The very first commandment that the Lord gave the saints after giving the initiatory principles and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ -- faith, repentance, baptism, and the reception of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands of the Priesthood -- the very first law that the Lord sought to give His people was one to make them His, through the Holy United Order. This was given, and the saints were called to go calmly, slowly, very deliberately, to the center place that He designed to be the New Jerusalem, and have His people one. In August of 1831, the temple site was dedicated and the place designated where the saints should gather to be a Zion of our God, to be one with Him. And gradually and carefully, the Lord's Prophet, His servant, built up a government over Zion, under the direction of men who were under a covenant that could not be broken lest sore judgments be visited upon them; and for the space of two years they went about this business of trying to be one through the Holy United Order, under the direction and authority of the holy Priesthood.

I think we have an object lesson in reading a letter that the Prophet wrote to one of the leaders of Zion, Brother William W. Phelps; and in doing so he said:

DHC 1:316

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE BRETHREN IN ZION

KIRTLAND, January 14, 1833.

Brother William W. Phelps:

> I send you the "olive leaf"

Which was Section 88 of the Doctrine and Covenants, as we have it; a glorious theme.

...which we have plucked from the Tree of Paradise, the Lord's message of peace to us, for though our brethren in Zion indulge in feelings towards us, which are not according to the requirements of the new covenant, yet, we have the satisfaction of knowing that the Lord approves of us, and has accepted us and established His name in Kirtland for the salvation of the nations; for the Lord will have a place whence His word will go forth, in these last days, in purity; for if Zion will not purify herself, so as to be approved of in all things in His sight, He will seek another people; for His work will go on until Israel is gathered, and they who will not hear His voice, must expect to feel His wrath. Let me say unto you, seek to purify yourselves, and also all the inhabitants of Zion, lest the Lord's anger be kindled to fierceness. Repent, repent, is the voice of God to Zion; and strange as it may appear, yet it is true, mankind will persist in self-justification until all their iniquity is exposed, and their character past being redeemed, and that which is treasured up in their hearts be exposed to the gaze of mankind. I say to you (and what I say to you I say to all,) hear the warning voice of God, lest Zion fall, and the Lord sware in His wrath the inhabitants of Zion shall not enter into His rest.

This was in January 1833.

The brethren in Kirtland pray for you unceasingly, for knowing the terrors of the Lord, they greatly fear for you. You will see that the Lord commanded us, in Kirtland, to build a house of God, and establish a school for the Prophets, this is the word of the Lord to us and we must, yea, the Lord helping us, we will obey; as on conditions of our obedience He has promised us great things, yea, even a visit from the heavens to honor us with His own presence. We greatly fear before the Lord lest we should fail of this great honor, which our Master proposes to confer on us; we are seeking for humility and great faith lest we be ashamed in His presence. Our hearts are greatly grieved at the spirit which is breathed both in your letter and that of Brother Gilbert's, the very spirit which is wasting the strength of Zion like a pestilence; and if it is not detected and driven from you, it will ripen Zion for the threatened judgments of God. Remember God sees the secret springs of human action, and knows the hearts of all living.

Brother, suffer us to speak plainly, for God has respect to the feelings of His Saints, and He will not suffer them to be tantalized with impunity. Tell Brother Gilbert that low insinuations God hates; but He rejoices in an honest heart, and knows better who is guilty than he does. We send him this warning voice, and let him fear greatly for himself, lest a worse thing overtake him; all we can say by way of conclusion is, if the fountain of our tears be not dried up, we will still weep for Zion. This from your brother who trembles for Zion, and for the wrath of heaven, which awaits her if she repent not.

[Signed] JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

And he wrote another beautiful letter to this same man, this same group of brethren in December 1833; the spirit of which, the most loving kindness that I have ever read, after they had been driven from their homes in Zion over into the neighboring county, under the most terrible sufferings, and persecution, and death. But what interests me is why this all came about. And the Lord has told us. He told the Prophet in a revelation in Section 101. Brethren and sisters, I read these things while they apply to those people in that day; yet we are called upon to learn by the experiences of others. If the same principles applied then, they apply now, to this people, or God is not a just God.

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --

2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;

3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.

4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.

5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

Whom the Lord loves, He chastens.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings,

Here is the point:

6. ...there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strife, and lustful and covetous desires among them;

Think on these things, brothers and sisters.

6. ...there were jarrings,

Are there jarrings in your households?

6. ...and contentions,

Are there contentions in your households?

6. ...and envyings, and strife, and lustful and covetous desires among them;

Selfishness, in other words, not a desire to render up that which belongs to God and to Him.

6. ...therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.
And now mark this, dear brethren and sisters.

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; There it is again -- treating lightly the things which He has given.

8. ...but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

Now, the Lord in His compassion, and with a desire to fulfill His word and promise to His people, sought to redeem Zion in the following year, in February 1834, when Zion's Camp was organized, asking first for five hundred men. Stating He would finally be satisfied with one hundred, he got two hundred. I think two hundred five went on that camp, but these were the terms upon which they would accomplish that mission. There were to be no murmurings, no jarrings, no contentions, no envyings or strifes -- one, by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, be one in Him, under the Prophet who led them personally to redeem Zion; and in this they failed. Even the set time was given for the redemption of Zion, September 1836. He gave them two years, but the Zion's Camp mission was not completed because the Lord had to call it off.

Now the Lord cannot, and will not be able to accomplish the redemption of Zion yet until He has a people who can go back in this fashion. The Lord has said how it is going to be done now. In February of 1834, this is when Zion's Camp was about to leave.

D.& C. 103

13. Behold, this is the blessing which I have promised after your tribulations, and the tribulations of your brethren -- your redemption, and the redemption of your brethren, even their restoration to the land of Zion, to be established, no more to be thrown down.
14. Nevertheless, if they pollute their inheritances they shall be thrown down; for I will not spare them if they pollute their inheritances.
15. Behold, I say unto you, the redemption of Zion must needs come by power; And He was ready to do it then, and it will yet be done in this way.
16. Therefore, I will raise up unto my people a man, who shall lead them like as Moses led the children of Israel.
17. For ye are the children of Israel, and of the seed of Abraham, and ye must needs be led out of bondage by power, and with a stretched-out arm.
18. And as your fathers were led at the first, even so shall the redemption of Zion be.
19. Therefore, let not your hearts faint, for I say not unto you as I said unto your fathers: Mine angel shall go up before you, but not my presence.
20. But I say unto you: Mine angels shall go up before you, and also my presence, and in time ye shall possess the goodly land.
21. Verily, verily I say unto you, that my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., is the man to whom I likened the servant to whom the Lord of the vineyard spake in the parable which I have given unto you.
22. Therefore let my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., say unto the strength of my house, my young men and the middle aged -- Gather yourselves together unto the land of Zion, upon the land which I have bought with money that has been consecrated unto me.

And they must be one. That is how it will be when Zion is redeemed yet, when a choice people who are all of one heart and one mind, without jarrings, contentions, or strifes; without the least scintilla of dissension, or opposition, or discord, will go walking to Zion with Jesus Christ and the Prophet Joseph at their head; so righteous that the trees will clap together, by reason of their righteousness, and their oneness, and their purity; which I pray God, we may become, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I appreciate what has been said here, and pray that the Spirit of God will direct my remarks in the same Spirit and direction. The thing that has been running in my mind concerning us as a people, and myself, for that matter, as one of you, is our lack of faith. Still ringing in my ears is the statement of President Johnson that this people have not advanced beyond what they were thirty years ago, as a people. This is purely and simply the result of a lack of faith.

We are spiritually lazy, and probably we have not suffered enough, as our early brethren have suffered, as our immediate Priesthood fathers have suffered. Even Jesus Christ, of course, learned obedience by the things He suffered. But He did it perfectly.

I would to God that we could really take all of the lessons that we have couched in the language of the Lectures on Faith and abide them. If we had the faith we would have much more. We would enjoy much more of the gifts and blessings, powers of the Holy Ghost. This people would be such a power in the earth that the world would have to reckon with us, and the Lord's purposes would more immediately be affected. And I dare say it is because we have not done that very first thing that President Woolley used to tell people when they came to him and found out what they should do. He said, "Go and put yourselves in order, and your families."

Here is a revelation to us, brothers and sisters, given to John Taylor, December 25, 1884.

1. There are some things that ought to be put right.
2. Some time ago there was word given for the brethren and their families to put themselves in order before the Lord; and it is necessary that these things should be carried out, for there has been a negligence in some of these matters;
3. And if my people and Priesthood desire my blessing, and guidance, and protection, they must and shall be subject to my law.
4. And it is necessary that the various quorums of the Priesthood should place themselves right before me, saith the Lord;
5. And that as individuals they should place themselves in that position, for if they do not they have no claim upon my blessing or my protection.
6. A day of trouble, and anxiety and sorrow, and judgment will soon overtake this nation and other nations: it is nigh at hand, and the inhabitants of Zion must purge themselves from iniquity, folly, covetousness, and vanity, and listen to and obey my laws, or they cannot have my protection.

7. For I, the Lord, will not be mocked, but the wrongdoer shall receive the just recompense of reward; and the sinners in Zion shall be afraid;
8. And fearfulness shall also take hold of the wicked and the ungodly that are in your midst.

Fear and faith cannot exist in the same person. So, this is another indication of the lack of faith -- fear, fearfulness in the hearts of the people.

9. And if you, my people, obey my law and keep my commandments, to do them not in name only, but in reality, I will be your shield and protector, and your strong tower and no man shall be able to hurt you, for I will be your defense.

God will fight our battles, my dear brothers and sisters. We need have no fear if we have perfect faith.

10. Therefore, humble yourselves before me, and purify yourselves, that your acts and doings may be acceptable before me.
11. For if you do not you will share in the condemnation of the wicked.
12. Therefore, listen to the counsels of those whom I have appointed, and seek not your own will and way, but the will of the Lord your God;
13. For by him only can you be sustained in the time of trouble which is just approaching. Even so, Amen.

So it appears we have not set ourselves, our families, our affairs in order. Therefore the Lord cannot use us. I would like to read the words of a man who couched, I think, the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and particularly this great subject of faith and its rewards about as well as I could understand them.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

We can be saved no faster than we gain knowledge, my dear brothers and sisters. We gain knowledge through experience, through obedience, by the things we suffer, through the great law of sacrifice, which is accomplished through obedience to every word of God, and being willing to sacrifice every earthly thing, our lives if necessary. How much are you willing to do for one another to be set in order in your homes? How much are you willing to do to sustain and uphold President Johnson and this order of the Priesthood? What sacrifice are you willing to make to abide by the counsels that President Johnson gives us from week to week, month to month, year after year?

To change this static course that we are in -- I say static very advisedly, because if those words of President Johnson are true, we are a static people. If we are not going forward and increasing in knowledge, wisdom, and understanding; if we are not increasing in the way to perfection, we are going back. There is no such thing as standing still. If we are static and standing still, we are really going back. We are not going where God requires us to be in the course of progression and growth and experience, and the way to perfection.

We need perfect faith, then, dear brothers and sisters, and all things will work together for our good if we truly love God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength. I do not care what it is that comes to us, if we truly love God and the truth and this Priesthood, all experiences that come to us will work together for our good. We will increase in faith and knowledge, justice, judgment, mercy, truth, and love.

I once asked President Johnson, "Why aren't we growing faster, why aren't we improving, why aren't we doing, why aren't we getting the place you want us to get, that the Lord wants us to get?" He said, "Because we do not love one another enough." Now this is sad. For the want of love, we are not getting anywhere, so to speak. Individuals are, thank God, but as a people we are not. So what is the test that is coming? -- because there is going to be a sifting as sure as God lives. These things that the Lord told John Taylor are going to happen on behalf of this people. I testify of it to you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

So let us wake up and not be like dead men walking around, lazy spiritually. Let us be up and doing, be very positive, be faithful in our course, humble ourselves before God and repent, and determine that we are going to get ourselves and our families and this work in order, where President Johnson and the God of this people can use us, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 2:519 March 21, 1972 CCA Funeral

Funeral of Ida May Barlow Bateman

I feel greatly honored in being asked to speak on this honored occasion, as we pay our respects to this great character who has gone home. And that must be a marvelous and beautiful homecoming, as she has gone to join her great companion who left so many years ago. My mind goes back to those same days that Brother Hammon spoke of. I must have followed shortly after in a visit to Daniel R. Bateman's home with my father and Joseph Musser, and I recall the deep gratitude, the marvelous experience I had listening fall from the lips of this great man, Daniel R. Bateman, the testimony he bore to us regarding the eight hour meeting; his personal acquaintance and testimony regarding that great event that took place there, which was the beginning of a special dispensation which God Almighty provided for, for the accomplishment of His will and purposes in this last dispensation under the direction of Joseph Smith, the Prophet. And he likewise bore a marvelous testimony about his meeting the Lord Jesus Christ, which bore in on my soul with such strength I have never forgotten it.

I often hark back to that beautiful occasion, and I am most grateful that I had the privilege and opportunity to hear that testimony and bear it again to you, that John Taylor was the instrument in the hands of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Prophet Joseph Smith, in setting up the glorious and special dispensation for the perpetuation of the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel and of the holy Apostleship and Priesthood of God after the order of the Son of God. I often, when I had the occasion to meet with Sister May, heard from her lips a confirmation of these things, as she obtained them from her husband and lord.

What a marvelous thing that this order of the Priesthood, this great work in which we are engaged, provides for the continued care and honor and sustenance and blessing of such characters as Sister May as she was done, as was done for her in the family of President Leroy S. Johnson. I am sure Dan Bateman honors the name and the labors of Leroy S. Johnson for all that he has done for May and for him. I rejoice in these things, and I love the memory of Dan Bateman and of Sister May, his beloved companion.

I thrilled at the words of Brother Jessop as he testified of the character of this man and of this woman -- tried, tested, true, a lion of the Lord, indeed. These are the characters whom God loves and honors, and I am sure this is why he was privileged to meet the Savior. The faithfulness, the integrity, the loyalty of true Priesthood men is what God honors in His children, His sons, and in His daughters, too. What a contrast to what the Prophet Joseph Smith had to say to the Twelve and all saints. Somehow I was reminded of this, and feel to read it.

What art thou, O man, but dust? And from whom receivest thou thy power and blessings, but from God?

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost.

And in the same breath:
...and proving a traitor to the brethren.

What a faithful, loyal, true friend Daniel R. Bateman was to John Taylor, to John W. Woolley, to Lorin C. Woolley, and to all of the others who followed them. I rejoice to have been at the funeral of Daniel R. Bateman on the occasion of his burial in, I guess it was West Jordan. These things stand out very vividly and keenly in my memory.

So, I suppose that the greatest thing that we, as saints, can obtain from occasions of this character, paying respect to the honored dead; and yet they live and will live eternally because of their integrity and faithfulness to the end, their being faithful and true, loyal, standing up against all oppositions and the fiery darts of the adversary, to maintain the truth and to live and to die for it, which I pray that we may all do, that I may do, being faithful unto the end, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, amen.

Faith Is a Principle of Action and Power;
Faith in God Requires Faith in a Living Priesthood

Brother Guy has called on me to speak. I feel very keenly this responsibility, and rejoice at meeting with you here today. More than that, though, I rejoice in the blessings of my Heavenly Father, and the blessings that I have received at the hands of His holy Priesthood; for Priesthood is God. I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers, that I may be led to instruct by the power of the Holy Ghost, which is a witness for God, for the Godhead, if you please.

I have been thinking a great deal lately about this subject of faith, of which I love to speak, because it is the very foundation of life and salvation, and because it is the power of God unto salvation. Brethren and sisters, I am sure that too many of us think of faith in the abstract. To most it appears to be a mere mental assent or belief. But that is only the beginning of faith, to believe in a thing, and that is merely a mental assent. Where faith really counts and does something for a soul seeking life and salvation, faith must become a principle of action, and above all, of power.

Joseph Smith so beautifully and completely explained this principle in connection with faith, that we ought to read the Lectures time and time again, and get the real significance of the power of faith, the importance of faith. It is the beginning and the end of our salvation -- faith in God, the true and the living God; faith that He has a perfection of all of the attributes of the Godhead; and faith in the necessity of obtaining the same attributes and making them a part of our character; faith that God can do all things for us; faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, whom He sent, and is the Author of our salvation; faith in a living Priesthood. I cannot emphasize that last part enough. Faith in God calls for faith in a living Priesthood whom He has called and chosen to direct. These sisters were one hundred percent right when they admonished the young, and I say to the old as well: "Stay close to the Priesthood at the peril of your salvation."

What about this principle of power? Let us get the word of Joseph Smith.

Lecture Seven

3. ...We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force.

It is, therefore, a mental power. And I say again, most are guilty of spiritual or mental laziness. That is why power is not an element of faith to them, and why it does not lead into action, doing something, laboring with our might, with a will, through the way that God has laid out, the will and the way.

Heber C. Kimball, it is told, often in kneeling down with his family in family prayer -- and by the way, this mental exertion comes about through words, through prayer, if you please, a most important element of the principle of faith. Without this, faith cannot be perfect. And this is why the Lord says for us to pray always -- but Heber C. Kimball, after getting through praying, getting up off their knees said, "Now, let us go out and bring these prayers to pass." Let us labor. We have asked God for power. When we call upon Him, we have asked Him for power. So this faith, this mental exertion then will give us the power to be obedient, and to labor with our might, with all of our heart, might, mind, and strength; and nothing short of this will satisfy God. Nothing short of it will give us the blessings of eternal lives -- eternal lives! and becoming like Him, have an eternal increase, bringing souls unto God, to His name, honor, and glory; nothing short of the whole heart, the whole mind.

Speaking of the attributes of God, I feel like going through and giving a little scripture regarding these things to back me up. After having named first, knowledge, as one of the six great attributes of God, he says:
Lecture Four

6. Secondly -- Faith or power. Hebrews xi 3: "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God." Genesis i. 1: "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." Isaiah xiv.24, 27: "The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, 'Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass: and as I have purposed so shall it stand. For the Lord of Hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?'"

In the paragraph following, which explains faith or power, note how many times the word power is used.

12. And it is not less necessary that men should have the idea of the existence of the attribute power in the Deity; for unless God had power over all things, and was able by his power to control all things, and thereby deliver his creatures who put their trust in him from the power of all beings that might seek their destruction, whether in heaven, on earth, or in hell, men could not be saved. But with the idea of the existence of this attribute planted in the mind, men feel as though they had nothing to fear who put their trust in God, believing that he has power to save all who come to him to the very uttermost.

The Lord further tells us that the power is in us to be obedient, to be true and faithful. The power is in us by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, imparted by, and through the holy Priesthood. Never forget that connection, my dear brothers and sisters -- the channel of the Holy Ghost, which is the power that we seek through faith. The Holy Ghost is that power by which all things are accomplished. The Holy Spirit, another name, is the mind of the Father and of the Son, we are told in Lecture Five, and is the power by which they exercise control over all things.

You notice, my dear brothers and sisters, how, when we discuss these things, we always have to come to the Holy Spirit, the power of the Priesthood; and the power by which we may lay hold on eternal life; the power by which we may indeed exert our minds and our bodies with all of our might, mind, and strength; for the power is in us through the Holy Spirit, this glorious gift that He has given. So, how do we lay hold on this power? Lecture Six tells us by perfect obedience. Perfect obedience calls for our sacrifice of all earthly things, all earthly feelings, all earthly traditions; putting aside the world, coming out of her, and coming under this great power of the Priesthood, which God has imparted to His servants to lead us. And the power of the Priesthood, again, is the Holy Spirit.

So the power is in us, dear brothers and sisters. And the Lord has been careful to tell us something else concerning this great subject:

D.& C. 58

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart,

The opposite of faith, for doubt and fear cannot exist at the same time with faith in a being.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?

32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.

33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled.

Why? Because we have not fulfilled our promises, such as are spoken of here.

33. ...But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh beneath, and not from above.

Section 4, dear brothers and sisters. We are a part of a marvelous work, which has come about, which has come forth among the children of men.
D.& C. 4

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work; Desires, mental exertion, obedience, laboring with our might.

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, With power,

4. ...the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

5. And faith, Or power,

5. ...hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

These are the attributes of God.

6. Remember faith, Or power,

6. ...virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

Now, a little more specific instruction for us, brothers and sisters.

D.& C. 88

123. See that ye love one another; cease to be covetous; learn to impart one to another as the gospel requires.

124. Cease to be idle; cease to be unclean; cease to find fault one with another; cease to sleep longer than is needful; retire to thy bed early, that ye may not be weary; arise early, that your bodies and your minds may be invigorated.

125. And above all things, clothe yourselves with the bond of charity, as with a mantle, which is the bond of perfectness and peace.

126. Pray always (for this power) that ye may not faint, until I come. Behold, and lo, I will come quickly, and receive you unto myself.
I hope I am getting over a message, and what it takes, dear brothers and sisters, to save ourselves; and to place ourselves beyond all enemies, and give us the power to overcome the adversary and the attributes that are contrary to the attributes and character of God, to overcome, that we may be like God. We cannot overcome without faith or power. Now the Lord gives some more instructions to the saints entering into the Holy United Order.

D. & C. 64

22. And after that day, I, the Lord, will not hold any guilty that shall go with an open heart up to the land of Zion;
Is not that where we are headed for? -- Zion, the pure in heart, the true sons and daughters of God.

22. ...for I, the Lord, require the hearts of the children of men.
23. Behold, now it is called today until the coming of the Son of Man,
That is today.

23. ...until the coming of the Son of Man, and verily it is a day of sacrifice,
This is a day of sacrifice.
23. ...and a day for the tithing of my people; for he that is tithed shall not be burned at his coming.

24. For after today
The coming of Christ,
24. ...cometh the burning -- this is speaking after the manner of the Lord -- for verily I say, tomorrow all the proud and they that do wickedly shall be as stubble; and I will burn them up, for I am the Lord of Hosts; and I will not spare any that remain in Babylon.

25. Wherefore, if ye believe me,
"If ye have faith in Me, I will give you power," (I am adding a little here), that:
25. ...ye will labor while it is called today.

30. And he hath set you to provide for his saints in these last days, that they may obtain an inheritance in the land of Zion.
31. And behold, I, the Lord, declare unto you, and my words are sure and shall not fail, that they shall obtain it.

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.
33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart
The whole heart and mind, and the strength.
34. ...and a willing mind;
And this will come by power of the Spirit of God.
34. ...and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.
36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.

37. Behold, I the Lord, have made my church in these last days like unto a judge sitting on a hill, or in a high place, to judge the nations.
And He surely must be speaking of the Church of the Firstborn, by which we should be striving to be members.

37. Behold, I the Lord, have made my church in these last days like unto a judge sitting on a hill, or in a high place, to judge the nations.
38. For it shall come to pass that the inhabitants of Zion shall judge all things pertaining to Zion.
39. And liars and hypocrites shall be proved by them, and they who are not apostles and prophets shall be known.

Then He goes on to speak of the Bishop, and show who is a judge, and they shall be found out.

So, my dear brothers and sisters, the call is to us to humble ourselves, to come out of the world, or Babylon; to set our hearts, our whole hearts and minds, with faith in God and a living Priesthood, to render perfect obedience; and doing these things of our own free will and choice, for the power is in us, and not have to be commanded in all things. Certain things, certainly, must come by direction, but the power is in us to obey all of the laws and principles and ordinances of the Gospel, as the Lord opens up the way for us.

So, with these things, my dear brothers and sisters, we should understand what the Lord has really given us in the gift of the Holy Ghost, which is the attributes of God, the mind of the Father and the Son. If we have it in fullness, if we have it continually -- and that is the only way we can become like God -- we will have and lay hold upon all of His attributes; and we will become a character of a God, who is unchangeable, no respecter of persons, a God of love, and whose course is one eternal round. And we will be able to be found in His presence. May I read again an item that I read before, which I think sums up these things so well. This is found in Robert's "Gospel", who is actually summing up the Lectures on Faith. I do not know what page it is.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in,
If we have the will and follow the way,

...will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

Having made a sacrifice of all earthly things -- feelings, traditions, and thus finding our course pleasing to God -- we have power with Him, because He has said, "If ye do what I say, I am bound; if ye do not what I say, then ye have no promise." Is not that power with God -- binding ourselves to God by keeping all of His commandments, rendering perfect obedience?

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father,

This is the Second Comforter promised to those who have their calling and election made sure.

...and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

The power to do so is the Holy Spirit; which I pray we may lay hold on, and keep as the most precious thing in life, to enable us to abide in the holy laws, the Celestial Order, the Family Order of Heaven, the Holy United Order; that we may be one, and that God may own us and be His people. What a glorious thing it would be for Him to send His messenger, and to say, "Thou art accepted, My people; with these will I redeem My Zion and go into that holy place." God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Humility; Why We Lose the Spirit of God

I am afraid we do not acknowledge God as we should. Humility was one of the grand characteristics of Jesus Christ. It was one of the grand characteristics of Joseph Smith the Prophet; and it is lacking in this thing, which I am sure would be called a great part of love, that has brought the downfall of many men in the Priesthood -- failure to sustain and uphold legitimate authority which stood over them, failing to submit to authority in humility, failing to acknowledge God in all of His hand dealings with us; failing, in other words, in gratitude. I can't think of a greater sin, among saints, at least, than the sin of ingratitude.

Humility, my dear brothers and sisters, is the very essence of this great requirement and the subject of faith, to obtain knowledge that our course is pleasing to God. Some have thought, "Well, coming to this, aren't we in just the opposite condition of humility? But I say it is the very essence of it. After all, in its ultimate sense, dear brothers and sisters, knowing, not merely believing that our course is pleasing to God; in its ultimate sense, I repeat, is having our calling and election made sure, and having it revealed to us, through the proper channels of legitimate authority. One is then worthy to have the Second Comforter and have the Lord Jesus Christ and the Father revealed to that person.

We talk about humility. The very essence of the life of the Lord Jesus Christ was one of submitting His will to the will of His Father. His will was swallowed up in the will of His Father. Perfect submission, perfect obedience -- this is humility. One has said that when you say you have humility, you have lost it. There is a great deal to that; but having knowledge that your course is pleasing to God would cause a person to fully submit and acknowledge God as the Giver of that blessing, the greatest of humility.
Now, my dear brothers and sisters, I feel considerably exercised over the things that cause people to lose the Spirit of God, calling to their aid the devil, and thus having false and foul spirits take possession. President Johnson has reminded us many, many times that the beginning of this foul condition, which is altogether too evident in the families of this people, is the spirit of criticism and submitting to one of those great seven evils that God hates; sewing discord, bearing false witness against one another. These ought we to avoid as the plague, and instead, let humility and love abound -- true charity, putting a cloak of charity around one another in their weaknesses, and above all, realizing that certainly our brother, our sister wife, our brothers and sisters in the family are trying to submit themselves to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I am always reminded in this connection of the writing of Joseph Smith. I don't know but that I have read this rather recently.

I charged the Saints not to follow the example of the adversary in accusing the brethren,

This same spirit applies to accusing one another in our family units, or one another as brethren; fellow bearers of the holy Priesthood, and especially is it a terrible thing to accuse and set in order one who has authority over us. This cannot be done with impunity, dear brothers and sisters, without the one doing so suffering one way or another, at least in the loss of the Spirit of God, which leads to many other evils.

I charged the Saints not to follow the example of the adversary in accusing the brethren, and said, "If you do not accuse each other, God will not accuse you.

Then this must be a sin of such degree and sufficiency that God would have to accuse us, accuse us if we accuse the brethren.

If you have no accuser you will enter heaven, and if you will follow the revelations and instructions which God gives you through me, I will take you into heaven as my back load.

Now let us think of this as President Johnson speaking. He is our Prophet today, and remember it.

I will take you into heaven as my back load. If you will not accuse me, I will not accuse you. If you will throw a cloak of charity over my sins, Shall we add "weaknesses"?
...I will over yours -- for charity covereth a multitude of sins.

Now listen to this, brothers and sisters:

What many people call sin is not sin; I do many things to break down superstition, and I will break it down"; I referred to the curse of Ham for laughing at Noah, while in his wine, but doing no harm.  Noah was a righteous man,

And this is what I refer to when I say your brother or your sister, your sister wife is a righteous man or woman, if they are trying with their might to live the Gospel, to keep the Spirit of God, and to do their duty; though they may slip and have weaknesses and may say things that may be a little out of the way.  But let us realize what each other is trying to do and put a cloak of charity around it.

Noah was a righteous man, and yet he drank wine and became intoxicated; the Lord did not forsake him in consequence thereof, for he retained all the power of his Priesthood, and when he was accused by Canaan, he cursed him by the Priesthood which he held, and the Lord had respect to his word, and the Priesthood which he held, notwithstanding he was drunk, and the curse remains upon the posterity of Canaan until the present day.

I have noticed in my experience among brethren, and in my family, the one who criticizes and accuses, loses the Spirit of God automatically.  When we lose the Spirit of God, you may put it down, without fail, foul spirits will take its place; and, as one of the authors said, that we have from the Millennial Star, there is a "hell of happiness" among those that it takes place with.

This spirit of criticism, dear brothers and sisters, must stop in our families and it must be stopped among our people, and especially where it concerns the anointed of God, or one who is in authority over you.  Supposing that you may be falsely accused; maybe the accusation is being leveled against you, what is your reaction?  Are you going to respond to it in the same spirit and thus become like the accuser?  You will get the same spirit if you do, and then two people without the Spirit of God with foul spirits upon them, God help them.  I would suggest that you look inwardly in your families and see what sort of thing is going on.  If this is, root it out.  I suppose this is the most important part, the most effectual part of our setting our families in order.  The spirit of criticism must and shall be rooted out in order for the Spirit of God to be there.

The Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace, of joy, the Spirit of love, the Spirit of faith, the Spirit of humility. So, you are falsely accused, as you may suppose. Unless you answer in kind at the cost of losing the Spirit of God, never do it. You cannot answer a foul spirit without losing it yourself. Just remember this. If you are falsely accused, suffer it, and return love for evil. Return love, return good for evil and be above that which falsely accuses. Are these things true, my brothers and sisters? The Spirit of God tells me so, after all the experience I have had.

Now if we are to become one, the spirit of criticism cannot be there. And if God is going to call us His, if we are to be His, we must be one. We cannot have the Spirit of God short of this; the Spirit of oneness. So, we have got to learn to live with one another by loving one another; first of all, loving God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; and secondly, loving our neighbor, our sister wife, our brother and sister, our father and mother, as ourselves. Let us learn to sacrifice our feelings, therefore, brothers and sisters; therein can we overcome this terrible spirit of criticism. Sacrifice by suffering it, and "answer not a fool according to his own folly, lest thou also be like him." Shakespeare never said a truer thing. Now this is getting down to the nitty-gritty, so to speak, of our family life; and unless we get down to this, we are not going to root out these conditions that are so debilitating, so destructive of love and faith.

If we know that our course is pleasing, and though we are falsely accused, let us be humble and acknowledge God as the Giver of what we may have, and of what we are. Acknowledge God, and in this Spirit we will have true humility and love. Sisters, remember the first great law that was enunciated by Jehovah to Adam and Eve: "Thy desires shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over thee." "Submit yourselves," says Paul to the Ephesians. "Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as unto the Lord, for he is your lord." Wives, seek not to set in order your husbands. President Johnson has told this to the saints in the most emphatic terms in recent times, and I feel to repeat it and to sustain it with all that is in me. So, can't we go on in the Spirit of peace, dear brothers and sisters? I don't say that we have to suffer wrongs and evil continuously and forever. A person who engages in this sort of thing, in administering wrongs and evil to his brother and sister, will eventually take himself or herself out, if it is persisted in. So let us be at peace with God and our legitimate head in the Priesthood.

Another aspect of this spirit of criticism, brothers and sisters, is that if it is indulged in continually and without let or hindrance, it will eventually cause you to apostatize; it cannot have any other result. It had this same result among the brethren who were called in the Apostleship even, in the Church, those men who were called Apostles, that first Twelve. Criticism by those brethren, coupled with the spirit of aspiring men is what took them out. That is how it started, until finally, they were calling Joseph a fallen Prophet, an unjust man. And they conjured up all kinds of hurt feelings, grievances, everything that they could think of, and began accusing the Prophet of the very things that they thought they were suffering. That is the strange thing about this spirit of criticism. You will find that those who criticize others on a certain matter are guilty of the same thing themselves.

I just read some recent articles out of the Millennial Star, a series of them written by the editor on this spirit of apostasy. Brother Guy tells me that it is going to be put out in pamphlet form and will form a basis which will be very educational and instructive to the saints. It has some very powerful teachings and instructions for us and will serve to help us, I am sure.

Now, brothers and sisters, who and what do we love most? We should first love God with all our might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. If we could ever keep this in mind as we go about our daily labors and all of our affairs, in our families, in brethren laboring with each other in their work, or in their Priesthood duties; if they could only keep this in mind, realizing that his brother is also striving to keep the commandments of God; her sister, his sister, is also striving to keep the commandments of God; and put a cloak of charity around our weaknesses, and let us distinguish between sin and weakness. Sin is willful disobedience. It is disobedience having knowledge of the truth and turning away from it, disobeying a truth or a law. Weaknesses are these things that we are beset with, that are born with us or have resulted from our education and bringing up as children; and if we would look inwardly we would find so many of these weaknesses that date back to our childhood. It is the purpose of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, it is the purpose of the holy Priesthood, to perfect us, to overcome these weaknesses and do away with the propensity to sin. I would like to close with the words of the Lord to the Prophet Joseph Smith in instructions on the Priesthood.

35. And also all they who receive this priesthood receive me, saith the Lord;
36. For he that receiveth my servants receiveth me;
37. And he that receiveth me receiveth my Father;
38. And he that receiveth my Father receiveth my Father's kingdom; therefore all that my Father hath shall be given unto him.
39. And this is according to the oath and covenant which belongeth to the priesthood.

Now this, of course, is to those who receiveth the Priesthood. But, brothers and sisters, in the oaths and covenants we take in the holy marriage covenant, they are just about as serious, because that is an ordinance of the holy Priesthood, one of the highest.

40. Therefore, all those who receive the priesthood, receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved. 41. But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come.

Such become the sons of perdition, beyond the power of repentance. And we will learn as we read these articles on apostasy, how apostasy begins and how it ends, and can end in oblivion, the second death, which comes after the resurrection; of which resurrection all shall have a part, and how wonderful is this.

42. And wo unto all those who come not unto this priesthood which ye have received, which I now confirm upon you who are present this day, by mine own voice out of the heavens; and even I have given the heavenly hosts and mine angels charge concerning you.

So let us be careful what we say, how we criticize and whom we criticize, how we accuse and whom we accuse, or we are liable to find ourselves on the high road to apostasy, which I pray we may not, any of us, have a part in. Let us love this work. Let us sustain this Priesthood, this order of the Priesthood which strives from day to day, month to month, to prepare a people to redeem Zion; to be so righteous a people that is on that way to Zion, because of the righteousness of such people, the trees would clap together.

Let us sanctify the ground upon which we dwell. Let us sanctify these homes and live in them and abide in them, and dedicate them first as temples. Lorin Woolley said in the earlier days that the only temples the saints would have, eventually, in this day, would be their homes. We are to have temples again, but in this day of trial, of loneliness, in our strivings to abide in the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel, under the gift and powers of the holy Priesthood, I pray we may make our homes temples -- keep them dedicated, sanctify them by our righteousness and never let foul and false and delusive spirits to enter therein.

God help us to live the Family Order of Heaven, for this is what we are indeed engaged in. Let us not bring reproach upon this glorious system, this holy law which we are called and privileged to abide. John Taylor has told us that only the holy Priesthood can sponsor and give this blessing. How grateful we should be to be called together under the instruction and tutorship of the holy Apostleship, which has been vouchsafed to us through the Prophet Joseph Smith, the Lord Jesus Christ, through John Taylor. How grateful we should be that we have this Priesthood to instruct us, to direct us, and to strengthen us and uphold us; if we will only believe and obey it, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of President Carl Otto Nathaniel Holm

I desire but to say what the Lord would have me say on this sacred and beautiful occasion, and that the Spirit of God will prompt me. I am grateful for this opportunity to speak of my friend and brother, my fellow servant, my fellow Apostle whom I loved and still love even more. I am grateful for the life of Carl Otto Nathaniel Holm, who set an example worthy of emulation for every Latter-day Saint who has come under the circle of his acquaintance. In a very real sense, Brother Carl laid down his life for his friends; for no one labored harder, no one desired the truth more among my acquaintances than Brother Carl. You have had recounted how he loved these crowning laws and principles of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ -- Celestial Marriage, which he abided, and the fruits of which we have seen before us. And I rejoice in this beautiful sight of wives and children whom he has brought under the New and Everlasting Covenant, under the influence of his Priesthood, his fatherhood, and his love. Lo, how he strove to establish the Holy United Order in this community and among the saints. You know it and I know it.

He was called to administer in this community by President John Y. Barlow, and he strove with his might to establish that holy economic law, which is the greatest next to Celestial and Plural Marriage; and as has been said, the means by which we abide this holy law of marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. And he was fully conscious that he was abiding the Family Order of Heaven.

Now this family should be proud and grateful for this great sire, this great Priesthood man who truly loved the Priesthood, who truly was loyal one hundred percent to his Priesthood head; and how he loved and sustained and upheld John Y. Barlow during his administration; and how he has loved and sustained those who followed in these past eighteen years, our beloved President Leroy S. Johnson. No one has striven to be closer, and to do his duty, and to love and obey the truth, than Brother Carl.

I think the outstanding characteristic of his great character was love and charity. He emulated, personified this great principle of charity, as much or more than anyone I can think of. He always spoke well of others, hardly ever a derogatory thing, except where people were not abiding the truth. And I feel impressed to read again the words of Moroni on this subject, as we can see how he abided the law of love. After having spoken of faith; and of this he had a great abundance, in abiding a deep, a true faith in the Lord our God, and in Jesus Christ, and in the living Priesthood. His was an eternal hope, always hoping for the best and working for it. I wish I could say the same for myself, these things I am speaking of about Brother Carl. But here is what Moroni said regarding it, after having talked about faith and hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart;

And this he was and is.

44. ...and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long,
He was long-suffering.
45. ...and is kind,
We all know of his kindness, his great kindness.
45. ...and envieth not,
There was no envy in this man's heart.
45. ...and is not puffed up,
We all know how meek he was, calling upon the saints to do better, and mostly upon himself.
45. ...seeketh not her own,
Always, he would wind up a conversation, with me at least, and I heard him with others, "Brother, what can I do for you? What can I get for you?"
45. ...is not easily provoked,
We all know how he fit this one -- calm, cool, collected, not easily provoked.
45. ...thinketh no evil,
He thought well of others, not evil of others.
45. ...and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth,
And oh, how he loved the truth, and saw it, too, and did obey it.
45. ...beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

In the light of these things, my dear brothers and sisters, I can see Brother Carl was ready to go to another assignment; and thank God for the knowledge that we have that we will see him again, abiding in the love of the truth of the Gospel.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

And we know what Paul had to say: "Though we have great faith and all of these other things, and have not charity, we are nothing;" and we can see how it is, for the Lord in His closing remarks to His beloved Twelve said, "Love ye one another, as I have loved you."
47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

And now, this to all of us, dear brothers and sisters; and after all, is not this for us, this solemn occasion? And the call again through his own words, Brother Carl's words to us:

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

I think we should take as a message this day -- let us love one another, as Brother Carl loved the truth, loved his brethren, loved his family. Let us truly learn to love one another and be one, a people God can use for the advancement of His work, and ultimately the redemption of Zion and the building up of the Kingdom of God, and the establishment of this Priesthood upon the earth, which Brother Carl strove with all of his might, mind, and strength to do; in which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I deeply appreciate the wonderful testimonies, instructions that have been given by the brethren here today. They have been dictated by the Spirit of God, and all are good speakers when they speak by the Spirit of God; for when this comes in this way, it is the word and will of God, as the Lord has told us in His holy scripture. I especially appreciate the life and labors, the great Spirit that is in President Jessop. We little realize what a witness and a testator he is of the great Priesthood work of this day and time, and what a great work he has accomplished in his great ministry. He is a similar example to that of Brother Carl in following the direction and dictation of the Priesthood. I wish I could emulate these great examples we have before us better, and I pray, my dear brothers and sisters, that my remarks might be dictated by the Spirit of God here today.

I can't help but repeat the words of President Johnson about the lack of progress of this people for the last thirty years. That was a terrible indictment when it was uttered here some months ago, and I never cease thinking about it. It should be applying to each and every one of us in our own station and condition, so that we, individually at least, will not be guilty of having stood still, more or less. I realize we can't stand still. We are either progressing or we are retrogressing. And so, if we haven't progressed, it simply means that we have really retrogressed.

President Barlow arrived at the point in his great ministry among this people, that he said that we are going to have to raise up a people out of our loins to be that people that God would use as a nucleus of the great Millennium, for the redemption of Zion and the accomplishment of His purposes. Now what does this mean, brothers and sisters? It means that we who have been here these many years are required to raise up a people out of our loins, to raise up our children in light and truth, and it is expected that they will do better than we have. But the responsibility is on us to raise them up so that they will do better than we have, and that they can be used. That is a terrible responsibility. It is awesome, the responsibility that lies on us as parents, living, as we are supposed to be, the Family Order of Heaven, this great and glorious law, the pinnacle of the laws of the holy Priesthood. The means have been given us; the power is in us to do it, if we would only abide this holy law and its companion law, the Holy United Order, which is the means
Now how are we going to do this, brothers and sisters? How are we going to do better? Simply by repenting and humbling ourselves and offering to God the sacrifice of a broken heart and contrite spirit. Humble ourselves, submit ourselves to be led by the President of Priesthood, the representative of God on earth, and take his directions and instructions and do something about it.

I submit to you, my brothers and sisters, that the great lack we have is our failure to abide the law of sacrifice. If we had obeyed this law, we would have better been able to abide the holy Family Order, Celestial Marriage, and we would be doing the things that Brother Jessop and Brother Louis have told us, submit to our Priesthood head.

I would like to read the words of the Savior to the Nephite and Lamanite people when His voice was heard out of the heavens, before they saw Him and before He showed Himself to the people, after the great calamities that came upon the land. His voice was heard before that three days of darkness, and He spoke in this wise:

3 Nephi 9

18. I am the light and the life of the world. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end.
19. And ye shall offer up unto me no more the shedding of blood; yea, your sacrifices and your burnt offerings shall be done away, for I will accept none of your sacrifices and your burnt offerings.
20. And ye shall offer for a sacrifice unto me a broken heart and a contrite spirit. And whoso cometh unto me with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, him will I baptize with fire and with the Holy Ghost, even as the Lamanites, because of their faith in me at the time of their conversion, were baptized with fire and with the Holy Ghost, and they knew it not.

I am afraid, dear brothers and sisters, that prosperity has nearly ruined us, as it has the people of God in times past. We are not humble and contrite and have not offered this sacrifice. If we had we would be able to come to a position where we would know that our course is pleasing to God, and we would then have power with God, through faith, having come a long ways, at least, toward becoming like Him. And we will never have power with God until and unless our course is pleasing to Him, and we are becoming like Him, having all of His attributes -- knowledge, faith or power, justice, judgment, mercy, truth, and love.

In this day and time the Lord has said, "And thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things." He has told us on another occasion, "I am displeased with none except those who do not offer unto Me a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and acknowledge My hand in all things."

D.& C. 59

8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit.

This is in Section 59, which I commend to your reading and study and prayer.

9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;

10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High.

11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;

Every day should be a Sabbath to us, except that we labor six, and rest on the seventh. Every breath we breathe, every action we take should be done with a prayer unto God.

12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord.

13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.

14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.

15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin, but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --

16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fulness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;
And all other things shall be added.

And so, brethren and sisters, I call upon you and me to repent, to humble ourselves before God and pray for power and the gift of faith -- yes, the gift of repentance, but especially the gift of faith -- that we might go forward knowing that we have all of the gifts of God necessary to bring us up to see the face of God, namely the Holy Ghost, the gift of the Holy Ghost. We have been given, by the laying on of hands, the gift of the Holy Ghost, the greatest gift of God to man to bring him back into His presence; and therein it may be said the power is in us.

We know what is right and wrong, and we don't even have to be told every little move to make. When it comes to the important moves in our lives we should certainly never move without direction from the President. But it is pleasing to him and to the Lord that we do these things found in Section 58:

D. & C. 58

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?

32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.

Mark this now:

33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, How often we have heard this.

33. ...This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled.
But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh beneath, and not from above.

So, my brothers and sisters, the power is in us to do good. Do you have to be commanded to go up and see to the needs of the widows and orphans? You can offer; you don't have to be commanded. Certainly, we should be blending our efforts and contributing to the storehouse of the Lord. This we have been commanded to do. But do we have to be commanded in every little thing as it comes along? Of course not. The power is in us to do good, and I would like to see this community get together and see to the needs of the family of President Holm. There are some real needs there.

Now, my brothers and sisters, we have been together for a long enough time. I pray God to give you strength to overcome all evil and to go forward with the power of the Holy Spirit to do good, to build up the Kingdom and establish this order of Priesthood in the earth. I pray that we may follow the examples of these worthies who labor before us, and our Priesthood fathers before them. They are watching over us, brothers and sisters, and they grieve over our lack of diligence, our lack of faith.

Let us realize that our time may come any time. I was overwhelmed as they were taking the mortal remains of President Holm out of here last Wednesday with the thought, "There but for the grace of God go I." Let us be prepared for the day when we will be called home, and let us go fully prepared and as ready as President Holm was. God bless us all to this end, to be faithful unto the end, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of the Prophet Joseph Smith
and President Johnson

I am happy to be with you, dear brothers and sisters, and wish, as President Johnson has said, to be dictated by the Spirit of God, for my mind is a blank. I have not premeditated anything to say here.

Under such circumstances I always hark back to our beloved Prophet Joseph Smith, of whom President Johnson has spoken so truly. I am grateful for Father Adam, for the Lord Jesus Christ, and for our beloved Prophet Joseph Smith, who did more for the salvation of men on the earth save Jesus Himself, and, of course, Father Michael, who brought us here. I love his memory. I love to read of his work and mission. I love his doctrine, which is the doctrine of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, who are one, and with whom he was one by and through the Holy Spirit, and came to act in the office of the Holy Ghost himself.

The Prophet Joseph Smith is that being or individual to whom we look in this dispensation of the fullness of times for direction. He is the One Mighty and Strong to come and set in order the House of God, and to continue this work of this last and full dispensation of the Gospel. And I think, my dear brothers and sisters, if we would try to draw near to him he would be brought closer to us, and our fathers in the Priesthood would be used to instruct and to direct this work along more effectual lines if we were but faithful and true as a people, capable of receiving this blessing.

I remember how the story of the Prophet Joseph Smith thrilled me as a young man. I wasn't told much about him at first, as soon as I might have done; but as I had unfolded to me the life and work and the mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith, it was as though I had known him and been with him through his ministry. And I thrill to hear his doctrine and the grand truths of heaven that he restored to earth; the holy Priesthood, the holy Apostleship, by which he was given, under the hands of Peter, James, and John, and carried in the organization of this great and glorious structure -- the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Church of Jesus Christ, the Kingdom of God, the organization of the holy Priesthood above all. And by his power and authority, under Jesus Christ, we act today. Joseph's authority and the keys thereof of have been handed down authoritatively into the hands Leroy S. Johnson, and I testify of it to you at this time.

Brothers and sisters, we should read more of his teachings, and be instructed therein, for his doctrine is the doctrine of this order of the Priesthood, which is his order after the order of Enoch, after the order of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. We should repent and come unto him through his Priesthood. He is watching carefully all the things that are being done here, and I am sure that he is displeased, very often, with what is lacking, and some of the things that are done contrary to the doctrine of the holy Priesthood and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I am grateful to my father for the beautiful heritage vouchsafed to me, for his teaching me these truths and bringing me to this work; and that he abided the holy law, the Family Order of Heaven, by which we shall come again into the presence of God, and none else. Are we abiding in these holy laws that he restored? Let each ask himself and answer. The Holy United Order and the law of Celestial Marriage together will save and exalt us, and nothing else, by virtue of the power and authority of the holy Priesthood.

We should be magnifying that which we have received to the honor and glory of God, and thus we would not be treating lightly the things we have received. We have received the Priesthood upon every man that has had hands laid on him for this great gift. It is not magnified. It has been treated too lightly by altogether too many.

Now I pray, dear brothers and sisters, that we may go on this note now to receive instructions from the other brethren, and to go on ourselves to perfection; become one in the hands of God through His Priesthood, to be used for the redemption of Zion, which we must do right here and now as a part of Zion, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Keys of Elijah Held by One Man; Must Stay Close to the Source of Our Blessings; Raise Children Unto the Lord

I am grateful to be here with you today, along with my beloved brethren. I desire to continue in the Spirit of God to teach and instruct us, and pray for your faith and prayers. What has been spoken here today has so far been running in my mind; and it must be that the Lord has a message for us very definitely along the lines that have been spoken of so far. My mind has been running on these keys of Elijah also, spoken of in the 132nd Section, this one man who holds the keys. Now what are those keys, brothers and sisters? They are the keys of Elijah. He was the great sealing power and keyholder in his day. And so great did he perform that work, having been translated and taken up into heaven, that he was to be sent in the latter days. He was to be sent, of course, from the time of Christ, when he, with Moses and Christ, were transfigured before Peter, James, and John. And those same keys of Elijah, delivered to Peter, James, and John on that occasion; those same keys through Peter, James, and John were conferred upon Joseph and Oliver, Joseph being the keyholder.

Elijah was sent in 1836 as well, Peter, James, and John already having come and given the holy Apostleship to these men, and to Joseph in particular; but it was still necessary for Elijah to come and deliver his keys personally to Joseph -- the sealing powers, after which time, by this appointment and direction he was able to seal under the holy order of matrimony, the Celestial Law of heaven, and not until then. Things having gotten out of order as far as the Church was concerned, they having rejected the fullness of the Gospel -- Celestial and Plural Marriage, and the Holy United Order -- the Church actually rejected it, dear brothers and sisters, and the Lord provided a special dispensation to carry on these keys, under and through John Taylor, Jesus and Joseph themselves coming to see that it was done. These are the words I was reading out of the book, Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, these keys and power of Elijah.

Mission of Elijah

Now for Elijah. The spirit, power, and calling of Elijah is, that ye have power to hold the key of the revelations, ordinances, oracles, powers and endowments of the fulness of the Melchizedek Priesthood and of the kingdom of God on the earth; and to receive, obtain, and perform all the ordinances belonging to the kingdom of God, even unto the turning of the hearts of the fathers unto the children, and the hearts of the children unto the fathers, even those who are in heaven.

You may have experienced, and seen, observed how there are many still living -- men have gone and come to this order of the Priesthood acknowledging they held authority to marry, and that was all. They got their wives, and then went off into the sagebrush, and cut themselves off from the power and source and the keys of their blessings, thinking that they could have direct access to God, and abide in that holy principle by themselves. Large families have been raised under those conditions, and we see what has been happening to them, brothers and sisters.

The point I want to make here, and make it crystal clear, dear brothers and sisters, what good does it do to receive a blessing and then cut off the channel by which you are to receive continued blessings, guidance, and direction, even the Holy Ghost? That is what they have done, cut themselves off. What good does it do to seal women to men in this holy law if they think that they can go off into the sagebrush and do it by themselves? It is impossible. Those who seal women to men in this holy law have the responsibility to carry on, to teach and direct and train them, and see that families are raised up in light and truth.

That is the responsibility of these keys of Elijah held by Leroy S. Johnson today. They cut themselves off from the channel of the Holy Ghost, which is the power of this Priesthood. Let any of you try it, and you will see what will happen to your children, and your children's children. It is the business and the work of this order of the Priesthood, dear brothers and sisters, to nurture, teach, and train, and to raise up a people under the family of this holy order of Priesthood, to be prepared for the One Mighty and Strong, and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ to redeem Zion, to prepare the way. Can't you see how awful this responsibility is that rests upon President Johnson and his co-laborers in this Council? Can we not see the great concern that he has for us, and what an awful thing it would be if it were just a matter of sealing men and women up and sending them on their way? How could he prepare a people under those conditions?

I rejoice, dear brothers and sisters, in the knowledge that this is the people that has been called out of the heart's core of the Latter-day Saints that would hold to eternal principles and be prepared to become the nucleus of the great Millennium. This is that people, if you will only be that people, and follow the counsel and direction of this order of the Priesthood. Right from the beginning, from all that I have been able to learn of the teachings of John W. Woolley and Lorin C. Woolley -- I have heard it from the lips of Daniel Bateman, and I have heard it from the lips of John Y. Barlow, Joseph W. Musser, Charles Zitting, Leroy Johnson who met them; and we have still a witness of their teachings, President Jessop -- when men used to come to them for direction, what they should do, they would say simply, "Go and set in order your families; teach and train them up." Set in order your families. That is the mission that rests upon the bearers of the Melchizedek Priesthood sitting here today, and in other places under the direction of this order of the Priesthood -- to go and set in order your families.

Do you grieve, brethren, that you do not have more responsibility in this work, do not have some "big job" in the Priesthood? Great heavens, the greatest job in the world that is given to this work and people is for heads of families bearing the holy Melchizedek Priesthood to raise up a righteous posterity, to teach their children in light and truth, to teach women to live together and love one another, and become as a family of heaven here in the midst of this telesciasl, hellish world. That is our job, and the devil is taking every advantage he can because of our foolishness and not following these orders and the channels by which we obtain the power to accomplish this work. "To your tents, O Israel," in this great fight with evil. Let us gird up our loins, dear brethren, and bear off this work under the direction of the great keyholder. Let us go forward and not backward, keeping the commandments, being faithful and true; and above all, loving one another.

The first and great commandment, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all of thy might, mind, and strength," means to keep His commandments. "If ye love Me," He says, "keep My commandments." The second is like unto it: "Love thy neighbor as thyself." Who is your neighbor? The one next door, across the fence? Not by any means. Your neighbor, dear sisters, are your sister wives. Brethren, your neighbors are your co-laborers under this holy order of the Priesthood. You have received the Melchizedek Priesthood, brethren, by oath and covenant, to sustain and uphold that power that gave you that Priesthood, that gave you those wives.

What an awful responsibility rests upon us, brethren and sisters, you dear mothers who have charge of these children almost solely in their tender and early years. Brigham Young went so far as to say that their salvation and growth and development, their characters, if you please, depend upon you mothers; and their salvation and yours stand in peril if you fail to do it.

How awful this responsibility is, is pretty well spelled out in Section 93, where the Lord, after instructing Joseph and his brethren as to the nature of light and truth, these souls that we have, the body and the spirit that came into it innocent when they were born into the world; then He went on: "Joseph, Frederick, Sidney and others, you have not taught your children many things, and you are under condemnation until, and unless you do," -- this, to the Prophet of God.

So these injunctions rest upon us likewise, each and every one. I cannot emphasize enough, my dear brothers and sisters, how awful, how terrible the responsibility resting upon our shoulders, to raise these children up in light and truth, to love the Gospel, to love the Priesthood. And you mothers, at the peril of your salvation in the raising up of these children, turn them to their fathers at the proper time. Brigham Young gave instructions on that. If you do not, God help you, and God help those children. Turn these children to their righteous fathers who are seeking, through President Johnson, to obey the holy laws that have been vouchsafed to him.

God help us to do these things, dear brothers and sisters, and to sense and realize the awful responsibility that rests upon us. How much more we should begin to realize it since we have been told that this people are very little, if any, further ahead than they were thirty years ago, except in numbers. Quality obedience, abiding in the truth, loving it for its own sake; loving one another, engaged in this holy law, dear sisters, and loving your children enough to want to save and exalt them; and prepare them to go into the hands of the holy Priesthood to be placed, themselves, into this holy law. This is what we should be looking forward to. God help us to do so, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Must Overcome Evil as the Savior Overcame

Well, brothers and sisters, we have had the message and the warning. When we hear it in this vein, we had better take heed and do something about it, or we are going to suffer the consequences. This is indeed a great work, and we are living in the great and dreadful day of the Lord, as we have been told many times. It is now for us to overcome. I would like to very briefly read some of the words of John Taylor as he quoted the Lord Himself.

The next question for us to examine is, How, and in what manner are men benefitted by the atonement and by the resurrection?

Brought by the Lord Jesus Christ.

In this, that the atonement having restored man to his former position before the Lord, it has placed him in a position and made it possible for him to obtain that exaltation and glory which it would have been impossible for him to have received without it; even to become a son of God by adoption; and being a son then an heir of God, and a joint heir with Jesus Christ; and that, as Christ overcame, He has made it possible, and has placed it within the power of believers in Him, also to overcome; and as He is authorized to inherit His Father's glory which He had with Him before the world was, with His resurrected body, so through the adoption, may we overcome and sit down with Him upon His throne, as He has overcome and has sat down upon His Father's throne.

What the brethren have been telling us today is that it is up to us to overcome these weaknesses and foul spirits. It is up to us to overcome death, hell, and the devil -- to put it very shortly and sweetly. These foul and false spirits are the things that we have to contend with. He overcame the devil in those great temptations with correct principle and the word of God. He descended below all things that He might rise above all things, and He overcame, and calls upon us to do likewise, and to become like Him.

And as he has said, "I and the Father are one," so are the obedient saints one with Him, as He is one with the Father, even as He prayed:

"That they all may be one; as thou, Father, are in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me." -- John, xvii, 21-23.

Being the sons of God through the atonement and adoption, and through faith in Jesus, they rise to the dignity and glory of the Godhead, even to be Gods; as it is promised:

And from revelations:

"Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. -- Rev., iii, 12.

Again, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne." - - Rev., iii, 21.

Yet again, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." -- Rev., xxi, 7.
So we have this great and glorious thing to see fulfilled, closing the chapter and this whole book, The Mediation and Atonement of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom, that which shall not be destroyed* * * And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him." -- Daniel, vii, 13, 14, 27.

This is the promise held out to us, brothers and sisters, if we overcome. God help us to do so, and to be with Him, to be like Him, and be one with Him, as He is in the Father, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Faith Is Lacking Because We Do Not Please God

I pray for an earnest interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, that I may be directed to say those things that will encourage you and bless us all to the end that we may become like God. My mind goes to the great subject of faith, the power of faith, which is the means by which God has accomplished all that He has done in the creation of worlds, the bringing forth of His children upon the earth, and in establishing, through His Son Jesus Christ, the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ for the salvation of those children. I am grateful for the testimony I have of this work and Priesthood, and that the Priesthood has taught this people all the day long a great and glorious message of how to become like God. That is why we are given this greatest law of the Gospel -- Celestial Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven -- the highest and most important law that God has revealed for the benefit of His children who He expects to bring back into His presence, which is His glory.
Now, brothers and sisters, these things have all been done by faith. By faith you are here, and you have received and obeyed the Gospel, which has been delivered to us by the servants of God. Now, why aren't we receiving those things which will bring us into His presence? Because our course is not pleasing to God. Our course of life, putting it very simply, is not pleasing enough to God that He can own and bless us as His people.

The power of faith, as given forth by the Prophet Joseph Smith in the Lectures on Faith, is contained in this great principle that we come to know that our course of life is pleasing to God, and thereby we have power with Him. That course of life cannot become pleasing to Him except we sacrifice all earthly things. Above and beyond all earthly things, putting aside property and mere things is our earthly character, this character that we were born with as we came into this lone and dreary world, subject to the temptations and the activities of the devil, who was cast down into the earth even before Father Adam came here to begin the propagation of his children. It is up to us to sacrifice this character, this selfish character that we have. That is the great sacrifice. As we become like Him, nearer and nearer like Him, we obtain power with Him because we will come to know and have the testimony that Enoch had, that he pleased God. It is for us to please our Lord Jesus Christ and become like Him as He became like the Father, giving up these mean characteristics that we have, these selfish characteristics that we have, and obtain the pure love of Christ, which is the most important attribute of the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost; which is given us as a great gift to enable us to come back into His presence, by obtaining it and keeping it throughout our lives.

Think of the power that you would have with God, dear brothers and sisters, if you were like Him. He cannot, by the laws of heaven and of the holy Priesthood, He cannot own and bless us until we become like Him. It is just that simple. And we cannot become like Him save we have and keep always the Holy Ghost as our constant companion, and this is the simple matter that we have to come to. It is just that plain and simple. We do not seem to keep this thing in mind. As we go through our daily labors, our affairs -- brethren directing their families, and sisters their children, and our brethren sustaining and upholding the authority of God upon the earth, by which we have these blessings -- we forget and lose the Spirit of God. When that is lost, false and delusive spirits take possession, and these mean characteristics, these emotional hang-ups, if you please, are what destroy us. They are engendered by false and delusive spirits which have taken hold of us, and which we have grown up with. They are the characters that we must sacrifice so that our course is pleasing to God.

Now, if we would love God with all our might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves, we would have the Spirit of God continually. This attribute, love, would overcome all things, this dross in our nature, and enable us to sacrifice these things on the altar, which is laid before us when we came into this work and when we were born into it.

I do not feel to take any more time. I pray, dear brothers and sisters, that we will settle down and prepare for the great destructions and judgments that are to come, and draw closer together, and be one in the hands of this Priesthood under God; that we may be that people that He is seeking to redeem Zion and to bring about much righteousness, going back to redeem Zion and bring that holy city into being. There is much work to be done, much preparation to make, and I pray God to help us to do these things in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Faith and the Plan of Salvation

I sincerely pray that the same spirit will actuate my remarks, as has that of those before. It would seem anything I could say would be an anticlimax, but with the Lord's help, I pray that we may be further instructed and edified by the Spirit of God.

As I contemplate the things that President Musser has spoken to us about here today, I realize that the great fundamental ingredient for accomplishing the great objectives that he has laid before us is the power of faith, bringing us the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost, which will lead us to all truth and enable us, if we possess it continually, to become like God. That is the only reason, the only basis on which Enoch and his people were able to come up to the point where they could be translated. They became like God.

It happened that I was reading some literature that is quoting from the Lectures on Faith, and I felt impressed to present them here to you. I think they carry on with the same objectives as the brethren have spoken on up to now in this meeting. I think what most of us need, dear brothers and sisters, is to know how. Actually, the brethren have been telling us how, lo, these many, many years. Perhaps another little approach would help, as I read to you a summary as to the great principle of faith.

As a principle of religion, faith centers in God, and bids man hope for salvation and eternal life. ...in order that faith may be intelligently exercised in God, it is essential that there should be a belief in his existence, and correct ideas as to his character.

These, we understand and know, I hope, dear brothers and sisters.

...a faith has been established in the mind that will lead to repentance, to an effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven.

That effort persevered in will, in time, bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of heaven, and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect.

You know Enoch had this testimony that he pleased God, and that is why he was able to be translated. This:

...will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

The knowledge which we must obtain, and that through sacrifice of all earthly things, the sacrifice of this earthly character, will enable us to accomplish this, this knowledge that our course of life is pleasing to God. It cannot be a mere belief. It must be knowledge, having the testimony that Enoch had, that Abel had, that Joseph had, that Peter had, that they pleased God, and thus were able to lay hold on eternal life, having the confidence and the approbation of God, having become like Him. The Holy Spirit is the power by which we become like God, because that is the attributes of God.

The Gospel by B. H. Roberts  Page 251

In addition to this splendid array of powers and gifts of the Holy Ghost, we are told that

The result of possessing Him,

"is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance." ...the Holy Spirit adapts itself to all the organs and attributes of man. It

His influence,

...quickens all the intellectual faculties, increases, enlarges, expands and purifies all the natural passions and affections; and adapts them by the gift of wisdom to their lawful use. It inspires, develops, cultivates, and matures all the fine-toned sympathies, joys, tastes, kindred feelings and affections of our nature. It inspires virtue, kindness, goodness, tenderness, gentleness and charity.

And which there is nothing greater.

It develops beauty of person,

The Holy Ghost develops beauty of person.

...form and feature. It tends to health, vigor, animation and social feeling. It develops and invigorates all the faculties of the physical and intellectual man. It strengthens, invigorates and gives tone to the nerves. In short, it is, as it were, marrow to the bone, joy to the heart, light to the eyes, music to the ears, and life to the whole being."

Such is the Holy Ghost and its sanctifying influence -- such is the Spirit given to

Be the companion of,

...those who accept the gospel, who believe in God and Jesus Christ, who repent of their sins and are baptized for the remission of them --

In other words, from the nature of his spiritual being, the Holy Ghost directly influences the spirit of man and brings him into the ways of God. By accepting the Gospel, men are given power to walk within the circle of His influence, and the spirit himself is accessible to them as companion, guide and comforter. To those brought into harmonious relations with God through the Gospel, the influence of the Holy Ghost becomes the very
The presence of God to them, and in them, for by him they are made one with God as the Son is one with the Father.

And remember, all of these things through the power of the Priesthood, which is the Holy Ghost. And finally,

...that the child of the kingdom might not grow weary in his efforts at moral and spiritual development, the Lord has revealed his long-suffering and merciful kindness to those who strive to keep his commandments.

As we go forward, dear brothers and sisters, we stumble, we make mistakes, and how wonderful to understand the long-suffering and mercy of God, His patience and love and kindness. But His Spirit will not always strive with man if we go too far.

And such is the weakness of mankind and their frequent violations of the laws of God that had they not the repeated assurances in the revelations respecting God's character that he is slow to anger, abundant in mercy and long-suffering, the heart of man would grow faint, and his effort at spiritual development would be palsied.

Knowing that God has this character, we can exercise faith, repent, and go on.

But with these facts firmly impressed on their minds men struggle on -- they pray and faint not.

If there is one struggle more than another in which the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong, but to those who endure to the end, it is in this struggle for eternal life.

He that endureth and overcometh shall have eternal life.

"He that shall endure to the end the same shall be saved," were the words of Jesus, and I know of no other condition of salvation contemplated in the Gospel of Christ, than this. "Be thou faithful unto death," wrote John to the saints at Smyrna, "and I will give thee a crown of life." "Blessed are they who do his commandment, that they may have right to the tree of life;" and with such passages the scriptures are replete.

There is no one great thing that man can do and then do no more and obtain salvation.

In other words, no great heroic act, nor some great individual accomplishment can assure a man of salvation. It is an endurance contest.
That is what this is, brothers and sisters.

After entering into the kingdom of God, in the manner already pointed out in these pages, it is by learning "precept upon precept; line upon line; here a little and there a little," that salvation will be made secure. It is by resisting a temptation today, overcoming a weakness tomorrow, forsaking evil associations the next day, and thus day by day, month after month, year after year, pruning, restraining and weeding out that which is evil in the disposition, that the character is purged of its imperfections.

Salvation is a matter of character building under the Gospel, laws, and ordinances; and more especially with the direct aid of the Holy Spirit.

Nor is it enough that one gets rid of evil. He must do good. He must surround himself with circumstances congenial to the sensitive nature of the Holy Ghost, that it may not be offended, and withdraw itself from him; for if it does so, amen to his

That man's,

...spiritual or moral development. He must cultivate noble sentiments by performing noble deeds -- not great ones, necessarily, for opportunity to perform what the world esteem great things, comes but seldom to men in the ordinary walks of life; but noble deeds may be done every day; and every such deed performed with an eye single to the glory of God, draws one that much nearer into harmony with the Deity.

And note this wonderful, grand truth of the Prophet Joseph Smith:

And "if you wish to go where God is," said the Prophet Joseph, "you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from him and drawing towards the devil."

That is the nature of this work, and the giving and receiving of the Holy Ghost. In having made promises and covenants, if we are not drawing towards God, we are drawing towards the devil. And thus by refusing to follow, ...the evil inclinations of the disposition on the one hand, and cultivating noble sentiments on the other, a character may be formed that shall be godlike in its attributes and consequently its possessor will be fitted to dwell with God, and if so prepared, there is no question but his calling and election are sure.

Collectively, if we individually accomplish this, we will be a people prepared for translation, for the redemption of Zion, the preparing of a city, and a people that will be caught up to meet Enoch in mid-air prior to the glorious coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, which I pray we may be one of, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Love of Brethren;
We Lack Blessings Because We Do Not Love One Another;
Draw Near to the Keyholder

I appreciate the things we have heard here today, my dear brothers and sisters, and I pray for a continuation of the Spirit of God, especially upon me as I speak to you today. As I have sat here, I have reflected upon my brethren, my fellow servants in the Priesthood, and upon my fathers in the Priesthood, those that I have known and labored with since I was privileged and blessed to come into this work through the instrumentality of my beloved father, and I am just simply overwhelmed as I think of the love of my brethren, what I have felt from them, from President Barlow down. I must say that this love transcends any love of human beings for one another, and is like unto the love of God that transcends all. But it is a part of our love for God, in that we love our brother and our sister and our neighbor. These are our neighbors, our fellow laborers in the Kingdom of God.

Joseph Smith, I think of so often, and it is as though I had known him all my life in this mortality, as I have studied his words, tried to follow his words, as President Kimball did; and for which he received such a glorious blessing by revelation of heaven to himself, in which he said the Spirit whispered to him: "Blessed art thou, Heber, for thou hast been careful to follow the words of My servant Joseph." I appreciate how he lived and set an example, and has been a model for me as I have contemplated the faithful brethren around Joseph the Prophet, those who truly followed his words and kept them faithfully, stood close by him to the death. These will have an inheritance with him in Zion, as Heber C. Kimball was promised by Joseph himself. The love and devotion of these brethren for one another, who truly kept the faith and stood close by the keyholder, is the thing that I appreciate in my feelings here today.

As I contemplate the attributes of God, the character of God, the greatest of which is love, I find, dear brothers and sisters, that true love, the deepest love that we can have for one another is in those who have more perfectly kept the law, have more perfectly become like our Father. And after all, isn't this what we love in God, His character and attributes? Isn't this what we love in one another, if we are keeping the commandments, magnifying the holy Priesthood in our lives, magnifying God in our lives, if you please, as we become like Him? The whole range of this subject of faith comes before me as I contemplate the love of God, which is like unto the love of brethren in the holy Priesthood. I cannot see this people becoming one short of these things that I speak of, through the grand principle of love, charity, the pure love of Christ, who became like His Father. And we must become like Him, the great Prototype of saved and exalted beings.

I will remind you again of the statement I elicited from President Johnson, as we were traveling along the icy roads in Canada last January, coming home. We were traveling alone together, just we two; and the things that we discussed have been most precious. But I did ask him: "Brother Johnson, why do we not, as brethren in the Priesthood," -- I was speaking of all the brethren of this Priesthood, supposed to be parts of God, -- "why do we not have and receive and enjoy more of the blessings and endowments of God?" He said very simply, "Because they do not love one another enough." This covers the whole ground, dear brothers and sisters. Faith is the assurance we have in our minds of things hoped for, the evidence of things we cannot, or do not see. Faith is a principle of power. It is a principle of action by which we come to God, and by which we become like Him. We can come to God only by that one principle, and that is that we become like Him.

Our Father and God, Michael, Adam, is the only God with whom we have to do. I know this as I know I live. He is the Father of our spirits, the Father of our bodies; and He suffered for us, how much we know not, as He descended into mortality. He suffered like unto Jesus, the great Mediator of man, to bring us back into His presence, out of this mortality. The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, the grand Trinity, the power by which we may become like Them, this power of the Gods, is the power of the holy Priesthood. There is no Priesthood outside of the power of the Spirit. God is unchangeable.
Father Michael is unchangeable. He is love. By the grand attributes of knowledge, faith or power, justice, judgment, mercy, and truth, He is unchangeable. He is these things spoken of in Lecture Three of the Lectures on Faith, by virtue of these attributes which He attained to, which He acquired, and which we are required to acquire to become like Him.

We must obtain a fullness of the Holy Spirit under the Father and the Son to become like Them. We must lay hold on a fullness of the Holy Spirit, which has these attributes. In that process, then, it is required that we sacrifice all earthly things, and the greatest thing required is that we sacrifice this earthly character, this worldly character that we have. Lay it upon the altar and become like God, and the effects that flow from this grand principle of faith is to become like Him. I would like to read a verse from Lecture Six of the Lectures on Faith.

Lecture Six

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things.

Everything earthly in our character and body. We came here to perfect this body by the power of the Spirit, and to overcome.

7. ...It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God.

10. Those, then, who make the sacrifice, will have the testimony that their course is pleasing in the sight of God; and those who have this testimony will have faith to lay hold on eternal life, and will be enabled, through faith, to endure unto the end, and receive the crown that is laid up for them that love the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Lecture Seven

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and
There is no other way than to become like Him through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, who suffered that we might come again into His and Father's presence, through the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the power of God unto salvation. Dear brothers and sisters, is there any sacrifice too great to lay hold on these things? Are we going to be that people? I ask you, are we going to be that people, the nucleus of the great Millennium? If we are, we are going to have to become like God. It is just that simple. Joseph Smith once made the grand statement, "Are you like God?" He said, "I have searched my character and have fallen short." But those who will see Him must become like Him. It is just that simple. We know His character. We know His attributes.

Joseph the Prophet stands as our great advocate, under the Lord Jesus Christ, for this dispensation of people. He gave his life as a testimony of the great work that he was sent forth to do, as holding the keys of the holy Priesthood in this last and greatest of all the dispensations, and whom all the other keys are gathered. And he showed that he could become like God, a mortal being like as you and I. As the Church was apostatizing and leaving the narrow way to life and salvation, the Lord sent him again, and Jesus Christ, our Savior, to John Taylor, and vouchsafed these things and this power and Priesthood for a continuation of the work, that it might not cease; for this work has been given, never to be thrown down or given to another people.

Are we going to be that people, my dear brothers and sisters? Ask each one of yourselves. Do you really want to be part of that people? I ask it of myself every day. I want to with all my soul. There is a scourge coming, dear brothers and sisters. This people must be purified. A people must be purified to become the nucleus of the great Millennium. Will each and every one of us, we should ask ourselves, be a part of that nucleus?

Now, dear brothers and sisters, how does this apply to us in our families? This is where it begins, and where it ends. We have the holy Priesthood, a fullness of the Priesthood in our midst. We have the keyholder of the holy Priesthood in our midst, President Johnson, and he pleads with us day and night to become that people. Are we going to be a part of it? I ask myself every day.
Now, dear brethren, you heads of families, draw near to the keyholder, as Heber, as Brigham, as John and the others drew near to Joseph, which assured them an inheritance with him in Zion. They set the glorious example. Others have followed since, and we have as our head, Leroy Johnson, our advocate with the Father, the keyholder by which we must come up to see the face of God, if we ever do. These brethren who lead us, dear brothers and sisters, these fathers in the Priesthood, are the ones by whom we must pass to see the face of Joseph, and Jesus, and Father. Talk about the love of brethren. I love the attributes of God as they exist in these my brethren -- Leroy Johnson, John Y. Barlow. These I must pass by, and the others before them, before I see Joseph, Jesus, and the white locks of Father Michael; and you must do likewise.

We will not progress, then, dear brethren and sisters, as President Johnson says, any faster or more perfectly than we love one another, as brethren; as we love our wives and children, and seek to save them; as we set an example of righteousness before them. This is how we must do it -- teach by word and by action and by example. We, as brethren, bearers of the holy Priesthood, must draw together, close to Leroy Sunderland Johnson, doing everything that is directed by him, for us to do, to become like God. When we see a host of men, brethren loving one another perfectly, perfect love, they will become alike, like Jesus; and He was like God. Joseph made these grand remarks, which I would like to read.

Until we have perfect love we are liable to fall and when we have a testimony that our names are sealed in the Lamb's book of life we have perfect love and then it is impossible for false Christs to deceive us;

Here again is the key that Joseph gave to the School of the Prophets, and has been giving to this people, through Priesthood instruction, and through family instruction, class instruction all the day long. After explaining the grand Trinity -- the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; and I think that we ought to read some from that point.

Lecture Five

2. ...And he being the Only Begotten
Jesus Christ.

2. ...of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

We obtain this oneness, then, dear brothers and sisters, through attaining a fullness of the Holy Spirit, the attributes of which are: knowledge, faith or power, justice, judgment, mercy, truth; all comprehended in the love of God, the character of God.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit,

This mind of the Father is the Holy Spirit.

3. ...so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs
The saints of God, you and I, I pray God.

3. ...they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.
There is no other way. So, brothers and sisters, lay hold as your constant guide and companion upon the Holy Spirit, until you obtain a fullness of it, through having your calling and election made sure, saving all that you are given into your care to save, or will be saved, and come up in the Family Order of Heaven as a righteous host to redeem Zion. The righteousness of that people will cause the trees to clap together through the power of the Spirit.

Why do we not have these things? Because we do not have the faith. We are not enough like God. And to put this grand principle of faith in perspective, these words came to me this past week: Faith is power with God. Lay hold on it, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of the One Man;
What Are We Doing About Our Great Opportunity?

I am grateful to be here today and mingle my voice with that of my brethren in praise of the Lord and exhortation to do the will of God and become like Him. I am grateful for the holy Priesthood in our midst, for President Johnson as the mouthpiece of God to this people, and that we are blessed daily in our efforts and in our desires to keep all of the commandments of God, and to live every law of the holy Priesthood. This is what he desires for us, and for this people in the preparation of a people; and we should be lending our all toward this end.

I am grateful for the life and mission of President Joseph Smith, Jun., the great Prophet of this last dispensation and the greatest of all dispensations, in which all the others are gathered. I am grateful for all of those who have followed in his steps, our fathers in the Priesthood. I am grateful for my family and opportunities that God has given me to abide in His law and the principles of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.
I was struck, in reading Section 21 of the Doctrine and Covenants, what the instructions and the placing of the Prophet Joseph Smith in his true place, at the inception of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints when it was organized April 6, 1830. I think it might be worthwhile as a testimony regarding him and a testimony about him I delight in bearing. This is given April 6, 1830.

D.& C. 21

1. Behold, there shall be a record kept among you; and in it thou shalt be called a seer, a translator, a prophet, an apostle of Jesus Christ, an elder of the church through the will of God the Father, and the grace of your Lord Jesus Christ,
2. Being inspired of the Holy Ghost to lay the foundation thereof, and to build it up unto the most holy faith.
3. Which church was organized and established in the year of your Lord eighteen hundred and thirty, in the fourth month, and on the sixth day of the month which is called April.
4. Wherefore, meaning the church, thou shalt give heed unto all his words and commandments which he shall give unto you as he receiveth them, walking in all holiness before me;
5. For his word ye shall receive, as if from mine own mouth, in all patience and faith.
6. For by doing these things the gates of hell shall not prevail against you; yea, and the Lord God will disperse the powers of darkness from before you, and cause the heavens to shake for your good, and his name's glory.
7. For thus saith the Lord God: Him have I inspired to move the cause of Zion in mighty power for good, and his diligence I know, and his prayers I have heard.
8. Yea, his weeping for Zion I have seen, and I will cause that he shall mourn for her no longer; for his days of rejoicing are come unto the remission of sins, and the manifestations of my blessings upon his works. And it is true, he had cause to weep for Zion many times after this.
9. For, behold, I will bless all those who labor in my vineyard with a mighty blessing, and they shall believe on his words, which are given him through me by the Comforter, which manifesteth that Jesus was crucified by sinful men for the sins of the world, yea, for the remission of sins unto the contrite heart.

10. Wherefore it behooveth me that he should be ordained by you, Oliver Cowdery mine apostle;

11. This being an ordinance unto you, that you are an elder under his hand, he being the first unto you, that you might be an elder unto this church of Christ, bearing my name --

12. And the first preacher of this church unto the church, and before the world, yea, before the Gentiles; yea, and thus saith the Lord God, lo, lo! to the Jews also. Amen.

Let us confirm this as we read from verse 7 of Section 132:

D. & C. 132

7. And verily I say unto you, that the conditions of this law...

Celestial and Plural Marriage,

7. ...are these: All covenants, contracts, bonds, obligations, oaths, vows, performances, connections, associations, or expectations, that are not made and entered into and sealed by the Holy Spirit of promise, of him who is anointed, both as well for time and for all eternity, and that too most holy, by revelation and commandment through the medium of mine anointed, whom I have appointed on the earth to hold this power (and I have appointed unto my servant Joseph to hold this power in the last days, and there is never but one on the earth at a time on whom this power and the keys of this priesthood are conferred), are of no efficacy, virtue, or force in and after the resurrection from the dead; for all contracts that are not made

And entered into,

7. ...unto this end have an end when men are dead.

My dear brethren and sisters, let us never forget that this Joseph, accompanied by the Lord Jesus Christ, came in answer to prayer to John Taylor on the night of September 26th and 27th, 1886, to begin the setting in order of the House of God; when he was given that glorious revelation confirming and requiring a continuation of this holy law of Celestial and Plural Marriage upon His people; and that we are now the recipients of this special dispensation of the holy Priesthood under Father Michael and Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith, the Godhead of this earth; and that men were called and set apart and ordained, under the holy Apostleship, to continue this work.

This is the heart of the work in which we are engaged, and I testify of it to you in the name of Jesus Christ, that God had set His hand by that means, through His Prophet, John Taylor, to carry on this work, contemplating the apostasy of this Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; so that His word should be fulfilled, that this work and Priesthood has been established upon the earth for the last time, never to be thrown down or given to another people.

Now what are we doing about this glorious opportunity and blessing that we have received at the hands of God and His Priesthood? Are we drawing near to our Father in heaven through His Priesthood, or are we drawing away? Are we drawing near to our beloved Prophet, Leroy Johnson, or are we drawing away in our faith and in our works? Are we sustaining him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, in the accomplishment of this work -- him and his associates in this Council?

Are we obeying the Economic Law of Heaven, living in the spirit of the Holy United Order, to pay at least the least that God will accept, a tithe; and above and beyond that, a surplus, laboring to fill up the storehouse, that God's work may be carried forward? Are we abiding in the law of Celestial and Plural Marriage, the companion law; the highest two that Brigham Young said stand in the Gospel of Jesus Christ? Are we truly abiding it, magnifying the holy Priesthood, brethren? And you sisters and children, are you magnifying that Priesthood in your families? Are we striving to be one, so that President Johnson and this Council can labor together to present before the Lord a people who are perfect in their generation, that they may be used to redeem Zion and to bring to pass the setting in order of the House of God?

Let us always keep these objects in mind, dear brothers and sisters, and remember that Priesthood is paramount, as a people and in our families; and that the Holy Ghost is the power of that Priesthood, which every family head, every dear mother and wife, and every child should seek to have as their constant companion every day, every moment of every day of our lives. This is the only way we can become one -- by giving up our traditions, to sacrifice on the altar the character of this earthly nature of ours, so that we might become like God. That is the only way we can become one, is to become like Him, following the great and glorious example of the Lord Jesus Christ as He overcame. He overcame! And His will was swallowed up in the will of His Father. It is for us likewise to overcome. I call upon you and me and all of ours and those that we have to do with, to repent and to do better, and to come unto this Priesthood and the Spirit of God, and have it as our constant companion, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Sin of Ingratitude; True Virtue Is Obedience

It is good to be here again, dear brothers and sisters, and I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers in filling this responsibility. Much has been said here today and last night about the sin of ingratitude, which to me is the antithesis of true humility and love. Some of the greatest offenses committed against the Prophet Joseph Smith were these sins of ingratitude, realizing what that man of God had suffered for them and for the establishment of the Priesthood and the restoration of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Few men ever realized who or what he was during his lifetime, and what he meant to their salvation.

I felt to read, as the Lord will help me, Section 59, which gives some of the finest instructions that God has given to His children, and it involves this subject which has been mentioned most beautifully. The Lord is speaking to the saints who had come up to Zion. They were just a few, for they had just come to dedicate it and set it apart under the Prophet Joseph Smith for the gathering place for the saints, and to establish the City of Zion.

D.& C. 59

1. Behold, blessed, saith the Lord, are they who have come up unto this land with an eye single to my glory, according to my commandments.
2. For those that live shall inherit the earth, and those that die shall rest from all their labors, and their works shall follow them; and they shall receive a crown in the mansions of my Father, which I have prepared for them.

So it matters not whether we live or die, just so we fill out our measure and accomplish our work and mission. If we are truly righteous, we live unto the Lord and His name's honor and glory, and the building up of His Kingdom. If we die in the effort, we die unto God, and it is just the same, so we have completed our work and done all things whatsoever the Lord our God has commanded.

3. Yea, blessed are they whose feet stand upon the land of Zion, who have obeyed my gospel;
The whole of North America now, we understand, is Zion, and this is Zion to us. We should be so living that we were here redeeming Zion, for we must redeem a Zion unto ourselves and live the Celestial Law in the midst of hell and the telestial world. This is what is required of the saints and those who have come to the Priesthood of God.

3. ...for they shall receive for their reward the good things of the earth, and it shall bring forth in its strength.
4. And they shall also be crowned with blessings from above, yea, and with commandments not a few, and with revelations in their time -- they that are faithful and diligent before me.
5. Wherefore, I give unto them a commandment, saying thus: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, mind, and strength; and in the name of Jesus Christ thou shalt serve him.
These are the requirements of those who come up to Zion.

6. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Thou shalt not steal; neither commit adultery, nor kill, nor do anything like unto it.
7. Thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things.
8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit.
There is the true law of sacrifice, dear brothers and sisters, a broken heart and a contrite spirit, thanking God in all things.

9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;
10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High.
11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;
And I wonder how many of us, dear brothers and sisters, are keeping this day holy, and truly worshiping God and giving thanks.
12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord.

I appreciated the remarks of President Jessop on those points.

13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.

14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.

Thanksgiving and prayer -- this is true worship.

15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin, but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --

This is true joy, dear brothers and sisters, together with the realization that our course is pleasing to God. This is true faith, perfect faith, coming to know that our course is pleasing to God, having offered all in sacrifice with a broken heart and a contrite spirit.

16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fulness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;

17. Yea, and the herb, and the good things which come of the earth, whether for food or for raiment, or for houses, or for barns, or for orchards, or for gardens, or for vineyards;

18. Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart;

19. Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.

20. And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.

21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

22. Behold, this is according to the law and the prophets; wherefore, trouble me no more concerning this matter.
23. But learn that he who doeth the works of righteousness shall receive his reward, even peace in this world, and eternal life in the world to come.

24. I, the Lord, have spoken it, and the Spirit beareth record. Amen.

True humility, then, dear brothers and sisters, is offering a sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit, keeping all of the commandments. This is the only virtue there is, said Brigham Young, and confessing the hand of God in all things. I would like to read that statement of Brigham Young’s.

JD 2:123  Brigham Young  April 17, 1853  SLC
What I consider to be virtue, and the only principle of virtue there is, is to do the will of our Father in heaven. That is the only virtue I wish to know. I do not recognize any other virtue than to do what the Lord Almighty requires of me from day to day. In this sense virtue embraces all good; it branches out into every avenue of mortal life, passes through the ranks of the sanctified in heaven, and makes its throne in the breast of the Deity. When the Lord commands the people, let them obey. That is virtue.

JD 1:332  Orson Pratt (Date Unknown)
"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth,"
The humble, the meek, shall inherit the earth.
Was the promise of the great Redeemer.
But who are the meek? By what peculiarities are they distinguished from other men? There must be some qualities about them far superior to the generality of mankind, or they would not become the exclusive heirs of the new earth. The law of meekness includes all the laws of the Gospel, with its ordinances and blessings, Priesthood and powers, through obedience to which mankind become justified, sanctified, purified, and glorified. Such are the meek of the earth, and none others.

And I pray God to help us to be so, to be truly obedient. This is all that God requires of us as we read through all of the things that I have read from His word, which I pray we may follow with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I ask for an interest in your faith and prayers, dear brothers and sisters and my dearest friends, that I may say something that the Lord would have me say for our mutual edification. I need it as much as you do, and I desire but to be an instrument for good in the hands of the Lord.

It has been going through my mind a good deal of late, the statement that we have had and heard so many times, describing a certain man or woman as a one hundred percent Priesthood man or woman -- one hundred percent. It seems to me that anything less than this is not enough in the sight of God. The Lord wants the whole man, the whole mind of His sons and daughters who have taken upon them the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, believing and having faith in His atonement and His mediation in our behalf. And we have brought into focus the Priesthood.

Heber C. Kimball used to say, "The Kingdom of God or nothing!" This is being one hundred percent, and there is no halfway house. When we have taken upon ourselves the name of the Lord and had hands laid on us for the reception of the Holy Ghost, the gift of the Holy Ghost, the Lord then expects the whole heart and mind of that person. I think it is expressed beautifully in Section 64, if I remember correctly.

D.& C. 64

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.
34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.
35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.
36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.

Christ put it this way in His teachings, and these are the words of Christ:

3 Nephi 13

19. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and thieves break through and steal;

20. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

One hundred percent. Here is the key and modus operandi, if you please.

22. The light of the body is the eye; if, therefore, thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

Thy whole body shall be full of light.

23. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If, therefore, the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24. No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

The Lord told the Prophet Joseph Smith, in instructing his father, Joseph Smith, Sen., the qualifications for the work, for a person engaging in the work of God is that he love and serve God with all his heart, might, mind, and strength -- one hundred percent. We have a good many in our past history, and undoubtedly even now, whom I have chosen to call fringers, hanging on the fringes of this work. It always reminds me of the statement in broken German: "They're shust close by." [Laughter] I have always tried to teach my family that anything that is worthwhile doing is worthwhile doing right, with all your heart. There are no half-measures in the Kingdom of God. I turn now for a little more light on this subject for our benefit, to Section 88.

D.& C. 88

66. Behold, that which you hear is the voice of one crying in the wilderness -- in the wilderness, because you cannot see him -- my voice, because my voice is Spirit; my Spirit is truth; truth abideth and hath no end; and if it be in you it shall abound.

67. And if your eye be single to my glory,

Single to my glory!

67. ...your whole bodies shall be filled with light, and there shall be no darkness in you; and that body which is filled with light comprehendeth all things.

68. Therefore, sanctify yourselves that your minds become single to God, and the days will come that you shall see him; for he will unveil his face unto you, and it shall be in his own time, and in his own way, and according to his own will.

Now, brothers and sisters, what is this light that shall fill the whole body? It is the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, and if it be in you there shall be no darkness, and there shall be great rejoicing. And what is more, we will become like Him -- our Father and our God, our Elder Brother, the Lord Jesus Christ; and have Their presence, after having had our calling and election made sure, through the medium of the holy Priesthood in the ordinances of the House of God; which I hope and pray, dear brothers and sisters, we will prepare for, with a singleness of purpose, with our eye single to God; keeping our eye -- this light of the body -- upon God, upon His Priesthood, and upon the keeping of His commandments; following every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God; and this is true faith. The fact that we do not enjoy these blessings is simply saying that we lack faith. "O ye of little faith," Christ was wont to call those of His hearers that He taught. And Joseph had to say the same thing to the saints; Brigham had to say the same thing to the saints: "O ye of little faith." And how oft He would gather us together and make us His if we would but keep His commandments.

I would just like to close with some more words on this subject of faith, which is the key to our getting and keeping the Spirit of God. By faith we obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ. By faith we obtain and lay hold upon the attributes and the character of God so that we may become like Him. The Holy Spirit is the attributes of God, in power, in rejoicing, and in glory. The glory that God desires to give us is the power of His Spirit, this light that will fill our whole bodies. And so...

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, With singleness of purpose, with an eye single to the glory of God,

...will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God,
This we do,

...a correct conception of his character,
Which we have been taught, all the day long.

...and a knowledge
Through obedience,

...that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power,
We will then, dear brothers and sisters, have power with God. Why would we not have power with God if we have His Spirit, if it fills our whole bodies -- the spiritual and the physical body, so that there shall be no darkness in us?

...will constitute it (faith) a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

We cannot be saved any faster than we gain knowledge. And we must come to know God, the Lord Jesus Christ and our Father, personally, for this is the first principle of religion -- to know that we can converse with God, as one man converses with another. This is within our reach if we are faithful and true unto the end.

So let us, dear brothers and sisters, not grow weary in well-doing, but let our eye be single to God and His glory, the building up of His Kingdom, the establishment of His Priesthood in the earth, being one hundred percent saints of God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of Elder James Steed
Son of Elder Newel Steed

I, too, dear brothers and sisters, feel this a distinct blessing and privilege to take part in this service in memory of one of God's sons. I am grateful for the privilege of having known him, though it wasn't a great deal; but I was always impressed with the beautiful spirit that he carried. And I have this testimony, that he pleased God, and he was becoming like God because of this. And I have this testimony, that James Steed was prepared and ready to go; and further, that this is a fulfillment of a very significant remark that was made by President Musser a week ago last Sunday in a meeting at Salt Lake City, when he said, "There are some young men that will soon be called to go over to the Priesthood on the other side to do a work, to perform important missionary work." This was the first thought that came to my mind when I heard this news.

So, it is a wonderful thing, brothers and sisters, to have had associated with this man of this character, a one hundred percent Priesthood man, for I know that he had placed himself at the side of President Johnson, who can better tell you of the details, and continually stayed in that position. I am reminded of an item of scripture that I read ten days ago in Salt Lake, which I feel would be in keeping with this occasion and with the life of this fine young man.

D.& C. 64

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.
And this was James' time.

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

34. Behold, the Lord requir eth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

I am sure that James had given his whole heart, might, mind, and strength to this work and the performance of his mission, which he did honorably, and has become a one hundred percent Priesthood man, and has reported now to our Priesthood fathers on the other side, or will. There is no death in these occasions where we have a man of this character and caliber, who died unto the Lord and has gone to a great reward. It is a joy, really, to contemplate the life and labors of a faithful and a true Priesthood man. And I rejoice on this occasion and pray for the Spirit of God to rest down upon us all, that we may profit by the life of this good Priesthood man, that his father, his mothers, brothers and sisters and his good wife shall live in the memory of a life well spent, a great mission accomplished, and having gone to a glorious reward and a resurrection in the due time of the Lord.

I pray that we may all profit by his example and that we indeed will follow the words of the song that has been sung, which I felt very impressed with -- I am sure all of us were -- "I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord; I'll do what you want me to do; I'll be what you want me to be, dear Lord;" and that we will all make the necessary preparation to become God's chosen people. We have been called, brothers and sisters. Let us prepare to be chosen, that we may indeed come under the direction of the Lord through His Priesthood, and that we will follow it as James followed it, as he followed these brethren, particularly President Johnson. God bless him in his continued labors on the other side, and all of us, that we may go on to perfection, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Do Not Weary in Well-Doing; Be Anxiously Engaged

It is good to be here, brothers and sisters, and I pray for the Spirit of God to direct my remarks that I may be helpful in bringing praise and honor to the name of God, in the encouragement of the saints. I am most grateful for my testimony of this work and Priesthood, and to my father, who, in the course of his rendering obedience to the fullness of the Gospel, was able to search it out and obtain light and knowledge which was passed on to me. I am grateful for the blood of Israel which flows in my veins from my fathers. I am grateful for my Priesthood fathers, especially, and for President Johnson today. This is how God works, through His authority, and this is how He accomplishes His designs upon the earth in preparing a people for the redemption of Zion, and preparation for the coming of the Tribes of Israel, the rest of them; and, of course, the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the preparation of a people who will become a nucleus of the great Millennium. This is the work that devolves upon President Johnson and his Council, and for which he, in particular, is most concerned, and desirous of accomplishing. This work is going on, brothers and sisters. I used to be thrilled at the remarks of President John Y. Barlow, this great and humble Apostle and keyholder. In his great humility and desire to see the work roll on, he would often say that if he stood in the way of the accomplishment of the work of God, and the purposes of God, that he would desire to be removed. But we all have the testimony that this could not and would not be the case, and he did a great and a marvelous work by the inspiration and power of God, the power of the holy Priesthood, in gathering a people. He, in concert with President Musser, was responsible for gathering, through the Lord, of course, the nucleus of this people. And President Barlow finally had to say that it was now necessary, prior to his passing, for us to raise up a people from our loins. That is where this people is going to receive its growth.

We are commanded by the Lord to raise up our children in light and truth, that they may come to a knowledge and testimony of these things, and carry on the burden of the work of Israel in redeeming Zion. So, brothers and sisters, we should be earnestly seeking to be about the Lord's business; for every bearer of the holy Priesthood should be busily engaged in the Lord's business. The Lord's business, as far as each and every Elder is concerned, is to set in order his house, his family, to bring up his wives and his children in light and truth, and inspire in them a burning love and loyalty for this Priesthood and work, that it might be their whole life.

I feel like repeating a scripture that the Lord gave to the Prophet Joseph Smith in connection with the establishment of the City of Zion, in which the saints failed in that day, two years after this commandment was given.

D. & C. 64

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

We are engaged, dear brothers and sisters, in laying the foundation of a great work, under the direction of the mouthpiece and the Apostle of the Lord, who stands at the head today. Here is what the Lord requires of each and every one of us. Our head has set a marvelous example for us all in this connection.

34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.

36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.

We have been endowed with the gift of the Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters, which is the power of the Priesthood; and that Spirit and power flows through the Priesthood down to us. Heber C. Kimball made the remark that we should never forget: "How will you get the Spirit of God, except through us?" speaking of Brigham Young and the Apostles. That is why this admonition of President Jessop is very much in line with these things at this present time.

At the time of the dedication of the site in Zion, in Independence, Missouri, the Lord gave a wonderful message through the Prophet, which is one of the finest things, I think, we can use for a guide, enabling us to give our whole heart, our whole mind and strength for the building up of this Kingdom, and the preparation and establishment of the work of God.

D.& C. 58

25. Wherefore, let them bring their families to this land, as they shall counsel between themselves and me.

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

28. For the power is in them,

The power of the Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters, is in us if we be fruitful in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ in carrying out our labors.

28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?

32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.

That is how it is, brothers and sisters, with the Lord.

33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled.

They are not fulfilled because we did not earn their fulfillment, and we are not anxiously engaged in this cause. Then He says:

33. ...But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh beneath, and not from above.

I would just like to leave that simple message, dear brothers and sisters. This partakes of the statement of the Savior when He said, "If you are not for Me, you are against Me." If we are slothful and receive not the commands of God with great earnestness and a desire to obey and to keep that commandment, then we fall into this category of being damned; and that simply means our progress is being stopped. We must be ever going forward. We cannot stand still, brothers and sisters. We are either going forward or backward. We are laying hold upon life or death. That is the nature of the work of God -- life or death. Which way will you go, and are you willing to pay the price? Are we willing to pay the price, dear brothers and sisters, under the law of sacrifice, the law of obedience, the law of humility? God help us to have these characteristics and attributes of God, that we may go on to perfection, and be instruments for good in building up the Kingdom and establishing His Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I pray God to give me His Spirit as I read His word to you today. The Lord spoke to Joseph Smith as the saints came up to Zion to begin to live the holy law of God, the Celestial Law of Economics, Celestial Order of Economy. Brother Hammon has been telling us God's truth, and these things will help us, I think.

D. & C. 59

1. Behold, blessed, saith the Lord, are they who have come up unto this land with an eye single to my glory, according to my commandments.
2. For those that live shall inherit the earth, and those that die shall rest from all their labors, and their works shall follow them; and they shall receive a crown in the mansions of my Father, which I have prepared for them.

3. Yea, blessed are they whose feet stand upon the land of Zion,
   And this is Zion to us, dear brothers and sisters, until we go back.
   3. ...who have obeyed my gospel; for they shall receive for their reward the good things of the earth, and it shall bring forth in its strength.

4. And they shall also be crowned with blessings from above, yea, and with commandments not a few, and with revelations in their time -- they that are faithful and diligent before me.
5. Wherefore, I give unto them a commandment, saying thus; Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, mind, and strength; and in the name of Jesus Christ thou shalt serve him.

6. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Thou shalt not steal; neither commit adultery, nor kill, nor do anything like unto it.
7. Thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things.
8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit.

There is the law of sacrifice in its basic elements, dear brothers and sisters, to submit oneself to the law of God, to the law of our head in the Priesthood.
9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;
10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High;
11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;
12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord. Namely, to those you have offended, or him whom you have offended.
13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.
14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words rejoicing and prayer.
15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin, but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --
16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fulness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;
17. Yea, and the herb, and the good things which come of the earth, whether for food or for raiment, or for houses, or for barns, or for orchards, or for gardens, or for vineyards;
18. Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart;
19. Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.
20. And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.
21. And in nothing doth man offend God, Remember this.

21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

22. Behold, this is according to the law and the prophets; wherefore, trouble me no more concerning this matter.

23. But learn that he who doeth the works of righteousness shall receive his reward, even peace in this world and eternal life in the world to come.

24. I, the Lord, have spoken it, and the Spirit beareth record. Amen.

God bless you, amen.

Funeral of Suzanna S. Taggart Barlow (Aunt Susie)
At the Larkin Mortuary

I feel greatly honored in being called upon to have a part in this beautiful occasion in memory of Aunt Susie Barlow, and I hardly feel adequate to the task save the Lord bless me with His Spirit, which I ask for most sincerely.

President Musser has given us a most beautiful review of the life of a true mother and a wife, elect lady, and a queen. And I thank God that we have had such a character and an example for all womenfolk, our wives and mothers who survive and who must carry on. I commend her life and labors and her glorious example to each and every female who has undertaken to obey the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, which Aunt Susie loved with all her heart, might, mind, and strength. That is all she breathed, was a testimony of the Gospel of Christ and of the laws and ordinances and blessings of the holy Priesthood, as Brother Musser has so beautifully brought before us here today.

I was privileged to live in the same home with President Barlow and Aunt Susie for twenty-two years, and I am most grateful for the example she set for my family. I call upon them to remember it all the days of their lives. Aunt Susie administered to my family as a midwife, and it was glorious to me to see how, under the power and influence of the Holy Ghost, she delivered our babies. This is how she did all of her work, how she did everything that she did, under the Spirit and influence of the Spirit of God. This, to me, is about everything, for we are called upon to get and keep the Spirit of God in all that we do; and here was a living and a worthy example for all of us. As we all know, though she did not bear children of her own, this elect lady is a true mother in Israel, a true Sarah. She lived to the highest, the law of Celestial Marriage, the highest law that God has given to man, the Family Order of Heaven, by which we may become Gods, Goddesses, Kings, and Priests, Queens and Priestesses unto God. This was her life and her testimony, which I deeply appreciate and commend to all of you.

Certainly, this characteristic of loving and sustaining and honoring all of Priesthood was most outstanding in her character, for in doing so, she sustained and honored and loved her Father and God. She was a beautiful example of faith, a divine faith, dear brothers and sisters, another noble example for us to follow. I am always reminded, as I think of Aunt Susie, of the words of the Prophet Moroni.

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

And this she was, and is.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

This is the outstanding characteristic, the nature of her character, like God, that has always appealed to me, for as has been pointed out, she never spoke ill of any man or woman, and certainly never of the Lord's will and way. She was full of charity. She has that now with her, has taken this character, had a glorious reunion on the other side. But note, brothers and sisters, how this fits her character as it is described here by Moroni:

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
All of these she did and was and is.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

Which I pray God we may be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Be Perfect in Our Sphere; How to Become Sanctified

I am grateful to be here, brothers and sisters, even if I had to travel one thousand miles to get here with Brother Jessop. It was very much worthwhile, and the Lord saw fit to allow the elements to send us back home. It would have been wonderful to meet with the saints there, but I am grateful to be here, and pray God to bless me in whatever message He feels to give through me.

I was reading from Moses regarding some fundamental principles that we should be familiar with, brothers and sisters. The covenants that we have entered into when we entered into the waters of baptism, that we entered into as we received the holy Priesthood, and that we enter into when we enter into the Family Order of Heaven, are not remembered by us as we should. We frequently take the sacrament, which is a most holy ordinance, if we will realize it. It is one in which we renew the covenants taken in baptism and in the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost, and of all the other covenants that we enter into in Priesthood and the Family Order of Heaven.
This is a process of sanctification, brothers and sisters, or perfection, or whatever other term we may desire to use. But most certainly there is enjoined upon us, as we enter into these covenants, the commandment to be perfect in our generation as He is perfect. And there have been great examples of those who have arrived at that state. Father Adam, of course, and Enoch is a most notable example on how he brought up a people to see the face of God. No man can be in the presence of God save he be sanctified -- be like Father, in other words.

There is enjoined upon us almost every time President Johnson and the brethren speak to us, the fact that we are not living as well and as perfectly as we should. And we are not coming up to the place that the Lord expects us to be in order to be used, ultimately, for the redemption of Zion, because God must and will have a people who must and will do that. And after all, it is part of the process that we must go through if we are to see His face.

Enoch, in the course of his teachings to the people then, which he was instructed to do by the Lord as he stood upon the mount, gave these words, which I would like to pass on to you. He was teaching how his Father Adam had been taught.

Moses 6

55. And the Lord spake unto Adam, saying: Inasmuch as thy children are conceived in sin, even so when they begin to grow up, sin conceiveth in their hearts, and they taste the bitter, that they may know to prize the good.

That is what we are here to do.

56. And it is given unto them to know good from evil; wherefore they are agents unto themselves, and I have given unto you another law and commandment.

57. Wherefore teach it unto your children, that all men, everywhere, must repent, or they can in nowise inherit the kingdom of God, for no unclean thing can dwell there, or dwell in his presence; for, in the language of Adam, Man of Holiness is his name, and the name of his Only Begotten is the Son of Man, even Jesus Christ, a righteous Judge, who shall come in the meridian of time.

And such was their faith in that day and time, brothers and sisters, that it was as though Jesus Christ had come and brought about the great atoning sacrifice of which we will speak.

58. Therefore I give unto you a commandment, to teach these things freely unto your children, saying:

59. That by reason of transgression cometh the fall, which fall bringeth death, and inasmuch as ye were born into the world by water, and blood, and the spirit, which I have made, and so became of dust a living soul, even so ye must be born again into the kingdom of heaven, of water, and of the Spirit, and be cleansed by blood, even the blood of mine Only Begotten; that ye might be sanctified from all sin, and enjoy the words of eternal life in this world, and eternal life in the world to come, even immortal glory;

60. For by the water ye keep the commandment; Entering in at the door through baptism.
60. ...by the Spirit ye are justified,
We receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.
60. ...and by the blood ye are sanctified;
Even the blood of Jesus Christ, if we will obey Him and become like Him.

61. Therefore it is given to abide in you; the record of heaven; the Comforter; the peaceable things of immortal glory; the truth of all things; that which quickeneth all things, which maketh alive all things; that which knoweth all things, and hath all power according to wisdom, mercy, truth, justice, and judgment.

The Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God. There is a most beautiful description of the Spirit of God, the Comforter which is spoken of. Let me read that paragraph again.

61. Therefore it is given to abide in you;
This gift of the Holy Ghost.
61. ...the record of heaven; the Comforter; the peaceable things of immortal glory; the truth of all things; that which quickeneth all things, which maketh alive all things; that which knoweth all things, and hath all power according to wisdom, mercy, truth, justice, and judgment.

62. And now, behold, I say unto you: This is the plan of salvation unto all men, through the blood of mine Only Begotten, who shall come in the meridian of time.
When we partake of the sacrament, brothers and sisters, we covenant to obey Him in all things, that we may have His Spirit to be with us at all times. Do you realize that is what you do, and how important and sacred that covenant is?

Now, what is sanctification through the blood of Christ? I was led to inquire of the subject in the Journal of Discourses. Brigham Young gives us the key to these things very beautifully, and if you will bear with me, and I pray the Lord will inspire the words with His Spirit as I read them here.

We have taught the brethren, during our southern trip, what pertains to their every-day life, just as we teach you. We want all the Latter-day Saints to understand how to build up Zion. The City of Zion, in beauty and magnificence, will outstrip anything that is now known upon the earth. The curse will be taken from the earth and sin and corruption will be swept from its face. Who will do this great work? Is the Lord coming here to convert the people, and then drown the whole of them as the Catholic priest served the Jew? No. Is he going to convince the people that he will redeem the centre stake of Zion, beautify it and then place them there without any exertion on their part? No. He will not come here to build a Temple, a Tabernacle, a Bowery, or to set out fruit trees, make aprons of fig leaves or coats of skins, or work in brass and iron, for we already know how to do these things. He will not come here to teach us how to raise and manufacture cotton, how to make hand cards, how to card, how to make spinning machines, looms, &c., &c. We have to build up Zion, if we do our duty.

In the first place, we have to become sanctified; and I may here say that our views of sanctification differ very much from the views held by some of the popular sects of the day, for they think that sanctification consists in shutting the door and securely bolting it against fulfilling the first commandment that God gave to our first parents.

Namely, to multiply and replenish the earth, and sanctify it. We are called upon to sanctify ourselves and the earth upon which we stand, and that is what we will be called upon to do in redeeming Zion. And we can do it right where we are, if we will.

I will put my own definition to the term sanctification, and say it consists in overcoming every sin and bringing all into subjection to the law of Christ. God has placed in us a pure spirit; when this reigns predominant, without let or hindrance, and triumphs over the flesh and rules and governs and controls as the Lord controls the heavens and the earth, this I call the blessing of sanctification. Will sin be perfectly destroyed? No, it will not, for it is not so designed in the economy of Heaven.

All the Lord has called us to do is to renovate our own hearts, then our families, extending the principles to neighborhoods, to the earth we occupy, and so continue until we drive the power of Satan from the earth and Satan to his own place. That is the work Jesus is engaged in, and we will be co-workers with him. Do not suppose that we shall ever in the flesh be free from temptations to sin. Some suppose that they can in the flesh be sanctified body and spirit and become so pure that they will never again feel the effects of the power of the adversary of truth. Were it possible for a person to attain to this degree of perfection in the flesh, he could not die neither remain in a world where sin predominates. Sin has entered into the world, and death by sin. I think we shall more or less feel the effects of sin so long as we live, and finally have to pass the ordeals of death. Do not understand that in the flesh we shall ever overcome the power of sin to such a degree that we shall never taste death. I do not look for any such thing, though what we call death, or laying down this body, is only the door to a higher state of life for the faithful. If we live our religion it will enable us to so overcome sin that it will not reign in our mortal bodies but will become subject to us, and the world and its fulness will become our servant instead of our master. Those who list to obey sin are the servants of sin. We should never list to obey that which corrupts, for in so doing we become servants to corruption. We should so live as to make the world and all its natural blessings subservient to our reasonable wants and holy desires.

So we are here to overcome, and what a glorious promise Jesus gave: "He who overcometh shall be a pillar in My temple, and no more go out." Such are the sanctified. And Orson Pratt paints a most glorious picture of this condition, which I think is worth reading.

But will they return after the old order of things that exists among the Gentiles -- every man for himself, this individualism in regard to property?
Speaking of the Law of Consecration.

No, never, never while the world stands. If you would have these revelations fulfilled you must comply with the conditions thereof.

He was speaking of going back to Jackson County and building the temple. In Section 84 the Lord tells us that the temple shall be built in this generation; and Joseph said, "There are those now living who will not close their eyes in death until this is accomplished."

The Lord said, concerning the building up of Zion when we do return -- "Except Zion be built according to the law of the celestial kingdom, I can not receive her unto myself."

And this, Brother Johnson speaks to us almost every time he talks. Zion cannot be redeemed except by the Celestial Law.

If we should be permitted, this present year, 1874, to go back to that county, and should undertake to build up a city of Zion upon the consecrated spot, after the order that we have been living in during the last forty years, we should be cast out again,

And I think the same can be said today. If we should go back there now to try and build it up, we would be cast out. Why? Because we are not sufficiently righteous and sanctified.

...the Lord would not acknowledge us as his people, neither would he acknowledge the works of our hands in the building of a city. If we would go back then, we must comply with the celestial law, the law of consecration, the law of oneness, which the Lord has spoken of from the beginning. Except you are one you are not mine. Query, if we are not the Lord's who in the world or out of the world do we belong to?

There is a good question. If we are not the Lord's because of our lacking of oneness, then who do we belong to?

Here is a question for us all to consider. There is no other way for us to become one but by keeping the law of heaven, and when we do this we shall become sanctified before God, and never before.

Talk about sanctification, we do not believe in the kind of sanctification taught by the sectarian religion -- that they were sanctified at such a minute and such an hour and at such a place while they were praying in secret.

I have talked to such. They have thought they had the Holy Ghost come upon them, and all of a sudden they were sanctified and saved. Thank God that is not our religion.

We believe in the sanctification that comes by continued obedience to the law of heaven. I do not know of any other sanctification that the Scriptures tell about, of any other sanctification that is worth the consideration of rational beings. If we would be sanctified then, we must begin to-day, or whenever the Lord points out, to obey his laws just as far as we possibly can; and by obedience to these laws we continually gain more and more favor from heaven, more and more of the Spirit of God, and thus will be fulfilled a revelation given in 1834, which says that before Zion is redeemed, let the armies of Israel become very great, let them become sanctified before me, that they may be as fair as the sun, clear as the moon, and that their banners may be terrible unto all the nations of the earth. Not terrible by reason of numbers, but terrible because of the sanctification they will receive through obedience to the law of God. Why was Enoch, and why were the inhabitants of the Zion built up before the flood terrible to all the nations around about? It was because, through a long number of years, they observed the law of God, and when their enemies came up to fight against them, Enoch, being filled with the power of the Holy Ghost, and speaking the word of God in power and in faith, the very heavens trembled and shook, and the earth quaked, and mountains were thrown down, rivers of water were turned out of their course, and all nations feared greatly because of the power of God, and the terror of his might that were upon his people.

That is the power by which one will put to flight one thousand in this dispensation. That same power will be upon a people who have done the work in connection with Enoch. We will have to have our Enoch, and we will.

We have this account of ancient Zion in one of the revelations that God has given. What was it that made their banners terrible to the nations? It was not their numbers. If, then Zion must become great it will be because of her sanctification. When shall we begin, Latter-day Saints, to carry out the law of God, and enter upon the process necessary to our sanctification? We are told by the highest authority that God has upon the earth that now is the accepted time and now is the day of salvation, so far as entering into this order which God has pointed out is concerned.
The time is now, as it was then, for the Latter-day Saints.

Shall we do it? Or shall we say no? Shall there be division among the people, those who are on the Lord's side come out and those who are against the law of God come out? I hope this division will not be at present. I hope that we shall take hold with one heart and with one mind. The time of the division will come soon enough. It will be in the great day of the Lord's power, when his face shall be unveiled in yonder heavens, and when he shall come in his glory and in his might. Then the heavens will be shaken and the earth will reel to and fro like a drunken man. "Then," saith the Lord, "I will send forth mine angels to gather out of my kingdom all things that offend and that do iniquity." That will be time enough for this great division. Let us not be divided now, Latter-day Saints, but let us manifest our willingness to comply with the word and law of the Most High, and be prepared for the blessings which he has in store for us.

So says President Johnson to us today, and the servants of God from the time of Adam until now, in joining the saints, both former and latter-day, to sanctify themselves, to become perfect as the Lord is perfect -- relatively in our sphere, of course -- and to overcome as our Lord, Jesus Christ overcame, whose blood will sanctify us if we will believe with all our heart, and obey with our might, mind, and strength; keeping His commandments, getting His Spirit to be with us always.

You will note as I read from these words of Enoch, that the very attributes spoken of by Joseph in the Lectures on Faith, are the attributes of the Holy Spirit. If we have it, if it abides in us continually, if it is our constant guide and companion and never leaves us, we will have the character of God. We will have the attributes of God and become like Him. This is what we covenant to do when we partake of the sacrament and enter into every covenant, and ordinance, and law of the Gospel, and of the holy Priesthood. God help us to become that people that He can use, and come up to see His face, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I arise to this call depending upon the Lord for help, that His Spirit may direct aright, that we may be edified by our Father. I am most grateful, brothers and sisters, for the holy Priesthood and for the direction and leadership of President Johnson, and that the Lord has honored and blessed us in our efforts to keep His commandments by giving us this kind of leadership, one who is amenable to the Spirit of God, and therefore the Spirit of revelation.

I want to testify to you, brothers and sisters, that we are led by revelation. We have need, above all, to submit ourselves to be led and not treat lightly the things that are given us. I do not know how much longer we are going to be indicted with this statement from the President, that we treat lightly the things of God and continue under condemnation. Ours is a labor of reformation. We cannot do it save we have the Spirit of God.

I am satisfied in my mind after long experience in this work, that the degree that we have the Spirit of God is the measure by which we are able to reform our lives and be true saints, or "untrue saints" shall we say? It is a matter of degree. And to have these things said of us simply means that we do not have faith in the first place, and therefore we do not have the Spirit of God in sufficient amount to accomplish the things that are enjoined upon us. It is a matter, brothers and sisters, of accomplishing the thing that has been given us by the Lord, and that is to bring these bodies in subjection to our spirits, and let the spirit rule through the Holy Ghost.

I get a little tired of hearing the statement and having to sympathize with it, that a person in under some depression. It just simply means there is something wrong with the mind. And which element has the control, the spirit or the body? The only way that we can have the spirit have control is through the Spirit of God, which is the great gift of God to us as we have entered into the work of God.

I have been struck by the words of Brigham Young along this line. I would like to pass that instruction on to us, for it means a great deal to accomplish this end. Perhaps we speak in generalities too much. But the brethren have gotten down to very basic instructions, item by item, and the means by which we can accomplish these things. Perhaps the words of another Prophet would help.

There is an item of doctrine that I will now present just as it occurs to me. You are aware that many think that the devil has rule and power over both body and spirit. Now, I want to tell you that he does not hold any power over man, only so far as the body overcomes the spirit that is in a man, through yielding to the spirit of evil. The spirit that the Lord puts into a tabernacle of flesh, is under the dictation of the Lord Almighty; but the spirit and body are united in order that the spirit may have a tabernacle, and be exalted;

Man is that he might joy. He is here to take up a body and to take that body back to Father, pure and sanctified as that spirit was pure when it came here.

...but the spirit and body are united in order that the spirit may have a tabernacle, and be exalted; and the spirit is influenced by the body, and the body by the spirit.

In the first place the spirit is pure, and under the special control and influence of the Lord, but the body is of the earth, and is subject to the power of the devil, and is under the mighty influence of that fallen nature that is of the earth.

If we understand these things it might help, brothers and sisters.

If the spirit yields to the body, the devil then has power to overcome both the body and spirit of that man, and he loses both.

Recollect, brethren and sisters, every one of you, that when evil is suggested to you, when it arises in your hearts, it is through the temporal organization. When you are tempted, buffeted, and step out of the way inadvertently; when your are overtaken in a fault, or commit an overt act unthinkingly; when you are full of evil passion, and wish to yield to it, then stop and let the spirit, which God has put into your tabernacles, take the lead. If you do that, I will promise that you will overcome all evil, and obtain eternal lives. But many, very many, let the spirit yield to the body, and are overcome and destroyed.

You notice this as you watch the children of men. And this is as true as anything that was ever said.
The influence of the enemy has power over all such. Those who overcome every passion, and every evil, will be sanctified, and be prepared to enjoy eternity with the blessed. If you have never thought of this before, try to realize it now. Let it rest upon your minds, and see if you can discover in yourselves the operations of the spirit and the body, which constitute the man. Continually and righteously watch the spirit that the Lord has put in you, and I will promise you to be led into righteousness, holiness, peace, and good order.

But let the body rise up with its passions, with the fallen nature pertaining to it, and let the spirit yield to it, your destruction is sure. On the other hand, let the spirit take the lead, and bring the body and its passions into subjection, and you are safe.

It is instructive to reflect upon the acts of men, to observe what prompts them to action, and to see how liable they are to get out of the way, how weak they are, how short-coming, how failing in their spirits to do the will of the Lord, and how fearful they are. Afraid of what? Do you reflect, and realize that your fear is all pertaining to your bodies, that it [is] not pertaining to your spirits? Let me tell you, when the spirit is once separated from the body, it is one of the most beautiful and delightful objects that you could contemplate, and there is nothing that can give a pure spirit so much joy as to have the privilege of being separated from the body, and of going back to its Father in heaven, to await the morning of the resurrection.

Remember this when you are afflicted with fear and trembling, and are exclaiming, "Oh what shall we do?" Do you recollect what has been said here? I recollect that when I chastised certain individuals who were really not worth any body's notice, the cry of some was, "O, dear! we are all going to be destroyed, where shall I go to save my life, to the north, south, east or west?" That fear arose from the organization of the tabernacle, and not from the spirit within it.

The fear and trembling, the misgivings and wavering arise from the anxiety we have to know how to save ourselves pertaining to the flesh. That weakness is not exhibited in the spirit.

I am afflicted with it just as you are, but what do my judgment, the revelations of Jesus Christ, the Scriptures, and the spirit of the Gospel teach me? That my tabernacle is of comparatively small value, although it is a pretty fair one, and one that I am willing to take in the morning of the resurrection. The Lord gave it to me, and I am thankful for it. When it is the will of my Father that my spirit should return to Him, what do I care about the moulder tabernacle, so that the spirit is unlocked, and set free from its prison-house of clay?

You will recollect the beautiful story told by Jedediah M. Grant, of how his spirit left his body and he had to come back to it.

It can go to the Father who gave it, until the body is resurrected, when the spirit will again be reunited with the tabernacle, to be exalted to thrones, kingdoms, principalities, and powers, and spread abroad, and to the increase there shall be no end.

Fears arise from the weaknesses of the flesh, over which the devil has power.

Fears arise from a guilty conscience, may we add.

We should care, comparatively, but little about it; let it crumble, let it fall, and go back to its mother earth, and be reserved to the morning of the resurrection. I shall have this body again, then what need we care how quickly our bodies dissolve? All I care for it, in my spirit, in my judgment, and in my moments of reflection and revelation, is merely that I wish it to endure here to fight the tabernacles which devils dwell in, until the last one is driven from the earth. Then let my tabernacle stay here and contend with the fallen nature that it is heir to, and let my spirit rise triumphant over it, until every passion, feeling, and appetite is brought in subjection to the will of God. Let me stay here until I have accomplished this, and have done the work I was designed for in this my probation, then my spirit will be free from mobs and strife, and I can soar far above those who have power over them, even death, hell, and the grave.

And that is what we are here for, brothers and sisters, is to overcome death, hell, and the devil, and the grave. The Lord Jesus Christ spoke of this beautiful principle, speaking of those who overcome, that they would be the pillars in His temple. They would be with Him because they would be like Him, having overcome this body through the power and Spirit of God, with the power of faith giving us the strength and the means by which to accomplish it.

We are of little faith, or we would be doing better, and we would be a better people and a people that the Lord God of Israel could use in the redemption and gathering of Zion. And the reformation must begin, the reformation of our families, the reformation of number one, the head of the family, to set the example, and to give instruction and have the Spirit of God to govern in all his decisions; to draw these lovely women and beautiful children into the orbit of the Spirit of God and under the power and direction of the Priesthood of God.

The Holy Spirit is the power of the Priesthood, brethren, and you must govern by it. And you dear sisters should receive it and follow it, remembering who is your head, and what is your head through the Spirit of God, which I pray we may lay hold on, including eternal lives, principalities, thrones, and powers, and all that God has reserved for the faithful, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Preparation of a People Who Will Be the Nucleus of the Millennium; The Great Events Ahead; Law of Sacrifice; Enduring to the End; Our Progress Is Measured by the Degree of the Spirit of God We Have

I deeply appreciate the presence here of President Johnson, President Musser, and to be with you on this occasion appointed by our President for the instruction of the saints. I desire to be led of the Spirit of God above all things, that only what Father wants said and done here may be done.

As I have sat here contemplating the remarks that have been made, and which I appreciate very much the spirit and the humility in which they were given, I was deeply impressed with the remark of President Johnson regarding the thousand years of peace, the great Millennium, which he is striving with all his might, mind, and strength to prepare a people for. You know as well as I do that this has been the burden of his messages and his instructions to us as a people.

Earlier Prophets of this dispensation have pointed out that there is, in the heart's core of the Latter-day Saint people -- I think this was said back in the 1880's -- there is, in the heart's core of this people, a people who will become the nucleus of the great Millennium. I do not know how this people can ignore the great import of this great work in which we are engaged, and what a part each individual, each family, and we as a people can take in this great work, this great work of preparation. I am sure that it is, as it were, that President Johnson is performing the labor of an Elias.

I cannot do better than describe something from the Pearl of Great Price. The Book of Moses, you will remember, was a revelation to the Prophet Joseph Smith. The Book of Abraham was the message that was contained in the papyrus, which fell into the hands of Joseph, and which he translated. But the visions of Moses were revealed to Joseph the Prophet in June of 1830. Some of the grandest scripture that I have read is the account of Enoch in this Book of Moses, and the preparations that were made by him for the City of Zion. Enoch had his special dispensation of translated terrestrial bodies, which was to be the dwelling place of the Lord after He should come and suffer and bring about the great atonement and the redemption of the saints of God, and for all translated bodies.

In the course of his great work of preparation of a people, which took three hundred sixty-five years -- and it has been said by the brethren it is not going to take that long at this time, the preparation for the Millennium itself -- Enoch, seeing the visions of heaven, looking from the beginning down to the end of the earth, kept crying to the Lord as he saw the various things as they were shown to him, "O God, when shall the earth rest?"

I would like to read the account in the last few verses of chapter seven of the Book of Moses.

58. And again Enoch wept and cried unto the Lord, saying: When shall the earth rest?

59. And Enoch beheld the Son of Man ascend up unto the Father; and he called unto the Lord, saying: Wilt thou not come again upon the earth? Forasmuch as thou art God, and I know thee, and thou hast sworn unto me, and commanded me that I should ask in the name of thine Only Begotten; thou hast made me, and given unto me a right to thy throne, and not of myself, but through thine own grace; wherefore, I ask thee if thou wilt not come again on the earth.
60. And the Lord said unto Enoch: As I live, even so will I come in the last days, in the days of wickedness and vengeance, to fulfil the oath which I have made unto you concerning the children of Noah;

He had seen how Noah should come, who was the fourth from Enoch.

61. And the day shall come that the earth shall rest, but before that day the heavens shall be darkened, and a veil of darkness shall cover the earth; and the heavens shall shake, and also the earth; and great tribulations shall be among the children of men, but my people will I preserve;

62. And righteousness will I send down out of heaven; and truth will I send forth out of the earth,

The great work of Joseph is shown here, and the restoration of the Gospel, the fullness of the holy Priesthood, the bringing forth of the Book of Mormon from the plates taken out of the earth.

62. ...to bear testimony of mine Only Begotten; his resurrection from the dead; yea, and also the resurrection of all men; and righteousness and truth will I cause to sweep the earth as with a flood, to gather out mine elect from the four quarters of the earth, unto a place which I shall prepare, an Holy City, that my people may gird up their loins, and be looking forth for the time of my coming; for there shall be my tabernacle, and it shall be called Zion, a New Jerusalem.

63. And the Lord said unto Enoch: Then shalt thou and all thy city meet them there, and we will receive them into our bosom, and they shall see us; and we will fall upon their necks, and they shall fall upon our necks, and we will kiss each other;

64. And there shall be mine abode, and it shall be Zion, which shall come forth out of all the creations which I have made; and for the space of a thousand years the earth shall rest.

65. And it came to pass that Enoch saw the day of the coming of the Son of Man, in the last days, to dwell on the earth in righteousness for the space of a thousand years;

66. But before that day he saw great tribulations among the wicked;

These are the days in which we live, I testify unto you.

66. ...and he also saw the sea, that it was troubled, and men's hearts failing them, looking forth with fear for the judgments of the Almighty
God, which should come upon the wicked.

67. And the Lord showed Enoch all things, even unto the end of the world; and he saw the day of the righteous, the hour of their redemption, and received a fulness of joy;

68. And all the days of Zion, in the days of Enoch, were three hundred and sixty-five years.

69. And Enoch and all his people walked with God, and he dwelt in the midst of Zion; and it came to pass that Zion was not, for God received it up into his own bosom; and from thence went forth the saying, ZION IS FLED.

Joseph, the One Mighty and Strong, holds the keys of Elias, the keys of Elijah, the keys of Moses, and of all of the former dispensations. He, I testify in the name of Jesus Christ, is the One Mighty and Strong, to come and set in order the House of God. And Jesus shall suddenly come to His temple, and that will be before His appearing in glory. All these things, dear brothers and sisters, are what we are supposed to be preparing for; but I will tell you, we will not be ready if there is not more faith, more perfect faith, than we have at this point. President Johnson has told us we have not got any further than we were thirty years ago.

Are we ready for these great tests that are promised to this generation? And remember, brothers and sisters, the Lord told the Prophet Joseph in the first verses of Section 84 that that holy city, that great temple in Zion, the New Jerusalem, shall be built in this generation. What a generation is has not been revealed. It may be different at one time than another, I am sure. But how much time have we? How much time do we really think we have?

I want to tell you, brothers and sisters, that President Johnson is doing the work of Elias, and the preparation of a people under the direction of Joseph. Are we prepared for the coming of that One Mighty and Strong? If not, we should be. We should be praying day and night for deliverance from the ways and will of the world, seeking the mind and will and the way of God, obtaining and laying hold on the gift of the Holy Ghost as our constant companion and guide. Only in that degree will we be able to build up our faith.

How many of us, brothers and sisters, are saying, subconsciously if not consciously, "The Lord delays His coming"? And thus are we delaying our preparation, because that is exactly what we do when we say that. Do we become discouraged and weary in well-doing? If so, then we are again delaying our preparation. Are we sacrificing? Are we abiding the law of sacrifice? I dare say that may indeed be the great weak point, because only in the degree that we abide and live in the law of sacrifice can our faith increase and become perfect, for all things of the world must be sacrificed -- our feelings, and anything that we have and are, in our character, our being, our surroundings, that we have our hearts set upon more than upon God and do not sacrifice it -- that is standing in our way.

The Prophet was told of the Lord this wonderful statement in Section 63; and I might say first, we are engaged in an endurance contest, really, against this feeling and spirit of becoming weary in well-doing.

D.& C. 63

17. Wherefore, I, the Lord, have said that the fearful, and the unbelieving, and all liars, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie, and the whoremonger, and the sorcerer, shall have their part in that lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

18. Verily I say, that they shall not have part in the first resurrection.

19. And now behold, I, the Lord, say unto you that ye are not justified, because these things are among you.

20. Nevertheless, he that endureth in faith and doeth my will, the same shall overcome, and shall receive an inheritance upon the earth when the day of transfiguration shall come;

21. When the earth shall be transfigured, even according to the pattern which was shown unto mine apostles upon the mount; of which account the fulness ye have not yet received.

That was the transfiguration of Moses and Elijah before Peter, James, and John; the transfiguration of those characters with Jesus Christ, as Peter, James, and John received keys and blessings from those former heads of dispensations. What I am talking about, brothers and sisters, is being faithful, enduring to the end, by which means we will overcome everything that is contrary to the Spirit of God, that it may dwell with us continually. The Lord said further:

47. He that is faithful and endureth shall overcome the world.

Therein is involved the law of sacrifice, in sacrificing all worldly things and considerations. Now brethren and sisters, what are we about? When we consider how great the work is in which we are engaged, how we revert after the instructions that the Lord gives us from time to time -- every week, or every other week -- how we revert back to our old course, instead of taking stock as we are told these things of what we really are, and what we are really doing, what we are not doing that we should be doing, and what we are that we should be overcoming.

Every weakness and everything contrary to the character and the attributes of God must be done away or we cannot stand in His presence. It is just that simple. It would be impossible for such a character to do it.

And now, brethren and sisters, I think we have some wonderful instructions in these couple of verses, which we have in Section 67:

D.& C. 67

10. And again, verily I say unto you that it is your privilege, and a promise I give unto you that have been ordained unto this ministry, that inasmuch as you strip yourselves from jealousies and fears, and humble yourselves before me, for ye are not sufficiently humble, the veil shall be rent and you shall see me and know that I am -- not with the carnal neither natural mind, but with the spiritual.

11. For no man has seen God at any time in the flesh, except quickened by the Spirit of God.

12. Neither can any natural man abide the presence of God, neither after the carnal mind.

13. Ye are not able to abide the presence of God now, neither the ministering of angels; wherefore, continue in patience until ye are perfected.

Our great responsibility, then, is to perfect our faith, know who and what God is, and become like Him by getting and keeping His Spirit, whose attributes are indeed the attributes of God, nothing more nor less. And I dare say, our progress can be strictly measured by the degree in which we have and keep continually the Spirit of God. Every time we lose it, brothers and sisters, we are set back, believe me. Thank God for the gift of repentance; and there is a way open yet for all of us, if we have not sinned unto death.

