to lay down his all, his character and reputation, his honor, and applause, his good name among men, his houses, his lands, his brothers and sisters, his wife and children, and even his own life also -- counting all things but filth and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ -- requires more than mere belief or supposition that he is doing the will of God; but actual knowledge, realizing that, when these sufferings are ended, he will enter into eternal rest, and be a partaker of the glory of God.

How many of us are clinging to our relatives and friends who have no part or desire to live for this work, who are enemies to it in many cases; or at least have demonstrated the fact? By mingling with them we partake of their spirit, and we slow down the process which we are engaged in of coming to know that our course is pleasing to God.

Our relatives who will not obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ have got to be sacrificed, along with everything else. And if a wife, children, brothers, and sisters refuse likewise to do so, we must sacrifice them. I have a little knowledge concerning that. Houses, lands, things of this world that may hold us back, have we given them up; but above all, brothers and sisters, this worldly character?
We were born into a world full of sin -- many traditions, filled with traditions that are satanic in their nature, and we are exposed to them. That is why we are here, to be exposed to these things. Satan rules in blood and horror -- having control of the governments, armies, and navies, and all things pertaining to it. Having been born and raised up in the midst of the world, it is required of us to come out of her, come out of Babylon. The way to do it is to partake of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, give up the selfishness, unbelief, criticisms, and faultfinding, and all other evils.

The attributes of God are indeed the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost. In order for us to obtain this knowledge, we must have the Holy Ghost with us at all times. Our faith is perfected because we are like Him.

6. For unless a person does know that he is walking according to the will of God, it would be offering an insult to the dignity of the Creator were he to say that he would be a partaker of his glory when he should be done with the things of this life. But when he has this knowledge, and most assuredly knows that he is doing the will of God, his confidence can be equally strong that he will be a partaker of the glory of God.

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God.

Have we given up the things of the world? The power we have with God is through the Holy Spirit, exercised under the direction of the holy Priesthood in our midst, which is accountable to God. This is having power in the Priesthood, power with God; the power of the Holy Ghost, which is the attributes of God.

7. ...When a man has offered in sacrifice all that he has for the truth's sake, not even withholding his life, and believing before God that he has been called to make this sacrifice because he seeks to do his will, he does know, most assuredly, that God does and will accept his sacrifice and offering, and that he has not, nor will not seek his face in vain. Under these circumstances, then, he can obtain the faith necessary for him to lay hold on eternal life.

The Prophet uses these words so often: "Lay hold on eternal life."

8. It is in vain for persons to fancy to themselves that they are heirs with those, or can be heirs with them, who have offered their all in sacrifice, and by this means obtain faith in God and favor with him so as to obtain eternal life, unless they, in like manner, offer unto him the same sacrifice, and through that offering obtain the knowledge that they are accepted of him.

9. It was in offering sacrifices that Abel, the first martyr, obtained knowledge that he was accepted of God.

We gain knowledge by offering sacrifice. Unless it comes by faith, it is sin. Righteous Abel, because he did it in faith, was why it was accepted, and Cain's wasn't. Abel knew he was obeying the law of God in offering up the firstlings of the flock, looking forward to the redemption of the Lord Jesus Christ. Cain loved satan more than God, and offered up his offering because satan told him to. For all time, God settled that question, and Cain complained, and God said, "Why do you feel bad? If thou doest well it shall be well with thee." Cain knew he hadn't done well. So, in his guilt, he went off and became the father of satan's lies, and has been carrying on in that work from that day to this.

We should be engaged in the process of gathering together as a people because we have made a covenant by sacrifice.

9. ...And from the days of righteous Abel to the present time, the knowledge that men have that they are accepted in the sight of God is obtained by offering sacrifice. And in the last days, before the Lord comes, he is to gather together his saints who have made a covenant with him by sacrifice. Psalms 1:3, 4, 5: "Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people. Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

10. Those, then, who make the sacrifice, will have the testimony that their course is pleasing in the sight of God; and those who have this testimony will have faith to lay hold on eternal life, and will be enabled, through faith, to endure unto the end, and receive the crown that is laid up for them that love the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

In order to obtain this faith, perfect faith, they need to make this sacrifice.

10. ...But those who do not make the sacrifice cannot enjoy this faith, because men are dependent upon this sacrifice in order to obtain this faith: therefore, they cannot lay hold upon eternal life, because the revelations of God do not guarantee unto them the authority so to do, and without this guarantee faith could not exist.

If we want any guarantee, brothers and sisters, we may obtain it only by making the sacrifice of all earthly things and character.

11. All the saints of whom we have account, in all the revelations of God which are extant, obtained the knowledge which they had of their acceptance in his sight through the sacrifice which they offered unto him; and through the knowledge thus obtained their faith became sufficiently strong to lay hold upon the promise of eternal life, and to endure as seeing him who is invisible; and were enabled, through faith, to combat the powers of darkness, contend against the wiles of the adversary, overcome the world, and obtain the end of their faith, even the salvation of their souls.

12. But those who have not made this sacrifice to God do not know that the course which they pursue is well pleasing in his sight; for whatever may be their belief or their opinion, it is a matter of doubt and uncertainty in their mind; and where doubt and uncertainty are there faith is not, nor can it be. For doubt and faith do not exist in the same person at the same time; so that persons whose minds are under doubts and fears cannot have unshaken confidence; and where unshaken confidence is not there faith is weak; and where faith is weak the persons will not be able to contend against all the opposition, tribulations, and afflictions which they will have to encounter in order to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ Jesus; and they will grow weary in their minds, and the adversary will have power over them and destroy them.

Which course should we follow, brothers and sisters? Joseph said,

It is the privilege of every Elder to speak of the things of God; and could we all come together with one heart and one mind in perfect faith the veil might as well be rent today as next week, or any other time, and if we will but cleanse ourselves and covenant before God, to serve Him, it is our privilege to have an assurance that God will protect us at all times. -- F.W.R., pp. 13-14. (Oct. 25, 1831.)

If we do not have the things we desire in righteousness, the gifts and blessings of the holy Priesthood, it is because our faith is weak.

Lecture Seven

17. ...every man received according to his faith -- according as his faith was, so were his blessings and privileges; and nothing was withheld from him when his faith was sufficient to receive it.

May we pursue this course, brothers and sisters, and become one in the hands of God, through His Priesthood, to be that people He is trying to prepare to redeem ourselves, our dead, and great Zion, of which we may become a part, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:66  July 6, 1969  Hildale

Hildale, Utah
July 6, 1969
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Become One Through Rallying Around the One Man Who Holds the Keys; We Must Overcome

I am glad to be here, brothers and sisters, and hear the good things we have heard today. I pray they will be sanctified to the good of all, and we will go on from now to be more determined to more perfectly serve God and keep His commandments, and perfect ourselves before Him.

I desire an interest in your faith and prayers. I don't know what to say unless God will direct me. I have sat here the whole of this meeting wondering what I should say if I were called upon. I would like to be, above all, used of the Lord, to be a vessel in His hands thereby and sustain His Priesthood and this people.

I know one thing, my brothers and sisters, you don't know how President Johnson and these brethren yearn over you, as a people as well as individuals. You will never know how keenly President Johnson feels the great weight of the responsibility that rests upon him, as God's representative on earth, holding the keys and power of Priesthood with this people; how he desires to make us one -- a prepared people that God can use to redeem Zion when the time comes. I know that he knows we must first redeem ourselves in this place or wherever God requires us to be.

The whole of America is Zion, as Zion is also in our hearts, brothers and sisters. It is within each and every one of us by the power and gift of the Holy Ghost. Zion is the place and the condition of the pure in heart -- those who know God, who know what He is and how to worship and serve Him. Above all, brothers and sisters, we need to be one. What is the rallying point? How are we to become one? I will tell you. It is to rally round the head, that man whom God has chosen to lead His people. Carry out the revelation God gives to him, and then we have His word.

Now why should one man have such great power and responsibility imposed on him? Because God has placed His power and authority with him. He has most confidence in him. Why was he chosen? Because he has overcome. He has overcome, brothers and sisters. He has been proved and tried. I am reminded of a few verses in the Revelations, chapter 3:

Revelations 3

5. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

12. Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

20. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Such a one is Brother Johnson. So we can have confidence. It is for us to become one in the same way as our Lord Jesus Christ. And what are the promises we have from Him? I think one of the grandest things we have from the Lectures on Faith is this:

Lecture Five
2. ...the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

This is why the Lord said that those who overcome and attain to the fullness of His Spirit overcome death, hell, and the grave. They are to become one with our Lord Jesus Christ, who has become one with His Father. When we attain to that, a revelation from heaven will cause that their calling and election will be made sure, worthy to be called up to build Zion and the great temple and the great city of our God. It is a remarkable time.

Brothers and sisters, we need to labor together, not only in the law of Celestial Marriage, but in the law of the United Order. You talk about power. The holy Priesthood has the power. If we become perfect enough so God can use us, we will be called to redeem Zion, which I pray this people... may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:69  May 9, 1975  CCA

Graduation Exercises
Colorado City, Arizona
May 9, 1975
Reported by Marjorie Holm
15th Graduation Exercises of the Colorado City Academy;
Learn the Spirit of God; Education Begins With the Mother

I feel greatly honored, my brothers and sisters, in being called upon to address this graduating class, the Administration; you, my dear friends and brothers and sisters, on this occasion. I pray for the Spirit of God to direct me accordingly, and I feel the need of that strength and power to accomplish this assignment.

The thing that most strongly impresses itself upon my mind as I look upon this class and this whole congregation, and especially the youth of Zion, is that these are the children of the Priesthood, which presides over the Kingdom of God in this time in which we live. This order of the Priesthood is the source of all of our blessings, brothers and sisters. Without it, we wouldn't be here under the holy New and Everlasting Covenant which God has established under the instrumentality of Joseph Smith the Prophet, and perpetuated through the special dispensation through the Prophet John Taylor. It has been vouchsafed, therefore, to us through this great source, and we have, through the mercies and blessings of our Father in heaven, through His Son Jesus Christ, the grand truths of heaven.

Diamond truth, brothers and sisters, is what has been administered to us, that we might become that host of Israel. And we are becoming a host through the administration of the holy Priesthood. And here are the fruits of the work that was instituted by Joseph and John under the direction of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are the recipients of the blessings that were promised upon the head of Abraham. And here is Israel, through Jacob being blessed of God through the administration of the holy Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Abraham, of Elijah, after the order of Joseph Smith, the Witness and Testator of God and His Son Jesus Christ.
These young people have gone through a course of study, and I was delighted to hear Brother Bradshaw state that the object of this school was to teach these young people to get and keep the Spirit of God. That is the source of all learning, all education. Joseph Smith said, "Could you gaze into heaven for five minutes, you would learn more than all that has been written upon the subject for the salvation of man -- the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ."

I have always been impressed by what the Lord told Joseph in establishing the very first School of the Elders of Israel; which points out the necessity for us receiving the kind of education that is administered here.

D.& C. 88

77. And I give unto you a commandment that you shall teach one another the doctrine of the kingdom.
78. Teach ye diligently and my grace shall attend you, that you may be instructed more perfectly in theory, in principle, in doctrine, in the law of the gospel, in all things that pertain unto the kingdom of God, that are expedient for you to understand;
79. Of things both in heaven and in the earth, and under the earth; things which have been, things which are, things which must shortly come to pass; things which are at home, things which are abroad; the wars and the perplexities of the nations, and the judgments which are on the land; and a knowledge also of countries and of kingdoms --
80. That ye may be prepared in all things when I shall send you again to magnify the calling whereunto I have called you, and the mission with which I have commissioned you.

And He said further to him:

118. And as all have not faith, seek ye diligently and teach one another words of wisdom; yea, seek ye out of the best books words of wisdom; seek learning, even by study and also by faith.
119. Organize yourselves; prepare every needful thing; and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God;
120. That your incomings may be in the name of the Lord; that your outgoings may be in the name of the Lord; that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands unto the Most High.

And again, Section 93, in which the Lord reprimanded Joseph, Frederick, and Sidney, in that they needed to set in order their houses and to teach their children in light and truth. And He concluded by this:

D. & C. 93

53. And, verily I say unto you, that it is my will that you should hasten to translate my scriptures, and to obtain a knowledge of history, and of countries, and of kingdoms, of laws of God and man, and all this for the salvation of Zion.

As with the priest, so with the people. These were necessary for him, Joseph the Prophet, to accomplish. And it was his great purpose in establishing a house of learning in Nauvoo to accomplish these things, a university at that place. And so, education on this wise has been required from the Lord. The most important thing to learn is to learn the Spirit of God -- the gift of revelation.

But, children of the Priesthood in this institution of learning, it is required, therefore, that we teach by the Spirit of God, because we are teaching Priesthood children. They belong to the Priesthood of God, growing out of the administration of the Celestial Law, by which we are called to abide through the powers and gifts of the Priesthood through the Spirit of God. And if we learn nothing else, we will have learned everything if we learn to get and keep the Spirit of God -- the gift of revelation -- without which there is no salvation. So it is a high and holy calling to instruct our children.

On one occasion, Brigham Young was attending a meeting at which administrators of the institution of learning were making their reports on scientific and other subjects; and Brigham Young got up in response to these things, and told how all education begins at home, and more particularly with the mothers, in whose hands little children are committed by the Lord to raise up in light and truth. Mothers have these little ones in their hands almost exclusively, and they are very, very responsible, of course, under the direction of the father. And one of the most important items involved in this great requirement of God is that children be turned, their hearts and their minds, to their fathers. Children's hearts and minds must be turned to their fathers bearing the holy Priesthood; and through them to the fathers, our fathers in the Priesthood.

So I am grateful for these grand and glorious teachings. I am grateful for the institutions that have been established for teaching our children, that the grand ideal of our educational process and system is that we teach by the Spirit of God. Mothers must teach their children by the Spirit of God. And fathers and wives and children living together under the holy and Celestial Law of Marriage should become pure element by the gifts of the Holy Spirit, that children may be conceived and born and raised under the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost. This will cover the whole subject, brothers and sisters, if this be done. I pray that this may be continued in our lives, with greater faith and greater diligence, giving ourselves wholly to the Lord, with our might, mind, and strength; loving and serving Him with all our hearts, our minds, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves.

This is what we must teach our children. I, therefore, desire to congratulate this graduating class, and pray God to bless them as they set out upon the next phase of their experience in this life, as given them by our Father, to magnify the Priesthood and thus add glory and honor to our Father in heaven. This should be our great and grand object. I pray God to bless them, as well as us, to this end, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:73  September 5, 1976  Canada

Canada
September 5, 1976
Cultivate the Spirit of Brotherhood;
Uphold President Johnson

I am delighted, brothers and sisters, meeting with you again, to come up under the direction of President Johnson with our other two brethren who have been assigned to come with us, Brothers Wayman and Nielsen. It is wonderful to meet the saints here and to feel your spirit and labor among you. It is a spirit of brotherhood that we need to cultivate more and more, and carry out the covenants that we enter into in connection with it, that we may become one people.

This is the work of President Johnson, this work of preparation, and all things are going to that end and direction. I am grateful for President Johnson and his life and labors, for his great example, and for his leadership, the revelations of the mind and will of God concerning this work and this people. I feel to sustain him with all that I have and am, and call upon all of you, my friends and brothers and sisters, to do the same.
Alta Academy Opening Exercises
Sandy, Utah
October 12, 1981
Suffering of the Prophets; Why Zion's Camp Failed; Parable of the Sower; Teach by the Spirit of God

I can't tell you how beautiful a sight this is to be gathered here to start a new school year in the Leroy S. Johnson Elementary School. This is his, and I am acting for him in administrating this school. We are very greatly honored with the presence of President Johnson here this morning, and his family and friends, who are my friends, too -- the best I have.

I certainly need the help of the Lord, adding a few remarks to those that have been made. President Johnson is suffering for us, and we had better realize it. All the day long, all the years long gone by, President Johnson has been preaching the Gospel of preparation and repentance for the sole purpose of getting a people who would be one with him to prepare to redeem Zion. This has been the burden of his message; speaking and acting in the greatest of humility, meekness, and purity of heart, as Christ strove to gather a people.

As Jesus spoke, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how oft would I have had you come under My wing and be one with Me and be saved in the Kingdom of our Father, but ye would not." He gathered a few. That was after the Apostles passed on, each giving their life by violent means, as Christ had suffered. So, in this great and last dispensation under Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith, a God with Jesus, he is striving to gather a people today.

When Jesus came to the Nephites in the meridian of time after His great sacrifice and the resurrection -- He came to them after all the great destructions and judgments which had been laid upon the people -- and there were only twenty-five hundred left, out of millions.

After the Lord permitted the people to be chastised and driven out of Zion, because of those things which polluted their inheritances -- after they had been driven out of Zion, Jackson County, Joseph cried unto the Lord to know why. And these were His words:

D.& C. 101
6.  Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

God gave that answer to Joseph in February 1834. In another effort to go under the power of God through His servant Joseph Smith, he called upon Joseph for five hundred to go; and if not five, three; and if not three, one hundred. They gathered two hundred and five and commenced their journey. They were called upon to go under Joseph -- the mouthpiece of God, the keyholder of the holy Priesthood, and the fountainhead of the Holy Ghost to the people -- to go without murmuring. Murmuring leads to criticism and all the other evils that come to man when they let down and do not have the Spirit of God, and they lose it because they have acted so.

So their doom was sealed before they even got to Missouri on Fishing River. The Lord told them that there would be a chastisement come unto them because they had already murmured and walked in disobedience to this Prophet of God. So there was nothing but chastisement left, and when they got to Fishing River, which was the end of their journey and mobs were gathering to try and stop them, the Lord stopped the mobs, but they were chastised with an epidemic of cholera. Joseph, in his great mercy and love for those people, raised his hands to try and stop it, and he was stricken and nearly died, because God had decreed that chastisement upon them.

I always have in mind, brothers and sisters, this example that was given us in the life and mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith. We are now under the Prophet's servant, Leroy S. Johnson. The Lord has asked that he prepare a people through repentance and perfect obedience, to follow him under Joseph and Jesus. The Lord Jesus Christ promised that He would go with them, along with His angels, and they would go as the people of Moses left Egypt with the angels before them. But Jesus and His angels and Joseph Smith will go before, under the direction of this great Prophet. And he will yet be healed -- I know it as I know I live -- to go on and do that great work that I have mentioned here! That is my testimony; and I just want to go at his side, in his shadow to help him, God willing.

Now, this school is organized under President Johnson. It was in the first place. The subject was first broached to him, and we proceeded under his direction. So I like to call it, yes, a Priesthood school, but better still, with him in mind -- Leroy S. Johnson. The Holy Spirit is with him all the time.
That is the source of the revelation he gets all the time. It is his constant companion, for I have seen it, and felt it, and heard it.

Joseph was quoted by Wilford Woodruff on one occasion. It was in the 1890's. He said in the Camp of Zion a chastisement was decreed because the people did not know who he was before the Lord. "You think I am a boy like you, but you do not know my position with God." And that is the lesson we have all got to learn, or we are going to receive of those chastisements because of murmuring, criticizing, finding fault, contending, envyings, striving in personal selfishness, and covetousness -- and lustful and covetous desires -- let us not forget that.

I know God is watching over Brother Johnson, and he is fulfilling his work. It is going on at a pace where we are in the midst of that prophesied sifting and testing that was given by Heber C. Kimball. This is the great sifting time. This is the great harvest. I like to liken our situation, brothers and sisters, to the parable of the wheat and the tares, and I think it applies exactly in our present situation. Joseph Smith spoke of it, and it was applied as to the overall history of the world; but it applies in situations like we have today.

TPJS Page 97

Another parable put He forth unto them, saying, [which parable has an allusion to the setting up of the Kingdom, in that age of the world also], The Kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field, but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

The Lord, through His servants John and Lorin Woolley, sowed the good seed, and someone came by and sowed the seed of tares.

But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also; so the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? From whence, then, hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

That was the period during which I came into this work, while they were growing up together, and a people were being gathered.

But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

And that was the counsel of President John Y. Barlow in those days.
Let both grow together until the harvest:
This is now the harvest, if you please.
...and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.

Says the Lord through President Johnson. By the word and will of God to the Apostles, the truth was told; and now is the harvest. Let us be among the wheat gathered into the Lord's barn under Leroy S. Johnson, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I want you parents to understand that these teachers are instructed constantly to get and keep the Spirit of God in their teaching.

It is an old story, but I think is worth repeating. Karl G. Maeser, convert from Germany, was a well-educated man, but a very humble man; an ideal man to commence the Brigham Young Academy, which it was called at that time.

Brother Maeser went to Brigham Young to get instruction from him, and he gave it in very few words: "Teach by the Spirit of God. Get and keep the Holy Spirit in all you do," which is the best counsel that we can get, each and every one of us in our family labors and in our work, wherever we work.

It is possible to have the Spirit of God by ourselves if we are working among a bunch of gentiles. It is something you carry in and with you, and we all need to know how this operates. "The Holy Spirit," said Joseph Smith, Jun., to the School of the Prophets, "is the mind of the Father and the Son," by which means we become one with God's mouthpiece and representative upon the earth, and with Joseph Smith, the head of our dispensation, and Jesus Christ who sent them. If we would only do this, it would take care of all our problems, believe me. I have never seen Leroy S. Johnson without he had the Spirit of God with him all the time.

I would just like to add this one thing from Section 121, which is how we brethren, you Elders, we Elders, govern our families. The Lord chastised Joseph, Sidney, Frederick Williams, the presiding Bishop, those brethren in that day, to set in order their families. All have need of it. Joseph's family was told they were not following their father and head.
D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood,

And remember, brethren, the only way you can hold these dear wives and children is by magnifying your Priesthood. You cannot hold them without it, because we are aware if we do these things that are told, that:

D.& C. 121

37. ...when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness,

In any degree of unrighteousness, brethren.

37. ...behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood, or the authority of that man.

In the holy Celestial Family Order of Heaven, one must be a faithful and obedient bearer of the holy Priesthood because you bear the name of God. The Melchizedek Priesthood is after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Melchizedek. Both of the last two sought favor with the Lord and were taken up and were translated with their people - - Enoch and Melchizedek -- which they had united by the power of the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood, which we must keep in mind, brethren, all the time.

The keyholder of the Priesthood, President Johnson, is the repository for the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost to us. You cannot oppose him without opposing God while he is carrying on his work under the gift and power of the Holy Ghost; and that is the only channel through which we can get it. It comes from God, yes; but it is through this channel.

37. ...the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood, or the authority of that man.

God does that.

38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.

That is the other side of the coin.
39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood,

Brethren, you have your families by virtue of the Priesthood.

41. ...only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

The pure love of Christ, which is charity and the Spirit of Peace.

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved,

Do this, dear brethren, with your dear wives and children; and the same goes for me.

43. ...lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith,

Charity, faith, and hope.

45. ...and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly;

Purity.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

Do we not realize when we have the Holy Ghost we are in the presence of God? The Holy Ghost is the mind of the Father and the Son.

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

When you get and are filled with the Holy Ghost -- there will be no compulsory means of getting it -- it is there because we have prepared ourselves as a holy receptacle, or vessel to be one with God's servant on the earth, and with Joseph and Jesus. God help us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:81  May 10, 1984  Sandy

Alta Academy Closing Exercises
Sandy, Utah
May 10, 1984
President Johnson Is the Greatest Man on Earth

Brothers and sisters, children and all are brothers and sisters to each other and to President Johnson, his people. I feel to invoke the Holy Spirit of God upon us as we conclude this school year for this assembly. I am most grateful for the presence of President Johnson. This is his school. This is his house. All that we have and are are his.

We will open these exercises by having the Fourth through Ninth Grade children stand up and sing "Uncle Roy's Song". They are supposed to have it memorized, Uncle Roy; they have it all memorized. [President Johnson: "Good."] Just a sweet welcoming gesture to our Prophet and head.

I would like to have all the teachers and assistants please stand. These have rendered faithful service, teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the position of our Prophet to all of these beautiful children who have been placed in our care a few hours each day.

It has been a wonderful thing through these many years. How many years is it now? The eleventh year. I pray it will not be the last, but that is according to the will of God, and I desire to invoke the blessings of God and the Spirit of God upon each and every one of you dear people who have done so much in behalf of these children. Thanks, and God bless you till we meet again.

I would like to have Warren Jeffs, now representing the upper grades, give his report and anything he desires to say regarding his labor and duties here with you teachers and students. Then we will hear from someone from the lower grades. We consider First to Third Grades the lower grades, and the rest of them upper grades.
You may wonder why we separate between the Third and Fourth Grades. First, Second, and Third are years of age six, seven, and eight. Then they are to baptized and very responsible. Then they become not little children, but big children, responsible by their covenants taken in the waters of baptism, and having hands laid on them for the gift of the Holy Ghost. Before that time, these children are innocent. So we feel the terrible responsibility for the time that we have had them in our hands in this school, and I think you can begin to see the result.

Sister Norma, will you play the "Nephite Lamentation?" This is the song I envision must have been the feelings of the Prophet Moroni as he gave a farewell message in his writings to the people. It is a beautiful thing. I would just like to hear that before we hear President Johnson.

[After the "Nephite Lamentation" was played, President Jeffs continued:] I cannot listen to that without weeping. Thank God for His promise, that He has set forth His hand to redeem Zion, and He has called His servant, Leroy S. Johnson to prepare and lead a people to redeem Zion, to receive the Ten Tribes, to send forth the last call to all Israel to gather together in that one place. Of course, there will be stakes of Zion in the whole land after it is cleared off of the wicked. It will be Zion -- North and South America.

What a glorious vision we see before us, and how marvelous that God has brought forth these choice spirits in this day and time under the tutorship and guidance of President Johnson and his predecessors, standing as a mouthpiece of God, and the great Shepherd under Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith.

Joseph Smith is the head of this last dispensation. Jesus Christ and the Father appeared unto him and taught him and sent angels to teach him. Now, His angel, Joseph Smith, Jun., is directing the Prophet today in these final scenes before the glorious coming of Christ in the heavens, the return of the City of Zion and of the Ten Tribes and the gathering of all Israel.

Thank God for this great and good man, the greatest man on the face of this earth in mortality, head of the Kingdom of God to which all nations will someday bow. Every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is the Christ and that this is His great work. He is King of kings and Lord of lords, and the government will be turned over to Him in the great Millennium.

I had this strike me so strongly. I am just using this as an introduction to President Johnson:

TPJS Page 157

Daniel in his seventh chapter speaks of the Ancient of Days; he means the oldest man, our Father Adam, Michael, he will call his children together and hold a council with them to prepare them for the coming of the Son of Man. He (Adam) is the father of the human family, and presides over the spirits of all men, and all that have had the keys must stand before him in this grand council. This may take place before some of us leave this stage of action. The Son of Man stands before him, and there is given him glory and dominion. Adam delivers up his stewardship to Christ, Son of Man and Christ are two different functions of our Lord and Savior.

....that which was delivered to him as holding the keys of the universe, but retains his standing as head of the human family.

That is one of the greatest events that is coming; and that, too, before long in the history of the world; and all must appear before Him and deliver up their keys. Remember what I read here:

....and all that have had the keys must stand before him in this grand council.

This lineage of the Priesthood from Joseph Smith until now makes Leroy S. Johnson the seventh from Joseph. Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, John Taylor, John W. Woolley, Lorin C. Woolley, John Y. Barlow, and now Leroy S. Johnson. God bless his great work and mission. Let us stand by him and become one with him. That is the greatest desire of my heart -- to be one with him at his side, going down that road, the road to Zion; which I pray may be our lot in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We would be honored and favored now to hear from President Johnson.

* * * * *

One of my great favorites is "Our God, We Raise to Thee."

RTJ 8:85 October 8, 1984 Sandy

Alta Academy Opening Exercises
I am deeply grateful for this opportunity of meeting with you in the presence of President Johnson, and I know he wants to see you properly instructed; and I ask the Spirit of God to direct me in the few remarks that I may make.

I cannot emphasize enough, brothers and sisters, the first importance of getting and keeping the Holy Spirit of God. That is the tool that our Heavenly Father gives us to learn, and it will lead us into all truth.

Now, as we study the things that are necessary for us to know about this world we live in, let us remember that it was by the power of the holy Priesthood -- the power of holy Priesthood is the Holy Ghost -- is that power by which this earth and all worlds are created, through faith as it existed in our Heavenly Father, our Creator. This is the thing that I want to enjoin upon our teachers.

You cannot give the children more than you have to give. You children cannot get more out of this education that you will receive in this school than you put into it. You will find you can do better as you have the Spirit of peace, walking in perfect obedience to the commandments of God and the direction of your teachers, who love you and only want to help you -- whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and that is what our teachers have to do by the Holy Spirit of God.

President Johnson has taught us so many, many years -- the Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace. It is the Spirit of love, the Spirit of faith, of knowledge, of justice, judgment, mercy, and truth. These are the attributes of God, and I find them in our Prophet. He has set the example for us. And as far as I am concerned, he is God with us. You little know how much he loves and yearns over all of us, and is willing to suffer for us as Jesus suffered for all of the children of our Father and His Father.
I want to read again what I read a few weeks ago, as it applies as to our education. And take note, parents, the responsibility that is yours in bringing these choice spirits into the world under the New and Everlasting Covenant, the covenant of Celestial Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. You married in this covenant in order to bring forth these waiting, choice spirits to come forth in this day and time, who have been reserved to this day and time to come forth. When you stop and consider the awful responsibility that rests upon us as parents in bringing forth these children, we should tremble and fear God -- to offend Him in not fulfilling this responsibility.

JD 1:66  Brigham Young  April 8, 1852  SLC

It has been hinted that education commences with the first dawn of knowledge upon the mental faculties of the child, and continues with it till death. But I will trace it a little further back still, and say that education commences with the mother, and the child in connection.

All we are doing is adding the necessary training in this school to qualify them to communicate and to find their way through life filled with knowledge, wisdom, and understanding; and these are the beginnings.

I will state the facts in the case, as you will find them to be hereafter, in the education of your children. It depends in a great degree upon the mother, as to what children receive, in early age, of principle of every description, pertaining to all that can be learned by the human family. When will mothers understand this? Knowing that this is the case, I am perplexed with grief when I see such a wanton diversion from the real design of life, it causes me to mourn for my poor, ignorant, fellow mortals, and sometimes almost goads me to anger. I can see mothers pay attention to everything under heaven, but the training up of their children in the way they should go, and they will even make it appear obligatory on the father to take care of the child at a year old. How often is it the case that mothers will say -- "Why, Pa, this child is growing up in ignorance, he is going to ruin. Really, dear husband, what shall we do with him?" I will tell you the truth as you will find it in eternity. If your children do not receive impressions of true piety, virtue, tenderness, and every principle of the holy Gospel, you may be assured that their sins will not be required at the hands of the father, but of the mother.

Truly, the father must teach the mothers and the children, so that she can.

Lay it to heart, ye mothers, for it will unavoidably be so. The duty of the mother is to watch over her children, and give them their early education, for impressions received in infancy are lasting. You know, yourselves, by experience, that the impressions you have received in the dawn of your mortal existence, bear, to this day, with the greatest weight upon your mind. It is the experience of people generally, that what they imbibe from their mothers in infancy, is the most lasting upon the mind through life. This is natural, it is reasonable, it is right. I do not suppose you can find one person among five hundred, who does not think his mother to be the best woman that ever lived. This is right, it is planted in the human heart.

So the time that your children spend with us here, with these wonderful teachers who give of their time freely, we desire to help and advance the work of the Kingdom. These children are the hope of Israel! They are the hope of our Prophet and President. They are the hope of our Father in heaven to fulfill His designs for the House of Israel, which President Johnson has the responsibility of gathering and building a holy city and temple in the redemption of Zion.

Zion is the pure in heart. We cannot be pure in heart unless we are filled with the Holy Ghost, and do all and everything under the influence and power of that glorious gift which God has given us.

Now, I pray that we may have the best year of our lives here this coming year, and we will do everything we can. I appreciate the labors of Warren, who has been designated by President Johnson to be the principal of this school, and believe me, he is doing what he does with and for you for your own good. I am sure he has the confidence of President Johnson, and he certainly has mine.

Now, let us go to, brothers and sisters. Children, remember these things that our President has given us here this day -- the beautiful outlook that we have, the encouragement we have from him and from these other speakers. God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Inasmuch as there are quite a few who want to go down to Short Creek to the funeral of Daniel Jeffs, tomorrow at 2:00, we will have our first day of school on Wednesday. So get yourselves ready tomorrow.

This building out here, which we have found necessary to have, is both for the school as well as storehouse. We are going to have about a little better than a half basement where we will have dirt, or potato-carrot cellar, and other storage space provided outside of that.

In this building on the main floor will be held the mechanical arts and the building arts. I prefer to call them building arts. That is what President Johnson called upon the Priesthood last February 18th for, to prepare to build Zion. He said, "I want living arts." That is the living of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and walking in obedience to the commandments of God, "building arts and mechanical arts." So that is why we are laying quite a bit of stress on this. He said, "When the work call comes, I want you ready to go." That is what he called it in that sermon.

So, let us keep our eyes on the great and holy city. The gathering place is going to be in the Arizona Strip before that great journey. So there is still some sifting to do, and President Johnson is going to clean up that place we call Short Creek, or at least I do. We have got two towns there -- Colorado City and Hildale -- and I think "Short Creek" is the best nickname, at least, we can get, like it was before -- includes both.

So, we are going to do our part here; I pray God to help us to do, to prepare the people here. President Johnson is not going to be up in this area as much as he has been, and he has laid quite a responsibility on me, acting in his stead.

So, what I do I do for him. What you do for me, you do for him. Is that understood? I am his servant. He is God's servant, and, I want to be God's servant at his side. So we have a great deal that lies before us now, and there is little time to lose. There is none to lose. Let us put it all to good use, all of our time to the building up of the Kingdom of God, the establishment of the holy Priesthood of God, this one man in the hearts and minds of our people. May we work together to the glory of God through this man, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:90  February 16, 1985  Sandy

Priesthood Meeting
Sandy, Utah
February 16, 1985
Oath and Covenant of the Priesthood Is to Perfectly Obey the Keyholder of Priesthood
I always feel very strongly, that in being asked to give the Melchizedek Priesthood to our young men, that they understand these words I've just read: "And this is according to the oath and covenant which belongeth to the priesthood." That oath and covenant, as I understand it, is that we have an oath and covenant with the keyholder of that Priesthood, Leroy S. Johnson, to obey him in all things, because he holds the keys and is the mouthpiece of God. And he is God over us. "But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come." Talk about trifling with God and His Priesthood. And there are many I've seen that have done so. You trifle yourselves down to hell. So this is no small thing. When we come to a point where we receive the Melchizedek Priesthood, you young men, this is what you're doing. And to turn against that authority from which you have received the Priesthood, carries these penalties.

The keyholder of the Holy Priesthood here upon the earth, this one man, becomes in my view, the fountain head of the Holy Ghost, through whom it flows down to those who he administers the Priesthood to. And it is through that priesthood we bear that we can act as we have the gift and power of the Holy Ghost. So we see the great, very great importance of our getting and keeping the Spirit of God, which centers in the Father and issues forth from Himself. And to me, it issues forth to us through this man. You cannot oppose him or fight him without fighting God, which is Priesthood."

RTJ 8:91  January 30, 1986  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
January 30, 1986
Funeral of Fawnetta Jessop Broadbent (Aunt Fawn)

I am greatly honored to be asked to conduct this service by President Johnson. We wish to welcome all two thousand of you. I guess that is the biggest congregation we have had here. This is a funeral service for Aunt Fawn Broadbent, born in Milville, Utah, December 13, 1906; passed away in her home in Hildale, Utah, January 27, 1986. I will announce the program without interruption until towards the end.

Invocation

Fred M. Jessop
Song  The grandsons
Speaker  Elder Howard Meldrum
Song  The granddaughters
Speaker  Elder Joseph I. Barlow
Song (Ladies' Trio)  "Wonderful Mother of Mine"
Speaker  Elder Parley Harker
Remarks  Elder Rulon T. Jeffs
Song (Choir)  "One Sweetly Solemn Thought"

I feel very humble in trying to make some remarks here today, in the presence of so many who loved this great and dear lady; and pray for the Spirit of God to help me speak thereby and do justice to the memory and the life of Aunt Fawn Broadbent. We had the privilege of having her stay at our home for a year or two here. Aunt Elba Woolley had a home here -- she is my wife -- and I always enjoyed her being there and being a companion to Mother Elba. And I am sure if Elba could speak here today, she would say the same thing.

The thing that struck me about her character was that she was like the Savior -- meek and lowly in heart, full of faith, full of hope, full of charity and love, the pure love of Christ, which she bore for her loved ones and for the saints, and especially for her Prophet, Leroy S. Johnson. I believe that she is going to be called a queen in Israel in the Celestial Kingdom of God. I am not her judge, but I feel that she merits these things, and will be a very delightful spirit in the Kingdom of our Father in the Celestial Kingdom.

I love this dear lady because of her love for all. I am connected with the Jessop family. Two of my other wives are Jessops, and they bear the stamp of the grandfather and great-uncle, Joseph Smith Jessop -- a great sire, a great Elder in Israel who loved the truth and was willing to die for it. And that great man died of a broken heart when the wives and children were picked up here in the great raid of 1953; and the the fathers, many of them put in jail. He bore such love for those worthy mothers and children, and the Elders of Israel, including the Prophet Leroy S. Johnson. I think that was quite manifest in the service held in memory of Joseph Smith Jessop when he passed over to his great reward.

So, I think it can be said of this good lady that she kept all the commandments of God, lived the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and abided the Celestial Law with her husband, Leslie Broadbent; and she is going to a great reward on the other side.

I am deeply grateful for the life and labors of President Johnson, whom I love more than any man in the world, and desire to serve and be obedient to him as he gives us the word and will of God as the Prophet, Seer, and Revelator; who has the great mission of preparing a people to redeem Zion. And I am sure Aunt Fawn had the same faith in our head and our Prophet.

I don't know what more can be said than what has been said of this great lady by the speakers who have spoken before me. I just wish to add my testimony that what they have said is true. I know the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is true, that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God, and the Father and the Son, whom he saw, lives; and They are directing the work that is being done today through Leroy Sunderland Johnson. We little realize what we are in the midst of here. Great preparations are being made for the fulfillment of that mission which President Johnson has. And Aunt Fawn was grateful and happy to be a part of that people that he was leading. I wish to add my testimony, too, that he is a Prophet of God, the keyholder, and the mouthpiece of God and the revelations being given to us daily through his teachings to us, and through his direction to the Elders of Israel.

Obedience is the first law of heaven. It is the first law of the Gospel, and it requires sacrifice and all of the other attributes of God, which we must obtain through the gift of the Holy Ghost. And that should be the greatest desire of our hearts, that we will have and keep the Holy Ghost as our constant guide and companion. We cannot help, then, but follow in the path that God has laid out for us through the Prophets who have gone before, and our present one. I desire to thank my Father in heaven for my association with this people and this great man who leads us.

I am grateful for the testimony the Lord has given me down through the years, to follow the head. And I just want to go down the road with Uncle Roy wherever he, through the grace and gifts and powers of God, leads us. And I bear this testimony in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
April 29, 1986
The Work of President Johnson Is to Prepare a People for the Redemption of Zion; Explanation of Third Nephi, Chapters 20 and 21

I am very happy to be here with you dear young people. I yearn over you as does President Johnson. I am willing to make any sacrifice that is necessary for your growth and development and raising you up in light and truth, along with your academic activities and studies. This is what is called a parochial school, a private one. We have never had any interference from the public school officials, though they tell us by ruling of the Justice Department of the State of Utah, the Attorney General, that we have a right to organize private schools. This one is incorporated, and we have complied with the law, but we are given unusually great freedom.

They have ruled that the officials in this area, these school officials may come in and see that we have a regularly established program for the instruction of children, according to the standards that the public schools have. And I have been informed from the achievement tests that you young people have taken and passed, the average was far greater than that of the public schools. So you are to be congratulated, and it is only because of the blessings of the Lord on you, under the direction of a very fine young man, who is your principal and happens to be my son. President Johnson appointed him to this position. I did not. I am the administrator of the school, and so I want you to know that I yearn over you and love you very much, and want to see your growth and development under the tutelage of the Priesthood. That is the training that we are seeking to give you under President Johnson -- that you may see and love the truth and how to become like God. I appreciated those remarks of Brother Wayman.

I have been asked to review with you chapter 21 of Third Nephi, which is the place you are now studying. Just briefly, chapter 20 says, according to the heading:

3 Nephi 20  (Chapter Heading)

Bread and wine, miraculously provided, again administered.
The remnant of Jacob is spoken of in this as well as the 21st chapter.
The Savior proclaims himself to be the prophet spoken of as like unto Moses,
Only more so, and:
...many prophets cited.

I want you to understand that these are the words of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself to this small remnant of people who were saved from the great destructions, the changing of the face of the land, cities sunk, cities raised up, cities buried, and a great and terrible movement of the land took place. And we are about to have one again, before very long.

But these are the words of Jesus Christ speaking of our day. He speaks of the gentiles in this 20th chapter, and about Judah going to rebuild the old Jerusalem. And then He goes into chapter 21 to describe the New Jerusalem, which is to be established and built up in Jackson County, Missouri, before many years. And our Prophet is trying to raise you young people up so that you young men may be among those spoken of who will go to Zion and redeem it, along with the middle-aged. I like to think of myself as middle-aged, though I am seventy-six. But, I will have more to say about Brother Johnson as we go.

3 Nephi 20

39. _Verily, verily, I say unto you, that my people shall know my name; yea, in that day they shall know that I am he that doth speak._

40. _And then shall they say: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings unto them, Jesus Christ._

40. _...that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings unto them of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion: Thy God reigneth!_

And He is going to reign during the Millennium for a thousand years. This is what Brother Johnson has been sent forth to do -- to prepare that people to redeem Zion in the beginning of the Millennium.

41. _And then shall a cry go forth: Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch not that which is unclean; go ye out of the midst of her; Babylon._

41. _...be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord._

We must be pure and clean before we can redeem Zion, for Zion is the pure in heart.

42. _For ye shall not go out with haste nor go by flight; for the Lord will go before you, and the God of Israel shall be your rearward._

That is fulfilled in the promise that is made in Section 103 of the Doctrine and Covenants, which I may not have time to read; but I am going to read as much as I think we need to know here today, as it attains our very day and the great Prophet who presides over us and is directing us daily.

42. For ye shall not go out with haste nor go by flight; for the Lord will go before you, and the God of Israel shall be your rearward.
43. Behold, my servant shall deal prudently; he shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.

44. As many were astonished at thee -- his visage His body.
44. ...was so marred, more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men --

Do you see President Johnson in his present condition? This was revealed to me by the Holy Spirit of God, before we had this split in this work, that this was the man spoken of in these verses and in chapter 21 -- Leroy S. Johnson.

45. So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him,
Those are the rulers of the nations and of the states and the communities.
45. ...for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

46. Verily, verily, I say unto you, all these things shall surely come, even as the Father hath commanded me. Then shall this covenant which the Father hath covenanted with his people be fulfilled; and then shall Jerusalem be inhabited again with my people, and it shall be the land of their inheritance.

That is the old Jerusalem which Judah will go to, and they are gathering there now -- Judah, not the Jews. They are not the same thing.

3 Nephi 21

1. And verily I say unto you, I give unto you a sign, that ye may know the time when these things shall be about to take place -- that I shall gather in, from their long dispersion, my people, O house of Israel, and shall establish again among them my Zion;

2. And behold, this is the thing which I will give unto you for a sign -- for verily I say unto you that when these things which I declare unto you, and which I shall declare unto you hereafter of myself, and by the power of the Holy Ghost which shall be given unto you of the Father, shall be made known unto the Gentiles that they may know concerning this people who are a remnant of the house of Jacob, and concerning this my people who shall be scattered by them;

The remnant spoken of here is the Lamanite people. We call them Indians. That is the remnant that shall come up from the South as the Ten Tribes come from the North to help us to build Zion and the city and the great temple.

We are told here that the gentiles, if they will repent and come unto Jesus Christ, can be made of the blood of Abraham, as Joseph Smith described it, and can join the House of Israel whom the Lord will gather together. There have not been very many gentiles come, but maybe more will; I do not know. That is described in the next few verses. Then verse seven:

7. And when these things come to pass that thy seed shall begin to know these things -- it shall be a sign unto them, that they may know that the work of the Father hath already commenced And it has already commenced.

7. ...unto the fulfilling of the covenant which he hath made unto the people who are of the house of Israel.

8. And when that day shall come, Now, listen to this.

8. ...it shall come to pass that kings shall shut their mouths; for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

In 1953, our beloved friends in this work, under President Johnson, were picked up and the whole community moved -- men to the jails, and the women and children in buses down to southern Arizona and scattered out among the people there, with the idea that they were going to put the men in jail, put the women to work, and adopt out their children among the gentiles there; and they would destroy the record and they would not be known, or then they would be forgotten.

President Johnson was down there among them daily, almost, trying to keep in touch with them, where they were; but he was led by the Spirit of God to go to where they were, the various communities around Phoenix.

The time came -- the Governor had determined on this course I have described to you -- to destroy that community and destroy polygamy forever. But we talk about it as Celestial and Plural Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. It is not "polygamy", such as they describe in the world and practice unlawfully. But when it came time to adopt out the children, the first case coming up was to be the children of Sister Sarah Johnson, President Johnson's child. They were going to adopt out that child the next day. President Johnson went to the attorneys' office and he told them, "There was in the law a provision that they could not adopt out children without the consent of their parents."

The lawyers said they could not find it. He said, "It is there. I have not read your books, but it is there. You go find it." So, they went and tried again, and after awhile one of the lawyers came and said, "I have found it." They cited it to the Attorney General of Arizona. See, he was telling them something they did not know. They who administered the law did not even know about it.

So, when our lawyers called the Attorney General's office and called their attention to this passage of law, they said, "Well, that does it! We cannot adopt these children out." And from them on, the Welfare Department of Arizona began to release the mothers and children; and President Johnson continued for over a year in the work of getting his people back together again. The men who were jailed were convicted, but they were put on probation and they were set free. So, you see how the Lord intervened to save His people, the very heart of our people down there. And this passage has been fulfilled:

9. For in that day, for my sake shall the Father work a work, which shall be a great and a marvelous work among them; and there shall be among them those who will not believe it, although a man shall declare it unto them.

President Johnson revealed to the Priesthood Council that the 1880 Revelation to Wilford Woodruff was a delusion, and they should no longer consider it. The Lord had allowed satan to send that delusion through Wilford Woodruff, who was President of the Twelve under the President of Priesthood and the keyholder, John Taylor. And it was brought forth by Joseph Musser and pressed upon the brethren, and he began publishing it. He was told, by the word I got from President Johnson and President Barlow, he was told not to publish it, but he did. But then was not the time to have a great controversy over that matter. But the parable of the wheat and the tares was beginning to be fulfilled, and is now being fulfilled.

The husbandman planted the wheat field, the good seed; and during the night the enemy came and planted tares, weeds. And when it started to grow, those in the vineyard, or the garden, went to the Master and said, "There be tares among the wheat. Did we not sow good seed?" "Yes." "Shall we pluck out the tares?" "No. Leave them be. Let them rise up with the wheat, lest you destroy the wheat as you destroy the tares, and let them grow together."

And this is what happened. The 1880 Revelation went on and was being published. I put it on the shelf. When that was revealed, we had a split in the Priesthood Council. Three turned away and rejected that which our Prophet gave, saying that the 1880 Revelation was not the word of God, but it was a delusion that God allowed satan to give, to those who do not love the truth, that they might believe a lie and thus be damned. And that is what it is doing to some now.

So that has been fulfilled, and the parable of the wheat and tares is being fulfilled now in that, at the harvest. This is the harvest. The tares were plucked out and bound up and burned, and the wheat was gathered into the husbandman's barn to be used for the building up of the Kingdom of God. So we, I like to believe, are that wheat that was saved.

10. But behold, the life of my servant

Listen to this carefully.

10. ...shall be in my hand; therefore they shall not hurt him,

They have not hurt him.

10. ...although he shall be marred because of them.

Because of those who betrayed him of the brethren; and he is now still suffering for seven long years. That was permitted to come upon him, and you will never know what pain he has suffered because of those brethren; in particular, Brother Guy Musser. He said he suffered more over Guy Musser than he had over these shingles which he had. I am telling you some very great details here now, but I want you to treat them sacredly.

And as to being marred, do you realize that during the time he has been suffering he has had needles punched into his skin over most of his body, and he had to go up to Lava Hot Springs to get some relief from those mars in his skin. Those shots that were given were to alleviate the pain. So, it was because of them that he was marred. One is gone. Now, the Lord says:

10. Yet I will heal him,

And I know He will heal him! And President Johnson, when we were talking about it up at Lava once, said, "Yes, and Brother Jeffs will be healed."

10. ...for I will show unto them that my wisdom is greater than the cunning of the devil.

11. Therefore it shall come to pass that whosoever will not believe in my words, who am Jesus Christ, which the Father shall cause him to bring forth unto the Gentiles, and shall give unto him power that he shall bring them forth unto the Gentiles, (it shall be done even as Moses said) they shall be cut off from among my people who are of the covenant.

12. And my people who are a remnant of Jacob

A remnant of those He was then speaking to, the Lamanites.

12. ...shall be among the Gentiles, yea, in the midst of them as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep, who, if he go through both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

13. Their hand shall be lifted up upon their adversaries, and all their enemies shall be cut off.

14. Yea, wo be unto the Gentiles except they repent; for it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Father, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots;

15. And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strongholds;

And that is shortly to come to pass.

16. And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy land, and thou shalt have no more soothsayers;

17. Thy graven images I will also cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee, and thou shalt no more worship the works of thy hands;

The Church has images of Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith up there in the Temple Block; and Guy Musser built a replica of the Salt Lake Temple and put it up in the backyard of his home -- the House of the Lord -- and President Johnson said, "That is idolatry!"

18. And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee; so will I destroy thy cities.

19. And it shall come to pass that all lyings, and deceivings, and envyings, and strifes, and priestcrafts, and whoredoms, shall be done away.

20. For it shall come to pass, saith the Father, that at that day whosoever will not repent and come unto my Beloved Son, them will I cut off from among my people, O house of Israel;

21. And I will execute vengeance and fury upon them, even as upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

Then it goes on to say:

23. And they shall assist my people, the remnant of Jacob, and also as many of the house of Israel as shall come, that they may build a city, which shall be called the New Jerusalem.

That is in Jackson County.

24. And then shall they assist my people that they may be gathered in, who are scattered upon all the face of the land, in unto the New Jerusalem.

From the city of Zion the great last missionary work will be done -- to gather the remainder of Israel that is scattered among the gentile nations, and they shall come and assist. Then it goes on to say:

25. And then shall the power of heaven come down among them; and I also will be in the midst.

26. And then shall the work of the Father commence at that day, even when this gospel shall be preached among the remnant of this people. Verily I say unto you, at that day shall the work of the Father commence among all the dispersed of my people, yea, even the tribes, which have been lost, which the Father hath led away out of Jerusalem.

The Ten Tribes,

27. Yea, the work shall commence among all the dispersed of my people, with the Father, to prepare the way whereby they may come unto me, that they may call on the Father in my name.

28. Yea, and then shall the work commence, with the Father, among all nations in preparing the way whereby his people may be gathered home to the land of their inheritance.
29. And they shall go out from all nations; and they shall not go out in haste, nor go by flight, for I will go before them, saith the Father, and I will be their rearward.

We are in the midst of the fulfillment of these things spoken of by Jesus Christ. Now I will tell you another thing. Have any of you heard of Lee's Ferry on the Colorado River, down on the Arizona Strip? That is where President Johnson, Uncle Roy, was born -- at Lee's Ferry -- the mouth of that canyon, the Colorado River Gorge and just below the Page dam. President Johnson told me that that is the land, that area, where Jesus Christ visited the Nephites, telling them what He told right here, that we have just read. That is the land where Jesus came as He talked to the people of Nephi.

Following in the chapters, you will find where three of the Nephites, among the Twelve Apostles that He called, were translated, and they then continued preaching the Gospel and gathering those who would believe together. They lived in peace and joy and harmony, having all things common for nearly two hundred years. Then they began to dwindle in unbelief until they were all destroyed, but a few. And the Lamanites continued in the year 421 A.D. -- after Christ.