So, I call upon you, and myself especially, to draw near to God through His Priesthood and through the power of the Holy Ghost. Get it and keep it. Be conscious in everything we do, that we have the Spirit of God with us in doing it. We get busy, I know, and we forget these things. People irritate us, things irritate us, events irritate us, but we must not give way and lose the Spirit of God! Hang on. Let us hang on for dear life, for it is a matter of life and death. I pray God we shall choose the former and lay hold upon life eternal, serving God with all our might, mind, and strength, being diligent, faithful, full of hope, full of the Holy Ghost minutely, hourly, daily, monthly, yearly, year in and year out, until we come up to see the face of God and enjoy the great Millennium, which I ask in Jesus' name, amen.

We Should Be Praying Night and Day for Deliverance; Do Not Offend the Spirit of God

I was going to close the meeting now, but I feel constrained to add a few words with the help of the Lord. President Johnson made another very significant remark in his talk today, which I would like to call your attention to, and add a few words in consonance with the theme of this occasion, calling upon the Lord day and night for deliverance, and to repent from those things we need to be delivered from.

He called attention to the fact that this people -- and may I add, as well as the people of the Church -- have been cut off from the ordinances of the House of God. God, in His mercy, set up a special dispensation of the holy Priesthood under John Taylor, in which he swore by an oath, I am sure, that this order of the Priesthood should be perpetuated, and given a special work of keeping alive the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, that children should be brought forth under that holy law, until Christ should come, and the One Mighty and Strong, to set in order the House of God.

We should be calling upon the Lord day and night for the One Mighty and Strong to come, and for us to be prepared; for deliverance from our weaknesses and our sins, that we may become pure enough, through our faith, to be worthy to be endowed and blessed with power from on high.

I don't know whether you realize it -- it has been said many years ago, not so much recently -- but dear brothers and sisters, our marriages are not complete without the holy endowments, and we should be crying to the Lord day and night to be delivered from our impurities, our lack of the Spirit of God, our lack of oneness, and our lack of faith. Call upon the Lord to help us to repent and be one in our families and as a mighty body of Priesthood, governed by the holy Apostleship under President Johnson.

"O ye of little faith," said the Savior; said the Prophet Joseph Smith, and says President Johnson. The brethren have been calling it "unbelief", and that it is. But let us think of it in a positive way, by laying hold, crying unto the Lord day and night for it, laying hold upon the gift of faith, which cannot be perfected without our obeying the law of sacrifice, the law of obedience, the law of repentance, and being perfect as He is perfect; being perfect in our sphere as He is in His. Let us do away with all things that are denying us the Spirit of God. Never do a thing or say a thing that would grieve the Spirit of God, which is the only way we can be one, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Overcome Traditions; Become Like God

I appreciate meeting with you dear brothers and sisters again today. It is wonderful to meet with the saints on this occasion, that we may be fed by the Spirit of God, which I pray will actuate my remarks this afternoon. I was thinking how the brethren are assigned to meet with the saints in Canada and Mexico, the long trips that they make to meet with saints there. They are generally times of refreshing and blessing to those people, as well as to the brethren who go to take the message of the Priesthood. We had a wonderful time in Cardston, Alberta two weeks ago, and the saints send their love and regards to you here, and are looking forward to the time when they can meet with the saints in the conference that has been appointed.

Brethren and sisters, I am pained at the frequency that President Johnson lays upon us the fact that we still are under condemnation, and how little is done to remedy it according to the revelation that stated this thing as to the Latter-day Saints as long ago as September 1832 -- in Section 84, the Lord, in the great revelation on Priesthood, in which He designated those six Elders with Joseph as His friends. The saints had been but a year in gathering to Zion, and already there were signs of the breaking of covenants that the saints were under solemn oath and could not be broken.

I do not know how serious you look at these things, but I think we must look upon them very seriously if we are to become the people that God is laboring through His servants to prepare for the redemption of Zion. God has said many times that He will have a tried and a true people. President John Y. Barlow used to say that "this is the best people on the earth, but we are not good enough." You have heard this many times, too, till it has became rather trite, I suppose, to many. In his great humility President Barlow used to always say, and it could not have possibly applied to him, although he did say if he ever stood in the way of the progress of the work of God, he wanted to be removed. And he said further that "this work will go on whether we believe it or not, or whether we go with it or not," speaking of us individually. It depends entirely on each one of us, brethren and sisters, whether we are with it, truly with it, with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

When the One Mighty and Strong comes to set in order His House, God is going to need some very faithful and righteous men and women and children who can take direction from the Priesthood, from the head, who will move as one man. That is the nature of the oneness that must be obtained by a people who will be called to go back to redeem Zion. And that people must be so righteous that not only His Spirit, the Spirit of Christ should go with them, but His presence should go before them. And they must be so righteous that the trees would clap their limbs together.

I do not know, brothers and sisters, if we even catch the spirit of oneness, what it really means to be one. So many of us are so jealous of our independence, so-called, of our views, of our position, our individual opinions, and of our traditions -- God save us from our traditions -- that they think they can be one with the Lord and His Priesthood in the maintenance of those separate feelings, opinions, and ideas, and interpretations of scripture and doctrine. They think they can still be one with the Priesthood and continue in them. But this is wholly impossible.

The Lord Jesus Christ set the example in this, as in all other things, as He sojourned in mortality on the earth. His will, His way was swallowed up -- completely swallowed up, if you please -- in the will and way of His Father; so that He could tell the saints particularly, as He told the Apostles, "He who hath seen Me has seen the Father." Have you ever noticed a truly united couple -- just looking at a man and a wife separately, by themselves, how when they are truly united they almost look alike, their countenances are alike? Their whole body and spirit are alike. They are one because she moves with him as he moves with his spiritual Priesthood head.

I cannot help but go back to the Lecture that speaks of these things. If we could only get the true picture as it is given here by Joseph in the Lectures on Faith.

Lecture Five

2. ...And he Jesus Christ,

2. ...being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome,

We fail to get that one word, brothers and sisters into our consciences -- overcome. Overcome the devil and all his imps, overcome all of their personal feelings. Sacrifice them upon the altar till they were like this.

2. ...received a fullness of the glory of the Father,

The glory of the Father is the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God.

2. ...possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one;

There is a man standing in that office of the Holy Ghost, none other than Joseph Smith the Prophet, who became one with the other Two, and will constitute the grand Presidency of this earth in the eternities. And Joseph overcame as Jesus overcame, and he now stands with Them.

2. ...the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit,

The mind and the spirit,

2. ...glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, Having purchased us with a price, I add.

2. ...being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments;
Now we bring it down to us. Certainly They are perfect, and yes, They command us to be perfect as They are perfect. If we are not, we cannot be with Them, we cannot see Them -- just that simple.

2. ...which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace,
It is not done in a moment. It is not like these holy rollers and apostolic people we meet in the mission field and elsewhere, where you get the Holy Ghost and you are saved and exalted from that moment on. No, it is done gradually through this process of overcoming -- grace for grace, line upon line, precept upon precept.

2. ...and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image
There is a physical oneness as well that I am speaking of, brothers and sisters.
2. ...into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit,
Which is the mind of the Father, and became His mind, and which must become our mind.

3. ...so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

So it is not beneath the dignity of Father and Jesus Christ to make His children joint heirs with Him. Such are to be Gods, and only they. So it always comes back to the same grand, glorious, beautiful, but very simple principle. Our perfection, or degree of it, is measured by the degree that we get and keep the Spirit of God as our constant companion. This is the great struggle, the great effort, and rewarding great power that will come as a result of that effort; namely, that of being one with the Father through Jesus Christ and our Priesthood head.

Jesus cannot be here personally, so He has designated His servant and servants to act for Him in giving His word and will and His message to us from time to time, to enable us to accomplish these things. And I dare say, until this people, or a sufficient number of them, have gotten themselves into this position, where they have overcome and become one with the head -- children and wives with their husbands, their husbands with their Priesthood over them, forming this unbreakable chain or circle which cannot be broken - - then we will have this degree of perfection, which will enable us to be called to go forward, to be endowed with power from on high in His holy temples, to be prepared against the day of visitation, the judgments that are fast rolling forth upon the earth, and among them an overflowing scourge or sickness which will overflow the earth, for it says so in Section 45. We will then be prepared for the sudden coming of the Lord to His temple; and that is before the great appearance in glory, of course, when a great many other things must transpire first. But let me read a little of Section 45, which will give us a few keys on this matter. The Lord was speaking of the time that He was speaking to His disciples, His Apostles, in the meridian of time.

D.& C. 45

22. Ye say that ye know that the end of the world cometh; ye say also that ye know that the heavens and the earth shall pass away;

23. And in this ye say truly, for so it is; but these things which I have told you

Speaking to the Apostles,

23. ...shall not pass away until all shall be fulfilled.

24. And this I have told you concerning Jerusalem; and when that day shall come, shall a remnant be scattered among all nations;
25. But they shall be gathered again; but they shall remain until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

26. And in that day shall be heard of wars and rumors of wars, and the whole earth shall be in commotion, and men's hearts shall fail them, and they shall say that Christ delayeth his coming until the end of the earth.

27. And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.

We are in the midst of these very times, brothers and sisters, as you should be well aware.

28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel; Which has been restored with the Priesthood.

29. But they receive it not; The world has not received it, this nation has not received it. All of the nations among whom Israel is scattered have rejected it, including Great Britain, where many of the seed of Christ were established.

29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.

30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. The times of the Gentiles has been fulfilled. President Johnson told me only the other day.

31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

Can you imagine that? A desolating sickness.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, We should be His disciples now, brothers and sisters, and we must stand in holy places. And His Priesthood will guide us if we will stay close and give ear and follow the commandments; keep the commandments and learn the way and will of the Lord.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another. And Brother Johnson has described it, how men would thirst for blood as they waste one another away.

34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.
35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.

36. And when the light shall begin to break forth, it shall be with them like unto a parable which I will show you --
37. Ye look and behold the fig-trees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;
38. Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.
39. And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

40. And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.
41. And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.
42. And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.
43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;
44. And then they shall look for me, and, behold, I will come; and they shall see me in the clouds of heaven, clothed with power and great glory; with all the holy angels; and he that watches not for me shall be cut off.

Very simply, then, brothers and sisters, the Lord calls upon us to be one; first in our families, set them in order. Let the husband and the wives be one, that they may kneel as they pray over their families, as was described very beautifully by Lorenzo Snow, which I would like to leave with you in passing.

JD 4:155 Lorenzo Snow January 4, 1857 SLC
The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, Meaning that they must live daily by this, not just when they kneel. They cannot kneel and have it unless they are that way all the time.

...they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element, There is oneness.

...pure element, suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children. God help us to do this, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Items of Personal History; Family Order of Heaven; We Must Be a Tried People

Brother Musser asked that I speak. I hardly know what to say after the instructions, these beautifully detailed instructions that we have received, have been given to us. The way has been laid out for us, brothers and sisters, many times, and here we have it again; and we could well dismiss now. I would just like to express my deep gratitude to the Lord for the many blessings that He has showered upon me and mine, that I enjoy the love and confidence of my brethren, my fellow servants.

I am grateful for my beloved patriarchal father, and my beloved mother who chose the better part with my father, and thus enabled me to come forth into this lone and dreary world to do whatever part the Lord had for me to do; for
I know what great sacrifice that they made for me. I am grateful to father for the teachings that he gave me as a young man, without hardly ever mentioning Celestial and Plural Marriage, though I knew that he was in it; for his teaching me the truth that God, the only God with whom we have to do, is our Father Michael, Adam. He laid foundations of this character that enabled me, when the truth came to me through him at the hands of President Joseph W. Musser, to receive this work; which I received without question, because the Spirit of God told me that it was true. As soon as I found out the nature of the work, the Priesthood, that was enough for me.

It is rather ironical, I was thinking as I sat here, that only a few years before I was married to the daughter of Hugh B. Brown -- or she to me, whichever way it goes in that business -- Hugh B. Brown was stripped of his Priesthood.

I do know one thing, though. Before I went on my mission, though I was without the Priesthood myself, because of these orders of Heber J. Grant in 1921, it was made known to me that this girl belonged to me, and I went assured on my mission and performed it the best I could with what I had. After returning and going back and forth over our affairs, we finally got together; and on the occasion of our getting together, she asked me how I felt about my father. I said, "What do you mean?"
"Well, you know he had more than one wife."
I said, "Now look here. That is a correct and true principle. I don't know how or why or when, but if I am called upon to abide and live that law, I intend to go ahead." She didn't think that would ever happen, of course, so we went ahead. And we had to be sealed by none other than Heber J. Grant, who had no Priesthood.

Just a year before that -- and I didn't know these things, of course, at the time -- just a year before that, this official declaration that stripped them of their Priesthood, if they hadn't already lost it, was given June 17, 1933. We were married June 1, 1934. After six very happy years together we came to the point where we had to part ways. I was served an ultimatum by her father that if I didn't do such and such things, which would make me subservient to her, that she would have to be taken away from me. And so, so be it. I knew I had to go forward and do whatever the Lord required of me. The Lord has multiplied and blessed me an hundredfold, for which I am grateful.

I have hundreds of friends, saints; and I have true brethren and fellow servants in the holy Priesthood; and I have a large and beautiful family. I can't be grateful enough, brothers and sisters, for these many full blessings. I know I fall short under the conditions that have been outlined to us, but I desire to repent and do better and to bring my family truly into the Holy United Order, one in the hands of the Lord to be used as He sees fit. I desire this with all my heart, and I desire to present them before the throne of God, free of any blame for not having taught them and done all I could to bring them up to save and exalt them. I want this for each and every one of you, my brethren and sisters, for each of you to have a family that is one, each in his family seeking the interest of one another. It is not enough to cease criticizing. It is not enough to just stand idly by and think that you are loving one another. It takes a very positive action, a positive effort to seek the interest of one another in temporal as well as spiritual things, especially in spiritual things.

If I can draw a picture to you of how this family order is to me, I would like to, if the Lord will help me. A man, a servant of God, bearing the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, being righteous and obedient to every word that proceeds forth from the mouth of God, serving loyally the holy Priesthood that stands over him, obeying every word of God; this man holds the Priesthood which is a part of God. He thus becomes a part of God, if you please. He has several wives, under the holy order of matrimony, the Celestial Order of Heaven, the Family Order of Heaven. They each are a part of him. Can you realize that, brothers and sisters? Each of those lovely daughters of God have entered a covenant for eternity and for time to abide this holy law, the Family Order of Heaven, and to bring pure souls, spirits, the sons and daughters of God into this holy order -- each of these wives realizing that they are a part of him, and they love one another for this reason. And they cannot speak evil of one another or do anything against one another if they have this full realization; they, together, love his children as their own. They labor together, these children, honoring and sustaining their parents in this holy law, loving and serving one another, looking after the interest of one another; these children, then, becoming a part of him in this holy order, the holy Priesthood. Do we see it, brothers and sisters?

Now, the Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood. Joseph Smith said so; the Prophets have all said so; and God Himself has said so in His revelations. This Priesthood must come to this head of this Patriarchal family. The Holy Ghost must come down to him through the head of the Priesthood, the Apostleship, presided over by Leroy S. Johnson. The family head cannot move or act or have his being without that channel be kept clear. That Spirit moves down through him to this head of the family, and through him to each and every one in that family; and they cannot bypass one another, as has been mentioned. See the glorious sealing together, the very nature of this sealing, which is done by the Holy Spirit of promise, eventually having their calling and election made sure. Here, again, the endowments are necessary.

My grandfather, William Y. Jeffs, had four wives. But the Lord had to take one of them when he was going to the temple to have his second endowments and his sealing up unto eternal life, because she was not worthy or one with him. So the Lord had to take her. Here is the nature of things, brothers and sisters, as we see these examples.

Can we not, therefore, live together in love, which is one of the attributes of the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, in mercy, in truth, loving the truth for its sake, loving and serving God in this truth? -- and the man exercising justice and judgment, the wives the same with their children, until they come to the glorious power of faith, perfect faith and knowledge, ripening into knowledge, coming then, finally, to know that their course is pleasing to God. We cannot receive these blessings and endowments until we know by the revelation of God that our course is pleasing to Him -- not merely believing, not being deluded in the least -- that our course is pleasing to God through our having made the great sacrifice of a contrite spirit and a broken heart, the sacrifice of all earthly things, including this worldly character that we have inherited; sacrifice of wife and children, if necessary, and life itself, if required. These things, brethren and sisters, will enable us to do this, have this wonderful power with God, which is His Spirit. Through His Spirit, knowing that our course is pleasing, we acknowledge Him in all things, we never boast in it; and we have the faith and the humility of a King Benjamin.

Now these things are ours to realize, dear brethren and sisters, if we will really come to the Lord. First repent ourselves, forgive one another in our families; get together and set it in order, brethren. Get them together, and let us go on to perfection. God bless you, dear brethren and sisters, and bless us all together, that we may be His people and receive His power from on high, to enable us to be used in the great work of the redemption of Zion and become the nucleus of the great Millennium.
It took Enoch three hundred sixty-five years to bring a people together in this order of oneness, and it is beautiful to behold and to read as we have read to you in the Pearl of Great Price. This is the work of the Priesthood today, if you please, dear brethren and sisters, to make a people one. President Johnson has suggested the thought that possibly there were only five hundred in the City of Enoch. That is how many the Lord called for at first to go and redeem Zion under the Prophet Joseph Smith. They got two hundred, and they failed for the most part. The set time was given, September 1836, and they failed.

Now the Lord has promised that His Priesthood and His work would not be taken from the earth and given to another people. He will have His people, and they will be a tried people. The trials of the Priesthood, the trials of wealth, the trials of everything you can imagine have been coming upon us and are coming upon us and will yet come upon us. Will we stand faithful and true, arriving at that perfection of faith that will enable us to go before Him and call upon Him for blessings, and to be endowed with power from on high? God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Must Be One

A very short sermon is on my mind, brothers and sisters. Be ye one. "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine," said the Lord. Be ye one in your families, be ye one with this order of the Priesthood, with President Johnson, by and through the gift of the Holy Ghost, which you should keep always, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:93 April 6, 1973 CCA Conference
I have certainly been deeply touched with the spirit of this conference, and of the theme that President Johnson gave to it. I am thrilled at this great sight, this concourse of people who have, as it were, chosen the better part. I trust that this is the case with all of us. I pray for the Spirit of God to be with me today, for I desire but to be a vessel in the hands of the Lord, to deliver His word by the faith of my brethren and this people.

As I sat here at the beginning of this meeting, I tried to visualize in my mind what a great power this people would have if they were one. As President Musser described the relationship of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost: Michael, Jesus, and Joseph -- these great prototypes are saved beings whom we are commanded to be like -- we cannot be like them unless we are one, as they are one. We will not have the power of oneness until we have that degree of faith that Joseph, and Jesus, and all of the holy Prophets have had in behalf of the work of the Lord in their various dispensations.

In the Lectures on Faith, Joseph Smith recites among the effects of faith, the great miracles and the workings of the Holy Ghost upon the people who had the faith, "According as their faith was, so were their blessings." It is just that simple, brothers and sisters. That is the answer to all of our problems. That is the answer to our growth and progress as a people whom the Lord is trying, through His servant President Johnson, to unite, to make one, and to be prepared to redeem Zion and build that holy city.

The Lord being my helper, I would like to dwell on this great power of faith, which is the means by which we may become one. Heber C. Kimball expressed very beautifully the truth that confidence is faith; faith is confidence. Faith is simply having confidence in God as we walk in obedience to His commandments; faith in God, walking in obedience to all of the commandments of God, and thus coming to know, and obtaining the testimony that our course is pleasing to God. Having that confidence, then, in one's self, as well as confidence in God, we may go to Him to lay hold upon the blessings that we so much desire, to be saved and exalted in the presence of God.

One of the most beautiful examples we have of this great faith was that of Enoch, himself, who had this testimony, the Prophet says, that he pleased God. He labored three hundred sixty-five years to raise up a people in the City of Zion. President Johnson has suggested that that probable number of people may well have been only five hundred. But what the Lord can do with five hundred people is very well illustrated in the example of Zion's Camp, when He called upon Joseph to get five hundred men to go back and redeem Zion; for the date had been set September 1836. He could get only two hundred, but the Lord was satisfied with that many, and they went on their journey with the commandment that they should, by their perfect faith and oneness, faith and unity, be able to redeem Zion. They could have done it had they not murmured, had they not divided, had they not been guilty of failing to please God. Had they kept the promise and covenant they made with God, He would have kept His, and He would have given them the power by the Holy Ghost to put armies to flight, and to obtain the goodly land.

Is this not the case for us, brothers and sisters? Is it the case that we are too guilty, have guilty consciences so that we do not have that confidence in God, and He therefore does not have confidence in us; that we are divided, and have not sufficient faith to lay hold upon the blessings we desire in righteousness? Guilty consciences then, brothers and sisters, destroys this confidence and this faith.

So, it calls, first of all, for a great reformation and the gift of repentance from Almighty God -- a Godly sorrow for sin and disobedience -- before we can begin, even begin to lay hold upon the gifts of the Holy Ghost; the rights to which we have received, by the laying on of hands of the holy Priesthood, the greatest gift of God to us, His sons and daughters, who are striving to become His people who would move with one voice. We would move instinctively, having made the Spirit of God so much a part of our being that we were approaching the character and the attributes of God. If we have them, brothers and sisters, then we will be one. The plain and simple answer, then, is through faith, to lay hold upon the gifts of the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, which is the mind of the Father and of the Son. If we have that sufficiently, then we will become like them, the Father and the Son; become joint heirs with Christ, who is the only Heir. We must obtain that heirship by adoption, and that adoption can only come about through the perfection of our character, becoming one.

I wish we could see this picture, dear brothers and sisters, in our families and as a people. I was impressed with a feeling this morning, that we in our families take things too much for granted. We do not appreciate -- and this is through lack of faith -- we do not appreciate the fact that we have the holy Priesthood in our midst. Wives do not appreciate the fact that their husbands hold the holy Priesthood, the Melchizedek Priesthood. Too many wives think they are doing their husbands a favor by consenting to be his wife. They do not show enough gratitude to the Lord for the fact that they are attached to one bearing the holy Priesthood who can save and exalt them.

Too many brethren take too much for granted the Priesthood they bear and their connection with the holy Apostleship, which God has given to preside over us. We do not appreciate the fact that we bear the Priesthood, brethren, and so we are not magnifying it. We are not magnifying God, in other words. It is just that simple. By magnifying the Priesthood we bear, we magnify God, the Eternal Father, and His Son, Jesus Christ; for the Priesthood is after the order of the Son of God.

The spirit of ingratitude is one of the direct results of the lack of faith. All things are by faith, dear brothers and sisters, and I would like to read of it a minute. Joseph said in the first place, "That which is not obtained by faith is of sin."

Lecture Seven

3. ...We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force. It is by words, instead of exerting his physical powers, with which every being works when he works by faith.

Our words must be backed up by works. We have the effects of this great exertion and obedience to the commandments in the following description that the Prophet gives us.

17. ...And through the whole history of the scheme of life and salvation, it is a matter of faith: every man received according to his faith -- according as his faith was, so were his blessings and privileges; and nothing was withheld from him when his faith was sufficient to receive it.

His course of life must have been pleasing to God in order for him to obtain the promises of God. These kind of things have occurred in times past and in this dispensation as a fruit or result of faith:

17. ...He could stop the mouths of lions, quench the violence of fire, escape the edge of the sword, wax valiant in fight, and put to flight the armies of the aliens; women could, by their faith, receive their dead children to life again; in a word, there was nothing impossible with them who had faith. All things were in subjection to the Former-day Saints, according as their faith was. By their faith they could obtain heavenly visions, the ministering of angels, have knowledge of the spirits of just men made perfect,

By having one's calling and election made sure.

17. ...of the general assembly and church of the first born, whose names are written in heaven, of God the judge of all, of Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and become familiar with the third heavens, see and hear things which were not only unutterable, but were unlawful to utter.

These fruits of faith, dear brothers and sisters, do we have them? The fact that we do not proves that we do not have the faith. It is just that simple, as I see it. Now, what are we going to do?

If we do not bring about a reformation from the things that President Johnson has called to the attention of this people in recent months from this stand and in other places, there certainly needs to be a reformation of this people. There is lacking the spirit of repentance. There is lacking, therefore, sufficient faith to go forward, and certainly the axe must be laid at the root of the tree if God is to accomplish His work with this people. He will have a people; and it will be a tried people, a people who have made the sacrifice of all earthly things.

We are too prosperous, it seems, today, for our own good; and not sufficient has been done in laying up according to the direction of our President, in the storehouse and meeting our obligations, both spiritual and temporal -- all because of a lack of faith, dear brothers and sisters.

Brethren, we must have faith in President Johnson. Not long ago I heard of a man making a statement that made my blood run cold; and yet, he was in dire circumstances, in need of help of the Lord. When it was suggested that he should counsel with President Johnson about a matter, he said: "I do not need to counsel with President Johnson, I have the Holy Ghost." Bless your hearts, dear brothers and sisters, no man in this work will obtain the Holy Ghost except through this Priesthood, or the blessings of the Holy Ghost.

We must keep the channel clear and free, dear brothers and sisters, through the channels that have been mentioned so many, many times before this people; wives and children through their husbands, and husbands through this order of the Priesthood. The power of the holy Priesthood is the Holy Ghost, make no mistake about it, brothers and sisters; and this is inseparably connected with the holy Priesthood, inseparably connected with the powers of heaven; for by the grace of God we are to lay hold on these things. The gift of repentance, the gift of faith are from God.

So I feel to repent of my sins and shortcomings. And I feel to exert greater faith and to walk in more perfect obedience to the commandments of God. I call upon you, my dear brothers and sisters, whom this Priesthood loves, and desire only your salvation and exaltation in the presence of God; that we bring about a reformation in our lives, repent and become one through faith in God and in the holy Priesthood, which I ask for in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of the Prophet Joseph Smith;
Celestial Marriage Must Be Lived in Purity;
We Become Like God Through the Spirit of God;
We Receive the Spirit of God Through President Johnson

If I can control my feelings, my brothers and sisters. As the things of God have swarmed through my mind here today and in this Conference, I pray God to give me His Spirit that I may bear further testimony of the great work in which we are engaged.

My mind has been going to our beloved Prophet Joseph Smith, Jun., and what he has done for us under our Lord Jesus Christ, who atoned for our sins if we would believe and obey Him -- the great sacrifice that he made, second only to that of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have just been through the "Life of the Prophet Joseph Smith" by George Q. Cannon in our family class. We sit together one evening a week contemplating these things and we have had some wonderful times contemplating the great work of this man, the great Seer of this last dispensation. I feel like reading the words of John Taylor, with whom we are so closely allied in this work, who became a witness for Joseph as Joseph was a witness for the Father and the Son, and spilt his blood alongside of Joseph; being preserved by God Almighty to do the great work of which we are recipients.

I would like to dwell upon these two Priesthood fathers. We must read, brothers and sisters, an account of the life of this man and the sufferings he went through to appreciate him. I commend that book or any other that will give a detailed account of what he went through and what he did for us in restoring the holy Priesthood and the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for a fallen world; and to become an Elias, a forerunner for the coming in glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

D.& C. 135

1. To seal the testimony of this book and the Book of Mormon, we announce the martyrdom of Joseph Smith the Prophet, and Hyrum Smith the Patriarch. They were shot in Carthage jail, on the 27th of June, 1844, about five o'clock p.m., by an armed mob -- painted black -- of from 150 to 200 persons. Hyrum was shot first and fell calmly, exclaiming: I am a dead man! Joseph leaped from the window, and was shot dead in the attempt, exclaiming: O Lord my God! They were both shot after they were dead, in a brutal manner, and both received four balls.

John Taylor received four balls and carried at least two of them to his death as a second martyr, a double martyr.

2. John Taylor and Willard Richards, two of the Twelve, were the only persons in the room at the time; the former was wounded in a savage manner with four balls, but has since recovered; the latter, through the providence of God, escaped, without even a hole in his robe.

3. Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it. In the short space of twenty years, he has brought forth the Book of Mormon, which he translated by the gift and power of God, and has been the means of publishing it on two continents; has sent the fullness of the everlasting gospel, which it contained, to the four quarters of the earth; has brought forth the revelations and commandments which compose this book of Doctrine and Covenants, and many other wise documents and instructions for the benefit of the children of men; gathered many thousands of the Latter-day Saints, founded a great city, He founded several of them.

3. ...and left a fame and a name that cannot be slain. He lived great, and he died great in the eyes of God and his people; and like most of the Lord's anointed in ancient times, has sealed his mission and his works with his own blood; and so has his brother Hyrum. In life they were not divided, and in death they were not separated!

4. When Joseph went to Carthage to deliver himself up to the pretended requirements of the law, two or three days previous to his assassination, he said: "I am going like a lamb to the slaughter; but I am calm as a summer's morning; I have a conscience void of offense towards God, and towards all men. I SHALL DIE INNOCENT, AND IT SHALL YET BE SAID OF ME -- HE WAS MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD." -- The same morning, after Hyrum had made ready to go -- shall it be said to the slaughter? yes, for so it was -- he read the following paragraph, near the close of the twelfth chapter of Ether, in the Book of Mormon, and turned down the leaf upon it:

5. And it came to pass that I prayed unto the Lord that he would give unto the Gentiles grace, that they might have charity. And it came to pass that the Lord said unto me: If they have not charity it mattereth not unto thee, thou hast been faithful; wherefore thy garments are clean. And because thou hast seen thy weakness, thou shalt be made strong, even unto the sitting down in the place which I have prepared in the mansions of my Father. And now I....bid farewell unto the Gentiles; yea, and also unto my brethren whom I love, until we shall meet before the judgment-seat of Christ, where all men shall know that my garments are not spotted with your blood. The testators are now dead, and their testament is in force.

6. Hyrum Smith was forty-four years old in February, 1844, and Joseph Smith was thirty-eight in December, 1843; and henceforward their names will be classed among the martyrs of religion; and the reader in every nation will be reminded that the Book of Mormon, and this book of Doctrine and Covenants of the church, cost the best blood of the nineteenth century to bring them forth for the salvation of a ruined world; and that if the fire can scathe a green tree for the glory of God, how easy it will burn up the dry trees to purify the vineyard of corruption. They lived for glory; they died for glory; and glory is their eternal reward. From age to age shall their names go down to posterity as gems for the sanctified.

7. They were innocent of any crime, as they had often been proved before, and were only confined in jail by the conspiracy of traitors and wicked men; and their innocent blood on the floor of Carthage jail is a broad seal affixed to "Mormonism" that cannot be rejected by any court on earth, and their innocent blood on the escutcheon of the State of Illinois, with the broken faith of the State as pledged by the governor, is a witness to the truth of the everlasting gospel that all the world cannot impeach; and their innocent blood on the banner of liberty, and on the magna charta of the United States, is an ambassador for the religion of Jesus Christ, that will touch the hearts of honest men among all nations; and their innocent blood, with the innocent blood of all the martyrs under the altar that John saw, will cry unto the Lord of Hosts till he avenges that blood on the earth. Amen.

I am talking now, brothers and sisters, about appreciation, the principle of gratitude, for the great sacrifice wrought by the Lord Jesus Christ, and by this Prophet and right-hand man of Jesus Christ; and by his right-hand man, John Taylor, who vouchsafed to us, by means of the holy Priesthood and heavenly powers, the blessings of the New and Everlasting Covenant, the blessings of the holy Priesthood which is in our midst. And I testify to you that the mantle of Joseph rests upon Leroy Sunderland Johnson today through that means that the Lord provided in this special dispensation within the last dispensation of the fullness of times. John Taylor stood firm as against what we have seen come to pass in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints since, and refused to change the ordinances, as has been mentioned here concerning this Priesthood.

And that is the work and mission of this order of the Priesthood, to carry on with the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel and all of the ordinances therein, in their perfectness and beauty and purity, never changing one jot or tittle until Christ comes; to keep alive this glorious principle that President Hammon has so beautifully brought to our attention here today, which I pray God we will learn to appreciate by abiding it. That revelation says it must be abided to have the blessing. And I repeat it:

D.& C. 132

5. For all who will have a blessing at my hands shall abide the law which was appointed for that blessing, and the conditions thereof, as were instituted from before the foundation of the world.

6. And as pertaining to the new and everlasting covenant, it was instituted for the fulness of my glory; and he that receiveth a fulness thereof must and shall abide the law, or he shall be damned, saith the Lord God.

Brigham Young said that this law would condemn more than it would save because they abide not the law in its purity. We read how Joseph's death became a testament against the whole world. And he died clean and unspotted from the sins of this generation and of the whole world, and so did Hyrum, and so did John Taylor. In order to abide this law, brothers and sisters, it must be done and abided in purity. We must walk clean and free from the blood and sins of this generation or we cannot receive an exaltation. That is the price that we have got to pay.

Paul the Apostle said, "I sacrifice daily." What did he mean? He meant that he had to sacrifice daily, with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. That is the sacrifice that is required of us in living and abiding this holy law. This holy law, brothers and sisters, circumscribes all that we are required to do in the New and Everlasting Covenant of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. All that President Musser has described to us is circumscribed in this holy law, the Family Order of Heaven. If we do not abide this, we cannot be endowed.

This marriage that we receive -- yes, by the authority of God -- these sealings that we have, as well as the first endowments, are probationary, founded upon our faithfulness to the end. And we are not finally sealed up unto eternal life until we receive the second endowments. Then we are sealed Kings and Queens, Priests and Priestesses unto the Most High God for time and all eternity. I think that we should just as well realize that now. We are living in a probationary condition.

No wonder we are under condemnation. Are we abiding this law in purity? The choir sang the beautiful Beatitudes, and one of them says, "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." Lorin Woolley made the statement that this means to become sexually pure and abide that law in sexual purity, as well as to be pure in every part and portion of our bodies, and sanctify the same by the Spirit of God in us. To be pure is to have and get and keep the Spirit of God with all of the attributes of God, which it will bring upon us. It means the whole law.

To be pure, we must be sanctified by this law and the law of sacrifice, and so we must sacrifice daily -- daily, brothers and sisters. It is not a one-time thing. When we think we have turned in all that we have, all the money, and then rest on our oars, we must sacrifice daily and bring in more and more into the storehouse. We must sacrifice daily in living one with another, and overcoming everything that is contrary to the Spirit of God, every devilish characteristic that is born into the world in these bodies, until we come to the place that Jesus spoke of, as He described how He had overcome. And if we overcome, we shall be pillars in His temple to go no more out -- purified, sanctified, and finally glorified. The glory of God is the Holy Ghost. The glory that we hope to have will be to have and keep, as a whole part of our being, the Holy Ghost, and we will attain unto Godhood by no other means -- a fullness of the Holy Ghost.

I do not know how many times I have read this, brothers and sisters, but I just cannot get away from this grand truth that we have in Lecture Five of the Lectures on Faith, another great revelation of Joseph the Prophet. And you will find, brothers and sisters, there is not one thing, not one solitary thing that has been taught by the successors and the Prophets of God since Joseph that was not taught by him. Brigham said it, and I am sure it is true ever since Brigham. John Taylor said it. He taught what Joseph taught him. And I dare say that he did not really find out who Joseph was until that night in Carthage, that he was the Holy Ghost. We must have the same spirit in us as Joseph had, which he received from Jesus, who received it from the Father, and they are one. And we must be one like they, as we are taught here again.

Lecture Five

2. ...And he being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome, received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, The Holy Spirit is the mind of God, brothers and sisters. I repeat it again and again. And if we are to become like Him we must have it with us.

2. ...that bears record of the Father and the Son,
And physically, in this world, Joseph bore record of the Father and the Son, acting in that office of the Holy Ghost.

2. ...and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all;
The Holy Ghost.

2. ...the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; Why? Because they possess a fullness of the Holy Spirit with Them.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness,

It is that literal.

2. ...even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory,

His glory is this Holy Spirit.

2. ...and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit.

Through the Spirit.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them.

Jesus Christ is the only Heir of God. All of the rest who become joint heirs with Him are so by adoption, through keeping the commandments and becoming like Them, and by the ordinances that He has instituted -- all of these ordinances that have been spoken of so beautifully here today. And we will not be resurrected except by an ordinance. And before that, of course, we will not be sealed up unto eternal life except by an ordinance of the holy Priesthood, and by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost sealing it.

3. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they

The saints,

3. are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

As John Taylor says, "Through the adoption." May I say again, with all the power and words that I can bring to bear upon the grand truth, brothers and sisters, we are therefore saved only as we get and keep the Spirit of God. The degree that we have the Holy Ghost, that degree we become like God. It takes all, one hundred percent of the time having the Holy Ghost upon us if we are to keep our covenants and walk in the glory of God, which is His Holy Spirit, centering in Himself and going out to all of His creations. Dear brothers and sisters, why do we persist in doing the things that destroy the Spirit of God in our lives, that cause us to lose it? We are, therefore, as near becoming like God as the degree we keep the Spirit of God in our beings. And it must come through this man, Leroy Sunderland Johnson, who holds the keys to our salvation. We cannot get in by any other route. We cannot have the Spirit of God by any other means than to walk in unity under this man of God, the servant of God, who administers life and salvation through the power of the holy Priesthood. We are in the midst of a special dispensation under the hand of John Taylor, Joseph Smith, and the Lord Jesus Christ. I pray God that we will appreciate it by living and abiding these teachings which He and they have given us through His servants today, the same as yesterday, under John Taylor and Joseph Smith, and all of the Prophets who have gone on the other side.

We should be pleading day and night, brothers and sisters, for them, these Priesthood fathers, to intercede for us, and so live that they can; and so live that we can be visited and taught and be prepared to be endowed and blessed with power from on high. We cannot be saved without them, believe me, brothers and sisters. The power and authority has come down through them, and it is here today. And I testify of it to you, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, that the keys of the holy Priesthood are here in our midst, and God is blessing us only as we are able to receive it, and no faster -- only as we are able to receive them. And the fact that we do not have them is a sad commentary on our faith, a sad commentary that we have to be called to repent as often as we are called upon.

So brothers and sisters, let us unite together and keep the channel clear. We cannot reach God except through this channel. There is no other way. There is no route around or behind this channel of the holy Priesthood, the holy Apostleship after the order of the Son of God. Let us therefore, brothers and sisters, keep the channel clear by walking in obedience to all of the commandments; seeking and getting, in our whole beings, the Holy Ghost as our constant guide and companion. We cannot, dear brothers and sisters, get around this man. There is no other way. He holds the keys for our salvation, and we had better believe it. And if we want the Spirit of God, if we want the gifts of the Holy Ghost, we are going to have to get it through that channel and no other.

Now God bless us, dear brothers and sisters. I appreciate what the Lord has done for us in this Conference, and I pray that all things may be sanctified to our good and our blessing and our eternal progress; that we may come up to see the face of God and live. And may this be our lot, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I never listen to that song but it brings tears to my eyes, and I know it does with the other brethren; for this is what the Lord and His servants want for this people. I suppose that my speaking of being one is becoming quite like playing a record over again, but I hope to God it is not becoming trite and commonplace, because there is nothing commonplace about the City of Zion and the redemption of Zion, which the Lord and His servants desire this people prepared to bring about. I hardly know how to begin, but I sincerely pray, brothers and sisters that we can unite our faith, at least on this occasion, and that we will go forth from here to make the necessary changes, that we may be God's people, one people in the hands of His servants.

President Johnson, every time he speaks, calls upon this people to get prepared. I do not know what it is going to take, except some suffering and great sacrifice to bring us together as a people. Certainly not all are going to be used, I am sorry to say. The very thing that was spoken of in one of the parables is going to apply to this people. President Taylor has told the Latter-day Saints many years ago that -- he used percentages, and somehow that ten percent seems to stand out. I wonder if it is going to be ten percent of this people, or ten percent of the Latter-day Saints. How much do we want the things spoken of that were portrayed in this song, brothers and sisters? Do we want them enough to pay the necessary price, and make the necessary sacrifice? If so, then we will surely be chosen. "Many are called, but few are chosen." And I would like to use the words of the Lord, through Joseph.

D.& C. 121

34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?
35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --
36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.
37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.
38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.
39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.
40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.

The Lord has surely told us how we are to exercise the holy Priesthood, brethren, that we may save the souls of our wives and children, and raise them up in light and truth. The Lord called upon Joseph and his counselors, as we have it in Section 93, because they were almost nigh unto cursing, because they were not raising up their children in light and truth, and they were not giving heed to their teachings. So we have a fearful responsibility, brethren and sisters, to unite our families. We must be one in our families or this people will not be prepared as people. We have said thousands of times, and here the Lord gives us the way that this is to be done, and what the great reward shall be, as it regards us individually as well as it would apply in our families.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

And not in a fit of anger, brethren and mothers. Never shout at a child.

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

What a beautiful thing in reproving a child, or a wife, or anyone over whom we have jurisdiction, when led by the Holy Ghost, to afterwards show forth love. Take them in your arms and let them know that you love them, and they were rebuked because you loved them, and not because you wanted to hurt, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy.

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

Thy faithfulness. We must set an example of faith and faithfulness to these children, and to these wives, brethren. How can you reprove if you are guilty yourself? And so we must be faithful and true, and abide by correct principles as we go about our daily labors in the raising up of these families.

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith,

The household of faith is the people who have chosen to take hold of the iron rod, and to serve God and to keep His commandments. We should be yearning after one another, seeking after one another's interests, in families and as a people. That is the spirit of the order of oneness -- seeking the interest of one another, wives; and one another's children, wives.

Brothers and sisters, I would to God that I could see a family where the wives, each and every wife would look upon the children of her husband and know that they are his, and handle them, and bless them, and train them, and succor them as her own. These children, dear friends, are the children of the man. The seed is in the man, and all of the man's children born by several wives are his. Yes, you bore them, sisters, and they are yours, too, but primarily they are his. If you love your husband, you will handle his children as your own. If you love one another, you will be one in these things, and what a joy and a blessing, what a fountain of joy there would be in such a family. But no! Jealousy takes hold, selfishness, covetousness, and all of the other damnable things that took possession of the saints in Zion that caused the Lord to drive them out -- these things take place in our families -- jarrings, contentions, the things that the Lord hates, and for which He allowed His people to be driven out of Independence, the City of Zion. And we are still wandering around, brothers and sisters, because we do not abide these things, and come up to this order of things that was so beautifully portrayed in this song.

To be one, brothers and sisters, is to have one mind, as the mind of the Father and the Son are one. And we must have one mind with our head. To be of one mind is to be in possession of the Holy Ghost in its fullness, and there can be no room for these things that so much hold us back. And so we would have this glorious result, brothers and sisters.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

Our course of life would be such that we could call upon Him for all of the blessings that we desire in righteousness and they would be granted, because our confidence in God would be so strong, and His in us, because of our righteousness.

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth;

Brethren, let me read that again.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

I do not know what more to say. One of the brethren made the statement that this people must come to these meetings, mostly to be entertained, and then look forward to another entertainment, saying, "Oh, that was a fine meeting; that was a fine meeting, wasn't it?" But what are we doing about it? That is what the brethren want, that is what the Lord wants for us. It is a matter of our changing of our character. That is what it gets down to, so that our minds may be one. The mind of the Holy Ghost is the mind of the Father and the Son, and it must be the mind of each and every one of us in our family organizations, and that is the only way that we are going to make the necessary changes, the only way that we are going to be able to be used, to be of one mind, through love and faith. And there is the great key word, brothers and sisters. If we love one another as the Lord God loves us, we would be like Him. If wives love one another, and they love their husband, and they love their children, the Holy Ghost would be their constant companion, and they would act like God. We must become Godlike in our families or we are not going to see God, and this through love.

I cannot help but go to Moroni, if the Lord will help me. This whole chapter 7 of the Book of Moroni, brothers and sisters, I commend to you in its fullness; but these special things at the end:

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.
44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

If we have not charity we are nothing, brothers and sisters.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, Bear one another's weaknesses, brothers and sisters, in your families, and help them to overcome them if you can.
45. ...beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
And let us suffer if we must.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

The Prophet John said, "If ye say ye love God and hate your brother, you are a liar and the truth is not in you. How can ye say ye love God whom ye cannot see, when ye do not love your brother whom ye can see?" Therefore, dear brothers and sisters, if there are feelings of hate, or envy, or jarrings and contentions among brethren and sisters, among sister wives, among children, among brethren, they cannot truly say they love God. This grand principle of love, for God is love, goes through every attribute of God, which are the attributes of the Holy Spirit, which we must lay hold on. And I pray, my dear brothers and sisters, that we may, indeed, be filled with this love, filled with the Holy Ghost, if you please, for that is what it is -- every moment of every day, of every week, and month, and year of our lives. We cannot be one except we love one another, which I pray we may learn to do every day of our lives, in the name Jesus Christ, amen.
here today. The Spirit of God has been here, I think, in response to your faith, all of our faith; and I pray for a continuation of that Spirit upon me. I am led to read a story from the Prophet Samuel, which I feel has a beautiful lesson for us, which I pray the Lord will help me to apply to our lives.

The Lord called upon Samuel to tell King Saul to go and destroy, utterly destroy the Amalekites -- their king, their people, their animals, and their treasure -- because of their sins, and their opposition to the Israelites. Instead of this, he took King Agag alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

1 Samuel 15

9. ...and they spared the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10. Then came the word of the Lord unto Samuel, saying,

11. It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night.

12. And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13. And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the Lord: I have performed the commandment of the Lord.

14. And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15. And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16. Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17. And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lord anointed thee king over Israel?

18. And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.
19. Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the Lord, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the Lord?

20. And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and have gone the way which the Lord sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

I think, brothers and sisters, we very often do these things ourselves, taking it upon ourselves to judge whether we be following the voice and commandments of God in departing here a little or there a little, thinking that we are making great sacrifices, and going through great suffering in order to do it; when all that the Lord required was to obey His voice. In this thing we are not one.

I would like to recite another story, brothers and sisters. The Camp of Israel, Zion's Camp was called. The Lord called for five hundred, and finally said He would settle for one hundred. Joseph got two hundred five. They were called to go with Joseph to redeem Zion, and what was called for was the very same sort of thing that the Lord required here of Saul. But this involved a group of people who were called upon to be of one heart and one mind, and to follow Joseph -- to follow the voice of Joseph as the voice of God, if you please -- and that there should be no murmuring, or complaining, or criticizing. The word "murmuring" was the key word. And thus they should go with one heart and mind, and be as a host of Israel to redeem Zion; for the Lord had promised that one man could put to flight a thousand, and two, ten thousand with the power of God upon them. And thus, the Lord has always said, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine."

We all know the result of that mission. Sylvester Smith and others began to murmur and to complain. General Lyman Wight did not do as he was commanded in bringing a people out into the plains. He thought it a better judgment to take those under his command to one side in the forest. And so, there was decreed of the Lord upon the camp, a terrible scourge of cholera, and some fourteen men lost their lives, and many sick; and Joseph was taken in the sickness himself because he sought to stay the hand of God in trying to heal the sick, evidencing again that the will of God should always be sought and maintained.

So, brothers and sisters, I think one of the great lessons that we have to learn is, in our families and as a people, a group of families, is to listen to the commands of God through His servants; and understand that the voice of God is given through His servants; and follow, as they were commanded in the Camp of Israel, to take the voice of Joseph as the voice of God. Our Prophet has spoken to us many times, on many different ways, and I am very much appreciative of what President Musser has called our attention to here today, to clean up our minds. We are called upon, my dear brothers and sisters, to be as the Camp of Israel, to be one. We are indeed, as a people, called upon to redeem Zion, to prepare for this great mission and blessing. That is what the Lord is trying to get today.

So we see the great necessity of our becoming one, which simply means to be of one heart and one mind, by and with the servant of God who leads us, our Prophet. And I adjure you as families, to so hearken to and so listen to the voice of your Priesthood head, in your families. You will never become one unless you act in this way, in this glorious example that we have of the Camp of Israel, Zion's Camp. I am confident that we suffer a great deal because we do not hearken, because we do not obey the voice of the Priesthood. And the Lord is holding out to us some more time, but it is getting shorter and shorter; and I am, for myself at least, feeling greatly weighed down by the fact that there is little time remaining. We do not know how little, brothers and sisters. God has never revealed the time and the place for the bringing about of His judgments and His great trials of our faith, but you can be very sure that they are coming, and they are at our doors.

Let us therefore, brothers and sisters, sanctify our minds and our bodies, and our habitations. These homes, let them be temples, pure and clean from the blood and sins of this generation. And may we be a people that the Lord can own and bless, and bless again, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Brothers and sisters, I am grateful to be here and to meet with this beautiful congregation of saints. I pray that the Spirit of God may continue with me as with the other brethren. These remarks I appreciate very, very much, which I pray that we will follow as the voice and the word of the Lord. It has been said, brothers and sisters, that the fact that we do not enjoy the great blessings and endowments of the holy Priesthood, is our lack of faith.

The Prophet tells us this much in Lecture Seven of the Lectures on Faith, enumerating the many things that they enjoyed because of the great power of their faith. Faith or power, is the way Joseph describes this great and fundamental principle of the Gospel of Christ. President Johnson, it has been repeated many times, stated we must attain unto the faith of the brother of Jared. And I felt impressed to read the account of the brother of Jared as he sought to accomplish the will of God that was laid upon them at that time. I commend this reading to you, brothers and sisters, the third chapter of Ether.

Ether 2

20. And the Lord said unto the brother of Jared:
And this was in the Spirit of revelation.

20. ...Behold, thou shalt make a hole in the top, and also in the bottom;
And He gives the various instructions on how to build the vessel.

20. ...and when thou shalt suffer for air thou shalt unstop the hole and receive air. And if it be so that the water come in upon thee, behold, ye shall stop the hole, that ye may not perish in the flood.

21. And it came to pass that the brother of Jared did so, according as the Lord had commanded.

22. And he cried again unto the Lord saying: O Lord, behold I have done even as thou hast commanded me; and I have prepared the vessels for my people, and behold there is no light in them. Behold, O Lord, wilt thou suffer that we shall cross this great water in darkness?

23. And the Lord said unto the brother of Jared: What will ye that I should do that ye may have light in your vessels? For behold, ye cannot have windows, for they will be dashed in pieces; neither shall ye take fire with you, for ye shall not go by the light of fire.

24. For behold, ye shall be as a whale in the midst of the sea; for the mountain waves shall dash upon you.

The Lord is telling him the conditions under which they would have to sail, and calling upon him to exercise his faith, for the Lord will be inquired of.

24. ...Nevertheless, I will bring you up again out of the depths of the sea; for the winds have gone forth out of my mouth, and also the rains and the floods have I sent forth.

25. And behold, I prepare you against these things; for ye cannot cross this great deep save I prepare you against the waves of the sea, and the winds which have gone forth, and the floods which shall come. Therefore what will ye that I should prepare for you that ye may have light when ye are swallowed up in the depths of the sea?

1. And it came to pass that the brother of Jared, (now the number of the vessels which had been prepared was eight) went forth unto the mount, which they called the mount Shelem, because of its exceeding height, and did molten out of a rock sixteen small stones; and they were white and clear, even as transparent glass; and he did carry them in his hands upon the top of the mount, and cried again unto the Lord, saying:

2. O Lord, thou hast said that we must be encompassed about by the floods. Now behold, O Lord, and do not be angry with thy servant because of his weakness before thee; for we know that thou art holy and dwellest in the heavens, and that we are unworthy before thee; because of the fall our natures have become evil continually; nevertheless, O Lord, thou hast given us a commandment that we must call upon thee, that from thee we may receive according to our desires.

3. Behold, O Lord, thou hast smitten us because of our iniquity, and hast driven us forth, and for these many years we have been in the wilderness; nevertheless, thou hast been merciful unto us. O Lord, look upon me in pity, and turn away thine anger from this thy people, and suffer not that they shall go forth across this raging deep in darkness; but behold these things which I have molten out of the rock.
You notice here, brothers and sisters, the great principle of humility, and submission, and repentance, and faith in the word and the requirements of God. Listen to this:

4. And I know, O Lord, that thou hast all power, and can do whatsoever thou wilt for the benefit of man; therefore touch these stones, O Lord, with thy finger, and prepare them that they may shine forth in darkness; and they shall shine forth unto us in the vessels which we have prepared, that we may have light while we shall cross the sea.

5. Behold, O Lord, thou canst do this.

Talk about faith.

5. ...We know that thou art able to show forth great power, which looks small unto the understanding of men.

6. And it came to pass that when the brother of Jared had said these words, behold, the Lord stretched forth his hand and touched the stones one by one with his finger. And the veil was taken from off the eyes of the brother of Jared, and he saw the finger of the Lord; and it was as the finger of a man, like unto flesh and blood; and the brother of Jared fell down before the Lord, for he was struck with fear.

7. And the Lord saw that the brother of Jared had fallen to the earth; and the Lord said unto him: Arise, why hast thou fallen?

8. And he saith unto the Lord: I saw the finger of the Lord, and I feared lest he should smite me; for I knew not that the Lord had flesh and blood.

9. And the Lord said unto him: Because of thy faith thou hast seen that I shall take upon me flesh and blood; and never has man come before me with such exceeding faith as thou hast; for were it not so ye could not have seen my finger. Sawest thou more than this?

10. And he answered: Nay; Lord, show thyself unto me.

11. And the Lord said unto him: Believeth thou the words which I shall speak?

12. And he answered: Yea, Lord, I know that thou speakest the truth, for thou art a God of truth, and canst not lie.

He knew the character of God. He knew the power of God, and had faith that He could do all things.

13. And when he had said these words, behold, the Lord showed himself unto him, and said: Because thou knowest these things ye are redeemed from the fall; therefore ye are brought back into my presence; therefore I show myself unto you.

14. Behold, I am he who was prepared from the foundation of the world to redeem my people. Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father and the Son. In me shall all mankind have light, and that eternally, even they who shall believe on my name; and they shall become my sons and my daughters.

15. And never have I showed myself unto man whom I have created, for never has man believed in me as thou hast. Seest thou that ye are created after mine own image? Yea, even all men were created in the beginning after mine own image.

16. Behold, this body, which ye now behold, is the body of my spirit; and man have I created after the body of my spirit; and even as I appear unto thee to be in the spirit will I appear unto my people in the flesh.

There is the power of faith, brothers and sisters. Maybe from this accounting we can begin to learn how to exercise faith, true faith, which is the exertion of the mind, and coming through that means to a knowledge that your course is pleasing to God; then inquiring of Him of that which is right and best for us, He cannot withhold Himself.

Father Jacob wrestled with the Lord until he prevailed, through faith. And we have innumerable examples of these principles, brothers and sisters. Now here is the plan of salvation:

D.& C. 93

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that every soul who forsa keth his sins and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name, and obeyeth my voice, and keepeth my commandments, shall see my face and know that I am;

The brother of Jared had that faith, and he obtained the results of that faith by prevailing with God, knowing that his course was pleasing to God.

Now brothers and sisters, I would say, seek to know God, who He is, what He is; and Jesus Christ, whom He has sent, whom to know is eternal life, and having our calling and election made sure, coming up to see the face of the Father and the Son. Do this through faith, the power of faith. Exercise true
I sincerely pray that the Spirit of God will direct my remarks in fulfilling this assignment, for I desire above all else to edify and instruct by the Spirit of God; and I sincerely trust that your faith will be united to this end, for your good as well as mine.

President Johnson has called upon the saints to come up to the faith of the brother of Jared. We are promised that when we come to that faith we will receive his record, and we will have all of the other records that the Lord has reserved for the faithful. When we have truly come up to that order of faith that Enoch had, we will have his record; that John the Beloved had, and we will have his record; and that the brother of Jared had. There are sealed portions of the Book of Mormon plates to be had by the faithful.

I cannot think of a better way to describe the faith of the brother of Jared than to read the third chapter of Ether, or a part of it, which is a beautiful illustration of how that faith works -- the background for it, as well as the operation of this great and glorious principle of faith or power. I call upon you always, dear brothers and sisters, when you think of the word "faith", think of the word "power", power with God; for it is by faith, by the principle of power, that God created all things, and by which He accomplishes all things according to His will. We are called upon to learn His will and way, and this is how this glorious principle of faith works. There is brought out in these words the spirit of repentance, which precedes it, and goes along with it, for that matter.

You will remember as you have read this account, how the Lord had commanded the brother of Jared to prepare these vessels in which they were to cross the great deep. These vessels were enclosed so that it required something additional for them beyond the ordinary way of being able to cross in ships as they understood them.

1. And it came to pass that the brother of Jared, (now the number of the vessels which had been prepared was eight) went forth unto the mount, which they called the mount Shelem, because of its exceeding height, and did molten out of a rock sixteen small stones; and they were white and clear, even as transparent glass; and he did carry them in his hands upon the top of the mount, and cried again unto the Lord, saying:

2. O Lord, thou hast said that we must be encompassed about by the floods. Now behold, O Lord, and do not be angry with thy servant because of his weakness before thee; for we know that thou art holy and dwellest in the heavens, and that we are unworthy before thee; because of the fall our natures have become evil continually; nevertheless, O Lord, thou hast given us a commandment that we must call upon thee, that from thee we may receive according to our desires.

Here is the perfect spirit of humility and submission and dependence upon God -- yes, the spirit of repentance, knowing that we are encompassed about with evil and we are of a fallen nature, and therefore most dependent upon God, and he reminds the Lord of His commandments and that they now desire to fulfill them.

3. Behold, O Lord, thou hast smitten us because of our iniquity, and hast driven us forth, and for these many years we have been in the wilderness; nevertheless, thou hast been merciful unto us.

Notice, brethren and sisters, how there comes out in his calling upon the Lord his knowledge of the character and the attributes of God. This is first and foremost as we understand it from the Lectures on Faith. First, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and God the Father who sent Him, a knowledge of Their character and attributes, which we are called upon to become like. Humility is exhibited here, and calling upon the mercy of God:

3. Behold, O Lord, thou hast smitten us because of our iniquity, and hast driven us forth, and for these many years we have been in the wilderness; nevertheless, thou hast been merciful unto us. O Lord, look upon me in pity, and turn away thine anger from this thy people, and suffer not that they shall go forth across this raging deep in darkness; but behold these things which I have molten out of the rock.
4. And I know, O Lord, that thou hast all power, and can do whatsoever thou wilt for the benefit of man;
He knew God, that He had all power, that He is unchangeable, and that He will answer the prayer of faith. You see the elements of this glorious principle, brothers and sisters.
4. ...therefore touch these stones, O Lord, with thy finger, and prepare them that they may shine forth in darkness; and they shall shine forth unto us in the vessels which we have prepared, that we may have light while we shall cross the sea.
Faith in the promises of God is shown here.
5. Behold, O Lord, thou canst do this.
This principle of faith, when used in the administration of the sick, we say, "Behold, O Lord, thou art the great Physician and Thou canst do this, agreeable to Thy will."
5. ...We know that thou art able to show forth great power, which looks small unto the understanding of men.
6. And it came to pass that when the brother of Jared had said these words,
You remember the definition by Joseph of this great principle of faith. It is the exertion of the mind through words, backed up by a knowledge that our course is pleasing to God, and a knowledge that we are keeping His commandments. There is the power of faith.
6. And it came to pass that when the brother of Jared had said these words, behold, the Lord stretched forth his hand and touched the stones one by one with his finger. And the veil was taken from off the eyes of the brother of Jared, and he saw the finger of the Lord; and it was as the finger of a man, like unto flesh and blood; and the brother of Jared fell down before the Lord, for he was struck with fear.
Not that fear that bringeth torment that Joseph speaks of because of iniquity or failure to live by the commandments of God, but fear to offend God. We are called upon to walk in fear and trembling before the Lord unto our exaltation, and that fear is that fear of offending God, not that fear which bringeth torment.
7. And the Lord saw that the brother of Jared had fallen to the earth; and the Lord said unto him: Arise, why hast thou fallen?
8. And he saith unto the Lord: I saw the finger of the Lord, and I feared lest he should smite me; for I knew not that the Lord had flesh and blood.

9. And the Lord said unto him: Because of thy faith thou hast seen that I shall take upon me flesh and blood; and never has man come before me with such exceeding faith as thou hast; for were it not so ye could not have seen my finger. Sawest thou more than this?

10. And he answered: Nay; Lord, show thyself unto me.

Now note this, brothers and sisters:

11. And the Lord said unto him: Believest thou the words which I shall speak?

12. And he answered: Yea, Lord, I know that thou speakest the truth, for thou art a God of truth, and canst not lie.

What would you say, brothers and sisters, if you were confronted with that question: "Believest thou the words that I shall speak?" from the Lord, your Lord, your Priesthood head? Or would you mumble and fumble and say, "Well, I would like to hear it first." "Believest thou the words that I shall speak?" the Lord said, and He got the answer that He expected from this man of faith.

12. ...Yea, Lord, I know that thou speakest the truth, for thou art a God of truth, and canst not lie.

13. And when he had said these words, behold, the Lord showed himself unto him, and said: Because thou knowest these things ye are redeemed from the fall; therefore ye are brought back into my presence; therefore I show myself unto you.

The man was worthy of having the Lord say, "My son, thou shalt be exalted," and he had been redeemed from the Fall.

14. Behold, I am he who was prepared from the foundation of the world to redeem my people. Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father and the Son. In me shall all mankind have light, and that eternally, even they who shall believe on my name; and they shall become my sons and my daughters.

The Son speaking as with the Father, the words of the Father, for They were one.

15. And never have I showed myself unto man whom I have created, for never has man believed in me as thou hast. Seest thou that ye are created after mine own image? Yea, even all men were created in the beginning after mine own image.

16. Behold, this body, which ye now behold, is the body of my spirit; and man have I created after the body of my spirit; and even as I appear unto thee to be in the spirit will I appear unto my people in the flesh.

And Moroni takes over the account. We see here all the elements of faith, brothers and sisters. First, the knowledge of God, His character and His attributes. And as you read the Lectures on Faith, you will see how a knowledge of those various characteristics and attributes of God, faith in them, enables a man or a woman to lay hold on eternal life. But other things are required -- who God is, how to worship Him, the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit being the mind of the Father and the Son, and the glory of the Father and the Son. And it is required that we obtain a fullness of that Spirit in order for us to be like Them and we cannot enter into Their presence without being like Them.

The brother of Jared, to have stood in the presence of the Lord at this time, certainly must have had a testimony that he pleased God, that his course of life was pleasing to God, else he could not have called upon His holy name and obtained this blessing. This brother of Jared was the one who had this faith necessary to accomplish this end. We have to know how faith works, by words, by faith in our prayers, knowing that our course is pleasing to God. Can we not then, dear brothers and sisters, go on to perfection with the knowledge of these things? And as Brother Jessop said, "Repetition comes to our edification if we will follow it and find new things in each repetition." I will read again the statement of Brother Roberts in The Gospel, of this course of life and how faith works for our exaltation.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Let us, therefore, brothers and sisters, lay hold on knowledge through the power of faith. Be just. Exercise judgment according to the character of God. Be merciful, and lay hold on truth; and love it with all your whole heart, might, mind, and strength. Love it for the truth's sake, and make it a part of your being; and love God and your fellow man with all your heart, might, mind, and strength, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Obedience to the Prophet;
Evil Spirits Enter In When We Lose the Spirit of God; Become One

That hymn ["Hushed Was the Evening Hymn"] is a particular favorite of mine because it depicts the spirit and life that we should be in every moment of our lives. The heart and mind of Samuel was pure. It was clean, and he did act and speak as the Holy Spirit dictated the will of God. And so great was his faith and humility and his willingness to obey that he became one of the great Prophets of Israel. He was called upon to reprimand King Saul for his failure to obey the voice of God as it was given to him. And from him we have the grand and glorious words when Saul had disobeyed in bringing back the king, the gold and silver, and the rams for sacrifice when he was told to utterly destroy all of the Amalekites and everything they had. "Saul,"

1 Samuel 15

22. ...to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. We should emblazon that upon our hearts, to live by every day, when we are tempted to think that there is another way, or the Lord's will is some other thing. "When God commands," Joseph Smith said, "I obey." There is the simple secret of our lives.

I read an item from the Deseret News -- it was in the year 1873 -- that depicts this spirit, this pure spirit that should actuate all of us.

JD 16:41  Brigham Young  May 18, 1873  Ogden
A declaratory statement is sufficient for those who are prepared to receive the spirit of revelation for themselves, but with the most of the human family we have to reason and explain. A really pure person is very scarce; but when the heart is truly pure, the Lord can write upon it, and the truth is received without argument, or doubt, or disputation.

There is a pure person, and would to God that there were more like that, this example of Samuel. Would to God we could have the heart and mind of a Samuel, each and every one of us in each and every one of our families. I am sure as I am sure that I stand here, brothers and sisters, that the people of Enoch had to come to that condition -- a Prophet of God standing before them revealing the word and the will of God, and the people receiving it with one heart and one mind, and the voice of God thus became the voice of the people.

This was the condition that was required of Zion's Camp, as has been mentioned many times before -- two hundred men called upon under the Prophet of God to go and redeem Zion. And it was required that they go with one heart and with one mind so that the voice of the Prophet was the voice of the people, which was the voice of God; and it was as the voice of God to each and every one of them. This is what was required, but they were too weak and too disobedient. Many of them, Sylvester Smith in particular, was mentioned in the history as beginning to criticize the Prophet and to murmur. It was required of them that they go without murmuring. There is a wonderful word to act on -- never, never to murmur at the voice and command of God. On another occasion on that journey of Zion's Camp, the whole camp was commanded by their Commander in Chief to camp out in the open, in the open plain. Lyman Wight had a better idea. He had those under his direct command camp in the forest nearby, or across the way.

Believe me, brothers and sisters, until we come to this condition of obedience in our families and as a people, God cannot redeem us, we cannot be used, and Zion cannot be redeemed. These are the conditions that God requires. We must come to it, brothers and sisters. I know all of us won't, as Zion's Camp did not. But thank God the time will come when He will have a people -- He has promised this -- who will go and walk and act as the Spirit of God breathes, through the Prophet of God.

The Spirit of God should be our very breath, our life and breath, brothers and sisters. And if we would only have this in our families, we would never have these spirits of contention, these lying spirits, these crying spirits, these religious spirits, and all of the rest that tantalize and plague the saints because they let them enter in through their disobedience. Having been given this great and glorious gift of the Spirit of God, brothers and sisters, we must either keep it, or we will lose it, and the other spirits enter in. It is just that simple. And unfortunately, they are invited spirits. The Priesthood could not, by the laying on of hands, command them to leave. You, yourself must get rid of them by submitting yourselves humbly to the work, the words and the commands of God through the Priesthood which presides over you.

What a beautiful, beautiful family this would be, where all, each and every one is actuated by the Spirit of God, following the words and the direction of their head as the voice of God, giving them their full support and strength. Believe me, brothers and sisters, the servants of God need the supporting strength, the faith and prayers of those under them -- the Elder over his family, President Johnson over this people. I am sure you all pray for him; but unhappily, you do not all follow his words as they are breathed by the Spirit of God to this people. If we had the Spirit of God, we would have all the attributes of God, and we would be one mind and one people, one heart.

Now, brothers and sisters, the brethren have been, as has been mentioned here today, speaking a great deal of the endowments of the holy Priesthood, which are necessary for our continued progress and advancement, and to enable the Lord to get His united people to redeem Zion. We can never, never arrive at that point except we are in the same condition as Enoch and his people. Can we not see this, or do we continue to go about our labors day by day and forget what has been said, what is exhorted for our growth and development, and then come back here again the next meeting to be "entertained"? I am afraid that this is too much the situation with too many of us.

Now, I pray God to prick our hearts, to give us strength to overcome all of the things that stand in our way of becoming one. Jesus said He had overcome. It is for us to overcome. And those who do overcome and become like Him will stand as pillars in His temple and no more go out. We must make our homes our temples, as President Woolley used to say. He said it would be some time in the future that the only temples available to us would be our own homes. They cannot be temples except we be one in them, having the Spirit of God as our constant companion, which should be as a scepter of power and strength to enable us to overcome all the fiery darts of the adversary.

Now, brethren and sisters, as we determine to go forward in these things, and covenant anew to keep the commandments of God and to live according to these truths, you can be very sure that satan will try to enter in and to stop you. Whenever you renew a covenant, he will always step in with every power at his command to stop you; and we had better be forewarned and forearmed so that we can overcome him and go on. I am afraid that is one of our troubles. We may have all the best intentions in the world to improve and to overcome, but we fall prey to these efforts of the adversary to overcome us. Let us recognize who the real enemy of our progress is and learn to fight and overcome him through obedience to the commandments of God, which will give us that faith and the power with God to have answered upon our heads, through the prayer of faith, these glorious blessings that we all seek. And I pray God to bless each and every one of us now, that we will determine more perfectly and more zealously to receive and obey these things that President Johnson and the other brethren have exhorted us to do. God bless you all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Faith; Fear a Result of Guilty Conscience

It is wonderful to look into your faces again, brothers and sisters, to be here under the direction of President Johnson, the mouthpiece of God, around whom we should rally to accomplish the work and the will of God. I am certainly going to have to have the help of the Lord in anything I may say here, because I have not the slightest idea what to talk about. But I do know Brother Joseph's admonition was true: If we have nothing else to talk about, or if nothing comes to your mind, testify of your love for the Prophet Joseph Smith and our Lord Jesus Christ. Testify of the work and the mission of our beloved Prophet Joseph. He once said, "The more we do, that much nearer we are going to bring him to us to minister unto us," in the setting in order of the House of God and the people of God, which we long for, all of us.

Certainly, brothers and sisters, the Lord has made manifest His arm, His mercy, in fulfillment of His promises in sending Joseph and Jesus to John Taylor, the Prophet, who, in my view, heads up a special dispensation within this dispensation -- that beloved, true Prophet who was so close to Joseph, who knew him, and knew who he was, who knew Jesus. He has instructed us in these revelations to draw near to them. So, brothers and sisters, I firmly believe in this truth, in this admonition: If we will seek to know Joseph, who was sent as a third member of the Godhead in this last dispensation, to preside over it, under Jesus Christ, our Savior, we will draw to our Priesthood Fathers as well, those who followed him, and the good Lord knows we need their help. They have sacrificed much for us, those who have preceded President Johnson; and certainly President Johnson has, and has set a marvelous example of faith, and the love of God and His Priesthood, for us all to follow.

Brothers and sisters, we are not going to have the help, and we are not going to bring Joseph to us without our exercising perfect faith, or the other things that have been promised to us. "As our faith is, so shall our blessings be." It is just that simple. We have not exerted ourselves, brothers and sisters, according to the very simple definition of faith. The exertion of the mind is faith, and I dare say the great lack that we have is that we do not have faith. We are spiritually lazy. We are mentally lazy, brothers and sisters, as we are lazy about a great many other things, in rendering obedience to all of the laws and all the commandments of God; which, if we did, we would have the faith necessary to lay hold upon these blessings.

Much has been said of late about our becoming worthy to be endowed. Until we are worthy we will not have the faith to be endowed. The opposite of faith is fear, brothers and sisters. Can it be that we are tormented in our fear because our course is not pleasing to God? Is this the reason? What a beautiful thing it would be if we could approach God, knowing, not believing, that our course is pleasing to Him, and thus be able to lay hold upon these blessings in perfect faith.

We have had drawn to our attention the great and beautiful example of faith of the brother of Jared. He knew God. He knew of His character, and His attributes. And in accomplishing the thing that he was commanded to do, he approached God with that kind of faith, knowing that He had all power, and he could do the thing that was required to be done. He called upon the Lord to touch the stones, knowing that it would be, and then knowing also when the Lord said, "Believest thou the things that I shall speak?"  He said, "Yea, Lord, I know that thou art a God of truth and cannot lie."  He knew He was unchangeable, and he knew that He was a God of love, that He is love, and delighted to bless His sons and daughters who are faithful and true.

Joseph the Prophet, when he went into the grove, brothers and sisters, states that he knew that he would get an answer to that prayer, that simple prayer that he uttered the first time in his life aloud.  He knew he would get an answer to that prayer in his simple faith.  In his innocence and in his pure life, he knew that he would get an answer to that question which he laid before the Lord.  Have you had that experience, brothers and sisters?  Have you had the prayer of faith answered in your behalf, knowing that God could and would answer according to His will?  Perhaps this is one thing that we lack in.  We should ask for all things, pray for all things, pray for the sick, agreeable to the will of God, His will and way being done.

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, if fear dwells in us, it is because we have a guilty conscience, and we cannot have faith.  "Fear and faith cannot be in the same person at the same time," Joseph said in the Lectures.  They cannot exist together in the same person at the same time.  Our fears are generated by a guilty conscience.  That is the exact opposite of our knowing that our course of life is pleasing to God.  You see how faith then works in us?  I tell you, brothers and sisters, if you do not study the Lectures on Faith, from beginning to end, time and time and time again, you will never lay hold upon this great gift of faith in perfection.

It is laid out in such perfection for us, and if we would only follow it -- believe, obey, have behind us a knowledge that our course is pleasing to God -- then all of the effects of faith that He has promised will be given.  Lectures Three, Four, and Five tell us the character, the attributes of God, and who They are -- the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.  What beautiful promises are given us there.  I do not feel like reading it again.  I suppose it has become quite trite, but it is beautiful to me, and I think therein is the greatest strength, at least I find, in going forward in the work of the Lord.

Brothers and sisters, we must dwell together in love and faith.  That seventh chapter of Moroni would do you well to read time and time again, in which Moroni quotes the teachings of his father Mormon -- faith, hope, and love, and how we being perfected in this, we can come to God and know Him as He is, because we are like Him, through these grand and glorious principles of faith, hope, and love.

So, I call upon myself and each and every one of you again, to perfect your faith, to perfect our faith, that God cannot withhold Himself in the granting of the blessings that He has promised us, brothers and sisters. Remember this, He has promised these things to us. Can't we have the faith to lay hold on them? So let us get busy, and stop this lazy procrastination. Procrastination, I think is the most destroying thing that we can have -- that, and discouragement. These are the most damning and effective tools of the devil -- procrastination and discouragement; and discouragement comes from disobedience.

If we will but obey every word that cometh forth from the mouth of God through His servants, then we will begin to get confidence in ourselves, and certainly confidence and faith in the Lord -- faith in God the Father, and in His Son, Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit, which great gift has been given us -- and none of these things can be done until we come to the point where it is our constant companion, and guide, and our strength, by which we will be able to overcome and become a pillar in the temple of God.

God bless us as a people, that we may go forward now, brothers and sisters, to obtain these blessings of the House of God, and to bring us together as one people, worthy, and having the strength and the power with God to go back and redeem Zion. Let us set ourselves, individually in order, our families, and then we will have a people in order, ready to be used. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Expressions of Gratitude; Spirit of Submission

I am very grateful to be here again, brothers and sisters, under the direction of President Johnson, and to mingle my voice with the brethren in testimony of the witness of God to us and of His will and purposes for us. I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers.

I am grateful for the testimony that God has given me of this work and of this Priesthood, and that I have been gathered into this work out of the Church which is in a very sad and apostate condition. I think, brothers and sisters, we should all be most grateful that we have come to know of the true order of Priesthood to guide us, to become acquainted with and to be a part of this special dispensation that God has set up through the instrumentality of President John Taylor, and those who have succeeded him in the key position and presiding office of the holy Priesthood, and that we are under the direction of the holy Apostleship. When we see, brothers and sisters, how the Church has gone from one stage of apostasy to another, and how we could have been carried along with it; I, for one at least, am most grateful that my father had chosen the better part in the early part of this century and responded to a command that he enter into the Celestial Law of Marriage against the law of the land and the rule of the Church. And I am grateful for his teachings. I am grateful to be a part of his patriarchal family; and I am also most grateful for my Priesthood fathers, those I have known from John Y. Barlow down to the present -- Leroy S. Johnson, my most worthy head.

I am grateful for a knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and for the laws and ordinances of the holy Priesthood, and that I have been a recipient of those ordinances and blessings. I humbly acknowledge the hand of God in all of these things, for I know it is true. It is as though He had me in the palm of His hand, and I am grateful that I have been able to respond, though weakly and inadequately, I am sure, many times and very often; but I desire to give my whole heart, might, mind, and strength to God and His work, this work and this Priesthood. And I desire to love you, my brothers and sisters, and to raise up my family in light and truth, all together loving one another as we love ourselves.

The spirit of gratitude, brothers and sisters, I think is most essential in our day to day affairs, the spirit of submission. "Submit yourselves," said Paul to the saints, "and the sisters to their husbands as unto the Lord." Brothers and sisters, I feel I for one -- and I am sure it is true of all to a very great extent, one degree or another -- there is not sufficient of the spirit of humility and submission and the acknowledgement of the hand of God; for He said, "With none am I displeased except those who do not acknowledge My hand in all things," in all things, brothers and sisters. Is there any of us that has a strength except it be by the grace of God, to render obedience to this work, to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and keep all of the commandments that He has
My dear brothers and sisters, I hope that we all recognize what the Lord is trying to accomplish by the messages of President Johnson and his colaborers in this Priesthood Council, in bringing this people up to be prepared for greater blessings in the House of God, that we may enter into covenants that will enable us to go from one stage of excellence, one stage of faith to another, until we have knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our Father Michael.

We are in the condition we are in, brothers and sisters, because we do not have sufficient faith -- faith in God in the spirit of humility, and acknowledgement of all that He has given us is by His grace. He calls upon us to show our faith by our works and to live by every word of God. What is your faith, brothers and sisters? What is its object? Wherein does it rest? What do you desire? And are you willing to pay the price of obedience and the keeping of all the commandments in humility, until we come to a knowledge that our course is pleasing to God, and thus be able to approach Him in perfect confidence that we will be granted every desire of our hearts in righteousness? There is no other way, brothers and sisters, for us to become one except our faith becomes perfect. It becomes perfect by obedience and coming to know that our course is pleasing to Him, and thus be able to lay hold upon these glorious blessings and covenants that will enable us to enter into the presence of Father.

Except we be one in our families, and sufficient number of families are one under this Priesthood, we are not going to be prepared for those endowments and blessings. These matters were broached with great force to us, I noted at least. I do not know if you did, at the time of our Conference in Colorado City, the 6th through the 8th of April of this year; and the brethren have been bearing down on this subject, this matter, ever since. I hope and pray that we will give heed and set about in our individual lives to set our own lives in order, the family lives in order, and the Priesthood families in order, that we may be able to approach God in perfect faith, to realize these blessings to our eternal good and salvation and exaltation, if you please. I pray that we may have these things and do these things in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I feel honored, my brothers and sisters and friends, being called upon to speak on this sacred occasion. These are, indeed, sacred rites as we bid farewell temporarily to one of our friends and brothers who has come to the earth by appointment and has left according to appointment. These assurances are indeed sacred ones to all of us, and especially to the parents of this worthy young man, Joseph. I am convinced that these things do not occur by chance. They are, as stated, by appointment, and his choice spirit was sent into the earth at the time he was by appointment. I had the privilege of giving him his name and blessing, the first ordinance of this life that we engage in, in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I was impressed by the fact that this was a choice spirit, come to enter into the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage, to be a product of it and go forth and fill his mission.

I was struck on Sunday by the spirit of this young man as I shook hands with him and his brother Daryl after meeting. It was very striking to me. I felt particularly impressed with Joseph on that occasion. I was not altogether surprised when I got news of his passing the next day. I am sure that his passing was according to appointment in the way and time that it was. I am grateful, for one, for the privilege of knowing and associating with such young men. We have a great many of them who have come by this appointment and direction, and I am sure that Joseph has come and done exactly what he was appointed to do and to accomplish everything he could within this short span of life. He bore the holy Aaronic Priesthood as a Priest and has come and done all that he could. I feel to honor and bless his name, and I am assured that there is no death here, and that this young man has assurance of a glorious resurrection in the Celestial Kingdom of our Father.

I wish to express my love and appreciation for the father and mother of this young man, and their desires in righteousness to abide in the holy laws of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and to build up the Kingdom of God, and to do all things necessary for their salvation and exaltation in the world to come. I pray God to bless all of the family, especially the father and mother, and assure them that all is well, and that the spirit of this young man is here and is going on to fulfill his work on the other side and accomplish all things necessary for his advancement and progress in the Kingdom of heaven.

God bless them and all of us together that we may be faithful unto the end, walking in perfect obedience and faith in the Gospel of Christ, to come again into the presence of Father in the Celestial Kingdom of God, which I ask in the name Jesus, our Redeemer, amen.

Funeral of Deanna J. Beagley

I feel grateful and honored to be asked to take part in this sacred service on this sacred occasion. I am especially grateful for the lives and the labors of faithful saints, which this good sister was and is. The wonderful thing to me about the passing of a righteous person such as this, is that there is no real mourning. There is rejoicing in the life and labors and the character of a true saint, and that is what characterizes the passing over on to the other side of such people as Sister Deanna. We cannot but acknowledge the hand of God in these things, particularly when they are dedicated to the Lord as she was, both in her own heart and labors, and as she was by ordinance and administration. This family is going to miss her beautiful character and the love and kindness in rearing up her children. Brother Theral is blessed indeed, in having in this holy law those who can carry on.

The Lord has given us instructions in these things. It is a beautiful thing when I contemplate what the Lord has said in Section 42. The law of the Gospel was set out in this beautiful word of the Lord in which He said:

D.& C. 42

43. And whosoever among you are sick, and have not faith to be healed, but believe, shall be nourished with all tenderness, with herbs and mild food, and that not by the hand of an enemy.

44. And the elders of the church, two or more, shall be called, and shall pray for and lay their hands upon them in my name; and if they die they shall die unto me, and if they live they shall live unto me.

45. *Thou shalt live together in love, insomuch that thou shalt weep for the loss of them that die, and more especially for those that have not hope of a
This dear sister has died unto the Lord in full faith and fellowship, having kept her covenants, and was ready to pass on to another work. Her work was done here, and she was faithful and true to her covenants, to her husband, and had done all she could in raising up here children in light and truth, loving the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And after all, brothers and sisters, isn't this what is required, that we become like God so that death shall be sweet when the Lord calls us home? And I rejoice with this family and all of you in contemplating the beautiful character, the humility, the love and the desires in righteousness of this dear sister.

As has been observed many times, the Lord takes whom He will in the way and time that He will. And having known that in the life of this sister, she had acknowledged the hand of God in all things; all things, therefore, have worked together for her good and the good of those she loved and sustained and blessed by her example and her teachings. And I pray that we may all live after this example, that we will do all that we can to sustain and uphold the holy laws of God and abide in them and become like Him; that we may go when our time has come, into full faith and fellowship on the other side, to be received and be represented there in behalf of this good family. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
settled for one hundred. But the great requirement that was made of them was that of being one with Joseph, and that they should not murmur on the way, to go up full of faith with the power of the Holy Ghost under this servant of God who acts in the office of the Holy Ghost. What a marvelous opportunity they had of keeping the commandment of God and accomplishing that thing, for the time had been set for the redemption of Zion, September 1836.

These men were called to go in February of 1834. But having arrived on Fishing River -- after Sylvester Smith and many others had murmured, had complained against the Prophet, had criticized him and complained of their lot, and the Lord having brought a curse upon them in the form of a cholera -- while they were on Fishing River the Lord said this, which I feel would be for our instruction and benefit today, for we have yet to redeem Zion. And President Johnson speaks continuously about the preparation of a people for that purpose. All true saints of God, all Elders bearing the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, should be laboring for the building up of this Kingdom and for the preparation of a people, by preparing each and every one, himself or herself, for this purpose, by making each family one and a sufficient group of families one to be used. The Lord said this:

D.& C. 105

1. Verily I say unto you who have assembled yourselves together that you may learn my will concerning the redemption of mine afflicted people --
2. Behold, I say unto you, were it not for the transgressions of my people, speaking concerning the church and not individuals, they might have been redeemed even now.
3. But behold, they have not learned to be obedient to the things which I required at their hands, but are full of all manner of evil, and do not impart of their substance, as becometh saints, to the poor and afflicted among them;
4. And are not united according to the union required by the law of the celestial kingdom;
5. And Zion cannot be built up unless it is by the principles of the law of the celestial kingdom; otherwise I cannot receive her unto myself.

There must be such a righteous people, and God, our Father, will have that people. Whether we individually become a part of that people is up to us and our faith, and our obedience, and our oneness. It is up to us. So righteous will that people be who are called to go back and redeem Zion, after it has been swept clean of its inhabitants there at the present time, being led by the very personal presence of the Lord Jesus Christ, and Joseph; and so righteous that the trees will clap together. They will do this at the very presence of a righteous, a pure, and a united people. Can we not see the picture, brothers and sisters, of the necessity of these things in our lives?

6. And my people must needs be chastened until they learn obedience, if it must needs be, by the things which they suffer. I tremble to think of the things we are going to have to suffer as a people for the Lord to get this righteous people.

7. I speak not concerning those who are appointed to lead my people, who are the first elders of my church, for they are not all under this condemnation;

8. But I speak concerning my churches abroad -- there are many who will say: Where is their God? Behold, he will deliver them in time of trouble, otherwise we will not go up unto Zion, and will keep our moneys.

9. Therefore, in consequence of the transgressions of my people, it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season for the redemption of Zion --

10. That they themselves may be prepared, and that my people may be taught more perfectly, and have experience, and know more perfectly concerning their duty, and the things which I require at their hands.

The servants of God have been trying to do that ever since for the people. And what they have been suffering in the meantime, and what we have yet to suffer, I do not know. Now here is another condition:

11. And this cannot be brought to pass until mine elders are endowed with power from on high.

12. For behold, I have prepared a great endowment and blessing to be poured out upon them, inasmuch as they are faithful and continue in humility before me.

Some of them were endowed with power from on high by being called back to Kirtland to finish the temple. The faithful among that Zion's Camp were called to be the leaders of the people, namely the Twelve and the First Council of Seventy, and others who followed. But here is what the Lord has to say further regarding this:
13. Therefore it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season, for the redemption of Zion.

14. For behold, I do not require at their hands to fight the battles of Zion; for, as I said in a former commandment, even so will I fulfill -- I will fight your battles.

The Lord promised this to the saints in the time of John Taylor and Wilford Woodruff if they would hold fast to the Celestial Law, but the people of the Church would not.

15. Behold, the destroyer I have sent forth to destroy and lay waste mine enemies; and not many years hence they shall not be left to pollute mine heritage, and to blaspheme my name upon the lands which I have consecrated for the gathering together of my saints.

16. Behold, I have commanded my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., to say unto the strength of my house, even my warriors, my young men, and middle-aged, to gather together for the redemption of my people, and throw down the towers of mine enemies, and scatter their watchmen;

17. But the strength of mine house have not hearkened unto my words.

18. But inasmuch as there are those who have hearkened unto my words, I have prepared a blessing and an endowment for them, if they continue faithful.

And that promise is still to us, brothers and sisters.

19. I have heard their prayers, and will accept their offering; and it is expedient in me that they should be brought thus far for a trial of their faith.

I feel, brothers and sisters, that we are having a trial of our faith. Zion will not be redeemed until God has a faithful people. By the power of our faith, brothers and sisters, are we going to lay hold upon these great blessings of the House of God in the final preparations that are going to be necessary to be made. Zion cannot be redeemed except upon the Celestial Law. Zion will not be redeemed except God has a people who are one. "If ye are not one ye are not Mine," He says. We cannot be one except we rally around the head, God's mouthpiece to us, to go forward in fulfillment of these great promises that have been made to us. I am satisfied we are going to have to suffer great trials and tribulations to bring us down in humility. We are altogether too arrogant and high-minded as a people, too self-satisfied, and not full of faith.
I pray God to bless us with the gift of faith, which cannot come except through obedience to all of the laws of God, and that we will walk by every word that proceedeth forth from His mouth by His servants, and go on to the redemption of this great city, which is to stand through the Millennium. We have had great promises, and I pray that we will be able to live for them and abide in them through our faith and our faithfulness unto the end, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Priesthood; Redemption of Zion;
Economic Order of Heaven; Charity

I appreciate the presence of President Johnson, my brethren. Sorry Brother Hammon cannot be here to give a message. I am grateful to be here with you, my friends. You are my neighbors whom I love, as you love the Lord and seek to keep His commandments. And I pray for the Spirit of God to direct my remarks today as the Lord would have me speak. I certainly endorse the remarks with all my heart, that the President has given us here today, and those of President Jessop regarding authority and the holy Priesthood.

We as a people should be grateful above all the Latter-day Saints, or those who call themselves saints, that the Lord has called us out and enabled us to hold fast to the doctrines and the laws and the holy Priesthood, which was vouchsafed to us by the Prophet Joseph Smith; and that we have the pure and unadulterated religion that was revealed to him. Sad to say, however, not all of our people are faithful to these things, and there is much to be done by us as a people if we are to be that people which is to be the nucleus of the great Millennium in abiding all of the laws of our God. We are told that those who will inherit the Celestial Kingdom will be they who overcome by faith and live all of the commandments. And we have been told by holy writ and by our President that if we are guilty of one, we are guilty of the whole. There is no law, no commandment that can be left unfulfilled in our lives if we are to inherit Celestial glory.

I just feel impressed to bring to our minds something, my brothers and sisters, regarding Priesthood, which was opened up by Brother Jessop. I think it is well to be reminded, brothers and sisters, about what we are dealing with. And what I have to say here, I am speaking about from the standpoint of pure naked principle, that which has been delivered to us by the Prophet Joseph Smith and his successors in the holy Priesthood.

John Taylor Millennial Star 9:321

What is Priesthood? Without circumlocution, I shall as briefly answer that it is the government of God, whether on the earth or in the heavens, for it is by that power, agency, or principle that all things are governed on the earth and in the heavens, and by that power that all things are upheld and sustained. It governs all things -- it directs all things -- it sustains all things -- and has to do with all things that God and truth are associated with. It is the power of God delegated to intelligences in the heavens and to men on the earth;

JD 2:139 Brigham Young December 3, 1854 SLC

When we talk of the celestial law which is revealed from heaven, that is, the Priesthood, we are talking about the principle of salvation, a perfect system of government, of laws and ordinances, by which we can be prepared to pass from one gate to another, and from one sentinel to another, until we go into the presence of our Father and God. This law has not always been upon the earth; and in its absence, other laws have been given to the children of men for their improvement, for their education, for their government, and to prove what they would do when left to control themselves; and what we now call tradition has grown out of those circumstances.

JD 11:249 Brigham Young June 17, 1866 SLC

The Priesthood of God in its operations comprises the Kingdom of God. Here then, brothers and sisters, is the Kingdom of God. Do we realize it? And as indicated before, if this people will set to with their might, mind, and strength to become like God, obeying every commandment, every law of the Gospel, every law and doctrine of the holy Priesthood, they will be that nucleus of the great Millennium; being able to redeem Zion with Jesus Christ going before on that great journey to the promised land, or Zion, when that great city shall be built; before which every inhabitant of that state shall be removed. And so righteous will that people have to be that Jesus Christ in their presence will lead that great concourse, and the angels; and the trees will clap together, and all nature acknowledge the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ, and that great work commenced in building up Zion, that great temple there. The Ten Tribes will come, the remnant of Jacob gather together, and all Israel gather together in that great city.

This great preparatory work is the work of Ephraim, brothers and sisters, to whom rightly belongs the Priesthood. I think one of the most beautiful pictures I have had drawn regarding this is given to us in Section 133 of the Doctrine and Covenants.

D.& C. 133

25. And the Lord, even the Savior, shall stand in the midst of his people, and shall reign over all flesh.
26. And they who are in the north countries shall come in remembrance before the Lord; and their prophets shall hear his voice, and shall no longer stay themselves; and they shall smite the rocks, and the ice shall flow down at their presence.
27. And an highway shall be cast up in the midst of the great deep.
28. Their enemies shall become a prey unto them,
29. And in the barren deserts there shall come forth pools of living water; and the parched ground shall no longer be a thirsty land.
30. And they shall bring forth their rich treasures unto the children of Ephraim, my servants.
31. And the boundaries of the everlasting hills shall tremble at their presence.
32. And there shall they fall down and be crowned with glory, even in Zion, by the hands of the servants of the Lord, even the children of Ephraim.
33. And they shall be filled with songs of everlasting joy.
34. Behold, this is the blessing of the everlasting God upon the tribes of Israel, and the richer blessing upon the head of Ephraim and his fellows.
35. And they also of the tribe of Judah, after their pain, shall be sanctified in holiness before the Lord, to dwell in his presence day and night, forever and ever.
36. And now, verily saith the Lord, that these things might be known among you, O inhabitants of the earth, I have sent forth mine angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel, who hath appeared unto some and hath committed it unto man, who shall appear unto many that dwell on the earth.

These are the great blessings and promises that are ours, brothers and sisters. And here is Ephraim, presided over by a great Apostle of God. This indicates that the Ten Tribes will come after Zion has been established. The Lord is going to have a prepared people, and they are going to have to build Zion on the principles of the Celestial Law. Brigham Young has declared, and I am sure all of the other Priesthood fathers, that the fullness of the Gospel is the law of Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order. These grand laws and orders, brothers and sisters, circumscribe all of the others -- yes, including the holy endowments, for which we are required to prepare by the living and the abiding of these laws. You tell me any law that is required that is not circumscribed in this law of Celestial Marriage, which is controlled and directed under the holy Apostleship, the Presidency of the High Priesthood. The law of oneness is here circumscribed, without which we cannot be His, the Lord's.

What do you suppose we are going to do with you?
Says Heber C. Kimball.

Are you ever going to be prepared to see God, Jesus Christ, His angels, or comprehend His servants, unless you take a faithful and prayerful course? Did you actually know Joseph Smith?
He was speaking to those who had an opportunity to know.

Do you know brother Brigham? No. Do you know brother Heber? No, you do not. Do you know the Twelve? You do not, if you did, you would begin to know God, and learn that those men who are chosen to direct and counsel you are near kindred to God and to Jesus Christ, for the keys, power, and authority of the kingdom of God are in that lineage.
I speak of these things with a view to arouse your feelings and your faithfulness towards God the Father, and His Son Jesus Christ, that you may pray and be humble, and penitent.

I speak thus to show you the order of the Priesthood.
Says Brigham Young.
We will now commence with the Apostleship, where Joseph commenced.
Joseph was ordained an Apostle -- that you can read and understand. After he was ordained to this office, then he had the right to organize and build up the kingdom of God, for he had committed unto him the keys of the Priesthood, which is after the order of Melchisedec -- the High Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God. And this, remember, by being ordained an Apostle.

Could he have built up the Kingdom of God, without first being an Apostle? No, he never could. The keys of the eternal Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God, are comprehended by being an Apostle. All the Priesthood, all the keys, all the gifts, all the endowments, and everything preparatory to entering into the presence of the Father and of the Son, are in, composed of, circumscribed by, or I might say incorporated within the circumference of, the Apostleship.

And this, my brothers and sisters, is why I bring these things to your attention, that we will be grateful, that we are not left in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, which has apostatized from every law and ordinance and principle of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; because they have turned against and denied and done away with the highest law of all, which circumscribes them all, as I said -- the holy law of Celestial Marriage and the United Order.

Now brothers and sisters, we need to get down to first principles and learn to be one. This is the first and great commandment, to love one another; and above that, to love our God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength and to follow the counsels that He gives through His servants. Our President is calling upon us, my brethren and sisters, to live fully in the spirit of the United Order. We are called upon to live it in our families first, and then God willing, the people can live it as a community.

Brigham Young said that this would probably be the last law we would be able to fully live, and we would be driven into it by our being starved into it. We are being tried by wealth, brothers and sisters, make no mistake about it. And it is taking a heavy toll -- many times, many situations, unaware by those that it is taking. It has been the history of the people of God in all ages, that when they became prosperous they began to forget the Lord and His servants and His laws and ways.

Now we should be living the Economic Law of Heaven in our families and as a people. We can live the spirit of the United Order, brothers and sisters. We do not have to be, as it were, in one community and place to be living in this true spirit of the United Order. That is desirable, and that is why the Lord called the saints to go back to Zion in 1831, to try to abide in that law preparatory to receiving this higher law, which they eventually received in Nauvoo. But until we begin to live these basic laws, brothers and sisters, I do not think the Lord is going to give us these blessings and endowments that we so greatly need. And this calls for us to abide in the spirit of the United Order to the end that we limit our just wants and needs to our needs, and to turn in to the Priesthood, to the "reservoir" spoken of by Heber C. Kimball, all that we can, nothing less than a tithing. This is the least that the Lord will accept, and then we are told the law that was given when Joseph called upon the Lord and asked what He required as a tithing, if we want to talk about tithing as such. I wonder how many of us have read this law.

D.& C. 119

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord, I require all their surplus property to be put into the hands of the bishop of my church in Zion,
This was in 1838. Zion was where the saints were.

2. For the building of mine house, and for the laying of the foundation of Zion and for the priesthood, and for the debts of the Presidency of my Church.
Or Priesthood.

3. And this shall be the beginning of the tithing of my people.
The beginning, all of the surplus.

4. And after that, those who have thus been tithed shall pay one-tenth of all their interest annually; and this shall be a standing law unto them forever, for my holy priesthood, saith the Lord.

5. Verily I say unto you, it shall come to pass that all those who gather unto the land of Zion shall be tithed of their surplus properties, and shall observe this law, or they shall not be found worthy to abide among you.

6. And I say unto you, if my people observe not this law, to keep it holy, and by this law sanctify the land of Zion unto me, Sanctify the land on which we dwell, brothers and sisters.

6. ...that my statutes and my judgments may be kept thereon, that it may be most holy, behold, verily I say unto you, it shall not be a land of Zion.
unto you.

7. And this shall be an ensample unto all the stakes of Zion. Even so.
Amen.

President Johnson requires that we now truly live this law, never less than a tithe, and all of our surplus should be separately turned in. And we should, as I say, be limiting our affairs to just our needs and just wants. We will not be having anymore a wheat fund or any other fund. This all belongs to the surplus properties of the Priesthood and should be so turned in. Likewise, President Johnson has called for us to cease the operation of the mortuary fund. We have been gathering together a wheat fund here. You have seen some bins being built here; that has come out of that fund. The balance, after that is taken care of, will be turned over to the surplus fund of the Priesthood, to President Johnson. So you may know how the wheat fund has been spent; it has been carefully taken care of and it is now going to be handled in this fashion, so that anything that we may be setting aside, let it be for a surplus.

Let us get down to fundamentals in the living of the Economic Law of Heaven, which will enable us also to live and abide in the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. We have had some of these things probably for helps and so forth, but I rejoice for one, in our being called upon now to get down to these fundamentals, the basic laws that we are called upon to live and abide.

Let us labor together and prepare against the judgments -- for they are verily at our doors, brothers and sisters -- that we may obtain and be worthy of the protecting care of our Father when they come. Let us make our ground holy upon which we dwell. Let us make our homes temples, sanctify them by the holy lives that we live and abide. We are going to one day have to stay within the compound, more or less, when these overflowing scourges and judgments come upon us.

Now, is our course of life going to be such that God will be pleased to bring down fire from heaven to protect us from the enemies and the mobs and the drivings that are going to take place? Have we laid up in store, in our character, that which will enable our Father to so bless us? He will provide. It is up to us to put aside all that we can; but I am sure the Lord will provide if we are capable of being blessed by knowing that our course is pleasing to Him, and we have been overcoming by faith, becoming like God.
We will have His presence no sooner than we are able to be like Him. This is the fundamental law of the Gospel and of the holy Priesthood. All of these laws must be abided or we cannot see Him. Now I do not feel like saying anymore, but pray God to bless each and every one of us in our families and in all of our individual pursuits, and be very sure that we are walking in the way that God would have us walk, walking in meekness and lowliness of heart, and being filled with love or charity. And may I again close by pointing out to us how the Lord and the Prophets of God have required us to abide in these things.

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, After having spoken beautifully upon them,
43. ...save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

These are the means by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, by which we may live in oneness together in the pure love of Christ.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

And let me point out, it takes faith to acquire this.

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, Faith, the exercise of the mind through words. Let us learn to pray perfectly, that our prayers will be answered through knowing that our course is pleasing to Him, acting according to these principles.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; Those who have overcome by faith; true followers of the holy Priesthood, the Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, our Lord Jesus Christ.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God;
The daughters of God,

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

God bless you, amen.

How to Live in Zion; Must Be Anxiously Engaged

I am very grateful to be here today, brothers and sisters, and mingle my voice with my brethren in praise to the Lord for His blessings to us and to this people. I appreciate the beautiful principles that have been outlined to us in the splendid remarks of President Jessop. Strange -- I had a good deal the same things on my mind, and I just feel like preaching a sermon from the word of the Lord.

Section 59 of the Doctrine and Covenants is a beautiful sermon and covers much of the ground that has been given us so far. This is a revelation given through the Prophet to the saints as they were gathering in the land of Zion, which had only then been designated as the center place, the City of Zion, which was to be redeemed by the faith and the purification of the lives of the saints. The only way that a land can be sanctified, brethren and sisters, is for the saints, those who dwell upon it to sanctify it with their lives, and that is how Zion is to be redeemed. Because it was not redeemed in the first instance, the Lord has found it necessary to cleanse the land, which it will be. There will not be so much as a yellow dog to wag its tail in the land of Missouri, and that redemption will come with great power. But here is how the Lord required the saints to live upon the land of Zion:

D. & C. 59
1. Behold, blessed, saith the Lord, are they who have come up unto this land with an eye single to my glory, according to my commandments.

2. For those that live shall inherit the earth, and those that die shall rest from all their labors, and their works shall follow them; and they shall receive a crown in the mansions of my Father, which I have prepared for them.

3. Yea, blessed are they whose feet stand upon the land of Zion, who have obeyed my gospel; "Blessed are they," then, "that have obeyed My Gospel who stand upon the land of Zion."

   ...for they shall receive for their reward the good things of the earth, and it shall bring forth in its strength.

4. And they shall also be crowned with blessings from above, yea, and with commandments not a few, and with revelations in their time -- they that are faithful and diligent before me.

   What a wonderful thing, brothers and sisters. We have the revelations of heaven, the holy Priesthood in its fullness upon the earth, to guide and direct the saints of God in the living of their most holy religion. This we should be thankful for, and the Lord points some of these things out later.

5. Wherefore, I give unto them a commandment, saying thus: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, mind, and strength; and in the name of Jesus Christ thou shalt serve him.

6. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

   These are the first two and the greatest commandments, which if we do, we will keep all the rest, abiding by every word of God. But the Lord goes on to enumerate the things that we should and should not do.

6. ...Thou shalt not steal; neither commit adultery, nor kill, nor do anything like unto it.

7. Thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things.

8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit.

   There is the true law of sacrifice, brothers and sisters, with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, loving our neighbor as ourselves, and our God first. We will give up all that is worldly in us and our feelings and our traditions, everything that is contrary to the Spirit of God; and thus we will become like Him. Then this glorious blessing of this holy Sabbath:

9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;

Do we do this, brothers and sisters, on the day that we do not have a meeting? Our homes should be our temples and a house of God, and there we should keep the Sabbath on the days that we do not come here. We are only here for a few hours. Do we keep the remainder of that day holy?

10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High.
11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;

He covers the whole ground.

12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord.
13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.

14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.

Rejoicing in the blessings of God, with a broken heart and a contrite spirit.

15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin,

Loud laughter is a sin.

15. ...but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --

16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fullness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;
17. Yea, and the herb, and the good things which come of the earth, whether for food or for raiment, or for houses, or for barns, or for orchards, or for gardens, or for vineyards;

18. Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart;
19.  Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.
20.  And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.

Now note this wonderful principle:
21.  And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

There is the key, that last statement.

22.  Behold, this is according to the law and the prophets; wherefore, trouble me no more concerning this matter.
23.  But learn that he who doeth the works of righteousness shall receive his reward, even peace in this world, and eternal life in the world to come.
24.  I, the Lord, have spoken it, and the Spirit beareth record.  Amen.

As I read this, I am reminded of the other scripture that says, "All things shall work together for good to them that love God."  If we truly love God and our neighbor as ourselves, it mattereth not what may come by trial, by suffering or anything else.  "Know this," the Lord told the Prophet Joseph, as we have it in Section 122, "all of these things are for your good."  It is right and proper that we must suffer, and we are all, sooner or later, going to have to go through things similar, in our capacity to what Joseph and our Lord Jesus Christ were required to suffer, in contradictions and in sufferings and in trials; for the Lord has said He would try us in our weakest spots to see if we would keep His commandments and do all things whatsoever He gives unto us.

So brothers and sisters, if we are enjoying the full companionship of the Holy Spirit, we will have this beautiful thing that is mentioned here -- peace and joy, light and life.  Brothers and sisters, we are very often guilty of the great sin of ingratitude.  Let us hearken to these words.  Let us be about our Father's business.  His business is that which requires that we be one.  If we are not one, we are not His.

In Section 4 of the Doctrine and Covenants, the Lord tells us of the grand principles by which we are called to the work, and by which we are qualified to do the work of the Lord. Among them is the grand principle of faith and diligence. Are we guilty of only doing that which is barely, barely required? The Lord loves those who are anxiously engaged in a good work.

D.& C. 58

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

If we are compelled in all things, there is no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

Those are strong words. We all know what the commandments are, and we should lovingly and willingly and diligently seek to keep them, and not have to be compelled in all things. The Lord has chosen us to be His chosen ones, those who do their work in this fashion. I have always noticed this -- those who go the extra mile, give the other cloak, those who give of their surplus and not give a mere tithe, the Lord recognizes these works of diligence and the honest soul.

God bless us, my dear brothers and sisters, that we may indeed be about our Father's business. We all know what it is. We have been given it from year to year now, and I am afraid the time is growing very much shorter than we suspect, for the Lord to choose His little ones, those who do their work in this fashion. I have always noticed this -- those who go the extra mile, give the other cloak, those who give of their surplus and not give a mere tithe, the Lord recognizes these works of diligence and the honest soul.

God bless us, my dear brothers and sisters, that we may indeed be about our Father's business. We all know what it is. We have been given it from year to year now, and I am afraid the time is growing very much shorter than we suspect, for the Lord to choose His little ones, those who will do His work of redemption and bring to pass that great work of righteousness that will make up a people, the nucleus of the great Millennium. There is going to be a day of dividing and choosing, brothers and sisters. God bless us that we may be one, in our families and as a people, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:164  October 7, 1973  CCA

Colorado City, Arizona
I delight in being with you again, my brothers and sisters, and partake of the spirit of this occasion, and rejoice in the truths that have been spoken here today. I rejoice in the testimony I have of the truthfulness of this work, the divinity of the holy Priesthood which leads us, and for the life and labors of President Johnson, our President and Prophet; and in the association I have with my brethren of the Council, whom I dearly love and rejoice in serving God with them.

I have had some wonderful times in association with my brethren. Brother Alvin's account of what occurred at the Woolsey Ranch brought some tender memories to my mind. On the occasion of a visit, Brother Joseph took me and Brother Guy, as I recall, on a visit to the Woolsey Ranch while the brethren were out there -- Brother Barlow and Brother Johnson.

One of the sweetest experiences I have had was in seeing, lying in a pasteboard box for a crib, the newborn child of Sister Sarah Johnson. The beautiful remarks of President Musser on that occasion have never left me. How sweet and humble the lives of these brethren, and how grateful I am for the experiences I have had with them. The Spirit of God that was in that home was most refreshing and enlightening to me. And I know that all things are possible to our Father, for I have had some very rich experiences in my family.

I feel impressed to recount an experience that occurred with my family in Sacramento, in December of 1955, where I had five of my families in hiding. I know the power of God and of His Spirit, because I experienced it on several occasions there. I had a call from Sacramento regarding my wife Merilyn, who was with child, some six and a half months along, who had started in heavy labor. She was in heavy labor and hemorrhaging. I told her she could have it either way -- go to the hospital and take care of it, or wait until I could get there -- and I boarded the first plane and went over.

It was a matter, now, of relying entirely upon the Lord, and He blessed us. Had anything occurred to that woman and that child, we would have had to answer to the legal authorities in that area. But I placed my faith in God, and so did everyone of my family that were there, and I proceeded to deliver the child myself. She just could not deliver, and she got so tired she could not go another pain. She said, "If I can but sleep an hour, I think I can see it through." And she went to sleep immediately, and we all went into the living room and knelt and prayed. And when she awoke, I went into the bedroom again, and the Lord told me what to do. And we had the help of John Y. Barlow and my father, who were in that room. That child was delivered, and the mother survived; and so has that child, a wonderful son. We had for an incubator, a pasteboard box with an electric light under and over it, to see that child through that critical period with the blessings of God.

So I know, brothers and sisters, the power of faith and the blessings of God, and I appreciate again the blessings that God has bestowed upon me and mine. I am grateful for all of them. I am grateful for my love and association with my brethren, and with you, my beloved brothers and sisters, in this Kingdom of God, for this constitutes the Kingdom of God at the present. I know it, and I pray daily, with Brother Johnson and my brethren, for this people, that they will go forth now in the power of faith and the love of God to fill all of our destinies, the things that we were sent forth to do.

I appreciate, dear brothers and sisters, the labors of those who are trying to serve God and keep His commandments and to love Him with all their hearts, their might, mind, and strength, and their neighbors as themselves. Oh, how we need this last one. The Prophet John said, "How can you say you love God whom you have not seen, when you do not love your brother whom you do see?" That is the epitome of hypocrisy. And those two great laws are so tied together, they cannot be separated. "If you love Me," said the Savior, "keep My commandments. Show Me your faith by your works, and keep the commandments." This verse 21 of Section 59 that was read by Brother Lee -- "With none is God displeased except those who acknowledge not His hand in all things and keepeth not His commandments," -- that is the great touchstone. We need to be more humble, brothers and sisters.

The Lord told, on several occasions of the brethren gathering together in Joseph Smith's day, that they were not yet sufficiently humble to receive the blessings He desired to give them. And I know this people is not sufficiently humble. We are too prosperous, and we are experiencing probably some of the things that the saints of the Book of Mormon days did, one time after another. They were humbled by being stripped and driven, and they dedicated themselves to the Lord to keep His commandments, and were blessed with blessings not a few; and then became prosperous, self-sufficient, and lacking in faith, till the Lord had to destroy them again. We have the promise now, in this dispensation, that this work will not be taken from the earth or given to another people.

I know that there are enough people in the midst of this people that the Lord will see through to accomplish His purposes. But individually, where do we stand, brothers and sisters? Are we going to see the work of God pass us by in its great destiny and fruition, or are we going to go with it? I remember the great humility of President John Y. Barlow, who, on many occasions -- God bless his memory -- said, "If there is anything in my life that stands in the way of this Kingdom and its progress, I pray God to remove me." That great man saying that, how more ought we?

In humility, brothers and sisters, there is strength. The great and glorious example of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, is all we need. And we have had Prophets in our midst and in former days of this dispensation who have followed in His footsteps. We are not without examples and teachings. But look upon the life of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who submitted Himself fully to the will of His Father, and in all things sought His Father, until He became like Him. And even He had to learn obedience by the things which He suffered. He had to go down below all things, that He might rise above them, humbled. He had not a place to lay His head, born in a manger in the lowliest of conditions, and buried in a borrowed tomb, and stripped and beaten as He bore the cross upon which He was to hang, at the hands of His traducers. Humility, brothers and sisters -- there we have it.

In the life of Joseph, he submitted himself to his enemies, and even his friends called upon him to go back across the river when he was headed out west to try and save his life for the sake of the saints, and then submitted himself to give his life for the saints, as we have it in the beautiful words of "The Seer" by our beloved President John Taylor. I feel like reading the words of that song. There were none closer to the Prophet than John Taylor, who once said, "I did not know who Joseph really was until that night in Carthage." And he was a witness and a testator for Joseph. All praise to his name, for he died a double martyr, going from house to house of his friends to avoid his enemies who would have destroyed him. And he was able, thus, to finish his work, the greatest part of which was in hiding.
The Seer

1.  The Seer, the Seer, Joseph, the Seer!
   I'll sing of the Prophet ever dear;
   His equal now cannot be found
   By searching the wide world around.
   With Gods he soared in the realms of day,
   And men he taught the heavenly way.
   The earthly Seer! the heavenly Seer!
   I love to dwell on his memory dear;
   The chosen of God and the friend of man,
   He brought the Priesthood back again;
   He gazed on the past and the future, too,
   And opened the heavenly world to view.
2.  Of noble seed, of heavenly birth,
   He came to bless the sons of earth;
   With keys by the Almighty given,
   He opened the full rich stores of heaven;
   O'er the world that was wrapped in sable night,
   Like the sun he spread his golden light.
   He strove, O how he stove to stay
   The stream of crime in its reckless way!
   With a mighty hand and a noble aim,
   He urged the wayward to reclaim:
   'Mid foaming billows of angry strife,
   He stood at the helm of the ship of life.
3.  The Saints, the Saints, his only pride!
   For them he lived, for them he died;
   Their joys were his, their sorrows too.
   He loved the Saints; he loved Nauvoo.
   Unchanged in death, with a Savior's love,
   He pleads their cause in the courts above.
   The Seer, the Seer! Joseph, the Seer!
   O how I love his memory dear!
   The just and wise, the pure and free,
   A father he was and is to me.
   Let fiends now rage, in their dark hour --
   No matter, he is beyond their power.
4. He's free! he's free! the Prophet's free!
He is were he will ever be,
Beyond the reach of mobs and strife,
He rests un-harmed in endless life.
His home's in the sky; he dwells with the Gods
Far from the furious rage of mobs.
He died, he died for those he loved.
He reigns; he reigns in the realms above.
He waits with the just who have gone before
To welcome the Saints to Zion's shore.
Shout, shout, ye Saints! this boon is given;
We'll meet him, our martyred Seer, in heaven.

I trust and pray, my brothers and sisters, that we will meet him here as the One Mighty and Strong, and be found worthy before that to be instructed by our fathers in the Priesthood. How grateful I am for them, for their great valiant courage, and their love of truth, and the example that they have set. My only worry is that I may be found worthy to mingle with them and my beloved Prophet Joseph, and finally in the presence of my Lord Jesus Christ and my beloved Father in heaven.

God help us, brothers and sisters, to become like Him, our Father, to live our religion and follow the counsels of our beloved President and Prophet and his co-laborers in the Council. We love this people, Leroy S. Johnson loves this people, John Y. Barlow, and Lorin Woolley, and John W. Woolley, and John Taylor. God bless their memories and sanctify them to our good, and help us to follow in their footsteps, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Celestial Marriage Includes All the Laws of the Gospel; Expressions of Gratitude; We Lack Humility and Faith

I pray the Lord will make me an instrument for good here today through His Spirit, and that all things may be said and done according to His will. I am grateful for my many blessings which I feel to acknowledge before you and the Lord, for I have been blessed many-fold. I am grateful for my love and association with my brethren, whom I indeed love and desire to serve. I love this people. I love my family and desire only their salvation and exaltation, and yours. If I cannot be with these, my brethren over there, that would be a terrible thing, in my view.

It has been a wonderful experience that I have had since I came into this work, since the day that my father made me acquainted with it through giving me a Truth Magazine copy, and it was like manna from heaven. Ever since then it has been my very life. I want to testify to you, my brothers and sisters, that this is the work of God, that the keys of the holy Priesthood are here in our midst and Leroy S. Johnson is the keyholder. My dear brothers and sisters, I wonder how much we appreciate the light and the blessings that are ours, which God has showered upon us, the light that has come from the Priesthood. Are we abiding in the light? There is the great touchstone. It is one thing to be called up, but it is another thing to abide and obey and to keep the law, and to be found faithful and true when the time shall come to pass through the veil.

I have often thought about how some have felt that this Priesthood had nothing, in saying that they had nothing more to do than to keep the principle of Celestial Marriage alive. They know not what they speak of. Such have said that this Priesthood has no right or authority to receive tithing and offerings. Why, bless your souls, brothers and sisters, the holy law of Celestial Marriage is the crowning principle, and that is why God has set up a special dispensation for it, to see that it was kept alive. It encompasses all. Under the holy Apostleship it encompasses all of the laws of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and it belongs to the holy Priesthood. The Lord told John Taylor that only the Priesthood had the right and authority to administer this holy law. And those who seek to circumvent it will reap nothing but sorrow. John Taylor was used as an instrument, under Joseph and the Lord Jesus Christ, to open this special dispensation. I cannot thank the Lord enough that we have it, and that the Priesthood has carried on from that day until this with those keys and the powers and the blessings that God has in store for the faithful.

I am grateful to my Father Michael, my Lord Jesus Christ, and my Prophet, Joseph Smith, and my Priesthood fathers who have succeeded him, that they have been faithful and true in bringing forth in this last dispensation of the fullness of times all of these holy laws, which will save and exalt us in the presence of God.

I am grateful for my father, for his great faith, and that he has brought this great work and message to me and to mine. I feel to honor and bless his name throughout all the ages of time and eternity because he was faithful and true, and loved the truth with all his heart. He loved God with all his heart, might, mind, and strength, and sought to serve Him. He made great sacrifices, along with my mother and my other mothers, for a continuation of the blessings that have come down to me. I just simply feel a spirit of gratitude, brothers and sisters, and just felt like bearing this testimony to you today. With all my heart I desire to serve God and to keep His commandments, to be with my brethren and to save and exalt my family, and to do my part in preparing a people for the redemption of Zion and the setting in order of the House of God.

God bless us all that we may be more humble, brothers and sisters. I think this is where we lack. We are not sufficiently humble, as the Lord told many of the groups of the saints and the brethren in the early days, through the Prophet Joseph. We are not sufficiently humble today in acknowledging the hand of God and keeping His commandments, for the Lord has said that only with those who do not acknowledge His hand in all things and keep His commandments is He displeased. Let us learn then, my dear brothers and sisters, to please God. Make the necessary sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and get rid of this pride.

I am afraid we are too prosperous, brothers and sisters. The brethren have said on many occasions, "We are going to have to be starved into the United Order." But we can live it, brothers and sisters, without having the whole community live it. We can live it in our families, in every possible way. And then in concert with the brethren, we can make our offerings, doing all in our power to build up the Kingdom of God and establish His Priesthood in the earth. All we lack, brothers and sisters, is faith. We lack faith.

I was just reading a scripture this morning in which the Lord, responding to the prayers of the saints at a conference in Fayette, prior to their moving to Kirtland, and He said that He had granted this revelation and the instructions and blessings that He offered them in response to their prayers. What are we praying for? What is the nature of our faith? We are not going to be able to go one step further until we have received advanced information and like concerning the holy temple work. Are we praying to God day and night?
And are we ordering our lives so that our prayers can be heard? We are not going to receive these greater blessings unless we pray and have faith. In all cases, the saints' blessings have come because of their faith, through their prayers. And it is going to have to be the same for us.

The only way that God is going to be pleased with us is that we make all necessary sacrifices -- first of all, a broken heart and a contrite spirit. Get rid of all of the earthly things and conditions and characteristics that are in us, the worldly traditions of our fathers -- and settle down to perfect obedience; and through that means we will come up to see the face of God, and no other way.

God bless us to be faithful and true through every trial, for I promise you in the name of the Lord, they are coming, thick and fast. And who will abide the day? We can see it all around us. The fig leaves herald the time of summer and we see every sign of these things. I would urge you to read Section 45 of the Doctrine and Covenants, to be forewarned of the things that are coming. President Johnson has called upon us continuously to be prepared. I pray that we may be, and be one people in the hands of God through His Priesthood, to set in order the House of God and go upon call to redeem Zion. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Not Sufficiently Humble;
Criticism; Beware of Pride

I pray God to make of me an instrument for good on this occasion, that we may continue in the spirit in which we have been spoken to here today. I appreciate these beautiful instructions that President Timpson has given us and the other brethren.

I am reminded of these grand truths in the words of Joseph, which I would like to take for a text as the Lord helps me.

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death. Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all kinds of characters and classes of men.

Said the Prophet:

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people.

I am going to go to some other words of the Prophet and then come back.

There are three independent principles; the Spirit of God, the spirit of man, and the spirit of the devil. All men have power to resist the devil.

President Musser has reminded us so many times that we, as saints, having come to a knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and received the blessings of the holy Priesthood, having been baptized and had hands laid on us for the gift of the Holy Ghost, forever leave neutral territory. From then on we are actuated by the Holy Spirit, or by the spirit of the devil; no more on neutral ground. And so with propriety the Prophet says:

...if we are not drawing towards God in principle,

With the Holy Spirit upon us, in us, through us,

...we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil.

And in his great humility:

Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

This is upon all of us. We are not sufficiently humble, brothers and sisters. We do not approach God with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, which is the spirit of repentance. We do not have sufficient faith, or we would have far, far grander and greater blessings than we now enjoy. I dare say most of us can be accused of spiritual laziness. The Prophet tells us that the power of faith comes through the exercise of the mind through words. The Lord has promised us so many times and in so many places that according to our desires, or in other words, according to our faith, so shall it be. Can we not see the power in those promises, this power of faith that Joseph spoke so grandly about in the Lectures? Faith or power. Until we have power with God, through faith, we cannot realize these blessings.

In describing the principle of faith, one of the attributes of God, and by which He accomplishes all things through the Priesthood, he speaks of it as a principle of power and of action. There is no other power with God except by faith. We cannot have power with God except we come to know, not merely believe, that we please God, that our course is pleasing to God. There is where our faith is lacking -- first, through spiritual laziness, failure to exercise our minds, failure to carry out through action, failure to call upon God with faith in our prayers to give us the strength and the power to lay hold on eternal life.

There has been vouchsafed to this people through the Lord Jesus Christ, Joseph Smith, and President John Taylor in 1886, the glorious principle of Celestial Marriage, which was enjoined upon those brethren who were set apart and ordained to keep alive. It is the very nucleus and the crowning principle of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This is our great gift and blessing that God has offered us -- the power of the Priesthood to seal us up in this glorious principle, the Family Order of Heaven, to enable us to abide all the other laws of the Gospel and of the holy Priesthood through this principle.

It is one thing to enter into it, but a far, far different thing to abide it. Brigham Young said on so many occasions, it would damn more people than it would save. I hope this is not going to be true of this people, to be offered great and glorious blessings and then not abide them. The Lord spews such out of His mouth, being lukewarm. Are we merely lukewarm, brethren and sisters? Or do we have fire and the Holy Ghost and the power of faith in our bosoms, in our minds, to live according to the Spirit of God, and have it and keep it in our bosoms all the time, every waking moment; that we might give glory to God and raise up children unto Him to become the Kingdom of God and the nucleus of the great Millennium; to redeem Zion and to go forth as His people as one?

If ye are not one ye are not mine. Now, brothers and sisters, why are we not one? I will let the Lord answer. We have been called, brothers and sisters. We have been called to live and abide this holy principle under the power and direction of the holy Priesthood and the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost.

36. ...the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.

37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, Think of these things, brethren, as bearing the Priesthood over your families.

37. ...exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.

38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the Saints, and to fight against God.

39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death;

What is keeping us from abiding this holy law? I dare say the one abiding sin is the spirit of criticism of one another, and very often of the holy Priesthood. The spirit of criticism is the most killing and damning thing that the devil employs when he acts upon our spirits as we open up the way for him to do so.

Brother Johnson has spoken of this thing so many times, and I am afraid that we still continue in this vein. We must live together in this holy principle, loving it with all our hearts; loving this principle of Celestial and Plural Marriage, not merely tolerating it as so many do. Show me your love for this principle and I will show you how well you abide it. We ought to so love it in our gratitude to God for having vouchsafed it to us that we would not offend Him and His Spirit in the least degree whatsoever.

We are called upon to love God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength. Then let us love His laws and principles -- that is how we show our love -- and love one another as we love ourselves. As John the Beloved said: "How can you say you love God whom you cannot see, when you do not love your brother or your sister whom you can see?"

May I give us a key in our relations to one another, in our speaking evil of one another, or criticizing one another. Let it pass these three tests:
1. Is it true?
2. Is it kind?
3. Is it necessary?

Evil speaking and faultfinding and the sowing of discord are among the things that God hates. They are contrary to the Spirit of God. When we do them we lose the Spirit of God and we cannot continue. It is these daily little things that destroy our confidence and our faith and our ability to abide this holy law. We should so love God and His Priesthood and His glorious principles that every day we live perfect enough to keep the Spirit of God as our constant companion. And do this:

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

The doctrine of the Priesthood is Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order, and the spirit in which it should be lived and abided. Charity, faith, hope, and the pure love of Christ will distill upon us.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

I would like to read briefly some instructions that Joseph gave to the Twelve, indication to them how they should live and love and serve in their holy Apostleship.

Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy, and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance, and asking forgiveness; and should we even forgive our brother, or even our enemy, before he repent or ask forgiveness, our heavenly Father would be equally as merciful unto us.

How often the Lord told the saints in the revelations that we have -- if they will forgive one another, He will forgive them.

Again, let the Twelve and all Saints be willing to confess all their sins, and not keep back a part; and let the Twelve be humble, and not be exalted, and beware of pride, and not seek to excel one above another, but act for each other's good,

The spirit of the United Order is to seek the interest of our neighbor, actively seek and work for the interest of our neighbor.

...but act for each other's good, and pray for one another, and honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name, and not backbite and devour our brother. Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world, when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us, and not be obliged to learn by sad experience everything we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen, of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exalt themselves, until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall, and go wallowing through the mud and mire and darkness, Judas-like, to the buffetings of Satan, as several of the quorum have done, or will they learn wisdom and be wise? O God! give them wisdom, and keep them humble, I pray.

God help us to be humble, contrite, and walk before Him in the spirit of sacrifice; and keep all the commandments, that we may walk blameless before Him; that we may indeed be chosen after we have become like Him; and be one in our families and set them in order, brethren. This is the great call that the Lord has given us by our Prophet. Let us go on unto perfection, and be one in the hands of the Priesthood under our Lord Jesus Christ, I humbly pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:179  November 18, 1973  Sandy
It is good to be with you again, brothers and sisters. It is always wonderful to meet with the saints and speak of the things of our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, and our Prophet Joseph Smith, in whose work we are engaged in the bonds of the holy Priesthood. I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, for I know not what the Lord would have me say. I do know that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God, that he is the third member of the Godhead acting in the office of the Holy Ghost, the Witness of the Father and of the Son. I love his memory. I thrill at the singing of the songs concerning him.

Do we realize, brothers and sisters, what the situation would be in the earth today if God our Father had not prepared this last great dispensation of the fullness of times, and prepared this great Prophet who stands next to our Lord Jesus Christ, in having done more for the salvation of man and the blessing of the children of God than any other man who came upon the earth, save our Lord Jesus Christ? And of course, in the beginning our Father suffered for us in coming down into this corporal world and taking upon Himself mortality that we might be, and that we might have joy in obedience to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, our Redeemer; who was provided in the great plan of salvation in the Meridian of time to come and bring about the great atonement for the original Fall, or sin which had to be, to atone for our sins if we would obey and follow Him; and thus become like Him, and become a joint heir with Him, with our Father.

I am grateful that God has provided in this last great dispensation, a dispensation within it, under and by and through John Taylor, Jesus Christ and Joseph having come to him in that great visit, and set up a special work and dispensation within this one, that His laws, His purposes would be perpetuated, and a people be prepared for the redemption of Zion and the coming in glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Do we realize, my brothers and sisters, how great blessings we enjoy, and how much we are indebted to the great faith and work that was performed by our Prophet Joseph Smith and the Priesthood fathers who followed after him in the same order of Priesthood and Apostleship? I would like to read the words of John Taylor concerning him in the great song called "The Seer". I am sure you have all read it, but I do not know of a man who was better able to talk of Joseph, with whom he was so intimately acquainted, having found out in that last night in Carthage Jail who he was.

I long to set my eyes upon that great and beloved man, the father of our Priesthood, for I know we cannot pass by him if we are to see the face of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our Father. And brothers and sisters, if any of you think you will pass by the men who have stood at the head of this Priesthood, if we ever expect to see the white locks of Father Adam, you are sadly mistaken. If we are ever introduced to the Lord Jesus Christ, having had our calling and election made sure, we are going to have to be introduced to Him, and to the Prophet by one who knows them; and that will be our Priesthood head during our day and time. Heber C. Kimball made a wonderful statement which I often reflect on. "Brothers and sisters," he said, "where did you come from if you did not come out of this Priesthood? How will you get the Holy Ghost except through us?" I do not know if it was the same occasion or another sermon, but I combine them for all the impact of their great meaning, as a truth for us to live by.

We see men come and go -- women, too -- in this great work. They come and demand and get blessings, sealings -- of course, baptism in the first place, Priesthood, and sealings -- and then go off and become a law to themselves. I wonder how, or by what means they think they are going to be exalted in the heavens when they surpass the very source of their blessings, the things by which they will have to lay hold on eternal life. If and when we are endowed, that is where we are going to get the necessary key words, signs, and tokens, and the blessings to enable us to pass by the guards, and to go through and meet those that we knew, and be introduced, finally, to the Lord Jesus Christ. It will be by this Priesthood, brothers and sisters. I cannot understand how anyone thinks they can get anywhere, to come in and then go thinking that they have all that they need. It calls, by the law of God, for us to stand by His anointed. This was the great virtue of Heber C. Kimball when in Far West, I think it was, while the Prophet Joseph Smith was in Liberty Jail suffering; and during which time he wrote what we now have as Section 121, 122, 123, some of the grandest scripture we have, and the Lord spoke to him as he was writing an epistle to his beloved saints who were suffering and being driven.

Heber C. Kimball had not seen his family for some time and they were languishing among the saints that were being driven. And he called upon the Lord in mighty prayer and was instructed by the Spirit to write, and he wrote a revelation of the Lord to him in which he was promised that if he would be faithful and true, all would be well, and his family taken care of. Then the Lord pronounced a great blessing upon him in which He said, "My son, thou hast been careful to follow the words of my servant Joseph, and your blessings are therefore sure." I wish I could read those words to you. But that is another great principle that comes to me very often as I go through life, and my following the words of the Lord's anointed and Prophet. This is what we should be thinking about, brothers and sisters -- receiving the counsel of the servants of God and following it.

Look how great blessings Heber C. Kimball subsequently obtained, the great test that he was given as he entered into the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, when the Lord told Joseph to tell Heber to bring his wife Vilate to be married to him; and after much prayer and suffering in his feelings, he came joyfully to the Prophet and offered Vilate to him. And Joseph, with tears streaming down his cheeks, said, "It is enough, Heber, the Lord has been pleased to see you meet this great test." Then he proceeded to seal her to Heber, his beloved wife to her husband for time and all eternity. And then it was required of him that he enter into it, and the great test he went through there again. He was obliged to keep from Vilate the information. Vilate, calling upon the Lord in great faith in her prayers, obtained a testimony of that glorious principle, and came and offered herself to bring to Heber at his side, Sister Sarah Noon.

Brigham and Heber were faithful and true at the side of the Prophet Joseph Smith, as was John Taylor, the double martyr; and how well he earned the great place which he has now, standing with the Prophet Joseph in the work in which we are engaged, at our head. Let us be grateful, therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, for the blessings of the Priesthood, that we have been sealed by that Priesthood in our family relationships, wives to husbands; and those children that are sent through that glorious relationship, having been reserved to come forth in this time to be raised up as calves in the stall, to become that faithful and true nucleus of the great Millennium; for such shall they be, if we will do our part in raising them up in light and truth.
Let us be grateful for one another, for our children, and above of all for the blessings and the association of the Priesthood which leads us, I pray, as we dedicate our lives to God, daily and hourly, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
It is good to be with you, my dear brothers and sisters. I delight in meeting with the saints and going over the good things of the Lord and praising Him and honoring Him for His many blessings unto us. I pray that His Spirit will direct my remarks today for the good and edification of you, my friends and all of us together. I am grateful for the light of the Gospel and the blessings of the holy Priesthood, for the leadership and Presidency of Leroy S. Johnson, and my associates in this great work and Priesthood. I am grateful for the blessings the Lord has given me in the family that He has placed around me.

Sometimes I think back, what may have happened in 1938-39, if I had not taken the course to follow my father into this work. My wife was Zola Brown, the daughter of Hugh B. Brown, the President of the Granite Stake of Zion, who had cut off Presidents Zitting and Broadbent, as I learned later. Rather paradoxical how we get into these relationships and what connections there may be. But I had considerable promises offered me when I was told I either had to quit this work or give up my wife and children. But I am grateful that I am here with you, my friends and co-laborers in the work of God under this order of the holy Priesthood, and that we are beneficiaries of that great special work and dispensation that was ushered in under the Presidency and direction of John Taylor.

When we realize, brothers and sisters, what our true blessings are, we should be most obedient and humble and submissive, like the clay in the potter's hand, as Heber C. Kimball so beautifully instructed the saints in his day. I would like to read a little about that for our good.

Elder Heber C. Kimball preached at the house of President Joseph Smith, on the parable in the 18th chapter of Jeremiah, of the clay in the hands of the potter, that when it marred in the hands of the potter it was cut off the wheel and then thrown back again into the mill, to go into the next batch, and was a vessel of dishonor; but all clay that formed well in the hands of the potter, and was pliable, was a vessel of honor; and thus it was with the human family, and ever will be: all that are pliable in the hands of God and are obedient to His commands, are vessels of honor, and God will receive them.

He further illustrated, on one occasion, how the blacksmith preparing steel to be used, if it had too much brittleness in it, it flew to pieces. When it became fully treated and heated and tried in the furnace, and was pliable in the hands of the blacksmith, it could be used and become likewise a vessel of honor. In other words, the steel became passive, which we must be in the hands of God.

This, of course, brings to mind the great fundamental principles that were promulgated by Joseph Smith and Brigham Young and Heber C. Kimball, in their day, on life and death. After all, isn't that what we are dealing with, brothers and sisters -- life unto life eternal, or death into nothingness? Those are the two courses before us, brothers and sisters. Brigham Young said:

JD 1:349 Brigham Young July 10, 1853 SLC

To choose life is to choose an eternal existence in an organized capacity: to refuse life and choose death is to refuse an eternal existence in an organized capacity, and be contented to become decomposed, and return again to native element.

Death in reality, is to decompose or decrease, and life is to increase. ***

Can we not see how glorious and beautiful these principles of life are, connected with the Celestial laws of heaven? The heavenly Family Order that we are given and the power and sealings of the holy Priesthood bring us together, that we might come together and bring these spirits that are reserved for this time to do the work of God.

We especially, brothers and sisters, with the light and knowledge that we have been given, are in a most precarious condition, as between these two courses. Having been given much light, much more is expected of us.

Now understand, to choose life is to choose principles that will lead you to an eternal increase, and nothing short of them will produce life in the resurrection for the faithful. Those that choose death, make choice of the path which leads to the end of their organization. The one leads to endless increase and progression, the other to the destruction of the organized being, ending in its entire decomposition into the particles that compose the native elements.

And that is what is called the second death, after the resurrection. He further said that:

JD 4:31 Brigham Young August 17, 1856 SLC

Everything that is opposed to God and His Son Jesus Christ, to the celestial kingdom and to celestial laws, those celestial laws and beings will hold warfare with, until every particle of the opposite is turned back to its native element, though it should take millions and millions of ages to accomplish it.  Every possession and object of affection will be taken from those who forsake the truth, and their identity and existence will eventually cease.

Brigham was talking to the people then, many of whom were deciding to go to California to leave the work; and he wished to God that they would leave promptly if that was their feeling, and stop fooling around with sacred things. And we would wish the same to those who do not choose to give their all. "The Kingdom of God or nothing" is what is being spoken of here, brothers and sisters, the Kingdom of God or nothing! If it is not the Kingdom of God, it certainly will be a matter of going back to nothing. And the Celestial laws and beings will hold warfare with them who are opposed to it. Let us take some further teachings from Heber C. Kimball in this connection.

JD 6:31 Heber C. Kimball November 8, 1957 SLC

I will refer to brother Morley's words. He says, "The mind makes the man." That is true. What is the mind?

You remember the mind of the Father is His Holy Spirit -- the mind of the Father and the Son.

It is that character that was made and fashioned after the image of God before these bodies were made, -- that is, our spirits. What is the mind? It is the spirit that was made before this body. Do you know it? Well, now let me tell you, it is that spirit that makes the man. I care not how humble he is -- if his nose is three feet long and all his body was disfigured -- I will tell you, if there is a good spirit in that man, and that spirit cultivates wholesome doctrine and lives to God, you love him. It is the spirit that is in the man that makes the man, which is the mind that you were speaking of, father Morley.
Well, our change from this state of existence does not change our character. The character must be made and formed before it goes through the vail, if he is going to continue with the servants of God, the Prophets.

So we have it there, brothers and sisters. These characters must be formed before we pass through the veil. And we will go over there with the same characteristics we had here. So how diligent we should be in becoming like God, that we may be with Him, be where He is, with our Lord Jesus Christ as joint heirs with Him. I trust this is what we want.

Let us honour
Or sanctify.
...our tabernacles; let us honour the earth,
And sanctify it where we live.
...and let us honour the heavens, that we may enjoy the blessings that flow therefrom; for the man who dishonours his tabernacle and the earth upon which we dwell will not inhabit them again for some time to come. It will be with them as President Young was talking this morning about a certain class of individuals: there will be a dissolution, not only of the tabernacles, but of the spirits;

Did you know that, brothers and sisters? The second death is a dissolution of the spirit back to its native element. And the second death has power over those who turn against the light altogether and leave the work of God.

...for the body is not accountable to the spirit, but it is rendered accountable for the acts of the person that dwells in it -- that is, to some extent. But, in reality, it is the person who dwells in the house that will have to pay the debt. I am now speaking about the spirits that dwell in our bodies. I know that these things will be as I say.

I have seen the time when I did not know the meaning of the phrase, "second death," but I now comprehend it to my satisfaction. There will probably be thousands who will be brought forth, in the resurrection, in their sins, and their conduct in life will have rendered them worthy of the second death.

So, brothers and sisters, we are dealing with very serious considerations -- life and death. Which do you choose? I am sure you are here because you have chosen life; but it is possible to fall and depart therefrom. There have been many who have. We certainly have a far different congregation of people today than we had when I first entered this work in 1939. What a difference.

And now, as President John Y. Barlow once said: "We are having to raise up a people from our own loins." What a fearful responsibility this is, to bring forth these spirits that are placed in our care. Brothers and sisters, do we realize what we are dealing with? Life or death. We are dealing with the powers of the holy Priesthood; we are dealing with God, our Father. Do we understand and appreciate the nature of this Priesthood? We certainly ought to by now, and I will not go into the details connected with that, only to say where much light is given much is expected.

Here is the situation, as I see we find ourselves in, as the Lord gave it to some of the saints who were settling in Jackson County. This was in April of 1832, showing the Order of Enoch. And this is how we are going to be able to become like God -- the order of oneness in the Family Order of Heaven, a Priesthood people.

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you. Isn't this a wonderful principle to abide by? What a beautiful promise! If we will forgive one another then the Lord will forgive us. There are some unforgivable acts, but I am sure we are not dealing with that kind now.

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; yea, even all of you have sinned; but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads. 3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation. That is what I mean, brothers and sisters.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;
6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.

7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge;

I wish the Lord could say that to us now, and maybe He does.

7. ...go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.

And that is a fearful thing, is it not? President Johnson calls our attention very often to the word of the Lord in Section 1, that he who is guilty of breaking one law is guilty of the whole. We must therefore become perfect.

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;

9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

And here is a glorious promise.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say;

Or, when our course of life is pleasing to Him, He is bound to answer our prayers. And the prayer of faith will grant unto us His blessings if our course is pleasing. This is the power of faith, dear brothers and sisters.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise. ***

Where are you found?

14. For Zion must increase in beauty, and in holiness; her borders must be enlarged; her stakes must be strengthened; yea, verily I say unto you, Zion must arise and put on her beautiful garments.

This is the work we are called to, brothers and sisters, to make a Zion in our families -- first of all, in our own hearts, then in our families, and then as a people, a community. And we are going to have to prove to the Lord that we can abide that law here before we are going to be called to Zion to redeem that place, the City, the New Jerusalem; on whose gates will be written the names of the twelve sons of Jacob in memory of the holy law.

15. Therefore, I give unto you this commandment, that ye bind yourselves by this covenant, and it shall be done according to the laws of the Lord.

16. Behold, here is wisdom also in me for your good.
17. And you are to be equal, or in other words, you are to have equal claims on the properties, for the benefit of managing the concerns of your stewardships, every man according to his wants and his needs, inasmuch as his wants are just --

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

Are we abiding that law?

19. Every man

Here is the keystone, brothers and sisters:

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

And listen to the penalties attached to the breaking of this covenant:

21. And the soul that sins against this covenant, and hardeneth his heart against it, shall be dealt with according to the laws of my church, and shall be delivered over to the buffetings of Satan until the day of redemption.

22. And now, verily I say unto you, and this is wisdom, make unto yourselves friends with the mammon of unrighteousness, and they will not destroy you.

23. Leave judgment alone with me, for it is mine and I will repay. Peace be with you; my blessings continue with you.

24. For even yet the kingdom is yours, and shall be forever, if you fall not from your steadfastness. Even so. Amen.

So I pray, my brothers and sisters, that we will continue steadfast, enduring to the end in perfect faith; that we may indeed become perfect and be useful vessels in the hands of God, vessels of righteousness, vessels of honor. May we honor our calling, honor God, and all that He has given us, and be faithful over a few things that we may be made ruler over many; for such is the promise of God to the faithful, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Do Not Advance Because Faith Is Lacking
RTJ 3:192 December 16, 1973 Sandy

It is good to meet with you, my dear brothers and sisters, and I desire for the Spirit of God to edify us all with the truths of the Everlasting Gospel and the doctrines of the holy Priesthood, which is a savor of life to me; and I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers.

As I have sat here reflecting on the many admonitions we have had from our President, to repent and come out from under the condemnation which rests upon us, I have wondered why more progress is not being made, speaking of us as a people; and I have inevitably drawn the conclusion that it is due to a lack of faith; faith in the first place, and the truth of the admonitions that President Johnson and the brethren give us. I suppose the opposite of this is unbelief, and this is the great sin that Joseph Smith and others have laid as a charge against the saints for their lack of progress that has been required of us. If we only look upon the great examples of the great Prototype, Jesus Christ, and Joseph Smith, to see what faith really is and how it operates, that should be sufficient. And we certainly have been the beneficiaries of the great faith of our Priesthood fathers who have preceded, and also of that which exits in the bosoms of these brethren who lead us. President Johnson is a noble example of faith to me.

Brethren and sisters, do we realize that faith is a gift of God? Preceding faith, if there is anything that could, is belief, and ascent in the mind to the truth of the things that are given us of the Lord; and knowing the character and the attributes of God, which we are required to acquire in our lives that we might become like Him. And so it gets us right down to the prayer of faith -- faith in our prayers; and then going out, and through works, through complete and absolute obedience to the commands of God, making our course pleasing to Him, we would therefore have power with Him. And so it resolves itself into this: Is our course pleasing to God? If it were, our faith would be very efficacious in bringing down the blessings of our Heavenly Father upon us and blessing us as a people that we might be one. Is it because of unbelief then, brothers and sisters, unbelief in this Priesthood, unbelief in the commandments of God? Or is it just plain spiritual laziness? I suppose a combination of the two.

Well, brethren and sisters, if we are going to lay hold upon the blessings promised, if we really want them, we are going to have to pay a price; and it is the price of perfect faith, loving God with all our heart, might, mind and strength; and our neighbor as ourselves, walking in obedience, perfect obedience, to the commandments of God -- all these result of faith in God and in His Priesthood. Through mighty prayer, and knowing and coming to know that our course is pleasing to God, we would have power with Him and realize the blessings we need. I have to give a good deal of credit to B. H. Roberts in his summary of the power of faith, and what it will finally bring us as saints of God.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, Walking in perfect obedience to the laws of God, ...if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

I often, in thinking of this, hark back to the great character Enoch, and that great character Abel, both of whom had the testimony that they pleased God; and it was revealed to them, no doubt. And having this great testimony and power with God, they were therefore able, speaking of Enoch particularly, to bring a people up to be one with sufficient faith and power with God that they were translated and taken up with a part of the earth, as the abode for the translated and resurrected beings, where Jesus Christ could dwell and carry on His work. Enoch is to come with his city, and only those who have obtained to the same faith and a perfect course of life, capable of translation, will be caught up to meet him at the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ; for we know they are coming back. Likewise, only the faithful and the true saints of God who have become like Him, as we have stated before, will be permitted to go back to redeem Zion, the New Jerusalem, the city of our God upon the earth during the great Millennium.

And so this is how they obtained power with God, as did the King of Salem, Melchizedek, or Shem, who also saved a city of faithful saints.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge
Not a mere belief, brothers and sisters. To know it is to have it revealed to us.

...and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power,
Which is what faith is. That is all Joseph spoke about in the Lectures on Faith, speaking of the attribute faith in God, as it exits in God. It is power with God and...

...the incentive to all action -- Following it.

...as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Which may God help us to do, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Conditions for the Redemption of Zion

I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, as I desire to say and do only those things that Father would have me do and say for the benefit of you, my dear brothers and sisters, and myself.

Regarding one remark of President Timpson, may I add, brethren, would you yield up your agency to your wives? A man bearing the holy Priesthood who will not lead his family under the direction of the Spirit of God, and yields up his prerogatives and his rights as the head of a family, cannot properly abide this holy law. This is one thing, brethren, that we must begin to realize. We are called upon to keep alive this glorious principle of Celestial and Plural Marriage, this Family Order of Heaven. Unless we abide it, we cannot enter into the presence of our Father, and we certainly cannot become like Him. There is the great touchstone, brothers and sisters. Are we abiding this holy law which has been vouchsafed to us? Are we showing our gratitude, or are we grateful in the first place for the fact that we have been given it? Do we love it as a truth of God? Why, we should be most grateful, brothers and sisters, that we even have the opportunity that God has given through this Priesthood, that He called and set to open up and carry on a special dispensation under the Prophet Joseph Smith, to prepare a people for the coming of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

We should be most grateful that we have an opportunity to be a part of it, and therefore we should be magnifying this glorious principle and the holy Priesthood which we bear, magnifying God thereby. That is what it is all about, to raise up sons and daughters to Him, to raise them up in light and truth, and to perfect our wives and ourselves together in the Family Order of Heaven, that we may become like Him and operate like He does and did, and fulfill the measure of our creation. We should be grateful for life itself and for the glorious principles that enable us to glorify that life in the presence of God.

We are being constantly reminded that this people is supposed to be prepared to redeem Zion, a people raised up out of the heart's core of the people of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints -- for this is what we are -- that they might become the nucleus of the great Millennium, and usher it in by redeeming Zion.

I was struck by the thought that in the redemption of Zion a people must be prepared. The Lord tried to get enough faithful men under Joseph Smith in the formation of what we call Zion's Camp to go back and redeem Zion. In calling for five hundred men, and finally settling for one hundred, who would go up under Joseph and not murmur and follow their commander, their leader, as one man under God, they could have redeemed Zion. In calling for those men, the Lord told how Zion would have to be redeemed.

D.& C. 103

15. Behold, I say unto you, the redemption of Zion must needs come by power;
16. Therefore, I will raise up unto my people a man, who shall lead them like as Moses led the children of Israel.

In the Book of Mormon and other places, that Man is the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, as he further explains here.

17. For ye are the children of Israel,

We are the children of Israel, brethren and sisters. We are Israelites, mostly Ephraimites, Ephraim having the rights to the Priesthood.

17. For ye are the children of Israel, and of the seed of Abraham, and ye must needs be led out of bondage by power, and with a stretched-out arm.
18. And as your fathers were led at the first, even so shall the redemption of Zion be.
19. Therefore, let not your hearts faint, for I say not unto you as I said unto your fathers: Mine angel shall go up before you, but not my presence.
20. But I say unto you: Mine angels shall go up before you, and also my presence, and in time ye shall possess the goodly land.

I am sure there have been many who have entertained the hope that they would be called to go up and assist in the redemption of Zion. Do you suppose that any of us would be called to do that if we were not like Jesus Christ? Would He call us up in our sins, in our backsliding, with our minds filled with the traditions of the fathers and of the Church? Would we be called up to stand alongside the Lord Jesus Christ to redeem Zion in our sins? Not by any means. If we are going to be able to see Him, we are going to have to be like Him. It is just that simple. All will have to go on that great mission and journey filled with the Spirit of God, filled with all of the attributes of God, and thus be like Him; so that there should not be any murmuring, no criticizing and anything of such kind; all going as one man under God. Those people must be so righteous, and they will be so righteous, that the trees will clap their limbs together and all things rejoice as they go along, by the righteousness of those people under Christ. So we have a great deal to do, brothers and sisters, in preparation for that glorious event. This is what President Johnson and all of our Priesthood fathers have been telling the saints from Joseph on down, trying to prepare a people to redeem Zion.

In order for us to redeem Zion, if this may help us, we must first have Zion in our hearts; create a Zion in our families. Zion is not only a place. And by the way, the whole of America is Zion. The center place is Jackson County, and all of the other places will be stakes of Zion. This is the place. But Zion is also a condition, a condition of the heart and of the mind, of the spirit. Until we have Zion in our hearts, the Zion of the true and the faithful, the Zion of our God, with a pure love of Christ, charity, with knowledge, perfect faith, with justice, and mercy, and judgment, and truth -- until we are filled with these, which are the Holy Ghost, and become one, we cannot go there and accomplish that great objective of the last dispensation of the fullness of times, which has fully come.

Let us, therefore, follow the admonition of our President, our beloved Prophet Leroy Johnson. Clean up our minds and our hearts. Change them that they may become like the mind of our Father, which is the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost. May we do this, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Must Abide the Celestial Law; False and Delusive Spirits

It is good to meet with you again, brothers and sisters, and I desire to be led of the Spirit in what I shall say. In keeping with the admonition we have received, one of the loveliest things that I have read is the example of little Samuel, whose mother Hannah was promised this son under a covenant on her part that she would turn him over to God's service. He exhibits the humility and the sweetness that brings the Spirit of God as a constant companion. I have always been inspired by the words of the song about young Samuel.

Hushed Was the Evening Hymn

1. *Hushed was the evening hymn;
The temple courts were dark;*
The lamp was burning dim
Before the sacred ark;
When suddenly a voice divine
Rang through the silence of the shrine.

2. The old man, meek and mild;
The priest of Israel slept;
His watch the temple child,
The little Levite kept.
And what from Eli's sense was sealed,
The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.

3. O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of thy word.
Like him to answer at thy call
And to obey thee first of all.
4. O give me Samuel's heart,
   A lowly heart, that waits,
   Wherein thy house thou art
   Or watches at thy gates;
   By day and night a heart that still Moves at the breathing of thy will.
5. O give me Samuel's mind,
   A sweet unmurmuring faith,
   Obedient and resigned
   To thee in life and death,
   That I may read with childlike eyes,
   Truths that are hidden from the wise.

We have the great responsibility, brethren and sisters, to keep alive the holy celestial laws, the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel. That is the work of this Priesthood as delivered to the saints -- those who have heard and answered the call and are now trying to raise up a people -- to prepare a people to abide the Celestial Law, by which Zion shall be redeemed; for she cannot be redeemed, only on the Celestial Law. The law of Celestial Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven, certainly calls for clean minds, open hearts, and ready ears to follow the direction of the Priesthood over each family, and of this Priesthood over this people. One of the most beautiful sermons I have heard was many, many years ago in Short Creek by President Barlow, when he called upon the brethren to be sweet and sound, or to be humble and obedient as was Samuel, and as was our Lord Jesus Christ, of course, the Prototype, and the one we are called upon to be like or imitate, if you please.

The Lord tells us in Section 132: No man, no one can be exalted in the highest degree of glory except by abiding the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven, as it has so often been called, and which I love to call it. I suppose the greatest need of this people is to abide that law. These are the conditions, the requirements for abiding the law, that we be one. We cannot be one except by the same characteristics and the attributes that are spelled out in the life of our Lord Jesus Christ and this other lovely example of Samuel, which is the same as has been followed by all of the holy Prophets, from Father Adam down to the present.

We have the greatest gift of God in the gift of His Spirit, and we cannot be one except by that Spirit. Brother Guy has very often told us, "Our great personal effort has to be to become skilled in learning the Spirit of God." Having been given that gift and the sweet fruits that flow from it, we should be of all men and women most miserable when we are without it; and we are. When we are without it another spirit, of necessity, takes its place; and that is a false and foul and delusive spirit that Lucifer turns loose upon us in his great effort to destroy those who are trying to abide this exalting and saving principle and law, a law of the holy Priesthood, a law of eternity, a law of the Gods. With the seven great sins that God hates, these are the things that cause that great disturbance and the ways in which peace is destroyed in the abiding of this law.

Our living together and loving one another -- first of all, loving God with all our heart, might, mind and strength, and loving our neighbors -- those in these celestial families, I would wish to call it; but there is the great difficulty, brothers and sisters. I felt like reading a wonderful article which has been read to us before, which points out some of the signs, may we call it, along the way that will enable us to recognize when we begin to lose the Spirit of God in our family situations. The article is called "False and Delusive Spirits". This is from the Deseret News Editorial by Willard Richards, editor.

False and Delusive Spirits (Truth 7:73) (Mill. Star 14:278)

False spirits are more subtle, and more contagious than the small pox; their number and diversity of operations cannot be counted by man; and the first moment the Saints leave the path of duty, that moment they are subject to the influence of evil, false spirits, which once having taken possession of the soul, are difficult if not impossible to be removed, by the person so receiving them, without assistance from those who have more wisdom.

The great object of evil spirits is to get bodies, and the only chance they have is to dispossess a soul of the spirit of the Lord, the light of eternal truth, and take possession of that body thus dispossessed; and when thus once in possession, it may truly be said there is a body possessed of the devil.

That is pretty plain, isn't it?

Jesus, and his disciples in different ages, have commanded the unclean and wicked spirits to depart out of those of whom they had taken possession, and they have departed; but there are those spirits which are not easily dispossessed, and go out only by prayer and fasting. And again, there are those spirits that will hardly go out at any price, except it is by the will of those who harbor them. And of what class are they? They are invited spirits. Invited spirits? yes; many spirits watch their opportunity to thrust themselves into a person when and where they are not wanted, and such are much more easily cast out than those who are invited guests.

You would not want to call those things invited guests would you? But they are invited. Now how does this come about?

For instance, a person for some real or supposed injury or neglect from a friend,

From a husband, a wife, a brother or sister,

...wishes to retaliate, to be revenged, and of course opens the way, and invites the spirit of jealousy to take possession; and the moment jealousy enters the breast, there is a perfect hell of happiness.

I like some of these expressions.

No scheme that hell itself can devise to torment, perplex, harass, disturb, vex, or mar the peace of friend, wife, or husband, is left untouched or unmoved; and by that time the breast of the harbore of the harborer is opened to all the evil spirits of Pandemonium -- all have free access, and oh, what a world of glory dwells there!

And how shall that jealous spirit be removed? By the laying on of hands? The Lord deliver us from such an ordinance, in such a case. Why? That spirit was invited to take up its abode there, and while that spirit is made welcome by that person, what right have we to dispossess it? It would be abridging the agency of the individual who invited the spirit, for any one to cause that spirit to depart, without the person's leave; and we choose that all should exercise their own agency and responsibility, and then they are subjects of accountability.

Other spirits, not particularly invited or desired, gain an easy access to those who are careless, heedless, and but too indifferent to the statutes, ordinances, and duties of God's kingdom;

Neglect.

...who neglect their prayers, their assembling together, and doing as they would be done unto; and from these spirits arise contention, strife, evil thinking, evil speaking, evil surmising, detraction,

Father used to say "imaginary assumptions".
...revenge, law-suits, and a host of such perplexing annoyances, sufficient to disturb a nation: but the man who is obedient to his God in all things -- who knows no will of his own, only to do the will of his Father in the heavens, is free from these spirits;

Obedience, then, brothers and sisters. "If ye love Me," said the Lord, "keep My commandments." Be humbly obedient and wait on the Lord in faith. He knows no will of his own, only that of his Father in heaven; and such are free from these spirits.

...the devil has no power over him, for he resists him, and evil spirits are compelled to flee at his rebuke.

"Get thee behind me, satan!" We need to use that term a great deal more in our daily affairs the very moment we see that sort of thing rearing its head, the spirit of criticism and all of these other things that were mentioned here. Most of them mentioned here are those seven things that God hates -- the sowing of discord and contention, among the most prominent.

Some may ask, "how shall I know when I am operated upon by a false spirit?" There are many keys by which the door of knowledge is unlocked to the Saints, in relation to spirits, as well as other things pertaining to the kingdom; but one may suffice at the present time, for we have not designed this brief notice to cover all or any considerable portion of the ground which the subject includes.

The spirit of heaven
The Spirit of God.
...is a spirit of peace, joy, comfort, consolation, and knowledge to its possessor; and all Saints who have enjoyed this spirit, (and all Saints have more or less,) may know when this peaceful spirit dwelling within them is disturbed, that something is wrong, that some false spirit is lurking within or about them, striving to enter; and if they will resist the first impulse of their disturbed feelings, and command Satan, in the name of Jesus to depart, peace will instantly be restored to their souls.

So they can be resisted, and they cannot take possession under those conditions.

It is not the wrong doings of others that destroy that peace within ourselves which the world can neither give nor take away;

Now, here is a very important point, brothers and sisters.

Supposing somebody offends us, does that justify us in inviting a false spirit and losing control, giving way? No way! Even if someone else does do a wrong, that is no excuse for us to lose the Spirit of God, because the Spirit of God is one of charity, long-suffering, and is kind, thinketh no evil. But we are prone to blame someone else for the disturbance that comes to us, when actually, we become the wrongdoer by giving way and losing control.

...it is our own wrongs which cause that peaceful spirit to leave us; and would to God that this truth were indelibly imprinted on the heart and recollection of every Saint. It is your own wrongs or evil spirits that destroy your peace.

Your own peace.

...and not the wrongs of your friend or neighbour. Know ye, all ye Saints, if the peace of heaven and a foretaste of the blessings of the celestial world are not continually with you, there is something wrong within, some foul spirit has got possession of yourself, and the quicker you dispossess it the better.

Carry out this principle, and what will be the result? Every Saint will live by his creed, and "mind his own business." Every dear wife will look with a zealous eye

Not a jealous eye.

...towards the happiness and welfare of her dear husband, and if she is tempted to think he is doing wrong, she will say, Get thee behind me Satan, that is none of my business, I will do right, that is enough for me, and I shall have peace in my soul. And so continue to do, till he has done so wrong that forbearance is no longer a virtue, then give him a divorce and do better if you can;

We do not preach divorce, but until he breaks his covenants, and loses his Priesthood, you cannot get away from him, dear sisters. And remember, Priesthood is the paramount thing.

...but while you live with him, live in peace, and keep jealousy out of doors; if you don't you will always have hell within, and devils enough to carry it on. The moment you are jealous that your husband is wrong, that moment you are miserable, that misery is proof positive that you yourself are wrong, for it destroys your peace.

Jealous husbands are quite as bad, and a little less excusable, (if there can be any excuse) than jealous wives. Husbands, if your wives do wrong, teach them better, if they are willing to be taught, and if they are not, keep out of their way till they are willing, and no quarrelling betwixt you. You need not fret your soul because your dear wife does wrong. Don't let the devil destroy your peace, and cause the Holy Ghost to depart from you, because your wife has given way to a bad spirit. Show yourself a man of God, be at peace with yourself, pray for her, and when she has been buffeted by the devil long enough she will get tired of him, leave him and return to you.

The things of which we speak are but too common among the nations of Christendom; and too much of them have been brought together among the Saints; but it is time for Saints to stop such things. Husbands, love and cherish your wives, as you ought; give them their place, their rights, their dominion, that they may act upon their agency, as you do on yours; and quit your fretting, and snarling and quarrelling with them, if you ever did it. What! a man quarrel with himself? Yes, just as well as quarrel with his wife -- 'tis all the same.

The wife is a part of him. Will he quarrel with himself? He should be a part of God through the power of the Priesthood, and the Holy Ghost as his companion. The Spirit of God is from God, and if we have it we are a part of Him. This is how we become one with Him, and how husbands and wives can be one together. The Lord says, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." We cannot abide this holy law, except we be one. It is just that simple. We cannot be one except by the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit, whatever you want to call it. We have that gift, having been baptized by authority. Having taken hold of the work of the Priesthood, the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, we are actuated thereafter, having left neutral ground, either by the Holy Spirit or the spirit of the devil, as the Prophets have told us. Take your choice, dear brothers and sisters. You can have it either way. You have your agency. But the commandment of God is to abide this holy law and become a pure people, and a prepared people for the redemption of Zion. We cannot be that prepared people except we be one. God help us to do so, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Why the Saints Were Driven Out of Jackson County;
Must Be Like God to Be Part of the Redemption of Zion;
Get and Keep the Spirit of God

The time is far spent, brothers and sisters, but I would like to add my testimony to those that have been borne here today. The words of God have been given us, and I trust and pray that we will abide them; and ask for an interest in your faith and prayers, and that the Spirit of God will continue with me and all of us.

I am grateful, as with the other brethren, for the life and labors, the Presidency and the leadership of President Leroy Johnson our Prophet, the chief Apostle who holds the keys of the Priesthood, and is the mouthpiece of God to us. I love him for his great and noble life and integrity, and desire to follow in his footsteps in carrying on the great work of God in which we are engaged.

You know as well as I do, brethren and sisters, that the burden of his message to us continually, and of his great mission in the earth, is the preparation of a people; and always, brothers and sisters, it is connected with the redemption of Zion, the Zion of our God.

Many are called, but few are chosen. I don't know how many of you cherish the idea of being an instrument in the redemption of Zion. The Lord tried to redeem Zion on one occasion when He called forth Zion's Camp, and therein was the great example for the people of God in latter time. Our Father knew that they wouldn't accomplish it, I am sure, but He had to prove His servants; and from among them He chose His Twelve and the Seventies, the leaders of Israel. Many of them fell later, and there were but two of those original Apostles, Joseph said later, but what lifted their heel against him. We would have to add David Patten who was taken in 1838, who was true and faithful to Joseph, and loved him; and Joseph loved David and was sorry that he had asked for a martyr's crown.
That was the great work of the Priesthood then. The people were called to go and build up Zion, but they failed. The saints have been driven ever since. We are now in the tops of the mountains whence Joseph said the saints would go, there to build up the Kingdom of God. The saints have been looking forward to going back ever since, and we are still trying to prepare a people. Do we realize, brothers and sisters, what it means to go and redeem Zion, and what is required? Zion, of course, in its larger sense, is the whole of America. The center place is in Jackson County, and that State is yet to be swept clean of every inhabitant and living thing which stands in the way of the redemption of Zion. But Zion is also in our hearts. We must build a Zion here. The saints in that day were driven from Jackson County for these reasons:

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

These are the ways that we pollute the inheritances that are given us. These are the things that are holding us back today, brothers and sisters. The Lord has called upon us in this place and in Salt Lake and wherever the saints are directed to be, to sanctify their inheritances, the places where they are. We can only sanctify them, brothers and sisters, by becoming like God, keeping all of His words and His commandments, living by every word of God, and becoming like Him.

The Lord, in talking to those who were about to go on the journey to redeem Zion, said that Zion would be redeemed with great power. As it was with the children of Israel, so would it be in the redemption of Zion, except for one thing. On that occasion the angels of God would go before them. But in this case, when it is done with great power, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself will be there to lead. By any conception of our imagination, brothers and sisters, is there anyone here that believes they will be called to go up with Jesus Christ to redeem Zion if they are not like Him? If you are not like Him you cannot endure His presence. We are told in many places, "Except we become like Him we cannot see Him as He is." Moroni said it. Every Prophet of God has said it.

It seems to me then, brothers and sisters, we are going to have to make a Zion here, and prove, with all that we are, worthy to go on that great work and mission. It is just that simple. And I believe wholeheartedly in the statement of Patriarch Johnson here today. God is going to get His people; but first there is going to be a sloughing off, a dividing. There is going to be a purging. President Johnson has told us, and all of the Prophets before him have told us this. Will we be able to stand?

Now where do we begin to do these things? We begin right in the home setting our families in order, following our Priesthood head in that home, obeying him as he obeys God and the Priesthood over him. We must live the Holy United Order, we must abide the holy Celestial Law of Marriage. Those two things together being abided is the way we set our houses and our families in order, walking by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost daily as our constant companion. And may I remind you, brothers and sisters, this is the sum and substance of the whole matter, that we learn the Spirit of God, we learn the Holy Ghost and the Spirit of revelation which it gives us, and by which we may walk in the conduct of our family life. A bearer of the holy Melchizedek Priesthood must stand at the head of that family unit, he being one with his Priesthood head, the Prophet of God. Then we would have a people of one heart and one mind, and all together bearing and having and keeping the Holy Ghost as our constant companion.

So the sum and substance of it all, therefore, is to get that Spirit and to keep it. For that Holy Spirit, brothers and sisters, is the attributes of God, the very essence of it. The Holy Spirit is the mind of God which issues forth from Himself, and comes down to us through the channel of the holy Priesthood. And it is up to us to keep that channel free and clear and pure, that we may have the administration of that Spirit with us in the conduct of our daily lives and in our families. If we lay hold upon a fullness of that Spirit, as Lecture Five tells us, then we will be like God. Thus it can be said, the Holy Spirit is the attributes of God because it is the mind of God. If we have it continually as our constant companion, our dominion will be an everlasting dominion and we will be like God.

The secret of the whole matter, therefore, is getting, learning, and keeping with us continually the Spirit of God, that we may be one, one people moving as one man as the Camp of Zion was commanded to go with Joseph without murmuring, without contending, one heart and one mind. This is how we are one. God help you, my dear brothers and sisters, to learn to be one, first in your families, second as a community, that we may be used in the due time of God to redeem Zion, and to build up her waste places, to prepare the City of our God, the City of Joseph, the New Jerusalem where the great temple shall be built; and after which temples will dot the land of America, the whole of Zion and the great work of the holy Millennium, with Jesus Christ our King and our Lord; King of kings and Lord of lords presiding in the Zion of our God. We must be capable of being translated and being in a terrestrial condition, which will be the condition of the great Millennium.

Before that the things that President Johnson has warned us of -- the day of visitation, the day of great judgments, of scourgings -- will come, and will we be able to abide? It is enjoined upon us to stand in holy places. Our holy places are our homes, which should be like unto temples in pure element. Husbands and wives should be pure element filled with the Holy Ghost, filled with the power of faith in our God, laboring together to accomplish the great aims and object of our Father in our behalf for the redemption of a fallen world and the building up of the Zion of our God, which I pray we may have a part in, according to our faith and our faithfulness, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

To Abide the Law, We Must Be One;
How to Become One

I desire an interest in your faith and prayers, that the Spirit of God will actuate my remarks for the mutual edification of all, that I may be an instrument in His hands for good for this people, and in sustaining and upholding our President and Prophet, Leroy Johnson. As I have sat here listening to these wonderful testimonies, I felt to rejoice that God has taken me out of the apostate Church of Latter-day Saints, still His Church, the Church of God.

Father was approached on one occasion by an old friend of his, I think it was an old missionary companion. He said, "I hear that you have apostatized from the Church." He said, "Well, let us put it this way. I have apostatized from the apostasy of the Church."

I am grateful that he knew and met Joseph Musser on the streets of Salt Lake and was handed a copy of the Truth Magazine, which was the means of bringing him and me into this work. And I feel to rejoice daily for this great blessing, and to be brought to a knowledge of the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel, for I know it is as true as that I am standing here before you. I know that the testimony of Brigham Young was true, that the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the law of Celestial and Plural Marriage and the Holy United Order.

Is it any wonder in the minds of any of us that the Lord took steps in 1886 to set up a special dispensation for the express purpose of keeping alive these two holy laws, until Christ should come to receive and redeem His people, Israel? Our father Jacob had twelve sons, who became the twelve tribes of Israel, the chosen seed of God, coming down through Abraham and his fathers back until Adam. I thank God that this is Israel, and mostly we are of Ephraim, who had the rights to the Priesthood; and Ephraim has it here today under President Johnson.

I recollect that one man, probably, was as instrumental as any, if not more so, in the apostasy of the Church, or at least in advancing its apostasy in setting out doctrines completely contrary to the truths of heaven. That was James E. Talmage. He once said, in describing or apologizing for Celestial and Plural Marriage, that it was an "incident" in the lives of the Latter-day Saints, but never an "essential". He was also the one who gathered together and put in a book called "Revelations of More Enduring Value" those items or revelations that he considered to be of enduring value, leaving out Celestial Marriage and all of the other higher and most saving principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; which, thank God, fell flat on its face -- that book, I mean. Still, the Church has believed the doctrine.

He also probably did as much as any one man to destroy faith in the true and living God -- Michael, Adam, our Father and our God -- in the writing of the book "Jesus the Christ", which he wrote under a supposed aura of the sanctity of the Salt Lake Temple. If there was any vestige in the minds and hearts of the Latter-day Saints as to the nature of our true and living God and Father, he destroyed it. It is now considered by the missionary system of the Church almost as essential as any of the standard works of scripture. I have a son in the mission field who has told me that that is what they consider it.

So, brothers and sisters, a special dispensation was set up to keep alive this great and holy principle. I would like to read a few words of Brigham Young and others to show, if we need to be, the importance of this holy law and why it was considered to be the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel.

JD 20:28 Joseph F. Smith July 7, 1878 SLC

Some people have supposed that the doctrine of plural marriage was a sort of superfluity, or non-essential to the salvation or exaltation of mankind.

James E. Talmage thought so.

In other words, some of the Saints have said, and believe, that a man with one wife, sealed to him by the authority of the Priesthood for time and eternity, will receive an exaltation as great and glorious, if he is faithful, as he possibly could with more than one. I want here to enter my solemn protest against this idea, for I know it is false.  The marriage of one woman to a man for time and eternity by the sealing power, according to the law of God, is a fulfillment of the celestial law of marriage in part.  But this is only the beginning of the law, not the whole of it. Therefore, whoever has imagined that he could obtain the fullness of the blessings pertaining to this celestial law, by complying with only a portion of its conditions, has deceived himself. He cannot do it.

I understand the law of celestial marriage to mean that every man in this Church, who has the ability to obey and practice it in righteousness and will not, shall be damned, I say I understand it to mean this and nothing less, and I testify in the name of Jesus that it does mean that.

Joseph F. Smith said that. And Wilford Woodruff:

Life of Wilford Woodruff Page 542

If we do not embrace that principle soon, the keys will be turned against us. If we do not keep the same law that our Heavenly Father has kept (Celestial or Plural marriage) we CANNOT GO WITH HIM. A man obeying a lower law is not qualified to preside over those who keep a higher law.

So those men who tried Brother Broadbent and Brother Zitting and all the rest, had no authority to even sit upon the cases, including that of my father. For some reason, father’s case before the Church and his being tried for his fellowship and in his excommunication, President Joseph Musser required that he carry the case right on up to the highest councils of the Church, including the Presidency under Heber J. Grant, which was done; and a complete record made of the same, which is to be a testimony, I am sure, against them, as were those trials in which J. Leslie Broadbent and Charles F. Zitting, were held as a testimony against them. Hugh B. Brown and the others that did so, lost their Priesthood, if they had it before. I want to read this one for great emphasis:

> It is the word of the Lord, and I wish to say to you, and all the world, that if you desire with all your hearts to obtain the blessings which Abraham obtained, you will be polygamists,* or you will come short of enjoying the salvation and the glory which Abraham has obtained. This is as true as that God lives.* The only men who become Gods, even the Sons of God, are those who enter into polygamy.

Celestial Marriage. We would have to say they must abide it.

> Others attain unto a glory and may even be permitted to come into the presence of the Father and the Son; but they cannot reign as kings in glory, because they had blessings offered unto them and they refused to accept them.

Can we see why God set up a special dispensation under John Taylor, being taken care of by our Lord Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith in 1886, and setting apart men who would be valiant in their testimony and in the fulfilling the covenant they entered into to do so, laying down their lives if necessary to accomplish it? And this they went forward and did, though the Lord preserved their lives and enabled them to fulfill their missions; and the brethren who followed them did likewise.

Now brothers and sisters, why is Celestial and Plural Marriage and the Holy United Order the fullness of the Gospel? Have you ever asked yourselves that? I will tell you. Because the Lord said, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." The very nature of Celestial and Plural Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven, and the Holy United Order, is to make a family and a community of saints one. To abide in those laws we must become one, brothers and sisters. Do we realize this and how essential it is if we are to be used by God to redeem Zion? That is what this people is being prepared to do. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, if you are not one in your families, you are not abiding this law. If you are not living, at least in spirit, the Holy United Order in your families, you are not abiding the law, and we are not abiding the Family Order of Heaven.
May I ask us another question? Do you love this law, these laws, for the truth of it, knowing, not merely believing, that God has revealed it for our eternal salvation and exaltation, making it possible for us to become like Him and reign as Gods in heaven? Can we not see the larger picture of this thing, and live it and love it for the truth's sake in our love for God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, so that we might love our neighbor as ourselves?

John the Beloved once said -- I will put it in different words than he did; I will not try to look it up -- "How can you say you love God, whom you cannot see, if you do not love your neighbor whom you can see?" Thus we see the true application of these two holy laws, brothers and sisters.

Do emotions swell in your breast as you contemplate these holy laws, brothers and sisters? Are we truly grateful that we have been called up and out of Babylon? Some of us out of the Church, yes. Are we grateful, young people, that we have been born under this New and Everlasting Covenant of Celestial Marriage, and showing our gratitude by obeying it in spirit and in truth, because we love it?

How many sisters; yes, how many children in our families; yes, how many brethren are living this law under protest? Great God! How could we when we see the true picture of these holy laws? The plain and simple truth is that we are not submissive. We are not humble. Our hearts are not filled with love; yes, our hearts are not filled with the Holy Ghost sufficient to make us one, and there is the modus operandi, getting and keeping the Spirit of God, which will fill our hearts with love for God and our fellow men, our neighbors.

I would like to present some words of Joseph Musser in that wonderful pamphlet, "The Economic Order of Heaven", by which he outlines very beautifully how we can live together as families and as a community, this Holy United Order, under the spirit and power of the holy Priesthood in the Family Order of Heaven. It is the last chapter, eight, where it is found. Having touched on some of the ways that we have to live together, and the different kinds of people who are called together in this order of things, he says:

But among women housekeepers, as among husbandmen there are to be found women, though not naturally indolent or dishonest, yet whose carelessness, whose indifference to cleanliness, and whose lack of taste and tidiness are actually repulsive to more sensitive manners. Can such as these ever reach an equality?

He previously touched on the idle: "Do the idlers eat the bread of the laborers?" All of these things that people bring as objections in trying to live the United Order are touched upon.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is a natural leveler and elevator. Among the early converts to Mormonism were the poorer classes of all nations -- the Dutch, the Germans, Scandinavians, English, French, Italian, Greek, Turk, etc. They came into their new faith with varying habits of cleanliness, thrift, occupation and progressiveness. True, it may be difficult for a complete harmonizing of the Saints at first, but as successive generations

And that is where we are.

...spring up from the original stock they came together on a more homogeneous plane; they intermarry until the very finest stock in the world is the result. The Gospel progressiveness, its intuitive battle to better the race of people, its implacable enmity to slovenliness and industrial sterility, its inevitable awakeness to growth and improvement, is continuously moulding its adherents who have given themselves over to its hammerings and carvings, into a mighty army of men and women ever marching toward the haven of perfection.

That is what this law, these laws are for, to make us one, keep in mind through all of this.

True, some make better progress than others, as some trees in the forest grow faster and more stately than their brothers, but all are reaching upward each day to become more and more as their Master would have it.

And is this achievement impossible? Picture Jesus choosing his first disciples -- those who were to become his bosom companions, his "Friends", from among the lowly fishermen; Peter, Andrew, James and John, whom he called from their nets and began his mighty ministry with the sons of the sea. Peter, the fisherman, though obstinate and erratic and doubtless ignorant in book learning, became the head of the Church and of the Priesthood.
The key to the success of the Order, as given by the Savior, is And this is found in Section 82. "Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God." Loving our neighbor whom we can see, so that we might love God whom we cannot see. They are a part of God, God's children in the spirit and in the flesh.

Here, then, is the challenge: I bury myself, unconditionally, in my efforts to build up my neighbor. While I am doing this for him, he is doing the same for me. He and I work to build up other neighbors, and they collectively work for our interests;

Working together as a community, living the United Order, first the tithing, and then the surplus, do not forget. There is where we are showing our love of our neighbor as a community to fulfill the purposes of the United Order, that there be no poor among us, no idle.

...and so the spirit of help flows from one to another among all the neighbors. Who cannot see that with such cooperative service, lacking the jealous, greedy and competitive spirit of the world, an institution will grow up with the soundness of the mighty mountains surrounding us; an institution that must grow in power and effectiveness that will become irresistible, and which will eventually sweep from the hazy minds of men the cobwebs of tradition? No more want, no competitive destruction, no wars or conflicts. The only competition is one man competing to accomplish for his neighbor more than his neighbor can accomplish for him! Isn't that beautiful?

And who is our neighbor? My neighbor is the man wherever he may reside, who is seeking to build up the kingdom of God as I am doing, and in the same unselfish spirit as I am working, and with the same hope of salvation and exaltation as I am entertaining. That is my neighbor. This community of saints, and more directly our fellow family members.

My time and talents are dedicated to his upbuilding, and his to mine. Suppose one be more talented than the other. What matters it if each labors in the Spirit of Christ? The laborer is worthy his hire, and the one who comes in at the eleventh hour, not having been summoned earlier, is entitled to a fee equal with the others -- to his just wants and needs. There is no force in the universe that can stay such a system. Enoch established it and he, with his people, were translated.

We must accomplish it in this dispensation, brothers and sisters, if we are to be caught up to meet Enoch and his city, if we are to be one of those, among those who go back to redeem Zion. And it will be accomplished in this dispensation, believe me. Will you be a part of it? Will I?

And as men and women perfected themselves in "seeking the interests of their neighbors", they were caught up into the world of Enoch, and there, in a terrestrial sphere, his work is going on. It is this seeking the interest of one's neighbor that makes love possible --

This is how we show our love.

"Love thy neighbor as thyself". No other gospel will perfect man and make it possible for him to live in the presence of the Father. No other gospel will do away with human conflicts and bring the nations into a one-world organization.

Lucifer is trying to form a one-world organization today, a counterfeit. The Kingdom of God is upon the earth with the Priesthood, and that will one day be the one-world organization, under Jesus Christ, the King, and the holy Apostles and the Elders of Israel forming its members and directors.

Jesus Christ is to become the head of all nations. He is the true King of kings. The time is hastening when "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that He is the Christ", the Redeemer of the world. And the gospel of Jesus Christ, including the Economic Order of Heaven, will eventually triumph and bring about this happy utopia.

May we add, in the Family Order of Heaven. God help us, dear brothers and sisters, to love these holy laws, and be grateful that we have been called out of the world, born into this holy covenant with our Father. God help us to abide it, to love it with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, so that we may become like Him, filled with the Holy Ghost, filled with the power of faith to accomplish His will and purposes in us, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Labor Today With Your Might;
Faith and Obedience Through Sacrifice;
Law of Adoption Through the Mediation of Our Savior

I delight in hearing the truths that we have heard from these brethren, and pray God to continue His blessings upon us as we meet here under the direction of our President, President Johnson. I want to testify that his life and example and the Holy Ghost, which is a very part of his being, are a constant source of inspiration and blessing to me. I am grateful that the Lord has raised this man as our Prophet today, to lead us as our Priesthood fathers from Joseph Smith on down have done. Surely the Lord God will do nothing but He reveal it to His servant, His Prophet; and we have this source of revelation and inspiration to guide us as we become a prepared people, for that is the burden of his work, and the work of this Priesthood Council. We have to keep repeating this, I suppose, to keep the great object in view before us continually.

I feel like reading again this revelation that Brother Edson referred to. I know it is a source of great inspiration and help to me, this revelation that was given through the Prophet Joseph Smith for the benefit of his father, who later became the Patriarch to the Church for the keys of the sealing blessings. The example of this great father is one of inspiration to us, as he received from his son, the chosen one of God to restore the Gospel, the holy Priesthood, and open the last dispensation of the fullness of times, of which we are a part. How he received the work that Joseph obtained from our Father in heaven was a beautiful thing. He inquired of his son what the Lord wanted of him.

1. Now behold, a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

This is true, in the very beginning. This revelation was given in February 1829, but do we realize, brothers and sisters, that it is still true? A great and marvelous work is yet about to come forth among the children of men. Generations before us have failed to redeem Zion, and God has promised, as we have it laid out in the Doctrine and Covenants by the Prophet Joseph, after the saints were driven from Jackson County, the City of Zion, because they had polluted their inheritances through covetousness, dissension, jarrings and so forth -- we are still trying to overcome these things, and fulfill the promise of God to redeem Zion. When it is redeemed, as we well know, not only His angels will go up before us, but the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

So we are still in the same position, brothers and sisters. True, the Priesthood had not been restored physically upon the Prophet Joseph at this moment, and the organizations of the Priesthood and of the Church had not been set up, but we are the beneficiaries of them, and the great and marvelous work is yet to come forth, and I certainly pray that we will be a part of it.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;

If we have faith, brothers and sisters, and repent, and receive of the Gospel and all of its ordinances, we are called to the work, this great work of redemption; and we must first redeem ourselves, save this one soul before we can save and redeem others.

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

Certainly, the field is white, ready to harvest, as far as getting rid of the characteristics in our character that are contrary to the Spirit of God, the attributes of the Holy Ghost; and ours is the great work of overcoming. That field is white, ready to harvest, overcoming all that is contrary to the Spirit of God, which is the spirit of oneness.

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

These are the attributes of the Holy Ghost, which we are to obtain if we will get and keep it, and have it as our constant companion.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

There is a glorious and beautiful pattern for us, brothers and sisters, if we want to know how. First, we must learn the Spirit of God, how to get it and to keep it; and this is by humbling ourselves before God, submitting ourselves to be led by it, and rendering perfect obedience to the Priesthood which stands over us, heads of families, and the Priesthood which presides over this work and people. You will not get the Spirit of God except through that channel, brothers and sisters. Try as you will, you will not get it through any other source or means. Heber C. Kimball spoke a grand truth when he said, "Where did you come from if you did not come out of this Priesthood?" And he said further, "How will you get the Spirit of God except through us?" speaking of the presiding Priesthood under Brigham Young in that day. And it is still true, particularly under our head.

Brothers and sisters, we have laid before us so many times this great work of faith, this attribute of God, standing next to knowledge in the list of the attributes which are given by Joseph. We obtain knowledge through faith, and we obtain all of the other attributes through faith. So faith seems to be the greatest of all. It is called "power" in that work, the Lectures on Faith, and this is the only way we will ever obtain power with God, is through faith.

How does faith then become a power in our beings, and in our lives, and existence? By coming to this point that Enoch came to, that Abel came to, and all of the holy Prophets and fathers; that which Joseph came to. He had this testimony that he pleased God. Therefore, brothers and sisters, it is this course of life, coming to know, through our faith and faithfulness, or having confidence that God will reward us according to our obedience. And then, coming to know that our course is pleasing, we can then go to Him and have all of the power that we need to accomplish the work of salvation and exaltation in our lives. And believe me, brothers and sisters, we, each and every one, have got to save ourselves through our obedience.

Women, too, have got to obey the same principles. They have got to accomplish the same character-building, changing, that the brethren do, if they are to be perfected and sanctified. We all have the same job to do, brothers and sisters, and there are not going to be any "shirttail" people saved in the Kingdom of God. For a woman to be saved and exalted, she has got to make the same sacrifice that a man has. The man has the Priesthood, and the power of direction. But believe me, brothers and sisters, the great sacrifice that is required is that of laying upon the altar all things that are contrary to the attributes of the Holy Spirit, a changing of our character. This basically is what is wrong with most of us today. Somehow we think we have got it made, so many, when we have not; and this is a great deception of false and delusive spirits, very often, in many cases.

The great sacrifice required therefore, is that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit, giving up every earthly thing that stands in the way of our growth and the changing of our character into that of the attributes and character of God - sacrificing every earthly thing. These characteristics that we are born with, in this lone and dreary world which came under the dominion of satan, we are born with from many generations back, and it is for us, then, to overcome and to change these characteristics.

One of the grandest treatises on the plan of salvation that we have is The Mediation and Atonement of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, written by John Taylor, and I would like to read a few paragraphs here that I think may help us, and keep before us again the great object in view of our existence. He first pointed out, after having stated so beautifully how Christ, as a Mediator between God and man, the Son of God, the Firstborn, the Only Begotten in the flesh, having come and overcome the first sin which made us mortal, and bringing us into a position where we could obtain the resurrection of the body; but further, if we would believe on Him, obtain exaltation after our resurrection in the presence of the Father. The resurrection, therefore, is the restoration of the body. Death was brought into the world by one, Adam; life and the resurrection having been purchased by one God, Jesus Christ.

The next question for us to examine is, How, and in what manner are men benefitted by the atonement and by the resurrection? In this, that the atonement having restored man to his former position before the Lord, it has placed him in a position and made it possible for him to obtain that exaltation and glory which it would have been impossible for him to have received without it; even to become a son of God by adoption;

I suppose we realize that the Lord Jesus Christ is the only Heir of the Father. We may become joint heirs, as Joseph teaches us in that Fifth Lecture, and enjoy all that He has by keeping the commandments, and being faithful and true to the end, joint heirs with Him, and receive all that the Father hath. Here is how He tells us it is done:

...and being a son then an heir of God, and a joint heir with Jesus Christ; and that, as Christ overcame, He has made it possible, and has placed it within the power of believers in Him, also to overcome; and as He is authorized to inherit His Father's glory which He had with Him before the world was, with His resurrected body, so through the adoption, may we overcome and sit down with Him upon His throne, as He has overcome and has sat down upon His Father's throne. And as he has said, "I and the Father are one," so are the obedient saints one with Him, as He is one with the Father, even as He prayed:

This is one of the grandest scriptures I have ever read, and I suppose to you, too.

"That they all may be one...

Speaking of His Apostles, and those that the Lord had given Him.

"That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them;"

That glory is the Holy Spirit, the mind of the Father and the Son.

"...that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me." -- John, xvii, 21-23.

Being the sons of God through the atonement and adoption, and through faith in Jesus Christ, they rise to the dignity and glory of the Godhead, even to be Gods; as it is promised:

Isn't that beautiful? He quotes some scriptures from John the Beloved in the Book of Revelations.

"Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. -- Rev., iii, 12.

Again, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne." - - Rev., iii, 21.

Yet again, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." -- Rev., xxi, 7.

Hence, through His atonement, believers in Christ, and those who obey His law, partake of His glory and exaltation, and are inheritors of the Godhead; whilst those who do not obey His law although resurrected cannot inherit this exaltation; they are raised from the dead, but cannot inherit a celestial glory without being obedient to a celestial law, and thus we come again to a scripture quoted before. Jesus said, "Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem."

Having noticed the great blessings, privileges, powers and exaltations that are placed within the reach of man, through the atonement of Jesus Christ, it next becomes our duty to enquire what is required of man to place him in possession of them.

Then he describes most beautifully, the grand principles, the first principles of the Gospel: Faith, repentance, baptism by immersion for the remission of sins, and the laying on of the hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost, this great gift of God to man. Thus, through continual obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel of Christ, through the Priesthood, we may lay hold upon these blessings.

May God give us strength now, brothers and sisters, and the spirit of repentance sufficient to realize our condition and set about to overcome, and make the necessary sacrifice in that process. The overcoming is through this sacrifice, the great law of sacrifice. Will we give these things up that are holding us back, brothers and sisters, or will we not? Or will we cling to the world and carry a double yoke, and be miserable all the day long and through the remainder of our lives? Let us become truly spiritual. Get and keep the Spirit of God, and remember these attributes that we will obtain if we overcome, and thus become like God. A beautiful statement of the Prophet in Lecture Seven, verse 16:

Lecture Seven

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and for any portion of the human family to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved;

And exalted, may we add.
16. ...and to be unlike them is to be destroyed;
Ever increasing, or going back -- which way, brothers and sisters?
16. ...and on this hinge turns the door of salvation.

God bless you, amen.

Faith; Must Please God

A beautiful sight, my brothers and sisters, and I rejoice in being here with you, partaking of the spirit of this wonderful occasion under the presidency of President Johnson, and his direction. I rejoice in the blessings of the Lord to me and to all of you, as we are enabled to enjoy the long peaceful season that we have had in enabling us to round out our salvation, as President Johnson so much desires for all of us. Yet, this peace may be working as a test to all of us, when you get right down to it. Peace and prosperity is taking a toll in our faith and our faithfulness, and probably as a fulfillment, I am sure it is, of the prophecy of John Y. Barlow: One of the greatest tests that we would have would be prosperity and wealth, which we enjoy, at least comparatively; when we compare what it was when I first came into this work, when we were being driven and persecuted by our friends and the Church; those who should rejoice that there were those who desired to put special emphasis in abiding the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel, and keeping these glorious principles of life and salvation alive.

Now, the call, brothers and sisters, is to continually repent, and to round out our lives. The corollary of this is the increase of faith, which is a gift of God, and which is granted us according to our obedience to the Gospel and to the laws and ordinances thereof. God will grant us this great faith that will enable us to have power with Him, for faith is power, power with God.

I was struck again with increasing force with some more careful reading of Lecture Six of the Lectures on Faith, which I pray God to help me to lay before you, to help you and to help me to do better, to increase our faith; for I am sure, brothers and sisters, that according to our faith, so shall it be. This is the promise of God to us, and has been from the beginning. When we have the faith of the brother of Jared, which Lorin Woolley and others have obtained, we will then begin to know God and have our calling and election made sure, to be endowed and blessed, and be granted the glorious blessings that we desire so much.

The course of life, brothers and sisters, the purity and the perfection of our course of life will determine the degree of faith that we enjoy. Having come to a knowledge of who God is, what He is, His character and attributes, and that we must be like Him to enjoy His presence; in order to obtain that, our course of life must be pleasing. I am always reminded of the glorious example we have in the Prophet Enoch, the Prophet Melchizedek, and Elijah, and Abraham, and Joseph Smith; who had this testimony that they pleased God, and they therefore had power with Him and were able to obtain, having overcome as Jesus overcame.

Lecture Six

2. This knowledge supplies an important place in revealed religion; for it was by reason of it that the ancients were enabled to endure as seeing him who is invisible.

That is very striking, brothers and sisters. To me, it epitomizes the true nature of faith -- to walk as seeing Him who is invisible. This is the faith the ancients had in looking forward to the great atonement and the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Their faith was such that it was as though it had already happened; which we now have as a background for our faith, knowing that it has happened.

2. ...An actual knowledge to any person, that the course of life which he pursues is according to the will of God, is essentially necessary to enable him to have that confidence in God without which no person can obtain eternal life.

Confidence in God is faith in God. Heber C. Kimball put it beautifully when he said, "What is faith? It is confidence. What is confidence? It is faith." And one has said that true virtue is being faithful, or it is loyalty to knowledge obtained ages and ages ago. This is faith and confidence -- loyalty to knowledge we obtained ages and ages ago.

2. ...It was this that enabled the ancient saints to endure all their afflictions and persecutions, and to take joyfully the spoiling of their goods, knowing (not believing merely) that they had a more enduring substance. Hebrews x. 34.

3. Having the assurance that they were pursuing a course which was agreeable to the will of God, they were enabled to take, not only the spoiling of their goods, and the wasting of their substance, joyfully, but also to suffer death in its most horrid forms; knowing (not merely believing)

Having a testimony that they pleased God.

3. ...that when this earthly house of their tabernacle was dissolved, they had a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Corin. v. 1.

4. Such was, and always will be, the situation of the saints of God, that unless they have an actual knowledge that the course they are pursuing is according to the will of God they will grow weary in their minds, and faint;

Are we in that condition, brothers and sisters? Are we growing weary in well-doing? Are we fainting? Is prosperity and wealth taking away from us this great gift of faith? I trust that the Lord will not address us: "O ye of little faith."

4. ...for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers

Here we have described the opposition and the persecution by those who know not God; and we have described here the condition of true saints. I wish that you would follow every word as we go through this.

4. ...for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers and those that know not God against the pure and unadulterated religion of heaven (the only thing which insures eternal life), that they will persecute to the uttermost

Here is the description of the saints.

4. ...all that worship God according to his revelations, receive the truth in the love of it, and submit themselves to be guided and directed by his will; and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven,

Having this testimony that they pleased God,

4. ...and of their having embraced the order of things which God has established for the redemption of man, Nothing short of this.

4. ...will enable them to exercise that confidence in him, necessary for them to overcome the world, and obtain that crown of glory which is laid up for them that fear God.

To overcome the world -- this is the sacrifice that we must make, brothers and sisters. The first commandment of God to Father Adam was to multiply and replenish the earth, and to subdue it, subdue this earth in us. That is what is meant -- not to conquer the world. Who wants it? But we are required to subdue the earth in us, worldly things in us; and this is the nature, basically, of the sacrifice required. Yes, it even goes on to say:

5. For a man to lay down his all, his character and reputation, his honor, and applause, his good name among men, his houses, his lands, his brothers and sisters, his wife and children, and even his own life also -- counting all things but filth and dross for the excellency of the knowledge of Jesus Christ -- requires more than mere belief or supposition that he is doing the will of God; but actual knowledge, realizing that, when these sufferings are ended, he will enter into eternal rest, and be a partaker of the glory of God.

God requires the sacrifice of these also, but He does not need them. What He wants, as the brethren have so frequently said, is our hearts. He wants the man, the woman who has overcome. All the other things will be added, and it will come along with it, once God has our hearts, all our might, mind, and strength; loving Him, and keeping His commandments, and diligently serving Him. Therefore, in order to have this knowledge that our course is pleasing to Him requires that we become like Him. That is when He can use us, when we are like Him, when our will is swallowed up in His, as Jesus' was. We must be one with Him. In order to do so, we must be like Him, and overcome the world, the earth in us. I wish I had the words of John Taylor in describing this great thing, overcoming the world, having overcome. We have quoted statements from the Bible, in which you are told that as Jesus overcame, so must we. And those who overcome He will make pillars in His temple, and they will go no more out, thus having become like Him.

6. For unless a person does know that he is walking according to the will of God, it would be offering an insult to the dignity of the Creator were he to say that he would be a partaker of his glory when he should be done with the things of this life. But when he has this knowledge, and most assuredly knows that he is doing the will of God, his confidence can be equally strong that he will be a partaker of the glory of God.

Is not that what we desire, brothers and sisters? Or is it just a wish? We are blessed according to our desires, or our faith, in other words. And I am afraid that is about the nature of the faith of far, far too many -- just a wish, wishful thinking, and not willing to make the sacrifice and pay the price. As Christ sacrificed and overcame, so must we, if we are to become like Him.

7. Let us here observe, that a religion that does not require the sacrifice of all things never has power sufficient to produce the faith necessary unto life and salvation; for, from the first existence of man, the faith necessary unto the enjoyment of life and salvation never could be obtained without the sacrifice of all earthly things. It was through this sacrifice, and this only, that God has ordained that men should enjoy eternal life; and it is through the medium of the sacrifice of all earthly things that men do actually know that they are doing the things that are well pleasing in the sight of God.

What strength and power we would have with God, brothers and sisters, if we had this testimony that we had overcome all of the earth, and worldly things in us, and get to a point that Jesus described, of wearing that one yoke, which is easy and the burden light, having obtained that joy and knowledge that we please God; instead of carrying two yokes, the yoke of the world, the devil, and the yoke of Christ, which are at war continually. Is that how we would like to live, brothers and sisters? I do not like it, and I feel sorry to see it working in the lives of so many, trying to carry a double yoke.

So we see, brothers and sisters, to overcome we must overcome the devil, hell, and death, as Christ did. Surely it is true, as what was said here this morning. The devil was given dominion here upon the earth when he fell, in the councils of heaven. It is into this world that we are born, the sons and daughters of God, in the spirit and in the flesh, to overcome that power and the evil that is in the earth, and to see if we would be faithful unto the end in all things. That is the very nature of our probation.

Now, brothers and sisters, we need to be more diligent. What, again, is the great price that we must pay in order to serve God?

D.& C. 4

1. Now behold, a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.
We have it yet before us, brothers and sisters.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

5. And faith, hope, charity and love,
   The pure love of Christ.

   5. ...with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity,
   The pure love of Christ.

   6. ...humility, diligence.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
   James 1

   5. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

   6. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering.

We cannot obtain, brothers and sisters, unless our course is pleasing to God; for therein only can we have power, and have confidence sufficient to obtain.
What do we desire to obtain? The presence of God, for we must be like Him.

D.& C. 82

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;

9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say;
    When our course is pleasing to Him, we have this power. He is bound when you do what He says.

10. ...but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

Can you see the power of faith, through our course of life being pleasing to Him? Let us, therefore, be faithful that we may obtain faith and power with God, and be diligent all the day long in overcoming and becoming like Him, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Faithful Will One Day Do as Father Adam and Mother Eve; Wives Should Submit to Faithful Husband in Obedience; Children Should Love and Obey Parents

I desire an interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, as I voice the truths of the Everlasting Gospel, led by the Spirit of God. My mind goes to the beginning of time when our beloved Father and Mother Eve went through what they did to make our lives possible. Father has done all things whatsoever He has done for the benefit of His children, and He suffered as He went through the change in becoming mortal. Brigham Young put these beginning truths in such beautiful language, I felt like I should read how he described the beginning.

JD 6:275 Brigham Young August 28, 1852

After men have got their exaltations and their crowns -- have become Gods, even the sons of God -- are made Kings of kings and Lords of lords, they have the power then of propagating their species in spirit;
This is the way of the Gods.

...and that is the first of their operations with regard to organizing a world. Power is then given to them to organize the elements, and then commence the organization of tabernacles. How can they do it? Have they to go to that earth? Yes, an Adam will have to go there, and he cannot do without Eve; he must have Eve to commence the work of generation, and they will go into the garden, and continue to eat and drink of the fruits of the corporeal world, until this grosser matter is diffused sufficiently through their celestial bodies to enable them, according to the established laws, to produce mortal tabernacles for their spiritual children.
This is a key for you. The faithful will become Gods, even the sons of God;
So our Father comes under Jehovah, brings Eve, one of His wives, and goes through this ordeal. They came to fall that we might be. I speak of these things to bring to our minds the original commandments that Jehovah gave to Father Michael and Eve. The first law given them was, "Multiply and replenish the earth and subdue it." This was given before they fell. So in order to comply with this law, they went through this process, bringing death into the world, which was necessary. After having been tempted, knowing good and evil, that they might become as the Gods, Jehovah said unto Adam, as they were driven from the Garden of Eden, "By the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread." And he was commanded to subdue the earth. To Eve He said, "In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children. Thy desires shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee."

Whenever there came problems to the attention of President John Y. Barlow in the early days, he had a very simple answer for married people. When it came to solving these problems, the answer would always be, "Sister, thy desires shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee." He has the Priesthood and the authority of God upon the earth to enable him to abide in the Family Order of Heaven, the holy Celestial Law of Marriage, by which they bring forth children under the covenant, to raise them up in light and truth, and he is the head.

Paul gave some beautiful instructions regarding the conduct of our family lives and I would like to read those few words.

Ephesians 5

22. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. Those last few words are very important. He is your lord. He is a vessel of God bearing the holy Priesthood. And I speak, brothers and sisters, of a faithful man who is keeping the commandments of God.

23. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

Now, for the husbands.

25. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; Love and appreciate these beautiful women, brethren. They are the mothers of your children. Teach them and exhort them to abide in this law in all holiness and humility.

25. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
26. That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
27. That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
28. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.
29. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30. For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

Speaking of each union. And remember, we are thinking of plurality.

32. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

Brethren, these dear wives are a part of us, as we are a part of God bearing His Priesthood; and we should so love the Lord with all our heart, might, mind, and strength that we magnify that Priesthood in His sight; purifying and sanctifying ourselves, our wives and our children, living in all holiness.

Now for the children.

Ephesians 6

1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;
3. That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

As the second commandment said.
4. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Thus we see, brethren and sisters, the perfect organization of a Celestial family -- the wives loving one another, and submitting themselves unto their husband as unto the Lord, remembering that each wife is a part of him; and that these children are his children, and you are their mothers, dear sisters -- chosen spirits to come forth in this time to be raised up as calves in the stall, to do the work of God; yea, even the redemption of Zion, for this is their ultimate destiny and purpose.

Let us, therefore, as a people, seek unto the Lord through His servant, our Prophet Leroy S. Johnson, who is our head. Brothers and sisters, we should love Priesthood above all. Through this we reach God, for Priesthood is God. In this same vein I would like to close by reading another beautiful thing. Orson Pratt called attention to a revelation that this people are not generally acquainted with.

It is given in questions and answers. The first question is, "What is the name of God in the pure language?" The answer says, "Ahman." "What is the name of the Son of God?" Answer, "Son Ahman -- the greatest of all the parts of God excepting Ahman." "What is the name of men?" "Sons Ahman," is the answer.

They are a part of God.

"What is the name of angels in the pure language?" "Anglo-man."

So I find a great deal of strength, brothers and sisters, in this concept of a family, and I do not think we can be one on any other premise -- one as families and as a group of Priesthood families, remembering always that these children are Priesthood children. Let them be raised up with this understanding, in their school, in their home life, and in everything that they do. These are Priesthood children, a part of God.

May the Lord help us to be humble and contrite, and offer unto the Lord an acceptable sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit, that we may serve and love Him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, as a part of Him, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The time has arrived, brothers and sisters, to commence this meeting, which we have by appointment of our President. I again call upon you to pray in your hearts, in faith, that we may have the word and will of God delivered to us today, that we may be strengthened in our most holy faith and go forth more determined to order our lives after the character and attributes of God. President Musser has asked me to conduct these services. Presidents Johnson and Jessop are in the South. Presidents Hammon and Timpson are in the North country. We will begin our services by singing.

I am reminded of a vision that President John Y. Barlow had in which he often spoke of encouragement to the saints. He saw that we were up against the wall, could seem to move no further in progress. He saw how, that by taking another step, the wall was moved, and another, until all things were overcome. And I am sure that is the way it is still, brethren and sisters. I just mention this for our edification.

* * * * *

1. Hearken, and lo, a voice as of one sent down from on high, who is mighty and powerful, whose going forth is unto the ends of the earth, yea, whose voice is unto men -- Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

2. The keys of the kingdom of God are committed unto man on the earth, and from thence shall the gospel roll forth unto the ends of the earth, as the stone which is cut out of the mountain without hands shall roll forth, until it has filled the whole earth.

3. Yea, a voice crying -- Prepare ye the way of the Lord, prepare ye the supper of the Lamb, make ready for the Bridegroom.

4. Pray unto the Lord, call upon his holy name, make known his wonderful works among the people.

5. Call upon the Lord, that his kingdom may go forth upon the earth, that the inhabitants thereof may receive it, and be prepared for the days to come, in the which the Son of Man shall come down in heaven, clothed in the brightness of his glory, to meet the kingdom of God which is set up on the earth.

6. Wherefore, may the kingdom of God go forth, that the kingdom of heaven may come, that thou, O God, mayest be glorified in heaven so on earth, that thine enemies may be subdued; for thine is the honor, power and glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Testimony of the Godhead;
Keep the Spirit of God to Become Like God

I am very happy to be here with you again today, brethren and sisters, and to participate in this feast from the Lord, which I trust I may be some small instrument in assisting in this work. I am sure the Lord is going to have to help me today, for I will have to rely entirely upon the Spirit of God for direction.

My mind always goes to Joseph the Prophet when I seem to lack words, for I rejoice in the great work that he came and performed in this great and last dispensation, this last kingdom, as he frequently referred to it. How much we are indebted to this great character, and those that the Lord has sent in his place since, is something that we should contemplate daily. I rejoice in the knowledge of who and what Joseph Smith is. It helps me a great deal to understand the laws and the principles that he taught, to know who he is and the great place that he occupies in the economy of the Gods, for he is one of them.

There is God the first, the Creator; God the second, the Redeemer; and God the third, the Witness and Testator -- yes, in the form of a man. The Holy Ghost is also a personage of Spirit, which Spirit is the mind of God issuing forth from Himself. What a glorious thing to understand, brethren and sisters, that this man, Joseph, acts in that office.

We have the perfect example of a man before us who has overcome as Christ did, who became perfect in his generation and obtained that same testimony that Enoch and Abel and other great characters obtained, that he pleased God. Joseph mentioned on more than one occasion, "Would to God, brethren, I could tell you who I am. Would to God I could tell you what I know. But there are those sitting on this stand," he said, "who would desire to take my life." Such characters desiring that would have to be those aspiring men who wanted to take Joseph's place; and there were such characters.
So, brethren and sisters, we have in our generation, so to speak -- for we are still a part of that generation in the long term -- in our generation we have another example of a character, godlike and godly, and standing as God over this last dispensation to show us how to lay hold on eternal life. Do we realize this, brethren and sisters, how great is the work and the character of this man, Joseph the Seer? I love to hear that song written by John Taylor, which is so full of truth regarding the character and the labors of Joseph the Prophet. And I, for one, long for the day when I shall be able to be worthy to strike hands with him and fall on his neck and kiss him, as with the brethren, our Priesthood fathers who followed him.

So we are not without example, and we certainly are left without excuse, by all of the teachings that the brethren have given us from the beginning of this dispensation until the present. Equally, I am grateful for the great work of John Taylor, who proved himself so worthy and faithful that the Lord chose him as an instrument -- also a martyr, a double martyr, if you please -- to institute this dispensation within that great dispensation of Joseph's, for it is a part of that, a special dispensation. It was simply an extension of it, a continuation of the great work, and a continuation of the purposes of God to raise up a people that will redeem Zion.

So, brethren and sisters, how great a work lies before us. I am sure that there is generally insufficient gratitude shown to the Lord for giving us these great blessings. And I feel to humble myself before Him and submit myself more perfectly to His will and way and purposes.

What a wonderful thing to contemplate that Joseph, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost, directs and continues this last dispensation. Without the Holy Spirit we are nothing, brethren and sisters, this greatest of all the gifts of God to us, next to our own lives of course; having been brought forth in the greatest and last dispensation under the New and Everlasting Covenant of the holy Priesthood.

I am impressed at this time, my dear brethren and sisters, that we need to become more humble, and truly offer a sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit; that we might lay hold on the gifts of the Spirit -- revelation, discernment, the gifts of healing -- that we may be healed up in our spirits and in our bodies, for there are many sick among us, spiritually and physically.
So the great struggle, the great object in view then is, as always, to get and keep the Holy Spirit. And sometimes I ask, "How do you get the Spirit of God, and how do you keep it?" The answer is very, very simple -- by keeping the commandments. How do you keep the commandments? By submitting to legitimate authority, submitting ourselves to be led, brethren and sisters; humbling ourselves and coming forth with an offering of a broken heart and a contrite spirit, the spirit of repentance, if you please. Every day that we live, that the Lord gives us to live, is a new day and a new opportunity to improve ourselves, to watch ourselves, to overcome the adversary of all righteousness. Without the Holy Ghost we cannot overcome as Jesus overcame, and as all the holy Prophets have overcome. So we overcome with this very simple means, if we will keep it in mind.

I think that too many of us get rebellious in our spirits, which is one of the great faults and troubles that we have to deal with, struggling continuously, it seems, bearing a double yoke with that of the world and that of the Priesthood; in which case, as you understand, we are always at war. So I would call upon you and myself at this time, my dear brothers and sisters, to submit ourselves to be led, to come forth with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, with a determination to obey -- to obey, dear brethren and sisters, and not rebel. What a wonderful thing if all would submit perfectly to God through His servants and our legitimate heads, and all labor together as one in the hands of God.

I would like to close with this beautiful statement of the Prophet in the Lectures, which proves perfectly what I have been saying here today.

Lecture Five

2. ...the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; ***

And we understand that the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son.

2. ...in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments;

Most of us are guilty of unbelief.

2. ...and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ;

He is the only Heir of God, the Firstborn. What a glorious thing that we have the great law and principle of adoption. We little understand the nature of that glorious principle. But this operates so that we can obtain these blessings.

2. ...grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ;
Through adoption.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all;
There is an actual transformation, brethren and sisters, physically and spiritually. Through this process of sanctification, laying hold upon the gifts of the Holy Ghost, so that it is our constant companion.

2. ...being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation,
Faith is the grand operating principle, the first principle of the Gospel -- faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and in God the Father, and in the Holy Ghost.

3. ...through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit.
Through the Spirit, brethren and sisters, which is the mind of the Father. Can we understand, brethren and sisters? When we have the Holy Spirit, we have the mind of the Father and the Son.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them.
Joint heirs with Jesus the Christ, our Elder Brother.

3. ...Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.
Let us labor with all our heart, might, mind, and strength to lay hold on these blessings, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Great Work of President Johnson Is to Prepare a People to Redeem Zion; Faith

I stand before you, my dear brothers and sisters, fully dependent upon the Spirit of God to direct my remarks for the edification of us all; for I desire but to be an instrument in the hands of God in fulfilling the obligations that rest upon me under these circumstances. I am very grateful to be here with you, in association with my brethren. As I was sitting here looking over this beautiful congregation, I was reminded, as I have been on many occasions, of how our President and this Council yearns over this people. I realize that the great work that devolves upon this Council, and particularly upon President Johnson, is to prepare a people to be used for the redemption of Zion. This great work that lies before us, it is something to contemplate.

A little history might be of some help. The very first law that was given, after the first principles and the laws of the Priesthood, or the establishment of the holy Apostleship through Joseph and Oliver and others, and the organization of the Church, was the requirement that the saints go and build up Zion and redeem her. That first law involved the abiding of the Holy United Order. It was required that the saints go there, not in haste, to the center place, near Adam-ondi-Ahman, the scene of the first great scenes after creation and the coming of Father Adam and Eve upon the earth to bring about the propagation of his species, bring forth his spirit children, that they might have bodies, and come up and be like himself.

When we realize, brothers and sisters, that this place must be redeemed, and that the whole of North and South America is Zion, in its greatest conception, the center place being in Jackson County, Missouri. The Lord tried to get a people in those early eight years, after the restoration of the holy Priesthood. He desired to redeem Zion, and He made several attempts. There was even a set time, September of 1836, for the redemption of Zion; subject only, of course, to the faith and the faithfulness and the preparation of a people. That is still the great and marvelous work that lies before us.

After having so many movements, times of persecution of the saints of God in the latter days, we are now established in the tops of the mountains, the mountains of the Lord's House, from whence Zion must eventually be redeemed. It would be wonderful, my dear brothers and sisters, if we could catch this larger picture that lies before us, and what obligations rest upon us.

As we have been reminded by our President so many times, Zion cannot be redeemed, only under the Celestial Law. The fullness of the Gospel, the fullness of the Celestial Law, is Celestial and Plural Marriage, and the Holy United Order, both of which must be lived and abided inseparably connected with the powers of the holy Priesthood and the powers of heaven. So we have all of the necessary foundation on which to build, particularly the holy Apostleship, without which none of these things can be done.

Now, this much time having expired, we having gone so many, many years trying to accomplish this great objective, why, it may be asked, has it not been done? Why do we not enjoy all the fullness of the ordinances of the House of God, which must be obtained before there can be a prepared people? I can only conclude, brethren and sisters, it is because we lack faith. It may well be said of us, as the Lord Jesus Christ said, "O ye of little faith." "When will you come up to the great obligations that rest upon you?" the Lord may say to us today. Let me use some of the words of Joseph, which I love to quote.

Lecture Seven

3. Let us here offer some explanation in relation to faith, that our meaning may be clearly comprehended. We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force. It is by words, instead of exerting his physical powers, with which every being works when he works by faith.

We show our faith by our works, to be sure, but it begins and ends with faith, if there be an ending. Or, should we say, it would end in a lack of faith in not having accomplished these things.

3. ...God said, "Let there be light, and there was light." Joshua spake, and the great lights which God had created stood still. Elijah commanded, and the heavens were stayed for the space of three years and six months, so that it did not rain: he again commanded and the heavens gave forth rain. All this was done by faith. And the Savior says, "If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, say to this mountain, 'Remove,' and it will remove; or say to that sycamine tree, 'Be ye plucked up, and planted in the midst of the sea,' and it shall obey you." Faith, then, works by words; and with these its mightiest works have been, and will be, performed.

The Prophet explained in the Lecture before this one, number six, that we could not develop enough faith to lay hold on eternal life except we had knowledge given to us that our course of life pleased God. This preparation, then, to lay hold upon sufficient faith, to realize these great blessings and objectives, rests upon our becoming like God, so as to be approved in all things, as Brother Jessop said. Without that strength, and that power behind us and with us, we cannot lay hold on enough faith to accomplish these things. A little further along in Lecture Seven, we have these things recited to us to exhibit to us what can be accomplished by faith, and to show that in order to accomplish this great objective of redeeming Zion, we must have that degree of faith.

17. ...To this all the revelations of God bear witness. If there were children of promise, they were the effects of faith, not even the Saviour of the world excepted. "Blessed is she that believed," said Elizabeth to Mary, when she went to visit her, "for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord." Luke i. 45.

So there was great faith in these two glorious women, who were to bring forth the forerunner of the Lord Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ Himself, by the Father.

17. ...Nor was the birth of John the Baptist the less a matter of faith; for in order that his father Zacharias might believe he was struck dumb. And through the whole history of the scheme of life and salvation, it is a matter of faith: every man received according to his faith -- according as his faith was, so were his blessings and privileges; and nothing was withheld from him when his faith was sufficient to receive it.

I am simple enough to believe that, brethren and sisters. Now a few incidents, or examples.

17. ...He could stop the mouths of lions, quench the violence of fire, escape the edge of the sword, wax valiant in fight, and put to flight the armies of the aliens; women could, by their faith, receive their dead children to life again;
That is possible, brethren and sisters, by faith.

17. ...in a word, there was nothing impossible with them who had faith. All things were in subjection to the Former-day Saints, according as their faith was. By their faith they could obtain heavenly visions, the ministering of angels, have knowledge of the spirits of just men made perfect, of the general assembly and church of the first born, whose names are written in heaven, of God the judge of all, of Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and become familiar with the third heavens, see and hear things which were not only unutterable, but were unlawful to utter. Peter, in view of the power of faith, second epistle, first chapter, second and third verses, says to the Former-day Saints: "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, according as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue." In the first epistle, first chapter, third, fourth and fifth verses he says: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time."

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what He proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and for any portion of the human family to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved; and to be unlike them is to be destroyed; and on this hinge turns the door of salvation.

These are the things that we must attain to, that degree of faith that will accomplish these things. It took faith in Joseph Smith the Prophet to go and kneel in the woods, to bring about the first step of the restoration, the visit of the Father and the Son to him to lay the foundation of that great work. It took faith to bring Moroni, and through years of preparation, the delivery by Moroni to Joseph of the plates of the Book of Mormon, which contained the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel. Each step he took in that great process of restoration, required perfect faith in the bosom of this man, this great Apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ, this man who acts and stands in the office of the Holy Ghost, the third member of the Godhead, if you please. Everything that was accomplished through this grand head of this last dispensation was accomplished by faith, as it existed in this great and holy man. We are indebted to him, as well as our Lord Jesus Christ and our Father in heaven, for all that we enjoy by way of the blessings of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

How humble and grateful we should be, and therefore obedient, that we might be built up in our most holy faith, to lay hold upon these great blessings. Can we therefore, my brethren and sisters, in view of our present condition, be said to be lazy, spiritually lazy? I think so. But this can be overcome, and it must be overcome for the Lord to have a people

I pray that we will rally around the Priesthood of God, around President Leroy Sunderland Johnson, in the accomplishment of this great work. Stay close, my dear brothers and sisters, to the Apostleship, as President Musser so beautifully explained and described, and exhorted the saints in the South last Sunday. Let us remember these things and be busily engaged in the work of God, in the business of our Father in heaven, as the Savior said when His mother came and found Him preaching, or teaching to the wise men: "Let us be about our Father's business," through His Priesthood, by the power of faith. May I read to you, in concluding, that great process by which we perfect our faith, as was described by Elder B. H. Roberts. Remember this foundation principle -- obedience.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, Which it is. "Power with God" is how I define faith, and that is what we need.

...will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Faith and knowledge are two of the greatest attributes of God, if we can say one is greater than the other. But there is knowledge, faith, justice, judgment, mercy and truth -- all attributes of the Holy Spirit, which is the mind of the Father, issuing forth from Himself to us by this great gift which you have received by the laying on of hands.

God help us to live by it, to obtain it and never let it leave us, walking in obedience to all of the commandments, and becoming perfect in Christ Jesus, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Criticism Wastes the Strength of Zion;
Keep Sacred Things Secret; The Prophet Belongs to the Lord,
Not the People; Faith

I appreciate this privilege of being with you here again today, and to stand before this beautiful congregation, to look in your faces and to call upon all of us to repent and do better, and follow the instructions and commandments of God through His servant President Johnson, some of whose instructions have been recounted to us here today.

I ask for an interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, that I may be led of the Spirit of God. These statements that Brother Carl Johnson has recounted to you here are indeed most serious, and constitute a real indictment against this people. Would that I had the tongue of an angel to recount the commands of God unto us to keep, that we might be that people, that prepared people to be used to redeem Zion.

President Johnson has, on many occasions, called upon this people to cease the spirit of criticism, the thing that will destroy a people. I am, at this moment, reminded of a letter written by Joseph Smith, January 14, 1833, written to William W. Phelps, one of the leading brethren in Zion, Jackson County, where the saints, about a year and a half before this, had been called to build up and redeem Zion under the Holy United Order. He speaks in this letter of a condition which may be likened to that which is among us, or I am sure President Johnson wouldn't have said what he has.

Kirtland, January 14, 1833.

Brother William W. Phelps:

I send you the "olive leaf" which we have plucked from the tree of Paradise, the Lord's message of peace to us; for though our brethren in Zion indulge in feelings towards us, which are not according to the requirements of the new covenant, yet, we have the satisfaction of knowing that the Lord approves of us, and has accepted us, and established His name in Kirtland for the salvation of the nations; for the Lord will have a place whence His word will go forth, in these last days, in purity; for if Zion will not purify herself, so as to be approved of in all things, in His sight, He will seek another people; for His work will go on until Israel is gathered, and they who will not hear His voice, must expect to feel His wrath. Let me say unto you, seek to purify yourselves, and also the inhabitants of Zion, lest the Lord's anger be kindled to fierceness.

Repent, repent, is the voice of God to Zion;
And the brethren have been calling upon this people to repent and to set themselves and their houses in order. That is in the spirit of repentance.

...and strange as it may appear, yet it is true, mankind will persist in self-justification until all their iniquity is exposed, and their character past being redeemed, and that which is treasured up in their hearts be exposed to the gaze of mankind. I say to you (and what I say to you I say to all), hear the warning voice of God, lest Zion fall, and the Lord swear in His wrath the inhabitants of Zion shall not enter into His rest.

The brethren in Kirtland pray for you unceasingly, for, knowing the terrors of the Lord, they greatly fear for you. You will see that the Lord commanded us, in Kirtland, to build a house of God, and establish a school for the Prophets, this is the word of the Lord to us, and we must, yea, the Lord helping us, we will obey: as on conditions of our obedience He has promised us great things; yea, even a visit from the heavens to honor us with His own presence. We greatly fear before the Lord lest we should fail of this great honor, which our Master proposes to confer on us; we are seeking for humility and great faith lest we be ashamed in His presence.
How these things can be applied to us, brethren and sisters.

Our hearts are greatly grieved at the spirit which is breathed both in your letter and that of Brother Gilbert's, the very spirit which is wasting the strength of Zion like a pestilence; and if it is not detected and driven from you, it will ripen Zion for the threatened judgments of God. Remember God sees the secret springs of human action, and knows the hearts of all living.

Brother, suffer us to speak plainly, for God has respect to the feelings of His Saints, and He will not suffer them to be tantalized with impunity.  All we can say by way of conclusion is, if the fountain of our tears be not dried up, we will still weep for Zion. This from your brother who trembles for Zion, and for the wrath of heaven, which awaits her if she repents not.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

So this spirit of criticism, brothers and sisters, wastes the strength of Zion. We would like to have a part in the redemption of that center place of Zion, I am sure, for this still lies before a chosen and a prepared people. Many are called, but few are chosen. Why? Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world. I am sure that is what besets altogether too many of us. Will we be among the chosen to be called up to redeem Zion? Let me say, only those will be chosen who are able to show by their works and their great faith, and their perfect obedience, perfect faith, that they are able to redeem the Zion in which they live. Zion is the pure in heart, right here for us, and we must redeem this place, sanctify our families, our homes, and the land upon which we dwell. Sanctification is the order of the day, the means by which we may become and lay hold upon perfect faith, and become like God. No one will be called up to go assist in the redemption of Zion upon that great journey, to be able to follow in the footsteps behind the leadership of our Lord Jesus Christ, unless we can stand in His presence, unless we are like Him. Who will be chosen? It will be those who are obedient. It will be those who can keep secrets, the secrets of the Lord. It will be those who can stand chastisement.

I feel like reading the words of Joseph today. I often think of that glorious promise that the Lord made by His Holy Spirit in a revelation to Heber C. Kimball as he dwelt in Far West, or somewhere in that area -- I think it was Far West -- while the Prophet Joseph Smith and his brethren were incarcerated in Liberty Jail. Brother Kimball was despairing for the welfare of his family, whom he loved so dearly. The Lord told him, "Blessed art thou, My son, because thou hast been careful to follow the words of My servant Joseph." And he was so close to him that on one occasion Joseph Smith told Heber C. Kimball that his inheritance would be on the north of his in Zion.

President Joseph arose and said: "Brother Kimball has given you a true explanation of the parable," and then read the parable of the vine and its branches, and explained it, and said,

Do we know what that parable is? We are the branches, Jesus Christ is the vine, and we are to cling to it, to stay with it, that it gives life. He will give life to us if we are true and faithful to Him.

"If we keep the commandments of God, we should bring forth fruit and be the friends of God, and know what our Lord did. Some people say I am a fallen Prophet, because I do not bring forth more of the word of the Lord,"

And I have heard some say this, even among this people, of President Johnson; not that he was a fallen Prophet, but because more of the word of the Lord isn't given, as he supposed. We are hearing the word of the Lord every day he stands before this people. We have got to learn to live the revelations that have been given before we will be given more. The word of the Lord is, "Be thou faithful over these few things, and I will make you ruler over many." This is the law of life in the Priesthood of God.

Why do I not do it? Are we able to receive it? No! Not one in this room. He then chastened the congregation for their wickedness and unbelief, 'for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son and daughter whom he receiveth,' and if we do not receive chastisements then we are bastards and not sons."

On the subject of revelation, he said, a man would command his sons to dig potatoes and saddle his horse, but before he had done either he would tell him to do something else. This is all considered right; but as soon as the Lord gives a commandment and revokes that decree and commands something else, then the Prophet is considered fallen. Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it.

Such a one is a corrupt man. Why does he get angry and not endure it? Because he is guilty in his conscience, and a guilty conscience can be a terrible thing. Let us, therefore, be innocent, brothers and sisters. Now here is something for us to ponder:

The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us, is because we do not keep them but reveal them; we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord? I can keep a secret till Doomsday.

Therein is another great fault of this people -- gossiping, telling family secrets outside of the family, treating lightly the things that should be kept sacred and holy to us. It has been told us, brothers and sisters, the next great step for this people and their advancement in the Kingdom of God and in their preparation, as a people to redeem Zion, is to be able to receive the ordinances of the House of God. I want to tell you in the name of the Lord, brothers and sisters, one of the reasons we haven't had them yet is because we cannot keep secrets. Were they to be given us, they would be revealed, these ordinances of the House of God, which are sacred and secret, the secrets of God.

I will tell you why we haven't also. As far back as 1947, the Priesthood called forth a number of the saints to be rebaptized for the remission of their sins, for the renewal of their covenants, for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the establishment of this order of the Priesthood in the earth. And what happened? They told it all over Zion. This was to have been a partial endowment, and it was a great test for us. How sad. When it comes time for a man to take his wives up to receive their sacred endowments, believe me, a woman who cannot keep secrets cannot go.

Now brethren and sisters, we have a great deal to accomplish to fulfill these instructions that our President has given us. These admonitions of the Prophet Joseph to Brother Phelps has a counterpart among us -- this criticism of the brethren. I learned early in my experience in this work, which dates back to February 1939 -- and I am so grateful I learned it early, after learning the nature of the Priesthood borne by those brethren who had been called and chosen of God -- that they belonged to God, not to the people. The vote to the people is never given to sustain them. They are called of God, and they belong to Him. President John Y. Barlow once told me, and I have been grateful for it from that day to this, "If you don't understand some of the sayings of the brethren, put it on the shelf until you do. But above all, don't criticize him." So I learned early, "hands off". Do not put forth your hand to steady the ark. Leave them to God's judgment. They belong to God and He will deal with them if they be in error. I would like to pass this same lesson on to you, my brothers and sisters.

I pray that there is not a spirit of division that I hear about concerning the people here. The very thing that Joseph sent to Zion can apply here just as equally well. So I desire for myself and for you to repent. Let us humble ourselves before God. Let us get down on our knees and beg for His forgiveness, and to go forth perfecting our lives, keeping the commandments, building up our most holy faith through coming to know that our course is pleasing to God, for therein is the power that we have with God, and how our faith becomes perfect. I would like to close by reading these words which summarize so beautifully the way that we build up faith.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

It begins with obedience, and it takes belief to obey. Belief is the very beginning of our faith. We must believe these laws in order to obey them. We must believe these instructions in order to obey them.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power,

Faith is a principle of power. It is power with God through knowing that our course is pleasing to Him.

...will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- "Show me your faith by your works," the Lord said.
...as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born.

This will lead us up to be endowed and blessed with the ordinances of the House of God, and make us eligible to become one of the Church of the Firstborn.

...with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

We must become one in our families first, brothers and sisters. Set in order our families. The spirit of this has been laid out so beautifully by Lorenzo Snow that I would like to read it here, if I haven't read it before, and it is well to repeat.

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost,

The Holy Ghost is a Spirit of peace, of calmness, of joy unalloyed.

...to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband,

Remember, sisters, who bears the holy Priesthood.

...and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element,

Being filled with the Holy Ghost -- pure element.

...suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children.

God bless us that we may raise up our children in light and truth as calves in the stall, and prepare a generation that will be worthy to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Kingdom of God on Earth Must Be Like the Kingdom of Heaven;
According to Our Faith, So Shall It Be

I feel very keenly the responsibility of this position, brothers and sisters, and pray that I may be strengthened by your faith and prayers, and that you indeed will exert your faith to the end that we may be fed and blessed here this day by all of the brethren. The first thing that comes to mind is the prayer, or revelation on prayer, which is a prayer itself, to the Prophet Joseph Smith, given in Section 65.

D.& C. 65

1. Hearken, and lo, a voice as of one sent down from on high, who is mighty and powerful, whose going forth is unto the ends of the earth, yea, whose voice is unto men -- Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

2. The keys of the kingdom of God are committed unto man on the earth, and from thence shall the gospel roll forth unto the ends of the earth, as the stone which is cut out of the mountain without hands shall roll forth, until it has filled the whole earth.

3. Yea, a voice crying -- Prepare ye the way of the Lord, prepare ye the supper of the Lamb, make ready for the Bridegroom.

4. Pray unto the Lord, call upon his holy name, make known his wonderful works among the people.

5. Call upon the Lord, that his kingdom may go forth upon the earth, that the inhabitants thereof may receive it, and be prepared for the days to come, in which the Son of Man shall come down in heaven, clothed in the brightness of his glory, to meet the kingdom of God which is set up on the earth.

6. Wherefore, may the kingdom of God go forth, that the kingdom of heaven may come, that thou, O God, mayest be glorified in heaven so on earth, that thine enemies may be subdued; for thine is the honor, power and glory, forever and ever. Amen.
This should be the spirit, the desires of our prayers, brothers and sisters. This people is called upon to be prepared for the coming of the Kingdom of God, of the Kingdom of heaven. You will note there are two kingdoms spoken of here. The Kingdom of God on earth is to be prepared so that the Kingdom of heaven may come. I hope we have got that distinction. It is the burden of the labors of President Johnson and this Council to prepare a people, and this is what the preparation is for, nothing more nor less. The Kingdom of God must go forth in the earth in glory, that Zion and her stakes may be beautiful, that a righteous people may be provided to go forth under the direction of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, to redeem Zion. And that Kingdom of heaven will come no sooner than such a Kingdom of God is prepared here upon the earth, and part of that coming will be the coming of the great city, the Zion of Enoch. At the coming of that city with our Lord Jesus Christ, the saints, or the Kingdom of God on the earth will be caught up to meet them.

The thing that impresses itself so much on my mind, as I read this quite often, is the magnitude of the blessings that God holds out for this people. The glorious things that are offered this people have been and continue to be offered to us, and should cause us to be ashamed because of our poor performance as a people. Thank God there are those who are preparing and are undoubtedly prepared to be used. Our beloved brother, Clarence Wayman, was such a saint. He was fully prepared to go and continue his labors on the other side, for much is required there as it is here.

And so, brothers and sisters, are we prepared to go at any time? Have we become sufficiently like God, through faith, the power of faith, that we can say, "I am prepared to go when the call comes, agreeable to the will of God"? That is the condition we should be in, brothers and sisters. And so the words keep ringing in my mind: "O ye of little faith," is applied to us, generally. President Johnson has expressed himself in rather discouraging tones to us on occasion. He is desiring the welfare of this people, which they have not come up to as they should.

So, brothers and sisters, it gets down to a matter of faith, as the Lord told Oliver Cowdery on the occasion of his having lacked faith enough to continue in the translation of the plates of the Book of Mormon. I would like to read the words of the Lord given through Joseph to Hyrum in this vein.

D. & C. 11
8. Verily, verily, I say unto you, even as you desire of me so it shall be done unto you; and, if you desire, you shall be the means of doing much good in this generation.

In other words here, He tells him that according to his faith, so shall it be. I do not know if we realize the impact of that great statement, as the Lord has given in many occasions in His scriptures: "According to our faith, so shall it be." Our faith, of course, must be agreeable to the will of God for it to be effective. The great works that were performed by such Prophets as Elijah, Moses, and Joseph, our beloved Prophet, were the result of their faith in Almighty God, faith in Michael, our Father and our God, and in the Lord Jesus Christ, His Only Begotten and Beloved Son. When we love Him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; when we can truly say this, it will be a result of our faith. And when we become like Him, it will be a result of our faith.

Joseph, in going to the woods to pray in the first instance, brought that first great vision as a result of his faith, after having read the words of James. He had full confidence that God would answer his prayers; in the coming forth of Moroni, likewise; and of John the Baptist; and with Peter, James and John. All of these things came by inquiry by this man of faith.

Now, brothers and sisters, as has been said so many, many times, our faith is imperfect because our course of life is not pleasing to God. Imagine the power that we, individually, would have with God, and if there were sufficient as a community, the power we would have with God in bringing to pass these glorious things; yea, the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of heaven would be because our faith is perfect. And it is imperfect as long as our course of life is not pleasing to Him. Enoch had power with God because he knew that he pleased God. Abel had power with God because he knew he pleased God; and it was revealed unto them that they did.

So we see such great works -- Enoch perfecting a city of people, a holy place of God, who dwelt with that city upon the earth, and then took it to Himself as the dwelling place for the translated beings, resurrected beings, and the future dwelling place of Christ until He comes upon this earth; this part of the earth, for there are many parts. We should be so living that our course is pleasing enough that we would have power to call down these blessings. "When ye do what I say," the Father says, "I am bound." When our course of life, then, is pleasing, He is bound. It is pleasing only as we abide the law of sacrifice, give up the world in total, and live, in reality, the will and the way of God.

God help us to realize these blessings as a people. Lorin Woolley said the Lord told him if he could have twelve good men, and true, men of perfect faith, in other words, he could shake the earth and accomplish His purposes. Now, we have a great future before us, brothers and sisters, as we contemplate these things; and I humbly pray, as far as I am concerned, that I may not stand in the way. I would rather be removed than stand in the way of the progress of this work. That great and humble man, John Y. Barlow, very frequently made such a statement that made me want to weep, because there was a righteous man, indeed. And he would say on occasion, "If I am found in the way of the growth and progress of this work, I ask God to remove me."

So, my dear brothers and sisters, let us labor together, become one in our families, set them in order, and cause that a condition shall abide therein, that you might call down these blessings of heaven upon you and be worthy of messengers coming from the other side to minister to you. I certainly feel the presence of those from the other side here, watching this people, and finding what is being done to carry out the work that they lived and died to establish. Yes, they died for it, my brothers and sisters. Joseph, Brigham, John Taylor, and all of the Priesthood fathers who have come down since then, lived and died to establish this work which has been so gloriously vouchsafed to this people. May we magnify the holy Priesthood which we bear, brethren. May we magnify and abide the holy law of Celestial and Plural Marriage, abide the Holy United Order, and live to become the saints of God, to be caught up to meet the Savior and the holy city, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
brethren. When I heard of his passing, the first thing that came to my mind was that here is a man who is prepared, prepared to go to the other side and continue his labors there. This was the great injunction of the Priesthood to him and to all of us, to prepare ourselves for the coming of the Lord, prepare ourselves to fulfill the commands of God, to be used according to His will. I am sure that Brother Clarence, at the close of his mission here upon earth, was able to say, "Having been faithful and true in all things, I desire to enter into the presence of the Lord."

The first and great commandment as our Lord Jesus Christ gave it was that we should love the Lord our God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; and the second is like unto it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. I feel that it can be truly said that Brother Clarence abided this great law, these two great laws, for he fully abided every law of the Gospel, as Brother Draper has so beautifully outlined, abiding the highest laws of the Gospel of Jesus Christ -- Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order, which encompasses all of the laws of the Gospel. By abiding these two great laws, he abided those that were given by our Savior.

I loved the spirit of this man -- so humble, so true and faithful, and he was sweet and sound. I want that to be said of me when I go, for he was filled with the Holy Ghost and kept the Spirit of God in all of my affairs, all of my contacts with him. He had that sweet humble spirit that denotes the presence of the Spirit of God. He had his family in order; I am satisfied with this, for this is another great injunction upon the saints of God at this time. The hearts of his children were turned to their father, and he was a true father. And these sons and daughters loved their father and stood close by him, which was another great injunction given to us. One of the grandest aspects of this holy law of Celestial Marriage is that we be one. This family was one.

I know that all of these things that may be said of a man in passing does not change the truth, but I feel that I have told the truth regarding the character, and the labors, and accomplishments of Brother Clarence Wayman. He taught by example, and he has left a name, and a fame, and a record that his sons and daughters, (particularly his sons) can follow and emulate as they magnify his name and his honor, by living as he taught by example as well as by precept. He had to teach by precept in order to lay the laws of God before them, and all are following, as far as I know, in his footsteps. I pray God to bless and comfort them and the entire family of Brother Clarence Wayman, and that the Spirit of God will abide with them continually, as was his spirit; that they might go on and follow in the great Patriarchal Law, for he abided the Patriarchal Law of Marriage. God bless them and all whose lives he touched, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Kingdom of God or Nothing;
We Love One Another by Sacrificing for One Another; Anxiously Engaged; Oneness Through Becoming Like God

I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, and for the Spirit of God to actuate my remarks. I am grateful, with the others, for the Lord Jesus Christ, and our Father Michael, and Joseph, and our Priesthood Fathers, who have vouchsafed this great work to us and made it possible for us to continue in the faith of the ancients. I am grateful that God set His hand in 1886 to continue this work in the earth. As one of the brethren were speaking, mentioning some hundred and forty-four years since the Gospel was restored, and the Priesthood, by all experience in dispensations gone by, there would have been a great apostasy of all of the saints, practically. I don't know how long after Christ came before it was complete, but it wasn't a very long time, and it has been in other dispensations likewise. God has set His hand. I am grateful for this testimony that He has set His hand to preserve the holy laws that will enable us to enter into His presence by compliance therewith.

I don't know that we have had this scripture read to us recently, at least not in my hearing. I just felt to read this basic law of the Gospel and of the holy Priesthood.

D.& C. 130

18. Whatever principle of intelligence we attain unto in this life, it will rise with us in the resurrection.
19. And if a person gains more knowledge and intelligence in this life through his diligence and obedience than another, he will have so much the advantage in the world to come.

There we have it, brothers and sisters.
20. There is a law, irrevocably decreed in heaven before the foundations of this world, upon which all blessings are predicated --
21. And when we obtain any blessing from God, it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated.

We will obtain, therefore, brothers and sisters, what we earn, by our diligence and our obedience. What is the first great law? "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, might, mind, and strength, and thy neighbor as thyself." This calls for the whole heart and mind. The heart is the center of our physical being, the mind our spiritual. God requires them both one hundred percent. Are we one hundred percent Priesthood men and women, brothers and sisters? Are we one hundred percent for God and His Prophet? Are we one hundred percent for obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, that we may be exalted? Heber C. Kimball said, "The Kingdom of God or nothing." Believe me, if it is not the Kingdom of God, it will certainly be nothing. There is no halfway house in this work. There is no such thing as a half-heart -- there is no such thing -- and to be acknowledged and blessed of God to carry the world and this work at the same time, because we will be continually at war. Those who blow neither hot nor cold, God spews out of His mouth.

So brothers and sisters, it is the whole heart, the whole mind, and all of our strength for this work. The Lord said in Section 4, which we have read so many times, those things which will qualify us for this work.

D.& C. 4
5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God,
With our whole heart, might, mind and strength.
5. ...qualify him for the work.
6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.
7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Therefore, according to our faith and our righteous desires, so shall it be. If we are not enjoying the blessings that we should be at this stage after these many, many years, brothers and sisters, then I am sure the Lord has to say to us, "O ye of little faith." I dare say that one of the great problems we have is that we do not have sufficient faith to lay hold on these blessings, obtain that knowledge and intelligence that will make us like God, by getting and keeping the Spirit of God, and have it as our constant companion, that our dominion might be an everlasting one. The way we can clean up our minds is in the spirit of faith and love. How do we lay hold upon that faith which is sufficient for us to lay hold on eternal life? It is by making a sacrifice of all earthly things. The law of sacrifice will cleanse us, brothers and sisters, as nothing else will. You say you love one another. What have you done for one another by way of sacrifice? The Lord said through the Psalmist: "Call My saints together, those who have made a covenant by sacrifice." The great sacrifice and atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ atoned for the sins of the world, as well as bringing Him forth in the first resurrection -- the first fruits of the resurrection. It was that great sacrifice that cleans us up. He died for our sins, if we will but obey Him and be diligent in His service. Have you ever thought of sacrifice in this light? Things we do for one another, if done in the spirit of sacrifice, are so much better than any other. And so we must offer a sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit, the very essence of humility and repentance, and go onto perfection, obeying Him in all things and keeping all of His commandments. I love these words of the Lord through the Prophet Joseph Smith, found in Section 58:

D.& C. 58

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily, I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

These things we can do, brothers and sisters, within our own jurisdiction. It doesn't involve running faster than we are sent. We know the limits and bounds within which we can operate, but the limits and bounds are vast, within which we can bring to pass much righteousness in our families and in the community, and walking in obedience to the commandments.

28. For the power is in them,
That power is faith.

28. ...wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.
The whole heart, the whole mind is what is involved here.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?

32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.

33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled. But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh beneath, and not from above.

So I can lay this to our charge, brothers and sisters, that we give our whole heart, might, mind, and strength to this work. Believe me, the eyes of the Lord are upon that man or that woman who is diligent and seeketh to bring to pass much righteousness, who comes before Him with a pure heart and clean hands. A pure heart and clean hands, that is the same as a clean mind. Let us come together and be one, brothers and sisters, under our Prophet Leroy Johnson. Let us be one and anxiously and righteously serving and bringing to pass much righteousness. Let us be one that the Lord may use us to redeem Zion, for that is before us.

Yes, it took Enoch three hundred sixty-five years to perfect a city. How many souls we don't know, but it was sufficient that he took a part of the earth with it as a dwelling place for the righteous translated beings and resurrected beings, and even the Lord Jesus Christ, from whence He does His work pertaining to this earth. And that city is to come down and the righteous saints be caught up to meet them. And those righteous saints must be of a city like unto Enoch which must be built and brought to pass in this dispensation, as Enoch did in his.

Can we not see how great and glorious are the blessings that are in store for the righteous? And so righteous must that group of saints be who go back to redeem Zion that they must stand in the presence of Jesus Christ; and they therefore must be like Him. They could not have that oneness without being like Him. This oneness, this unity spoken of is obtained by becoming like God. That is how Jesus did it, and we can do it on no other basis, no other way. There is no other way.
God bless us that we may become as the City of Enoch, and be worthy to redeem and build a great city, in which we will be assisted by the Ten Tribes -- the gathering of Israel, those who have come down through our father Jacob and Isaac and Abraham and Melchizedek and Noah and Enoch and Father Michael. God bless us, that we may enter into His presence in due time, through our faith and righteousness, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

Testimony That Michael Is Our Father and God;
Father Michael's Return to Adam-ondi-Ahman

This is a beautiful sight, brothers and sisters, to see this audience, this congregation of saints who have set their hand to obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to abide in the laws of God. I am sure our desires are right, or we would not be here. I certainly hope that there are not those here who are here out of curiosity. There were a great many there for that purpose yesterday afternoon, I am sure. But, brothers and sisters, the thing that impresses itself upon me is that we should have the desire and the faith to become like God. We should be most grateful that we have the keys of Elijah to seal the relationships in holy matrimony, the Family Order of Heaven, in that great cause and effort to prepare a people to redeem Zion.

I pray, my dear brothers and sisters, that above all, we will seek to get and keep the Spirit of God, for therein is the means by which we may become like God, because it is the attributes of God, this Holy Spirit, which issues forth from our Father to reach out to His children, who, seeing Himself before the foundations of this earth which He created, finding Himself in the midst of intelligences, desired to make them like Himself. This is the desire of our Father in heaven, and we have had revealed to us, my brothers and sisters, all of the necessary means by which we can accomplish this great object.

We cannot go and be a part of the redemption of Zion without becoming like our Lord Jesus Christ, who will lead us there. We have before us the great Example, the great Prototype of all saved beings in our Lord Jesus Christ, who swallowed up His will in the will of the Father, which we must do. He set the example and showed us the way to perfection.

My mind has been dwelling a great deal in recent weeks and months upon our Father Michael, our Father and our God, and I have felt so greatly the importance of it that I have been teaching it to my family. We have gone through this pamphlet "Michael, Our Father and God" that was compiled by President Joseph Musser, and I hope my family at least has gained an appreciation and a greater love for God, knowing who He is and what He is and how to worship Him, that we might become like Him.

There is a great and glorious event that is to take place as one of those necessary steps in the bringing forth of the great Millennium, about which little has been said or understood. That is the great and grand Council that was seen by the Prophet Daniel, when the Ancient of Days would sit. I felt impressed to read a little bit about this, give us some basis for understanding it, because this is one of the grand events of the last dispensation; and it may be possible that some of us could participate. I am going to read a few things principally here that may be of some help. Joseph Smith, in 1838, wrote:

In the afternoon I went up the river about half a mile to Wight's Ferry, accompanied by President Rigdon, and my clerk, George W. Robinson, for the purpose of selecting and laying claim to a city plat near said ferry in Daviess County, township 60, ranges 27 and 28, and sections 25, 36, 31, and 30, which the brethren called "Spring Hill,"

And from this point, we have it as one of the revelations in the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 116.

..."Spring Hill," but by the mouth of the Lord it was named Adam-ondi-Ahman, because, said He, it is the place where Adam shall come to visit his people, or the Ancient of Days shall sit, as spoken of by Daniel the Prophet.

Daniel said this:

Daniel 7

9. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool; his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.
10. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him; thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him; the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

Joseph, writing further regarding this, said:

Daniel in his seventh chapter speaks of the Ancient of Days; he means the oldest man, our Father Adam, Michael, he will call his children together and hold a council with them to prepare them for the coming of the Son of Man. He (Adam) is the father of the human family, and presides over the spirits of all men, and all that have had the keys must stand before him in this grand council. This may take place before some of us leave this stage of action.

That is how close he considered it to be.

The Son of Man stands before him, Michael.

...and there is given him glory and dominion. Adam delivers up his stewardship to Christ, Jehovah Christ, the one who assisted Michael in the creation of this earth.

...that which was delivered to him as holding the keys of the universe, but retains his standing as head of the human family.

We have, from the History of the Church, this statement by Joseph Smith:

Commencing with Adam, who was the first man, who is spoken of in Daniel as being the "Ancient of Days," or in other words, the first and oldest of all, the great, grand progenitor of whom it is said in another place he is Michael, because he was the first and father of all, not only by progeny, but the first to hold the spiritual blessings, to whom was made known the plan of ordinances for the salvation of his posterity unto the end, and to whom Christ was first revealed, and through whom Christ has been revealed from heaven, and will continue to be revealed from henceforth. Adam holds the keys of the dispensation of the fullness of times;

And Joseph under him.

...i.e., the dispensation of all the times have been and will be revealed through him from the beginning to Christ, and from Christ to the end of all the dispensations that are to be revealed."Having made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He hath purposed in Himself: that in the dispensation of the fullness of times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him." (Ephesians, 1st chap., 9th and 10 verses).

Now the purpose in Himself in the winding up scene of the last dispensation is that all things pertaining to that dispensation should be conducted precisely in accordance with the preceding dispensations.

And again. God purposed in Himself that there should not be an eternal fullness until every dispensation should be fulfilled and gathered together in one, and that all things whatsoever, that should be gathered together in one in those dispensations unto the same fullness and eternal glory, should be in Christ Jesus; therefore He set the ordinances to be the same forever and ever, and set Adam to watch over them, to reveal them from heaven to man, or to send angels to reveal them. "Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?" (Hebrews, i, 14).

These angels are under the direction of Michael or Adam, who acts under the direction of the Lord. Jehovah.

From the above quotation we learn that Paul perfectly understood the purposes of God in relation to His connection with man, and that glorious and perfect order which He established in Himself, whereby he sent forth power, revelations, and glory.

This, then, is the nature of the Priesthood; every man holding the Presidency of his dispensation, and one man holding the Presidency of them all, even Adam; and Adam receiving his Presidency and authority from the Lord, but cannot receive a fullness until Christ shall present the Kingdom to the Father, which shall be at the end of the last dispensation.

Orson Pratt gave some sermons on this subject which are quite revealing.

How much is ten thousand times ten thousand? Only a hundred millions, but that would make quite a large congregation. That would be about half the population of the United States today.

All the inhabitants of the United States, only number about forty millions, counting men, women and children. If they were assembled in one place, it would present a grand spectacle; but suppose we double that number, making it eighty millions, They had forty millions in that day.

...what a vast congregation that number of people would make, we can hardly grasp in our comprehension its extent; and still we will add to it another twenty millions so as to equal the size of the congregation which the Prophet Daniel saw standing before the Ancient of Day's. Such a body of people must extend over a great many miles of country, however closely they may be collected together. I doubt whether the extremes of such a congregation could be seen by the natural eyes of mortals; they would be lost in the distance.

That is in Journal 18, pages 338 and 339. Now this Grand Council will not be known by the world at large. Only the saints, those who will be like Him, will be there, together with many myriads of resurrected and immortal beings. That is why the great number.

Who was this personage called the Ancient of days? We are told by the Prophet Joseph Smith -- the great Prophet of the last days, whom God raised up by his own voice and by the ministration of angels to introduce the great and last dispensation of the fullness of times -- the last dispensation on the earth so far as the proclamation of mercy is concerned; I say we are told by this Prophet that the Ancient of days is the most ancient personage that ever had an existence in days here on the earth. And who was he? Why, of course, old father Adam, he was the most ancient man that ever lived in days that we have any knowledge of. He is our Father and our God. Sorry to say, Orson Pratt did not so acknowledge Him as Father and God.

He comes, then, as a great judge, to assemble this innumerable host of which Daniel speaks. He comes in flaming fire. The glory and blessing and greatness of this personage it would be impossible even for a man as great as Daniel fully to describe. He comes as a man inspired from the eternal throne of Jehovah himself. He comes to set in order the councils of the Priesthood pertaining to all dispensations, to arrange the Priesthood and the councils of the Saints of all former dispensations in one grand family and household.
What is all this for? Why all this arrangement? Why all this organization? Why all this judgment and the opening of the books? It is to prepare the way for another august personage whom Daniel saw coming with the clouds of heaven, namely the Son of Man, and these clouds of heaven brought the Son of Man near before the Ancient of days. Our Father Michael.

And when the Son of Man came to the Ancient of days, behold a kingdom was given to the Son of Man, and greatness and glory, that all people, nations and languages should serve him, and his kingdom should be an everlasting kingdom, a kingdom that should never be done away.

This explains the reason why our father Adam comes as the Ancient of days with all these numerous hosts, and organizes them according to the records of the book, every man in his place, preparatory to the coming of the Son of Man to receive the kingdom. Then every family that is in the order of the Priesthood, and every man and every woman, and every son or daughter whatever their kindred, descent will know their place.

This man, will sit upon his throne, and ten thousand times ten thousand immortal beings -- his children -- will stand before him, with all their different grades of Priesthood, according to the order which God has appointed and ordained. Then every quorum of the Priesthood in this Latter-day Saint Church will find its place, and never until then. If we go behind the vail we will not see this perfect organization of the Saints of all generations until that period shall arrive. That will be before Jesus comes in his glory. Then we will find that there is a place for the First Presidency of this Church; That would have to come after it is set in order.

...for the Twelve Apostles called in this dispensation; for the twelve disciples that were called among the remnants of Joseph on this land in ancient times; for the Twelve that were called among the ten tribes of Israel in the north country; for the Twelve that were called in Palestine, who administered in the presence of our Savior; all the various quorums and councils of the Priesthood in every dispensation that has transpired since the days of Adam until the present time will find their places, according to the callings, gifts, blessings, ordinations and keys of Priesthood which the Lord Almighty has conferred upon them in their several generations. This, then, will be one of the grandest meetings that has ever transpired upon the face of our globe. What manner of persons ought you and I, my brethren and sisters, and all the people of God in the latter days to be, that we may be counted worthy to participate in the grand assemblies that are to come from the eternal worlds, whose bodies have burst the tomb and come forth immortalized and eternal in their nature.

This brings it down to us. What manner of persons ought we to be if we are to have a part in the redemption of Zion and in that Grand Council, preparatory to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in glory, at which time the saints will be caught up to meet the Zion of Enoch; the Zion of our God here, meeting the Zion of our great Patriarch Enoch, and from there to go through the grand Millennium, presided over by the Lord Jesus Christ and the saints under Him? God bless us that we may become like Him and to have a part with Him, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Clean Up Our Minds;
Overcome Criticism and Contention Through Power of Love; Spirit of Discernment and Revelation

I pray for the Spirit of God to be with me in any and everything that I may say here today, and that I may have the benefit of your faith to that end.

JD 16:41 Brigham Young May 18, 1873 Ogden

A declaratory statement is sufficient for those who are prepared to receive the spirit of revelation for themselves, but with most of the human family we have to reason and explain. A really pure person is very scarce; but when the heart is truly pure, the Lord can write upon it, and the truth is received without argument, or doubt, or disputation.

Such a man is our dear Brother Richard Jessop, whom the Spirit of God directs and labors through him with this people. The Lord can write upon his heart, and through His servants, this man stands ready to move in any direction and in any cause, one with his file leader. Such is this man whom I dearly love, as I do all of my brethren, and more particularly President Johnson, who is the very essence and spirit of humility and love and truth to this people.

President Johnson has called upon this people to clean up our minds. I wonder what thoughts go through our individual minds as we contemplate that statement. What does it mean to you? And you may wonder what President Johnson had in mind. I am sure he has explained it on several occasions, and I pray the Lord to bless me as I desire to explain what it means to me and what I feel it should mean to all of us.

What is it, my dear brothers and sisters, that is holding us back? President Johnson has told us one of the most serious things is the spirit of criticism against one another, and altogether too often against the servants of God who have been called to lead this people. I would like to read a few of the words of Heber C. Kimball.

*I will refer to brother Morley's words. He says, "The mind makes the man." That is true. What is the mind? It is that character that was made and fashioned after the image of God before these bodies were made, -- that is, our spirits. What is the mind? It is the spirit that was made before this body. Do you know it? Well, now let me tell you, it is that spirit that makes the man. I care not how humble he is -- if his nose is three feet long and all his body was disfigured -- I will tell you, if there is a good spirit in that man, and that spirit cultivates wholesome doctrine and lives to God, you love him. It is the spirit that is in the man that makes the man, which is the mind that you were speaking of, father Morley.

Well, our change from this state of existence does not change our character. The character must be made and formed before it goes through the vail, if he is going to continue with the servants of God, the Prophets.

Cleaning up our minds, to me, my dear brothers and sisters, means making that sacrifice of these things that are cluttering our minds, and which are in our spirit, this spirit we carry around, this one that belongs to us. We are called upon to sacrifice all earthly things, and this spirit of criticism and these other things that beset us are from foul spirits, which sometimes have the ascendancy with our spirits.

I like to think of the work of this people as that Camp of Zion that the Lord called upon Joseph Smith to gather together to redeem Zion. This was in February of 1834. They were called upon to go under the direction of His anointed without murmuring, without complaining, without criticizing, that they might go as one man. The Lord called upon the Prophet to gather up five hundred men who could do this. He could not get them, and the Lord finally settled on one hundred; and Joseph came up with some two hundred.

Heber C. Kimball again:

JD 4:375  Heber C. Kimball  August 16, 1857  SLC

There will also be a day when you will be brought to the test --
That camp was brought to a test.

RTJ 3:281  August 4, 1974  CCA

...when your very hearts and your inmost souls will melt within you because of the scenes that many of you will witness. Yes, you will be brought to that test, when you will feel as if every thing within you would dissolve. Then will be the time you will be tried whether you will stand the test or fall away.

RTJ 3:281  August 4, 1974  CCA

I have not a doubt but there will be hundreds who will leave us and go away to our enemies. I wish they would go this fall: it might relieve us from much trouble; for if men turn traitors to God and His servants, their blood will surely be shed, or else they will be damned, and that too according to their covenants.

We have received the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, brethren, by oath and covenant.

RTJ 3:281  August 4, 1974  CCA

Brother Brigham would rather go to battle against the whole world with three hundred men filled with the Holy Ghost, than to have the whole of you, except you are united with us; and I am sure I would.

RTJ 3:281 - 282  August 4, 1974  CCA

The day is to come when one shall chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight. When that day comes, the Lord will make the enemies of His people flee as if there were thousands after them, when there is only one; and that is the way that God will deal with our enemies. The day of God Almighty is at hand, when He will show forth His power, and when He will deliver His people from all their enemies.

That is in Journal 4 page 375, if you want to note it. This Camp of Zion was guilty of the very same thing that occurred in Zion, in Jackson County. And I would like to read just exactly what the Lord had to say after they were driven out, as to the reason for their having been driven out, because I am afraid that we are guilty of the same things.

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --

2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;

3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.

4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.

5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

And I feel very strongly, as President Johnson has on several occasions said, that there is a day of chastening and scourging for this people, and that soon. Now, here is why the Lord permitted them to be driven out:

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

Are we polluting this land and the inheritances we have, our homes and the things that God has given us by these means? Are these things prevalent in your families, brethren? And this, I am afraid, is true of us:

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

And here is the mercy of God:

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

11. Mine indignation is soon to be poured out without measure upon all nations; and this will I do when the cup of their iniquity is full.

This was altogether too true of the brethren who went with Joseph in Zion's Camp. Sylvester Smith was among the first in accusing and criticizing the Prophet, and such a spirit continued. When the Lord told Joseph to have a certain group or company of those men come across the river and camp where he was, that man held them back on the other side, fearing for their safety as the mobs were gathering in the outlying country; and Joseph had to chastise that brother and those men. And it came to such a point that the Lord told Joseph, as he stood upon the back of a wagon, "This Camp will be scourged." And so they were with cholera. A good many died, and a good many suffered nigh unto death. And Joseph, in his mercy, trying to stay the plague, stay this cursing that God sought to bring upon them, became ill nigh unto death himself, and he learned a great lesson.

And so the camp had to be dispersed. But out of it, dear brothers and sisters, came the leaders of Israel, under the Prophet Joseph Smith -- those men who were tried and true, who became the Twelve and the First Council of Seventy. But unfortunately, of the original Twelve, there were but two -- and we would have to include David W. Patten -- who did not raise their voice against the Prophet Joseph Smith: Brigham, and Heber, and David. All the others raised their voice and their hand against the Prophet.

These are sad lessons that men have to learn; and I trust, my dear brothers and sisters, we will not have to learn them the hard way, and seek the Lord while He is near, and call upon Him for strength to do His will. And above all, my brothers and sisters, let us overcome this thing, these jarrings and contentions and criticisms, by the power of love. That is the cure. Love is one of the attributes of the Holy Spirit. So is faith and knowledge, justice, judgment, and mercy, and truth. These things ought we to have by getting and keeping the Spirit of God.

One of the great gifts of that Spirit is the discernment of foul and evil spirits, through the Priesthood. These foul spirits are besetting us, dear brothers and sisters, more than we know. They are the spirits that cause us to bring about these jarrings and contentions and criticisms, until we have a perfect hell of happiness in trying to get rid of them. Now, the only way to overcome evil is with good. The only way to overcome Lucifer is by the Holy Spirit, the spirit of love and truth.
We need the Spirit of revelation, for without it, my dear brothers and sisters, there is no salvation; yes, even for us. Are we led by revelation? I want to testify unto you, my brothers and sisters, that we are led by revelation through President Johnson and his associates in the Council. And it is for every Elder presiding over a family in the Celestial Order of Marriage to have the Spirit of revelation, that he may know, in the first place, that he is led by God through His servants; and in the second place, that he may lead his family as a man of God, full of the Holy Ghost. No wonder the burden of the revelations to His servants, the Prophets, has been to get the Spirit of God and keep it. A dream was given to Brigham Young at Winter Quarters before they left to come out here. The Prophet Joseph Smith came and visited him and told him this, and he kept repeating it and repeating it in that interview. It was the same message that was given to John Y. Barlow to this people, and has been ever since, and to all the Prophets before.

Now, brothers and sisters, how can we get the Spirit of revelation? We have the word of the Lord as He gave it to Oliver Cowdery through Joseph. If I can dwell a few minutes upon it, I pray the Lord to give me utterance and make it plain for us to understand. And this presupposes that we have the Spirit of God with us. Here is the example that the Lord gave to Oliver as he was about to give him the gift of translation, which required the Spirit of revelation:

D.& C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith,

It must be asked for in faith, brothers and sisters, which means the exertion of the mind, and centering it in God, and knowing His character, and desiring to become like Him.

1. ...you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

The mind is the spirit within us, brothers and sisters, and the heart is this physical center of intelligence through which that spirit is made known to us.
I will read further here how the Lord manifests it and works with us in this Spirit of revelation. And then He goes on to say that this was the means by which He accomplished His will through His servants.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; "I will tell you in your mind and your heart."

3. ...behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

That is the Spirit that brought Moses up upon the mount to converse with the Lord. An angel did not come and tell him to come. It was this Spirit of revelation telling him in his heart and in his mind. It was the same thing that led Nephi to go and obtain the plates, the records that were ancient, to bring them over to the new land; and he did exactly what he was told by the Spirit of God. An angel did not come, and the Lord did not come Himself and tell him what to do and how to do it, but it was this Spirit of revelation, the Spirit of God working upon his mind and his heart; and it was sure and certain, every move he made. And He told Oliver:

4. Therefore this is thy gift; apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.

Brother Oliver failed in this appointment and direction, and he had this lesson to learn. In the next Section 9 -- I read from 8 before -- the Lord tells him why.

D. & C. 9

1. Behold, I say unto you, my son, that because you did not translate according to that which you desired of me, and did commence again to write for my servant, Joseph Smith, Jun., even so would I that ye should continue until you have finished this record, which I have entrusted unto him.

2. And then, behold, other records have I, that I will give unto you power that you may assist to translate.

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

He had probably asked for that power of translation, and now he is being told what his real work is.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

Do not murmur!

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

Just asked -- faith does not work that way. It takes an exertion of the mind through prayer, the power of prayer. And He says in this wise:

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; "Exert your mind in faith," is what He is saying.

8. ...then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you;

The heart and the head, the mind and the heart.

8. ...therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

10. Now, if you had known this you could have translated; nevertheless, it is not expedient that you should translate now.

Joseph tells us about this great gift of revelation, how we may obtain it. It takes skill and learning. On page 151 of the Teachings of Joseph, after having explained the First and the Second Comforter, and how they are obtained, he tells us here on this explanation how we can come up to that, for he says so.

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, Through the mind and the heart.

...it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.,) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God

Getting it and keeping it, in other words.

...and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Then He, that Second Comforter, will come when we have fully and truly sanctified ourselves, our minds, our hearts, our families, our habitations. The ground upon which we dwell must be sanctified. Now, brothers and sisters, let us be faithful and true in all that we undertake in this great work. We are engaged in the greatest work of any dispensation that has been upon the earth. Brother Elmer was right. We have opportunities and blessings lying in store for us that have not been upon the earth until now -- yes, the final redemption of Zion, preparing for the Ten Tribes, the gathering of all Israel, the building up of that great City; and finally, of course, the glorious coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us therefore, brothers and sisters, make Zion here, first in our hearts and in this place, and in this habitation in which we dwell, and sanctify the land upon which we dwell, for only thus can the Lord bless and protect us and sustain us through the scouragements and the destructions that are about to be poured out without measure upon the earth. Section 45 is a beautiful thing to read clear through, regarding the second coming of Christ, the glorious coming of Christ, in which He says, after speaking of wars and rumors of wars and all of these things which we now see being fulfilled:

D.& C. 45

27. And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.
28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in,
And it has.

28. ...a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;

29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.
30. And in that generation...
We are in that generation, brothers and sisters.

30. ...shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

And that we have to go through.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, ***

Will we be His disciples, His true followers, His obedient servants, those He can own and bless and protect, standing in holy places? Have we made our habitations holy? These are the only temples we will have for some time, said Lorin Woolley -- our homes. We must stand in holy places and not be moved.

32. ...but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

And all of the other things that we are so familiar with in the prophecies. Now I pray, my brothers and sisters, that we may be faithful and true in all things, and desire to enter into the presence of the Lord, through the veil. We should so be living that that veil would be very thin, and the Lord be pleased to call up those, His faithful ones, to be endowed with power from on high. God bless us to this end, and may we realize the desires of our hearts in righteousness through faith, becoming like Him, causing that our course of life shall be pleasing to Him, and He will be delighted to own and bless us; and thus we would have power with Him, through faith and the Holy Ghost. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Anxiously Engaged; Great Blessings Await the Faithful

My dear brothers and sisters, are we awake? I earnestly pray for an interest in your faith and prayers and the exertion of your faith in my behalf, as well as all the other brethren who are yet to speak to us, the other two. I trust we are not guilty of spiritual laziness this day. One of my favorite passages in the word of God to this dispensation is found in Section 4 of the Doctrine and Covenants.

D. & C. 4
1. Now behold a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God,
   And I take it we all have, or we would not be here.
   ...see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

   With all our hearts and minds and our strength.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

   Now, what qualifies us for the work? The very attributes of God, and nothing short of them.

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

   The brethren have been talking to us today about diligence and faith.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

I am just going to leave with us today, brothers and sisters, a few signposts along the way to perfection. It has occurred to me a good deal lately that this people could act as though they were on that journey as the Camp of Zion to redeem Zion, for actually that is what we are about. That is the nature of the business of God that we are about. That is what our President, what the Lord is desiring to do, is to prepare a people to redeem Zion, and we ought to be acting and laboring with our might and all our strength, our minds and hearts, to accomplish that great thing for the Lord.

We find, as we go along, brothers and sisters, that most people have to be commanded in all things. Certainly, we must have delivered to us the commandments of God so that we know what to obey, and we have been given them all the day long, all the years long, the decades long, and most of us hardly do what we are directly commanded to do. As I have observed in my experience in this Kingdom, the men who have progressed fastest, have grown the most, have come up in the attributes and the character of God, are those who go the extra mile and do not have to be commanded in all things, who go beyond the bare outlines that may be given, as the Lord told the saints as they were arriving in Zion in August 1831.

25. Wherefore, let them bring their families to this land, as they shall counsel between themselves and me.

Here is something that each and every one of us ought to memorize and follow daily, if we would please the Lord, if we would have this spirit of sacrifice, a contrite spirit and a broken heart, the spirit of sacrifice, laboring all the day long in behalf of the Lord and these Priesthood, Celestial Order families. Are we conscious daily, brothers and sisters, that we are engaged in the Lord's business, in this beautiful and glorious principle and law of Abraham, which will bring us into the presence of God and make us Gods, if you please; or are we letting our narrow vision confine us to the bickerings and the contentions, the jarrings and the covetous desires that beset most of us? It was by this means that the saints polluted their inheritances in Zion. He goes on to say:

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

If we do things willingly because we have to, or are compelled, there is no reward in this, says the Lord.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

28. For the power is in them,

The gift of faith, the gift of repentance, the gifts of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the medium of this Patriarchal Family Order -- all the things God has given us are the means by which we can do it; the power is in us.