So, here we are now, brothers and sisters, my dear young friends. Remember these things. They are being fulfilled before our very eyes, and I say these things to the glory of God, who is bringing to pass these great and marvelous works that are commenced among the people. The wicked shall be plucked out -- the rebellious, as Section 64 tells us.

The town down there is going to be cleaned up, and we are going to be preparing a people to live the Holy United Order. I am standing right by President Johnson in that great work. I love him more than any man or woman, and I want you to learn to love him. He holds the keys to all your blessings, the blessings of the holy Priesthood. He holds the keys of the Priesthood, and I know he holds the keys to my salvation.

So let us learn to be one hundred percenters, holding back nothing in sustaining President Johnson in this great work in which he is engaged, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I am delighted to have the opportunity of meeting with you today, children, young people. This is a beautiful sight to see children eager to know the truth and to follow in the footsteps of the Lord Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith, Jun., who came upon the earth to save the sons and daughters of Adam who would be saved. God our Father so loved His children that He sent His Only Begotten Son to redeem them and to bring them unto the Father and Himself.

Joseph Smith, Jun., came upon the scene in the last dispensation. He heads this entire dispensation of the fullness of times, and he was a Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son. And they all three laid down their lives for the sons and daughters of Father Adam, who is our Father in heaven. Make no mistake about it, Father Adam suffered in changing from immortality to mortality, to make it possible to bring forth his spirit children and give them bodies that they might complete their salvation and exaltation in the presence of the Father and the Son.

You heard it said that John Taylor and Willard Richards were in the prison with Joseph the day before, at the time he was martyred. And John Taylor penned the following beautiful description of what happened there, and telling us who Joseph Smith really is.

D.& C. 135

1. To seal the testimony of this book and the Book of Mormon,

This Book is the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 135.

1. ...we announce the martyrdom of Joseph Smith the Prophet, and Hyrum Smith the Patriarch. They were shot in Carthage jail, on the 27th of June, 1844, about five o'clock p.m., by an armed mob -- painted black -- of from 150 to 200 persons. Hyrum was shot first and fell calmly, exclaiming: I am a dead man! Joseph leaped from the window, Thinking to turn them away from his brethren.

1. ...and was shot dead in the attempt, exclaiming: O Lord my God! They were both shot after they were dead, in a brutal manner, and both received four balls.

The bullets then were round balls.

2. John Taylor and Willard Richards, two of the Twelve, were the only persons in the room at the time; the former was wounded in a savage manner with four balls, but has since recovered; the latter, through the providence of God, escaped, without even a hole in his robe.

Willard Richards.

3. Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it. In the short space of twenty years, he has brought forth the Book of Mormon, which he translated by the gift and power of God, and has been the means of publishing it on two continents; has sent the fullness of the everlasting gospel, which it contained, to the four quarters of the earth; has brought forth the revelations and commandments which compose this book of Doctrine and Covenants, and many other wise documents and instructions for the benefit of the children of men; gathered many thousands of the Latter-day Saints, founded a great city, and left a fame and name that cannot be slain. He lived great, and he died great in the eyes of God and his people; and like most of the Lord's anointed in ancient times, has sealed his mission and his works with his own blood; and so has his brother Hyrum. In life they were not divided, and in death they were not separated!

4. When Joseph went to Carthage to deliver himself up to the pretended requirements of the law, two or three days previous to his assassination, he said: "I am going like a lamb to the slaughter; but I am calm as a summer's morning; I have a conscience void of offense towards God, and towards all men. I SHALL DIE INNOCENT, AND IT SHALL YET BE SAID OF ME -- HE WAS MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD." -- The same morning, after Hyrum had made ready to go -- shall it be said to the slaughter? yes, for so it was -- he read the following paragraph, near the close of the twelfth chapter of Ether, in the Book of Mormon, and turned down the leaf upon it:

5. And it came to pass that I prayed unto the Lord that he would give unto the Gentiles grace, that they might have charity. And it came to pass that the Lord said unto me: If they have not charity it mattereth not unto thee, thou hast been faithful; wherefore thy garments are clean. And because thou hast seen thy weakness, thou shalt be made strong, even unto the sitting down in the place which I have prepared in the mansions of my Father. And now I...bid farewell unto the Gentiles; yea, and also unto my brethren whom I love, until we shall meet before the judgment-seat of Christ, where all men shall know that my garments are not spotted with your blood. The testators are now dead, and their testament is in force.

6. Hyrum Smith was forty-four years old in February, 1844, and Joseph Smith was thirty-eight in December, 1843; and henceforward their names will be classed among the martyrs of religion; and the reader in every nation will be reminded that the Book of Mormon, and this book of Doctrine and Covenants of the church, cost the best blood of the nineteenth century to bring them forth for the salvation of a ruined world; and that if the fire can scathe a green tree for the glory of God, how easy it will burn up the dry trees to purify the vineyard of corruption. They lived for glory; they died for glory; and glory is their eternal reward. From age to age shall their names go down to posterity as gems for the sanctified.

7. They were innocent of any crime, as they had often been proved before, and were only confined in jail by the conspiracy of traitors and wicked men; and their innocent blood on the floor of Carthage jail is a broad seal affixed to "Mormonism" that cannot be rejected by any court on earth, and their innocent blood on the escutcheon of the State of Illinois, with the broken faith of the State as pledged by the governor, is a witness to the truth of the everlasting gospel that all the world cannot impeach; and their innocent blood on the banner of liberty, and on the magna charta of the United States, is an ambassador for the religion of Jesus Christ, that will touch the hearts of honest men among all nations; and their innocent blood, with the innocent blood of all the martyrs under the altar that John saw, will cry unto the Lord of Hosts till he avenges that blood on the earth. Amen.

RTJ 8:108  September 15, 1987  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
September 15, 1987
Funeral of Brenda Anne Johanson Fischer

I have been deeply moved by what has been spoken here today, and desire that the Spirit of God will dictate my words as I speak on this sacred occasion, and that His word and will may be done. That has been the motive by which I have been guided, and the Spirit by which I have been guided as I have guided the welfare of this dear sister and her children. All that was done for them and with them was during the years when Uncle Roy, President Johnson, was here. I acted under his direction. Sister Brenda had placed herself in the hands of Uncle Roy, and after his passing I carried on, looking after the welfare and well-being of this young family. This last spring, Sister Brenda placed herself in my hands, and I have acted by the direction of appointing out of the Lord in all that has been done.

These beautiful words that have been spoken by Brother Truman are certainly appropriate at this time, and apply. The Lord pointed out through His will and way, that these, this dear mother and her children, should be placed with Brother Vaughn Fischer; and he has done a wonderful work in carrying out what he was given to do. These dear children are under a man of God who loves them as well as all of his family, and sees to their welfare and well-being, and to be taught in the ways of the Lord. He is a righteous man. Sister Brenda, of course, will be on the other side and rendering what influence she can in their behalf. These words of preparation spoken of by Brother Truman are very appropriate, and I need not dwell further on that.

What we now look forward to is the resurrection. The work of the Lord is to prepare His people for a glorious resurrection, and that is what Brother Vaughn and his family will work for in behalf of these lovely children.

For my part, I would just like to read some words of comfort from the Prophet Joseph Smith regarding this next step in our existence, after we go to the other side.

TPJS  Page 296

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it. More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.
The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man. O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

In speaking at the funeral of Lorenzo Barnes, these comforting words were given, which may apply in their meanings to this situation.

To Marcellus Bates let me administer comfort.

To Brother Vaughn.

You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes

Brother Vaughn.

...and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

And I pray that the blessings of God may be added upon this family, and to all who desire a glorious resurrection, and labor and prepare for it. Before that, we have the work of redeeming Zion, and that is the nature of the work which President Johnson has left to us. Now, may God bless this family and all of us, that we may love and obey the truth and be prepared to die tomorrow, or whenever the Lord calls, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:110  October 1987  Sandy
I miss the presence of the Prophet Leroy Johnson, but I am sure his spirit and presence and influence is with us, and I bask in it. I consider him the founder of this school. We at first called it the "Johnson School", and Uncle Roy asked that we not do it anymore. But I am sure that grew out of his humility and love for all of us. He is a perfect example of the pure love of Christ. He was and is.

And in the spirit of Uncle Roy, I want to read you the rules, if you please, the terms and conditions under which the School of the Prophets met in Kirtland in the early days. This was a very sacred school. By its very name we can understand how important it was. But in the spirit of that organization, which lasted until the apostasy of 1837-38; started in 1832:

117. Therefore, verily I say unto you, my friends, call your solemn assembly, as I have commanded you.
118. And as all have not faith, seek ye diligently and teach one another words of wisdom; yea, seek ye out of the best books words of wisdom; seek learning, even by study and also by faith.
119. Organize yourselves; prepare every needful thing; and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God;
120. That your incomings may be in the name of the Lord; that your outgoings may be in the name of the Lord; that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands unto the Most High.

This was a Priesthood function, but I am reading it to give you the spirit of it, that we can apply it as far as we can in this organization that we are trying to conduct here. And remember, the brethren from Joseph down have stood for education. A school was commenced in Nauvoo. Schools were set up here in Zion, in our mountain home.

121. Therefore, cease from all your light speeches, from all laughter, from all your lustful desires, from all your pride and light-mindedness, and from all your wicked doings.
122. Appoint among yourselves a teacher,
We appoint the teachers here. Just keep in mind the background here. But I am trying to get before you principles for us.

122. Appoint among yourselves a teacher, and let not all be spokesmen at once; but let one speak at a time and let all listen unto his sayings, that when all have spoken that all may be edified of all, and that every man may have an equal privilege.

123. See that ye love one another;
These are the principles I want to emphasize.

123. ...cease to be covetous; learn to impart one to another as the gospel requires.

124. Cease to be idle; cease to be unclean; cease to find fault one with another; cease to sleep longer than is needful;
Get up in the morning and get to school.

124. ...retire to thy bed early, that ye may not be weary; arise early, that your bodies and your minds may be invigorated.

125. And above all things, clothe yourselves with the bond of charity, The pure love of Christ.

125. ...as with a mantle, which is the bond of perfectness and peace.

126. Pray always,
Pray over your studies, boys and girls. Teachers, pray as you teach.

126. Pray always, that ye may not faint, until I come. Behold, and lo, I will come quickly, and receive you unto myself. Amen.

When Brigham Young called Karl G. Maeser to organize the Brigham Young Academy in Provo, Karl Maeser asked Brigham had he any instructions for him. Brigham said, "Brother Maeser, teach by the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, and all will be well." And I always like to read this little poem for the benefit of teachers:

The Teacher's Prayer

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?
I teach them knowledge -- but I know
How faint the flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.
I teach them power to will and do --
But only now I learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.
I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures -- but I find
My love comes lagging still behind.
Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

God bless you, amen.

RTJ 8:113  March 12, 1989  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
March 12, 1989
Labor in Unity Unto Perfection

Need I say more except praise be to God, and may God's blessings rest upon this people in great power as we labor together in unity to build up the Kingdom of God by abiding the crowning principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ -- the Celestial Law of Marriage, the plurality of wives, and the Holy United Order, which if we abide will make us perfect. May God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 8:113  September 22, 1996  Sandy

Sandy, Utah
September 22, 1996
Get Down to Business

We have had a fine time here today, brothers and sisters. Let us get down to business here and now, I pray for all of you in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Sermons of John Y. Barlow

JYB 8:117  March 19, 1935  SLC
JYB 8:117  December 10, 1935  Mohave County
JYB 8:125  January 28, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:125  January 28, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:128  April 21, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:129  June 23, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:131  July 7, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:133  August 25, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:135  September 13, 1940  Pocatello
JYB 8:136  October 6, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:140  November 24, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:142  December 8, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:144  December 22, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:145  December 31, 1940  SLC
JYB 8:148  January 3, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:150  January 10, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:152  January 12, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:153  January 26, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:153  February 23, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:158  March 4, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:159  March 9, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:160  March 23, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:162  April 6, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:164  April 23, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:166  April 29, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:169  May 25, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:171  June 8, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:174  June 29, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:174  July 6, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:175  July 13, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:176  July 27, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:178  August 24, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:181  September 14, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:183  October 5, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:186  October 26, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:187  December 14, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:189  December 28, 1941  SLC
JYB 8:191  January 11, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:194  January 25, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:195  February 8, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:197  March 8, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:199  March 22, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:201  April 12, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:203  April 26, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:206  May 10, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:207  June 14, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:208  June 28, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:210  July 12, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:212  July 26, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:214  August 9, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:216  September 13, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:218  September 27, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:219  October 11, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:222  October 25, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:223  November 7, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:224  November 8, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:225  November 8, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:225  November 22, 1942  SLC
JYB 8:226  January 10, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:228  January 24, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:231  February 14, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:233  February 28, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:234  April 4, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:235  April 11, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:238  April 25, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:239  June 27, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:240  August 1, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:241  August 8, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:241  August 22, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:244  September 6, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:246  September 12, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:247  September 26, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:250  October 3, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:250  October 24, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:252  November 7, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:254  November 14, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:255  November 28, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:256  December 12, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:257  December 26, 1943  SLC
JYB 8:259  January 2, 1944  SLC
JYB 8:261  January 20, 1944  SLC
JYB 8:326  March 25, 1945  SLC
JYB 8:330  April 1, 1945  SLC
JYB 8:331  April 8, 1945  SLC
JYB 8:333  April 22, 1945  SLC
JYB 8:334  April 7, 1946  SCA
JYB 8:336  June 8, 1947  SCA
JYB 8:336  June 27, 1947  SLC
JYB 8:341  July 8, 1947  SCA
JYB 8:343  July 12, 1947  Widtsoe
JYB 8:347  August 31, 1947  Widtsoe
JYB 8:355  August 31, 1947  Widtsoe
JYB 8:357  September 14, 1947  Widtsoe
JYB 8:360  October 26, 1947  Mexico
JYB 8:361  November 23, 1947  SCA
JYB 8:366  November 23, 1947  SCA
JYB 8:367  November 30, 1947  Widtsoe
JYB 8:368  March 25, 1948  SCA
JYB 8:371  April 6, 1948  Ozumba, Mexico
JYB 8:373  June 22, 1948  SCA
JYB 8:374  October 31, 1948
JYB 8:375  January 2, 1949  SCA
JYB 8:377  June 26, 1949  SCA
JYB 8:379  July 17, 1949  SCA

JYB 8:117  March 19, 1935  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 19, 1935
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Funeral of Joseph Leslie Broadbent
At Larkin Mortuary

As the time is far spent, I do not think it wise to prolong this service; therefore I will say but little. I wish to endorse all that has been said, and thank one and all for the assistance which they have rendered on this occasion.

I knew Brother Leslie Broadbent for twenty years. We have been together and studied together in his home, and I know that he was a faithful Latter-day Saint. He was the defender of the weak and oppressed, and a believer in works rather than in words. He was a man who could be depended upon, and I learned to love him. I was with him when he received his calling many years ago, and since then he has taught the plan, the true plan of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And his family can look back on his life and be grateful for such a man as a husband and a father.

JYB 8:117  December 10, 1935  Mohave County

Trial of Price Johnson and I. C. Spencer
Mohave County, Arizona
December 10, 1935
Testimony of President John Y. Barlow at the Trial of Price Johnson and I. C. Spencer
(Defense attorney: Victor J. Hayek)
(Prosecuting attorney: E. Elmo Bollinger)

JOHN Y. BARLOW, a witness called by the defendant, being first duly sworn according to law, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. HAYEK:
Q. You may state your name please.
A. John Y. Barlow.

Q. Where do you live Mr. Barlow?
A. I live at Short Creek at present.

Q. Is that in Mohave County, State of Arizona?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you resided there?
A. About six months.
Q. What was the occasion for you moving to Short Creek; for what reason did you go to Short Creek?
A. Some of the boys wrote up and asked me to come down and help them out.

Q. Who wrote to you?
A. I believe Price Johnson mailed it.

Q. Where were you living at the time you received the communication?
A. Salt Lake City.

Q. What purpose was set forth in the communication to you inviting you down there; for what reason were you asked to come down?
A. I had lost my farm and things in Salt Lake and was on Relief and they were on relief and they wanted me to come down and help them get off relief.

MR. BOLLINGER: May I call for the letter?

MR. HAYEK: (continuing)
Q. Do you have the letter sent to you from Short Creek asking you to come down; have you that letter in your possession?
A. No, I don't believe I have. I don't remember what I did with it.

Q. Don't you think you can find it?
A. I don't know, I am sure.

Q. Do you know the defendant, I. C. Spencer?
A. I do.

Q. How long have you known him?
A. I first got acquainted with him in 1923 up at the Baldwin Radio Plant.

Q. Where is that?
A. In Salt Lake City.

Q. Have you seen him during the last six months in Short Creek at regular intervals?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know what his reputation is in Short Creek as applies to his moral character?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is that reputation?
Q. Are you a member of the Mormon Church?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been a member of the Mormon Church?
A. All my life.

Q. Are your parents members of the Mormon Church?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the United Order?
A. The United Order is an order revealed by the prophet Joseph Smith for the saints to live economically and so that they could help one another.

Q. Is the United Order an economic or is it a religious order?
A. Both.

Q. How does it function economically in Short Creek?
A. By each one helping the other; it don't make any difference what they are doing they all go in together and work to the good of all. For instance now, there was land there. We were buying and a saw mill. We all went into it together and paid twenty-five hundred dollars since we got there; bought the saw mill and the land and cleaned it up.

Q. Since you have been in Short Creek, have you sought to influence families in Utah to come down and join the Short Creek community?
A. On the contrary. I told them there was nothing there for them at present.

Q. Do you know whether this defendant has ever tried to influence outside families or others to come in and join the Short Creek community?
A. I don't know as I have.

Q. Do you know of anyone else in the Short Creek community who have sought to bring out citizens from another community to join the Short Creek community?
A. I know of no one at present.

Q. Is this defendant numbered among the men who have joined this United Order?
A. He is.

Q. Do you have any particular powers or membership fees or dues; is it an association; what is the nature; or does it have any particular ear marks you
A. Largely, we form a common law trust.

Q. Did you have any legal papers drawn by any one?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the nature of the common law trust?
A. Where we all will share alike.

Q. How many men are in this common law trust?
A. Maybe twenty.

Q. Are there any women in it?
A. I don't know of any.

Q. And do these men all live in Short Creek or around Short Creek?
A. They don't all live in Short Creek; some of them live in Salt Lake.

Q. Are these men all Mormons?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you have any particular religious tenet that differs from the Mormon Church in any way?
A. Not that I know of.

Q. Is it one of the beliefs of the United Order that plural marriage should be adhered to?
A. The United Order has nothing to do with plural marriage.

Q. The United Order does not hold that form as a particular creed?
A. No, sir.

Q. Is that a creed of the Mormon church?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. By virtue of what law, or by virtue of what right, if you know, is that creed adhered to?
THE COURT: The State is not objecting, but this matter of going into the law is not for a witness to answer.

MR. HAYEK: I withdraw that question your Honor. (continuing)

Q. What is meant by celestial marriage? I withdraw that question, and ask you this: Have you ever held any official position in the Mormon Church?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was that?
A. President of the Conference in the Mission Field; Bishop Counsellor of the Stake; Sunday School Superintendent and Young Men's Superintendent.

Q. What is meant by the term "celestial marriage"?
A. It means a marriage restored by the Prophet Joseph to the Latter Day Saints.

Q. Do you mean by the Latter Day Saints the Mormon people?
A. Yes.

Q. Was that a revelation by the Prophet Joseph Smith?
A. Yes.

Q. How do you know that was a revelation?
A. It is in the doctrine of the covenant of the Mormon Church.

Q. To your knowledge was the power of that revelation -- I withdraw the question. I am through with this witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION
BY MR. BOLLINGER:
Q. Mr. Barlow, how long did you say you had lived in Short Creek?
A. About six months.

Q. And during that time have you known that I. C. Spencer has lived in Short Creek with Silva Alred [sic] as his plural wife?
A. I have no knowledge of it first hand.

Q. Well, do you know that they live in the same house?
A. I saw them there.

Q. Have they any children?
A. I saw children there.

Q. How big is the house?
A. It is a small one-room house -- I should judge.

Q. And do you know either personally or by reputation that I. C. Spencer has a legal wife and nine children over in Glendale, Utah?
A. I have heard he had.

Q. How long have you known I. C. Spencer?
A. I have known I. C. Spencer since 1923 or 1924 I think.
Q. Did you know him when he lived at Lee's Ferry?
A. I believe I visited him once.

Q. Was Silva Alred there?
A. I think so.

Q. You don't know his wife in Glendale, Utah?
A. Yes, I have met her.

Q. Do you know I. C. Spencer's children?
A. Yes, I have met some of his children.

Q. Do you know how many he has?
A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know of an application to the Government for the Government to build a ditch at Short Creek?
A. I heard some of the boys say something about them being up there lately. I don't know of any other application.

Q. You say you or some of the members of the United Order acquired some land; went into some joint holdings of twenty men or more who belong to this cult or whatever you call it?
A. No they have no holdings in Short Creek yet. They all -- that all belongs to the men and they have not turned it over to the common trust company at all.

Q. Would the joint holdings of these members amount to two thousand acres or more?
A. Hardly. I don't think it would.

Q. Now, how is it, you speak of acquiring a saw mill. How is the title to that saw mill held.
A. It was held by one of the Johnson boys.

Q. Is that Price Johnson?
A. No, Elmer, I believe and I believe he got a deed to the land also.

Q. Is it not true that one of the teachings and practice of this trust and members of the trust is polygamy and the acquiring of plural wives?
A. No, sir, the trust has nothing to do with Polygamy or teachings of plural wives.

Q. Well, is the trust and the members of the trust in favor of or against Polygamy and plural wives?
A. Some are in favor and some don't believe in it.

Q. Is there any limit to the number of wives they may have?
A. I don't know anything about that.

MR. BOLLINGER: Take the witness.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. HAYEK:

Q. Mr. Barlow is it your belief, as a member of the United Order that celestial marriage is a command?
A. It is a direct revelation from God.

Q. Can you tell the Jury just what "celestial marriage" means?
MR. BOLLINGER: We object if the Court please, we are trying a case of open and notorious cohabitation.
MR. HAYEK: Counsel for the State has sought to solicit that same information.

THE COURT: I do not recall that counsel for the State referred to that on direct examination. At any rate none of these matters appear to be material. There has been no objection offered by the parties and both parties have been putting it in. The objection is sustained.

MR. HAYEK: I withdraw the question. I will ask you Mr. Barlow, is plural marriage a necessary tenet of the Mormon creed?
MR. BOLLINGER: We interpose another objection.
THE COURT: Objection sustained.
MR. HAYEK: That is all.
MR. BOLLINGER: No further questions. Mr. Musser.

JYB 8:125 January 28, 1940 SLC

Sunday School
Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home 4118 S. 500 E.
January 28, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Teach Children the Gospel in Their Youth; Force Is Not a Part of the Gospel
While sitting here, I was thinking that the Gospel reaches the children’s ears as well as our own. We hear these things; we hear them in our youth and they never leave us, if you bring a child up in the way he should go.

(Told of a man who came into the Gospel because he heard what was taught him when he was a child.) Let us study these things for ourselves. Let us find out.

President Young says we cannot force anyone. We must give men their agency to do according to the dictates of their own conscience. That was the reason for the big war in heaven. One wanted to force, and the other wanted their agency. Whenever you see anyone forced, it is not the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

JYB 8:125 January 28, 1940 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
January 28, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Vision of Judgments; Must Live All the Laws; Keys of Priesthood Continue; We Will Be Tested

I have been greatly edified in the remarks of the brethren, and I want to say to you people here, just a few nights ago I saw in vision some of these judgments that are coming. They are coming, and they are going to be so severe and so bad that we are not going to be able to stand them unless we get the Spirit of God to protect us. I have been telling the people that the Lord told me before to get the Spirit of God for protection. If you ever read in the 29th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants of the plague of flies that are coming, I saw them, and oh, the distress; and oh, all the sorrow that I ever saw in my life upon people, it was there till my very soul melted.

We have been told a number of times that we have got to live the laws of God. We have got to keep the commandments. And if we don't, the result of it is going to be that God is going to whip this people into line.

Our ancestors are praying day and night for their children, and I know it. I know as well as I know I am standing here, that God is going to have a blessed people; and that this people, if they will keep the commandments of God, He will protect them. He said He would protect them if He had to send fire down from heaven to do so. (He told the story of Elijah.) If we would keep the commandments of God and live our religion, it will be that way. We are going to have trouble. God is going to whip us into line if we won't come in the other way. This brother just spoke to us and told us about the law of Celestial Marriage. Do you think for one minute that a law from the Lord that took an angel with a drawn sword could be done away with, with a single piece of paper?

In this last Conference, April 6, 1939, we have been told that we must live all the laws of God. But if you do live them, they cut you off the Church. They have told us that we can't get salvation without living them. But if we do live them we are cast out. We also had a splendid talk on the Priesthood of God. But you notice, on talking on the Priesthood of God, he took the pamphlet to do it with. He told us that the Presidency of the High Priests was the one that did it. President Young says:

Perhaps it may make some of you stumble, were I to ask you a question -- Does a man's being a Prophet in this Church prove that he shall be the President of it? I answer, no! A man may be a Prophet, Seer, and Revelator, and it may have nothing to do with his being the President of the Church. Suffice it to say, that Joseph was the President of the Church, as long as he lived: the people chose to have it so. He always filled that responsible station, by the voice of the people. Can you find any revelation appointing him the President of the Church? The keys of the Priesthood were committed to Joseph, to build up the Kingdom of God on the earth, and were not to be taken from him in time or in eternity; but when he was called to preside over the Church, it was by the voice of the people; though he held the keys of the Priesthood, independent of their voice.

In the Doctrine and Covenants it says the one holding the keys of the High Priesthood is above them all. We haven't any President of the High Priests in the Church today. They say further that the Apostleship of the Church is the highest. In the days of the Prophet Brigham Young, there were Apostles in the Church and they went on a good many months and years before Joseph called certain ones together. In May 1843, he called his brother Hyrum, Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball, Willard Richards, and William Law, and gave them the High Priesthood. He gave each one of them the keys of the Priesthood, so if anything happened to him they could go on holding the keys of the Priesthood. In the historical record, there is the whole thing there. Our agency -- we were told today that anything that stopped our agency was from the lower regions; while right on top of it some of the brethren said a great many things, but I couldn't listen to what they were saying, knowing what they are doing.

Let us go a little further and not get two-faced, and remember this one thing -- that God has not rejected this Church yet. If God is going to reject the Church, He wouldn't send the One Mighty and Strong to set it in order. Brothers and sisters, let us not be deceived. Let us live the laws of God.

The Doctrine and Covenants said that God caused these laws to be made to test you and try you to see if you would keep these covenants unto death; and if you would not, you could not be worthy of Him. Read the 98th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants. Think of these things; study for yourselves. Don't take any man's word. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sunday School at the Charles F. Zitting Home
April 21, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Must Live All the Laws Revealed Through Joseph Smith;
God Never Changes

This is the way that we learn salvation. Salvation doesn't come to you in a minute. God requires us to work and gain our salvation, and we work it out with fear and trembling. I was well pleased with the quietness of the children. Looking over this small congregation here, it makes me have deep thoughts. It makes me think that all the work that the Prophet Joseph did, and the laws that he laid down, and there is only just a small portion of us trying to live those laws. Go everywhere, all over the country. They tell us that some of the laws are not essential. They changed it. They changed what the Lord said. All these things were given to the Prophet Joseph, and the Lord told us in revelation that we should teach those things that were given to the Prophet. But today we find men that say it isn't necessary.

I was quite taken up, while on my trip up north -- all over the place, wherever we would go we didn't see many children. I never saw so many children as we have down here.

The Lord, in speaking in the days of David, He told them that the people would come here in the desert, and He would make those people's families like flocks. This was done in the early days. But since, we have drifted away; we have changed.

D.& C. 3

1. The works, and the designs, and the purposes of God cannot be frustrated, neither can they come to naught.

2. For God doth not walk in crooked paths, neither doth he turn to the right hand nor to the left, neither doth he vary from that which he hath said, therefore his paths are straight, and his course is one eternal round.

3. Remember, remember that it is not the work of God that is frustrated, but the work of men;

When they talk of changing anything, you will find that God never changes. It is man that changes, and not God. God bless you, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:129 June 23, 1940 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
June 23, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm

The Lord Gave Enough to Joseph Smith to Take Us to the Highest Degree of Glory in the Celestial Kingdom; The Lord Handles the Apostleship; Must Be Able to Stand in the Presence of the Savior; Love One Another

The few moments that I stand before you, I pray that what I may say may be dictated by the Holy Ghost, for I know that unless we teach by the Spirit of the Holy Ghost, we don't amount to much.

I know one time down in Short Creek, one certain man got up and said certain things about me. I sat there and let them go. But I had brethren there that would not stand for it, and this brother was one of them, Brother
Lawrence Stubbs. I had a man say to me the other day, "Are you a legal successor?" I said, "It does not matter who I am, just as long as I am set apart to teach this people. What does it matter to me about these things?"

Now that is a question to all of us. Are we living these laws that will gain eternal life? That is what we are after, and don't care how it comes or where it comes from. If we don't teach the plan of life and salvation that has been laid down -- let me tell you one thing, God gave a revelation to Joseph Smith, and He gave other revelations that we should teach the things that Joseph Smith gave to us. Another revelation was given to Hyrum Smith in which he said that the Lord had given all the principles and all the revelation that He would give to this dispensation. He gave us enough to get us into the highest degree of glory.

After these things have been given, we go out into the highway and don't follow the track. Why? Because one of our leaders said that the Church was on a detour. There is no detour in the Gospel plan, and when men say that, it comes from man and not from God, for God will not accept any man or anything that He has not called or ordained or appointed.

I bear you my testimony that these men here have been called of God by direct revelation from God, and through the Prophets of God. Brother Woolley said, "Now brethren, you pray for some good men, and I will pray. This quorum has got to be filled up." A messenger was sent to Lorin Woolley and told him that that was none of his business and to keep out, that that was God's business. Brothers and sisters, just as soon as God says, "Fill up this quorum," we will do it, but not until.

We can see today what is coming. You don't need much of a Prophet today to see what is coming, because it is here. What are we doing? You people are sent here. Fifteen thousand children are being sent here. Are we prepared to feed them? We heard them [the prophecies] with our ears, but never heard them. Brother Jedediah M. Grant killed himself trying to get the people to see these things. Save your grain; keep your grain. What is the result? There is nothing saved up. God has said His judgment is on the ground. We used to get seventy-five or a hundred bushels to an acre. Now we get ten bushels. Why is it? It is because we won't listen, we won't take any counsel.

Brother Pratt said that he didn't think that this law could be lived unless we took a choice people and went off to ourselves and lived it, and even then it would be very hard. But what are we going to do? Are we going to get ourselves prepared and live these laws of God? I will show you my faith with my works. If anything is wrong, we run to the doctors here and there. But when are we ever going to get so that we are going to the Elders who can lay their hands upon us and restore us? Do you think you could stand the Savior's presence? When you go back to Jackson County, you are going to live so that the Savior is going to be with you in your midst.

Now, if we will get the Spirit of God around us and take care and see what we do, and keep the Lord's commandments, these things will come to us. We will be that way, and above all get the selfishness out. I think that nearly every one of us is like the poet says. He says, "Of all the men, I love myself the best." But the commandments say you have got to love your brother as yourself. Then when you get that way, you will say it is a different thing, because then you would just as soon they would have it as yourself.

I am well pleased with the way that some are doing, but not all. Let us look at self as much as we can, and keep the commandments of God. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:131 July 7, 1940 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
July 7, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Obedience Earns the Blessing; The Lord Is Fighting Our Battles; We Are Going to Be Tested; Must Live All the Laws of God

My brothers and sisters, the few moments that I may stand before you, if I am endowed with the Holy Ghost, with the Spirit of God, there are a few things I would like to call to your mind.

What is the greatest gift that God can bestow upon the human family? It is eternal life, and He has laid down a plan; given laws and commandments to the Prophet Joseph Smith, whereby if we follow them, we can gain that eternal life. But if we fail to follow them, just as my brother said, "If you do what I say I will fight your battles; if you don't, you have no promise." When we look around us we can testify that God is fighting our battles. People outside this little group have come to see that God is fighting our battles, and every man that has been fighting against us, one by one we see them picked off.

We have a very striking case from Short Creek now. One of the Presidents of the Stake, who was an attorney, was just as mean and nasty with his remarks as he could be. Today the judgments have followed him; how far I don't know. Today he is in a very critical condition; and there are others. You go back and follow them down. We can follow men down right in our own group that have done these things, and God took a stand with them. One time a Prophet of God laid his hands upon my head, and I have seen it come to pass numbers of times.

When the brethren were taken down in Short Creek one time, I was arrested. They wouldn't let us get an attorney. They wouldn't allow us to. Brother Musser and I went down and got the judge's books. He said, "I have got nothing on Mr. Barlow at all. I will have to turn him loose." Many times I have had incidents where God has shown me beforehand what would happen and prepared me. God has blessed me in that kind of way. Brothers and sisters, every one of us have got to look to ourselves.

Yes, the Lord said in these days that He was going to give Lucifer more rope than he ever had. Brothers and sisters, we are going to be tested. We can't think that we are all right. We oftentimes hear of some trouble in families -- not a bit more trouble in plural families than in monogamy. Is it because we are living the laws of God? No. It is because we are not living the laws of God. We find that all the way through, "If you do what I say, I am bound to fight your battles; but if you do not, you have no promise."

I am glad to be here today. I have just had a trip down south among the brethren down there, some as faithful as any men I ever knew; some who are living the United Order as near as it could ever be lived. But what do we find? Someone trying [to stop us] on every turn of the road. We have got to live all the laws sooner or later. God says, "If you live the law and offend in one of them, you are guilty of the whole." If we lived all the laws but one law, it is not a fullness. We have got to get in shape to do it. If we do not, the Lord will whip us into shape. We will live these laws because the Lord is going to force us in it and make us live them.

I want to tell you brothers and sisters much more. It has been on my mind constantly, and I can't get it off. Get the Spirit of God around you. Pray night and day and get the Spirit of God around you. That is the only thing that is going to protect you. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:133  August 25, 1940  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
August 25, 1940
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Greatest Gift of Eternal Life Is Offered Us;
Parable of the Redemption of Zion; Must Be Pure

My brothers and sisters, the few moments that I stand here I desire an interest in your faith and prayers. We have heard many things today. How many of us took these things to ourselves and believe them? Uncle Lorin said that you have got to know that the Gospel is true. What is the Gospel -- the plan of salvation? It is the greatest gift that can be placed upon man. It is the gift that will lead us to eternal lives. Joseph Smith gave the principles to the people so that the people could understand them. He came down and restored the plan that was once on the earth at the time of Adam, and at the time of the Savior. These principles that will exalt us and save us; these are what we want of life. It is what God says, not what man says. If we can hunt them out, we can find out what we must do to gain that eternal life.

In order to get into the Kingdom of God, we must be born again -- repentance, and baptism, and the holy ordinance of sealing. It takes those things to get into the Kingdom of God. Let us go on to perfection. To faith let us add knowledge; to knowledge, virtue and charity. Charity has almost lost its meaning today. In that day it meant the pure love of God.

Now, brothers and sisters, these things were given to us in their plainness and simplicity, and God fixed these laws. In Section 101 of the Doctrine and Covenants to the Prophet, the Lord gives a parable concerning the redemption of Zion unto man. The nobleman told his servants to plant twelve olive trees, and to build a tower that they might look over and see their enemies afar off. They started to build the tower, but came to variance one with another, asking what need they had of the tower at a time of peace. Then the enemy came, and they started to run because they were not prepared as they were told.
When the higher ordinances of the Gospel were given to the people by the Prophet, only two percent of the people obeyed these ordinances. Then what came? The Edmunds Law, and the people got scared and ran. Finally the Master said, "What have you done? Get up the young men and the middle-aged and go back and redeem My land."

Brothers and sisters, we are in that condition today. God has spoken, and He is going to come back here, and the people are going to redeem that land. I want to bear my testimony that God never gives any commandment unless He opens the way. It will take more than a Manifesto to ever stop the principle of Celestial Marriage.

(He told the story of the purse. -- Who is the loser?)

God will open the way if you will live this law. We are going to purify ourselves and cleanse ourselves if we expect to go back to Jackson County, but we must not have sin among us. How many of us are preparing and sanctifying ourselves? God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:135  September 13, 1940  Pocatello

Pocatello, Idaho
Brother Petty's Home
September 13, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Story of Entering Into Celestial Marriage

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified by the remarks of the brethren, and I know that the Gospel is true. I used to say, "I believe the Gospel is true." Now I know that it is true. There are many things to come up. I think Brother Musser and myself have been on the firing line for the past twenty years. We have lived this. Brother Musser has raised a large family, nearly all of them grown. I never went into it as quick as he did. I believe it was the Savior who said, "If you will do My will, you will know whether the doctrine I teach is true or not."

I think maybe it would be interesting to you people if I gave you just a little history of how I happened to take up this work. I always believed in it, and I told my wife that if the time ever came that I should live this law, I was going to enter it. Finally, my brother went into it. I went on a mission and I preached that it was all done away with. When I came back home, I found the President of our Stake had entered into the law. And they were trying to find my brother's plural wife, and it was the time that she was to be confined. My brother said he didn't know what to do. I said to him, "Come on up to the house, and I will get Susie and go down and get your wife and take care of her." While there, I told the Lord -- I would be praying, "Now, if this is right, make it known to me, and I will obey it."

One morning about 5:00 A.M., a panorama started, and I saw the ancients in the days of Father Adam come, and each man had two women on his arm walking by him. I saw Noah, etc., and I saw the Apostles of the Lord -- Peter, etc. Then I saw Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, John Taylor, etc., all pass by me in this panorama.

It was nearly twelve years after that before I got into it. We prayed to the Lord to send one to our home. This went on for a year or two. One night, my youngest daughter and her friend went riding with a man, and he was not very responsible, and they walked home. My daughter said, "Daddy, teach us the marriage covenant." I took the Doctrine and Covenants and taught them the truth of it. That night I saw Ada as my wife. The next morning I told Ada it was about time we were doing something about it. I went to one party after another. I could not find out who was doing it. Then someone said, "You think of the man that bears the strongest testimony," and I thought of Uncle Lorin Woolley.

The marriage covenant and endowment are two different covenants. The man in the temple said, "Brother Barlow, I knew it the moment you came in. God bless you. Be careful."

JYB 8:136 October 6, 1940 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
October 6, 1940
Reported by Marjorie Holm and Leona Jeffs
The Church Is Casting Out Those Living the Celestial Law;
The Obedient Will Suffer Persecution

We have visitors from Idaho, California, Short Creek, New Harmony, and Cedar City. We just got through listening to the Conference. We heard some very fine sermons. But I am a good deal like the Indians here -- when they got in control, what they were going to do. They say, "Now that is fine, their talk is good, what will they do?" We had brethren here that went down to Conference and had policeman walk them off because they were sons of brethren who were living this law. There was one boy whose father had not been here for years. Remember this one thing. They will cast you out of their synagogues, yea, they will kill you. Very many of them say you must live the fullness of the Gospel. Now doesn't that sound strange to you? They should finish it up. "You must live the fullness of the Gospel, but if you do they will kick you out."

I want you brethren and sisters to know where you are getting. The same cause always produces the same effect. Jesus said, "If you live Godly in Christ Jesus, you must suffer persecution." He never said anything about loving the world. The Apostle James said that, "He that loveth the world is a hater of God." Christ and Lucifer will not mix. They can't mix, for Christ's work is to build up, organize, go on to eternal perfection; and Lucifer's work is to pull down, disorganize, and disappoint.

I was thinking along the line of the scripture where it says, "Prophets came and spake as they were moved upon by the Holy Ghost." Then my mind reflected back to the holy men, to Abraham, what kind of a man was Abraham. He looked up and he saw God; and he prepared water and asked God to eat with him, and God did. Abraham had so much faith with God, that he asked Him if he got down to five souls in the city, if it was right; God said He would spare the city.

We come down to Jacob. "Jacob, because you have kept My laws and commandments, when the wonderful city is built, you shall sit at the head. You have twelve sons. I will put their names on the twelve gates of the pearly city."

Now, my brethren and sisters, the Prophet Joseph was like we are. So he went before the Lord and asked Him how He justified these men. It is against tradition today. They think it is a sin. The Lord says:

D.& C. 132

1. ...inasmuch as you have inquired of my hand to know and understand wherein I, the Lord, justified my servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as also Moses, David and Solomon, my servants, as touching the principle and doctrine of their having many wives and concubines --

2. Behold, and lo, I am the Lord thy God, and will answer thee as touching this matter.

3. Therefore, prepare thy heart to receive and obey the instructions which I am about to give unto you; for all those who have this law revealed unto them must obey the same.

4. For behold, I reveal unto you a new and an everlasting covenant; and if ye abide not that covenant, then are ye damned; for no one can reject this covenant and be permitted to enter into my glory.

5. For all who will have a blessing at my hands shall abide the law which was appointed for that blessing, and the conditions thereof, as were instituted from before the foundation of the world.

6. And as pertaining to the new and everlasting covenant, it was instituted for the fulness of my glory; and he that receiveth a fulness thereof must and shall abide the law, or he shall be damned, saith the Lord God.

Now, my brothers and sisters, today it is just the opposite. Every man that believes in that can't go on in the Church. There is something further. They went on this way and fought this law. President John Taylor had a revelation and called President Grant to the Apostleship. Then he called Seymour B. Young and said he would be one of the Seven Presidents [of Seventy] if he would abide in the Celestial Marriage law. Brethren, I can't hear what you say for what you are doing.

I say to you brothers and sisters, think these things over. Go before the Lord and get a thorough testimony for yourselves. See whether it be of God or it be of man. I ask God to bless you, that everyone that speaks to you tonight may have the Holy Spirit to guide them, that they may feed us the bread of life.

Now look upon the opposite side of these principles. Suppose you say,

Fifty years ago today, the Manifesto was adopted in General Conference, the 6th day of October, 1890. We have had a wonderful lot of truth told to us tonight. I am going to read what President Young said is the cause of us getting into this condition we are in.

Now look upon the opposite side of these principles. Suppose you say,
"We will give up the pursuits of our holy religion. We are not Latter-day Saints. Let us go and seek after the things of the world, speculate, get unto ourselves riches, turn away from our duties, neglect the things pertaining to our salvation, go with the giddy, the frivolous, the seeker after gold, to California, Australia, or elsewhere, for the purpose of acquiring wealth." I tell you the result of that course. You would cease to increase in all the attributes of excellence, glory, and eternal duration, from that very moment. So soon as you conceive such ideas, they find a soil within you prepared to nurture them, and it brings forth their direful effects; from that very moment you cease to increase. The opposite principle seizes you, fastens itself upon you, and you decrease, lessen, diminish, decay, and waste away in quality, excellence, and strength, until your organization becomes extinct, oblivion covers you, your name is blotted out from the Book of Life, from the heavens, from the earth, and from under the earth, and you will return, and sink into your natural element, which cannot be destroyed, though many read the Bible as conveying such an idea, but it does not.

He went on to urge you again to get the Spirit of God. We can see what is coming, but if we get the Spirit of God and keep it, and pray humbly, and carefully, we are promised deliverance. Brother Musser here tonight referred you to what Wilford Woodruff said. Make no promises further to your enemies, but defend our great cause as you are moved upon by the Holy Ghost.

Are we as a people -- I am not talking of the Church, but this bunch of people -- are we living up to what we profess? Now, if you don't live up to it, do you think the Lord is going to favor us more than He does anybody else? No. He is no respecter of persons.

It is working around where we are going to live the United Order. We are going to live it willingly, because we have to. I pray that the time will soon come when we will have to take care of ourselves. Let us be prepared to do it. I ask God to bless you and help you to treasure up the things you have heard this night, and to treasure up the things which are given; to treasure up the truth. Read again the sermon of Joseph Fielding Smith and Brother Callace (?). Today we have got to have revelation. Jeremiah says, "What has the Lord said, and what has He spoken?" God bless you, amen.
My brothers and sisters, I have listened with interest to what the brethren have said. There are a few things that I want to bring to your minds.

On our trip we went to the Sacred Grove, and it was a privilege to go there. One of our brethren from Davis County is taking care of the Grove. We went to the Grove by ourselves, and we had the privilege of praying there. When we think, brothers and sisters, of what happened there, do you know before that time that God was [considered] a Spirit? Do you realize that? But when this young boy prayed and God appeared to him, he said, "No, God is a Man." And the Father pointing to the Son said, "This is My Beloved Son, hear Him!" At that time, there was a reopening, a foundation laid for the Latter-day Saints. It was a plan laid down whereby we had something tangible to live, to know that there is a living God.

We went from there to the house where it was reported that Joseph received the Angel Moroni, and the Hill Cumorah. That was the beginning of it. The other brethren have given you an account of some of those things, and it has been a great lesson to me.

Malachi 3
1. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.

Moroni came, then John the Baptist came, then Peter, James, and John came; Elijah, Moses came. Then God suddenly came and talked with them, and Joseph received the revelations.

We had the privilege of driving our car on the boat where the saints had to cross on the ice, where the saints at Iowa took care of them. We had the privilege of seeing in our minds' eye those things. We also had the privilege of standing and seeing where our beloved Prophet was slain. I want to tell you the stains are still on the floor, the stains of President Taylor's blood, and Hyrum’s blood, and of Joseph. We saw the old well where that mighty man fell to the mob. We saw what happened to some of the homes of the saints. Most of them are empty.

Now, these things have all happened. What does it make us think of? They all went through this that they might live the fullness of the Gospel. Joseph was murdered because he lived the fullness of the Gospel. God can’t reject His everlasting laws. They can’t be changed.

Now here we are. A few years ago we were told that there was a people that would come out of the Church. I want to tell you, my brothers and sisters, I want to bear testimony in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ that it won’t be long before the Lord will take a hand in these things. He will straighten things out for us. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:142 December 8, 1940 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
December 8, 1940
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Live All the Laws; The Kingdom of God or Nothing;
I Cannot Give You More Because
You Cannot Keep Your Own Secrets; The Coming Judgments

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified and built up this afternoon through the remarks of our brothers. I know that the Spirit of God is here and that it has been recorded. In Malachi 3 we find:

Malachi 3

16. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

17. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

The first day of Christ is not far off.

D.& C. 88

92. And angels shall fly through the midst of heaven, crying with a loud voice, sounding the trump of God, saying: Prepare ye, prepare ye, O inhabitants of the earth; for the judgment of our God is come. Behold, and lo, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

Matthew 25

1. Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
2. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
3. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:
4. But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.
6. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

The time is close at hand. If we don't get it into our systems -- the Kingdom of God or nothing -- we have got to get that into our systems. If you keep the commandments of God you will not be under any other government than the Kingdom of God.

I know this Gospel is true just as well as I know I stand here. I know what God is going to have done here. We have men in this group now, that all we have to do is say, "Brother, we want you to live the United Order." Brothers and sisters, we have got to get into it. The time has come when we have got to live every law that has been revealed to the Latter-day Saints through Joseph Smith.

I love you people here. I love the Gospel. There are many things that we would like to tell you, but you can't stand it. You can't keep your own secrets, so you can't receive more. We have got to come out of it. We have got to obey the commandments of God. It is only going to be a short time before God will speak to this nation and send judgments and plagues. How many of us today have got the Spirit of God and can keep it around us? You can see it every day. We are told by the Prophets of God that it would come, and it is upon us. I am thankful for the testimony that I have.

Brother Arnold Boss took up a subject this morning, that when he got through I could hardly stand up. When I realize the responsibilities that have been placed upon us men, then I knew why Louis (Kelsch) was humble.

May God's blessings be upon you, and may we keep humble and prayerful before God, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
December 22, 1940
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Those Who Live Godly Shall Be Persecuted;
Prepare for the Great Things Ahead

My brothers and sisters, I hardly know how to express myself. I love this people because I know they are trying to live the laws of God. I know that there is no other way to get back into the presence of our Savior, and to follow our beloved Prophet, Joseph Smith. I know that the Lord revealed through Joseph Smith the true plan of life and salvation. He gave to us the plan that will get us into and exalt us in the Kingdom of God. He said this is the last dispensation; this is the end. Then when men tell us it has been done away with, it is impossible to accept them. We as a people have been scoffed at, but has it hurt any?

Matthew 5
11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The very fact that they are fighting is the fact that it is the truth, and it is producing the right effect. Peter and James were put in jail. It has been so every day of the world. I remember one time a man was debating on the subject -- how we are driven out and being persecuted. I said everybody but the Mormons will be accepted. Because we are hated proves that we are the chosen people.

Every blessing is predicated on a law. This particular law gives eternal increase. The adversary does not care about the rest, if he can stop us from going on. And this law is the law that gives us that; and for that reason satan is going to fight it. For that reason the Prophet gave his life.

I want to bless you in the authority of the holy Priesthood, which I know I hold. And I say to each and every one of you, it is the end of the year. Brace up. Prepare yourselves! Get ready, for wonderful and great things are going to happen. We think we have seen troubles and trials, but we have some ahead of us. The Lord made known to me for you people to get the Spirit of God and keep it, to keep from these things that are coming, to protect you. You do not have to be a Prophet to see the wars and destructions that are coming. Wars mean more young men -- our boys to go and stand before the canons. I tell you, we need the Spirit of God! We need His blessings to be with us! Let us not be of the world. The Lord says, "If you are of the world, the world will love its own. He that is a friend of the world is an enemy to God." God bless you all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:145 December 31, 1940 SLC

Sisters' Class
Salt Lake, City, Utah
December 31, 1940
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson Vol.7 Page 1)
It Is Our Great Privilege to Live
the Celestial Law of Marriage;
Our Forefathers Praying for Their Posterity to Be Preserved;
The Sanhedrin; Story of "Progress"

My dear sisters, I am pleased to meet with you again. I was sitting here looking over this congregation of women and thinking how true it was, as one sister said, that she didn't know where she would find another group in the world as blessed as this group is. No, sisters, there isn't another group. Why? Because this law was given for your exaltation in the eternal worlds, that you may bear the souls of men. Remember, the soul is the body and the spirit. There are some sisters here who haven't had the privilege of having children, but they will have the privilege if they are worthy, and they will be mothers of nations.

How thankful we ought to be that we have had the privilege of mingling with the men that God has seen fit to bless and give the right to keep this holy law alive, that we might have eternal increase -- that we might be able to bear the souls of men. The Prophet Joseph F. Smith said, "If we reject this law, we will come to a full stop." Then why shouldn't you be the greatest on earth -- those that are receiving this law? There are a great many here receiving the law that haven't entered into it yet, but they have it in their hearts, and they
I was in Short Creek last Friday and over the holidays. While I was there, Aunt Lizzie received a letter from her mother’s brother telling her that she was the cause of this law (plural marriage) being lived down there, and that she was the cause of so much of the downfall of their family, and he told her to repent. Why, repent of what? For believing in the Gospel of Jesus Christ? For believing in the fullness of the Gospel? Is that what we should repent of? Christ says, "Though you live all the law, yet offend in one principle, you are guilty of the whole."

There were a great many thoughts going through my mind after reading that letter, and I thought, "O Lord, how long are you going to permit this to go on -- having the children of the saints ridiculed and persecuted by men for upholding and maintaining the fullness of the Gospel?" I want to tell you that the parents of these children that are on the earth today are praying day and night for the Lord to save their posterity. Do you know how Nephi and Abraham prayed to the Lord for their posterity? How they prayed that they would understand and keep the commandments of the Lord. Enoch had been praying to the Lord for the inhabitants of the earth. The Lord promised him that He would save some of the inhabitants of the earth, so He saved Enoch's son, Noah.

Stop and think of it, sisters. When Enoch was taken from the earth, the Lord preserved his son that the inhabitants of the earth might not perish. Melchizedek, or Shem, was the righteous one of Noah's seed, and he kept the commandments of God all the days of his life. He gave Abraham the Priesthood. He was such a righteous man, that when but a child, he quenched the pillar of fire. He received the higher order of the Priesthood. It was after the order of the Son of God. He conferred the same upon Abraham.

In our day, when we stop to think of what has happened -- Elijah, holding all the power, came to the Prophet Joseph and gave it to him; and now here we are receiving it. Are we not blessed? Others are rejecting it.