28. ...wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, Laboring under protest, may I add, brothers and sisters; and many are living in this principle, this Family Order of Heaven under protest.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

He is stopped. He ceases to grow. He is getting nowhere, and there is no such thing as standing still in the work of God. We are either growing, going forward, rising; or we are going back. It is one way or the other. And it is a horrible thing to contemplate, to suddenly realize, when we think we might be doing everything we are told to do, we are actually slipping back, and are weighed in the balance and found wanting, if you please.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

This that He has just told us is one of His commandments.

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?
32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.
33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled. But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh beneath, and not from above.

I would like to close with the words of Joseph.

Every man lives for himself.

In other words, he is saying that we must save ourselves, and one of the things that we must do to save ourselves is to serve God, love Him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and our neighbors as ourselves.

Adam was made to open the way of the world, and for dressing the garden. Noah was born to save seed of everything, when the earth was washed of its wickedness by the flood; and the Son of God came into the world to redeem it from the fall. But except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. This eternal truth settles the question of all men’s religion. A man may be saved, after the judgment, in the terrestrial kingdom, or in the telestial kingdom, but he can never see the celestial kingdom of God, without being born of water and the Spirit.

And keeping the covenants he enters into therein.

He may receive a glory like unto the moon, [i.e. of which the light of the moon is typical], or a star, [i.e. of which the light of the stars is typical], but he can never come unto Mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels; to the general assembly and Church of the Firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, unless he becomes as a little child, and is taught by the Spirit of God. Wherefore, we again say, search the revelations of God; study the prophecies, and rejoice that God grants unto the world Seers and Prophets.

How grateful this people should be, who have had them minister unto us daily.

They are they who saw the mysteries of godliness; they saw the flood before it came; they saw angels ascending and descending upon a ladder that reached from earth to heaven; they saw the stone cut out of the mountain, which filled the whole earth; they saw the Son of God come from the regions of bliss and dwell with men on earth; they saw the deliverer come out of Zion, and turn away ungodliness from Jacob; they saw the glory of the Lord when he showed the transfiguration of the earth on the mount; they saw every mountain laid low and every valley exalted when the Lord was taking vengeance upon the wicked; they saw truth spring out of the earth, and righteousness look down from heaven in the last days, before the Lord came the second time to gather his elect; they saw the end of wickedness on earth, and the Sabbath of creation crowned with peace; they saw the end of the glorious thousand years, when Satan was loosed for a little season; they saw the day of judgment when all men received according to their works, and they saw the heaven and the earth flee away to make room for the city of God, when the righteous receive an inheritance in eternity. And, fellow sojourners upon earth, it is your privilege to purify yourselves and come up to the same glory, and see for yourselves, and know for yourselves. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. -- E. and M. S.

"Show me your faith by your works, not by what you say," says the Prophet.
"What you are sounds so loud in my ears, I cannot hear what you say." Let us be doers of the word, therefore, brothers and sisters, diligent in our labors, and we shall indeed stand before the Kings of glory, even the Lord Jesus Christ, the King of kings. God bless us to this end, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

No Mental Reservations; Be Anxiously Engaged;
It Is Required to Go the Extra Mile

I am very happy, my brothers and sisters, to be with you here again, in association with my beloved brethren, Presidents Musser and Jessop. I am grateful for the blessings of the holy Priesthood, and for my association with it. I will never cease being grateful for the day that my father introduced me to this great work, and that I have a humble part in it, as a result; for I desire above all to be perfectly obedient to the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and be an instrument in the hands of God for good in the building up of His Kingdom and the establishment of this order of the Priesthood in the earth; for I am under covenant so to do, and to sustain this Priesthood, as one of the brethren mentioned, without mental reservation, and particularly the keyholder, President Johnson.

It has been outlined for us here this morning very beautifully -- I am referring particularly to the remarks of Brother Wayman -- how we should conduct ourselves in our Priesthood responsibilities. The gift of the holy Priesthood upon us as bearers thereof, Elders, I think we take much too lightly.

It was in that great revelation on Priesthood, Section 84, that the Lord placed all of the Church at that time, in 1832, under condemnation for having treated lightly the things they had received. This was stated after the Lord Himself, by His own voice out of the heavens, had confirmed upon Joseph and six Elders the highest order of Priesthood. I do not know, brethren, if we really appreciate what we have in bearing the authority of God, to direct a family under the Family Order of Heaven, a Priesthood family; a congregation of Priesthood families engaged in the great objective of building up and finally redeeming this great city Zion of our God.

It is up to us first to redeem ourselves by obedience and perfect faith, and then redeem and bless and exalt our wives and children, and raise them up in light and truth. I cannot think of a greater assignment for any man to bear in the holy Priesthood than this, and to honor and magnify that great and glorious calling. If we could only keep in mind the great objective that we are all laboring for. The Lord God tried to redeem Zion in Joseph's day on two occasions, and even the time was set, had they been faithful and true and not murmured. Israel has been sent out here into the wilderness, so to speak, to prepare them again for the last time in this last kingdom, brethren and sisters, to redeem Zion.

Zion is in our hearts. It must be in our families first, and then as a community. We must be able to show the Lord that we are worthy to go up under the voice and the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ to redeem that great city. We are going to have to go through many tests, and we are daily being tested, brethren and sisters, if we would only realize it. How faithful we should be. It has been a great deal upon my mind. I think I may have even read this last time I was here.

It appeals to me, brothers and sisters, that we may keep the letter of the law, and we may do just exactly what we are commanded to do, but no more. I think the Lord outlines in this, in Section 58, those whom He will choose from among those who have been called, because they fulfilled this requirement. Now this was given to the saints as they were beginning to gather to Zion in 1831. In fact, it was the very first trip of Joseph and the brethren to go to Zion and dedicate it, and dedicate the temple site. The Lord said:

D.& C. 58

25. Wherefore, let them bring their families to this land, as they shall counsel between themselves and me.
26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things;
In every detail.

26. ...for he that is compelled in all things,
I am afraid this is altogether too true with too many.
26. ...the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;
28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves.
And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.
29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commendment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

We are therefore required, in general, to go the extra mile. Those who will be chosen, I dare say, are those who keep this general commandment, for it is a commandment unto Zion. In other words, brethren and sisters, we must be engaged in this great and good cause because we love the truth, because we love to obey God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, with all that we have, withholding nothing, without mental reservation. There is no halfway house in the Kingdom of God, and it is the Kingdom of God or nothing. This is the way I view what is said here. One of the great attributes of God, which is spoken of by the Lord in Section 4, as qualifying a man for the work, is diligence, as well as faith, charity or love, brotherly kindness, knowledge. We are being required to prepare for the next step.

Now, brethren and sisters, we should understand that we cannot be saved in ignorance. The only way that we can obtain knowledge is by perfect obedience, as a result of which God will add upon us. We shall be added upon with glorious blessings that will give us the necessary knowledge to enable us to be exalted in the presence of God.

D.& C. 130

18. Whatever principle of intelligence we attain unto in this life, it will rise with us in the resurrection.

Principles of intelligence are perfect obedience to the laws and commandments of God, walking in faith as seeing Him who is invisible, that we might become like Him.

19. And if a person gains more knowledge and intelligence in this life through his diligence and obedience than another, he will have so much the advantage in the world to come.

Brigham Young once made the statement that it would take ten times longer to obtain the knowledge and the experience over on the other side as it does while we are here with these bodies, which were given to us to make us perfect, to become like God, to exalt, or rather to purify, to sanctify this body which we have been given, which houses a son or daughter of God, tabernacled after the image of God. It would take much longer over there than it does here.

20. There is a law, irrevocably decreed in heaven before the foundations of this world, upon which all blessings are predicated --

21. And when we obtain any blessing from God, it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated.

That is Section 130. In Section 131, we have these glorious principles made known:

D. & C. 131

1. In the celestial glory there are three heavens or degrees;

2. And in order to obtain the highest, a man must enter into this order of the priesthood [meaning the new and everlasting covenant of marriage];

And abide it, of course.

3. And if he does not, he cannot obtain it.

4. He may enter into the other, but that is the end of his kingdom; he cannot have an increase.

It is by living and abiding in this Family Order of Heaven that we obtain knowledge, through experience, going from one stage of progress to another, until we come up finally to see the face of God. There we will have perfect knowledge. He said in that same Section that it is impossible for a man to be saved in ignorance.

So let us not, brethren and sisters, continue in our dilatory tactics. Be diligent; be faithful and true to all of our covenants. Seek to become like God, that we may stand in His presence, even the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ, after having had our calling and election made sure; for all these things are necessary to attain to this great and glorious blessing. Brothers and sisters, you little know how your President yearns over this people, and how all the brethren do, desiring nothing more nor less than your salvation and exaltation in the presence of God; desiring to see you perfectly obedient, all of us, that we might be blessed and blessed again and endowed; going from one great step to another until we are saved, as Joseph said, with himself -- we the saints -- in the presence of God.

May we work and labor with all due diligence, and love, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and in His Priesthood, to go on to our exaltation and perfection, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I am grateful to be here with you again today in association with my brethren. I desire an interest in your faith and prayers, that they be exerted in my behalf as well as the others, as we may be called upon to contribute to our edification here this day by the Spirit of God. I am continually made aware in my ruminations and study of how great importance is the principle of faith, the first principle of the Gospel and the power by which God has accomplished all things -- the creation of the earth and the bringing forth of His spirit children in the earth -- how very necessary and important it is for us to accomplish the things that are required of us by the Priesthood of God.

The Lord helping me, I would like to speak a little more particularly of this great subject of faith, how it operates, how we must come to a point where it must operate for us to accomplish the object in view.

Those earliest experiences and activities of Joseph the Prophet and those who were with him in the translation and bringing forth of the Book of Mormon, and being the instruments for the restoration of the holy Priesthood, both the Levitical and the Melchizedek, including the holy Apostleship; in these things, the Lord constantly made it known to Joseph and those with him that nothing could be accomplished except through the power of faith. That is the means by which the Father and the Son came to Joseph, for he went before the Lord in the grove fully expecting an answer to his prayer as to what he should do for his salvation, as to the churches abroad and so forth. And when he sought the Lord after some four years to know of his state and standing before Him, it was through the power of faith that Moroni came and made known what was required of Joseph. The same occurred when Joseph and Oliver knelt down in the course of the translation to inquire concerning baptism and the authority necessary to receive this ordinance, the initiatory ordinance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. They went in full faith to the Lord and obtained their answer, John the Baptist coming and giving them the Levitical Priesthood and the authority to baptize. At that same time, they were promised the holy Melchizedek Priesthood and the Apostleship should be restored; and through faith, Joseph and Oliver had a visit of Peter, James, and John.

There were to be three witnesses, as mentioned in the Book of Mormon, in the course of the translation; and Oliver, David Whitmer, and Martin Harris asked Joseph if the Lord would permit them to be those witnesses. The reply was given that they could and should be; and in so doing, the Lord made known that in order to accomplish this, they must have the faith of the Apostles and Prophets of old.

A wonderful example of the power of faith was in the approach of these three, with Joseph, going to an appropriate place near the home of Father Whitmer, and the four engaging in fervent prayer -- fervent prayer, brothers and sisters -- the exercise, or the exertion of the mind in approaching God for this blessing. They prayed in turn without accomplishing anything. Martin, who had been warned earlier that day that he must repent of his sins, and making himself right before the Lord in the view of what he had done concerning the 116 pages of the manuscript, Martin Harris knew that he had not the faith yet, and had not yet made himself right before the Lord, and he withdrew. The other three prayed again, and Moroni came and showed them the plates, declared their truthfulness, and a voice from heaven likewise. They were shown the sword of Laban, the Urim and Thummim, and the breastplate, and the Liahona, which guided Lehi and his family through the wilderness. Afterward, Joseph went and sought out Martin, who was praying fervently; and engaging in prayer with him, the same visitation was given again to them, through faith, brothers and sisters.

About the best example I know of is what we have in the book of Ether, the third chapter, a wonderful example which I think is the best means of teaching all of us of the exercise of faith to accomplish the object and view which God had commanded that they should do. I would like to read these verses that describes the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ to the brother of Jared.

Ether 3

1. And it came to pass that the brother of Jared, (now the number of the vessels which had been prepared was eight) went forth unto the mount, which they called the mount Shelem, because of its exceeding height, and did molten out of a rock sixteen small stones; and they were white and clear, even as transparent glass; and he did carry them in his hands upon the top of the mount, and cried again unto the Lord, saying:
Now you understand that previous to this he had been commanded to prepare eight vessels for them to cross the great deep.

2. O Lord, thou hast said that we must be encompassed about by the floods. Now behold, O Lord, and do not be angry with thy servant because of his weakness before thee; for we know that thou art holy and dwellest in the heavens, and that we are unworthy before thee; because of the fall our natures have become evil continually; nevertheless, O Lord, thou hast given us a commandment that we must call upon thee, that from thee we may receive according to our desires.

Now the brother of Jared understood the nature of the Being, and who that Being was that he prayed to -- the nature of His character, as is brought out here, the very first element of faith in God and the object on which it rests, as defined by Joseph. And in this prayer he was making it known that man is fallen in his nature, but they must overcome and become like Him, and know that their course is pleasing before Him in order to obtain the end of their faith, through prayer.

3. Behold, O Lord, thou hast smitten us because of our iniquity, and hast driven us forth, and for these many years we have been in the wilderness; nevertheless, thou hast been merciful unto us.

Mercy.

3. ...O Lord, look upon me in pity, and turn away thine anger from this thy people, and suffer not that they shall go forth across this raging deep in darkness; but behold these things which I have molten out of the rock.

Now note this:

4. And I know, O Lord, that thou hast all power, and can do whatsoever thou wilt for the benefit of man;
You see the power of faith.

4. ...therefore touch these stones, O Lord, with thy finger, and prepare them that they may shine forth in darkness; and they shall shine forth unto us in the vessels which we have prepared, that we may have light while we shall cross the sea.

5. Behold, O Lord, thou canst do this. We know that thou art able to show forth great power, which looks small unto the understanding of men.
Here is confidence, the exertion of the spirit, the mind reaching out to God, and knowing the character and the power of God should be exerted in their behalf, for he was but following the commandment of God in accomplishing this great work.

6. And it came to pass that when the brother of Jared had said these words, behold, the Lord stretched forth his hand and touched the stones one by one with his finger. And the veil was taken from off the eyes of the brother of Jared, and he saw the finger of the Lord; and it was as the finger of a man, like unto flesh and blood; and the brother of Jared fell down before the Lord, for he was struck with fear.

7. And the Lord saw that the brother of Jared had fallen to the earth; and the Lord said unto him: Arise, why hast thou fallen?

8. And he saith unto the Lord: I saw the finger of the Lord, and I feared lest he should smite me; for I knew not that the Lord had flesh and blood.

9. And the Lord said unto him: Because of thy faith thou hast seen that I shall take upon me flesh and blood; and never has man come before me with such exceeding faith as thou hast; for were it not so ye could not have seen my finger. Sawest thou more than this?

10. And he answered: Nay; Lord, show thyself unto me.

Now mark this, brothers and sisters.

11. And the Lord said unto him: Believeth thou the words which I shall speak?

There is the ultimate test of faith.

11. ...Believeth thou the words which I shall speak?

12. And he answered: Yea, Lord, I know that thou speakest the truth, for thou art a God of truth, and canst not lie.

See, throughout he knew the character and the power of God, though he had not see Him. He had been walking as seeing Him who is invisible up to this time.

13. And when he had said these words, behold, the Lord showed himself unto him, and said: Because thou knowest these things ye are redeemed from the fall; therefore ye are brought back into my presence; therefore I show myself unto you.

14. Behold, I am he who was prepared from the foundation of the world to redeem my people. Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father and the Son. In me shall all mankind have life, and that eternally, even they who shall believe on my name; and they shall become my sons and my daughters.

15. And never have I showed myself unto man whom I have created, The office is what He is speaking of.
15. ...for never has man believed in me as thou hast. Seest thou that ye are created after mine own image? Yea, even all men were created in the beginning after mine own image.

16. Behold, this body, which ye now behold, is the body of my spirit; Which He was to receive.
16. ...and man have I created after the body of my spirit; and even as I appear unto thee to be in the spirit will I appear unto my people in the flesh.

Now I want to skip over to chapter 4, verse 6 and 7. Moroni, of course you know, is writing these things, giving us the record of Ether.

Ether 4

7. And in that day that they shall exercise faith in me, saith the Lord, even as the brother of Jared did, that they may become sanctified in me, then will I manifest unto them the things which the brother of Jared saw, even to the unfolding unto them all my revelations, saith Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Father of the heavens and of the earth, and all things that in them are.

So we have had that promise there, and we have it in the Doctrine and Covenants. In order to receive these things, then, we must have the faith of the ancient Prophets and Apostles, and continue until we overcome, brothers and sisters, and thus be enabled to obtain this faith, and that our course may be pleasing to God in order to obtain this faith, perfect faith. Joseph Smith said, "That which cometh not of faith is of sin," and this is the message of God to us now. If we do not enjoy the felicities of heaven that have been promised us, brothers and sisters, we must necessarily conclude is because we lack faith. Let us lay hold upon this faith and power, or power as it is called in the Lecture -- "faith" or "power" -- power with God through the Holy Ghost. May we get it and keep it as our constant companion, to give us the attributes of God that we may become like Him, and see Him as He is, standing in His presence, to the end that Zion may be redeemed and the saints return, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Beware of Pride; Testimony of Joseph Smith;
Must Become Like God

I am grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here under the direction of President Johnson, associated with my brethren here. We have wonderful opportunities, brethren and sisters, to be fed by the Spirit of God, and that is the power by which the Priesthood acts and speaks, and the honor be to God. One of the great weaknesses that beset us, brethren and sisters, is pride. We are not sufficiently humble, so that the Spirit of God can be with us, and in us, and round about us. We are too jealous of our own will and way. The genius of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is to render perfect obedience that we may obtain the gift of faith from our Heavenly Father, through His Spirit; and be submissive so that that Spirit can always strive and labor with us, and direct us, and to protect us, which we certainly need in these days of violence, the days of destruction and judgments which are rolling forth upon the earth.

I would like to read the teachings of Joseph Smith, these words of his, regarding pride.

Beware of Pride

Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy, and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance, and asking forgiveness; and should we even forgive our brother, or even our enemy, before he repent or ask forgiveness, our heavenly Father would be equally as merciful unto us.

Again, let the Twelve and all Saints be willing to confess all their sins, and not keep back a part; and let the Twelve be humble, and not be exalted, and beware of pride, and not seek to excel one above another, but act for each other's good, and pray for one another, and honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name, and not backbite and devour our brother.

Are not these principles those by which we all should live and labor, brothers and sisters? For these are the soul-destroying things that are besetting us.

Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world, when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us, and not be obliged to learn by sad experience everything we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen, of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exalt themselves, until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall, and go wallowing through the mud and mire and darkness, Judas-like, to the buffetings of Satan, as several of the quorum have done, or will they learn wisdom and be wise? O God! give them wisdom, and keep them humble, I pray.

Said Joseph.

When the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the congregations of the earth, and they preach in the power and demonstration of the Spirit of God, and the people are astonished and confounded at the doctrine, and say, "That man has preached a powerful discourse, a great sermon," then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves, but be careful that they are humble, and ascribe the praise and glory to God and the Lamb; for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood and the Holy Ghost that they have power thus to speak. What art thou, O man, but dust? And from whom receivest thou thy power and blessings, but from God?

If we would only realize, brothers and sisters, that we are His, and be grateful all the day long. The spirit of gratitude is an uplifting and glorious thing. The sin of ingratitude is the most debasing thing; and ingratitude is pride.

Then, O ye Twelve! notice this Key, and be wise for Christ's sake, and your own soul's sake. ye are not sent out to be taught, but to teach. Let every word be seasoned with grace. Be vigilant; be sober. It is a day of warning, and not of many words. Act honestly before God and man. Beware of Gentile sophistry; such as bowing and scraping unto men in whom you have no confidence. Be honest, open, and frank in all your intercourse with mankind.

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray
Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren;
That is where it usually starts.

...that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

The worst sin, then, brethren and sisters, is to be a traitor; and that will certainly constitute a man a son of perdition, sinning against the Holy Ghost and turning traitor against the brethren, against the servant of God, the keyholder. I revel, my dear brothers and sisters, in the words of Joseph, and I just felt like reading some of these grand and glorious principles to you today out of this work.

The Savior has the words of eternal life. Nothing else can profit us. There is no salvation in believing an evil report against our neighbor. Sowing discord, in other words.

I advise all to go on to perfection, and search deeper and deeper into the mysteries of Godliness. A man can do nothing for himself unless God direct him in the right way; and the Priesthood is for that purpose.

The last time I spoke on this stand it was on the resurrection of the dead, when I promised to continue my remarks upon that subject. I still feel a desire to say something on this subject. Let us this very day begin anew, and now say, with all our hearts, we will forsake our sins and be righteous.

The things I read here today are in this vein, my brothers and sisters.

I shall read the 24th chapter of Matthew, and give it a literal rendering and reading; and when it is rightly understood, it will be edifying.

I thought the very oddity of its rendering would be edifying anyhow -- "And it will be preached, the Gospel of the kingdom, in the whole world, to a witness over all people: and then will the end come."

I know that King James renders it: "The Gospel will be preached as a witness over the whole world," but it is to be preached to a witness.

I will now read it in German [which he did, and many Germans who were present said he translated it correctly].

The Savior said when these tribulations should take place, it should be committed to a man who should be a witness over the whole world: the keys of knowledge, power and revelations should be revealed to a witness who should hold the testimony to the world. It has always been my province to dig up hidden mysteries -- new things -- for my hearers. Just at the time when some men think that I have no right to the keys of the Priesthood -- just at that time I have the greatest right. These principles can be applied to us this day, because there are those who have grave misgivings.

The Germans are an exalted people. The old German translators are the most nearly correct -- most honest of any of the translators; and therefore I get testimony to bear me out in the revelations that I have preached for the last fourteen years. The old German, Latin, Greek and Hebrew translations all say it is true: they cannot be impeached, and therefore I am in good company.

All the testimony is that the Lord in the last days would commit the keys of the Priesthood to a witness over all people. Has the Gospel of the kingdom commenced in the last days? And will God take it from the man until He takes Him Himself? I have read it precisely as the words flowed from the lips of Jesus Christ. John the Revelator saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth.

The scripture is ready to be fulfilled when great wars, famines, pestilence, great distress, judgments, &c., are ready to be poured out on the inhabitants of the earth. John saw the angel having the holy Priesthood, who should preach the everlasting Gospel to all nations. God had an angel -- a special messenger -- ordained and prepared for that purpose in the last days. Woe, woe be to that man or set of men who lift up their hands against God and His witness in these last days: for they shall deceive almost the very chosen ones!

I testify to you, my brothers and sisters, that Joseph Smith was that witness over all the world -- the head of the last dispensation, the Witness of the Father and the Son, standing in the office of the Holy Ghost, standing next to the Lord Jesus Christ, as John Taylor tells us what is recorded in Section 135.

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death. Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men.

Here is a grand key, my brothers and sisters, and it should be memorized.

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possess, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people.

We have been told many times, brothers and sisters, there is a spirit in man, and the Spirit of God giveth him understanding. When we have chosen the work of God, have been baptized into the Kingdom, and had the hands of the Priesthood laid on our heads for the gift of the Holy Ghost, having, as it were, chosen the better part -- from then on we cease to be neutral. From then we are either actuated by the Holy Ghost, or by the devil. One must take the place of the other. It seems the devil has been given that right, and he surely uses it. So if we are not drawing to God, rising upward, increasing, then we are going to be going back, until finally we go back into native element, both spirit and body. That is the way of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Heber C. Kimball made a wonderful statement, which I would like to read to us. I do not suppose we think of it in this light, this spirit that is in man.

I will refer to brother Morley's words. He says, "The mind makes the man." That is true. What is the mind? It is that character that was made and fashioned after the image of God before these bodies were made, -- that is, our spirits. What is the mind? It is the spirit that was made before this body. Do you know it? Well, now let me tell you, it is that spirit that makes the man. I care not how humble he is -- if his nose is three feet long and all his body was disfigured -- I will tell you, if there is a good spirit in that man, and that spirit cultivates wholesome doctrine and lives to God, you love him. It is the spirit that is in the man that makes the man, which is the mind that you were speaking of, father Morley. You meant so, did you not, father Morley? ["Yes."] Well, you did.

Well, our change from this state of existence does not change our character.

I suppose we are all cognizant of that great truth.

_The character must be made and formed before it goes through the vail, if he is going to continue with the servants of God, the Prophets._

So I repeat this statement of Joseph.

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil.

This is something we should all say and do, every day:

_Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins._

God help us all to do so, and live to be like God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Cannot Carry Two Yokes; Examples of Faith; The Godhead

I deeply appreciate the wonderful testimonies that have been borne and the principles that have been spoken of and testified of here to us today. As Brother Knudson was speaking regarding coming out of the world, I realized more fully that he spoke the truth as it regards this people. You know what Brigham Young said about it, trying to bear two yokes, the yoke of Christ and the yoke of the world. They cannot be carried at the same time without there being eternal warfare in the bosom of that person; and it applies to us as a people.

It is a wonderful thing, brothers and sisters, that we have living examples of men and their families who have indeed come out of the world. The outstanding example is President Johnson. So you see, brothers and sisters, it can be done. It is being done, and it must be done if this people is going to be used to redeem Zion, if we are to be one. We cannot be one, brothers and sisters, and be in eternal warfare with the world.

We should, each and every one, be looking inward to ourselves to see what we truly desire, for God has said He would give us according to our desires. And I wonder, brothers and sisters, if we are aware of the very stark reality that if we are not aware, according to our desires, God will send us a delusion that we might believe a lie and be damned. President Musser has drawn a most graphic picture. He did in Salt Lake just a month ago, how God has sent a delusion to the Church, because they desired it, and they have believed it and are damned. He placed such great emphasis upon it that he has offered to make available copies of the tape upon which it is recorded, directing his remarks most particularly to the young people.

Lorin Woolley used to say, "Have you ever thought or never knew that God will judge the judges, too?" It occurred to me as I was driving down here, "Have you ever thought or never knew that God could give you a delusion, too?" -- this people, because God will give us according to our desires. What do we desire? Or, in other words, what is our faith? Is it perfect? If it was, then we would be receiving these blessings and endowments which have been spoken of. "O ye of little faith," said Jesus to Peter. As Jesus was walking over the water, He called for Peter to come. And Peter started out walking above the water, and then he looked down, and fear seized him, and he went in. Faith and fear cannot exist in the same being at the same time.

Now, what causes our fears, brothers and sisters? Too many of us are afraid that the teachings of President Johnson and the Council might be true. There was a great editorial in the Millennial Star, which people had great fears when Brigham Young brought forth the doctrine that Michael is our Father and God and the only God with whom we have to do. "And Fear Bringeth Torment" -- that was the name of the editorial. How many of this people are living in fear, just hanging around the fringes of the work, afraid that it might be true, but do not go to the bother, or exercise the powers of them to obtain that faith? -- which will make it true to them, because God will testify of it to us if we have the faith.

Another great example we have of the power of faith is the case where Oliver Cowdery and Martin Harris and David Whitmer had desired of Joseph that they might be witnesses to the plates of the Book of Mormon and of the angel testifying of its truth. The Lord promised that He would make visible to these brethren the angel Moroni and the plates, together with the sword of Laban, the Liahona, and the Urim and Thummim and breastplate; but it must be by their faith. In learning that this was to occur, Joseph went to Martin and told him, "Martin, you must repent more fully of your sins and of your selfish desires, if you are to obtain this blessing this day." So, later in the day, they went out to a spot in the woods. The four knelt down and prayed to the Lord -- and it had to be through faith in their prayers -- and they went around, in turn, praying. Nothing occurred. And one knew that his faith was not sufficient, so he withdrew. This was Martin Harris. He went off to a place by himself to continue praying; but, in the meantime, the remaining three brethren -- Joseph, and Oliver, and David -- continued to pray. The angel came and showed these instruments of faith, and the plates, and the voice from heaven declared their truth. Afterwards, Joseph went and found Martin, and he had sufficiently humbled himself and obtained enough faith; and through praying with Joseph, he obtained the same witness and testimony.

These are some very good illustrations of this power of faith, brothers and sisters, and how we must be right before God, or, in other words, know that our course is pleasing to Him in order for us to obtain the power of faith.

I would like to pass on to you the definition that I have come up with in describing in a few words this principle of faith. What is it? In using some of the words of Paul, faith is the assurance, in the mind, of things hoped for; it is the evidence of things not seen; the moving cause of all action; and a principle of power. Or, in just a very few words, to me, brothers and sisters, it is power with God, power with and from God which must be exercised in connection with the Holy Ghost, the gift of which has been given us by the laying on of hands of the Priesthood.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit constitute the Godhead. The Holy Spirit, brothers and sisters, is the mind of the Father and the Son. Do we ever think of the Holy Ghost in this way, brothers and sisters? Do we? This brings us so near to God, if we could only realize it, and come to realize more perfectly what it is and what it will mean to us to get and keep the Spirit of God with us at all times as our constant companion. Never be without it, for that Spirit is the mind of the Father. This is the means of communicating with Him, through the power of faith, through words. And it must be done through prayer. Our prayers will not be effective and granted until we come to know, through sacrifice, that our course is pleasing to Him, that when we approach God, we will approach Him according to His mind and will, all things being agreeable with His mind and will in the things that we desire in righteousness; humbling ourselves, submitting ourselves completely and absolutely, with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, so that our mind is actuated by the mind of the Father, through the Holy Spirit.

This way we will indeed come out of the world. The worldliness that is all about us would be excluded, although we would be living in the midst of the world. It is all around us, but we can come out of it in our heart and in our minds and live daily, godly in Christ Jesus, acknowledging His blessings unto us continually; for He says with none is He displeased except those who do not acknowledge His hand in all things and keepeth all of His commandments.

The Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit -- whatever you want to call it -- the Spirit of God, brothers and sisters, is administered to us through the holy Priesthood. God is Priesthood. The mind of the Father, our God, is the Holy Spirit, and He operates through His Priesthood. By faith He framed and formed the worlds and all things that are created and made, and these for man. God is that man might be. Man is that he might have joy -- happiness. And how God loves us, that He gave His Only Begotten Son to be a propitiation for our sins, as well as to raise us from the dead through the resurrection.

Are we grateful to our Lord Jesus Christ, our Elder Brother, the Heir of our Father, with whom we might be joint heirs and heirs of God, through the Spirit and the keeping of the commandments? How much, then, we should realize the import of these revelations that have been given to the servants of God, from Joseph to Brigham to John Taylor and all the rest, right down through President Johnson. Get and keep the Spirit of God, and never be without it. It is the key to our joys, our salvation, and our greatest aspirations in the Kingdom of God.

Lay hold on faith, brothers and sisters. You cannot increase it except through the means that have been outlined. May I repeat again something that I think is very helpful to us to remember.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in,
With all our heart, might, mind, and strength.
...will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;
Among those commandments are the requirements to sacrifice. We must make a covenant by sacrifice, in obedience to the laws and commandments of God.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power,
For such it is. If you would think of faith as power with God, I think you would come to understand and to use it more effectively in our lives. And...

...the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness,
From grace to grace, as it is spoken of concerning Jesus Christ, for He received not a fullness at the first, but afterwards -- grace for grace. And we may have a fullness of it, a fullness of the Holy Spirit.

...until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born,
This is what we should be striving for.
...with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father,
We will have...

...communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.
These are the first two attributes of God spoken of in the Lecture -- knowledge and faith, together with justice, judgment, mercy, truth, and love. Let us now, brothers and sisters, resolve again to love one another, to seek the interest of our neighbor, and love them as we love ourselves, loving God first with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and serving Him. May God help us unto this end, and give us greater diligence, greater desire, greater power with God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral for Carl Johnson and His Son, Douglas Ray

I feel greatly honored in being called upon to speak on this sacred occasion. Two beloved brethren have departed to another sphere to carry on their labors, and I desire the Spirit of God, according to the prayer that was offered, in whatever I may be led to say. This is a wonderful tribute to the love and esteem in which these two great spirits were held by their friends, their brothers and sisters, and their leaders in the Priesthood. I consider it an honor to have known and been associated with these two great spirits, because I think I remember and will remember Brother Carl, particularly, whom I knew most and more intimately -- the beautiful, humble, sweet spirit that he had, that he has; that which was distilled upon those with whom he labored and was associated. It is a wonderful thing to see this beautiful example, of this faithful and true father, and his faithful and true son, being taken together. "Why" is not our prerogative to ask. It is not ours to question why. Ours is but to do or die, and to carry on under the principles and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which Brother Carl loved with all of his heart, might, mind, and strength. Thus he loved the Lord. Thus he loved his neighbor, his neighbors.

He is a wonderful example of what I love to describe as sweet and sound, which is the very essence of humility; and in humility there is great strength, because it is founded in the Lord. He had great faith, which is power with God. I am sure his son Douglas was emulating him and carrying on under his direction in the same way. So I consider it an honor to have been associated with them, and to have known them.

Here were two men who were prepared to go. We have had a few in our midst, in recent months, who have thus been prepared to go to the other side to carry on their labors. And so, brothers and sisters, under these conditions, it is a time of rejoicing rather than of mourning, for they died unto the Lord. There is no spirit of death here. There is a spirit of life, the spirit of love, the spirit of the love of the truth for the truth's sake, the spirit of the love of God which is in our midst.

Brothers and sisters, are we prepared to go? These occasions, these very sacred occasions are those which bring right down into our consciousness, just where do we stand before the Lord, and are we prepared? The burden of the great work of this order of the Priesthood is to prepare a people for the great work ahead, abiding in the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel of Jesus Christ, walking in obedience to all of the commandments of God. Brother Carl was walking and did walk in obedience to all of the commandments of God, faithful and true, full of integrity, full of the Spirit of God, and loyal and true to those who presided over him.

The greatest sin, brothers and sisters, is to be a traitor. That is worse than murder. The opposite of this, of course, in the way of God, is to be loyal and true, faithful and true in all things; which these two were, and which I pray we may all be, as we seek for eternal life, walking in obedience to the commandments of God, honoring His work and Priesthood, honoring and serving God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; which I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Must Stay Close to the Keyholder;
Our True Position with Regard to the Savior;
We Become Heirs by Adoption

I am grateful to be here today, under the direction of President Johnson, and add my voice in testimony of the goodness of the Lord to us, and for the glorious truths that are at our disposal for us to live and abide by, that we might come again unto our Father. I am grateful, above all other things, for the light of truth which has been vouchsafed to us by the holy Priesthood.
Without Priesthood, and the revelations that come through it, there is no salvation, brothers and sisters. I do not know how often you think of it, but I do quite often, that the keyholder, the Prophet and servant of God, holds the keys to my salvation, and yours. As President Jessop said this afternoon, we cannot please God unless we are one with His chosen servant, His servants, whom the Lord has provided to direct us and to give us the administration of the truths, the doctrines, and the ordinances that will save and exalt us.

We have seen cases in times past, many of them, when men have come to this Priesthood and obtained blessings, and then gone off and become a law to themselves, thinking they had a perfect right to do so. They have a right to, I suppose, according to their agency, but they do not have a right to if they expect to please God. It is our great work in the preparation of a people to learn to please God and to become like Him. I am grateful for the Lord Jesus Christ, whom the Father sent to redeem and save us, if we obey His commandments and the Gospel of the Son of God. I am grateful for the Prophet Joseph Smith, who was raised up to restore the covenants and the way of life that we might accomplish these things and have a part in the redemption of Zion, the holy city of God.

I do not know if we appreciate enough what God has done for us, brothers and sisters. In our pride and vanity, we make certain demands and requirements, and if the servants of God do not come up to them, then we go away sorrowing. This is the case with so many. If we only had the true spirit of gratitude, I am sure that we could do better and live better and abide in our covenants.

I was reading just recently from The Mediation and Atonement of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, written by the Prophet John Taylor, who became our advocate with the Father, through Jesus Christ, in setting up this special dispensation, enabling us to continue in the light that was given us by the Prophet Joseph Smith. It helps me, at least, to understand our true position with regard to our Savior, in this treatise, and I pray God to help me with His Spirit in reading it to us, that we may get the import of it.

It may here be asked. What difference is there between the Son of God, as the Son of God, the Redeemer, and those who believe in Him and partake of the blessings of the Gospel?

One thing, as we read, is that the Father gave Him power to have life in Himself: "For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;" and further, He had power, when all mankind had lost their life, to restore life to them again; and hence He is the Resurrection and the Life, which power no other man possesses.

Another distinction is, that having this life in Himself, He had power, as He said, to lay down His life and to take it up again, which power was also given Him by the Father. This is also a power which no other being associated with this earth possesses.

Again, He is the brightness of His Father's glory and the express image of His person. Also, He doeth what He seeth the Father do, while we only do that which we are permitted and empowered to do by Him.

He is the Elect, the Chosen, and one of the Presidency in the heavens, and in Him dwells all the fulness of the Godhead bodily, which could not be said of us in any of these particulars.

Another thing is, that all power is given to Him in heaven and upon earth, which no earthly being could say.

It is also stated that Lucifer was before Adam; Remember, Adam is the name given Michael when He came into the earth and became the first man.

...so was Jesus. And Adam, as well as all other believers, was commanded to do all that he did in the name of the Son, and to call upon God in His name forever more; which honor was not applicable to any earthly being.

He, in the nearness of His relationship to the Father, seems to occupy a position that no other person occupies. He is spoken of as His well beloved Son, as the Only Begotten of the Father -- does not this mean the only begotten after the flesh? If He was the first born and obedient to the laws of His Father, did He not inherit the position by right to be the representative of God, the Savior and Redeemer of the world? And was it not His peculiar right and privilege as the firstborn, the legitimate heir of God, the Eternal Father, to step forth, accomplish and carry out the designs of His Heavenly Father pertaining to the redemption, salvation and exaltation of man? And being Himself without sin (which no other mortal was), He took the position of Savior and Redeemer, which by right belonged to Him as the first born. And does it not seem that in having a body specially prepared, and being the offspring of God, Michael.

...both in body and spirit, He stood preeminently in the position of the Son of God, or in the place of God, and was God, and was thus the fit and only personage capable of making an infinite atonement? Hence we read:

"Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body hast thou prepared me: in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God. Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second." -- Heb., x, 5-9.

We are told, in the Pearl of Great Price, that when Satan proposed a plan of his own, promising to redeem every soul of man, but wherein the free agency of man would be destroyed, and said, "Wherefore give me thine honor," the Only Begotten said, "Father, thy will be done, and the glory be thine for ever". "I am prepared to carry out thy plan." The Apostle above quoted states, "A body hast thou prepared me. * * * Then said I, Lo, I come to do thy will, O Lord." Hence from the above we learn that though others might be the sons of God through Him, yet it needed His body, His fulfillment of the law, the sacrifice or offering up of that body in the atonement, before any of these others, who were also sons of God by birth in the spirit world, could attain to the position of sons of God as He was; and that only through His mediation and atonement. So that in Him, and of Him, and through Him, through the principle of adoption, could we alone obtain that position which is spoken of by John: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is."

We could not do this unless we are like Him.

Thus His atonement made it possible for us to obtain an exaltation, which we could not have possessed without it.

"His name shall be called Immanuel," which being interpreted is, God with us. Hence He is not only called the Son of God, the First Begotten of the Father, the Well Beloved, the Head, and Ruler, and Dictator of all things, Jehovah, the I Am, the Alpha and Omega, but He is also called the Very Eternal Father.

Why? Because They are one; and what He does, He saw the Father do.

Does not this mean that in Him were the attributes and power of the Very Eternal Father? For the angel to Adam said that all things should be done in His name. A voice was heard from the heavens, when Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased," and when the Father and the Son appeared together to the Prophet Joseph Smith they were exactly alike in form, in appearance, in glory; and the Father said, pointing to His Son, "This is my beloved Son; hear Him." There the Father had His apparent tabernacle, and the Son had His apparent tabernacle; but the Son was the agency through which the Father would communicate to man; as it is elsewhere said, "Wherefore, thou shalt do all that thou dost in the name of the Son. And thou shalt repent, and shalt call upon God, in the name of the Son, for evermore."

So we, my brothers and sisters, may become the sons and daughters of God, truly, by becoming like Him, and come up to that station through the adoption. Something I have read so many times I cannot count it, but it gives me great strength and increases my faith to read these words of Joseph, showing how we are adopted.

Lecture Five

3. ...the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit.

The Holy Spirit, which is the mind of the Father and the Son, and these Three are one.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

As John Taylor says, "through the adoption". He is the only Heir. We become heirs through adoption, and through obedience to all of the laws and commandments of God. God has said, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." He cannot use us for anything unless we are one. As a family, then, we should strive to be one, that we may be used. As a people, we must be one if we are to redeem Zion and obtain those blessings which are held out for us now, to be endowed with power from on high. God bless and help us, my dear brothers and sisters, to be one and to search for that great gift of the Holy Spirit, and obtain it, that it may be our constant guide and companion, that we may indeed be like Him, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.
I do pray that that same spirit will actuate me as has actuated those before, and that it will make of me an instrument for good for the benefit of my dear friends, my brothers and sisters whom I dearly love in this work. There is a great deal that could be said, but I only want to say that which the Spirit of God shall dictate. We have so many things repeated that the Lord requires us to say. I am sure with some, at least, it becomes rather monotonous. But I think that we have need, above all things, to learn the very first principles of the Gospel.

The first one is given: Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and in God our Father; second, repentance; third, baptism; and fourth, the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost. In these we have every means by which we may come again into the presence of Father.

Faith, dear brothers and sisters, is the first principle of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and in God our Father; which, if we have, we will become like Them. Talk about fundamentals. These are they, brothers and sisters, and it will lead us into all truth; without which we cannot abide in the presence of God. The gift of the Holy Ghost comes through faith, and this is that Spirit which is the Spirit of truth; and we cannot come again unto God until we become like Him, through the Spirit and by the power of faith. It has been said and told us many, many times, the reason we do not enjoy these glorious blessings that we hope for, that we desire, is because we do not have sufficient faith.

I once asked President Johnson as we were riding along in Montana on the way home from one of our trips there -- he and I were alone -- and I asked him, "Why do we not have the blessings of the holy endowments?" He said, "It is because we are not sufficiently humble, not sufficiently one." The Lord cannot do anything for us until we are one, and this comes through the great power of faith, and walking in perfect obedience to the commandments. Nothing has been given by the Lord until it has been asked for in faith, with faith in our prayers. That is how all of the restoration of the Gospel and the holy Priesthood took place through the Prophet Joseph Smith. He went to the Lord as a humble boy at fourteen, and asked what he should do for his salvation, and which of all the churches were true, with a result that, because of his faith, the Father and the Son appeared to him.

Likewise, Moroni came to deliver the plates, and gave the message that he gave to him. The Book of Mormon was translated by the power of faith. He received baptism and the laying on of hands by John the Baptist for the restoration of the Aaronic Priesthood through faith; and the holy Melchizedek Priesthood was restored by Peter, James and John, upon Joseph and Oliver through faith in their great suffering. And so it has been. Are we going to lay hold upon these glorious blessings short of perfect faith? I tell you, no.

So the Lord has given us, through the Lectures on Faith, how we may lay hold upon these glorious blessings, only when our faith is sufficient to receive it. It is because we are mentally lazy, spiritually lazy that we do not have faith; because we are told by Joseph that faith is mental exertion through words. All things that have been accomplished have been accomplished through the power of faith, through words, through prayer, if you please; and then going forth and showing forth works, by our faith.

James said, "Show me your faith by your works," by your obedience. Therefore, faith requires perfect obedience to the commandments and the laws of God. Are we obeying every word of God, brothers and sisters, that are enjoined upon us on these occasions? I would like to read a few of the words of the Lord to the Prophet Joseph that was given to the School of the Elders, a School of the Prophets, as it was sometimes called.

119. Organize yourselves; prepare every needful thing; and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God;

All of these things through faith. Our houses, our homes, our habitations should be as temples. Lorin Woolley told the brethren in the early days of this work: For sometime to come, the only temples we would have would be our homes. If we cannot conduct our family lives under the spirit of abiding in a temple, then we are falling short. This is enjoined upon us continually.

120. That your incomings may be in the name of the Lord; that your outgoings may be in the name of the Lord; that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands unto the Most High.

Now, here are some of the things that we need to do to act in faith:

121. Therefore, cease from all your light speeches, from all laughter,

You know, there are laughing spirits, false spirits. There are over-religious false spirits, and it is a constant fight to overcome them, brothers and sisters. If we would only realize and fully appreciate that they do exist, and that they are around us to step in when we make way for them. We are led either by the Spirit of God, or the spirit of the devil, once we have entered into this work and have made our choice. We cannot be neutral again.

121. ...from all your lustful desires, from all your pride and light-mindedness, and from all your wicked doings.

122. Appoint among yourselves a teacher, and let not all be spokesmen at once; but let one speak at a time and let all listen unto his sayings, that when all have spoken that all may be edified of all, and that every man may have an equal privilege.

123. See that ye love one another; cease to be covetous; learn to impart one to another as the gospel requires.

124. Cease to be idle;

This is physical laziness, this idleness, brothers and sisters.

124. ...cease to be unclean;

The Holy Ghost cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles or habitations, and this means, of course, clean hands and pure hearts.

124. ...cease to find fault one with another;

Herein, brothers and sisters, is where we have the greatest problems, I am sure, in our family lives -- finding fault, giving way to temper, and false spirits so that we injure one another. This is not the way of love and a pure charity, the pure love of Christ. These are the things that destroy the peace of our households, and keep us from getting and keeping the Spirit of God. We have got to get rid of them by faith, and keep them without continually, that we may, indeed, be at peace; for the Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace. Here is a simple one:

124. ...cease to sleep longer than is needful; retire to thy bed early, that ye may not be weary; arise early, that your bodies and your minds may be invigorated.

125. And above all things, clothe yourselves with the bond of charity, as with a mantle, which is the bond of perfectness and peace.

126. Pray always,

Our daily lives should be conducted in the spirit of prayer, and this is in the exertion of our minds, in faith.

126. ...that ye may not faint, until I come. Behold, and lo, I will come quickly, and receive you unto myself. Amen.

Are we prepared, brothers and sisters? Are we so living so that we may be prepared when He comes, and particularly the One Mighty and Strong?

I feel impressed to read from Section 121, which tells us how we may exercise ourselves in this direction.

D.& C. 121

34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?

35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --

36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.

37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved;

These things we do in our family lives sometimes, brothers and sisters, and thus we grieve the Spirit of God.

37. ...the Spirit of the Lord is grieved

Until finally...

37. ...and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.

38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.

39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.

Here is the touchstone. Brethren, you bear the Melchizedek Priesthood. Without it you cannot have and hold a family in this order of things. You operate by the Priesthood. Your wives, in teaching the children, in training them up, operate by your Priesthood. Therefore, you are walking under the Priesthood of your husband and head in the teaching and training of your children. Brigham Young made it very clear that the great responsibility of teaching and raising up children lies with the mothers. I would like to read his words.

JD 9:38  Brigham Young  April 7, 1861  SLC
Sisters, do not ask whether you can make yourselves happy, but whether you can do your husband's will, if he is a good man. Teach your children; for you are their guardians, to act as father and mother to them until they are out of your care. The teachings and examples of our mothers have formed, to a great extent, our characters and directed our lives. This is their right, when they act by the power of the Priesthood, The Priesthood of their husbands. Sisters do not hold the Priesthood, but they have the right to act under the power of the Priesthood of their husbands, and should do it in the teaching of their children.

...to direct the child until it is of a proper age, and then hand it over to the husband and father, and into the hands of God,

Thus, mothers, we should be turning the hearts of our children to their fathers. I dare say that is probably the great reason so many of the early brethren's families are not found in the work today; because their children were not turned to their fathers, because of jealousies, and feelings, covetousness, and selfishness, thinking of their own, and not of the family as a whole and turning them to the father. Therefore, in acting by the Priesthood:

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

The pure love of Christ.
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

In the correction of children, if we would only follow this rule, brothers and sisters, we would draw them nearer to us. There is no greater sin that can be laid to our charge, than to think we have the Holy Ghost when we have the spirit of the devil on us, in reproving children. Losing control, brothers and sisters, therein is the sin. You may be ever so right in what you have to say and do in the premises, but if you have lost control, you have lost your temper, a terrible injury is done to that child, or your sister wife. And brethren, you with your wives and children, when we speak under the power and influence of a false spirit, losing control, brothers and sisters, we are the offender then, not the one you are reproving; and all is lost in the white heat of your anger as well. When there is reproof to be given, pause and wait awhile, and get on your knees, and ask the Spirit of God to be with you that you may reprove by the power of the Holy Ghost; and then you will do it firmly, but in the spirit of love; and afterwards show forth love, and let them know that it was done because you love them. Think what injury can be done if not done under this Spirit, and especially when we do not afterwards show forth this love.

So, we should abide in this law, in this Family Order of Heaven, realizing every moment, fathers, mothers, that we labor and perform our labors by the power of the holy Priesthood -- and the power of the Priesthood is the Holy Ghost; doing this daily, hourly, every minute that we live and breathe. If we could be conscious of these principles then I am sure we would begin to make these homes our temples. So, the Lord finishes by saying this:

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

You will have greater faith in God, and God will have confidence in you and me. And the result:

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth;

The power of the Priesthood is a scepter, and you will become kings and queens unto the Most High God, having had your calling and election made sure; being given dominions, and powers, and authorities and all things that God has, as joint heirs with Jesus Christ, heirs of God through the adoption.

45. ...and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Now, brothers and sisters, if we are going to be blessed we have got to become one. Families must be one. A group, or community of families must be one, or we are not His, the Father's. And until we do become one, we are not going to be blessed and endowed and given those great blessings that we desire so much. Let our desires be unto God with faith, with real intent, and have our course of life pleasing that that faith can become perfect. It cannot until our course is pleasing through the means that are given us here by the Lord. May God bless us to be one and to be that pure people, the nucleus of the great Millennium -- that is what our calling is -- and have a part in the redemption of Zion, which I ask in Jesus' name, amen.

Funeral of Julene Cox Pipkin

I sincerely pray for the Spirit of God to be with me in being honored to make some remarks at the services of our departed and dear sister, a faithful wife and mother. These were her callings, and she filled them well. I feel it appropriate to read the words of comfort that the Prophet Joseph Smith gave at a funeral of Lorenzo Barnes in 1843.

TPJS Page 294

Almost all who have fallen in these last days in the Church have fallen in a strange land. This is a strange land to those who have come from a distance. We should cultivate sympathy for the afflicted among us. If there is a place on earth where men should cultivate the spirit and pour in the oil and wine in the bosoms of the afflicted, it is in this place; and this spirit is manifest here; and although a stranger and afflicted when he arrives, he finds a brother and a friend ready to administer to his necessities.

I would esteem it one of the greatest blessings, if I am to be afflicted in this world, to have my lot cast where I can find brothers and friends all around me. But this is not the thing I referred to: it is to have the privilege of having our dead buried on the land where God has appointed to gather His Saints together, and where there will be none but Saints, where they may have the privilege of laying their bodies where the Son of Man will make His appearance, and where they may hear the sound of the trump that shall call them forth to behold Him, that in the morn of the resurrection they may come forth in a body, and come up out of their graves and strike hands immediately in eternal glory and felicity, rather than be scattered thousands of miles apart. There is something good and sacred to me in this thing. The place where a man is buried is sacred to me. This subject is made mention of in the Book of Mormon and other scriptures. Even to the aborigines of this land, the burying places of their fathers are more sacred than anything else.

When I heard of the death of our beloved Brother Barnes, it would not have affected me so much, if I had the opportunity of burying him in the land of Zion.

I believe those who have buried their friends here, their condition is enviable. Look at Jacob and Joseph in Egypt, how they required their friends to bury them in the tomb of their fathers. See the expense which attended the embalming and the going up of the great company to the burial.

It has always been considered a great calamity not to obtain an honorable burial: and one of the greatest curses the ancient prophets could put on any man, was that he should go without a burial.

I have said, Father, I desire to die here among the Saints. But if this is not Thy will, and I go hence and die, wilt Thou find some kind friend to bring my body back, and gather my friends who have fallen in foreign lands, and bring them up hither, that we may all lie together.

I will tell you what I want. If tomorrow I shall be called to lie in yonder tomb, in the morning of the resurrection let me strike hands with my father, and cry, "My father," and he will say, "My son, my son," as soon as the rock rends and before we come out of our graves.

And may we contemplate these thing so? Yes, if we learn how to live and how to die. When we lie down we contemplate how we may rise in the morning; and it is pleasing for friends to lie down together, locked in the arms of love, to sleep and wake in each other's embrace and renew their conversation.

Would you think it strange if I relate what I have seen in vision in relation to this interesting theme? Those who have died in Jesus Christ may expect to enter into all that fruition of joy when they come forth, which they possessed or anticipated here.

So plain was the vision, that I actually saw men, before they had ascended from the tomb, as though they were getting up slowly. They took each other by the hand and said to each other, "My father, my son, my mother, my daughter, my brother, my sister." And when the voice calls for the dead to arise, suppose I am laid by the side of my father, what would be the first joy of my heart? To meet my father, my mother, my brother, my sister; and when they are by my side, I embrace them and they me.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it. More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man. O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

So on these occasions, brothers and sisters, we contemplate these holy principles, and must ask ourselves, "Are we prepared to die tomorrow?" These are the comforting thoughts that attend occasions of this kind. I pray for God to bless Brother Pipkin and the family, that they may be comforted in knowing that Sister Pipkin, their wife and mother, is in the hands of the Lord, and that they can look forward with great joy and contemplation to the morning of the resurrection, when all shall be joined together again according to the will of Father. And I pray for the blessings of the Lord to be upon us all to this end, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I desire, my dear brothers and sisters, with all my heart to be actuated by the Spirit of God, and pray for an interest in your faith and prayers. I am deeply grateful to be here, and to be a part of this great work in which we are engaged. It is my very life -- this work of God, this Priesthood work. I desire that my family shall be a true Priesthood family, and to be used by the Priesthood of God whenever and wherever it is desired; and to follow after the servant of God who has charge of this work, President Johnson. I turn over my sons and daughters to him, and it is my prayer that they will always follow after him through the medium of the family order in which they may be called to labor and to carry on. I am fully cognizant of the truth that we are all parts of the Priesthood, a part of God if you please. I think well to read the words that were given by Orson Pratt regarding this.

There is one revelation that this people are not generally acquainted with. I think it has never been published, but probably it will be in the Church History. It is given in questions and answers. The first question is, "What is the name of God in the pure language?" The answer says, "Ahman." "What is the name of the Son of God?" Answer, "Son Ahman -- the greatest of all the parts of God excepting Ahman." "What is the name of men?" "Sons Ahman," is the answer. "What is the name of angels in the pure language?" "Anglo-man."

The grand principles of oneness, brothers and sisters, are involved in these things. This people cannot be God's except we be one. A family cannot be used by God except they be one. If we could only keep in mind this concept. Elders, the Priesthood that you bear as heads of families makes us a part of God. It is the authority of God given to man to accomplish His work; and it is for us, therefore, as a part of God, to magnify Him in us. We can never be one as families unless we have this concept, and tie ourselves inseparably to Priesthood. The Melchizedek Priesthood is all there is, brethren. There are different callings and responsibilities and offices in that Priesthood. We see the grand organization of it, as we see the life and labors of Joseph Smith the Prophet. We have this in our dispensation, of which we are beneficiaries, how God reposed in Joseph the Prophet all of His authority, to be His mind and His will to the people, that they might learn from this man how to become like God.

If we could only remember, then, brethren and sisters, that being a part of God, being a part of that Priesthood -- and sisters, dear wives and mothers, you are beneficiaries, and have a part in that Priesthood of your husband -- and being parts of God, then, we should be most anxiously engaged in magnifying it; thus magnifying God, and adding glory and honor to Him.
This should be our great motivation in life. If the family were in order, under Priesthood, perfectly following the instructions of the head, as he follows the instructions of his Priesthood head in all things, this people would then begin to become one. It is said that our homes are our temples, and this is the great work that devolves upon us as families now. Franklin D. Richards spoke a glorious truth in this light:

\text{If the Saints would make it their first and leading purpose in all the labors and duties of their lives to draw near to God, to sanctify themselves, sanctify their inheritance their families, their habitations, Making them temples.}

...their houses and lands, their flocks and herds; if every man in Israel who is the head of a family, and the possessor of property, made it his business to sanctify himself, and all that he has influence over unto the service of God and the building up of His Kingdom, making that the leading matter of his life, we should find ourselves progressing much more rapidly in the way of righteousness and power of truth before the Lord.

If we would keep in mind, then, that we are a part of His Priesthood, and thus of God, and that the holy Priesthood has as its power and authority the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Father and the Son, we could not do wrong; we could not ever do wrong! In a dedicated home, a man, or a woman, or a child would not lie. God is a God of truth and He cannot lie, and we cannot lie in a dedicated temple, our homes, or do any other things that are contrary to the Spirit of God -- this mind of our Father which is in us, and is the power of the Priesthood which we bear, brethren.

So, if we would just keep this in mind, that we are a part of our Father, through the Priesthood, and we must be loyal and true to that Priesthood which presides over us. The greatest sin, brethren, is to turn traitor against the brethren, against the Priesthood; because when they do so, they turn traitor to God. I feel like reading again Lorenzo Snow's picture of a family -- one.

JD 4:155  Lorenzo Snow  January 4, 1857  SLC

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, Filled with it, brethren -- the mind of the Father.

...to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually.

Getting and keeping the Spirit of God continually.

They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element,

What is that element? It is the Holy Spirit.

...suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God,

That is what these families are organized for, brothers and sisters, to be a part of the Kingdom of God, that a pure people -- a pure people, this is the description -- may be raised up to redeem Zion and become the nucleus of the great Millennium. This people is no better than its individual components. The families -- that is where it begins; and that is where we will have to bring about this sanctified state so that we will have a whole community of people, sanctified, a pure people, part of the Priesthood of the living God, moving as one man as it is described by the brethren. Heber C. Kimball spoke of how the brethren were led and directed, and followed their head as by a hair.
...suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the Kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children.

We live unto God. We should be living unto God, and for and with one another, that we might become pure element in the hands of the Priesthood. That is how it is going to be done, brethren and sisters. It has got to be done through men, called, ordained and chosen of God, and particularly the head through whom God will speak and direct His people. He has those who will assist him in that great work.

Now, brothers and sisters, if we could but think along these lines, I am sure we would begin to get somewhere in the preparation of a people; which you know very well is the great work of the President, which he speaks of so much, and of the Council of Priesthood laboring with him as one.

How are we to accomplish this? We are going to have to make the great sacrifice of the character that is of the world, through the principle of love and the power of faith -- faith in God, in His Priesthood. There must be faith in the living oracles of God for us to become one people. So it is by the power of faith that is going to accomplish it through love, the love of God, and the love of one another -- the first two great commandments which God has given us. That sacrifice is the sacrifice that is required of us. I always say, where is the sacrifice, when we are immediately blessed? As King Benjamin said to the saints in his great address to them, "We are but the dust of the earth, and we should be humble and useful vessels of righteousness in the hands of God." He says if we obey our Father in heaven we are immediately blessed, so what is the sacrifice? Where is the sacrifice really, when what we are accomplishing is becoming like God? That is the price we have to pay. It is through the principle of sacrifice.

Our affections, then, dear brothers and sisters, should be placed upon the laws and the principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the laws of God, which are the laws of the holy Priesthood, which are vouchsafed to us. How many of us, brothers and sisters, show the spirit of gratitude that we are engaged in the Celestial Law, the Family Order of Heaven, a part of it? How many of us can say, "I love this principle, this law with all my heart, because it is of God, the Family Order of Heaven"? If we love the principle, we would not be living under protest, which is the case with so many in our selfishness.

If we would live for one another in these families, and learn to love God and be like Him, then we would be one. It is said, in order to be loved, brothers and sisters, we must be lovable. I love that person most -- and I am sure God does -- who is most like God. Brigham Young said to the Elders, "Brethren, you should not love your wives any more than they grace the Gospel of Jesus Christ;" or it could be said in another way: "any more than they become like the character and attributes of God." Certainly we must love all. Joseph Smith showed us how the pure love of Christ works, for he sought the salvation of all of his brothers and sisters. Brethren, as heads of families, we should be engaged in saving our families by teaching them correct principles and teaching them to govern themselves according to the law of God.

So let us love one another more and more, by becoming more and more like God. Then we will have this gorgeous, this beautiful picture of a family that is one. We have got to overcome our differences to control our tempers. These are the things that cut and destroy the Spirit of God. And we must, by all means, so live that we can have the Spirit of God at all times, and we would be most uncomfortable and miserable when we are without it.

Do you, each of you, know when you have it and when you do not, brothers and sisters? Is it in you, or is it not, when you do and say the things you do? Ask yourselves when you do something wrong, "Is that by the Spirit of God?" No! for the Spirit of God leads us to do good, and to live perfect in Christ Jesus. If we are breaking any of the laws, then we are living imperfectly. If we are keeping all of the laws, we are living perfectly. We know what the laws are, brothers and sisters. They have been rehearsed to us time and time and time again.

Now, how to become one, simply, is getting and keeping the Spirit of God, and being pure element as families of the holy Priesthood, which is the same as saying families of God our Father, whom He desires to save in His presence, and will do so if we will become like Him; which I pray we may continue to labor for with all our hearts. Labor, brothers and sisters, for this condition of sanctification and purification. God's Spirit cannot dwell in impure tabernacles. So let us keep our minds clean, our hands clean; have clean hands and pure hearts. This is the way we will become sanctified, which I pray we may do with all our hearts, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of Joseph Smith; Criticism Prevents Us from Becoming One and is the Beginning of Apostasy; Be Grateful for Chastisement

I desire to be led by the Spirit of God, which I pray I may have in the remarks that I shall make here today, to the honor and glory of God. I love these words that we just sang. They draw a picture that is very beautiful to me, and the very fundamentals are required of us to be one people under God, through His Priesthood, united behind our Prophet.

Our God, We Raise to Thee

1. Our God, we raise to thee
   Thanks for thy blessings free
   We here enjoy,
   In this far western land,
   A true and chosen band,
   Led hither by thy hand,
   We sing for joy.

2. Bless thou our prophet dear;
   May health and comfort cheer
   His noble heart,
   His words with fire impress
   On souls that thou wilt bless
   To choose in righteousness,
   The better part.

3. So shall thy Kingdom spread
   As by thy prophets said,
   From sea to sea,
   As one united whole
   Truth burns in every soul,
   While hastening to the goal
   We long to see.
   The redemption of Zion.

4. Oh, may thy Saints be one,
   Like Father and the Son,
Nor disagree,
United heart and hand,
So may they ever stand,
A firm and valiant band, Eternally.

I am reminded of the great love that Joseph Smith had for the saints. John Taylor drew a beautiful picture in "The Seer", that poem so beautiful regarding our Prophet and head of this dispensation, the great love he had for the saints. He remarked on one occasion, he would be as willing to give his life as well for a saint, or the saints, as to fight for the rights of all men; and he did indeed love all mankind, desiring nothing more nor less than their salvation, if they would have it. True love, the pure love of Christ was a thing that actuated his soul throughout all of his mission and work in the earth; and in that same great love, he is laboring on the other side for us, waiting to be sent when there is a prepared people to set in order the House of God, and prepare a people, finally, for the glorious coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and the redemption of Zion.

The Prophet loved Nauvoo. He loved the saints, said John Taylor, and he is a God over this dispensation, under our Lord Jesus Christ and our Father Michael; and he stands one with Them in the grand Presidency of this earth. He is the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son, and he became one with Them, as They were one together. And we, as saints, cannot be one with Them save we become like Them.

I love to read and teach from the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the words of Joseph. I am reminded of the wonderful blessing that the Holy Ghost, speaking to Heber C. Kimball, pronounced upon him, as he was in the wilderness, yearning over his beloved family who were under the yoke of persecution. I cannot think of a greater blessing that could be given to a man as was pronounced at that time, as he recorded it as the Spirit dictated it: "My son Heber, thou hast been faithful in keeping all of the commandments which I have given, and thou hast followed the words of My servant Joseph in all things."

The Prophet was quoted has having said to him on one occasion that his inheritance (Heber's) would border Joseph's on the north in Zion.
Do Not Accuse the Brethren

I charged the Saints not to follow the example of the adversary in accusing the brethren, and said, "If you do not accuse each other, God will not accuse you. If you have no accuser you will enter heaven, and if you will follow the revelations and instructions which God gives you through me, I will take you into heaven as my back load. If you will not accuse me, I will not accuse you. If you will throw a cloak of charity over my sins, I will over yours -- for charity covereth a multitude of sins. What many people call sin is not sin; I do many things to break down superstition, and I will break it down"; I referred to the curse of Ham for laughing at Noah, while in his wine, but doing no harm. Noah was a righteous man, and yet he drank wine and became intoxicated; the Lord did not forsake him in consequence thereof, for he retained all the power of his Priesthood, and when he was accused by Canaan, he cursed him by the Priesthood which he held, and the Lord had respect to his word, and the Priesthood which he held, notwithstanding he was drunk, and the curse remains upon the posterity of Canaan until the present day."

What I am getting at, brothers and sisters, is the spirit of criticism and accusation, which our President Leroy Johnson has counseled us so strongly against, and this was the curse. The thing that prevents a people, a family from becoming one, is the spirit of criticism. If you look at the history of men who have come into the work and have apostatized and left it, you will find that that process of apostasy commenced with accusing the brethren; the spirit of criticism before that. The spirit of criticism is the beginning of apostasy. Joseph, detecting this spirit in Zion in 1833, wrote a letter January 14th, to William W. Phelps and Brother Gilbert. I feel like reading it, because it points up very strongly how this spirit can destroy a family and a people, and bring retribution from God. He said:

Kirtland, January 14, 1833.

    Brother William W. Phelps:

    I send you the "olive leaf" which we have plucked from the Tree of Paradise,

The "olive leaf" you will remember, is what is Section 88 of the Doctrine and Covenants, a glorious revelation to the Prophet Joseph, which he passed on to the brethren in Zion, having just lately received it.

I send you the "olive leaf" which we have plucked from the Tree of Paradise, the Lord's message of peace to us; for though our brethren in Zion indulge in feelings towards us, which are not according to the requirements of the new covenant, yet, we have the satisfaction of knowing that the Lord approves of us, and has accepted us, and established His name in Kirtland for the salvation of the nations; for the Lord will have a place whence His word will go forth, in these last days, in purity; for if Zion will not purify herself, so as to be approved of in all things, in His sight, He will seek another people;

Some eleven years later, standing before the saints in Nauvoo, on the reviewing stand, Joseph called upon the saints and said, "Will you stand by me to the death?" They raised their hands in sustaining and supporting him. He said, "It is well, for if you do not, I will go out there," out West, "and raise up another people." The Lord has His Israel and they are scattered, and they are going to be gathered.

...for His work will go on until Israel is gathered, and they who will not hear His voice, must expect to feel His wrath. Let me say unto you, seek to purify yourselves, and also the inhabitants of Zion, lest the Lord's anger be kindled to fierceness.

Repent, repent, is the voice of God to Zion;

This is the voice of the Priesthood to this people today, and has been lo, these many years.

...and strange as it may appear, yet it is true, mankind will persist in self-justification until all their iniquity is exposed, and their character past being redeemed, and that which is treasured up in their hearts be exposed to the gaze of mankind. I say to you (and what I say to you I say to all), The word of the Lord, you know, is that way. Though He gives instructions to His people, and even to individuals, and the revelations that Joseph received, nearly always would say, "What I say to you, I say to all," and may apply to all of the saints.

...hear the warning voice of God, lest Zion fall, and the Lord swear in His wrath the inhabitants of Zion shall not enter into His rest.

The brethren in Kirtland pray for you unceasingly, for, knowing the terrors of the Lord, they greatly fear for you. You will see that the Lord commanded us, in Kirtland, to build a house of God, and establish a school for the Prophets, this is the word of the Lord to us, and we must, yea, the Lord helping us, we will obey: as on conditions of our obedience He has promised us great things; yea, even a visit from the heavens to honor us with His own presence. We greatly fear before the Lord lest we should fail of this great honor, which our Master proposes to confer on us; we are seeking for humility and great faith lest we be ashamed in His presence. Our hearts are greatly grieved at the spirit which is breathed both in your letter and that of Brother Gilbert's, the very spirit which is wasting the strength of Zion like a pestilence; and if it is not detected and driven from you, it will ripen Zion for the threatened judgments of God. Remember God sees the secret springs of human action, and knows the hearts of all living.

Are we ever reminded of this, brothers and sisters?

Brother, suffer us to speak plainly, for God has respect to the feelings of His Saints, and He will not suffer them to be tantalized with impunity. * * * All we can say by way of conclusion is, if the fountain of our tears be not dried up, we will still weep for Zion. This from your brother who trembles for Zion, and for the wrath of heaven, which awaits her if she repents not.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.

About ten months later, in November of that same year, the saints were out of the City of Zion, driven and killed, and many of them from the land of their inheritance. The Lord gave His reason for this, after they had been driven, something that has been read many times to us; but it gets to the heart of this thing that I am speaking of.

D. & C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;
3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.
4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

I dare say that these things came about through the spirit of criticism, and accusing the brethren. Now, I do not suppose there is anyone here who would accuse the brethren, but criticism will lead to it, just as sure as God lives. Can we endure chastening, brothers and sisters? I am sure that we are going to have to be awakened by it, by some form or another. There has been spoken, by President Johnson, words of warning that we should take to heart, a division and a sifting among this people. Where will you stand? I would like to close with some more words of Joseph.

..."It must needs be that offenses come, but woe unto them by whom they come."

Joseph said this now, regarding the value of chastisement:

TPJS Page 194

President Joseph arose and said: "Brother Kimball has given you a true explanation of the parable," and then read the parable of the vine and its branches, and explained it, and said, "If we keep the commandments of God, we should bring forth fruit and be the friends of God, and know what our Lord did.

"Some people say I am a fallen Prophet, because I do not bring forth more of the word of the Lord, Why do I not do it? Are we able to receive it? No! Not one in this room. He then chastened the congregation for their wickedness and unbelief, 'for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son and daughter whom he receiveth,' and if we do not receive chastisements then we are bastards and not sons."

On the subject of revelation, he said, a man would command his sons to dig potatoes and saddle his horse, but before he had done either he would tell him to do something else. This is all considered right; but as soon as the Lord gives a commandment and revokes that decree and commands something else, then the Prophet is considered fallen. Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it.

Have you seen that? How well are you able to take corrections, brothers and sisters? Take it gracefully, and acknowledge that we have been wrong, and desire to do better and repent. Now, this great truth that President Johnson has been telling us about lately, and the other brethren.

The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us, is because we do not keep them but reveal them; we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, Family secrets, brothers and sisters. Do you think anyone who will do that is going to be entrusted with the sacred, holy endowments? No way.

...we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord? I can keep a secret till Doomsday. What greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend; then why not fight for our friend until we die? (December 19, 1841.) D.H.C. 4:478-479.

God help us to be one, and to be friends of the Lord, friends to each other, to love one another, and to follow the admonitions of the Lord, as we are given them in the last few verses of Section 121 -- that the Holy Ghost may be our constant companion, and become a scepter of power in the day of the Lord. God bless us to this end, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

We Must Go Through a Sifting:
Those Who Are Preparing Are Anxiously Engaged;
Why We Are Under Condemnation;
Prepare in Our Day of Peace

I feel very weak and humble in this position, brothers and sisters, realizing what is expected here. In a sense, President Jessop has got us on the spot, but that is where we should be. What is our faith, brothers and sisters, in coming out to this gathering? I desire your faith and prayers to the end that I might have the Spirit of God to direct my remarks. And I desire but to be a humble instrument in the hands of God to that end.

I rejoiced and felt exceeding glad to hear the glorious hymn sung of our Prophet Joseph Smith here this afternoon. It was a beautiful rendition, about everything that I contemplate -- I guess I can say everything that I contemplated -- regarding the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the work of the Priesthood in which we are engaged. I always hark back to Joseph, who acted in the office of Holy Ghost, and stands next to Jesus Christ in governing the affairs of this earth, under Father Michael, and Jesus, of course.

There is not a thing that we have, brothers and sisters, that has not come originally from Joseph the Prophet. With all of the many sermons that were preached in the long career of Brigham Young, he revealed to the people that he told them nothing but what he had been instructed by Joseph Smith, the Prophet. And so everything that we have to say and do in accomplishing the work and the mission that God has called us to do may go back to Joseph, whose father was Joseph. And both came according to prophecy found in the Book of Mormon, coming from their great progenitor Joseph who was sold into Egypt, who had a double portion in the House of Israel through his sons, Ephraim and Manasseh; and Ephraim has the rights of the Priesthood.

So we hold forth under that power and influence, brothers and sisters. I want to testify that Joseph is very close and yearns over this work, along with our Priesthood fathers who followed him in presiding over Israel in this last dispensation. And this people is called to prepare to redeem Zion. Two attempts were made in Joseph's day, after which the Lord said, "The saints must wait a little while." To us that little while has gone on a great deal of time. But in the sight of God, remember, all things are done according to His time, His way, and His will. It is only a little while, these hundred and forty years, for it was a hundred and forty-one years ago next month that Zion's Camp was called after the saints had been driven out of Zion, out of Jackson County, the center place of Zion. And there was even a set time, September 11, 1836, for the redemption of Zion, were the people prepared; but they failed.

A body of two hundred men gathered together -- one party under Hyrum Smith up in the State of Michigan; the other party under Joseph Smith, leaving from Kirtland -- joined together across the river, the Mississippi River, to proceed on until they finally reached Fishing River from whence they were dispersed. The only requirement made of that camp was that they should go as one without murmuring, standing behind their leader, Joseph the Prophet, with the power of the Holy Ghost upon them. Through the power of the holy Priesthood they could have redeemed Zion, and they could have caused that to happen which has been prophesied will yet happen -- one man putting to flight a thousand, and two, ten thousand under the power of God. But what was required, brethren and sisters, was that power of oneness, without which it cannot be accomplished.

Father Michael and His Only Begotten, His Beloved Son, Jesus Christ, have the power that They do because They are one. Jesus obtained all power with the Father because He became one with His Father. And this is what is required of us in the preparation of a people, and it is our privilege and blessing to go and redeem Zion. But as it was then, it must be again. God has not changed the conditions or the basis on which Zion is to be redeemed.

Let us go back to August 1, 1831, when Joseph, with Sidney, Edward Partridge, and the rest of the brethren who were sent on that mission to begin the settling and the building up of Zion, and see what the Lord said to them then.

D.& C. 58

1. Hearken, O ye elders of my church, and give ear to my word, and learn of me what I will concerning you, and also concerning this land unto which I have sent you.

2. For verily I say unto you, blessed is he that keepeth my commandments, whether in life or in death; and he that is faithful in tribulation, the reward of the same is greater in the kingdom of heaven.

Faithful in tribulation.

3. Ye cannot behold with your natural eyes, for the present time, the design of your God concerning those things which shall come hereafter, and the glory which shall follow after much tribulation.

4. For after much tribulation come the blessings. Wherefore the day cometh that ye shall be crowned with much glory; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand.

5. Remember this, which I tell you before, that you may lay it to heart, and receive that which is to follow.

***
Is there any key in this for you? This struck me with such force, as the brethren were contemplating it, that I could see what lies before this people before the blessing comes, the blessing of an endowment with power from on high and the preparation of a people before that blessing shall come. We have yet, then, brothers and sisters, to go through a mighty tribulation. Can we stand under that tribulation in faith? There is where the sifting is going to come, brothers and sisters, and there is going to be a great division and a sifting among this people. You may be sure of that. Our President has told us that. I suppose many have forgotten it, but that is part of the preparation. There are many under the sound of my voice who will not qualify. Let us go on further regarding instructions of the Prophet Joseph Smith by the word of God to him. To provide the leadership, Edward Partridge was the man chosen to be the presiding bishop, the bishop of the Church at that time, to lead the people in the building up of Zion. And after instructing him to bring his family there, He said:

D.& C. 58

25. Wherefore, let them bring their families to this land, as they shall counsel between themselves and me.
26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.
27. Verily, I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, Anxiously engaged.
28. ...and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;
28. For the power is in them,
What is that power? The power of the Holy Ghost through the Priesthood, the Holy Ghost being the power of the Priesthood. It is in us, brothers and sisters, to do these things.
28. ...wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.
29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

There is quite a line drawn here in my view as I read this, brothers and
30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?
31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?
32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.
33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled. But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh beneath, and not from above.

All right, brothers and sisters, what is the difference now? He who is anxiously engaged in doing a good work and is not commanded in all things. Now understand, this speaks concerning those things which are in the jurisdiction of a man. He is engaged in a good work within the jurisdiction in which he is placed to fulfill the work that he has been appointed to do. And we don't have to be commanded in all things. Therefore, I say, the difference between those who will be prepared will be those anxiously engaged in this work, doing much good because they want to do it, because they love the truth for the truth's sake; in other words, who love God and His work with all their heart, might, mind, and strength; I like to add "God and His work" with all our heart, might, mind, and strength. This is acting according to the commandment given here. This is how we do it. And we likewise love our neighbors as ourselves, seeking the interest of our neighbor. This is the command God gave to the saints when they were proceeding in their labors in building Zion then. This was the spirit in which it was to be done -- seeking the interest of our neighbors, loving our neighbor as ourself, and being anxiously engaged.

Sometimes I feel to liken this to the parable of the Savior. He said if a man asks for you to go a mile with him, go two. If he asks for and needs a coat, give him two. This calls for absolute unselfishness, seeking the interest of our neighbor; and I can't think of a better way to become one than by the spirit of that admonition that God gave to the saints in Zion in that day. Zion cannot be built up, says the Lord, and has been reminded us scores and scores of times by President Johnson; Zion cannot be built except on the principles of the Celestial Law. Living the Holy United Order is a celestial law. The law of Celestial Marriage, plural marriage, is a celestial law. These are the key laws by which we can build up Zion, and in no other way; directing our families under the spirit of the Holy United Order.

Now it says we must go through great tribulation before we can obtain the blessing. Sacrifice, in other words, brings forth the blessings of heaven. I suppose it is a tribulation to many of us to overcome this earthly character in us, this selfish character in us. Call that a tribulation if you want, but I am afraid that we are in for far worse things than that. What a glorious thing, brothers and sisters, it would be if we could keep the commandments of God in the days of peace and make the preparation in the days of peace. I think it is Section 101 where the Lord tells us why the saints were driven out of Jackson County. Here it is again. We must endure chastening, or a time of tribulation.

D.& C. 101

5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

This is required, then, in order to become sanctified, and that is what this is all about, a process of sanctification.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires Selfishness, utter selfishness.

6. ...among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

In these peaceful days we have a counterpart of this, brothers and sisters, that which the Lord speaks of here. What I am getting at is, wouldn't it be marvelous if this people could prepare in times of peace, fully prepare; when we are being left alone, so to speak, to live our holy religion under the President of the holy Priesthood? Yes, the Lord turned a key in behalf of this Priesthood twenty years ago, as far as the law and the people were concerned, and the Church. Now we have had over twenty years of peace, being left, as it were, to live our holy religion if we will. But what do we do generally? Esteem lightly His counsel in days of peace, which is what Section 84 tells us is what brought the Church under condemnation, and still is there.

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

God grant that we are in that position with our Father in heaven, brothers and sisters.

11. Mine indignation is soon to be poured out without measure upon all nations; and this will I do when the cup of their iniquity is full.

12. And in that day all who are found upon the watch-tower, or in other words, all mine Israel, shall be saved.

"All Mine Israel." God says, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." That part of Israel that is one will be His Israel.

13. And they that have been scattered shall be gathered.

14. And all they who have mourned shall be comforted.

15. And all they who have given their lives for my name shall be crowned.

16. Therefore, let your hearts be comforted concerning Zion; for all flesh is in mine hands; be still and know that I am God.

Stop murmuring. Stop criticizing, brothers and sisters. The spirit of criticism will take you out of this work, as God lives, if you allow it to persist and repent not. And it is these things that are, these jarrings and contentions, the spirit of criticism and accusation, accusing the brethren and accusing one another unrighteously, not being in a position to judge. So why, brothers and sisters, should we not be making the most of this peaceful time to live our religion? We know by prophecy that mobs are going to be going forth, and many of them will be directed against this people and this work, you can be very sure. But before this day comes about, let us read what the Lord told His disciples, Section 45.
30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. And that time has been fulfilled.

31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

Will we escape? But here is how we may.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

We can see the beginnings of this in the movements that are going on in this country today, when there will be utter bloodshed and they will be killing each other as they did among the Jaredites, and at the last, among the Nephites under the command of Mormon, the Prophet. But, brothers and sisters, we have this glorious hope, if we have the faith to endure the tribulation, that if we stand in holy places, the overflowing scourge shall pass over and we be left, the righteous left to redeem Zion. What are holy places to us, brothers and sisters? We do not have the temples. They are supposed to be holy places. Lorin Woolley told the brethren in his day, "The only temples that this people will have is their homes." And they can be made holy, but only upon the conditions of the Celestial Law, abiding the Holy United Order and the law of Celestial Marriage, living in love together as one, with wives and children under a Priesthood man, one hundred percent Priesthood man, following their leader.

I testify to you in the name of the Lord, that Leroy Sunderland Johnson holds the keys of the holy Priesthood and stands in the same position to us today that Joseph did in his day; and how he yearns over us, brothers and sisters -- you little know; and all of these other brethren, his counselors. We yearn over you with all our hearts and souls, desiring nothing more nor less than your eternal salvation and exaltation. Let us settle down now, brothers and sisters, and be one. There is only one way to do it, and that is through this one man. Rally around him as Joseph was the man to Zion's Camp, and it will be a camp that will go back to Jackson County under the Holy One of Israel. God grant that we may be worthy to stand in His presence; and we cannot unless we are like Him and are one with and one together under our head, which I pray we may be in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Faith; All the Events in the Restoration Are the Result of Joseph's Great Faith

I am grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be with you here today in association with my beloved brethren of the Council. I desire the blessings of God to be upon me that I may say those things which He would have me say for the benefit of all of us, in fulfilling this assignment.

We naturally sit here and wonder what to talk about and try to get the inspiration of God to say the things that He would have us say, and in my ruminations I was led to read some of the words of Joseph, and go from there. So on page 51 of the Teachings:

We consider that God has created man with a mind capable of instruction, and a faculty which may be enlarged in proportion to the heed and diligence given to the light communicated from heaven to the intellect; and that the nearer man approaches perfection, the clearer are his views, We need to be on the road to perfection, therefore, brothers and sisters, that our views may be enlarged and very clear, and governed and directed by the Spirit of God.

...and the greater his enjoyments,
That we might have joy and rejoicing.

...till he has overcome the evils of his life and lost every desire for sin;
And we can get to that point, brothers and sisters, if we will seek and keep, as our constant companion, the Holy Spirit. And here is the blessing:

...and like the ancients, arrives at that point of faith where he is wrapped in the power and glory of his Maker and is caught up to dwell with Him.

That point of faith, brothers and sisters, is the key. Further on in this epistle which Joseph wrote to the saints abroad, in association with his brethren, he
But that man was not able himself to erect a system, or plan with power sufficient to free him from a destruction which awaited him is evident from the fact that God, as before remarked, prepared a sacrifice in the gift of His own Son who should be sent in due time, to prepare a way, or open a door through which man might enter into the Lord's presence, whence he had been cast out for disobedience. From time to time these glad tidings were sounded in the ears of men in different ages of the world down to the time of Messiah's coming. By faith in this atonement or plan of redemption, Abel offered to God a sacrifice that was accepted, which was the firstlings of the flock. Cain offered of the fruit of the ground, and was not accepted, because he could not do it in faith, he could have no faith, or could not exercise faith contrary to the plan of heaven.

The firstlings of the flock was as a type of the glorious sacrifice to be offered by the Lord Jesus Christ in the meridian of time, not the fruit of the ground; therefore, he could not have faith in the atonement of Jesus Christ to come.

It must be shedding the blood of the Only Begotten to atone for man; for this was the plan of redemption; and without the shedding of blood was no remission; and as the sacrifice was instituted for a type, by which man was to discern the great Sacrifice which God had prepared; to offer a sacrifice contrary to that, no faith could be exercised, because redemption was not purchased in that way, nor the power of atonement instituted after that order; consequently Cain could have no faith;

And here is the key words of this:

...and whatsoever is not of faith, is sin.

So Cain actually committed sin in doing it his way. This was not the will and the way of God. He, therefore, could not exercise faith. Now brothers and sisters, part of this glorious plan of salvation is for us to come into this lone and dreary world, in which many of us are pilgrims. I will never forget in the early years of my acquaintance with Brother Guy, the words he spoke in that light struck me, and they have stayed with me ever since: "I am a pilgrim in this lone and dreary world, and desire greater things," and he is certainly on his way to obtaining, and prevailing through faith in God. Through faith we learn to prevail with God, as did Jacob, who wrestled with Him, as it were.
We are required, by the very nature of the probation in which we find ourselves, in which God designs to bring us back into His presence, to accomplish this glorious blessing by the power of faith, walking, as it were, as seeing Him who is invisible. I have frequently read a brief summary to you about a definition of faith, which I think might be apropos at this point.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, walking as seeing Him who is invisible, knowing who He is, what He is, and how to worship Him. And finally,

...and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness,

Line upon line, precept upon precept, receiving not a fullness at the first; but afterwards, through our obedience, our perfect obedience.

...from righteous to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

And that ripening comes when we see, and feel, and hear our God, our Lord Jesus Christ, the Second Comforter; and He will reveal the Father. Can we not see then, why, if it is not of faith it is of sin?

I have frequently thought back on the history of Joseph, and how he obtained step by step through the power of faith, until it was finally revealed to him who he was and what he was. But in the glorious labor of being the instrument, by the hand of God, to restore the holy Priesthood, the fullness of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, opening up the last and the greatest of all the dispensations of God to man, every step had to come by faith. Recall how he went in the spring of 1820 to the Grove, having read the promise of James: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him."  "If anyone needed knowledge," he said, "he did," to know what to do with all the conflicting claims of the sectarian churches and denominations; this simple boy of fourteen, with this simple perfect faith, knowing that he would receive an answer.

The next step, after some four years, going through the vicissitudes of boyhood and young manhood, and being subject to all the temptations that beset boys of that age, he desired in faith to know of God his state and standing before the Lord. And he prayed fervently with faith in his prayers, as he lay in his bed that night. Then came Moroni, an angel from on high, to reveal the next steps that he should take -- that of restoring ancient scripture, and giving it to the world, that they might believe in the fullness of the Gospel, which it was to contain. Two more visits that night, and one more the next day, until he found himself at the Hill Cumorah, and viewed the box containing the plates, the sword of Laban, and the interpreters, or Urim and Thummim.

The next step was to go there three more years, being prepared all the way -- line upon line, precept upon precept, and he finally obtained the plates, each step by faith; and I dare say he had to kneel in prayer at that spot every year he went. Finally, Moroni delivered up the plates to Joseph, and through the power of faith he had to hang onto them, and cling to them for dear life. And through revelation, he finally translated the record, the ancient record, and the book was published.

The next step, the organization of the Church. In between I should mention most importantly, while translating the scripture he came across the subject of baptism, and he and Oliver knelt in prayer to obtain the mind and will of God concerning that. Certainly that would be required of them. The Angel Moroni came as a result of that exercise of faith, and bestowed upon them the Priesthood of Aaron, including the Levitical Priesthood, with a promise that the holy Melchizedek Priesthood should later be conferred.

And as I recall the story, some five weeks or so after this, in the month of June 1829, when Joseph was fleeing from and escaped from a jail whence he had been called to answer; he and Oliver, through the woods along the banks of the Susquehanna river, Joseph having to carry him as his back load, carry Oliver, they knelt in prayer again; and lo, Peter, James and John conferred the holy Priesthood, the holy Apostleship upon them, on Joseph and Oliver.
One of the great exhibitions of faith, or stories we have regarding this power, is the Three Witnesses -- David, Oliver, and Martin. You know that story and how it took faith, and repentance before by Martin Harris, before he could have the angel come and show the record as the other two had with Joseph -- David and Oliver. He had not the faith. He had not the preparation until he humbled himself further, and repented. And Joseph went out and found Martin, and with him obtained through faith. Martin had to leave the other three when they first knelt in prayer, and prayed around the circle. So can we not understand why, if it is not of faith it is of sin? Why? Because we must seek unto God. We must not place our faith in the arm of flesh, as relying on our own power. That cometh of the devil; we certainly must obtain from one source or the other.

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principles, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people. Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

And I feel to say the same today, and obtain from God by faith, that I may, indeed, be His. I pray that you and all of us may become His indeed. We cannot be His, brothers and sisters, save we are one -- one in our families and as a people, in sufficient number to be used to redeem Zion. And this must be obtained by faith, by perfect faith, through the means that have been laid out before us here, which I pray we may have, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Strong Warning to Heed President Johnson's Words;
We Lack Faith Because of Mental Laziness
I desire, my brothers and sisters, to only say and do those things that Father would have me do on this occasion. I would like to feel more strength coming from this congregation in the form of your faith. But I do ask the Lord to bless me in what I may be led to say.

I have had the opportunity, brothers and sisters, of listening to a sermon and a warning of President Johnson in this place on the first day of December last. I would think that anyone sitting in this congregation on that occasion would have marked it down and made it a turning point in their lives. Those were some dire warnings that were delivered to this people. I was told about it beforehand, and I asked for a copy of the tape and got it, and I have listened to it. It should have been enough to scare the hell out of all of us. I refer to the occasion when he told this people that they had been tested, or weighed in the balance and found wanting. I call that a terrible indictment that requires a great deal to overcome and to pay for.

I felt like reading part of Section 82, which has been read a great deal, I am sure, to all of us.

D.& C. 82

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you.

This is a key for all of us in our relations with one another, in our family relations as well as a community. We have need to be forgiven, else the President wouldn't have told us what he did. And we have got to forgive one another, and learn to love one another, and respect and sustain our brothers and sisters; and particularly, to sustain and support our President. We are under covenant with one another, brothers and sisters, especially the bearers of the holy Melchizedek Priesthood. Do you realize that? And you are under covenant, brethren, to sustain the President of Priesthood, and to take his direction and counsel and follow it to the letter.

The Lord goes on to say:

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; yea, even all of you have sinned; but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads.

You recall how President Johnson recounted the history of God's dealings with His people from the beginning until now, and how He brought judgments upon them for their disobedience. Now here is what we have, brothers and sisters:

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation.
Do you see where we stand under that indictment, brothers and sisters?

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; And hasn't He, in the Spirit of revelation that has come from the Priesthood, the instructions, the light, the knowledge that we have been given? One of the grandest sermons I have ever heard and read, will be found in the seventeenth volume of Truth, starting at page 25, which I understand was read here in your hearing a couple of months ago, and which was read in Salt Lake two weeks ago; which we would do well to take for our direction, and as a pattern, that we might have the Spirit of revelation, that we might have more revelation and guidance and be permitted and prepared to obtain the holy endowments.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;
It is all around us, brothers and sisters. Is there light here, and in you, and in your families? -- The light of truth, the Holy Spirit? That is what we are talking about.

5. ...and darkness reigneth;

The devil and his minions are laboring all the harder against this people and this work, and he has to work through us as individuals. Are we permitting them to take possession and direct us and destroy the peace that is within us, or are we taking the revelations of God and the Spirit of God for our guide, that it might be our constant companion?

6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.
7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge; go your ways and sin no more;

And I hope we are in that position today, as a people. The President said there is yet time if we will repent and do better and come up to the line, and in all diligence and faith, serve Him and keep His commandments, even the Lord Jesus Christ and our Father.

7. ...go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.

These things frighten me, brothers and sisters, when I read them, and remembering the position that we are in.

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;
9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.
10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

I am going to teach today by the word of God, and hope that we may know and understand where we stand, and what we should be doing about it. Here is how the Lord works with us, in Section 64:

D.& C. 64

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

How grateful we should be, brothers and sisters, with a knowledge that this is a vanguard work, and this people is called to lay the foundation for a great and a mighty work, that it might ultimately fill the whole earth. We are called to prepare for the redemption of Zion. Talk about laying the foundation of a great work. Then why are we weary in well-doing with such great things before us?

34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.
35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.

We are supposed to be making a Zion here, brothers and sisters, and sanctifying it by our lives, sanctifying the ground upon which we dwell -- our habitations which should be temples unto the Lord. Lorin Woolley told us the only temples we would have for some time to come would be our homes, and these we should sanctify and make holy by our righteous living. I just want to put a few things together for us here, for help and a guide, and I now read a little from Section 112.
23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.
24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.
25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;
26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

Now, brothers and sisters, we are not sufficiently humble. We are not sufficiently righteous before the Lord, and we have need to repent. What if the time should come when the President should come out and say to us, "The time is now past and judgment lieth at the door." Why are we procrastinating, brothers and sisters? It is because we don't have the faith -- just that simple. "That which is not of faith is of sin," said the Prophet Joseph Smith. And all things that we lay hold upon, if we want our salvation and all of the things that lead up to that, and the means by which we may lay hold on that salvation, must come by faith. There is no other way. It is not going to be handed to us. All that Joseph got, from the very beginning of his great mission upon the earth, he obtained through faith, every step of the way. And we will get it on no other terms. So, if we are growing weary in well-doing, and if we are not laying hold upon the things that we desire, it is because we don't have the real desire, nor the faith, and we are spiritually and mentally lazy. We have had it too easy for too long, it looks like, and it looks like a great whirlwind is in the offing.

I pray, brothers and sisters, that we will take stock of ourselves and find out where we stand, and inquire of the Lord where we stand before Him. Joseph Smith, four years after the first great vision, going about his affairs and his labors, became very concerned and inquired of the Lord, an occasion one night as he lay in bed, how he stood before God his Father. And the result was the visit of Moroni, and the beginning of his great work and career in the earth, in which he, through his faith, and through his perfect obedience, came to stand next to the Lord Jesus Christ; standing in the office of the Holy Ghost, the head of the last and the greatest of all the dispensations; and which he has been given the keys of all those held by former dispensations. We are a part of that work, brothers and sisters. Are we grateful? Are we grateful enough to begin to obey perfectly, that we might have perfect faith? God help us to do so, and that we may, from this time forth, hearken unto the words of our President and our Prophet, and render perfect obedience to the end that we might be saved in our Father's presence in the eternal worlds, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Love of Husbands and Wives

I am very happy to be here with my brethren, and meeting with you, my dear brothers and sisters, here today. I am trying to find some words of Joseph, who quoted Paul to the Ephesians.

TPJS  Page 88

"Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord,
As unto the Lord.

...for the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church; and He is the Savior of the body. Therefore, as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands, in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself for it, that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the Word, that He might present it to Himself a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish, so ought men to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself, for no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church, for we are members of His body, of His flesh, and His bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh" (Ephesians v:22-31).

"Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.
Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. Servants, obey in all things your masters, according to the flesh, not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God." (Colossians iii:18-22).

In the bonds of the New and Everlasting Covenant, Joseph Smith, Jun., spoke to the saints, which I commend to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Priesthood Meeting
Colorado City, Arizona
April 5, 1975
Must Be One With the Head;
Prepare for the Redemption of Zion by Living as a Zion's Camp

I am thrilled, along with my brethren here tonight, with this sight, seeing this great concourse of Priesthood bearers sitting under the voice of President Johnson, our head. I desire an interest in your faith and prayers, brethren, that I may speak as directed by the Holy Ghost, as President Johnson has said in announcing, opening this meeting.

I am deeply impressed, dear brethren, with the truth that we are the vessels of God in bearing the holy Priesthood, and we are a part of God by reason of it. I am reminded of Section 93:

D. & C. 93

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that every soul who forsaketh his sins and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name, and obeyeth my voice, and keepeth my commandments, shall see my face and know that I am;

There is the Gospel of Jesus Christ as it applies to each and every one of us. Further along in this Section, speaking of man, the sons of God, His children, His sons and daughters; but I am speaking of the Priesthood bearers, the sons of God, which we should be striving to be.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

So that is what we are potentially, brethren. When I look at this great concourse of Priesthood and see what a great potential there is in power with God through the Priesthood in accomplishing His purposes, and this grand call that we have to be instruments in the redemption of Zion, we should be very sober about what we are about and what our destiny and our labors should be.

As Priesthood bearers we should have the Holy Ghost upon us. The power of the Priesthood is the Holy Spirit, and it must come down through the head. Heber C. Kimball said to the saints in his day, "How do you think you will get the Spirit of God except through us?" through Brigham, their head. It is for us to keep the channel free and clear, brethren, laboring through the head, drawing near to him that we may exercise this Priesthood by the power of the Holy Ghost, and thus become one.

Think of the power that sits here tonight, potentially, if we were one. Are there five hundred here? [Speaking to those on the stand:] What do you think? Six hundred. The Lord called on Joseph to get five hundred men to redeem Zion, five hundred. He couldn't get them, and the Lord scaled it down to one hundred. He could have done it with one hundred who would be one and would not murmur; who would follow their head, Joseph Smith, who went before them and with them on that great journey, Zion's Camp.

There is the picture I see, brethren. He got two hundred, but they had hardly got out of Kirtland and the other places from whence they gathered until there was murmuring and contention and jarrings, and the whole journey was frustrated, except that it proved the faithful brethren who did stand by Joseph. Zion was not redeemed; and it was stated in the revelation that the set time was given, of September 11, 1836, if these men were capable of accomplishing this great mission. And so, what did the Lord finally have to do? He told the brethren, as they gathered at Fishing River in Missouri, these things:

D.& C. 105

9. Therefore, in consequence of the transgressions of my people, it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season for the redemption of Zion --

10. That they themselves may be prepared,
This is the great message of President Johnson to us.

10. ...and that my people may be taught more perfectly, and have experience, and know more perfectly concerning their duty, and the things which I require at their hands.

11. And this cannot be brought to pass until mine elders are endowed with power from on high.

12. For behold, I have prepared a great endowment and blessing to be poured out upon them, inasmuch as they are faithful and continue in humility before me.

13. Therefore it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season, for the redemption of Zion.

14. For behold, I do not require at their hands to fight the battles of Zion; for, as I said in a former commandment, even so will I fulfill -- I will fight your battles.

The Lord promised this to the saints in the 1880's, when the great issue of the continuance of Celestial and Plural Marriage was at stake. The Lord promised them that if they would keep His commandments, He would fight their battles. They would have their properties and they would have whatsoever the Lord desired them to have to accomplish His will and purposes in them; but they didn't have the faith to go through.

15. Behold, the destroyer I have sent forth to destroy and lay waste mine enemies; and not many years hence they shall not be left to pollute mine heritage, and to blaspheme my name upon the lands which I have consecrated for the gathering together of my saints.

16. Behold, I have commanded my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., to say unto the strength of my house, even my warriors, my young men, and middle-aged, to gather together for the redemption of my people, and throw down the towers of mine enemies, and scatter their watchmen;

This was spoken at Fishing River, brethren, when they were about to be disbanded and sent home to go to Kirtland whence they should go to work to build the Temple, that they might be endowed with power from on high.

17. But the strength of mine house have not hearkened unto my words.

18. But inasmuch as there are those who have hearkened unto my words, I have prepared a blessing and an endowment for them, if they continue
19. I have heard their prayers, and will accept their offering; and it is expedient in me that they should be brought thus far for a trial of their faith.

24. Talk not of judgments, neither boast of faith nor of mighty works, but carefully gather together, as much in one region as can be, consistently with the feelings of the people;

25. And behold, I will give unto you favor and grace in their eyes, that you may rest in peace and safety, while you are saying unto the people: Execute judgment and justice for us according to law, and redress us of our wrongs.

26. Now, behold, I say unto you, my friends, in this way you may find favor in the eyes of the people, until the army of Israel becomes very great.

27. And I will soften the hearts of the people, as I did the heart of Pharaoh, from time to time, until my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and mine elders, whom I have appointed, shall have time to gather up the strength of my house,

The Priesthood is still in the business of gathering up the strength of His house, brethren. Are we going to be a part of it?

28. And to have sent wise men, to fulfil that which I have commanded concerning the purchasing of all the lands in Jackson county that can be purchased, and in the adjoining counties round about.

30. And after these lands are purchased, I will hold the armies of Israel guiltless in taking possession of their own lands, which they have previously purchased with their moneys, and of throwing down the towers of mine enemies that may be upon them, and scattering their watchmen, and avenging me of mine enemies unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

31. But first let my army become very great, and let it be sanctified before me, that it may become fair as the sun, and clear as the moon, and that her banners may be terrible unto all nations;

32. That the kingdoms of this world may be constrained to acknowledge that the kingdom of Zion is in very deed the kingdom of our God and his Christ; therefore, let us become subject unto her laws.

33. Verily I say unto you, it is expedient in me that the first elders of my church should receive their endowment from on high in my house, which I have commanded to be built unto my name in the land of Kirtland.
34. And let those commandments which I have given concerning Zion and her law be executed and fulfilled, after her redemption.

35. There has been a day of calling, but the time has come for a day of choosing; and let those be chosen that are worthy.
36. And it shall be manifest unto my servant, by the voice of the Spirit, those that are chosen; and they shall be sanctified;
37. And inasmuch as they follow the counsel which they receive, they shall have power after many days to accomplish all things pertaining to Zion.

I see in this, my dear brethren, a continuation, in this our day, of these things that God spoke to Joseph Smith, to Zion's Camp in that day. And what a glorious thing it would be if we could consider that we, under the call of our head, should be acting in the Spirit of Zion's Camp, that there be no murmurings, contentions, jarrings, for which reason the saints were driven out of Zion, in Jackson County, in 1833. And there is still this same sort of thing going on.

The call is for us to prepare, brethren, to get and keep the Spirit of God, that it may actuate us in the exercise of our Priesthood, in the exercise of faith, that our faith may become perfect. God grant that we may have the faith to go forward now, under our head, as one man in the hands of God to redeem Zion and prepare.

As the brethren were speaking here tonight, I felt constrained to repeat the words of Joseph Musser when he spoke of this people, at least in that day, and I am afraid it is all too true now, "We are living at the Holy United Order. We are only living at the law of Celestial Marriage," speaking of the people as a whole. Certainly there are those who are abiding these holy laws in spirit and in truth, and are going on to perfection.

I pray that we may be worthy instruments in the hands of God, under His head who presides over us, President Leroy S. Johnson, to accomplish the things that God has in store for us, and that we may be worthy to be endowed and blessed and strengthened; and that we will keep our homes as holy temples. Lorin Woolley said those would be the only temples we would have for some time; and we should be busily engaged in sanctifying our homes, that they may be temples unto God, and become one people under God, which I pray we may do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I pray, dear brothers and sisters, that the same Spirit of God shall dictate my remarks, as has been given us so far in this wonderful conference. I rejoice in being with you, in the company of you, my brethren. I am deeply grateful to the Lord for His bounteous blessings to me, and to this Priesthood, and to this people. I have felt nothing but the spirit of gratitude in my heart as I have sat here today, as I look here and see sons bearing the holy Priesthood in the Celestial Order; and daughters who love the truth, and love the Priesthood; and wives who are true and faithful, seeking to abide this holy law. These things the Priesthood of Almighty God has given me, and has given the same blessings to you, my beloved brothers and sisters.

I am so grateful that this special dispensation was given to John Taylor in 1886, that the laws of the holy Priesthood should be kept alive, and the promises of God be fulfilled thereby. We are beneficiaries of this glorious blessing, my dear brothers and sisters, and I call upon you, as upon myself, to thank God; and in that gratitude, have a greater determination to serve Him and to keep His commandments, and abide these holy laws of Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order. This is why Brigham Young and the saints were brought out to the tops of the mountains to build the House of God, through the House of Israel, and provide a way for the saints to abide the laws of God. You have had recounted so many times to you how the great, great majority have rejected it.

Now, brothers and sisters, we cannot trifle with God and His holy laws. But I am afraid altogether too many are, by not keeping this. Brigham Young in Winter Quarters, seeking to carry out the great mission that he was called to perform, with the saints of God with him, had a visit from Joseph Smith; and this visit, I know, was the key for the continuance of the mission of Brigham Young to the end, that the saints could be brought here to abide the laws of God. Joseph told Brigham, "Brigham, call upon the saints, day and night, to get and keep the Spirit of God. They cannot go on without it. The work of God cannot be accomplished without it. Brigham, call upon the saints to get and keep the Spirit of God."

The same message has been given to every Prophet who has stood in position of leadership in this work ever since. I will never forget the occasion when John Y. Barlow spoke of the revelation he got upon that subject. And it has been delivered to this people as the most important thing in order for us to abide the laws of God. Brothers and sisters, the Holy Spirit is the mind of God. It is the greatest gift of God to man. In it and by it and through it, we obtain all of the other gifts that God has promised us -- the gift of faith, the gift of knowledge, the gift of justice, of judgment, of mercy. It is the very spirit of truth and life, the gift of love. If we attain to these attributes, by and through the Holy Spirit, then we will have all of the attributes of God, which will enable us to become like Him.

God our Father, it is His purpose to bring to pass the immortal and eternal life of man, His children; and man is that He might have joy. It is for joy, through the gifts of the Holy Spirit, that we should be living today. So I feel to thank Almighty God for these gifts and blessings that He has bestowed upon His Priesthood.

Now, brothers and sisters, the only way that we can obtain these gifts is through the true channel, the channel of the holy Priesthood, and through the keyholder, to be more specific. It is for us, then, to keep that channel clear, by abiding the counsel and the instructions and the teachings that are given us from day to day in the practice of our holy religion. You cannot fight against the Priesthood of God and hope to get the Spirit of God, because it is the power of the Priesthood. It is the power by which President Johnson labors and continues; and through it, he yearns over this people, how much we little know; for he has been given the responsibility to prepare a people, along with his associates in the Council of the holy Priesthood.

Will we not come along, then, brothers and sisters, laboring to be one? We cannot be God's (and I mean possessive), except we be one. We cannot be one save we have the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God -- call it what you will -- this mind of our Father in heaven. We have the great example of our Savior, Jesus Christ. He showed us the way and He became the great sacrifice for our sins, as well as the original one, enabling us to become resurrected and come up to see the face of God again. That was the channel. His mind was swallowed up in the will of God, and we can do no less. Joseph, our beloved Prophet of the last and greatest of all the dispensations, the great restorer of the knowledge of God, and the powers and gifts of the Holy Spirit, and the fullness of the holy Priesthood, lived after the way of our Lord Jesus Christ, and became like Him and Them.

We have the example set before us, and can we do less? We cannot do less if we expect to be where They are. The great power by which we may accomplish this, through the Holy Spirit, is through the power of faith. "That which is not of faith," said Joseph, "is of sin." We must accomplish this great work of salvation and exaltation, as to our individual progress and growth, through the gifts of the Spirit, and by obedience to the commandments of God. I would like to simply summarize this whole thing with one verse of the holy scripture in the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 93, the very first verse.

D.& C. 93

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that every soul who forsaketh his sins
The gift of repentance.
1. ...and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name,
Through the gift of faith.
1. ...and obeyeth my voice, and keepeth my commandments, shall see my face and know that I am;

I would like to close by simply bearing my testimony, that I know by the Holy Ghost that God lives, that He is Michael, our Father and our God; that Jesus Christ, our Redeemer lives, and is one with His Father; that Joseph Smith was the Prophet of God, and stands in the office of the Holy Ghost, the Testator; and that He has vouchsafed the continuance of the Priesthood and the Celestial Law to this people, through this special dispensation through John Taylor, and the Woolleys, and all that have come down. I testify to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, that Leroy S. Johnson is our Prophet, and that we must be one with him to accomplish the will and purposes of God, which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Redemption of Zion

I, too, desire an interest in your faith and prayers and that the Spirit of God will dictate my remarks, which President Johnson asked me to make. I deeply appreciate the spirit and tone that was set by President Hammon in his remarks for this occasion. They were sorely needed, and I hope and pray they will be diligently heeded. All that President Musser has spoken to us about here today is in keeping with these things.

Presidents Woolley and the others who followed, as a result of setting in motion the great dispensation in which we are engaged, under President John Taylor and the Prophet Joseph Smith and our Lord Jesus Christ, goes to the object of preparing a people. What for, brothers and sisters? Certainly, we are speaking of our individual salvation and exaltation, which we cannot lay hold on except by the power of faith, and love, and perfect and righteous living. But what is the ultimate goal, brothers and sisters, that was given to Joseph Smith to accomplish in this dispensation? It was the building of Zion of our God, the redemption of Zion, the building of a city and a temple, a place where our Lord Jesus Christ could come and lay His head, and rule and reign as King of kings and Lord of lords, ushering in the great Millennium. These brethren that Brother Musser spoke of had that same vision ahead of them, and they were doing their great and important labor towards that end.

Harking back to the time when Zion's Camp was called to go up to redeem Zion, we have some great examples of what is required. In the Life of Heber C. Kimball there is a recounting of what happened at Zion's Camp in his own words. But then at the conclusion of it we have brought before us these things that I speak of now.

Life of Heber C. Kimball  Page 63

Thus ended that remarkable expedition; remarkable for its object, for the issues involved, for its tragic episodes, examples of heroism and miraculous manifestations of divine power.
I might recall, hardly had the expedition got started, Joseph had to get up, according the word of the Lord, on a wagon and he delivered a prophecy.

After giving the brethren much good advice, he exhorted them to faithfulness and humility, and said the Lord had told him that there would be a scourge come upon the camp in consequence of the fractious and unruly spirits that appeared among them, and they would die like sheep with the rot; still if they would repent and humble themselves before the Lord, the scourge in a great measure might be turned away; 'but, as the Lord lives, this camp will suffer for giving way to their unruly temper'; which afterwards actually did take place to the sorrow of the brethren.

The saints were driven out of Zion, in Jackson County, because of jarrings, contentions, covetous desires; and it was selfishness that dictated the unruly tempers of these brethren in Zion's Camp. But the Lord had a larger vision. True, sixty-five of them came down with the cholera and suffered, and fourteen of them died.

What had it achieved? some may ask. Nay, might not many be tempted to query, was not the mission of Zion's Camp a failure?

"What have you accomplished?" was the sneering taunt of the apostate and of those weak in faith, met by the remnant of the little band on their return to Kirtland. "Just what we went for"; the meek, though firm reply of such men as Heber C. Kimball and Brigham Young.

And they were right. To them it was no failure. The trial of their faith was complete. Their offering, like Abraham's, had been accepted. They had been weighed in the eternal balance, and were not found wanting. But what of Zion and her redemption?

Let the word of the Lord, the God of Enoch, the God of Joseph give answer:

"...THE REDEMPTION OF ZION MUST NEEDS COME BY POWER."
(Doc. and Cov. 103:15)

Power dwells in unity, not in discord; in humility, not pride; in sacrifice, not selfishness; obedience, not rebellion.

These are the things that are holding us back, and of which we need to repent, brothers and sisters, these things that occur in our families. They should be one under their head, and all of the families of the saints of God one under their head.

Zion's Camp, if it failed at all in fulfilling its mission, failed for precisely similar reasons to those which had caused the expulsion of the Saints from Jackson County; reasons which, in ancient times, kept Israel wandering for forty years in the wilderness, within sight of their coveted Canaan, which they were not permitted in that generation to possess.

In Brigham Young's day, after the saints had come out here to the west and the valleys of the mountains, many of them were looking to go back to Jackson County then and were not building up their homes and places because they thought they would not be here very long. He told them to go ahead and build their places, and build the communities as though they would be here until the Millennium, because a preparation had to be made. We are still in the process of that preparation, brothers and sisters.

Like Moses, these modern pilgrims beheld, as from Pisgah's top, their promised land. Like Moses, on account of transgression, they were not permitted to "cross over." No doubt there were Calebs and Joshuas in the Camp, who were worthy. But the great event, in the wisdom of the Highest, was not then destined to be. It was left for a future generation Might this be us, brothers and sisters. It should be, and it is within our power.

It was left for a future generation and its Joshua to go up in the might of the Lord and redeem Zion.

Yet not alone upon Zion's Camp must rest the responsibility of their failure to redeem Zion. It bears with at least equal weight upon those whom they came to succor.

What said the Lord concerning them?
"...behold, they have not learned to be obedientbut are full of all manner of evil, and do not impart of their substance, as becometh Saints, to the poor and afflicted among them;"  (Doc. and Cov. 105:3)

Is not the episode of the fowl, related by Heber, a tell-tale straw before the wind in this connection? Can a people honey-combed with selfishness build up Zion?
And then He goes on:

"And are not united according to the union required by the law of the celestial kingdom." (Doc. and Cov. 105:4)

Again that injunction of unity, the secret of Zion's redemption:

"...and if ye not one ye are not mine." (Doc. and Cov. 38:27)

"And Zion cannot be built up unless it is by the principles of the law of the celestial kingdom; otherwise I cannot receive her unto myself." (Doc. and Cov. 105:5)

This is what we are supposed to be engaged in, the part of this great work and plan, brothers and sisters, abiding the law of the Celestial Kingdom as a preparation to be a citizen and inhabitant of that great city, and enjoy the blessings of that great temple of our God.

Wonderful revealing, this. What is it but to say that the United Order, the Order of Enoch, the Order of Zion, is the order of the celestial worlds, where the Gods, a divine brotherhood, have "all things common"?

And continuing the word of the Lord:

"Therefore it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season, for the redemption of Zion." (Doc. and Cov. 105:13)

It has been quite a long season, but not in the time of God, remember.

Is it marvelous that this should be; that a work of such magnitude should require preparation; that Zion, city of holiness, should be built up only by the pure in heart? Ah, reader, the redemption of Zion is more than the purchase or recovery of lands, the building of cities, or even the founding of nations. It is the conquest of the heart, the subjugation of the soul, the sanctifying of the flesh, the purifying and ennobling if the passions. Greater is he who subdues himself, who captures and maintains the citadel of his own soul, than he who, misnamed conqueror, fills the world with the roar of drums, the thunder of cannon, the lightning of swords and bayonets, overthrows and sets up kingdoms, lives and reigns a king, yet wears to the grave the fetters of unbridled lust, and dies the slave of sin.

These are the words of Orson F. Whitney.

In her children's hearts must Zion first be built up and redeemed; "Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God." (Doc. and Cov. 82:19) When the fig-tree of Israel's faith puts forth such leaves, then know that the summer is nigh.
"And this cannot be brought to pass until mine elders are endowed with power from on high." (Doc. and Cov. 105:11)

These we must prepare for, brothers and sisters.

And yet were these same elders, unendowed, sent forth to redeem Zion? Surely the Lord did not design it then to be. Else, would He not have endowed them before-hand? This admitted, and what becomes of their "failure"?

Ah, there are many such failures in a sublime success. They are but steps in the stairway of triumph and victory.

What did Zion's Camp achieve? It cast the shadow of a coming event; struck the spark that shall kindle to a flame; fixed on the horizon of history a shining star, the herald of a glory yet to come.

Of which we may be a part, and for which I pray we may be, brothers and sisters, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Gratitude for His Parentage;
Must Abide the Celestial Law and Become One, Preparing for the Redemption of Zion

I have been deeply moved by the remarks and the narrations that have been given, that have been faith-promoting in their nature for all of us; and I pray the Lord to continue this spirit upon me that I may continue in the same, to our mutual edification. The things that have been said here today naturally bring back very beautiful and fond memories in my experience in this work. I have, on occasion, made the remark, in expression of my deep gratitude to God, that it is as though I had been in the hand of God leading me along.

I do not know how to express my gratitude to God for what I have in this work, and especially my association with these, my fellow servants, for President Johnson and all of these other Priesthood fathers that I have been privileged and blessed to be associated with; and for my beloved father, true and faithful through all the years. And he suffered at the hands of persecutors.
He entered into the holy law of Celestial Marriage in 1909, taking my beloved mother and another dear sister to wife, one day after the other. And he had to be in hiding in those days when the "Tribune" was putting on a campaign, and when the quorum of the Twelve Apostles were putting on a campaign to get a hold of these new "polygamists", as they were called. Father went underground. He had to receive my mother while in hiding. Mother was sent here from Idaho a whole year from the time that she left there before she entered into his family in hiding, away from her own family, the Timpsons; stayed in the home of a Brother Emery over on the west side, a friend to the principle and to the Priesthood. She stayed in the home of Nettie Taylor, a wife of John W. Taylor, in Provo. And from there she went to the Manti Temple to be endowed; all, it seemed, to be pretty much in hiding. And so I stand in gratitude in the presence of my father this day, for I know he is here; and there is much authority here, brothers and sisters.

President Johnson and these brethren, our fathers, yearn over us. They are anxious for us to get on with the work that is in our hands. Why are we not obtaining those blessings that we long for so much? It is because we have not cleaned up our minds, we are not humble enough, we are not pure enough, our hands are not clean enough, and we do not stand before the Lord with a full purpose of heart, with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, offering our all, shall we say. We do not abide the law of sacrifice sufficiently; because it is only through the sacrifice of all earthly things and considerations upon the altar before our God that we come to know that our course is pleasing to God. There seems to be the key, brother and sisters. The spirit of sacrifice is not sufficiently with all of us, or a sufficient number of us, shall we say.

President Johnson has reminded us many times: "We are not waiting on the Lord. He is waiting on us." We have got to prove ourselves sufficiently faithful and true, and in the spirit of sacrifice offer all that we have and are -- truly, really, sufficient to become one people. We do not enjoy those blessings because we are not His; and we are not His because we are not one.

What power would emanate from this people if we were one, and the Holy Ghost was upon us at all times, every moment of our lives, day in and day out, actually abiding with us. This is the unifying power through the Priesthood, brethren. Dear, dear brethren, you bear the holy Melchizedek Priesthood. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood, and it must be centered in the head. That is why God has given us such a character to lead us, one who has never flinched, and has been faithful and true, and never changed or desired to change any of the laws or ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We do not lack example. Certainly, brothers and sisters, we have it before us.

And certainly we have not lacked precept and teaching, for this people have received more than any people on the face of the earth, from the time of Adam until the present by way of the teaching of the fullness of truth of the Gospel of the Son of God. The very nature of this is that when we reject it, or we do not accept it at least, with full purpose of heart, then God takes it away. God grant that this may not be the lot of this people, and that He will not have to go and get another people.

I firmly believe, though, dear brothers and sisters, that this is the nucleus of the great Millennium. It took Enoch three hundred sixty-five years to get, shall we say, five hundred people together as one, that God could walk and talk with them. We have been informed it will be done in less time than that in this dispensation, which I pray God may be the case. But the thing, the great work that lies before this people -- and we should begin to realize as we have been told so many times -- is, ultimately, the redemption of Zion, after the state of Missouri has been swept so clean there will not be so much as a yellow dog to wag its tail there.

This is the grand work that lies before us, brothers and sisters. Can we not keep this larger review in before us, and each of our individual families begin to become one; and enough families become one together under the Priesthood of God, that we can begin to move forward and lay hold upon the principles that will give us power with God from on high? And you know what I am talking about.

After the failure of the Camp of Zion to go and redeem Zion, men were sent home, were set up to man the offices of the Church and they went forth with and built a temple unto God. They were therein endowed with power from on high by the holy ordinances of the Priesthood, as much as the Lord gave them and were permitted to receive at that time; and on which occasion, Elijah the Prophet came and conferred his sealing keys to Joseph the Prophet. Thereafter, the great sealing up and work of the Priesthood has rolled on.
We have been called upon, in the midst of a great apostasy of the Church of Jesus Christ, to keep alive these principles, keep them holy before God -- Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order. Yes, that is required, too, brothers and sisters. And that is wherein we do not and have not made sufficient sacrifice in abiding the spirit of the Holy United Order. It will be set up in proper order when there is sufficient numbers who are willing and faithful and true enough to be used in this direction.

D.& C. 105

5. And Zion cannot be built up unless it is by the principles of the law of the celestial kingdom; otherwise I cannot receive her unto myself.

And the fullness of the Celestial Law, I testify to you, is Celestial and Plural Marriage and the Holy United Order. They go hand in hand. The very same two laws must be abided in each and every family. When it is there and then carried on as a group, and the Lord sees fit to open the way to set up a community of saints, then we will see this work roll on.

Now I realize these things have been told us so many times, it becomes trite, I suppose; but the Spirit of God tells me to tell it again. And I pray God that we will now humble ourselves; go before the Lord, stripped as it were, and say, "Here am I; use me as seemeth thee good." And this is how, and this is the spirit in which wives must stand with their husbands, and children with their parents, in the spirit of obedience and true love.

May God help us to so love God, and our neighbor as ourselves, that we can truly come together now as a people, as families first, to abide these laws. We must not be abiding these laws, brethren and sisters, or we would have these blessings. So let us abide them in spirit and in truth, by the power of the Holy Spirit, and in true obedience to the Gospel and the Priesthood of God which presides over us. I pray we may do these things, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Oneness; Must Become One Through the Keyholder; Joseph Smith Is the One Mighty and Strong, and Is the Witness of the Father and the Son
I am grateful to be here, my brethren, and meet with you, my brothers and sisters. I pray God to bless me with His Spirit. I desire but to do and say as He desires for me to say and do. Would to God, brothers and sisters, we would take these sentiments of this song ["Glorious Things Are Sung of Zion"] we have just listened to and put them into practice -- a glorious example of the City of Enoch of old, and a looking forward to a return of that great city, at which time the saints in Zion in the New Jerusalem will be caught up to meet them, while the earth undergoes its change into a terrestrial order.

The great cry and need, as delivered to us by our President, is that we be one. We are not the Lord's unless we are one. Joseph strove with all his might to establish that order in his day, and tried, by command of God, a second time to redeem Zion. We have today, brothers and sisters, another Enoch calling us to be one, for that is our work, and this is the preparation necessary for the redemption of Zion.

Reading the account of Enoch as we have it in the Book of Jasher, which I understand from the Prophet Joseph Smith is mostly correct and which has to be read with the Spirit of God, I noted how Enoch labored with the saints, and then he would have to leave them for a time. The thought struck me today as I sat here thinking of this, and especially as I was listening to this song, we have President Johnson with us day in and day out, and I am sure we do not appreciate this great man and the power that he has with God. I wondered if it might not be necessary for him to leave us for a time to bring us in tow, so to speak, that we might learn better to appreciate his administration and the blessings of God which could and must flow down to us through him.

We have spoken very often about this channel by which we receive the blessings of God, and it is by the administration of the holy Priesthood and the keys thereof. He holds the keys, and he has a Council that is laboring with him to accomplish these things. But remember, brothers and sisters, the channel is through the keyholder. And I know, I know very well, that we as a people treat this great principle and this man in whom resides the keys of Priesthood altogether too lightly, too commonly, shall we say.

We have the wonderful history of the work in which we are engaged in this special dispensation through the Prophet Joseph Smith and John Taylor in 1886, which was the means of a continuation of the holy laws, the fullness of the Gospel -- the Celestial Law of Marriage and the Holy United Order, companion principles. And certainly there goes along with this the government of God, the Kingdom, as well as the ecclesiastical work of God. Those four are the things that Brother Knudson was speaking of, as has been so beautifully outlined to us time and again as comprising the fullness of the Celestial Law, without which we cannot redeem Zion and accomplish the end in view.

Michael is our Father and our God. Jesus Christ, His Son, is like Him, and he who has seen the Son hath seen the Father. We have our Father that close to us, brothers and sisters, and anyone who will not accept and believe that Michael is our Father and God, and the only God with whom we have to do, will apostatize, as God lives. There have been some among us who have had reservations about this matter, and they are gone.

We are looking forward, as a part of this preparation, the final part of this preparation, to the coming of the One Mighty and Strong, Joseph the Prophet. There is great propaganda going around to the effect that the One Mighty and Strong has to be a mortal man who will have light for a covering. But let me tell you again in this instance, those who will not accept the grand truth that Joseph Smith is and will be the One Mighty and Strong to come and set in order the House of God, will apostatize, as God lives.

Now, brothers and sisters, we should be trying to bring this great character close to us, along with our Priesthood fathers. We are going to need help, and it is going to be through the channel that I have spoken of here this afternoon. If we are not drawing near to our Prophet and head whom we have with us, we will not have our Priesthood fathers draw near to us, nor the Prophet Joseph Smith himself to come to set in order the House of God. He is going to have to come and set in motion these things. But there must be a prepared people sufficient for Joseph to come and work with. This is a part of that great preparation to redeem Zion, to set in order the House of God. We must each and every family set our families in order. This great Witness and Testator is the one who is going to accomplish this work in the final analysis.

Now, brothers and sisters, John put the grand truth before us: "How can we say we love God, whom we cannot see, if we love not our brother," and, shall we say, our Priesthood head, "whom we can see?" This first great law that Jesus said governs us: "Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, might, mind, and strength." This calls for exertion. "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." This calls for exertion and a perfect life, if you please, learning to live without strifes and contentions, jarrings, and selfishness; casting out false and delusive spirits and keeping them out, never letting them in by having and keeping the Spirit of God at all times.

Brothers and sisters, I am strongly impressed today that we must take direct steps to bring Joseph, the Prophet, near to us. How I long to see him, strike hands with him, and the Priesthood fathers from his time till the present. I love to read the words of Joseph, and there is none grander than these:

The Savior has the words of eternal life. Nothing else can profit us. There is no salvation in believing an evil report against our neighbor. I advise all to go on to perfection, and search deeper and deeper into the mysteries of Godliness. A man can do nothing for himself unless God direct him in the right way; and the Priesthood is for that purpose.

I will drop down a paragraph or two. I am speaking from page 364 of the Teachings.

I thought the very oddity of its rendering

Of the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew.

...would be edifying anyhow -- "And it will be preached, the Gospel of the kingdom, in the whole world, to a witness over all people: and then will the end come." I will now read it in German [which he did]

The Savior said when these tribulations should take place, it should be committed to a man who should be a witness over the whole world: the keys of knowledge, power and revelations should be revealed to a witness who should hold the testimony to the world. It has always been my province to dig up hidden mysteries -- new things -- for my hearers. Just at the time when some men think that I have no right to the keys of the Priesthood --

That can be applied here and now to our head.

...just at that time I have the greatest right. The old German translators are the most nearly correct -- most honest of any of the translators; and therefore I get testimony to bear me out in the revelations that I have preached for the last fourteen years.
All the testimony is that the Lord in the last days would commit the keys of the Priesthood to a witness over all people.

Has the Gospel of the kingdom commenced in the last days? And will God take it from the man until He takes him Himself? I have read it precisely as the words flowed from the lips of Jesus Christ. John the Revelator saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth.

The scripture is ready to be fulfilled when great wars, famines, pestilence, great distress, judgments, &c., are ready to be poured out on the inhabitants of the earth. John saw the angel having the holy Priesthood, who should preach the everlasting Gospel to all nations. God had an angel -- a special messenger -- ordained and prepared for that purpose in the last days. Woe, woe be to that man or set of men who lift up their hands against God and His witness in these last days: for they shall deceive almost the very chosen ones!

My enemies say that I have been a true prophet. Why, I had rather be a fallen true prophet than a false prophet. When a man goes about prophesying, and commands men to obey his teachings, he must either be a true or false prophet. False prophets always arise to oppose the true prophets and they will prophesy so very near the truth that they will deceive almost the very chosen ones.

The doctrine of eternal judgments belongs to the first principles of the Gospel, in the last days. In relation to the kingdom of God, the devil always sets up his kingdom at the very same time in opposition to God. Every man who has a calling to minister to the inhabitants of the world was ordained to that very purpose in the Grand Council of heaven before this world was. I suppose I And I know Joseph, ...was ordained to this very office in that Grand Council. It is the testimony that I want that I am God's servant, and this people His people.

I testify to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, that Joseph Smith is this great witness over all the world, the Witness of the Father and the Son. He saw Them both together as a youth, fourteen, which led to the great restoration of the holy Priesthood and the Gospel of the Son of God, the beginning of the restitution of all things, including the redemption of Zion and the preparation for the coming of the Son of God in glory and great power.

So, brothers and sisters, we are one hundred and fifty-five years from that glorious event -- 1820, the spring of 1820. We are now 89 years since the opening of this special dispensation through Joseph Smith and John Taylor. How much nearer, then, are we to the great judgments and the winding-up scene that is about to take place? How much nearer are we to a realization, if we will but live for it and be ready to die for it, if necessary, to become one people under the servant of God who leads us? Be one in our families first, live the spirit of the United Order in our families, abide the Celestial Law of Marriage in love and truth, that there be perfect love between husband and wives, and children, and that all labor together for this great cause in which we are engaged. I pray that we may accomplish these things in the hands of God through His servant, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Priesthood Claims Need No Support

I felt impressed to read an item here, in connection with what Brother Wayman had to say. Parley P. Pratt:

Parley P. Pratt  Millennial Star 6:93

Brethren, no one’s claims need any support. Those who hold the Keys of the Kingdom of God will be supported by the Spirit of God, and by his angels, and also by the aid and prayers of the Saints. And they will say nothing about their claims, nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them.

If men hold the keys of the Kingdom of God, they are not dependent upon men to support their claims; but the Church and all the world is dependent on them and on the keys committed to them for the ministration of salvation. They can shut and no more open, or open and no more shut. And to these authorities all must bow, so far as to be ministered to, and governed in the things of salvation, or else remain without the blessing of the Kingdom.

First and Second Comforter;
We Become Like God Through Keeping the Spirit of God

I feel very weak and insufficient to this task without the Spirit of God to help me. It is not a task, but in the ordinary sense I do not mean that; but I feel the weight of the responsibility to give, by the Spirit of God, His word and will concerning us. And I desire but to be a humble instrument in His hands in doing so.

I deeply appreciate the truths and the testimonies that have been delivered here this afternoon by these brethren. And I appreciate the Presidency and the direction of President Johnson, and the association I have with all of my brethren. I love all of you brethren who bear the holy Priesthood. We are all a part of God, brethren and sisters, through the Priesthood of God and the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost. God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God, and the Holy Spirit is the power of the Priesthood. This is the means by which we obtain the truths of heaven and the opportunity to obey them, to keep all of the commandments, that we might become like God and enter into His presence.

One of the most beautiful things that were spoken by Joseph the Prophet we have in the Teachings here commencing at page 149, which has been going through my mind as I have sat here contemplating the things that have been said, and what the Lord requires of us.

The Doctrine of Election. Peter exhorts us to make our calling and election sure. This is the sealing power spoken of by Paul in other places.

"13. In whom ye also trusted, that after ye heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise,
This comes by the Priesthood.

"14. Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of His glory, that we may be sealed up unto the day of redemption." -- Ephesians, 1st chapter.

This principle ought (in its proper place) to be taught, for God hath not revealed anything to Joseph, but what He will make known unto the Twelve, and even the least Saint may know all things as fast as he is able to bear them, for the day must come when no man need say to his neighbor, Know ye the Lord; for all shall know Him (who remain) from the least to the greatest. How is this to be done? It is to be done by this sealing power, and the other Comforter spoken of, which will be manifest by revelation.

There are two Comforters spoken of. One is the Holy Ghost, the same as given on the day of Pentecost, and that all Saints receive after faith, repentance, and baptism. This first Comforter or Holy Ghost has no other effect than pure intelligence.

Thus the exhortation which has been give so many times through the Prophets: Get and keep the Spirit of God. Joseph visited Brigham Young in Winter Quarters as they were about to set out upon their journey westward. And the burden of his message was: "Tell the people to get and keep the Spirit of God, for they cannot go on without it. They cannot obtain the end in view, their salvation and their exaltation." This Holy Ghost:

It is more powerful in expanding the mind, enlightening the understanding, and storing the intellect with present knowledge, of a man who is of the literal seed of Abraham, than one that is a Gentile, though it may not have half as much visible effect upon the body; for as the Holy Ghost falls upon one of the literal seed of Abraham, it is calm and serene; Calm and serene.

...and his whole soul and body are only exercised by the pure spirit of intelligence; while the effect of the Holy Ghost upon a Gentile, is to purge out the old blood, and make him actually of the seed of Abraham. That man that has none of the blood of Abraham (naturally) must have a new creation by the Holy Ghost. In such a case, there may be more of a powerful effect upon the body, and visible to the eye, than upon an Israelite, while the Israelite at first might be far before the Gentile in pure intelligence.

So how wonderful it is, brothers and sisters, to come through the blood of Israel. Israel is being gathered and labored with, and the keys of the holy Priesthood are with Ephraim, of Israel. Ephraim obtained the right to the Priesthood, and the Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood.
The other Comforter spoken of is a subject of great interest, and perhaps understood by few of this generation.

Now here is the course that must be followed to obtain the presence of God, of this other Comforter, our Lord Jesus Christ.

After a person has faith in Christ, repents of his sins, and is baptized for the remission of his sins and receives the Holy Ghost, (by the laying on of hands), which is the first Comforter, then let him continue to humble himself before God, hungering and thirsting after righteousness, and living by every word of God,

This through faith. Let him do these things:

...and the Lord will soon say unto him, Son, thou shalt be exalted. When the Lord has thoroughly proved him, and finds that the man is determined to serve Him at all hazards,

This is faith.

...then the man will find his calling and his election made sure, then it will be his privilege to receive the other Comforter, which the Lord hath promised the Saints, as is recorded in the testimony of St. John, in the 14th chapter, from the 12th to the 27th verses.

And these words of the Savior to His Apostles should be burned into our souls that we might live by them.

"16. And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever;
"17. Even the Spirit of Truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

"18. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. **
"21. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

"23. If a man love me,
Says Jesus,

"23. ...he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Now what is this other Comforter? It is no more nor less than the Lord Jesus Christ Himself; and this is the sum and substance of the whole matter; that when any man obtains this last Comforter, he will have the personage of Jesus Christ to attend him, or appear unto him from time to time, and even He will manifest the Father unto him, and they will take up their abode with him, and the visions of the heavens will be opened unto him, and the Lord will teach him face to face, and he may have a perfect knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God; and this is the state and place the ancient Saints arrived at when they had such glorious visions -- Isaiah, Ezekiel, John upon the Isle of Patmos, St. Paul in the three heavens, and all the Saints who held communion with the general assembly and Church of the Firstborn.

And now he tells us how we may obtain through the Spirit of revelation. The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it,

We may learn it and understand it. And this is the great work that we have to do -- the Spirit of God, to get it and keep it, and it will lead us into all truth, and joy, and happiness.

...and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

We have been told, "Be ye perfect." Here is the modus operandi, to get and keep the Spirit of God, which can only come to us, brothers and sisters, through the channels of the holy Priesthood -- the brethren through their Priesthood head, and the sisters and the children in the family circle through their Priesthood head. And they must be one with their head. This is the great burden of the President today, that we become one, that we be a prepared people. The Holy Ghost is the unifying power by which we accomplish this. The Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and of the Son, brothers and sisters. It issues forth from the Father to us through His Priesthood. I think I would like to conclude by reading again the words of Joseph in the Lecture Five.
2. ...the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all;" As He became one with His Father, we are told, as we go along here, this is how we become one with Them.

2. ...the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power; or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, As Jesus Himself had to do while in the flesh.

2. ...and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, We are talking about the saints now, brothers and sisters. The saints,

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, This thing that Joseph spoke of.

3. ...through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

By becoming like Them, having a fullness of the Holy Spirit. This Holy Spirit then makes us one with Them because we are like Them. And you know the beautiful words of Moroni speaking of love or charity, the perfect love of Christ. How blessed we will be if we are possessed of it at the last day.

We can lay hold of these things only through the power of faith, brothers and sisters. We cannot have the power of faith except our course of life is pleasing to God. And we obtain that testimony that we please God through the sacrifice of all earthly things, overcoming all earthly things and characteristics that we inherit through the flesh. And so we are sent here to prove that we will obey every word of God and become like Him, overcoming death, hell, and the devil. Overcome -- this is the work that is before us, brothers and sisters. And may we do so to His name's honor and glory, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

All Laws of the Gospel Lived Through Abiding Celestial Plural Marriage; Faith

I appreciate, my dear brothers and sisters, meeting with you again today, and desire an interest in your faith and prayers, that the Spirit of God will actuate my remarks. I am grateful for the light of truth. I am grateful for my parents, and I am grateful for these, my brethren. I desire but to serve God and keep His commandments, and do the same along with you, my brothers and sisters. I desire to save and exalt my family.

Brothers and sisters, we often wonder why we do not have a greater part in this work. I know this goes through the minds of many. This is not a church organization. We are a part of a special dispensation of the Priesthood, brothers and sisters, that the Lord set up in 1886, through John Taylor. Contemplating and knowing as He did, our Father set up this special dispensation, knowing that the Church and its people would be selling their birthright for a mess of pottage, for the love of the world, the approbation of the world, and the love of property. This is central to the work in which we are engaged, brothers and sisters, the glorious fact that Jesus and Joseph came to John Taylor in September of 1886, and set up a dispensation of people who would abide the laws of God and see that they were carried on. The great labor that was laid upon that order of Priesthood which was organized at that time, which was set up, was that they keep alive the law of Celestial and Plural Marriage, and see to it that there were children born under that covenant until Christ should come.

This points out, brothers and sisters, that the fundamental law that we are governed by is the abiding of the holy law of marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. Talk about a mission or a work, brethren bearing the holy Priesthood, being given wives to raise children under the New and Everlasting Covenant, and abiding every law pertaining to it. Everything centers around it. Name me a law of the Gospel, a law of the Priesthood, that isn't involved in abiding, in living in perfection this holy law -- yes, the United Order. Of course, we have to come in at the gate through baptism, through repentance, and above all, the power of faith, so that the Gospel of Jesus Christ -- though a church is given for helps and governments -- but the Gospel of Jesus Christ is circumscribed by the holy Priesthood abiding the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. By it we become one. We must become one in our families. The Lord has said, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine."

So you see, brothers and sisters, what a great work and mission that is laid upon us. What greater mission could we have than to bring souls into the earth, spirits that have been reserved and chosen to come in this dispensation to be prepared to redeem Zion? Should anyone be aspiring to anything higher than that?

So, brethren, you are heads of families. All of us stand in a very unique position. We bear the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, which enables us to receive wives for time and all eternity, to bring forth in purity and in love, children to be raised up to God. I often think of Hannah, who desired to have a son, and she dedicated him to the Lord, and raised him up to that end, and received that promise and blessing because of that great and holy desire. That son was Samuel, the Prophet. We should be anxiously engaged, brothers and sisters, in performing this great work and mission, abiding this holy law. No man can hold a wife except he have the Priesthood and magnify it. He cannot bring children into the world and raise them up to God except through the power of the Priesthood and the gift of the Holy Ghost, which is the power of the Priesthood.

Now, brothers and sisters, I think we ought to get down to fundamentals and understand what we are about. These things cannot be accomplished in fullness until we have come up to see the face of God, and become like Him. We have the job, then, of teaching our children that they may become like Him; teaching and instructing our wives that they may become like us as we become like God. That is the order of things. And here is the way. We have this law of the holy Priesthood:

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

This course of life that was spoken of by President Timpson is the very fundamental foundation of faith, next to knowing who God is and what His character and attributes are, and how we can become like Him, which is through this medium: Obedience to all of the laws of God, of the holy Priesthood, which,

...if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

The law of sacrifice is among these, and the sacrifice of every earthly thing. Our feelings, our desires contrary to the mind and will of God must be sacrificed; and having been sacrificed, we come to know that our course is pleasing to Him.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Now, we have come to knowledge that will save us by our being able to live and abide in perfect faith, ripening into knowledge. The reason that we don't have the great blessings that are also necessary to enable us to perfect ourselves, is that we don't have the faith, brothers and sisters. There is not sufficient faith, and we are not sanctified. We will not become sanctified until we have entered into great and sacred and holy covenants; and you know what I speak of there, that these will be the great reward that we will obtain through faith.

So, I think the great lack that we have today in being short of the blessings that we should have and are entitled to if we have believed and obeyed perfectly enough, is our lack of faith; which I pray we may lay hold on with all our heart, learning to love one another, and above all, God our Father, with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of Merle Hammon

I feel greatly honored in being called upon to have a part in this sacred and solemn occasion, and ask for the Spirit of God to be with me in accomplishing it. Experiences of this kind naturally call to mind experiences in our own lives, and I have been called upon to lay away six infant children. The thing that impresses itself most upon me is the grand principle that the Lord gives, and the Lord taketh away according to His good pleasure, and all is well; particularly in seeing a beautiful innocent child go to his or her home in the bosom of Abraham. I cannot think of any better words than the words of Joseph, which I frequently rely upon in expressing the feelings that I have and the truths and the principles that God revealed to him, our Prophet and head of this last dispensation, and the Witness of the Father and the Son. This is from a sermon on life and death, and the resurrection and the salvation of children.

We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst, which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, why it is that infants, innocent children, are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting. The strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these: This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the "world grows weaker and wiser"; if that is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt. In the earlier ages of the world a righteous man, and a man of God and of intelligence, had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth, and he has much sorrow to pass through here. The Lord takes many away even in infancy, that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore, if rightly considered, instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.
What chance is there for infidelity when we are parting with our friends almost daily? None at all. The infidel will grasp at every straw for help until death stares him in the face, and then his infidelity takes its flight, for the realities of the eternal world are resting upon him in mighty power; and when every earthly support and prop fails him, he then sensibly feels the eternal truths of the immortality of the soul. We should take warning and not wait for the death-bed to repent, as we see the infant taken away by death, so may the youth and middle-aged, as well as the infant be suddenly called into eternity. Let this, then, prove as a warning to all not to procrastinate repentance, or wait till a death-bed, for it is the will of God that man should repent and serve Him in health, and in the strength and power of his mind, in order to secure his blessing, and not wait until he is called to die.

All children are redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, and the moment that children leave this world, they are taken to the bosom of Abraham. The only difference between the old and young dying is, one lives longer in heaven and eternal light and glory than the other, and is freed a little sooner from this miserable wicked world. Notwithstanding all this glory, we for a moment lose sight of it, and mourn the loss, but we do not mourn as those without hope.

This dear little one has been taken in her innocence and purity, according to the will of God. I deeply appreciate the spirit of Brother Harker in this thing, and I am sure it characterizes that of President Hammon and the family. We, brothers and sisters, are required, we who tarry and who continue on in this lone and dreary world, to work out our salvation that we might again, if obedient in all things, enter into the presence of Father again. We, in order to do this, must go innocent. We must overcome all evil; overcome even as Jesus Christ. This is what faces those of us who are called upon to fill out a full life and experience here upon the earth. We have yet, then, brothers and sisters, to prove ourselves and make ourselves innocent before God.

Now I pray for the Spirit of God to rest upon the family, and that they and all of us may learn the lessons that these occasions are given us to learn; that we will seek with all our heart, mind, and strength to love God and to keep His commandments, and to love one another; that we might be His people that He can use and go on and accomplish the work that we were sent forth to do. This little one has accomplished her work in her infancy and has gone on; and we must do likewise, according to that which is required of us.

I pray for the Spirit of God to be with all of us. I am grateful for President Johnson and for his direction and his great example that he sets before us, and for all who are striving to keep the commandments of God. God bless us all, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Make Our Home a Temple;
Dream of Brigham Young; Lecture Five

I am very happy to be with you here in association with my brethren, and pray for an interest in your faith and prayers, that I may say only those things that the Lord would have me say for the instruction of the saints and myself. I realize that I need these instructions as well as you do.

We are constantly admonished, brothers and sisters, to set in order our houses, our families, and to make our homes temples. Lorin Woolley, in the early days of the work, when the brethren were told and began to speak and teach and to make known the work of the holy Priesthood, said that you will know no other temple for some time except your homes. I cannot think of a better way to become a prepared people than to make our homes temples.

I had a little interesting observation here at this place the other morning. I suppose you can see we are building a fence or a wall around this place, which is for a very definite purpose. We want to very well define this Priesthood property and to try to keep it safe for our children and for our family, and for the saints when they meet here; not that the Lord could not bless and keep us safe without the defense of the wall, as it is turning out to be. Our neighbor who lives down below here, as he has been riding by on his horse, has been calling on us to please leave it like it was so that they could see this lovely place, and not have it fenced in, like fencing in a beautiful garden. But the last morning he made an observation. He said, "If God wanted you to fence in a heaven, He would probably call on the Jeffs to do it." But he spoke more truth than he knew. At least we are trying, brothers and sisters, and this is a principle reason for what we are doing here. This is a dedicated place for the work of the saints. It has also been designated by our President as a storehouse, which we are working hard to make operational and for the benefit of the saints.

But I have felt very, very keenly the great responsibility resting upon me as the head of this family, as well as a steward over this property, to indeed make it a sanctified place for the work of the saints and for the benefit of the great work in which we are engaged, which I desire to be very much a part of with my family.

The only way we can do this great work of sanctification, brothers and sisters, is to follow that great key which has been given us, and that is to be endowed with the Spirit of God. And I do mean endowed! President Johnson has frequently told us how it needs be that we obtain great skill in learning the Spirit of God. Joseph Smith, I read you his remarks regarding this, on the Spirit of revelation. The great gift of the Holy Spirit, which is necessary for us to make a part of our lives, is the Spirit of revelation, without which there is no salvation, no sanctification. This has been the message of the Prophets from Joseph to this day. Of course, it was the great message of Jesus Christ when He spoke of His being in His Apostles, in His brethren, and they being in Him. This is by the Holy Spirit, brothers and sisters.

I have a very interesting item I have gleaned from the Truth Magazine which I would like to read to you, which points out the great importance of this principle about which we are speaking so much.

Truth 10:221

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:
"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said: "The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said: "Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. These are the fruits of the Spirit.

Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they came into the world."

Do we get that point, brothers and sisters?

They will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.
Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

This is from the History of the Church, reprinted in the Juvenile Instructor and in Truth, volume 10. Now, brothers and sisters, we often are asked -- it probably runs in everyone's mind, especially when they do not have the Spirit of God -- "How do we get it?" By keeping the commandments, brothers and sisters, keeping our covenants, and making every sacrifice, abiding the law of sacrifice so that we give up everything and anything that stands in the way of our being at peace; and knowing finally that our course is pleasing to God. Coming to know this will give us that great gift and power of faith, by which we can call upon God to grant every blessing, and every needful thing to enable us to progress in the way to perfection. That is what God calls upon us to do -- to be perfect as He is perfect, perfect in our sphere as He is perfect in His. The Lord Jesus Christ and all of the holy Prophets, more particularly Joseph Smith in our dispensation, has shown that it can, and has been, and will be done.

God promises us by the revelation of Jesus Christ to Joseph Smith, as we have it in Section 121, that if we operate under the holy Priesthood, if we act by virtue of the holy Priesthood continually in the Spirit of revelation and in the way outlined, that the Holy Ghost will be our constant companion. We understand, brothers and sisters, as outlined in the Fourth Lecture on Faith, Third and Fourth, what are the attributes and character of God. These indeed are the attributes of the Holy Spirit; which, if we have, we will then become like God, if we have this result which has been pointed out.

D.& C. 121

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

By knowing that our course is pleasing to God. We come to know this by the sacrifice of all earthly things, the sacrifice of our earthly character and attributes, in offering all to the Lord.

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

This is the grand result that we are seeking. We are speaking, therefore, of sanctification. "Be ye holy as the Lord is holy." Let us make our homes holy and temples indeed. Then we will receive the great endowments, the power from on high, and be a prepared people for the setting in order of the House of God, and in time redeem Zion when we have sufficient to do it. This is the work of preparation which is upon us today.

The item that I have read so often to you, I feel if we can be reminded again and again how to get the Spirit of God and to keep it; it is this way, when we understand that the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son; which if we have we will be like Them. All of the things will be overcome that we may stand in the temple as Jesus promised. As John promised in the Book of Revelation; "When we overcome we will be able to stand as a pillar in the temple of God and sit down upon His throne." The Holy Spirit:

Lecture Five

2. ...the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments;

Do we truly believe and are we truly converted, brothers and sisters? There is no halfway house. It is all or nothing at all, as Heber C. Kimball pointed out when he said, "It is the Kingdom of God or nothing."

2. ...and all those who keep his commandments

I am speaking now how to get the Spirit of God and keep it, brothers and sisters.

2. ...and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace,

It is not done in a day.

2. ...and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father,
Son and Holy Spirit are one.

Dear sisters, you cannot be one with your husband, children cannot become one with their parents, except they become like their head; become like him. This is the process of becoming one, and thus we will learn to become like God, as he becomes like God. This is a matter of covenant, if we only realized it. Read the covenant of marriage which brought us together.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, He showed us how.

3. ...so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; Fullness, brothers and sisters, not fifty percent or twenty-five percent. We either have it or we do not. We obtain, we overcome, or we do not, if we are going to become like Him, like Them.

3. ...to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Which I pray we may be and lay hold on, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Spirit of Revelation; Faith Unto Salvation

Oliver Cowdery failed translating the ancient record because he did not have the faith, the Spirit of revelation. In Sections 8 and 9 of the Doctrine and Covenants, as we will study in this connection, we are told that Oliver Cowdery took no thought save it was to ask. So there comes something before merely asking in prayer. He said you must work it out, or study it out in your mind, and then ask God if it be true. If it be true you will have a burning in your bosom; and if it be not true you will have a stupor of thought.

Here is the Spirit of revelation and the means by which we operate by faith. There must be an exertion, brothers and sisters. If we lack faith, may it not be said that we are spiritually lazy? Such a law is true of all of us. We must learn obedience by the things we suffer -- at least, I am afraid that is how it is going to have to be. And so we find, brothers and sisters, that these are the effects of faith. The whole creation is the effects of faith, and we have some wonderful examples given us.

Lecture Seven

8. ...When men begin to live by faith they begin to draw near to God; Thus they have power with Him.

8. ...and when faith is perfected they are like Him; In order to become like Him, then, our faith must become perfect.

8. ...and because He is saved they are saved also; for they will be in the same situation He is in, because they have come to Him; and when He appears they shall be like Him, for they will see Him as He is.

Without faith it is impossible to please God. Joseph Smith, of course, went on to receive the Aaronic Priesthood and the Holy Melchizedek Priesthood through Peter, James, and John, and ultimately came up to see the face of God, and had his calling and election made sure.

17. ...If there were children of promise, they were the effects of faith, not even the Saviour of the world excepted. "Blessed is she that believed," said Elizabeth to Mary, when she went to visit her, "for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord." Luke 1:45. Nor was the birth of John the Baptist the less a matter of faith; for in order that his father Zacharias might believe he was struck dumb. And through the whole history of the scheme of life and salvation, it is a matter of faith: every man received according to his faith -- according as his faith was, so were his blessings and privileges; and nothing was withheld from him when his faith was sufficient to receive it. He could stop the mouths of lions, quench the violence of fire, escape the edge of the sword, wax valiant in fight, and put to flight the armies of the aliens; women could, by their faith, receive their dead children to life again; in a word, there was nothing impossible with them who had faith. All things were in subjection
So these effects of faith are the things that we seek. One of the grandest concepts that I have ever contemplated in receiving information on this glorious subject is the expression that Joseph gives in these Lectures: We are required to walk as seeing Him who is invisible. Get the import of that, brothers and sisters -- walk as seeing Him, our God, who is invisible. That, to me, describes faith very beautifully. So what we have here, brothers and sisters, is a whole system that is marked by this great power of faith, which, as I like to put it, is power with God. We are talking about faith unto salvation. It takes faith to even accomplish our work, and for all men to continue to have their being in the earth. Those are rudimentary things, we are only talking about life and faith unto salvation.

And so, brothers and sisters, the input that I get from all of this is the fact that we are not working hard enough at it. To put it very simply, we are not exerting our minds. It is through our minds that we will do our physical work. That is where it is first -- in our minds. Now since the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son, why must we get that Spirit to become our mind? So that we might be one with Them. Let us keep in mind, brothers and sisters, that the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son, and they have given us this great gift, through the laying on of hands of the Priesthood, to guide and direct us in this course that we are required to go through in this life, that we might enjoy immortality and eternal lives through the great gift of faith.

I feel that the summarizing of these Lectures, this principle that Joseph wrote so beautifully about to the School of the Elders, the School of the Prophets as it was called, is done in these beautiful words, which I trust will be helpful to us.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, I am just saying as the Prophet said here in the last part of Lecture Five, the saints may, by obedience to the commandments of God, lay hold upon this Holy Spirit, this mind of the Father, which is the glory of the Father -- the Holy Spirit is the glory of the Father and the Son -- so that they may obtain a fullness of it. Obtaining a fullness of that Spirit can make us kings and priests unto God, queens and priestesses.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

And he could have added this principle of sacrifice, by sacrificing all earthly things and rendering obedience. That is one means of rendering obedience, is to sacrifice all earthly things and submit ourselves to be led and directed by the power of God and the Priesthood.

...will in time bring the consciousness

Or the revelation.

...that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

Can we not see how we have power with God if our course is like His?

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power,

Think of faith as power, brothers and sisters, power with God.

...the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born,

That is the only Church we are connected with, brothers and sisters, the Church of the Firstborn.

...with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

And thus, brothers and sisters, we will be prepared to be endowed with power from on high. Let us learn first, then, to become endowed with the Holy Ghost, that it be our constant companion, that it shall be distilled upon us.
The powers of heaven will enable us then to obtain eternal lives. God bless President Johnson in presiding over this work and people. And may we sustain and support him with all our heart, mind and strength, and build up this Kingdom and establish the Priesthood of God with all that we have and are through our faith, through our submission, our humility, and through perfect love.

God bless this people, each and everyone, according to your desires in righteousness. And I know He will reward you according to your faith. I promise it to you and pray God's blessings will be upon you, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Oneness Through Keeping the Spirit of God

I appreciate hearing the truths that we have had given us this afternoon, and trust that they will be taken to heart and lived. I just feel to speak through two of our Priesthood fathers this afternoon, and I pray the Lord will sanctify it to my good and yours. Brigham Young:

JD 1:69   Brigham Young  April 9, 1852  SLC

I exhort you, masters, fathers, and husbands, to be affectionate and kind to those you preside over. And let them be obedient, let the wife be subject to her husband, and the children to their parents. Mothers, let your minds be sanctified before the Lord, for this is the commencement, the true foundation of a proper education in your children, the beginning point to form a disposition in your offspring, that will bring honor, glory, comfort, and satisfaction to you all your life time.

We have had some wonderful instructions here today about how we should live in our families in the Celestial Order, the Family Order of Heaven. Lorenzo Snow drew a beautiful picture of something that I have always loved and enjoyed reading, contemplating, and pass it on again to you today.

JD 4:155  Lorenzo Snow  January 4, 1857  SLC

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife (wives) may be pure element, suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children.

So, they must be one. How will they be one, brothers and sisters? By the wives being like their husbands, being like them as he is like God. How can they be like that? By having and keeping the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost, as their constant companion; which, if they have, they cannot be anything else but one and alike, because that is the nature, and character, and the attributes of the Holy Ghost. So the grand admonition that we get and keep the Spirit of God is the only way that we can abide this holy law, which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Family History; Preparation Through Perfection;
The Purifying Agent Is the Holy Spirit;
We Become One Through Becoming Like God

I just about decided that I was not going to speak today, and Brother Draper trapped me right into it. I am grateful, my brothers and sisters, to be with you here today. And if the Lord has any message to give through me, I desire but to be an instrument for that purpose, and that alone, if you are not too tired.

I have been reflecting a little on my history and past. I came home when my father gave me a copy of the Truth Magazine on his birthday, September 25, 1938; and was given the Melchizedek Priesthood by Joseph Musser January 20, 1939. And I had "come home". Yes, I had been on a mission for the Church. I had been very active from the day that I was baptized in the Church. I was not baptized until I was eleven. Father and mother, the family had been "underground" in those days. And the first things that I heard that swelled my bosom was the words and the story of Joseph Smith the Prophet. And it is his labor and work that I have been seeking all the days of my life, since I became acquainted with his work and labors.

I am grateful to my father and mother for their love of truth, and that they, against all of the pressures of the day -- in those days when great pressure was being brought to bear in 1907 through 1910 -- that they came together in the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage, Celestial Marriage, and that I was brought into the world through that covenant. Through all my younger years I was given to the Church, as Brother Guy often speaks of in his case; but I did not really "come home" until I found this work at my father's side.

He had loved the truth and tried to abide it. He was sound in doctrine, and it ran counter to the doctrines taught in the Church. But he hung on and taught the Gospel and the doctrines of the Priesthood, and they were doctrines of the Priesthood to him. They were not doctrines of the Church, even while he was in the Church. And he conducted many and many a Gospel doctrine class, teaching the pristine beauty and original doctrines of the holy Priesthood as best he could under those conditions. He lived and abided in the Church until he found this order of Priesthood, when he got a copy of the Truth Magazine from Joseph Musser a year before I got mine. He met him on the street, an old friend in the same mission with my father in Tennessee in the 1890's. And how he rejoiced with and loved the Priesthood when he found it.

Yes, father was sealed, mother was sealed to father through that Priesthood, as we found out later. He knew Lorin Woolley during the early part of the century, but Lorin did not tell him about this Priesthood, this order of the Priesthood which he and his father were carrying on. But through his quiet administration, Patriarch Judson Tolman was sent to do the work. It was prophesied upon the head of father in 1901, when he took Aunt Phoebe, that it would be required of him to live Celestial and Plural Marriage. The Patriarch told him this and the Bishop told him this in Davis County. And the Lord brought it about, "underground", and I do mean "underground". Mother was sent from Iona, Idaho when they decided that they belonged together. And it was given by revelation through Aunt Phoebe -- I mean it was revealed to her, as well as to father -- that mother belonged to father. Mother was sent down here and she lived for a solid year in the homes of Brother Emery, John W. Taylor in Provo; stayed with Nettie Taylor until the time was right. And through the auspices of Matthias F. Cowley, who then had been disfellowshipped and was doing something to help, Judson Tolman was sent to seal the marriage ceremony. I am sixty-five years old now and I have spent the last thirty-seven years of that sixty-five in this work, for which I am grateful.

Now brothers and sisters, the thing that keeps bearing down upon me, through the teachings and the instructions and the work that is being performed by President Johnson, is perfection. This is enjoined upon this people. President Johnson has been calling it preparation, but it is preparation through perfection. If I have been right and correct in doctrine, brothers and sisters, it is because of the Spirit of God, and desiring always to get the word of Joseph upon every subject and doctrine -- Joseph the Prophet, our advocate in this dispensation with the Lord Jesus Christ and our Father, who did so much for our salvation.

I am grateful for the atonement wrought by our Savior, Jesus Christ. The Redeemer has made it possible to go back into the presence of Father and His presence. And I am grateful for that Witness and Testator, Joseph the Prophet, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost, which is the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son; for all he did in bringing these truths to the earth, and commencing the last and the greatest dispensation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to head up the winding-up scene under Jesus Christ. So I would like to read you some of his words, which I hope will help us, each and every one, to perfect our lives. I would just like to read a few scriptures and apply them in the words of Joseph, which will help us. John in his first epistle says:

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure" (1 John iii:2, 3).

9. "...And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as He (Jesus Christ) is pure." Why purify themselves as He is pure?
Because if they do not they cannot be like Him.

The Gospel that this Priesthood teaches today, and it is the burden of President Johnson's message to us continually, is to clean up our minds, to purify ourselves. Is not that the same thing? We cannot be like Him until we become pure and clean before Him. We cannot abide His presence until we are like Him.

Lecture Seven

10. ...And the Saviour says, Matthew v. 48: "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." If any should ask,

Says Joseph,

10. ...why all these sayings? the answer is to be found from what is before quoted from John's epistle, that when he (the Lord) shall appear, the saints will be like him; and if they are not holy, as he is holy, and perfect, as he is perfect, they cannot be like him; for no being can enjoy his glory without possessing his perfections and holiness, no more than they could reign in his kingdom without his power.

Jesus, speaking of His apostles and in praying to the Father before He was about to go said:

11. ..."And the glory which thou gavest me Father,

11. ...I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:" As much as to say that unless they have the glory which the Father had given Him, they could not be one with Them, for He says He had given them the glory that the Father had given Him, that they might be one; or in other words, to make them one. What is this glory, brothers and sisters? It is the mind of the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit. Until we can get and keep it and have it constantly with us, we cannot be one in our families, or as a people. The 16th verse of the Seventh Lecture says this, and is the key to the whole matter:

Lecture Seven

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, To make them like Himself; that is, the Savior.
16. ...and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and for any portion of the human family to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved;

"Saved" means "exalted" to me, not saved from the grave. All will be resurrected by the redemption wrought by our Savior. But I am interested in exaltation, in the presence of the Father and the Son. And so, to be so, we must become like Them. Then he goes on to say:

16. ...and to be unlike them is to be destroyed;

That goes a long way does it not. There is the doctrine of dissolution, if you please.

16. ...and on this hinge turns the door of salvation.

We are admonished, brothers and sisters, to be one in our families, to be one as a people, a sufficient number of us at least, that we can be used for bringing about the redemption of Zion, and go back home to that center place where Christ shall reign as King of kings and Lord of lords. The grand key that Moroni gives us regarding the pure love of Christ, charity.

Moroni 7

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

With all energy of heart. This is faith, the exertion of the mind though earnest prayer. Whenever Joseph told about receiving the word of the Lord, brothers and sisters, he told how he prayed earnestly, he prayed fervently, exerting the mind for the blessings he desired; and thus he obtained that faith sufficient to obtain all things that he asked for. And so we must in like manner:

48. ...pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love,

This pure love of Christ,

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

The purifying agent, brothers and sisters, is this power and glory that emanates from the Father -- His Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost -- they are all the same. This is the purifying element which we must be filled with if we are to stand in the presence of the Father and the Son.

Now how do we become one?  God says, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine."  It says the same things as these that I have read from the words of Joseph, and the Lord Jesus Christ.  You cannot be one with anybody, you cannot be one with God, except you become like Him.  Sisters, you cannot become one with your husbands save you become like him.  Brethren, you cannot be one with your presiding head and your fellow servants in the holy Priesthood, except you become like God.  As far as I am concerned, we have a President, the mouthpiece of God who is worthy of emulation, and I desire to be like Him; for he is very Christlike, the most Christlike man on the earth as far as I am concerned.  And there are others I could mention.  But I want to talk about my head, your head; and we must rally, becoming one, and respecting and honoring the counsel that he gives, along with his fellow servants in the Council of the holy Priesthood.

Now, my dear brothers and sisters, I feel to say the same thing that has been mentioned here.  I pray that I may remain true and faithful to the end, and that I can remain one with my brethren, with my head, President Johnson, until I close my eyes in death and go to whatever reward I may have earned.  God bless us all, my dear brothers and sisters.  President Johnson, all of us, desire nothing more than your salvation, your joy and rejoicing in this great work in which we are engaged; and that we may all be one.  I know all will not be that are sitting under the sound of my voice -- never has been before, and I do not suppose it will yet.  But I pray for the time when a sufficient number may come under that glorious approbation:  "Well done, My good and faithful servant, enter into your reward."

May we as a people sustain and uphold and glorify the name of God, sustain the holy Priesthood, and be one in His hands, to build up His Kingdom and establish this order of Priesthood in the earth, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Do Not Procrastinate Repentance; Do Not Aspire; Benefits From the Atonement; Overcome
I am very grateful for what I have heard here today, and I trust each and every one of us is; and that we have a foundation for greater growth and development and that can now go on to perfection. We have had these messages over the many years that we have been engaged in this work, but I find that people do not realize sufficiently the blessings that they enjoy. And if we but had the spirit of gratitude and submit ourselves to the Lord and to His Priesthood, to be led and directed, I am sure that we would make progress much faster. Certainly, this is a great work of preparation.

I am grateful for the Priesthood, for this great event that took place in 1886, which has been described as second only in importance of the events of this last dispensation to that in which Joseph saw the Father and the Son and was instructed to lay the foundation for the great restoration of the holy Priesthood, the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and prepare the way for the coming of the Son of God. This work of 1886, which was commenced then, was the first great step in setting in order the House of God, and preparing the way that this might be accomplished. It is the work of this Priesthood to prepare for Joseph to come to set in order the House of God completely. He was there in 1886, and he is watching very carefully and making the necessary preparations on the other side. Now it is for us, dear brothers and sisters, to do our work and be about our Father's business, for we are called unto it.

These glorious promises that have been vouchsafed to us by our fathers, our Priesthood fathers, we should cherish with all our hearts, and we should do something about it. We should love the Lord and His work more than life itself, and be ready and willing to give our lives, if necessary, to accomplish the object in view. So there is no room or place for idleness, or for procrastination, or saying, "Tomorrow I will start." It is today. Do it now. This is what we are being called upon to do, brothers and sisters. We are being called upon to be prepared to set in order the House of God, and to go on to redeem Zion and accomplish that great work, which you will have a great deal of help in doing when the Ten Tribes and the whole House of Israel shall be gathered together to accomplish that work.

Now brothers and sisters, I love the words of President Johnson here this afternoon. We certainly have our work cut out for us. No one needs to be aspiring to position when they bear the holy Melchizedek Priesthood -- Elders, a part of God, to enable us to raise our families and to abide the holy law. It is one thing to enter into it, but it is another to abide it. And the promises held out to us in Section 132 are based on our being able to abide the law. Brigham Young even went so far as to say that the Celestial Law of Plural Marriage would damn more that it would save. And I suppose those percentages that were spoken of here today have a great deal to do with it.

So let us abide the day, brothers and sisters, day by day, walking daily in holiness before the Lord, raising up our families in light and truth, and making our homes temples. Lorin Woolley, among all the wonderful instructions that he gave, left the message that for some time to come the only temples we would have would be our homes, and let us be continually conscious of this requirement. The very things that caused the saints to be driven from Jackson County, Missouri, when they were sent to redeem Zion and to build it up; the very things that they were guilty of were jarrings, contentions, strife, lustful and covetous desires. By these things they polluted their inheritance. These are the things that exist in some of our families that must be done away in order for us to be one. And in order to be one, brothers and sisters, we must be one with our head, or like Him, the Lord Jesus Christ, the great Prototype of all saved and exalted beings. I would like to read the beautiful words of John Taylor, found in The Mediation and Atonement. Having described very beautifully how the Lord Jesus Christ had brought about the great atonement and made the preparation for His brothers and sisters, the sons and daughters of God, to be resurrected, he says this:

The next question for us to examine is, How, and in what manner are men benefitted by the atonement and by the resurrection? In this, that the atonement having restored man to his former position before the Lord, it has placed him in a position and made it possible for him to obtain that exaltation and glory which it would have been impossible for him to have received without it; even to become a son of God by adoption; and being a son then an heir of God, and a joint heir with Jesus Christ; and that, as Christ overcame, He has made it possible, and has placed it within the power of believers in Him, also to overcome; and as He is authorized to inherit His Father's glory which He had with Him before the world was, with His resurrected body, so through the adoption, may we overcome and sit down with Him upon His throne, as He has overcome and has sat down upon His Father's throne. And as he has said, "I and the Father are one," so are the obedient saints one with Him, as He is one with the Father, even as He prayed:

Regarding His Apostles.

"That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them;"

The glory of the Holy Ghost -- that is the glory or the mind of the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit.

"...that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me." -- John, xvii, 21-23.

Being the sons of God through the atonement and adoption, and through faith in Jesus Christ, they rise to the dignity and glory of the Godhead, even to be Gods; as it is promised:

"Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. -- Rev., iii, 12.

That is from Revelation.

Again, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne." - - Rev., iii, 21.

Yet again, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." -- Rev., xxi, 7.

Hence, through His atonement, believers in Christ, and those who obey His law, partake of His glory and exaltation, and are inheritors of the Godhead; whilst those who do not obey His law although resurrected cannot inherit this exaltation; they are raised from the dead, but cannot inherit a celestial glory without being obedient to a celestial law,

To be obedient to this Celestial Law we must abide it.

...and thus we come again to a scripture quoted before. Jesus said, "Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem."

As I read to you two weeks ago from the Lectures on Faith, God has called upon us to become perfect as He is perfect. This is the work of preparation, to become perfect in Christ Jesus. And President Johnson has shown us the way how to do that. So in order to accomplish this, in abiding the Celestial Law, in which we are engaged, the fullness of the Celestial Law is abiding in the law of Celestial and Plural Marriage and the Holy United Order, which go hand in hand. And it can be and must be lived in our families. These laws are given us to perfect us, brothers and sisters. We have the Family Order of Heaven, if you please! And all are not able to enter into it or abide it.

The Lord has sent forth special and chosen spirits to come forth in this dispensation, and we have as glorious examples our Prophet Joseph Smith, and John Taylor, and all of our Priesthood fathers down until the present; and we have living among us men who are worthy examples of how it can be done. President Johnson is our head, and we must rally behind him to accomplish the object in view. May we continue from now on with greater diligence and with love unfeigned, to become perfect in Christ Jesus and be one, and be His people, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

My brothers and sisters, in the messages we have had thus far, and pray that the Spirit of God will continue with me as I desire to bring some things to our attention, which I believe will help us on our way on this great course of preparation. We are having brought to our attention continually the work of the Priesthood, story of the Priesthood and how it has come down to us from Joseph the Prophet through John Taylor and our Priesthood fathers. And this is the story that is going to have to be told.

The hand of the Lord is being made manifest in our lives, and if we will only see it, we should rejoice and continue in faith to accomplish the object in view. I came across a sermon, part of a sermon of John Taylor, which I have read in full; but I feel that this would be a good preface to the message that I pray God to give us today through His servants. John Taylor is quoted in connection with the verse of Section 45, when he spoke of Enoch.

D. & C. 45

11. Wherefore, hearken ye together and let me show unto you even my wisdom -- the wisdom of him whom ye say is the God of Enoch, and his brethren,
12. Who were separated from the earth, and were received unto myself -- a city reserved until a day of righteousness shall come -- a day which was sought for by all holy men, and they found it not because of wickedness and abominations;
13. And confessed they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth;
14. But obtained a promise that they should find it and see it in their flesh.

This would be in their resurrected condition, no doubt. John Taylor said:

JD 26:34 John Taylor December 14, 1884 SLC

...in the days of Enoch. There was a remarkable work performed then according to the revelations which have been given to us, which will be more fully developed when the Lord shall see fit to reveal other things associated therewith. But we learn that there was a Church organized about as ours may be; we learn that they went forth and preached the Gospel;

In the days of Enoch now, brethren and sisters, is being described.

...we learn that they were gathered together to a place called Zion; we learn that the people of Zion were under the guidance, direction and teaching of the Almighty; in order that they might be prepared for another Zion in the grand drama associated with the dealings of God and his purposes pertaining to this earth and the heavens. Enoch preached the Gospel to the people, and so did hundreds of Elders as they are doing to-day; and they gathered the people together and built up a Zion to the Lord, and when Enoch was not, but was caught up, Enoch's city was not, but was caught up, and there were certain things associated therewith that are very peculiar. And what came next? Why, the destruction of the world. It was overflowed, we read, by the flood.

Joseph Smith sought in his day, Brigham Young sought in his day, to teach the saints the Family Order of Heaven -- the Order of Enoch, if you please -- by which they should be governed. And that was the order by which they were to be governed in the city of Independence, which was to be the Zion of our God and, of course, will yet be. Brigham Young made this statement regarding his efforts to try and teach the Order of Enoch and the family organization to the people.

JD 18:242  Brigham Young  June 23, 1874  SLC

...the Lord revealed to Joseph, that the people would gather out from Babylon, and establish the kingdom of God upon the principles of heaven. They went up to Jackson County, Mo., with this in their faith, and with the express understanding that when they got there, everything was to be laid at the feet of the Bishop,

He went on to detail how they had failed.

...who was to distribute it among the people, according to the revelation given for that purpose, for their benefit. But they could not bear this, consequently they were driven from Jackson County,  and finally they were driven from the State. This was in the fall of 1838. ...while we were in Winter Quarters, the Lord gave to me a revelation just as much as he ever gave one to anybody. He opened my mind, and showed me the organization of the kingdom of God in a family capacity. I talked it to my brethren; I would throw out a few words here, and a few words there, to my first counselor, to my second counselor and the Twelve Apostles, but with the exception of one or two of the Twelve, it would not touch a man. They believed it would come, O yes, but it would be by and by.

Now what about us, brothers and sisters? God in His great wisdom, and knowing what was about to come to pass, has preserved to us the holy Priesthood with the fullness of the Gospel as its message to the saints, to gather them out, and bring them together to obey the laws of the Gospel and of the holy Priesthood, and to become one people. It has been stated, as I understand, by some of our Priesthood fathers -- Lorin Woolley, Joseph Musser, John Y. Barlow -- that the saints would probably have to be starved into this order. What a pity. I hark to the days of Enoch, brothers and sisters. We do not have much of a detailed record. This additional information we got from John Taylor reveals something as though it were very, very natural, as we, as the Priesthood is trying to accomplish today. The saints were brought together and taught and instructed, and it took many years. If the record of Jasher is valid, we find that after a great many had been gathered together, they came to Enoch and desired to be governed by him, to be their king and ruler and to make them one, which he proceeded to do.

I felt that the account that the Lord gave Joseph Smith recorded as the seventh chapter of Moses, which we have in the Pearl of Great Price, would be inspirational to us and let us know how God has planned, over the thousands of years since that day, for this day in which we live, and for which we should be most grateful. Having recounted how he had come up to the Lord, he said:

Moses 7

11. And he gave unto me a commandment that I should baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, which is full of grace and truth, and of the Holy Ghost, which beareth record of the Father and the Son.

12. And it came to pass that Enoch continued to call upon all the people, save it were the people of Canaan, to repent;

13. And so great was the faith of Enoch that he led the people of God, and their enemies came to battle against them; and he spake the word of the Lord, and the earth trembled, and the mountains fled, even according to his command; and the rivers of water were turned out of their course; and the roar of the lions was heard out of the wilderness; and all nations feared greatly, so powerful was the word of Enoch, and so great was the power of the language which God had given him.

Will it not be a glorious day when we have the language of Adam, brothers and sisters? For it is faith, by the power of faith through words, powerful words by which these things are accomplished. And we must someday have that faith.

14. There also came up a land out of the depth of the sea, and so great was the fear of the enemies of the people of God, that they fled and stood afar off and went upon the land which came up out of the depth of the sea.

15. And the giants of the land, also, stood afar off; and there went forth a curse upon all people that fought against God;

16. And from that time forth there were wars and bloodshed among them; but the Lord came and dwelt with his people, and they dwelt in righteousness.

17. The fear of the Lord was upon all nations, so great was the glory of the Lord, which was upon his people. And the Lord blessed the land, and they were blessed upon the mountains, and upon the high places, and did flourish.

This is a counterpart, brothers and sisters, of exactly how it will be in this day when Zion is built; for we have the promise that Zion of our God of Enoch's day will come down and meet the Zion of our God in this dispensation, which will be caught up.

18. And the Lord called his people Zion, because they were of one heart and one mind, and dwelt in righteousness; and there were no poor among them.

19. And Enoch continued his preaching in righteousness unto the people of God. And it came to pass in his days, that he built a city that was called the City of Holiness, even Zion.

20. And it came to pass that Enoch talked with the Lord; and he said unto the Lord: Surely Zion shall dwell in safety forever. But the Lord said unto Enoch: Zion have I blessed, but the residue of the people have I cursed.

21. And it came to pass that the Lord showed unto Enoch all the inhabitants of the earth; and he beheld, and lo, Zion, in process of time, was taken up into heaven. And the Lord said unto Enoch: Behold mine abode forever.

22. And Enoch also beheld the residue of the people which were the sons of Adam; and they were a mixture of all the seed of Adam save it was the seed of Cain, for the seed of Cain were black, and had not place among them.

23. And after that Zion was taken up into heaven, Enoch beheld, and lo, all the nations of the earth were before him;

24. And there came generation upon generation; and Enoch was high and lifted up, even in the bosom of the Father, and of the Son of Man; and behold, the power of Satan was upon all the face of the earth.

25. And he saw angels descending out of heaven; and he heard a loud voice saying: Wo, wo be unto the inhabitants of the earth.

26. And he beheld Satan; and he had a great chain in his hand, and it veiled the whole face of the earth with darkness; and he looked up and laughed, and his angels rejoiced.

27. And Enoch beheld angels descending out of heaven, bearing testimony of the Father and Son; and the Holy Ghost fell on many, and they were caught up by the powers of heaven into Zion.
So that is possible, brothers and sisters.

28. And it came to pass that the God of heaven looked upon the residue of the people, and he wept; and Enoch bore record of it, saying: How is it that the heavens weep, and shed forth their tears as the rain upon the mountains?
29. And Enoch said unto the Lord: How is it that thou canst weep, seeing thou art holy, and from all eternity to all eternity?

30. And were it possible that man could number the particles of the earth, yea, millions of earths like this, it would not be a beginning to the number of thy creations; and thy curtains are stretched out still; and yet thou art there, and thy bosom is there; and also thou art just; thou art merciful and kind forever;
31. And thou hast taken Zion to thine own bosom, from all thy creations, from all eternity to all eternity; and naught but peace, justice, and truth is the habitation of thy throne; and mercy shall go before thy face and have no end; how is it thou canst weep?

32. The Lord said unto Enoch: Behold these thy brethren; they are the workmanship of mine own hands, and I gave unto them their knowledge, in the day I created them; and in the Garden of Eden, gave I unto man his agency;

Now He goes on and shows how these things were to be.
42. And Enoch also saw Noah, and his family; that the posterity of all the sons of Noah should be saved with a temporal salvation;
43. Wherefore Enoch saw that Noah built an ark; and that the Lord smiled upon it, and held it in his own hand; but upon the residue of the wicked the floods came and swallowed them up.
44. And as Enoch saw this, he had bitterness of soul, and wept over his brethren, and said unto the heavens: I will refuse to be comforted; but the Lord said unto Enoch: Lift up your heart, and be glad; and look.
45. And it came to pass that Enoch looked; and from Noah, he beheld all the families of the earth; and he cried unto the Lord, saying: When shall the day of the Lord come? When shall the blood of the Righteous be shed, that all they that mourn may be sanctified and have eternal life?

And he beheld the coming of the Son of Man.
48. And it came to pass that Enoch looked upon the earth; and he heard a voice from the bowels thereof, saying: Wo, wo is me, the mother of men; I am pained, I am weary, because of the wickedness of my children. When shall I rest, and be cleansed from the filthiness which is gone forth out of me? When will my Creator sanctify me, that I may rest, and righteousness for a season abide upon my face?

49. And when Enoch heard the earth mourn, he wept, and cried unto the Lord, saying: O Lord, wilt thou not have compassion upon the earth? Wilt thou not bless the children of Noah?

50. And it came to pass that Enoch continued his cry unto the Lord, saying: I ask thee, O Lord, in the name of thine Only Begotten, even Jesus Christ, that thou wilt have mercy upon Noah and his seed, that the earth might never more be covered by the floods.

51. And the Lord could not withhold; So great was his faith.

51. ...and he covenanted with Enoch, and sware unto him with an oath, that he would stay the floods; that he would call upon the children of Noah;

52. And he sent forth an unalterable decree, that a remnant of his seed should always be found among all nations, while the earth should stand; 53. And the Lord said: Blessed is he through whose seed Messiah shall come; for he saith -- I am Messiah, the King of Zion, the Rock of Heaven, which is broad as eternity; whoso cometh in at the gate and climbeth up by me shall never fall; wherefore, blessed are they of whom I have spoken, for they shall come forth with songs of everlasting joy.

54. And it came to pass that Enoch cried unto the Lord, saying: When the Son of Man cometh in the flesh, shall the earth rest? I pray thee, show me these things.

55. And the Lord said unto Enoch: Look, and he looked and beheld the Son of Man lifted up on the cross, after the manner of men;

56. And he heard a loud voice; and the heavens were veiled; and all the creations of God mourned; and the earth groaned; and the rocks were rent; and the saints arose, and were crowned at the right hand of the Son of Man, with crowns of glory;

57. And as many of the spirits as were in prison came forth, and stood on the right hand of God; and the remainder were reserved in chains of darkness until the judgment of the great day.

58. And again Enoch wept and cried unto the Lord, saying: When shall the earth rest?

59. And Enoch beheld the Son of Man ascend up unto the Father; and he called unto the Lord, saying: Wilt thou not come again upon the earth?
Forasmuch as thou art God, and I know thee, and thou hast sworn unto me, and commanded me that I should ask in the name of thine Only Begotten; thou hast made me, and given unto me a right to thy throne, and not of myself, but through thine own grace; wherefore, I ask thee if thou wilt not come again on the earth.

60. And the Lord said unto Enoch: As I live, even so will I come in the last days, in the days of wickedness and vengeance, to fulfil the oath which I have made unto you concerning the children of Noah;

61. And the day shall come that the earth shall rest, but before that day the heavens shall be darkened, and a veil of darkness shall cover the earth; and the heavens shall shake, and also the earth; and great tribulations shall be among the children of men, but my people will I preserve;

This is our day now He is describing, brothers and sisters.

62. And righteousness will I send down out of heaven; and truth will I send forth out of the earth, to bear testimony of mine Only Begotten; his resurrection from the dead; yea, and also the resurrection of all men; and righteousness and truth will I cause to sweep the earth as with a flood, to gather out mine elect from the four quarters of the earth, unto a place which I shall prepare, an Holy City, that my people may gird up their loins, and be looking forth for the time of my coming; for there shall be my tabernacle, and it shall be called Zion, a New Jerusalem.

63. And the Lord said unto Enoch: Then shalt thou and all thy city meet them there, and we will receive them into our bosom, and they shall see us; and we will fall upon their necks, and they shall fall upon our necks, and we will kiss each other;

64. And there shall be mine abode, and it shall be Zion, which shall come forth out of all the creations which I have made; and for the space of a thousand years the earth shall rest.
65. And it came to pass that Enoch saw the day of the coming of the Son of Man, in the last days, to dwell on the earth in righteousness for the space of a thousand years;
66. But before that day he saw great tribulations among the wicked; and he also saw the sea, that it was troubled, and men's hearts failing them, looking forth with fear for the judgments of the Almighty God, which should come upon the wicked.
67. And the Lord showed Enoch all things, even unto the end of the world; and he saw the day of the righteous, the hour of their redemption, and received a fullness of joy;

The record of Enoch, it has been promised, will come to the righteous in our day, as will the record of Jared, the brother of Jared, as well as the record of John; when we have the faith of the brother of Jared, and of John, and of Enoch.

68. And all the days of Zion, in the days of Enoch, were three hundred and sixty-five years.
69. And Enoch and all his people walked with God, and he dwelt in the midst of Zion; and it came to pass that Zion was not, for God received it up into his own bosom; and from thence went forth the saying, ZION IS FLED.

Moses 8
1. And all the days of Enoch were four hundred and thirty years.

So, brothers and sisters, I do not think we realize with enough gratitude who we are, what we are, and what the Lord desires for us, and the blessings that are offered to us. We should indeed be preparing for these great and glorious things.

Faith in God, faith in the living Priesthood, is the only thing that is going to accomplish it, our becoming one, and becoming like God; for we will not be able to see Him as He is unless we are like Him. When Christ comes and leads the saints to Zion in His own person, this will call for a people who have become like Him to go with Him in righteousness, a righteous people; who, it has been described, will be so righteous in their journey that the trees will clap together, and all nature rejoice. This is the condition we must come to, brothers and sisters, which may be our happy lot, and our joy and rejoicing together as the friends, and the sons and daughters of God to redeem Zion, which I hope and pray we may enjoy, in Jesus' name, amen.

Funeral of Ernest Jessop

I am grateful for this appointment and having a part in this beautiful service. I am grateful to be here on this beautiful occasion and to mingle my voice with that of my brethren in honoring this worthy young man.

The prominent point of understanding and knowing this young man was just this last summer. Ernest had been confined to the hospital for a diagnosis of his condition, which he told me commenced at about the time of our last conference in April, when it began to affect his eyes. At that time, they diagnosed it as something other than what it turned out to be.

I got a call from him at my home, from the hospital, desiring to be taken somewhere for the weekend before he would have to report back again. I was glad to go back and get him and have a wonderful visit with him. We talked together as I took him to a place where he could be. I was deeply impressed with the love of truth that Ernest had, and his deep and keen desire to keep all of the commandments of God. He expressed this, in effect, to me. I love the spirit in which he spoke and expressed his desires to do what is right and to keep all of the commandments of God. I appreciated that beautiful spirit in this worthy young man. I am sure that the appointment unto death commenced at that time, and it was required of him to go through the ordeal that he did in order to respond to the call to go over on the other side; where, I am certain, his labors and his appointment in the work of God was to continue, for I am sure he was sent for. It is not for us to make any judgment on how a man or a woman is taken when he is called to the other side. I think that it has been according to the will of God. I am sure of it.

D.& C. 42

43. And whosoever among you are sick, and have not faith to be healed, but believe, shall be nourished with all tenderness, with herbs and mild food, and that not by the hand of an enemy.

44. And the elders of the church, two or more, shall be called, and shall pray for and lay their hands upon them in my name; and if they die they shall die unto me, and if they live they shall live unto me.
45. Thou shalt live together in love, insomuch that thou shalt weep for the loss of them that die, and more especially for those that have not hope of a glorious resurrection.

46. And it shall come to pass that those that die in me shall not taste of death, for it shall be sweet unto them;

47. And they that die not in me, wo unto them, for their death is bitter.

48. And again, it shall come to pass that he that hath faith in me to be healed, and is not appointed unto death, shall be healed.

This young man was appointed unto death. It is beautiful how his having been dedicated to the Lord, he passed finally in peace. His death is sweet, for he died unto the Lord. I am impressed with the doctrine and truths that are given us in Section 93, brothers and sisters. I would like to read a few verses from that beautiful revelation.

D. & C. 93

28. He that keepeth his commandments receiveth truth and light, until he is glorified in truth and knoweth all things.

29. Man was also in the beginning with God.

This man's spirit was in the beginning with God.

29. ...Intelligence, or the light of truth, was not created or made, neither indeed can be.

30. All truth is independent in that sphere in which God has placed it, to act for itself, as all intelligence also; otherwise there is no existence.

31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.

33. For man is spirit.

This spirit is the mind. Heber C. Kimball and Joseph Smith tell us in very plain terms, the spirit is the mind of man.

33. ...The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;

The elements of this man's body were formed from the dust of the earth, and it returns to the earth. This spirit remains with this earth for him to continue in his second and his third estate.

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.
35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

I am sure Brother Ernest went clean.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.
37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.
38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

Then, this is what happens in so many cases:

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

All of this, brothers and sisters, is a prelude to what follows. The Lord tells Joseph and his counselors and others:

40. But I have commanded you to bring up your children in light and truth.

And each of them were chastised for not having their families in order, and not having taught their children light and truth according to the commandments as they should.

42. You have not taught your children light and truth, according to the commandments;

He said to Frederick G. Williams,

42. ...and that wicked one hath power, as yet, over you, and this is the cause of your affliction.
43. And now a commandment I give unto you -- if you will be delivered you shall set in order your own house, for there are many things that are not right in your house.

He said to Joseph:

45. Verily, I say unto my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., or in other words, I will call you friends, for you are my friends, and ye shall have an inheritance with me --
46. I called you servants for the world's sake, and ye are their servants for my sake --
47. And now, verily I say unto Joseph Smith, Jun. -- You have not kept the commandments, and must needs stand rebuked before the Lord;
48. Your family must needs repent and forsake some things, and give more earnest heed unto your sayings, or be removed out of their place.
49. What I say unto one I say unto all; pray always lest that wicked one have power in you, and remove you out of your place.

So these instructions are to all, we who remain. These services are for the benefit of we who remain. I am sure that we as a people need to take heed to these grand truths which are given us in these revelations of the Lord, and take renewed courage and strength in the fact that God is with us. His Priesthood is here, His truth goes on, and the Kingdom of God is about to be set up, and the nations of the earth rebuked and destroyed, and the redemption of Zion, in the due time of God; which I pray we may have a part in, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of the Prophet Joseph Smith

It is good to meet with you again, my dear brothers and sisters, again in company with my brethren. And I desire an interest in your faith and prayers to the end that the Spirit of God shall dictate what I may say; for I desire above all things to edify you, my dear brothers and sisters, or be the instrument to do so in the hands of the Lord.

I feel impressed to read Section 4 of the Doctrine and Covenants, which is a great help, and I think is of such import that we ought to have it on our walls.

D. & C. 4

1. Now behold a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

This was true then, and it is still true, brothers and sisters; for a continuation of the great work that was commenced through the Prophet Joseph Smith, whose servants we are.
2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work; This is still true. Keep in mind that these were instructions given in behalf of Joseph, the Prophet's father.

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

This is something that we need to guide us every day of our lives, brothers and sisters. We have emphasized here the great subject and power of faith, which Joseph had when he had that glorious vision and visitation of the Father and the Son in the spring of 1820, as a boy fourteen years of age.

This power of faith, brothers and sisters, is what we need above all other things, after first, of course, having repented of our sins. That comes first always. One of the fruits of faith is our acting upon our repentance to seek to become like God; to be an instrument in His hands in this great kingdom, this last kingdom in which we are all engaged. The Prophet in the Lecture on Faith number seven, said, "How does a man operate when he operates by faith?" He said, "He accomplishes things by faith by the exertion of the mind," exertion of the mind, brothers and sisters, through words. Whenever we hear or read of Joseph obtaining the mind and will of God by revelation, and receiving the various visitations that he obtained in order to carry out his work, he always described through fervent, through mighty prayer, approached God, and thus obtained.

By this word "fervent", brothers and sisters, we get an idea about this exertion of the mind. Everything that he obtained, he obtained by his faith. He said when he approached the Lord, the first time that he had ever prayed vocally in that beautiful woods in the spring of 1820, he knew that he would get the answer. Such was the nature of his faith. And that which comes not by faith is of sin, said Joseph.

So as he proceeded and became worthy to obtain the plates, through experience and the visitation of the angel, he commenced translating that great book containing the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel. And as he went through the course of that translation, he would run across different subjects that led him to inquire by fervent prayer regarding baptism, and later regarding the holy Priesthood. And so John came, John the Baptist. And within a month or six weeks, Peter, James, and John came -- this through faith in his prayers. And everything that he accomplished, and was an instrument in the hands of God in accomplishing, was by this means. And he has set a glorious example for us, brothers and sisters. The very fact that we do not have some blessings is evidence that we lack faith.

Certainly we are waiting upon the Lord, and the Lord does not delay His coming. But the Prophets have told us that as soon as we are worthy, we will obtain. Joseph, in his great mission, accomplished more, according to the statement of John Taylor in Section 135, than any man who ever lived in the earth, save Jesus Christ. I would like to speak more of this great character and testify concerning him, and the great work that he accomplished.

D. & C. 135

3. Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it.

Who he is and what he is, has been the subject of great interest to me, because he is the head of this last and the greatest of all the dispensations of the Gospel and of the holy Priesthood to man. Let us examine a few citations that are given concerning him so that we can better appreciate who and what he is. We have in The Compendium, an authoritative source, the statement:

Joseph Smith  Compendium Page 289

Everlasting covenant was made between three personages ***

In the Councils in heaven before the foundations of this earth. They were:

...God the first, the Creator;
This is Michael, our Father and our God.

God the second, the Redeemer. ***
The Lord, Jesus Christ. And third, God
This is Joseph Smith the Prophet is God the Third, I testify to you in the name of Jesus Christ. A short time before Joseph was martyred, he, speaking to his close brethren, said, "Brethren, I am going soon to take my place in the heavens." Let us read something of his own testimony, which, if we understand it, gives us a great deal.

The last time I spoke on this stand it was on the resurrection of the dead, when I promised to continue my remarks upon that subject. I still feel a desire to say something on this subject. Let us this very day begin anew, and now say, with all our hearts, we will forsake our sins and be righteous.

That is a wonderful introduction, and this is the message of the brethren to us continually.

Let us this very day begin anew, and now say, with all our hearts, we will forsake our sins and be righteous. I shall read the 24th chapter of Matthew, and give it a literal rendering and reading; and when it is rightly understood, it will be edifying.

I thought the very oddity of its rendering would be edifying anyhow -- "And it will be preached, the Gospel of the kingdom, in the whole world, to a witness over all people: and then will the end come."

All the testimony is that the Lord in the last days would commit the keys of the Priesthood to a witness over all people.

Has the Gospel of the kingdom commenced in the last days? And will God take it from the man until He takes him Himself? I have read it precisely as the words flowed from the lips of Jesus Christ. John the Revelator saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth.

The scripture is ready to be fulfilled when great wars, famines, pestilence, great distress, judgments, &c., are ready to be poured out on the inhabitants of the earth. John saw the angel having the holy Priesthood, who should preach the everlasting Gospel to all nations. God had an angel -- a special messenger -- ordained and prepared for that purpose in the last days. Woe, woe be to that man or set of men who lift up their hands against God and His witness in these last days: for they shall deceive almost the very chosen ones!

In a sermon delivered shortly before that one, he revealed that the whole of America is Zion, and that Independence is the center place. In connection with that he said:

God is not willing to let me gratify you;
Concerning certain matters.
...but I must teach the Elders, and they should teach you. God made Aaron to be the mouth-piece for the children of Israel, and He will make me be God to you in His stead, and the Elders to be mouth for me; and if you don't like it, you must lump it.

There is the great Witness and Testator, brothers and sisters, a God. I would like to read you a very short one, a testimony of Heber C. Kimball.

JD 5:179   Heber C. Kimball  August 23, 1857  SLC

...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; he is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and he is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ,

Can that be anyone besides Joseph Smith? The Holy Ghost is a man acting in the Godhead with the Father and the Son as a man; a glorified, resurrected being. Now the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit is that great power that issues forth from the Father, and is the mind of the Father and the Son. But this great man had the Holy Ghost in him. He was full of it, and only those who become full of the Holy Ghost will become Gods hereafter. Now brothers and sisters, we have at the commencement of this great work in which we are engaged, this great Prophet, this "Gigantic Apostle" as Brigham Young described him. And I always thrill at his statement when Brigham Young testified, "I am an Apostle of Jesus Christ and also of Joseph Smith."

Joseph and Jesus came to John Taylor on the night of September 26th and 27th, 1886; and the next day, on the 27th, laid the great foundation for the work in which we are engaged. Joseph stood by, directing the proceedings, and he laid his hands upon the heads of those five brethren who where called and set apart as Apostles to carry on this work. Joseph has been in the course of setting in order the House of God, commencing at that time. That was the first great act of setting in order the House of God, and it is continuing, my brothers and sisters. Let us review Section 85 again.

D. & C. 85
7. And it shall come to pass that I, the Lord God, will send one mighty and strong, holding the scepter of power in his hand, clothed with light for a covering, whose mouth shall utter words, eternal words; while his bowels shall be a fountain of truth, to set in order the house of God, and to arrange by lot the inheritances of the saints whose names are found, and the names of their fathers, and of their children, enrolled in the book of the law of God;

This glorious personage will yet come to finish that great work. As I say, he has already commenced it and it is going on. Will we be a part of it? It is required of us to set in order our houses. And if we are going to be a part of that setting in order of the House of God -- the Church, the Kingdom, and the Priesthood -- then we are going to have to be prepared. The Gospel of preparation is that which we have been receiving, lo, these many years.

And so I rejoice in this great testimony that we have of the great head of this dispensation who received the keys from Moses, from Abraham, from Elijah, and all the others. He is to prepare the way of the glorious coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the great forerunner, acting in the spirit of Elias, and having the keys of Elijah to prepare the way so that Messiah can come and put on the capstone. What a glorious personage this man is who suffered so much for us; not like Jesus, of course, who brought about the redemption and the atonement for our sins; but he had to seal his testimony with his blood. We should be most grateful to be a part of this great work.

One of the most powerful statements regarding Joseph is one of the words of himself. A man named James Arlington Bennett had called upon him by a letter asking for his support. He said:

DHC 6:73

In short, I expect to be yet, through your influence, governor of the State of Illinois.

He is a man who lived in Massachusetts at that time. In a rather long letter he answered this man's statements, and here is how he concluded, and I have always thrilled at reading it.

But, sir, when I leave the dignity and honor I received from heaven, to boost a man into power, through the aid of my friends, where the evil and designing, after the object has been accomplished, can lock up the clemency intended as a reciprocation for such favors, and where the wicked and unprincipled, as a matter of course, would seize the opportunity to flintify the hearts of the nation against me for dabling at a sly game in politics, -- verily I say, when I leave the dignity and honor of heaven, to gratify the ambition and vanity of man or men, may my power cease, like the strength of Samson, when he was shorn of his locks, while asleep in the lap of Delilah. Truly said the Savior, "Cast not your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you."

Shall I, who have witnessed the visions of eternity, and beheld the glorious mansions of bliss, and the regions and the misery of the damned, -- shall I turn to be a Judas? Shall I, who have heard the voice of God, and communed with angels, and spake as moved by the Holy Ghost for the renewal of the everlasting covenant, and for the gathering of Israel in the last days, -- shall I worm myself into a political hypocrite? Shall I, who hold the keys of the last kingdom, in which is the dispensation of the fullness of all things spoken by the mouths of all the holy Prophets since the world began, under the sealing power of the Melchizedek Priesthood, - - shall I stoop from the sublime authority of Almighty God, to be handled as a monkey's cat-paw, and pettify myself into a clown to act the farce of political demagoguery? No -- verily no! The whole earth shall bear me witness that I, like the towering rock in the midst of the ocean, which has withstood the mighty surges of the warring waves for centuries, am impregnable, and am a faithful friend to virtue, and a fearless foe to vice, -- no odds whether the former was sold as a pearl in Asia or hid as a gem in America, and the latter dazzles in palaces or glimmers among the tombs.

I combat the errors of ages; I meet the violence of mobs; I cope with illegal proceedings from executive authority; I cut the guardian knot of powers. and I solve mathematical problems of universities, with truth -- diamond truth; and God is my "right hand man."

And to close, let me say in the name of Jesus Christ to you, and to presidents, emperors, kings, queens, governors, rulers, nobles, and men in authority everywhere, Do the works of righteousness, execute justice and judgment in the earth, that God may bless you and her inhabitants; and

The laurel that grows on the top of the mountain
Shall green for your fame while the sun sheds a ray;
And the lily that blows by the side of the fountain
Will bloom for your virtue till earth melt away

So I desire to add my testimony concerning this glorious personage, who stands at our head in this dispensation under Jesus Christ and Father Michael. I am grateful for him. I know as I know I live he is a Prophet of God, the head of this last dispensation, and that he has set up this great work, and continues in the work of the last dispensation and will finish it, until Christ comes. And he is still leading this work, my dear brothers and sisters; and he yearns over us, seeking a people to redeem Zion. This Zion he spoke of in such glowing terms, it shall yet be redeemed, and God will have His people. But the Lord must be sought after in great faith.

I pray, my dear brothers and sisters, that we will have more perfect faith, be filled with faith and the Holy Ghost continually; that we may seek and knock and receive according to our faith, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:457  January 4, 1976  Sandy

It is good to be with you again, dear brothers and sisters, and I pray for an interest in your faith and prayers, that the Spirit of God will rest upon us all together here. I appreciate these humble remarks of Brother Olschewski. I am grateful, my dear friends, for all of you, and to be associated with this work and this people, and that I have been able to come into this work through my father who was full of faith and love for the work of God. That was his life. He loved the Lord and he loved this Priesthood. I am so grateful that he instilled into my heart the truths of the Everlasting Gospel and a love for them.

I am impressed with the truth that we are probably, most of us, guilty of the sin of ingratitude. We have been taking things too much for granted, brothers and sisters. The Lord has said, I think it is in Section 59: "I am not displeased with anyone save those who do not acknowledge My hand in all things, and who do not keep My commandments." This is where I think we fail a great deal, and is partly, if not a great deal, responsible for our lack of preparation. We are not sufficiently humble. The Lord told this to the saints many times on many occasions. We have a wonderful exhortation which I think is applicable to us at this time, which I think we can gain more gratitude and acknowledgement of the hand of God.

D. & C. 82

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you. Here is one grand means of our humbling ourselves, brothers and sisters, in the spirit of repentance and forgiveness. The Lord knows that we need to repent; and that is a gift of God, too, the spirit of repentance.

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; yea, even all of you have sinned; but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads.

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation.

Do we realize what position we are in, brothers and sisters, under those words? More light has been given this people, I dare say, than any people in this dispensation; or any other, probably, for that matter. We are under condemnation if we do not live according to the light that we have been given.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;

6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.

7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge;

Speaking to these people, and I trust that may be so with us.

7. ...go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.

So you see what condition we are under.
8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;
9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.
10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

Here is where we stand before the Lord, brothers and sisters. Have we made the necessary sacrifice, giving up the world? Have we made the sacrifice of changing our character to become like God? There is the great sacrifice that is required. When we have made this and obeyed this law of sacrifice, we will then come to know that our course is pleasing to God. Then He is bound by our faith and our faithfulness to grant the blessings that we need and desire so much, brothers and sisters. Again the Lord says, "Ye are not sufficiently humble and submissive before Me."

I was once asked, "How can I get the Spirit of God and do the things that are required?" I said, "First of all, lay hold on the gift and blessing of gratitude before the Lord." We are recipients of the great light of the Gospel, and the administration of the holy Priesthood. Are we grateful for them? I rejoice when I hear a man or a woman say how grateful they are to be in this holy law of Celestial Marriage because they love it. My heart rejoices when I hear this.

All we need to do after coming to that point, brothers and sisters, is to go forward and do it, live it, abide it to the honor and glory of our Father in heaven, and to the building up of the Kingdom of God, and in preparing clean and holy channels by which we can bring forth the sons and daughters of God. Many glorious spirits, chosen ones, have been reserved to come forth in this time. Are we providing the way for them to come, brothers and sisters?

What a glorious mission and work we have. Are we humbly submitting ourselves to God through His Priesthood, that we may be vessels of righteousness and holiness? Are we making our homes temples? Or are we desecrating them daily? Believe me, brothers and sisters, our President, Leroy S. Johnson, and his co-laborers of the Priesthood Council, yearn over this people and desire to be the servants of all under our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; and to save all who can and will be saved, and raise us up to a point where we can be that people that has been spoken of; the righteous nucleus of the great Millennium, to redeem Zion and to bring forth, according to the desires and will of our Father.

How can we be one, brothers and sisters? By becoming like God. Could we stand in the presence of our Priesthood Fathers were they to come and instruct and teach us? No, we could not; not until we are more like Them, and more like God. Could we stand in the presence of Jesus Christ without becoming like Him? No, never. And so we need to abide the law of humility, the law of love, and lay hold upon great faith, that we may have power with God. The way we have power with God is through faith and knowing that our course is pleasing to God. I would like to close with these words of the Prophet Moroni, that angel who came in the midst of heaven to deliver the Everlasting Gospel to those who dwell in the earth in this last time, in this last kingdom.

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

Humble. A humble person is the one who can be used, brothers and sisters.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

I would like to read you what one of the Apostles wrote regarding the law of meekness.

JD 1:332  Orson Pratt

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth," was the promise of the great Redeemer. But who are the meek? By what peculiarities are they distinguished from other men? There must be some qualities about them far superior to the generality of mankind, or they would not become the exclusive heirs of the new earth. The law of meekness includes all the laws of the Gospel, with its ordinances and blessings, Priesthood and powers, through obedience to which mankind become justified, sanctified, purified, and glorified. Such are the meek of the earth, and none others.

Now this, through this glorious principle of gratitude and meekness:

Moroni 7
45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up,
See how the law of meekness goes through all of this, brothers and sisters?
45. ...seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth,
They love the truth for the truth's sake. All of these are part and partial of this glorious principle of love, charity, the pure love of Christ.
45. ...beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity,
The pure love of Christ,
46. ...ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --
47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.
48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,
All the energy of heart, fervent prayer continually. The exertion of the mind through faith is how we work through faith. And it must be sought for from our Father. It is a gift. It is one of the attributes of the Holy Spirit, and it encompasses a great deal.

47. ...and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.
48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love,
Which to me is to be filled with the Holy Ghost, which is the very spirit of meekness, and love, and truth.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ;
That to me is a part of the gift of the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost, itself, is to be filled with it.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.
To me, brothers and sisters, and I hope to all of you, this means that we must have a fullness of the Spirit of God continually with us, to be filled with this glorious principle of the pure love of Christ, filled with the Holy Ghost continually. Then we will make our habitations temples, and we will be the meek of the earth, and we will be the instruments in the hands of God to redeem Zion and to prepare the way for our Lord, Jesus Christ. We cannot stand in His presence, as I read this scripture, unless we are like Him. God help us to be so, and that we will be faithful and true to our covenants under the holy Celestial Law; that we will be perfect covenant people, keeping all of our covenants -- covenant makers, not covenant breakers -- and that we will follow in the paths of our Priesthood fathers, and even of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Why the Saints Were Driven from Jackson County, Missouri;
We Must Humbly Endure Chastening

It is wonderful to meet with you again, brothers and sisters. I appreciate you. When President Timpson mentioned this, I thought of how President Johnson appreciates this people, and that is to build them up, to increase them in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding, and in abiding and keeping the commandments of God. As with Joseph Smith, he desires only your eternal salvation, that you might have joy and rejoicing in your posterity in the day of the Lord Jesus. We all appreciate you, brothers and sisters. I appreciate President Johnson as my head, and pray God that he will live long upon the land to lead this people and this work. I ask the Spirit of God to be with me in the remarks that I shall make.

It has been going through my mind what I consider to be a wonderful sermon, the first part of Section 101, which is a sermon in itself. This is December 16, 1833, and the saints had been driven from Jackson County, the land of Zion, where they were sent to redeem and to build up unto the Most High God. And He gives us the reason that they were permitted to be driven.

D. & C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;

3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.

4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.

5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

Then, in His great compassion, the Lord says:

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

11. Mine indignation is soon to be poured out without measure upon all nations; and this will I do when the cup of their iniquity is full.

12. And in that day all who are found upon the watch-tower, or in other words, all mine Israel, shall be saved.

13. And they that have been scattered shall be gathered.

14. And all they who have mourned shall be comforted.

15. And all they who have given their lives for my name shall be crowned.

16. Therefore, let your hearts be comforted concerning Zion; for all flesh is in mine hands; be still and know that I am God.

17. Zion shall not be moved out of her place, notwithstanding her children are scattered.

18. They that remain, and are pure in heart, shall return, and come to their inheritances, they and their children, with songs of everlasting joy, to build up the waste places of Zion --

19. And all these things that the prophets might be fulfilled.

I consider these words, brethren and sisters, to be a grand lesson and an example to us, as giving us the reason that we are not making the progress that we should toward this great goal of being prepared to redeem Zion. That is our work and mission, brothers and sisters, when will we come to that place when God will indeed love and own us, and stop treating lightly the things that we have been given. Now regarding this great principle of chastisement, Joseph Smith gives us a wonderful lesson on page 194, if you would like it.

TPJS  Page 194

President Joseph arose and said: "Brother Kimball has given you a true explanation of the parable," and then read the parable of the vine and its branches, and explained it, and said, "If we keep the commandments of God, we should bring forth fruit and be the friends of God, and know what our Lord did.

"Some people say I am a fallen Prophet, because I do not bring forth more of the word of the Lord, Why do I not do it? Are we able to receive it? No! Not one in this room.

I wonder if that is what is wrong with us today.

He then chastened the congregation for their wickedness and unbelief, 'for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son and daughter whom he receiveth,' and if we do not receive chastisements then we are bastards and not sons."

That is pretty strong language.

On the subject of revelation, he said, a man would command his son to dig potatoes and saddle his horse, but before he had done either he would tell him to do something else. This is all considered right; but as soon as the Lord gives a commandment and revokes that decree and commands something else, then the Prophet is considered fallen. Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it.

I have often said that I can judge a man or a woman's character, and the degree of their humility, in their ability to take chastisement, to receive correction gracefully and humbly, and do better. A corrupt person is one who gets angry and will not endure it. Can we receive chastisement, brothers and sisters? The Lord knows we have to have it if we are going to grow and overcome. This is what we need, to overcome, brothers and sisters. Then he says:

The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us, is because we do not keep them but reveal them;

There is a chastisement.

...we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord?

To be worthy to be endowed, brothers and sisters, we have got to learn to keep secrets, because they are sacred and holy; and pearls should not be cast before swine. Here is something we need to know and understand and do something about now. Then he says:

I can keep a secret till Doomsday. What greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend; then why not fight for our friend until we die?

Going back to these reasons that the Lord permitted His people to be driven from Zion, I would like to get the exact words again.

D. & C. 101

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them;

These jarrings, contentions, strifes are the result of lustful and covetous desires; a result of our selfishness. That is why; that was at the bottom of it. They were sent there to abide the Holy United Order. The very spirit of that order is as we have it in Section 82, which I would like to read a few words from.

D. & C. 82

14. For Zion must increase in beauty, and in holiness; her borders must be enlarged; her stakes must be strengthened; yea, verily I say unto you, Zion must arise and put on her beautiful garments.

This is to us, brothers and sisters. This is what President Johnson and the brethren have been telling us all these years.

14. ...Zion must arise and put on her beautiful garments.

15. Therefore, I give unto you this commandment, that ye bind yourselves by this covenant, and it shall be done according to the laws of the Lord.

16. Behold, here is wisdom also in me for your good.

17. And you are to be equal, or in other words, you are to have equal claims on the properties, for the benefit of managing the concerns of your stewardships, every man according to his wants and his needs, inasmuch as his wants are just --

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

Or of the whole order, shall we say. Here is the touchstone:

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

May we take these lessons from these examples of history, brothers and sisters. I pray God we are not repeating them, these things that have been the cause of the saints being driven and chastened. We should be learning these lessons of history -- and I pray that we might -- that as families we may live in the spirit of the Holy United Order and in the Family Order of Heaven, that there be peace and love and kindness and all of the attributes of Holy Spirit, which we must obtain to have those attributes. If we have the Spirit of God, we have the attributes of God, for the Holy Spirit is the attributes of our Father -- His mind, His character. So let us love one another, our neighbors as ourselves, and our God first; and seek to build up the Kingdom of God and establish His order of Priesthood in the earth to the building up of Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:468 February 8, 1976 Sandy
We have heard some plain and precious and grand truths here today, brothers and sisters, which I deeply appreciate. And I hope and pray that it will redound to the good of this people, that they may understand the nature of the Priesthood which God has given us to carry on His work. I love this, my beloved Brother Guy and President Johnson. And we are not, my dear brothers and sisters, left without example in our brethren who preside over us; especially President Johnson, who, to me, is most Christlike.

When I first met Brother Guy when he came from California in August of 1941, my heart leaped with joy; for I recognized in him a close kinship and brotherhood from the other side, and I have felt that we labored together there. I have rejoiced evermore in being his co-laborer under President Johnson up until this time. And I know he desires, as I desire, to serve and love and build up this people under our head.

The thing we are preparing for, brothers and sisters, and we have been told it many times, is to be endowed and blessed with power from on high through the holy endowments. Jesus Christ, as He was about to ascend to His Father, and was leaving the Twelve, commanded them to tarry in Jerusalem that they might be endowed with power from on high to enable them to carry on the work that they were given to do; to preach the Gospel to every creature and to build up the Kingdom of God in that dispensation, with Peter, James, and John at the head. They did so, and there was poured out upon them that great Pentecostal power, the gift of the Holy Ghost, the power of the Holy Ghost, the Holy Ghost itself evidenced by tongues of flame and fire and a mighty rushing wind. Then they could know that Jesus was the Christ, and bear testimony of Him to the world.

We need this great power and blessing, brothers and sisters, more than anything else. The Spirit of God cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles or places. And I would like to close my remarks here today by reading a message of Brigham Young to the saints in 1853, April 13, as is recorded in the Millennial Star, volume 15 page 440.

Think not, O ye Elders of Israel! that your eternal heirship is won, and... immutably secured, because you have attained to a portion of the Holy Priesthood, and a few of its initiating ordinances, while as yet your life and the security of all your great and glorious blessings in hope and prospect, are as a vapour before the sun; as yet depending wholly on your meekness, faithfulness, and perseverance to the end, in everything good. Think not that you are legally entitled to even one wife, while you live on this earth, unless you are sealed up to everlasting lives, by the will and decree of the Eternal Father, and a knowledge of the fact has been communicated to you, through a proper source, and not direct to you, in person. And consider that the blessings you have hitherto received, through the mercies of Him who loveth you, even your Father in heaven, will all be wrested from you, like David's of old, should you err like him. And I would like to read one more item regarding Priesthood.

JD 1:134 Brigham Young April 6, 1853 SLC
I speak thus to show you the order of the Priesthood. We will now commence with the Apostleship, where Joseph commenced. Joseph was ordained an Apostle -- that you can read and understand. After he was ordained to this office, then he had the right to organize and build up the kingdom of God, for he had committed unto him the keys of the Priesthood, which is after the order of Melchisedec -- the High Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God. And this, remember, by being ordained an Apostle.

Could he have built up the Kingdom of God, without first being an Apostle? No, he never could. The keys of the eternal Priesthood, which is after the order of the Son of God, are comprehended by being an Apostle. All the Priesthood, all the keys, all the gifts, all the endowments, and everything preparatory to entering into the presence of the Father and of the Son, are in, composed of, circumscribed by, or I might say incorporated within the circumference of, the Apostleship.

JD 13:320 Wilford Woodruff September 5, 1869 SLC
Joseph (Smith) was ordained to the Apostleship under the hands of men holding the keys of the kingdom of God in the days of Jesus -- namely, Peter, James and John. The Lord afterwards
Following the appearance of John the Baptist,
...sent Peter, James and John, who held the keys of the kingdom in their day and generation upon the earth, and they ordained him an Apostle, and sealed upon his head every key, power and blessing, and all the authority which they exercised in their day.

Therefore, brothers and sisters, all that has been given to the Elders in this dispensation has grown out of Joseph Smith, this "Gigantic Apostle" of the Lord Jesus Christ. All authority, Priesthood, and offices and callings have grown out of this Priesthood that I have been reading about. Priesthood is God; God is Priesthood. And the power of the holy Priesthood, brothers and sisters, is the Holy Ghost, by which that Priesthood administers all things after the order of everlasting lives. God help us, my dear brothers and sisters, to honor it.

You Elders hold the Melchizedek Priesthood, and as family heads you should govern in righteousness, by the power of the Holy Ghost. Wives and children should honor it and follow it. Honor and sustain the Priesthood, brothers and sisters. The holy Priesthood after the order of the Son of God is that which leads us today, the keys and the power and authority of direction presiding in Leroy Sunderland Johnson. God help us, my dear brothers and sisters, to realize these things, and to honor and obey and choose to do these things because we love the truth. Follow the truth because we love it and desire to have it so; then we will become one.

The Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters, cannot be received by the people except through this Priesthood. Can you imagine opposing the Priesthood of God and being able to get the Spirit of God? It is impossible. That is the channel. Let us keep the channel clear and pure between us and our head, that we may receive light and revelation and direction, that we may indeed become perfect as God is perfect -- perfect in our sphere as God is in His -- that we may indeed become that prepared people out of the heart's core of the people that have been established in the tops of the mountains in this, the part of Zion; and that we may have a part in due time in redeeming Zion, in Jackson County, Missouri. May we have a part in the building, and to go forward in the great Millennium. This is our blessing that God has offered us. I pray that we may take hold through perfect obedience, through perfect faith, which follows obedience, that we may be one people, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

D.& C. 4; Oneness

I desire to be led of the Spirit to bear my testimony and say what Father would like to have me say. President Richard Jessop has been a source of great inspiration, a wonderful example of true faith and loyalty to God and His Priesthood. I think that we can all take his example and find favor in the sight of God in following it. And I say the same regarding my other brethren in this Council and order of the Priesthood. There are often times when men in this work have tried to come between these brethren, and they have been wasted away in trying to do so. There have been a good many men who knew Lorin back in the same early days that Brother Jessop knew him and John W. Woolley, who have gone by the wayside because they did not do as President Jessop has now described for us what he did. He has been in the way of truth and righteousness from that day until now. So I say, God bless him and his wonderful example.

D.& C. 4

1. Now behold a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.
2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;
4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

Brother Jessop has loved the Lord his God and God's servants and kept those first two great commandments. That is what God requires of us, and if we will do so we will never be led astray. So, the Lord tells us what are the qualifications.

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.
6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

These are the attributes of the Holy Spirit, which if we have, we will obtain. The only way that we can become one is to become like God. Through faith we will obtain, and overcome the world, which we must do, that our course of life is pleasing to God. Enoch had this testimony that he pleased God. Abel had this testimony that he pleased God, and so was able to bring forth much righteousness. So did Shem, and Noah, and Abraham, and Elijah, Moses, Peter, James, and John, and Joseph, the greatest of all, save Jesus Christ Himself. We have Joseph Smith in our day and time in this last dispensation, which he leads and heads under Jesus Christ, as our great example. He obtained the holy Priesthood and the keys thereof from Peter, James, and John, and had it sealed upon his head by the Lord, Jesus Christ, Himself, in due time. And so, brothers and sisters, we are asked to walk in these things by faith.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

There is a key verse in Lecture Seven that we should never forget.

Lecture Seven

16. These teachings of the Saviour most clearly show unto us the nature of salvation, and what he proposed unto the human family when he proposed to save them -- that he proposed to make them like unto himself, and he was like the Father, the great prototype of all saved beings; and for any portion of the human family to be assimilated into their likeness is to be saved;

And exalted, brothers and sisters. All will be saved from the grave. Even the sons of perdition will be redeemed from the grave; but what we are interested in is an exaltation in the Celestial Kingdom of our Father, that we might see Him and His Son, Jesus Christ. To be with Them we must be like Them.

16. ...and to be unlike them is to be destroyed;
Which is the second death.

16. ...and on this hinge turns the door of salvation.

So let us learn to become one, brothers and sisters, to get and keep the Spirit of God above all other things, that it may be a source of light, and truth, and joy, and rejoicing in the Family Order of Heaven. I want to read again for your edification the description of Lorenzo Snow of how a family ought to
The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually.

Then there will be no quarrel, no jarrings, no contentions, no strifes, or covetous desires; which are the things by which the saints polluted their inheritance in Zion in 1831 through 1833. These things ought not to be in our families or among this people.

They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element,

There is a beautiful description of oneness; both pure element, he and his wives.

...suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God,

Have sufficient families in this condition, brothers and sisters, and the Lord will have His people to redeem Zion, forming the Kingdom of God.

...that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children.

Which may God grant, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I am deeply grateful, brothers and sisters, to be with you here today, in association with my beloved brethren, Presidents Musser and Jessop. I desire that the Spirit of God will direct my remarks, that I may tell the truth likewise. The thing that has been weighing upon my mind is put in the words of Joseph Smith, page 216 of the Teachings. I see underlined here an item.

TPJS  Page 216

Our affections should be placed upon God and His work, more intensely than upon our fellow beings.

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death. Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men.

And note this, brothers and sisters:

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil.

Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people.

Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

Joseph tells us in another place, "There are three spirits, the spirit of man, the Spirit of God, and the spirit of the devil." Speaking of Latter-day Saints who have been baptized and had the gift of the Holy Ghost conferred upon them by the laying on of hands of the Priesthood, their spirits, when they chose to serve God and to keep His commandments, forever left neutral ground. From then on the spirit of man is actuated either by one or the other -- the Spirit of God or the spirit of the devil. If you have seen and felt the discernment of spirits, you will have to agree with this, brothers and sisters.

The scenes that President Hammon has depicted before us here today, are simply a manifestation of foul and false and delusive spirits that are allowed to enter into the heart of man. The Spirit of God is calm and serene. It is sweet and kind, and is the attributes of the living God. If we have that Spirit, then we are Godlike, and we can act in no other way. When we are possessed of foul and false spirits, spirits of the devil, tongue cannot tell what can be said and done.

I would like to offer a word of advice, which I know from experience. If you detect a foul and false spirit in your companion, brothers and sisters, let me tell you, you cannot answer them while you keep the Spirit of God. No way can you answer them. Shakespeare put it in another way: "Answer not a fool according to his own folly, lest thou also be like him." Let me promise you, if you try to answer them, you will get the same spirit in you, and then there is a "perfect hell of happiness", as the article in the Millennial Star tells it -- False and Delusive Spirits. I mean if you answer on the same plane that they are talking and acting.

So what do we have, brothers and sisters? I would just like to paint now the picture of the positive side of this matter, which I think is something that we all need to take to heart if we are going to become one people. The things Brother Hammon was speaking about in the family were evident in the homes of the saints in Zion. The jarrings, the contentions, the strifes, the covetous desires, and lustful desires of the people are what caused them to lose their inheritance, and those are the things that cause the loss of the Spirit of God in the family. What is true of a community is true of a family, because a community is composed of many families.

But we have here, brothers and sisters, in Section 121, how men ought to conduct themselves as bearing the holy Priesthood, which we should never forget.

D.& C. 121

35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --

36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.

Brethren, you must exercise your Priesthood on the principles of righteousness, by the power of the Holy Ghost, for that is the power of the Priesthood if it is exercised in righteousness. You lose the Spirit of God, and your Priesthood is not worth anything in the exercise thereof. It must be exercised and controlled upon the principles of righteousness.

37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride,
Think of these things that go through our minds, and through our experiences.

37. ...to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.

What I said before this is said more perfectly here in the word of the Lord.

38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.

That is why those families have gone out.

39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.

Few are chosen.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

True love, the pure love of Christ; that is charity.

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

I have heard reproofs by the Holy Ghost, brethren and sisters, but it was not by virtue of a fit of temper -- quite the opposite. In that case they lose the Spirit of God, and a foul spirit enters in and takes possession; but when reproved by the Holy Ghost, you know you are reproved, and it will lead to repentance, and not cause one to fight back and to both lose the Spirit of God. So there are times when it is necessary to reprove with sharpness when moved upon by the Holy Ghost, and that will be by a calm and serene voice; firm, but calm and serene. I suppose when Christ drove the money-changers from the temple it was about as great a rebuke as anyone could have gotten; and He took a whip. But He was actuated by the Spirit of God. And here is a beautiful thing about reproof and chastisement, brothers and sisters, if we would only follow it in our families, in dealing with one another between husbands and wives, and parents with children. After that reproof,

43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy; There can be no enmity come between if it is done in this way. What a beautiful thing, after a chastisement, to put your arm around a child, or a wife, and let him or her know that you love them and you did it because you love them. And why?

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death. Faithful and true.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Now let me draw unto you the picture of what a family should be, not what it should not be. These are the words of Apostle Lorenzo Snow, and if you want the reference it is Journal of Discourses Volume 4, page 154. You ought to have it typed and on your walls.

JD 4:155  Lorenzo Snow January 4, 1857  SLC

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, Filled with the Holy Ghost, brethren.

...to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified,
This is a process of sanctification we are talking about, brothers and sisters.
...that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element, Pure element, one together. That is being filled with the Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters. That is the pure element that binds them together forever and ever, and to their increase there shall be no end.
...in order that the man and the wife may be pure element, suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children.
Which I pray we may all do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

How to Live in the Family Order of Heaven, and Make Your Home a Temple

I read you a fine sermon by Brigham Young last time. (See J.D. 1:117) But in it there is something I want to go over again and emphasize and enlarge upon if the Lord will help me do so.

JD 1:117  Brigham Young  September 24, 1853  SLC

The Lord operates upon the principles of continuing to organize, of adding to, gathering up, bringing forth, increasing and spreading abroad; while the opposite power, Of the devil,
...does not. It shows the nature of his opposition to that peculiar trait of Christianity, based upon the principles of eternal duration, increase, power, glory, and exaltation; and points out the difference between the two adverse powers.

Again, what do you love truth for? Is it because you can discover a beauty in it, because it is congenial to you; or because you think it will make you a ruler, or a Lord? If you conceive that you will attain to power upon such a motive, you are much mistaken. It is a trick of the unseen power, that is abroad amongst the inhabitants of the earth, that leads them astray, binds their minds, and subverts their understanding."

It is the work of the devil to destroy because he could not obtain a body. It is his purpose and work to destroy those who obtain bodies. He is given power and dominion in the earth -- cast down for that purpose -- and the sons and daughters of God are sent forth to prove to the Lord that they can overcome him: death, hell and the devil. We came here to learn the difference between good and evil -- to know of good and evil -- that we might choose the good and become like God and go back to Him with a glorified, perfected, and justified body.

Suppose that our Father in heaven, our elder brother, the risen Redeemer, the Saviour of the world, or any of the Gods of eternity should act upon this principle, to love truth, knowledge, and wisdom, because they are all powerful, and by the aid of this power they could send devils to hell, torment the people of the earth, exercise sovereignty over them and make them miserable at their pleasure; they would cease to be Gods; If it was just power they were after for their own aggrandizement and satisfaction;

...and as fast as they adopted and acted upon such principles, they would become devils, and be thrust down in the twinkling of an eye; the extension of their kingdom would cease, and their God-head come to an end.

Language, to convey all the truth, does not exist. Even in the Bible, and all books that have been revealed from heaven unto man, the language fails to convey all the truth as it is. Truth, wisdom, power, glory, light, and intelligence exist upon their own qualities; they do not, neither can they, exist upon any other principle. Truth is congenial with itself, and light cleaves unto light, it seeks after itself, and clings thereto. It is the same with knowledge, and virtue, and all the eternal attributes Of God;

...they follow after and attract each other.

This is the principle of affinity and attraction; light cleaves to light, truth to truth, and seeks after their own. So when the truth is given us, if we have a true and godly love for truth, then we love it for its own sake. And a little more on it:

Mercy cleaves to mercy, because it is mercy; light to light, because it is light, and there is no darkness, no deception, no falsehood in it. Truth cleaves unto truth, because it is truth; and it is to be adored, Why?

Because it is an attribute of God, for its excellence, for itself. It is upon this principle, that these principles should be held, esteemed, and practised. Any persons, men or women, who do not receive these principles for the love which they bear towards them, because of their beauty, excellence, and glory; and because they are congenial to their feelings upon this principle, are not Saints! They exist upon their own basis, and rest upon their own foundation. Eternal justice, mercy, love, and truth, never can be moved; they are attributes that correspond, and are congenial with each other; they promote each other, fortify the heavens, the Gods, and that which the Gods possess.

You all understand from long, long teaching that the Holy Spirit is the attributes of God. To have it, to have it sufficiently is to lay hold upon the attributes of God, and they become a part of us. When the devil takes hold we invite them in, the Spirit of God leaves, and we had experience as to just what happens when that comes. So we are operated upon by one spirit or the other. There is the spirit of man which is operated upon by the Spirit of God or the spirit of the devil -- as I say, because we have been given the gift of the Holy Ghost to be our constant companion. Now then, can we see how, when we have this Spirit, this Holy Spirit, this Holy Essence which constitutes the mind of the Father and the Son, resting upon us and in us continually, why we will have the attributes of God; and why we will then love the truth, love God Himself above all else because they are the attributes of God? "If this Spirit be in you," says Jesus, "then ye are full of truth and light." He said, "I am the Light and the Truth." Why? Because he had this Holy Spirit and was one with the Father, the same character and attributes were His, and they loved each other beyond all words to express.

This is true love, the pure love of Christ. As those attributes exist in us, that much we love one another, or should. This is how Jesus became one with His Father, because He loved His attributes and He obtained them for Himself. So if brethren bearing the holy Priesthood will have the power of that Priesthood, the Holy Ghost, with them, can we not see how they would love one another -- this godly love, this pure love of Christ. Now, they must love one another above all as they love God, because they have His attributes.

I think I will go a little further in this in Section 93. Again I say language fails -- this poor, poor language we have. Jesus obtained a fullness of the Holy Spirit, it said, not at the first, but grace for grace; He obtained it gradually until He obtained a fullness of it. That Holy Spirit dwelt with Him continually and was in Him and a part of Him. And the Lord tells Joseph here,

D.& C. 93

19. I give unto you these sayings that you may understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship, that you may come unto the Father in my name, and in due time receive of his fullness.

What we worship is the perfection of the attributes of God as they exist in Him. And where we find those attributes in a man, we are fully justified in loving those attributes in that man. This is what we worship: the attributes of God. To worship is to love; that's another word for it.

Now we should love the principle of Priesthood because the power of the Priesthood is the Holy Spirit and is that authority that God places in men for Him to carry out His work through. We are delegated by God, we are given authority by Him to act in His name and for Him if we have His Spirit to do it by; and that is what gives it power and authority, is the Holy Spirit.

To worship, then, is to love, and we worship and love God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength and our neighbor as ourself; and we will love our neighbor most, that neighbor who most has the attributes of Deity in him or in her. All through this we are loving God, aren't we? If we love one another we love God. And as John put it,

John 4

20. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

Here is where we put into practice these heavenly eternal verities and truths and principles, is through God's servants, His Priesthood.
Now then, the thing that I think all of us should be looking into for ourselves -- look inside -- are you rendering obedience or not rendering obedience because you love the truth or don't love the truth? Or are we walking and living in protest and doing, say possibly, willingly because we have to? Brigham Young talked to the saints and said, "You came out here in the West willingly, but mostly because you had to," not because they love to. To render grudging obedience to commandments or render obedience under a spirit of protest is no obedience at all in the sight of God. That obedience which he loves and requires and is acceptable to Him is that which is done out of the love of the truth involved; that is true obedience. The other is luke warm and is actually unacceptable to the Father. You see, the Lord calls upon us to love Him with all our heart, all our mind, all our strength, and all our love, it may be added.

Now, it is true that we learn obedience by the things we suffer, and at the first maybe we obey because someone else has done it. It may be asked of children, grown children of their fathers, "Did you come along in this work only because your father did or did you come because you loved it?" So many people in this work are -- young people now I am speaking of -- are going along because they were born to it and are doing it because father and mother did. It was the thing to do, just the thing to do. But what the Lord loves and wants, and those who come to Him truly with full purpose of heart, are these:

D.& C. 64

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

34. But, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

So if God or the Priesthood, His Priesthood, has the heart of a man who loves the truth and does it anxiously and willingly, craving for it, if you might say, to render obedience to the truth, and is therefore grateful, ever grateful and acknowledging the hand of God in it, it is this love for truth that moves men to great deeds and great examples of faith and mighty works that are performed by the faithful. One of the great examples of men in this dispensation next to Joseph Smith, who did the things that I have been trying to describe here most effectively, was John Taylor. He recognized the truth when he found it and dedicated his whole being and life to it from that moment on. And that is what is required to really go forward in the work of God.

We enter into and obey the law of Celestial Marriage because we love the principle. I am getting down to what we are trying to do now. This is the Celestial Law, the family order of heaven -- the Celestial Law. Are you in it because you love it, because it is a Celestial Law and family order of our Father in Heaven? If you don't, you cannot abide it acceptably before God. Many people enter into and act in this law under a spirit of protest. We see it all around us, and it just creates a perfect hell of happiness in those families. In living and in abiding the Celestial Law we must have the Spirit of God or we cannot abide it; it is impossible. And a good many just go through motions, just motions and think they are abiding the law.

So if God has our heart, He has everything from us -- our heart and our mind filled with the Holy Spirit -- all things will come that he requires, and perfect obedience will be given. So many of our people are just fanning the air. If you love this principle, this Celestial Law, you must love one another -- sister wives, sons, and daughters. And you must especially love your head. I want your love only on the basis that I have the truth and I can administer it to you, and no physical reason is involved in it -- true love now.

What I am really talking about now is that the spirit, our spirit -- that which was born of our Father and Mother in Heaven and placed here in this body, this eternal creation of our Father that is in us -- must have the ascendancy over the physical body. Our great work in coming into this earth is to sanctify and purify that body that it might rise to a Celestial resurrection, to the honor and glory of God. That is why we are here, no other reason. The work and glory of our Father is to bring to pass the immortality and eternal life of His children. To Him all things are spiritual, and we can make our physical beings spiritual by being filled with the Holy Ghost. That is the only way it can be sanctified.

When we have that Holy Spirit we can do no wrong, we can do no wrong. So if we will always keep in mind that the spirit in us, which is actuated by the Holy Spirit of God, must have the ascendancy over this physical body which was born of this earth -- it came out of the earth where Satan was given dominion, and we have to overcome him and his power and influence -- and perfect these bodies to present them to Father pure and holy. Thus, we will be able to sanctify and make holy this house and this ground upon which we dwell -- a temple.

In order to have this as a temple we must follow some other conditions. The spirit of love and worship must be here. Speaking of the Sabbath day:

D. & C. 59

10. Verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High;

11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;

12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord.

13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.

There is joy and rejoicing in these things.

14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.

15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances,

We don't go around with long faces all the time. When there is joy and rejoicing in us, there are smiles. There is serenity, and it is quiet and calm.

15. ...not with much laughter, for this is sin,

Mark that. Much laughter is sin.

15. ...but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --

Some cannot talk without loud laughter, it seems. And some will talk, and talk, and talk, and talk, and dominate the conversation and the affairs that are going on with their talk, which is loud and with much laughter. Some people can't tell a story without first laughing before they even start. And this loud laughter is obnoxious to me. You know, you can laugh without making a noise. Have you ever tried it? It is possible. I see President Johnson do it all the time, but it is very low noise if there is any.

I don't see any harm in a hearty laugh, if it is done quietly and not loudly. We can sometimes laugh till we cry; can't we? We must maintain an atmosphere of greater quiet in this place. Children are too loud-mouthed and they can be trained not to be. Some children just shout their fool heads off when ever they have anything to say. And it is because they have been trained that way. Especially when we are in here for prayer, to have these children running up and down and screaming at the top of their voices, in preparation for prayer mind you -- it injures my feelings to no end, let me tell you, and we have got to take strong measures to overcome it.

Now, I don't say that children have to be suppressed continually. There is a place and a time for their prayer and their games and their affairs. But we must have and we must lay hold here upon this spirit of calmness and sereneness, and it has to be continual. By the things that I have described, we desecrate this house, believe me. If it is a temple, it has got to be treated like one and acted in one like it is a temple. And we just forget ourselves.

In our Councils -- I don't mind telling you -- a very funny story can be told, very funny. But you should see those brethren how quiet they laugh. I am sure the Lord Jesus Christ had a very fine and refined sense of humor. And it seems we must have it to get through all the idiosyncracies of life; and humor is a part of life, and we need it betimes. But loud laughter spoken in other places by the Lord, is not a part of it.

I often wonder if you folks really want to live in a temple, if it is too confining. But if you have the Spirit of God and are rejoicing continually and have cheerful countenances, you can still be treating this place as a temple. Section 88, which is a revelation called the "Olive Leaf" to the brethren of the school of the prophets:

D.& C. 88

67. And if your eye be single to my glory, your whole bodies shall be filled with light, and there shall be no darkness in you; and that body which is filled with light comprehendeth all things.

"Light" spoken of here is the Holy Spirit.

68. Therefore, sanctify yourselves that your minds become single to God, and the days will come that you shall see him; for he will unveil his face unto you, and it shall be in his own time, and in his own way, and according to his own will.

69. Remember, the great and last promise which I have made unto you; cast away your idle thoughts and your excess of laughter far from you.
This dissertation on laughter is no small thing. It is a serious business. Again in the same revelation:

119. Organize yourselves, This is the school of the prophets --

119. ...prepare every needful thing; and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God;

That will be a temple.

120. That yourcomings may be in the name of the Lord; that your outgoings may be in the name of the Lord; that all your salutations may be in the name of the Lord, with uplifted hands unto the Most High.

121. Therefore, cease from all your light speeches, from all laughter, from all your lustful desires, from all your pride and light-mindedness, and from all your wicked doings.

123. See that ye love one another; cease to be covetous, Selfish,

123. ...learn to impart one another as the gospel requires;

The Holy United Order.

124. Cease to be idle; cease to be unclean; cease to find fault one with another; cease to sleep longer than is needful; retire to thy bed early, that ye may not be weary; arise early, that your bodies and your minds may be invigorated.

125. And above all things, clothe yourselves with the bond of charity, as with a mantle, which is the bond of perfectness and peace.

Peace, serenity. It is a wonderful condition to be, in a serene condition, actuated only by the Holy Spirit.

126. Pray always, that ye may not faint, until I come. Behold, and lo, I will come quickly, and receive you unto myself. Amen.

The spirit of peace and calm is the Spirit of God, President Johnson keeps telling us. And that is why, since the Lord didn't get it in the building of Zion, they were permitted to be driven out. That is why the Lord said, "There were jarrings, and contentions, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires, and by these things ye polluted your inheritance." We cannot have those things and have a temple. We cannot have a temple here with those kind of things going on. And it is simply and purely a matter of getting and keeping the Spirit of God. With that, you cannot do these things that cause us to pollute our inheritance.

Now, I wonder if we want to be really serious about having a place here that our Priesthood fathers and the Lord Jesus Christ could come to. Or do we just pass that off as something that is way down in the ethereal future? It is here and now that we must do this because the time is getting awful short. We can't keep on excusing ourselves. Not tomorrow. Today. There is no tomorrow, only today. Yesterday is gone and forgotten, it is done; we can't change it. We can only improve on it today, and that has to be done today.

So we have got to learn the true love, true love. If you love me, you must love those I love and are a part of me. All of these children are my children, and you mothers should love each and every one equal without favor; because they are mine. And if you love me, you will love them equally; and I want you children to hear it. You must learn to love, my dear children, these mothers one equal with the other and honor and respect them and obey them when you have work to do under them, under assignments.

And if you haven't had the message yet, I want you all to call each mother: Mother Kay, Mother LaRue, Mother Ruth, Mother Norma, Mother Merilyn, Mother Sharon, Mother Elba, Mother Gloria. They are all your mothers, and all should have an equal interest in you and in one another. This is where all this business that I have been talking about begins -- right here in the family, living the true family order of heaven. And I want you to abide it because you love it, the principle involved, because it is a principle of heaven, the family order of heaven of our Father.

For the sake of those who are here, getting down to specifics now; when you children have assignments to do, you know who has charge of the work in that area, don't you? You know which mothers are in charge of cooking in the kitchen, and our mealtimes, you have your work. I want you to be, you children who have assignments, to be obedient to them. The same with the laundry and the same with the house work here. Some of you actually disobey and just walk right out when you are asked to do something. You have your assignments, don't you?

I want you children to listen real careful now, you who just came in. We have been talking here to this class, and I want to talk to you about our mothers. We won't be calling the mothers "aunt" anymore, like Aunt Sharon or Aunt Norma. They are all your mothers. So you will call them Mother Norma or Mother Sharon or Mother LaRue and so on. Do you understand this? These mothers have certain work, certain jobs to do; either in cooking in the kitchen or meals, they have work to do and we call upon you young people to help. Others have teaching to do and they need help. Others have the house work to take care of, be responsible for. They need help. We have laundry to do and there is help needed there. So whoever is in charge of that work has the responsibility to direct you children in what you should do.

I want you to be equally obedient to them as you would to me. If you have an assignment, I don't want you walking out on it and being disobedient and defiant. You will be just as respectful and helpful to each and every one of these mothers as you are to your own. Do you hear me? This is the only way we are going to abide the Celestial Law, this family order that we are in. It is for you children to be obedient to your mothers and to your father and the mothers to their husband and head, walking in perfect obedience.

Do you know what Father Adam said to Mother Eve in the beginning, and to Father Adam, what God said to them? After they had partaken of the forbidden fruit and were required to go forth now in multiplying and replenishing the earth, bringing His children, His spirit children to the earth; Father in Heaven said to Adam that he was to till the earth, to multiply and replenish it, and by the sweat of his brow should he eat bread. He had to learn to work and he did. Then He said to Eve, "In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children," meaning simply that she would have to suffer in bringing forth her children, "and thy desire shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over thee." Those were the first commandments given by our Father in Heaven to this son Adam and daughter Eve. Jehovah was speaking.

So the law of obedience is upon us. We are here to obey the laws of heaven, the laws of the holy Priesthood, and they become the laws of heaven to us, because Priesthood is God, and God is Priesthood. It all centers in that. These mothers act under the Priesthood of your father. They share in its blessings and powers and authority as far as you are concerned. So when she asks you to do something, you must remember, she is telling you to do that by the authority of the Priesthood of her husband and your father. If you will think Priesthood in everything you do and say, you will get along much, much better, and you will learn to love and honor God because of His Priesthood. And we are all trying to become like God.

The first great law of heaven, be it remembered now children, the first law of heaven is obedience. Did you know that? We obey the law because we love it; obey the law because we love this law. You see what I mean? Okay. I want you all to be very obedient when you have assignments; and remember, these mothers are all a part of father. You are all a part of me and all I want for you is your eternal joy and happiness, for you to grow and increase and to become like Father in Heaven. As I become like God, I want you to become like me. In fact, I expect you to do and be better than I. By being better, I mean obey more, be more obedient, and become more like God. I think that's a good thing to expect from everyone, every man's family.

We must root out of this family all vestiges of the spirit of monogamy: one wife and one man, and all of the selfishness and covetousness that goes with it. That is the very essence of that law of monogamy. You analyze it and you will find that is the truth. Only by the Celestial Law of heaven, the holy order, the family order of heaven can we truly attain to the attributes of God and overcome the devil and hell and ultimately death. Overcome -- that is our great work. Overcome this devil that is in the earth and all of his minions, these false and foul and delusive spirits. They are all around us, they surround the place, but we must keep them out of this house and out of this land on which we dwell.

We want you children to do your part in making this a temple, a place for our Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior, to come and visit us. O how He loved children, how He loves children. And we must all be as children -- obedient, and innocent, and loving, and kind as Jesus was and is.

I think that is all I have to say today, except to invoke the blessings of God upon us, and that we will have His Spirit continually; never be without it from this moment forward today. Just one more thing comes to mind, and that is this confounded television. It has got to be monitored or done away with entirely. Do you know, you young people can monitor this thing yourselves if you have the Spirit of God with you. You wouldn't sit down there and watch some of the filth and rot that is put on that thing if you have the Spirit of God. You would turn it off and walk away from it and you can be your own monitors. You know what is good and what is bad in that stuff.

There is very little good, because all of the stories, all of the adds, all of the things they depict on there are Gentile and of the world. They don't know God or Godliness. There are some good stories that are depicted, yes; but to just sit there indiscriminately, and watch everything that comes over the air, it isn't good for us, folks. When we have work to do our work comes first; play after our work. That is why I nearly always ask, "Is your work done?" when you come and ask about play. And always observe this. But I can't always be here and monitor that television. I want you to be of such a mind and a spirit that you wouldn't sit and listen and watch all that filth that goes on.

It is doing something to you, just as sure as you are sitting there. It is influencing you and your spirit; there is subliminal advertising that goes on there that you can't even see that is affecting your spirit. And mostly it is immoral filthy rot that comes over. Practically all the advertising that is done is oriented to sex and the body; the physical -- that is what it is oriented to. If you are going to overcome, you are going to have to overcome that silly stuff, filthy stuff.

It may be that we will have to do away with it entirely, if we are too weak to handle it properly. So I am going to leave it to you a while here and see what you do with it. Your work first, then your play. Television is play, that's all. There is some good recreation on it, but very little.

But we should be anxiously engaged in doing good, helping one another, taking care of our work, being faithful to the job that we have been given to do. To be faithful is to do it well, isn't it? To be obedient. One principle that Joseph always taught was this: "I teach the people correct principles and they govern themselves," they govern themselves on these principles. That is a pure and a holy people that God can use, when He has a people who will follow His servants, His prophets, His Priesthood. And there is no force necessary in such a society. No punishments are necessary in such a society. We'll sing that '144 A' now. I sure love that song.
the Spirit of God will actuate my remarks here today, that His word and will may be given, and that we all may be edified and be able to rejoice under the influence of this glorious power. The Spirit of God, brothers and sisters, is the key to our salvation, and it is the greatest need of this people, that we obtain it. We have been given the gift of it by the laying on of hands of the Priesthood, that it might be our constant guide and companion through life and aid us in complying with all of the laws and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the plan of salvation.

I often think of the incident of Brigham Young receiving a dream while at Winter Quarters on the way to the West, to the mountains of the Lord's house. In this dream, he saw Joseph Smith. Brigham asked him why it was not so that they could be together more often. Joseph answered in his kindly way, and he asked him then what should he do to instruct the saints, to help the saints in their onward course; and Joseph said, "Tell the people to get the Spirit of God. Without it they cannot go on." He repeated that admonition three or four times in the course of the events of that dream, and this has been the message of the Prophets ever since. I will never forget the occasion when President John Y. Barlow showed that he had received a revelation to that effect, and this from one of the Priesthood fathers.

Now, brothers and sisters, we should be in such a condition that we would be most miserable without the Spirit of God, and I think we are. Joseph said that there is the Spirit of God, the spirit of man, and the spirit of the devil. These three spirits do exist. The saints have received the gift of the Holy Ghost by the authority of the holy Priesthood; and has been so often said, we leave neutral ground, having made our choice to accept the Gospel and render obedience to its laws and precepts. What we are here for, brothers and sisters, is to fulfill the great desire of our Father in heaven: to bring to pass the eternal life of His children, and to make them like Himself, as many as would.

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death. Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men. If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people. Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

This is something that we should keep before us continually.

A man is saved no faster than he gets knowledge, for if he does not get knowledge, he will be brought into captivity by some evil power in the other world, as evil spirits will have more knowledge, and consequently more power than many men who are on the earth. Hence it needs revelation to assist us, and give us knowledge of the things of God.

So, brothers and sisters, once having left neutral ground, we are actuated by the Spirit of God or the spirit of the devil. We are drawing one way or the other. We cannot be neutral; we cannot stand still. As Brigham Young put it very bluntly, so to speak, "We are going on to life or to death, one way or the other." The ultimate result of going down is the dissolution of the body and of the spirit, or the second death, ultimately, after our resurrection and having reached our zenith. It is a wonderful thing to assess our condition, brothers and sisters, to determine which way we are going.

What is lacking, then, is the Spirit of God, which we must lay hold of by the power of faith. Faith is the touchstone. The means by which we obtain that ultimate goal of becoming like God is through the glorious power of faith. We know who God is, we know what His character and attributes are, and then He has given us the gift of the Holy Ghost that we might become like Him. The Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son. To lay hold upon this, then, is to become like Him. It is just that simple.

Now, brothers and sisters, we are often beset in our course of life by false and delusive spirits, and these things must be done away. The Lord told Joseph Smith the Prophet in Section 101 that the reason the saints were permitted to be driven from their land of their inheritance was because of jarrings, contentions, strife, and selfish and covetous desires, lustful and covetous desires; and these are the things that are enough to disturb a nation. Certainly they disturb our families, and these are the things that must be overcome.
I thought it well to read "False Spirits", an item that was published in the Millennial Star, and I believe also in the Deseret News. It is in Truth, volume 16 page 106, which you should refer to. I think it carries its own message and something that should enable us to be very careful what spirit we have, what we cultivate.

False and Delusive Spirits  (Truth 16:106)

False spirits are more subtle, and more contagious than the small pox; their number and diversity of operations cannot be counted by man; and the first moment the Saints leave the path of duty, that moment they are subject to the influence of evil, false spirits, which once having taken possession of the soul, are difficult if not impossible to be removed, by the person so receiving them, without assistance from those who have more wisdom. The great object of evil spirits is to get bodies, and the only chance they have is to dispossess a soul of the spirit of the Lord, the light of eternal truth, and take possession of that body thus dispossessed; and when thus once in possession, it may truly be said there is a body possessed of the devil.

Jesus, and his disciples in different ages, have commanded the unclean and wicked spirits to depart out of those of whom they have taken possession, and they have departed; but there are those spirits which are not easily dispossessed, and go out only by prayer and fasting. And again, there are those spirits that will hardly go out at any price, except it is by the will of those who harbor them. And of what class are they? They are invited spirits. Invited spirits? yes; many spirits watch their opportunity to thrust themselves into a person when and where they are not wanted, and such are much more easily cast out than those who are invited guests.

For instance, a person for some real or supposed injury or neglect from a friend,
Or a husband, or a wife,
...wishes to retaliate, to be revenged, and of course opens the way, and invites the spirit of jealousy to take possession; and the moment jealousy enters the breast, there is a perfect hell of happiness. No scheme that hell itself can devise to torment, perplex, harass, disturb, vex, or mar the peace of friend, wife, or husband, is left untouched or unmoved; and by that time the breast of the harborer is open to all the evil spirits of Pandemonium -- all have free access, and oh, what a world of glory dwells there!
And how shall that jealous spirit be removed? By the laying on of hands? The Lord deliver us from such an ordinance in such a case. Why? That spirit was invited to take up its abode there, and while that spirit is made welcome by that person, what right have we to dispossess it? It would be abridging the agency of the individual who invited the spirit, for anyone to cause that spirit to depart, without the person's leave; and we choose that all should exercise their own agency and responsibility, and then they are subjects of accountability.

Other spirits, not particularly invited or desired, gain an easy access to those who are careless, heedless, and but too indifferent to the statutes, ordinances, and duties of God's kingdom; who neglect their prayers, their assembling together, and doing as they would be done unto; and from these spirits arise contention, strife, evil thinking, evil speaking, evil surmising, detraction, revenge, law suits, and a host of such perplexing annoyances, sufficient to disturb a nation; but the man who is obedient to his God in all things -- who knows no will of his own, only to do the will of his Father in the heavens, is free from these spirits;

That is simple, isn't it?

...the devil has no power over him, for he resists him, and evil spirits are compelled to flee at his rebuke.

Some may ask, "How shall I know when I am operated upon by a false spirit?" There are many keys by which the door of knowledge is unlocked to the Saints, in relation to spirits, as well as other things pertaining to the kingdom; but one may suffice at the present time, for we have not designed this brief notice to cover all or any considerable portion of the ground which the subject includes.

The spirit of heaven

The Spirit of God.

...is a spirit of peace, joy, comfort, consolation, and knowledge to its possessor; and all Saints who have enjoyed this spirit, (and all Saints have more or less), may know, when this peaceful spirit dwelling within them is disturbed, that something is wrong, that some false spirit is lurking within or about them, striving to enter, and if they will resist the first impulse of their disturbed feelings, and command Satan, in the name of Jesus to depart, peace will instantly be restored to their souls.

It is possible, dear sisters, for you to command them to depart in the name of Jesus Christ; and they are detected by the Priesthood.

> It is not the wrongdoings of others that destroy that peace within ourselves which the world can neither give nor take away; it is our own wrongs which cause that peaceful spirit to leave us; You cannot blame it on someone else.

> ...and would to God that this truth were indelibly imprinted on the heart and recollection of every Saint. It is your own wrongs or evil spirits that destroy your peace, and not the wrongs of your friend or neighbor. Know ye, all ye Saints, if the peace of heaven and a foretaste of the blessings of the celestial world are not continually with you, there is something wrong within, some foul spirit has got possession of yourself, and the quicker you dispossess it the better.

By fasting and prayer, it said earlier.

> Carry out this principle, and what will be the result? Every Saint will live by his creed, and "mind his own business." Every dear wife will look with a zealous eye

Not jealous.

> ...towards the happiness and welfare of her dear husband, and if she is tempted to think he is doing wrong, she will say, Get thee behind me, Satan, that is none of my business. I will do right, that is enough for me, and I shall have peace in my soul. And so continue to do, till he has done so wrong that forbearance is no longer a virtue, then give him a divorce and do better if you can;

Divorces, by the way, are pretty hard to get in this business.

> ...but while you live with him, live in peace, and keep jealousy out of doors; if you don't you will always have hell within, and devils enough to carry it on. The moment you are jealous that your husband is wrong, that moment you are miserable; that misery is proof positive that you yourself are wrong, for it destroys your peace.

Jealous husbands are quite as bad, and a little less excusable, (if there can be any excuse) than jealous wives. Husbands, if your wives do wrong, teach them better, if they are willing to be taught, and if they are not, keep out of their way till they are willing and no quarrelling betwixt you. You need not fret your soul because your dear wife does wrong. Don't let the devil destroy your peace, and cause the Holy Ghost to depart from you, because your wife has given away to a bad spirit. Show yourself a man of God, be at peace with yourself, pray for her, and when she has been buffeted by the devil long enough she will get tired of him, leave him, and return to you.

Some husbands are so mighty big because they are the head, that the wife has no room in the house; if she thinks, she thinks wrong; if she speaks, she speaks wrong; if she acts, she acts wrong; she can't do a right thing for the life of her; and do what she will, no matter, she is likely to get a cuffed ear as anything else, and a little more so. And if she should ask forgiveness, she would meet with the consoling retort from her dear lord, "Yes, and you will do the same thing again next minute."

Is this all familiar?

Why all this? Because the dear husband, the great lord of the house, He is supposed to be, you know, brothers and sisters, but a righteous one. ...has got so many devils in him, they make him so big there is not room for anybody else in that house.

The things of which we speak are but too common among the nations of Christendom; and too much of them have been brought together among the Saints; but it is time for Saints to stop such things. Husbands, love and cherish your wives, as you ought; give them their place, their rights, their dominion, that they may act upon their agency, as you do on yours; and quit your fretting, and snarling, and quarrelling with them, if you ever did it. What! a man quarrel with himself? Yes, just as well as quarrel with his wife -- 'tis all the same.

If they be doing right, she is a part of him. Will you quarrel with yourself? We have the great gifts of the Spirit of God and of the holy Priesthood, dear brothers and sisters. We should use them to our eternal exaltation and blessing. I pray that we may become one as families, that we may have a community of families who are one with the holy Priesthood, and that we may become a prepared people. We must get rid of these things that the Lord said caused the saints to pollute their inheritances in Zion. We must become as a Zion's Camp, following our great Head, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will lead us to Zion; and under the immediate direction of His Prophet. The way that the saints were to go and redeem Zion in 1834 was that that camp was to follow, without murmuring, every direction that should be given them by their head, Joseph Smith the Prophet. They had hardly got out of the town until there was murmuring and contention. This contention, these jarrings, these evil surmisings, this backbiting, and every such thing must be done away in our families and among us as a people, as we consider one another and the things that the brethren have been giving us as instructions from the Lord. God help us, I pray, that we may become one, as one people, to be used by the Lord in good time to redeem Zion, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:504  April 4, 1976  CCA Conference

Conference
Colorado City, Arizona
April 4, 1976
Obedience; Led as by a Hair;
Perfect Confidence in the Prophet

I, with you, my dear brothers and sisters, have been greatly edified by the Spirit of God that has attended the conference thus far, and I feel to rejoice in the truths that have been given us, and pray that we may abide the same. It is no use to speak the words of truth, of God, if we do not do something about it and applying them to our lives, for that is the purpose of the messages that have been given. I pray for the Spirit of God to be with me in continuation of the same.

The first law of heaven goes through my mind, which I feel to speak upon with the help of the Lord here today. The first law of heaven is obedience. Jesus said, "The first and greatest commandment, or law, is that we love our Father in heaven with all our heart, might, mind, and strength." These two are the same, brothers and sisters. Jesus said, "If you love Me, obey My commandments." That Being whom we love, we list to obey, and so it is indeed part and parcel of the first and great commandment and law of God, both in heaven and in earth.

If we love God, we love His Priesthood, because He is Priesthood. In fact, the holy Priesthood is God with us, if we understand Priesthood. It has been said, and truthfully, that -- and I am sure if you will trace the history, you will find it is true -- that man who apostatizes from this work, the work of the Priesthood, the work of God, has done so because he did not understand Priesthood. So we have, by the mercy and blessing of God, delegated to His chosen servants, and particularly I mention the keyholder, the keys of the holy Priesthood, from which we obtain the blessings of salvation. Therefore, it is necessary, if we take it to its correct and ultimate conclusion, that we obey Priesthood, which is the same as obeying God.

Some men who do not understand seem to feel that obedience is giving up our free agency. On the contrary; to enjoy our free agency, we must obey God. Disobedience to the law will bring about an abridgement of our agency, brethren and sisters, and I would like to bring to our attention some details regarding this point and enable us to understand a little better about obedience to Priesthood.

The Latter-day Saints have not been gathered from the different nations of the earth, and brought together in these mountains to worship man, nor to serve man, to be their slaves, nor to be obedient unto man, and if anybody has such an idea or intention they have got hold of the wrong people. The people who are gathered here are not the people calculated to do such a thing. The faith we teach throws everybody upon their own responsibility; they are at liberty to act and choose for themselves, and all will be held responsible before God for their faith and conduct. The free agency of man is and always has been a prominent doctrine in this Church, and no one advocated it more strongly than the Prophet Joseph Smith. The free agency of man is inseparably connected with intelligence, as the revelations of God in the Doctrine and Covenants plainly and explicitly declare, that all intelligence is independent. Without this agency there would be no self-existence. And because of this agency, which existed in eternity before the worlds were, with intelligent beings, with our spirits when they existed in the spirit world -- through the exercise of this agency Satan fell, and all those who clung to him and rebelled against our Heavenly Father. Brother Cannon has impressed us with the idea that obedience to correct principle, believing in the truth and living it and obeying it, is as good an evidence of independent thought and character -- and perhaps a little more so -- than to be disobedient; that no man, woman or child will be more independent by rejecting the truth, by disobeying correct laws and correct principles, than those who receive and obey the truth with contrite hearts.

And for the love of it.
Brother Cannon speaks of President Young and President Taylor, and other good men, our leaders, being led, as it were, by a hair in obedience to the Priesthood,

...being led, as it were, by a hair in obedience to the Priesthood, which implies simply obedience to truth and to correct doctrine, and to righteousness. This is the explanation the Prophet Joseph Smith gave to a certain lawyer in his time who came to see him and his people and expressed astonishment and surprise at the ease with which he controlled the people, and said it was something that was not to be found among the learned men of the world. Said he: "We cannot do it. What is the secret of your success?" "Why," said the Prophet, "I do not govern the people. I teach them correct principles and they govern themselves."

There is true and perfect free agency, governing ourselves by correct principles that are taught us by the servants of God, and being obedient thereto. I would like to apply this, now, directly to our Priesthood, in sight of a beautiful example of these principles as exhibited in the life of Brigham Young.

It is folly in the extreme for persons to say that they love God, when they do not love their brethren;

Do we understand this? The Prophet John said, "How can you say ye love God whom ye cannot see, if ye do not love your brother whom you can see?"

And Brigham is saying the same thing here.

...and it is of no use for them to say that they have confidence in God, when they have none in righteous men, for they do not know anything about God. It is reasonable for the Elders of Israel to be very sanguine and strenuous on this point. And were I to be asked whether I have any experience in this matter, I can tell the people that once in my life I felt a want of confidence in brother Joseph Smith, soon after I became acquainted with him. It was not concerning religious matters -- it was not about his revelations -- but it was in relation to his financiering -- to his managing the temporal affairs which he undertook. A feeling came over me that Joseph was not right in his financial management, though I presume the feeling did not last sixty seconds, and perhaps not thirty. But that feeling came on me once and once only, from the time I first knew him.
to the day of his death. It gave me sorrow of heart, and I clearly saw and understood, by the spirit of revelation manifested to me, that if I was to harbor a thought in my heart that Joseph could be wrong in anything, I would begin to lose confidence in him, and that feeling would grow from step to step, and from one degree to another, until at last I would have the same lack of confidence in his being the mouthpiece for the Almighty, and I would be left, as brother Hooper observed, upon the brink of the precipice, ready to plunge into what we may call the gulf of infidelity, ready to believe neither in God nor His servants, and to say that there is no God, or, if there is, we do not know anything about Him; that we are here, and by and bye shall go from here, and that is all we shall know. Such persons are like those to whom the Apostle calls "As natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed." Though I admitted in my feelings and knew all the time that Joseph was a human being and subject to err, still it was none of my business to look after his faults.

I repented of my unbelief, and that too, very suddenly; I repented about as quickly as I committed the error. It was not for me to question whether Joseph was dictated by the Lord at all times and under all circumstances or not. I never had the feeling for one moment, to believe that any man or set of men or beings upon the face of the whole earth had anything to do with him, for he was superior to them all, and held the keys of salvation over them. Had I not thoroughly understood this and believed it, I much doubt whether I should ever have embraced what is called "Mormonism." He was called of God; God dictated him, and if He had a mind to leave him to himself and let him commit an error, that was no business of mine. And it was not for me to question it, if the Lord was disposed to let Joseph lead the people astray, for He had called him and instructed him to gather Israel and restore the Priesthood and kingdom to them.

It was not my prerogative to call him in question with regard to any act of his life. He was God's servant, and not mine. He did not belong to the people but to the Lord, and was doing the work of the Lord, and if He should suffer him to lead the people astray, it would be because they ought to be led astray. If He should suffer them to be chastised, and some of them destroyed, it would be because they deserved it, or to accomplish some righteous purpose. That was my faith, and it is my faith still.

So, brethren and sisters, President Johnson and those of the same order of Priesthood which holds that same Priesthood with him, are called of God. They belong to God, and as I have said many times in rather strong terms, hands off! It is for us to obey the principles of truth which is given us by that Priesthood and the keys thereof. If we will obey His servants, we will be obeying God. God cannot be here personally, and He has delegated His power and authority in the very highest that is given to man to President Johnson in this day and time. Brothers and sisters, if we do not draw near to him and be subject to his direction, when the time of visitation and of judgments come, we may not be in the right place, standing in holy places.

You brethren holding the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, heads of families, should have your families rallying around you in such a way that they would move as by a hair, that they might stand in holy places, and make your homes a temple. Those are the holy places that we must stand in, unless our head calls for us to go some place while the overflowing scourge passes over, for it is coming in soon.

I try to liken our condition, brothers and sisters, to that of the Zion's Camp. God called upon Joseph to gather five hundred men to go up and redeem Zion. The least He would be satisfied with would be one hundred, but he gathered two hundred. Now, I am sure that God knew by His foreknowledge that this would not be accomplished, the redemption of Zion, though the set time had been given, September of 1836.

The conditions of this great work and mission that was given these men was that they should go and follow their head as by a hair, and go without murmuring, walking in perfect obedience, being one with him, walking as one man; so perfect in their unity and their oneness that they would have put to flight all of the mobs and the armies and the aliens and could have redeemed Zion. Had they complied with all of the conditions of that great commandment that was given them, they could have done it, because there was a set time, had they complied.

We have heard many, many times in recent years and times that the Gospel of preparation is upon us. We will not become prepared, brothers and sisters, short of this thing that I am speaking of here today; and that is obedience to Priesthood, obedience to President Johnson, our head, and the medium through which the word of God comes, and thus we will be obeying God. He is giving us these instructions and commandments by reason of the revelations of God with him, therefore this law of obedience is upon us; which, if we do, we will obey the law of sacrifice and come to know that our course is pleasing to God. And by the power of faith, the power of the Holy Ghost, through the Priesthood, we will accomplish this great work of preparation and be raised up as a people, out of the heart's core of this people. Not everyone under the sound of my voice will be called up, I can promise you that, or else God never spoke by the mouth of His Prophets.

So, where do we stand, brothers and sisters? Are we walking in perfect obedience, in perfect love? Love and obedience are the same thing. Whom we love, we list to obey, as Jesus said. Now let us, therefore, love God, love His Priesthood, love the truth, the true and correct principles that are expounded and given to us by that Priesthood, and become one, that we may have power with God through faith. Faith is power with God, in the application of these principles of obedience and love. God help us to become that people, prepared to be used by Him to redeem Zion and to go on unto our exaltation in the realms of the Celestial glory, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 3:511 April 21, 1976 CCA Funeral

Colorado City, Arizona
April 21, 1976
Funeral of Daniel Henry Hammon

I am grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here upon this occasion in honor of this fine young man, a true soldier in Israel. The thing that has gone through my mind as I have contemplated the life and labors of this faithful man, a true Israelite, is that he has been valiant in the service of God, and was one of those valiant ones on the other side before he came here -- valiant for the Lord Jesus Christ and His cause, and the cause of Father Michael -- and earned his place in coming forth in this day and time, reserved for the purpose to come here and work out his salvation and exaltation at this special time. And I echo, with all my heart, the sentiments of President Jessop, that he was indeed a worthy example to his family and to this people.

I was not intimately acquainted with Daniel, but the occasions in which I had the opportunity of meeting him and feeling his spirit, I was impressed with the sweetness and the seriousness of his spirit. He had a beautiful spirit on any and all times that I had occasion to be associated with him. I appreciated the beautiful testimonies that I heard here on several occasions, and was deeply impressed with the faith and the faithfulness of this young man. I am sure he has finished the work he came forth to do, and has now gone on, having earned a glorious resurrection, and a first resurrection to carry on in his labors there. And I am impressed that he has gone over for the purpose of being a witness for his family, for this work, and for this people, where he can go on now and do a labor that is commensurate with his great talents and his love for the Gospel of Jesus Christ, his love for the holy Priesthood, for he did understand and love Priesthood. He had great faith, great mercy, and the attributes of the Spirit of God, and he did, indeed, take the Holy Spirit for his guide, which I pray that we may all do in following this example.