Lorin Woolley used to keep telling us that his father, John Woolley, came to him quite a bit. I asked the Lord whether it was so, or whether it was not. Next time John Woolley came, I was in the room. He turned to me and said, "There is scarcely a man in this Church under ninety years old that is abiding this covenant." He gave me to understand that men out of the Church were Now, sisters, before Lorin died, he wanted to fill the Sanhedrin, and he told us that the Priesthood on the other side went from Canada to Mexico, and they couldn't find men to do it. What a condition. Talk about apostasy. Yet, they are trying now to put out a pamphlet and giving the names of all those who have been cast out. If I were one of those who they had missed, I would write and tell them they had slighted me.

Here is a little story on "Progress", told of a man from Sanpete whose wife was very sick. This man went to the hospital about every day to find out how his wife was. They would not let him see her, but they told him that his wife was progressing fairly well or in fair condition each time he came. One day he went to the hospital and asked how his wife was, and he found out she was dead. This is just the condition of the Church now. The members think all is well and that the Church is progressing, but someday they will wake up and find they have been deceived.

Well, I have been watching the progress of you sisters, and it has been very pleasing to me. I want you to all remember this -- that the man is the head, but the woman is the neck, and the neck turns the head almost every time. I would like you to remember that. As President Young says, "If we can get the women on our side, we are all set."

I hope in the next year that we improve upon this year. Let's every one of us improve on some trait of ours. There isn't any of us but what has some little place that needs improvement. I know that this someone has.

May God bless you and be with you and help you in all your undertakings, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Brothers and sisters, I would often think, walking along the street, you see dead people walking all around you. Not so with a Latter-day Saint. They have got the light of the Gospel in their eyes. You can know and tell as quick as you meet a true Latter-day Saint.

Do we know the Gospel is true? One of our Prophets said, "Brethren, you have got to know the Gospel is true; and you have got to know you know the Gospel is true." The plan that God gave cannot be changed one bit. When anyone says that any part of the Gospel is not essential, then you know they are in the wrong way.

Hail to the Prophet ascended to heaven. Let me tell you something here, that the Prophet Joseph has ascended to heaven, and there are times he comes down to earth. I had the privilege of seeing him come from heaven, and he told me he wanted a man, and he wanted him quick. I told the brethren that it was Brother Isaac Carling, that he was wanted on the other side. We don't know any day when the Lord will say, "We want them up there and want them quick." I have heard Brother Lorin tell when he was very sick -- I miss him -- Lorin Woolley told Brother John, "Brother John, I make that promise to you, that you will do a great and mighty work in the Kingdom of God here on the earth;" and I want to say that every man that has been called of God by revelation is doing a great and mighty work upon this earth today.

You have heard them urge you, brothers and sisters, to get the Spirit of God around you, because there is a storm coming. Get ready for it. I want to testify to you, every one of you, this Gospel of salvation is to you, every one of you.

If you do away with Celestial Marriage, you come to a full stop; you cannot go any further. That is what God says. He says you will be damned. You never can be like Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob if that is the case. Let us be like President John Taylor. We don't intend to have it "kicked out", either inside or outside of the Church.

Some of us brethren have lived to see some of the best men we thought there was couldn't stand up under the load. I know that these things are true, and they know it is true, or did at one time. I don't know whether they know it now or not. I tell you in the name of the Lord, if you get up and bear your testimony, that the Spirit of God will rest upon you. Amen.
Just before Brother Woolley died, he warned all of us to have all our homes dedicated because of the judgments and diseases and pestilence that would come. A great many homes have been dedicated among our saints.

A great many thoughts have gone through my mind. How would you like to have a gathering like this and have President Young or Joseph Smith come in? That is just what is going to happen if we keep the commandments of God. The dead will come to us and talk with us and tell us things. How many have read about Sister Wilcox -- that Brother Kimball told her how the buildings here on the hills would be torn down; how Joseph, Brigham, and others would come and help us. I have been talking -- get united.

I had a dream. I saw Joseph and Louis and these people driven into a corner. We couldn't get away. There was a big wall. The enemy drove us to the wall. There were a lot of us that felt shaky. I got up and said, "If we can exercise faith enough, we can go through the door that was opened. The wall raised up and we walked through and the wall closed up. Brother Cardon had the same type of vision. He saw some of the men straddling the line. The Savior came, and others, when we were struggling, and the clouds vanished.

I was thinking about the things that Brother Jeffs and I were talking about -- Love your enemies! That does mean love the wicked, but we don't love their wickedness. Love them, but not their wickedness. As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the coming of the Son of Man. We are cast out, and we were told that we would be.

Matthew 5

11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Our people have catered to the ways of the world. We as a people have started to come out. Mark this down! You are going to see this nucleus grow and grow as you thought it would not. Brother Lorin said it would. The sons and daughters of men who have gone through the tests and trials, their fathers are praying night and day for God to save their posterity, their children, that they may see the light.

A brother came to our house today to have his garments to be marked, and told me in the Wilford Ward how they defied these things -- Parley P. Pratt's grandson -- what he had done to the writings of his grandfather. Everything on plural marriage (185 lines) have been taken out of the Key To Theology. The early records are being burned and destroyed.

I am glad to be here with this brother. I have learned to love him since he has come into our group. He is a man that you can look into his face and know that the Spirit of God is there. You are not afraid to tell him the secret things of God and know that he will not tell them. If we can't keep our own secrets, how can we keep the secrets of God? We must learn these things.

Much has been said tonight about the women. I don't know but what if a man would let a woman handle him, he ought to be handled. But sometimes he can't do anything else, because of her actions. If her will is to be changed, it takes a lot of fasting and prayer, faith, and endurance. Isn't it worth it? And are not these women our glory? If we want to cut short our glory, then give up these women. God doesn't like a quitter.

Plural marriage -- it is the law. The people hate that law. They will cast you out; but let the Lord be glorified. God shall come here. The Prophet is coming before very long to straighten things out. How many of our men and women will be worthy to be chosen? It is just a short time, brothers and sisters, and put it down in your log books. Are we going to be ready? Will God use us?

Brother Timpson, we will be back to visit you. I hope this will be a sacred place for you, and that you don't let any evil designing men and women come into this home. Let the saints come here, and let this place be a place of refuge is my prayer. God bless you, amen.
My brothers and sisters, I thought perhaps they would let me sit today. I have been interested and built up with the testimonies of these brethren -- humble testimonies that have been brought forth.

Yes, brethren, I know that we are going through some trials. I know it, for the Lord has revealed it to me. I know we are going to be tried, and those who are not humble and prayerful will falter by the way. We are praying day and night that our loved ones, our brothers and sisters, might know the truth and be among those whom the Lord will recognize and defend. But He has said if we will keep His commandments, He will protect us, if He has to send fire down from heaven to do it. But it all lies within ourselves. The Lord has given this people every law to get into the highest [degree of glory in the] Celestial Kingdom of God. Every soul is free to choose his life and what he will be.

Keep on the way you are going. Don't try to do some great stunt. If the devil gets hold of you, tell him to get away, [that] you want to go on. It is the everyday things that build us up. Would to God that we could feel the Spirit of God in our homes every day as we feel it here in the meetings. Get this selfishness out of our systems, and learn to love God, and show it by our actions. God bless you, amen.
terrestrial glory and pay the price, or we can take a Celestial train and pay the price. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:153  February 23, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lyman Jessop Home  4664 S. Highland Dr.
February 23, 1941
Reported by Marjorie Holm and Leona Jeffs
Do Not Trust in the Arm of Flesh;
Must Have a Testimony of Your Own;
This People Can Be the Nucleus of the Millennium;
Teachings Concerning Celestial Marriage

There are a few things, brothers and sisters, that I would like to say, concerning "putting your trust in the arm of flesh". We have a guide, a very fine guide. That is this, that he who speaks not according to the law and the testimony, is because there is no light in him, even those that come and talk to us from the other side. Take the eighth chapter of Isaiah. Wouldn't we, the living, hear from the dead? Speaking about going to different ones to get the word of God:

Isaiah 8

20. To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

Speaking of the spirits that talk to you -- today we have many of those things going on. Recently I had a chance to talk with a party who had revelations that they were going to do this and that. He had a plan laid down and fished for it, but not according to the law and the testimony. I want you people to know this: The Prophet Joseph, in Section 90 of the Doctrine and Covenants, was given the keys of the Kingdom, and He said those keys would never be taken from him in this world nor in the world to come. The oracles of the Church would be delivered to the Church through him. When you get the truth, it will come down through the Prophet Joseph Smith, who holds the keys of this Kingdom of God in this dispensation. That is according to the law and the testimony. I want to tell you all, if we speak not according to the law and the testimony, and teach you anything that is not according to the law and the testimony, you have a right to tell us so. I don't care where they come
Those are according to the words of the Lord.

I have just had an occasion to see the benefits of the Truth. I was wondering, in this congregation, how many of you are paying up and keeping this paper coming. We would like to see double the capacity of it if we could.

As the Prophet of the Lord said, there would be certain men that would turn the battle at the gate. We think the fullness of the Gospel is hard to live. Let me tell you, if the laws that are up before the Legislature go through, you will find this law really hard to live. It is a law worse than we have ever had to deal with yet, and it is coming. Every wife, every expectant mother has got to go up before a medical man and tell who her husband is, who is the father of her child. I know we are going to get around it, but we don't know how yet. The devil is working hard, but we will go on. You are a people that is the nucleus out of the people. From now on you are going to see this work grow by leaps and bounds. You are the very people that is the nucleus of the great Millennium, if you keep the commandments of God and keep sweet.

A short time ago I told you to get the Spirit of God around you. I want to say to the saints again, pray to the Lord, get His Spirit. Remember these things, study them and prepare yourselves. I say to every one of you here, we have got to go on our own individual selves. This is an individual work as well as a collective work. We have got to know for ourselves whether the Gospel is true. I don't wish any of you to hang on me, because my coattail is awfully rotten. I have got all I can do to keep going. I want every one of you to know it. I want you to know also that I know the Gospel is true, and wherewith I am talking and wherewith we have been called. Every man in this house can go humbly before God and get the same testimony, or you will never be able to go forth and stand up under the load. God's work is going on.

D.& C. 1

14. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people;

15. For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;

16. They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way, and after the image of his own God, whose image is in the likeness of the world, and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great, which shall fall.

What is the voice of the Lord? The Prophet Joseph said this to the Lord: "Why do you justify Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob?" And the Lord said to Joseph Smith:

D.& C. 132

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Joseph, that inasmuch as you have inquired of my hand to know and understand wherein I, the Lord, justified my servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as also Moses, David and Solomon, my servants, as touching the principle and doctrine of their having many wives and concubines --

2. Behold, and lo, I am the Lord thy God, and will answer thee as touching this matter.

3. Therefore, prepare thy heart to receive and obey the instructions which I am about to give unto you; for all those who have this law revealed unto them must obey the same.

Are we obeying it? Are we keeping it? I tell you what is going to happen to us if we don't obey the voice of the Lord. President Young says the only people that will be exalted will be those that are living the Celestial Law. John Taylor said that God has given a revelation that will exalt us in the eternal worlds, and we do not intend to have it kicked out, whether in the Church or not. [Quotes Brother Woodruff.] Lorenzo Snow says:

Lorenzo Snow  Millennial Star 48:111

Though I go to prison, God will not change His law of celestial marriage. But the man, the people, the nation, that oppose and fight against this doctrine and the Church of God will be overthrown.

Joseph F. Smith:

JD 20:28-29 Joseph F. Smith July 7, 1878 SLC

Some people have supposed that the doctrine of plural marriage was a sort of superfluity, or non-essential to the salvation or exaltation of mankind. In other words, some of the Saints have said, and believe, that a man with one wife, sealed to him by the authority of the Priesthood for time and eternity, will receive an exaltation as great and glorious, if he is faithful, as he possibly could with more than one. I want here to enter my solemn protest against this idea, for I know it is false. The marriage of one woman to a man for time and eternity by the sealing power, according to the law of God, is a fulfillment of the celestial law of marriage in part --  But this is only the beginning of the law, not the whole of it. Therefore, whoever has imagined that he could obtain the fullness of the blessings pertaining to this celestial law, by complying with only a portion of its conditions, has deceived himself. He cannot do it.

I understand the law of celestial marriage to mean that every man in this Church, who has the ability to obey and practice it in righteousness and will not, shall be damned, I say I understand it to mean this and nothing less, and I testify in the name of Jesus that it does mean that.

I want to testify against this [that plural marriage is non-essential], for I know it is false, just like being baptized and not being confirmed; what good does it do him? Brother Grant comes up and says, "A man that knows that the Gospel is true (speaking on this subject) and does not obey it would be just exactly the same." It don't matter how many is against us, that shouldn't make any difference at all.

We have seen what the Lord said and what the Prophets said. "They seek not the Lord to establish His righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way,"....(Isaiah)

President Grant said, "I am going to make this Church popular." The Prophets of God said, "If you love the world, you are an enemy to God." James tells us that. Where are we? Is everyone going his own way and seeking his own thing? That is the condition today. The Prophets have said there was a people that would come out from the Latter-day Saints on whom the nucleus of the great Millennium should rest upon. I want every one of us to look back and see whether these men followed down after the order of the Priesthood. Don't take my word or any man's word, but study it for yourself, and God will bless you in it.

Think about what I said about the Truth. I just got a letter from Canada. Those people need our faith and prayers. Brother Ayers' one son is very sick and they want our faith and prayers. Things are getting too hot up there, and led by whom? By a man by the name of Smith, a grandson of Hyrum Smith, and he cut them off because they didn't believe that Brother Grant was a Prophet, Seer, and Revelator. Brother Grant said he wasn't a Prophet.

Brother Grant has to do his part. Let him go ahead. We have got to have the opposite every time to know the good. Our mission is to turn the battle at the gate.

God bless and help us to live up to these laws, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:158  March 4, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 4, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Know the Truth for Yourself

The devil can hear your prayers as well as the Lord. I want you to be careful and get it straight. I want to say to you that the day before yesterday, Sunday, I had one of the grandsons of Brigham Young and one of the grandsons of Orson Pratt and a great grandson of Heber C. Kimball. They said they are going to find out about this. I told them it is about time some of the descendants of Brigham Young, Orson Pratt, and Heber C. Kimball found out something about the principles of the Gospel.

I know the course that God wishes me to take. The only thing we can do is to take no thought of what other people say, and work out our own salvation. There is a plan and a way, and the thing is coming to the front and coming fast. This work is bigger than any. Be careful! And whenever you are in town, go to the Priesthood and relate it to them and find out whether it is of God or not. God bless you.

JYB 8:159  March 9, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
March 9, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Keys of the Priesthood Are Here; Blood of Israel; Get the Spirit of God

My brothers and sisters, I can say that I am glad to be with you. While I can say with Brother Charles [Zitting] that he is right, some things he misunderstood a little bit. I know the Gospel is true. I know these brethren in the Council were called of God as was Aaron, through a Prophet of God; and I know that their work will go on. I know we can live the Gospel as it is laid down. Whenever man turns from the Gospel plan as it was laid down by the Prophet Joseph Smith, he is on the wrong road. The keys that Joseph laid down will get us through the highest kingdom.

D. & C. 65

2. The keys of the kingdom of God are committed unto man on the earth, and from thence shall the gospel roll forth unto the ends of the earth, as the stone which is cut out of the mountain without hands shall roll forth, until it has filled the whole earth.

Pray to the Lord that the Kingdom of God may go forth, that the Kingdom of heaven may come where the Kingdom of God is set upon the earth. God gave revelations to Joseph Smith. He gave us the keys of the Priesthood on earth. It isn't any guess work with me. I know it. If we keep on going the way we are started, we will be saved.

I believe the blood of Israel is all around us. There are many. Lorin said twenty-five percent of the blood would come. I think it will take the judgments of God to bring them, too, but they will be our brethren, and you will see greater faith and greater privileges given to these brethren than ever before. They have not been taught now; but they will, some of them, have stronger faith than some of our group. The young men who are coming up now are the ones who will redeem Israel.

Brigham Young said, "We will go among the gentiles and bring out the blood of Israel from among them." The kings and queens are not the ones of the earth, but you people here who [the Lord] will send out to get the blood of Israel. When they do come, they will be brought up and nursed by our wives and mothers. When those people come in here to be nursed, if they are not of the blood of Israel, they will not receive it. They will have to be whipped into line.

God bless you. Again I urge you to get the Spirit of God around you. Think it over and see. If you have the Spirit of God around you, you will not go far astray. Let us not take the words of anyone. Find out for yourselves. I can teach you and ask you to follow, but I cannot force you against your will.
Don't be afraid of the Kingdom of God. God will take care of that. Let us keep the laws He has set down. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:160  March 23, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
March 23, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Cannot Wear Two Yokes

My brothers and sisters, I don't know whether I want to say much or not. I want to leave a good taste in your mouths. Brother Joseph's speech did leave a good taste in your mouths.

When we talk about United Order, and becoming united, and living as one big family, isn't that what we have been praying for? Isn't it what the world has learned to pray for?

Matthew 6

9. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
10. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
11. Give us this day our daily bread.
12. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
13. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

That Kingdom, God's Kingdom, has been set up here on earth.

D.& C. 65

5. Call upon the Lord, that his kingdom may go forth upon the earth, that the inhabitants thereof may receive it, and be prepared for the days to come, in the which the Son of Man shall come down in heaven, clothed in the brightness of his glory, to meet the kingdom of God which is set up on the earth.

That Kingdom is here, and thank the Lord we belong to it. Faith gives us the power to become members of the Kingdom of God -- faith, repentance, and baptism. We must comply with the laws of that Kingdom that this people has failed to live; first, the United Order, and second, Celestial Marriage. They tried the United Order a number of years ago and failed. Why? Brigham Young said, "That is the dividing line." If we try to keep the commandments of God and still do the things of the world, we are getting into plenty of trouble. You can't wear the yoke of God and the yoke of satan at the same time. Let us put off the yoke of Lucifer and wear the yoke of God.

Psalms 107
1. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
2. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;
3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.
4. They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.
5. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.
6. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.
7. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

The saints came out here; then what? For awhile they kept the commandments of God. Brigham Young praised them; and then they commenced to fall away. They became rich and began to follow Lucifer. And what is it today? If you believe the fullness of the Gospel today, they put a yoke upon you and drive you out.

I am glad to see Sister Nielson here. Brothers and sisters, round up your shoulders. Keep all the laws of God; and if we will do that, He will never forsake us. We will have lots of trials, but that will be the making of us, and save us and exalt us in the Kingdom of God. God bless you, amen.
My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified by the words that have been spoken today. I heard a man say the other day, "Is it in this life that plural marriage first came into existence?" Do you expect to get into the Celestial Kingdom? That law was taught in the beginning. Adam had to live it, and he had to beget spirit children in that law before he came here to earth. That law was taught and practiced in that time as well as it is now. Then we, no doubt, understand it before we came to this life. Remember, this law, plural marriage, is not a law of the people; it is a law of the holy Priesthood. It was taught to Joseph Smith and some of his friends, and he had twenty-seven wives sealed to him before it was made known to the people. It was taught to him in 1831, but it was not until 1843 that it was made known to others. The people of the Church never accepted it until 1852, and in a special Conference here in Salt Lake, they adopted the principle, and sent Brother Orson Pratt to Washington. It was taught as a law of the Church, and in 1890, it was rejected. Then the Priesthood picked it up again and it was never rejected; and God saw that it went on and sent His Son Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith here to earth to see that this law was continued. Why? Because you and I cannot be Gods without it. There is a law irrevocably decreed upon which every blessing is predicated.

They cannot cut you off the Church, because this Priesthood of God is inseparably connected with the powers of heaven; and if the heavens withdraw, amen to the Priesthood of that man who tries to cast you out. We are ostracized and cast out. How thankful I am that God saw me worthy to be one of those who were cast out, for He has said that out of the Church shall come a people, a nucleus to carry on His great work. If we don't prepare ourselves, how can He use us? We must prepare.

I was quite taken up with President Grant's sermon. Now brothers and sisters, any one of you who are reading the Doctrine and Covenants and the other Church works cannot help seeing the condition that the Church is in. You cannot hear what they say for what they are doing. God bless you, and prepare yourselves -- get ready. I told you a number of times to get the Spirit of God around you. If you don't, these judgments and things that are coming Upon us will not let us stand. We have got to live all the laws of God. We have got to love our neighbor as ourselves. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:164  April 23, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
April 23, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Were Taught the Celestial Law Before We Came Here; We Are Not Good Enough

Brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified this afternoon. I was glad to hear Brother Joseph mention the words he did. About a week ago I told you to round up your shoulders. Since then we have had brothers and sisters come to us asking what we can do as a people. We can live the laws of God.

I was asked the question: "Do you think we were taught this law, plural marriage, before we came here?" I answered, "Do you believe you will have your wives in the next world? Do you think you can raise celestial children then, and not be taught the law before you came here?" We are working to have eternal increase. We expect to have our wives on the other side, and we expect to beget spirit children. If that is the case, we were taught that law before we came here, because we were brought up in that kind of element.

This work is progressing faster than a great many of you think. You are good people, but you are not good enough. We have got to learn to live closer to the Lord. We have got to keep His commandments. President Taylor said:

JD 21:2-3  John Taylor  August 31, 1879  Logan

...we have, with the help of the Lord, succeeded in gathering out many of the honest in heart from among the different nations of the earth. And we have come here to carry out the will, purposes and designs of God. I never supposed that we were to come here to get rich, to increase in worldly possessions; but we came as I understand it in accordance with an express command of the Most High, that we may be taught in the knowledge of God, that we might come to an understanding of his laws. We are not here to follow the devices and desires of our own hearts; we are not here to carry out any particular theory of our own; we are not here to build up any system of man's creation; but we are here simply to do the will of God in the establishment of his kingdom on the earth. In many things however we have not lived up to that high and glorious privilege which has been presented to us; we have been careless and indifferent, and it seems as though Satan has been permitted to try and tempt us in every possible way. For a few years past a spirit of greed and covetousness has run through the land and cursed as with a withering blight every thing it has touched. It is as bad in its effects upon the mind of man as any pestilence or plague upon the human body. We have begun to run after the things of the world; our hearts, feelings and affections, in many instances, have been estranged from God. It is time that something should transpire to wake us up to a sense of the position we occupy; it is time we realized how God and angels look upon men who are absorbed in the things of this world instead of living up to their professions and the covenants they have made with him.

Now let us make a new start and new resolution. I want to say further, of late we have been getting some messengers telling us what to do and how to do it. If we took the counsel they gave to us, we would be in a pretty bad fix. We must take the counsel from the Lord.

I know that this Gospel is true and that the plan we are following is true. I ask God to bless you, and dig down in your hearts and be careful of what you say about the Priesthood. The personnel of the Priesthood does not mean anything, but the office itself is something. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
April 29, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
History of the Tribes of Israel;
Ephraim Mixed With the Gentiles;
Must Love Our Neighbor to Live the United Order;
When You Enter the United Order, You Cannot Turn Back;
When We Go Back to Zion, We Will Go Back in Power; Sisters Cannot Rise Above Their Husbands

My dear sisters, if the Lord will bless me with His Holy Spirit tonight, I want to bear testimony to what Brother Musser has said. How many of us here realize why they are called the gentile church? At the death of Solomon, Rehoboam took his throne. They said, "What are we doing with Judah?" All the tribes left but Benjamin and they stood faithful with Judah, etc. Ephraim refused to go with the other tribes to the north country. They married and intermarried with the gentile people. When the Lord sent out messages, He sent them out to gather all the blood of Ephraim from the gentile blood. That is why we are called the gentile church.

The Book of Mormon is in the hands of Joseph Smith, a pure Ephraimite. Now we are gathering out a few of the blood of Ephraim in this group. Of that small number what do we see today? Some of them are going back.

Now sisters, on this plane, I want to say a few words to let you know what is going to happen. The Lord has said that Zion can only be redeemed under the Celestial Law. The Lord has said also:

D. & C. 84

54. And your minds in times past have been darkened because of unbelief, and because you have treated lightly the things you have received --
55. Which vanity and unbelief have brought the whole church under condemnation.

56. And this condemnation resteth upon the children of Zion, even all.
57. And they shall remain under this condemnation until they repent and remember the new covenant, even the Book of Mormon and the former commandments which I have given them, not only to say, but to do according to that which I have written --

We all would like to live the United Order, but when you start it, you are going into something so much harder than the principle of Celestial Marriage that it will be difficult to begin it. So we must love our neighbor as ourselves in order to go into it. Who is going to live it if you are not preparing yourself for it, when the One Mighty and Strong comes, unless we prepare our hearts and get ready to do these things? We have talked to the brethren, and now we want to talk to the sisters.

When we put our hand to it, we must not turn back. We must go ahead. I am not asking the sisters to go urge your husbands, but to help your husbands. Do you know that a liberal man will give if he has it to give? The Lord will take care of us if we keep the commandments of God. You won't starve if you do what is right and do your part. I was pleased at what Joseph said about the lineage. Sometime, when the time comes, and the hidden things of our lineage are made known, you will find out where you are going. The Priesthood has been called.

When Adam was baptized, the Lord blessed him and gave him the Priesthood after the order of the Son of God. You keep coming up and up until you receive the higher order. This little group of Latter-day Saints, what kind of people are we?

God hears and answers prayers, and He speaks by the heavens and by the voice of the Spirit. And someday some of you sisters will see a ray of light and wonder where it came from. What is it? The Spirit of God.

Joseph said he does not believe there is a better people on earth. I don't believe there is either. I don't think there is a better class of mothers and daughters as those here in the Priesthood. You are bringing up Prophets, men who are going to be a power in the earth, men and women of the future. If we don't take a hold now, we are going to be pushed aside.

D.& C. 103

22. Therefore let my servant Baurak Ale [Joseph Smith, Jun.] say unto the strength of my house, my young men and the middle aged -- Gather yourselves together unto the land of Zion, upon the land which I have bought with money that has been consecrated unto me.

I knew that I was going to be called to the position that I am called to, because I saw it in a vision and it was revealed to me. I knew that Uncle John Woolley was going to die, and Uncle Lorin would, too. This holy order got down to one frail man, but it has been renewed and will continue to be renewed to seven, and before long we will have seventy, the power of God on earth.

I have heard reports of men and women criticizing the Priesthood of God. Be careful! The men don't amount to anything, but the office they hold is what counts. We, I have told you, have got to use that Priesthood. When it is used, and used as it ought to be, men would be afraid to come near us. (Example of Brother Parrish was given.)

There is a time coming not far off when the Prophets of Israel are going to speak and the nations of the earth will listen to it. When we go back to Zion, we will go back in power. The mountains will be smoothed down, the nations will tremble in fear. Some of us here will be changed so they can't hurt us. This earth will be cleansed and prepared for our Lord and Master to come here.

In regard to the plan of United Effort, there is no compulsion. We have asked for it; now we must do it. Just go to your husbands and say, "I am with you." There isn't a sister big enough to get bigger than her husband if he has the Priesthood.

Through the power of the holy Priesthood, I do bless you. I know that you are going to be willing and do it, and sacrifice. We know how it is going to be. Not one of us know what trouble and trials are; we just think we do. How many of you sisters have seen your husbands tied and mobs gathered around with no protection for you sisters? It is when you get the finger of scorn thrown at you. Let us be firm and go on. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:169 May 25, 1941 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
May 25, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Keys of Elijah; Can Only Get the Blessings by Fulfilling All the Laws

I am happy to see so many in attendance here today. I can see growth in this group, and we are pleased to know that the Lord is recognizing this growth; also that He has seen fit to fill up the Quorum. We are pleased to know that He has chosen Brother Leroy Johnson and Brother Marion Hammon and called them into the Council.

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly pleased with the testimonies that have been borne this afternoon. I know that this work is true. I know it only through the Spirit of God. When Brother Price Johnson was talking of Brother John Woolley, I thought many are the hours I have spent with him. Many things were showed to me then. We have seen many of those things literally fulfilled. I have seen these other men and know that they had the Spirit of God upon them. The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of prophecy.
There are a great many things that I would like to say this afternoon. One is concerning the keys. Brothers and sisters, those keys were conferred upon us brethren. None asked for them. All we can do is bear our testimony to you that these things are true, and that God has set us apart to see that these things are done.

D.& C. 132
45. For I have conferred upon you the keys and power of the priesthood, wherein I restore all things, and make known unto you all things in due time.

D.& C. 1
14. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off among the people;
15. For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;

President Snow said God gave him his wives, and that he would suffer death before he would cast them off; and any people who fought the law would be damned. You can only receive the blessings of God by living the laws of God. The only thing for us to do is keep these commandments. The Lord told the Prophet Nephi that He never told His servants to do a thing unless He prepared a way for them.

I want to bear my testimony that I know that this work is true, and I know that God does speak from the heavens. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:171  June 8, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
June 8, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs

Keep Sacred Things Secret; Pay Your Tithing; Every Law of God Is Essential

Brigham Young said:

JD 4:371-372  Brigham Young  May 31, 1857  SLC

There is one principle that I wish the people would understand and lay to heart. Just as fast as you will prove before your God that you are worthy to receive the mysteries, if you please to call them so, of the kingdom of heaven -- that you are full of confidence in God -- that you will never betray a thing that God tells you -- that you will never reveal to your neighbour that which ought not to be revealed, as quick as you prepare to be entrusted with the things of God, there is an eternity of them to bestow upon you. Instead of pleading with the Lord to bestow more upon you, plead with yourselves to have confidence in yourselves, to have integrity in yourselves, and know when to speak and what to speak, what to reveal, and how to carry yourselves and walk before the Lord. And just as fast as you prove to Him that you will preserve everything secret that ought to be -- that you will deal out to your neighbours all which you ought, and no more, and learn how to dispense your knowledge to your families, friends, neighbours, and brethren, the Lord will bestow upon you, and give to you, and bestow upon you, until finally he will say to you, "You shall never fall; your salvation is sealed unto you; you are sealed up unto eternal life and salvation, through your integrity."

JD 4:79  Brigham Young  September 21, 1856  SLC
I do not want to know anything about the sins of this people, at least no more than I am obliged to. If persons lose confidence in themselves, it takes away the strength, faith and confidence that others have in them; it leaves a space that we call weakness. If you have committed a sin that no other person on the earth knows of, and which harms no other one, you have done a wrong and sinned against your God, but keep that within your own bosom, and seek to God and confess there, and get pardon for your sin.

If children have sinned against their parents, or husbands against their wives, or wives against their husbands, let them confess their faults one to another and forgive each other, and there let the confession stop; and then let them ask pardon from their God. Confess your sins to whoever you have sinned against, and let it stop there. If you have committed a sin against the community, confess to them. If you have sinned in your family, confess there. Confess your sins, iniquities, and follies, where that confession belongs, and learn to classify your actions.

There is just one other thing. I was impressed wonderfully while on our trip up North -- Idaho and northern Utah -- on the principle of tithing. It takes just so much to have the work of this group go on. We have got to have means to have the work of the Truth go on. "Celestial Marriage" is out of print and we need money to print more. Some people say they are too poor to pay tithing. One man borrowed money to pay tithing, and when the time came to pay his debt, God opened the way. We do want means to build up the Kingdom of God. "The Coming Crisis" and others we would like to put out, but we have no way at present to do it.

D.& C. 64

23. ...for he that is tithed shall not be burned at his coming.
In the days of Noah the Lord destroyed the earth with water, and this time He is going to destroy it with fire. Are we prepared? We have been trying to live the United Order for five years. Brothers and sisters, if you will go down and meet the men who have remained firm and steadfast, you won't think it has been a flop. I want to say to you, you are going to be tried. President Kimball said, "A test, a test, a test, is coming to you." It is here now. What is that test? The people are leaving off the exalting principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, those in the Church. We are called apostates. Apostasy is turning from a principle. Is there any principle that we saints have turned from? Words of Paul:

1 Timothy 4

1. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;
2. Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared as with a hot iron:
3. Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats,

I have had men try to dissuade me. Brothers and sisters, I had to have it be made known to me before I would go on in this work. I know that this work is true, and that it is going on. Many of the people here today will see God's work roll on faster than it ever did before, and you will see the United Order lived. God never gave a law that was not essential and that was not necessary to live for our exaltation. You cannot live one law and reject another and get there. Jesus said, "If you live a part of the law, and forget the whole, you will be left outside." It is so hard to get this through the minds of this people.

Now, brothers and sisters, serve the Lord with all your might, mind, and strength. Turn for the good now while you can. The Lord told me to tell you people to get the Spirit of God around you. You will need it. Peace be with you, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sunday School at the Lyman Jessop Home
June 29, 1941
Reported by Marjorie Holm

Work for the Dead

Faith gives us power. When they receive the Gospel on the other side, their children must be baptized for them, through proxy -- those who have not had a chance before.
July 6, 1941
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Zion; Be Filled With the Holy Ghost; Cleansing Process

What do we understand when we say "Zion"? Zion is the place where the people of God are. Another is the honest in heart -- those that are seeking for the truth. They are those who believe the truth. The Savior said, "Blessed are they who seeketh after righteousness, for they will be filled." With what? The Holy Ghost.

In the last week, I believe I have sensed more the condition we are in than ever before in my life. When we look around and see what is happening -- seven hundred thousand Germans killed. The Lord said the wicked will destroy the wicked. All these people here have either had this Gospel sent to them or they have heard it. What is the result? There is a cleansing process going on. The words of the Prophets are being fulfilled. There is a cleansing process going on. No doubt after this we will have to send the Elders out again among the people. You are going to do it, these young men; the middle-aged will go out and do this. Today there are very few young men who know the Gospel, because they have never had it taught to them. But the older ones have rejected it, for they have had it presented to them. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:175  July 13, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
July 13, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Pay the Price to Receive the Blessing;
Do Not Gossip; Help Yourselves, and God Will Help You

My brothers and sisters, we have heard some wonderful things told us this afternoon. I do not believe I have spent a more sorrowful week than I have this last week. It seems that the adversary is getting into the families. Some of the sisters have come to me, and some of the brothers, too, with their hearts broken. I am telling you that if we receive the blessings of God, we must surely pay the price. And so it goes down deep into the hearts of many. My heart has ached very much for our loved ones, our young ones who have been hurt lately, riding on the Sabbath. It is a lesson to us all. We can see it afterwards, but that does not pay the price. Those young people will have to pay the price for a long time.

I know the Gospel of Jesus Christ is true. I know if we get a salvation in the Kingdom of God, we have got to pay the price. We are here to keep His commandments and to do His will. If we obey the law, we will get the blessing; if we do not, we will not get the blessing.

I have seen for a number of months the things that are coming. We haven't got to it, but the time won't be long. Those who are faithful and true will go through. We cannot get through if one of the sisters tell stories of gossip and spread the talks. Brothers and sisters, learn to keep still. Let things stay where they start. If we do that, God will bless us. If we don't do that, God will not trust us.

Today we see what is going on over the land -- war. And millions of dollars' worth of things are being prepared to kill off the people. I rejoice in these things, only because it brings the time closer when the Kingdom of God will reign. It is ourselves that we want to look out for. When we look back and see what God has revealed in these last days, if there is one thing that this people will be condemned for, it is for giving the people too much. If you give a person too much before he is ready for it, it will hurt him all the way through.

(Prophecy of when men would apostatize.)

I want to testify to you that God is watching over us here, and He is going to take a hand. We are going to be straightened out like we have never been before. What you are doing, you are doing for yourselves. Try to help yourselves, and God will help you. You will need the Spirit of the Lord around you all the time to fight your way through. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:176 July 27, 1941 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
July 27, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Seek Eternal Life
My brothers and sisters, I just want to bear testimony of the things that have been said today. We have had wonderful teachings given today, but has it gone to our hearts? I wonder how many took that home, what has been said. Does it go into our hearts? I just want to quote what the old Prophets said:

Proverbs 1

24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25. But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:
26. I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;
27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.
28. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29. For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord:
30. They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.
31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
32. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Are we going to be in that condition? What is this life for anyway? We are struggling to get good clothes, homes, etc., but every bit of it is perishable. The great thing that we want is eternal life. God has shown the road; yet we go along, go to sleep, and run off the main track. I am talking to this group, not the Church. I want you to know it, and turn and serve God and keep His commandments, and His Spirit will be around you. If you don't, the world will be around you and against you. We talk about Prophets prophesying. When a man prophesies he sees down through the signs of time. He is not walking in darkness. That is what we want you people to do -- be able to see and stand. God bless you, amen.
If my throat will allow me, there are a few things I would like to say this afternoon. I wonder how many of you know who you are? Where did you come from? Why are you here? Of what lineage are you? Why are you living like you are living? How many of you know it? I want to give you people a few things today. President Young said:

Recollect that we are now calling upon the Elders to go and gather up Israel; this is the mission that is given to us. It was the first mission given to the Elders in the days of Joseph. The set time is come for God to gather Israel, and for His work to commence upon the face of the whole earth, and the Elders who have arisen in this Church and Kingdom are actually of Israel. Take the Elders who are now in this house, and you can scarcely find one out of a hundred but what is of the house of Israel. It has been remarked that the Gentiles have been cut off, and I doubt whether another Gentile ever comes into this Church.

Will we go to the Gentile nations to preach the Gospel? Yes, and gather out the Israelites, wherever they are mixed among the nations of the earth. What part or portion of them? The same part or portion that redeemed the house of Jacob, and saved them from perishing with famine in Egypt. When Jacob blessed the two sons of Joseph, "guiding his hands wittingly," he placed his right hand upon Ephraim, "and he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day, the Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads," etc. Joseph was about to remove the old man's hands, and bringing his right hand upon the head of the oldest boy, saying -- "Not so, my father; for this is the first born; put thy right hand upon his head. And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations." Ephraim has become mixed with all the nations of the earth, and it is Ephraim that is gathering together.
It is Ephraim that I have been searching for all the days of my preaching, and that is the blood which ran in my veins when I embraced the Gospel. If there are any of the other tribes of Israel mixed with the Gentiles we are also searching for them. Though the Gentiles are cut off, do not suppose that we are not going to preach the Gospel among the Gentile nations, for they are mingled with the house of Israel, and when we send to the nations we do not seek for the Gentiles, because they are disobedient and rebellious. We want the blood of Jacob, and that of his father Isaac and Abraham, which runs in the veins of the people. There is a particle of it here, and another there, blessing the nations as predicted.

Take a family of ten children, for instance, and you may find nine of them purely of the Gentile stock, and one son or one daughter in that family who is purely of the blood of Ephraim. It was in the veins of the father or mother, and was reproduced in the son or daughter, while all the rest of the family are Gentiles. You may think that is singular, but it is true. It is the house of Israel we are after, and we care not whether they come from the east, the west, the north, or the south; from China, Russia, England, California, North or South America, or some other locality; and it is the very lad on whom father Jacob laid his hands, that will save the house of Israel. The Book of Mormon came to Ephraim, for Joseph Smith was a pure Ephraimite, and the Book of Mormon was revealed to him, and while he lived he made it his business to search for those who believed the Gospel.

Again, if a pure Gentile firmly believes the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and yields obedience to it, in such a case I will give you the words of the Prophet Joseph -- "When the Lord pours out the Holy Ghost upon that individual he will have spasms, and you would think that he was going into fits."

Joseph said that the Gentile blood was actually cleansed out of their veins, and the blood of Jacob made to circulate in them; and the revolution and change in the system were so great that it caused the beholder to think they were going into fits.

If any of the Gentiles will believe, we will lay our hands upon them that they may receive the Holy Ghost, and the Lord will make them of the house of Israel. They will be broken off from the wild olive tree, and be grafted into the good and tame olive tree, and will partake of its sap and fatness. If you take a bud and inoculate it into another tree it ceases to receive nourishment from its original stock; it must, however, receive nourishment, or it will die. Where must it receive its nourishment from? From the tree into which it has been introduced; it is supported by it, and becomes incorporated with it.

It is so with the House of Israel and the Gentile nations; if the Gentiles are grafted into the good olive tree they will partake of its root and fatness. You understand who we are; we are of the House of Israel, of the royal seed, of the royal blood.

At the death of Solomon, Rehoboam took the throne, and when the people asked if he was going to tax them, the old men told them no. But the young men said where he had whipped them with whips, that he would whip them with scorpions, and they rebelled.

Rehoboam kept the throne of Judah, but Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, one of Solomon's captains, took over the rest of the sons of Israel, and from then on there were two kingdoms -- Judah and the children of Israel. The children of Israel were taken captive down to Assyria, and there they remained for a number of years, finally going off to the north country. There is one tribe who did not go with them. Ephraim rebelled and mixed through all the nations of the earth. Now the Elders have gathered Ephraim and brought him home. That is who you people are -- Ephraim, from the blood of Joseph. We are of the House of Israel, of the royal seed, of the royal blood.

We had a map this morning showing us a few things. When Ephraim took over, the Lord gave him a special blessing: "In you and your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."

Now think, if you are of the pure blood of Israel, you will accept these truths. If you don't, you are not living up to the measure of your creation. You are not living up to what the Lord said. He said, in looking over these spirits, that some were noble and great ones. "These," He said, "I will make My rulers."

Reuben defiled his father's house, and Levi was taken out. Ephraim was placed at the head in Reuben's place, and Manasseh in Levi's, and they have come on down. I just wanted to touch upon this, that some of you might start to think; and I ask God's blessings on you, and ask you to consider who you are and why you are here, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I don't know whether I can make you hear or not, for I have had a bad throat for some time. We have been hearing the Gospel this afternoon. Mainly, we have heard of becoming united. How many heard and let it touch their hearts? We come here and hear the brethren preach a good sermon. How far does it sink into us? Let me tell you something. The Lord laid down certain laws. How many of us today believe those laws? Some say they believe them, but will you do as you believe? The Savior said that, "He that hears Me and then does it shall be blessed." It is the doers of the word, not just the hearers that will be blessed.

I have been well pleased with the young boys' testimonies this afternoon. They are preparing to carry on the work we are doing. I know the plan of the Priesthood, as it is set up today, is true. I know it not only from hearing it, but through the revelations of God. I know that these brethren who have been set apart have been set apart under the hands of inspiration. How many of you here have heard the brethren prophesy and some of them have been literally fulfilled?

All these things are going by. We see people here that were here a few years ago; but today we see many new faces. We all were converted to the Gospel through baptism, faith, etc., but many of us stopped right there. Now we have got to live the laws of the Kingdom. We have got to live the Celestial Law to obtain a Celestial Glory. God is moving the pace very fast.

There are a great many of us getting united. We are trying to help. Let us prepare ourselves for what is coming. When those at the head of the Church told the people to stop gathering, you can see what resulted. Just read the papers and see the result. I am glad these people have gathered here from the various parts of the country, and that I had a hand in directing it. Let us live for one another, that we may be one in both temporal and spiritual blessings,
I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:183 October 5, 1941 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
October 5, 1941
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
Must Live the Laws of God;
The Men Leading This People Are Called of God;
The Majority of the People Are Wrong; The Ten Virgins

I have listened with purpose to the remarks of the brethren and the things that have been said today, that they went into our hearts. How many of us have heard what has been said? That is what I am wondering.

Some time ago, I want you to remember, when I was down in the South, the Lord spoke to me and told me to tell you people to get the Spirit of God and keep it. I have been telling you that there are some trials coming upon us. I haven't spoken for months when I haven't told you of these things.

I listened in to Conference today, and many of the things were good. But they were mixed with many things that were not so good. Many of them placed the authorities above the principles. We want you to remember that the laws of God are the things we've got to attend to. A man yesterday said that obedience is better than sacrifice. Yes, but obedience to what? Is it obedience to man, or is it obedience to the laws of God? If it is obedience to the laws of God, it is better than sacrifice; but if it is to man, then it has no weight.

Brothers and sisters, God saw what was coming way back years ago. He saw it, and He prepared men to meet this occasion. I have known those men. I have talked to those men. I have been taught under them and been told what the Lord expected, and finally was called into the same order to keep these principles alive. They have gone from worse to worse, and now they won't even let the men go into the Tabernacle block and hear what is going on.

I remember one time standing on the Tabernacle block with Uncle John Woolley, and a man said, "There's a spy." And I heard Uncle John Woolley say this: "I know that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God; I know that Brigham Young, Wilford Woodruff, Lorenzo Snow, is a Prophet of God; Heber J. Grant is not a Prophet of God, and no one can make him one but God Himself." This man darted in the door, and the next day Brother Grant was gloriously mad, and got up and we know what he said, and he has continued talking this way. But that is between Brother Grant and his God. We as brethren here have certain work to do. If God will help us and bless us, we expect to do that work and go on with it. I know one thing. Brother Joseph Musser's mission was to write. Hasn't it been so? Pick up the Truth.

St. John 17

3. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

We have got to know who God and Jesus Christ are; and when we go back to our Father in heaven, and when we pass by, we will all know Him. We have been with Him, and we will know our brothers and sisters when we meet on the other side. If we keep the commandments and are happy enough to live His laws and keep His commandments, and if it happens to be our lot to live the Celestial Law and pass by the angels, then we will go on and complete our probation that we were sent here to perform.

Now, I want to bear my testimony to you. I don't believe this work is true. I know it is true. I know that what these brethren have been telling you is true, and I know that these brethren have been called by revelation from God. I know they have not taken this honor upon themselves. I know that they have been called and set apart for that position. And they have not only been called, but they have been prepared for it, many of them, through the blessing they had before we knew them -- blessings that they had told them plainly that they would be called and set apart for this very work. God saw fit to call men who have been teaching you the plan of life and salvation, for when the One Mighty and Strong comes, he is going to choose from among men that believe.

In any day and age of the world, it has always been the minority that was right. I want you to think of it. There never was a time when the majority was right. Enoch came, but he was with the minority upon the earth, and the world was so wicked that the Lord had to pick him and his city up to go on toward perfection.

D.& C. 133
10. Yea, let the cry go forth among all people: Awake and arise and go forth to meet the Bridegroom; behold and lo, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Prepare yourselves for the great day of the Lord.

The Lord gave us a parable. There were ten virgins, five wise and five foolish. The wise had oil in their lamps. The five wise ones met their Lord and they were taken, but the five foolish ones were too late. He had gone.

Now, are we going to be wise, or are we going to be foolish? That is the question. We all know the power of God among the people. We have settled that time and time again. And we have seen the revelations of God fulfilled, the things that the brethren have told us. Things that Uncle Lorin taught me, or prophecies he has made, I have seen literally fulfilled.

The only way we can do is to keep the commandments of the Lord. Let us keep a sweet Spirit in us. That is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:186  October 26, 1941  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
October 26, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Gospel Benefits the Obedient; Look to Ourselves Instead of Condemning Others

My brothers and sisters, it is with a feeling of timidity that I stand before you at this time. I have been greatly edified through the remarks of my brethren. I know as well as you know that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is true, but I am wondering what good it is going to do me if I don't live it, if I don't keep the commandments of God. Every day we have things before us. I have heard brothers and sisters in the Gospel say things against their brothers and sisters in this group. I think this group here, before we condemn the others, had better get the beam out of their eyes and keep it out. One brother comes and says, "I am having such an awful time." Another comes, and another. Why not look at ourselves? Why not get it into our heads that if we are going to be saints of God, we have got to live as saints of God. If we are going to be the saints of God, we must love one another; we must live near to God. It does not take a Prophet to tell you what is coming. The "handwriting is on the
We as Elders have been sent out into the world to draw out and bring out the blood of Israel. The choice people of the earth have been drawn out and came here to Utah so they could prepare a place for themselves in the eternal worlds. Why do we come out? Simply because we believe in the words of the Lord through the Prophet Joseph.

If you will live nearer to God and keep the commandments of God, quit your backbiting, faultfinding, etc., we can be a power that you have never heard of in your life. Brigham Young said to give him twelve men that will keep the commandments of God, and, "I will turn the world upside down." We would have a power of God on earth, power that we can handle. When Lorin was here, he went from east to west, north to south to try to find the men to make up the Sanhedrin, and he couldn't find them. Have we done better now? Take things before the Lord and find out these things for yourselves. Find out whether these men who are trying to lead you have a right to lead. That is what I want you to find out.

God bless you. Prepare yourselves! Get ready, for "he that liveth Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." We haven't been getting any of it. We have been cast aside, but we haven't been treated as our fathers and mothers were. They had it, and they were driven from pillar to post. My father was born in Nauvoo right at the time when the brethren crossed the Mississippi. We, the Council, trailed the tracks of these men in a nice automobile. We were sent here to the mountains to prepare ourselves, to prepare for the gathering of Israel. We are not getting anywhere in living at the Celestial Law. May we have it said of us that we are living the laws of God, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
glad to be back again, to see the faces of those who are striving to keep the commandments of God. I thought while the young men were talking here today, we as a people have been taught the truth. God has come here. Stop and think what has happened. First we have the young boy (Joseph Smith) praying in the woods. Then the Father and the Son appeared to him. Before that, the people believed that God was a spirit. (Then he went on and related the other experiences of the Prophet's early life -- the Angel Moroni appearing to him; John the Baptist conferring the Priesthood upon him; Peter, James, and John coming to him; Joseph going from home to home preaching to the people; building the temple; Moses conferring the Priesthood again; Elijah conferring the keys of the dispensation, etc.)

The Lord gave the early saints these things, laws and commandments, and told them how to live. Then covetousness and greed stepped in. The Lord told them if they would keep His commandments, Zion would be redeemed. They did not do it. They were driven out of Missouri. Six hundred (?) of the saints perished in one place, and so on down to the present time.

I was thinking when one of these men who spoke today said he hoped that he might be able to preach the Gospel, let me tell you, he will! A great many of our boys who are being taught will carry this work on. They are destined to do it. God held many of the choice spirits to come forth in this day of the world when it needed lots of faith and encouragement to go on with this work. Now we are coming to a very serious time. We have many of our boys who will have to go to the war. Do we like it? No. But we have had preached to us that the time would come when the Priesthood would save the Constitution of the United States. That was an inspired Constitution.

Every man was born with his free agency. The minute you give up your agency you are lost. We have got to keep the commandments of God. I was shown that we have got to prepare ourselves.

How many of you have heard of the vision of Uncle Lorin Woolley? That vision showed that there would be two World Wars. One would never reach the United States, and the other would come to the Missouri River. Some would come from the East and some from the West. Everything is preparing itself to get into shape for the things that have been prophesied. In the vision there was a line from the northern part of the United States to the southern part. Some people were on one side of the line. The line kept widening until the people had to be on one side or the other, etc. Now brothers and sisters, the line is broadening, and the time is coming when we will have to take a stand with the laws of God.

I am glad to see so many here from the East as a result of our trip to that part. A few years ago we went to California, and I told them exactly what would happen as it is today. Some said, "We will get out when the bullets start flying." But the roads will soon be blocked. They have stopped selling new tires. Automobiles will not run without wheels. The Prophet Joseph said there will be people coming from the East, most of them women. What is going to be the result? We have been told that if we keep the commandments of God, that God will protect us, even if He had to send fire from heaven.

God bless our young men and women. The women will be drafted just the same as men. Let us get the Spirit of God around us so nothing will hurt us. If we are called to the war, if we have the Spirit of God, nothing will hurt us. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:189 December 28, 1941 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
December 28, 1941
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Those That Fight Against the Celestial Law Will Be Damned; Warned the Saints in California; We Are Not Good Enough

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified by the words of the brethren. I have been away a great deal of the time this winter. I have been with others of the brethren who are trying to live the laws of God.

Celestial Marriage -- it is the principle that gives eternal increase, that makes us Gods, that has remained from the beginning until the present time. Then I say, why should we fight it? I believe as Brother Kimball says:

JD 5:203-204 Heber C. Kimball October 12, 1856 SLC

Such persons have half-a-dozen devils with them all the time. You might as well deny "Mormonism," and turn away from it, as to oppose the plurality of wives. Let the Presidency of this Church, and the Twelve Apostles, and all the authorities unite and say with one voice that they will oppose that doctrine, and the whole of them would be damned.

If we turn from it, it will be to our detriment. In the paper I read that twenty-seven hundred people are coming to Salt Lake now. What will they do when they are hit on the west coast and the east coast? How many of you have read the vision of Joseph F. Smith? He said thousands would come west. Our Prophets have told us time and again to store up our wheat and food. So many are coming upon us that we cannot feed them. We had some wheat saved up once, but they turned it over for cash. Now, what are we going to do? How many can even feed yourselves? We will have to be producers and not consumers. That is the condition that we are coming to, and it is coming with leaps and bounds.

A brother talked about being in California. About four years ago I was there and told them what was coming, and to get out. Last year we told them again. They said, "We will get out when we see the bullets flying." Some of them are getting out now.

We are living in very trying times, but the worst is not yet. The Prophets said the saints would cry day and night for deliverance. There are not many of us worried about these things. It is about time some of us did worry a little. If we keep the commandments of God, we will be saved, and we can stand up under it. I told you to get the Spirit of the Lord around you. How many of you did it? We are good people, but we are not good enough. We are not keeping the commandments as we should. We are not loving our brother as ourselves.

We talk about living the higher laws. How many of us are living the United Order and other laws as we should? After the Lord revealed to me that I should live this law, it was twelve years before I entered it. Finally the Lord blessed me, and I did get into it. Let us try to live the laws of God as we should. If we do not, we will not get the blessing.

God bless you; and in the authority of the holy Priesthood that I hold, I do bless you. And those that are here today, I bless you that your minds may be enlightened; and I feel to bless you that you may live the laws of God. God bless you, amen.
Brothers and sisters, we have had such good advice in the speaking, that I feel timid to stand before you today. I will say that I know the Gospel is true. I know that some of these things are true. I have thought of what Brother Musser said, that we are getting better. He will excuse me if I say, "in some things." In some things we are getting much better. In some things we are falling down. I think there are some who are trying their very best to live the laws of God. I think there are others that are sleeping some. I am just talking from what I see in daily life, for some come to my home and tell what things are going on. I often think that I would like to read to them a little advice that Brother Woodruff gave us:

A few words more to the Latter-day Saints. I want to say to the brethren and to the sisters, let us cease finding fault one with another; let us not say that this man or this woman does wrong, this family does wrong, this person or the other sets a bad example; let us realize that we ourselves are held responsible for what we do. It will do me no good if I apostatize because somebody's family follows the fashions of Babylon, or because some man or woman or some set of men and women do wrong. Let us cease this kind of work, and all of us look to ourselves. It will do me no good if I apostatize because I think somebody else does not do right. We should lay aside this, there is too much of it in the Zion of God today, and has been a good while, finding fault with this, that and the other, instead of looking at home. Let us all look at home, and each one try to govern his own family and set his own house in order, and do that which is required of us, realizing that each one is held responsible before the Lord for his or her individual actions only.

We should take these things to our hearts. I have heard a great many complaints in the last week, and I thought that if I had a farm, and that farm was level and good, and but one acre on it was rocky, what would I do? I would dig up those rocks and make it good. We heard a song read, one of those songs written by the guidance of the Spirit. Another song is:

We Are Sowing

1. We are sowing, daily sowing
   Countless seeds of good and ill,
   Scattered on the level lowland,
   Cast upon the windy hill;
   Seeds that sink in rich, brown furrows,
   Soft with heaven's gracious rain;
   Seeds that rest upon the surface
   Of the dry, unyielding plain:
2. Seeds that fall amid the stillness
   Of the lonely mountain glen;
   Seeds cast out in crowded places,
   Trodden under foot of men;
   Seeds, by idle hearts forgotten,
   Flung at random on the air;
   Seeds, by faithful souls remembered,
   Sown in tears and love and prayer;
3. Seeds that lie unchanged, unquickened,
   Lifeless on the teeming mold;
   Seeds that live and grow and flourish
   When the sower's hand is cold.
   By a whisper sow we blessings;
   By a breath we scatter strife;
   In our words and looks and actions
   Lie the seeds of death and life.
4. Thou who knowest all our weakness,
   Leave us not to sow alone!
   Bid thine angels guard the furrows
   Where the precious grain is sown,
   Till the fields are crowned with glory,
   Filled with mellow, ripened ears,
   Filled with fruit of life eternal
   From the seed we sowed in tears.

Others are watching us do that. If I was doing something to my neighbor that was not right, I would want to turn from that.
We are living in a peculiar time that Prophets have told us about for years. We hear some say that we have fallen, that God is going to raise up another people to take our place. But God has said that He would never raise up another people. Let us not get it into our heads that God has rejected the Church. Why would He send an angel to set it in order? There are many good and honest in heart in the Church. This is not a day of scattering; it is a day of gathering. And those who have left and gone to the different nations of the earth, they want to get back. He said He would lift up an ensign, and all the nations would head to it. Isaiah said it would be established in the utmost bounds of the everlasting hills. Here God is going to take care of His people. Our people are going to get a scourging that will bring them back.

We talk about us being a blessed people. Do you know a more blessed people on earth when He picked out men to keep the Everlasting Gospel alive? Those same men told us what to do and how to do it. Some say, "Did you see an angel? Did an angel come back and see to it?" All the revelations in the Doctrine and Covenants are given to us. Do you know that we have the promise that if we obey God's commandments and laws, that we will have the constant protection of His Holy Spirit? Are we keeping them? Are we doing these things?

It grieves me sometimes to see my brothers and sisters in the things they come and do and say. I do wish they would go to the Lord and dig them out for themselves. Remember this one thing. If our Father has been able to live this law and able to instruct His children, then He can instruct us. Let us think of these things and find out for ourselves. I wish everyone in this audience would find out for themselves where they stand. We could not help it if you did not believe what we instructed you to do.

God bless you, and help us to improve and live nearer the goal that we claim to live. We claim to be saints. That is greater than any name we could be called in this world. Amen.
Put the Teachings Into Practice

I have been greatly edified by the testimonies of this afternoon. The brethren today have given us some good counsel, sermons, etc. Let us heed them. They will do us no good unless we put them into practice.

JYB 8:195  February 8, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
February 8, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs

We Will Never Get Into the Kingdom of God With Babylon on Our Backs; We Will Be Driven Into the United Order; Stop This Undercurrent of Faultfinding

I have been greatly interested, brothers and sisters, in the things that have been said today. How deep has it sunk into us? We like it, and we like to hear it. How far does it go? We have been told here that there is going to be a test. Heber C. Kimball said:

Heber C. Kimball (From the book of Golden Kimball, his son)

In 1856, that is 74 years ago, a small group of friends convened in the house of the Lord called the endowment house. The conversation was about the isolated condition of the Latter-day Saints. "Yes," said Brother Heber, "we think we are secure here in the chambers of these everlasting hills, where we can close the doors of the canyons against mobs and persecutors. The wicked and the vile will always beset us with violence and robbery, but I want to say to you, my brethren, the time is coming when we will be mixed up in these now peaceful valleys to that extent that it will be difficult to tell the face of a saint from the face of an enemy against the people of God.

Then is the time to look out for the great sieve. There will be a great sifting time, and many will fall, for I say unto you, there is a test, a test, a test coming. This church has before it many close places through which it will have to pass before the work of God is crowned with glory. The difficulties will be of such a character that the man or woman who does not possess a personal knowledge or witness will fall. If you have not got this testimony you must live right and call upon the Lord and cease not until you obtain it. Remember these things. The time will come when no man or woman will be able to endure on borrowed light. Each will have to be guided by the light within himself. If you do not have the knowledge that Jesus is the Christ, how can you stand?

Sometimes the gentiles dress a little better. He said also, brothers and sisters, you will never get into the Kingdom of God with Babylon on your backs. We want to learn to make our own clothing, and make them respectable, and not have to buy from Babylon. Many things have been said that ring true. What Brother Jessop said was true, every word; so was most of the rest spoken today.

We have been talking about living the fullness of the Gospel. What is it? Brigham Young said the fullness of the Gospel is the United Order and Celestial Marriage. Brother Joseph said this morning that we have got to live the United Order. When we live it, we will have a hard time living it because of hurt feelings. We get hurt easily.

It is a sifting time. This war is upon us. Our sons and daughters are being taken from us. What can we do? The only thing we can do is pray to the Lord. We have been having this told to us for years and years; and now it is upon us, we have to be driven to it. We will be living the United Order because we will be driven to it.

If we can get the Spirit of God and keep it in our midst, we would not have this scandal going around, none of this backbiting. What are we going to do? God has always placed men to lead the people, to protect them. Surely the Lord God will do nothing except what He reveals through His Prophets. Would the children of Israel listen to the Prophets? No!

I am reminded of Samuel when the great high priest allowed his sons to do things that were not right, and the Lord spoke to Samuel to tell the great high priest to listen to what the Lord told him. He [Eli] said, "It is just, it is right; I will have to take it." The result was that the Lord fulfilled the thing. The same will be true of us. If we get in the way, God will remove us. I want to be moved out if I get in the way.

We talk about we people who have been called out. Do we show it in our actions, and our living? On the other hand, we see people telling what the other fellow is doing, and forget what we have been doing ourselves.
I want to tell you sisters, whenever you undertake to get above your husbands, you are going to go down. He is your lord and master. You cannot get above him. When Mary went to embrace the Lord and Master after He had risen from the tomb, He said, "Touch Me not, for I have not ascended unto My Father in heaven." I want to tell you sisters, if your husband is living right, he is your lord and master. If he is not, then you will be given to someone else. Nevertheless, the man is the head, and no woman will get exaltation without the man, and no man without the woman. They have got to be together.

I wish this undercurrent that has been going on would stop, that we would start living as we should and leave other people alone. If you will do it, I promise you will be the real sons and daughters of God. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:197  March 8, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
March 8, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Trials Are Stepping Stones to the Kingdom of God; Sifting Taking Place

My brothers and sisters, I have been on a trip down south myself, and I know something of what we have had to put up with down there. Some of you others know, too. The more trials we have the greater blessings we receive. Do we realize that trials are the stepping stones to the Kingdom of God?

2 Timothy 3
12. Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

Few of us can take it, but we have got to do it. We have got to live closer to the Lord; keep His commandments more diligently. You might as well do it today and tomorrow. Then we can, as the Prophet Joseph Smith said, get in on the other side and see.

I have been greatly edified by the remarks of these brethren, mostly on the United Order. It is the twin to plural marriage. I have heard people -- some of the sisters -- say, "That fellow is after a young girl." When the Prophet
Joseph started to fill up his quorum, the same was said then. Of course this is true. Girls, don't look at the men with disgust when they ask you. On the other hand, some of the men don't have any reason to ask. They don't know where they are going, instead of getting down on their knees. I want to tell you, the brethren are anxious to fill up their quorums.

I want to say to you all today, that no girl or woman will have eternal increase without living that law. The Lord told the Prophet that if a man had ten women, and they were virgins and belonged to no one else, that they were his, and were given to him for their eternal exaltation in the eternal worlds. I don't care what a man's age is, if he is a good man and can take a daughter of mine into the eternal worlds. On the other hand, I want the young men to take part in this, too. There are a great many of these things going around. President Young said many of the women are fighting the laws of God, and by so doing they are cutting themselves out of the eternal worlds. They are trying to break the cable (Celestial Marriage). What law did Adam live? Celestial Marriage. Now the other law is a twin to it -- the United Order. We will all get along very well if we do not get our feelings hurt. If you hurt our feelings, then it is bad.

I know the Gospel is true. I know we have got to live these laws, and how hard it is to live them. But it has got to be done. Well, let us say, "The Kingdom of God or nothing," as they did in the early days. We have some of the choicest spirits that ever came to this earth. Today it is different than in any other time or age. When the other brethren were living this law, they had the Church authorities with them. Brother Musser and I have been under bond. We have seen the time when they will do everything to protect us, and another time when they want to do everything to stop us. But today it is weeding out individuals -- the dross, the tares -- and leaving the wheat. Today men are staying out because the President told them to; and those who do go into it today study and prepare, and know the condemnation that it will bring them. Do you think half the people here will get an exaltation? We hope so, but we can never tell. Find things out for yourselves. Until you do do that, you are not going very far. All I want to do is get to the foundation of these things. If these men are not telling you the right thing to do, God gave us a guide and a way to do. The minute a man gets off the path and track, he will know.

I want to prophesy a little today, and I prophesy that there are men in this house today that will go on, live the whole laws and keep the commandments of God, and go on in the Celestial Kingdom of God with their families. God bless you, amen.

(Some of the men present at the meeting were: Leroy S. Johnson, Rulon T. Jeffs, Richard S. Jessop, Fred M. Jessop, Louis Barlow, Joseph Jessop.)

JYB 8:199 March 22, 1942 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
March 22, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Be Ye Doers of the Word, Not Hearers Only;
We Entered Into the Celestial Law Through Baptism; Prophecies of Wars

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified today in the remarks of the brethren. I think the whole thing that has been taught us today has been summed up in: "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only." We have preached a great deal to keep the law of Celestial Marriage alive. Let me tell you one thing, the moment we received the Gospel of Jesus Christ and were baptized and had the reception of the Holy Ghost, we entered into the Celestial Law. Suppose we were baptized and had hands laid on us for the gift of the Holy Ghost and stopped there. What then? One of the Apostles said:

"Add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; and to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness; and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity [or love];..."

The pure love of God is charity. Suppose we went a little further. Suppose we go on a little further and go into the temple and receive a wife and stop there. Then what? Where will we get? What will we do? These are facts laid down to us. A man who enters the law and keeps all the commandments up to that time, he will receive what he earns. How can he expect to receive the fullness of a law when he has not entered into it? It is the same with every other blessing that we have got. There are a great many who try to live the United Order in our families. We have got to go on further. We cannot stop there. There are a great many laws laid down in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We cannot get around any of them. We have got to live them and be united as one.

I picked up the newspaper the other day and everything in the paper was destruction; murders, cyclones in the East -- five hundred deaths -- twenty-two thousand Germans killed, sinking of ships, etc. The Lord told us this years ago, that He would send out the Elders and preach the Gospel. After that He would take a hand and destroy the wicked, that the righteous might live the laws of God. Orson Pratt said the time would come when the Japanese would be subjected. Another Prophet, Lorin Woolley, had a dream where a cloud kept coming until it hit the United States; another cloud came until it came to the Missouri River. Then a bunch of black birds came over. Asiatics came west and came to the mountains. He also saw the Priesthood working in those lines. This dream repeated two wars that would come to the United States; the next one would come to the Missouri River. When a man prophesies, it does not make it so. We are in the midst of wars. The Constitution is the best in the world. It was inspired. We are supposed to uphold that Constitution. We expect that in upholding it, many of our dear ones will be in it.

I told you to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Have we been doing it? Are we going to make any effort? If we do, God will bless us. If we don't, we will take what the others take. I do not want to be faultfinding, but I want to urge you young men and women not to forget your prayers. God hears and answers prayers. I have seen it done. God bless you, amen.
in that passage. The Lord says:

Proverbs 1

24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25. But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:
26. I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;
27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.
28. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29. For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord:
30. They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.
31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
32. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

How many of us does that hit?

Proverbs 1

24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

We hear this every day. What does it do to us? Some few it is teaching; some few it is going over their heads. In other words, it teaches them while they are hearing, but when they go home, they forget all about it. The time is at hand; it is not far off. The time is here when we have got to keep the commandments of God or take the consequences. These things have been taught to us all since we were children, but we have not heeded. President Kimball said that if we did not keep the commandments of God, that our friends would weep seeing the distress that we are in. President Jedediah M. Grant preached himself right into the grave trying to reform this people -- one of the greatest orators and speakers in the Church. I want to tell you a little instance in his life. He was called to debate in a district of the Church.
President Grant asked who was President of that Stake, and the President answered that he was. He then asked who was head of the Church, and answered that it is Jesus Christ.

The people down south (Utah) send their love. They are very humble. One thing that helps them is that they have not picture shows and such to go to. They are not running about every night. I was greatly taken up with their lessons and the work they are doing. We have an old house that we have taken the partition out of and have made a very fine meeting house. It is their own. The Priesthood owns the ground and the home. They have from fifty to sixty, and sometimes seventy-five children in their Sunday School.

I ask the Lord's blessings upon you all; and remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. If ever there was a law of God broken, it is that law among the Latter-day Saints. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lyman Jessop Home
April 26, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs

Joseph Smith Is the "One Mighty and Strong";
We Will Be Whipped Into Line

(Question: "Who is the One Mighty and Strong?") Answer: In the first place, I will say just this much. (He then told of how he went to see John Woolley, and the first thing he said to him was, "Who is the One Mighty and Strong?" and a few days later a messenger came to him about it.)

(Read Section 90 of the Doctrine and Covenants: "Thus saith the Lord, etc." And read Section 124.) Whenever a revelation comes to us it will come through Joseph Smith. Section 85, verse 7:

D. & C. 85

7. And it shall come to pass that I, the Lord God, will send one mighty and strong, holding the scepter of power in his hand, clothed with light for a covering, whose mouth shall utter words, eternal words; while his bowels shall be a fountain of truth, to set in order the house of God, and to arrange by lot the inheritances of the saints whose names are found, and the names of their fathers, and of their children, enrolled in the book of the law of God;

D. & C. 101

43. And now, I will show unto you a parable, that you may know my will concerning the redemption of Zion.

44. A certain nobleman had a spot of land, very choice; and he said unto his servants: Go ye unto my vineyard, even upon this very choice piece of land, and plant twelve olive-trees;

45. And set watchmen round about them, and build a tower, that one may overlook the land round about, to be a watchman upon the tower, that mine olive-trees may not be broken down when the enemy shall come to spoil and take upon themselves the fruit of my vineyard.

46. Now, the servants of the nobleman went and did as their lord commanded them, and planted the olive-trees, and built a hedge round about, and set watchmen, and began to build a tower.

47. And while they were yet laying the foundation thereof, they began to say among themselves: And what need hath my lord of this tower?

48. And consulted for a long time, saying among themselves: What need hath my lord of this tower, seeing this is a time of peace?

49. Might not this money be given to the exchangers? For there is no need of these things.

50. And while they were at variance one with another they became very slothful, and they hearkened not unto the commandments of their lord.

51. And the enemy came by night, and broke down the hedge; and the servants of the nobleman arose and were affrighted, and fled; and the enemy destroyed their works, and broke down the olive-trees.

52. Now, behold, the nobleman, the lord of the vineyard, called upon his servants, and said unto them, Why! what is the cause of this great evil?

53. Ought ye not to have done even as I commanded you, and -- after ye had planted the vineyard, and built the hedge round about, and set watchmen upon the walls thereof -- built the tower also, and set a watchman upon the tower, and watched for my vineyard, and not have fallen asleep, lest the enemy should come upon you?

54. And behold, the watchman upon the tower would have seen the enemy while he was yet afar off; and then ye could have made ready and kept the enemy from breaking down the hedge thereof, and saved my vineyard from the hands of the destroyer.

55. And the lord of the vineyard said unto one of his servants: Go and gather together the residue of my servants, and take all the strength of mine house, which are my warriors, my young men, and they that are of middle age also among all my servants, who are the strength of mine house, save those only whom I have appointed to tarry;

56. And go ye straightway unto the land of my vineyard, and redeem my vineyard; for it is mine; I have bought it with money.

57. Therefore, get ye straightway unto my land; break down the walls of mine enemies; throw down their tower, and scatter their watchmen.

58. And inasmuch as they gather together against you, avenge me of mine enemies, that by and by I may come with the residue of mine house and possess the land.

59. And the servant said unto his lord: When shall these things be?

60. And he said unto his servant: When I will; go ye straightway, and do all things whatsoever I have commanded you;

61. And this shall be my seal and blessing upon you -- a faithful and wise steward in the midst of mine house, a ruler in my kingdom.

62. And his servant went straightway, and did all things whatsoever his lord commanded him; and after many days all things were fulfilled.

Now, my brothers and sisters, if we can find out who that servant is, we have the One Mighty and Strong. Now read Section 103, verse 21, and it will tell you who that servant is -- Joseph Smith.

D.& C. 103

21. Verily, verily I say unto you, that my servant Baurak Ale [Joseph Smith, Jun.] is the man to whom I likened the servant to whom the Lord of the vineyard spake in the parable which I have given unto you.

Joseph Smith is the one who is going to handle this thing. He set these men apart who are here now. Joseph set the ones apart in the early days. He is the head. He is the one who is coming back here and set things in order. He is going to come and pave the way for Jesus Christ.

I want to tell you, we are trying to prepare men to be ready when that time comes. How many have we got ready? I am doubtful. No wonder we feel blue and bad. Brigham Young said, "Why did the Prophets weep? Because they had preached and preached to the people, and they did not take heed of it." Let it teach every one of us. Everyone needs to repent and seek God. If we don't, we are going to get what the others are getting. He is going to whip us into line. Zion is not going to be removed out of her place. Is God going to improve Zion? Yes. If we get in the way, we will be pushed out of the road. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:206  May 10, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
May 10, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Prepare for the Setting in Order

My brothers and sisters, this has indeed been a pleasure to me today. A rich portion of the Holy Spirit of God has been here, and I want to tell you that angels have been here. They have been listening to what has been said. We were told in the scriptures that those who would serve God would meet often together, and the Book of Remembrance would be kept; and when the Lord came, those who kept His commandments would be His people and would be received. We are working and living at a time when the Lord is preparing a people, getting them ready for a big event that is coming. It is not going to be long. Suppose the Prophet should come back here to set His House in order. What is it? It is the people. When He does, and we are not prepared, we will be pushed aside; for as I told you before, the Kingdom of God is going on.

I was well pleased to have Brother Rulon [Allred] take up the piece in Truth ["Innocent Vices", Truth 7:272]. I don't care what one you back up, the truth cannot be denied. The authorities say they cannot answer them. It is the truth as revealed by the Prophet Joseph. It will be handed down. As God has said, the Priesthood would never be taken from the earth again, and it will stay here.

I want to leave my blessings with you today. I want you to find out for yourselves and know whether these things we have been telling are true. The Prophet said, "Give me twelve men who will live the laws of God and I can stand against the world." I wish we could find twelve men of that kind today.
May God bless you and help us to learn these things and study hard. Above all, do not forget to pray. Find out for yourselves. I ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:207  June 14, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
June 14, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Cease Gossiping

I would rather hear the testimony of men than the greatest sermon you can ever preach. It is the pure testimony that converts, edifies, and strengthens us; and we have had some wonderful testimonies here this afternoon. Let us put to mind what has been said.

Let us remember this one thing. When we hear about anything that is going on around, let us not be the one to spread it. Let us keep it to ourselves. You will stop the harm that is going on, and the first thing you will know, you will be loving one another. God bless you.

JYB 8:208  June 28, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
June 28, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Sifting; The Lord Will Not Wait for Us; Help Each Other Stay Faithful

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified and built up in my faith. I thought of the sayings of the Lord:

Jeremiah 3

14. ...and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

We have had a fine demonstration of it today. We have been to Holland, eastern United States, and as far west as we could go, in listening to these brethren today.
What Brother Hammon has told you is verily true. Joseph Smith has never had an equal on earth outside of Jesus Christ and Father Adam. What concerns me most, is how are we living? We call ourselves saints. We say we are living the fullness of the Gospel. Are we? How are we living? Are we keeping the commandments of God? I thought a little farther back than Brother Hammon said, to twenty-five years ago. Where are the people that were with us then? Is there anyone in the house that was with us? We have three who have not sifted out. What did Brother Kimball say? He said this:

Heber C. Kimball (From the book of Golden Kimball, his son)

"Yes," said Brother Heber, "we think we are secure here in the chambers of these everlasting hills, where we can close the doors of the canyons against mobs and persecutors. The wicked and the vile will always beset us with violence and robbery, but I want to say to you, my brethren, the time is coming when we will be mixed up in these now peaceful valleys to that extent that it will be difficult to tell the face of a saint from the face of an enemy against the people of God.

Then is the time to look out for the great sieve. There will be a great sifting time, and many will fall, for I say unto you, there is a test, a test, a test coming. This church has before it many close places through which it will have to pass before the work of God is crowned with glory. The difficulties will be of such a character that the man or woman who does not possess a personal knowledge or witness will fall. If you have not got this testimony you must live right and call upon the Lord and cease not until you obtain it. Remember these things. The time will come when no man or woman will be able to endure on borrowed light. Each will have to be guided by the light within himself. If you do not have the knowledge that Jesus is the Christ, how can you stand?

We are all here today. Where are we going to be tomorrow? God is going to sift us so that He can build a foundation that He can stand upon. The Kingdom of God is going on. The Lord won't stop for us.

God's blessings have been poured upon us. We have been a chosen few. He sent His Son, Jesus Christ, and His Prophet Joseph Smith and gave them blessings. And they have been given to us.

Revelation 18

4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, } people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

Some of them have come out. This day is the day of gathering, and this is the gathering place of the House of the Lord. Zion? Yes, it is the gathering place here in the mountains. He is trying to prepare a people to get ready to go back to Jackson County so He can send the One Mighty and Strong here. Will we be prepared for the setting in order? First one thing, and then another. First one person slides out, then another. Let us try to live the Gospel. When we see a brother slipping, let us not give him a kick. Let us help him back.

I don't know when I have enjoyed the remarks of the brethren like I have today. I say to you, brothers and sisters today, if you will live the way you ought to, and keep the commandments of God, I promise you that Brother Brigham, Heber, and others will come back here and help us out, and the Prophet will soon set things in order. Then we can go to the House of the Lord and seal our posterity back to Father Adam. Today we are cast out. That is why the One Mighty and Strong has got to come and set things in order. All the saints gathered out are thankful in their hearts that they are gathered out, for the Lord has said, "Stand ye in holy places." You don't have to be a Prophet of God to see the things as they are today. Things have got to be straightened. We have got to live so we can do it.

God bless you. Let us live better. Let us do better and get more of the Spirit of the Lord and strive to keep His commandments, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:210  July 12, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
July 12, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
All Laws and Ordinances Are Celestial Laws; Priesthood Power Must Be Exercised in Righteousness;
Keep Sweet

My brothers and sisters, it does my heart good to hear the brethren talk as they have this afternoon. I know the United Order is true, and we have got to live it as well as all the other laws. Will the people who are not in the Celestial Kingdom have to be baptized? No. That is the entering into the Kingdom of God. From then on all the laws are Celestial laws.

There have been a great many things said here today to cause us to think. Many have been handled. But there is one thing we want you to understand - that the Kingdom of God is inseparably connected with the power of heaven and cannot be handled unless it is done in righteousness. When the heavens withdraw, the Priesthood goes with it. Amen to the Priesthood of a man who exercises it in unrighteousness.

Many of the Prophets of God said there would be a time come when there would be a certain people brought out of the Latter-day Saints who would live all the laws of God. We have been preaching this for a number of years. We have been cast out. Don't get mad, but keep sweet. Your business is to live the laws of God and keep them, and keep the Spirit of God with you. Don't worry over the other man.

I am greatly impressed in this late movement that is going ahead now. If we go ahead in that, we will have some more. Some have been trying to do this for years. Some have divided up. Yes, we have had some trouble and lots of setbacks. Right today our grain is all burned up. The winds have done it. But what of it? That does not make much difference to the laws of God. We must keep going on. We may find that some will have to go to our pockets and pay for some of these things. What of it? When we get into our heads "The Kingdom of God or Nothing," then we will begin to get somewhere.

I do not feel as good as I might do. A doctor here put me on juices, and there I am. Maybe it will do me some good.

There is a much better spirit than there has been in times past. Get the Spirit of God and keep it! The Lord told me to tell you this some time ago. We can see the results of it in some of you. It does not make any difference what some men say. We are going to be judged according to the living of the law.

JD 1:349-352

Brigham Young July 10, 1853 SLC

To choose life is to choose an eternal existence in an organized capacity: to refuse life and choose death is to refuse an eternal existence in an organized capacity, and be contented to become decomposed, and return again to native element. Death, in reality, is to decompose or decrease, and life is to increase.
Now understand, to choose life is to choose principles that will lead you to an eternal increase, and nothing short of them will produce life in the resurrection for the faithful. Those that choose death, make choice of the path which leads to the end of their organization. The one leads to endless increase and progression, the other to the destruction of the organized being, ending in its entire decomposition into the particles that compose the native elements.

In the Celestial Kingdom there are three degrees. In order to obtain the highest, you must live the law of Celestial Marriage. There are just two roads -- one to eternal increase, and the other to dissolution. Which are we going to take? It is up to you! God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Charles F. Zitting Home
July 26, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Fire From Heaven Will Protect the Saints;
The Laws of God Will Judge Us; Must Get Rid of Selfishness;
Make Peace With Each Other

My brothers and sisters, I can testify to the truth of what my brothers have said. I know they have been speaking under the inspiration of the Spirit of God. I can testify as to Sister Foote's testimony. I can testify that Brother Foote, while he has aged and is hard of hearing, he has the Spirit of God. The people down there try to keep away from him.

There has been a great deal said here today. Stop and think of what time we are living in. We are in the eleventh hour of this dispensation. Brothers and sisters, the times of the gentiles is nearly full. It is only going to be a short time until the Gospel will go into the House of Israel, and the House of God will be opened up to the saints. Brother Woodruff got up once and said that it will be but a few years when famines and pestilences will spread over the earth. He said that God has promised them that if the people will keep His commandments, that He will protect them if He had to send fire down. (He then spoke of Elijah and the fifty men on the hill.)
We have been told all the way down to search the scriptures, "for in them you have eternal life." Even Christ Himself was told to search the scriptures. Some say today, "Will you be our judges?" No. The laws of God will judge you. Then if you have kept them, you will be saved; if not, you will not. Brigham Young said life or death is set before you. If we choose life, we will go on and on. Death is to shrivel up -- the opposite. One will be saving; the other will cause us to go down to destruction.

We have long looked for a house and a place to meet. As Brother Joseph said, Brother De Yonge called me at eleven o'clock one evening, and as soon as I saw the place, I knew it was for us. We have been having quite a time, but the brothers and sisters have been liberal. We expect it to be one thing that we will be owning in common. And if we keep on, as we told you, it will be the United Order before we get through.

Brothers and sisters, if we had put our trust in the hands of God and Brigham Young, and a united effort, the saints would have owned Salt Lake City today. We have got to get this selfishness out of us. We have all got it in us. The Lord has said, "If you are not equal in temporal things, you cannot be equal in spiritual things." If you put a bunch of sticks together and try to break them, you cannot. If you take them one at a time, you can. We have men among us who are financiers, honest men who would make good finances. The men down south are working together. What one has, the other has. If one had something and another wanted it, that brother would give it to him. I hope the time will come when we will not only live plural marriage, but the United Order, too. It is pretty hard sometimes with big families that some of us have got.

Now brothers and sisters, the Gospel is free. I often think of the poem of John Wesley: "Know this, that every soul is free, to choose his life and what he will be, etc." If your brother has odds against you, go to him and make it right, even if you did not do the injury. We will think just a little more of each other. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:214 August 9, 1942 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
2157 Lincoln Street
August 9, 1942
My brothers and sisters, we have heard a great deal today, and it puts me in mind of what Brigham Young said Joseph Smith and others of the Apostles told him: "Never spend another dollar or dime for Babylon, but spend it in the building up of the Kingdom of God." Let us spend our money for the work of the Lord.

I know this work is true, and I know these brethren sitting by me today have the authority that they say they have. I know that. Many of the other brethren here have been with them and know wherein they spoke it was true. When I was set apart in this work I said, "Are you doing this because I am your friend?" He [Lorin C. Woolley] said, "I had nothing to do with it whatever. God told me to set you apart." I want to bear my testimony to you that I did go to the Lord as I was told to do, and I got my testimony. God did set these brethren apart to do this special work, and to see that these principles were kept alive. God never reveals in any day or age non-essentials. When God reveals a law, He gives it to you because it is essential. Because we are believing these things, we are being scoffed at and ostracized and cast out; we are called "apostates". I know this much, that the Savior said, "If you are ashamed of Me, I will be ashamed of you."

In regard to this place -- I do not want a foot of ground that the Lord does not want me to have. I like a home; I like to be comfortable. But what I want to do is the work of God that will save the souls of men. Brigham Young said that when you get to a place where you cannot go any higher, then you start to go down. The Lord said that there are three degrees of glory in the Celestial Kingdom, and in order to attain them you must obey my laws. If you do not you cannot have an increase.

I want to tell you that every one of you that comes into this place and helps with that United Effort Plan, you will be blessed. Brigham Young said, "Brethren, get your property in a Trust so the gentiles will not take it away from you." What is the result today? Eighty-five percent of the homes here have been taken by the gentiles. The people of this city are in perpetual shame because of what they have done. The only way out is to keep and live the commandments of God.
Many have said, "This is the best people I have ever known;" but I want to tell you again that we are not good enough. We are not ready yet for the One Mighty and Strong to come here.

Now how is it with the Church today? You cannot hold an office in the Church if you comply with the higher laws. (Told the story of the purse again.) If God said you must obey a certain law, and a man won't let you, who is responsible for it? Why, the man who keeps you from it is responsible. Golden Kimball said, "I am not worried whether I get in the Kingdom of God, but the location in the Kingdom worries me."

God bless you, and keep on the work you are doing. Don't expect that you won't get some knocks. The Lord said, "He that lives godly in Christ Jesus shall receive persecution." God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:216  September 13, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Priesthood Meeting at Lincoln Street  2:00 P.M.
September 13, 1942
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
Was Tutored by John and Lorin Woolley;
Must Live the United Order Today;
Joseph Smith Is the One Mighty and Strong

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified and built up through the remarks of my brethren. Looking over the congregation now, I am wondering how many are here that were with us a few years ago. I can see a few faces here that were with us a few years ago. When we used to go up to Uncle John Woolley's and Lorin Woolley's, they would tell us of things -- how the Savior and Joseph Smith came to their place and what he told them to do to keep this principle alive. I have heard those men testify to that many times. I have been called into their Council and told of these things -- tutored up. I used to live just a little way from Uncle Lorin Woolley, and I knew Uncle John Woolley; and I heard the neighbors say that Joseph F. Smith used to go up and visit with him. They said that Joseph F. thought a lot of him, that he went up and pled with him and pled with him. Yes, he did -- he counselled with him, but he wasn't pleading with him as they thought he was doing.
We heard what Brother Jensen said to you, that we as a people had gone out from among the Latter-day Saints. I think you will find recorded in the Millennial Star where a people would be brought out among the Latter-day Saints which would be the nucleus of the great Millennium. These people would live all the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Yes, we hear men say it isn't necessary to live those laws now. Do you think God ever dealt with non-essentials?

I heard a man say here a short time ago, "You can't live the United Order now." I said, "Brother, do you believe in God?" "Yes." "Do you believe that God is a just God?" "Yes." "Well, will such a God give us a law that we can't live, and condemn us for not living it? How could He be a just God?" Things haven't changed any. Didn't God give things from the beginning to the end? God knew how the people would do, and He holds us responsible for living this law. He hasn't revoked any of them. Read the Manifesto and see what it does say. It says "To Whom It May Concern" for political purposes. Does the Lord change for political purposes? He said His course is one eternal round -- it stands there just the same. We can live it, or we can leave it alone. If we do, we will get the blessings, or we will get the consequence. These are the things we should think of.

I don't believe there is a better class of people anywhere than there are here, but I will say here that good as we are, we aren't good enough, or we wouldn't have been called to repentance. Let us look back in our own life and see if that wasn't a just call on us to turn and to serve God.

This little group that has been here for the last month working, I never saw nor heard a cleaner, purer group of men than were working here. You could let your children or wives come here and you would never hear a word that you would be afraid to let a child hear. Can you find such a group of men anywhere else? You that are here know that our Latter-day Saint men even use a curse nearly every other word. That is what you get. "By their fruits shall ye know them." That is what we are going to be judged by.

I don't feel like saying much this afternoon, but I feel like telling you if you will keep on in the course you are keeping, it will be but a short time when there will be no rich nor poor among you.

Brother Joseph touched on another thing. He said it was our business to see that these laws are kept alive. That is the calling of these men here -- to see that these laws that God has revealed are kept alive. Some have said, "Do you expect to be President of the Church?" "Do you expect to be the 'One Mighty and Strong'?” No, of course we are not the One Mighty and Strong. God is going to send the One Mighty and Strong, and you will find that it is the Prophet Joseph Smith. He is the head of this dispensation, and he is the one that will come. And when you hear a man say that he is the One Mighty and Strong, you can know he is wrong, because that one will be a Celestial being with light for a covering. And how quick can he come? Just as quick as we will be united and live the laws of God, so that we can call down this man. Just that soon he will come and help us.

I say God bless you to live the laws and keep the commandments of God, and live upright, is my prayer, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:218  September 27, 1942  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 27, 1942
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
Organizing the People to Assist One Another

We are happy to think that we have a home of our own, and we are contemplating right now making some changes in our Sunday School and organizing a young men's and young women's association. We have a nice place here where the young people can dance and enjoy themselves, where we can put on plays; and we expect to have a joyful time. Brother Musser will read the names of our new organization heads.

We have something more yet that we want to put before you this day. We organized a benefit fund for those who might be caught in the law, and also that we might bury our dead. Some of us have been blessed in this and been helped. Now, the brethren are not coming up and paying as they should do. We have another case on where one of our brothers is in trouble. If we were paying this fund, we would have money to go ahead and fight this case; but we are not doing it, especially you men that are in the same position. This fund was made for our benefit and help. We asked thirty cents a month for an adult and fifteen cents for a child; and where there is a death, one hundred fifty dollars for an adult and seventy-five dollars for a child for burial. It is right among ourselves we are saving this fund. I want you people to realize what a wonderful thing this fund is, and when we get a certain amount we will have it to protect ourselves; and we don't know from one day to another who is going to need this help. It comes to us like a bolt out of the sky.

Brother Rulon Allred is taking care of this fund, and we would like you to talk to him and find out what it is and learn how to protect yourselves. I have been greatly pleased with the remarks of the brethren.

I would just like to say to these young men -- read the account of Helaman and the two thousand young men under him. They went to war, but the Lord preserved them. I have heard that saying of Lorin's a number of times, that if we would keep the commandments of the Lord, we would not have to go to war. We have not done as we should have done. I ask God's blessings upon you.

JYB 8:219 October 11, 1942 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
October 11, 1942
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
The Gospel Has Always Been the Same;
We Will Be Pushed Aside if We Do Not Prepare;
We Love the Original Constitution; The Higher We Go,
the More We Need to Repent

(John Y. Barlow recollected the meeting with Brother Olson and Brother Jessop in Millville, of spending about twenty-nine months on a mission and then being handled when he returned; how he learned more in six months after than he had learned during his life up until that time. Said he was) -- forced to either deny the Gospel or Jesus Christ or else take a course, the course that Joseph Smith laid out for us. I know that the Gospel is true, and I know that there are many in this house that know that the Gospel is true, that the plan was laid down by our Savior and brought out into light again by the Prophet Joseph. The Gospel has always been here, but the authority to administer in the ordinances thereof was not here until it was restored again.
The Gospel was taught to Adam. It was taught all down to Noah. It was taught to the children of Israel. John, in speaking to the children of Israel, said that the Gospel was taught to them but did not stay home with them, not being administered in faith. And it was taught by the Savior and His Apostles and disciples until they had killed them off and destroyed them -- another angel flying through the midst of heaven having the Everlasting Gospel to preach. ***

Now, my brothers and sisters, we are today living in that hour of judgment when God is going to cleanse this earth and purify it, and if we as a people do not live up to these laws and allow ourselves to be purified and cleansed, we will be pushed aside and there will be others who will do it.

Our boys, a great many of them today, are being called into the service; and a great many of them are feeling bad because Brother Woolley told them that they wouldn't have to fight. But remember, he put a proviso there -- if we kept the commandments of God. Have we kept them? If you have, I haven't kept them -- not as well as I should, and neither have you. We are today just as the Prophet said we would be -- heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasure and not of God. That applies to you in the group as well as to the people in the Church. I think also right today that the words of Isaiah come very true: "children are our oppressors." Did you ever live in a day and age when the children said, "Your father is an old fogey"? But, my brothers and sisters, if we do not keep the laws and commandments of God and cleanse and purify ourselves, we can't expect the blessings. What does the Lord say? He says just what Brother Woolley said: "If you will keep My commandments, I will fight your battles, but if you do not keep My commandments, you have no promise."

Now, I don't want to scold. I love you, brothers and sisters, and believe you are the best people on the earth today, but I want to see you change and get better and prepare yourselves, so that when necessary, the angels of God will come down and direct us in what to do. We can do it if we will live for it.

Many of our boys are going to the war, going into the army, and it makes our hearts sad. We didn't raise our boys to become soldiers. We raised our boys to be soldiers of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. That is what we are raising them for, and that is what we want them for -- not to go out and kill and fight. While we want to be loyal and do the best we can in every way, I want you to go home and read the 98th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants and see what it says about war. You will find that the Lord tells us when we should and shouldn't go to war.

I love the Constitution of the United States, the original Constitution before it was tampered with, and before it was broken and cast aside and ceased to be. There is no such government on the earth as our government, but when the wicked reign, the people err. But on the other hand, my brothers and sisters, the Lord tells us that these things were brought to test us and try us and see if we would keep our covenants even unto death. And if we won't, we aren't worthy of them. Are we going to keep them and live worthy so we can?

We think we have seen sorrow, we think we have seen trouble; but we haven't seen anything, and we will see some. President Kimball said if these people didn't turn and serve the Lord, the judgments would come, so that their enemies would weep for them. Remember, where there is much given, there is much required. Let us take these things to heart. Let us remember that God has blessed us with this place to meet, and now let us use it in a [right] way. And remember, as soon as we can dedicate this, it will be sacred to us. And we don't want any swearing or anything of that nature.

Let us not go out and mingle with Babylon. One of the worst curses among our people today are picture shows and the radio. I haven't seen a man in my life but what needed to repent; and the higher you go on, the more you will have to repent, and the harder you will find it to do. I don't want to take up anymore time. I pray the Lord to bless you to live His laws, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
October 25, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs

A Great Amount of Work Is Required

[The former speakers had spoken strongly in favor of the United Order Effort in Short Creek.]

I just wanted to give out notice to you that they are getting out apples in Provo for any that would like to go and get them. They are not large, but you are welcome if you want to get them. Next Sunday is Fast Sunday.

I have been greatly edified in what has been said, and know that the possibilities are there [in Short Creek], and know that it is going to take a lot of work to get there, if we go; and we must go with the intention of work and a lot of hardships. We know that, and anyone who has been there knows it. The possibilities are there. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:223  November 7, 1942  SLC

Dedication Conference Meeting
Salt Lake City, Utah
Saturday 7:30 P.M. at Lincoln Street
November 7, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Dedication Conference Meeting (Lincoln Street);
John W. Woolley, Lorin C. Woolley, and Joseph F. Smith
Under Covenant to Not Openly Teach;
The Kingdom of God or Nothing

Hearing that song takes me back to when Uncle John and Lorin were here teaching us true order of Priesthood. But I was not satisfied just what he was teaching, and I got a testimony of my own. He taught me things of that kind and confirmed it. That which he taught is a result of so many here today. I want you to know that Uncle Lorin was under a covenant, and he could not do much in the way we are doing; but after he went, Brother Joseph [Musser], Charles [Zitting], and the others were not under the covenant, and we could go ahead to preach the Gospel in its fullness as others who were tied down could not do.

They told me many things. Many of you wonder why Joseph F. Smith did not come out and say what he wanted to. Because the Lord said to hold on and let them fill out the measure of their iniquities. And we have to be careful. If we are not, when we come to take the tares, we will take the wheat also. But this building shows what can be done by a few people. As Joseph Smith said, "Give me twelve men who will follow the Lord as directed, and we can fight them all." God bless this people, and may the spirit of unity and love be in our hearts. Remember this motto here, "The Kingdom of God or Nothing." If we live up to that, we will live every law that God has laid down for us. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:224 November 8, 1942 SLC

At the Dedication of the Priesthood Home
Salt Lake City, Utah
Sunday 2:00 P.M. at Lincoln Street
November 8, 1942
 Reported by Leona Jeffs
You Will Be the Loser if You Do Not Live the Law That Gives Eternal Increase; How to Treat a Dedicated Home

We are surely well pleased with the spirit and turnout so far in this meeting. We are now going to ask Brother Joseph to dedicate this place. I want to say to you people that we were set apart to dedicate homes and houses. That was one of the special blessings given us brethren at the time we were set apart.

My brothers and sisters, I have [been] greatly filled up with the remarks we have heard this afternoon. When we look around here and see the pictures (Brigham Young, the Prophet, etc.), it makes us feel pretty small. It does me. I do not feel that I am capable of taking the place of any of those men. But I do know that God calls us to the positions we are in; and for that reason, in our weak way we are trying to fulfill our callings. I think I have been with this group or other groups for about twenty-five years -- been on the firing line all that time.

I know that the Gospel is true. I know that these principles that we are advocating are true. I know that if we don't live the law that gives us eternal increase, we will not have eternal increase, and when we get to a certain place we will stop. That will be the end of our increase. We know those things, and it does not make any difference to me who tries to stop me. If we don't get there, the leaders will be to blame, some say. (He then gave the story of the lost purse.) The same with the laws of God -- you cannot blame it on someone else. You are going to be the loser if you do not live the laws of God. I have heard some say that you have got to get something more than the Manifesto to put the blame on. It was God who said these things that we are advocating.

Now, brothers and sisters, we have been together long enough. I ask God to bless each and every one of you, and hope we will keep the commandments of God. Now that this place is dedicated, we hope that the young people will not laugh and chase and run in this house. The Lord has said that loud laughter is a sin to Him. From now on, if I tell you to stop, I do not want you to feel offended. I hope that when we have our dances here, that they will carry themselves right, and open and dismiss with prayer. Have a good time, but not be rowdy. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:225 November 8, 1942 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sunday 7:30 P.M. at Lincoln Street
November 8, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Pray in All You Do

My brothers and sisters, I just want to add my testimony to those of the brethren. Whenever we are working around, unless we have a prayer in our hearts, we will not get anywhere. Keep that prayer in your heart no matter what you are doing. I hope we can have another time like we have had at this Conference. Whenever you want to come, you are welcome to come.

JYB 8:225 November 22, 1942 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
November 22, 1942
Reported by Leona Jeffs
To Be Perfect We Must Live the Laws of God

My brothers and sisters, I have enjoyed the remarks this afternoon very much. I think it is right along in keeping with the things we have been teaching all the time. We have been told many times here that we are the best people that anyone knows about. But as Brother Louis said, we are not good enough. How are we going to get better? Are we going to do it by finding fault with one another? No! I think every one of us will have to rake over our lives and see where we are failing and what is happening to us. But there is one thing sure, that these laws that God has laid down must be lived. He does not put it in any other way than that Zion will never be redeemed only by living the laws. If we cannot live the fullness of the Gospel, then we must stop. I know these things; yet it seems I go right along in the same old routine. How many are the same way? Do we improve ourselves? Do we see it? The time is coming. Let me tell you right now that if you do not get into this law now, you will not get into it. Some have gotten into the law and wish they had not.

We often hear about the One Mighty and Strong. That is not worrying me a bit, because I know who it is. I know it is not me. I know it is not any of our brethren. But I know who it is, because I was told by a Prophet of the living God. When the time comes for him to come, you will all know him. The man, the head of this dispensation, naturally he will be the one.

A young man came to Jesus and said, "Master, what shall I do to be saved?" He enumerated a number of things. The man said, "These I have kept." The answer was, "If you will be perfect, live them." If you will be perfect, live the laws -- the full laws. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:226  January 10, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
January 10, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Live the United Order

Brother Joseph said they have put us out. No, we are not put out. [The public officials did not allow the people to meet upstairs until a fire escape was installed.] We are glad to move our furniture in order to be fed the truths of the Everlasting Gospel. Another thing -- we were told it was only going to be a short time before great events took place. We were hardly prepared for it. God is moving, and He has started the stone to rolling. He has said that out of the Church there would be a nucleus to go on and do the will of God.

It was said some of us got tired of talking the United Order. Do we know that that was the first law given to the saints of God in this dispensation? I do not mean sinners, but saints. It was the first great law given to the Church, and it was necessary. If we had lived it, we would have become the real saints of God. Why was it given? Because there are spirits waiting to take bodies. They had a right to be born inside the Kingdom of God, and God was trying to prepare the saints to get ready; just like in the days of the Savior looking down over Jerusalem. God said, "Except you live that law, Zion will not be redeemed." The moment you undertake to do anything, some brother says, "You have no right to do this." Brigham Young said, "God will bless any man that will undertake to live that law, and have men at the head to lead." If we had lived that law, today this city would belong to the saints. Now it belongs to the gentiles.

What is the matter with most of us today is that we spiritualize things. If Noah had believed what the others did about being drowned, he would have gone with them.

Time is close at hand and it will not be long before these things will happen. We say, "We will be all right; we have got homes." But we can be cast out. (He then spoke of the days of the Lamanites.) God has said:

Isaiah 28
11. For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

God bless you, brothers and sisters, and let us live the laws of God. Some say we cannot do this in our day. When they first came out here, they did a lot of things that were said could not be done. What can be done once can be done again. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
January 24, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Nothing Can Stop Us if We Keep the Laws of God;
We Do Not Want All of You in Short Creek; Live as Saints Should

I think, brothers and sisters, we have had a good chastisement. We want those who need it to take it to heart. If there are any here who do not need it, do not let it bother you. We have had this work done here. It is just a beginning; it is just a start of the work ahead of us. We have done it at odd times; after working hours [Building improvements on the Lincoln Street home]. God was well pleased with us. The reason why we cannot continue up there, I do not know. We may have desecrated it. The worst I have heard of is the swearing on the steps. The Lord has said that He would not hold a man guiltless who takes His name in vain.

Brothers and sisters, the adversary is at work. He is going to do everything he can to upset this home. He is going to do everything he can to get the wives against their husbands. Why? Because we are preparing to become Gods. "As God is man may become; as man is God once was." The first place the adversary starts in is in our homes.

Did we hear what was said today, or did it go over our heads? We are going to do better. We have got to do better and live closer to God and keep the commandments of God. I feel that the words that the brethren said today were meant for me, and I have made up my mind I am going to try to do better; live better and live closer to the Lord. Why, brothers and sisters, there is nothing in the world that would stop us if we keep the laws of God. If we live that way, then the first thing we know, Brigham Young and others of the good men would come and lead us. God would bless the land for our sakes, and bless us. Do you happen to know that we are a people trying to live a Celestial Law, and right on top of it we obey a telestial law? Do you understand that? There is no people living a Celestial Law but the Latter-day Saints.

When the laws of the land come against us, we have still got to live the laws of God. They try to take our very souls from us. God said to us a long time ago that if we would keep His commandments He would fight our battles. I want to tell you, if you keep the laws of God, go home and tell the Lord that you want to keep this home. He will fight our battles. God and mammon will not mix.

A man was saying to me the other day that the Manifesto was of God. I asked him if he believed President Snow was a man of God, and I told him what he said:

Lorenzo Snow  Millennial Star 48:111

Though I go to prison, God will not change His law of celestial marriage. But the man, the people, the nation, that oppose and fight against this doctrine and the Church of God will be overthrown.

I said, "Was President Snow a Prophet of God?" He said, "I do not know." I said, "You should know. God never changes the laws He has given."

We are trying in a way to live the United Order. We have been trying, but what has happened? The same rumors that went about a few years ago are going on again. Brothers and sisters, if you want to put your property in the hands of men who will take care of it, is that dictating, taking your agency away from you? You have been told that if you put your property in in that way, that is not taking it away from you. The law which you are living makes it the property of all those who are living the law with you.

I often hear of this "dictatorship". President Young had the same thing. Joseph Smith had the same thing. People withdrew from the laws of God then. Women and children were driven from their homes. Men were tied to trees and whipped, and their women taken away from them. That is history in our day. Our fathers, our mothers, my grandfather and grandmothers went through all those things, those trying times. Now, God has not revoked His laws; they are still here. The law still stands there and it cannot be changed. It is a question with us whether we accept it or reject it. If we do not live it, then we do not get the blessing.

I do not want you to think that you must get up and go, for we do not want you all in Short Creek. Homes have got to be built. Some say you will never raise a thing in that desert. The same was said about this valley when Brigham Young and the saints came here. I do not know of any other place in the United States that we can go that is a more blessed land. They are fine people, but they are not perfect. They are trying to live in their humble, weak way to keep the commandments of God. We do not wish to overpraise them, because I often think of Brother Hunter when Brigham Young was eulogizing one time. He said, "Look out, Brother Hunter, the devil is after you."

I have children and two wives down there. I want to live in a way that God will approve of it. People can say what they please. What they say about you does not hurt you. It is the truths that they tell about us that hurt. Let us try to do better. If we are saints of God, let us be saints of God. Keep and live the commandments of God better in the future than in the past.