These occasions are very sacred, in which we can look to our salvation, our labors, and the faith; and being valiant in the work of God, and in sustaining and honoring and upholding the holy Priesthood, that we might become one together as a people and as families, and be laboring day and night for the advancement of the cause of the Lord. This is a young man who would have been one of those young men that the Lord would call forth to go back and redeem Zion, were that his mission to do. But he would be of that caliber, I am sure, because the Lord has said that He would gather together His young men and His middle-aged to go back and to redeem Zion, under the gift and power of God, under the personal leadership of the Lord Jesus Christ, when that great event shall take place when Zion shall be redeemed with power.

Now may we, my dear brothers and sisters, labor together to continue faithful and true, having fought the good fight and been valiant in the cause of God, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Expressions of Love and Loyalty to President Johnson;
A Royal Priesthood, a Peculiar People; A Sifting

I am almost speechless, but I pray the Lord to bless me, that what I shall say He will give me the strength and the power to say it, by His Spirit.

I have been deeply moved by the testimonies and the declarations, the principles that have been expounded here this afternoon. I commend them for your further consideration, and to follow them. I am deeply grateful for my association with President Johnson and my brethren, the Council. And I have come to know what true love of brethren is, and the meaning of the statement of Brigham Young to the effect that a man must learn to know and love his brethren more than any other -- next to God, of course -- if we are to function in the holy Priesthood and do the work that Father has given us to do.

President Johnson is most Christlike, and I want to be like him. He is my head, and I desire to follow in his footsteps, walking in obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and of the holy Priesthood. I know how he yearns over us, brethren and sisters; you little know, and I appreciate the sentiments that were expressed here concerning him this afternoon concerning a brother. I know this is how President Johnson works, by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, which is the power of his Priesthood. I know as I know I live, that he holds the keys of the Priesthood in this order. I am grateful to have labored under the direction of John Y. Barlow, who preceded President Johnson. I loved and still love him more than life itself, and desire to carry on under his direction in this great work in which we are engaged. Brothers and sisters, we little realize how blessed, how fortunate we are in having the heritage that we have. I was reading the words of Peter, the first general epistle of Peter, whose language is divine.

1 Peter 2

1. Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,
2. As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:
3. If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.
4. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
7. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: This is Jesus Christ.
8. ...but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:
10. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
11. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
12. Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.
13. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;
14. Or unto governors,

And so forth. These admonitions come to me, my brothers and sisters, as from President Johnson, calling upon this people as a royal Priesthood, a peculiar people. We must remain peculiar, peculiar unto the Lord, that we may be vessels of righteousness to bring to pass much righteousness and perfection, that we might become like Him.

We are called upon by the very nature of this work in which we are engaged, to obey, as a part of the glorious principle of faith, the law of sacrifice. Sacrifice brings forth the blessings of heaven, brothers and sisters, and only by sacrificing our gentilism, our feelings for the world, our desires, our dress, desire to dress like the world and to be like the world. Sacrifice for one another. Be seeking the interest of one another, loving one another, next to God, and seeking to become like Him, that we may be vessels of righteousness to be used for the redemption of Zion.

The Lord tells the saints occasionally, all through the revelations that we have had, "Ye are not yet sufficiently humble. Ye are not yet sufficiently pure. Ye are not yet sufficiently faithful, and have not faith sufficient to accomplish the work in which we are engaged;" and this is unto us.

President Johnson has warned this people, from Canada to Mexico, that we are due for a sifting. President Musser and the other brethren have told us how there must come out of the heart's core of this people, that people which will be used to redeem Zion and push the spiritual things to the fore.

I am impressed to read the words of Joseph as he warned the saints in Zion. We, brothers and sisters, as a peculiar people in the royal Priesthood are supposed to be living the laws of Zion, the Celestial Law, and being prepared. There were brethren in Zion in 1833, January, who were breathing the spirit of disobedience, breathing the spirit of criticism and so forth, the things that we are warned about today. I appreciate those wonderful sentiments of Allen Steed.

Kirtland, January 14, 1833.

Brother William W. Phelps:
I send you the "olive leaf" which we have plucked from the Tree of Paradise,
That is Section 88.

...the Lord's message of peace to us; for though our brethren in Zion indulge in feelings towards us, which are not according to the requirements of the new covenant, yet, we have the satisfaction of knowing that the Lord approves of us, and has accepted us, and established His name in Kirtland for the salvation of the nations; for the Lord will have a place whence His word will go forth, in these last days, in purity; for if Zion will not purify herself, so as to be approved of in all things, in His sight, He will seek another people;
Yes, out of the heart's core of this people.

...for His work will go on until Israel is gathered, and they who will not hear His voice, must expect to feel His wrath. Let me say unto you, seek to purify yourselves, and also the inhabitants of Zion, lest the Lord's anger be kindled to fierceness.

Repent, repent, is the voice of God to Zion; and strange as it may appear, yet it is true, mankind will persist in self-justification until all their iniquity is exposed, and their character past being redeemed, and that which is treasured up in their hearts be exposed to the gaze of mankind. I say to you (and what I say to you I say to all), hear the warning voice of God, lest Zion fall, and the Lord swear in His wrath the inhabitants of Zion shall not enter into His rest.

The brethren in Kirtland pray for you unceasingly, for, knowing the terrors of the Lord, they greatly fear for you. You will see that the Lord commanded us, in Kirtland, to build a house of God, and establish a school for the Prophets, this is the word of the Lord to us, and we must, yea, the Lord helping us, we will obey: as on conditions of our obedience He has promised us great things; yea, even a visit from the heavens to honor us with His own presence. We greatly fear before the Lord lest we should fail of this great honor, which our Master proposes to confer on us; we are seeking for humility and great faith lest we be ashamed in His presence. Our hearts are greatly grieved at the spirit which is breathed both in your letter and that of Brother Gilbert's, the very spirit which is wasting the strength of Zion like a pestilence; and if it is not detected and driven from you, it will ripen Zion for the threatened judgments of God. Remember God sees the secret springs of human action, and knows the hearts of all living.

Brother, suffer us to speak plainly, for God has respect to the feelings of His Saints, and He will not suffer them to be tantalized with impunity. * * * All we can say by way of conclusion is, if the fountain of our tears be not dried up, we will still weep for Zion. This from your brother who trembles for Zion, and for the wrath of heaven, which awaits her if she repents not.

And we may be in that same situation now, brothers and sisters. Section 101 tells us the things that were responsible for their being chastised and driven out from Zion -- jarrings, contentions, strifes, and lustful and covetous desires, seeking after the world. These things must not be among this people if we are to be used as God desires, for the redemption of Zion and the building up of His Kingdom. I pray that we may be that people, and that we should be warned, that we may come up and be that peculiar people and royal Priesthood that God can use, which I ask in Jesus' name, amen.
I am grateful to be here, brothers and sisters. I felt impressed to take some lessons and convey them to you from Section 64 of the Doctrine and Covenants. There are some very important points of doctrine and instruction for the accomplishment of our work, and I appreciate the sentiments of President Timpson regarding doing our work with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

A group of brethren were preparing to go to Zion at this time, and interspersed between these instructions are individual instructions to different Elders.

1. Behold, thus saith the Lord, your God unto you, O ye elders of my church, hearken ye and hear, and receive my will concerning you.
2. For verily I say unto you, I will that ye should overcome the world; wherefore I will have compassion upon you.

There have been many whole sermons preached to us by the brethren regarding coming out of the world and overcoming it. We have to live in the world, but we can come out of the world with our hearts, and our minds, and in our labors, and labor for the Kingdom.

3. There are those among you who have sinned; but verily I say, for this once, for mine own glory, and for the salvation of souls, I have forgiven you your sins.
4. I will be merciful unto you, for I have given unto you the kingdom.

5. And the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom shall not be taken from my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., through the means I have appointed, while he liveth, inasmuch as he obeyeth mine ordinances.
6. There are those who have sought occasion against him without cause;

We heard a good deal about that this morning.

7. Nevertheless, he has sinned; but verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, forgive sins unto those who confess their sins before me and ask forgiveness, who have not sinned unto death.
8. My disciples, in days of old, sought occasion against one another and forgave not one another in their hearts; and for this evil they were afflicted and sorely chastened.

9. Wherefore, I say unto you, that ye ought to forgive one another; for he that forgiveth not his brother his trespasses standeth condemned before the Lord;

So, the one who refuses to forgive stands condemned, not the one who was supposed to have offended.

9. ...for there remaineth in him the greater sin.

10. I, the Lord, will forgive whom I will forgive, but of you it is required to forgive all men.

11. And ye ought to say in your hearts -- let God judge between me and thee, and reward thee according to thy deeds.

12. And him that repenteth not of his sins, and confesseth them not, ye shall bring before the church, and do with him as the scripture saith unto you, either by commandment or by revelation.

13. And this ye shall do that God may be glorified -- not because ye forgive not, having not compassion, but that ye may be justified in the eyes of the law, that ye may not offend him who is your lawgiver --

14. Verily I say, for this cause ye shall do these things.

15. Behold, I, the Lord, was angry with him who was my servant Ezra Booth, and also my servant Isaac Morley, for they kept not the law, neither the commandment;

16. They sought evil in their hearts, and I, the Lord, withheld my Spirit. That is how we lose the Spirit of God, brothers and sisters, by disobedience. Just that simple.

16. ...They condemned for evil that thing in which there was no evil; nevertheless I have forgiven my servant Isaac Morley.

17. And also my servant Edward Partridge, behold, he hath sinned, and Satan seeketh to destroy his soul; but when these things are made known unto them, and they repent of the evil, they shall be forgiven.

18. And now, verily I say that it is expedient in me that my servant Sidney Gilbert, after a few weeks, shall return upon his business, and to his agency in the land of Zion;

20. And again, I say unto you, that my servant Isaac Morley may not be tempted above that which he is able to bear, and counsel wrongfully to your hurt, I gave commandment that his farm should be sold.

22. And after that day, I, the Lord, will not hold any guilty that shall go with an open heart up to the land of Zion; for I, the Lord, require the hearts of the children of men.

23. Behold, now it is called today until the coming of the Son of Man, and verily it is a day of sacrifice, and a day for the tithing of my people; for he that is tithed shall not be burned at his coming.

24. For after today cometh the burning -- this is speaking after the manner of the Lord -- for verily I say, tomorrow all the proud and they that do wickedly shall be as stubble; and I will burn them up, for I am the Lord of Hosts; and I will not spare any that remain in Babylon.

Not any who remain in Babylon.

27. Behold, it is said in my laws, or forbidden, to get in debt to thine enemies;

28. But behold, it is not said at any time that the Lord should not take when he please, and pay as seemeth him good.

29. Wherefore, as ye are agents, ye are on the Lord's errand; and whatever ye do according to the will of the Lord is the Lord's business.

30. And he hath set you to provide for his saints in these last days, that they may obtain an inheritance in the land of Zion.

31. And behold, I, the Lord, declare unto you, and my words are sure and shall not fail, that they shall obtain it.

32. But all things must come to pass in their time.

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing,

Here is some wonderful counsel, brethren and sisters.

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work. And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

And verily, brothers and sisters, that is what we are doing -- laying the foundation of a great work. What a glorious blessing is held out to the Latter-day Saints, for the saints of this time and this place, having among us the holy Priesthood, the fullness of the holy Priesthood to receive revelations from God and direct us aright, that we might be one people.
34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

Now I have seen that come to pass, brothers and sisters.

35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.

36. For, verily I say that the rebellious are not of the blood of Ephraim, wherefore they shall be plucked out.

37. Behold, I the Lord, have made my church in these last days like unto a judge sitting on a hill, or in a high place, to judge the nations.

38. For it shall come to pass that the inhabitants of Zion shall judge all things pertaining to Zion.

39. And liars and hypocrites shall be proved by them, and they who are not apostles and prophets shall be known.

Has not that come to pass?

40. And even the bishop, who is a judge, and his counselors, if they are not faithful in their stewardships shall be condemned, and others shall be planted in their stead.

41. For, behold, I say unto you that Zion shall flourish, and the glory of the Lord shall be upon her;

42. And she shall be an ensign unto the people, and there shall come unto her out of every nation under heaven.

43. And the day shall come when the nations of the earth shall tremble because of her, and shall fear because of her terrible ones. The Lord hath spoken it. Amen.

That is the mission of this people, my dear brothers and sisters, to become that Zion of God who shall be able to stand before all nations, and accomplish the great redemption of Zion, and be the nucleus of the great Millennium, which I pray we may learn to be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I pray God to bless me with His Spirit, that I may speak the truth and receive instruction by it, in my behalf and in yours. The Prophet Joseph Smith is upon my mind at this time. I desire to speak of him, and who and what he is to us. I have read this to you before, but I feel like it is a beautiful introduction to the matters that the Lord may see fit to direct me to say.

"While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:
"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light,  and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:
"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the Priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:
"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go. It will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts.

It will take malice, hatred, strife, and all evil from their hearts.

...and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world.

I hope we are following this very close, brothers and sisters. If they will keep the Spirit of the Lord,

...they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Thus the Lord said, "If ye are not one, and this by the Spirit of God, ye are not Mine."

Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the Priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

I cannot think of Joseph, the Prophet, without associating the Holy Ghost with him. To use the words of President Kimball:

JD 5:179  Heber C. Kimball  August 23, 1857  SLC

...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; he is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and he is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ,

He is the Witness and Testator -- God the Witness and Testator -- and we cannot receive and keep the Spirit of God, the gifts of the Holy Ghost, except we be in harmony with that Priesthood which he represents, coming down from him to the present. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood, and is that power by which the keyholder now is directing us. Except we be one with him we cannot have this Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost. We must be one together by this means, brothers and sisters.

The Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace and love, and is the attributes of our Father in heaven. The Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and of the Son. We must be one with Them to be like Them, and that is why we are here. This is what Joseph was talking about here when he was talking to Brigham in this dream. He showed how, by having the Spirit of God, we could be like we were when we were organized before; and we are here to partake of the elements of this life and earth in order to obtain bodies for these spirits that were born to our Father. And then joining together, they are to be sanctified, and this body and spirit together, presented back to the Father pure and holy. Sanctification is the process that we are engaged in, and this Gospel and work of preparation. We cannot be sanctified except by obedience, by the power of faith, and being filled with the Holy Ghost continually. The only way we are going to be that people that can redeem Zion is to be a people filled with the Holy Ghost, under our head.

Joseph the Prophet stands in this last dispensation as that "Gigantic Apostle", as Brigham Young described him, filled with the Holy Ghost in dispensing life and salvation to the sons and daughters of our God -- the House of Israel in the last days. He is God the Witness and Testator, under Jesus Christ, and Father Michael.

In the beginning, Father Michael came and established these same principles and laws, and He being filled with the Holy Ghost, set the glorious example, and became the great Prototype for all of His children from then on. And then He sent His Son Jesus Christ, God the Redeemer, filled with the Holy Ghost to dispense life and salvation to the children of men, and became the great Redeemer and atoned for our sins, as well as the original fall of our Father, which was necessary in order for us to be. All of these things, these men, these great Beings and characters, accomplished through suffering. Father Adam suffered as he came in our behalf. Jesus Christ suffered for us, and Joseph the Prophet suffered for us, and became Their Witness and Testator. How thankful I am for them, and for their representative to us today. How blessed we are to have these blessings of the holy Priesthood. Joseph, in our day and time, is the source of our blessings being dispensed to us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit, which has brought us together in the bonds of the New and Everlasting Covenant. This is what we should be doing, brothers and sisters -- seeking to become one under the bonds of the holy Priesthood, and the New and Everlasting Covenant dispensed by that Priesthood.

The time is short, brothers and sisters, and there is much to be done. President Johnson has continually enjoined upon us to clean up our minds. This means to be sanctified and pure. To clean up is to purify, and to get out of our systems all evil and evil thinking, and think continually by the gifts and power of the Holy Spirit towards the end that we might build up the Kingdom of God and become one people, under the Gospel of preparation.

God bless us to this end, my brothers and sisters, and may we sustain and uphold the power and authority now, which is represented to us from Joseph, and Jesus, and Michael. May we be families that Father can use. May we be that one people to redeem Zion, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

Funeral of Patriarch William B. Cooke

I feel honored in being asked to have a part in these beautiful services, in honor of our beloved brother, Patriarch William B. Cooke. I pray for the Spirit of God to dictate what I shall say.

We speak of our own experiences in connection with these great characters who have come into the world to live and abide the laws of God. I have had considerable occasion to visit and talk with Brother Cooke, and I found him to be a true Patriarch, not only an ordained Patriarch, but a true Patriarch over his family, and he presided over a patriarchal family. This is a matter that we should carefully consider as we go on in life, especially this people who have undertaken to keep the great patriarchal law of Abraham alive, and to continue it until Christ should come, and Brother Cooke has done his part.
He chose the better part, out of a very active life in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He chose to be ostracized and cast out, but joyfully he took whatever came, because of his love of the truth. He was, indeed, a great teacher, and his work is done, and will now show forth in the lives of his patriarchal family -- his wives and children, a numerous and a beautiful posterity. This is the great monument to his life and labors, and is to any patriarchal head.

Brother Cooke was valiant in the testimony of Jesus Christ, for the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ -- the patriarchal law, the Celestial law of heaven, and the Holy United Order, the highest principles of the Gospel of Christ. He loved Priesthood and was loyal and valiant to the keyholder, and followed as best he could and understood. He was faithful and true to the end, and is in a position to go now to the other side to take his place, and carry on in the great work of teaching, and seeing after the affairs of his patriarchal fathers clear back to Adam, from whom he has descended, our great patriarchal head and God, whom he accepted as his Father and God, along with Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith. He had a particular love for the memory and labors of Joseph Smith the Prophet, and we discussed it on occasions. He loved the scriptures and studied them, and took great joy in contemplating the blessings of God to him, for he was truly humble and submissive, and desired to obey every law of God.

Brother Cooke, as we all know, suffered greatly for a long period of time. He never murmured, however, and this is a wonderful thing concerning this beloved brother -- he did not murmur. He accepted whatever the Lord desired for him to do, and by this suffering, I am deeply impressed that he has gone over to the other side clean. He wanted to suffer whatever needed to be suffered here in this life, and reminds me of my beloved mother, who suffered so many years in bed before she was permitted to go on to the other side. We had the testimony concerning her that she went clean. This is a wonderful thing to contemplate, brothers and sisters, and we should all desire this great blessing, having been faithful and true in all things, and done whatever suffering God required of them to make them humble, and submissive, and obedient to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel of Christ.

I rejoice in the life and labors of this great man, and I commend his example to his family. May they carry on, and live and abide according to the teachings of this great teacher. And may his memory instill in them the desire to abide in all of the laws of God, to love the truth as he loved it, and to walk in the way of truth and life, as he desired and did. May his choice blessings rest down upon them, and upon all of us, that we may follow the example of abiding in the holy laws of God, as we have had laid before us. God bless you all, and may we become His people, our Father's people, abiding in the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Coming Crisis

I delight in meeting with you again today in company with my brethren, and desire, in fulfilling this responsibility, the Spirit of God to direct me.

I never sing the opening song this afternoon, but what the vision of Zion and her children seem to come before me. I feel like President Johnson and President Musser particularly have been calling upon us to come out of Babylon and the gentile world, and establish Zion. Zion, dear brothers and sisters, is indeed the whole of America as a place; and the center place to which we are looking forward to going and having a part in redeeming, is in Jackson County, Missouri. But we have and must move Zion here. We have got to prove to the Lord that we can make a Zion here in our homes, which are to be temples and a holy place to which we can repair when the judgments and the visitations come. So we are not excused in the least, brethren and sisters, in establishing Zion here. We must establish it in Colorado City. We must establish it here, and in Canada, and wherever the saints are who have come out of the Church and out of the world, or who have been trying to. Then we will be able to prove to the Lord that we are worthy and capable of going back and redeeming that center place, the city, the glorious City of Zion. We can have a glorious Zion in our homes. What beauty there is in a home where the Spirit of God fills all who dwell therein, when all are one, that we might be the Lord's, and that we might be able to be used.

President Johnson, brothers and sisters, has spoken to us on many occasions, and called upon us to read "The Coming Crisis"; and I feel very strongly that I should read the whole of it here today, and pray for the Spirit of God to direct my reading that it may be communicated to you through His Spirit, and to us all. I know very well that very few go home and read these things when the President calls upon us to do it. Perhaps we may gain something out of it as we meet together here under the direction of the Spirit of God and the Priesthood. These are very pertinent things, and they face us daily, brothers and sisters, and we must be able to recognize the enemy of all righteousness, and to overcome him and all of his works wherever they may be manifested in the world, the gentile world.

THE COMING CRISIS -- HOW TO MEET IT

A GREAT and awful crisis is at hand -- such a crisis was never known before since the foundation of the world.

Now brothers and sisters, this was written in 1853. We have read the scriptures, we have heard it said many times that these things are at our doors. Here it is one hundred forty-five years since the organization of the Church, and longer than that when the warnings were given through the Prophet Joseph Smith. To some these things may not seem to have come yet. But let us always remember that God is speaking through His revelations, and He is speaking according to His time.

I would like to close by reading a short item that Brigham Young gave that is published in this pamphlet.

"Do you think there is a calamity abroad now among the people?" Not much. All we have yet heard and all we have experienced is scarcely a preface to the sermon that is going to be preached.

There is quite a sermon been preached in southeastern Idaho.

When the testimony of the elders ceases to be given and the Lord says to them, "Come home; I will now preach my own sermons to the nations of the earth," all you now know can scarcely be called a preface to the sermon that will be preached with fire and sword, tempest, earthquakes, hail, rain, thunders and lightnings, and fearful destruction. What matters the destruction of a few railway cars? You will hear of magnificent cities, now idolized by the people, sinking in the earth, entombing the inhabitants. The sea will heave itself beyond its bounds, engulfing mighty cities. Famine will spread over the nations, and nation will rise up against nation, kingdom against kingdom, and states against states, in our own country and in foreign lands; and they will destroy each other, caring not for the blood and lives of their neighbours, of their families, or for their own lives. They will be like the Jaredites who preceded the Nephites upon this continent, and will destroy each other to the last man, through the anger that the Devil will place in their hearts, because they have rejected the words of life and are given over to Satan to do whatever he listeth to do with them. You may think that the little you hear of now is grievous; yet the faithful of God's people will see days that will cause them to close their eyes because of the sorrow that will come upon the wicked nations. The hearts of the faithful will be filled with pain and anguish for them.

So, brethren and sisters, I hope I have not worried you, and that you have got a message from this. Let us proceed to make temples of our homes and be one in them, that the home and the inhabitants thereof may be filled with the Holy Ghost, and be that righteous generation that God will use to redeem the center place. Let us make Zion here. Zion, keep in mind, is the pure in heart. Zion is the pure in heart. Zion is within us. Individually, we must have Zion within us, and within our homes, our temples, and as a community of saints, banding together under the Prophet of God, to bring to pass the righteousness of God that we might accomplish His will and purposes, which I pray we may all do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Family Oneness Through the Spirit of God;
Oneness Through Becoming Like Our Priesthood Head
as He Becomes Like God

I am grateful to be here with you, my brothers and sisters, and desire the Spirit of God to direct me in this assignment under President Johnson. The Spirit of God, brothers and sisters, is the power and the mind of the Father and the Son. If we would only get this ingrained in our system so that we would desire to obtain it, and to keep it, and to live by it, and obtain unto the attributes of that Spirit. We are not going to make the progress that is necessary to obtain a pure people, out of the heart's core of this people without it. This is the great work of the Priesthood today. President Johnson has made this very clear, and his associates are sustaining and upholding him in every aspect of that great work.

We must get and keep the Spirit of God as heads of families, brethren, or you cannot preside over your families under the power and gifts of the holy Priesthood which you bear. This is true for all of us. I would like to read an item again that I have read quite often, which pertains to this great subject, and an extension of it as it is contained in the Journal of Discourses, volume 4 page 155.

JD 4:155  Lorenzo Snow  January 4, 1857
The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost,
The Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood, brethren and sisters.
...to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element,
That pure element cementing them together is the Holy Spirit.
...suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God,
A pure people.
...that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children. But it is otherwise than this now; the man is full of tradition, and has not got rid of that which was taught him in the Gentile world, he has not became one with his file leader, as brother Kimball frequently remarks.

That principle which I spoke of last Sunday, in regard to a man becoming his own daddy is correct.

There are many who have become their own daddy.

...for a man that feels so has not subjected himself to the Priesthood, but is disposed to become his own leader and his own head, and it is the case with many in this Church, they have not become one with their file leader, and therefore the Spirit is not transmitted to their wife or wives, and not having learned true obedience themselves, the wife cannot receive that which the husband has not got to impart.

You cannot give what you do not have.

How can it be expected that the wife can obtain that which the husband has not received.

When a man is full of sin he is not capable of lifting his voice to teach his family. How does a man expect he can be Patriarch to a large family when he is going on in sin and darkness, and is becoming more blind to the things of the kingdom? He goes forward and gathers other wives and increases his family, but how does he expect to teach them when he is not susceptible of instruction himself? I tell you he will see the day when he will be too late and will have to stand out of the way. A man has to look well at the foundation upon which he builds; a man has to look to the Lord for strength, he has to be purified and sanctified, and he has to purify those that are around him, and among that number will be his one wife, if she is worthy of salvation, and if she is susceptible of being saved. He must have sufficient in him of the saving principle to impart to her, and inasmuch as she can conform to that, she can thereby become sanctified, and be prepared for an exaltation; but if he cannot get faith enough to receive the principles of life and salvation, so that he can communicate those truths to others, he may get one wife, and then he may get another, and after that another, and still another, and then he is worse off than before, and is no nearer to the kingdom of God, but much farther off.

Men who wish to retain their standing before God in the Holy Priesthood, must have the spirit of prophecy, and be qualified to administer life and salvation to the people: and if they cannot do it to the world, they must do it at home, in their families, in their shops, and in the streets, that their hearts may be inspired with words of life at their firesides, in teaching the Gospel to their children, and to their neighbors, as much so as when they are speaking to their brethren from this stand. This having a little of the Spirit when before the people and then laying it aside, will not do. Some men will speak to the people and then go home and be just as dry as moulding stock, and instead of having the words of life in them, they become perfectly dry and dead, but this will not do any longer.

In regard to being one I will say that if ever there was a day when it was necessary for us to be one, now is the time, now is the day and the hour that we are called upon to be one, as Jesus and His Father are one; it is for us to be one together, as brother Brigham and brother Kimball are one, that we may be one indeed.

If we would just keep that one grand word of the Lord that has been given to us, it might help: "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." Now how do we become one, brothers and sisters? It is very, very simple -- by the Holy Ghost being in our families and becoming pure element together. A wife, to be one with her husband, must be like him. He, to be one with the Priesthood, must be like our Prophet and head, one with the Lord. Then he is in the position to impart to his family. So it really starts at the top, does it not? and must go down and be dispensed severally to each and all, that they may be one together.

So we must have the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit -- call it what you will -- with us at all times. Never be without it. We should so have it continually, brothers and sisters, that we would be, of all men, most miserable if we should find ourselves without it. What a joy, and a comfort, and a glorious time we would have if we had the Spirit of God and kept it, and lived by it from day to day, hour to hour, and from year to year; that we might be a prepared people which the Lord is seeking through this Priesthood and through the gifts and powers thereof.

Remember, brethren, we cannot exercise a Priesthood in presiding over and directing our families except we have the Holy Spirit continually. And you dear mothers and wives, you cannot teach and direct your children except you have the Spirit of God; and raise them up in light and truth, the truths of heaven, the light of the Holy Ghost, which is in you. You have a terrible responsibility, dear sisters -- having the care of these little children that God is sending through us, through you -- a terrible responsibility, because you have the charge of them in their tender years when they are being raised up and learning, and feeling, and knowing. It must come from you, as you were taught by the father, your head and husband. And he, of course, must teach his own children. But since you are with them most of the time you have a terrible responsibility, and should realize it, imparting to them the Spirit of God and teaching and raising them up in light and truth.

May we put our houses in order, brothers and sisters. May we labor with all our heart, might, mind, and strength to obtain this end, to be like God, through His Spirit; to love Him and our neighbor as ourselves, that we may be one together, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Beware of Pride; Forgiveness; Magnanimity

I delight in hearing the things we have heard here this afternoon, and pray that the Spirit of God will continue with us, and with me now, as I read you some instructions from Joseph, the Prophet. I read this last night at the Priesthood Meeting. I feel very strongly that it should be a message to all of us, in view of what is ahead.

This address is to the Twelve Apostles in his day, in 1839, as they and some Seventies were about to depart on a mission to Great Britain. But these things are applicable to all of us, brethren and sisters. The Lord, in His revelations to the Prophet Joseph Smith, always, in speaking to one in particular, for whom a revelation was requested, would say, "What I say unto one, I say unto all."

Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy,
This was one of the attributes of the Holy Spirit of God.

...and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance, and asking forgiveness; and should we even forgive our brother, or even our enemy, before he repent or ask forgiveness, our heavenly Father would be equally as merciful unto us.

It would be a wonderful thing to keep in mind, brothers and sisters, in the course of some outburst or strong offense against you by someone who has lost control in a fit of temper, or has done something to you, which was indeed an offense, that you stand ready, before the offense has even been completed, to forgive in your heart, in this spirit of mercy. We would begin to overcome this lack of control and these outbursts that we perpetrate, and by which we offend one another. So it is wrong to take offense in the first place, and of course it is wrong to give offense. Let us do neither.

Again, let the Twelve and all Saints be willing to confess all their sins, and not keep back a part; and let the Twelve be humble, and not be exalted, and beware of pride,

This is the main thing he is talking about -- pride -- which goeth before a fall. Many of the Twelve had fallen up to this time, better than half of them.
And it was on account of pride, and aspiring men turning traitor to the Prophet. This pride is what brings about this traitorous characteristic, which is of the devil.

...beware of pride, and not seek to excel one above another, but act for each other's good,

In the Economic Order of Heaven, the only way in which we should seek to excel is to do more for our brother than he does for us, seeking the interest of one another.

...and pray for one another, and honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name, and not backbite and devour our brother. Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world, when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us, and not be obliged to learn by sad experience everything we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen, of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exalt themselves, until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall, and go wallowing through the mud and mire and darkness, Judas-like, to the buffetings of Satan, as several of the quorum have done, or will they learn wisdom and be wise? O God! give them wisdom, and keep them humble, I pray.

The opposite of this pride, then, is humility. The greatest example of humility that we have had among the children of men is the Lord Jesus Christ, submitting Himself wholly and fully to the Father, so that He might become like Him.

When the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the congregations of the earth, and they preach in the power and demonstration of the Spirit of God, and the people are astonished and confounded at the doctrine, and say, "That man has preached a powerful discourse, a great sermon," then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves, but be careful that they are humble, and ascribe the praise and glory to God and the Lamb; for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood and the Holy Ghost Which is the power of the Priesthood.

Which is the power of the Priesthood.

...that they have power thus to speak. What art thou, O man, but dust? And from whom receivest thou thy power and blessings, but from God? There is true humility, and one can have it and know, by revelation, that he pleases God, by acknowledging God and His power and blessings.

Then, O ye Twelve! notice this Key, and be wise for Christ's sake, and your own soul's sake. Ye are not sent out to be taught, but to teach. Let every word be seasoned with grace. Be vigilant; be sober. It is a day of warning, and not of many words. And so it is today, brethren and sisters.

Act honestly before God and man. Beware of Gentile sophistry; such as bowing and scraping unto men in whom you have no confidence. Be honest, open, and frank in all your intercourse with mankind.

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

We have these wonderful instructions, brothers and sisters, from the Prophet Joseph Smith; and these have been the instructions of his successors, our fathers in the Priesthood, ever since.

If we would but get and keep the Spirit of God continually, we would be able to accomplish these things. One of the great virtues and attributes of God is that of mercy. We must learn to forgive one another, brothers and sisters. We should never hold a grudge, but be like our Lord and Savior as He hung upon the cross -- "God, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Let us rise above the pettiness, the smallness that is so much a part of the character of most people. Some have called it magnanimity. This merciful and gracious God may be described by that word "magnanimity". The dictionary describes it thus, if I may take a moment to go into it, which I think will help us, brethren and sisters.

MAGNANIMITY -- Greatness of soul; generosity in sentiment or conduct toward others; exaltation above envious, cowardly, vindictive, or selfish motives; loftiness of character or action, large heartedness.

MAGNAMINOUS -- Elevated in soul; generous in treating or judging others, great- or high-minded; scorning what is mean or base, exhibiting nobleness of soul.

"Mighty of heart, mighty of mind -- Magnanimous -- to be this is indeed to be great in life; to become this increasingly is ...to advance in life."

So, there is enjoined upon us, then, the great commandment, "Get and keep the Spirit of God," by which we may obtain knowledge, faith or power, justice, judgment, mercy, truth, and love. All of these will make us great in the sight of God. This is the only greatness we should seek, is to be approved of God and to please Him. We should learn to please our Priesthood head, brothers and sisters, each and every one, that we may be of one heart and one mind; one as a family, one as a people. This is the means by which we will accomplish that great preparation, which we are in the midst of at this time.

Let us remember, brothers and sisters, we are indeed engaged in a great and glorious work. We are a part of God's work, and we should come out of the world and be saints, be like God, which I pray we may do, in the name of the Jesus Christ, amen.

I appreciate, dear brothers and sisters, being here associated with President Hammon and Musser, and desire to do my part in instructing and helping myself as well as all of you, my dear brothers and sisters and friends in this great work in which we are engaged. As Brother Allen spoke of how he yearned for all of us, I thought how our President, Leroy S. Johnson, yearns over us as a shepherd of the flock. I know that his heart goes out to this people, desiring nothing short of their eternal welfare and their exaltation, and a prepared people to accomplish the purposes of our Father and God. I pray for the Spirit of God to be upon me that I may testify of the great goodness and blessings of our Father in heaven to me and to all of us, for they have been great and glorious.

The spirit of gratitude, brothers and sisters, will enable us to become more humble and contrite, and to repent of our sins and weaknesses, and acknowledge the hand of God in all things; for we are dependent upon Him and His Spirit and His Priesthood which He has established in this great and special dispensation in which we are engaged, to bless us, and to train us up, and to bring us to the perfection of our lives to His honor and glory, not ours.

The Lord in His revelations, speaking to Joseph and others, for whom he received revelations frequently, told the people they were not yet sufficiently humble, and did not acknowledge His hand in all things as they should. I feel that this applies to us, brothers and sisters; and we need to humble ourselves and come forward to the Lord with broken hearts and contrite spirits, and acknowledge our dependence upon the Lord for all that we have and are, and not take the honor to ourselves. Beware the pride, as Joseph Smith spoke to the Twelve on one occasion as they were together. Beware the pride, brothers and sisters, and cease to be selfish and self-centered, and take honors to ourselves that belong to the Lord.

How do we love God? How do we show that we love God? By keeping His commandments. If we love Him with all of our heart, might, mind, and strength, we will keep all of His commandments and submit ourselves. This process of submission, brothers and sisters, to me, is a most humbling experience, and will acknowledge to God His gifts and blessings and make ourselves one with our Priesthood head, each and every one according to their situation, that the Holy Ghost may be imparted through that channel; and we thus seek with all our heart to lay hold upon the Holy Ghost as our constant guide and companion. And remember the admonition of Joseph the Prophet to Brigham Young, his co-laborer in the cause of Christ: "Tell the people to get and keep the Spirit of God."

Heber C. Kimball was bold enough to say to the saints, "How will you get the Spirit of God except through us?" meaning the servants of God who held the keys of power, and blessings, and of the holy Priesthood over all the saints. That glorious blessing of getting and keeping the Spirit of God is the great need of this people, and it can only be obtained through the channels of the Priesthood, which is God over us.

I yearn with all my heart for the Priesthood fathers to come and instruct us and enable us to make greater progress. But this will never come, brothers and sisters, unless we become one with those who have been sent and succeeded Joseph the Prophet, whom God will honor as the head of this dispensation. We cannot come up to see the face of God, except by the consent of Joseph the Prophet. And we are going to have to come up through the fathers of the Priesthood in our day and time to be introduced to the Lord by those who know Him, and have already had His presence unto them individually, personally. And if we will come up to see the face of God, we have got to have it through that same channel.

Joseph Smith is the Witness and Testator. He is and acts in the office of the Holy Ghost in the Godhead. How grateful we should be that we have in our contemporary time this great mission performed by this man who is a member of the Godhead. And this channel of Priesthood has come down to us at present, and the keys of it are in the hands of Leroy Sunderland Johnson, I testify of this to you. I desire to do my part in sustaining and upholding him, and becoming one with him. I know that is what I have got to do. I must become one with him; and each and every one of us have got to come up through the same process.

Now, brothers and sisters, this great gift of the Holy Ghost -- it must be obtained if we are to become that people. That is the one unifying process -- the power of the Holy Ghost. We must be one together, of one heart and one mind. And the same must be accomplished first in our families.

We must remember the things that caused the Lord to take the saints out of Zion. They polluted their inheritances by the things that were contrary to the Spirit of God -- through jarrings, contentions, strifes, and lustful and covetous desires. These are the things that must be done away in our families and as a people. Seeking to become like God by the power of the Priesthood, and overcome death, hell, and the devil; this is what we must do, brothers and sisters. Overcome every earthly characteristic that has become a part of us, to having been born into the earth. We must sacrifice the characteristics of this world and come out of the world, and come unto the Lord.

I love the memory and the life and labors of Joseph Smith the Prophet; and we have a leader today who is like him. Joseph Smith, in speaking to the saints in an address, said these things which are very significant, and shows us the place and position of which we must consider him.

"And it will be preached, the Gospel of the kingdom, in the whole world, to a witness over all people: and then will the end come."

The Savior said when these tribulations should take place, it should be committed to a man who should be a witness over the whole world: the keys of knowledge, power and revelations should be revealed to a witness who should hold the testimony to the world. It has always been my province to dig up hidden mysteries -- new things for my hearers. Just at the time when some men think that I have no right to the keys of the Priesthood -- just at that time I have the greatest right.

All the testimony is that the Lord in the last days would commit the keys of the Priesthood to a witness over all people. Has the Gospel of the kingdom commenced in the last days? And will God take it from the man until He takes him Himself? I have read it precisely as the words flowed from the lips of Jesus Christ. John the Revelator saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth.

The scripture is ready to be fulfilled when great wars, famines, pestilence, great distress, judgments, &c., are ready to be poured out on the inhabitants of the earth. John saw the angel having the holy Priesthood, who should preach the everlasting Gospel to all nations. God had an angel -- a special messenger -- ordained and prepared for that purpose in the last days. Woe, woe be to that man or set of men who lift up their hands against God and His witness in these last days: for they shall deceive almost the very chosen ones!

In relation to the kingdom of God, the devil always sets up his kingdom at the very same time in opposition to God. Every man who has a calling to minister to the inhabitants of the world was ordained to that very purpose in the Grand Council of heaven before this world was. I suppose And I am sure he knew,

...I was ordained to this very office in that Grand Council. It is the testimony that I want that I am God's servant, and this people His people. The ancient prophets declared that in the last days the God of heaven should set up a kingdom which should never be destroyed, nor left to other people; and the very time that was calculated on, this people were struggling to bring it out.

So we have that promise, brothers and sisters. The Priesthood has been restored, the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ has been restored, together with all of its ordinances, laws, and powers, and authority for the last time, never to be thrown down or given to another people until Christ comes. Now we should be yearning by the power of faith for the coming of the One Mighty and Strong, Joseph Smith the Prophet, to set us in order, and to set the House of God in order, and continue in the great preparation to the end that we may be called up to go back to redeem Zion -- a chosen, a choice people which will be called up and out of the heart's core of this people, as has been testified of.

God bless us, my dear brothers and sisters, that we may indeed be one, and come up together, and go forward together as one man, tied to the holy Priesthood; that we may be called forth to do a great and a mighty work, and to accomplish the will of Father. All things will work together for our good if we will have this most holy faith, brothers and sisters. Joseph will not come except by the faith of the people, faith in the holy Priesthood, faith in God. All things that came through and by the Prophet Joseph Smith, came as a result of prayer and faith on his part; everything that came, came as a result of faith. And all things will be accomplished by faith, and love for God, which I pray we may have with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; and true love and charity, with and for one another as His people, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I feel the weight of this responsibility and desire the Spirit of God to direct me in what I say. I feel very strongly impressed to bring before you, my dear brothers and sisters, something that has been needed for a long time, I think, for us to understand as we partake of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. This is an ordinance that we are privileged to receive. We have our family meetings where it is administered. We have had many instructions given to us that I do not think we understand, about partaking of the Sacrament worthily. Some people ask, "What do you mean, `partaking of it worthily or unworthily?'" as the case may be. And in reading the Journal of Discourses, we have some very specific instructions given by President Heber C. Kimball in the Tabernacle in 1856.
You will remember, brothers and sisters, that the saints were, upon coming to the valleys here, were given the privilege of being baptized again for a renewal of their covenants. And in particular, in a certain situation involving the Holy United Order, a baptism was given for entering into that holy order. When we are baptized, it is assumed that we have repented and have faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and in His atonement; and we make solemn covenants when we enter into the waters of baptism to keep His commandments. The atonement which He wrought, a blood atonement, is sufficient to atone for our sins if we believe and obey Him. Those are the conditions under which we enter into the Kingdom and the Church of Jesus Christ. Brother Kimball was giving some very wonderful instructions, and I pray the Spirit of God to be with me as I read them to you.

I wish to advance a few ideas that are upon my mind, and they concern every individual in this congregation and every person that professes to be a Latter-day Saint. I have often reflected upon them, and they are particularly in my mind to-day.

Last evening I attended the High Priests’ Quorum, and perhaps there were a hundred or a hundred and fifty High Priests present. In that meeting brother Brigham gave permission to the members of that Quorum to be baptized in the font; but he objected to any one going into that font, to be baptized for the remission of sins, until he had actually repented of and made restitution for the sins he had committed. If any of them had done anything wrong, he wished them to confess to those they had aggrieved or injured, and make restitution; and wherein they had committed sins and violated their Priesthood and their covenants, they must make satisfaction to those they had injured; and not step into that font, until they have done these things.

That is the course to take; and how do you expect to get a remission of your sins, and be forgiven by the Father, and His Son Jesus Christ, and by the Holy Ghost, so that you can have the Holy Ghost rest upon you, unless you repent and make restitution or restoration, and make atonement for the sins that you may have committed?

I pray to my Father, in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, that the High Priest or any other person that attempts to go into that font without previously making restitution for such evil as he may have committed, may be cursed and withered until he does make restitution.

I will now touch upon another point. Our Bishops are now breaking bread, the emblem of the broken body of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and I say let every one who is guilty of sins they have not repented of, and made restitution for, refuse to partake of that bread, also of that water, (which is an emblem of the blood of Jesus that was spilled for the remission of our sins,) until they have repented and made restitution; for unless you do, you shall drink damnation to yourselves, until you make restitution. I do not care who the persons are.

If the High Priests, who are clothed with the Priesthood which is after the order of God, should be prohibited a Gospel ordinance, until they make good that which they may have done wrong, why should you as a people partake of these emblems upon any other conditions? If you do you eat damnation unto yourselves, and you will become sickly and pine away and die.

That is pretty serious. Then he quotes Paul in the first epistle to the Corinthians.

Paul, in his first epistle to the Corinthians, 11th chap. and 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th verses, has written as follows: --

"26. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come.

"27. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

"28. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup.

"29. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

"30. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you and many sleep."

So said Paul.

According to Paul you perceive that those who partook of the bread and wine unworthily, became sickly and died; but those that eat and drink worthily will receive life and salvation by partaking. Now, gentlemen and ladies, what do you think of partaking of this bread and this wine in remembrance of the Lord Jesus Christ?

Some of you, doubtless, have been guilty of committing more or less sin, of being more or less rebellious to the authorities of this Church, and to the Priesthood and government of God, and then coming and partaking of this sacrament. Do not such persons comprehend that they are drinking damnation to themselves? Why should persons wish to partake of this sacrament, when they know that they are unworthy?

I want to warn you and forewarn you not to trifle with this ordinance, nor to indulge in any unwise conduct. I desired the opportunity of telling you my feelings before this bread is dedicated and consecrated. I do not consider that it is dedicated and consecrated to any person that cannot eat it with an upright heart, or to one that will eat it and then live in a course of rebellion against God and His authority.

I do not consider that one of my wives, or one of my children, has a right to partake of these emblems, until they make a full and proper restitution to me, if they have offended me. Why is this? Because I am their head, I am their governor, their dictator, their revelator, their prophet, and their priest, and if they rebel against me they at once raise a mutiny in my family.

I forbid all unworthy persons partaking of this sacrament; and if such do partake of it, they shall do it on their own responsibility, and not on mine. In partaking unworthily, a person is corroding and destroying himself, not me. This ordinance is administered on condition of your living in righteousness, and of your hearts being true to your God and to your brethren.

How can you love your God and Jesus Christ, and not love those that He has sent to you to do you good? Can you love God and His Son Jesus Christ, and not take the counsel pointed out by brother Brigham and those that are sent to you? Jesus says, "If you love me, keep my commandments;" and brother Brigham and his counselors can say, if you love God, love us and keep our commandments. Why? Because brother Brigham is placed as God's agent to us in the flesh.

Let us change the personalities involved and see where we stand today with the Priesthood over us, brothers and sisters, the Priesthood in our families, and the Priesthood over this people.
When you go into heaven, into the celestial world, you will see the Church organized just as it is here, The Priesthood.

...and you will find all the officers down to the Deacon. Our Church organization is a manifestation of things as they are in heaven, and you are all the time praying that the Church here may be brought into union and set in order as it is in heaven.

Do you think a wife is contending against her husband with a good spirit, when she is commanded to be subject to her husband, even as we are to Christ? Is it not just as necessary that women should be governed, as that men should be? Is it not just as reasonable that a wife should be governed, as that her husband should be? I want to know what good a wife is to me, unless she will let me lead and guide, and let me govern her by the word of God.

When a wife is obedient to her husband there is union, there is heaven, that is, there is one heaven, though it is a little one; and a righteous union is what will make a heaven.

There are many kinds of sin, among which is the sin of confusion; and I tell you there is plenty of confusion in a family where each one wants to be head. Just look at it, what a heaven that is! We all have to make our heaven, or do without one.

A great many of this people want their endowments; but I never wish to give another man or woman their endowments, until they have reformed from whatever they may have done amiss. I had as soon give the devil his endowment as to confer it upon some men and women who profess to be Latter-day Saints; I want them to reform first.

This was at the time, brothers and sisters, when there was a great reformation among the saints.

Do I feel as though I wanted to dance? No, I never want to go forth again in the dance, until the spirit of reformation is rife among the people. Neither do I want to see any man or woman partake of this sacrament, when they are living in open rebellion against God, against his government, and His servants.

I have no wife nor child that has any right to rebel against me. If they violate my laws and rebel against me they will get into trouble, just as quickly as though they transgressed the counsels and teachings of brother Brigham. Does it give a woman a right to sin against me, because she is my wife? No, but it is her duty to do my will, as I do the will of my Father and my God.

It is the duty of a woman to be obedient to her husband, and unless she is, I would not give a damn for all her queenly right and authority; nor for her either, if she will quarrel, and lie about the work of God and the principle of plurality.

I tell you, as the Lord God Almighty lives, my sword is unsheathed, and I never will sheath it until those of you who have done wrong, repent of your evil deeds. Some of you have found fault, because I am so plain and severe. No man can rise up here with his sophistry and silver lips, and have the Holy Spirit for a moment.

A disregard of plain and correct teachings is the reason why so many are dead and damned and twice plucked up by the roots, and I would as soon baptize the devil, as some of you. You call that a hard saying, do you not?

Brethren and sisters, shall I ask the Lord to bless this bread and dedicate it to Him for you, and then you partake of it unworthily? You would only drink condemnation to yourselves, not to me. I have not knowingly injured one of you; if I have injured any one in this congregation, or in this Church, I must have done it by telling them the truth, if that can be called an injury. There is not that man or that woman that can justly say that I have taken the first dime from them, or stolen anything, or told a lie; if there are any such let them come forward and I will make restitution four-fold.

All the fault I have to find with myself, and I presume all that God has to find with me, is because I have sometimes held back and resisted His Spirit; and so have my brethren, for if we would yield to it at all times, we should be ten times more severe than we now are. I know that when I have seen certain evil practices in our midst, I have felt bad about it. For instance, hire some men to work, and the moment you are out of their sight they will scarcely do a thing. What are such men good for?

The man that will be lazy and spend his time for nought, will steal, and will also be liable to consider it no sin to commit adultery. And some of the men and women whom you employ, will steal from you almost as much as the wages for which they were hired.

While standing between you and the bread, I know of no way but to preach plain to you, and to tell you of your faults. Now I feel clear; and I could not feel at peace, until I had told you what was in my mind. May God have mercy upon you and enlighten your minds, touch your intellects and qualify you for your callings.

I will tell you a dream that brother Joseph Fielding had in England, This was one of the first brethren that they met when Heber and his brethren went on the first mission to Great Britain, and who later apostatized.

...about the time that brother Brigham and I went back on our second visit, for it will apply to many in this congregation.

Brother Fielding dreamed that he had a sharp sickle, and that he hung it up on a bush, but when he returned and took down his sickle, he found the edge all taken off from it. This will apply to many others. You remember it, do you not, brother Joseph? -- and is it correct? It is, and his sickle has not cut from that time to the present, and the reason is he has had a woman straddle of his neck from that day to this. Amen.

Well, we should remember brothers and sisters, that this is indeed a most sacred ordinance. It is a renewal of the covenants that you entered into in the waters of baptism. When you receive the Priesthood, brethren, and when you are sealed by the holy Priesthood as man and wife for time and all eternity; in receiving such ordinances, we covenant anew to keep the commandments of God and to be obedient to the Priesthood over us. And it is for us, when we partake of the sacrament, a renewal; and this is how we should look upon it. We must come innocent before the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, the table of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, clean and free from having offended God, or our brother, or our sister. Unless we do, we drink damnation and eat damnation to our souls.

Now this is very explicit, is it not? And we should know, henceforth, what we should do when we partake of the sacrament. It is no great disgrace to refuse the sacrament, brothers and sisters. But it is an acknowledgement within yourself, within ourselves, that we have not yet repented, and that we must do so before we can partake of it again. Refusing it is an act of humility. And we should approach it, in that case, with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. This is the spirit of repentance.

We all have need of it from day to day, and we should be by now, after all of these many years of great enlightenment and the teachings of the Holy Ghost to us through the Priesthood, a more perfect people than we are. I think we have another statement by Heber C. Kimball, a very good and solid understanding of what it takes to be one, and what the results may be. He said:

JD 4:375  Heber C. Kimball   August 16, 1857   SLC

_There will also be a day when you will be brought to the test -- when your very hearts and your inmost souls will melt within you because of the scenes that many of you will witness. Yes, you will be brought to that test, when you will feel as if every thing within you would dissolve. Then will be the time you will be tried whether you will stand the test or fall away._

I have not a doubt but there will be hundreds who will leave us and go away to our enemies. I wish they would go this fall: it might relieve us from much trouble; for if men turn traitors to God and His servants, their blood will surely be shed, or else they will be damned, and that too according to their covenants.

_Brother Brigham would rather go to battle against the whole world with three hundred men filled with the Holy Ghost,_ Filled with the Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters. That is the only way we can be one and have power with God, and be able to obtain, by faith in our prayers.

_Brother Brigham would rather go to battle against the whole world with three hundred men filled with the Holy Ghost, than to have the whole of you, except you are united with us; and I am sure I would._

_The day is to come when one shall chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight. When that day comes, the Lord will make the enemies of His people flee as if there were thousands after them, when there is only one; and that is the way that God will deal with our enemies. The day of God Almighty is at hand, when He will show forth His power, and when He will deliver His people from all their enemies._

Let us prepare for that day, brothers and sisters. But there is going to be a sifting and a testing, and we are going to have to be a tried and a tested people before the Lord can use us. We must come together under the principles of the Holy United Order, which we must abide in our families, then as a community, a community of people whom the Lord can use for the redemption of Zion. I pray that we may labor to this end and be that people, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Our Homes Must Be Temples; Righteousness Is Our Goal

You men who hold the Priesthood have that power and that authority and that blessing, and it is passed through to our wives and children by means of that Priesthood. A Patriarch in a family is a father. "Patriarch" means "father". And a true Patriarch is one who abides the holy Celestial Law, the Family Order of Heaven.

We are engaged in this great and holy law, and we must magnify it before our Father. Perhaps it would help us if we really came to a point where we could say that this house, this place is a temple; and that is what it has got to be. And over the door of the temple as we enter, the words are inscribed: "Holiness to the Lord". That is what this house must be, a house of God. And we must live in it and act in it and think in it as a temple. President Lorin Woolley said that our homes would have to be our temple for a good while to come. So this is what we are about. Inscribed above in the center spire of the Salt Lake Temple and all of the other temples that have been built under the Priesthood, the true Priesthood, are inscribed those words: "Holiness to the Lord," the house of the Lord.

It's a pity how that house has been desecrated. There have been thieves, and liars, and adulterers no less, and the acts of adultery committed in that house. Did you ever know that? And the devil has been seen in that house. So, we have to keep the devil out of this house. President Johnson is not admonishing us to clean up our minds as a matter of idle words or a passing statement. It is a very serious thing that he calls upon us to do. We must have pure hearts and clean hands. What did the Psalmist say? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart is accepted of the Lord.
The time is coming when the wicked will be destroyed, literally destroyed, and there will be no one left except for those who are righteous. So, righteousness is our great goal; and the key to our progress is obedience, obedience to all the laws and commandments of God our Father, perfect obedience.

[He then read Section 1, Section 82, and Lecture Five.]

Keys of Priesthood Described

If any of you have a subject to be discussed, we will do so now.

[Question: What are the keys of Priesthood?]

The question probably arises from the song, doesn't it -- "The keys he will ever hold," Joseph Smith? There are keys that God Himself holds; He holds them all. He has given keys to His Son, Jesus Christ, to act for and in behalf of Himself. So, He has given them all to Him because He (Jesus) came and redeemed us, and made it possible for us to go back into the presence of God again. Keys are connected with Priesthood. We say broadly, God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us; and there has to be a head at all times. The highest Priesthood is after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Melchizedek.

Joseph Smith is in the peculiar position of being the one to gather together all the keys of all the dispensations in one. They all came and gave them to him because he is the Witness and Testator and one of the Godhead, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost. Those keys will never be taken from him in time or eternity. He keeps them where he is, but he has delegated keys to the Priesthood head upon the earth. And as to us, the Priesthood head, or the keyholder as we call him, acts for God and Jesus Christ. This doesn't take any keys away from Joseph. He holds them over the keyholder here, and he delegates them to the head of Priesthood, who thus becomes the mouthpiece of God to His people.

Even in eternity, in the Celestial Kingdom, there will be those who will be given delegated authority to carry out the work and purposes of God among the people. But standing over all, of course, is Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, the grand Presidency of the celestialized earth when it is brought together and made one.

There is great work that has to be carried on, and Joseph Smith is, shall we say, the one who carries out the will of the Father, under Christ, of course. Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords. But you can see how Joseph still holds the keys. He is still laboring over there in behalf of this work, and the Priesthood here is acting under his direction. He is the One Mighty and Strong who will set in order the House of God. Always he will be acting under the Lord Jesus Christ; he will be the direct head under Jesus Christ. So you see, he holds keys over all the dispensations, acting for Father and the Son.

But in acting under these powers of the keyholder, the head of Priesthood upon the earth is exercising those same keys that Joseph Smith holds, and acts with him. Keys are simply powers and authority of the holy Priesthood. There has to be a head at all times. And the Priesthood head here is exercising the same keys that Joseph holds, and he is doing it for him and for Jesus Christ.

The Kingdom of heaven is organized, the Kingdom of God is organized here. Section 65 talks about the two kingdoms, and is a glorious prayer that we should always keep in mind. And in this Section we have a statement regarding keys.

D.& C. 65

1. Hearken, and lo, a voice as of one sent down from on high, who is mighty and powerful, whose going forth is unto the ends of the earth, yea, whose voice is unto men -- Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

2. The keys of the kingdom of God are committed unto man on the earth, and from thence shall the gospel roll forth unto the ends of the earth, as the stone which is cut out of the mountain without hands shall roll forth, until it has filled the whole earth.

3. Yea, a voice crying -- Prepare ye the way of the Lord, prepare ye the supper of the Lamb, make ready for the Bridegroom.

4. Pray unto the Lord, call upon his holy name, make known his wonderful works among the people.
5. Call upon the Lord, that his kingdom may go forth upon the earth, that the inhabitants thereof may receive it, and be prepared for the days to come, in which the Son of Man shall come down in heaven, clothed in the brightness of his glory, to meet the kingdom of God which is set up on the earth.

6. Wherefore, may the kingdom of God go forth, that the kingdom of heaven may come, that thou, O God, mayest be glorified in heaven so on earth, that thine enemies may be subdued: for thine is the honor, power and glory, forever and ever. Amen.

So this brings out that the keys of the Kingdom of God are committed to man, and He has His head and keyholder in behalf of the people here. You can see, then, how Jesus -- first the Father, then Jesus and Joseph -- are not diminished in the least in their committing keys to others to carry out their work among the children of men. And that is the very nature of what we are talking about really, is Priesthood, the powers of the Priesthood. A key is something that is given to unlock the ways of God and the purposes of God in behalf of man. We have statements made like this:

TPJS Page 156

I will give you one of the Keys of the mysteries of the Kingdom. It is an eternal principle,

A key is a principle, as well as a law.

It is an eternal principle, that has existed with God from all eternity: That man who rises up to condemn others, finding fault with the Church, Priesthood.

...saying that they are out of the way, while he himself is righteous, then know assuredly, that that man is in the high road to apostasy; and if he does not repent, will apostatize, as God lives. The principle is as correct as the one that Jesus put forth in saying that he who seeketh a sign is an adulterous person;

It is a key or a principle.

...and that principal is eternal, undeviating, and firm as the pillars of heaven; for whenever you see a man seeking after a sign, you may set it down that he is an adulterous man.

And that is a key or principle. We are given keys in the endowment. In the endowments, we will receive key words and signs, key signs, and key tokens of the holy Priesthood by which we may pass by the Gods to our exaltation. In that case, it unlocks the door to the Kingdom of God.

There are certain key words and signs belonging to the Priesthood which must be observed in order to obtain the blessing. The sign of Peter was to repent and be baptized for the remission of sins, with the promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost; and in no other way is the gift of the Holy Ghost obtained.

Baptism is a sign, and there are key words given in the ordinances so that we have a very broad and far-reaching meaning given to them. But they are associated with, forever and ever, the powers of the holy Priesthood, the authority of the holy Priesthood.

Speaking now of the keyholder here; he may give President Hammon or President Musser, or anyone a direction and a key to go and do a certain thing. They will exercise that key under him, under his keys. It is simply authority to do such and such things. But he holds the keys as to this work and Priesthood over all the people. But Joseph Smith has not given up anything, nor has Jesus Christ or Father in the exercise of those keys here.

Anxiously Engaged; Unhappiness the Result of Our Own Actions

This is indeed a beautiful sight, and I delight in being here with you in association with my brethren, and pray the Lord to bless me in presenting some impressions that have come to enable us to abide in the laws of the holy Gospel.

One of the favorite passages of scripture that comes to mind is found in Section 58 of the Doctrine and Covenants. This revelation was given, brothers and sisters, to Joseph the Prophet on August 1, 1831, as he and a particular group of brethren had been sent there, along with the Colesville branch of the saints, to dedicate the land of Zion and the spot for the Temple, and to make the preparations for the commencement of the work of building up Zion; and they were being given instructions, individually and as a people.

We find that in the revelations that are given, the Lord frequently and generally says, "What I say unto one, I say unto all," because they are correct principles that are applicable to all of His children.

Special instructions were given to Edward Partridge, the Bishop of the Church, who was to be a judge in Israel and to preside over the affairs of the saints in that place to become sacred to God; and among those instructions that were given to all, were these:

D. & C. 58

25. Wherefore, let them bring their families to this land, as they shall counsel between themselves and me.
26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily, I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;
28. For the power is in them, wherein they are agents unto themselves. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.
29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

Those are hard words, brethren and sisters, for the lazy and slothful among us, the spiritually lazy, I have often mentioned. They shall be damned. The Lord calls upon His people to be diligent, among other things. Section 4 of the Doctrine and Covenants gives marvelous instructions as to who are qualified for this great work.

D. & C. 4
1. Now behold a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

Now, I take it that if we go about keeping, or trying to keep, the commandments of God under protest, and are slothful in it, it is no wonder we are damned, because this says we will stand blameless before God at the last day if we serve Him and keep His commandments with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, With his might.

4. ...the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work. These things qualify us for the work.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence. Serving with all our heart, might, mind, and strength. And then, the great promise:

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Faith, then, brothers and sisters, is power. It calls for an exertion of the mind, of the spirit. The mind is the spirit in man. So, it calls for exertion, it calls for anxiously being engaged in this great work, and serving with all our heart. The Lord tells us in another revelation, "I do not desire your moneys; I desire your hearts," and to be willing and obedient.

Now, Brigham Young, during the great reformation of 1856, took occasion to read this whole Section to the Saints, and then commented upon it at some great length. In mentioning in brief that those who were there present at that time understood the language of the revelation, and the further removed people would, in time, down through the generations, consider it mysterious and not understandable; and they were removed by a quite a few years from that time, some twenty-seven years. He mentions how the people frequently call upon him for revelations, but because of their slothfulness and lack of diligence and being in full purpose of heart, he could not give them to the people, because they had not yet kept those that were already given. Inasmuch as his comments were so applicable to us in our day and time, as it was in his time in that day, when they were trying to get the people to reform and to prepare themselves; it has been a work of preparation from the beginning. But time is running out now, brothers and sisters, and it is time we settled down and accomplished these things. Regarding the receiving of revelations he said:

JD 3:338  Brigham Young  June 15, 1856  SLC

_A great many come to me and say, "I wish to do exactly as the Lord shall direct through you, brother Brigham." If I had the word of the Lord I would not dare give it to them, unless I knew it was an absolute duty. They never would obey it,_

He felt pretty strongly about some of the brothers and sisters then.

...because they are taught the word of the Lord here all the time, but do they hearken to it? Those who have wisdom within themselves, who have in possession the spirit of the Gospel, know what they hear from this stand. They know truth from error, they are satisfied, and never ask the Lord to give them more revelation, but to give them grace to observe and keep what they have received.

RTJ 4:23 - 24  September 19, 1976  Sandy

Will you repent of your sins, and go to and do that which you know you ought to do, without being commanded of the Lord, and thus be compelled to do it, or be damned? Will you live so as to know the voice of the Good Shepherd when you hear it, or are you determined to live so as not to know the difference between that voice and the voice of a stranger? In this I fear for the people. I have explained and commented upon these seemingly small items, though in reality they are of much importance.

And to illustrate how small things are what count, he says:

_Chemists who are familiar with analyzing matter, inform you that the globe we inhabit is composed of small particles, so small that they cannot be seen with the unaided natural eye, and that one of these small particles may be divided into millions of parts, each part so minute as to be undiscernible by the aid of the finest microscopes. So the walk of man is made up of acts performed from day to day. It is the aggregate of the acts which I perform through life that makes up the conduct that will be_ exhibited in the day of judgment, and when the books are opened, there will be the life which I have lived for me to look upon, and there also will be the acts of your lives for you to look upon. Do you not know that the building up of the kingdom of God, the gathering of Israel, is to be done by little acts? You breathe one breath at a time; each moment is set apart to its act, and each act to its moment. It is the moments and the little acts that make the sum of the life of man. Let every second, minute, hour, and day we live be spent in doing that which we know to be right.

If you do not know what to do, in order to do right, come to me at any time and I will give you the word of the Lord on that point. But if you wish the word of the Lord on your nonsensical, foolish notions and traits, be pleased to keep away from me, for I know too much about such characters for them to pass before me unobserved. Mankind are weak and feeble, poor and needy; how destitute they are of true knowledge, how little they have when they have any at all. We have need to increase in knowledge and understanding, and to apply our hearts more to wisdom.

How necessary it is for us to live our religion so as to know ourselves better, and to know how to live better in accordance with the religion we have embraced. To know how to gather up the sons and daughters of Abraham, and to establish the kingdom of God on the earth, how necessary it is for you and I to live our religion, and not be slothful and negligent in fulfilling our duty.

The Book of Mormon, of Doctrine and Covenants, the Old and New Testaments all corroborate the fact that then you receive the Spirit that gives you light, intelligence, peace, joy, and comfort, that it is from God. That is the Spirit of God.

But when you, sisters, particularly in your family affairs, are tried and tempted, when parents and children have a spirit come upon them that irritates them, that causes them to have bad feelings, disagreeable, unhappy, and miserable sensations, causing them to say, "We wish it was some way else; we wish our circumstances were different; we are not happy; something or the other is always wrong; we wish to do just right, but we are very unhappy;"

Does that sound familiar?

I desire to tell you that your own conduct is the cause of all this. "But," says one, "I have done nothing wrong, nothing evil." No matter whether you have or not, you have given way to a spirit of temptation.

A foul spirit.

There is not that man or woman in this congregation, or on the face of the earth, that has the privilege of the holy Gospel, and lives strictly to it, whom all hell can make unhappy.

Isn't that beautiful?
You cannot make the man, woman, or child unhappy, who possesses the Spirit of the living God; unhappiness is caused by some other spirit.

The spirit of contention divides families as we see some divided. We can hardly associate with some persons, for we have to walk in their midst like walking upon eggs. What is the matter? You do not know the spirit they are led by. Treat them kindly, and, perhaps, by and bye they will come to understanding. What would they do were they of one heart and mind? They would be like little children, would respect their superiors and honor their God and their religion. This they would do, if they understood things as they are. Be careful of them, and treat them kindly. Who is there that walks up to the line, and knows the will of God without being commanded?

This, to me, is illustrated in the parable of the Savior: "If you are asked to go a mile, go with him two," or, "If someone needs a coat, give him two."

A great many do; but it is not all of this people who are doing as I have been counselling you. Still I will venture to say that there are as many wise ones as foolish.

And here he took some particular pains to compare the people then with the parable of the five wise and the five foolish virgins. He says, "We have it just this way in our midst." The wise ones are diligent and laboring and keeping the commandments of God that they might be prepared for the coming of the Bridegroom and be enabled to go into the feast. The five foolish were lazy, negligent, feeling that the Lord was delaying His coming, and so they wasted their substance.

Still I will venture to say that there are as many wise ones as foolish. But many will have to separate from their own family connexions, if they do not do better. Parents and children will have to separate, and husbands and wives, ere long. How long shall they live together? Until the Lord says, gather up the tares and prepare them for the burning. I am not going to undertake to separate the tares from the wheat, the sheep from the goats, but we will try to make your goats produce fleeces of wool instead of hair, [Laughter]

...and we will keep hammering at you with the word of God, which is quick and powerful, until you become sheep,

And that is possible. The Lord told Joseph that a Gentile could be made into an Israelite by changing his blood. It is possible to reverse that process, too -- a word to the wise.

...which is quick and powerful, until you become sheep, if possible, that we may not have five foolish virgins in the company. Though in all this I do not expect to even desire to thwart the plans and sayings of Jesus Christ in the least.

Nor do I.

Let us do all the good we can, extend the hand of benevolence to all, keep the commandments of God and live our religion, and after all there will be five foolish virgins, and if we are not careful, we shall all be on the list of the foolish ones.

I dedicate myself, this congregation, and the whole interest of the kingdom of God on the earth, to our Father, to His Son Jesus Christ, and to the Holy Ghost, that we may be saved; and I pray that this may be our happy lot.

In the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Spirit of God Comes Through Prayer;
Faith Is Confidence; Give Your All to the Cause of God;
We Receive the Spirit of God Through Priesthood

I am grateful to be with you here today, brothers and sisters, in association with my dear brethren, Presidents Hammon and Musser, and I desire that the testimony of the Holy Spirit will be upon anything that I may say here. One of the greatest sermons that I have read from Heber C. Kimball is given in volume 4 of the Journals. I have always felt so strongly about this quote, remembering these various parts, that I feel like reading it here today. They have been a great strength to me in carrying on in this work.

I am grateful for the life and labors of our Priesthood fathers; and above all, for Joseph Smith, Jun., the head of this last dispensation, through whom we have obtained all that we have by the grace of our Father and our Savior, Jesus Christ, in the great restoration that has taken place. The love that existed among Joseph and those faithful brethren who stood by him to the end has been a great source of inspiration and strength to me, and the same as I have witnessed among my brethren today. I do not want to take too much time, but I feel like these things will be of very great help to us.

I would like to say one thing regarding getting and keeping the Spirit of God. You will find, brothers and sisters, that when you do not have it, you have not been praying enough. The exertion of the mind is the power of faith, through prayer, through words; and this is the means by which we can lay hold upon the blessings of the Holy Spirit, and get and keep it. You look back on your experiences, brothers and sisters, and you will find that when you have not had it, you have been remiss in your prayers, in exercising the faith necessary to lay hold upon it. He said this:

I will say, not that I speak of these things to boast, that if this people, both men and women, would pray, and that devoutly before God in their secret places, one quarter as much as brother Brigham, and I, and brother Joseph Young do, you would see different days from what you see to-day. When Jesus came to his people on this continent, and appeared in their midst, they could not at first realize and appreciate him. They saw him and felt the wounds in his side, in his hands, and in his feet, and he talked with them and instructed them, and chose and instructed twelve disciples. And after healing their sick and blessing their children, he administered bread and wine to the people, and taught them to "watch and pray always." He could not heal their sick, until through prayer they had become humble, and got the power of God on them. And when he had done this he said, bring all your children, and he blessed them one by one, and the power of God rested on them,

The Holy Ghost.

...and angels descended from heaven and encircled them round about, and ministered to them before the eyes of the people.  Through prayer, brothers and sisters, we obtain the gifts of the Spirit and the power of faith.

What do you suppose we are going to do with you? Are you ever going to be prepared to see God, Jesus Christ, His angels, or comprehend His servants, unless you take a faithful and prayerful course? Did you actually know Joseph Smith? No. Do you know brother Brigham? No. Do you know brother Heber? No, you do not. Do you know the Twelve? You do not, if you did, you would begin to know God, and learn that those men who are chosen to direct and counsel you are near kindred to God and to Jesus Christ, for the keys, power, and authority of the kingdom of God are in that lineage. I speak of these things with a view to arouse your feelings and your faithfulness towards God the Father, and His Son Jesus Christ, that you may pray and be humble, and penitent.

I am speaking of these things to comfort you, for they comfort me. I am talking to you of nothing more than what I know, feel, and have experienced. What brother Joseph Young has said, is good.

He was a prior speaker.

I feel very well in my body and in my spirit, that is, I feel well in regard to the things of God. I feel well, because there are some trying to live their religion, and worship their God in spirit and in truth. When they hear the servants of God declare the truth here, they understand it, and the seed springs up, and brings forth fruit to the glory of God, and that fruit will remain. But there are others who hear the word and do not conceive; they sit and hear the voice of God speaking through His servants, and like the sound thereof, but the moment they leave this place they forget it. Doesn't that sound like the brethren speaking to us today?

Some say that they have not faith, that they cannot believe. What is faith? It is confidence. What is confidence? It is faith. Some people are striving and striving to get faith, when saving faith is simply confidence in God, Loving God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

...flowing from walking in obedience to His commandments. When you have confidence in yourself, in any man, woman, or child, you have faith; and when you have not confidence, you have not faith. I believe they are co-partners, and the principle of faith and confidence is synonymous to
I do not care so much whether you have faith or not, for if you have confidence in yourselves, I would risk the confidence you should have in us. And if you have lost confidence in yourselves, you will not have much confidence in your brethren; and in that case I want to know what confidence you can have in your God? The Lord often takes a course to try the confidence of His people, for He planted a branch of the olive tree in the poorest spot in all the land of His vineyard, and He caused it to yield much fruit that was good. That was considered a marvellous work, and one of His servants said, "How camest thou hither to plant this tree, or this branch of the tree? for behold it was the poorest spot in all the land of thy vineyard. And the Lord of the vineyard said unto him, counsel me not, but go to and do all things as I command you."

If you do not take the course you have been told to take, and as I am trying to tell you, viz., to render all you have on this earth, every man in this Church and kingdom will be as bare when he leaves this earth as he will find himself when he gets out of it for he cannot even take his shroud with him nor a pair of stockings. I do not care if he has forty wives and a thousand children, every soul of them will be taken from him. Your wives are given to you as a stewardship to improve upon in building up and establishing the kingdom of God, and your children are given to you as a stewardship. Where did their spirits come from? Did they come from you? No; they came from God. Who is the Father of those spirits? God, and He will require them of you, and those spirits have also got to give an account to their Father from whom they came; they have got to render up an account. Thus you see, that you have to render an account of your wives and children, of your substance, and everything that pertains to this earth, and you cannot avoid it, without suffering a loss.

I want to get you to live your religion, and worship our God. I am not troubled about our not prospering; I trouble myself about living my religion and being faithful to the things of God, and that leads me to confidence, if not in myself, in my leader. It is not so much matter about my trying to obtain confidence in myself, or in you. We are to be connected like a vine, and then when we receive any good thing we will become impregnated with God, with Jesus Christ, with the Holy Ghost, and with angels, and it is the only way in which we can become one.
I feel as brother Joseph Young feels.
He had made the statement that one of the most sensitive men he knew was this Joseph Young, and that Joseph Smith the Prophet was a most sensitive man, because he had the Holy Ghost in him.

God bless him, and may he live a hundred years, if he wants to. I pray that God may renew him in body and blood, and bless him with every good thing that he desires; also brother Brigham, and brother Daniel, and brother Heber, and every other good man. That is my prayer and my feeling. And may the Lord bless every good woman with the same blessings.

Brethren, tumble in your interest into this great reservoir, and we will drink up the earth. And if you do not do it, as the Lord lives, the First Presidency of this Church and the Twelve will drink you up. If you trifle with me, when I tell you the truth, you will trifle with brother Brigham; and if you trifle with him, you will also trifle with angels and with God, and thus you will trifle yourselves down to hell. You cannot with impunity trifle with God, for the day is too far advanced for that. Do not trouble yourselves about your sins if you have repented of them; and if you have not, it is time you did.

Then there was another place in this, which I have passed over, where he said, "How will you get the Spirit of God except through us, the Priesthood of God?" And so, this is the channel, brothers and sisters. In that great article that I have read recently on becoming one, we find that is the channel by which we become one, getting and keeping the Spirit of God through our obedience, laying hold upon faith, the power of faith, through knowing that our course is pleasing to God, by obedience to God through His servants, and the brethren to the Priesthood, the sisters to their Priesthood head, and the children to them both. And this is the only way that it can be done. I pray that we may all be one in this way in our families and as a people, and seek more diligently to become more obedient, and love and serve God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; and love our neighbor as ourselves, each one in our families, and that there be no jarrings and contentions and strifes and lustful and covetous desires, by which we pollute our inheritances.

May we be that people out of the heart's core of the people that God has called out to accomplish the great work ahead of us. God bless our President, Leroy S. Johnson, with long life, with the revelations of the mind and will of God to direct us; and that we may be one as a people under him and his counselors; and that we may move forward as one people to accomplish the will of God, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Joseph Smith's Writings When in Liberty Jail

There has been on my mind a need to read Section 121 to this congregation, and I trust that the Spirit of God will dictate it as I do. Joseph Smith, you will remember, wrote an epistle to the saints from Liberty Jail in Missouri in 1839; and as he wrote this marvelous letter, the Spirit of revelation came upon him, and he dictated, or wrote, that which the Spirit of God dictated to him, and this is part of it. Section 122 and 123 are part of that letter, in which revelations were singled out for the good of the saints.

[He then read all of Section 121.]

God bless you, amen.

Funeral of Elder Lawrence Ritchie Stubbs

President Leroy S. Johnson is directing the services and has asked me to present the program. We are gathered together, brothers and sisters, and friends, to honor the memory of Elder Lawrence Ritchie Stubbs, son of Lawrence R. and Genevieve Pratt Stubbs, who was born June 2, 1936, and passed away October 26, 1976. The Lord has called home a faithful and true brother and friend, who has been faithful and true to his covenants and to the Priesthood -- his Priesthood head whom he sought to serve and to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ under. President Johnson has found him faithful and true, and, of course, he will have more to say later.

The program is arranged according to the wishes of the family, and will be presented as follows:

Prelude music Rachael Cooke & Co.
Invocation                                           President Alma Timpson
Song  (Choir)                                  "Come, O Thou King of Kings" Speaker                                                 Elder Merril Jessop
Speaker                                               Elder Louis J. Barlow
Song  (Duet)                                               "O Home Beloved"
Speaker                                          President J. Marion Hammon
Speaker                                             President Guy H. Musser
Speaker                                          President Leroy S. Johnson
Song  (Lee Darger Quartet)                                   "O Happy Home"
The program will be followed till that point, then I will have further remarks.

This great congregation and the remarks of the brethren supply ample testimony of the faith and character of Lawrence R. Stubbs. I know he has offered his all to the Lord and His servants, for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the establishment of the holy Priesthood in the earth. And I would like to add my great desire in behalf of the family, that the Lord will bless and sustain and comfort you, that all things may work together for your good and your glory in the eternal world.

Brothers and sisters, the family desires to express their great gratitude for your presence here, for the flowers and all things that have been said and done in behalf of our beloved brother, Lawrence Stubbs.

The benediction will be offered by President Richard S. Jessop. The dedication of the grave will be by Patriarch Warren E. Johnson. Pallbearers are: Lawrence Stubbs, Jun., Ronald Darger, David Stubbs, Mayo Stubbs, Milton Holm and Carl W. Holm.
You are invited to take lunch at the cafeteria after the services at the graveside.

President Johnson Stands as a God Over This People; Faith and the Pure Love of Christ Are Required; Dream of Brigham Young; False and Delusive Spirits

I deeply appreciate the life and labors of my beloved brother, Richard Jessop, a wonderful example to me of faith and integrity and holding fast to the iron rod and the testimony that he has received regarding the Priesthood some fifty-three years ago, it was. [He turned to Uncle Rich] Wasn't it 1923? A wonderful example of a saint enduring to the end, and I pray that that end may not come soon, that he will continue with us to continue to testify of the truths of the Priesthood and of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. I am grateful to be his fellow servant in the Priesthood.

I am grateful for President Johnson, the wonderful example that he sets before us; above all, for the character, the Godlike character of Leroy S. Johnson. And if you please, brothers and sisters, he stands as a god over this people -- the keyholder -- and I think we need to appreciate him more and follow in his footsteps more perfectly. It is a wonderful thing we have set before us, brothers and sisters, and we ought to follow it and be faithful and true, as these brethren have been.

I pray the Lord to bless me in my remarks, whatever He feels to give us at this time, as His humble instrument. I am led to read a verse of Section 38 of the Doctrine and Covenants.

D.& C. 38

27. Behold, this I have given unto you as a parable, and it is even as I am. I will read the parable first.

25. And again I say unto you, let every man esteem his brother as himself.  26. For what man among you having twelve sons, and is no respecter of them, and they serve him obediently, and he saith unto the one: Be thou clothed in robes and sit thou here; and to the other: Be thou clothed in rags and sit thou there -- and looketh upon his sons and saith I am just?  27. Behold, this I have given unto you as a parable, and it is even as I am. I say unto you, be one; and if ye are not one ye are not mine.

That, to me, brethren and sisters, holds a great meaning. And, applying it to myself and my family, and to this people, where do we stand with the Lord, brothers and sisters? "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." This means that we must be one, here and now, not someday when we hope to be in the Celestial Kingdom with God the Father, and His Son Jesus Christ, and Joseph Smith the Prophet, and our Priesthood fathers.

The holy Celestial Law of Marriage and its companion principle, the Holy United Order, are designed to accomplish that grand end of our becoming one, that He may own us and use us for His purposes in the earth. We have held before us continually, by our President and head, the grand object of becoming one, that we might, under the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, be prepared to redeem Zion. It takes faith, brothers and sisters, and the pure love of Christ, the glorious principle of charity, to accomplish these things. If we are not enjoying them, there must be a very good reason for it, and I find the answer in Lecture Seven.

Lecture Seven

8. ...When men begin to live by faith they begin to draw near to God; and when faith is perfected they are like him; and because he is saved they are saved also; for they will be in the same situation he is in, because they have come to him; and when he appears they shall be like him, for they will see him as he is.

If we are to become one, we are going to have to accomplish it through the power of faith in God, loving Him and serving Him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. The effects of faith are these:

17. ...And through the whole history of the scheme of life and salvation, it is a matter of faith: every man received according to his faith -- according as his faith was, so were his blessings and privileges; and nothing was withheld from him when his faith was sufficient to receive it. He could stop the mouths of lions, quench the violence of fire, escape the edge of the sword, wax valiant in fight, and put to flight the armies of the aliens; women could, by their faith, receive their dead children to life again; in a word, there was nothing impossible with them who had faith. All things were in subjection to the Former-day Saints, according as their faith was. By their faith they could obtain heavenly visions, the ministering of angels, have knowledge of the spirits of just men made perfect, of the general assembly and church of the first born, whose names are written in heaven, of God the judge of all, of Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and become familiar with the third heavens, see and hear things which were not only unutterable, but were unlawful to utter.

These may be great and sensational things to accomplish by faith, but we will not be saved and exalted in the presence of God ourselves, except by the power of faith and the love of God, one of the attributes of the Holy Spirit, which is the key to our obtaining that salvation and being one, getting and keeping the Spirit of God. The attributes of God are recounted by Joseph in these Lectures: Knowledge, faith, justice, judgment, mercy, and truth, and love. Lay hold upon the Holy Spirit so that it is our constant companion, and we will thus be one, because we have the attributes of God through this Spirit which is in us.

I would like to read the word of God in these matters. Jesus was praying to the Father just before He was to offer Himself for the sins of the world; and He had just revealed the name of the man, or the personage of the man who was to betray Him. But He was praying for His Apostles, His friends:

John 17

17. Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth.
18. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
20. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;
21. That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

Now, to show you the power of a people being one. This is in the time when Peter was presiding. Jesus had gone to the other side, and God had blessed them with the other Comforter which He promised, and they had had the Holy Ghost. When these saints had prayed, and there were many together on this occasion:

Acts 4

31. ...the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.
32. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

They were living and abiding the Holy United Order, and certainly they were abiding in the Celestial Law of Marriage. Now this shows us, brothers and sisters, what can be accomplished by our being one. Zion's Camp could have redeemed Zion even then, had two hundred men been one. The Lord told them they would if they would go and stand behind their head and follow him to the death, if necessary, and not murmur, but be one.

What God can do with even two men together, they put to flight thousands when they are filled with the Holy Ghost, as Heber C. Kimball described. But a concourse of two hundred men, or five hundred, which has been suggested, may have been the number which Enoch was able to make one with him in olden time. They had to be one, brothers and sisters, or they could not have been translated and taken up into heaven with a part of this earth; and we are not going to be the Lord's until we are one.

Joseph Smith told Brigham Young exactly how to do it. I am going to read again this dream that Brigham had in Winter Quarters in 1847.

Truth 11:203

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:

"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:

"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

And this is how he answered him:

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph then showed the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Here he was telling him about the grand principle of adoption and sealing.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

This is the unifying power, brothers and sisters, which can and must be received through the channels of the holy Priesthood, through our head. I would like to read a few more of the fruits of the Spirit, which should help us. This comes under the title, "False and Delusive Spirits", which we find in That other item, which you may ask about, is in volume 11, page 203 of Truth.

False and Delusive Spirits  (Truth 16:106)

Some may ask, "How shall I know when I am operated upon by a false spirit?" There are many keys by which the door of knowledge is unlocked to the Saints in relation to spirits, as well as other things pertaining to the kingdom; but one may suffice at the present time, for we have not designed this brief notice to cover all or any considerable portion of the ground which the subject includes.

The spirit of heaven

The Spirit of God, ...is a spirit of peace, joy, comfort, consolation, and knowledge to its possessor; and all Saints who have enjoyed this spirit, (and all Saints have more or less), may know, when this peaceful spirit dwelling within them is disturbed, that something is wrong, that some false spirit is lurking within or about them, striving to enter; and if they will resist the first impulse of their disturbed feelings, and command Satan in the name of Jesus to depart, peace will instantly be restored to their souls.

It is not the wrongdoings of others

Listen carefully to this, brothers and sisters:

It is not the wrongdoings of others that destroy that peace within ourselves which the world can neither give nor take away; If we have the Spirit of God, nothing that anyone else can do or say can disturb us, if we know how to keep it.

...it is our own wrongs which cause that peaceful spirit to leave us; How many times have we blamed someone else for our losing the Spirit of God?

...it is our own wrongs which cause that peaceful spirit to leave us; and would to God that this truth were indelibly imprinted on the heart and recollection of every Saint. It is your own wrongs or evil spirits that destroy your peace, and not the wrongs of your friend or neighbor. Know ye, all ye Saints, if the peace of heaven and a foretaste of the blessings of the celestial world are not continually with you, there is something wrong within, some foul spirit has got possession of yourself, and the quicker you dispossess it the better.
Carry out this principle, and what will be the result? Every Saint will live by his creed, and "mind his own business". Every dear wife will look with a zealous eye towards the happiness and welfare of her dear husband, and if she is tempted to think he is doing wrong, she will say, Get thee behind me, Satan, that is none of my business. I will do right, that is enough for me, and I shall have peace in my soul. And so continue to do, till he has done so wrong that forbearance is no longer a virtue.

Then let him go. Jealous husbands are about as bad -- "mighty big husbands" who cannot see their wife or wives do right at any price. And so, brothers and sisters, I come to one of the most comforting scriptures that I have ever read, and it helps me to keep at peace: "All things shall work together for good to them that love God." If we truly and continually love God and keep His Spirit, it does not matter what may come; it is designed by the Lord for our good, and we never need to accuse God; we need never to accuse one another. Joseph Smith said to the brethren, "If you will not accuse me, I will not accuse you, and I will take you into heaven as my back load," and it would be by the power of his Priesthood. It is by the power of the Priesthood, which power is that of the Holy Ghost, which we must use in directing our families and doing all things, that we are able to accomplish this business of getting and keeping the Spirit of God. It is a skill, brothers and sisters. It seems to me if we did mind our own business, we would be able to do it a lot better.

In speaking of the First and Second Comforter, the Prophet Joseph Smith said this:

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass;

And here is the point.

...and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it,

And may I add, "and keeping it,"

...you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.
Then we will be like Him and see Him as He is. What a wonderful promise Moroni gives us in the seventh of Moroni, speaking of charity and love. This is the very essence of the Spirit of God, and I read into it "the Holy Spirit" when I read this last verse of the seventh chapter of Moroni.

Moroni 7

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,
That is faith in operation, the exertion of the mind. That is the power of faith, and it must and always will be obtained through the power of prayer.

48. ...pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

So we must strive, brothers and sisters, to be filled with the Holy Ghost, that we may be one. And further from the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith in Lecture Five, we have this grand truth which shows us that we must be one. We must obtain a fullness of the Spirit of God.

Lecture Five

2. ...all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness,
In other words, are one heart and one mind.

2. ...even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit. As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Which I pray we may be, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Why the Saints Were Driven From Jackson County;
How to Clean Up Our Minds

I am surely grateful, brothers and sisters, for the opportunity of being with you again today and to be under the direction of President Johnson. I feel impressed to read something regarding Zion, when Joseph led the saints there to redeem it and to build it up, and what happened and what caused them to be cast out. On page 18 of the Teachings, we have this letter written by Joseph Smith the Prophet to William W. Phelps.

TPJS Page 18

I send you the "olive leaf" which we have plucked from the Tree of Paradise, the Lord's message of peace to us;
That is what is now Section 88 of the Doctrine of Covenants.

...the Lord's message of peace to us; for though our brethren in Zion indulge in feelings towards us, which are not according to the requirements of the new covenant, yet, we have the satisfaction of knowing that the Lord approves of us, and has accepted us, and established His name in Kirtland for the salvation of the nations; for the Lord will have a place whence His word will go forth, in these last days, in purity; for if Zion will not purify herself, so as to be approved of in all things, in His sight, He will seek another people; for His work will go on until Israel is gathered, and they who will not hear His voice, must expect to feel His wrath. Let me say unto you, seek to purify yourselves, and also the inhabitants of Zion, lest the Lord's anger be kindled to fierceness.

This was January 14th, of 1833. They had been there two years, or a year and a half.

Repent, repent, is the voice of God to Zion; and strange as it may appear, yet it is true, mankind will persist in self-justification until all their iniquity is exposed, and their character past being redeemed, and that which is treasured up in their hearts be exposed to the gaze of mankind. I say to you (and what I say to you I say to all), hear the warning voice of God, lest Zion fall, and the Lord swear in His wrath the inhabitants of Zion shall not enter into His rest.

The brethren in Kirtland pray for you unceasingly, for, knowing the terrors of the Lord, they greatly fear for you. You will see that the Lord commanded us, in Kirtland, to build a house of God, and establish a school for the Prophets, this is the word of the Lord to us, and we must, yea, the Lord helping us, we will obey: as on conditions of our obedience He has promised us great things; yea, even a visit from the heavens to honor us with His own presence.

And that took place with the dedication of the Kirtland Temple.

We greatly fear before the Lord lest we should fail of this great honor, which our Master proposes to confer on us; we are seeking for humility and great faith lest we be ashamed in His presence. Our hearts are greatly grieved at the spirit which is breathed both in your letter and that of Brother Gilbert's, the very spirit which is wasting the strength of Zion like a pestilence; and if it is not detected and driven from you, it will ripen Zion for the threatened judgments of God. Remember God sees the secret springs of human action, and knows the hearts of all living.

I wonder if we keep this in mind, brothers and sisters.

Brother, suffer us to speak plainly, for God has respect to the feelings of His Saints, and He will not suffer them to be tantalized with impunity. * * * All we can say by way of conclusion is, if the fountain of our tears be not dried up, we will still weep for Zion. This from your brother who trembles for Zion, and for the wrath of heaven, which awaits her if she repents not.

The saints were driven out the following Fall, in November of 1833. What a warning this was to them. Now brothers and sisters, I think we have it. And I keep repeating it, why it was the saints had to be chastised in this fashion, in Section 101.

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;
3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.
4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

It is only the sanctified who will be used to make up the Father's jewels. To be sanctified, we must clean up our minds and hearts every whit.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; Let me repeat them again.
   6. ...there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, Jealousy.
   6. ...and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

Aren't these the things that exist in our families that are keeping us from cleaning up our lives and being prepared for these blessings? These words that President Johnson read to us just now, "we must be clean every whit," strikes a very serious note in our lives, and we had better be quick about doing something about it. Then He goes on to say:

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.
8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.
9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

Then two months later -- this was in December of 1833, the Lord said this -- in February of 1834, the Lord called for five hundred men to go back and redeem Zion. He got a party of two hundred and five, and they went with one instruction -- that they were to follow their head and be fully obedient, and go without murmuring, without the spirit of criticism, and without these things that I have enumerated here. That party hardly got to the Mississippi River before they had broken their covenant. But that was a great testing time and proved the men who were to be called to lead Israel.

Now brothers and sisters, I don't think we think of these things as being serious -- strifes, contentions, jarrings, criticisms of the Priesthood over us -- the things that I read here that Joseph called to the attention of W. W. Phelps and Brother Gilbert.

Now what must we do to clean up our minds? I would like to call attention to a few things we don't think about. In watching television, in going to movies, and listening to rock music, we are cluttering up our minds. President Johnson has said these silly tunes, these crazy songs that the devil puts out for the public consumption; getting into our minds they stick there, and pretty soon they are being memorized and sung when they are played. He says the Spirit of God cannot be in our hearts, our minds with those things there. [Turning to President Johnson] Isn't that right, Brother Johnson? [President Johnson: "That's right."]

The world and the doings of satan is so full of satanic and devilish things, that we little recognize them when they are presented before us, brothers and sisters; and these things are doing terrible things to the minds of our children. The suggestive things that are thrown in advertising, even in the newspapers and magazines, all of these things are very suggestive and clutter up our minds. We must clean them up from these things and create an atmosphere in our homes where the Spirit of God can dwell. These are the things that pollute and destroy. Immorality, practices that are destructive of the very life and soul of men and women, and of children, are among us. To be pure means to be sexually pure. This is the cardinal sin in the world today, the terrible immorality that is all around us. So we must clean up in this way and abide the laws of chastity in our families and in all of our doings. We must be clean every whit.

I love the proverb in which is spoken, "Come to the Lord with clean hands and pure hearts," clean hands and pure hearts. We must present ourselves in that condition before He can bless us and own us, and before we can be one. So, a part of the process of becoming one is to clean up our minds and bodies, our hearts, and live in love together, in our families and as a people.
Until we come to this point, brothers and sisters, the Lord will not own us and bless us; and I pray that we may indeed come to this condition with full purpose of heart.

We ought to memorize these verses:

D. & C. 4

1. Now behold, a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.
2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.
3. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.
4. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

In cleaning up our minds, we have got to put in their place these things that constitute the attributes of God; which the Holy Spirit will give us if we will but get it and keep it. And here is the very essence of faith:

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

God bless you, amen.
I am very happy to be here with you, my dear brothers and sisters, in association with Presidents Hammon and Jessop, and desire to be an instrument in the hands of the Lord in encouraging you, my brothers and sisters, in your faith in God and His Son Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost. This is the greatest principle of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the first principle, faith in God; for it was by faith that the worlds were created and all things that in them are, and by which we have been brought forth in this earth as a spirit and bodily children of our Father in heaven.

D.& C. 93

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that every soul who forsaketh his sins and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name, and obeyeth my voice, and keepeth my commandments, shall see my face and know that I am;

Now isn't that the object of our faith, brothers and sisters, that we may come up to see the face of Father again, from whose bosom we came into the earth to work out our salvation and exaltation, if we be found worthy; that we may go back, passing by those who are set, and be introduced by those who know Him, and come again into His presence? The Lord goes on to speak through Joseph in Section 93, to tell how we must receive a fullness of the Holy Spirit, even as Jesus Christ did, in order to come up to see Him and the Father. And he makes this very significant statement and truth:

19. I give unto you these sayings that you may understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship, that you may come unto the Father in my name, and in due time receive of his fulness.

Now brothers and sisters, I wonder if our young people here have been fully taught the grand doctrine that we may know our Father, and who He is, and what He is; and who Jesus Christ is, and what He is; and who the Holy Ghost is, and what he, and it, is. I feel like giving some instructions from our Priesthood fathers.
Everlasting covenant was made between three personages before the organization of this earth, and relates to their dispensation of things to men on the earth; these personages, according to Abraham's record,

Abraham's record was that which we have as the Book of Abraham in the Pearl of Great Price. Joseph didn't translate it all. There was a record of Joseph also included in the Papyrus, where these sacred records were found. These:

...are called God the first, the Creator; God the second, the Redeemer; and God the third, the witness or Testator.

Brigham Young:

It is true that the earth was organized by three distinct characters, namely, Eloheim, Yahovah, and Michael, these three forming a quorum, as in all heavenly bodies, and in organizing element, perfectly represented in the Deity, as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Joseph Smith:

The heads of the Gods appointed one God for us; and when you take [that] view of the subject, it sets one free to see all the beauty, holiness and perfection of the Gods.

Heber C. Kimball:

I have learned by experience that there is but one God that pertains to this people, Having spoken of the others.

...and He is the God that pertains to this earth -- the first man. That first man sent his own Son to redeem the world, to redeem his brethren;

Joseph Smith again:

Eloheim is from the word Eloi, God, in the singular number; and by adding the heim, it renders it Gods.  I once asked a learned Jew, "If the Hebrew language compels us to render all words ending in heim in the plural why not render the first Eloheim plural?" He replied, "That is the rule with few exceptions; but in this case it would ruin the Bible."
Now hear it, O inhabitants of the earth, Jew and Gentile, Saint and sinner! When our father Adam came into the garden of Eden, he came into it with a celestial body, and brought Eve, one of his wives, with him. We understand from additional revelation that He brought at least three. He helped to make and organize this world. He is MICHAEL, the Archangel, the ANCIENT OF DAYS! about whom holy men have written and spoken -- He is our FATHER and our GOD, and the only God with whom WE have to do. Every man upon the earth, professing Christians or non-professing, must hear it, and will know it sooner or later. They came here, organized the raw material, and arranged in their order the herbs of the field, the trees, the apple, the peach, the plum, the pear, and every other fruit that is desirable and good for man; the seed was brought from another sphere, and planted in this earth. The thistle, the thorn, the brier, and the obnoxious weed did not appear until after the earth was cursed. When Adam and Eve had eaten of the forbidden fruit, their bodies became mortal from its effects, and therefore their offspring were mortal.

You recognize that as the words of Brigham Young.

Though we have it in history that our father Adam was made of the dust of this earth, and that he knew nothing about his God previous to being made here, yet it is not so; and when we learn the truth we shall see and understand that he helped to make this world, and was the chief manager in that operation.

I hope the young people are listening to these things.

He was the person who brought the animals and the seeds from other planets to this world, and brought a wife with him and stayed here. You may read and believe what you please as to what is found written in the Bible. Adam was made from the dust of an earth, but not from the dust of this earth. He was made as you and I are made, and no person was ever made upon any other principle.

Do you not suppose that he was acquainted with his associates, who came and helped to make this earth? Yes, they were just as familiar with each other as we are with our children and parents.
My brother said that God is as we are. He did not mean those words to be literally understood. He meant simply, that in our organization we have all the properties in embryo in our bodies that our Father has in his, and that literally, morally, socially, by the spirit and by the flesh we are his children. Do you think that God, who holds the eternities in his hands and can do all things at his pleasure, is not capable of sending forth his own children, and forming this flesh for his own offspring? Where is the mystery in this? We say that Father Adam came here and helped to make the earth. Who is he? He is Michael, a great Prince, and it was said to him by Elohim, "Go ye and make an earth." What is the great mystery about it? He came and formed the earth.  Adam came here and got it up in a shape that would suit him to commence business. What is the great mystery about it? None, that I have seen. The mystery in this, as with miracles, or anything else, is only to those who are ignorant. Father Adam came here, and then they brought his wife. "Well," says one, "Why was Adam called Adam"? He was the first man on the earth, and its framer and maker.

"Adam" means "man". Jesus Christ was the Son of Man.

He, with the help of his brethren, brought it into existence. Then he said, "I want my children who are in the spirit world to come and live here. I once dwelt upon an earth something like this, in a mortal state. I was faithful, I received my crown and exaltation. I have the privilege of extending my work, and to its increase there will be no end.

He is saying the same things, that it is possible to do for those who become sons of God.

I want my children that were born to me in the spirit world to come here and take tabernacles of flesh that their spirits may have a house, a tabernacle or a dwelling place as mine has," and where is the mystery?

After men have got their exaltations and their crowns -- have become Gods, even the sons of God -- are made Kings of kings and Lords of lords, they have the power then of propagating their species in spirit; and that is the first of their operations with regard to organizing a world. Power is then given to them to organize the elements, and then commence the organization of tabernacles. How can they do it? Have they to go to that earth? Yes, an Adam will have to go there, and he cannot do without Eve;
"Eve" means "many", many wives.

...he must have Eve to commence the work of generation, and they will go into the garden, and continue to eat and drink of the fruits of the corporeal world, until this grosser matter is diffused sufficiently through their celestial bodies to enable them, according to the established laws, to produce mortal tabernacles for their spiritual children.

This is a key for you. The faithful will become Gods, even the sons of God;
As joint heirs with Jesus Christ, heirs of God, when they have attained unto a fullness of the Holy Spirit. Parley P. Pratt, in the Key to Theology, draws a beautiful picture for us about the creation, so-called.

Key to Theology Page 49
A royal Planter now descends from yonder world of older date, and bearing in his hand the choice seeds of the older Paradise, he plants them in the virgin soil of our new born earth. They grow and flourish there, and, bearing seed, replant themselves, and thus clothe the naked earth with scenes of beauty and the air with fragrant incense. Ripening fruits and herbs at length abound. When lo! from yonder world is transferred every species of animal life. Male and female, they come, with blessings on their heads, and a voice is heard again, "Be fruitful and multiply."

Earth, its mineral, vegetable and animal wealth, its Paradise prepared, down comes from yonder world on high a son of God, with his beloved spouse. And thus a colony from heaven, it may be from the sun, is transplanted on our soil.

JD 4:54  Brigham Young  September 21, 1856  SLC

When you are prepared to see our Father, you will see a being with whom you have long been acquainted,
Isn't it wonderful how close our Father is to us? And how the faith of the Latter-day Saints has been destroyed by the satanic doctrines of James E.
Talmage and others who have spiritualized our Father away from us -- far, far away -- and made Him, as it were, a non-entity. Thank God we know who our Father is and how we can come to Him and be like Him.

When you are prepared to see our Father, you will see a being with whom you have long been acquainted, and He will receive you into His arms, and you will be ready to fall into His embrace and kiss Him,

JD 4:54  Brigham Young  September 21, 1856  SLC

If we could see our heavenly Father, we should see a being similar to our earthly parent, with this difference, our Father in heaven is exalted and glorified. He has received His thrones, His principalities and powers,

The things that are promised us in the marriage covenant, brothers and sisters.

RTJ 4:57  December 5, 1976  CCA

...and He sits as a governor, as a monarch, and overrules kingdoms, thrones, and dominions that have been bequeathed to Him, and such as we anticipate receiving.

Joseph Smith:

TPJS Page 345

God himself was once as we are now, and is an exalted man, and sits enthroned in yonder heavens! That is the great secret. If the veil were rent today, and the great God who holds this world in its orbit, and who upholds all worlds and all things by his power, was to make himself visible, -- I say, if you were to see him today, you would see him like a man in form -- like yourselves in all the person, image, and very form as a man; for Adam was created in the very fashion, image and likeness of God, His God.

RTJ 4:57  December 5, 1976  CCA

...and received instruction from, and walked, talked and conversed with him, as one man talks and communes with another. ***

RTJ 4:57  December 5, 1976  CCA

It is the first principle of the Gospel to know for a certainty the Character of God, and to know that we may converse with him as one man converses with another, and that he was once a man like us; yea, that God himself, the Father of us all, dwelt on an earth, the same as Jesus Christ himself did; and I will show it from the Bible.

Now for Jesus Christ:

JD 1:50  Brigham Young  April 9, 1852  SLC

When the Virgin Mary conceived the child Jesus, the Father had begotten him in his own likeness. He was not begotten by the Holy Ghost. As the Bible says. Mary was overshadowed by the Holy Ghost, but that is all.
And who is the Father? He is the first of the human family; and when he took a tabernacle, it was begotten by his Father in heaven, after the same manner as the tabernacles of Cain, Abel, and the rest of the sons and daughters of Adam and Eve; from the fruits of the earth, the first earthly tabernacles were originated by the Father, and so on in succession.

Again, they will try to tell how the divinity of Jesus is joined to his humanity, and exhaust all their mental faculties, and wind up with this profound language, as describing the soul of man, "it is an immaterial substance!"

That is the kind of a god they worship.

What a learned idea! Jesus, our elder brother, was begotten in the flesh by the same character that was in the garden of Eden, (Adam) and who is our Father in Heaven. Now, let all who may hear these doctrines, pause before they make light of them, or treat them with indifference, for they will prove their salvation or damnation.

Such is our Lord Jesus Christ. That Character, that Son of God in the spirit, the Firstborn of the Father of all of our spirits, of the Father in our pre-existence, who offered Himself as a propitiation of the sins of Adam, to be, and of all of the rest of us, of His brothers and sisters who should come and follow Him; that Being was born through Mary, overshadowed by the Holy Ghost; and is our Lord Jesus Christ, the Redeemer, the second Personage in the Godhead. Now, remembering what we read regarding the three Personages:

...these personages, according to Abraham's record, are called God the first, the Creator; God the second, the Redeemer; and God the third, the witness or Testator.

Joseph Smith, Jun., reserved and sent in this last dispensation to receive the keys of all the former dispensations, under Christ and Father Michael, is in the office of the Holy Ghost. He was Their Witness and Testator. He saw Them personally, together, and received instruction and was directed by Them to the rest of his days in mortality, and, of course, still does. Heber C. Kimball:

JD 5:179 Heber C. Kimball August 23, 1857 SLC

...let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man; he is one of the sons of our Father and our God; and he is that man that stood next to Jesus Christ,
And he is a God. He made this statement, which many of his brethren, I am sure, resented: "He," Father, "will make me to be God to you in His stead, and the Elders to be mouth for me."

The Holy Ghost is the mind of the Father and the Son, speaking of that spiritual power; but the Holy Ghost exists as a man in the Godhead. The Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost, is the mind of the Father and the Son and by which they are actuated; and is that great creating power that our Father, through faith, formed this earth, and accomplishes all of the designs of eternity for and in our behalf. These are They, my dear brothers and sisters, whom we worship, and we should know how to worship; and that is by laying hold of, as our constant guide and companion, the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit, whatever name you wish to give.

This power and spirit issues forth and emanates from our Father, Michael, and goes throughout His dominions, and is the power by which He acts and does all the great works of creation and exaltation. That is the power by which we will become one with Them, and come up again to see His face.
So when we worship the Lord, we love Him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

The attributes of God we know from the Lectures on Faith as being justice, knowledge, faith or power -- combining the principle of faith with the Holy Ghost all things are possible to us, according to the will of God, agreeable to His will -- justice, judgment, mercy, truth, and love. Love has been called charity, or the pure love of Christ, and is the very essence of the Holy Spirit.

Moroni gives us these beautiful words regarding this attribute, which has been called the greatest of the three: faith, hope, and charity. But I hesitate to say which is greatest, really, because they all must be bound together as the attributes of the Holy Spirit which is in the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost, whom we worship.

Moroni 7

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever;
I like to think of this word "charity" in this connection, as being the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God.

47.  ...and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48.  Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

That is faith -- praying to God with all of the energy of heart, knowing that our course is pleasing to Him, and that we have offered all things in sacrifice, all earthly things, offered all that we have and are; knowing, therefore, we have made that sacrifice, we may have full confidence in calling upon the Lord through the exertion of the mind, which Joseph says is the very essence of faith. Wherefore pray, my beloved brethren and sisters,

48.  ...unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love,

The Holy Spirit.

48.  ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;

As one man with another.

48.  ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

And thus, my dear brothers and sisters, we find out how to worship God. We love one another according as we have these attributes of the Holy Spirit. As these attributes exist in one another, we love them, and we love that person. That is why we should love God first and foremost, and we do, because He is perfect in these attributes. God help us and bless us to worship and serve Him in spirit and in truth, and do all things with an eye single to His glory -- single to His glory -- I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of Elder George Millward Jessop
Son of President Richard S. Jessop

I rejoice in having a part in this glorious and sacred occasion and feel honored and blessed in being called upon to speak concerning my dear brother, George. When I saw Brother George at the Veteran's Hospital last summer, I saw a demonstration of divine faith, true faith; his expressions of love for the Priesthood, for his father and his beloved wife and children, who were all there with him on that occasion. I visited him on another occasion a few weeks afterwards. He had an abiding faith in God. He desired to continue in the earth; but above that, he desired the will of God.

True faith and loyalty to God and His Priesthood highlighted the life of this man, whom I love because of the great integrity of his soul, and that he had taken on himself the attributes of God through His Spirit.

I am satisfied that he has gone through the veil clean and pure and sanctified, and he has done this through great suffering. This was said of my dear mother, who suffered so many years in bed -- my sainted mother. Brother George was, and is, a true saint. And I feel, as Brother Guy, that he made his full and complete offering in sacrifice, including his life; and he will be added upon in the holy Celestial Law, the Family Order of Heaven. He was ready and willing and able to do all things whatsoever the Lord should command him, and he lived by every word of God. He truly had a great example in the life of his father, whom he loved with all his heart, as Brother Guy has said; and I concur fully in all that has been said concerning beloved Brother George.

This great attribute of faith and loyalty to God is what we all need, brothers and sisters. It was said by the Spirit of God to Heber C. Kimball, as he languished in sorrow over his family in Far West -- and his beloved Prophet Joseph Smith was languishing in jail in Liberty, Missouri -- he was told in comfort by the Spirit of God that his family was well. He was told by the Lord that he had followed every word of God, and he had always followed the direction and counsel of Joseph Smith, Jun., his Prophet and his head. Joseph was loved of him because of his perfect character; and Joseph loved Heber because of his perfect character, and even told him where his inheritance would be in Zion, on the north of his own.

This true love of brethren is, to me, the greatest example of true love, which is loving Priesthood and God above all things. If this would be our ideal and goal, I am sure we would make greater progress and become that prepared people, and become one through the Holy Ghost, by being loyal and true to our Priesthood head, President Leroy S. Johnson.
This great work of preparation will not be accomplished, brothers and sisters, anything short of that, by our rallying behind our head; and as it were though to redeem Zion, without murmuring, walking in complete and perfect obedience, and thus obtain that perfect faith, which will enable us to lay hold upon eternal life and go again into the presence of God.

God bless this family. It is an illustrious family, and all will be well. All is indeed well for them, and I pray it may be well for us, and with us, as we walk in perfect obedience to the Gospel of Jesus Christ under our head, that we may be perfect as he is perfect, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Liars Cannot See Truth; Faith

When Brother Hammon was speaking of liars, I came across an item from the Truth Magazine, volume 13, page 329, that I would like to pass on to you.

Earl L. Douglass Truth 13:329
"The soul works in such a way that you can't see the truth if you give up telling it."

I will repeat that.
"The soul works in such a way that you can't see the truth if you give up telling it." In other words, the nemesis [a just punishment] of lying is that it makes people blind to the truth.

Did you ever think of it in that way?

The liar gets to the place where he doesn't know truth when he sees it. He breaks down in his own thinking the solid wall which divides truth from falsehood and the result of such a churning together of things true and things untrue that for the life of him the purveyor of falsehood cannot tell one from the other. Mentally the liar loses the capacity for sound judgment, spiritually he loses the capacity to see things as they really are.

That is an awful state to be in, isn't it?

It is not possible to have satisfactory human relationships without veracity. If business men lie to each other the foundations of trade are destroyed.
Now listen to this, mothers and fathers.

If husband and wife deceive each other the warning of disaster sounds out with awful foreboding. Parents who twist the truth, equivocate, and lie on all occasions, set an example to their children which will handicap them in later life more than the loss of hands, feet or eyes. In fact, what they do is to teach their children to become blind because once people give up telling truth they lose the capacity to know the truth when they see it.

Just a word to the wise. Brothers and sisters, we call your attention so many times to the great work in which we are engaged, and what the next step is. This people must become perfect enough in their homes that their homes be temples, that they may be sanctified and be worthy to be endowed, that we might have our calling and election made sure. This is the great object that was called to our attention by the Prophet Joseph Smith. We cannot accomplish this, brothers and sisters, without the great attribute faith. By faith we will lay hold upon the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We will be able to get and keep the Spirit of God. Actually, faith is one of attributes of the Holy Spirit. But it must start somewhere, and it must start in the bosom of each of us. Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. It is a principle of action; and above all, it is a principle of power -- power with God.

I am going to read something I have read before, because I am sure we have some other very important instructions to receive today. We are not going to obtain anything except by faith, as Joseph, when pondering his future and being led by the Lord, went to Hebrews which said:

5. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering.

That fourteen-year-old boy went to the woods knowing that he would obtain an answer, so great was his faith. He then and there saw the Father and the Son, and he became Their Witness, and holds the office of the Holy Ghost, and is one of the Godhead. He is one with Them, Father, Son and Holy Ghost. And he obtained all things thereafter -- the holy Priesthood, the holy endowments, the sealing keys -- by faith, as it existed in his bosom. He obtained that faith by sacrificing all things and becoming perfectly obedient to every word that proceeded forth from the mouth of God.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, We know very well who He is, and what He is, His character and His attributes. We should know by now how to worship Him in spirit and in truth.

...a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect,

When we know that our course is pleasing to Him, we have power with Him. Faith, walking as seeing Him who is invisible, this,

...will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until We are full of the Holy Ghost. Then,

...the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Which may God grant us, through our faith, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Our Homes Must Become Temples;
Apostasy Begins With Criticism;
We Should Feel Very Uncomfortable Without the Spirit of God;
D.& C. 121

The time is far spent, but I feel like taking a few minutes to bring something to our attention, brothers and sisters, with the help of the Lord and His Spirit.
It is something that I have talked a good deal about in recent months, both to the saints and to my family. This people will not become any better or greater than its component parts, but God will have His people by the set time to redeem Zion. We have had called to our attention the fact that we must, this people must make temples of their homes. And I dare say that if we don't, we are not going to be found among that people who will redeem Zion, and be able to go to the constructed temples of the Lord to obtain our blessings.

We have been told that if a group of brethren -- let us speak of the brethren -- were called together to receive instructions and a visit from our Priesthood fathers, that they would have to be so much of one heart and one mind, that were the opposite to come about, the spirit of contention, to contend in the least degree; if that spirit should rear its head in that group, those brethren would have to depart, and they would.

Now what is it, brethren and sisters, that is going to make us of one heart and one mind? The Holy Ghost, the mind of the Father and of the Son, and the power through faith by which They have accomplished all things for the salvation of the sons and daughters of God. The Holy Spirit must be the constant companion in a family, in a house, which is a temple; a constant companion, for it to be purified and cleansed sufficient to have these glorious things take place.

What did the Lord say was the cause of the saints having polluted their inheritances in Zion? These are the very things that keep the Spirit of God out of our families; it is just that simple. The Lord said there were jarrings, contentions, and strifes, and envyings, and lustful and covetous desires. By these things, He said they polluted their inheritances; these simple things, brethren and sisters, that haunt our homes continually. It is because we have allowed the devil to get in. Brother Guy has often mentioned how, because of our covetous and selfish desires and ways, we call upon the devil for aid. Have you ever thought of it that way, brothers and sisters? That is the way it is -- calling upon the devil for aid to help us in our contention for that which we are trying to accomplish for our selfish desires, covetous desires. Where these jarrings and strifes and contentions are, there the Spirit of God cannot be; and we are actuated by one spirit or the other, the Spirit of God or the spirit of the devil. It is difficult for me to see how a man can stand alone, having come to a knowledge and understanding of the love of the truth, and say that he is not governed by either the Spirit of God or the spirit of the devil. There are three spirits -- the spirit of man, the Spirit of God and the spirit of the devil. But when we have been given the gift of the Holy Ghost, it is one or the other that will actuate a man or a woman. Can we not see, then, why Joseph, as he came to Brigham in the dream, said, "Tell the people to get and keep the Spirit of God. They cannot go on without it. There is no salvation without it."

What comes from these things, brothers and sisters, these things I have enumerated by which they polluted their inheritances? Some of those men and women apostatized, a great many of them; and it was because, through the spirit of criticism, contentions, and strife, they soon became accusers of the brethren, and you know the result.

Thomas B. Marsh, contending over the supposed injustices done to his wife, and the quarrel over the strippings of the milk; and he took it up through the courts of the Priesthood, and he finally went. He was the man who turned to the governor of Missouri and gave them the information, and brought upon them the Exterminating Order.

Now these things come about from the very simple thing that Brother Johnson has told us about so many, many times -- criticism. That criticism then turns to accusation one against another, and soon it is translated into accusing the Priesthood, our Priesthood head; and there is where the trouble comes.

I am not going to say a great deal more, but I find great strength in giving the words of Joseph. This isn't me speaking. This is Joseph the Prophet, the Holy Ghost, one of the Godhead standing with Jesus and Father Michael.

TPJS Page 193
Do Not Accuse the Brethren

I charged the Saints not to follow the example of the adversary in accusing the brethren, and said, "If you do not accuse each other, God will not accuse you. If you have no accuser you will enter heaven, and if you will follow the revelations and instructions which God gives you through me, Joseph.

...I will take you into heaven as my back load.

Isn't that wonderful?
If you will not accuse me, I will not accuse you. If you will throw a cloak of charity over my sins, I will over yours -- for charity covereth a multitude of sins.

This glorious principle of love, or charity, the pure love of Christ, is the means by which we take care of all of these things that come up in a quarrelsome way in our families. I have told my people that if they seem or feel that they are unjustly dealt with or they are offended, they should forgive them before the words are out; forgive them. This is charity, and hold it no more against them. So with the power of love, or charity, we can cover one another's weaknesses. We all do and say things that are not right when we momentarily lose the Spirit of God; but what a beautiful thing it would be if we had it all times. There wouldn't be any quarrelings or strifes or contentions. It is possible or we wouldn't be asked to do it.

What many people call sin is not sin; I do many things to break down superstition, and I will break it down; I referred to the curse of Ham for laughing at Noah, while in his wine, but doing no harm. Noah was a righteous man, and yet he drank wine and became intoxicated; the Lord did not forsake him in consequence thereof, for he retained all the power of his Priesthood, and when he was accused by Canaan, he cursed him by the Priesthood which he held, and the Lord had respect to his word, and the Priesthood which he held, notwithstanding he was drunk, and the curse remains upon the posterity of Canaan until the present day.

Another regarding chastisement, which the Priesthood finds necessary to give us.

Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven,

And if we forgive one another, God will forgive us; but not before.

...and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it. The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us,

Endowments, if you please,

...is because we do not keep them but reveal them; we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord?

Joseph said:

I can keep a secret till Doomsday. What greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend; then why not fight for our friend until we die?

TPJS Page 156

Do Not Betray the Brethren

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven;

This comes about by lying, and contending, and all of these things that destroy our peace.

...that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

Now I don't suppose that my hearers here need that, but I only read it to let you know how far accusing the brethren can go, and what will happen in the final outcome -- apostasy; and it starts with these little criticisms. Do you remember what Brigham Young said about Joseph? He certainly spoke the truth, and how far it could go, and he knew it could if he had not stopped. He said, "It entered into my heart for but a few seconds, that Joseph was not a good manager in financial affairs." He says, "I put it out of my heart for as much time as it took me to say those words, because I knew that if I questioned him in the least degree," his integrity, he was talking about, "or his ability to lead the people and to do the work of God, that it would take me out of the work." One thing after another is how it goes in these insidious things that occur. And so, brothers and sisters, I think we need to understand the modus operandi of how the Spirit of God works and how the spirit of the devil works, that we may choose the former.
We are given these experiences, no doubt, and we should learn by them, but we are told to learn the Spirit of God. Goodness knows we have enough occasion to learn the spirit of the devil. But if we can understand the power of them and shun the very appearance of evil as a result; for evil communications corrupt good manners or correct living, and will prevent us from getting and keeping the Spirit of God. No matter what I speak about, brothers and sisters, and in giving instructions, I cannot conclude anything else. The final answer is always: Get the Spirit of God and be governed by it, and never be without it.

The things that happen in these jarrings are because we have lost it, and we had better believe it. We should feel very uncomfortable, at least, when we have lost it; let alone lonely and abandoned, you might say. You know what the spirit of abandonment is. That comes from the devil, and we should feel very, very much out of place if we have lost the Spirit of God -- very uncomfortable -- and not cease striving until we have got it back again. Having lost it, it takes some time to get back. Get on your knees and pray to God and for His forgiveness, and first tell Him that you have forgiven your brother or your sister. You will never get forgiveness from the Lord until you have forgiven your brother, or your sister wife, or your brother or sister, never; and we will not get the Spirit of God back until we have.

Heber C. Kimball told us that we shouldn't even partake of the sacrament as long as we hold feelings against one another or have done a wrong and not made restitution. Otherwise, we take the sacrament unworthily, and drink and eat damnation to our souls. Damnation is to be stopped, always remember. Thank God we can repent. Thank God for this gift of repentance, and for faith, which will bring love as we seek to do as God commands and become like Him.

True love, brothers and sisters, is loving God because He is perfect in character and attributes; and love our neighbor as ourselves. We should strive to become like God and urge others to do the same, and we will love them. But we are required to put the cloak of charity, use this principle of love, which will enable us to overcome all of these things that beset us. God bless us and help us that we may get and keep the Spirit of God above all things, and never cease striving until we have, and know it. Think of all of the gifts of the Spirit that would be ours -- revelation, above all; the discernment of spirits, prophecy, the spirit of prophecy. We would have one heart and one mind if we have the Holy Ghost as our constant companion. What a glorious reward we will have, as we have it in Section 121:

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

That is called righteous indignation, and it is not a fit of temper where the devil comes in.

43. ...when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

If we could govern our children and our wives, brethren, this way, what a glorious result.

43. ...then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

When we know that our head and our sister wives are still engaged in the work of God, and they are trying, as you are, to be faithful and true, we are bound to have charity and use it.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith,

Our neighbor. Who is my neighbor? One who loves and believes in the fullness of the Gospel as I do. And we are supposed to be living that in our families. They are our neighbors. And brethren associated together under the bonds and oaths and covenants of the holy Priesthood are our neighbors.

45. ...and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly;

Unceasingly; virtue, light, and truth.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

Why? Because we will have this testimony that we please God. Then we will have His confidence, and we will have full confidence in Him, because we have His Spirit and are like Him; of one heart and one mind.
45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Our dominions shall be thrones, and principalities, and powers, the things that are promised us in the holy covenant of marriage. If you want a Patriarchal blessing, brothers and sisters, you married people, read the marriage covenant. It is all there, all that you can hope and desire, worlds without end. But it is given us through our faithfulness unto the end, through our faithfulness unto the end. And by that means, if we keep that great covenant, we will, in time, have our calling and election made sure, and come up to see the face of Jesus Christ and the Father; which I pray may be our lot, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

How the Atonement Benefits the Obedient

I am grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here with you. I pray that the Lord will direct some items of reading here for us, which I feel will be of great strength to us. I appreciated the truths that were given us by both Presidents Timpson and Jessop, regarding the Godhead. I feel to read these words from The Mediation and Atonement by John Taylor, which holds out for us glorious blessings for our faith and faithfulness, and for being able to overcome as He, our Lord Jesus Christ, overcame.

How, and in what manner are men benefitted by the atonement and by the resurrection? In this, that the atonement having restored man to his former position before the Lord, it has placed him in a position and made it possible for him to obtain that exaltation and glory which it would have been impossible for him to have received without it; even to become a son of God by adoption; and being a son then an heir of God, and a joint heir with Jesus Christ; and that, as Christ overcame, He has made it possible, and has placed it within the power of believers in Him, also to overcome; and as He is authorized to inherit His Father's glory which He had with Him before the world was, with His resurrected body, so through the adoption, may we overcome and sit down with Him upon His throne, as He has overcome and has sat down upon His Father's throne. And as he has said, "I and the Father are one," so are the obedient saints one with Him, as He is one with the Father, even as He prayed:

"That they all may be one; as thou, Father, are in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one; in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me." -- John, xvii, 21-23.

Being the sons of God through the atonement and adoption, and through faith in Jesus Christ, they rise to the dignity and glory of the Godhead, even to be Gods; as it is promised:

Jesus Christ, in His former estate, was the Firstborn of the Father, and had the rights of the Firstborn. And in the flesh He was the Only Begotten of the Father, to come to bring about the mediation and atonement for us, His brothers and sisters. I am most grateful for that great atonement which was wrought for us by our Lord Jesus Christ. But equally so, I am most grateful, and all of us should be, that Father Michael fell, that we might have these bodies; and thus through the plan of salvation, which was given by Him and His Son Jesus Christ, we may come back into Their presence. We have it in the Book of Revelations, these promises, brethren and sisters.

"Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: Wouldn't that be a wonderful thing?

...and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. -- Rev., iii, 12.

Again, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne." -
- Rev., iii, 21.
Yet again, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." -- Rev., xxii, 7.

Hence, through His atonement, believers in Christ, and those who obey His law, partake of His glory and exaltation, and are inheritors of the Godhead; whilst those who do not obey His law although resurrected cannot inherit this exaltation; they are raised from the dead, but cannot inherit a celestial glory without being obedient to a celestial law, and thus we come again to a scripture quoted before. Jesus said, "Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

These are almost identical truths to those that were given us by Joseph Smith in the Lectures on Faith; which I love, I think, above any scripture.

Lecture Five

2. ...all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory,

Which glory He said He gave to His Apostles.

2. ...and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit.

Which Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son. Let us never forget. The Holy Ghost is the mind of the Father and the Son.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ is the only Heir, directly. We may be joint heirs with Him by adoption, which we must earn by perfect obedience to all of the commandments and ordinances of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And I testify, my dear brothers and sisters, that Joseph Smith stands as the man, a glorified man, in the office of the Holy Ghost, along with his Elder Brother, Jesus Christ, with the Father. He is the Witness and Testator.

I am grateful, thirdly then, for the great sacrifice, the great work, and the great restoration of the holy Priesthood, which was wrought and brought about through our beloved Prophet, Joseph Smith, Jun. We have another perfect man that close to us -- Jesus Christ that close to us in this life; and Father Adam, a God, the God over both of them; who wrought out the bringing forth of man upon the earth, that we might be; for His work and glory is to bring to pass the immortality and the eternal life of us, His children; which I pray we may obtain, by overcoming and becoming like Them, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 4:77 January 20, 1977 CCA Funeral

Colorado City, Arizona
January 20, 1977
Funeral of Aulene Barlow

I am grateful to be present on this sacred and solemn occasion where one of the Lord's little daughters has been called home. I am grateful to have the knowledge that I have regarding the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and how the Lord has provided for such occasions and situations as this. The Gospel of Jesus Christ answers every need and every situation in which we are called upon to endure and abide. The plan of salvation is perfect. The redeeming blood of Jesus Christ, the great atonement which he wrought for us, is the most consoling thing that we have.

One of the most consoling things that I have read or come across regarding situations such as this are the words of Joseph Smith, and I would like to read a passage or two regarding this matter, which gives great comfort and solace to us in such sad occasions as this. Joseph says:
The heavens were opened upon us, and I beheld the celestial kingdom of God, and the glory thereof, whether in the body or out I cannot tell. I saw the transcendent beauty of the gate through which the heirs of that kingdom will enter, which was like unto circling flames of fire; also the blazing throne of God, whereon was seated the Father and the Son. I saw the beautiful streets of that kingdom, which had the appearance of being paved with gold. I saw Father Adam and Abraham, and my father and my mother, my brother, Alvin, that has long since slept, and marvelled how it was that he had obtained an inheritance in that kingdom, seeing that he had departed this life before the Lord had set his hand to gather Israel the second time, and had not been baptized for the remission of sins.

Thus came the voice of the Lord unto me, saying --
All who have died without a knowledge of this Gospel, who would have received it if they had been permitted to tarry, shall be heirs of the celestial kingdom of God; also all that shall die henceforth without a knowledge of it, who would have received it with all their hearts, shall be heirs of that kingdom, for I, the Lord, will judge all men according to their works, according to the desire of their hearts.

And this pertinent part:
And I also behold that all children who die before they arrive at the years of accountability are saved in the celestial kingdom of heaven.

In 1842, in a grand sermon on life and death, the resurrection and the salvation of children, he said this:

We have again the warning voice sounded in our midst, which shows the uncertainty of human life; and in my leisure moments I have meditated upon the subject, and asked the question, why it is that infants, innocent children, are taken away from us, especially those that seem to be the most intelligent and interesting. The strongest reasons that present themselves to my mind are these: This world is a very wicked world; and it is a proverb that the "world grows weaker and wiser"; if that is the case, the world grows more wicked and corrupt. In the earlier ages of the world a righteous man, and a man of God and of intelligence, had a better chance to do good, to be believed and received than at the present day; but in these days such a man is much opposed and persecuted by most of the inhabitants of the earth, and he has much sorrow to pass through here. The Lord takes many away even in infancy, that they may escape the envy of man, and the sorrows and evils of this present world; they were too pure, too lovely, to live on earth; therefore, if rightly considered, instead of mourning we have reason to rejoice as they are delivered from evil, and we shall soon have them again.

What chance is there for infidelity when we are parting with our friends almost daily? None at all. The infidel will grasp at every straw for help until death stares him in the face, and then his infidelity takes its flight, for the realities of the eternal world are resting upon him in mighty power; and when every earthly support and prop fails him, he then sensibly feels the eternal truths of the immortality of the soul. We should take warning and not wait for the death-bed to repent, as we see the infant taken away by death, so may the youth and middle-aged, as well as the infant be suddenly called into eternity. Let this, then, prove as a warning to all not to procrastinate repentance, or wait till a death-bed, for it is the will of God that man should repent and serve Him in health, and in the strength and power of his mind, in order to secure his blessing, and not wait until he is called to die.

All children are redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ, and the moment that children leave this world, they are taken to the bosom of Abraham. The only difference between the old and young dying is, one lives longer in heaven and eternal light and glory than the other, and is freed a little sooner from this miserable wicked world. Notwithstanding all this glory, we for a moment lose sight of it, and mourn the loss, but we do not mourn as those without hope.

So this is a great consolation, brothers and sisters, and I pray that the family of this little one will receive it accordingly. I pray God to bless them and comfort them and cause them to rejoice, that they have been the instrument of bringing this pure and innocent little child into the world, and who is now called home. God bless you all to this end, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

Lorin Woolley's Testimony of the 1886 Meeting;
Personal Experiences and Testimonies of This Priesthood

Foreshadowing what has occurred in the setting up of this special dispensation of the holy Priesthood and of the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, I read from Section 130.

D.& C. 130

14. I was once praying very earnestly to know the time of the coming of the Son of Man, when I heard a voice repeat the following:

15. Joseph, my son, if thou livest until thou art eighty-five years old, thou shalt see the face of the Son of Man; therefore let this suffice, and trouble me no more on this matter.

16. I was left thus, without being able to decide whether this coming referred to the beginning of the millennium or to some previous appearing, or whether I should die and thus see his face.

17. I believe the coming of the Son of Man will not be any sooner than that time.

This was among some important items of instruction that Joseph Smith gave at Ramus, Illinois, April 1843. Had he lived in mortality till he was eighty-five, that would have brought him up to 1890. But Jesus Christ appeared with Joseph Smith at the home of John W. Woolley to John Taylor the night of September 26-27, 1886. And so I have always felt that this was a fulfillment of this, a foreshadowing of the statement of the Prophet Joseph. And what it was, was a fulfillment of the point that he should die and later see His face.

I am sure that over there he is in constant communication with Him. But the two came together, two of the Godhead, by direction of Father Michael, to do this work, that His work and promises and His words should be fulfilled; and that was that the fullness of the Gospel and the holy Priesthood was given for the last time, never to be taken from the earth or given to another people. And it is out of the heart's core of the Church, in the first place, that the people of the Priesthood, shall we call it, have come together. Very, very seldom has anyone come out of the Church now; and now we are of such numbers, largely having grown from the loins of our fathers, to be a people of such numbers that that is now being applied to this people. Out of the heart's core of this people will God have a people who will redeem Zion and become the nucleus of the great Millennium.

The statement of Lorin Woolley's is something that we should be very familiar with. The work of this Priesthood now is to Israel. The gentiles' time has been fulfilled. So we need to know where we are and where we are headed, and make ourselves worthy to have a part in this great and last testimony that is to be borne. It is true, the Church is largely gentile in its nature, and very much so in its membership. The people they are gathering together in the mission are mostly gentiles. I am sure there are some honest in heart being gathered.

There is a need of the Church of Jesus Christ in all ages. It has been organized in every dispensation. But there have been apostasies after each one, including this. Are there any questions about this introduction to the subject? We will read the statement of Lorin Woolley's first, because that gives us the testimony and the background for the discussion that we have in this pamphlet.

[Question: Were there warnings of the apostasy of the Church by the early leaders?] I don't think that has been brought out particularly, even by the Priesthood. It seems to me there is something that indicates the apostasy of the Church, but I can't recall it now.

1886 Revelation
Lorin C. Woolley Statement

Statement of Lorin C. Woolley with reference to the revelation of 1886, on the subject of Celestial or plural marriage, given September 22, 1929:
There were present Lorin C. Woolley, Daniel R. Bateman, John Y.
Barlow, J. Leslie Broadbent and J. W. Musser. Prayer was offered by John Y. Barlow.

Lorin C. Woolley related the following:
While the brethren were at the Carlisle residence (in Murray) in May or June of 1886, letters began to come to President John Taylor from such men as John Sharp, Horace Eldredge, William Jennings, John T. Cain, Abraham Hatch, President Cluff and many other leading men from all over the Church, asking the leaders to do something, as the Gentiles were talking of confiscating their property in connection with the property of These letters not only came from those who were living in the plural marriage relation, but also from prominent men who were presiding in various offices in the Church who were not living in that relation. They all urged that something be done to satisfy the Gentiles so that their property would not be confiscated.