I went down south when Brother Hammon went down. I hope and pray that God will lead us in the right path. Let us quit this backbiting. That is one of the worst things that troubles these saints. If we have trouble in our own homes, let us keep it there. God bless you and help us to live nearer to the Lord each day of our lives to receive His blessings, for we are going to need them. If we get run out of the town, it will be worse than being run out of this house. We claim to be the great nucleus of the Millennium. Don't you think God will protect us if we live right? God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:231  February 14, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
February 14, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Righteous Will Be Taken From the Earth
While Judgments Sweep the Earth; Get the Spirit of God

I think that that is just as fine a test as we can get -- the time is far spent. We are in the last hour of the sixth thousand years when God is going to send His judgments upon the world and people, for Jesus Christ. Remember this -- when the seventh thousand years start, the very first angel that calls will say, "The Bridegroom calleth," and then there will be two in the field and two at the mill; and there will be five wise and five foolish. That is not the time when the Lord will come. There will be six other angels. The righteous saints will be taken from this earth while the judgments of God are sweeping this earth. Read Section 88 of the Doctrine and Covenants. Read John the Revelator and see what is going to happen.

Now we say, "The Time Is Far Spent," and what have we got to do? We have got to go back to Jackson County; and it is only a short time before the House of God will be set in order. The Church of God is not the House of God. The Church, the Priesthood, the House of God have got to be set in order so the work of God can go on.

Now it is our duty as servants of the Lord to see that all the laws of the Lord are kept and lived. If you keep all the laws but one, you are guilty of the whole. You cannot change it; you cannot substitute it for anything else. My brothers and sisters, do you realize that we are supposed to be living a Celestial Law? And we turn right around and give up our Celestial rights to a telestial law.

How many have read the petition to Grover Cleveland? We as a people turned right around and left the Lord and took the law of the land. It puts me in mind of a young man at one of the towns in which we lived. "Who is the President of the Church?" was asked. He put up his hand and said, "Grover Cleveland," and he was telling the truth. I do not want you to think that there are not many men in the Church who do not have the Priesthood of God. Do not think for a minute that God has rejected the Church or is going to. I want to tell you here today, and remember it -- that we are just started on the verge of more and worse persecution than we have ever had.

We talk about the kind of country Short Creek is. I am glad it is, for it is going to be a test to every man that goes down there. Orson Pratt said, "You cannot live the United Order here. You have got to go down in a country where you are isolated." Those who go to Short Creek have a lot to be putting up with, and those here will have to keep them going. We have ___ acres of grain. Some say you cannot raise anything in Short Creek. The reason is that it has never been planted.

Now, brothers and sisters, let us each take an invoice of ourselves. Take a good look in the glass and see what manner of men and women we are. Maybe we will go straightway and forget what manner of men we are. These things are true nevertheless, and they have got to be lived. If we are big enough, we can take it; if we are not, we will not. We must look to ourselves. I want you to remember what I have told you, to get the Spirit of God and keep it, every one of you, especially those who are living the higher laws. We are going to need the Spirit of God. We will have to go to the Lord and ask for blessings and receive them. If we are not living the laws of God, we cannot receive them.

(He spoke of the letter of Joseph Musser's.) I want to get a copy of the letter that Joseph wrote. Uncle Lorin blessed him and said it was his duty to write, and the Lord has blessed him. I am not a good speaker or writer or anything else, but when I see and hear the truth, I know it.

Let us keep the laws of God, and not say it, but do it. President Kimball told the saints that, "If you are going to be saints, be saints." We have had men accept of our hospitality and then turn traitor. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is made to exalt or make devils of them. A man cannot be a good devil unless he has accepted the Gospel of Jesus Christ and turned from it.

I do not feel to say much more, but I ask God to bless you and help you. Let us study and find out if these things are true. Go before the Lord and find out about it. If they are not true, do not follow them. If they are, you had better listen to what they are telling you and follow them. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:233  February 28, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
February 28, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Study the Scriptures; To Be Encouraged, Read the Book of Mormon

Warned the saints to read their Doctrine and Covenants, to be informed as to what judgments, etc., were about to come upon them. Quoted from the 95th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants: "Many are called but few have I chosen." Called attention to the differences between "called" and "chosen". Read several quotations from the booklet "Prophetic Warnings", making comments on some and urging the saints to procure them if they didn't already have a copy in their homes. Also urged all to read the Doctrine and Covenants. Asked the saints to be humble and prayerful and ask God to bless their loved ones in the armed forces and protect them.

Said the worst thing the Latter-day Saints ever got was the Manifesto, a revelation from the devil, because it cut us out of the Celestial Kingdom of God. Advised the saints if they felt down-hearted, to read the Book of Mormon, telling of the experiences of the sons of Mosiah, and also Alma and Amulek, saying we haven't had any troubles to go through yet. Said we have spies with us, and will continue to have as long as we try to keep the commandments of God; but cautioned the saints to be sure they were not the spies, and to be careful to say nothing to hurt one another.

JYB 8:234  April 4, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Fast Meeting at Lincoln Street
April 4, 1943
Minutes by Rulon Jeffs -- Typed by Leona Jeffs
Must Seek a Testimony; Must Endure to the End
We again have an opportunity to bear our testimonies. How many think they have a testimony? The time is here when we must know we know the Gospel is true, for there are persecutions.

JYB 8:234 April 4, 1943 SLC

* * * * *

I have been greatly interested and built up in the testimonies. If you want a testimony, you have to ask God, and not obtain it by reasoning alone. We must have the Holy Ghost to bring and give us these testimonies. We have many testimonies of the healing of the sick. I was promised gifts of the Spirit. Which ones? All of them. I have been privileged to talk in tongues and other gifts of the Spirit.

JYB 8:234 April 4, 1943 SLC

(Brethren in Conference are careful what they say.) Before long, the Lord will take a hand. If the Ten Tribes came, where would they find Zion? Zion is the pure in heart. The Lord is calling out of the Church a people to use. We are now starting the United Order and it is growing. It is not in Short Creek alone, but everywhere.

I knew the Sturms had the blood of Ephraim. God blessed them and they got here. Will we continue? The Gospel is not to the swift, but to they that endure to the end. (He spoke of a boy in Boston -- candy.) We, Joseph W. Musser and I and others, feel we have a terrible responsibility. Lorin Woolley said before he died that he had carried the load so long his shoulders were sore, etc.

JYB 8:235 April 11, 1943 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
April 11, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Two Cleansing Processes;
Celestial Marriage Is Plural Marriage;
Saints Must Live the Law of Consecration;
According to Our Faith, So Shall We Do

My brethren and sisters, I have been greatly interested in the remarks of the brethren. The Lord said He was going to raise up a peculiar people. He also said He was going to perform a strange act. Can we see it being performed? Nearly every one of the Prophets that have gone before us has said a people would come out from among the Latter-day Saints. Who is teaching those things today? Those that have been cut off and handled. President Young said that a people would come out from among the Latter-day Saints who would live all the laws of God and keep His commandments. Brother Kimball said the same thing. Orson F. Whitney spoke of the same thing.

Brother Budge, President of the European Mission, said there was to be two things come to pass. One would be a peculiar people coming out from among the Latter-day Saints and living all the laws of God, who would form a nucleus of the great Millennium. The other thing would be killing off and destroying those that did not keep the commandments of God. These things are occurring every day we live. I believe it was Brother Cardon who had a vision and saw a line drawn through the land down through Arizona, and he saw those that were keeping the commandments of God on the west side, and others on the east side, and some of them straddling the line. He saw the line spreading out until they had to get on one side or the other, and almost invariably those that had been straddling fell off to the east. He also saw the destruction that was coming. A large black cloud was coming toward them, and the people on the east side were destroyed, and on the other side they were not destroyed; and they came to meet the Savior. We have had it preached to us time and time again.

Isaiah and also the Prophet Joseph Smith said One Mighty and Strong would come, and that time is drawing closer and closer. It wouldn't surprise me to see it happen at any time. Those opposing the laws of God are fighting, and those that believe in the laws of God are not fighting it, but are trying to keep the commandments of God.

I thought the other evening when two Bishops came here to show some of the people they were wrong, they don't take the Book of Mormon, the Doctrine and Covenants, or the Prophets of God. President Young said when he spoke with the Spirit of God, it is just as much scripture as the Book of Mormon, etc. But what is the result? What are they trying to do? The Prophet Joseph Smith gave us some laws and commandments, and now they are trying to make them of none effect.

The other night they tried to preach and prove that if a man marry a wife -- I said it would be impossible to marry more than one at once -- it was Celestial Marriage. The other brethren here told them it was the law of God -- there is no revelation on Celestial Marriage -- it was embodied in plural marriage.
The Lord replied to the question as to how Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are justified and said all those who have these laws revealed to them must obey the same or be damned. And yet they say there is Celestial Marriage but not a plurality of wives. Brother Penrose said if you do away with plural marriage you will have to do away with Celestial Marriage. Does the Church today believe that marriage in the temple was done away with? They believe they are going into the Celestial Kingdom. They will never get there without living all the laws. We must live all the Celestial Law to attain the blessing.

JYB 8:236 - 237 April 11, 1943 SLC

Our people were persecuted until they made covenants with the leaders of this nation, and it finally brought us to the point where Nephi said there are two churches, the Church of God and the church of the devil. Wouldn't that be making a covenant with death and an agreement with hell? That is exactly what they have done. Many leaders today know this it true. For the last fifty years I have been taught it wasn't right to enter into the laws of God; but no man will go back to Jackson County and help build up the center stake of Zion who does not live this law.

JYB 8:237 April 11, 1943 SLC

We have got to come up with the other laws just exactly the same. Zion will never be redeemed except by the Celestial Law. We think plural marriage is hard to live, but it isn't a circumstance compared with the United Order. We all love ourselves more than anybody else, and we have got to learn to love our brother as ourselves. That was the first law given to the saints. The laws of faith, repentance, and baptism were given to the sinners to make them become saints; but after they became saints, they were given the law of consecration. Did they live it? Some did, and some did not, and the result was there was such a few that were big and strong enough to live it, that a lesser law was given -- a law of tithing. And how many of us Latter-day Saints pay a tenth of what we have got?

JYB 8:237 April 11, 1943 SLC

These things are going on gradually, and are coming closer every day to a head, and it won't be long before you will see some going on and others going backwards. It is just according to our faith what we do. If we live the laws, we will get the blessing; and if we don't live the laws, we won't get the blessing.

JYB 8:237 April 11, 1943 SLC

I don't wish to take up your time today, but I say God bless this people, and may they see the necessity of keeping the commandments; because if we don't, we are going to be in a bad way. I have seen it a number of times, and I know what we are going to get if we don't keep the commandments of God.
We have no way out, only that the Lord will bring us; and if we don’t keep His laws, we can’t expect His blessing. God bless us, amen.

JYB 8:238 April 25, 1943 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
April 25, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Not Allowed in the Lincoln Street Meeting Room Because We Were Not Humble; We Were Called of God; Prepare

We have been listening to a wonderful sermon, wonderful counsel. How much of this has gone to our hearts? I know what Brother Musser said is true. I know what he says about finances is true. I want to ask you if you can show me any Prophet of God that had money. (Joseph Smith was given as an example.) Does his poverty make him any less the Prophet? Are we working to get rich? Are we working to have all this? What we ought to be working for is to save our souls. We find it all the way through.

I know what Brother Rulon said is so. I know that in the last month or so, we have not had the Spirit of God as we had it before. I think most of you do know why. If we are united, there is nothing that the Lord would not give us if He was in the mind to give it to us. I think it is one of the finest things that has come to this people -- to get kicked out. [The public officials did not allow the use of the meeting room upstairs at Lincoln Street.] We were getting proud about this place. We were quite proud and talking about it, so we were kicked out. God loves a humble people. We have got to be humble. He puts a little child before you and says that is an example of the Kingdom of God -- a humble child.

As Brother Musser said, we were chosen. I could not believe it when I was chosen, and the brethren told us to find it out for ourselves if we did not believe we were called. We got the testimony for ourselves. Then what could we do? We said, "Father, we are in your hands." Like Brother Musser said, just that moment that we cease teaching the laws of God, we will be let out. I want to be moved out of the way when I do that. I know that these brethren were called by direct revelation by God. I do know that Brother Musser was set apart, and heard the Prophet of God say that his work would be to write. How many of you can testify to that today? His work is in writing and speaking. I am not a writer or speaker.

Let us take these things to heart and commence to pray to the Lord for His guidance and help. If we do that, we can gain a salvation in His Kingdom. God bless you all, that we may go on and live in such a way that when the One Mighty and Strong comes, he will say, "Well done." God bless you, amen.
President Barlow Visited the Priesthood on the Other Side;
We Are No Further Than Devils if We Do Not Live the Laws; Preparation

(Bore testimony to the remarks of Brother Musser.) Brother Lorin came and took me to the Priesthood on the other side. I heard things discussed there. I know those things. This work has started -- not only the work of Celestial Marriage, but the work of United Order. We may not accomplish it, but if we don't, our sons will. But I think we will. Those things we don't say much about. I know what Joseph said is true and that these laws are true; that we will never get an exaltation without living them -- can't do it -- it is impossible, because God set the law, and every blessing is predicated upon law; and if we don't live the law we can't get the blessing. We can say, "We believe it," but we don't do it. If you say you believe it and don't do it, how much are you ahead of the devil?

We have had a fine meeting here. When we let our minds and our hearts spread out, we begin to see what a wonderful man Joseph Smith was. And every time you testify of his work, your testimony will grow stronger. I want to say that any time you are ashamed of any of the principles that he taught, any time that you are ashamed of them, he is ashamed of you. I don't care what principle it is -- Celestial Marriage or anything else -- if you are ashamed of it, God is ashamed of you for it.

I don't wish to say anymore. I ask God to bless you and live nearer each day and work out our salvation so that when He comes here to straighten out this thing, He will have someone He can choose from. That is our work, to prepare someone He can choose from.
Fast Meeting at Lincoln Street
August 1, 1943
Minutes by Rulon Jeffs -- Typed by Leona Jeffs
The Godhead;
President Barlow Has Seen the Coming of Our Savior in Vision
(He talked of the three Gods -- the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; Joseph Smith, third -- and recited the great and marvelous things he testified of, he being the God, the Witness or Testator. He testified of God and the Son being like man, and on down through Joseph Smith's history.)

We are not suffering much persecution, not a particle of what our parents went through. It is coming, as much as we can stand.

Jeremiah 2
13. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

The leaders have said we are on a detour. He testified of the coming of Jesus; has seen His coming; seen how people would act when He comes. God bless you to know these things for yourselves.

JYB 8:241 August 8, 1943 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
August 8, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Lord Will Not Hear the Disobedient

My brethren and sisters, it puts me in mind of the words of Isaiah:

Isaiah 59
1. Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:
2. But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

That is what is wrong with us today. That is what is wrong with the Church and us as a group, and it is time that we made a change.

I want to bear my testimony to the things that have been said. I ask God's blessings upon us that we may take to heart what has been told today. If we don't, we will be the loser.

JYB 8:241  August 22, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
August 22, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Were Taught Plural Marriage Before We Came to This Life; Obedience to the Laws of God Is Required;
Humility of Those in Short Creek;
Rulon Jeffs' Effort on Lincoln Street Home; Must Have Faith

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified while here. One thing I want to draw to your attention is the talk of Brother Buckway, that we have a Priesthood that will enable us to do anything that we have enough faith to accomplish. We have a Priesthood that will heal this Brother (Kalmar), or to make Brother Woodruff to see. We have something so big and great and broad that we cannot handle it as a people. Undoubtedly, this sickness of George's has come as a blessing.

I wonder where the Pratts are, the Smiths, the Kimballs, the Youngs are. Brother ___ said that the children of the covenant will reject the covenant and aliens will renew the covenant. Look around you today. How many are rejecting it, and how many are coming forth? We will always find some that will stay. You will always find that some men's children will remain.

I want to tell you people something. Nearly every one of you that are here today, you went to school where you were taught the principle of plurality of wives. I wonder how you did then; how many of you knew of it on the other side. You cannot receive eternal increase until you live the law that will give it to you. If that is true, your Father on the other side taught you those things before you came here. This principle is not a principle for "now", but it is a principle of the holy Priesthood.

I heard a man say the other day, "Can you tell me just how the Prophet could have seen the Father and the Son, when the Bible says you cannot look upon the Father or the Son without the Priesthood?" I said, "Yes, Joseph had the Priesthood before he came here. He was able and capable of seeing the Father and the Son through that Priesthood."

(He then told of the incident given in the papers about an inspector for fire insurance, who came to Salt Lake City from the East last week and remarked about the terrible whispering and gossiping that was going on in this city, and compared it with conditions here years ago the last time he was here -- how wonderful it was then, and how terrible it is now; that he never wanted to come here again.) Apostasy has brought it on. We have been told that a people will leave this place saying the Mormons are cursed, and they want to get out of it.

A man said the other day that obedience is better than sacrifice. Obedience to what -- to God or man? If it is to the laws of God, yes, it is better than sacrifice. If it is meant obedience to man, then I say no. "My people shall know My voice and they shall follow." Do you think that this group is the only little group that has the Spirit of God? No, the children of God will come forth and show their mettle. We will see some of these people coming out and start preaching as they should do.

I love the Gospel and know it is true, every principle of it. We know that if we live these principles, that we will receive the blessings that we have been promised.

I was in Short Creek for a number of years, and I do not remember hearing the name of the Lord in vain all the time I was there a few years ago. Just a short distance away it is so different. I do not know of anyone in the group in Short Creek that smokes. I do not know of anyone who fails to pay his tithing. They are a kind of people that can get close to the Lord. Some say, "What is the matter with their crops?" The Lord is going to test them out. None of them are going hungry. If they were like I am, it would do them good to go hungry. I have such an appetite that I cannot stop eating. Brother Rulon Allred tried to put me on a diet and could not keep me on it, because he picked deer season to do it.

Brothers and sisters, it is up to us to keep the laws of God. Brother Rulon Jeffs is a professional floor dresser, but next time we [will] have some help. Last night at 2:00 A.M., I did not know whether he would get upstairs or not. It was like the ox in the mire. We have got to have some more work done here. We would like to get out from under this mourning. The Lord said, "Let us have light." I would like to have this black paint done away with.
Another thing that is worrying me is that a little plaster comes down in the kitchen. We have got to get someone that will plaster it. Rulon has to have some papering done. Now I guess we will have to get a committee and do this work.

I say, God bless you. I love this people, and I know most of you are striving to live the laws of God. I was well pleased when Brother Boss's daughter took a change for the best. Brother Joseph and I went down and saw her. I told her, "If you want to get well, make up your mind to get well, and have faith. God can heal you if you will." What our people need is to be taught how to have faith. Many do not know what it means. Get some of these faith-promoting stories and read them and talk about them. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Fast Meeting at Lincoln Street
September 6, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Priesthood Bearers Cannot Stop the Judgments of God; Qualifications for a Man to Be Given Wives; Cease Fighting in Families

My brothers and sisters, I have a testimony of the Gospel, and I was thinking, while this brother was talking about using our Priesthood, how, if God sends a judgment upon the people, we have no right to stop it. We can pray and ask God to stop it, but Uncle Lorin said especially that if God sends those judgments upon us, not to ask God to check it. (He gave as an example Zion's Camp when Joseph Smith prayed to the Lord to check His judgments.) I want to tell you, God is sending His judgments upon the earth. The best way is to check it in our families -- quit fighting and quarrelling. What was the Priesthood given to us for, to make us big and high and mighty? There are some who think they are so high and mighty that they curse their families.

Now, my brothers and sisters, this thing has been going on, not only among other people, but also among our people. Some whip their wives, etc. Brigham Young said:
I tell you here, now, in the presence of the Almighty God, it is not the privilege of any Elder to have even ONE wife, before he has honored his Priesthood, before he has magnified his calling. If you obtain one, it is by mere permission, to see what you will do, how you will act, whether you will conduct yourself in righteousness in that holy estate. TAKE CARE! Elders of Israel, be cautious! or you will lose your wives and your children. If you abuse your wives, turn them out of doors, and treat them in a harsh and cruel manner, you will be left wifeless and childless; you will have no increase in eternity. You will have bartered this blessing, this privilege, away; you will have sold your birthright, as Esau did his blessing, and it can never come to you again, never, NO NEVER!

Look to it, ye Elders! You will awake from your dream, alas! but too soon, and then you will realize the truth of the remarks I am making today. Whose privilege is it to have women sealed to him? It is his who has stood the test, whose integrity is unswerving, who loves righteousness because it is right, and the truth because there is no error therein, and virtue because it is a principle that dwells in the bosom of Him who sits enthroned in the highest heavens; for it is a principle which existed with God in all eternities, and is a co-operator, a co-worker betwixt man and his Maker, to exalt man, and bring him into His presence, and make him like unto Himself! It is such a man's privilege to have wives and children, and neighbors, and friends, who wish to be sealed to him. Who else? No one. I tell you nobody else. DO YOU HEAR IT?

Many applications will unquestionably be made to me for wives, and, perhaps, by men too who will steal, or trespass upon me, their neighbors, kill their stock, do wickedly in various ways. Nothing would damn such men sooner than to give them this privilege. I answer the brethren, they have to go upon their own responsibility. I tell you the truth. If you are a first-rate good man, and honor your Priesthood, it is your privilege. The man who has proved himself before God, has been faithful, has gone through and performed everything the Lord has laid upon him to do, for the purpose of building up and sustaining His kingdom, has proved himself before men, angels, and his Father in heaven, he is the only character that will increase, and obtain a celestial glory. Others may seem to prosper, to increase for a season, but by and bye they are left in Let us try to live the commandments of God. I am ashamed of some of the things that go on in my house, too; but I am talking to all of us. We want this fighting and bickering to cease. If you don't, before long the disease will come and we will be wiped off. Let us keep these laws right. If we don't, God will withdraw His Spirit. When that comes, you can pray and pray and it will be to no avail. There are some of the best people on earth among you. Let us live according to the things that are expected of us.

I know that the Gospel is true. I know what is coming, just as sure as we do not live and keep the commandments of God. If we do not obey the voice of the Lord, we will obey the devil. This is God's work and I know it. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 12, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Begin at the Foot of the Ladder, and Then Climb Up, Living All the Laws

I just want to bear my testimony to what has been said, my brothers and we have had a lot of truth today. God laid down the plan and you must obey the whole thing. Let us remember that. We often say, "Oh, we take the lesser law before we try the higher." You can't start at the top of the ladder, but you have to start at the foot and come up after the brethren have taught you faith, repentance, and baptism; and after that the laws of God are given you. And remember this much -- the very first law that was given to the Latter-day Saints, after they had come in the Church and Kingdom of God, was the United Order. That was the first law, and the first law rejected and turned down, and the first law that we have got to come back to. The Lord says: "Gross darkness covers the people, and you will remain in that darkness until you turn and come back." God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 12, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Begin at the Foot of the Ladder, and Then Climb Up, Living All the Laws

I just want to bear my testimony to what has been said, my brothers and we have had a lot of truth today. God laid down the plan and you must obey the whole thing. Let us remember that. We often say, "Oh, we take the lesser law before we try the higher." You can't start at the top of the ladder, but you have to start at the foot and come up after the brethren have taught you faith, repentance, and baptism; and after that the laws of God are given you. And remember this much -- the very first law that was given to the Latter-day Saints, after they had come in the Church and Kingdom of God, was the United Order. That was the first law, and the first law rejected and turned down, and the first law that we have got to come back to. The Lord says: "Gross darkness covers the people, and you will remain in that darkness until you turn and come back." God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 12, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Begin at the Foot of the Ladder, and Then Climb Up, Living All the Laws

I just want to bear my testimony to what has been said, my brothers and we have had a lot of truth today. God laid down the plan and you must obey the whole thing. Let us remember that. We often say, "Oh, we take the lesser law before we try the higher." You can't start at the top of the ladder, but you have to start at the foot and come up after the brethren have taught you faith, repentance, and baptism; and after that the laws of God are given you. And remember this much -- the very first law that was given to the Latter-day Saints, after they had come in the Church and Kingdom of God, was the United Order. That was the first law, and the first law rejected and turned down, and the first law that we have got to come back to. The Lord says: "Gross darkness covers the people, and you will remain in that darkness until you turn and come back." God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 12, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Begin at the Foot of the Ladder, and Then Climb Up, Living All the Laws

I just want to bear my testimony to what has been said, my brothers and we have had a lot of truth today. God laid down the plan and you must obey the whole thing. Let us remember that. We often say, "Oh, we take the lesser law before we try the higher." You can't start at the top of the ladder, but you have to start at the foot and come up after the brethren have taught you faith, repentance, and baptism; and after that the laws of God are given you. And remember this much -- the very first law that was given to the Latter-day Saints, after they had come in the Church and Kingdom of God, was the United Order. That was the first law, and the first law rejected and turned down, and the first law that we have got to come back to. The Lord says: "Gross darkness covers the people, and you will remain in that darkness until you turn and come back." God bless you, amen.
Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 26, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Prepare; Joseph Smith Took Isaac Carling to the Other Side of the Veil to Do a Work; John Y. Barlow Is Approved By the Priesthood on the Other Side of the Veil; The Angels Are Present Today; Live the Commandments

My brothers and sisters, I have heard that song sung many times, but I do not believe I have ever had it quite touch like it has today. We have been having some wonderful instructions given us today. We have been told that it does not make any difference how high up or low you are, you are going to be judged according to your hearts. You are going to pay and get paid for just what you earn.

I had the privilege last Sunday of talking to the saints in Short Creek, and I told them very near what Brother Marion told you here today. I told them what is going to happen. And what is going to happen? It will not be long before we are going to be called in to do a work. The One Mighty and Strong is coming. We have been preaching for years for you brethren to get prepared. How many have taken heed? We have been so wild over money that we forget our God. Let this be a day of reckoning to you, brothers and sisters, and make a new covenant that you are going to keep the commandments of God.

Not long ago, when I was in Short Creek, one of the brethren asked me if I remembered when I went down to Big Bend and I told one of the brethren to go; that I saw Joseph Smith and he wanted one of the brethren to come and come quick. Brother Isaac Carling took sick in two or three days. Why did he go there? To give a report of what was going on down there. And I got an assurance not long after that, when Brother Woolley came and took me to a Council, their work was accepted. So I did not worry much what they said about it, for I knew that work had to go on. I know now that all that went down will not all stay. And I know that all in this house will not stay. Some will drop here and there. In the course, Brother Joseph and I have seen some drop out here and there. God has said that he that believes and is baptized will be saved, and he that does not will not be saved.
Brother John told me that when the temple is set in order, that those who are not wearing the garments of the Priesthood will be turned away. My brothers and sisters, about a month before there was a change made in the garments, my wife and I were given a pattern of the garments and were told to wear them. I hope so far we have kept them. I know in some things we are lax.

Matthew 19

17. And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

We have been told many times that we are the best people on earth. But let me tell you again, you are not good enough to have the angels of God visit us. If they came to visit us, how many of us could stand it? President Smith told us that if the Angel Gabriel came, we would be consumed. The only way we can stand it is to prepare ourselves.

There are men in this house that know when a man is speaking under the Spirit of God or not. Now there are a great many insubordinate to the Church. If we are not careful, there will be many more who will be insubordinate to the Priesthood. We have told many what to do, but they do not take heed of what we tell them. It does not hurt us, but it does hurt them. You know, "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform." We find that we have to watch our boys and girls just the same as anyone else. If we do not, we are going to be held responsible.

I have been greatly interested today, and I do not believe that I ever heard that song sung so it touched me so much [Hosanna Anthem, "The Spirit of God Like a Fire Is Burning"]. I just wonder if the angels were not here taking a record of those things. I tell you they were. I will tell you something else. If we live right we will have some of them come and talk to us. How would you like to have Brother Kimball come and talk to us? If we were living so they could, we are told they will come and teach us. We have been told that they will come and walk along the street. They are not far off. They are seeing what we are doing. (Brother Barlow here related the incident when President Woodruff was on the way to St. George and he was told to tell the people to get the Spirit of God and keep it.)

They are turning down a place in the Celestial Kingdom when they turn down these principles. We were talking about covenants in Sunday School this morning. If we do not live up to the covenants that we have taken, we are covenant breakers. (He then spoke of the days of Abraham, when five righteous souls could not be found in the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah; yet we have been told that it will be no more terrible for those cities than it will be for the saints if we do not keep our covenants.) We have been told how to get out of this. Let us live the commandments of God. If we do that, we will have the Spirit of God around us so that these diseases and things will not hit us. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:250 October 3, 1943 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Fast Meeting at Lincoln Street
October 3, 1943
Minutes by Rulon Jeffs -- Typed by Leona Jeffs
Obedience

Glad to see so many out. This is your meeting. Feel free to testify of the goodness of the Lord. We can be thankful for one thing. If we are wrong, President Grant is responsible. Now he has thrown it back at us. If you are responsible, what to do? God provides the way to obey all His commands.

(He gave the parable of the purse.) Obedience is better than sacrifice -- obedience to all laws of God.

JYB 8:250 October 24, 1943 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
October 24, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Concern for Boys in the Military;
The Church Is Not Conferring the Priesthood on Members,
Just an Office;
We Will Have Trials

I hope I can be blessed in the few moments I stand before you, because in and of myself I am not able to say much. I can say that for the past month or so, I believe my heart has been wrung as much as I ever had it in my life. Two months ago we had four of our boys working, teaching the Gospel, being brought up. We didn't raise them to be soldiers, and we have had those boys called away to the army camps. We know they are going among filth. We have lots of fathers and mothers that have boys in the field that have gone out not to destroy life, but to save it. There is only one thing which we can depend on, and that is God, for we have taught those boys if they die in this cause, as long as they have kept the commandments of God they are saved; for Christ said, "Though we should die, yet shall we live." I believe it was Job that said though worms destroy his flesh, yet shall he live to see God here upon the earth.

It is a time, my brothers and sisters, of sorrow, of great sorrow. Judgments of God are coming upon this people. But with all that, it is not as great a judgment of God as will come upon this people if we do not keep the commandments of God. I believe the Lord said in His revelations:

D.& C. 121

16. Cursed are all those that shall lift up the heel against mine anointed, saith the Lord, and cry they have sinned when they have not sinned before me, saith the Lord, but have done that which was meet in mine eyes, and which I commanded them.

17. But those who cry transgression do it because they are the servants of sin, and are the children of disobedience themselves.

18. And those who swear falsely against my servants, that they might bring them into bondage and death --

19. Wo unto them; because they have offended my little ones they shall be severed from the ordinances of mine house.

20. Their basket shall not be full, their houses and their barns shall perish, and they themselves shall be despised by those that flattered them.

21. They shall not have right to the priesthood, nor their posterity after them from generation to generation.

Now, is that not a fact today? They have changed the ordinances. There is one particular ordinance that they have changed and taken the Priesthood out and put the government in its place wherever you go through the House of God. They have quit giving the Priesthood, and are giving an office or appendage. They are ordaining them Elders, which is only an appendage of the Priesthood, and are not conferring the Priesthood on them. He said:
22. It had been better for them that a millstone had been hanged about their necks, and they drowned in the depth of the sea.

Can you have anymore judgment than that? We have been told that the judgments of God would start at the head. They couldn't give us any more of the judgments of God than that is.

We have been trying to get the people to get closer to the Lord and live nearer to Him, that we might be able to receive His revelations. If the Angel Gabriel were to come here today, it would consume the whole bunch of us, as we couldn't dwell in his presence. It made me feel good to hear President Grant tell the people that if they wanted to be saved, they must keep the commandments of God.

We have men looking around trying to find out this, that, and the other thing, and trying to bother us. Do you suppose we are going to live these laws of God without having some trials and tribulations? It takes just as much to get into the Celestial Kingdom of God today as it did any other day, and we can't get there otherwise. Christ said, "He that shall live Godly in Christ Jesus shall be persecuted." Let us pray that God will make our backs stout so that we can take those burdens. "Sacrifice brings forth the blessings of heaven." Some of us get it in our families, and some of us get it in some other way, but we have to go through it. But until we cleanse and purify ourselves and get ready to have the Holy Ghost with us, then is the time we will get the Spirit of God and keep it. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:252  November 7, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sacrament Meeting at Lincoln Street
November 7, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Lorin Woolley Said President Barlow and the Others Were Called by God; Dissolution

When I was thinking of Brother Jay [Jessop], this came to me. A few years ago one of Uncle Joseph's boys died. He was killed, and that was the first man of the Jessops for thirty years who held the Melchizedek Priesthood on the other side. Now, I am just as certain that his great-grandfather needed help, a man that had abided the fullness, and that is the reason he was the one that was chosen to go. I have known this boy, more especially since they came to Salt Lake. They came to our home and stayed nearly a month -- the family. I have been acquainted with him from youth up. He was only about nine or ten when they first came. I have seen him grow and develop; and I was thinking of the words of Brother Leslie: "There are two boys that will make the grade -- Jay and Edson [Jessop]." I thought that I would like to say these few words in behalf of Jay.

I have been greatly pleased with the remarks of the brethren today. I know the Gospel is true, and I know that the calling that the brethren have is of the Lord, for I have found it out. I wouldn't be satisfied until I did find it out. I had to find out for myself that my calling was from the Lord. Brother Leslie asked Uncle Lorin if he had called us, and he said no, he had nothing to do with it; but God spoke through his father and asked him to call us and set us apart. So Father John Woolley called; and after, Lorin called some of the others. After he left, Leslie took it. Afterwards the Lord made more known to me to call two men, and I called them and they are doing a wonderful work.

I like one thing that Brother LeBaron said. He said he didn't understand certain principles. Now brethren, all of us, let us not say we don't believe them, but instead we don't understand them. I have seen men say, "I don't believe in Adam God." Those same men, after having it taught to them, said it was very plain. And these things have got to come to us and be taught in that way. If we understood dissolution, I would much rather have a dissolution than never be able to reach the Godhead. And as Brigham Young said, "What will become of the wicked? They will go off into dissolution, and it may be trillions of years before they are revived again." To me it would be so much better than to be put in a place where I couldn't go any further. I ask God to bless you to be prepared, so when our time comes we can stand.

JYB 8:254  November 14, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
November 14, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs
My brothers and sisters, my experience with the Jessop family goes quite a ways back. I knew Joseph's [Jessop] father years ago when I was a small boy, and I have known Brother Joseph here nearly since I can remember. I have always known him to be a man of God. I was lucky enough to take the first one of his family into this law. She is here with us today. She has been sick and has been up here, but she is the mother of fourteen children.

I remember Jay when he was six years old, and he stayed in my home. I have watched him and his brother. They have always been good boys. I remember the remarks of Brother Broadbent: "Those boys are going to make a mark in the world." We had our eyes on them and they have. And since that time, many of the Jessops have left the fullness of the Gospel.

Many will receive plural marriage, but will never receive Celestial Marriage. I have always honored and respected Brother Joseph Jessop. He had a large family and had a hard go of it, but he is an honest man and a hard worker. There are so many shysters today that will rob him because he is honest.

I was greatly moved by the remarks of Brother Fors about the Kingdom. If we ever get into the Kingdom of God, we must comply to those laws or we will never get there. First it takes a kingdom; then a code of laws to govern that kingdom; and then it takes duly authorized servants to put those laws in force. If any of them are missing, then you cannot get into the kingdom. The Kingdom of God is like any other kingdom.

I am a descendant of a man who knew the Prophet. My father was born in Nauvoo, and he went through all the trials that my grandfather and grandmother went through coming out west. When I hear that song "Up Awake, Ye defenders of Zion", I think it should be sung all over. We are fundamentalists. We believe the word of the Lord as it was given to Joseph Smith. And, my brothers and sisters, he gave us enough and laid it down in the scriptures to get us into the Kingdom of God, every one of us. (He then gave the example of the train and the tickets one could buy -- celestial, telestial, and terrestrial.) President Grant knows it requires these laws, but where does he stand? I ask God to bless us and help us to learn more of Him.
and His ways, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:255  November 28, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
November 28, 1943
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
Are We Living So We Can Call Down Blessings of God?

Brother Kimball has been telling us the story of nearly every Elder that goes out. The thing that is worrying me today is not that the Gospel is true, but are we living it? That is what is worrying me. Are we so we can call down the blessings of heaven upon us?

I was reading a piece from an editorial that Brother Cannon wrote about some wanting to give up some of the principles of the Gospel. When I start to read anything, I start to copying, and Brother Musser said he would read it for us. I want you to understand that you have been warned that these judgments are coming, and probably soon. God bless you.

JYB 8:256  December 12, 1943  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
December 12, 1943
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson  Vol.1 Page 1)
We Were Put on This Earth to Live the Celestial Law;
This Is Our Only Opportunity

There have been many thoughts go through my mind in the last few moments. We are sorrowful of what has happened. The world is trying to stop us from keeping the commandments of God -- from having eternal increase. The world is trying to, the Church is trying to. In other days when we have been persecuted, we have had the Church at our backs, but today we have only our God. He will see us through if we will get ourselves in order. If we would live right, we would be happy and free, and be a most wonderfully blessed people. But on the other hand, if we do not live right, what a sorrow it will be to us. We find out that the servants of God have told us to do certain things, and we failed to do them; then we didn't get the blessing.

Nothing less than eternal salvation will satisfy the immortal soul. We were put on this earth to live a Celestial Law. If we fail to live these commandments, then we will be thrown back. How will we feel when we think that we might have gone on? It is this law that is going to exalt us.

We heard in our Sunday School class a short time ago the law that made us free. Everything is predicated upon law. If we live the law, we obtain the blessing. I have heard it said of men, "That is a good man." But what is he good for? Is he good enough to become a God -- to go on into exaltation? Are we living the law that will take us there? It is time that we got down on our knees and asked our Heavenly Father to bless us. He is the best help there is.

I felt like I would like to say to the people here today, if we leave this world and haven't lived as we ought to, when we get on the other side, we have rejected our salvation. Where in the scriptures does the Lord say He will give us another chance? Woe unto those who have had the Gospel and rejected it.

Let us renew our faith, renew our thinking, get in and study and find out the truth and get the Spirit of God to stay with us; and when we know a thing is right and true, stand by it even though all hell should rage against us. Brigham Young once said, "When I find a truth, let the heaven fall, let everything go, but I will stick to the truth." That is the only thing that will lead us into exaltation.

Don't forget our brothers who are now on trial and in trouble. Let us get down on our knees humbly and ask God to help us in all these things, I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:257 December 26, 1943 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
December 26, 1943
Reported by Leona Jeffs and Marjorie Holm
Are We Listening?; Must Live the Fullness of the Gospel;
We Have Brought Babylon With Us;
Persecution Brings Us Closer to the Lord; Abide the Law

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified by the things that have been said today. Now, how many of us have taken it home? How many of us would be like James said: When we see our natural selves in the glass, will we go away and forget what manner of men we are? We hear what is preached to us, but we go away, and how many remember what has been said? If we asked who wants to live the United Order, nearly every hand would go up. But the moment you call them to do it, then the test comes; they cannot do it. I have been in this work (United Order) nearly ten years. I know how it feels. I know how we have men who will start and stop. I do know that if we want to live the fullness of the Gospel, we must live the fullness of the Gospel. God gave us a plan through Joseph Smith whereby we may be exalted. Will we be able to stand when the hour of His judgment comes? Do we believe that the "angel flying through the midst of heaven" has come? Look around the world today. See whether the hour of His judgments are not upon us.

Revelation 18

4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

A great many of us here have come out of Babylon, but we have brought Babylon with us. My grandfather was one of the Prophet's bodyguards. My grandmother and Brigham Young's mother were sisters, and these things have been taught to us, not only the first generation, but the second, third, fourth, and fifth generations. Are we coming out from Babylon? The Savior said:

Matthew 5

29. And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
30. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

What does He mean? He means that if we are not keeping the commandments of God and the wicked are hindering us, let us come out from among the wicked and live them. Jesus said that a man that would not leave his father, mother, wife for His name's sake, is not worthy of the Gospel.

Now, brothers and sisters, we are a group here and we say we are persecuted. No, we aren't. We are blessed. Do you know why? Because every persecution brings us closer to the Lord. Brigham Young said he was never persecuted in his life, and he had five homes taken from him. What did Joseph say? Joseph Smith said there were only two men at one time out of his whole Council who did not go against him. Those two men were Heber C. Kimball and Brigham Young, and God blessed those men. Now, in all our dealings, we must remember this one thing, that he that is not a good follower will never be a good leader.

We have heard one of the best sermons that we have heard in a long time. We can hear men preach forever, but if we do not take it home and live it, we cannot get the Spirit of God and keep it. We may go into the order of Celestial Marriage, but abiding in the covenants is another thing. There are a great many living it, but are they abiding the covenant? The result is that the adversary comes in. Brigham Young said the adversary has no business with us unless we let him. May God keep us in the palm of His hand, and may He bless us, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:259  January 2, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Fast Meeting at Lincoln Street
January 2, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Nations Will Be Forced to Listen to the Priesthood; Destructions Will Come When the Constitution Is Destroyed;
The United States Has a Debt to Pay; Redemption of Zion

Many of us have boys in the army. They are going to be needed. President Young and President Kimball stood all day, watching soldiers marching all day and all night. They marched two and two. It will be necessary. The great conflict is on when all the spirits of the unseen world, both good and bad, are going to come here in conflict. God is going to use such means on the world that He is going to force them to listen to the Priesthood and Prophets of God.

It won't be long before we are going to have someone come and help us. The One Mighty and Strong is coming. He is a military man, and he is going to take lead, both spiritual and temporal. I have prayed very earnestly about these boys that are going out, and I am well satisfied that the Lord wants them to go. We do not have to shed blood. In Moroni, the king told them that came to shed blood to lay down their arms, but they would not.

We believe in the Constitution of the United States. That is the kind of law that God told us to uphold. When they destroy that, destruction is coming upon the land. The people of the United States have a debt to pay. That debt was for the shedding of blood, and it can only be wiped out by blood.

President Snow said that no man would go back to help build up Jackson County except those who live the Celestial Law. I have learned to love Heber. He has always been able to walk strong and talk pretty strong. The more we contemplate on these things the more we can see. Brothers and sisters, we are on the verge of some trials. Some of us are already getting it.

There is Brother Chatwin. I want to say, regarding his little wife, that there is not a finer mother in the country. He has two beautiful children, bright as can be. I have heard some say that the girl is not normal. I want to say that she is a lot better than some of those that are talking about it. I say to Heber, "God bless him, and to do your duty." He will be a pillar to roll on the work. We have some men in this house, men and women, that will go back and help to give the Ten Tribes their blessings. They will go back to officiate in the temple of God as they go on their way. They are coming here before they go to Jerusalem. I expect a great many here to go back and help.

God bless you. As was prophesied this afternoon, men will come out of this group as they have come out of the Church. May it be our happy lot to be among them, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I was thinking while sitting here of some of the sayings of President Young. He said, "Do you think the world will know when the resurrection takes place? Father Smith and the Prophet Joseph said that the world would know nothing about it." I was thinking of the testimonies we have that they have been resurrected. You wouldn't tell it to the world. They wouldn't believe it if you did. We have a testimony that Joseph Smith came, and men shook hands with him, and he told them what to do, had them ordained and set apart for certain work. Will the world believe it? No.

The Millennium will come, and the world won't accept it. When we go back to Jackson County, they will think it is the work of some wise man. Christ said that He would go before them. His presence and His angels would be with them. When that time comes (and it may be close at hand), no unclean thing will be there because Christ won't be there if it is. We can tell how we must live. We must sanctify ourselves and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Resurrected beings will come and teach us of His ways.

There is a writing out now that tells us that the Millennium started in 1936. Do we believe it? I don't, for we read from the scriptures that the very first angel that comes will cry, "The Bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet Him."

I want to tell you here, that if this people will keep on and keep the commandments of God, the gifts of the Spirit will surely come to them. We will have prophecy, we will see angels. You will be walking upon the road and someone will come to you. You will find it is one of the ancient Prophets. Did Jesus' disciples know Him? Not until He made Himself known.

These small meetings here -- God has said that if we will hold these meetings, that He will be in the midst of them. I never in my life was more satisfied than I am today that we have the truth, not caring what people are going to do to us. It makes it more true. Jesus said, "He that lives Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution."

In any day and age of the world the same cause always produces the same effect. We have been promised that if a few of us will go ahead, take those that will come, if we only have twenty men, and live that law (United Order), God will be with us.

A short time ago, we left these parts and went down to Short Creek and started the United Order. If we do not live that law, the Spirit of God will cease to be with us, and we will go down and out. The fullness of the Gospel is the United Order and plural marriage. We, as a people, have done away with those things. We have taken the tower on the hill away, and the enemies came in upon us. What was the result? They said, "What need have we of this?" The result was the Edmunds Tucker law, and so forth. No matter what people do or say about God's laws, they are true. If they killed us, a truth would still be a truth.

I am glad to be here in Sister Morrison's house. I ask God's blessings upon this house and upon Sister Morrison and her children in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:263 January 23, 1944 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
January 23, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
John and Lorin Woolley Prophesied of the Things Happening Today; The Country Is Going From Bad to Worse; The Danish Man's Wife With the Disease of "Improving"; We Will Be Protected According to Our Righteousness

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified in the things that have been said today. There have been a great many things said here today that if we would put them into practice, would do us a world of good. If we do not, they will do us harm. I think Brother Guy just continued on what we had in Sunday School.

I have often thought of the warning that was given us when we used to go up to Uncle John Woolley's and Lorin's; how many times we sat there and heard told the very things that are going on today. We were told that the garments would be changed, the ordinances in the temple would be changed, etc. Now we have lived to see them fulfilled. Can you tell me one thing that could be changed in the temple? One of them was that when you used to go into the temple, and made covenants that you will have nothing to do with any of the daughters of Eve except those that you are legally married to. Now it is,
"except those you love and are legally married to." (He talked of "Uncle Sam" and the corruption of the government; the people and where they are going.) That is the way we have been going -- from bad to worse.

Brother Musser said that fundamentally we believe the Gospel as God taught it, we believe that it was revealed by the Prophet, but do we live it?! Today you get to talking, and they will say they cannot do anything about the Doctrine and Covenants, etc., but you are going contrary to President Grant. We are not contending with President Grant, but are trying to live the principles that Joseph Smith gave to us. We hear today, "It was all right in that day, but today we are progressing." Yet, it puts me in mind of a Danish man, and his wife was in the hospital. The bishop asked how his wife was three different times, and the Danish man said each time that she was improving. The last time he asked, the Danish man said she was dead. The bishop asked what was the matter with his wife, and the reply was, "It was that new disease -- 'Improving.'"

Heber C. Kimball said the test is coming, and when you can go along the street and cannot tell the Latter-day Saints from the people of the world, the time is near. Latter-day Saints are mixed with all the world. They gamble, swear, drink, smoke, etc. That is the condition we are in today. What are we going to do about it? It is going to be up to every individual. Just as much as we do it and allow our children to live the laws of God, just so we will be able to stand. They put men better than we are in jail.

We do not like to be persecuted. We do not like our feelings hurt. When we get our feelings hurt, then there is something wrong. Let us put our feelings down, and keep the commandments of God and live right. Nephi said that the Lord will protect us if He has to send fire down from heaven. We will be protected according to our righteousness.

We have been told by many that there would be a class of people come out of the Church. We have been ostracized, not cut off the Church. I do not care who the man is, if he starts teaching the things we believe, he will be ostracized. We have heard some good talking and sermons today. What good will it do us if we don't do it? God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:265  February 6, 1944  SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
February 6, 1944
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson Vol.7 Page 8)
Predestination and Foreordination;
Obey the Laws of God; The Spirit of God Will Protect Us;
We Are Going to Get Persecution; Force Is of the Devil;
Pray Morning and Night

My brothers and sisters, there is a warm place in my heart for the people here and for the Gospel, and every part of it is worth standing for. We are right in the time when our enemies are all around us, where they are questioning everybody they can find. One brother told me they had a pile of testimonies against us. Does that hurt us? It doesn't hurt me; it makes me rejoice. The time is getting close when God will take a hand. One of us is hit one way, and another hit another way. What difference does it make? God has laid down a law upon which every blessing is predicated. Until we live that law, how can we get the blessing? That is just as much of a truth as that the sun is shining out there.

We had a meeting up north about predestination and foreordination. The laws are predestined to save us, but the individual is foreordained to live those laws. This same law that is saving us now is the same law that saved those in worlds before us. We are foreordained to do a certain work, and we have a right to reject it or live it.

Brigham Young said, "Be careful how you persecute this people. God will hold men responsible for every act against the Latter-day Saints."

We have been preaching to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Brothers and sisters, we are going to need it. We have got to be more humble; we have got to let the things of this world go by and bring our minds and our souls and everything under God. If we don't, we are going to be in a trap. If we do it, God will open up a door, and just as men think they have us caught, Uncle Lorin told us, if we will exercise the right kind of faith, a door will open and we will go through.

Supposing some of us are put in jail. What difference does it make? The Prophet Joseph never was convicted in law. Why was he ever arrested? Because of the prejudice of the people. Every history that we have of the saints of God on earth is just like we are getting today. You hear them say, "Why, it is against the law of the land." Who made the laws? Men did.
They aren't the laws of God. Those are the things we are looking for. When Daniel was told not to pray because it was against the law of the land, Daniel prayed just the same. It wasn't against the laws of God. They threw him into the lions' den, but he had the Spirit of God around him and those lions couldn't touch him. The Three Hebrews were cast into the fiery furnace, and the fire couldn't hurt them.

Christ was brought up before the world and crucified -- the Son of God -- brought up there and told that He was a blasphemer. The Jews said, "Let His blood be upon us and our children." It has never ceased. How many have read what Hitler is doing to the Jews? How many of us are prejudiced? They have been whipped and pounded around until, in the financial line, they are sharper than other men. It is the Asiatic Jew that is doing it. The real Jew is light. These others are dark-skinned people, nearly always.

Be careful what you do to God's people! They took Christ and crucified Him. Then they started in on the Apostles. The angel took Peter out of their way. Just stop and think for a minute or two and see where the sect is today that is everywhere spoken evil of. You can't scare the spirit of a man, but you can scare his body.

Nothing short of the fullness of the Gospel of the Celestial Kingdom will satisfy the immortal soul. "If we don't live up to the measure of our creation," President Young says, "we will be thrown back to be molded again." Thank the Lord we have got men here that will follow the laws of God.

Now it looks very much like we're going to get persecution. Now is the time to button up your coat and prepare yourselves for persecution. I am proud of this people and would much rather hear your testimonies than to get up and talk to you myself. I know God is with us. I know that He is going to have a tried people.

Some men are trying to find out the beginning of their generation. What difference does it make to us? We should be living the laws of God when they come to us. By living the laws that will exalt us and take us on, we can become what every son can become -- an Adam; and every daughter, an Eve. That is the Gospel that we want. What should we do about it? We have got to live it! If we don't, that is the end of our kingdom, we cannot have an increase.
Know This, That Every Soul Is Free

1. Know this, that every soul is free
   To choose his life and what he'll be;
   For this eternal truth is given
   That God will force no man to heav'n.

2. He'll call, persuade, direct aright,
   And bless with wisdom, love, and light,
   In nameless ways be good and kind,
   But never force the human mind.

3. Freedom and reason make us men;
   Take these away, what are we then?
   Mere animals, and just as well
   The beasts can't think of heav'n or hell.

I say, God bless you all. What you are called on to do, do it with a cheerful heart, and go ahead and leave the consequences with the Lord. I often think, if the people can forgive me of my faults, I certainly will forgive them of theirs.

I was sent home off a mission because I lived the law of Celestial Marriage. God's Priesthood is inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and it cannot be controlled only on the principles of righteousness. God has heard and answered our prayers just as much, if not more, than He ever did before I was ostracized.

We were presented with a paper to sign not long ago, in which it said that none of the leaders of the Church were living a double life. Now the Church comes along and cuts one of the Apostles off for living a double life. Will they call the brethren back who wouldn't sign that paper? No. Why? As with the priest, so with the people.

We are crying and praying that the One Mighty and Strong will come. Lately, I have been wondering whether we should pray that way or not. Suppose the One Mighty and Strong should come and want me to fill a certain position. Am I ready so I could take that position? Or would it be that I am not living right and could not fill that position? We must pray for the strength to live worthy so we will be ready when he does come.

Not a very long time is going to pass before the Ten Tribes are coming here, and you sisters have got to go into the temples and give them their washings and anointings. You have got to be prepared by being obedient to your husbands. The sisters have got to help the men. The men can't do it alone. Every individual, every young girl, every mother, and everyone must be converted; must live those laws if they get the blessings. There is no other way. We cannot force. Whenever we get to forcing, we get on the devil's ground.

President Young loved that agency so much that he said, "I would rather be chopped to pieces and resurrected in the morning each day for three score years and ten, than to be deprived of speaking freely, or to be afraid of doing so."

May God bless you and keep you in the hollow of His hand. Don't ever go to bed at night nor get up in the morning but what you kneel down and ask God to be with you. This I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Afternoon Meeting
February 13, 1944
Reported by Marjorie Holm and Leona Jeffs

A Man Must Keep Sweet for His Family to Keep Sweet; Serve God in Spite of Everything Else

I will just say, brothers and sisters, we are getting a little towards what we have tried to get over for some time -- to get the Spirit of God. I was down south just lately, and I noticed the brethren getting more of the Spirit of God. I want to say to you brethren here, this load is going to be on you. You get the Spirit of God and keep it and your wife will follow you. (He quoted President Kimball on the subject.)

Now, if you lead them and teach them these things, then if they don't follow you, your skirts are clean. You cannot go into the house and kick one thing over here and another there -- you cannot help but lose the Spirit of God. If you do, just that minute the rest of the house will take on that spirit. There isn't a man here but what loses his temper, that his wife won't lose her temper, too. If we get the Spirit of God and keep it, we will act on principles. A few Sundays ago, I think one of the brethren here was speaking of Brigham Young. He says, "I never embraced any man in the Gospel. I embraced the laws of God, the principles of salvation." If you go anywhere, you will hear them all speaking against the people, but can they say anything against the laws of God? You go out in the mission field, and they will tell you what a terrible man Joseph Smith was, and Brigham Young, and Heber C. Kimball, etc. You hear all those things out there, but can they say a word against the principles of the Gospel? You can take a boy with the plough, who has embraced the laws of the Gospel and has the Spirit of God, and send him out there, and he can cope with the learned ministers.

If we don't get the Spirit of God and be able to exercise it willingly, we are going to be whipped into it. We know what is going on around about us. A short time ago I heard what a terrible fellow Brother Musser was, etc. It is the dirty little truths we hear that hurt us. When you have some of those truths mixed with it, those are the things that hurt. They are the things to watch and guard against.

I have heard Marion speak lots of times, but I don't believe I ever heard him preach a better sermon than he preached today. He preached you the very thing that will exalt you, that will bring you back into the presence of God.

Now, if we keep these things and carry them in our hearts, and determine to serve God in spite of everything, be prayerful and humble about it, God will open the way for us. If we don't do it, then it is going to be our own fault. (He then told of Brother Kelsch and what a blessed man he felt he was when he spoke in meeting this morning, etc.) God never forced any man. How blessed we are that God gave us our rights and freedom. He never said you have got to do this or the other.

Know This, That Every Soul Is Free

1. Know this, that every soul is free
   To choose his life and what he'll be;
   For this eternal truth is given
   That God will force no man to heav'n.
2. He'll call, persuade, direct aright,
   And bless with wisdom, love, and light,
   In nameless ways be good and kind,
   But never force the human mind.
3. Freedom and reason make us men;
   Take these away, what are we then?
Mere animals, and just as well
The beasts can't think of heav'n or hell.
4. May we no more our powers abuse,
But ways of truth and goodness choose;
Our God is pleased when we improve
His grace and seek his perfect love.
5. It is my free will to believe;
'Tis God's free will me to receive;
To stubborn willers this I'll tell,
'Tis all free grace and all free will.
6. Those who despise grow harder still:
If they adhere, he turns their will;
And thus despisers sink to hell,
While those who heed in glory dwell.
7. But if we take the downward road,
And make in hell our last abode,
Our God is clear; and we shall know
We plunged ourselves in endless woe.

I am just a little in favor of the women, for I believe the women will back the men if they are led right, if he will do his part. He may get a knock now and then, but it will do him good. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:271 February 13, 1944 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Evening Meeting
February 13, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Are a Covenant People;
Don't Get Thin-Skinned and Have Hurt Feelings;
We Will Be Saved Through Priesthood
My brothers and sisters, we have had the Gospel taught to us in plainness tonight. I believe it was the Savior who said:
Mark 16

15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.
16. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

Every man that gets up here will either convert us or condemn us. We can't get it off our minds and we can't get away from it. I know that what Brother Rulon said is so, in a great many instances; and what Brother Marion said is so. We are not people of the world. We are talking to a covenant people. We covenanted before, and your parents covenanted, and came down through a covenant lineage. We can break out if we dare, but where would we go? I love this people. I love any people that will love God. I am working for the Kingdom of God; and if anyone gets in my way, I will push them out of my way. (Brother Hammon is General Manager of the United Order.)

We say we have come out of the Church. Some men will come up out of this order here, those who obey and keep the commandments of God. Don't get thin-skinned. Don't let them hurt your feelings.

This Gospel belongs to every one of us, the same as the men who have been talking. You hold the Priesthood of God. If you are called upon to act, you will act as those who belong to the Priesthood. If ever we get saved it will be through the Priesthood. You might think you can pass by Brigham Young, the Prophet, etc., but remember this one thing -- the Gods and the angels are set there by whom you cannot pass if you have not lived the law. We have been handled, most of us, but we are going to have another kind of charge, and it won't be long before the One Mighty and Strong comes and sets things in order.

JYB 8:272  February 27, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
February 27, 1944
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
Must Live the Law of Celestial and Plural Marriage;
God Will Fight Our Battles

My brethren and sisters, how many of you have fathers and grandfathers who went through those trying days? My grandfather went through it all. My father was born in Nauvoo and came down through trials and tribulations; and now, after having established the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and after having come here and President Young declaring the whole of the Gospel, are we going to give it up? In the first place, the Lord said to the Prophet Joseph:

D.& C. 132

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord unto you my servant Joseph, that inasmuch as you have inquired of my hand to know and understand wherein I, the Lord, justified my servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as also Moses, David and Solomon, my servants, as touching the principle and doctrine of their having many wives and concubines --

2. Behold, and lo, I am the Lord thy God, and will answer thee as touching this matter.

3. Therefore, prepare thy heart to receive and obey the instructions which I am about to give unto you; for all those who have this law revealed unto them must obey the same.

4. For behold, I reveal unto you a new and an everlasting covenant; and if ye abide not that covenant, then are ye damned; for no one can reject this covenant and be permitted to enter into my glory.

5. For all who will have a blessing at my hands shall abide the law which was appointed for that blessing, and the conditions thereof, as were instituted from before the foundation of the world.

6. And as pertaining to the new and everlasting covenant, it was instituted for the fulness of my glory; and he that receiveth a fulness thereof must and shall abide the law, or he shall be damned, saith the Lord God.

That is what the Lord said about it. Joseph said:

Joseph Smith  Contributor 5:259

"They accuse me of polygamy, and of being a false Prophet, and many other things which I do not now remember; but I am no false Prophet; I am no imposter; I have had no dark revelations; I have had no revelations from the devil; I made no revelations; I have got nothing up of myself. The same God that has thus far dictated me and directed me and strengthened me in this work, gave me this revelation and commandment on celestial and plural marriage, and the same God commanded me to obey it. He said to me that unless I accepted it and introduced it, and practiced it, I, together with my people, would be damned and cut off from this time henceforth. And they say if I do so, they will kill me! Oh, what shall I do? If I do not practice it, I shall be damned with my people. If I do teach it, and practice it, and urge it, they say they will kill me, and I know they will. But," said he, "we have got to observe it. It is an eternal principle and was given by way of commandment and not by way of instruction."

President Young said:

JD 11:268-269  Brigham Young  August 19, 1866  SLC

It is the word of the Lord, and I wish to say to you, and all the world, that if you desire with all your hearts to obtain the blessings which Abraham obtained, you will be polygamists at least in your faith, or you will come short of enjoying the salvation and the glory which Abraham has obtained. This is as true as that God lives.  The only men who become Gods, even the Sons of God, are those who enter into polygamy. Others attain unto a glory and may even be permitted to come into the presence of the Father and the Son; but they cannot reign as kings in glory, because they had blessing offered unto them, and they refused to accept them.

All right, let us come down a little further. President Taylor said Joseph taught them that law, and afterwards told him to obey that law. He prayed to the Lord and found out it was true, and if we didn't live it, the Kingdom of God couldn't go on. Wilford Woodruff said, "God has given us a law whereby we may have our wives and children sealed to us and there is no other law under heaven that we can do it." In talking to Mr. Bierbower in court, President Snow said:

Lorenzo Snow  Millennial Star 48:111

Though I go to prison, God will not change His law of celestial marriage. But the man, the people, the nation, that oppose and fight against this doctrine and the Church of God will be overthrown.

Joseph F. Smith said:

JD 20:31  Joseph F. Smith  July 7, 1878  SLC

I understand the law of celestial marriage to mean that every man in this Church, who has the ability to obey and practice it in righteousness and will not, shall be damned, I say I understand it to mean this and nothing less, and I testify in the name of Jesus that it does mean that.

At the death of William Clayton, he said:

JD 21:10  Joseph F. Smith  December 7, 1879  SLC

And as he has here stated, as having come from the mouth of the Prophet, this doctrine of eternal union of husband and wife, and of plural marriage, is one of the most important doctrines ever revealed to man in any age of the world. Without it man would come to a full stop; without it we never could be exalted to associate with and become gods, neither could we attain to the power of eternal increase, or the blessings pronounced upon Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the fathers of the faithful.

President Grant said that whenever a law is given, we should obey it and be like the three Hebrew children. Those were the words of President Grant. Now they come and tell us we have got a revelation stopping it. Heber C. Kimball, one of the greatest prophets we have had in this dispensation, said:

Now, my brethren and sisters, what are we going to do? They say they are going to wipe it out. They also said they were going to send an army out here to kill the Mormons. Let me tell you now as a servant of God, if they set a trap and undertake to do that, it will fall on their heads, and this law will go on as Brigham Young said, and triumph over all.

It was given before the foundation of the world for this very purpose, that we might have eternal increase and men may become Gods. That is why the law was given. Then they come forth with a flimsy thing like the Manifesto, and try to say it is a revelation from God. Does it sound like God speaking? He never sounded like that, that I ever heard. He always says, "I, the Lord," or, "Verily, verily thus saith the Lord."

At the Conference where the Manifesto was presented, Brother Snow got up and bore witness. Is that necessary in the case of a revelation? No! They got scared. Any religion that does not ask for the sacrifice of everything earthly has no saving principles in it. We voluntarily give them up. Sometimes it makes my blood boil to think God has raised up sons and daughters of parents like we have them, and then for us to go back on the very principles that will exalt us.

Don't think but what we have to live the other principles, too. But this is the principle that is being fought. They can't do anything to us if we are prayerful and united. The lions couldn't touch Daniel when he was united.
Let us be like that song "Awake, Ye Saints of God, Awake!" We have asked for redress. President Young said if they would keep the commandments of God, they would never have to live except in the Kingdom of God. God will fight our battles if we keep His commandments.

JYB 8:277 April 2, 1944 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sacrament Meeting at Lincoln Street
April 2, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs

If Men Are Sent to Jail, It Will Press the Work On Faster;
The Word Has Gone All Over the World;
"I Do Not Feel to Tremble"

My brothers and sisters, it is a pleasure that I meet with you again in this house. We have had our meetings stopped for awhile [the Raid of 1944]. It has made us a little more humble and get nearer the Lord, and we have seen His hand made manifest. But do not stop at that. We are not out of the woods yet, and we may meet a bear before we get out of the woods.

Some time ago, I told you people that I saw this coming, and said if we are humble enough and exercise enough faith, there will be a door and we will go on; and we still say this. Some of the brethren may be sent to jail; I do not know. It has never been made known to me yet. If they do, it will press the work on a little faster. The word of the Lord has gone over the world.

Brothers and sisters, the law is going forth before Zion, the law that makes kings, queens, princes, etc. That law has gone out to the world. I, for one, do not feel trembly in the knees. My little girl said, "We have seen the ABC men take May away." Nevertheless, I am proud of men and women of that kind, and we must stay humble. We laugh and say funny things, but this is a serious time. It may be a time when God sees fit to vindicate His laws.

I want you to be free. And I promise you, if you rise up, the Spirit of God will rest upon you better than it has ever before. I pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:278 April 6, 1944 SLC
My brothers and sisters, I have such a cold that I have not said much. I have been listening. We have heard a great many things today. When you see the brethren as they were a short time ago, going down the street with handcuffs on, etc., I began to wonder what kind of people we were. I do not think it hurt any of us. I believe that every man in the jail went with the spirit that it did not worry him. I know I was not worried. When they came here, it did not worry me any. They came in and went through all the rooms in the place. They had to be asked to leave the rooms while the ladies dressed. I do know that the Lord was with us, and I know He blessed our attorneys and we were set free from one charge. I do know we have another charge and we are under bond. I do not know how that is going to come out.

The government is against us, but we do know that it is being run by those at the head of Main Street [the Mormon Church]. We know that this has all been fixed up by a man now made president of a European mission, and we do know that it was a bishop who put the law forth. Are we going to get mad? Let us let the Lord take a hand in that, and say within ourselves, "God, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Let us let the Lord take a hand in it. I do know that every man who raises a hand against these laws of God will sooner or later feel the power of God upon them. The Lord says to forgive all men, and He will forgive whom He will. If they can stand it, then we can. The only way we can get out of this is by fasting and praying to the Lord. I saw this over a year ago, and said if we would be humble and prayerful, that there would be a door open in the wall.

Suppose some of us have to go to jail. Better men than we have gone there. I do not like jail, and especially the food they give us. I have some oppositions to it. If you do not know, Rulon Jeffs can tell you. After a bite or two, we could blow and almost set the bedclothes on fire. I would rather take bread and water. It is laughable now, but it was not at first.
Some wondered where they were going and what was going to happen. But we did know this one thing. When the Hebrew children were asked to bow down before their king, and they asked if their God could save them, they said to try and see. But we will not give up the laws of God. Where the laws of the land conflict with the laws of God, let us keep the laws of God. Which damnation do you want, the damnation of the land, or the eternal damnation?

I love the Gospel and its eternal principles, and I love the people that strive to live them. I want any one of you that wants to talk to the brethren, and talk on the principles of God, to come. It is the principles that we want, not the man. It is the principles that exalt you. A man might be foreordained to do something, but the laws of God are predestined to do something. The laws of God are the same as far back as we can think of. When God worked out a plan whereby the lesser intelligence may be brought up to the greater intelligence; as far as you can go back, the plan is the same.

Let me tell you right now, in the beginning a great commandment was given: "Multiply and replenish the earth and subdue it." That commandment is the same today. God's great work is to bring to pass the immortality and eternal life of man, and without God's principles you cannot do it. This nation and all other nations have got to where the nations at the time of Noah were -- He cut them off so that the unborn spirits might come and take pure and clean bodies here. So, in the long run, God foresaw what was going to happen. Now, as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the days of the coming of the Son of Man.

What do we find here? A hospital here to accommodate those drifted in sin. How bad are we going? A young lady said to me not long ago that she was almost afraid to marry a certain young man because of the conditions of the world and people in it. Stand in holy places. You cannot pick up a paper but what it does not talk of birth control. The families of the nation are having one or two children, and the high blood of this nation has dwindled. Now they come out and say, "I am not going to let you have your choice."

God bless you, and let us live pure lives and double our efforts. And above all, quit backbiting. That is the name that this group has -- backbiting. What difference does it make to you and me, if we do not do it? God bless you, amen.
Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
April 9, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Repent of Our Worldliness;
Wickedness of the Girls on the Streets
Who Descended From Honorable Men; Be Humble and Forgive; Certain Ones of This Group Will Continue On

My brothers and sisters, I can back Brother [Rulon] Jeffs in what he said. I can say I never met two men [Guy Musser and Rulon Jeffs] I could trust more than I could trust these two men. They have been here in the home, and often we get together and discuss the principles of the Gospel.

The lesson we had this morning was on repentance. I might say, what shall we repent of? One of the things is our worldliness. If we want to get close to our Father in heaven, we have got to do it in that way. We can't go on like we have been going. And I want to say to you here, it is time that we did get humble; that we did so, for many of our brethren may be taken from us in that way. We have been told that we would be praying day and night for deliverance. It is here. The time is here.

You go down the streets and what do you see? My brothers and sisters, what do you see on the streets -- of the girls, of those that are walking the streets today, whose fathers and forefathers have been God's honorable men? Yes, now I want to know the reason. What is the matter? We have read the third chapter of Isaiah and see it literally fulfilled. The Savior told us to listen to the words of Isaiah, for all those who had not been fulfilled would be fulfilled. He said:

2 Nephi 13  (Isaiah 3)

12. And my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they who lead thee cause thee to err and destroy the way of thy paths.

That is the secret. That is the reason for things that we see today.

12. ...O my people, they who lead thee cause thee to err and destroy the way of thy paths.
We have a fine example of it now. The government and State try to persecute and prosecute those who try to live the laws of God. God said: "Those who turneth from their error..." If that isn't true today, it never was true. The Prophet Joseph saw this, and I am going to read what he said:

TPJS  Page 17

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellowmen than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

It is quite a long while since that was said. We begin now to see some of it fulfilled, but we have just started. And I say to my brothers and sisters, be prayerful, be humble, forgive one another of their trespasses and cease to strive among yourselves; and get closer to the Lord. The Lord has shown me in dreams and visions what would happen to us if we would not be humble and prayerful and united. Is there anything we can say to arouse you to get closer to the Lord, that we may have His Spirit to be with us continuously? For months and months we have been preaching to get the Spirit of God and keep it. For months and months we have been preaching "The Kingdom of God or Nothing." Do we mean it? The time is here for us to repent. We have listened to a great sermon from Brother Rulon [Jeffs], calling this people to repent. We have been told there would be certain ones come from this group to go ahead, and there are some men that are going on. God is blessing them and they are going on to perfection. And if we stay with them, we will live the laws and keep the commandments of God. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:283  May 14, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
May 14, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Increase of the Spirit of God Among the Short Creek People;
Have Integrity and Faith in God

I just got back from Short Creek, and I can say that this trial has made a big difference to that people. The brethren have got together. They have been holding prayer meeting morning and night. They have a very fine system of it. They meet at prayer at 7:30 in the morning. They all go to breakfast at the same place and determine what they are going to do that day, and then all go direct.

Sunday we held a fast meeting, and in all the history of these people I have never seen the Spirit of the Lord manifest as it was there. The young people could not get up fast enough. One sister had to get up five times and finally made it. We have boys in the prayer meeting -- just boys. Sister Fawn and Brother Rich have boys there, and David is one of the finest boys there. He goes with Uncle Fred to see what the people need from house to house. Brother Marion here goes to see what the people need and puts it in the warehouse and leaves it there until they need it. They are really getting towards the United Order, and will if they keep on like they are going.

I visited nearly every home there. Many came for Patriarchal blessings and wanted to know what they could do to further the work of God. I only wish that the rest of my family was down there. They do not go to shows, but they have good times. They had a kangaroo court and enacted Judge Johnson and the prosecuting attorney. They had lots of fun and later they danced. You people that have been down there, where Aunt Lizzy lives, they have put a great big tank, and they are letting the water down and preparing a garden. The women are digging there and putting in gardens. At the chicken coops the girls were sorting eggs. I had a talk with Brother Carling Spencer and his wife, and they are turning in money for the cause there. Some others that have not been in are coming in. That is a little bit of what is going on down there. And I notice in praying, they did just what the Lord told them to do about it -- mention the names of the men against us. We can pray them right out of our homes, if we will.

I know God is with these people, and I know why they are right and why God gives them a testimony of these things that are right. These men who are prosecuting us, they may kill our men and put some in prison, but that would not make the laws any less true. I want to tell you that if we get an exaltation, we will get it by living the law, not any other laws.

Joseph Smith was asked about that, but he could not get it through the people's heads. We talk and talk of these things, but the only way you can get it is to do it. Unless you do these things you will not get the blessing.

I like to hear Rone [Jessop] talk. I knew Lorin Woolley, and he also told me things. I want to bear my testimony to the truth when he said that the Priesthood came on down from John Taylor, etc. Read the 90th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants, where it tells us that the keys of the Kingdom were given to Joseph Smith. Now I want you to find any other place in the Church where they say that. The keys came on down through John Taylor and the others. I was glad to hear my brother say that he got that testimony for himself. I want you to find out these things for yourselves.

Let us be humble and prayerful. If we get through this in the courts now, it will only be because we are humble and prayerful that He sees fit to do it. If our attorneys are hedged up and we go to jail; well, better men than we have gone to jail. We heard a good talk this morning on integrity. We do not know whether we will go through or not, as Rone said. If we have the integrity, then we will go ahead. The same is true of this people. If we have the integrity and faith in God, we will go on. If we do not, we will be pushed aside.

I received a letter from my son Louis, and he said he and Erich Olschewski see each other and have good times together. He said the things that are going on in the world just make you sick, and he has to go off to himself. It will not be long until the One Mighty and Strong will be here and set the Church, the temple, etc., in order. Then we will have to go and walk as the Lord said. Then seven women will take hold of one man; that they will eat their own bread and wear their own apparel.

Now, brothers and sisters, we have a lot to say, a lot about the brethren at the head. Let us not be too hard on them, but thank the Lord that we are the people that too have been chosen to receive these truths. Do not pray too much for the judgments to come. May God bless us and help us to live His laws and commandments more fully, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
May 28, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Be Humble and Prayerful, and a Door of Deliverance Will Open;
Prison May Be Good for Those Who Need to Be Humble;
The "Stone" Is Going to Start Rolling

I would just like to say a word or two. I do not want you to go off with the wrong idea that you can smoke and drink and keep the Spirit of God, for the Spirit of God cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles. Brother Ed meant that we should not let such things roll you over.

Now, how many times have I told you to get the Spirit of God? I told you that this people would be in a corner, and if we are humble and prayerful enough, a door would be opened. Now we see what has happened to us. They are trying to get rid of us. We must be humble and prayerful and faithful, and the Lord will bless us.

Matthew 5

11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Jesus Christ was slain for this cause. Peter, James, and John were lead to prison, Peter was slain, and John [the Baptist] was beheaded for this cause.

2 Timothy 3

12. Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

Connect that up with this group that are being fought against. Find out about them. God said, I believe to Nephi, that He never commanded a people to do a work except that He opened a way to do it. Now the laws of the land come up and say if you do live the laws of God, you will be sentenced. I, among others, am being sentenced, and they want to put us in jail and make it hard for us to keep out. I do not know but what it will be a good thing for some of us. It will humble us. I do not want to go if I can get out of it, but if they do put us in, I hope the Lord will give me the strength to go on. As Brother Snow said, "Though I go to prison, God will not change the laws of marriage." This people should know by this time that Mormonism, if one of its leading principles is wrong, because it is from God, all God's laws are wrong. Some of us know that that thing is right. We know what is coming, that we have a fight on our hands.

The whole thing is not plural marriage. It is the Priesthood of God and who has the right to it. It is not long before that stone is going to roll, and when it starts it will not stop; and as the consumptive decree will be sent out there, it will put an end to all nations. There is not any of us that needs a Prophet of God to see what is coming. It is before us.

I say to all you men and women, get behind the laws of God. That is what I want you to do. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:287 June 4, 1944 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Testimony Meeting at Lincoln Street
June 4, 1944
Reported by Myrtle L. Allred
Those Who Live Godly Shall Be Persecuted;
Purify Ourselves to Receive the Lord's Help

The time is again here when we have the privilege of bearing our testimonies of the goodness of the Lord. I think that a great many of us have a testimony and are thankful that God has heard and answered our prayers. I would like to see today some of these young people get up and bear their testimonies along with the others. We would be glad to hear them. And we will promise them, whenever they will get up to bear their testimony, the Spirit of God will rest with them and they will know this work is right. I know it is right and according to the will of God, and for that reason they persecute us. Whenever you see the people keeping the commandments of God, "Those who will live Godly in Jesus Christ shall suffer persecution."

We have had the privilege, Brother Joseph and I, of going down south and seeing how the boys are doing, and I was wonderfully surprised and glad to know how they were working. We will just say that they have completed sixty thousand feet of lumber, and the man they got the mill from charged them nothing but told them they could have the first sixty thousand feet. Most of them went to Short Creek to Sacrament Meeting today, where they haven't been for almost a month. I was well pleased with the spirit of most of the boys. I could see a big improvement.

God bless you, and I hope that the Spirit of God will rest upon everyone who gets up to speak today, that they may testify of the goodness of God; and I do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

My brothers and sisters, we have had a little taste of the Spirit of God here today. Now, if we are humble and prayerful and do what we should do, it won't be long before we will be privileged to have resurrected beings here to teach us, opening the way and helping us. It is going to be up to us.

Brother Musser said God wants to help us, wants to use us; but until we purify ourselves and live His law and keep His commandments, we can't expect it. But if we will do that, the Lord will do His part.

President Brigham Young said we will be walking along a street and be talking, and a resurrected being would walk along with us and talk and instruct us. This thing has gone so far in apostasy that it has got to have help to restore it, and I know that God did hear and answer our prayers in the courts, and so does everybody else that was there. They were going to qualify one woman to sign for two of our boys, and after the way was opened, she was able to sign for eight.
June 11, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Church Is Fighting the Truth; "Covenant With Death"; Sufferings of the Prophets in Our Time; No Halfway Doing

My brothers and sisters, I am glad to be here with you today. First I will say to Dell (Brother Timpson) [Alma Timpson spoke about the first wife having authority over the household, and sought correction if needed], it is the woman who lives the law most fully, though she is the tenth wife, if she excels in keeping the laws of God, the laws of her husband. If you excel in that, you excel in all. There was not one that went into it that did not live the law of Sarah, no matter what wife she is.

We have had quite a lot said here today about what they are saying in the Church. Did you ever find in the history of the world but what the church is the one that fights the truth? Samuel the Prophet made a prophecy regarding the church in that respect, and those things came true just as that Prophet said they would. They have come true today. Isaiah says:

Isaiah 28

14. Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.
15. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
16. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.
17. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
18. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.
19. From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.
How many of us can read the handwriting on the wall? God saw, and then prepared for it. Nephi said that the Lord never commanded a work to be done but what He did not prepare a way for it to be done. President Taylor did do it, and prepared a way whereby we might get salvation.

What part of the Priesthood was taken away in the time of Moses? That part which gave eternal increase. That is what they are trying to take away from us today. Heber C. Kimball said:

JD 5:203-204  Heber C. Kimball  October 12, 1856  SLC

> You might as well deny "Mormonism," and turn away from it, as to oppose the plurality of wives. Let the Presidency of this Church, and the Twelve Apostles, and all the authorities unite and say with one voice that they will oppose that doctrine, and the whole of them would be damned.

We have never taught polygamy. We do not believe in it. We believe in Celestial Marriage -- plural marriage is true. We know that. John Woolley said that his brother Samuel told him if he did not live this law, he would not have his first wife. President Young taught him that, and others, and he did not believe it. But the Lord told him, and he believed Him.

(He then told of how John Woolley's wife was shown to him in the temple and the Lord told him so, etc., and how Joseph F. Smith married them.) Joseph F. Smith was hounded and died a martyr. Orson F. Whitney died a martyr, and others. This thing is going to keep coming up, and I want to tell you that the Priesthood of God is living here upon the earth, for it is going to come forward.

(He then told the story of the division line of darkness and of truth and right.) The Lord does not like halfway doing. I do not know whether there are any in this house today that could take word to the enemy, but if they do, I do not care. I am not afraid, and none of the others taken up are afraid. We do not want prison, but if it is God's will, we will take it. It is not what we think that worries me, but whether we are on God's side. Find out for yourselves whether it is true or not.

I want to tell this people here, that if they will live the laws of God as taught here by some of our teachers under the Spirit of the Lord -- and we have some excellent teachers in our classes that cannot be beat, both in Sunday School and night meetings -- you cannot go wrong. And I say, God bless them and help them to learn more of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and get a firmer foundation in the Spirit. You cannot scare the spirit. It is just the body that gets scared. If you let the spirit overcome the body, then you will not be scared. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:291  June 25, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
June 25, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Testimony of Joseph Smith Concerning the Judgments;
The Obedient Will Be Saved; Get the Spirit of God

Today we are talking mostly of the Prophet Joseph. Why? Because the testimony is not in force until after the death of the Testator; and today his testimony is in force. I am going to read to you just one piece that he said so you can see what is coming.

TPJS  Page 17

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion, which is in the state of Missouri; therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellowmen than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your
Now, my brothers and sisters, you have heard a great many things here today. How many heard it? Have you heard it? There has been a lot said. If we heard it and it sinks into our hearts, we will do it. The Lord said once that it was not the ones that hear His words that will be saved, but the ones that do them.

Matthew 7

21. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

24. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

Obedience is the thing that counts. Lorin said that you have got to know the Gospel is true, and know that you know it is true. I am going to say this, and you can call it a prophecy or what you want. From this time on you are going to see the judgments of God thicker and heavier than in the past, thicker than we have ever seen them before. The Lord told me to tell this people to get the Spirit of God and keep it, and I will tell you now that you will need to more than you have ever before. We say we believe these things. Yes, I believe them. Remember this one thing: "By their fruits you shall know them."

Salt Lake City, Utah
Testimony Meeting at Lincoln Street
July 2, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
We Are Accused of Immorality Because We Claim Our Wives and Children;
Indignation Against Wickedness in the Church and the World;
The Parable of the Ten Virgins Was Describing the Church;
The One Mighty and Strong Will Come Soon

My brothers and sisters, I thought in looking over the picture of Brother Allred's family that went out, and this picture of Lyman Jessop's family, has done more good than we could have done in sending out preachers for ten years. People look upon us as though we were sexual and they say, "How can you live this law without being sexual?" By seeing these pictures, they begin to think we mean what we are doing.

Now just think, all we have to do is turn away our wives and live with them as mistresses and all would be well. The law only prohibits having "wives" and where men are willing to go to jail for them. If they were sexual, they wouldn't have to take wives. Anybody knows if they were sexual, they wouldn't have to take wives and raise children. Common sense would tell you that, the way the world is today, everywhere you go. (Related an experience of going to a hotel and being asked "with or without"). Then have them tell you you are sexual by having wives and raising children, and honoring those wives, ready to go to jail! I want to tell you, these people in Utah ought to be ashamed of themselves, turning from the very laws that would give them eternal increase for a paltry sum of an office. No wonder Brigham Young said they ought to go back to the East. He told them if they would live the laws of God they wouldn't have to live under anything but the Kingdom of God. Would they do it? No, and they wouldn't let those who wanted to do it! Sometimes indignation arouses my soul so I can hardly contain myself.

Let me tell you, to assure you that are here and under the sound of my voice, that God is going to take a hand -- and not very long before He does. Are we going to be ready? Are we going to be living the laws of God? When the Savior comes and there will be two in the field, one will be taken and the other left. Are we going to be left here? Let me tell you, He was speaking of the Church when He spoke of the ten virgins -- five foolish and five wise. The wise had been keeping oil in their lamps, but while the five foolish ones went for oil the door was closed. That wasn't speaking of the world, but the people of the Kingdom of God. When they returned and found the door closed, they said, "Lord, Lord, open unto us." And He said, "Verily, no." Why? Because they had turned and not lived the laws of God. He said, "Depart from Me, I never knew you." That is speaking of apostates who have turned from the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Apostates have turned from a principle. What a terrible lesson Joseph got on that line when he listened to Martin Harris. The Lord told him he had listened to the persuasions of men, and we are shown what will happen to us if we do. A man asked me the other day, "Do you really believe the Gospel and plural marriage are true?" I said, "I don't believe it, I know it." But I want to tell you that if we reject any law that God has laid down, we will be the loser. We will never be able to have eternal increase and have an earth as Adam did. We have got to live the laws that were established for that purpose.

Now, I don't wish to take up much of your time, but I want to tell you, and prophesy in the name of Israel's God, it will only be a short time before the One Mighty and Strong comes. Are we ready, brothers and sisters? Are we ready? What are we going to do? Are we going to live as we ought to, or are we going on as we are doing? Think it over. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:295  July 23, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
July 23, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Saints Lost the City of Salt Lake to the Gentiles; Sentenced to Prison Because of Obedience to the Laws of God

We have just got back from a trip down south where we had an enjoyable time and looked over the ground. Night before last we were up to the sawmill and had a bonfire with some of the fruit pickers and some of the folks from Short Creek, with the workers at the sawmill, and had quite a crowd in the firelight like they had while crossing the plains. We have a very fine sketch this morning from Brother Boss, telling us of the pioneer days and of Joseph's prophesying they would come here.

Psalms 107

1. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
2. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;
3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.
4. They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9. For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10. Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11. Because they rebelled against the words of God, and condemned the counsel of the most High:

12. Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16. For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17. Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18. Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20. He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
22. And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.
23. They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;
24. These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.
25. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.
26. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.
27. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.
28. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.
29. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.
30. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.
31. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
32. Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.
33. He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;
34. A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
35. He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.
36. And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;
37. And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.
38. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
39. Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.
40. He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

41. Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.
42. The righteous shall see it and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
43. Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord.

If the Prophet had written that, he couldn't have got it any plainer. Here is way back in the days of David, 107th Psalm. We had a wonderful city which the Lord blessed us with. Now I want to read to you more about it.

Jeremiah 23
1. Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord.
2. Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord.

3. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

9. Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the Lord, and because of the words of his holiness.

10. For the land is full of adulterers, for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.
11. For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the Lord.
12. Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.
13. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.
14. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

17. They say still unto them that despise me, The Lord hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18. For who hath stood in the counsel of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19. Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20. The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21. I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22. But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

33. And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the Lord? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the Lord.

34. And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the Lord, I will even punish that man and his house.

35. Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the Lord answered? and, What hath the Lord spoken?

36. And the burden of the Lord shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the Lord of hosts our God.

37. Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the Lord answered thee? and, What hath the Lord spoken?

38. But since ye say, The burden of the Lord; therefore thus saith the Lord; Because ye say this word, The burden of the Lord, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the Lord;

39. Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40. And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

Now we have the history there. They came here and then turned from the ways of the Lord. And what do they say? "It is a revelation from God -- the Manifesto is a revelation of the Lord." And the Lord says they have "put the burden upon the Lord," and, "that city shall be taken from you." Ninety percent of these homes used to belong to the saints, and now seventy-five percent belong to the gentiles. The city has been taken from them because they put the burden of the Manifesto upon the Lord; whereas if they had heard the word of the Lord in these things and stood for them, it would have been a different story today. Because they wouldn't listen to the counsel of the Lord, the Savior came and prepared John Taylor for what was coming.

Here a few years ago, where there was one man in this work, there is now five hundred. Wherever you go, they are beginning to think, "Here's this picture showing what these men have done." They were set apart and told to see that there never was a time when children were not born under that covenant. Here is the proof of it up here -- two hundred eighty-three children to fifteen men; and for having children and keeping the commandments of God, they are now sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. We have appealed it, of course, but that is the situation. It is worth it, even if we have to go the five years. The wives and children are worth it, and our exaltation in the eternal worlds. There never was a time when we felt it more than we do now.

Here we are celebrating the great Pioneer Day, when the people came into this valley and Brigham Young said, "This is the place." It will only be a short time before the One Mighty and Strong comes to set the thing in order, and then you will see us "drawn to the line and hewn to the plummet." God hasten the time! I ask God's blessing upon you; and let us live the laws of God, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:301  August 6, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Fast Meeting at Lincoln Street
August 6, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Spirits Are Held in Reserve to Come Through the Patriarchal Order of Marriage;
The Celestial Law Was Restored for the Last Time;
There Will Be a People Come Out From This People to Be the Nucleus of the Millennium

My brothers and sisters, we are all sitting here wanting the word of God. How many of us take these things that we are told to heart? We claim that God set apart certain men to see that His laws and His ordinances should remain. Brother Lyman said this morning they were set apart to see that there never was a time, until the coming of the Savior, when children are not born in the Celestial Order. We, but a few of us, have fulfilled some of the instructions given there, and the results are that the adversary got stirred up and wanted to stop it.

Do we realize that God's great work is to bring to pass the eternal life and immortality of man, and it can't be done without spirits being born upon the earth? Many have merited being able to come through the Patriarchal order and are being held back. How many of us are fulfilling that law? How many Latter-day Saints have lived that law? How many have turned and apostatized? We have been told, certain ones of us, to go ahead and see that this principle is kept alive, and if it takes our lives to do this, very well and good. We can't help it. We want to remember the song, "Do what is right, let the consequence follow".

There are some of the brethren who are living this law, and some of them are going still further and living the United Order; and some of them are trying to live it in their families more than they did before.

Let me tell you, this Priesthood shall not be taken from the earth and be given again. The Priesthood will remain on the earth. It is the "Fullness of Times" when all things should be gathered in one. One man said, "In the days of the Nephites they were told they could have but one wife." I say that isn't in our day. It was in the days of the Nephites; for today it was delivered for the last time, never to be taken away or to be given to another people. Every one of the Presidents, every one of the brethren who have looked down through the signs of the times have told us that a people would come out of the Church who would live the laws of God, and they should be the nucleus of the Millennium. Are we that people? I wonder how many of us think of these things and believe that we are that people. I want to tell you that we are. And I want to tell you another thing -- that a people will come out of this group and still go on, and some will remain. Some will go on until they reach the place that Heavenly Father wants them to.

I know this work is true. I don't believe it, but know it; and that these brethren here behind me have been called by God by a Prophet, as was Aaron, and it will be well for us to take heed to what they say and what they do.

I ask God to bless you. I say to rise up and bear your testimony. Every time you bear your testimony regarding the Prophet Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, John Taylor, or any of the Prophets, your testimony will be that much stronger. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sacrament Meeting at Lincoln Street
September 3, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Pray Night and Morning, and You Will Never Apostatize;
Not One Principle Can Be Done Away

I have been greatly interested in the remarks of the day. Let us keep the commandments of God. Let us go home and pray. How many of us have family prayers night and morning? We have been promised that if we will pray night and morning, we will never apostatize. Let us keep the commandments of God. Trials are coming on again. Let us roll up our coat collars and go on. There is not one principle that can be done away. All principles have come through direct revelation from God. We are living them because God has commanded it.

JYB 8:303  September 10, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
September 10, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
The Lord Will Open the Door of Deliverance Only if We Are Humble; Must Live All the Laws of God;
The Keys of Elijah Have the Right to Administer
All the Ordinances; They are Persecuting Us
Because We Hold the Priesthood; "Caught Up";
The Laws Are Predestined to Save the Obedient

We have had quite a variety today. I feel that this finger of scorn being pointed toward us does not amount to much. It is like the Swede who was called all the bad names that could be thought of; and they asked him what was the matter, and he said, "I have been a Swede all the time." That is the same thing that is the matter with us.

What I want to know is how many of us are keeping humble? How many are asking the Lord to help us? That is the thing that is worrying me more than anything else. The Lord showed me that if we would be humble and prayerful and exercise faith enough, the door will be opened for us; and it will, if we are prayerful and humble enough. If we are not, we will have to be buffeted until we do get humble.

Yes, we are a few people being cast out. What does the Lord say about it? Who shall gain in the end? Nearly every Prophet has told us that a people would come out of the Church, a people that would live all the laws. Brothers and sisters, we have got to live all the laws. We talk about the United Order, and we will have to live it. The Lord said that Zion would not be redeemed until we do.

We hear some say that you haven't the right to do this and that. If the brethren hold the keys of the holy Priesthood, then they have a right to all of them. If they hold the keys of Elijah, it gives them the right to administer in all the ordinances of the Priesthood. We enter the Kingdom of God the moment we are baptized. Faith gives us the power to become citizens of the Kingdom. Then you go in order from one step to the other. There is order in the Priesthood. We may have the Priesthood conferred upon us and stop there, but it gives us the right to go on up.

We learned of the Sanhedrin and how things are going to come. If you give your whole heart and soul to these things, we could tell you what is going to come. If God orders us to go to jail, He will put us there. If He does not want us there, He will not put us there. There is not a man in that group that was arrested that is not worthy of the blessings that would be in store for him.

A newspaper man asked if it would stop this principle if they jailed us. I told him no, it would not stop it. He asked what would become of our wives and children, and I told him that I was not afraid of that; the Lord will take care of them. What would happen to us? Why, the wives and daughters would all go to work and keep going just the same. That would not stop us. God's work is going on. Whether we keep up with it or not, it will go on just the same. I wonder why they do not go after some of the other groups. Because they know where the Priesthood is and are fighting it. If we are prayerful and humble, God will come out of His hiding place and protect us.

President Kimball said that if this people do not keep the commandments of God, their enemies will weep for them. Are we going to be numbered among them? As Brother Fors said, if we will work together and get so we love our neighbor as ourselves, we would be a wonderful people. God has given us a chance, and every one of us has his agency. God has not taken that away yet.

I have seen certain individuals in this group arise and come up and up. I know. I know the heart of Brother Joseph. I know he will stand and rise up to the rack. I know the hearts of a good many more men. Their hearts will stand right up to it. I believe that if Brother Joseph knew he was going to be killed the next minute, he would not falter an instant. He does not care about this life. He is working for an exaltation in the Kingdom of God, and he will get it. I can pick out a number of others that are going to keep going and going. There are some of these sisters here, and many of these people in this congregation today will be caught in the air when the time comes; and that is our right and privilege if we are faithful and true. God gives us our agency if we keep His laws.
One man told me we do not believe in predestination. Yes, we do! The laws are predestined. They are just the same as they were in the time of Adam, and in the worlds before ours. There are Fathers for many, many worlds above that have taught the same laws that you are being taught here today, and they are going to keep creating worlds. We are a long way down the line in creating worlds and people. The purpose of the laws of God is to bring about the immortality and eternal lives of man.

Let us be humble and prayerful. Let us go home and ask the Lord to bless our attorneys and judges in the Supreme Court and otherwise, that they will let the work of the Lord go on. They cannot prevent it, but they can hinder it. I do not mind a good enemy, but I am afraid of our friends. That is what Joseph once said, too. Stories start and grow and grow. (Here he told the story of the crow).

Do you not think the same cause always produces the same effect? (Here he spoke of the days of the Savior's crucifixion.) Let us find out what is right.

Matthew 5

11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

I do not wish to take up anymore of your time. All I ask you to do is to be humble and prayerful, and find out these things for yourselves. Above all, study the things that will save your soul. God bless you, amen.
Salt Lake City, Utah
September 24, 1944
Reported by Marjorie Holm
"The Kingdom of God or Dissolution";
I Pray for Our Enemies to Decrease;
The People of God Have Direct Communication With the Lord;
Word of Wisdom;
Cannot Hold the Priesthood if Fighting Against Priesthood Laws

How can we stamp out an eternal principle? This law was not in the Church. This was the law of the holy Priesthood. How can men stand up and claim to be Apostles of Jesus Christ, and defy the laws of the holy Priesthood? How inconsistent it would be. We want the Kingdom of God or nothing. We might put it a little different -- "the Kingdom of God or dissolution". President Young said, "Life and death is set before us and we can choose as we please." If we choose life, we will keep the laws of God. If we do not keep it, then what is going to be the result? If we do not live up to the measures of our creation, we will be thrown back into the mill to be ground again. What does it mean? It means if we do not keep the commandments of God, we have failed on this earth, we will be thrown back, and it may be trillions of years before we get another chance. God will not destroy our intelligence, but He will destroy the body.

They say they are going to stamp it out [Celestial Marriage]. President Kimball said, "You might as well try to stop the sun from shining, or the moon, as to do away with plural marriage. It cannot be done." They may put us in jail. Though we go to jail, God will not change the law of Celestial Marriage. We may be persecuted, driven -- what the other Prophets have had to do. One of the old philosophers said the reason Jesus was persecuted so bad, was because He had so many wives. Some of our dear sisters and others have been put in the penitentiary for a year, for singing a song and bearing their testimony in meeting. A lady was sent for a year to prison. Brother Rulon Jeffs was sent to prison for singing a song. You read the 59th chapter of Isaiah. He tells it in very plain words what happened and what is going to happen. I do not know how the rest of you feel about it, but I know how I feel about it. I am like President Kimball. He said, "Yes, I pray for my enemies. If they want increase, I pray that God will dry them up so they cannot increase." God bless you, amen.

What does it mean to be called Latter-day Saints? What kind of life should we live to be called saints? We have heard some very fine instructions this afternoon. I have been thinking a great deal lately, "He that will live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." The same cause always produces the same effect. When persecution ceases in the Church of Christ, that is when the Priesthood ceases to function. There is a principle that is handed down from generation to generation; whenever there was a people of God on earth, they had direct communication from our Father in heaven. Whenever this Church ceases to get revelation from God, just that quick it is like a ship that has lost its rudder. The Prophet Jeremiah says:

Jeremiah 5

31. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

Every one of us have got some brothers and sisters who sit down in secret and let men determine whether a thing is right or wrong.

I love the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I love it better than anything on earth. I know it is true. I do not believe it, I know it. I know our Savior lives, and I know that everyone here, if he keeps the commandments of God, he will be like the Savior said: "Though ye are dead, yet shall ye live."

I remember, not long ago, through a dream, I guess, I went on the other side and there I saw people congregating like we are. Some men were preaching and teaching things. I especially remember one man teaching the Word of Wisdom. He said the Word of Wisdom did not only mean tea or coffee. We take into our bodies the poisons, the things that poison it, that stop the growth, that drives the Spirit of God from us. We justify ourselves sometimes because some of the other Prophets used these things.

I would like everyone, if you could, to read the sermon that Patriarch Hyrum Smith taught on the Word of Wisdom. It is the greatest thing we have ever seen. He told us there that the Lord has given that. People say, "Why, that is not a revelation, it is counsel." Anyway, if God gives you counsel in things, they will save you and bring you back where we once were; where we can live to the age of a tree, by keeping laws and commandments. It would not make much difference to me whether it was revelation or counsel. We often hear it said that if we live the fullness of the Gospel, we will live every law that God has given in this last dispensation; for God has said every blessing is predicated upon a law, and when we get a blessing, it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated.

I know brethren in our group who have taken one woman, and another, and another, and yet they are getting farther away from the Gospel all the time. We have been brought down here for the Gospel's sake. Would any of us stay here if it were not for the Gospel, that we might bring our children up in holiness, that we might bring them up to serve God and keep His commandments? If we can teach them to be Latter-day Saints, that is enough for me. When it comes to finances, I do not care for money nor anything else; but what I am after is to save my soul, and my wives, and my children, etc.; that when I go on the other side I may hear, "Well done, My good and faithful servant."

One man said, "Well, we have got the Priesthood." I said, "I do not know whether you have the Priesthood or not." "Then why do we baptize our children, etc.?” "You have been ordained to an office and not to the Priesthood. If you have not got that commission, what good does it do you to be baptized?"

There are lots of things that are going to be changed. It is not far distant when Joseph Smith will come back and set things in order, and he will start at the Priesthood first. The wicked are fighting the laws of God. It is not us they are fighting. If we would give up that law, they would take us right into their arms.

While I was on my mission, they found out I had another wife. Brother ____ said to me, "Brother Barlow, if you will give up your wives, then you can go on." I would rather go to jail for keeping the laws of God, than go to jail for not keeping them. We must call on the Lord in mighty prayer. If we keep humble and prayerful, God will open a door and let us through. But if we do not do it, we will be driven until we do.

Whenever we have a condition that we do not know anything about, if we would understand the power of faith, we could remove walls and oceans, etc.
They have sixty names, and they said that if we can convict you fellows, we will get them and stamp out polygamy. Why? Because it is a law of the holy Priesthood. Can a man hold the holy Priesthood and yet fight the laws of it? No.

JYB 8:310  October 2, 1944  SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
October 2, 1944
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Strengthened Through Tests and Trials

I think we have had a feast this evening, brothers and sisters. How many heard it? How many heard it with their head? How many heard it with their heart?

"If it goes into the head we have ears on both sides, and it will go clear through. If we can get it into the heart we will remember it. The man whose life is spent in ease and refinement can never appreciate the position of the man who is having a terrific struggle. The man whose heart who has never been torn by a great grief can never understand the value or depth of his own happiness. The man whose whole moral nature has not been swept by some mighty surge of a great temptation can never feel the moral security of one who fought the fight and won. Great and terrific temptations are necessary to strengthen two strong and powerful lives."

That was by President Bradley.

JYB 8:311  November 5, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sacrament Meeting at Lincoln Street
November 5, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
There Is Something Wrong With a Person Who Is Not Content; Trials Are Stepping Stones to Exaltation; The Gospel Brings a Sword; Dissolution; Seek Knowledge of the Gospel
I am pleased to be with you. I have been away for a few Sundays. We all have ups and downs in life, and the greatest blessing we have is contentment. When you see a person who isn't content, there is something wrong with him. Wherever you find a man or woman who is discontent, there is always trouble. So let us try to have the spirit of contentment; for no matter what happens, God is at the helm.

We have been going through some troubles -- I wouldn't say very many trials. Why? Because God gave us the spirit of contentment. God gives us His Spirit in our hearts that we know these things are true. And it is for those things we have been going through these trials, and for that reason we haven't felt so bad. We haven't had things so bad yet. My parents went through the persecutions in Nauvoo, Illinois.

I heard a person ask the other day, "What will we do?" What will we do? I expect to go on and do the best I can. If the Lord sees fit to put trials upon me, I pray He will give me strength to bear them; and there isn't any of us but has trials. We don't know one another's hearts and what they are going through every day of our lives. And these trials and tribulations and sacrifices are the stepping stones to exaltation. We have been told that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things has not a saving virtue in it.

I was taken up a short time ago about breaking up families and causing the mothers and fathers distress. Did you ever see the Gospel of Jesus Christ preached when it didn't break up families? My mother and her family received the Gospel in England and were cast out. My mother's mother was a lord's daughter in England, and she was cast out. Nearly every book of the history of the Church proves beyond a doubt that the Gospel did not come to bring peace, but to bring a sword. The Gospel of Jesus Christ separates father and mother, brother and sister, husbands and wives. God said, "If you think more of them than you do Me, you are not worthy of Me." Read the inspired translation of the Bible. The plan is laid down, and if we don't follow it, we can't get the blessing.

There is a plan laid down, and this same plan has existed through all eternity, and we aren't the only ones who think this way. We are not fighting the Church. We are contending for the faith that was once delivered to the saints. We believe the Gospel as Joseph Smith taught it to us, through God explaining it to him, bringing it forth out of obscurity to the Church. We believe that just as much today as we ever did. Jesus said, "If you say you love Me, and keep not My commandments, you are a liar."

We come here and are here a little while, and then we are gone. We go over into another sphere of action, another place, to prepare for a greater exaltation. When we die, we are not dead, but are changed. When we die and are cast off at the last, then we go back into dissolution, both body and spirit. That is death. That isn't the end of us, then. God never created our intelligences. They always existed. But He organized us and prepared us in the shape we are in. But our intelligences always existed. So we go on from one sphere to another; and if we keep the commandments of God, then we are blessed. We have agency. And now we are told that the light we accept will either save or condemn us.

I ask God to bless you, and I would like to see the young people get up and bear their testimonies. I will promise them if they will get up, they will feel better than they ever have in their lives. I was talking today to one of the sisters, who said she still believed the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to be true. I told her to ask for a knowledge and get it. God bless you, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
November 12, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Covenant With Death;
Be Humble and the Lord Will Open a Door of Escape;
Pray With Your Family Morning and Night

How many of us feel like the poet said in "Awake, Ye Saints of God, Awake!" (by Eliza R. Snow, page 4 of Latter-day Saint Hymns)? We are right in that position today, my brothers and sisters. Not only are the men sentenced, but the wives and daughters of some of us also. What for? For keeping the laws of God. Where is it coming from? From the same place that persecutions usually come from. (Here he spoke of Samuel getting up on the walls to tell the people what to do, and how they tried to run him off.)

Isaiah 28

14. Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.
15. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

That is the position our persecutors are in. How many of you can see the handwriting on the wall? Brothers and sisters, if we are prayerful and humble, a door will be opened for us. If we are not, then some of us will be going to jail. Are we ready? How many are? I do not want to go to jail, but I will if I have to. If it takes that to purify me, then I will have to. We all say we will do this and that. Wait till we get up against it.

You have been preached to today and it puts me in mind of a horse parade wherein a man said, "You have shown me the `has-beens' and the `going-to-be's'. Now show me some others." We must keep the commandments of God ourselves. All the early Prophets, and those down to our present time, have told us what was going to happen. Do we believe it today?