George Q. Cannon, on his own initiative, selected a committee comprising himself, Hyrum B. Clawson, Franklin S. Richards, John T. Caine and James Jack, to get up a statement or manifesto that would meet the objections urged by the brethren above named.

Let me interject there. It is interesting to note that all of those in that committee were men of property and wealth, and that is what they were trying to protect.

They met from time to time to discuss the situation. From the White home, where President Taylor and companions stopped, after leaving the Carlisle home, they came out to father's. George Q. Cannon would go and consult with the brethren of the committee, I taking him back and forth each day.

On September 26, 1886, George Q. Cannon, Hyrum B. Clawson, Franklin S. Richards, and others met with President John Taylor at my father's residence at Centerville, Davis County, Utah, and presented a document for President Taylor's consideration.

I had just got back from a three days' trip, during most of which time I had been in the saddle, and being greatly fatigued, I had retired to rest. Between one and two o'clock P.M. Brother Bateman came and woke me up and asked me to be at my father's home, where a manifesto was to be discussed. I went there and found there were congregated Samuel Bateman, Charles H. Wilkins, L. John Nuttall, Charles Birrell, George Q. Cannon, Franklin S. Richards and Hyrum B. Clawson.

We discussed the proposed Manifesto at length, but we were unable to become united in the discussion. Finally George Q. Cannon suggested that President Taylor take the matter up with the Lord and decide the same the next day.

Brothers Clawson and Richards were taken back to Salt Lake. That evening I was called to act as guard during the first part of the night, notwithstanding the fact that I was greatly fatigued on account of the three days' trip I had just completed.

The brethren retired to bed soon after 9 o'clock. The sleeping rooms were inspected by the guards as was the custom. President Taylor's room had no outside door. The windows were heavily screened.

Some time after the brethren retired and while I was reading the Doctrine and Covenants, I was suddenly attracted to a light appearing under the door leading to President Taylor's room, and was at once startled to hear the voices of men talking there. There were three distinct voices. I was bewildered because it was my duty to keep people out of that room and evidently someone had entered without my knowing it. I made a hasty examination and found the door leading to the room bolted as usual. I then examined the outside of the house and found all the window screens intact. While examining the last window, and feeling greatly agitated, a voice spoke to me saying, "Can't you feel the Spirit? Why should you worry?"

At this I returned to my post and continued to hear the voices in the room. They were so audible that although I did not see the parties I could place their positions in the room from the sound of their voices. The three voices continued until about midnight, when one of them left, and the other two continued. One of them I recognized as President John Taylor's voice. I called Charles Birrell [Footnote: Charles Birrell was also a bodyguard of the brethren and was to take the second shift in watching on this night.] and we both sat up until eight o'clock the next morning.

When President Taylor came out of his room about eight o'clock of the morning of September 27, 1886, we could scarcely look at him on account of the brightness of his personage.

He stated, "Brethren, I have had a very pleasant conversation with Brother Joseph (Joseph Smith)." I said, "Boss, who is the man that was there until midnight?" He asked, "What do you know about it, Lorin?" I told him all about my experience. He said, "Brother Lorin, that was your Lord."

We had no breakfast, but assembled ourselves in a meeting. I forget who opened the meeting. I was called to offer the benediction. I think my father, John W. Woolley, offered the opening prayer. There were present at the meeting, in addition to President Taylor, George Q. Cannon, L. John Nuttall, John W. Woolley, Samuel Bateman, Charles Wilkins, Charles Birrell, Daniel R. Bateman, Bishop Samuel Sedden, George Earl, my mother, Julia E. Woolley, my sister, Amy Woolley, and myself. The meeting was held from about 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon, without intermission, being about eight hours in all.

President Taylor called the meeting to order. He had the Manifesto, that had been prepared under the direction of George Q. Cannon, read over again. He then put each person under covenant that he or she would defend the principle of Celestial or plural marriage, and that they would consecrate their lives, liberty and property to this end, and that they personally would sustain and uphold that principle.

By that time we were all filled with the Holy Ghost. President Taylor and those present occupied about three hours up to this time. After placing us under covenant, he placed his finger on the document, his person rising from the floor about a foot or eighteen inches, and with countenance animated by the Spirit of the Lord, and raising his right hand to the square, he said, "Sign that document? -- Never! I would suffer my right hand to be severed from my body first. Sanction it -- never! I would suffer my tongue to be torn from its roots in my mouth before I would sanction it!"

After that he talked for about an hour and then sat down and wrote the revelation which was given him by the Lord upon the question of Plural Marriage (the text of which revelation is given above). Then he talked to us for some time, and said, "Some of you will be handled and ostracized and cast out from the Church by your brethren because of your faithfulness and integrity to this principle, and some of you may have to surrender your lives because of the same, but woe, woe, unto those who shall bring these troubles upon you." (Three of us were handled and ostracized for supporting and sustaining this principle. There are only three left who were at the meeting mentioned -- Daniel R. Bateman, George Earl, and myself. So far as I know, those of them who have passed away all stood firm to the covenants entered into from that day to the day of their deaths.)

After the meeting referred to, President Taylor had L. John Nuttall write five copies of the revelation. He called five of us together: Samuel Bateman, Charles H. Wilkins, George Q. Cannon, John W. Woolley, and myself.

He then set us apart and placed us under covenant that while we lived we would see to it that no year passed by without children being born in the principle of plural marriage. We were given authority to ordain others if necessary to carry this work on, they in turn to be given authority to ordain others when necessary, under the direction of the worthy senior (by ordination), so that there should be no cessation in the work. He then gave each of us a copy of the revelation.

I am the only one of the five now living, and so far as I know all five of the brethren remained true and faithful to the covenants they entered into, and to the responsibilities placed upon them at that time.

During the eight hours we were together, and while President Taylor was talking to us, he frequently arose and stood above the floor, and his countenance and being were so enveloped by light and glory that it was difficult for us to look upon him.

He stated that the document (referring to the Manifesto) was from the lower regions. He stated that many of the things he had told us we would forget and they would be taken from us, but that they would return to us in due time as needed, and from this fact we would know that the same was from the Lord. This has been literally fulfilled. Many of the things I forgot, but they are coming to me gradually, and those things that come to me are as clear as on the day on which they were given.

President Taylor said that the time would come when many of the Saints would apostatize because of this principle. He said "one-half of this people would apostatize over the principle for which we are now in hiding; yea, and possibly one-half of the other half" (rising off the floor while making the statement). He also said the day will come when a document similar to that (Manifesto) then under consideration would be adopted by the Church, following which "APOSTASY AND WHOREDOM would be rampant in the Church."

He said that in the time of the seventh President of this Church, the Church would go into bondage both temporally and spiritually and in that day (the day of bondage) the one Mighty and Strong spoken of in the 85th Section of the Doctrine and Covenants would come.
Among other things stated by President Taylor on this occasion was this, "I would be surprised if ten per cent of those who claim to hold the Melchizedek Priesthood will remain true and faithful to the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, at the time of the seventh president, and that there would be thousands that think they hold the priesthood at that time, but would not have it properly conferred upon them."

John Taylor set the five mentioned apart and gave them authority to perform marriage ceremonies, and also to set others apart to do the same thing as long as they remained upon the earth; and while doing so, the Prophet Joseph Smith stood by directing the proceedings. Two of us had not met the Prophet Joseph Smith in his mortal lifetime and we -- Charles H. Wilkins and myself -- were introduced to him and shook hands with him.

(Signed) LORIN C. WOOLLEY.

Actually, the appearance of Joseph Smith in this meeting constituted the beginning of the setting in order process. That was the first act in setting up this order of the Priesthood succeeding John Taylor.

...if the whole Church should go to with all their might to save their dead, seal their posterity, and gather their living friends, and spend none of their time in behalf of the world, they would hardly get through before night would come, when no man can work; and my only trouble at the present time is concerning ourselves, that the Saints will be divided, broken up and scattered, before we get our salvation secure; for there are so many fools in the world for the devil to operate upon, it gives him the advantage oftentimes.

There is a forecasting of what would happen.

The question is frequently asked "Can we not be saved without going through with all those ordinances?" I would answer,  any person who is exalted to the highest mansion has to abide a celestial law, and the whole law too.

But there has been a great difficulty in getting anything into the heads of this generation. It has been like splitting hemlock knots with a corn-dodger for a wedge, and a pumpkin for a beetle.
...to get salvation we must not only do some things, but everything which God has commanded.
The purpose of these quotations is to show that Celestial or Plural Marriage could not be done away. They are interpreting and are changing the law. They changed the law in 1933, saying that a monogamous marriage performed in the temple by authority is Celestial Marriage. And by reason of having put that out, any of the general authorities who still held the Priesthood lost it then. And none have had it among the general authorities since, because they changed the law and broke the Everlasting Covenant. And God cannot honor the Priesthood of such a man who is a part of that. All of the Twelve and the First Presidency joined in that official statement. I have it. It is in Truth, however; I can point that out to you.

...to get salvation we must not only do some things, but everything which God has commanded. Men may preach and practice everything except those things which God commands us to do, and will be damned at last. We may tithe mint and rue, and all manner of herbs, and still not obey the commandments of God. The object with me is to obey and teach others to obey God in just what He tells us to do. It mattereth not whether the principle is popular or unpopular, I will always maintain a true principle, even if I stand alone in it.

D.& C. 130
20. There is a law, irrevocably decreed in heaven before the foundations of this world, upon which all blessings are predicated --
21. And when we obtain any blessing from God, it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated.

To obtain the blessing, then, we must obey the law fully and completely. I will never forget how I thrilled I was when I read this pamphlet. But that was the beginning of the Priesthood literature. And when this was printed, it was put out in the next publications of the Priesthood which was the "New and Everlasting Covenant." And following that was the "Supplement to the New and Everlasting Covenant." And this statement of Lorin Woolley's was put out then, dated September 22, 1929.
The question has been asked, why in that statement wasn't it made, why wasn't it stated what was the nature of the Priesthood authority which those five men received. It doesn't say. It simply says, "They set us apart," John Taylor did. But we have the additional information to the effect that Joseph Smith also laid his hands upon their heads. John Taylor was mouth. And that is the way it had to be.

As to why they didn't name the office and nature of the Priesthood, it is something that would have been considered blasphemy; although it could have been said. But I am sure the way it has been written is the way the Lord wanted it to be written. We know from those who participated what was the nature of it, for John Taylor conferred upon them all of the Priesthood, power, authority that he himself held; which was the same way that John Taylor himself was ordained by Joseph Smith the Prophet, giving him all the keys, power, and authority, the highest Priesthood conferred upon man in the earth. They were given the Priesthood of the Apostleship.

Let it be noted that this statement was written and notarized and put together in September 1929, which was nearly a year after the death of John W. Woolley, his father. And he was simply carrying out the instructions of his father. For a period of about six months, from December of 1928, when John W. Woolley died, until the early summer of 1929, Lorin was alone in holding that high office of the Priesthood, some six months.

I might say this, too. I have heard some men say, "Well, that is pretty thin evidence that you have there, this statement of Lorin Woolley's." He was alone. There was no one else living to corroborate it, of the same order of the Priesthood that he held, in other words. So, it is like the sign seekers. They have got to have a sign.

Joseph Smith was alone with the Father and the Son. How could he corroborate it? There is the foundation upon which rests the whole latter-day work. Joseph saw and talked with the Father and the Son, or he didn't. We have his sole testimony, and that which will corroborate it is the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God. That is all we need. The honest in heart, the honest seeker after truth, in other words, will be able to accept it under the Spirit of revelation. Parley P. Pratt made a very true statement in the Millennial Star, sixth volume:

Millennial Star 6:93 Parley P. Pratt

Brethren, no one's claims need any support. Those who hold the keys of the kingdom of God will be supported by the spirit of God, and by his angels, and also by the aid and prayers of the Saints. And they will say nothing about their 'claims,' nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them.

So it wasn't necessary to go into great detail about the nature of the authority which was conferred upon the five men September 27, 1886.

And they will say nothing about their 'claims,' nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them. If men hold the keys of the kingdom of God, they are not dependent upon men to support their claims; but the church and all the world is dependent on them and on the keys committed to them for the ministration of salvation. ...or else remain without the blessings of the kingdom.

So we don't have to prove anything. God will do that for us. I remember when the brethren went to prison May 15, 1945. Presidents Musser, and myself, and Richard S. Jessop had been ordained in April, a month before. And it was not announced to the people at all. But there were those who had the Spirit of revelation that the Lord revealed it to. On several occasions when I went up to the prison to meet the brethren -- there were fifteen of them in there -- one or another would tell Guy and me, who were left in charge of the work outside the prison, that the Lord had revealed to them of our ordination. So this statement of Parley P. Pratt's is verily true.

When I first came into the work, I had a hard time finding out which of the brethren was the keyholder. I didn't know all the brethren at first. I had only met and been given the Melchizedek Priesthood by Joseph W. Musser here in Salt Lake. I finally learned who was the head man, and that was John Y. Barlow, and I rejoiced in it. That was about early 1940.

Soon after I met Brother Barlow, I found out who he was. I had one hundred dollars in my pocket, and the Lord told me to go and give it to him. When I saw him, he said, "The Lord had had a prayer from me for this, and I thank God He sent you here with it. That is what we need to save our property in Short Creek to pay the taxes." The brethren were very poor then, I will tell you. But he wrote a letter to me, which I still have -- and I will read it to you sometime -- in which he invoked the blessings of God upon me and promised that I and mine would never want for bread; that among other things.

I have had numerous testimonies of the Priesthood and the authority of the brethren, particularly of John and Joseph in those earlier years. I didn't need it or ask for it; but I got another solemn testimony regarding John Y. Barlow. The day I came back to Salt Lake from Idaho, where I had been working for a matter of a year and a half, and I came to Lincoln Street there where John Y. Barlow was living, to report to him. I had been asked to see the Priesthood when I came home from that trip. I was taken into the living room there. Brother Barlow wasn't in the room. He was in another part of the house. As he stepped into the archway of that room, he was covered with light, as you have read here in this statement of Lorin Woolley's. He took me in his round room office and ordained me on April 20, 1945. I thought that might be of some interest to you.

I don't know whether it was before or after when I met Brother Barlow; but the Lord told me to take seventy-five dollars I had in my pocket -- those were tough times -- the Lord told me to take that to Joseph Musser. I just felt the urging to do it. I walked into his office and handed it to him, and he said, "The Lord has sent you in answer to my prayers. This is what we need to issue this present issue of the Truth Magazine." They had to pay cash for it.

Well, our time is up. I just thought I would relate a few of these things to let you know what kind of testimonies I have had about the Priesthood of God. And I can promise you, if any of you have any doubt about it, you can get an answer the same way, if any of you need.

I had an unusual invitation to go and visit a number of months ago -- I guess it was over a year ago -- the home of Helmut Olschewski. We had an interesting evening, some singing of the children and what not. And we went into some discussion. I don't recall what brought it up, but he asked me a rather peculiar question regarding my ordination. He asked if there was anyone else there when I was ordained by John Y. Barlow, as if someone should have been. I simply said, "No," and changed the subject. But I was affronted by such a remark and question and I have never felt good about it since. I should have asked, "Why do you ask?" I can't think that there would be anything but a question in his mind to bring forth such a question or statement.

So we have these things come up from time to time. But with the gift of the Holy Ghost, let us all remember, we can get answers, the Lord willing, of course. The Spirit of revelation is something that we must always have. And if we have the Spirit of God, that is the only witness we need of the truth that may be given us by the Priesthood.

The brethren had all met before I came down to Salt Lake, and both Brother Guy and Brother Richard had been ordained before I came. I was ordained last of the three, but it was set out very clearly to me, and to all, that the order which you now find us was to attain -- of seniority I am talking about. I was ordained last, but I was placed in the second position in seniority to Guy; plus, of course, those over me. And that is how it is done. It doesn't necessarily have to be in the order of ordination. It is according to the way it is designated by the Lord. That is His business. We belong to the Lord, this Council; and the people better leave them with the Lord when they deign to criticize and question, and that sort of thing.

Moroni came to Joseph Smith three times in one night and twice the next day to tell him about the plates and to tell him about his work and mission. There was no one else there. When Peter, James, and John came to Joseph, he had Oliver with him, but they were both ordained to the same ordination. And it was the same before that with John the Baptist, when he conferred the Aaronic Priesthood on both of them. Both of these occurrences took place during the translation of the Book of Mormon plates when Oliver Cowdery was his scribe. He wrote it down as it was dictated by Joseph through the Urim and Thummim.

A wicked and an adulterous generation seeketh for a sign. Never forget it. You remember when Joseph Smith was preaching some place -- I think it was in Pennsylvania or New York -- a man in the audience demanded a sign to prove his statements. Joseph said to the audience, "That man is an adulterer. A wicked and an adulterous generation seeketh for a sign. That man is an adulterer." Another man spoke up and said, "It is true." And the man came forward and repented, and I think he joined the Church. I have been asked on occasions to tell the story of my life. Would you like to have it? I got married on seventy dollars a month. That was in 1934, during the Great Depression. Our rent was twenty dollars a month.

How Our Homes Become Desecrated;
False and Delusive Spirits

I am most grateful to be here with you, in association with my beloved brother and fellow servant, Guy Musser. I deeply appreciate the instructions that he has given us by the gift and power of God. They are verily the word of God to us here today. We had better realize it and act accordingly. I would rather sit down and have these things that we have heard distil upon our souls.

With the help of the Lord, and agreeable to Brother Musser, I do feel impressed to add a thing or two. The way, the truth, and the life regarding these principles has been laid out, and I would just simply like to add, how do we do it? Sisters, you cannot do it except you have the Holy Ghost and you are one with your husband by that means. The Priesthood is paramount in the home. Sisters and children can get the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost, only through their head, by virtue of his Priesthood. We cannot obey these commandments that are given us without having the Spirit of God. We cannot sanctify and bless our homes except we have the Spirit of God there.

A woman who sasses her husband is guilty of a sin, and must be repented of. Brother Guy has told us our homes, a great many have been desecrated and polluted. I suppose it is becoming quite trite to all of you, my repeating the reasons that the saints in Zion polluted their inheritances by these very same simple things that are being talked about here today. There were jarrings, and strifes, and contentions, and envyings, and lustful and covetous desires among them.

Those simple things pollute, brothers and sisters. Why? Because we drive the Spirit of God away when we do it. That is why it is a sin. It is as a sin for us to lose the Spirit of God once having been given us, and it takes a great deal to get it back, believe me, as you should well know by now. So the devil and his imps stand by constantly to enter in. There is where the desecration takes place, and that is how it takes place. The spirit of the devil enters in and takes the place of the Spirit of God.

I feel like reading again regarding false and delusive spirits. You will find it in three different volumes of the Truth Magazine, volume 7, 13, and 16. That is how important it has been considered in giving information to the saints.

False and Delusive Spirits  (Truth 7:73)

False spirits are more subtle, and more contagious than the small pox; their number and diversity of operations cannot be counted by man; and the first moment the saints leave the path of duty, that moment they are subject to the influence of evil, false spirits, which once having taken possession of the soul, are difficult if not impossible to be removed, by the person so receiving them, without assistance from those who have more wisdom. The great object of evil spirits is to get bodies, and the only chance they have is to dispossess a soul of the spirit of the Lord, the light of eternal truth, and take possession of that body thus dispossessed; and when thus once in possession, it may truly be said there is a body possessed of the devil.

And they are without the Spirit of God.

Jesus and his disciples in different ages, have commanded the unclean and wicked spirits to depart out of those of whom they have taken possession, and they have departed;

Such was the case with Mary Magdalene, who became the wife of Jesus. She had had seven devils of which she was dispossessed by the power of the Priesthood, and from that time on she followed Him.

...but there are those spirits which are not easily dispossessed, and go out only by prayer and fasting. And again, there are those spirits that will hardly go out at any price except it is by the will of those who harbor them. And of what class are they? They are invited spirits. Invited spirits? Yes; many spirits watch their opportunity to thrust themselves into a person when and where they are not wanted, and such are much more easily cast out than those who are invited guests.

For instance, a person for some real or supposed injury or neglect from a friend, wishes to retaliate, to be revenged, and of course opens the way, and invites the spirit of jealousy to take possession;

Envyings.

...and the moment jealousy enters the breast, there is a perfect hell of happiness.

That is quite an expression.

No scheme that hell itself can devise to torment, perplex, harass, disturb, vex, or mar the peace of friend, wife, or husband, is left untouched or unmoved; and by that time the breast of the harborer is open to all the evil spirits of Pandemonium -- all have free access, and oh, what a world of glory dwells there!
And how shall that jealous spirit be removed? By the laying on of hands? The Lord deliver us from such an ordinance in such a case. Why? That spirit was invited to take up its abode there, and while that spirit is made welcome by that person, what right have we to dispossess it? It would be abridging the agency of the individual who invited the spirit, for anyone to cause that spirit to depart, without the person's leave; and we choose that all should exercise their own agency and responsibility, and then they are subjects of accountability.

Other spirits, not particularly invited or desired, gain an easy access to those who are careless, heedless, and but too indifferent to the statutes, ordinances, and duties of God's kingdom; who neglect their prayers, their assembling together, and doing as they would be done unto; and from these spirits arise contention, strife, evil thinking, evil speaking, evil surmising, detraction, revenge, law-suits, and a host of such perplexing annoyances, sufficient to disturb a nation:

When the saints spoken of in the Book of Mormon, through their prosperity and easy ways departed, they departed on account of contentions and strifes and disputations. Just before the Savior came, after they had had pointed out the signs of His birth, the Nephites and Lamanites were righteous for a few years and were looking forward to His coming, according to the prophecies of Samuel, the Lamanite Prophet. Just before the thirty-third year, after His birth, there were disputation and contentions and strifes, and they even went off into their own tribes, into separate tribes. Then came the great destructions attending the crucifixion of Christ. Out of that, some twenty-five hundred were able to come together, being humbled, and were able to enjoy the presence of the Savior and receive instructions from Him.

...but the man who is obedient to his God in all things -- who knows no will of his own, only to do the will of his Father in the heavens, is free from these spirits; the devil has no power over him, for he resists him, and evil spirits are compelled to flee at his rebuke.

Some may ask, "How shall I know when I am operated upon by a false spirit?" There are many keys by which the door of knowledge is unlocked to the Saints in relation to spirits, as well as other things pertaining to the kingdom; but one may suffice at the present time, for we have not designed this brief notice to cover all or any considerable portion of the ground which the subject includes.
The spirit of heaven
The Spirit of God,
...is a spirit of peace, joy, comfort, consolation, and knowledge to its possessor;
President Johnson has told us this so many times. It is the Spirit of peace and joy, and knowledge.

...and all Saints who have enjoyed this spirit, (and all Saints have more or less), may know, when this peaceful spirit dwelling within them is disturbed, that something is wrong, that some false spirit is lurking within our about them, striving to enter,
Striving to enter,
...and if they will resist the first impulse of their disturbed feelings, Notice this key. That is when to stop it.
...the first impulse of their disturbed feelings, and command Satan, in the name of Jesus, to depart,
You can do that, sisters, as well as the brethren holding the Priesthood.
...peace will instantly be restored to their souls.

Now note this:
It is our own wrongs that cause that peaceful spirit to leave us. We can't blame anyone else, no matter what they do. We should have sufficient control, that anything that may happen would not cause us to lose the Spirit of God. We should be that strong.

...and would to God that this truth were indelibly imprinted on the heart and recollection of every Saint. It is your own wrongs or evil spirits that destroy your peace, and not the wrongs of your friend or neighbor.
Or sister wife, or son, or daughter.

Know ye, all ye Saints, if the peace of heaven and a foretaste of the blessings of the celestial world are not continually with you, there is something wrong within, some foul spirit has got possession of yourself, and the quicker you dispossess it the better.

Carry out this principle, and what will be the result? Every Saint will live by his creed, and "mind his own business." Every dear wife will look with a zealous eye towards the happiness and welfare of her dear husband, and if she is tempted to think he is doing wrong, she will say, Get thee behind me, Satan, that is none of my business. I will do right, that is enough for me, and I shall have peace in my soul. And so continue to do, till he has done so wrong that forbearance is no longer a virtue, then give him a divorce and do better if you can; but while you live with him, live in peace, and keep jealousy out of doors; if you don't you will always have hell within, and devils enough to carry it on. The moment you are jealous that your husband is wrong, that moment you are miserable, that misery is proof positive that you yourself are wrong, for it destroys your peace.

Jealous husbands are quite as bad, and a little less excusable, (if there can be any excuse), than jealous wives. Husbands, if your wives do wrong, teach them better, if they are willing to be taught, and if they are not keep out of their way till they are willing and no quarrelling betwixt you. You need not fret your soul because your dear wife does wrong. Don't let the devil destroy your peace and cause the Holy Ghost to depart from you, because your wife has given way to a bad spirit. Show yourself a man of God, be at peace with yourself, pray for her, and when she has been buffeted by the devil long enough she will get tired of him, leave him, and return to you.

Some husbands are so mighty big because they are the head, that the wife has no room in the house; And these conditions exist.

...if she thinks, she thinks wrong; if she speaks, she speaks wrong; if she acts, she acts wrong; she can't do a right thing for the life of her; and do what she will, no matter, she is as likely to get a cuffed ear as anything else, and a little more so; and if she should ask forgiveness, she would meet with the consoling retort from her dear lord, "Yes, and you will do the same thing again next minute."

How many of you had that, sisters?

Why all this? Because the dear husband, the great lord of the house, has got so many devils in him, they make him so big there is not room for anybody else in that house.

Then there is a little prescription on how to handle it when it happens.
The things of which we speak are but too common among the nations of Christendom; and too much of them have been brought together among the Saints; but it is time for Saints to stop such things. Husbands, love and cherish your wives, as you ought; give them their place, their rights, their dominion, that they may act upon their agency, as you do on yours; and quit your fretting, and snarling and quarrelling with them, if you ever did it. What! a man quarrel with himself? Yes, just as well as quarrel with his wife -- 'tis all the same.

If there is one solitary case, such as we have supposed, among the Saints, we would venture a prescription. What, are you a doctor? We make no such pretensions, but men may say that we are. Let the husband who wants a quarrel with his wife go to some deep, remote canyon, where no human voice was ever heard or foot trod, there strip and fight till you are tired of it, then come home and behave yourself.

Let the wife who wants to pick a quarrel with her husband, retire to some dark room or cellar, which contains nothing but bare walls, and total darkness, and there fight till you are tired of fighting, then return to your family and behave yourself; and when husband and wife have got through with their fights they will each be willing to acknowledge that they had had as many devils in them as Mary Magdalene, or they would not have been such fools as to fight themselves at such fearful odds; and if they don't, we'll make another gratis prescription.

I would like to read what Paul says on the subject.

Ephesians 5

22. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

He is your lord. If you do not act accordingly, you will not get any closer to the Lord Jesus Christ, Himself. How, dear people, are we going to obtain these things? The grand answer, as always, is get and keep the Spirit of God. Let it be your constant companion, that is may never leave. By this means, wives and husband will be one. Children will be one with them and we will have a temple that we can rejoice in, and do it all with an eye single to the glory of God, through the Holy Spirit. It is a gift, the gift of the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Father and the Son. You cannot be right with God while you are not right with your husbands, and with your sister wives. All must be one together, and then we will have temples, and the Spirit of God will be upon us. We will be worthy then to be visited by our Priesthood fathers -- a temple. God bless us to this end, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

Must Be Clean Every Whit; Beware of Pride
RTJ 4:102  February 20, 1977 Sandy
It is good to be together again, brothers and sisters, and I am grateful for the blessings of the Lord and acknowledge His hand in all that I have and am. I am especially grateful for His blessings upon our President.
I felt like, brethren and sisters, I should read to you what President Johnson referred to a month ago, calling upon the saints to be one and to clean up their lives, for it must be necessary that we be clean every whit. The occasion of the remarks of Joseph Smith was a meeting with the Twelve in November of 1835, looking forward to the completion of the Kirtland Temple and their meeting therein:

TPJS Page 90
We have not desired as much from the hand of the Lord through faith and obedience, as we ought to have done, yet we have enjoyed great blessings, and we are not so sensible of this as we should be.
There is something to ponder, my dear brothers and sisters.
We have not desired as much from the hand of the Lord through faith and obedience,
We cannot obtain our desires in righteousness except through faith and obedience, and I wonder if that is one thing that is not being done by this people, and may account for the lack of the blessings that we have been told and promised.
Amidst all the calamities and judgments that have befallen the inhabitants of the earth, His almighty arm has sustained us, men and devils have raged and spent their malice in vain. We must have all things prepared, and call our solemn assembly as the Lord has commanded us, that we may be able to accomplish His great work, and it must be done in God's own way. The house of the Lord must be prepared, and the solemn assembly called and organized in it, according to the order of the house of God; and in it we must attend to the ordinance of washing of feet.
That was the nature of the endowment at that time.

It was never intended for any but official members. It is calculated to unite our hearts, that we may be one in feeling and sentiment, and that our faith may be strong, so that Satan cannot overthrow us, nor have any power over us here.

The endowment you are so anxious about, you cannot comprehend now, nor could Gabriel explain it to the understanding of your dark minds; The dark minds of the Twelve; and I am wondering if we do not have darkness of minds, brothers and sisters.

...but strive to be prepared in your hearts, be faithful in all things, that when we meet in the solemn assembly, that is, when such as God shall name out of all the official members shall meet, we must be clean every whit.

To obtain the endowment, then, brothers and sisters, we must be clean every whit, as this was so beautifully explained on one occasion by President Johnson to us.

Let us be faithful and silent, brethren, and if God gives you a manifestation, keep it to yourselves; be watchful and prayerful, and you shall have a prelude of those joys that God will pour out on that day. Do not watch for iniquity in each other,

Do not watch for iniquity in each other.

...if you do you will not get an endowment: for God will not bestow it on such. But if we are faithful, and live by every word that proceeds forth from the mouth of God, I will venture to prophesy that we shall get a blessing that will be worth remembering, if we should live as long as John the Revelator; our blessings will be such as we have not realized before, nor received in this generation. The order of the house of God has been, and ever will be, the same, even after Christ comes; and after the termination of the thousand years it will be the same; and we shall finally enter into the celestial kingdom of God, and enjoy it forever.

You need an endowment, brethren, in order that you may be prepared and able to overcome all things; and those that reject your testimony will be damned. The sick will be healed, the lame made to walk, the deaf to hear, and the blind to see, through your instrumentality. But let me tell you, that you will not have power, after the endowment to heal those that have not faith, nor to benefit them, for you might as well expect to benefit a devil in hell as such as are possessed of his spirit, and are willing to keep it: for they are habitations for devils, and only fit for his society. But when you are endowed and prepared to preach the Gospel to all nations, kindreds, and tongues, in their own languages, you must faithfully warn all, and bind up the testimony, and seal up the law, and the destroying angel will follow close at your heels, and exercise his tremendous mission upon the children of disobedience; and destroy the workers of iniquity, while the Saints will be gathered out from among them, and stand in holy places ready to meet the Bridegroom when he comes.

I feel disposed to speak a few words more to you, my brethren, concerning the endowment. All who are prepared and are sufficiently pure to abide the presence of the Savior will see Him in the solemn assembly.

Some four months or so later came the time for the dedication of the Kirtland Temple and the time of the meeting of the solemn assembly. Tongues of fire rested upon that building and were seen by those outside. Inside, the Savior did appear, and holy angels came and were seen and conversed with, and such blessings as they could not contemplate came to pass.

It has been a source of great wonderment that after such blessings as they obtained in that holy house, within one year, as a result of a great depression and financial panic, and the Kirtland Society failing therein, because of the theft by a man named Warren Parrish, who accused Joseph of stealing twenty thousand dollars; there was a meeting in the temple, and all hell broke loose within a year after its dedication and those glorious blessings. Subsequently, six of the Twelve fell. Shortly thereafter, they had to go and meet the rest of the saints who had been driven out of Zion in Far West. From thence, we know what great tribulations took place.

Thomas B. Marsh, President of the Twelve, trying to maintain the integrity of his wife, who quarreled with her sisters and the brethren over the strippings of milk of a cow, Thomas Marsh carried it right up to the highest councils of the Church and before Joseph, and he had to be cut off. That resulted in his writing to the Governor of Missouri, Boggs, and one of the direct results was that Extermination Order of the saints out of Missouri.

So we do not know what we will do, brothers and sisters, when we get on the devil's ground. But the strange thing, as we see through history -- and we ought to learn by it, I am sure we should have by now -- is the result of this thing which Joseph, also speaking to the Twelve, admonished the brethren to beware the pride.

Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy, and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance, and asking forgiveness; and should we even forgive our brother, or even our enemy, before he repent or ask forgiveness, our heavenly Father would be equally as merciful unto us.

Again, let the Twelve and all Saints be willing to confess all their sins, and not keep back a part; and let the Twelve be humble, and not be exalted, and beware of pride, and not seek to excel one above another, but act for each other's good, and pray for one another, and honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name, and not backbite and devour our brother.

The spirit of the United Order is seeking the interest of our neighbor and doing all things whatsoever the Lord our God shall command.

Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world, when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us, and not be obliged to learn by sad experience everything we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen, of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exalt themselves, until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall, and go wallowing through the mud and mire and darkness, Judas-like, to the buffetings of Satan, as several of the quorum have done, or will they learn wisdom and be wise? O God! give them wisdom, and keep them humble, I pray.

When the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the congregations of the earth, and they preach in the power and demonstration of the Spirit of God, and the people are astonished and confounded at the doctrine, and say, "That man has preached a powerful discourse, a great sermon," then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves, but be careful that they are humble, and ascribe the praise and glory to God and the Lamb; for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood and the Holy Ghost that they have power thus to speak. What art thou, O man, but dust? And from whom receivest thou thy power and
The thing I am coming to is this: Everyone who had apostatized among the Twelve then, and others, came to a point where they said that Joseph was a fallen Prophet. They turned traitor to the President of Priesthood, the Prophet Joseph.

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

That is what happened after that great endowment at Kirtland. So again, in another way, President Johnson calls upon us to clean up our lives and be clean every whit, that we may be worthy to be endowed and advanced in the work of God, building up His Kingdom and establishing His Priesthood in the earth, and being prepared to go and redeem Zion. So I think we all need to take a lesson from these things. Beware of pride, and be humble and obedient, and become clean every whit, which I pray we may be and do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of Elder Leonard Black

I, too, feel honored being here with you, my brothers and sisters, in participating in this sacred occasion. I am grateful for the life and labors of this great and good man who has chosen the better part. I feel that Brother Leonard could say, as did Paul in a letter to Timothy:

2 Timothy 4
7. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
8. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Brother Leonard loved His appearing, and he did carry out all those things that were given him to do, and he has kept the faith. The outstanding characteristic of his life to me, as I have observed him over these many years along with these other brethren, is his great humility. That was one of the outstanding characteristics of the Lord Jesus Christ; for in humility, in ascribing all things to the glory of God and to the Lord for all that we have and are, we obtain strength. In humility there is the greatest strength. And this is what enabled him to carry on and keep the faith and keep his covenants which he made as a bearer of the holy Melchizedek Priesthood. He abided the Law of Abraham and has left a beautiful posterity. That is the crown that we obtain, a faithful posterity, to sustain us in the resurrection and in the Celestial Kingdom. I love the words of Joseph the Prophet and was thrilled to read these remarks that he made on the death of Lorenzo D. Barnes in 1843, which I feel are very comforting and strengthening.

Almost all who have fallen in these last days in the Church have fallen in a strange land.

Meaning those who have died.

This is a strange land to those who have come from a distance. We should cultivate sympathy for the afflicted among us. If there is a place on earth where men should cultivate the spirit and pour in the oil and wine in the bosoms of the afflicted, it is in this place; and this spirit is manifest here; and although a stranger and afflicted when he arrives, he finds a brother and a friend ready to administer to his necessities.

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. And who is my neighbor, my father, mother, brother, and sister? It is those who have the same hope of salvation and resurrection that I do in the true faith. One labors in the spirit of the United Order in the interest of his brother, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

I would esteem it one of the greatest blessings, if I am to be afflicted in this world, to have my lot cast where I can find brothers and friends all around me. But this is not the thing I referred to: it is to have the privilege of having our dead buried on the land where God has appointed to gather His Saints together, and where there will be none but Saints, where they may have the privilege of laying their bodies where the Son of Man will make His appearance, and where they may hear the sound of the trump that shall call them forth to behold Him, that in the morn of the resurrection they may come forth in a body, and come up out of their graves and strike hands immediately in eternal glory and felicity, rather than be scattered thousands of miles apart. There is something good and sacred to me in this thing. The place where a man is buried is sacred to me. This subject is made mention of in the Book of Mormon and other scriptures. Even to the aborigines of this land, the burying places of their fathers are more sacred than anything else.

When I heard of the death of our beloved Brother Barnes, it would not have affected me so much, if I had the opportunity of burying him in the land of Zion.

From whence the saints were driven because they had polluted their inheritances.

I believe those who have buried their friends here, their condition is enviable. Look at Jacob and Joseph in Egypt, how they required their friends to bury them in the tomb of their fathers. See the expense which attended the embalming and the going up of the great company to the burial.

It has always been considered a great calamity not to obtain an honorable burial: and one of the greatest curses the ancient prophets could put on any man, was that he should go without a burial.

So that is why these occasions are sacred to us as saints.

I have said, Father, I desire to die here among the Saints. But if this is not Thy will, and I go hence and die, wilt Thou find some kind friend to bring my body back, and gather my friends who have fallen in foreign lands, and bring them up hither, that we may all lie together.

I will tell you what I want. If tomorrow I shall be called to lie in yonder tomb, in the morning of the resurrection let me strike hands with my father, and cry, "My father," and he will say, "My son, my son," as soon as the rock rends and before we come out of our graves.
And may we contemplate these thing so? Yes, if we learn how to live and how to die. When we lie down we contemplate how we may rise in the morning; and it is pleasing for friends to lie down together, locked in the arms of love, to sleep and wake in each other's embrace and renew their conversation.

Would you think it strange if I relate what I have seen in vision in relation to this interesting theme? Those who have died in Jesus Christ may expect to enter into all that fruition of joy when they come forth, which they possessed or anticipated here.

So plain was the vision, that I actually saw men, before they had ascended from the tomb, as though they were getting up slowly. They took each other by the hand and said to each other, "My father, my son, my mother, my daughter, my brother, my sister." And when the voice calls for the dead to arise, suppose I am laid by the side of my father, what would be the first joy of my heart? To meet my father, my mother, my brother, my sister; and when they are by my side, I embrace them and they me.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When other rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

He adds some words to Marcellus Bates.

You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

These occasions give us all such a lesson, that we be prepared to die tomorrow, and for the coming of the One Mighty and Strong, or the Lord Jesus Christ. God bless this beautiful family, and give them comfort in the knowledge that their father and husband has kept the faith and fought the good fight; has sustained the holy Priesthood, and the work, and the laws, and the covenants made with God and his brethren; and go forth ourselves now in the same way, to keep the faith, to keep our covenants, that we may have a glorious resurrection, as he will have, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Obedience; Oneness; Charity

I have been edified by the things that have been brought to our attention thus far, brethren and sisters, as I trust you have been, and pray that the Spirit of God will direct my remarks for our mutual strength and edification.

Mention has been made here regarding a kind of bravery. We have been told -- I have been ever since I have been in the work -- that ours is a moral fight, and I think it is more difficult to maintain our integrity in this moral fight than in many physical battles that may be fought. But I am constrained to remember that we will have to maintain our integrity against mobs. We are going to have to deal with mobs, brothers and sisters. I don't know if you have ever thought of it.

It is for us, brothers and sisters, to sanctify our homes and the places where we dwell, the land upon which we dwell, that mobs and the destructions of nature and the judgments, the overflowing scourge, the desolating sickness that is coming upon us in due time, will have no power over us. We are going to have to stand in faith, knowing that our course is pleasing to God; and we would thus have sufficient of the power of faith to resist all of those things, and they would have no power over us. As President Johnson has so frequently promised us, if we are faithful and true and worthy of the protection of God, He would send down fire from heaven to protect us. We are not going to have to go to war against mobs, but we must be faithful and true, that they have no power over us. And it will be because of our unity, brothers and sisters.

I wish we could understand the true and full meaning of the statement of God to Joseph the Prophet: "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." I am constrained to apply that to my family. I want my family to be owned by God and blessed and protected by Him. But I also want every one of you, each Elder here and his family, to be likewise blessed and protected, that they be one in their households, and that we as a community of families, no matter where we may be; in Canada, or here, or in Mexico, or in Colorado City; wherever we are, we will be protected, as John Taylor spoke to us in a revelation that he received. And I feel like reading that again to us. This was given December 25, 1884:

Revelation to John Taylor  December 25, 1884
1. There are some things that ought to be put right.
There are many things that ought to be put right, brothers and sisters.

2. Some time ago there was word given for the brethren and their families to put themselves in order before the Lord; and it is necessary that these things should be carried out, for there has been a negligence in some of these matters;
This is so true today.

3. And if my people and Priesthood desire my blessing, and guidance, and protection, they must and shall be subject to my law.
4. And it is necessary that the various quorums of the Priesthood should place themselves right before me, saith the Lord;

5. And that as individuals they should place themselves in that position, for if they do not they have no claim upon my blessing or my protection.

6. A day of trouble, and anxiety and sorrow, and judgment will soon overtake this nation and other nations: it is nigh at hand, and the inhabitants of Zion must purge themselves from iniquity, folly, covetousness, and vanity, and listen to and obey my laws, or they cannot have my protection.

How simple the case is stated here, but how difficult to carry it out.

7. For I, the Lord, will not be mocked, Can we mock the Lord by our failure to do these things? I am sure we do. Every word that He speaks and His Prophet speaks shall not fall to the ground unfulfilled.

7. ...but the wrongdoer shall receive the just recompense of reward; and the sinners in Zion shall be afraid;

Why? They are not one. What confidence we can have if we are one, working behind His servant who presides over us, as Joseph tried to do in taking two hundred men to go and redeem Zion? And they failed because of murmuring, contentions, and strifes that arose there. If they had been one, solidly, and walking and acting as one man, as Joseph, armies would have fled and they would have been able to redeem Zion, for the set time had been made. So we see how the things are on the opposite side of the coin.

8. And fearfulness shall also take hold of the wicked and the ungodly that are in your midst.

Fear bringeth torment. Fear is the opposite of faith. If there is fear or doubt, there faith cannot be. Faith is power, power with God. How? Because we know that our course is pleasing to Him. We have confidence in Him and He in us. Would to God we could keep that channel clear and free and pure.

9. And if you, my people, obey my law and keep my commandments, to do them not in name only,

Many do this.

9. ...but in reality, I will be your shield and protector, and your strong tower and no man shall be able to hurt you, for I will be your defense.

10. Therefore, humble yourselves before me, and purify yourselves, that your acts and doings may be acceptable before me.
11. For if you do not you will share in the condemnation of the wicked.

12. Therefore, listen to the counsels of those whom I have appointed, and seek not your own will and way,

I wonder how much of that goes on in families -- different members seeking their own will and way instead of the will and way of the Lord, through their head.

12. Therefore, listen to the counsels of those whom I have appointed, and seek not your own will and way, but the will of the Lord your God;

You brethren, you Elders, bearers of the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, heads of families, are appointed to be heads of your families by the law and the will of God, and your families should heed you.

13. For by him only can you be sustained

The Lord our God.

13. ...in the time of trouble which is just approaching. Even so, Amen.

Much has been said here today about the grand attribute love as a part of our character, love of truth. One of the most beautiful descriptions I have read of a people who love the truth for the truth's sake is described in Lecture Six.

Lecture Six

4. Such was, and always will be, the situation of the saints of God, that unless they have an actual knowledge that the course they are pursuing is according to the will of God they will grow weary in their minds, and faint;

Can we see that picture?

4. ...for such has been, and always will be, the opposition in the hearts of unbelievers and those that know not God against the pure and unadulterated religion of heaven (the only thing which insures eternal life), that they will persecute

Now here is the description of saints.

4. ...they will persecute to the uttermost all that worship God according to his revelations, receive the truth in the love of it, and submit themselves to be guided and directed by his will; and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven,

Truly in the spirit of meekness and lowliness of heart, acknowledging God and walking in perfect obedience to Him through His servants.
4. ...and drive them to such extremities that nothing short of an actual knowledge of their being the favorites of heaven, and of their having embraced the order of things which God has established for the redemption of man, will enable them to exercise that confidence in him, necessary for them to overcome the world, Confidence in God.

4. ...to overcome the world, and obtain that crown of glory which is laid up for them that fear God.

So there is the power of faith, brothers and sisters, loving God with all our heart, might, mind and strength, and His truth because it is God's truth; and be willing to sacrifice our lives, if need be, for our brethren and for the cause of truth.

So, the feeling that I have today, and a great deal I have been thinking upon it, is what we have in this favorite chapter, the seventh of Moroni. I will read you the latter part.

After having spoken a great deal of faith and miracles and the visitation of angels by faith, which is an evidence of the true religion of heaven and the holy Priesthood being in existence and laboring under God to accomplish the salvation of His children, speaking of faith and hope:

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

This is the foundation for the attribute charity, the pure love of Christ. Then he goes on to say:

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity;

They all go together.

44. ...for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

Now notice these things that are evidences of charity, or the outward manifestations of it in our character and attributes; and will enable us to overcome these things that are so destructive in our families, the only way they can be.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind,
I have brought to mind the statement that, in our conversations, the things we say to one another, particularly the things we say and do to one another, there are three tests. Is it necessary? Is it the truth? And is it kind? Charity:

45. ...envieth not,
Think of those things that the Lord said was the cause for the pollution of the inheritances of the saints in Zion -- jarrings, contentions, envyings, strifes, lustful and covetous desires. Those are not of charity. It:

45. ...envieth not, and is not puffed up,
Or in other words, it is meek and lowly of heart. It is humble, acknowledging the hand of God in all things. It:

45. ...is not easily provoked, seeketh not her own,
It is unselfish, or in other words, it is not covetous.

45. ...rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
Why can't we put the cloak of charity around the weaknesses of one another, as Joseph said, and how he loved the saints: "If you will not accuse me, I will not accuse you, but I will take you into heaven as my back load." There is the kind of love that was in the heart of Joseph, and he loved all the saints and all mankind. He wanted nothing less than their salvation, if they would. Then he goes on to say they should put a cloak of charity around his weaknesses, for he acknowledged he had them; and he would over theirs as he had always done. He certainly had done that for them. And so now we have the conclusion of the matter and what we are all trying to accomplish.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, Charity, the pure love of Christ, must go in and through all of the other attributes -- knowledge, faith or power, justice, judgment, mercy, and truth.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --
47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love,

Here is faith doing its part. Pray to the Father with all the energy of heart. The exertion of the mind is the power of faith, and too many of us are spiritually lazy and lacking in faith for this reason.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love,

To me, this, brothers and sisters, is being filled with the Holy Ghost -- nothing short of it -- the pure love of Christ.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ;

Who was one with the Father as we must be one with Him.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;

Because we will be like Him.

48. ...and that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

What is more purifying than loving God with all our heart, might, mind and strength; and our neighbor as ourselves? Love is the purifying element, borne by the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost; and we must be filled with it if we are to become like God. I pray, brothers and sisters, we will labor together. As I think through this meekness and lowliness of heart and this pure love of Christ, I think of President Johnson who is Christlike. How I love my brethren, and I would to God we would all love one another according to this scripture, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Faith

I rejoice, my dear brothers and sisters, in the wonderful truths that we have had expounded to us here today; for the testimonies of the truth regarding the keys of the kingdom and of the holy Priesthood.
I pray for the Spirit of God to be with me in the few moments I stand before you, that we may be further edified by the same Spirit. There keeps coming to me, my dear brothers and sisters, the things that we lack, and which we lack because we lack faith. Joseph Smith said, "That which is not of faith is of sin." In the Lectures on Faith, Joseph tells us that we must learn to walk as seeing Him who is invisible, our Father and our God. That, to me, expresses the very essence of faith. I keep having come before me the statement: If we lack the blessings that the Lord has promised us, it is because we lack faith. Faith is the exertion of the mind through words, and it must be exercised, therefore, through prayer. I am afraid we do not pray enough, and with faith in our prayers.

This dispensation of the fullness of the Gospel, and of the holy Priesthood, was brought about through the faith of our beloved Prophet, Joseph Smith, Jun. Every step of the restoration came about through the power of faith. Faith is power, brothers and sisters, power with God, in whom our faith must center, and in our Lord Jesus Christ. And I have added an Eighth Lecture, just a few words: It requires faith in the holy Priesthood, which is God, God with us. We cannot exercise faith, or have power with Him, except we know that our course is pleasing to God. This calls upon us for the great principle of sacrifice, the sacrifice of all earthly things, the sacrifice of our earthly character and the offering of our life, and all that we have and are, in faith, knowing that we have a more enduring substance in eternal life.

This knowledge that our course is pleasing to God comes about through obedience to all of the laws and ordinances, and every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God, through His servants the Prophets.

Faith

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character,

And attributes,

...and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

This requires the endowment, first and the second; and the final step, the Second Comforter, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself; thus, faith ripening into knowledge, and knowing God, and our Lord Jesus Christ, and our Prophet -- the One Mighty and Strong, the Witness and Testator, and the third member of the Godhead, whom to know is eternal life; which I pray we may lay hold upon, through our faith, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Be at Peace; Testimony of the Keyholder

The word of the Lord to us today is, "Be at peace in a world at war, be calm in a world in confusion, and walk in the light of Christ in a world covered with gross darkness, and get the Spirit of God and keep it." Getting the Spirit of God will enable us to do these things. The Spirit of God is a Spirit of peace, calm and love.

Hyrum Smith, had he lived, would have succeeded Joseph as being the worthy senior; and Brigham Young was next. We begin to see how much out of order everything is. What is left and now presently existing of the Kingdom of God is in the Priesthood Council under President Johnson. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is still the Church of God. It is terribly out of order by itself, acting and going completely under its own direction; and they even lacking the keys of the Presidency of the Church, which were taken back when Joseph F. Smith died. They also lost the Patriarchal authority when John Smith died, who was Patriarch between 1855 till 1911, Patriarch to the Church. No Patriarch in the Church organization has qualified since. The son of John Smith, named Hyrum G. Smith, was ordained by Joseph F. Smith, subject to his qualifying with the Patriarchal Law of Marriage, which he never did.

The Patriarchal keys are with the keyholder. Hyrum G. Smith was ordained by President Joseph F. Smith, who was an Apostle acting under John W. Woolley, but now Hyrum G. Smith was told "subject to his qualifying," which he never did. I was personally acquainted with him; and before I went on my mission, I got a Patriarchal blessing from him, such as it was. I didn't know any better till 1938, in September. And I was working and living under the best light and knowledge available to me. I didn't hold the Melchizedek Priesthood till Joseph W. Musser conferred it upon me January 20, 1939. I went on a mission, therefore, without the Priesthood. I never felt the power of it really, comparing what I had and did then with what I have come to know since.

So this is why we say Priesthood is first and paramount. It stands above all — Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Melchizedek; by whom it is called to avoid the too frequent use of the name of Diety, because he was such a great Apostle.

Upon his death, Judge James Adams became a spirit of a just man made perfect; who, to appear to men who had had their calling and election made sure, would be manifested in flames of glory. That is what Joseph Smith said of him at the funeral. He was worthy of a resurrection, but was retained in that spirit condition to do that great work, which constitutes a baptism of the Holy Ghost as by fire.

So we have a great deal going for us, this people; and we have a true representative of the Lord Jesus Christ as our President and head — a Christlike man, Leroy Johnson, who stands at the head of all. And we of this generation will have to account to him. He stands in the same position among us as Joseph did to the saints in his day — the mouthpiece of God through whom all things must be revealed for the Church and Kingdom of God.

Let us bear true faith and loyalty to the Priesthood of the living God which is among us; and magnify the Priesthood, brethren, which we hold, to the honor and glory of God, in Jesus' name, amen.

I would add one more thing while we are all together. I hope and pray that we all realize that the recent experience and the accident which occurred has been given to us as a test and a lesson for each and all. And we will seek to learn of it as we go. Once more, John Y. Barlow and David W. Jeffs were present on that occasion [at the hospital with President Jeffs].

Gratitude for the Blessings of God During His Automobile Accident; The Meek; Testimony of President Johnson

I cannot tell you, my brothers and sisters, how grateful I am to be with you here today, and be here in association with Presidents Hammon and Musser, and under the direction of President Johnson. As I have heard these beautiful testimonies here today, I have been filled with gratitude for the blessings of God to me in recent times. I know that the destroyer has made an attempt on my life, and I am grateful the Lord has seen fit to keep me here. It has been a great experience for me and my family. It seems the devil had his man there on the wrong side of the road, headed straight for me. We did hit, and the force of the collision seemed to center on me, but I have come through with the blessings of God. I am grateful for the administration of President Musser and the other brethren who accompanied him at the hospital.

There was a little controversy as to how many ribs were broken. It turned out to be only one, and I am glad that has quit flipping. It was reported to me that David Steed said, "Knowing who Brother Jeffs is and what he has, he shouldn't have any ribs at all." [Laughter] You know the Adam and Eve story.

I would gladly give all my ribs for the beautiful wives that I have, and the beautiful children I have. But I know that a great responsibility rests upon me, and I desire only to be an instrument in the hands of God to accomplish His will and purposes in me, and in mine.

We learn from experiences like this how the hand of God is made manifest, and what great blessings He bestows upon us, and how we learn to appreciate what we have. Above all, I am grateful to come under the direction of President Johnson, and to be associated with my brethren, President Johnson and the Council, whom I dearly love and appreciate being a fellow servant. I desire with all my heart to build up the Kingdom of God, and establish this order of Priesthood in the earth, and to bring to pass much righteousness to the glory and honor of God.

I am grateful above all things for the testimony and knowledge I have regarding the Priesthood of God, the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the power of God unto salvation; to know who Father is, and His Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost -- Joseph Smith; and that we have with us, dear brothers and sisters, the holy Priesthood to guide and direct us, and to bring us back into the presence of Father. It is marvelous to know who Father is, who Jesus is, and who Joseph is -- Father, Son and Holy Ghost, the author of our salvation. This people has been called out, and from the heart's core of this people will be those who will be the righteous nucleus of the great Millennium, to redeem Zion. How great are our blessings and opportunities, brothers and sisters, and how humble and contrite, and broken-hearted we should be, to be called out and be numbered among the saints. Great and marvelous are the blessings of God to us.

In humility, dear brothers and sisters, is strength; and our submission to God and His servants will bring us back into His presence. Jesus said, "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth." Orson Pratt said something that I feel is very, very true, and has a great deal to do with this plan of salvation. He said:

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth," But who are the meek? By what peculiarities are they distinguished from other men?

There must be some qualities about them far superior to the generality of mankind, or they would not become the exclusive heirs of the new earth.

The celestialized earth.

The law of meekness includes all the laws of the Gospel, with its ordinances and blessings, Priesthood and powers, through obedience to which mankind become justified, sanctified, purified, and (finally) glorified.

To be glorified is to be full of the Holy Ghost, to have a fullness of the Holy Spirit.

Such are the meek of the earth, and none others.

One of the most meek and greatest Prophets of this dispensation that I know of, associated with Joseph Smith, was Heber C. Kimball, whom Joseph said or designated would be given an inheritance on the north of Joseph in Zion. Bringing things down to the present, a great example for us, dear brothers and sisters, of one who is meek and lowly of heart, is our President Leroy Sunderland Johnson, whom I feel we can imitate with great assurance and faith, and know that we will be saved and exalted. So we have examples before us, brothers and sisters. We have the same Priesthood with us today as that which was held by Adam, Seth, Enoch, Noah, Melchizedek, Abraham, Moses, Elijah; and the Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, held by Joseph Smith, Jun., the One Mighty and Strong, whose successor is among us today.

God bless us, dear brothers and sisters, to know and understand Priesthood, and to follow it, and to be faithful to it; which is the power of God unto salvation. God bless us and help us to be one, and be that great nucleus of the great Millennium, and be numbered among the faithful to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

D.& C. 59

I am grateful to be here in association with President Johnson and my brethren. After hearing so great things as we have heard here today, I rather feel that anything I could say would be an anticlimax. But I feel impressed to read one of the greatest sermons in the scripture, Doctrine and Covenants, Section 59.

A few of the saints, under Joseph Smith, had arrived at Jackson County, Independence, Missouri; and had dedicated the land and the temple site.
These were instructions given to the saints as they were about to enter into the building of the City of Zion.

D.& C. 59

1. Behold, blessed, saith the Lord, are they who have come up unto this land with an eye single to my glory, according to my commandments.
2. For those that live shall inherit the earth, and those that die shall rest from all their labors, and their works shall follow them; and they shall receive a crown in the mansions of my Father, which I have prepared for them.

3. Yea, blessed are they whose feet stand upon the land of Zion, who have obeyed my gospel; for they shall receive for their reward the good things of the earth, and it shall bring forth in its strength.
4. And they shall also be crowned with blessings from above, yea, and with commandments not a few, and with revelations in their time -- they that are faithful and diligent before me.
5. Wherefore, I give unto them a commandment, saying thus: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, mind, and strength; and in the name of Jesus Christ thou shalt serve him.
6. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Thou shalt not steal; neither commit adultery, nor kill, nor do anything like unto it.
7. Thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things.
8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit.
9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;
10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High.
11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;
12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord.
13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.
14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.
15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin, but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --
16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fulness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;
17. Yea, and the herb, and the good things which come of the earth, whether for food or for raiment, or for houses, or for barns, or for orchards, or for gardens, or for vineyards;
18. Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart;
19. Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.
20. And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.

21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

22. Behold, this is according to the law and the prophets; wherefore, trouble me no more concerning this matter.

23. But learn that he who doeth the works of righteousness shall receive his reward, even peace in this world, and eternal life in the world to come.

24. I, the Lord, have spoken it, and the Spirit beareth record. Amen.

First and Second Comforter;
Spirit of Revelation; D. & C. 93

I am surely grateful to be here in company with my brethren, and under the direction and Presidency of Leroy S. Johnson; and pray that the Spirit of God will direct me in my remarks, and reflect the things that President Johnson desires that be given us here today. I was thrilled at the story that he has told us here today, and I hope and pray that it will sink deep in our hearts, and that we will respond with all of our hearts, to accomplish the thing that he has told us of.

I would like to read to us here the words of Joseph on how we can be that people. After having described the First Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, the great gift of the Holy Ghost, Joseph said:

TPJS Page 150

The Second Comforter

The other Comforter spoken of is a subject of great interest, and perhaps understood by few of this generation. After a person has faith in Christ, repents of his sins, and is baptized for the remission of his sins and receives the Holy Ghost, (by the laying on of hands), which is the first Comforter, then let him continue to humble himself before God, hungering and thirsting after righteousness, and living by every word of God, and the Lord will soon say unto him, Son, thou shalt be exalted. When the Lord has thoroughly proved him, and finds that the man is determined to serve Him at all hazards, then the man will find his calling and his election made sure, then it will be his privilege to receive the other Comforter, which the Lord hath promised the Saints, as is recorded in the testimony of St. John.

I am speaking now of the greatest and final blessings that will enable us to receive the Second Comforter.

"16. And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever;
"17. Even the Spirit of Truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

"18. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. * * *
"21. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them he it is that loveth me:

We prove our love for God with all our heart, might, mind and strength, by the keeping of His commandments.

"21. ...and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

"23. If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Now what is this other Comforter? It is no more nor less than the Lord Jesus Christ Himself; and this is the sum and substance of the whole matter; that when any man obtains this last Comforter, he will have the personage of Jesus Christ to attend him, or appear unto him from time to time, and even He will manifest the Father unto him, and they will take up their abode with him, and the visions of the heavens will be opened unto him, and the Lord will teach him face to face, and he may have a perfect knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God; and this is the state and place the ancient Saints arrived at when they had such glorious visions -- Isaiah, Ezekiel, John upon the Isle of Patmos, St. Paul in the three heavens, and all the Saints who held communion with the general assembly and Church of the Firstborn.

This is the state and condition that the saints will have to come to, to abide the presence of the Savior, in going to redeem Zion; because He said He would go with them. Not only His angels, but He Himself would go in that journey to redeem Zion.

TPJS  Page 151
The Spirit of Revelation

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. Without revelation, brothers and sisters, the greatest of the gifts of the Holy Ghost, there is no salvation.

A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God

We must learn it in order to have it.

...and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Joseph Smith visited Brigham Young in a dream and told him how important it was that the saints get and keep the Spirit of God. Having been given this great gift, brothers and sisters, it is a sin to be without it. Great men from the beginning of time -- Adam, Seth, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Elijah, Jesus and Joseph -- have shown us how this can be. Heber C. Kimball, whose experiences were revealed to us here today, had the Spirit of God with him at all times; the Spirit of revelation was upon him at all times. This is the great need that we have. The Holy Ghost is the mind of the Father and the Son. It is within Them and it will be within us as we obey and have perfect faith in Them, to abide every word that proceeds forth from the mouth of God. I have read the words of Joseph on how to become perfect, and here is the Gospel of Jesus Christ contained in one verse -- verse 1 of Section 93 of the Doctrine and Covenants:

D.& C. 93

1. Verily thus saith the Lord It shall come to pass that every soul who forsaketh his sins and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name, Through faith.
1. ...and obeyeth my voice,
Through faith.
1. ...and keepeth my commandments,
Through faith; I have added faith here.
1. ...shall see my face and know that I am;
As Joseph told us in this other reading. And He goes on:
2. And that I am the true light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world;
3. And that I am in the Father, and the Father in me, and the Father and I are one --
4. The Father because he gave me of his fulness, and the Son because I was in the world and made flesh my tabernacle, and dwelt among the sons of men.
5. I was in the world and received of my Father, and the works of him were plainly manifest.
6. And John saw and bore record of the fulness of my glory, and the fulness of John's record is hereafter to be revealed.

There is a promise of a glorious record, bearing testimony of the mysteries of godliness, which will be revealed to the faithful. We have been promised the same thing concerning the record of the brother of Jared. The Lord made the promise to the Nephites, that when they had the faith of the brother of Jared, they would have his record. The record of Enoch will also be revealed, how he prepared a perfect people to be translated, and a part of the earth taken with them.

7. And he bore record, saying: I saw his glory, that he was in the beginning, before the world was;
8. Therefore, in the beginning the Word was, for he was the Word, even the messenger of salvation --
9. The light and the Redeemer of the world; the Spirit of truth, who came into the world, because the world was made by him, and in him was the life of men and the light of men.
10. The worlds were made by him; men were made by him; all things were made by him, and through him, and of him.
11. And I, John, bear record that I beheld his glory, as the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, even the Spirit of truth, which came and dwelt in the flesh, and dwelt among us.
12. And I, John, saw that he received not of the fulness at the first, He had to go through everything that we have to, to become perfect.
12. ...but received grace for grace;
As we are told in Lecture Five.

13. And he received not of the fulness at first, but continued from grace to grace, until he received a fullness;
14. And thus he was called the Son of God, because he received not of the fulness at the first.

15. And I, John, bear record, and lo, the heavens were opened, and the Holy Ghost descended upon him in the form of a dove, and sat upon him, and there came a voice out of heaven saying: This is my beloved Son.
16. And I, John, bear record that he received a fulness of the glory of the Father;

17. And he received all power, both in heaven and on earth, and the glory of the Father was with him, for he dwelt in him.
18. And it shall come to pass, that if you are faithful you shall receive the fulness of the record of John.

Now, why are these things given?
19. I give unto you these sayings that you may understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship, that you may come unto the Father in my name, and in due time receive of his fulness.

20. For if you keep my commandments you shall receive of his fulness, and be glorified in me as I am in the Father; therefore, I say unto you, you shall receive grace for grace.
21. And now, verily I say unto you, I was in the beginning with the Father, and am the Firstborn;

22. And all those who are begotten through me are partakers of the glory of the same, and are the church of the Firstborn.
How are we begotten of Him? By keeping His commandments, and having perfect faith in Him.

23. Ye were also in the beginning with the Father; that which is Spirit, even the Spirit of truth;
24. And truth is knowledge of things as they are, and as they were, and as they are to come;
25. And whatsoever is more or less than this is the spirit of that wicked one who was a liar from the beginning.
26. The Spirit of truth is of God. I am the Spirit of truth, and John bore record of me, saying: He received a fulness of truth, yea, even of all truth;
27. And no man receiveth a fulness unless he keepeth his commandments.
28. He that keepeth his commandments receiveth truth and light, until he is glorified in truth and knoweth all things.

The Holy Spirit is the means by which this is obtained. And obtaining a fulness of the Holy Spirit, we will come to know all things.

29. Man was also in the beginning with God. Intelligence, or the light of truth, was not created or made, neither indeed can be.
30. All truth is independent in that sphere in which God has placed it, to act for itself, as all intelligence also; otherwise there is no existence.
31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

Where much is given, much is expected.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.
33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy; Through the resurrection.

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.

Now here is where we stand, brothers and sisters:

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.
A clean temple is brought about by a pure mind, a pure heart.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.
37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.
38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

And here is what happens to many:
39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience,
We see throughout all of this, that obedience is the first law of heaven, obedience to the commandments of God, to the counsels of the Priesthood, the servants of God.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.
How many of us are struggling under the tradition of our fathers, of the gentile element?

40. But I have commanded you to bring up your children in light and truth. ***
Then the Lord rebukes Frederick G. Williams, Sidney Rigdon, and Joseph, because of this thing.

45. Verily, I say unto my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., or in other words, I will call you friends, for you are my friends, and ye shall have an inheritance with me --
46. I called you servants for the world's sake, and ye are their servants for my sake --

47. And now, verily I say unto Joseph Smith, Jun. -- You have not kept the commandments, and must needs stand rebuked before the Lord;
48. Your family must needs repent and forsake some things, and give more earnest heed unto your sayings, or be removed out of their place.
49. What I say unto one I say unto all; pray always lest that wicked one have power in you, and remove you out of your place.

Let us have faith in our prayers, brothers and sisters, that we may lay hold upon eternal life, through knowing that our course is pleasing to God; have perfect faith and thus become perfect in Christ Jesus, which I pray we may accomplish to the end of the setting in order of the House of God by Joseph, which has already started to come about; and we be prepared to go and redeem Zion, and follow the admonitions of our President, Leroy Johnson every whit. Let us all become clean every whit, as has been described in the words of Joseph, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Instructions of the Lord Given to the Saints in Zion;
Power of Faith Is in Sacrifice Through Obedience

I am very glad and happy to be here with you, my dear brothers and sisters, in association with President Johnson and the brethren here. I desire, likewise, to have the Spirit of God in the remarks I may be led to make for our mutual edification and growth, and in support of the Gospel and the Priesthood of God.

I just felt like reading a sermon from the word of God Himself; Section 59 of the Doctrine and Covenants, these instructions that were given to the saints as they had arrived in Zion, which had been dedicated as the gathering place of the saints, and to build the City of Zion and the temple.

D. & C. 59

1. Behold, blessed, saith the Lord, are they who have come up unto this land with an eye single to my glory, according to my commandments.
   2. For those that live shall inherit the earth, and those that die shall rest from all their labors, and their works shall follow them; and they shall receive a crown in the mansions of my Father, which I have prepared for them.
   3. Yea, blessed are they whose feet stand upon the land of Zion, who have obeyed my gospel; for they shall receive for their reward the good things of the earth, and it shall bring forth in its strength.
   4. And they shall also be crowned with blessings from above, yea, and with commandments not a few, and with revelations in their time -- they that are faithful and diligent before me.
   5. Wherefore, I give unto them a commandment, saying thus: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, mind, and strength; and in the name of Jesus Christ thou shalt serve him.
   6. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Thou shalt not steal; neither commit adultery, nor kill, nor do anything like unto it.
   7. Thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things.
   8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit.
9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;
10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High.

11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;
12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord.

13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.
14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.

15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin, but with a glad heart and a cheerful countenance --
16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fulness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;

17. Yea, and the herb, and the good things which come of the earth, whether for food or for raiment, or for houses, or for barns, or for orchards, or for gardens, or for vineyards;
18. Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart;

19. Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.
20. And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.

21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.
22. Behold, this is according to the law and the prophets; wherefore, trouble me no more concerning this matter.

23. But learn that he who doeth the works of righteousness shall receive his reward, even peace in this world, and eternal life in the world to come.

24. I, the Lord, have spoken it, and the Spirit beareth record.

To go along with that, Section 82, my dear brothers and sisters, given also at Jackson County in April of 1832. These are the means, the modus operandi by which we are to labor daily in walking in obedience to the commandments of God.

D.& C. 82

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you. We cannot be forgiven of the Lord until we forgive one another our trespasses and learn to live in love together.

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; yea, even all of you have sinned; but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads.

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation. This people has received more light and knowledge than any people in this dispensation, and much is required of us. And this is why we are being instructed as we are by our President and head.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: The Lord thus speaks in nearly all of the revelations when He is giving instructions to certain ones, because they are correct principles, applicable to all.

5. ...Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;

6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.
7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge; go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.

I wonder how many of us think of this as we sin and are forgiven, and sin again.

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;

9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

These words should be emblazoned in our souls that we never forget them.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

Herein is the great power of faith, brothers and sisters, in knowing that our course is pleasing to God. Knowing that we have been obedient to His commandments, and have made and obeyed the law of sacrifice, offering all of the earth that is in us and that we have in sacrifice to God, and having come to that knowledge that we please God, we can have the power of faith, and call upon Him for blessings, and He is bound. But there is no promise if ye do not what He says. Obedience is the first law of heaven. We see this through all of the revelations and commandments of God.

And now for their further instruction to these saints in Missouri, the Lord, after giving special instructions to certain ones, said this:

14. For Zion must increase in beauty, and in holiness; her borders must be enlarged; her stakes must be strengthened; yea, verily I say unto you, Zion must arise and put on her beautiful garments.

Zion, dear brothers and sisters, is the pure in heart. Zion is first within each of us; and a sufficient number of people having Zion within their hearts will make a City of Zion worthy to go back and redeem that glorious place, and build up the city and the temple of God.

15. Therefore, I give unto you this commandment, that ye bind yourselves by this covenant, and it shall be done according to the laws of the Lord.

He is revealing more about the Holy United Order, the companion principle to Celestial Marriage, spoken of by Brother Timpson, the two going hand in hand. One cannot be abided fully without the other.

16. Behold, here is wisdom also in me for your good.
17. And you are to be equal, or in other words, you are to have equal claims on the properties, for the benefit of managing the concerns of your stewardships, every man according to his wants and his needs, inasmuch as his wants are just --

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

21. And the soul that sins against this covenant, and hardeneth his heart against it, shall be dealt with according to the laws of my church, and shall be delivered over to the buffetings of Satan until the day of redemption.

Are we living together with one heart and one mind by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, which is our great gift given us by the Priesthood, and the channel by which the Holy Ghost is administered? Are we living with an eye single to the glory of God, and seeking the interest of our neighbor? What are our desires? What is our faith? What is the nature of our faith, brothers and sisters? It cannot be effective, or a principle of power in our lives, except we please God. Abel came to know that he pleased God. Enoch had this testimony that he pleased God, and was able to walk and talk with Him. And it is the first principle of the Gospel to know God, and that we may walk and talk with Him as one man speaks with another.

This is the aim and object of our lives, brothers and sisters, to so live that we may have our calling and election made sure, endowed with power from on high, that we may come into the presence of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is the mind of the Father and the Son, but Joseph Smith stands as the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son, and stands in the office of the Holy Ghost in the Holy Trinity: Father Michael -- God the First, the Creator; Jesus Christ -- God the Second, the Redeemer; and Joseph Smith -- the Witness and the Testator, the great Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son. These three came together and made their covenants, and arranged their labors regarding their dispensations to the children of men upon the earth, which was being created and formed for the children of our Father.

God bless us, dear brothers and sisters, that we may follow these admonitions, the word of God to us, through the instrumentality of Joseph Smith the Prophet. And God bless President Johnson to continue with us, and guide and direct us by the revelations of God, and help us to follow, and to do everything that will please Him, that we may come into Their presence, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

We Lack Faith; All Blessings Come Through Faith; Charity

I feel very humble standing before you here today in this position. Brother Timpson has given me quite an order, but I am grateful to be here. I am very grateful for President Johnson, for all my brethren in the Priesthood. And I am grateful for you Elders of Israel, and that we are co-laborers for Christ and His cause, and for Joseph Smith. I am grateful for the knowledge I have of the truth, the holy Priesthood. I am grateful for the Gospel plan which makes it possible for us to be together under the same banner, the banner of Christ.

I have appreciated deeply the words that President Timpson has given us on the glorious principle of faith. Indeed, brothers and sisters, we are spiritually lazy. If we have not the things that saints should have, it is because of our lack of faith. And President Musser is absolutely right when he tells us that it will be out of the heart's core of this people that a people faithful enough can accomplish the work that God has to be done through His people in this last time. We are members of the last Kingdom. Have we ever thought of that, brothers and sisters; this last Kingdom established by our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, and restored in this time through Joseph Smith, standing in the office of the Holy Ghost, the Witness and Testator for the Father and the Son.

We stand in a unique period between the time of Joseph when he was here in the flesh in mortality, and the time when he will come as the One Mighty and Strong. He has already come to commence the setting in order of the House of God when he appeared with the Lord Jesus Christ to John Taylor, and they did that great work of setting up this special dispensation in which we are now engaged and are beneficiaries of. How grateful we should be, brothers and sisters, and how humble. The Lord has held out glorious promises to us, as He did our fathers, but He has had to withhold, because He has told us time and again, "Ye are not yet sufficiently humble. Ye are not yet sufficiently pure. Ye have not yet the faith to receive." And He, the Lord, called those people, and He calls us today: "My children". And we should be like little children -- submissive, obedient, full of love, full of the Holy Ghost.

We are studying the Book of Ether in our family class, and I was grateful to come across these words written by Moroni as he recorded the work and the sayings of Ether. I would like to pass them on to us, perhaps as a revelation, if you please, that we might learn by it and enable us to go on more quickly to perfection.

Ether 12

5. And it came to pass that Ether did prophesy great and marvelous things unto the people, which they did not believe, because they saw them not.

They did not believe because they could not see them. Our faith in God must be as was expressed by Joseph Smith and in other scriptures, "Walking in obedience as seeing Him who is invisible." That is one of the grandest expressions of faith that I know of -- faith in God.

6. And now, I, Moroni, would speak somewhat concerning these things; I would show unto the world that faith is things which are hoped for and not seen; wherefore, dispute not because ye see not, for ye receive no witness until after the trial of your faith.

God has never granted unto His children anything, except by faith, and it had to start out among those who walked as seeing Him who is invisible, through their faith.

7. For it was by faith that Christ showed himself unto our fathers,

The Nephites and the faithful Lamanites who remained, some twenty-five hundred after the terrible destructions that accompanied the crucifixion of Christ; and He appeared to them afterwards, through faith.

Now, I am going to recount through these verses, dear brothers and sisters, the great and mighty things that were accomplished through faith, and maybe it will help us to learn the great necessity for it.

7. For it was by faith that Christ showed himself unto our fathers, after he had risen from the dead; and he showed not himself unto them until after they had faith in him; wherefore, it must needs be that some had faith in him, for he showed himself not unto the world.

There probably were not very many who had the necessary faith in the promises of the Prophets and the teachers who had been sent to bring Him. They had to have faith in the words of the Prophets that God sent.

8. But because of the faith of men he has shown himself unto the world, and glorified the name of the Father, and prepared a way that thereby others might be partakers of the heavenly gift, that they might hope for those things which they have not seen.

And so, as faith existed with our beloved Prophet Joseph Smith when he went into the woods, a simple, humble boy at fourteen, following the admonition of James:

James 1

5. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering.

Joseph said as he went to the woods, he knew that he would have an answer to his prayer, this fourteen-year-old boy full of faith.

Ether 12

9. Wherefore, ye may also have hope, and be partakers of the gift, if ye will but have faith.

10. Behold it was by faith that they of old were called after the holy order of God.

11. Wherefore, by faith was the law of Moses given. But in the gift of his Son hath God prepared a more excellent way; and it is by faith that it hath been fulfilled.

12. For if there be no faith among the children of men God can do no miracle among them; wherefore, he showed not himself until after their faith.

13. Behold, it was the faith of Alma and Amulek that caused the prison to tumble to the earth.

14. Behold, it was the faith of Nephi and Lehi that wrought the change upon the Lamanites, that they were baptized with fire and with the Holy Ghost.

15. Behold, it was the faith of Ammon and his brethren which wrought so great a miracle among the Lamanites.
16. Yea, and even all they who wrought miracles wrought them by faith, even those who were before Christ and also those who were after.

17. And it was by faith that the three disciples obtained a promise that they should not taste of death; and they obtained not the promise until after their faith.
18. And neither at any time hath any wrought miracles until after their faith; wherefore they first believed in the Son of God.

Our faith must center in Him, and the Father, who are one.

19. And there were many whose faith was so exceedingly strong, even before Christ came, who could not be kept from within the veil, but truly saw with their eyes the things which they had beheld with an eye of faith, and they were glad.

So we have a little different expression of the truths here through the eye of faith, but must be expressed in the words, through faith. Now, go down a little further. Moroni felt very weak in his inability to write, and he thought that the gentiles would mock these things because of his weakness in writing.

24. And thou hast made us that we could write but little, because of the awkwardness of our hands. Behold, thou hast not made us mighty in writing like unto the brother of Jared, for thou madest him that the things which he wrote were mighty even as thou art, unto the overpowering of man to read them.

He had before said:

20. And behold, we have seen in this record that one of these was the brother of Jared; for so great was his faith in God, that when God put forth his finger he could not hide it from the sight of the brother of Jared, because of his word which he had spoken unto him, which word he had obtained by faith.
21. And after the brother of Jared had beheld the finger of the Lord, because of the promise which the brother of Jared had obtained by faith, the Lord could not withhold anything from his sight; wherefore he showed him all things, for he could no longer be kept without the veil. ***

I think these are wonderful illustrations to us, brethren and sisters, how great our faith must be in order to accomplish the things that we are called upon to prepare for. And so, he said:

25. Thou hast also made our words powerful and great, even that we cannot write them; wherefore, when we write we behold our weakness, and stumble because of the placing of our words; and I fear lest the Gentiles shall mock at our words.

He was told that these words being recorded would come to the gentiles first, and out from among the gentiles would come the House of Israel, in the latter time.

26. And when I had said this, the Lord spake unto me, saying: Fools mock, but they shall mourn; and my grace is sufficient for the meek, that they shall take no advantage of your weakness;

The Holy Spirit is the grace of God granted unto His children who have faith.

27. And if men come unto me I will show unto them their weakness. I give unto men weakness that they may be humble;

Such was Joseph, and such have been all of the Prophets of God. Jesus descended below all things that He might arise above them; and He was born one of the weakest, but He rose as the Son of God, the Redeemer.

27. ...I give unto men weakness that they may be humble; and my grace is sufficient for all men that humble themselves before me; for if they humble themselves before me, and have faith in me, then will I make weak things become strong unto them.

What a great power Joseph Smith was, growing out from that weak, humble boy of fourteen, when he was able to say to some few who he was, when he said, "I am going to take my place in the heavens." But he had humbled himself daily before the Lord that he might be made a useful instrument in His hands in bringing about this great last dispensation of the fullness of times, under God.

28. Behold, I will show unto the Gentiles their weakness and I will show unto them that faith, hope and charity bringeth unto me -- the fountain of all righteousness.

Faith, hope, and charity; these are the things by which we must work to become that people out of the heart's core of this people to redeem Zion.
29. And I, Moroni, having heard these words, was comforted, and said: O Lord, thy righteous will be done, for I know that thou workest unto the children of men according to their faith;

30. For the brother of Jared said unto the mountain Zerin, Remove -- and it was removed.

Through words.

30. ...and it was removed. And if he had not had faith it would not have moved; wherefore thou workest after men have faith.

31. For thus didst thou manifest thyself unto thy disciples; for after they had faith, and did speak in thy name, thou didst show thyself unto them in great power.

32. And I also remember that thou hast said that thou hast prepared a house for man, yea, even among the mansions of thy Father, in which man might have a more excellent hope; wherefore man must hope, or he cannot receive an inheritance in the place which thou hast prepared.

In the Book of Moroni we have those same sentiments expressed in great beauty; which I feel again to repeat, to enable us to become more humble, and receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit, to be filled with it, to get and keep the Spirit of God.

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

We are not yet sufficiently humble.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

This is the pure love of Christ, as He says later. And here is what charity is; it:

45. ...suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
The Lord told Joseph the reason the saints were driven from Zion was because of jarrings, and envyings, and strifes and contentions, and lustful and covetous, or selfish desires -- quite the opposite to charity, which they could not have and do those things.

Now, apply these things, dear brothers and sisters, in your families. There is the modus operandi. Joseph said, "If you will not accuse me, I will not accuse you, my brethren, and I will take you into heaven as my back load." That is how much he loved his brethren. What are you doing for one another, dear sisters, and brothers? I mean sister wives, and brethren laboring under the Holy United Order, where you are doing for one another, seeking the interest of one another with an eye single to the glory of God.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail -- Without charity.

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him. 48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, Exertion of the mind. When Joseph got visits from heavenly messengers -- the Father and the Son, Peter, James, and John, and all the others -- he would describe in his own words, how he prayed fervently. Do we know how to pray? If we did, we would have greater faith -- fervently. When Joseph and the three witnesses went to the woods to become the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon plates, they went and prayed fervently. Because of the lack of faith of one of the three -- of the four, counting Joseph -- nothing happened. They went around taking turns praying. Martin Harris, realizing it was he who lacked faith, withdrew. The other three continued, and through their faith, Moroni came and showed them, and handled the plates. Joseph then went and found Martin, and after he had repented sufficiently, they prayed fervently with energy of heart or mind, and they obtained.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; And I add, filled with the Holy Ghost. Charity is the greatest of the attributes of the Holy Spirit, and we must be filled with it in time, in order to lay hold upon these glorious blessings.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God;
That is what it is all about:

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God;
Joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;
When we are filled with the Holy Ghost.

48. ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.
Which may we be, I pray, my dear brothers and sisters, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Gratitude for President Barlow and President Johnson; Rally Around the Keyholder; Charity
I am grateful to be here in association with President Johnson and the brethren today, and trust that I may have the Spirit of the Lord with me in what I shall say. I desire but to be an instrument in His hands for good in the service of my fellow man, my neighbors and friends, and the holy Priesthood above all.

I am grateful for the light of the Gospel and for the blessings of the holy Priesthood. And I am grateful for my birth under the New and Everlasting Covenant, and for my faithful father and mothers. And I am especially grateful for our Priesthood fathers and what they have done for us; and how we have come together under the auspices of the Priesthood, and particularly as we have had them in our lifetimes.

I have been thinking a good deal of John Y. Barlow. There was a faithful, a humble, and obedient Apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ. When I think of humble men after the order of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, I think of John Y. Barlow and his beloved friend, Leroy S. Johnson. These are the very essence of humility to me, my brothers and sisters. And I wish to see the saints follow the example. We have Apostles and friends of the Lord with us, and we have had them in all the experience that I have had in this work; men whom we could emulate.

One thing I love in President Johnson is his great faith, his great courage in standing up to the efforts of the adversary and his minions in trying to destroy this work and Priesthood. And he has the revelations of God with him in directing him in the conditions that we are now facing. And he is taking those revelations the same as they were given to our Priesthood fathers before and following them.

If we are righteous, our course is pleasing to God; He will fight our battles. So, he can say to us, "To your tents, O Israel." "Choose this day whom ye will serve. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." And this is the way President Johnson does battle against the labors of the great adversary of righteousness, Lucifer. And we have personages going about today who are threatening the lives of the Priesthood. They are even threatening the lives of the President of the Church. There have been brought to bear some efforts or labors or counsel to fight back these men in the courts or otherwise. But it is a wonderful exercise and a wonderful example of faith to us, brethren and sisters, to have this great leadership that we have today. And I feel to follow at his side and do everything whatsoever the Lord commands him to do, and us through him.

There is one thing we should understand, brothers and sisters, and I think of the example of Joseph Smith speaking from the frame that President Musser spoke of here today. Speaking to the saints in Nauvoo just prior to the time of his martyrdom, when he spoke of a right-hand Brutus among them, and he knew that his time was soon to come; but he was ready and willing and wanted to go out West. The way had been revealed to him, as has been given us here today in the journal of Mosiah Hancock. He knew the way and where to go, and even mentioned the Valley of the Great Salt Lake where the saints would find refuge and grow to become a mighty people.

He called out and said, "Will you follow me to the death?" The crowd shouted, "Yes!" He said, "It is well. If you had not, I would have gone out there," pointing west, "and raised up another people." Now why, brothers and sisters, can't we follow counsel and direction as given by the mouth of the servant of God who leads us? Here is the rallying point. This is the rallying point, brothers and sisters, that we can exercise faith in our head and in the promises of God that are given to us through that source. And we are going to be called upon to offer our lives. One of the next great trials and persecutions that is going to take place for this people and this Priesthood is mobs. That should try the faith of the saints. And I am grateful that we have our head and leader of a character that we have, with the courage of Jesus Christ and of Joseph Smith, and the character of the same. This is the gratitude I desire to express today; and express the feeling that I would rather suffer a wrong than do one.

In our relations one with another we must be filled with the Holy Ghost, brothers and sisters, or we cannot be one. And we cannot be owned by the Lord unless we are one; first in our families and then as a people. So I go forward and desire to, with my brethren and with all of you who feel to follow, to become that people that the Lord can use to redeem Zion. That is the thing that we should be preparing for, purifying ourselves as He is pure, and doing as Moroni has given us in Chapter 7.

Moroni 7

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --
47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

This is the Holy Spirit which is the very essence of love: and through faith and hope, we may lay hold upon the Holy Spirit as our constant companion and guide. And this is how:

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,
The exercise of the mind.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;

And we will certainly have to be like Him if we are to go in that company to redeem Zion, or we could not stand in His presence. That is how simple it is, and maybe how difficult, according to our desires and our faith.

48. ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

So President Johnson isn't uttering idle words when he calls upon us in the simple words, "Clean up our minds." Go forth with clean minds, pure minds, clean hands, that we may, indeed, be the sons and daughters of God, and be found worthy to be endowed with power from on high, in the holy endowments in the House of the living God. We cannot obtain these blessings without perfect faith, perfect love -- perfect love, brothers and sisters, or charity. May we abide together in this Spirit; lay hold upon and keep, at the peril of our lives, the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost, as our constant companion; and by this means, we may realize these promises which we can lay hold on through our faith, even life eternal, which I pray for in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Gratitude for the Priesthood

I am deeply grateful, brothers and sisters, for these testimonies that have been given us, and for the Priesthood, for the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ; and that we had been brought together under the direction of this order of Priesthood which has been testified of. And I am grateful for our keyholder today who stands with us as Joseph Smith in his day in the beginning of this dispensation. I just want to read the words of John Taylor regarding Joseph Smith the Seer. [He then read the song, "The Seer".] Which I pray we may do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 4:156 July 14, 1977 CCA Funeral

Funeral of Eliza Pugh Steed wife of Elder Newel Steed

I am grateful and honored to be here on this sacred occasion in association with my brethren and this great family. I pray for the Spirit of God to continue with me as with the other things that have taken place in this beautiful ceremony -- shall we say, ordinance -- in laying away this faithful daughter of Eve. We see seated here in the front rows what President Timpson has mentioned, the fruits of this glorious law and principle which has brought us into the world.

Sister Eliza, a daughter of Eve, chose the better part. There is great import in these words, for we are all called upon to choose which way we shall go, after the way and word and will of God, or in the opposite direction. Mother Eve, which is many -- let us never lose sight of this -- and Father Adam fell, fell "up" that we might be. The work of our Father is to bring to pass the immortality and the eternal life of His children, in bringing to pass this great act, and bringing about the immortality and eternal lives of His children.

God, Jehovah, calling upon Adam and Eve, and in bringing upon them that which was necessary for accomplishing this great object of our Father and God, said unto Adam and Eve, before they fell, (and this was their first and great commandment): "Multiply and replenish the earth." These are the fruits. In order to multiply and replenish the earth, it was necessary that they fall from the exalted condition in which they came into the earth, transplanted from another orb of the Gods. And in accomplishing this fall up, not down, the Gods provided the way by which they should be redeemed, they and their children or the children of Adam and Eve, through the atonement and redemption wrought by His Only Begotten, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Living God. But in speaking unto them after they fell "up", He told Adam, "By the sweat of thy brow, shalt thou eat bread, and thou shalt cultivate the earth and bring forth, and live by every word of God." To Eve He said, "Thy desire shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over thee, in sorrow shalt thou bring forth children." And I am sure He said "unto me".

As I said, Sister Eliza, a daughter of Eve, chose the better part, and she abided in the holy covenants she entered into in the Celestial Law, the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. The Celestial Law is the plural law, the only law that God recognizes. I came across in my reading of the Truth Magazine, a gem that I would like to contribute to this occasion, which is applicable to the subject at hand; and I would like to pass it on to you. This is written by Joseph W. Musser. This is as a preamble, two or three scriptures are presented.
[He then read the poem "The Law Eternal", Truth 19:60.]

These words describe the glorious relationship in the Celestial Law of Marriage, given by our Father and His Son Jesus Christ, and restored to this dispensation, which is incumbent upon this people to abide and obey. God bless this family who has tried to live in the spirit and the injunctions given here, and bless us all that we may abide by every word of God, and thus fulfill the desires of our Father, that we might be saved and exalted in His presence, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Salt Lake City, Utah

Funeral of Cleo Barlow
At the Larkin Mortuary

I feel greatly honored in being asked by the family to offer remarks here on this sacred and beautiful occasion. I desire, with the other brethren, to be led by the Spirit of God in all that I shall say and do here. I appreciate what has been said by the other speakers here today who are more intimately acquainted with Aunt Cleo than I was, in bringing forth the character and the beautiful life that Aunt Cleo led.

There comes to mind the occasion when Jesus was being prepared for the great crowning act of His life, the fulfillment of His mission in the earth to atone for, and mediate for His brothers and sisters as the Son of God. Martha and Mary, Jesus' wives, were administering to Him; and Martha, feeling to complain a little about how she was encumbered with much labor regarding Mary; and Jesus said, "She has chosen the better part." From the narrative that has been given here by Brother Olschewski, we can see that Aunt Cleo chose the better part, and her life was a testimony of this great principle of her life. She entered into most sacred covenants under the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven; and so far as I know she kept them.

The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ is a plan, an order by which we enter into if we desire to enter again into the presence of Father. We enter into covenants and fulfill ordinances that are calculated, under the plan of salvation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to bring us back into His presence.
The work and the glory of God is to bring to pass the immortality and the eternal lives of His children. Father Michael came down and He suffered to bring about the mortality of His children, that they might have the opportunity to bring about their immortality and become as He. Then He sent His Only Begotten, His Firstborn Son, to bring about the mediation and the atonement, by which His brothers and sisters could come again into Father's presence. All the laws and ordinances of the holy Priesthood, which have been given by Father to His sons to carry out in His behalf, are designed to bring His children back into His presence if they will, if they desire to obey the law and keep the ordinances designed for that purpose. So, Aunt Cleo entered into the Celestial Law, directed by revelation to her to enter into this association under the Celestial Law, having obeyed the initiatory ordinances of the Gospel: faith, repentance, baptism, and the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost; having entered into the Church and Kingdom of God through these initiatory ordinances and laws of the Gospel.

B. H. Roberts told in a few sentences the plan of salvation and exaltation; and let us keep in mind, brothers and sisters, exaltation. All but the sons of perdition will be saved in a degree of glory, but not all will be exalted. Only those will be exalted who keep the Celestial Law and enter into the Celestial Kingdom. And here, detailed in brief words is that course, the way to perfection:

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God:

We cannot know that we please God, and that our course of life is pleasing to Him, except through the law of sacrifice, having offered all earthly things to God. We, by this means, come to know that our course is pleasing to Him. This will give the great force of the glorious principle of faith to call upon God to bring us the blessings and the ordinances and the powers of the Holy Spirit to come back into His presence. When we do what He says, the Lord said He is bound; if we do not what He says we have no promise. So we enter into these covenants, and by the keeping of the covenant and by obedience to all of the commandments of God, by offering everything of a worldly nature to Him in sacrifice, we come to know that our course is pleasing to Him; and thus, we have power with God because we have His Spirit, which is the mind of the Father and the Son.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born,

This should be our aim and object, brothers and sisters, to come to have communion with the Church of the Firstborn, the heavenly Church of God, of Jesus Christ, the Firstborn.

...with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge. Knowledge is power; knowledge of truth is power. Aunt Cleo desired to know the truth and to abide it. And so I say to her sons and daughters, Uncle Anthus' sons and daughters, all should know that their illustrious parents chose the better part, desiring to enter into the presence of God.

Now, I pray that all may understand these correct principles, the doctrines of the holy Priesthood which God has vouchsafed to His chosen sons here upon the earth in this last dispensation. All of these things must be done through a legal administrator, and for this purpose, God has sent His servants upon the earth to act for Him. None of these things, dear friends and brothers and sisters, can be obtained, these things of which I have spoken, except they be by a legal administrator of God, our Eternal Father, of Michael, our Father and God, and Jesus Christ, His Son. God will not acknowledge any except they who are one. "If you are not one, you are not Mine," said the Father in modern revelation and in ancient scripture, the Book of Mormon, the Bible, and the Doctrine and Covenants. And I speak the word of God from these sources: "Except ye are one, ye are not Mine." We cannot be one except through His servant, His legal administrator of the ordinances and blessings of the Gospel and plan of salvation.

May God bless and comfort the family of this dear sister who chose the better part, and bless all who remain to desire and know and obey the truth, that they may be where Aunt Cleo and her beloved husband, Anthus Barlow, are. God bless us, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I appreciate being here on this sacred occasion associated with you, my brothers and sisters, in memory of a faithful and true daughter of God. My earliest recollection of the life and labors of Sister Bradshaw after she had, what I consider, chosen the better part, desiring to live the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel, and to associate herself with the servants of God in working out her salvation, rounding it out; she made the necessary sacrifices so that she could have the confidence of God. She, together with her husband, when they entered into this work, consecrated all they had, lived the law of sacrifice and abided in the spirit of the Holy United Order, and became associated with the saints in this place afterwards, and has carried on. I appreciate having known and associated with her and her husband, and her children.

The Zion of our God was set up in the days of Enoch when he united a number of people and built a holy city. It is a desire of the servants of God and of the Lord Himself that His people do the same thing, and we look forward now to the redemption of Zion. I felt a wonderful message of comfort and strength to us is contained in Section 101 of the Doctrine and Covenants, part of which I would like to read for our benefit and edification. This was in December 1833, after the saints had been driven out of Jackson County, Missouri.

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;
3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.
4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

This is a work of preparation and sanctification, brothers and sisters, and we are going to have to build a Zion and be prepared to redeem the center place, which has not been moved out of her place.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

These are the things that often beset us in our families and as a community, which must be overcome if we are to be one. We cannot be prepared to redeem Zion until we are one, and have, constantly, the gift and power of the Holy Ghost with us.

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

11. Mine indignation is soon to be poured out without measure upon all nations; and this will I do when the cup of their iniquity is full.

12. And in that day all who are found upon the watch-tower, or in other words, all mine Israel, shall be saved.

13. And they that have been scattered shall be gathered.

14. And all they who have mourned shall be comforted.

15. And all they who have given their lives for my name shall be crowned.

16. Therefore, let your hearts be comforted concerning Zion; for all flesh is in mine hands; be still and know that I am God.

17. Zion shall not be moved out of her place, notwithstanding her children are scattered.
18. They that remain, and are pure in heart, shall return, and come to their inheritances, they and their children, with songs of everlasting joy, to build up the waste places of Zion --

19. And all these things that the prophets might be fulfilled.
20. And, behold, there is none other place appointed than that which I have appointed; neither shall there be any other place appointed than that which I have appointed, for the work of the gathering of my saints --

21. Until the day cometh when there is found no more room for them; and then I have other places which I will appoint unto them, and they shall be called stakes, for the curtains or the strength of Zion.
22. Behold, it is my will, that all they who call on my name, and worship me according to mine everlasting gospel, should gather together, and stand in holy places;

These are very applicable to all of us, brothers and sisters, and we should give heed.

23. And prepare for the revelation which is to come, when the veil of the covering of my temple, in my tabernacle, which hideth the earth, shall be taken off, and all flesh shall see me together.
24. And every corruptible thing, both of man, or of the beasts of the field, or of the fowls of the heavens, or of the fish of the sea, that dwells upon all the face of the earth, shall be consumed;

25. And also that of element shall melt with fervent heat; and all things shall become new, that my knowledge and glory may dwell upon all the earth.
26. And in that day the enmity of man, and the enmity of beasts, yea, the enmity of all flesh, shall cease from before my face.

This is the time of the Millennium being described. If we want to know how it will be then, here we have it:

27. And in that day whatsoever any man shall ask, it shall be given unto him.
28. And in that day Satan shall not have power to tempt any man.
29. And there shall be no sorrow because there is no death.

30. In that day an infant shall not die until he is old; and his life shall be as the age of a tree;
31. And when he dies he shall not sleep, that is to say in the earth, but shall be changed in the twinkling of an eye, and shall be caught up, and his rest shall be glorious.

32. Yea, verily I say unto you, in that day when the Lord shall come, he shall reveal all things --
33. Things which have passed, and hidden things which no man knew, things of the earth, by which it was made, and the purpose and the end thereof --

34. Things most precious, things that are above, and things that are beneath, things that are in the earth, and upon the earth, and in heaven.
35. And all they who suffer persecution for my name, and endure in faith, though they are called to lay down their lives for my sake yet shall they partake of all this glory.

36. Wherefore, fear not even unto death; for in this world your joy is not full, but in me your joy is full.
37. Therefore, care not for the body, neither the life of the body; but care for the soul, and for the life of the soul.

38. And seek the face of the Lord always, that in patience ye may possess your souls, and ye shall have eternal life.
39. When men are called into mine everlasting gospel, and covenant with an everlasting covenant, they are accounted as the salt of the earth and the savor of men;

Brother and Sister Bradshaw heeded that call and gathered to Zion.

40. They are called to be the savor of men; therefore, if that salt of the earth lose its savor, behold, it is thenceforth good for nothing only to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men.
41. Behold, here is wisdom concerning the children of Zion, even many, but not all; they were found transgressors, therefore they must needs be chastened --
42. He that exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that abaseth himself shall be exalted.

The Lord tells His saints in Joseph's day and since, "Ye are not yet sufficiently humble. Ye are not yet pure in heart. Ye are not yet one. If you are not one, you are not Mine." May God bless the family of this beloved sister, and bless us all that we may continue in our course, seeking to keep all the commandments of God; sustain the power and authority of God in the earth, and work and round out our salvation, as Sister Bradshaw desired to do and did do, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Get and Keep the Spirit of God

I am happy, delighted to be here with you today, and in association with President Johnson and the brethren of the Council; and I desire for the Spirit of God to direct me in what I may say while I am under this assignment. The greatest gift of God to us, next to life itself, is the gift of the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Father and the Son. This great gift is given to us after we have had faith, have repented, and gone into the waters of baptism, and come forth in a newness of life, to enable us to obtain the mind and will of God, and to do it concerning us.

So this is the secret of life and of our progress and growth as we strive with our might to love God and to become like Him. When we realize the simple truth that the attributes of the Holy Spirit are the attributes of God, because it issues forth from Himself and is the power by which He has accomplished all things in behalf of His children. The great work of God is to bring to pass the immortality and the eternal life of us, His children. And to illustrate again the great importance of this grand principle, I would like to read the dream of Brigham Young while at Winter Quarters.

Truth 10:221

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed him many times, and said to him:
"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."
Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:
"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:
"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:
"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright.

We must be humble and faithful to get and to keep the Spirit of God.

Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; That is the Spirit of revelation, without which there is no salvation, and will enable us to walk daily under its influence.

...it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts; and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."
Joseph then showed the pattern how the human family were in the beginning. He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

That, in answer to the question regarding adoption or the sealing principle.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

If you want to make a note where to get this, brothers and sisters, it is volume 10 of Truth, page 221. So, there is the foundation instruction of the Prophet Joseph Smith for his brethren and the saints as they were about to begin their great emigration across the plains to the valleys of the mountains, the Rocky Mountains, where Joseph was about to go when he went back to Carthage and gave his life, spilt his blood as a testimony, as Jesus did.

Now, brothers and sisters, we really do not need to ask how to overcome the things that we need to overcome, because we have this one simple solution to every question. When I am asked it in my family, I always have to come back to this: Get the Spirit of God and keep it. There is nothing more important than our getting and keeping the Spirit of God, as Brother Guy has prepared a little card for us to keep before us always; but we do not follow it, unfortunately. The very things that caused the saints to be expelled from the holy City of Zion, to be driven out, and by which they polluted their inheritance, will be overcome by the Holy Ghost. Furthermore, it is the only way that the people can be one, for all to have the Spirit of God; and then they will be one. There is no confusion. There is no jarring, or strife, or contention, or envying, or jealousy, or lustful and covetous desires.

One of the great instructions we have is found in Section 93, brothers and sisters. It tells us of the fullness of the Spirit that was obtained by Jesus, and by John the Beloved. I will not read all of it, but I would like to read some extracts, that we may understand a little better, and particularly as it regards the Spirit of God. Intelligence is the Spirit of God, and the glory of God is intelligence. And to be perfectly intelligent would make us perfect, like God.
D.& C. 93

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;
   That is what we will have when we are resurrected to a Celestial Glory.

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God;
   These bodies that we are given in mortality to clothe the spirit child, son or daughter of God, are His.
   35. ...yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

And so we have to make these temples holy, and we make them holy by having them in possession of the Holy Spirit, which is intelligence or the glory of God. The Lectures on Faith tell us this Holy Spirit, the mind of the Father and the Son, is Their glory, and when anyone stands in Their presence, either or both of Them, they will be enveloped in glory, or the Holy Spirit, as Joseph and Sidney were on the occasion of their receiving what we have as Section 76, the glorious vision of the eternities -- Celestial, Terrestrial, and Telestial glories, and those who have no glory at all, the sons of perdition. So, if we have this light and truth, or the intelligence or the glory of God, we forsake that evil one.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

And here is the great trouble:

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

You have all experienced it, haven't you? So, this light and truth is taken away, this Holy Spirit that we may have, through disobedience; and then we have the job of getting it back again. And it is possible, brothers and sisters, to have it all the time. We must if we are going to remain perfect, if we are going to become perfect. And Joseph was instructed, along with his brethren, that they were to bring up their children in light and truth, with the Spirit of God. As regards to Joseph Smith, it is a very chilling thing.
And now, verily I say unto Joseph Smith, Jun. -- You have not kept the commandments, and must needs stand rebuked before the Lord; your family must needs repent and forsake some things, and give more earnest heed unto your sayings, or be removed out of their place.

And then this instruction that always seems to follow this type of thing. The Lord says:

49. What I say unto one I say unto all; pray always lest that wicked one have power in you, and remove you out of your place.

And so, brothers and sisters, having been given this great gift, working on the spirit that we have, that was born to our parents in heaven and it is housed in these mortal tabernacles; having chosen to serve God and to keep His commandments, and become like Jesus Christ, we will be motivated by one spirit or the other -- the Holy Spirit or the devil's spirit, or spirits. We have bodies, we have the holy Priesthood; and we have the promise of eternal life given us, and they can and must be overcome. I think Lorenzo Snow has said something that I am sure stands out with all of us, that I would like read and is a big help, I think, to the brethren who are the heads of families.

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, Filled, brothers and sisters. You either have it or you do not. We may have it in degrees of power, but you cannot separate it. When we say a portion of your spirit, we really need to realize what we are talking about. It cannot be divided.

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live

By the way, the Holy Ghost will make them one.

...and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element,

And that means to be filled with the Holy Ghost. That is pure element.

...suitable to occupy a place in the establishment and formation of the kingdom of God, that they may breathe a pure spirit and impart pure instruction to their children, and their children's children. But it is otherwise than this now; the man is full of tradition, and has not got rid of that which was taught him in the Gentile world, he has not become one with his file leader, ***

Sisters, you know who your file leader is.

That principle which I spoke of last Sunday, in regard to a man becoming his own daddy is correct,

I thought that was kind of cute.

...for a man that feels so has not subjected himself to the Priesthood, but is disposed to become his own leader and his own head, and it is the case with many in this Church, they have not become one with their file leader, and therefore the Spirit is not transmitted to their wife or wives, and not having learned true obedience themselves, the wife cannot receive that which the husband has not got to impart. How can it be expected that the wife can obtain that which the husband has not received.

When a man is full of sin he is not capable of lifting his voice to teach his family. How does a man expect he can be Patriarch to a large family when he is going on in sin and darkness, and is becoming more blind to the things of the kingdom? He goes forward and gathers other wives and increases his family, but how does he expect to teach them when he is not susceptible of instruction himself? I tell you he will see the day when he will be too late and will have to stand out of the way.

Or be removed out of his place, as the Lord told Joseph.

A man has to look well at the foundation upon which he builds; a man has to look to the Lord for strength, he has to be purified and sanctified, and he has to purify those that are around him, and among that number will be his one wife, if she is worthy of salvation, and if she is susceptible of being saved. He must have sufficient in him of the saving principle to impart to her, and inasmuch as he can conform to that, she can thereby become sanctified, and be prepared for an exaltation; but if he cannot get faith enough to receive the principles of life and salvation, so that he can communicate those truths to others, he may get one wife, and then he may get another, and after that another, and still another, and then he is worse off than before, and is no nearer to the kingdom of God, but much farther off. ***

Men who wish to retain their standing before God in the Holy Priesthood, must have the spirit of prophecy, and be qualified to administer life and salvation to the people: and if they cannot do it to the world, they must do it at home, in their families, in their shops, and in the streets, that their hearts may be inspired with words of life at their firesides, in teaching the Gospel to their children, and to their neighbors, as much so as when they are speaking to their brethren from this stand. This having a little of the Spirit when before the people and then laying it aside, will not do. Some men will speak to the people and then go home and be just as dry as moulding stock, and instead of having the words of life in them, they become perfectly dry and dead, but this will not do any longer.

In regard to being one I will say that if ever there was a day when it was necessary for us to be one, now is the time,
If so, then how much more so today.
...now is the day and the hour that we are called upon to be one, as Jesus and His Father are one; it is for us to be one together, as brother Brigham and brother Kimball are one, that we may be one indeed.

And as I say, we have a leader, a President, a Prophet with whom we can be one. We must be ready to go without murmuring, walking under the revelations of God through our Prophet and head. This is the great work of preparation that we are engaged in. How to do it? Get the Spirit of God and keep it all of the time, continually. God bless us, and help us to do so, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.
I am grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here with you today under the direction of President Johnson and the immediate direction of President Hammon and President Musser. I desire the Spirit of God as the others have, for that which is not of the Spirit of God is not edifying and strengthening; and all things are accomplished by the power of the Spirit through the gift of faith.

Joseph Smith said, "That which is not of faith is of sin." We are given to know who God is, the attributes and the character of God, and are thus enabled to exercise faith in Him, because of the perfections of His character. And it is required of His children that they become like Him. Our Father and God, Adam, fell; came down and fell that we might be; that man might be, and man is that he might have joy.

The great work of our Father is to bring to pass the immortality and the eternal lives of His children, even those who would believe, have faith, and obey all of His commandments, all of the laws, rights, and ordinances of the holy Priesthood and of the Gospel of the Son of Man. And God has called us out, dear brothers and sisters. And we should be most grateful that this handful of people -- which has become associated with the Priesthood of God in the earth, in the tops of the mountains -- that we have that which was testified of by the brethren, the power and the authority of the holy Apostleship to lead us and direct us. And I wish to add my testimony that Leroy S. Johnson is indeed an Apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the keyholder and our director at this time. We can see, thus, that it is necessary, if we have faith in God, we must have faith, a living and lively and true faith, in the holy Priesthood; because he is sent to be His mouthpiece and His revelator. And these are the things that we should be most grateful for, my dear brothers and sisters.

I would like to speak further on this all-important principle of faith. It is required by our Father that in order for us to come back into His presence, that we walk by faith and obey, through faith, all of the commandments, and walk in our lives as seeing Him who is invisible. This describes faith to me, which, if persevered in, and our faith becomes perfect, we obtain knowledge, have our calling and election made sure, and come again into His presence. The path is a path of faith. We cannot be saved without knowledge, and faith is the means by which we obtain it.

The grand attributes of God are knowledge, faith, justice, judgment, mercy, and truth. I would like to follow an outline that we have that I think gives a beautiful summary of the principles of faith that are brought out in the Lectures on Faith. I thank God that this Priesthood has been led by the Lord to maintain and uphold and teach from the Lectures on Faith, which have been done away and taken out of the volume of scripture by the leaders of the Church. This was done in 1921, when so many other things were done that have taken the House of God out of order.

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God; ***

The means by which we obtain this testimony that we please God is through the law of sacrifice, the sacrifice of all earthly things. One of the great examples of this great law is the offering by Abraham of his son, Isaac, as commanded of him by Melchizedek, or Shem, who was his Priesthood head. And this was done as a type, to show how our Father in heaven would offer His Son in sacrifice in the meridian of time. And Adam was given that same law of sacrifice after he became mortal. Because of this great example of our Father Abraham, he was given that great blessing, that by, and of, and through him should all of the nations of the earth be blessed; and the Savior would come through his lineage, blessing all nations and bringing about the great atonement and the mediation of Jesus Christ.

Who cannot see that by the offering in sacrifice of all earthly things, the earthly characteristics that we are born with in mortality -- this is the most important, but we must offer all -- who cannot but see that we then would please God? Abel, by walking in obedience, pleased God as he offered sacrifice. And he had this testimony that he pleased God. So did Enoch, and thus was able to accomplish the purification, the preparation of a people and of a city that was taken up to be the abode of God forever. And Melchizedek, or Shem, seems to have accomplished the same thing, for he sought the blessings and the power and the way of Enoch. Because of their great faith and power with God, the holy Priesthood has been named after them. The holy Priesthood is: The Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Melchizedek, or Shem -- God's great High Priests. And by that same authority and power, Elijah became the head of a dispensation, and so did Moses, ahead of him.

So, we must take very literally, brothers and sisters, this great and glorious principle of sacrifice, if we are to obtain the faith necessary to lay hold on eternal life. And so,

...by a union of these three elements, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect,

Faith is a principle of action. Faith is a principle of power. And in speaking of the principle of faith in the Lectures on Faith, the word "power" is used in its place. So, by this means we have power with God and lay hold upon a fullness of the Holy Ghost, which is the power of the Priesthood, the mind of the Father and the Son, by which all things have been created, through the power of faith, and all things have been accomplished by our Father in heaven. This:

...will render faith perfect, will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness,

Seeking to obtain a fullness of the Holy Spirit.

...until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge.

Now, this course is laid out for us so beautifully in Lecture Five, which I would like to read in connection with this outline that we are following.

Lecture Five

2. ...the Spirit of the Father, is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments; and all Who do this...

2. ...shall grow up from grace to grace, and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ;
The only Heir, brothers and sisters, is Jesus Christ, the Heir of the Father. The saints may become joint heirs with Him by adoption -- by adoption, brothers and sisters, by a keeping of the commandments.

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness, even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory,
Which is the Holy Spirit and issues forth from the Father.

2. ...and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit.
One of the gifts of the Spirit is faith, but we must begin by believing, and thus perfect our faith through obtaining and keeping the Spirit of God. And thus we will have power with God through the Priesthood, because the Holy Spirit is the power of the Priesthood.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.
Through this great gift of faith, we lay hold upon the pure love of Christ. God is love. Jesus Christ was the great Example of love for His brothers and sisters; for He is indeed our Elder Brother, the Only Begotten of the Father in the flesh, the Firstborn in the spirit, and our Savior, our Mediator with God. And so, when we have our calling and election made sure, we are then entitled to the presence of the Second Comforter, even Jesus Christ; and even
He will reveal the Father to them, and thus stand in Their presence. I cannot help but conclude with these words of Moroni. It is just so important for us.

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

This was the very essence of the life of the Savior, meek and lowly in heart.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart;

Joseph was told in his day -- and I am sure we are hearing it in this day -- we are not yet sufficiently humble, meek and submissive and obedient.

44. ...and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity;

The pure love of Christ.

44. ...for if he have not  (the pure love of Christ), he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have  (the pure love of Christ).

45. And  (the pure love of Christ) suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not  (the pure love of Christ), ye are nothing, for  (it) never faieth. Wherefore, cleave unto  (the pure love of Christ), which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

There is the exercise of faith, the exertion of the mind through words, the power of prayer.

48. ...pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be
That, to me, means the Holy Spirit itself, to be filled with the Holy Spirit, which is love. In its truest sense, though, it has all these other attributes of God.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God;

Through the means that I have outlined here today from the word of God.

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

Through love, the pure love of Christ. So I pray, my brothers and sisters, that we will have a lively exercise of this great principle of faith, because without it we cannot obtain the blessings of the holy endowment. And I venture to say, the reason we do not have them is because of a lack of faith. Jesus said, "O ye of little faith;" and I am afraid that is all too much true for so many of us. I need greater faith, and so do you.

President Johnson yearns over this people, as he seeks to prepare a people to redeem Zion. Has it ever occurred to us, brothers and sisters, that it is for this people in this day and time to do the same work under an Enoch as Enoch did? Zion must be redeemed. It must become purified and holy; for it, in time, at the coming of the Son of God in His glory, will be caught up to meet the Zion of Enoch.

We listen and marvel at what Enoch accomplished because he was one with God, and he was the instrument of perfecting a people and a city, and a portion of the earth was taken up where God could dwell. And God, our Lord Jesus Christ, will come and dwell in the Zion of the latter days. This great work of setting in order and of preparation is being carried on under Joseph Smith the Prophet, the One Mighty and Strong, who is working on the other side and will make his appearance, a holy being clothed with light for a covering, speaking eternal words and having the power of God upon him. And I dare say, he is the Enoch of this dispensation.

I pray that we may be prepared to receive the One Mighty and Strong, and to be taught and directed of him, that we as a people, at least a faithful nucleus out of the heart's core of this people, may proceed with this great work; and through faith and the power of the Holy Ghost, in the holy Priesthood, we may accomplish the work and purposes of God in behalf of the great purposes of God in the earth today, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of Joseph Smith

I am grateful to be here associated with my brethren, and to meet with you, my dear friends and brothers and sisters, and pray for the Spirit of God and the testimony to rest upon me. I was just recalling the admonition of Joseph W. Musser calling upon the brethren, if no particular subject came to mind to talk about, to bear testimony of Joseph Smith the Prophet; and I feel to do so today. I contemplate the great plans and the work of God that has been vouchsafed to us in this last dispensation, and that we have been called to come forth at this time, this great and dreadful day of the Lord, and sending forth this great character to be the instrument in His hands of restoring the eternal light of truth and the holy Priesthood.

My first intimations concerning this work as a lad was to hear the story of the Prophet Joseph Smith from my father. His great love for this great character was placed in my heart. I was not taken to the Church as a young boy. I did not know anything about it until I was about eleven years old, between ten and eleven. Father had been in hiding during all of those years, from my birth in 1909, until I was about ten years old. My name had been Jennings; the family was called Jennings during those years, and father changed our name to our real one when I went to school over on 2nd West and 5th South. He began then to teach me the Gospel, and my mother did, this glorious story of Joseph Smith that was taught to me. Then we began going into the ward.

I was baptized at age eleven, and how I loved the story as it was unfolded to me by father and by the classes in the lesser Priesthood as a deacon, a teacher, and a priest. I was raised up basically by the doctrines of the holy Priesthood, which I now know basically by my father -- who had entered into the Celestial Law in 1909 -- and his teachings to me of the Fatherhood and the Godhood of Father Michael. He did not say too much about Celestial and Plural Marriage. He was called to enter into it in 1901. His Bishop told him it would be required of him, up there in Davis County. Patriarch Tolman, who sealed father and his first wife, Phoebe Woolley, told him it would be required of him. Later in those years, I attended some wonderful Patriarchal meetings, dedicating the homes of the saints in that stake and area. He told me the wonderful stories then of John W. Taylor attending these Patriarchal meetings, bearing testimony regarding Celestial Marriage; and he, on these occasions, these dedicatory occasions, was known to, and seen by father, to rise from the floor and be encircled with light as he bore these testimonies regarding those great truths, the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel. This was during those troublesome years when the authorities of the Church -- Francis M. Lyman particularly, and Heber J. Grant, and the majority of the Quorum, or what was then a minority of the Quorum of Twelve -- were trying to seek out the new polygamists, as they were called. So this is why father had to go into hiding, as many others had.

So I love these teachings of Joseph Smith the Prophet, and long for the time to come when he shall come to set in order the House of God. We as a people must be prepared for this, brothers and sisters, and there must be a sufficient number that President Johnson can count on, with one hundred percent loyalty to Priesthood, one hundred percent, in preparation of that people. This is the great work that devolves upon us, and that all look forward in the next great step in the work and plans of God, to be prepared for the coming of the One Mighty and Strong, to be used in preparing for the coming of the Son of Man; and before that, the redemption of Zion. So I am very grateful and humble to be a part of this great work in which we are engaged. I know as I know I live that God lives, that Michael is our Father and our God; that Jesus Christ is our Savior, great Mediator with our Father for His brothers and sisters; and that Joseph Smith, also a member of the Godhead, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost, is a great Prophet of this dispensation, and the greatest that has lived upon the earth save Jesus Himself, and head of this great last dispensation under whom all these things will be accomplished under Jesus Christ, our Lord. I feel like reading the statement of John Taylor concerning Joseph at his martyrdom.

He was in Carthage Jail with Joseph that last night. Joseph received a revelation on that occasion and John Taylor wrote it down; and he came to know at that time who Joseph really was and is. Before his martyrdom, Joseph said, "I am going now to take my place in the heavens." It is Section 135.

D. & C. 135

1. To seal the testimony of this book and the Book of Mormon, we announce the martyrdom of Joseph Smith the Prophet, and Hyrum Smith the Patriarch. They were shot in Carthage jail, on the 27th of June, 1844, about five o'clock p.m., by an armed mob -- painted black -- of from 150 to 200 persons. Hyrum was shot first and fell calmly, exclaiming: I am a dead man! Joseph leaped from the window, He was trying to draw fire away from his brethren.

1. Joseph leaped from the window and was shot dead in the attempt, exclaiming: O Lord my God! They were both shot after they were dead, in a brutal manner, and both received four balls.

2. John Taylor and Willard Richards, two of the Twelve, were the only persons in the room at the time; the former was wounded in a savage manner with four balls, but has since recovered; the latter, through the providence of God, escaped, without even a hole in his robe.

3. Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it. In the short space of twenty years, he has brought forth the Book of Mormon, which he translated by the gift and power of God, and has been the means of publishing it on two continents; has sent the fulness of the everlasting gospel, which it contained, to the four quarters of the earth; has brought forth the revelations and commandments which compose this book of Doctrine and Covenants, and many other wise documents and instructions for the benefit of the children of men; gathered many thousands of the Latter-day Saints, founded a great city, and left a fame and a name that cannot be slain. He lived great, and he died great in the eyes of God and his people; and like most of the Lord's anointed in ancient time, has sealed his mission and his works with his own blood; and so has his brother Hyrum. In life they were not divided, and in death they were not separated!

4. When Joseph went to Carthage to deliver himself up to the pretended requirements of the law, two or three days previous to his assassination, he said: "I am going like a lamb to the slaughter; but I am calm as a summer's morning; I have a conscience void of offense towards God, and towards all men. I SHALL DIE INNOCENT, AND IT SHALL YET BE SAID OF ME -- HE WAS MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD." -- The same morning, after Hyrum had made ready to go -- shall it be said to the slaughter? yes, for so it was -- he read the following paragraph, near the close of the twelfth chapter of Ether, in the Book of Mormon, and turned down the leaf upon it:

5. And it came to pass that I prayed unto the Lord that he would give unto the Gentiles grace, that they might have charity. And it came to pass that the Lord said unto me: If they have not charity it mattereth not unto thee, thou hast been faithful; wherefore thy garments are clean. And because thou hast seen thy weakness, thou shalt be made strong, even unto the sitting down in the place which I have prepared in the mansions of my Father. And now I...bid farewell unto the Gentiles;

The Gospel was sent first to the gentiles in this dispensation; and from among them came Israel gathered today.

5. ...yea, and also unto my brethren whom I love, until we shall meet before the judgment-seat of Christ, where all men shall know that my garments are not spotted with your blood. The testators are now dead, and their testament is in force.

6. Hyrum Smith was forty-four years old in February, 1844, and Joseph Smith was thirty-eight in December, 1843; and henceforward their names will be classed among the martyrs of religion; and the reader in every nation will be reminded that the Book of Mormon, and this book of Doctrine and Covenants of the church, cost the best blood of the nineteenth century to bring them forth for the salvation of a ruined world; and that if the fire can scathe a green tree for the glory of God, how easy it will burn up the dry trees to purify the vineyard of corruption. They lived for glory; they died for glory; and glory is their eternal reward. From age to age shall their names go down to posterity as gems for the sanctified.

7. They were innocent of any crime, as they had often been proved before, and were only confined in jail by the conspiracy of traitors and wicked men; and their innocent blood on the floor of Carthage jail is a broad seal affixed to "Mormonism" that cannot be rejected by any court on earth, and their innocent blood on the escutcheon of the State of Illinois, with the broken faith of the State as pledged by the governor, is a witness to the truth of the everlasting gospel that all the world cannot impeach; and their innocent blood on the banner of liberty, and on the magna charta of the United States, is an ambassador for the religion of Jesus Christ, that will touch the hearts of honest men among all nations; and their innocent blood, with the innocent blood of all the martyrs under the altar that John saw, will cry unto the Lord of Hosts till he avenges that blood on the earth.

God bless you, amen.

The Godhead;
Keys of All Dispensations Given to Joseph Smith; Signs of the Coming of Christ

I am grateful to be here with you, my dear brothers and sisters, and pray that the Lord will help me to speak the truth by the Spirit of God. I would like to bear testimony again to the divinity of this work, the divine mission and calling of Joseph Smith the Prophet, in whose footsteps we are required to be following in this day and time, in which he is, of course, under Jesus Christ, called to restore the Everlasting Gospel and the holy Priesthood; to lead his chosen people Israel to Zion, and the redemption of it to the honor and glory of God. Brigham Young said:

JD 4:271  Brigham Young  March 8, 1857  SLC

If you find out who Joseph was, you will know as much about God as you need to at present;  Jesus was a God to the people when He was upon earth, was so before he came to this earth, and is yet. Moses was a God to the children of Israel, and in this manner you may go right back to Father Adam.

If I can pass brother Joseph, I shall stand a good chance for passing Peter, Jesus, the Prophets, Moses, Abraham, and all back to Father Adam, and be pretty sure of receiving his approbation.

TPJS  Page 190
The Three Personages
Everlasting covenant was made between three personages before the organization of this earth, and relates to their dispensation of things to men on the earth; these personages, according to Abraham's record, are called God the first, the Creator; God the second, the Redeemer; and God the third, the witness or Testator. -- MSS

I bear testimony to you that Joseph Smith is the third member of the Godhead, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost. When Joseph was about to be martyred, speaking to his beloved brethren, he said, "Brethren, I am now going to take my place in the heavens."

So I love the memory of Joseph the Prophet, and I am so grateful for the work he did in the way of salvation for the sons and daughters of our Father in heaven. I am grateful for those, his successors in the holy Priesthood, who carried on the work faithfully in bringing life and salvation to us, his brethren and sisters. That great work that was accomplished in 1886, when Jesus and Joseph came, and through John Taylor, established this special dispensation, and a continuation of the dispensation under Joseph Smith and Jesus Christ in beginning the setting in order of the House of God. This is what was accomplished on that occasion, the commencement of the setting in order of the House of God.

And more tangibly now, brothers and sisters, we should be praying in great faith for the coming of the One Mighty and Strong, who is Joseph Smith the Prophet, and none other. There are so many fools who have come upon the scene claiming to be the One Mighty and Strong; and this man who was going about killing people claims to be the One Mighty and Strong; you have been familiar with in the news of late. But the One Mighty and Strong, I testify to you in the name of Jesus Christ, is Joseph Smith, Jun., and he is waiting under the Lord for a prepared people to come to and have them prepared to participate in that great work. Indeed it is a work, a Gospel of preparation that we are engaged in. Brother Joseph once told me, "If you pray regarding Joseph Smith the Prophet, you will bring him that much nearer. If you testify concerning him, you will bring him that much nearer to his coming as the One Mighty and Strong, to continue and carry out actively the setting in order of the House of God, the Priesthood, the Kingdom and the Church."

So, I am grateful to the Lord for my testimony that God lives -- Father Michael -- that Jesus Christ lives, and that He is directing Joseph the Prophet in this dispensation, the greatest man who has lived in the earth, save Jesus and Michael, in the accomplishment of the work of our Father in heaven. After all of the apostasies that have taken place, we are now, brothers and sisters, living in the last and the greatest of all the dispensations, when all things have been gathered together in one. And the heads of dispensations that have gone before have come and delivered their keys to Joseph the Prophet -- the keys of the Holy United Order, the keys of sealing, the keys of the restoration of Israel, the gathering of Israel, from Moses; and the keys of Elias, the Gospel of Abraham. These men, these great former Prophets came and delivered their keys as recorded in Section 110. After Jesus having appeared on the breastwork of the pulpit of the temple at Kirtland, he said:

D. & C. 110

11. After this vision closed, the heavens were again opened to us;
This was Joseph and Oliver.
11. ...and Moses appeared before us, and committed unto us the keys of the gathering of Israel from the four parts of the earth, and the leading of the ten tribes from the land of the north.

12. After this, Elias appeared, and committed the dispensation of the gospel of Abraham, saying that in us and our seed all generations after us should be blessed.

13. After this vision had closed, another great and glorious vision burst upon us; for Elijah the prophet, who was taken to heaven without tasting death, stood before us, and said:

14. Behold, the time has fully come, which was spoken of by the mouth of Malachi -- testifying that he [Elijah] should be sent, before the great and dreadful day of the Lord come --
15. To turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the children to the fathers, lest the whole earth be smitten with a curse --
16. Therefore, the keys of this dispensation are committed into your hands; and by this ye may know that the great and dreadful day of the Lord is near, even at the doors.

All the preparations have been made that could be made in the administration during the lifetime of Joseph, and he has been continuing to carry out that work and mission from the other side, and is continuing to this present time. In the appendix of the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 133, we have the signs of the coming of the Son of Man and the completion of the work that was given into the hands of Joseph depicted.

D. & C. 133

16. Hearken and hear, O ye inhabitants of the earth. Listen, ye elders of my church together, and hear the voice of the Lord; for he calleth upon all men, and he commandeth all men everywhere to repent.

17. For behold, the Lord God hath sent forth the angel crying through the midst of heaven, saying: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight, for the hour of his coming is nigh --

18. When the Lamb shall stand upon Mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand, having his Father's name written on their foreheads.

19. Wherefore, prepare ye for the coming of the Bridegroom; go ye, go ye out to meet him.

20. For behold, he shall stand upon the mount of Olivet, and upon the mighty ocean, even the great deep, and upon the islands of the sea, and upon the land of Zion.

21. And he shall utter his voice out of Zion, and he shall speak from Jerusalem, and his voice shall be heard among all people;

22. And it shall be a voice as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder, which shall break down the mountains, and the valleys shall not be found.

23. He shall command the great deep, and it shall be driven back into the north countries, and the islands shall become one land;

24. And the land of Jerusalem and the land of Zion shall be turned back into their own place, and the earth shall be like as it was in the days before it was divided.

25. And the Lord, even the Savior, shall stand in the midst of his people, and shall reign over all flesh.

26. And they who are in the north countries shall come in remembrance before the Lord; and their prophets shall hear his voice, and shall no longer stay themselves; and they shall smite the rocks, and the ice shall flow down at their presence.

27. And an highway shall be cast up in the midst of the great deep.

28. Their enemies shall become a prey unto them,
29. And in the barren deserts there shall come forth pools of living water; and the parched ground shall no longer be a thirsty land.

30. And they shall bring forth their rich treasures unto the children of Ephraim, my servants.

Ephraim has been gathered out. Joseph was a pure Ephraimite, and a descendant of the Lord Jesus Christ.

31. And the boundaries of the everlasting hills shall tremble at their presence.

32. And there shall they fall down and be crowned with glory, even in Zion, by the hands of the servants of the Lord, even the children of Ephraim.

33. And they shall be filled with songs of everlasting joy.

34. Behold, this is the blessing of the everlasting God upon the tribes of Israel, and the richer blessing upon the head of Ephraim and his fellows.

35. And they also of the tribe of Judah, after their pain shall be sanctified in holiness before the Lord, to dwell in his presence day and night, forever and ever.

36. And now, verily saith the Lord, that these things might be known among you, O inhabitants of the earth, I have sent forth mine angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel, who hath appeared unto some and hath committed it unto man, who shall appear unto many that dwell on the earth.

37. And this gospel shall be preached unto every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

38. And the servants of God shall go forth, saying with a loud voice: Fear God and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgment is come;

39. And worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters --

40. Calling upon the name of the Lord day and night, saying: O that thou wouldst rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence.

41. And it shall be answered upon their heads; for the presence of the Lord shall be as the melting fire that burneth, and as the fire which causeth the waters to boil.
42. O Lord, thou shalt come down to make thy name known to thine adversaries, and all nations shall tremble at thy presence --

This is what we are to be preparing for, brothers and sisters, and we have the promise, if we are faithful and true, and with faith in our prayers, and being obedient to all of the commandments of God that are delivered to us, to have a part in the redemption of Zion. God bless us, and help us in our families to get and keep the Spirit of God, have it as a constant companion and guide, that we may have fulfilled this promise we have in Section 121 concerning us in each of our families:

D.& C. 121

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Which I pray may be our lot and blessing, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Show We Love God Through Loving the Prophet

I am grateful to be here and add my voice with that of the others in praising God for His blessings and in calling down His blessings upon us, that we may rejoice in the God of Jacob. I feel that we need to reassess our position, and our condition especially. What are our true loyalties? There is a great test coming, brothers and sisters; it is just around the corner. And how will we stand it? Heber C. Kimball prophesied:

JD 4:375 Heber C. Kimball Aug. 16, 1857

There will also be a day when you will be brought to the test -- when your very hearts and your inmost souls will melt within you because of the scenes that many of you will witness. Yes, you will be brought to that test, when you will feel as if everything within you would dissolve. Then will be the time you will be tried whether you will stand the test or fall away.

I have not a doubt but there will be hundreds who will leave us and go away to our enemies. I wish they would go this fall: it might relieve us from much trouble; for if men turn traitors to God and His servants, their blood will surely be shed, or else they will be damned, and that too according to their covenants. Brother Brigham would rather go to battle against the whole world with three hundred men filled with the Holy Ghost, than to have the whole of you, except you are united with us; and I am sure I would.

The day is to come when one shall chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight. When that day comes, the Lord will make the enemies of his people flee as if there were thousands after them, when there is only one; and that is the way that God will deal with our enemies. The day of God Almighty is at hand, when He will show forth His power, and when He will deliver His people from all their enemies.

It is a wonderful promise, but think of the tests that are going to have to be gone through. And I would like to, in that connection, turn our attention to a principle that Brigham Young explains so beautifully with regard to his Priesthood head, the servant and Prophet of God.

It is folly in the extreme for persons to say that they love God, when they do not love their brethren; and it is of no use for them to say that they have confidence in God, when they have none in righteous men, for they do not know anything about God. It is reasonable for the Elders of Israel to be very sanguine and strenuous on this point. And were I to be asked whether I have any experience in this matter, I can tell the people that once in my life I felt a want of confidence in Brother Joseph Smith, soon after I became acquainted with him. It was not concerning religious matters -- it was not about his revelations -- but it was in relation to his financiering -- to his managing the temporal affairs which he undertook. A feeling came over me that Joseph was not right in his financial management, though I presume the feeling did not last sixty seconds, and perhaps not thirty. But that feeling came on me once and once only, from the time I first knew him to the day of his death. It gave me sorrow of heart, and I clearly saw and understood, by the spirit of revelation manifested to me, that if I was to harbor a thought in my heart that Joseph could be wrong in anything, I would begin to lose confidence in him, and that feeling would grow from step to step, and from one degree to another, until at last I would have the same lack of confidence in his being the mouthpiece for the Almighty, and I would be left, as Brother Hooper observed, upon the brink of the precipice, ready to plunge into what we may call the gulf of infidelity, ready to believe neither in God nor His servants, and to say that there is no God, or, if there is, we do not know anything about Him; that we are here, and by and bye shall go from here, and that is all we shall know. Such persons are like those whom the Apostle calls "As natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed." Though I admitted in my feelings and knew all the time that Joseph was a human being and subject to err, still it was none of my business to look after his faults.