Brigham Young said he went out by the hot springs and saw a bunch of sheep. Some were fine looking sheep, and others were not. They were a fine example of the people. The Spirit said that they were all sheep and had to be taken care of. We find it just the same today. Some are outstanding, some are not.

How many of us have our family prayers day and night and turn and face toward the temple of God as that Prophet told us to do? "When thy people are cast out and they turn their faces toward thy house, hear their prayers."

Brothers and sisters, the people are against us, the laws are against us, the Church is against us. What are we going to do? We have only one Friend, and that is God, if we approach Him in the right way. If we keep His commandments and live in a [right] way, He will send His messengers to us as He did to John Taylor and others. When we get to that place, then we will advance. One must not be pulling one way, and another another way.

I ask you people, all of you, to remember and pray. And I want to say to the people today, if any of you have any property, to go bonds, help us out. The judge told us plainly that we would go to jail Friday if we do not get them. God has never revealed just how this thing is going to go. I have asked Him, but He has never revealed it to me. One thing we do know, we will not back down and go the way they want us to do.

God bless you, that you may be humble in your hearts, that you may be able to meet whatever comes. Be prayerful and humble. If there is anything that the Lord dislikes, it is a proud, haughty people. He likes a meek and humble people. When we learn to be humble and prayerful, no matter what comes, then we learn to serve God in Spirit as well as in action. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:315  November 26, 1944  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
November 26, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Lorin Woolley's Prophecy Fulfilled;
We Have Not Been Obedient;
A Wife Injures Herself Out of the Kingdom
When She Dictates Her Husband

I know this work is true. We think of men and women that haven't ever done a thing condemned to the penitentiary. My daughter here -- they said she bore her testimony and sang. She didn't bear her testimony. She got a year in the County Jail. Do you call that justice? There isn't another state in the union that would have done what Utah has done now; and when you think of it, they are the children of the covenant. I look back now and think what Uncle Lorin meant when he said that children of the covenant would reject the covenant and aliens would restore the covenant; and so we can look and see those outside of the State say it is a crusade. People that don't belong to the Church would fight right now for us, while those who are the children of the covenant are rejecting the law. They are fighting the law of God. They aren't fighting us. Look at it square and see they aren't fighting us, but the law that was revealed that we might have eternal increase.

We have had some very good instructions given us this afternoon. How many of us have taken it to heart? How many of us have had it go in one ear and out the other? How many of us improve through coming here Sunday after Sunday? The time is coming, and not very far distant, when we will want the Lord, and want Him bad, too. The Prophet Isaiah said:
Isaiah 59

1. Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:
2. But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

Now you see, that isn't so of this group. The only difference is we know more. We have had more taught us, and the strife is going to be heavy. One of the old Prophets looking down said:

Proverbs 1

24. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25. But ye have set at naught all my counsel, and would none of my reproof;
26. I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;
27. When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.
28. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29. For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord:
30. They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.
31. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
32. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Isn't it verily true? Don't we turn away from these things? We come to our Sunday School class and learn of the Spirit of God and analyze these things, but do we obey them? That is the thing that counts. Every blessing is predicated upon obedience, and whenever we receive a blessing, it is by obedience to the law that gives us that blessing. If we fight that law, how do we get a blessing of that kind? We can't. I am still of that opinion like President Kimball said, "I pray for my enemies. I pray that God will dry them up like an old herring, that they can't increase." That's what they deserve -- that's what they are asking for. That's what they want. Let's let the people have what they are asking for.

These judgments are on the way. They are coming. Let's do everything that we can, and live every law that we can to protect us. He says that the righteous shall scarcely escape. If that's the case, we had better be very careful of what we do and say.

The brother spoke today of the family. Yes, the wives can pretty near make or break a man. A wife can bring him in, keep him in shape, be a stay and a staff unto him; but if they turn the other way and won't listen to his counsel and get after him because he won't do this and that and the other thing; and it won't be long before that husband won't care to come around -- they aren't hurting him near as much as they are hurting themselves. A wife that dictates to her husband injures herself out of the Kingdom of God. So if you are used to ruling over your husband and dictating to him, while I believe there are many women who have better sense than a man has, for heaven's sakes, if you have made your choice, make the best of it and help the husband out of it.

I ask God to bless you, and let us take these things to heart and know these things for ourselves. You can know whether these men who are talking here have what they claim just as well as you know baptism is true. God said, "If you do my will, you can know if I speak of myself or of God." You can get that as well about the Priesthood as anything else. God help us to stand firm and steadfast. We will continue to call on the Lord and He will fight our battles.

JYB 8:318 December 10, 1944 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
December 10, 1944
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Pray for the Lord to Help Us;
This Persecution Is a Conspiracy of the Church and Government;
I Am Not Afraid

Down in Short Creek the other day we got the children to praying for the brethren who were on trial there, and the F.B.I. wheeled around and got out of there like a shot out of a gun. Over a year ago I saw this condition. I told you a door would be opened for you. How many of you listened to this? What are we going to do? Are we going to get down on our knees and ask the Lord to help us? When Lorin said "by the Gods", he was not swearing. I think the door will be opened.

How many of us get down on our knees and pray? How many are asking the Lord to protect us? Some have prayers night and morning. I do not know what way it is going, but I know I have been terribly depressed for the last three weeks. If we go, the Lord will send us. There is no quitting.

Brother Joseph and I are older than some of the rest that are in it. Some say they wish they were in it with us. They can just let me out. I would rather take care of my family. Just like when I was a boy and father said he was going to give me a whipping, I was not hunting for that whipping. If we could live up to the word and the prophecies, just like Brigham Young said:

JD 2:305-306  Brigham Young  June 3, 1855  SLC

Another says, "Brother Brigham, I want to consecrate all I have, but you must build me a house for it, or get me my wood." This class will acknowledge that all is the Lord's, both out door and in. I wish to see the people acknowledge the principle of consecration in their works, as well as in their prayers. Do I, as an individual, want to see the people deed all they have to the Church? It does not concern me individually; I would not give the ashes of a rye straw for a personal deed of all the Latter-day Saints possess. Yet they are trying to acknowledge that all is the Lord's, and will say, "Let brother Brigham come and get what he wants, but I do not believe in giving up this property, it is mine, and I may want to trade this, that, or the other article." I do not want one red cent from you, but the Lord would be glad to see the people practise out of doors what they hypocritically profess before Him in doors. They say they are the Lord's, and when their children are taken sick, or their wives, fathers, mothers, or husbands are taken sick, O, how humble they then are, and they will send for the Elders to pray for them, and acknowledge that all is the Lord's, and say, "We give ourselves and all we have to thee." The Lord makes them well by His power, through the ordinances of His house, but will they consecrate? No. They say, "It is mine, and I will have it myself." There is the treasure, and the heart is with it, and what will be the end thereof? That which they seem to have will be given to those who are faithful, and they will receive nothing at all. They will not get an inheritance upon the earth, and cannot be crowned as kings and rulers in the kingdom of God; but if they are saved at all it will be as servants, to do the drudgery of those who are faithful, and who live the religion out doors which they say they have in their hearts.

Some of us dedicate all we have to the Lord, and then say you do not know whether you can live without this or that. The Lord has brought into our hands means we never thought of. Better than sixteen thousand dollars has been donated to us and we do not know where it has all come from. If they had taken one of us at a time, they could not have reached us, but when they took all of us at once, it is harder on us. I do not worry over us men, but I worry over the sisters. If they keep going the same way they have been doing, they will not take any notice of the facts. It is just plain conspiracy of the Church and government, from the top to the bottom. One of the brethren said that we cannot expect much here, but if we can get it to the Supreme Court we can expect some consideration. If we do, very well and good; if we do not, very well. If we do our best, that is all we can do. I do not feel very trembly in the knees, but they say where there is no sense there is no feeling. But I am not afraid. I tell you, every one of you, to go and ask the Lord to help us. He said He would fight our battles if we keep His commandments.

I love this people. There are some good people here. Some try to do right, and some are handicapped. Some say, "Oh well, we will see about it tomorrow." I often think of the poem where the man said he was too busy, until he called on the Lord for help, and then the Lord said He was too busy. If we do what is right -- "If ye do what I say, I am bound." I am not as scared of going to jail as I am of what they will do with our families. If they do one thing, they will not stop at anything.

May God bless you and keep you in His care; and may we always strive to do what is right. Talk about compromising! It is not the people that they are after. It is the law we are living. It is God they are fighting. They are rejecting God. May God's blessings be with us, and may we ever strive to be prayerful, and hope for the best and prepare for the worst; and take joy in what follows, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I have been greatly edified today, both in Sunday School and in meeting. I am glad to get back among the people here again, but I can say that we have a class of people down there [Short Creek] that are living and keeping the commandments of God and they have a very wonderful spirit.

I was greatly taken up today with what Brother Rulon [Jeffs] said. When we make up our mind we are going to keep the commandments of God, there is only one decision we will have to make. If we do that, God will bless us and we will be at ease. If we don't do that, we are on the sideline, afraid of following on through.

I know the Gospel is true. There are a great many in this house who know the Gospel is true. Talk about the principle of Celestial Marriage! If it hadn't been for that principle, we wouldn't be here. The greatest persecutions that ever came before the world came with that principle. They hadn't had anything to test the people before that. My grandfather and great grandfather went through the persecution in Missouri, and my grandfather was getting away from the mobs when he went to Nauvoo. And then a man here has the audacity to say that we are not "fundamentalists", but are just a few who have accepted the Gospel, when most of us here, or a great many of us, have been with the Church. Our parents and grandparents have been in it ever since it was organized. But they don't hurt us any. I have said many times, it isn't their lies that hurt us, but the little truths that hurt us.

I can well remember the underground days. I can remember men hiding at our home and women being taken across. I remember Uncle John Woolley telling of a case where he went to Grantsville with a woman who gave birth to a child on the way, and he had to attend to her himself. How many of you have read the pamphlet that Ellis got out? Get it and follow up the trials and tribulations they went through. We haven't gone through anything like that yet. What we will go through, I don't know. But I do know this -- if you are humble and prayerful, a door will be opened and we will be relieved.
If we don't get humble and prayerful, what will be the result? The Lord will whip us until we do. You take today in the Church, many of these brethren who are of the pure blood of Israel, and they will have to take punishment until even their enemies would weep. Now, if we want to miss some of that, it is by coming up and doing what Brother Rulon said today. What good is money, anyway, if it isn't to the end of building up the Kingdom of God? President Young said he heard one of the Apostles say, "Never use another dollar or dime of your money to build up the kingdom of the world, but use it to build up the Kingdom of God."

We have been taught we will never go to Jackson County unless we go back under the Celestial Law. That means we will not go back there unless we live that law. We can't get back without. Why do we hang back? You can't tell me that a man who is trying to live that law won't get farther than one who isn't.

I ask God to bless you and start things -- if you will make up your minds what you are going to do and what you aren't going to do. No one can force you. Using force is on the devil's ground. Now, we are not trying to force, and we are not asking to force. But we plead with you, brothers and sisters, to be humble and prayerful and don't forget that the Lord is watching over you. He knows our conditions and He knows our hearts, and He is going to judge our hearts. God bless you, amen.
much can we put into the House of God?" to roll this work along. The Lord has said, "Cast your bread on the water, and after so many days it shall be returned." If we don't cast it on, we can't expect to have it return.

We talk about paying tithing. People are paying tithing, very fine. But the first law that was given to the Latter-day Saints -- not the Former, but the Latter-day Saints -- after they had accepted repentance and baptism, was the law of United Order. They refused it and wouldn't take it, and the result was that the Lord allowed them a lesser law of ten percent. And now, if they really were living the full law, there would be no ten percent about it. That is the way it was given us. How many of us care? How many think, "Well, I can't afford to do this today. I am going to pay my debts today and pay the Lord later, for the Lord won't sue me"? He is badly mistaken. He will be sued.

That was just one law. Now the other laws. If we don't live them, we can't get the blessing. The law of gathering has been abandoned, and as a result, thousands of our people have been killed. Instead of coming out of their countries and coming to Zion, they haven't come. Let me tell you something. You are just a little ways off from some great trials, and persecutions, and judgments of God, especially upon this people; for God has said that His judgments should start at the House of God, among those who claimed to be Latter-day Saints and were not keeping the laws of God; and it is right onto us. We are going to get this. Those who are living right, He said He would spare; but we won't all be spared, not by any matter of means. We will not all be spared. The righteous will be spared to the wicked to some extent.

I love this people. I know pretty well each man's heart, and could pretty well tell you how he felt. I went to a man in Short Creek awhile ago and said, "I will tell you just how you feel, what's the matter with you." It was only a short time until he was in tears. He said, "Brother Barlow, I couldn't have told you better than you have told me just what is the matter with me."

We have got to learn, my brothers and sisters, to keep the commandments of God. As Brother Marion said, we have got to be educated to it. We can't jump into the work without being educated for it and trained for it. God's laws won't change. No matter what they do, whether they send us to jail, murder, or mob us, God isn't going to change His laws. They will stay there just the same. We may have to suffer, but in the end what does Christ say?
"He who lays down his life for the Gospel's sake will find it again." That is life eternal. That is what we are working for. What difference does it make if we are mobbed or whatever we have done? Nevertheless, in the road of salvation we are pushing forward; we are going on.

I have been greatly edified in what Marion said. I asked Marion when I was down there to get the brethren together and take some of the responsibility off himself, and you heard what he said was the result of it. Now each one of the men have had that burden pretty well put on their own shoulders and off Marion's, and that is United Order. I don't know how it could have been done any different, but the time has now come for them to take the burden off the one man or set of men, and take it on their own shoulders, and they will get just what they put into the Kingdom of God.

I know the Gospel is true, every principle of it. And I know if we ever get salvation -- I won't say salvation, but exaltation in the Kingdom of God -- we will live the laws that give it to us, or we will never get it.

I don't wish to take up anymore of the time. I ask God to bless and help you to think of these things yourself, and help all of you carry on in this great struggle you are in. Joseph said we have spent seventeen thousand dollars already, and don't know how much more we will have to spend, and don't know where. But whatever it takes, we must go up now and test this nation. God bless you, amen.
strengthens you. I never saw a man get up and testify that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God but what he was strengthened. We are all trying to live the laws of God. Let us draw nearer to the Lord. We, as a people, that understand the things that we do, can see why things are shaping as they are today. Those who are apostates, that fail and are selfish, bring things in the condition that they are in today. Brothers and sisters, we have the light, and many in the Church today are in a cloud of darkness; and we, as a people, should remember that where much is given much is required. I say, God bless you as a people, to help you and help us all, and keep pressing forward.

JYB 8:326  February 4, 1945  SLC

* * * * *

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified. While the brethren were talking, I have been thinking -- we have been told to stand in holy places. How many of us in the house today have had your homes dedicated? Now, let us be careful that we do not desecrate that house after it has been dedicated so that it will not be a holy place. Just such things have happened and can happen. We all ought to think in our supplications to God night and day, think what our children are doing in our homes, and away from our homes. And when they come home, see that there is no contention, and let us see if we can live as saints ought to live.

JYB 8:326  February 4, 1945  SLC

I ask God's blessings upon you, and let us try each day of our lives to live right and really improve. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:326  March 6, 1945  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
March 6, 1945
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Unity of Faith

I prophesy that if the people will pray earnestly to God, there is no way any of them can hurt us. If we were all of one heart and mind and we prayed, there isn't anything they could do.

JYB 8:326  March 25, 1945  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Lincoln Street
March 25, 1945
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Cease Faultfinding;
Keep the Commandments of God No Matter What Others Do;
There Will Come a Prepared People Out From Among This People;
The Priesthood Will Try You;
The United Order Will Be a Greater Test Than Celestial Marriage

My brethren and sisters, I am glad to be with you again.  Looking over the congregation I can see many faces.  And what are we doing? That is the question we have got to answer, and the question we have got to meet. It is very fine to come and hear the remarks made. The Spirit of God is here and we feel fine while here, but how many take home what they have heard? How many have heard?  Has it gone in one ear and out the other without registering?  I have a little here to read of what President Woodruff said:

JD 16:272   Wilford Woodruff   October 8, 1873   SLC

A few words more to the Latter-day Saints.  I want to say to the brethren and to the sisters, let us cease finding fault one with another; let us not say that this man or this woman does wrong, this family does wrong, this person or the other sets a bad example; let us realize that we ourselves are held responsible for what we do.  It will do me no good if I apostatize because somebody's family follows the fashions of Babylon, or because some man or woman or some set of men and women do wrong.  Let us cease this kind of work, and all of us look to ourselves.  It will do me no good if I apostatize because I think somebody else does not do right.  We should lay aside this, there is too much of it in the Zion of God today, and has been a good while, finding fault with this, that and the other, instead of looking at home.  Let us all look at home, and each one try to govern his own family and set his own house in order, and do that which is required of us, realizing that each one is held responsible before the Lord for his or her individual actions only.

We all know those words are very true to us today. What I want to get to you is this -- I don't care what the other man does.  If he fails to do this or that, all right, but I am not going to do it.  We must get into a condition where we will keep the commandments of God no matter what.

We have been talking for months and months on the United Order.  We have been talking on Celestial Marriage, and some few of us have stepped out. Some few are doing something and the other. Now, the first thing, the door is going to be closed on us, and like the foolish virgin we will be on the outside; because, as I have told you time and time again, men will come up out of this group as out of the Church, who are going to push ahead and forward, and God is going to tell us what to do. He has already shown me one or two men in this group who will move up to the high circle. I am positive of it. He has already spoken and pointed them out. Just waiting. There is plenty of room at the top, brethren, but the man has got to qualify himself before he can get to the top. And it has been that way all through the history of the world, and it is that way today.

I also hear some of them say something about some of the brethren here. Do you realize that when you go to talk about Brother Joseph, Brother Charles, or those, that they have been called of God as was Aaron? Do you realize that they are Prophets of God, that they have been called and set apart for that? Go home and read the 12th chapter of Numbers, and see what God said to them when Moses took an Ethiopian woman. See what happened when they tried to reproach him, and see what God did.

Take other scriptures from the Doctrine and Covenants and others. It isn't the personality of a person. So be very careful, and let us be careful of what we say and what we do, and see if we can't get over the fault of faultfinding. I am talking to myself as well as you. I am a great faultfinder around home. But nevertheless, if we don't keep the Spirit of God we will fall. Some things coming up will try us, and if the Lord don't see fit to turn Babylon on you, He will permit you to be tried in some other way. And then He may turn the Priesthood on you that may try the life out of you. And, brethren, still remember to keep your head up and watch the commandments of God, and keep His commandments no matter what they do. I would just like to give you that advice this afternoon.

I know some people who have their whole hearts and souls in the work of God and don't know what to do. Some are left to the devil when he says: "You aren't a good Latter-day Saint. You ought to do this and that." Say, "Get behind me, satan, I am following the laws of Jesus Christ." Don't try to do anything great, but live the laws of God every day, and pretty soon God will say, "Son, daughter, I want you here and there." It won't be long before you are going to be called for a very important mission. The Indians have got to have some go there. The work back in Jackson County will have people called back there soon.

Every blessing is predicated upon a law, and if we get a blessing it is by obedience. And if you think that you who had plural marriage have had all you can stand, it isn't a touch of what you will have in the United Order. Let a man come up and say, "We want a thousand dollars." I would say, "Go to thunder." You will say, "You have the right to lead us spiritually, but not temporally." Can you live successfully in plural marriage without the United Order? You can't do it, brethren and sisters. Do you realize the condition the people have got into today?

When President Young was here, he said, "The people are asleep." The Lord said, "If you live the commandments of God from this day on, your sins will be forgiven you." Did they keep the commandments of God? No, and the result is their children today have failed, and strangers are coming from the east, west, south, and north, and sitting down in the Kingdom while those are being cast out. Will they continue? Yes, there will be some who will come and some who won't.

Not very long ago we held a meeting down to Brother Theral Dockstader's home, and I said, "There are men in this house who will apostatize and turn from the truth." We have seen the results. There were some men that were there that night fighting the truth, and they have apostatized. They said, "You are all right to perform plural marriage, but that is as far as you can go." Think of it. A man can perform the highest law of the Gospel -- is that consistent? I said, "Are you trying to prove that you are living in adultery?" He said, "No." I said, "If these men haven't the right to do what they are doing, you are living in adultery."

The Lord is bringing these things together, and it isn't going to be long before you will see a big change. Prepare yourselves. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:330  April 1, 1945  SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
Sacrament Meeting at Lincoln Street
April 1, 1945
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Have a Testimony of the Priesthood for Yourself
(Brother Barlow here asked Brother Rulon Jeffs to read a sermon by Heber C. Kimball on the subject of the Sacrament, from the Journal of Discourses, volume 4 pages 80-83.)

I consider this your meeting, and we would like to have you get up and bear your testimonies and have a good time and enjoy the Spirit of the Lord.

(Rulon Jeffs and others spoke, and then John Y. Barlow said:)

I just want to say to Irene Christensen, that she is going to be glad that she went to Short Creek. Those feelings that she has will leave her, and you will not be able to get her back if you wanted to. It is true with everyone down there.

Brethren, let us get a lineup on the Priesthood and find out what people are following the Priesthood of God. In the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 90 verse 4, it says that the oracles of God will be given through the Prophet Joseph. Find any other people that you can where the oracles were given through Joseph Smith. Can you find any others that have the line that comes from Joseph Smith to Brigham Young, from Brigham Young to John Taylor, to these men? Can you find any other line? I want to know the authority in the things I want. I have not heard of any other group that has been able to furnish an abstract deed as this group has in the line of the Priesthood. I just wanted to say these few words. We want you to get the testimony for yourselves. I had to get it for myself.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Conference at Lincoln Street
April 8, 1945
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Vision of Deliverance; Be Humble and Prayerful;
Cannot Blame Someone Else; "I Saw the Coming of the Savior";
If You Reject the Priesthood, the Priesthood Will Reject and Leave You

Brothers and sisters, I attended a very fine Conference Friday with the brethren down in Short Creek. We had a very fine time and the Spirit of God was there in abundance.
I want to say to you that a year and a half ago the Lord showed me that this people was going to be in a tight place, and our enemies were all around us, and we could not get away (as in a corner). No matter what we did we could not get away. I said to the people there, "If you are humble and prayerful enough you can open that door; there will be a way opened for you. I saw the people were prayerful and humble, and I saw that door open. The very first man I saw on the other side of the door was the Prophet Joseph, who took me by the hand.

Now, we are up against it! Have we been prayerful and humble enough? Are we going to be prayerful and humble enough that God will protect us? We know God is able to protect us, but are we going to be like Isaiah said -- your iniquities have separated you from your God and yourselves and He will not hear your prayers?

When we heard about our young attorney (prosecution), we knew he did not believe in Mormonism. We know that his grandfather held his head high and told him he would not give up these principles. Then his grandson sends us to jail (Roberts). Didn't He say that their children would reject Him? It is being done by many of the saints -- rejecting His commandments. When you refer to the revelations of God, they say, "We are looking to President Grant for that." They say President Grant is responsible for them. (Here he told the story of the purse with three or four thousand dollars in it.) Who is the loser? The one who lost the purse. And you will lose your salvation in the same way if you try to put the responsibility on someone else. These laws were given by the Eternal Father for our exaltation, and He said if we do not live them we will be damned.

This jail situation does not worry me one bit. Supposing they take our lives! What did the Lord say? "Though ye be dead, yet shall you live."

I know just as well as I am standing here the Savior is coming. How do I know it? Why, I saw Him come a good many years ago. And when He does come, these men will vanish, these men who are trying to stop us. When He comes there will be three of a field, and two will be taken and one left, etc. Some of the Elders have been out in the mission field and preached the Gospel, healed the sick, cast out devils, etc., but they came back and went to sleep. Heber C. Kimball said, "Why, you people are a sleeping a sleep of death. When I leave this life some of you will never see my face again."
President Grant's father preached himself to death trying to save the people, and died under it. Why do they die under these conditions? When they see how we are going it makes them weep. Our fathers on the other side are praying night and day for us and there is a reckoning day coming. First thing you know, the Savior will come. I know that. God will step forth when these people fill up the cup of iniquity. If they put us in jail, we will turn it into a heaven. If God's Spirit will rest upon us, it will be like Elijah was of old. Many of these things will happen.

I want to tell you now, that anything that happens, God will be asked about it. If we petitioned the Lord now, and asked for the judgments to come upon these people now, He would send them. Do I know that this is so? YES! I know what we are preaching to you here is true! And I know this much, that those of you who are rejecting it will see it for your yourselves. You will say, "No, I am not in it because I rejected it, the words that are taught to me."

Brigham Young tried to redeem the people. See what a merciful God He is. If the people who had gone to sleep would repent and accept the truth, He will forgive you and you can go on. Some of you people here will not keep the commandments of God. We want to clear our skirts. I know one thing, plain and simple. If you reject these things and turn the Priesthood away, the Priesthood will leave and you will not go and advance.

These things are true. I want you to remember what I have said today. You will find out that what has been said today are God's truths. If the Church couldn't advance forth in the days of Joseph, then today it cannot advance. Instead of the Church being a spiritual organization, it has turned out to be a financial and political organization. We have some very learned men at the head. Jesus said in speaking of them, "They love to sit in high places, but God knows their hearts." And that is what He has pled is an abomination in the sight of God. You heard of these eight hundred cases of adultery that were only fined fifty dollars or less, and let out; and yet these faithful men they are sending to jail. Those things that have been going on in the political world are an abomination in the sight of God.

We had better quit quarrelling and falsifying, and be prayerful and humble; pray night and day for deliverance. God bless you, amen.
I just want to testify to what has been said. We know that it is true, and we hope that the Lord fits our backs to the burden. I am not worried about myself. I am not worried about those we are leaving behind and how they will get along. We don't need to worry about them, for they will get along. The Lord says, "I will fight your battles," and we are depending upon Him and Him alone. As far as lawyers are concerned, I lost my confidence in them a long time ago. We have to have them to plead our cause, but I feel Brother Musser is a better lawyer than any we have.

I ask God's blessing upon you all. Some of you, if these men are taken, some of you will have to take the lead of the Sunday School here, and some are already prepared for it. We want the people to turn out and don't forget your prayers. That is the main thing.

I remember a little instance where there were some fellows in Short Creek looking for some of the sisters, and that one Sunday they went to my home and asked my little boy, "What is your name?" He said, "Alma." "Alma what?" "I don't know." They said, "Do you know anything?" He said, "It's just according to who we are talking to." I want to tell you, if some of our older ones were as keen and as smart, we would do well.
lot of other things, too. We knew there were others fighting, and we knew that some were praying, and knew that God was hearing and answering prayers. The first time I went before the board of pardons, they were just as bitter as could be (I should say parole board). I went home and fasted and prayed; and in a week I went back again, and he said, "You can go and stay as long as you want to, and just let us know when you want to come back." I know that God touched their hearts.

Now, my brothers and sisters, I feel tonight to tell you that if you continue in the course that you are going in and living the laws of God, there is not any of you that God will not recognize. And I want to say that many of these young people here will go back and help build the center stake of Zion, and some of you girls here will go back and help them receive their blessings. And Ephraim will help the tribe of Manasseh receive their blessings. There is hardly a person here but what has the blood of Ephraim. Joseph, he took Reuben's blessing in his grandfather's family because Reuben defiled himself. Ephraim and Manasseh were put as tribes of Jacob. We know how Ephraim received the blessing. We see the blood of Ephraim being gathered out. We have gone out in the nations of the world and gathered in that blood. The tribe of Manasseh will receive the blessings through the hands of the tribe of Ephraim. How many of us would be glad to go back to the center stake of Zion and help to give the other tribes their blessings? That is your blessing if you keep the commandments of God. Many of you here will receive those blessings.

I want to bless you in the authority of the holy Priesthood. I bless you and say unto you, be true, be faithful, and God will hear you at all times, and through our faithfulness; and in it He will stay the hand of our enemies and we will be able to build up this waste country and get us homes. I do not care for the homes if He will give us His Holy Spirit and build up our hearts. In the prison we were happy when God blessed us. I'll say, God bless you and be with you, and whenever you think of anything that opposes the work of God, put it out of your mind. Say, "Get behind me, I am going to serve God." God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:335  April 7, 1946  SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
Minutes of Meeting
June 8, 1947
Reported by Edson P. Jessop
Called of God; "Constructive Criticism" Is of Lucifer

I have listened with love in my heart. I never chose this work. I said to the one who was going to set me apart, "I cannot see this in me."

He said that, "The Lord spoke to my father [John W. Woolley] and called you."

There is never a group of men on earth that is more blessed than this little group of men in Short Creek.

Men speak of constructive criticism. What is constructive criticism? Lucifer undertook constructive criticism.

It is estimated at four million dollars worth of advertising when we went to jail. It is said they will come from the east, west, south, north and sit down with the children of Abraham.

Go home and read of Elijah in the teachings of the Prophet Joseph. As far as authority is concerned, we have got it, but often it's unwise to use it.

President Snow said that, "I was never so pleased in all my life as when I found that the Prophet had weaknesses."

I never came down here until I got a calling to come down here. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:336 June 27, 1947 SLC

Salt Lake City, Utah
At a Cottage Meeting
June 27, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Testimony Concerning Joseph Smith;
Baptism Brings a Newness of Life; Keys of Elijah;
Obey the Laws of God to Have Eternal Increase

I wonder if we remember the sayings of the Savior. I remember, when you look back and see what He went through, and see how He traveled, and see the plan of life and salvation He taught; and how, for many centuries that plan had been changed, a complete apostasy had been done; as John said, "They worshipped the dragon." Now, that condition went on until this boy that we just sang of here, went out into the grove and knelt down before his Heavenly Father. What light did he bring to us as a people? The first light he brought to us was that God is a Man. "I know He is a Man, for I have seen Him and talked to Him." The Father and the Son appeared to Joseph and told him to listen to Them. The Father said, "This is My Beloved Son, hear Him."

Now, going back a little further, what kind of doctrine was taught us by the Savior? He said, "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." What does it mean? It means you have got to have a newness of life, a change. Paul says you go down into the waters to come up with a newness of life.

On that day of Pentecost, just before that time, after the Savior had set His Apostles apart and told them to tarry in Jerusalem for awhile, did these men have any work to do? Yes, they worked among the people. Instead of being Twelve Apostles when this great time came, there was a hundred twenty saints. They had been working and teaching them, getting prepared for that great work that was to come. The Spirit of God came upon them like a mighty gust of wind. Some spoke in tongues, etc. The people accused the brethren of being drunk, but Peter stood up among them and showed them that they could not be drunk. He went to work and said:

Acts 2

37. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?
38. Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.
39. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
40. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

That was the kind of doctrine Jesus taught. After this great apostasy came and the saints were killed off, what do we get? We have another picture seeing a mighty angel flying through the midst of heaven carrying the Everlasting Gospel. This same angel brought this message to Joseph Smith. What kind of doctrine did he teach us? He gave the same as the Savior taught us -- repent, and be baptized, and be prepared for the coming of the last days. This has come on down to our day. Finally, God saw that the people were turning from the truth, and that they were going to turn, and He set certain men apart to see that they did not turn from the truth. These men have been working till some of them became old and gray and passed away. But before they passed away, they set others to carry on that work until another great pentecostal will come upon us, and we will receive the blessings that we are expecting and wanting.

The spirit of the adversary is trying to break this up. It can be done if we are blessed enough. If we keep the commandments of God near enough, there may be some of those who will see this great time when it will come; for just as sure as you are sitting here, the One Mighty and Strong is coming to get it back in order. Still we go on. One will say, "Those brethren have not got the Priesthood." Joseph in his day said he could have gotten along very well if it had not been for some "great big Elders".

You people that are here, these men sitting with me here have got that authority, and have had it sealed it upon their heads, and the time will come when we will know it. I can see it coming nearer, every day of my life; see the times coming when we will quit being easy. We will tell, brothers and sisters, just what is what.

How thankful we ought to be, how thankful. What have we got? After this angel came and restored the Gospel, all the holy angels from Adam down have come here and left the keys. Noah came and left his keys, and then we come down and Moses came and gave us the keys of the gathering. Elijah came and gave us the keys of the sealing. Elijah was the last Prophet that held the keys of the Priesthood. And the Lord said:

Joseph Smith 2

38. ...Behold, I will reveal unto you the Priesthood, by the hand of Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

39. ...And he shall plant in the hearts of the children the promises made to the fathers, and the hearts of the children shall turn to their fathers. If it were not so, the whole earth would be utterly wasted at his coming.
This Elijah held the highest that was ever known upon the earth, and he gave unto us laws. We hear the brethren say, "Oh, you have got the keys of Elijah. You can seal. We know you can do that. But you cannot go any further." How inconsistent it is to say that we can perform the highest ordinances there are on earth, and cannot do anything else. It would be just like a man trying to build a house without first laying a foundation. He would put the top on first and there would be no foundation, so the house would topple over and there is nothing to stand upon -- every ordinance, and everything. How many of us ever remember what the Prophet Joseph said? He said, "To have the power of Elijah, there is not an ordinance or principle in any of the Priesthood but what they cannot perform." Now, those are the words of the Prophets; yet we hear this coming up nearly every day.

I do not feel like complaining. I know what we have got to do. I know there are servants of the Most High. I would rather take the counsel of this man here, Brother Joseph Musser, than any man on earth. I have tried him, and I know what he is. I know his worth. And before long, if he slips away, we will know his worth, all of us; but we never miss the water till the well goes dry. God cannot build up the Kingdom unless He has the consent of the creature. Eternal laws will not let Him. It is the same with the brethren. They cannot bring these things together unless the people accept them. Why? Because God gave us our agency.

There is just one other thing. I had an argument just lately. I told a man when the Edmunds Law came out, from then on every Latter-day Saint, it did not matter who he was or where he came from, if he was a Latter-day Saint, he was a breaker of the law. He either had to break the laws of God or the laws of the land, because they are in opposition to each other. Lots of them prefer to break the laws of God, and some prefer to break the laws of the land. Some prefer to take the punishment that the government gives them. Others think that probably they would rather take what the Lord gives them. But for my part, I would rather take what the world gives me. In the Celestial Kingdom there are three heavens or degrees.

D.& C. 131

1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

You are stopped, you are cut off, you cannot go on, you cannot become Gods. On the other hand, you may be whipped or persecuted, but you still can go on to your exaltation. We might look back a little and say, "What do we have?" We have Moroni coming, then John the Baptist, then Peter, James, and John, Elias, Moses, and Elijah. All the Prophets that have held keys all the way down have come here and conferred keys and taught them why we are here; and taught us that we are to pray to God; that God was once a man as we are, and was exalted to Godhood through His obedience to eternal and divine laws. That is what we are working for, is it not? May it be our happy lot that we get into the Celestial Kingdom and live the laws of God so that we can do this thing, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Letter from President John Y. Barlow to Rulon T. Jeffs
Short Creek, Arizona
July 8, 1947
Two Cleansing Processes;
Let Howlers Howl and Growlers Growl

Dear Brother Rulon,
Received your note and was glad to hear Marion's decision. Of course we refuse to deed land to people, but this was another thing, and I feel as though we done that which was right. I realize I have lots of opposition down here, or in other words, the organization has. We have the Fors' the Bistlines, the Hunters, the Widows, the Dockstaders, and ever so many women.

I understand that Fors got on a rampage Sunday. Said this never was from the Lord. I've always said that if you gave a calf enough rope it would hang itself. So I see no necessity of trying to answer them as the Spirit of God does not act like that.

In giving Brother Stubbs back his land we just put him on his own mettle. Both Leonard Black and Weidow has come to me and wanted to know if we were turning the shop over to them and let the company have nothing to do with it. I told them I didn't know what it was as I hadn't talked with you about it, but I supposed that you were looking over the tax end of it. I will talk to you about it when I see you Sunday.

I have felt quite concerned over something of late, but if we are prayerful and humble we will be able to go on. You know and I know before Marion and Del and them got to quarreling we had a large portion of the Holy Spirit with us. Oh, how timely was the warning that God gave us to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Now they can hardly hold a Priesthood meeting without jangling, and you know my hands are tied, and we have some that are rejoicing over it, too. The Lord, in speaking to the people through the Holy Ghost has said that some will come out of this group and be leaders, just as some have come out of the Church. Oh, how the words of Brother Budge are being fulfilled. He said:

Millennial Star  32:584

Before the great day of the Lord shall come, and the day of righteousness and peace dawn upon this fair creation, two potent cleansing processes shall be in active operation. The first of these is the preparation of a choice people, purified by an application to their lives, as individuals and a community, of the principles of the Gospel of peace. Such a body will evolve from those called Latter-day Saints, who, as a Church, possess the fullness and power of the pure plan of salvation. Out of this community, at present in the merely incipient stages of development, and from the remnant of the whole House of Israel, will emanate the nucleus or foundation from which will spring the righteous millennial population of our globe. The other branch of preparation will be the partial depopulation of the earth, by cutting off from this life those who are not in harmony with the laws of God, and consequently not fit to perform His will. This destructive work, made necessary because of corruption and wickedness, will be somewhat gradual, but, as time increases, will extend the area of its operations. It operates at the House of God first, plucking out whatsoever is offensive and detrimental to the purification of the Saints, going forth with sweeping devastation over the corrupt and abominable nations of the earth.

And when we look upon the Church of Christ as recorded in the Truth, spoken by H.C. Kimball, of course the Church of the Firstborn holds all of the keys, or, in other words the keys are in that Church. He wasn't speaking of the church that was organized to hold property, but was speaking of the Church of the Firstborn. And if you will read Section 88 of the Doctrine and Covenants you will see how to become a member of the Church of the Firstborn.

Well, dear Brother, we have a big work before us, and it will take all of our strength to fulfill the same; and we have to let howlers howl and growlers growl. But we know by the Spirit of God where we're at.

God bless you all up there.
Your Brother in the cause of Truth,
John Y. Barlow

JYB 8:343  July 12, 1947  Widtsoe

Widtsoe, Utah
July 12, 1947
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson  Vol.1 Page 3)
Two Cleansing Processes;
The Priesthood Council Called of God;
"Constructive Criticism" Not of God;
Speak Gently of the Erring One; We Are Not of This World;
Must Live All the Laws to Obtain an Exaltation;
Learn the Gospel Step by Step

My brothers and sisters, I am glad to be here today. I am glad for the words that our brothers have given us.

What sort of people should we be? One of the servants of God said that there was a certain people going to come out of the Church, and they would be the nucleus of the great Millennium. That people would live all the laws of God. There would be two processes going on. One would draw those people out. The other would be the destroying of all those who rejected the Gospel. It was already started in a very small way at that time, but it would keep on and keep on until it affected the whole world. Now, we as a people have been, as you would say, cast out. Yes, in a way we have been cast out. It is our own faults. We cast ourselves out. They wouldn't let us live the fullness of the Gospel, and we want to live it.

I want to say a few words to you, brothers and sisters, about the men here that have been called. I know that these men have been called under the inspiration of God. I know that every one of them has been called as was Aaron. That being the case, have we got anything to say to them? Let me read just a little in the 132nd Section of the Doctrine and Covenants, verses 59 and 60:

D.& C. 132

59. Verily, if a man be called of my Father, as was Aaron, by mine own voice, and by the voice of him that sent me, and I have endowed him with the keys of the power of this priesthood, if he do anything in my name, and according to my law and by my word, he will not commit sin, and I will justify him.

60. Let no one, therefore, set on my servant Joseph; for I will justify him; for he shall do the sacrifice which I require at his hands for his transgressions, saith the Lord your God.

The Lord took him out of the hands of the people, and he has got to do the sacrifice of God Himself. That is what the Lord says about this. But what do we hear today? We hear a man get up here and say he is giving constructive criticism. Why, I have got so tired hearing them talk about constructive criticism. Do you realize that Lucifer used constructive criticism on God? What was the result? It was not for lying, stealing, immorality, etc., but for that very thing that Lucifer was cast out of heaven. Brothers and sisters, we have a lot of that. We have it over there (Short Creek) practically every morning. In our Priesthood Meetings men get up and tell us we ought to do things this way and that way instead of the way we are doing. As President Taylor said, "I would gladly take your advice if you had the right to give the advice, but if you haven't the right, why should I take it? If it is counsel and it is good, I would take it from a child." A short time ago, one of my little boys asked my wife, "Who sent the brethren to prison?" She said, "The judge did." He said, "Mama, isn't God greater than the judge?" There was a lesson to me -- isn't God greater than the judge? He sure is greater than any judge, but why is He doing this? He is doing it either to try us or because we deserve it.

The Prophet Joseph sometimes would put up a blackleg to try the people, to see if they knew the difference between a servant of God and a blackleg. Brothers and sisters, if we have the Spirit of God and can keep it, we know in a minute whether a man is speaking under the inspiration of the Spirit of God or under the inspiration of enthusiasm. We have lots of men here, and yet at the same time we have got to be careful. We mustn't condemn a man.
I will tell you a little story that came to me about Abraham. There was an old man came to Abraham's home to stay all night. When the time came for prayers, that old man refused to kneel down. Abraham told him to get out if he wouldn't pray with him. After the old man had gone, the Lord came to Abraham and said, "Where is that man?" Abraham said, "I told him to go because he wouldn't pray with me." God said, "I have put up with that man for seventy-five years now. Couldn't you put up with him for one night?" We have got to be careful. I often think of the song, "Speak Gently of the Erring One".

There are so many things coming up today. The Church is against us. The State is against us. The government is against us. We can't expect anything else. It is a great deal like in the mission field. I was in a debate with a minister. He proved that this nation wouldn't accept us at all. They cast B. H. Roberts out of the Senate, but they would accept heathens and all the other churches. When I got up, I said I wanted to thank the gentleman that he had proven very conclusively that we weren't of the world. Of course, they wouldn't accept us. They would accept the heathens and all the other churches -- everybody except us. Today they allow ministers of different organizations to come into the Church and lecture to the people. And God has told Joseph Smith that they worship idols. We are told in the very first communication of God to Joseph Smith that they were an abomination in His sight, and they preach for doctrine the commandments of men. Today the Church takes them in their arms. At the same time, they will cast men out that are living the fullness of the Gospel. The adversary is very cunning. He knows very well if we don't live the fullness of the Gospel, we cannot go on to our exaltation; for the Lord has said, "If you live all these laws and reject one of them, you have failed."

The Prophets have told us that the United Order and plural marriage are the fullness of the Gospel. Do we believe them? No, we do not. That is what is the matter with a good many of these people. They say they believe, but they do not. That makes them liars, and the truth isn't in them. If the cap fits you, I want you to wear it. If not, it is all right.

The Lord has said in very plain words that you must have a testimony. The main thing here is that they don't believe in the Priesthood. Some men say, "We believe you are all right to seal us, but that is as far as you go. You have no right to administer in temporal things." It is like a man building a house and starting at the roof first. He will have hard work to keep it off the ground; it is liable to come down on him. I want to tell you that these men who have been called have got that authority, and they are called of God. And any man you hear talking and saying anything against those men, walk up to him and say, "Brother, do you know you are talking about the Lord's anointed? You better be careful, for the Lord surely will take such men in hand."

I want to tell you one thing. We have got what the rest haven't got. God has given us the true plan, and He has given us the right to go on and have eternal increase. It is up to us whether we do or whether we don't. If we believe it and live up to it, we will get the blessing of it. But if we don't, we will get the cursings of it.

We are having quite a hard time getting along at present. But that will clear up; we can't expect to live the United Order all at once. "We know in part; we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away." As President Taylor said, "Let us do the best we can with the ways the people have been trained and taught, and in time we will be able to live the fullness of the United Order. We are not prepared to live it now, but let us go on and on till we are." That is the way we learn the Gospel -- step by step. We never will be able to jump right into the fullness of God's laws until we get prepared for them.

I ask God to bless you all and give you of His Spirit, that you might know of these things, and I do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:347 August 31, 1947 Widtsoe

Widtsoe, Utah
Sunday School at the Ranch of Elder Newel Steed
August 31, 1947
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson Vol.1 Page 7)
Church of the Firstborn; Magnify Your Calling;
Dissolution; Keys of Elijah;
Gain Salvation Through Keeping Covenants;
The Resurrection; Be Ye Perfect;
God Helps Those Who Help Themselves

Church History, what is it? What church are we talking about? The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints? You want to know for sure what church we belong to. Do you folks here belong to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints? There was a church organized in New York -- the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Later on, a Church of the Firstborn was organized in Kirtland, Ohio. President Young, President Kimball, and a great many of them belonged to that Church; and it has worked here on earth. It was organized after the pattern that was organized in the heavens before we came here. It wasn't a church to hold a corporation, to hold things of that kind, to hold property and things; but it was a Church of the Firstborn.

How many of us here today belong to the Church of the Firstborn? Do you ever stop to think of that? When we talk of history of the Church, we want to get down to the real essence of it and find out what it is. Every man that fulfills his calling, if he doesn't belong to that Church, will belong to it someday if he magnifies his calling as he should; the Priesthood will give him the honor of being a member of the Church of the Firstborn. It is just as necessary for a man that is an Elder to magnify his calling, or a deacon to magnify his calling, as it is for an Apostle. Paul likens the organization unto the body of a man to show what a perfect organization it should be. Any member that is not there leaves a schism in the body. If we take the Seventies out, we cut off an arm. We cannot take the lesser ones out, because the legs and feet are just as necessary as the head, because the head can't move without the feet. All things belonging to the Kingdom or the Church must be there.

I don't know how many of you had the TRUTH last month. How many of you carefully read it and saw the difference between the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Church of the Firstborn? There is going to be a wide difference. That is why Joseph Fielding Smith said that there had been many people that belonged to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints that didn't belong to the Church of the Firstborn. Brothers and sisters, keep on and work until we get where we belong -- to the Church of the Firstborn. I hope that we will, someday, all of us, belong to that Church.

(Uncle John asked Brother Newel Steed:) Are you having the Sacrament here? I can't see any reason why a bunch of people like you who are trying to live the laws of God cannot have the Sacrament every Sunday. I say, have the Sacrament, and I am sure it will help you. Keep on as you are doing now. We are having a time down there in Short Creek right now. I don't know hardly how it will come out. Yes, I do know. Some will leave, some have already left, some will stay and go on; others will leave. We have got some right good men down there. We have all of the Brother Jessops that are solid, all of the Brother Johnsons that are solid. We have got the young men, and you can depend on nearly every one of them. There is hardly any of the young men but what you can depend on. Some of the older ones got on the rampage again yesterday.

My brothers and sisters, my hands are tied; they are tied right now. But if I could get out like I used to, I don't think we would have any trouble. If we can't raise crops, let us raise houses. If we can do that, we can build some good houses down there. President Young said, "I have built a number of houses and I never had five dollars in my life to start with; I have built houses worth five thousand dollars." I saw his houses in Kirtland, in Nauvoo, etc. He was driven out of them. We, as a people, cannot expect the blessings of God without going through the trials. We have got to go through the trials. Sacrifices bring forth the blessings. If we can't do these things, we can't get the blessings either.

We all understand and know that when the Edmunds Law came out, it was in opposition to the laws of God; so it made every man, woman, and child in the Church a defier of the law. Some defied the laws of the land and others defied the laws of God. If you defy the laws of the land, you will go to jail. But if you defy the laws of God --

D.& C. 131

1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

When we get as high as we can get, ceasing to go up, we have got to go down. We can't stand still. Those who deny the laws of God start to go back. If that is an end of their kingdom, they are through advancing. Where do they go? We are told by President Young that they go into oblivion, to dissolution. We go back to our native element from whence we were taken.

You can't destroy anything. You can change it, but you can't destroy it. It all goes back into native element. You take your forests here. The trees will grow on to a certain time when they quit growing, and you will find them starting to go back. Pretty quick they decay; then you see nothing. It has all gone back into native element. That is the way we will be. We may come forth again in trillions of years. It may be that long before that dust is awakened again. The intelligence we had is still there, but that part which was created and made, such as our spiritual bodies and temporal bodies, must go back into native element. The intelligences will go back where they started from. Whether we lose what we have learned or not is just a question. What light and knowledge we learn in this life, we will always have. Then that makes us wonder if this is the first time we have tried it, if some spirits are more intelligent than others. Abraham was shown the intelligences that were organized before the world was; and among all these, there were many of the noble and great ones, he said. Where did they get it?
You take all through life, there are some intelligences greater than others.
Why? It is very evident. If we went right now and there were a bunch of Indians out here, we might just as well shut up. The intelligence isn't there.
When they are taught and brought around, they may understand us.
Whenever the Lord speaks to a people, He has to come down to their level to get them to understand anything. If we talk to Indians, we have to go down to their level.

Now, we heard today about Elijah. I believe that is in Church History. When the Kirtland Temple was dedicated, who came? Elias came and gave his dispensation. Who is Elias? I will tell you. Elias is Noah. Noah came down and gave his dispensation. Then Moses came and gave them the dispensation of the gathering. This people here can thank the Lord that Moses came, because it is through Moses that we have the power and authority to go forth and preach the Gospel to the nations of the earth and bring them here. Then, a little further on, a great and glorious vision burst upon him -- Elijah came and gave them the sealing blessing; gave them the power to seal men on earth.

Now for Elijah. What do we understand by Elijah? If you have the power and authority of Elijah, there isn't a thing in the Melchizedek Priesthood that can't be done. All the keys are included in the power and authority of Elijah.
Read on page 338 in the sayings of Joseph Smith and see. Now what did he say? Joseph, in speaking, said:
Let us suppose a case. Suppose the great God who dwells in heaven should reveal himself to Father Cutler here, by the opening heavens, and tell him, I offer up a decree that whatsoever you seal on earth with your decree, I will seal it in heaven; you have the power then; can it be taken off? No. Then what you seal on earth, by the keys of Elijah, is sealed in heaven;

That is the way we are carried on to our exaltation. Every one of us that gains our exaltation gains it through covenants. And if we break those covenants, we go down. If we live those covenants, we are exalted.

We spoke of Elijah. He came and gave Joseph Smith that authority of the sealing power. After Elijah had come and given that authority -- he was the last Prophet that lived that held all the keys -- and after he had come here and delivered those keys to us, then we were able to go ahead and perform these things.

I just thought, sitting here today, I am quite proud -- maybe I hadn't ought to say this -- but I am proud of the way you people have been carrying on. I can't see one better reason why a people would come out from the heart's core of the Church than to live all the laws of God. You came out, every one of you. It was hard work. I know how churchbound I was. I didn't understand or know then, but after seeing these things, He says it very plain in the first Section of the Doctrine and Covenants that the time would come when they would change the ordinances and break the everlasting covenants. He said we would come from among them. How are we going to stay out? How many of you today know where the Priesthood is? Some people get down upon their knees and find out, and they know where the Priesthood is, and you can't fool them. Others will say, "I don't know about this and that," and almost invariably, you will see them go backwards. We want to get a thorough understanding of these things. Someday you will read about some that have come out from among the people. You will read of such things again before you get through, and we are keeping a history of it. I hope we are keeping minutes here of everything that goes on. Sooner or later, they will be called in.

What is going to become of us? Do you mean to tell me that my parents are all wrong? No, I don't mean to tell you anything about it. A Methodist said, "Do you mean to say that my father is wrong? Why, he is a good man; my parents are good people." Yes, they sure are, and so were Cain's. His Father was, at least. Here is the thing. There is a law on which every blessing is predicated, and when we get the blessing, it is by obedience to that law. How can God give us that blessing without obedience to the law? If we didn't have to obey, God wouldn't be God. We will admit there are hundreds of good men, thousands of them in the Church. Our parents and grandparents and relations, we feel for them. They think we have all apostatized and gone. When my folks joined the Church in England, people just thought they had gone to the bad. They came out here. I have met hundreds of people in the world that have said, "I don't know what we will do, some of our children believe in Mormonism."

President Young said, "I invite you to take excursions. I will take excursions, but I am not going to take all my wives. I remember one fellow came and told me that I had twenty wives. I said, 'That is fine, but I don't know them. I wish you would name them.'" President Young said when the brethren talked about him in Texas, "You go back and tell the Texas people that when I get on the other side, I expect to have thousands of wives." Maybe he will if he has kingdoms enough. But today I don't know about taking these thousands of wives. Probably your hair would go grayer than mine is now; you can't tell. Thank the Lord I am what President Young said, anyway. He said that if you have your hair left on your head, you can consider that you have some blessed good wives. I haven't lost my hair. I think some of the brethren are getting quite a ways back, though.

Well, let me tell you brethren, this thing is true. It isn't to be monkeyed with either. When the adversary saw that we started to live the two laws, then he started to work. He didn't care if we just lived one law. Why? Though you keep all the laws and offend in one, then you are guilty of the whole. If you have something you have got to be punished for, you can't get into the Celestial Kingdom. I have heard women say, "When I get on the other side, I don't want to have to live with that man," etc. If ever you have a man that is worthy of the Celestial Kingdom of God, you will be mighty glad to have him, for when we get on the other side, we are told, if you will read Parley P. Pratt and others, they won't be old and crabby and crippled up, but they will be in their full bloom of life. They will be young and fresh. That is what the resurrection is going to do. We are going to have this body renewed. We want to thank the Lord that we have got a good, healthy body; and thank the Lord that we have good honorable parents, that the disease that is in the world today isn't in our bodies. This is all church history.

We can go ahead and study the Church History and see what happens here and there, but what we want to know is what is going to happen to us. Like I told Brother Darter when he was telling me about the white Indian prophet, I said, "How close does that get you to the Celestial Kingdom of God?" If we are living a law that will put us in the Celestial Kingdom of God, that is what we are after. Be perfect in our sphere. We can be as perfect in our sphere as God is in His sphere. He says, "Be ye perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect."

Brothers and sisters, I love to see people united. I love the people that are united, and would to God that I could get out and talk to you more than I do. But everything I say down there is taken right up to the probation officer. There isn't anything that they don't hear about. Last time I went up there, he said, "I understand that Esther had a baby." I said, "What of that?" He said, "You broke your parole." I said, "How did I break my parole? Didn't you hear the Board of Pardons say, 'Go down and take care of your wives and children.'? Would you call it taking care of them by just giving them something to eat? Then how have I broke my parole?" I never denied it or confirmed it. I know this law is true and these other laws are true. If we live them, we will get the blessing; and if we don't, we won't get the blessing. God will bless us when we bless ourselves. God helps those who help themselves. If we want help from God, we do it ourselves. We grow in knowledge, faith, and understanding only as we apply for it. Very few there will be that will be virtuous, honest, and straightforward in all things; but those few will hold the Priesthood and will be the few that will be saved. Godliness must be acquired; it won't be forced on us. You must get it yourselves.

I hope you just keep on the way you are going. I will say again that you can start in anytime, and I would like you to do it all the time. As long as the people are doing right like they are doing here, they deserve the Sacrament, and it will help you. God bless you, amen.
August 31, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm
The Lord Showed President Barlow How the Spirit of God Protected the Ancients; Be Humble and Prayerful and the Door Will Open Up; If You Have the Spirit of God, Your Trials Do Not Hurt; Do Not Speak Against the Lord's Anointed

My brothers and sisters, I have been greatly edified this day through the Spirit of the Lord. I was way out on a ranch west of Cedar and came there one night, and the Spirit of the Lord spoke to me, and this is what it said: "Go tell the people to get the Spirit of God and keep it." Those were the words that came to me, and I listened. He said, "I want to tell you a few things. If you want protection -- you remember Job, don't you?" "Yes." "And how he was tried and all about it?" All the sons of God came together, and satan came also, and the Lord told me there what was to be done. "Remember Daniel?" "Yes." "Remember he was put in the lions' den." He said the Spirit of God was around him, and they could not touch him. Satan said to the Lord, "Job -- you have got a hedge around him, I can't get at him." That hedge was the Spirit of God. "Take it away," he said, and he will curse you to this day. We know how Daniel was. Then again it said to me concerning the three Hebrew children being cast in the furnace: "Well, they had the Spirit of God around them, and the fire could not burn them." This was the message that was sent to the Latter-day Saints. This is the message that I took to them.

I saw how we were going to be troubled, and how we were up against a wall and could not get away. I told them if we were prayerful and humble, the door would be opened in the wall, and let us pass through. Some of us went to jail. If we had been humble and prayerful, we would not have had to. After we got in there, were they humble and prayerful? No. Some of us were. God gave us His Spirit. You know, if you have the Spirit of God, your trials and troubles do not hurt.

I was thinking while here, we are the most blessed people on the face of the earth today. God sent His holy messenger here, and Christ came Himself, and sent Joseph Smith, and gave men authority to do the things we are doing. And we are just a handful, and have been drawn out. If we go on right, we will form the nucleus of the great Millennium. There will be some that will go. Some will stay. Some will fall by the wayside. The only way we can stay is to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Whenever we hear anything said against the Priesthood of God, check it right there.

I remember a boy in Short Creek. He was just a boy, and some men were talking about Uncle Joseph. This boy said, "Do you know that he was one of the Lord's anointed?" A man said, "Well, he is just a man." The boy said, "He is one of the Lord's anointed, and you better let him alone." I have seen that man go down, and down, and down ever since that boy rebuked him. I know that the brethren are all human, but we have a work that we have got to do, and if the people receive it, they will be blessed. If they don't, after receiving it, they will be condemned for it, just as sure as I am standing here.

Brothers and sisters, we have had a good time here today. The Spirit of God has been with us. Let us remember we have heard a lot of good things. There have been a lot of good things said. How many heard it? To some it has gone through one ear and out the other. If we keep these laws and commandments that these brethren have brought before you, you will go through to the Celestial Kingdom of God. If you do not keep them, you will have to take a lesser kingdom. God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:357  September 14, 1947  Widtsoe

Widtsoe, Utah
September 14, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm
If We Keep All the Laws But One, We Are Guilty of the Whole;
The Council Members Are Called of God;
Resurrected Beings Will Come to Teach Us;
The Priesthood Has Power Over the Devil

I wondered if we are all seated. I guess we all have seats now. At the present, brothers and sisters, you have got the brethren here. I think the full Council is here, outside of those who are in jail. We expect to have some instruction given today. We will start out by having Brother Guy talk to us.

* * * * *

My brothers and sisters, if we got what was said to us today, we ought to rejoice as a people. We are a blessed people. A few of us have been called out. A few of us have had the fullness of the Gospel brought to us. There are only just a few, and how many of you are living to reap the reward of this wonderful blessing that has been given us? It is going to take something on our part. There is just a few, since the days of President Taylor, that have been trusted and have been called out and given the blessings that will enable us to go on to our exaltation.
Remember this one thing: Though you keep all the laws, and yet offend in one of them, you are guilty of the whole. In other words, you may keep all the laws of God, and may leave out one of the principles; you may keep plural marriage, and live it pretty strictly, but you reject the United Order -- United Order and plural marriage are the high orders of the Priesthood. Whether we keep them, or whether we reject them, it is going to be up to us.

I heard the other day a person said to me, "I believe you and Brother Joseph have the Priesthood, but we have our doubts about the others." What difference does it make who the man is at the head? The man does not make a bit of difference. When he is placed there, God tells him to set certain men apart. What difference does it make who it is? I am well aware that I am not as good a man as Uncle John Woolley, and Lorin. I have not had the experience yet. But I do know this Gospel is true, and that these brethren here are called of God. I do know that every man that fights it, I do not care who it is, will reject the counsel of God concerning themselves.

We will adjourn this meeting until one o'clock. We won't try to go home at all. We will stay here and talk with one another. If you have luncheons you want to pass around, you can do that. At three o'clock we expect to dismiss then. We will have a Council Meeting at three o'clock, or soon after. I would like every one of you at this time to remember Brother Newel. I would like the brother that dismisses to pray for him, and every one of you to pray for him. He is a man we need, and the adversary knows it; and we can rebuke the adversary, and have Newel be brought again to service in a very short time. God bless you, amen.

Afternoon Meeting
My brothers and sisters, I was thinking of what Joseph said about guardian angels and certain messengers being here. I know there are messengers here today. President Young told us if we lived right, we would be walking along the street and meet up with a man, talking with him, and after we would say, "Oh, didn't our hearts burn within us?" He tells us there that President Joseph Smith, and Brigham Young, and Father Smith, and many of them will be resurrected and come among us to teach us these things. Would we tell the world of that? No, because if we did, they wouldn't believe us, and they would kill us for our testimonies. But they will be here. I expect that Brother Steed's grandfather or father may come and talk to him. I knew those men.
They were men of God. They had received a fullness of the Priesthood as far as plural marriage was concerned. They hadn't lived the United Order because it was not established, and they couldn't live it at that time.

I was at a meeting one time in Davis County, where Brother Steed's grandfather got up and spoke in tongues. He had no more than sat down, than Brother Kendson got up and spoke in tongues. He had no more than sat down when Brother Toleman got up and spoke in tongues. They were all Patriarchs. Brother Pace got up and spoke, and each one of the tongues was interpreted. And we were told there that we would see the judgments of God coming over the land, and how we would be tried, and how we should fortify ourselves against these things, and that was by living all the laws and keeping all the commandments.

I think we have been together long enough this afternoon, but I want you to remember this one point, if you don't remember anymore -- that whenever we are out of patience, or whenever we do things we hadn't ought to do, or when we are sick, in pain, it doesn't come from the Lord.

Every one of us are a defier of the law. Why? Because the Edmunds Law is a defier of the law of God. Every Latter-day Saint is a defier of the law. He either defies the laws of God or he defies the law of satan. In our daily lives, if we keep the commandments of God, Lucifer is on our trail. And if we don't keep the commandments of God, we will lose our chance of exaltation.

I want to tell you, sometimes satan is pretty hard to handle. I have had a little to do with him a number of times, and I have, through the Priesthood of God, been the instrument to cast him out of people, and I know he is hard to manage. I do know that the Priesthood of God has power over him. I know that the Priesthood of God has power over other things -- over the elements, the people.

I do know that these brethren sitting behind me have been called of God, and those that will listen to their counsel will be blessed, and those that don't will have to take what they get. I have known Brother Joseph for quite a number of years, and I know he is a man of God. I would rather take his counsel than any other man on earth. He has been a very wise counselor to me. He has helped me in every way he could. I don't think there is a man in the Church today that has preached as much Gospel as Brother Joseph has through the Truth and other pamphlets.
Brothers and sisters, if ever we are condemned for anything, it will be for giving the people too much; teaching them too much of the things of God.
You might say that seems funny. But you teach a principle to a person, and he rejects it, and then he is condemned through it. Lots of the principles that we have brought out, many men have rejected those truths, and we have seen them go down and down, and they are still going down.

May God's blessings be with you, and I bless you in the authority of the holy Priesthood, that each and every one of you that hear my voice here today may go on and study and learn; and, as Brother Joseph said, "Find out what the law of chastity is." God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:360  October 26, 1947  Mexico

Mexico
October 26, 1947
Reported by Leona Jeffs
Must Be United

This isn't a surprise, but I am at a loss as to what to say. I like the place here.
It is what you call rough, but in time and with equipment we can make a beautiful place out of this land we have here if we are united. But I don't think we will if we are not united. I know of nothing else to say. This is my prayer, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:361  November 23, 1947  SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
November 23, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm
This Work Will Not Stop;
Godliness Must Be Acquired, Not Conferred;
Joseph Smith Is the One Mighty and Strong;
Keys of Elijah

My dear brothers and sisters, it gives me pleasure to be here again and look into your faces. There is a wonderful intelligence that shines in the eyes of those that are living the laws of God. And it always gives me pleasure to see those that are wanting the word of God.
I will say this morning, I would like for us to hear from Grandpa Jessop. I would like to have him talk to us. We ought to have him talk every time we get a chance. He, like others, is getting old, and we should hear him every time we can hear him. I can remember him way back when he was in the Sunday School. I know he has been a man of God for years and years. Those kind of men I like to hear talk. I rather should have said, "Patriarch Jessop".

The remarks of Brother Jessop remind me of the remarks of the Savior. He prayed to the Lord most earnestly, for He could see what the adversary was trying to do with Him. He prayed that they might have God's Spirit to be with them. The Prophet Joseph did the same thing. He saw the workings of the adversary.

It is getting worse and worse all the time. We have more start out and come along, and they are doing fine for awhile. Pretty quick something bothers them, and they kick themselves right out of the Kingdom. Let me tell you, I want you all to put it down in your memory, that this work is going to continue. It won't stop. We will kick ourselves out, some of us, but the work will go right on just the same.

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ was revealed in these last days, and the days of the fullness of times. This is the last dispensation. It is like a big river. All the little rivers were running into it. All the other dispensations run into this dispensation, and we get the full stream of different Prophets.

You can take it right back and what do we find? First, John the Baptist coming here, conferring the Priesthood. We might go still further. We find the Angel Moroni coming and delivering his message. Then John the Baptist came and conferred the Aaronic Priesthood. Then Peter, James, and John came and gave the Melchizedek Priesthood. After that, while in the Kirtland Temple, what did we get there? We get Elias coming and giving his dispensation. We get Moses coming and giving the gathering of Israel. We have Elijah coming, who was the last Prophet living who held the fullness of the Gospel. It could have been in the days of the Savior, but the people at that time were too bitter, too prejudiced, that He never gave it at that time. He waited until the dispensation of the fullness of times, and He sent Elijah here and restored the gifts of sealing, and the gifts that will seal them both in this life and in the life to come. And it will also seal them to destruction.
You notice in the days of the Apostle Peter, when he held that key, there were certain ones come to him, and he said, "Repent and be converted." He did not say, "Repent and be baptized, for when the Lord comes He will again talk to you." He had sealed them up to come forth in a latter time, in the time when the restitution of all things will be filled, when they have paid the penalty of what they have done. Then they will come forth and take their rewards for what they have done. Every one of us are going to be judged according to the deeds done in the body.

Let me tell you again, that Godliness cannot be conferred on people. It must be acquired. A man can be set apart and have the Priesthood, and if he magnifies his calling God will sanction it and go on. But if a man slides off here, or there, or some other place, he simply withers and drops off. But the work goes on just the same.

We are in quite a peculiar place today as a group of people. Back in Washington they never gave any decision yet on the conspiracy case, but just as Justice Jackson said, he didn't believe the law was constitutional, and he gave him two weeks to study up the constitutionality of that law. He said if that law was constitutional he would be afraid to go to Utah. If it isn't constitutional and gets thrown out, all the brethren will be freed from that charge.

We have been out of jail for two years. Whether they will release us yet, we do not know. If they do, we will be free from that score. But what is back of it? There is a law that has been made by the legislature of this State that makes it a felony, from one to five years in the penitentiary; and if we teach the commandments of God as is laid down, why, we are subject to that law.

When the Edmunds Law was made, we either had to go for the laws of God or the laws of the land, one of the two things. Every member of the Church either had to go to the laws of God or the laws of the land. Some preferred the laws of God, and some the laws of the land. Some will say, if we live the laws of the land, we are free, so far as the law of the land is concerned. If we follow the laws of God, then we can have eternal increase. But if we follow the laws of the land, that is the end of your kingdom, you cannot have an increase. That is what the good book says. I didn't expect to get on that strain today. If I was so that I could, I would like to have taken up the One Mighty and Strong and explain to you from the Doctrine and Covenants who
The boys down south are running up against men that claim to be the One Mighty and Strong. One said he was a permanent member now of the Council of the Gods. You can see how far they are getting off. Another says he holds the keys of the Kingdom because his grandfather was the last that was set apart by Joseph Smith with the keys of the Kingdom, and his father conferred that upon him. I have met both of those men, and when I met the one man, he was so crazy he was going to kill his mother. We had to handcuff him and send him to Kingman. Maybe he has changed now, but I don't know of it.

Brothers and sisters, it is very easy for a man to think he is this, that, and the other; but if we do these things, we must be called of God as was Aaron. We cannot go ahead and say, "The Savior spoke to me and now I can go on."

A man said to me, "Brother Barlow, are you the One Mighty and Strong?" I said, "I should say not." Joseph Smith is the head of this dispensation and Joseph Smith is the One Mighty and Strong. John Woolley asked me if I knew who the One Mighty and Strong was. I said, "It is Joseph Smith." He said, "I know it, my boy, I know it. I am sure of it." Just a short time before that, he told us he expected the visit of some of the brethren. I said, "Uncle John, did they come and see you?" He said, "They sure did." The Doctrine and Covenants speaks of Joseph Smith. It speaks his name right out. The only thing we claim is this: God set us apart to see that all these laws and ordinances are kept alive.

One man said, "The only thing you brethren have got is that you can perform plural marriages." I said, "You will admit, will you, that we have got that?" He said, "Yes." "All right, does that include the power of Elijah?" "Yes, of course that does. The keys of Elijah are the sealing power." Then I turned to what Joseph Smith said, and he said:

Now for Elijah. The spirit, power, and calling of Elijah is, that ye have power to hold the key of the revelations, ordinances, oracles, powers and endowments of the fulness of the Melchizedek Priesthood and of the kingdom of God on the earth; and to receive, obtain, and perform all the ordinances belonging to the kingdom of God, even unto the turning of the hearts of the fathers unto the children, and the hearts of the children unto Elias started the work, Elijah comes along and builds it up to the capstone, and Jesus comes and puts the capstone on. Now, my brethren and sisters, that is exactly the way it works individually, too. A man first is given the Aaronic Priesthood, then the Melchizedek Priesthood. Afterwards, he works along and is ordained here and there, and goes on up step by step until he gets on up until he is living all the laws of God. The Savior will say, "This man has kept the laws of God," and then He puts His hand on his head and confirms it. Now there isn't any reason why every one of you young men here can't receive that blessing. There is no reason in the world if you will live for it, every one of you. And there is no reason here why every daughter that is here can't become an Eve and her husband an Adam, and keep going on. In time they can get enough spirits on the other side to create an earth, and they will become an Adam to an earth, the same as our Father is to this earth.

That is the kind of a doctrine the Latter-day Saints used to preach -- Brigham Young, John Taylor, Heber C. Kimball, Wilford Woodruff, any one of them. My father and grandfather and others taught that same kind of doctrine. But today the Lord says:

2 Nephi 13  (Isaiah 3)

12. ...O my people, they who lead thee cause thee to err and destroy the way of thy paths.

We are living in that day when they that lead pervert the ways of the Lord. ....They kicked him out of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, but they never kicked him out of the Church of the Firstborn. They can't, because they have nothing to do with it. They can't comprehend it; it is beyond them. When they get to talking on the Godhead, it is beyond them.

Yes, we all need to pray for our children. You know this. And it is along about the eleventh hour, and the adversary is fighting just as long and hard as he knows how, because he knows his time is short. He will be cast out, and those that live right will be picked up by the Savior when He comes. There will be two in the field, one will be taken and the other left; two by the mill, one will be taken and the other left. There were five wise and five foolish virgins, we are told, and they were looking for the Bridegroom to come. Five of them had oil in their lamps and five of them didn't. When He came, He took those who were ready, and the others went to prepare. When they got back they were left. Some said, "Lord, haven't we done many mighty
Now we have got a lot of work to do, and I believe the young men in this group are going to be the salvation of the group. The Lord said, "I will take the young men, the middle-aged, and go back and redeem Zion." If that is the case, the work is going to drop onto these young men. I say God bless you, every one of you, and in the authority of the holy Priesthood I do bless you, and say unto you, be faithful. Amen.

JYB 8:366 November 23, 1947 SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
November 23, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Burdened by the Legal Authorities;
Gratitude for the Good Spirit Among the People

It sure gives me pleasure to be here and see the work going on. I have been tied up for quite a long while and haven't been able to get out. We all know why. I have been tied up under the law, and I have wished the time would come when I could get loose again. If I can, and God blesses me as He has done before, I will be able to be with you oftener and see your faces and look into your souls, and see who is living the laws of God and who aren't.

I think today we have had a feast. If your wives and daughters could have been here this afternoon and seen these young Elders and heard them talk, and felt the spirit that was in them, you would rejoice.

I consider that our trip is well paid, that we have been blessed enough to go twice that far to meet and get the hearts and feelings and the blessings of the people here at this time.

I don't feel like saying very much this evening. We have had a very fine day of it, and we are winding it up in good shape. When the days start, I like to see them wound up so there is nothing marred during the whole time; and so I say, God bless you all, and I do it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:367 November 30, 1947 Widtsoe
Widtsoe, Utah
November 30, 1947
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Importance of This Mortal Life

I have been interested today listening to these testimonies. I would rather hear the testimonies of a few humble Elders than a great long sermon of some flowery speaker -- something that touches our heart.

I have been asked lately, especially since they lost that baby down in Short Creek, so many questions about that, that I decided I would read from Brigham Young a sermon that will answer nearly every one of the questions they have asked. They have asked, "Would the baby go on?" and this, that, and the other. The sermon was given over Sister Aurelia Spencer, one of Orson Spencer's daughters that died when she was a young lady.

Now we can understand, my brothers and sisters, why the poet says, "Grave where is thy victory; Death, where is thy sting?" It isn't to the Latter-day Saints. We don't mourn for our children, nor for those that have passed away like the world does, because we have a little sprinkling of knowledge and know this earth is a preparation for the next existence. We woke out of one room into another, into a higher sphere, into a better place. If we have kept the commandments of God here, we are prepared to go to that other place. If not, we cannot go on to our exaltation, for we haven't lived up to the measure of our creation.

I think we have had a right good meeting, but I wanted to read to you because there were so many questions asked about children that die.

Priesthood is God unto us. Priesthood is the thing. If we follow and keep close to the Priesthood of God, we are sure to get an exaltation. If we fight the Priesthood of God, we fight ourselves and we don't get it.

May God bless you and keep you in the hollow of His hand, and watch over and protect you, and keep you going on and on to that goal which we wish to get to, is my prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:368 March 25, 1948 SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
March 25, 1948
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Funeral of Zavenda Allen Steed

Brothers and sisters, I have only known this lady about two or three years, but I have known the Steeds all my lifetime. I knew Brother Walter Steed; I know Thomas Steed. I knew their grandfather, and I have known them all my lifetime. They lived in Farmington and we lived in Bountiful not very far apart. They were informing to know. We met quite often.

This sister here came over here on a mission of charity, and she fulfilled it to the letter. I was with her when she first took down and I administered to her. At that time she didn't have pneumonia, but she took a back-set. She took the flu, and we called in the Elders and we did all we could. We even sent for drugs and things. She wouldn't take a drug. She said, "If I can't be healed, then the Lord wants me there." I am sure that the Lord did want her.

Within the last two weeks there has been four of the good sisters here at death's door. And right at the time she was taken sick, the other nurses that were here in the town were taken sick, too, and we didn't know which of them were going for awhile. I was positive one was going. I was positive she was going when I left Brother Steed the other night. I told him to be prepared because I knew that she was wanted.

We have heard quite a few things told today about why we are in this work -- why we are doing this. I want to tell you here that I was one of the most bound-up men in the Church that you could find anywhere. I thought what the brethren said was law and Gospel. But the Lord gave me a vision. I saw and knew for myself that we must comply with the laws that God has laid down if we got the blessing.

Do we realize, brothers and sisters, that every Latter-day Saint is a defier of the law? When the Edmunds Law came out, it was in direct opposition to the laws of God. We either had to defy the laws of God or the laws of the land. If we defied the laws of the land we would go to prison. That is what I found out I had to do. But on the other hand, the Lord said this:

D.& C. 131

1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;
2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];
3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.
4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

Now then, we can defy the laws of God if we want to, and that will be the result; or we can defy the laws of the land and maybe get killed or go to prison, or some other thing. Every Latter-day Saint is going to take one of the courses. When there is a law of the land in direct opposition to the laws of God, we must comply with one or the other.

I went on a mission, and while there I supposed this thing was all done away with. I came back and what did I see? I saw the President of our Stake -- and by the way, the President of our Stake was a brother to Brother Grant -- and I saw two of his counselors, and all of them had taken plural wives. I thought to myself, "What is the matter here? There is something wrong somewhere. I am going to find out." So I commenced praying to God. I got the answer. I got it very, very plain. I might relate a little bit to you how it came about.

I knew that this was going on, but who was doing it I didn't know. I was sure it was going on, for I had a brother that had gone into it, and Brother Thomas Steed and Walter and a great many others had gone into it, and I knew they were good men. So I got a chance. A young lady came to my home and was ready to go into it; so I went to Salt Lake to find out what to do. I approached half a dozen or more to find out what I should do. Finally, one said to me, "Think of the man that bore the strongest testimony you ever knew." I did. He lived out of town. I went to the depot and took the train to where he was. When I got there, he was standing at the depot waiting for me. I started to tell him what I wanted. He said, "Hold on, I will tell you what you want. I was out "Ward teaching" and God told me to come and meet you." I was going to tell him what I wanted, and he said, "I will tell you what you want." He explained to me the whole thing -- how it was and what they were doing. This is how I came to get in this work. Then after I found out it was right and could get it done, he said, "I will be downtown Thursday, or Tuesday, and I will take you to a man that can do it." He took me. I said, "How did you get your authority?" It was perfectly explained satisfactory to me. After he did it, he said, "Now, have your wife go get her endowments." So I went back, and she got a recommend and we all went to the temple. We fasted and prayed for three days, and the morning we went to the temple, I was called up first to stand in the prayer circle. I was called to take that woman through the veil. After that, I was patted on the shoulder and the brother said, "Be careful, Brother Barlow. I knew it the moment you stepped in here. God bless you. Be careful!" That was one of the greatest testimonies to me. Since then, I have had ever so many testimonies. I know that this dear sister had a testimony, because I talked to her. You know we cannot get very far unless we get a testimony of our own. We might listen to what others say, but until we get a testimony for ourselves and know these things are true, we can't get very far.

I am proud to speak over her bier. I will say this much, I was stricken with this flu, and my wife was stricken with the flu; and this sister came, and with her knowledge of how to handle it she broke it up on my wife, although my wife was so near to death's door that her son came to her, and she wanted to go, but he told her to stay, for her mission was not yet filled. Sister Zavenda saw us through and then she was stricken. I have been right there with her all the time.

Although my health has been very bad this winter, my heart hasn't been beating just the way it ought to. I haven't been able to do much or say much. But I want to bear you my testimony that I know the things that Joseph Smith revealed are true. I was just reading what President Young said in the Journal of Discourses, volume 1: "Joseph never left a thing undone that ought to have been done. He told them many times, 'Brethren, I have done everything that I can do,' and he left a law that would take us back into the presence of God; and every man and woman can get eternal exaltation if they will follow in his path." God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:371  April 6, 1948  Ozumba, Mexico

Ozumba, Mexico
April 6, 1948
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson  Vol.7 Page 17)
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Must Obey the Law to Get the Blessing; Get and Keep the Spirit of God

My beloved brothers and sisters, it is with pleasure that I stand before you and tell you concerning the plan of life and salvation. We have driven many miles, something like, I think, five thousand. Hearing from Brother Johnson of you people here, and how you wish to be blessed and receive the fullness of the Gospel, I practically got out of a sickbed to come down here; but I feel well paid. I hope what I may say to you will sink deep into your hearts.

We are living in a day and age of the world when men are doubting, and many of them in the Church today are turning away from the higher principles of the Gospel. President Young said that the fullness of the Gospel was United Order and plural marriage; and we all know, in reading the Doctrine and Covenants, that whenever we receive a blessing, it is by obedience to a law. He says that every blessing is predicated upon law, and whenever we receive a blessing, it is by obedience to that law.

I have been in this work since I was born. My grandparents came down through all the persecutions of Nauvoo and through that country. My father was born in Nauvoo, and we have been with the saints and with the Church ever since.

We read from the Book of Mormon that the time would come when men would turn from the fullness of the Gospel and then the fullness of the Gospel would be taken to you people. In fact, they mentioned the House of Israel, and it looks to me like the time is close at hand.

Now, if you brethren and sisters prepare yourselves and get ready in receiving these high ordinances, it is either going to uplift you or else it will damn you. Whenever we receive a high blessing, if we fail to live it, if we fail to keep the commandments of God, we go down that much more.

I can see in the eyes of you people here that you believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I truly hope that you will receive every blessing that is necessary to exalt you.

I won't say much tonight, as I feel a little shaky. I will say, God bless you, and in the authority of the holy Priesthood which I hold, I do bless you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, amen.

(At the end of the meeting, Brother Barlow spoke for a few minutes again.)

My brothers and sisters, some years ago while in Short Creek, lying in my bed, the Spirit of God spoke to me and told me to go tell the people to get the Spirit of God and keep it. He said that we will need it, and He explained to me why we would need it. The Spirit of God spoke to me just like I am talking to you now. I went up and told our people. Some of them took heed; others went on just the same. Today, you can go pick out the men -- the very ones -- that listened to what I said. So I will say to you brothers and sisters here, get the Spirit of God and keep it. May God bless you, amen.

JYB 8:373 June 22, 1948 SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
June 22, 1948
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Carl Holm Will Be Called to the Apostleship

(President Barlow came to our house on June 22, 1948, and he said:) I believe Carl will be set apart sometime to be an Apostle and a Patriarch. Then he will have a Priesthood of his own. He then will become a member of the Church of the Firstborn. It doesn't make any difference, then, whether you are a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints or not. (He said he would hate to lose us. I had told him of some of the offers we had. He said he loved me very much -- not in a passionate way, but it was because of my spirit.)

JYB 8:374 October 31, 1948

[Location Unknown]
October 31, 1948
From a book put together by Aunt Fern Jessop
This Work Will Not Be Stopped;
Things Have Gotten Worse
Since I Told the People to Get the Spirit of God

It is with pleasure that I can stand before you at this time. I have gone through a crisis nigh unto death. God has seen fit to prolong my life. I have preached the fullness of the Gospel to everyone here. This work stopped -- NEVER! We may be stopped and removed from our places. Never can receive the blessings of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob without these covenants. Church officials want to stamp out polygamy -- they may stamp out themselves. What are we doing? Are we living as we ought to live? The time is coming soon when we'll be brought up standing. We are not united in our families.

Joseph Smith never visited President Woodruff since the Manifesto. Revelation now given the people through the publication "Truth". (November issue covers the Four Hidden Revelations.) Church cannot go on without Priesthood. Priesthood is going on without the Church. Saints going on in Mexico -- united and living the fullness of the Gospel. Church said they took all the elders from the Indians. I gave them the fullness of the Gospel and you will probably hear from it. I don't know if the saints (Roy, etc.) will stay down there or not.

The condition here worries me. Brother Richard Jessop is ordained an Apostle and Patriarch, and what he does is binding forever. We know this thing is true, and we know that as individuals we've got to straighten up. Main thing is get the Spirit of God. God spoke to me -- He said, "Go tell the people to get the Spirit of God and keep it." I delivered that message and since then things have been getting worse. Be careful what we say. Expect to see a revival in this place. Expect you to live the laws of God. Help me to live so that God will answer my prayers as He has done in the past.

JYB 8:375  January 2, 1949  SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
January 2, 1949
Reported by Marjorie Holm

Are We Backsliding?; The Plan of Salvation Is True; Do Not Become Bitter; Keep the Commandments

My brothers and sisters, another year has come around. That makes it one year closer when our Lord and Savior is coming. It is not so far off. It is not going to be so far off before we are met with some of those things. We look to the world today and see what is going on. The backsliding and everything that is carrying on plainly proves to us that the fig tree is putting forth its leaves.

I have a piece here -- my son Joseph handed it to me -- that I would like all the people here to hear. It was not written by a Latter-day Saint. It was given by a lecturer. It is entitled, "Backsliding in the Heart", and I think it is one of the best I have ever read in my life. Louis, I would like you to come up and read it.
(Louis read it. It was dated May 27, 1946, and called "Backsliding in the Heart". President John Y. Barlow then remarked:)

In reading that, my brothers and sisters, I thought it struck home to every one of us. Are we backsliding, or are we keeping up? Was there ever a time when we felt we were closer to God than we do now? If there was, we are backsliding just that much, because it is either forward or backward, just as he said. There is no standing still, either in the process of religion or our living. Oh, what has happened in the last two or three years? How many of us have had our hearts right? How many of us have sorrowed and laid awake nights and prayed unto the Lord all night long?, ...and turn the persecutors from those that have been persecuted, who have been persecuting His people for living a just law; for living the law that He said if you do not live it, you will be damned. They say if you do live it, you will go to prison; you will be cut off the Church. Think of that.

Now, in times past we have always had the Church back of us. This time a man is tested and the family is tested themselves. The Church has never helped them. There are those in the Church that have furnished evidence to convict them. Can we take that and not be bitter in our heart? I believe our Savior said to forgive your enemies. Be big enough to take these things, and not to become bitter; but if we become bitter in our hearts, we are sure on the backsliding list, no matter what they do to you, or what they say, or what they do not.

I was quite well pleased here last week. We broke the car, I went down to... Did not know whether the garage would let me take the car out, or whether it would not. The President of the Stake came over and shook hands, and it was in his garage. He said, "Sure you can take the car. We are not afraid of men like you." He said, "I wondered if some people were getting a change of heart." It put me in mind of when I was down in Mexico. One of the Bishops of the ward there, Brother Pratt, had come. The President of the mission found he was preaching the fullness of the Gospel. He excommunicated him and turned him off. President Smith came down there and then the President told him about it. He reinstated him. He said, "I am going to teach the fullness of the Gospel." He said, "Go ahead, I want you to." And he put him back as Bishop.

Brothers and sisters, our people have got into a net that is awful hard to get out of. They made an agreement with hell when they promised the authorities of this government that they would do it. They sent men back to fulfill that covenant.

But we cannot give it up, whether they made a covenant or whether they did not. We have made a covenant with God. Whom shall we serve, God or man? That is what Peter said: "Whom shall we serve, God or man?" I have not been able to be here as much as I would like to, but I would like to say to each and every one of you, this Gospel is true. It does not make any difference whether I go off one way or someone else does. The plan of salvation is true. I know it, and God knows I know it. What can I do? There is only just one way to do, and that is to keep the commandments of God. That is the only way we can get out.

I do not wish to say much more. I thought some of you would like to hear the sentiments of this man here. I do not know as I have ever heard better sentiments in my life, for it is true -- there is no blessing in standing still. I would like to hear the older ones here whether they ever heard or get a sermon of Brigham Young on life or death. See what he teaches. He taught just exactly what this man is teaching. We will either receive life or death. May God bless you, be with you; and those that have a testimony to bear, may His Spirit be with you, all of which I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Short Creek, Arizona
June 26, 1949
Reported by Marjorie Holm
Be Doers of the Word

It does me good to look down and see you all. This is what President Young said:

There never has been a day for ages and ages, not since the true church was destroyed after the days of the Apostles, that required the faith and the energy of godly men and godly women, and the skill, wisdom, and power of the Almighty to be with them, so much as this people require it at the present time. There never was that necessity; there never has been a time on the face of the earth, from the time that the church went to destruction, and the Priesthood was taken from the earth, that the powers of darkness and the powers of earth and hell were so embittered, and enraged, and incensed against God and godliness on the earth, as they are at the present. And when the spirit of persecution, the spirit of hatred, of wrath, and malice ceases in the world against this people, it will be the time that this people have apostatized and joined hands with the wicked, and never until then; which I pray may never come.

Now, my brothers and sisters, we come here and we listen and we hear things said. We believe them, we know they are true, and what are we doing? That is the question -- what are we doing? God says, "Be ye not hearers only, but be ye doers of the word," and that is what has got to come.

There never was a time when people were so restless as they are today.
People are moving from the north to the south, and from the south to the north going all around, through Mexico, everywhere. We know there is something coming that is not far away.

One of the great men of the earth is in a very critical condition right now -- one of the great men of the earth, a man that we will miss if they happen to take him, more than anyone I know of [Joseph Musser]. I have known him for forty years. He has stood right at the side of me, and he has stood up for the truth for the last forty years. When you think of the young and rising generation, the young men here in giving up these truths, they have given them up. I just turned to a piece that I wrote to the saints. I am going to ask Norma to read it to you. You people here, you don't know who we have got among us.

Short Creek Arizona, December 18, 1935
To the Saints

Dear brothers and sisters in the cause of Christ,

I promise you, if you will keep the laws of God as laid down in the Doctrine and Covenants, Pearl of Great Price, and the Bible, and the Book of Mormon, you will gain your exaltation. We are not only working for salvation, but we are working for exaltation. If we get our exaltation it will be because we lived the laws that will give it to us, and no other way.
May we all be faithful. I wish I was able to get up and talk like I would like to, but I ask God's blessings upon you all; and may we remember that the Spirit of God is working more right now than it has at any time.
What I want to get at is this: We come to meeting, to Church here, and we hear good sermons and have things read to us, but what are we doing? Are we doing anything? Are we moving ahead? Some are. Look at it like this: "Well, I believe that all right. I believe just what you say, but I am not big enough to live it." How many of you have heard that remark? -- "I am not big enough to live it." There is only one way, and that is to round up our shoulders and keep the commandments if we want the blessing. If we don't want the blessing, we won't have to live it. May God's blessings be with you all, I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

JYB 8:379  July 17, 1949  SCA

Short Creek, Arizona
July 17, 1949
(From the Sermons of President Leroy S. Johnson Vol.7 Page 19)
Testimony Concerning Celestial and Plural Marriage; Placed Under Covenant to Teach the Principle of Celestial Plural Marriage

My brothers and sisters, I believe to have done myself justice I should have stayed home. But I wanted especially to put to this people some of the testimonies of the men that were with the Prophet Joseph. I brought a sermon today. I am going to call on Louis to read it if he will, and I expect this sermon to have come right from the fountainhead -- the Prophet Joseph -- written by his secretary. I don't know if many of you have ever read William Clayton's testimony. He was the man that wrote down the 132nd Section of the Doctrine and Covenants as dictated by the Prophet Joseph Smith from the Lord.

There are a lot of things transpiring right now that we ought to know. There are a lot of things going on that this people ought to know, and why don't they know? Simply because we dare not give it to them. That is why. They are getting just about all they can take care of, but there is a lot of the Gospel of Jesus Christ today that we are missing. The testimony of men like William Clayton and the testimony of Joseph F. Smith tell us very plainly that this law will endure to the end. Joseph F. Smith was like President Young. He said it would triumph and ride over everything that has tried and still remains to try to hinder it.
If you will come up here, Louis. I have got so I can't preach much, but I can hunt out what has been written. If I did that, we would have enough here to read every Sunday for the next year. There are some other sermons in here I want read in connection with this.

Louis Barlow read: This is taken from the Journal of Discourses, Volume 21, page 9 [10]. Discourse by Elder Joseph F. Smith at the funeral of William Clayton.

I have this paper in my possession, and have had for a number of months past. In fact, it was written at my request, and then given into my care, and I have preserved it with a view, when thought proper, to have it published. And as it is a sermon of itself, it would perhaps be more interesting than anything I could say on the present occasion, and therefore, with President Taylor's permission, I will read it to the congregation.

He read the following:

Historical Record Vol. VI No.3-5

William Clayton's Testimony

The following statement was sworn to before John T. Caine, a notary public, in Salt Lake City, Feb. 16, 1874:

"Inasmuch as it may be interesting to future generations of the members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to learn something of the first teachings of the principle of plural marriage by President Joseph Smith, the Prophet, Seer, Revelator and Translator of said Church, I will give a short relation of facts which occurred within my personal knowledge, and also matters related to me by President Joseph Smith.

"After Elder Richards started east I was necessarily thrown constantly into the company of President Smith, having to attend to his public and private business, receiving and recording tithings and donations, attending to land and other matters of business. During this period I necessarily became well acquainted with Emma Smith, the wife of the Prophet Joseph, and also with the children -- Julia M. (an adopted daughter), Joseph, Frederick and Alexander, very much of the business being transacted at the residence of the Prophet.

"On the 7th of October, 1842, in the presence of Bishop Newel K. Whitney and his wife Elizabeth Ann, President Joseph Smith appointed me Temple Recorder, and also his private clerk, placing all records, books, papers, etc., in my care, and requiring me to take charge of and preserve them, his closing words being, `When I have any revelations to write, you are the one to write them.'

"During this period the Prophet Joseph frequently visited my house in my company, and became well acquainted with my wife Ruth, to whom I had been married five years. One day in the month of February, 1843, date not remembered, the Prophet invited me to walk with him. During our walk, he said he had learned that there was a sister back in England, to whom I was very much attached. I replied there was, but nothing further than an attachment such as a brother and sister in the Church might rightfully entertain for each other. He then said, `Why don't you send for her?' I replied, `In the first place, I have no authority to send for her, and if I had, I have not the means to pay expenses.' To this he answered, `I give you authority to send for her, and I will furnish you with means,' which he did. This was the first time the Prophet Joseph talked with me on the subject of plural marriage. He informed me that the doctrine and principle was right in the sight of our Heavenly Father, and that it was a doctrine which pertained to celestial order and glory. After giving me lengthy instructions and informations concerning the doctrine of celestial or plural marriage, he concluded his remarks by the words, 'It is your privilege to have all the wives you want.' After this introduction, our conversations on the subject of plural marriage were very frequent, and he appeared to take particular pains to inform and instruct me in respect to the principle. He also informed me that he had other wives living besides his first wife Emma, and in particular gave me to understand that Eliza R. Snow, Louisa Beman, Desdemona W. Fullmer and others were his lawful wives in the sight of Heaven.

"On the 27th of April, 1843, the Prophet Joseph Smith married to me Margaret Moon, for time and eternity, at the residence of Elder Heber C. Kimball; and on the 22nd of July, 1843, he married to me, according to the order of the Church, my first wife Ruth.

"On the 1st day of May, 1843, I officiated in the office of an Elder by marrying Lucy Walker to the Prophet Joseph Smith, at his own residence.

"During this period the Prophet Joseph took several other wives.
Amongst the number I well remember Eliza Partridge, Emily Partridge, Sarah Ann Whitney, Helen Kimball and Flora Woodworth. These all, he acknowledged to me, were his lawful, wedded wives, according to the celestial order. His wife Emma was cognizant of the fact of some, if not all, of these being his wives, and she generally treated them very kindly.

"On the morning of the 12th of July, 1843, Joseph and Hyrum Smith came into the office in the upper story of the `brick store,' on the bank of the Mississippi River. They were talking on the subject of plural marriage. Hyrum said to Joseph, `If you will write the revelation on celestial marriage, I will take and read it to Emma, and I believe I can convince her of its truth, and you will hereafter have peace.' Joseph smiled and remarked, `You do not know Emma as well as I do.' Hyrum repeated his opinion and further remarked, `The doctrine is so plain, I can convince any reasonable man or woman of its truth, purity or heavenly origin,' or words to their effect. Joseph then said, `Well, I will write the revelation and we will see.' He then requested me to get paper and prepare to write. Hyrum very urgently requested Joseph to write the revelation by means of the Urim and Thummim, but Joseph, in reply, said he did not need to, for he knew the revelation perfectly from beginning to end.

"Joseph and Hyrum then sat down and Joseph commenced to dictate the revelation on celestial marriage, and I wrote it, sentence by sentence, as he dictated. After the whole was written, Joseph asked me to read it through, slowly and carefully, which I did, and he pronounced it correct. He then remarked that there was much more that he could write, on the same subject, but what was written was sufficient for the present.

"Hyrum then took the revelation to read to Emma. Joseph remained with me in the office until Hyrum returned. When he came back, Joseph asked him how he had succeeded. Hyrum replied that he had never received a more severe talking to in his life, that Emma was very bitter and full of resentment and anger.

"Joseph quietly remarked, `I told you you did not know Emma as well as I did.' Joseph then put the revelation in his pocket, and they both left the office.

"The revelation was read to several of the authorities during the day. Towards evening Bishop Newel K. Whitney asked Joseph if he had any objections to his taking a copy of the revelation; Joseph replied that he had not, and handed it to him. It was carefully copied the following day by Joseph C. Kingsbury. Two or three days after the revelation was written Joseph related to me and several others that Emma had so teased, and urgently entreated him for the privilege of destroying it, that he became so weary of her teasing, and to get rid of her annoyance, he told her she might destroy it and she had done so, but he had consented to her wish in this matter to pacify her, realizing that he knew the revelation perfectly, and could rewrite it at any time if necessary.

"The copy made by Joseph C. Kingsbury is a true and correct copy of the original in every respect. The copy was carefully preserved by Bishop Whitney, and but few knew of its existence until the temporary location of the Camps of Israel at Winter Quarters, on the Missouri River, in 1846.

"After the revelation on celestial marriage was written Joseph continued his instructions, privately, on the doctrine, to myself and others, and during the last year of his life we were scarcely ever together, alone, but he was talking on the subject, and explaining that doctrine and principles connected with it. He appeared to enjoy great liberty and freedom in his teachings, and also to find great relief in having a few to whom he could unbosom his feelings on that great and glorious subject.

"From him I learned that the doctrine of plural and celestial marriage is the most holy and important doctrine ever revealed to man on the earth, and that without obedience to that principle no man can ever attain to the fulness of exaltation in celestial glory.

(signed) WILLIAM CLAYTON.
Salt Lake City, February 6, 1874."

(President Joseph F. Smith then continued.)

JD 21:10  Joseph F. Smith  December 7, 1879  SLC  (Cont'd)

As I before said, I felt to read this document because of the instruction it would afford, and for the further object of showing that although "he is dead, he yet speaketh." For this testimony of Brother Clayton will stand forever, though his body moulders into dust. And I am, and so was the deceased when living, at the defiance of the world to dispute those statements. They are made from personal knowledge derived from personal associations with the Prophet Joseph Smith himself, not with a view to gain notoriety, but rather to leave behind him his testimony with regard to this important principle. He has done so. And as he has here stated, as having come from the mouth of the Prophet, this doctrine of eternal union of husband and wife, and of plural marriage, is one of the most important doctrines ever revealed to man in any age of the world. Without it man would come to a full stop; without it we never could be exalted to associate with and become gods, neither could we attain to the power of eternal increase, or the blessings pronounced upon Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the fathers of the faithful.

There are but a few witnesses now living in relation to the coming forth of this revelation; there never were many that were intimately acquainted with the prophet and his teaching upon this subject. I look around me and see a number of persons in this assembly whose hair has grown grey in the service of God, and who had an intimate acquaintance with our martyred prophet; but few, if any of them, were so closely identified with him in this matter as Brother Clayton.

There are, however, enough witnesses to these principles to establish them upon the earth in such a manner that they never can be forgotten or stamped out. For they will live; they are destined to live, and also to grow and spread abroad upon the face of the earth, to be received and accepted and adopted by all the virtuous, by all the pure in heart, by all who love the truth, and seek to serve Him and keep His commandments; they are bound to prevail, because they are true principles.

Brother Barlow: I have another little piece or two, one from Orson Pratt and one from John Taylor that I would like to have read, also, because I can't stand up and talk much. I think we can get the gist of the Gospel from this better than anything.

Louis read: (This is taken from the Journal of Discourses, Volume 22, page 29, quoting Orson Pratt.)

JD 22:29 Orson Pratt October 10, 1880 SLC

"No man without the Priesthood, can behold the face of the Father and live."

Now, this has troubled the minds of some of the Latter-day Saints. "How is it, (say they) that Joseph lived, after having seen the face of the Father, after having heard the words of His mouth, after the Father had said unto him, 'He is my beloved Son, hear ye him.'"
If you had thought upon this other subject, namely, that Joseph had been already ordained before this world was made, -- to what Priesthood? To the Priesthood after the Order of an Endless Life, a Priesthood that is everlasting, a Priesthood handed down, that had no beginning, a Priesthood after the holiest Order of God, a Priesthood that was after the Order of His Only Begotten Son. If you had only reflected that that same Priesthood had been conferred upon him in the councils of the holy ones before the world was made, and that he was ordained to come forth in this dispensation of the fulness of times to hold the keys of authority and power of that high and holy Priesthood, -- that he was ordained to come forth and perform the work that God intended to accomplish in the latter times, then the mystery would have been cleared up to your minds.

Louis read: (This is taken from the Journal of Discourses, Volume 21, page 2, by President John Taylor.)

...we have, with the help of the Lord, succeeded in gathering out many of the honest in heart from among the different nations of the earth. And we have come here to carry out the will, purposes and designs of God. I never supposed that we were to come here to get rich, to increase in worldly possessions; but we came as I understand it in accordance with an express command of the Most High, that we may be taught in the knowledge of God, that we might come to an understanding of his laws. We are not here to follow the devices and desires of our own hearts; we are not here to carry out any particular theory of our own; we are not here to build up any system of man's creation; but we are here simply to do the will of God in the establishment of his kingdom on the earth. In many things however we have not lived up to that high and glorious privilege which has been presented to us; we have been careless and indifferent, and it seems as though Satan has been permitted to try and tempt us in every possible way. For a few years past a spirit of greed and covetousness has run through the land and cursed as with a withering blight every thing it has touched. It is as bad in its effects upon the mind of man as any pestilence or plague upon the human body. We have begun to run after the things of the world; our hearts, feelings and affections, in many instances, have been estranged from God. It is time that something should transpire to wake us up to a sense of the position we occupy; it is time we realized how God and angels look upon men who are absorbed in the things of this world instead of living up to their professions and the covenants they have made with him.

Brother Barlow: Here is one from Brigham Young which I think is right to the point.

Louis read: (Journal of Discourses, Volume 1, page 117.)

Language, to convey all the truth, does not exist. Even in the Bible, and all books that have been revealed from heaven unto man, the language fails to convey all the truth as it is. Truth, wisdom, power, glory, light, and intelligence exist upon their own qualities; they do not, neither can they, exist upon any other principle. Truth is congenial with itself, and light cleaves unto light, it seeks after itself, and clings thereto. It is the same with knowledge, and virtue, and all the eternal attributes; they follow after and attract each other. Mercy cleaves to mercy, because it is mercy; light to light, because it is light, and there is no darkness, no deception, no falsehood in it. Truth cleaves unto truth, because it is truth; and it is to be adored, because it is an attribute of God, for its excellence, for itself. It is upon this principle, that these principles should be held, esteemed, practised. Any persons, men or women, who do not receive these principles for the love which they bear towards them, because of their beauty, excellence, and glory; and because they are congenial to their feelings upon this principle, are not Saints! They exist upon their own basis, and rest upon their own foundation. Eternal justice, mercy, love, and truth, never can be moved; they are attributes that correspond, and are congenial with each other; they promote each other, fortify the heavens, the Gods, and that which the Gods possess.

Now look upon the opposite side of these principles. Suppose you say, "We will give up the pursuits of our holy religion. We are not Latter-day Saints. Let us go and seek after the things of the world, speculate, get unto ourselves riches, turn away from our duties, neglect the things pertaining to our salvation, go with the giddy, the frivolous, the seeker after gold, to California, Australia, or elsewhere, for the purpose of acquiring wealth." I tell you the result of that course. You would cease to increase in all the attributes of excellence, glory, and eternal duration, from that very moment. So soon as you conceive such ideas, they find a soil within you prepared to nurture them, and it brings forth their direful effects; from that very moment you cease to increase. The opposite principle seizes you, fastens itself upon you, and you decrease, lessen, diminish, decay, and waste away in quality, excellence, and strength, until your organization becomes extinct, oblivion covers you, your name is blotted out from the Book of Life, from the heavens, from the earth, and from under the earth.

Brother Barlow: Now these are a few of the sentiments of the brethren that have been teaching us for years and years. If we analyze ourselves, how many of us are living these laws because we love them? Because of the excellency of them? Brigham Young stated here that if we take the opposite course it will fasten itself upon us. We naturally diminish and waste away in excellency and character and in everything else.

I wish, my brothers and sisters, that my health was so I could speak these things that are on my mind. I want to say this much, that I know that the testimony of William Clayton is true. And I know that these things are true that we have heard read to us. I know them of myself. You have got to know those things are true and know that you know them. That is the important thing. Lots of people say, "We know it," when they don't know that they know it.

I say, God bless this people and those who are striving to keep this principle alive, for it will stay alive. It doesn't make any difference whether we do it, but it will be done, and it will go ahead and triumph and override everything that is opposed to it.

Now maybe some of you wonder why I am so sure of this. When I was set apart, I took a covenant that as long as I lived I would teach these things. I didn't necessarily take a covenant that I would teach the practice of them, but I would teach the principle of them and let the people themselves follow out the practice. You can't teach the practice of it, but you can teach pure principle. We, ourselves, have got to consider about the practice of them.

I ask God to bless you, one and all, and I ask Him to enlighten your minds and quicken your understandings, that you may learn more of these things and learn more about these principles. The Savior tells us very plainly how to live them. He says it plain: "Search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testify of Me." There is your key. Search it. I hope to see a great many more of the people searching and studying more. There is too much mental laziness among the people -- mental laziness -- we don't dig down in and get the kernel of truth that is lying there waiting for us. God bless you, amen.