I repented of my unbelief, and that too very suddenly; I repented about as quickly as I committed the error. It was not for me to question whether Joseph was dictated by the Lord at all times and under all circumstances or not. I never had the feeling for one moment, to believe that any man or set of men or beings upon the face of the whole earth had anything to do with him, for he was superior to them all, and held the keys of salvation over them. Had I not thoroughly understood this and believed it, I much doubt whether I should ever have embraced what is called "Mormonism." He was called of God; God dictated him, and if He had a mind to leave him to himself and let him commit an error, that was no business of mine. And it was not for me to question it, if the Lord was disposed to let Joseph lead the people astray, for He had called him and instructed him to gather Israel and restore the priesthood and kingdom to them.

It was not my prerogative to call him in question with regard to any act of his life. He was God's servant, and not mine. He did not belong to the people but to the Lord, He did not belong to the people, but to the Lord. And the same can be said of President Johnson when we are disposed to criticize.

...and was doing the work of the Lord, and if He should suffer him to lead the people astray, it would be because they ought to be led astray. If He should suffer them to be chastised, and some of them destroyed, it would be because they deserved it, or to accomplish some righteous purpose.
That was my faith, and it is my faith still.

In the same vein, this is a writing by Joseph J. Cannon regarding what George Q. Cannon had to say about Brigham Young:

George Q. Cannon  (Reference Unknown)

To describe my feelings upon the death of this man of God, whom I love so much, and who had always treated me with such kindness and affection, is impossible.

I have endeavored to appreciate these manifestations of affection and love, and now that he has gone, I feel exceedingly thankful that I had these to the last, that nothing occurred to alienate his feelings from me. On my part, he was in my eyes as perfect a man as I ever knew. I never desired to see his faults. I closed my eyes to them. To me he was a Prophet of God, the head of the dispensation on the earth, holding the keys under the Prophet Joseph Smith, and in my mind there clustered about him holding this position everything holy and sacred and to be revered.

Some, I am satisfied now as I write this in Washington, January 17, 1878, have thought that I carried this feeling too far. But I know this, that in revering him the Prophet of the Lord, in obeying him, in being governed by his counsel, in bearing testimony to his teachings and his character, I have been blessed of the Lord. Peace has been in my heart, light has rested upon me, and the Lord has borne witness to me that my course was pleasing to him.

Now that Brother Brigham is gone, I rejoice in this. I never criticized or found fault with his conduct, his counsel, or his teachings at any time, in my heart, much less in my words or actions. This is a pleasure to me now. The thought that ever was with me was: If I criticize or find fault with, or judge Brother Brigham, how far shall I go? If I commence, where shall I stop? I dare not to trust myself in such a course. I know that apostasy frequently resulted from the indulgence of the spirit of criticizing and faultfinding. Others of greater strength, wisdom, and experience than myself, might do many things and escape evil consequences which I dare not do. Some of the brethren, as I have learned, since the death of President Brigham Young, did have feelings concerning his course. They did not approve of it, and felt oppressed, and yet they dare not exhibit their feelings to him. He ruled with so strong and stiff a hand, and they felt that it would be of no use. In a few words, the feeling seems to be that he transcended the bounds of the authority which he legitimately held. I have been greatly surprised to find so much dissatisfaction in such quarters. It is felt that the funds of the Church have been used with a freedom not warranted by the authority which he held, and some even feel that in the promulgation of doctrine, he took liberties beyond those to which he was legitimately entitled. I shall have more to say upon these points hereafter.

It is the spirit of criticism, brothers and sisters, that is the beginning of apostasy. Uncle John Barlow, I remember so distinctly, used to say, "If you are tried by anything that may be said by the brethren who lead you, and particularly the Prophet of God, put it on the shelf, and the Lord will give you the truth and satisfy you regarding it, instead of going along criticizing and beginning on the road to apostasy." And so we need to watch our feelings, brothers and sisters; sacrifice them in favor of the servants and the truths of God. These instructions, I am sure, will come in very great use to us as we go along; and I pray that we will be faithful and true, for a great division is coming among this people, as President Johnson has said, as President Jessop has said, and others -- a great sifting. Let us stand faithful and true.

And this by the Prophet Joseph Smith himself, speaking to the Twelve after calling on them to beware of pride, which is very beautiful. I will notice only this part:

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and floundering, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

So let us remember, brothers and sisters, President Johnson and his brethren of the Council belong to God. He called them. We are required by another saying of Brigham Young to have the revelations of God for ourselves that we are being led aright; and God will reveal the truth of all things to us if we will be patient and not get out on this road to apostasy, which we may have to answer for as we stand before the bar of God. God bless you, amen.

Beatitudes; Humility; Marriage Covenant;
Examples of Older Brothers and Sisters

Among the Apostles of Jesus, there was a discussion of who should be the greatest among them; and Jesus answered and said, "He who would be greatest, let him be the servant of all." He was speaking of Himself in the spirit of humility.

I purpose to have as our text this morning the Beatitudes of Jesus Christ. I have read on occasion a couple of little pieces regarding the attribute of magnanimity, which is another word for humility and the pure love of Christ, or charity. Magnanimity is a term of modern language which few seem to understand the meaning of; but it is the pure love of Christ, because this is what Christ told the people, the multitude.

Matthew 5

1. And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:
2. And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
3. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
That seems an unusual term, the "poor in spirit." He was speaking of humility. I have on occasion said, regarding the attribute humility, "This humility is of such a nature that if you say you have it, you have lost it." You should think on that.

4. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
5. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
We have a definition by Orson Pratt, one of his better sayings.

JD 1:332  Orson Pratt (Date Unknown)
"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth." But who are the meek? By what peculiarities are they distinguished from other men? There must be some qualities about them far superior to the generality of mankind, or else they would not become the exclusive heirs of the new earth.

The new earth is the resurrected, celestialized, glorified earth.

The law of meekness includes all the laws of the Gospel, with its ordinances and blessings, Priesthood and powers, through obedience to which mankind become justified, sanctified, purified, and glorified. Such are the meek of the earth, and none others.

Another word for humility -- "meek". Moroni had a word for it.

Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, Meekness, now, is a prerequisite to faith and hope.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, Faith and hope have as a prerequisite meekness, humility, magnanimity.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

So this meekness, lowliness of heart, is also a prerequisite to charity, the attribute charity, or love.

44. ...for if he have not charity he is nothing;

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up,

He is not proud.

45. ...seeketh not her own,

Unselfish.

45. ...is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth,

There are those who love evil and hearken unto the devil and love satan more than God. So this tells us the opposite of that.
45. ...but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things,
As we read the rest of the Beatitudes, hear these attributes:
   45. ...beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Matthew 5

6. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
In faith, seeking to obey the mind and will of God and every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God; these are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness. These are they that are "the sheep who hear My voice," saith the Savior.

7. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
8. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
You see, this attribute meekness involves so many, if not all, of these things.

9. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
The Holy Ghost is a Spirit of peace. It is calm and serene, Brother Johnson tells us so often. So in all of this, let us keep in mind the attributes of the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost.

10. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
As with the poor in spirit, those who are humble. Jesus said, "If ye live Godly in Christ Jesus, ye shall suffer persecution." He didn't say you may or you might, you will suffer persecution. This is the lot of the righteous in the midst of the kingdom of the devil in which we live. But we can live pure and holy in dedicated and holy places in which we are called upon to stand. Along with this,

11. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
So we should rejoice in persecution, which brings to mind the words of Joseph in the Lectures on Faith. The true saints, those who have the gifts of the Holy Ghost, take joyfully the spoiling of their goods, joyfully.

12. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is our reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
13. Ye are the salt of the earth:
This is what we are supposed to be;
13. ...but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.
15. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.
16. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

In another place regarding this attribute meekness and humility and magnanimity, the Savior told His hearers: "Return good for evil." This is so hard, this is so hard for most people.

The Lord called for five hundred to go and redeem Zion, and the basic requirement of that company was: "You should go without murmuring, without the spirit of criticism, and obey My servant Joseph. Obey every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God through My servant." Surely the Lord God will do nothing but He reveal it to His servant, the Prophet.

Moroni 7

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.
48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

The power of faith, the exertion of the mind;

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love,

The Holy Spirit. God is love, and His Holy Spirit,

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God;

"Become one, or ye are not Mine;"

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him.

We are trying to prepare ourselves for the coming of the Son of God, and when He shall appear we must be like Him to stand in His presence; just that simple. We cannot cling to our weaknesses and justify ourselves. We must be like Him. And He has told us how.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;
We cannot be with Him when He goes to lead us to Zion to redeem it in power, unless we can stand in His presence and be like Him.
48. ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

What I have read to you is what is involved in this definition:

Magnanimity -- Greatness of soul; generosity in sentiment or conduct toward others; exaltation above envious, cowardly, vindictive, or selfish motives; loftiness of character
Like God,
...or action; large-heartedness.

Magnanimous -- Elevated in soul; generous in treating or judging others; great- or high-minded; scorning what is mean or base; exhibiting nobleness of soul.
"Mighty of heart, mighty of mind -- Magnanimous -- to be this, is indeed to be great in life;"

Great in the sight of God, the servant of all,
"...to become this increasingly is . . . to advance in life."

Let us read of an example of humility, King Benjamin.

Mosiah 2
12. I say unto you that as I have been suffered to spend my days in your service, even up to this time, and have not sought gold nor silver nor any manner of riches of you;

13. Neither have I suffered that ye should be confined in dungeons, nor that ye should make slaves one of another, nor that ye should murder, or plunder, or steal, or commit adultery; nor even have I suffered that ye should commit any manner of wickedness, and have taught you that ye should keep the commandments of the Lord, in all things which he hath commanded you --

14. And even I, myself, have labored with mine own hands that I might serve you, and that ye should not be laden with taxes, and that there should nothing come upon you which was grievous to be borne -- and of all these things which I have spoken, ye yourselves are witnesses this day.

15. Yet, my brethren, I have not done these things that I might boast, neither do I tell these things that thereby I might accuse you; but I tell you these things that ye may know that I can answer a clear conscience before God this day.

16. Behold, I say unto you that because I said unto you that I had spent my days in your service, I do not desire to boast, for I have only been in the service of God.

Speak of humility.

17. And behold, I tell you these things that ye may learn wisdom; that ye may learn that when ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God.

18. Behold, ye have called me your king; and if I, whom ye call your king, do labor to serve you, then ought not ye to labor to serve one another?

19. And behold also, if I, whom ye call your king, who has spent his days in your service, and yet has been in the service of God, do merit any thanks from you, O how you ought to thank your heavenly King!

20. I say unto you, my brethren, that if you should render all the thanks and praise which your whole soul has power to possess, to that God who has created you, and has kept and preserved you, and has caused that ye should rejoice, and has granted that ye should live in peace one with another --

That is what He does.

21. ...I say, if ye should serve him who has created you from the beginning, and is preserving you from day to day, by lending you breath, that ye may live and move and do according to your own will, and even supporting you from one moment to another --

22. And behold all that he requires of you is to keep his commandments; and he has promised you that if ye would keep his commandments ye should prosper in the land;

And that means spiritually.

22. ...and he never doth vary from that which he hath said; therefore, if ye do keep his commandments he doth bless you and prosper you.
23. And now, in the first place, he hath created you, and granted unto you your lives for which ye are indebted unto him.

24. And secondly, he doth require that ye should do as he hath commanded you; for which if ye do, he doth immediately bless you; and therefore he hath paid you. And ye are still indebted unto him, and are, and will be, forever and ever; therefore, of what have ye to boast?

25. And now I ask, can ye say aught of yourselves? I answer you, Nay. Ye cannot say that ye are even as much as the dust of the earth; yet ye were created of the dust of the earth; but behold, it belongeth to him who created you.

26. And I, even I, whom ye call your king, am no better than ye yourselves are; for I am also of the dust. And ye behold that I am old, and am about to yield up this mortal frame to its mother earth.

Such a one we have to lead us now, President Johnson, who is the very essence of humility, and he loves and serves this people, under God. So we are living in a day now of prosperity. We are living in a time when people are sufficient unto themselves, it seems. The way I see it, we are not going to receive that which we seem to be living and hoping for -- endowments and blessings and sanctification -- because we are not yet sufficiently humble, as the Lord kept telling the early-day saints.

Section 82

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you. So it is a prerequisite, for us to obtain the forgiveness of God, that we forgive one another. This is another element of humility.

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; yea, even all of you have sinned; We are not perfect yet.

2. ...but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads.

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors;
Receiving the light, we should be careful what we ask in the way of light and knowledge, lest we be condemned if we keep it not. There is a greater condemnation for having received a greater law and greater light.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings; which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth; There is a devil, and his minions, his imps, those who labor under his control; and darkness reigneth in the world, and ye should not be partakers thereof.

6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; So the saying: "Come out of her; come out of Babylon, lest ye be partakers of her curses and her judgments." So we should stand in holy places; seek not the world, for they are ripened for destruction.

7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge; go your ways and sin no more; These were brethren who were preparing to enter into the Holy United Order.

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you; 9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise. Then some specific instructions to the brethren who were entering into the order.

14. For Zion must increase in beauty, and in holiness; We have got to make a Zion here before we are going to be prepared to go and redeem that one over there. Have you ever thought of this? You are not going to go over there and be changed. You have to make the changes here and now to be found worthy to stand in the presence of the Savior, who said He would lead them personally, as well as His angels.

14. ...her borders must be enlarged; her stakes must be strengthened; yea, verily I say unto you, Zion must arise and put on her beautiful garments.

15. Therefore, I give unto you this commandment, that ye bind yourselves by this covenant, and it shall be done according to the laws of the Lord.

16. Behold, here is wisdom also in me for your good.

17. And you are to be equal, or in other words, you are to have equal claims on the properties, for the benefit of managing the concerns of your stewardships, every man according to his wants and his needs, inasmuch as his wants are just --

18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, He should be laboring for the storehouse, increasing his talents.

18. ...that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

And this is how we live:

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

Now the penalty for not living in this way for those entering in the Order was this:

20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

21. And the soul that sins against this covenant, and hardeneth his heart against it, shall be dealt with according to the laws of my church, and shall be delivered over to the buffetings of Satan until the day of redemption.

These are the conditions of the Holy United Order. They are also the conditions of the Celestial Law of Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. Those who are sealed under the covenants of that marriage covenant are subject to the same laws, the same penalties for disobedience.
As young men and women contemplate entering into the holy Celestial Law, I want to read you again the promises and blessings. If you want to live by the law of the Priesthood, the Priesthood way, in marriage and every other law of the holy Priesthood and law of God, God holds out these promises and blessings. Let me read them again, and let us understand the words of this. When things are in order and when the holy temples are opened to us for endowments, I will recite to you what is involved in these holy covenants:

The Marriage Covenant

Do you, Brother _____, take Sister _____ by the right hand, and receive her unto yourself to be your lawful and wedded wife, and you to be her lawful and wedded husband, for time and all eternity, with a covenant and promise, on your part, that you will fulfil all the laws, rites and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony in the new and everlasting covenant, doing this in the presence of God, angels, and these witnesses, of your own free will and choice?

Then the same is asked of the sister.

Do you, Sister _____, take Brother _____ by the right hand, and give yourself to him to be his lawful and wedded wife for time and all eternity, with a covenant and promise on your part, that you will fulfil all the laws, rites and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony in the new and everlasting covenant, doing this in the presence of God, angels, and these witnesses, of your own free will and choice?

Now here are the blessings if these covenants and promises are kept:

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by authority of the Holy Priesthood, I pronounce you legally and lawfully husband and wife, for time and for all eternity, and I seal upon you the blessings of the holy resurrection, with power to come forth in the morning of the first resurrection, clothed with glory, immortality, and eternal lives; Celestial glory.

...and I seal upon you the blessings of thrones and dominions, and principalities, and powers, and exaltations, Can there be more!?

...together with the blessings of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And I say unto you, be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth, that you may have joy and rejoicing in your posterity in the day of the Lord Jesus.
Receiving such blessings and promises, can you even imagine how the Lord looks upon one who breaks those covenants? Can we understand, then, what John Taylor meant when he said; knowing the covenants and promises that you enter into, (1) you covenant and promise to obey the law of the Gospel, the holy Priesthood; (2) and that you will live the law of chastity, which is to have no connection with none other than your legally and lawfully wedded husband or wife; (3) the law of obedience; (4) the law of sacrifice; the man covenanted to obey God, and the woman to obey her husband as he obeys the law of God. Those are the laws, rites, and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony. John Taylor and Joseph Smith have said, "An adulterer shall never see the Celestial Kingdom," the things that are promised here. Can we see and understand why, if these laws are broken, this is the case? They can be forgiven; they can repent and be forgiven, but they will not see the Celestial Kingdom. They will have to take a lesser one; it is just that simple. Some in the Church have said they couldn't enter into this Celestial Law of plurality, the Celestial Law of God, the Family Order of Heaven; they are just not capable of it. "I would just as soon have a lesser kingdom," they say. That is fine. But they will live separately and singly as long as they live, until they go into dissolution. This doctrine of dissolution is a merciful thing, I suppose.

We should be very well-acquainted with what the law of God imposes and holds out. If we obey every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God by His servants, these blessings are held out to us. One is upward and onward, increasing, growing in perfection until we become Gods; and the other is going back -- one or the other. We cannot stand still. What kind of resurrection do you want, the resurrection of the just, or the resurrection of the unjust? Section 76 gives the whole picture.

We have covered quite a wide range here this morning, but I think we need having called to our attention just what we are faced with in life and what we are about. What is the business we are about? It is to become one in Christ Jesus. "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." This calls for a very positive and diligent, wholehearted application of our obedience. God says the first commandment is to "Love Me with all your heart, might, mind, and strength; and your neighbor as yourself." And Jesus gives, in these Beatitudes, all of the means by which we can do so, living with our neighbor in the spirit of the United Order. In families we are neighbors, friends, bound together in the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage, the holy law of God, and the Holy United Order.

So we are frequently called upon to receive and make a decision: "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord, and we will keep His commandments." I don't suppose there are any real questions about these truths. It is to receive them to ourselves and abide in the love and the mercies of God, and be humble before Him, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

[Further remarks after younger classes assembled:] God called upon Adam and his sons to live the law of sacrifice. Abel kept the law and offered the firstlings of the flock, a lamb without blemish; doing it in faith in the similitude in the looking forward to the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Cain offered the fruit of the ground, which had no reference whatever to the sacrifice of Christ to come. And God called for an accounting. Cain, seeking his brother's flocks, seeking to get gain, and being jealous of his brother, slew him. And God called on him, "Where is thy brother?" He said, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

We are indeed our brother's keeper in that we set an example of righteousness and truth before those, our brothers and sisters. You are your brother's keeper by setting a good example and keeping the law of father. There is a fearful responsibility on you older boys and girls in setting an example for your younger brothers and sisters. In this sense you are their keeper. And I want you to remember and not break the law of father before them and help them in breaking the law of father. On the other hand, you should be sustaining father and obeying his law and setting a good example. But as long as the rest of you understand the correct principles involved, you are not justified in following a bad example, and you can't blame it on them. Do you understand this? You know the law; you keep it; and don't say, "I did it because my older brother did it." Still, the older brother and sister is his brother's and sister's keeper in setting a good example. In this way you will be helping father, you older boys and girls, setting a good example. Please help me.

If you are not too selfish in wanting your own will and way, please don't take any of my sons and daughters after you. You are my children, every one of you, and I love you all. I want nothing less than your obedience to the commands of God, the law of the Gospel, the law of the Priesthood. If you want it the Priesthood way, you are going to have to obey the Priesthood law. You older boys and girls could be turning your younger boys and girls, where you have something to do with them, to their father. These words go for the mothers.

If you can't keep the law that I give you, the law of the Priesthood, come and tell; be honest. Now these are instructions for all. I am not singling anybody out. But you have got to know how it is. Be honest with yourself and with me, who is your head. Sore temptations are coming upon you, upon all, for that matter. So be prepared. Judgments and destructions are coming upon us, and the righteous will have to suffer, no doubt. But if we are right before God and we give our lives, then we will stand in the presence of God. If we be not right, then we will have to go in the other direction, suffering death or sickness or whatever the Lord may call upon us to go through.

Let us learn to stand in holy places. We are trying to make this a holy place, a temple, if you please. Just don't do anything or say anything you wouldn't say or do in a temple of God, a temple that is pure and holy.

Zion's Camp

Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastized he gets angry and will not endure it. The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us, is because we do not keep them but reveal them; we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord? I can keep a secret till Doomsday. What greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend; then why not fight for our friend until we die?

We wonder why we are not endowed. The holy endowment is a secret and sacred ordinance. Until we can prove that we can keep the secrets of God, we will never be endowed, because the saints have treated lightly these sacred and holy things. They are secret because they are sacred. In the holy endowment, there are key words, signs, tokens, and passwords that cannot be revealed, upon pain of death! Maybe that will help us to understand a little more about endowments and why we don't have them.

I have in mind finishing the narrative of the "Zion's Camp" here this morning. I think it will have and do a larger good. We went through about half of the narrative in the "History of the Church" Friday night. I want to give others the benefit of the conclusion of it, after a little review.

I pray for the Spirit of God to rest upon us all as we receive these things.
And I want you to understand why I am doing this. I have, on occasion, tried to get over the principle to this family that we are, as it were, engaged in a Zion's Camp. We are seeking our own redemption; but we are, as a people, called upon to prepare for the redemption of Zion. And we will not be called upon as a part of it unless we have the same Spirit of Zion, which is, that we must be one; for those who go finally to redeem Zion must be like God, and with sufficient faith that the Elders could go upon the mount and talk with God. We will have to be of the character of God to be in the presence of Jesus Christ, who will lead that concourse of righteous and godly men.

I have frequently been asked, "Will there be women in the Zion's Camp?" I don't know; but in this Zion's Camp we read about, there were two or three for purposes we know not of, except it be to take care of the needs of the brethren.

The travels of the Zion's Camp, in the first place, were in two parts. The main body left Kirtland in the early part of May 1834, through the revelation calling upon them to go and to get five hundred, or at least one hundred men, of the young men of Zion and the middle-aged, under the direction, personally, of Joseph Smith. And in that original revelation given February 4, 1834, the Lord said that this camp, if they were faithful, would have Joseph to lead them, and they were to go with him. It was at Salt River in Missouri, Hyrum and a part of about fifty joined them; so that they then had Someone asked if Sylvester Smith died of the cholera. He did not. They later had trials on him back at Kirtland; and he stood against the Prophet against others in an investigation, if you please, that they conducted on Joseph Smith the Prophet and his conduct in Zion's Camp. The Church then was governed by common consent, and they had their councils, and they conducted an investigation on Joseph. And Sylvester, on that occasion, upheld him. Upon the disbanding of the camp, this revelation was given on Fishing River, Missouri, June 22, 1834.

D.& C. 105

1. Verily I say unto you who have assembled yourselves together that you may learn my will concerning the redemption of mine afflicted people --
2. Behold, I say unto you, were it not for the transgressions of my people, speaking concerning the church and not individuals, they might have been redeemed even now.

3. But behold, they have not learned to be obedient to the things which I required at their hands, but are full of all manner of evil, and do not impart of their substance, as becometh saints, to the poor and afflicted among them;
4. And are not united according to the union required by the law of the celestial kingdom;

5. And Zion cannot be built up unless it is by the principles of the law of the Celestial Kingdom; otherwise I cannot receive her unto myself.
6. And my people must needs be chastened until they learn obedience, if it must needs be, by the things which they suffer.

7. I speak not concerning those who are appointed to lead my people, who are the first elders of my church, for they are not all under this condemnation;

Joseph was the First Elder and Oliver Cowdery the Second Elder, although the First Presidency had been organized just previous, with Sidney Rigdon and Frederick G. Williams as counselors to Joseph.

8. But I speak concerning my churches abroad -- there are many who will say: Where is their God? Behold, he will deliver them in time of trouble, otherwise we will not go up unto Zion, and will keep our moneys.
9. Therefore, in consequence of the transgressions of my people, it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season for the redemption of Zion --

10. That they themselves may be prepared, and that my people may be taught more perfectly, and have experience, and know more perfectly concerning their duty, and the things which I require at their hands.

So we are still waiting and still trying to prepare. But there is a blessing in store for the faithful of this camp.

11. And this cannot be brought to pass until mine elders are endowed with power from on high.
12. For behold, I have prepared a great endowment and blessing to be poured out upon them, inasmuch as they are faithful and continue in humility before me.

13. Therefore it is expedient in me that mine elders should wait for a little season, for the redemption of Zion.
14. For behold, I do not require at their hands to fight the battles of Zion; for, as I said in a former commandment, even so will I fulfil -- I will fight your battles.

The Lord repeated this many times after to John Taylor and Wilford Woodruff as the preparations were being made to have a manifesto.

15. Behold, the destroyer I have sent forth to destroy and lay waste mine enemies; and not many years hence they shall not be left to pollute mine heritage, and to blaspheme my name upon the lands which I have consecrated for the gathering together of my saints.
16. Behold, I have commanded my servant Baurak Ale [Joseph Smith, Jun.] to say unto the strength of my house, even my warriors, my young men, and middle-aged, to gather together for the redemption of my people, and throw down the towers of mine enemies, and scatter their watchmen;
17. But the strength of mine house have not hearkened unto my words.
18. But inasmuch as there are those who have hearkened unto my words, I have prepared a blessing and an endowment for them, if they continue faithful.
19. I have heard their prayers, and will accept their offering; and it is expedient in me that they should be brought thus far for a trial of their faith.
20. And now, verily I say unto you, a commandment I give unto you, that as many as have come up hither, that can stay in the region round about, let them stay;

21. And those that cannot stay, who have families in the east, let them tarry for a little season, inasmuch as my servant Joseph shall appoint unto them;

22. For I will counsel him concerning this matter, and all things whatsoever he shall appoint unto them shall be fulfilled.

23. And let all my people who dwell in the regions round about be very faithful, and prayerful, and humble before me, and reveal not the things which I have revealed unto them, until it is wisdom in me that they should be revealed.

24. Talk not of judgments, neither boast of faith nor of mighty works, but carefully gather together, as much in one region as can be, consistently with the feelings of the people;

25. And behold, I will give unto you favor and grace in their eyes, that you may rest in peace and safety, while you are saying unto the people: Execute judgment and justice for us according to law, and redress us of our wrongs.

They are advised then to purchase lands in Jackson County that can be.

30. And after these lands are purchased, I will hold the armies of Israel guiltless in taking possession of their own lands, which they have previously purchased with their moneys, and of throwing down the towers of mine enemies that may be upon them, and scattering their watchmen, and avenging me of mine enemies unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

31. But first let my army become very great, and let it be sanctified before me,

This is where we are now involved.

31. ...that it may become fair as the sun, and clear as the moon, and that her banners may be terrible unto all nations;

32. That the kingdoms of this world may be constrained to acknowledge that the kingdom of Zion is in very deed the kingdom of our God and his Christ; therefore, let us become subject unto her laws.
33. Verily I say unto you, it is expedient in me that the first elders of my church should receive their endowment from on high in my house, which I have commanded to be built unto my name in the land of Kirtland.

34. And let those commandments which I have given concerning Zion and her law be executed and fulfilled, after her redemption.

35. There has been a day of calling, but the time has come for a day of choosing; and let those be chosen that are worthy.

36. And it shall be manifest unto my servant, by the voice of the Spirit, those that are chosen; and they shall be sanctified;

37. And inasmuch as they follow the counsel which they receive, they shall have power after many days to accomplish all things pertaining to Zion.

38. And again I say unto you, sue for peace, not only to the people that have smitten you, but also to all people;

39. And lift up an ensign of peace, and make a proclamation of peace unto the ends of the earth;

40. And make proposals for peace unto those who have smitten you, according to the voice of the Spirit which is in you, and all things shall work together for your good.

41. Therefore, be faithful; and behold, and lo, I am with you even unto the end.

So I hope you get the point and the purpose of this lesson. We are called upon to be one and to sanctify this house that it may be a temple; and go, as it were, to redeem Zion here in our own midst; for Zion is within. It is where we are. And this people, the followers of the Priesthood, from among them will be called the heart's core to redeem Zion.

Do we want a part in that? That company that goes with Christ at their head must become like Him and be one. This company who tried to go and redeem Zion were led by a god, and they knew it not! Very few ever learned to know who he was and who he is. And many walked upon him with impunity. We have a Prophet and an Apostle of Jesus Christ to lead us today, as it were, to Zion. That is his call continually, to prepare to redeem Zion. Let us as a people, at least this family, be very faithful and follow counsel and take direction by the Spirit of God, and receive chastisement if need be, and take it like a man and a woman of God.
Brigham Young once chastised a man very severely, and it was a real test. After getting through, he said to the man, "Now, go and apostatize, if you will." He said, "Brother Brigham, you can't make me apostatize. I will follow your counsel." He had a choice, didn't he? -- get mad and apostatize, or to follow the counsel. He said, "This is not your church, Brother Brigham. It is God's. But I will receive your counsel."

No one can make anyone apostatize unless they want to be apostate. And their apostasy can't be blamed on anyone but themselves. Now remember this, because what somebody says or does to you is no grounds for your apostatizing, if you love the truth and list to obey it with all your heart, might, mind, and strength. You know the truth. It has been taught to you all the day long. Now obey it if you want salvation and exaltation.

Just one more lesson. Joseph taught them many lessons on the way to Zion. But here is another way that we will be tested, and ever keep it in mind.

2 Thessalonians 2

1. Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2. That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, not by word, not by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first,

He is speaking to the Thessalonians, Paul the Apostle.

3. ...and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5. Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6. And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
9. Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

RTJ 4:222 November 13, 1977 Sandy Sunday School

10. And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

Send who delusions? Those who love not the truth. That delusion was sent to the Latter-day Saints in 1890, to the great majority of the saints, who loved not the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel, the holy Celestial Law; and He sent them a delusion. So if we love truth for the truth's sake, we cannot be deluded. If it is in here, the heart, it will come out. If it isn't there, it won't come out. That is what John and father used to say so often, John Y. Barlow.

11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12. That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Get the whole context of this, now; and then a few more words of exhortation he gives them. This has been delivered to us by the brethren before. But I think a little more explanation and help would be very timely. I call upon God to bless this family that we will go down the road together under God and His Prophet to our eternal exaltation. I want nothing but your salvation in the Celestial Kingdom of God, no less that that, if we will! Let us remember the perfect law, the pure love of Christ, and love one another; seek the interest of the other, of your neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God. That is how we will become one.

Section 82 we should always remember -- two very important points given to those saints then who were entering the Holy United Order.

D.& C. 82

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; "When your course is pleasing to Me," says the Lord, He cannot withhold Himself.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

And the other point:
18. And all this for the benefit of the church of the living God, that every man may improve upon his talent, that every man may gain other talents, yea, even an hundred fold, to be cast into the Lord's storehouse, to become the common property of the whole church --

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor,

19. ...and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

God bless us all, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

D. & C. 59; Law of Sacrifice

My heart is full of gratitude for the blessings of God, and for these my brethren, especially President Johnson. I am grateful for the privilege of meeting with you here today, and for every blessing of life, and the blessings of the holy Priesthood, and the Everlasting Gospel of Jesus Christ. I am grateful for my father and mother who brought me into the world under the New and Everlasting Covenant, and for life and being, and for a knowledge of the truth. I pray for the Spirit of God to be upon me as I bear testimony of the work of God and the blessings of the holy Priesthood.

I do not know what it is going to take to sufficiently humble all of us. The first fruits of repentance is the spirit of gratitude, and acknowledging the hand of God in all things. I am reminded of a sermon in a Section of the Doctrine and Covenants, the whole Section comprising what I consider to be a very beautiful sermon for us to live by in the spirit of love and humility, love of God and of our neighbor. It is found in Section 59, brothers and sisters.

To know what is the background for revelations, I always like to give the time and the place and the occasion, so that we can better understand what the Lord is telling. Joseph and the party that was sent out to have revealed unto them the place where the center of Zion should be, the great city to be built, and they were then and there dedicating and setting apart that place for this last gathering of Israel, and the building up of the waste places of Zion. It was on the occasion of the Sabbath that they were meeting and the Prophet received this revelation.

D. & C. 59

1. Behold, blessed, saith the Lord, are they who have come up unto this land with an eye single to my glory, according to my commandments.
2. For those that live shall inherit the earth, and those that die shall rest from all their labors, and their works shall follow them; and they shall receive a crown in the mansions of my Father, which I have prepared for them.
3. Yea, blessed are they whose feet stand upon the land of Zion, who have obeyed my gospel; Here is a foretaste of what is the very foundation of the work of the Priesthood at this time, the preparation of a people; for Zion shall yet be redeemed, and that great city and temple built.

3. ...for they shall receive for their reward the good things of the earth, and it shall bring forth in its strength.

4. And they shall also be crowned with blessings from above, yea, and with commandments not a few, and with revelations in their time -- they that are faithful and diligent before me.

5. Wherefore, I give unto them a commandment, saying thus: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, mind, and strength; and in the name of Jesus Christ thou shalt serve him.

6. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Thou shalt not steal; neither commit adultery, nor kill, nor do anything like unto it.

7. Thou shalt thank the Lord thy God in all things.

8. Thou shalt offer a sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in righteousness, even that of a broken heart and a contrite spirit. That is the new law of sacrifice, and by offering in sacrifice all earthly things, including our earthly and worldly character, we may come to know that we please God; and the beginning of it is a broken heart and a contrite spirit. This is the essence of humility, to me, in approaching God.

9. And that thou mayest more fully keep thyself unspotted from the world, thou shalt go to the house of prayer and offer up thy sacraments upon my holy day;

10. For verily this is a day appointed unto you to rest from your labors, and to pay thy devotions unto the Most High;

11. Nevertheless thy vows shall be offered up in righteousness on all days and at all times;

12. But remember that on this, the Lord's day, thou shalt offer thine oblations and thy sacraments unto the Most High, confessing thy sins unto thy brethren, and before the Lord. And remember we cannot obtain a forgiveness from the Lord until we first forgive one another, freely and with all our heart.

13. And on this day thou shalt do none other thing, only let thy food be prepared with singleness of heart that thy fasting may be perfect, or, in other words, that thy joy may be full.

14. Verily, this is fasting and prayer, or in other words, rejoicing and prayer.

And we do not suffer ourselves to go around with a long face, and with a dejected spirit, for this is how we are to serve God.

15. And inasmuch as ye do these things with thanksgiving, with cheerful hearts and countenances, not with much laughter, for this is sin, ***

You know there are laughing devils, laughing spirits; all kinds that the devil uses to cause us to commit sin, if we let them.

16. Verily I say, that inasmuch as ye do this, the fulness of the earth is yours, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and that which climbeth upon the trees and walketh upon the earth;

17. Yea, and the herb, and the good things which come of the earth, whether for food or for raiment, or for houses, or for barns, or for orchards, or for gardens, or for vineyards;

18. Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart;

19. Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.

20. And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.

Moderation in all things.

21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

22. Behold, this is according to the law and the prophets; wherefore, trouble me no more concerning this matter.

23. But learn that he who doeth the works of righteousness shall receive his reward, even peace in this world, and eternal life in the world to come.

24. I, the Lord, have spoken it, and the Spirit beareth record.

Another instruction given to them on that occasion is found in Section 58,
D. & C. 58

26. For behold, it is not meet that I should command in all things; for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause. Giving their whole heart and mind in the cause of God. It says, "A good cause."

...and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

If we are led by the Spirit of God, we will be led to do only those things of our own free will and choice, not having to be commanded in them, that are expedient and right and good, that we may love and serve one another, our neighbor -- seeking the interest of our neighbor and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God. That is the spirit of the Holy United Order.

26. ...for he that is compelled in all things, the same is a slothful and not a wise servant; wherefore he receiveth no reward.

27. Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness;

The power of the Holy Ghost, and then we can do no wrong, if we are led by the Holy Ghost.

28. And inasmuch as men do good they shall in nowise lose their reward.

29. But he that doeth not anything until he is commanded, and receiveth a commandment with doubtful heart, and keepeth it with slothfulness, the same is damned.

30. Who am I that made man, saith the Lord, that will hold him guiltless that obeys not my commandments?

31. Who am I, saith the Lord, that have promised and have not fulfilled?

32. I command and men obey not; I revoke and they receive not the blessing.

33. Then they say in their hearts: This is not the work of the Lord, for his promises are not fulfilled. But wo unto such, for their reward lurketh...
beneath, and not from above.

So brothers and sisters, we have need to be humbled and come to God with a broken heart and contrite spirit, acknowledging His hand in all things, and giving Him the honor and the glory. I am afraid too many of us are too proud, filled with pride and selfishness. Joseph warned the Twelve regarding this great evil, and he attributed pride to the fall of certain Apostles of the Twelve, who had been called in 1835. Pride -- selfishness is another word for it.

Now brothers and sisters, let us learn by the law of sacrifice that we can indeed please God; after we have offered all and acknowledge His hand. What a great power Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham had, those mentioned in particular; what power they had with God when they got this testimony that they pleased God. And this is how, through the power of faith, Enoch was able to perfect a people that they might be translated and taken from the earth, where Enoch was to have a special dispensation to Terrestrial orders and beings. And this is how Abel was able to please God, because he kept His commandments and made the necessary sacrifice. He pleased God because he offered a perfect sacrifice; and this as we are told by Joseph in Lecture Six of the Lectures on Faith, is how we come to know, by revelation; and through that, satisfaction comes to our souls in having kept all of the commandments; that we can then go to God and through faith, ask and we shall receive, knock and it will be opened unto us, everything in righteousness that we may desire.

I pray that we may indeed humble ourselves, for I am sure the Lord would have to say to us in this day, as He did in former times: "Ye are not yet sufficiently humble and contrite, and submissive," so that we may get and keep the Spirit of God to guide and direct us in all things, and that it might be our constant guide and companion; and our dominion will be an everlasting dominion because we are like God; which I pray we may be in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

RTJ 4:230  December 18, 1977  Sandy
I feel impressed, brothers and sisters, to have us hear from Brigham Young by a reading of the fundamental principle of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, who and what the Godhead are. The first principle of the Gospel is faith in God, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and in and by the Holy Ghost, which is the gift which is given us after we have obeyed the other principles, first principles. This comes from the fifteenth volume of the Millennial Star and gives us such fundamental instructions about the Godhead. I know we all believe in it, but somehow I think we don't understand enough about it, the fundamental doctrine and statement of fact, which is given us by the Prophet Brigham Young.

My next sermon will be to both Saint and sinner. One thing has remained a mystery in this kingdom up to this day. It is in regard to the character of the well-beloved Son of God, upon which subject the Elders of Israel have conflicting views. Our God and Father in heaven, is a being of tabernacle, or, in other words, He has a body, with parts the same as you and I have; and is capable of showing forth His works to organized beings, as, for instance, in the world in which we live, it is the result of the knowledge and infinite wisdom that dwell in His organized body. His son Jesus Christ has become a personage of tabernacle, and has a body like his father.

Now hear this:

The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of the Lord, and issues forth from Himself, and may properly be called God's minister to execute His will in immensity; being called to govern by His influence and power; but He is not a person of tabernacle as we are, and as our Father in Heaven and Jesus Christ are.

You well remember that Joseph tells us in Lecture Five that the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son. Here Brigham Young gives us explicitly that the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit, is the Spirit of the Lord and issues forth from Himself and is His minister to execute His will in immensity. And thus, when He gives His Priesthood to man among His children, He executes His will in immensity, it says here, through the power of the holy Priesthood. That is the channel.

Speaking of Apostles, there has never, since this earth was framed and peopled by Father Adam; this earth has never been without the Apostleship after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Melchizedek. Always one bearing that holy Priesthood has been upon the earth. Otherwise, we are told, the earth would go into chaos. And so His Priesthood has been here ever since He, Himself, our Father came into the earth and fell, that we might be. Even during the great apostasy after the ministry of Christ and His Apostles, His Twelve, John the Beloved was upon the earth, a translated being of that highest order of Priesthood. The Three Nephites were here ministering on these continents and have been ever since, and John is also among the Ten Tribes on the part of the earth on which they were placed.

The question has been, and is often, asked, who it was that begat the Son of the Virgin Mary. The infidel world have concluded that if what the Apostles wrote about his father and mother be true, and the present marriage discipline acknowledged by Christendom be correct, then Christians must believe that God is the father of an illegitimate son, in the person of Jesus Christ! The infidel fraternity teach that to their disciples. I will tell you how it is. Our Father in Heaven begat all the spirits that ever were, or ever will be, upon this earth; and they were born spirits in the eternal world. Then the Lord by His power and wisdom organized the mortal tabernacle of man. We were made first spiritual, and afterwards temporal.

Now hear it, O inhabitants of the earth, Jew and Gentile, Saint and sinner! When our father Adam came into the garden of Eden, he came into it with a celestial body, and brought Eve, one of his wives, with him. He helped to make and organize this world. He is MICHAEL, the Archangel, the ANCIENT OF DAYS! about whom holy men have written and spoken -- HE is our FATHER and our GOD, and the only God with whom WE have to do. Every man upon the earth, professing Christians or non-professing, must hear it, and will know it sooner or later. They came here, organized the raw material, and arranged in their order the herbs of the field, the trees, the apple, the peach, the plum, the pear, and every other fruit that is desirable and good for man; the seed was brought from another sphere, and planted in this earth.

Very plainly laid out before us.

The thistle, the thorn, the brier, and the obnoxious weed did not appear until after the earth was cursed. When Adam and Eve had eaten of the forbidden fruit, their bodies became mortal from its effects, and therefore their offspring were mortal. When the Virgin Mary conceived the child Jesus, the Father had begotten him in his own likeness. He was not begotten by the Holy Ghost.

Mary was overshadowed by the Holy Ghost, so that Father Michael could beget His Only Begotten Son; that is, while He was in His glorified and immortal state, to which He went back after nine hundred thirty years.

And who is the Father? He is the first of the human family; and when he took a tabernacle, it was begotten by his Father in heaven, after the same manner as the tabernacles of Cain, Abel, and the rest of the sons and daughters of Adam and Eve; from the fruits of the earth, the first earthly tabernacles were originated by the Father, and so on in succession. I could tell you much more about this; but were I to tell you the whole truth, blasphemy would be nothing to it, in the estimation of the superstitious and over-righteous of mankind. However, I have told you the truth as far as I have gone. I have heard men preach upon the divinity of Christ, and exhaust all the wisdom they possessed. All Scripturalists, and approved theologians who were considered exemplary for piety and education, have undertaken to expound on this subject, in every age of the Christian era; and after they have done all, they are obliged to conclude by exclaiming "great is the mystery of godliness," and tell nothing.

It is true that the earth was organized by three distinct characters, namely, Eloheim, Yahovah, and Michael, these three forming a quorum, as in all heavenly bodies, and in organizing element, perfectly represented in the Deity, as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Again, they will try to tell how the divinity of Jesus is joined to his humanity, and exhaust all their mental faculties, and wind up with this profound language, as describing the soul of man, "it is an immaterial substance!" What a learned idea! Jesus, our elder brother, was begotten in the flesh by the same character that was in the garden of Eden, and who is our Father in Heaven. Now, let all who may hear these doctrines, pause before they make light of them, or treat them with indifference, for they will prove their salvation or damnation.

I have given you a few leading items upon this subject, but a great deal more remains to be told. Now, remember from this time forth, and for ever, that Jesus Christ was not begotten by the Holy Ghost. I will repeat a little anecdote. I was in conversation with a certain learned professor upon this subject, when I replied, to this idea -- "if the Son was begotten by the Holy Ghost, it would be very dangerous to baptize and confirm females, and give the Holy Ghost to them, lest he should beget children, to be palmed upon the Elders by the people, bringing the Elders into great difficulties."

Treasure these things in your hearts. In the Bible, you have read the things I have told you to-night; but you have not known what you did read. I have told you no more than you are conversant with; but what do the people in Christendom, with the Bible in their hands, know about this subject? Comparatively nothing.

And so we can say, having had this information given to the saints in the time of Brigham Young, we are assured that it was taught likewise by Joseph. I thought I wanted to read the exact words, but they are very short: "It is the first principle of the Gospel to know that we may converse with God as one man with another." He gave this in the King Follett discourse.

So, how can we have faith if we don't know who we worship and how we worship? In delivering the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the saints, Brigham Young made this announcement in April of 1852. In a special conference of August 1852, he delivered to the saints the Celestial Law of Marriage, and they voted to accept it as a tenet of the Church. Brigham Young continued to teach that Michael is our Father and God, though the people of the Church tried to take it away. But it wasn't long before the people started giving that up, and they gave up this great and glorious doctrine and the primary truth of heaven before they gave up Celestial Marriage, if they ever accepted it in the first place, which very few did. Our Prophets have told us in this day, if we cannot and will not accept this doctrine and truth, we will apostatize, as God lives.

Joseph Smith is the third member of the Godhead as representing a man in it, as the Witness and Testator, standing in the office of the Holy Ghost. The brethren have likewise told the saints if they do not accept Joseph in that position, and as the One Mighty and Strong to come and set in order the House of God, they will apostatize, as God lives. So we are dealing with the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through this Priesthood, and we should keep these fundamental doctrines ever before us so that we may know who we worship and how to worship our Father and God, His Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost; which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

D.& C. 4; Charity; Marriage Covenant; Endowments

D.& C. 4

1. Now behold, a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.
2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God, see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.
3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;
4. For behold the field is white already to harvest; and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;
5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.
6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.
7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Amen.

In other words, get and keep the Spirit of God, for these are the attributes of the Holy Spirit. This will qualify us for the work. Every question that we may have, any problem that may be posed to us, has but one answer in our relations with one another and in our labor to become one; that is, to get and keep the Spirit of God. That takes care of everything. The fundamental attribute involved is love, the pure love of Christ, or charity, as it is called by the Prophet.

I don't think we can read too much Moroni chapter 7, and this Section 4 that has just been read. After considering the fundamental principle of life and salvation, faith -- and hope, which is attached to it -- he says:
Moroni 7

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

To be meek is to be humble, and in all of the instructions that the Lord gave the saints when the Prophet was asked for answers and the revelations that were given in answer to it, the Lord called upon the saints and the parties involved: "Humble yourselves, humble yourselves before Me. Ye are not yet sufficiently humble," He would say.

This is meekness and being lowly of heart. We see some of the opposite things that are described as being the pure love of Christ, or charity, as we read further. You see, the very foundation of our faith must be meekness and lowliness of heart, or our submission to Father, our Father in heaven. This was the beauty of the character of Jesus Christ in all that He said and did.

In His ministry, He would say: "Father hath sent Me. Father hath told Me to say these things to you." He did the same in His resurrected state when He visited the Nephites and the righteous Lamanites.

As He would go through His work and message, administering the sacrament and teaching the subject of prayer and faith, He would go aside and call upon Father in mighty prayer as to what He should say to these people. That to me is the very essence of meekness and humility. And yet He delivered His message in great power and with authority, because He had been authorized by Father. So I read again:

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart,

See how often it is repeated here.

44. ...and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long,

Or long-suffering, as we say.

45. ...and is kind,

These are the attributes of the Holy Spirit. It:
45. ...envieth not, and is not puffed up,
Just the opposite of meekness. It is not puffed up; it is meek.
45. ...seeketh not her own,
It is not selfish or self-seeking, but works in the interest of one's neighbor. It:
45. ...is not easily provoked,
Does not go into anger, that anger that is dictated by the spirit of the devil.
The Spirit of God can dictate a man or person to "rebuke betimes with sharpness" when moved upon by that Spirit, but afterwards showing forth much love, lest the one rebuked esteems you to be his enemy.

We call to mind what we read about in class Friday. Joseph Smith, Parley Pratt, and others were in Liberty Jail under the most terrible conditions; and the guards speaking of their evil deeds: stealing, ravishing the saints, the women and the girls, and killing the children and women and men, and the most horrible language. Joseph stood up in the power of God and with a loud voice: "Silence! ye fiends of the eternal pit." And there was majesty standing in chains speaking by the power of the Holy Ghost against evil. And they all cowered down like whipped dogs, for dogs they were.

Christ, in driving the money-changers from the temple of God, used physical means to drive them out, by the power of God that rested upon Him. We understand He used a whip, and then called them to repentance.

So, the Spirit of God, or charity, is not easily provoked to anger. It:
45. ...thinketh no evil,
It is pure.

45. ...and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth,
And loves the truth for the truth's sake, because that Spirit loves God from which the truth emanates. And it:
45. ...beareth all things,
Similar to long-suffering, but it beareth all trials of our faith. And it:
45. ...believeth all things,
From God, of course; believeth the truth in other words. And it:
45. ...hopeth all things,
And it:
45. ...endureth all things.
To put it in another way, it suffers a wrong rather than doing one.
46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, The pure love of Christ, 46. ...ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. It never faileth.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, Think of Christ when you think of that great attribute. It encompasses all of the others of the attributes of God.

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, That is faith in action. The very operation of faith is the exertion of the mind and the heart. Because we love Father with all our heart, we can go to Him in faith, with the assurance that we shall be answered. "Ask and ye shall receive," if we have charity; "knock and it shall be opened unto you," if we have charity, the pure love of Christ, and that is the nature of our character.

48. ...pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, Or filled with the Holy Ghost.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ By the laying on of hands for that great gift,

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; Because we are like Him,

48. ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

[Question: God loves all, but doesn't He love the obedient more? And does His love increase for us as we become more obedient?] That is right. Remember one thing, though. He hates sin. He loves the sinner, if the sinner will repent. But He cannot look upon sin with the least degree of allowance, or He would cease to be God. With true repentance, He will forgive it, if it is possible to be forgiven, or if it is possible to repent. Jesus Christ's life was a perfect example of love of mankind, the sons and daughters of Father Michael. He loved them so much, and His Father loved Him and His children so much, that He was given as a sacrifice for all; and He atoned for all the sins of mankind if they believe and obey Him.

All will be resurrected and saved from the grave. But all will not rise as sons and daughters of God, except those who are obedient and have kept all of the commandments, and have become like Him. As Brother Johnson has so often read to us:

D.& C. 1

24. Behold, I am God and have spoken it; these commandments are of me,
These commandments, the Doctrine and Covenants, or Book of Commandments as it was originally called.

24. ...and were given unto my servants in their weakness, after the manner of their language, that they might come to understanding.

25. And inasmuch as they erred it might be made known;
26. And inasmuch as they sought wisdom they might be instructed;
27. And inasmuch as they sinned they might be chastened, that they might repent;

28. And inasmuch as they were humble they might be made strong,
Do you understand that? They were humble that they might be made strong.

28. ...and blessed from on high, and receive knowledge from time to time.
The great example we have in our time is our great head in this dispensation, Joseph Smith; one of the weakest of mortals, unlearned, a simple but faithful boy. God endowed him with power from on high, and made him strong and mighty in his humility.

29. And after having received the record of the Nephites, yea, even my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., might have power to translate through the mercy of God, by the power of God, the Book of Mormon.

30. And also those to whom these commandments were given, might have power to lay the foundation of this church, and to bring if forth out of obscurity and out of darkness, the only true and living church upon the face of the whole earth, with which I, the Lord, am well pleased, speaking unto the church collectively.
Or as a whole.

30. ...and not individually --
For there were individuals who were yet sinners.

31. For I the Lord cannot look upon sin with the least degree of allowance;
32. Nevertheless, he that repents and does the commandments of the Lord shall be forgiven;
33. And he that repents not, from him shall be taken even the light which he has received; for my Spirit shall not always strive with man, saith the Lord of Hosts.

34. And again, verily I say unto you, O inhabitants of the earth: I the Lord am willing to make these things known unto all flesh;
35. For I am no respecter of persons, and will that all men shall know that the day speedily cometh; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand, when peace shall be taken from the earth, and the devil shall have power over his own dominion.

Which he has.

36. And also the Lord shall have power over his saints, and shall reign in their midst, and shall come down in judgment upon Idumea, or the world.

So if you are of the world, you are going to receive of those judgments.

37. Search these commandments, for they are true and faithful, and the prophecies and promises which are in them shall all be fulfilled.
38. What I the Lord have spoken, I have spoken, and I excuse not myself; and though the heavens and the earth pass away, my word shall not pass away, but shall all be fulfilled, whether by mine own voice or by the voice of my servants, it is the same.

For He tells us in another place: "When my servants shall speak by the Holy Ghost, it is scripture and the word of God."

39. For behold, and lo, the Lord is God, and the Spirit beareth record, and the record is true, and the truth abideth forever and ever. Amen.

Going back:
D.& C. 1

11. Wherefore the voice of the Lord is unto the ends of the earth, that all that will hear may hear:
12. Prepare ye, prepare ye for that which is to come, for the Lord is nigh; And that is the message of the Priesthood to us now.

13. And the anger of the Lord is kindled,
The Lord has anger, but how?
13. ...and his sword is bathed in heaven, and it shall fall upon the inhabitants of the earth.

14. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people;
15. For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;

One cannot stray from the ordinances who have not received them. So, these are they who have received of the word and been baptized and have come under the law of the Priesthood; who stray and thus apostatize and break the everlasting covenant.

16. They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way, and after the image of his own God, whose image is in the likeness of the world, and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great, which shall fall.
17. Wherefore, I the Lord, knowing the calamity which should come upon the inhabitants of the earth, called upon my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and spake unto him from heaven, and gave him commandments;
18. And also gave commandments to others, that they should proclaim these things unto the world; and all this that it might be fulfilled, which was written by the prophets --
19. The weak things of the world shall come forth and break down the mighty and strong ones,

By the power of God,
19. ...that man should not counsel his fellow man, neither trust in the arm of flesh --
20. But that every man might speak in the name of God the Lord, even the Savior of the world;
21. That faith also might increase in the earth;
22. That mine everlasting covenant might be established;
23. That the fulness of my gospel might be proclaimed by the weak and the simple unto the ends of the world, and before kings and rulers.
24. Behold, I am God and have spoken it; these commandments are of me, and were given unto my servants in their weakness, after the manner of their language, that they might come to understanding.

And then so it goes to the end as I read before. This is the prefix to the Doctrine and Covenants, Section 1, although it was given in sequence after about sixty-six others. He also gave what is Section 133, or the appendix to the Doctrine and Covenants, the word of God. In that we have the great prophecies of what shall come to pass in the last day, in the way of judgments and the bringing forth of the Ten Tribes, the rebuilding of Zion and the New Jerusalem, and all things that pertain to the earth.

If we enter into and receive covenants, and we break them, we are the worst kind of sinner, breaking of covenants, covenant breakers. It is better that we hadn't entered into the covenant in the first place. If we live according to our covenants, then we will be blessed with the promises that were given on condition of our obedience to those covenants.

That brings to mind something I have said not too long ago; but I think a review of the marriage covenant, which contains the fulness of the Gospel; for we are promised a fulness of blessings. The man and the woman both covenant and promise that they will fulfill all the laws, rites, and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony in the New and Everlasting Covenant. By being faithful and true unto the end, these are the promises, after having been pronounced legally and lawfully husband and wife for time and all eternity:

The Marriage Covenant

...and I seal upon you the blessings of the holy resurrection, with power to come forth in the morning of the first resurrection,
These are they who come forth in the glory of the Celestial.
...clothed with glory, immortality, and eternal lives;
That is eternal increase.

...and I seal upon you the blessings of thrones and dominions, and principalities, and powers, and exaltations, together with the blessings of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And I say unto you, be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth, that you may have joy and rejoicing in your posterity in the day of the Lord Jesus.

All these blessings, together with all other blessings pertaining to the new and everlasting covenant, I seal upon your heads, through your faithfulness unto the end,

It is done in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, and by the authority of the holy Priesthood. What a terrible thing it is to enter into those covenants and then turn altogether away from them. So, I just draw this to your attention to let you understand how serious a thing it is to break covenants. In general, it can be said in truth, one who breaks that covenant cannot enter into the Celestial Kingdom. Celestial blessings are promised and a covenant entered into before God, angels, and witnesses. If one went far enough to have had their second anointings under that covenant; because this is the beginning and the consummation of all of these blessings that are obtained and sealed upon us in having our calling and election made sure; sealed up unto eternal lives.

D.& C. 84

39. And this is according to the oath and covenant which belongeth to the priesthood.

40. Therefore, all those who receive the priesthood,

A man cannot receive a wife in the New and Everlasting Covenant of Marriage except he bear the holy Melchizedek Priesthood and the office of an Elder, at least.

40. ...those who receive the priesthood, receive this oath and covenant of my Father, which he cannot break, neither can it be moved.

41. But whoso breaketh this covenant after he hath received it, and altogether turneth therefrom, shall not have forgiveness of sins in this world nor in the world to come.

42. And wo unto all those who come not unto this priesthood which ye have received,

To Joseph and six Elders that day when they were made Apostles, already had been,

42. ...which I now confirm upon you who are present this day, by mine own voice out of the heavens; and even I have given the heavenly hosts and mine angels charge concerning you.

So it is a terrible thing to receive blessings at the hands of that order of Priesthood and then turn altogether therefrom.

[Question: What are the laws and ordinances of the New and Everlasting Covenant?]

Although the endowment is not available at the present time, when things are in order, one would have received the first endowments, the man and the woman, before they were sealed. The covenants of the endowment are involved in what is mentioned here. So it is tantamount when entering into them when we receive this marriage covenant.

We can reveal what those covenants are, some of them. But those that pertain to us that are involved in this as we go through our daily lives are:

1) We covenant to obey the Gospel as contained in the standard works of the Priesthood: Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, and Pearl of Great Price. That is a pretty hefty one, isn't it?

2) There is a covenant of obedience in connection with that and separated from it as it pertains to the man and the woman. She covenants to obey her husband as he obeys God. In the beginning, after Adam and Eve had fallen on purpose that we might be, the Lord told Eve: "In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children." She must suffer and go down into the valley of the shadow of death to bring forth children. "Thy desire shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over thee." That stood as a law for all eternity, and particularly in mortality as His children were to come forth. The law of the Gospel was contained in Section 42, and among all the things involved there: "Thou shalt not commit murder, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not covet," all of the commandments embodied in the original ten given by Moses.

3) There is the law and covenant of chastity. Neither party shall have sexual intercourse with any but their legal and lawful wife or husband. That is one of the laws of the Gospel as well: "Thou shalt not commit adultery." Next to murder, it is the worst.

4) The law of retribution, which was not left in the endowment, called for the vengeance of God to be upon all that had slain the Prophets. And they pray for it. And the law of retribution is what comes upon us for disobedience, individually.
5) Then we have the law of sacrifice, or covenant of sacrifice, by which we covenant to sacrifice all earthly things for the sake of the Gospel, in our obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel.

There are key words, signs, and tokens which cannot be revealed which will enable us to go into the presence of God. Joseph Smith said:

DHC 4:608

There are signs in heaven, earth and hell; the Elders must know them all, to be endowed with power, to finish their work and prevent imposition.

From the devil.

The devil knows many signs, but does not know the sign of the Son of Man, or Jesus. No one can truly say he knows God until he has handled something, and this can only be in the holiest of holies.

That is the third endowment, I mean the second and third. The first endowment is with a promise upon conditions of obedience. In the second endowment, they are sealed upon you, a King and a Priest unto God; a Queen and a Priestess unto God. The third endowment is a confirmation of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself in the Holiest of Holies.

These are very, very sacred things that I am revealing to you young people.
But they should be the object of your lives. So, live so that you will be worthy to receive them. One who has received all three and turns altogether therefrom and puts Christ to an open shame, becomes a son of perdition like unto the devil himself, and he belongs to the devil, or Lucifer. I say these things only to emphasize obedience to covenants, the keeping of covenants, and what the consequences are of breaking them. Can we not see, after receiving those promises and blessings that are enumerated in the covenant of marriage, one who breaks it cannot enter into the Celestial Kingdom? He or she can repent, but they will never receive what they would have had, had they been true and faithful in all things unto the end.

So we see, in order to pass by the angels and enter into the presence of God, they must have key words and signs and tokens of the holy Priesthood. That is why Joseph said what he did here. Now don't treat lightly these things.
Having been revealed to you, you are subject to condemnation if you treat them lightly.

Brigham was asked why he gave the Priesthood and marriage blessings to certain people. He said, "Well, they were asked for and they fulfilled the Then he says, "I do not want to have them come to me hereafter and complain that I did not give them the blessing and a chance or the opportunity." Don't use the word "chance". Say "opportunity". "Chance" is a chancy thing.

D. & C. 82

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you.

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; yea, even all of you have sinned; but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads.

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all: Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;

6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.

7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge; go your ways and sin no more;

These were certain brethren who were entering into the Holy United Order.

7. ...go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;

9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise. ***

Then instructions for living the Holy United Order:

19. Every man seeking the interest of his neighbor, and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.
20. This order I have appointed to be an everlasting order unto you, and unto your successors, inasmuch as you sin not.

21. And the soul that sins against this covenant, and hardeneth his heart against it, shall be dealt with according to the laws of my church, Or, shall we say, the Priesthood.

21. ...and shall be delivered over to the buffetings of Satan until the day of redemption.

Most of you, I suppose, have read that little pamphlet "To the Buffetings," of a sister in the early days of the Church during Brigham Young's day, I think it was, or John Taylor's. Having entered into the marriage covenant, Celestial Marriage, her husband was called on a mission. While he was gone, this lady was overcome with flattery by a stranger who came into town; and he took her virtue, and she went with him. The things she suffered, the buffetings of satan, are very plainly laid out in that work.

I wanted to read you about the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost again out of this Key to Theology this morning, and we will close with that. The Holy Spirit is element, spiritual element. It is the mind of the Father and the Son. I give you these things so that you may know the workings of the Spirit of God and how we may worship and what we worship.

The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of the Lord, and issues forth from Himself, and may properly be called God's minister to execute His will in immensity; being called to govern by His influence and power; but He is not a person of tabernacle as we are, and as our Father in Heaven and Jesus Christ are.

The Holy Ghost is a personage of spirit. Otherwise, it could not dwell in our hearts.

This substance is widely diffused among the elements of space.

Or its effects are.

This Holy Spirit, under the control of the Great Eloheim, is the grand moving cause of all intelligences and by which they act.

This is the great, positive, controlling element of all other elements. It is omnipresent.

Everywhere present,
...by reason of the infinitude of its particles, and it comprehends all things

It is the controlling agent or executive, which organizes and puts in motion all worlds, and which, by the mandate of the Almighty, or any of His commissioned agents,

Servants,

...performs all the mighty wonders, signs and miracles ever manifested in the name of the Lord, the turning of the earth backward on its axis, the dividing of the sea, the removing of a mountain, the raising of the dead, or the healing of the sick.

It is the Holy Spirit that does it through the medium of the holy Priesthood.

It is the controlling agent or executive, which organizes and puts in motion all worlds, and which, by the mandate of the Almighty, or any of His commissioned agents,

Servants,

...performs all the mighty wonders, signs and miracles ever manifested in the name of the Lord, the turning of the earth backward on its axis, the dividing of the sea, the removing of a mountain, the raising of the dead, or the healing of the sick.

It is the Holy Spirit that does it through the medium of the holy Priesthood.

It penetrates the pores of the most solid substances, pierces the human system to its most inward recesses, discerns the thoughts and intents of the heart. It has power to move through space with inconceivable velocity, far exceeding the tardy motions of electricity, or of physical light.

It comprehends the past, present, and future, in all their fullness.

The celestialized earth will be a Urim and Thummim, a sea of glass; and the power and the light of that earth is the Holy Spirit.

Its inherent properties embrace all the attributes of intelligence and affection.

It is endowed with knowledge, wisdom, truth, love, charity, justice and mercy, in all their ramifications.

In short, it is the attributes of the eternal power and Godhead.

Those beings who receive of its fullness
After all the endowments,

...are called sons of God, because they are perfected in all its attributes and powers, and, being in communication with it, can, by its use, perform all things.

Those beings who receive not a fullness, but a measure of it, can know and perform some things, but not all.

This is the true light, which in some measure illuminates all men.

There are degrees of it manifest.

It is, in its less refined particles, the physical light which reflects from the sun, moon and stars, and other substances; and by reflection on the eye, makes visible the truths of the outward world.
It is, also, in its higher degrees, the intellectual light of our inward and spiritual organs, by which we reason, discern, judge, compare, comprehend and remember the subjects within our reach.

Its inspiration constitutes instinct in animal life, reason in man, vision in the Prophets, and is continually flowing from the Godhead throughout all His creatures.

Such is the Godhead, as manifested in His words, and in His works. He dwells in His own eternal palaces of precious stones and gold, in the Royal City of the heavenly Jerusalem.

He sits enthroned in the midst of His creations, and is filled and encircled with light unapproachable by those of the lower spheres. He associates with myriads of His own begotten sons and daughters who, by translation or resurrection, have triumphed over death.

His ministers are sent forth from His presence to all parts of His dominions.

His Holy Spirit centres in His presence, and communicates with and extends to the utmost verge of His dominions, comprehending and controlling all things under the immediate direction of His own will, and the will of all those in communication with Him, in worlds without end!

So, it is our great aim and object to get that Spirit with us at all times; and sometime we will be able to receive a fullness of that Holy Spirit. That is what will make us Gods. Section 93 gives us the whole picture, just like this. Jesus received not of the fullness at the first, but grace for grace, line upon line, learning obedience by the things He suffered, He became perfect and obtained a fullness of the Holy Spirit.

The simple instruction we have that Joseph Smith gave to Brigham Young in that dream in Winter Quarters has all this significance of which I have spoken here this morning. Learn the Spirit of God; thus, learn the Spirit of revelation, and be governed by it continually -- the spirit of discernment, discernment of spirits, evil and good. We learn good by seeing its opposite; seeing it, but not partaking of it, necessarily. Jesus was tempted and He overcame by the power of the Holy Ghost. He was perfect, a Lamb without blemish, showing that we can, too. We are born, as it were, in the midst of sin. We are not like unto Jesus, who was the Son of God in the flesh. But through repentance and faith and obedience, we can become like Him
I rejoice, my dear brothers and sisters, in the words of life and truth that have been given us here today through the mouths of the servants of God, for it is the same as though it were delivered by God. I am grateful for the holy Priesthood, for the blessings of God to me and to my beloved brethren. I am grateful for the family that the Lord has blessed me with, and for all things that I enjoy. I acknowledge His hand and blessings to me and mine. I am especially grateful for President Johnson, the servant and chief Apostle of Jesus Christ here upon the earth at this time. And my dear brothers and sisters, we had better listen, and receive, and obey.

We have been told so many times that we are still under condemnation because of the things that were said of the earlier saints of this dispensation, treating lightly the things of God. We do not take seriously enough the things that are given us, as though they were directly the words of God. That which is spoken of, or spoken to us by the Holy Ghost is the word and the mind and the will of God, says the revelation given through the Prophet Joseph Smith. So we must be still treating too lightly the things of God. And it must be that we are not yet sufficiently humble. Jesus Christ said, "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth." And it is through the law of meekness that our President presides over us today, through the holy Priesthood, the holy Apostleship. And we have a glorious example of meekness, given us through our President in this day and time. I have to agree with this definition of meekness. I have been often asked, "What is the meaning of meekness? Who are the meek?" Orson Pratt said:

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth,"

Quoting the words of Jesus Christ.

But who are the meek? By what peculiarities are they distinguished from other men? There must be some qualities about them far superior to the generality of mankind, or they would not become the exclusive heirs of the new earth.

The celestialized earth.

The law of meekness includes all the laws of the Gospel, with its ordinances and blessings, Priesthood and powers, through obedience to which mankind become justified, sanctified, purified, and glorified. Such are the meek of the earth, and none others.

Jesus Christ was the perfect example of meekness and humility. To me, brothers and sisters, looking upon the words and the life of Jesus Christ, humility and meekness is submitting all to the mind and will of Father, our Lord and our God. Meekness is the law of obedience, the first law of heaven. And I am reminded of some of the words of the Lord to Joseph Smith, which are given to us in this day and dispensation.

D. & C. 67

10. And again, verily I say unto you that it is your privilege, and a promise I give unto you that have been ordained unto this ministry, that inasmuch as you strip yourselves from jealousies and fears, the opposite of faith.

The opposite of faith.

10. ...and humble yourselves before me, for ye are not sufficiently humble, the veil shall be rent and you shall see me and know that I am -- not with the carnal neither natural mind, but with the spiritual.

I cannot call to mind where it is, but the Lord has told us through the revelations to Joseph, that if we, His saints, would not humble ourselves, He would chastise and humble us by His almighty power. To Brigham Young in Winter Quarters, the Lord revealed the following as a beautiful instruction for the saints then in their great tribulation. And let us always remember, brothers and sisters, and may it help us to prepare ourselves for what is to come. Through much tribulation cometh the blessings.

D. & C. 136

31. My people must be tried in all things, Have we? Have we been?

31. ...that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion;

The saints were then leaving the land near unto Zion to come to these valleys of the mountains, the mountains of the Lord's House, to prepare them to go back to Zion and redeem it.

31. ...and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite,

To receive and to have His Spirit, then, brothers and sisters, we must be humble and contrite, repentant. To have a broken heart and a contrite spirit is the very essence of the spirit of repentance. And the Lord knows we have need of repentance, and we have need of humbling.

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite, and to the condemnation of the ungodly.

And here we have again, one of the choicest scriptures from the word of God to Moroni, after having discussed the glorious and fundamental principle of faith. Looking to his brethren in time to come, for he was writing at the time when his brethren, the Nephites, had been destroyed, he is writing to those who should come after him in this land of Joseph; which President Johnson has told us is the land of the faithful, and those who occupy it, when they are ripened in iniquity, they will be swept off, swept off from the face thereof. They were twice in the history of the Book of Mormon before, the Jaredites and the Nephites. And we have it to go through again in this last dispensation, preparatory to the coming of the One Mighty and Strong, which he will usher in; but more particularly the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, after bringing about the great gathering of all Israel, including the Ten Tribes, and all Israel from the gentile nations of the earth.

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

And this is how we get what is to follow.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

The pure love of Christ.

44. ...for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have (the pure love of Christ).

I am interposing those words.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind,

These are the essentials of meekness, brothers and sisters.

45. ...and envieth not, and is not puffed up,

Meekness is the exact opposite of being puffed up or full of pride, which Joseph warned the Twelve on one important occasion against.

45. ...seeketh not her own,

Is perfectly unselfish, seeking the interest of our neighbor, our brother, our sister. It:

45. ...is not easily provoked,

To anger and losing the Spirit of God. It:

45. ...thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity

It is purity of heart.

45. ...but rejoiceth in the truth, (it) beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Only those who endure in faith unto the end shall be saved.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not  (the pure love of Christ), ye are nothing, for  (the pure love of Christ) never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

This is faith, perfect faith.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love,

The Holy Ghost is the very essence and circumscribes all of these things that we speak of. They are the attributes of the Holy Ghost. And the admonition of God to us is that we be filled with the Holy Ghost, that it may be our constant guide and companion, and then we can receive the blessings.
48. ...that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God;

When we are filled with the Holy Ghost we become the sons of God, after all of the blessings and ordinances of the House of God.

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him,

If we be filled with the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Father and the Son, we will indeed be like Him.

48. ...for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

God bless you, amen.

First Two Great Commandments

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, thy might, mind, and strength; and thy neighbor as thyself. Jesus said, "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." He also said, "If ye are not for Me, ye are against Me." I pray that we will ponder these words in our hearts; and God bless us to do these things that we have been told today, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

How to Get and Keep the Spirit of God

I trust we all partook worthily (of the Sacrament), and in deep humility, with contrite spirits. In taking of the Sacrament, we are acting in the spirit of repentance, and renewing our covenants taken in the waters of baptism and the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost. ***

Someone quote the first four principles of the Gospel.
Articles of Faith

4. We believe that the first principles and ordinances of the Gospel are: first, Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; second, Repentance; third, Baptism by immersion for the remission of sins; fourth, Laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost.

This gives us a foundation for our membership in the Church of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God, and for our entire future growth and advancement in the work and Kingdom of God. And we should always keep them in mind.

The first is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and in God. The last one is that which will enable us to become like God: the gift of the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of God. I guess the most frequently asked question is how to get and keep the Spirit of God, that great admonition of the Prophet Joseph Smith and of every Prophet and servant of God ever since.

This dream of Brigham Young that he had concerning this great gift and blessing; and let it be remembered that President Barlow had a special revelation in which he was told to go and tell the saints to get and keep the Spirit of God. Wilford Woodruff repeated it, John Taylor, Brigham Young. And I would like, with the help of the Lord, to give us a little more concrete instructions and help in how to do this. But prior to this dream, let us have an understanding of what the Holy Ghost is. And it is set out very briefly but perfectly by way of its power and manifestations by Brigham Young when he said:

The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of the Lord, and issues forth from Himself, and may properly be called God’s minister to execute His will in immensity; being called to govern by His influence and power; but He is not a person of tabernacle as we are, and as our Father in Heaven and Jesus Christ are.

So, it is the most highly refined and pure substance, and that which holds the creations of God together through His Priesthood, and by which He created this earth and all of us. I find great strength and comfort in reading this dream, because there is something very definite about its details that are given:

While at Winter Quarters, on the 17th of February, 1847, President Young had a very interesting dream which he related to the brethren. He dreamed that he went to see Joseph, the Prophet, and when he met him he looked perfectly natural. He appeared to be sitting in a chair at the time. President Young took hold of his right hand and kissed it many times, and said to him:

"Why is it we cannot be together as we used to be? You have been from us a long time; we want your society and do not like to be separated from you."

Joseph rose from his chair, and looked at him with his usual earnest, expressive and pleasing countenance, and said: "It is all right."

President Young repeated that he did not like to be away from him. Joseph said:

"It is all right. We cannot be together yet; we shall be bye and bye, but you will have to do without me for a while; then we shall be together again."

President Young discovered there was a hand-rail between Joseph and himself. Joseph stood by a window, and at the southwest of him it was very light, but President Young was in the twilight, and to the north of him it was very dark. President Young said:

"The brethren you know well, better than I do; you raised them up and brought the priesthood to us. They have a great anxiety to understand the law of adoption or the sealing principle, and if you have a word of counsel for me I shall be glad to receive it."

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; Don't lose it, in other words.

...it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; Peace and joy. And as President Johnson has said so many times, the Holy Ghost is a Spirit of peace.

...it will take malice,
Feelings against one another, may I add.
...hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts,
It will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts.

...and their whole desire will be to do good,
To love and serve one another, seek the interests of our neighbor.
...bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God.
In other words, doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they come into the world.

Brigham was asking about the organization of the saints, the Family Order of Heaven.

Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."
Joseph then showed President Young the pattern how the human family were in the beginning.

And here he was giving instructions on the sealing that he asked about, the law of adoption and the sealing principle.

He saw where the priesthood had been taken from the earth, and how it had to be joined together so that there would be a perfect chain from Father Adam to his latest posterity.

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."
Such a dream was very consoling to President Young and instructive to the people. From it we can learn how important it is to keep the Spirit of the Lord. No man or people can prosper who do not have it as their guide.

Cannot prosper in the work of God or in their life's work and mission. We recently had some instruction on the way it is obtained. The spirit we must have in order to obtain it is in these simple words:

D.& C. 136
31. My people must be tried in all things,
   All things,
31. ...that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion; and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

After the saints had been driven out of Zion, the Lord explained that they had need of a chastisement and to be tried in all things. That was the effect of it; and held out the promise that it would yet be redeemed, as it must before the coming in glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite,
They are the only ones that can receive it. And that is the great prerequisite to our getting the Spirit of God.

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite, and to the condemnation of the ungodly.

I can't think of any better way to enter into that subject than to speak of the word of God:

D.& C. 67
10. ...inasmuch as you strip yourselves from jealousies and fears, and humble yourselves before me, for ye are not sufficiently humble, Think now of what the reward shall be.
10. ...the veil shall be rent and you shall see me and know that I am -- not with the carnal neither natural mind, but with the spiritual.

11. For no man has seen God at any time in the flesh, except quickened by the Spirit of God.
12. Neither can any natural man abide the presence of God, neither after the carnal mind.

13. Ye are not able to abide the presence of God now, neither the ministering of angels; wherefore continue in patience until ye are perfected.

14. Let not your minds turn back;
If we could only learn to do that.

14. ...and when ye are worthy, in mine own due time, ye shall see and know that which was conferred upon you by the hands of my servant Joseph Smith, Jun. Amen.

I think it is a great testimony to see how the Holy Ghost spake almost exactly alike to Paul and to Moroni regarding charity, or the pure love of Christ, which is the Holy Spirit. The thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, an epistle of Paul to the Corinthians:

1 Corinthians 13

1. Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

Actually, I don't see how one could have faith without having charity; I mean faith unto salvation.

3. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5. Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

I read something about that in this other.

6. Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

And I want you to mark this:

11. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. Some of us don't grow up, we don't mature; and certainly the great maturing power and influence is the Holy Spirit.

12. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
13. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Now to the seventh of Moroni. I thought the comparison and additional items that are involved in each to be very instructive. Let us go back to verse 38 if you have it. Speaking of these three that are spoken of by Paul:

Moroni 7

38. For no man can be saved, according to the words of Christ, save they shall have faith in his name; wherefore, if these things have ceased, then has faith ceased also;
Speaking of miracles and the gifts of the Holy Spirit which are spoken of before.
38. ...and awful is the state of man, for they are as though there had been no redemption made.

39. But behold, my beloved brethren, I judge better things of you, for I judge that ye have faith in Christ because of your meekness; for if ye have not faith in him then ye are not fit to be numbered among the people of his church.
40. And again, my beloved brethren, I would speak unto you concerning hope. How is it that ye can attain unto faith, save ye shall have hope? Perhaps hope is the beginning of faith, but it continues just the same.

41. And what is it that ye shall hope for? Behold I say unto you that ye shall have hope through the atonement of Christ and the power of his resurrection, to be raised unto life eternal, and this because of your faith in him according to the promise.
42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope;
They go hand in hand.
42. ...for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.
Here we have that condition again. It is spoken of in these other scriptures that I read: meek and lowly of heart, humble, and contrite.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity;

Which is the pure love of Christ.

44. ...for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

Now here are the things that Paul spoke of:

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

The race is not to the swift or the strong, but unto him that endureth in all things to the end. He that endureth to the end shall be saved, says another scripture in the Book of Mormon.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ,

And it is becoming Christlike,

47. ...and it endureth forever;

And as I have said many times, it is the same as having and keeping the Spirit of God. These are all attributes of the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God.

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

That is faith, perfect faith in knowing that your course is pleasing to him.

48. ...that ye may be filled with this love,

Filled with it; and by being filled with it, this Holy Spirit,

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is;
When we are filled with this, we are like Him.

48. ...that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

Now, in the light of these things, let us consider why it was that the Lord permitted His saints to be driven from the land of their inheritance, Zion. And we will see in this how they completely lost the Spirit of God, speaking of them as a whole. There were some faithful; there were some very faithful and true and full of the Holy Ghost.

D.& C. 101
1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;
3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.

In other words, they hadn't sinned unto death, but it is still very serious, as we will learn.

4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried,
   Tried in all things,
   4. ...even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

Generally, those who will not endure chastening do deny Him and apostatize. At this point I want to quote Joseph.

TPJS Page 194

Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit.

Here, again, the condition of forgiveness is to confess our sins.

When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it.

He will not take correction. And then he goes on to say the reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed to us is because we do not keep our secrets, let alone the secrets of the Lord. They reveal them.

D. & C. 101

5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.

If their inheritances are polluted, then it seems to me they are going to have to be dedicated again. The Lord is going to cleanse Zion, the whole land, and it will be swept clean of its inhabitants, so that there shall not be so much left as a yellow dog to wag its tail. The Kirtland Temple had a marvelous dedication and a purification and sanctification by the ministering of angels and the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost that rested upon it. And it was polluted within a year. And we need to read the rest of this:

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

10. I have sworn, and the decree hath gone forth by a former commandment which I have given unto you, that I would let fall the sword of mine indignation in behalf of my people; and even as I have said, it shall come to pass.

11. Mine indignation is soon to be poured out without measure upon all nations; and this will I do when the cup of their iniquity is full.

So, we have learned in this how to get the Spirit of God, haven't we? By humbling ourselves and approaching God with a contrite heart and seek forgiveness for what we have offended Him. We cannot say we love God if we hate our brother. As John the Beloved said, "How can ye say ye love God whom you cannot see when you hate your brother whom you can see?" And he also says we cannot have forgiveness from Him until we have forgiven one another.
So, there is a preparation that has to be made in getting the Spirit of God. That is the beginning of it; and in the course of it, we must be humble and contrite, and submit ourselves wholly and completely to the mind and will of God. Then we will have that sweet peace and joy and love for God and for one another. John went on to say: "If ye say ye do not love one another and love God, you are a liar and the truth isn't in you." You can't do it. That is the nature of this all-encompassing attribute of love, or charity.

So, how do we lose the Spirit of God? By these jarrings and strifes and contentions and envyings. How do we get it back? By humbling ourselves and go to the Lord in mighty prayer after forgiving our brother and obtaining forgiveness from our brother or sister. And it sometimes takes fasting and mighty prayer to do it.

So, how do we keep it? By remaining steadfast and enduring all things, and put a cloak of charity around the weaknesses of others. And because someone else loses the Spirit of God is no justification for you to, none whatever. Because someone else sins is no justification for you to sin. We know the truth, and the Spirit of God is the Spirit of truth. The Holy Spirit is light and intelligence.

D.& C. 93

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.
37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.
38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.
39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience,

This is how we lose it:

39. ...through disobedience,
The act of disobedience is permitting these jarrings and strifes and contentions to enter in.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

Not the tradition of our Father in heaven.

40. But I have commanded you to bring up your children in light and I don't know that I have covered the ground, the whole ground; but I think we have enough guideposts in these things to enable us to continue steadfast and get and keep the Spirit of God. So the saying: "Nothing is more important than getting and keeping the Spirit of God," nothing; because that covers everything, and is the answer to all of our questions (that is, to have the Spirit of God to guide us, direct us, where to go, what to do, what to say). And if we have that Spirit, that pure love of Christ, we cannot offend our brother or sister. It is impossible, without losing it. And remember, that Spirit is not easily provoked.

So, what do we do if someone offends us and loses the Spirit of God himself or herself? Do we fight back? God forbid! We do not fight back! That is what is called strifes and contentions and jarrings. And if our brother loses the Spirit of God by doing so, let us not lose it by fighting back. Though you may be ever so right, you will be wrong when you fight back, and you will get the same foul spirit that he or she has. And always remember, folks, once we have been given this gift of the Holy Spirit and have it, when we lose it, the other spirit comes in. And this grand truth:

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people. Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

So we have no right or business to judge one another. Judgment is God's, and that of His inspired Priesthood.
I pray that the Lord will direct me as I speak here today, for I desire to speak only by the Spirit of God. I want to take as a text, 2nd Thessalonians:

2 Thessalonians  2

1. Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2. That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, Meaning the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

4. ...except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

5. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6. And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9. Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10. And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
They received not the love of the truth that they might be saved. I want to, with the help of the Lord, speak of the love of the truth, that we may find out if it really be in us. He goes on to tell us:

11. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
12. That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

So we have these two courses, brothers and sisters. If we love not the truth for the truth's sake, we cannot stand. We have had expounded to us, very effectively and beautifully by President Musser, the great delusion that was given the Church in 1890, and the times that followed. A great majority of the saints fulfilled this. They had pleasure in unrighteousness and received not the truth for the truth's sake, and did not hold to that which God had revealed -- the love of the glorious principle of Celestial and Plural Marriage -- and so they have been given a great delusion since.

Now this sort of thing, my dear brothers and sisters, will work with us individually. What I am talking about is that we love God with all our heart, might, mind and strength, and love our neighbor as ourself. God calls upon us, in this first and great commandment, to love Him with all that we have, in gratitude for His having revealed to us the truths of the Everlasting Gospel and the blessings and ordinances of the holy Priesthood.

There is no halfway house, brothers and sisters. If we try to get along that way, trying to serve God and Mammon at the same time, we will fail; and we will have nothing but hell to deal with in our lives. We can't have a little of the devil and a little of God, because they are completely incompatible. One cannot get along with the other. We have got to be very careful that we don't take pleasure in unrighteousness. And he goes on to say:

2 Thessalonians 2

13. But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
14. Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15. Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

17. Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

So, my brothers and sisters, I just can't see how anyone can live the Celestial Law, or try to, with half a heart or under protest, as many are doing among this people. The Latter-day Saints, in 1890, gave up this glorious principle because of the threatening loss of their property, and they couldn't stand the pressure of the Government upon them. They could not stand fast, they were glad to have the Manifesto, glad to have it so. So God has set up a special dispensation, prior to that, of which we are a part; and it is incumbent upon us to give our whole heart, our whole mind, all our strength, all that we have and are, to God and His work and His Priesthood.

If we are not careful, you know we can become like the engine that is on dead center, and we can't go one way or the other. We have got to make up our minds, and give our whole heart, and all that we have and are to God and His service, and sustain our President, Leroy S. Johnson, and along with those standing by his side, to sustain and uphold them that we all may be one. This is the only way we can accomplish it. Unless we are one, we are not God's; we are not His. God help us to do this, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of Timothy Seth Jessop
Son of President Richard S. Jessop

I am grateful to be here in association with my brethren, President Johnson and the Priesthood Council, and particularly out of my love for my dear brother, Richard Jessop, the father of the deceased, and his mother. I am grateful beyond all words to express for the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the power and blessings of the holy Priesthood which presides over us, and of which we are daily and at all times receiving great and glorious blessings and opportunities for advancement and growth in the Kingdom of God.

One of the grand revelations which the Lord has given us is that which I see in Section 93 of the Doctrine and Covenants. The Gospel plan is summarized in one verse, you might say.

D. & C. 93

1. Verily, thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that every soul who forsaketh his sins and cometh unto me, and calleth on my name, and obeyeth my voice, and keepeth my commandments, shall see my face and know that I am;

2. And that I am the true light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world;

3. And that I am in the Father, and the Father in me, and the Father and I are one --

And there are some wonderful verses here that I think apply to us all. We are gathered here really in behalf of the living. What we may say or do here does not add to or detract from the record and life of Brother Timothy, and I am grateful that God and His Apostles are to be the great judges. The Lord told Joseph Smith:

31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;

We come into this life and our spirits receive a body, and there we, in this earth and life, work out our probation. The spirit and the body after death will be reunited in the resurrection, for all shall be resurrected; and reuniting the body and the spirit.

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy.

34. And when separated, man cannot receive a fulness of joy.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning;

We come into this life to work out our probation. According as we do in this life, so shall we be judged.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

What a great weight this has in our lives, fortunately or unfortunately, according to the righteousness of our fathers, but generally because of the unrighteousness and the traditions of the world from our fathers.

40. But I have commanded you to bring up your children in light and truth.

All shall be resurrected, dear brothers and sisters. Unto what resurrection shall we be resurrected? This will be according to the deeds done in the flesh, for we came innocent into this life. So we are constantly faced with these eternal truths. What shall we do with our lives through our agency, the great gift of God to all of His children? He sends forth His children into this earth, He having been the Father of our spirits, and literally the Father of our bodies. Father Adam, or Michael, is our Father, our literal Father and our God; and His glory is to bring to pass the immortality and the eternal lives of His children, to those who believe and obey through His Son, Jesus Christ, who brought about the great atonement and the redemption from the grave. So all mortals, the brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ, are His; and according as we believe and obey Him shall be our resurrection and our joy, or our condemnation. He has bought us with a price. He suffered for us all.

Now I pray for the family of Brother Timothy and all who have had connections with him, and pray that the Lord will bless and comfort and strengthen all, that we may together come under the word and will and the Priesthood of the living God, to do His will and to keep His commandments and learn by the things we suffer. Though He were the Son of God, yet learned He, Jesus Christ, obedience by the things which He suffered. May we do so, and follow in the footsteps of our Lord Jesus Christ, our Father Adam, and Joseph Smith, who is in the office and place of the Holy Ghost.
May God bless and comfort us all and help us to do His will, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Prepare to Redeem Zion;
We Are Here to Make Zion;
Dream of Brigham Young;
How We Get and Keep the Spirit of God

I am grateful to be here with you, my brethren today, and for the presence of President Johnson, under whose call we meet here today. I feel to talk along the same line as Brother Timpson has been speaking of here today. And I pray the Spirit of God will help me to say what our Father desires us to receive today.

The Lord said, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." I think it is in the mind and heart of everyone that they desire to be owned of the Lord. So if we find ourselves in confusion, in disobedience, a lack of oneness, we certainly are not the Lord's. His is a house of purity and oneness. And one day, of course, the House of God is going to be set in order. President Johnson speaks continually to us about becoming prepared. Prepared for what? To redeem Zion. We cannot be counted worthy to go to redeem Zion if we are not one.
The spirit of oneness is the Holy Ghost. The spirit of Zion is the Holy Ghost. So Joseph, the Prophet Brigham Young, John Taylor, all the Priesthood fathers, have been told of the Lord to tell the people to get and keep the Spirit of God.

We are going to have to make a Zion here, where we are, before we are going to be able to go back and redeem Zion -- the center place, the New Jerusalem, the holy city -- the holy city, wherein will be the great temple to our God.
Brigham Young was strong on this matter. He said, "You hear brethren talk of coming to Zion to enjoy the blessings of this land." There is a gathering in the South to live the United Order. It has failed as a community. But Brigham told us why this was so.

...but do you not see that it is the shortsightedness of men which causes their disappointment when they arrive here? Speaking of those who are gathering in his day.

They gather here with the spirit of Zion resting upon them, and expecting to find Zion in its glory, whereas their own doctrine should teach them that they are coming here to make Zion.

We can make Zion, or we can make Babylon, just as we please. We can make just what we please of this place. The people can make Zion: they can make a heaven within themselves. When people gather here, they should come with a determination to make Zion within themselves,

And that is what President Johnson is calling upon us to do, to make Zion within ourselves.

...with the resolution that "I will carry myself full of the Spirit of Zion The Spirit of God.

...wherever I go; and this is the way in which I will control evil spirits; That is the only way we can control evil spirits which are so anxious to come in and disturb and confuse and destroy. That is their work. We can not control evil spirits except by the Holy Ghost.

...for I mean that my spirit shall have control over evil;" The Holy Ghost should have control of our spirits in order to control evil. ...and do you not see that such a course will make Zion?

This American continent will be Zion; for it is so spoken of by the prophets. Jerusalem will be rebuilt and will be the place of gathering, and the tribe of Judah will gather there; but this continent of America is the land of Zion.

The center place to be the New Jerusalem, the City of Zion that will be caught up to meet the Zion of Enoch when He comes, the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ in glory. That is what all the Prophets have been looking to, prophesying about, and working for. Enoch -- who built the city under God, and so perfected a people that they could be translated, that it should become the abode of God forever -- in his yearning, as he saw down through the stream of time, in vision as the Lord showed it to him, he saw how the flood was to come to destroy the earth by water and all save it be eight souls; and how, on down through the centuries of time he kept crying to the Lord, "When shall the earth rest?" looking to the glorious Millennium. We, my dear brothers and sisters, are on the threshold of it, if we could only realize it. If we could only see the vision of it, and we can do if we will have the Holy Ghost.

We are frequently asked, my dear brothers and sisters, "How do we get the Spirit of God?" I think it is such a beautiful thing, this account of Brigham Young seeing Joseph Smith in the dream and talking to him. Shall we hear it again? I will read a part of it that is germane.

Truth 10:221

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:
"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go. It will yield the fruits of the kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits--it will whisper peace and joy to their souls;

President Johnson tells us time and time and time again, "The Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace, of joy, of not murmuring, not criticizing," and so this is what this does for us. Then we can be one, if all have the Spirit of God. We cannot if all do not.

...it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God.

And be prepared to redeem Zion.

Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."
Now how do we get the Spirit of God? In the first place it is conferred upon us as a gift by the laying on of hands of the Priesthood, and that is the source of our getting and keeping the Spirit of God.

Heber C. Kimball said on more than one occasion, "How are you going to get the Holy Spirit except you get it through us?" speaking of Brigham at the head, and the Apostles who were associated with him. Joseph Smith says the power of the Priesthood is the Holy Ghost, God's messenger to carry out His will throughout immensity. It issues forth from Himself, through His servants. And we have got to keep the channel clear by drawing near to the source of our blessings, the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost through the Priesthood. The word of the Lord is quite clear on how we can get the Spirit of God, and I would rather give the word of God in these things, then there is no disputation. In the first place we obtain it through obedience to the word and will of God, by living by every word of God that proceeds forth from Him. He says:

D. & C. 136

31. My people must be tried in all things, that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion; and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

There is another thing where we stumble. We cannot take correction and chastisement. When God chastises those He loves that is part of our growing up, our maturing, and of our learning the Spirit of God, the Spirit of revelation. We have to be chastised, and we learn obedience by the things we suffer; suffering chastisement.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God,

I take it we are ignorant when we are without the Spirit of God.

32. ...and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite, and to the condemnation of the ungodly.

So if we have lost the Spirit of God it is through disobedience. I just read from Section 136. Now let us learn about the Spirit of God from the scripture also. The Holy Ghost is intelligence and I think the Lord tells us here in quite plain terms how to get it and what causes us to lose it.
D.& C. 93

31. Behold, here is the agency of man, and here is the condemnation of man; because that which was from the beginning is plainly manifest unto them, and they receive not the light.

32. And every man whose spirit receiveth not the light is under condemnation.

When we have been baptized and had hands laid on us for the gift of the Holy Ghost, and we receive not light, we come under condemnation. And this is usually through treating lightly the things, the gifts and blessings that God has given us.

33. For man is spirit. The elements are eternal, Elements, speaking of this physical in us.

33. ...and spirit and element, inseparably connected, receive a fulness of joy;

And that in the resurrection.

35. The elements are the tabernacle of God; yea, man is the tabernacle of God, even temples; and whatsoever temple is defiled, God shall destroy that temple.

36. The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth.

The Holy Ghost.

37. Light and truth forsake that evil one.

38. Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning; and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again, in their infant state, innocent before God.

39. And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience,

That is how we lose it -- disobedience, opposite to the first law of heaven.

39. ...through disobedience from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

How many of us are governed by the traditions of our fathers rather than the revelations of God? They are entirely opposite. And so we lose the Spirit of God because we hark back to the "fleshpots of Egypt", our former existence, instead of coming into the light and staying there under the direction of the holy Priesthood. So we must learn to have the pure love of Christ, charity, in living with one another, putting the cloak of charity over the weaknesses and the foibles of human nature that we have as we labor on toward perfection. And Lorenzo Snow, I would like to read again, draws a picture before us for family life, which I think is germane [truly relevant; pertinent] to this, called "Family Oneness".

The men who are sitting here this day ought to be, when in the presence of their families, filled with the Holy Ghost, to administer the word of life to them as it is administered in this stand from sabbath to sabbath. When they kneel down in the presence of their wives and children they ought to be inspired by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, that the husband may be such a man as a good wife will honor, and that the gift and power of God may be upon them continually. They ought to be one in their families, that the Holy Ghost might descend upon them, and they ought to live so that the wife through prayer may become sanctified, that she may see the necessity of sanctifying herself in the presence of her husband, and in the presence of her children, that they may be one together, in order that the man and the wife may be pure element, Pure element is having the Holy Ghost, all in the family, light and truth.

Well, brothers and sisters, if we could just get the true meaning of charity; and I would suggest you read the latter part of the Book of Moroni, seventh chapter, continually, because it tells us what charity is and what it is not, and how we can obtain it, this pure love Christ, or the Holy Ghost. It offers us a place in the presence of God as we become like Him, and filled with the Holy Ghost, which I pray we may attain to, and that speedily in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

How to Get and Keep the Spirit of God
I desire the Spirit of God to direct my remarks. I am grateful to be here under the Presidency of President Johnson to enjoy this conference. President Johnson frequently holds up this Triple Combination of the scriptures that have been given us by Joseph Smith, the Prophet, and admonishes us to study them, to search them, for in them we have eternal life. I desire to read a few verses, which I feel would be very helpful to us; in fact, the last verses of the last Section of the Doctrine and Covenants.

Brigham Young had called upon the Lord for direction, how to lead the saints to the valleys of the mountains, which he had seen in vision, and Joseph directed him on his way. He had a dream in which Joseph came to him and told him the secret of what they needed to do: "Get and keep the Spirit of God, and it will lead you just right." In these words, the Lord instructed Brigham:

D. & C. 136

17. Go thy way and do as I have told you, and fear not thine enemies; for they shall not have power to stop my work.
18. Zion shall be redeemed in mine own due time.
19. And if any man shall seek to build up himself, and seeketh not my counsel, he shall have no power, and his folly shall be made manifest.
20. Seek ye; and keep all your pledges one with another; and covet not that which is thy brother's.
21. Keep yourselves from evil to take the name of the Lord in vain, for I am the Lord your God, even the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.
22. I am he who led the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; and my arm is stretched out in the last days, to save my people Israel.
23. Cease to contend one with another; cease to speak evil one of another.
24. Cease drunkenness; and let your words tend to edifying one another.
25. If thou borrowest of thy neighbor, thou shalt restore that which thou hast borrowed; and if thou canst not repay then go straightway and tell thy neighbor, lest he condemn thee.
26. If thou shalt find that which thy neighbor has lost, thou shalt make diligent search till thou shalt deliver it to him again.
27. Thou shalt be diligent in preserving what thou hast, that thou mayest be a wise steward; for it is the free gift of the Lord thy God, and thou art his steward.

29. If thou art sorrowful, call on the Lord thy God with supplication, that your souls may be joyful.

30. Fear not thine enemies, for they are in mine hands and I will do my pleasure with them.

Now, how to get the Spirit of God:

31. My people must be tried in all things,
President Johnson told us, John Y. Barlow told him the next great trial of this people would be wealth. We are in the midst of it by comparison with what it was then. The Lord had to tell His people then that they were not yet sufficiently humble. We have not been sufficiently humble in having this degree of wealth that we have been enjoying, and it has not been given to building up the Kingdom of God. So the Lord said we must be tried in all things.

31. ...that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion; and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite, and to the condemnation of the ungodly.
So we must repent, be humble and contrite, and walk in perfect obedience to the commands of God, whether by the voice of God, or His servant, it is the same. By the prayer of faith, after repentance, confessing our sins and restoring that to our brother whom we have offended, and renewing our covenants, we can get the Spirit of God again, if we have lost it. But how beautiful if we can always keep it, that it may be our constant companion, and it would solve all of our problems and we would be one. That is what Joseph told Brigham.

34. Thy brethren have rejected you and your testimony, even the nation that has driven you out;
35. And now cometh the day of their calamity, even the days of sorrow, like a woman that is taken in travail; and their sorrow shall be great unless they speedily repent, yea, very speedily.

36. For they killed the prophets, and them that were sent unto them; and they have shed innocent blood, which crieth from the ground against them.

37. Therefore, marvel not at these things, for ye are not yet pure; Zion is the pure in heart. Zion is within, brothers and sisters, and we cannot be prepared to redeem Zion unless we make a Zion here, within our hearts, here and now, and be prepared as a people.

37. ...ye can not yet bear my glory; but ye shall behold it if ye are faithful in keeping all my words that I have given you, from the days of Adam to Abraham, from Abraham to Moses, and from Moses to Jesus and his apostles, and from Jesus and his apostles to Joseph Smith, whom I did call upon by mine angels, my ministering servants, and by mine own voice out of the heavens, to bring forth my work;

38. Which foundation he did lay, and was faithful; and I took him to myself.

39. Many have marveled because of his death; but it was needful that he should seal his testimony with his blood, that he might be honored and the wicked might be condemned.

40. Have I not delivered you from your enemies, only in that I have left a witness of my name?

41. Now, therefore, hearken, O ye people of my church; and ye elders listen together; you have received my kingdom.

42. Be diligent in keeping all my commandments, lest judgments come upon you, and your faith fail you, and your enemies triumph over you. So no more at present. Amen and Amen.

God bless you, amen.

Michael Is Our Father and God; Testimony of the Godhead

It is good to be with you today, brothers and sisters, and I pray for the Spirit of God to help me to say what our Father wants me to say. I am grateful for the direction that we have in the work of God today, the Presidency and direction of President Johnson. I am grateful for the Priesthood, the power of the Priesthood that is with us and over us today, and for the glorious principles and laws of the holy Priesthood which govern us.

It is said that God is Priesthood with us. I feel like reading the first announcement of the glorious doctrine and the eternal truth that Michael, Adam, our Father and God, is that God with whom we have to do.

It is interesting to me. It always has been. In the times that my father had called my attention to this work, he having only recently been contacted, or met Joseph Musser on the streets of the city, being given a Truth Magazine, father introduced me to it the same way, with a copy of the Truth Magazine, which I am grateful for; and that my father and my mother chose the better part, and have been a part of this work and Priesthood, sometimes unknowingly. But he found his place and niche and tried with all his heart, might, mind and strength to fill it and to do that which he was sent forth to do. But I say, it is interesting that the doctrine of Celestial and Plural Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven was preceded by an announcement to the world -- particularly, of course, to the Church -- the doctrine that Adam, Michael, is our Father and God and the only one we have to do with; and His Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost. That first sermon was given in the April Conference of 1852, and I think covers the ground so well that we could stop there.

Let me say again, we cannot understand and know how to live the Family Order of Heaven, Celestial and Plural Marriage, unless we know the Father of it. It was through that law that He became God, who and what He is, and is presiding, as God, over all of His dominions containing His sons and daughters. I say we cannot understand Celestial Marriage unless we understand the Godhead. The means of abiding in Celestial Marriage is the other crowning law and principle of the holy Priesthood, the Holy United Order. All of these things together distinguish, above all, the work of God and His Priesthood here upon the earth. I cannot be grateful enough that I have a part in it, with you and with President Johnson, and that he has given me a family under that order.

Our God and Father in heaven, is a being of tabernacle, or, in other words, He has a body, with parts the same as you and I have; and is capable of showing forth His works to organized beings, as, for instance, in the world in which we live, it is the result of the knowledge and infinite wisdom that dwell in His organized body. His son Jesus Christ has become a personage of tabernacle, and has a body like his father.

Now note this beautiful truth:
The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of the Lord, and issues forth from Himself, and may properly be called God's minister to execute His will in immensity; being called to govern by His influence and power; but He is not a person of tabernacle as we are, and as our Father in Heaven and Jesus Christ are. The question has been, and is often, asked, who it was that begat the Son of the Virgin Mary.

This is what sends the world wild.
The infidel world have concluded that if what the Apostles wrote about his father and mother be true, and the present marriage discipline acknowledged by Christendom be correct, then Christians must believe that God is the father of an illegitimate son, in the person of Jesus Christ! The infidel fraternity teach that to their disciples. I will tell you how it is. Our Father in Heaven begat all the spirits that ever were, or ever will be, upon this earth; and they were born spirits in the eternal world. Then the Lord by His power and wisdom organized the mortal tabernacle of man. We were made first spiritual, and afterwards temporal.

And the process is after that, spiritual again, in our resurrected and third estate.

Now hear it, O inhabitants of the earth, Jew and Gentile, Saint and sinner! That seems to be announced to the world, doesn't it?

When our father Adam came into the garden of Eden, he came into it with a celestial body, and brought Eve, one of his wives, with him. We have additional light on that. He had at least three with him. He helped to make and organize this world.

By the way, "Eve" means "many". He is MICHAEL, the Archangel, the ANCIENT OF DAYS! about whom holy men have written and spoken -- HE is our FATHER and our GOD, and the only God with whom WE have to do.

He is that close to us, brothers and sisters, our God, about whom we must learn in order to become like Him, for that is our destiny if we will obey Him in all things. How much more wonderful it is, brothers and sisters, how much easier it is, if you please, to put in that way, to love our God, being that close to us. And it is the first law to love Him with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

Every man upon the earth, professing Christians or non-professing, must hear it, and will know it sooner or later. They came here, organized the raw material, and arranged in their order the herbs of the field, the trees, the apple, the peach, the plum, the pear, and every other fruit that is desirable and good for man; the seed was brought from another sphere, and planted in this earth.

Isn't that simple and beautiful? He came from another orb.

The thistle, the thorn, the brier, and the obnoxious weed did not appear until after the earth was cursed. When Adam and Eve had eaten of the forbidden fruit, their bodies became mortal from its effects, and therefore their offspring were mortal.

There is more on that later.

When the Virgin Mary conceived the child Jesus, the Father had begotten him in his own likeness.

Father Adam.

He was not begotten by the Holy Ghost. And who is the Father? He is the first of the human family; and when he took a tabernacle, it was begotten by his Father in heaven, after the same manner as the tabernacles of Cain, Abel, and the rest of the sons and daughters of Adam and Eve; from the fruits of the earth, the first earthly tabernacles were originated by the Father, and so on in succession. I could tell you much more about this; but were I to tell you the whole truth, blasphemy would be nothing to it, in the estimation of the superstitious and over-righteous of mankind. However, I have told you the truth as far as I have gone. I have heard men preach upon the divinity of Christ, and exhaust all the wisdom they possessed. All Scripturalists, and approved theologians who were considered exemplary for piety and education, have undertaken to expound on this subject, in every age of the Christian era; and after they have done all, they are obliged to conclude by exclaiming "great is the mystery of godliness," and tell nothing.

It is true that the earth was organized by three distinct characters, namely, Eloheim, Yahovah, and Michael, these three forming a quorum, as in all heavenly bodies, and in organizing element, perfectly represented in the Deity, as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The three grand offices of the Godhead.

Again, they will try to tell how the divinity of Jesus is joined to his humanity, and exhaust all their mental faculties, and wind up with this profound language, as describing the soul of man, "it is an immaterial substance!" What a learned idea! Jesus, our elder brother, was begotten in the flesh by the same character that was in the garden of Eden, and who is our Father in Heaven.

Nothing can be plainer than that, can it?

Now, let all who may hear these doctrines, pause before they make light of them, or treat them with indifference, for they will prove their salvation or damnation.

I have given you a few leading items upon this subject, but a great deal more remains to be told. Now, remember from this time forth, and for ever, that Jesus Christ was not begotten by the Holy Ghost.

Mary, His mother, was overshadowed by the Holy Ghost when Jesus was begotten. No one can stand in the presence of God without being overshadowed by the Holy Ghost. Joseph Smith was, that fourteen-year-old boy, as he stood in the presence of the Father and the Son. He had a Priesthood brought from the other side which had to be confirmed, and thus he was able to stand in the presence of God, overshadowed by the Holy Ghost, which overcame the power of the destroyer, of Lucifer, which tried to destroy him.

Treasure up these things in your hearts. In the Bible, you have read the things I have told you to-night; but you have not known what you did read. I have told you no more than you are conversant with; but what do the people in Christendom, with the Bible in their hands, know about this subject? Comparatively nothing.

And so we have this glorious knowledge, brothers and sisters, testified of by Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, John Taylor, and all of our Priesthood fathers who have had the courage to declare these things, and who have been given that great mission of keeping alive this knowledge and the practice of it, Celestial Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven, until Christ comes; in the meantime, being called upon to prepare a people to redeem Zion. None can do so without a knowledge of God and walking in obedience to Him. Joseph Smith made this statement:

Everlasting covenant was made between three personages before the organization of this earth, and relates to their dispensation of things to men on the earth; these personages, according to Abraham's record, are called God the first, the Creator;
That cannot be anyone but Adam, Michael.

...God the second, the Redeemer;
Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

...and God the third, the witness or Testator.
The Holy Ghost is the Witness and Testator. Joseph was reserved to come in this last dispensation, which gathers together all of the others in one under Jesus Christ, as a witness of the Father and of the Son. Joseph said further:

TPJS Page 372

The heads of the Gods appointed one God for us; and when you take [that] view of the subject, its sets one free to see all the beauty, holiness and perfection of the Gods.

Heber C. Kimball:

JD 4:1 Heber C. Kimball  June 29, 1856  SLC
I have learned by experience that there is but one God that pertains to this people, and He is the God that pertains to this earth -- the first man. That first man sent his own Son to redeem the world, to redeem his brethren;

...Eloheim is from the word Eloi, God, in the singular number; and by adding the word heim, it renders it Gods.
I once asked a learned Jew, "If the Hebrew language compels us to render all words ending in heim in the plural, why not render the first Eloheim plural?" He replied, "That is the rule with few exceptions; but in this case it would ruin the Bible." He acknowledged I was right.
Though we have it in history that our father Adam was made of the dust of this earth, and that he knew nothing about his God previous to being made here, yet it is not so; and when we learn the truth we shall see and understand that he helped to make this world, and was the chief manager in that operation.

The head God said to Jehovah, "Jehovah, take Michael down and create an earth." Jehovah Christ is a creative office. And so Jehovah assisted Michael and had Him the chief manager in that operation of creating this earth, where He would place His own spirit children, that they might come up to be like Himself.

He was the person who brought the animals and the seeds from other planets to this world, and brought a wife with him and stayed here. You may read and believe what you please as to what is found written in the Bible. Adam was made from the dust of an earth, but not from the dust of this earth. He was made as you and I are made, and no person was ever made upon any other principle.

Do you not suppose that he was acquainted with his associates, who came and helped to make this earth? Yes, they were just as familiar with each other as we are with our children and parents.

These are additional items Brigham Young said from time to time. The leaders of the Church now say that he was misquoted on that first one. But there is an abundance of evidence that he continued in the same truth as long as he lived.

My brother said that God is as we are. He did not mean those words to be literally understood. He meant simply, that in our organization we have all the properties in embryo in our bodies that our Father has in his, and that literally, morally, socially, by the spirit and by the flesh we are his children. Do you think that God, who holds the eternities in his hands and can do all things at his pleasure, is not capable of sending forth his own children, and forming this flesh for his own offspring? Where is the mystery in this? We say that Father Adam came here and helped to make the earth. Who is he? He is Michael, a great Prince, and it was said to him by Elohim, "Go ye and make an earth." What is the great mystery about it? He came and formed the earth.  Adam came here and got it up in a shape that would suit him to commence business. What is the great mystery about it? None, that I have seen. The mystery in this, as with miracles, or anything else, is only to those who are ignorant. Father Adam came here, and then they brought his wife. "Well," says one, "Why was Adam called Adam"? He was the first man on the earth, and its framer and maker.

"Adam" means "man". And so Jesus is called the Son of Man.

He, with the help of his brethren, brought it into existence. Then he said, "I want my children who are in the spirit world to come and live here. I once dwelt upon an earth something like this, in a mortal state. I was faithful, I received my crown and exaltation. I have the privilege of extending my work, and to its increase there will be no end.

He is saying the same things, that it is possible to do for those who become sons of God. I want my children that were born to me in the spirit world to come here and take tabernacles of flesh that their spirits may have a house, a tabernacle or a dwelling place as mine has," and where is the mystery?

And Father, in coming down from an exalted, glorified, immortal, resurrected state, a God, and became mortal. Don't you suppose He suffered in going through that process? He had to commit a sin of the existence of which He was then living in order to come down and provide bodies for us, His children. God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son that we might live again with Father and with Jesus and with Joseph, if you please.

After men have got their exaltations and their crowns -- have become Gods, even the sons of God -- are made Kings of kings and Lords of lords, they have the power then of propagating their species in spirit; Like our Father did.

...and that is the first of their operations with regard to organizing a world. Power is then given to them to organize the elements, and then commence the organization of tabernacles. How can they do it? Have they to go to that earth? Yes, an Adam will have to go there, and he cannot do without Eve;
Which is many.

...he must have Eve to commence the work of generation, and they will go into the garden, and continue to eat and drink of the fruits of the corporeal world, until this grosser matter is diffused sufficiently through their celestial bodies to enable them, according to the established laws, to produce mortal tabernacles for their spiritual children.

This is a key for you. The faithful will become Gods, even the sons of God;

Parley P. Pratt described this process very beautifully.

Parley P. Pratt  Key to Theology, Page 49

A royal planter now descends from yonder world of older date, and bearing in his hand the choice seeds of the older Paradise, he plants them in the virgin soil of our new born earth. They grow and flourish there, and, bearing seed, replant themselves, and thus clothe the naked earth with scenes of beauty and the air with fragrant incense. Ripening fruits and herbs at length abound. When lo! from yonder world is transferred every species of animal life. Male and female, they come, with blessings on their heads, and a voice is heard again, "Be fruitful and multiply."

Earth, its mineral, vegetable and animal wealth, its Paradise prepared, down comes from yonder world on high a son of God, with his beloved spouse. And thus a colony from heaven, it may be from the sun, is transplanted on our soil.

Joseph Smith:
TPJS Page 345

God himself was once as we are now, and is an exalted man, and sits enthroned in yonder heavens! That is the great secret. If the veil were rent today, and the great God who holds this world in its orbit, and who upholds all worlds and all things by his power, was to make himself visible, -- I say, if you were to see him today, you would see him like a man in form -- like yourselves in all the person, image, and very form as a man; for Adam was created in the very fashion, image and likeness of God, and received instruction from, and walked, talked and conversed with him, as one man talks and communes with another.

Then the God of Adam was Jehovah, who came with him to build this earth.

It is the first principle of the Gospel to know for a certainty the Character of God, and to know that we may converse with him as one man converses with another, and that he was once a man like us; yea, that God himself, the Father of us all, dwelt on an earth, the same as Jesus Christ himself did; and I will show it from the Bible.

Brigham Young:

JD 4:54  Brigham Young  September 21, 1856  SLC

When you are prepared to see our Father, you will see a being with whom you have long been acquainted, and He will receive you into His arms, and you will be ready to fall into His embrace and kiss Him.

Joseph Smith said:

Would to God, brethren, I could tell you who I am!  Would to God I could tell you what I know!  But you would call it blasphemy, and there are men upon this stand who would want to take my life.  If the Church knew all the commandments, one half they would reject through prejudice and ignorance.

And I like this to close with from Brigham Young:

JD 4:271  Brigham Young  March 8, 1857  SLC

If you find out who Joseph was, you will know as much about God as you need to at the present;  Jesus was a God to the people when he was upon the earth, was so before He came to this earth, and is yet.  Moses was a God to the Children of Israel, and in this manner you may go right back to Father Adam.  ***

If I can pass Brother Joseph, I shall stand a good chance for passing Peter, Jesus, the Prophets, Moses, Abraham, and all back to Father
Adam, and be pretty sure of receiving his approbation.

There is the story of God, the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and it is being administered by a servant of God, a keyholder who is as God over us.  Thank God for these glorious blessings and this true knowledge of God which has been given to us, and a knowledge of all of the highest laws of the holy Priesthood -- Celestial Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven, and the Holy United Order -- without which laws we cannot redeem Zion.  God help us to redeem this Zion here, make a Zion within ourselves and of the places where we are called to abide; and may we prepare to be that people that will redeem Zion, the center place, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I desire the Spirit of God shall be with me as I feel impressed to talk more about our Father and our God. I am grateful to be here with you in association with my brethren, and I desire the Spirit of God as I read the words of Joseph. We learn from the teachings of Joseph and Brigham Young, particularly, that Michael (Adam) is our Father and our God; and I have always been so grateful to have that identity made known to me by my father in my youth. It has been the grand foundation for an understanding of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and of the Priesthood of God. We learn who our Father and God is, and we have this wonderful teaching in the discourse of the Prophet Joseph Smith, April 6, 1844, at the funeral services of King Follett. We find out from this how it was before we came here, and how it will be when we go back into His presence. These are marvelous teachings, and I pray the Spirit of God to direct me as I read these grand truths.

In the first place, I wish to go back to the beginning -- to the morn of creation. There is the starting point for us to look to, in order to understand and be fully acquainted with the mind, purposes and decrees of the Great Elohim, who sits in yonder heavens as he did at the creation of this world. It is necessary for us to have an understanding of God himself in the beginning. If we start right, it is easy to go right all the time; but if we start wrong, we may go wrong, and it be a hard matter to get right.

There are but a very few beings in the world who understand rightly the character of God. The great majority of mankind do not comprehend anything, either that which is past, or that which is to come, as it respects their relationship to God. They do not know, neither do they understand the nature of that relationship; and consequently they know but little above the brute beast, or more than to eat, drink and sleep. This is all man knows about God or his existence, unless it is given by the inspiration of the Almighty.

If a man learns nothing more than to eat, drink and sleep, and does not comprehend any of the designs of God, the beast comprehends the same things. It eats, drinks, sleeps, and knows nothing more about God; yet it knows as much as we, unless we are able to comprehend by the inspiration of Almighty God. If men do not comprehend the character of God, they do not comprehend themselves.

Let me repeat that.

If men do not comprehend the character of God, they do not comprehend themselves.

What Kind of Being Is God?
I want to go back to the beginning, and so lift your minds into a more lofty sphere and a more exalted understanding than what the human mind generally aspires to.

I want to ask this congregation, every man, woman and child, to answer the question in their own heart, what kind of a being God is? Ask yourselves; turn your thoughts into your hearts, and say if any of you have seen, heard, or communed with him. This is a question that may occupy your attention for a long time. I again repeat the question -- What kind of a being is God? Does any man or woman know? Have any of you seen him, heard him, or communed with him? Here is the question that will, peradventure, from this time henceforth occupy your attention. The Scriptures inform us that "This is life eternal that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent."

I am going to take pertinent excerpts, I do not want to read the whole thing.

God an Exalted Man
I will go back to the beginning before the world was, to show what kind of being God is. What sort of a being was God in the beginning? Open your ears and hear, all ye ends of the earth, for I am going to prove it to you by the Bible, and to tell you the designs of God in relation to the human race, and why He interferes with the affairs of man.

God himself was once as we are now, and is an exalted man, and sits enthroned in yonder heavens! That is the great secret. If the veil were rent today, and the great God who holds this world in its orbit, and who upholds all worlds and all things by his power, was to make himself visible, -- I say, if you were to see him today, you would see him like a man in form -- like yourselves in all the person, image, and very form as a man; for Adam was created in the very fashion, image and likeness of God, and received instruction from, and walked, talked and conversed with him, as one man talks and communes with another.

It is the first principle of the Gospel to know for a certainty the Character of God, and to know that we may converse with him as one man converses with another, and that he was once a man like us; yea, that God himself, the Father of us all, dwelt on an earth, the same as Jesus Christ himself did; and I will show it from the Bible.

God Himself, the Father, Adam or Michael.

Power of the Father and the Son

I wish I was in a suitable place to tell it, and that I had the trump of an archangel, so that I could tell the story in such a manner that persecution would cease for ever.

The Righteous to Dwell in Everlasting Burnings

These are the first principles of consolation. How consoling to the mourners when they are called to part with a husband, wife, father, mother, child, or dear relative, to know that, although the earthly tabernacle is laid down and dissolved, they shall rise again to dwell in everlasting burnings in immortal glory, not to sorrow, suffer, or die any more; but they shall be heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

What is it? To inherit the same power, the same glory and the same exaltation, until you arrive at the station of a God, and ascend the throne of eternal power, the same as those who have gone before. What did Jesus do? Why; I do the things I saw my Father do when worlds come rolling into existence. My Father worked out his kingdom with fear and trembling, and I must do the same; and when I get my kingdom, I shall present it to my Father, so that he may obtain kingdom upon kingdom, and it will exalt him in glory. He will then take a higher exaltation, and I will take his place, and thereby become exalted myself. So that Jesus treads in the tracks of his Father, and inherits what God did before; and God is thus glorified and exalted in the salvation and exaltation of all his children. It is plain beyond disputation, and you thus learn some of the first principles of the Gospel, about which so much hath been said.

When you climb up a ladder, you must begin at the bottom, and ascend step by step, until you arrive at the top; and so it is with the principles of the Gospel -- you must begin with the first, and go on until you learn all the principles of exaltation. But it will be a great while after you have passed through the veil before you will have learned them. It is not all to be comprehended in this world; it will be a great work to learn our salvation and exaltation even beyond the grave.

A Council of the Gods

In the beginning, the head of the Gods called a council of the Gods; and they came together and concocted a plan to create the world and people it. When we begin to learn this way, we begin to learn the only true God, and what kind of a being we have got to worship. Having a knowledge of God, we begin to know how to approach him, and how to ask so as to receive an answer. When we understand the character of God, and know how to come to him, he begins to unfold the heavens to us, and to tell us all about it. When we are ready to come to him, he is ready to come to us.

Now, I ask all who hear me, why the learned men who are preaching salvation, say that God created the heavens and the earth out of nothing? The reason is, that they are unlearned in the things of God, and have not the gift of the Holy Ghost; they account it blasphemy in any one to contradict their idea. If you tell them that God made the world out of something, they will call you a fool. But I am learned, and know more than all the world put together.

Said Joseph.

The Holy Ghost does, anyhow, and He is within me, and comprehends more than all the world: and I will associate myself with Him.

So we have these wonderful truths given us in this great sermon, and I pray that we may draw nearer to God, learn how we may converse with Him as one man does with another, through faith ripening into knowledge, through obedience. God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God with us, and we must have the Holy Spirit of God, the mind of the Father, which is the power of the Priesthood to guide us and direct us and to bring us back into His presence. And we must be obedient in all things. I appreciate the testimony that I have of God, the Father, His Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost, who is Joseph

God made Aaron to be the mouthpiece for the children of Israel, and He will make me be god to you in His stead, and the Elders to be mouth for me; and if you don't like it, you must lump it.

Regarding his great calling and position, I have always thrilled at these words in which he gave as an address on the resurrection of the dead and the fullness of the ordinances necessary.

TPJS Page 364

The Savior has the words of eternal life. Nothing else can profit us. There is no salvation in believing an evil report against our neighbor. I advise all to go on to perfection, and search deeper and deeper into the mysteries of Godliness. A man can do nothing for himself unless God direct him in the right way; and the Priesthood is for that purpose.

The last time I spoke on this stand it was on the resurrection of the dead, when I promised to continue my remarks upon that subject. I still feel a desire to say something on this subject. Let us this very day begin anew, and now say, with all our hearts, we will forsake our sins and be righteous. I shall read the 24th chapter of Matthew, and give it a literal rendering and reading; and when it is rightly understood, it will be edifying.

I thought the very oddity of its rendering would be edifying anyhow -- "And it will be preached, the Gospel of the kingdom, in the whole world, to a witness over all people: and then will the end come."

All the testimony is that the Lord in the last days would commit the keys of the Priesthood to a witness over all people.

Has the Gospel of the kingdom commenced in the last days? And will God take it from the man until He takes him Himself? I have read it precisely as the words flowed from the lips of Jesus Christ. John the Revelator saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth.

The scripture is ready to be fulfilled when great wars, famines, pestilence, great distress, judgments, &c., are ready to be poured out on the inhabitants of the earth. John saw the angel having the holy Priesthood, who should preach the everlasting Gospel to all nations. God had an angel -- a special messenger -- ordained and prepared for that purpose in the last days. Woe, woe be to that man or set of men who lift up their hands against God and His witness in these last days: for they shall deceive almost the very chosen ones!

Joseph Smith, before he was martyred, made the statement to his brethren close to him, "I am now going to take my place among the Gods in the heavens." He said, "Would to God I could tell you what I know; would to God I could tell you who I am." We know who he is, and he is still directing the affairs of this great last dispensation from the other side, through our Priesthood fathers.

I pray God to bless us to have the faith to bring Joseph, the One Mighty and Strong, to set in order the House of God, and prepare the way for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ in glory; and before that, the redemption of Zion. God help us to be faithful and true, to be humble and to follow in the footsteps of the Priesthood, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

New Revelation Only Comes Through the Keyholder;
Follow the Prophet Humbly, Without Murmuring;
President Johnson's Example

I am very grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here today on this occasion where so many of our saints are gathered together. Shall we say "saints" or "would-be saints"? I am grateful for the leadership and Presidency of Leroy S. Johnson and for my association with my other brethren in his Council. And I am grateful, above all things, for the Lord Jesus Christ, and for Father Michael, and for Joseph standing in the office of the Holy Ghost, who constitute our Godhead. And I desire above all things at this time to be guided by the Spirit of God, that His word and will may be made manifest through His humble instrument. Now is the time to let the Lord know whom we will serve. I have always loved that expression that Joshua gave when he declared before the Lord as he led Israel in occupying the promised land, and going forward under the direction which was given him by Moses: "Let it be known whom ye will serve this day. As for me and my house, we will serve God and keep His commandments."

We are being led, I know, by the revelations of God through His servant Leroy S. Johnson, and I desire to follow his admonition this morning, to read the word and will of God as contained in the Doctrine and Covenants, the Book of Mormon and the Pearl of Great Price; which Joseph Smith brought forth under the gift and power of God, and the power of his Priesthood.

Section 28 of the Doctrine and Covenants was given at a time when others were obtaining a certain stone and professing to receive revelations; and the Lord gave this revelation to Joseph, that the saints might know in this early stage of their work in the Kingdom of God who receives revelations.

D.& C. 28

1. Behold, I say unto thee, Oliver, that it shall be given unto thee that thou shalt be heard by the church in all things whatsoever thou shalt teach them by the Comforter,

And he should teach by the Comforter, by the Holy Ghost. It seems about this same time Oliver was going forth and speaking pretty much on his own authority, rather than by the direction of Joseph.

1. ...concerning the revelations and commandments which I have given.

2. But, behold, verily, verily, I say unto thee, no one shall be appointed to receive commandments and revelations in this church excepting my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., for he receiveth them even as Moses.

3. And thou shalt be obedient unto the things which I shall give unto him, even as Aaron, to declare faithfully the commandments and the revelations, with power and authority unto the church.

4. And if thou art led at any time by the Comforter to speak or teach, or at all times by the way of commandment unto the church, thou mayest do it.

5. But thou shalt not write by way of commandment, but by wisdom;

6. And thou shalt not command him who is at thy head, and at the head of the church;

7. For I have given him the keys of the mysteries, and the revelations which are sealed, until I shall appoint unto them another in his stead.

8. And now, behold, I say unto you that you shall go unto the Lamanites and preach my gospel unto them; and inasmuch as they receive thy teachings thou shalt cause my church to be established among them; and thou shalt have revelations, but write them not by way of commandment. He should have revelations to accomplish his assigned and directed mission.

9. And now, behold, I say unto you that it is not revealed, and no man knoweth where the city Zion shall be built, but it shall be given hereafter. Behold, I say unto you that it shall be on the borders by the Lamanites.

10. Thou shalt not leave this place until after the conference; and my servant Joseph shall be appointed to preside over the conference by the voice of it, and what he saith to thee thou shalt tell.

11. And again, thou shalt take thy brother, Hiram Page, between him and thee alone, and tell him that those things which he hath written from that stone are not of me and that Satan deceiveth him;

12. For, behold, these things have not been appointed unto him, neither shall anything be appointed unto any of this church contrary to the church covenants.

13. For all things must be done in order, and by common consent in the church, by the prayer of faith.

14. And thou shalt assist to settle all these things, according to the covenants of the church, before thou shalt take thy journey among the Lamanites.

15. And it shall be given thee from the time thou shalt go, until the time thou shalt return, what thou shalt do.

16. And thou must open thy mouth at all times, declaring my gospel with the sound of rejoicing. Amen.

And now I turn you to Section 132. Speaking of the conditions of the law of Celestial Marriage.

D.& C. 132

7. All covenants, contracts, bonds, obligations, oaths, vows, performances, connections, associations, or expectations, that are not made and entered into and sealed by the Holy Spirit of promise, of him who is anointed, both as well for time and for all eternity, and that too most holy, by revelation and commandment through the medium of mine anointed, whom I have appointed on the earth to hold this power (and I have appointed unto my servant Joseph to hold this power in the last days, and there is never but one on the earth at a time on whom this power and the keys of this priesthood are conferred), are of no efficacy, virtue, or force in and after the resurrection from the dead; for all contracts that are not made unto this end have an end when men are dead.

45. For I have conferred upon you the keys and power of the priesthood, Speaking to Joseph.
45. ...wherein I restore all things, and make known unto you all things in due time.

46. And verily, verily, I say unto you, that whatsoever you seal on earth shall be sealed in heaven; and whatsoever you bind on earth, in my name and by my word, saith the Lord, it shall be eternally bound in the heavens; and whosesoever sins you remit on earth shall be remitted eternally in the heavens; and whosesoever sins you retain on earth shall be retained in heaven.
47. And again, verily I say, whomsoever you bless I will bless, and whomsoever you curse I will curse, saith the Lord; for I, the Lord, am thy God.
48. And again, verily I say unto you, my servant Joseph, that whatsoever you give on earth, and to whomsoever you give any one on earth, by my word and according to my law, it shall be visited with blessings and not cursings, and with my power, saith the Lord, and shall be without condemnation on earth and in heaven.
49. For I am the Lord thy God, and will be with thee even unto the end of the world, and through all eternity; for verily I seal upon you your exaltation, and prepare a throne for you in the kingdom of my Father, with Abraham your father.
50. Behold, I have seen your sacrifices, and will forgive all your sins; I have seen your sacrifices in obedience to that which I have told you. Go, therefore, and I make a way for your escape, as I accepted the offering of Abraham of his son Isaac.
57. And again, I say, let not my servant Joseph put his property out of his hands, lest an enemy come and destroy him; for Satan seeketh to destroy; President Johnson in a most recent situation did just that, fearing no man, and leaving it in the hands of God. I do not think I need to go into anymore detail.
58. Now, as touching the law of the priesthood, there are many things pertaining thereunto.

59. Verily, if a man be called of my Father, as was Aaron, by mine own voice, and by the voice of him that sent me, and I have endowed him with the keys of the power of this priesthood, if he do anything in my name, and according to my law and by my word, he will not commit sin, and I will justify him.

60. Let no one, therefore, set on my servant Joseph; for I will justify him; for he shall do the sacrifice which I require at his hands for his transgressions, saith the Lord your God.

So, brothers and sisters, that tells me -- Hands off! of the servant of God who holds the keys and is the mouthpiece of God. He belongs to God and He will deal with him, not you or I. Now I turn to Section 136.

D.& C. 136

31. My people must be tried in all things,
And I think we are now being tried.

31. ...that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion; and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite,
We cannot obtain and keep the Spirit of God except we be humble and contrite.

33. ...and to the condemnation of the ungodly.

34. Thy brethren have rejected you and your testimony, even the nation that has driven you out;
This was to Brigham Young, who succeeded in the keys and power of the holy Priesthood, the mouthpiece and the Prophet and revelator of God to the people.

35. And now cometh the day of their calamity, even the days of sorrow, like a woman that is taken in travail; and their sorrow shall be great unless they speedily repent, yea, very speedily.
And I think this injunction is upon us in our day and time. He is speaking now of those who killed the Prophets:

36. For they killed the prophets, and them that were sent unto them; and they have shed innocent blood, which crieth from the ground against them.

37. Therefore, marvel not at these things, for ye are not yet pure; ye can not yet bear my glory; but ye shall behold it if ye are faithful in keeping all my words that I have given you, from the days of Adam to Abraham, from Abraham to Moses, and from Moses to Jesus and his apostles, and from Jesus and his apostles to Joseph Smith, whom I did call upon by mine angels, my ministering servants, and by mine own voice out of the heavens, to bring forth my work;

38. Which foundation he did lay, and was faithful; and I took him to myself.

39. Many have marveled because of his death; but it was needful that he should seal his testimony with his blood, that he might be honored and the wicked might be condemned.

40. Have I not delivered you from your enemies, only in that I have left a witness of my name?

41. Now, therefore, hearken, O ye people of my church; and ye elders listen together; you have received my kingdom.

42. Be diligent in keeping all my commandments, lest judgments come upon you, and your faith fail you, and your enemies triumph over you. So no more at present. Amen and Amen.

I feel constrained by the Spirit to read these words of Joseph, page 155 of the Teachings, his address to the Twelve in 1839:

Ever keep in exercise the principle of mercy, and be ready to forgive our brother on the first intimations of repentance, and asking forgiveness; and should we even forgive our brother, or even our enemy, before he repent or ask forgiveness, our heavenly Father would be equally as merciful unto us.

Isn't that a beautiful situation? We must forgive one another before God will forgive us; and if we forgive our brother before they ask forgiveness, how much more beautiful.
Again, let the Twelve and all Saints be willing to confess all their sins, and not keep back a part; and let the Twelve be humble, and not be exalted, and beware of pride, and not seek to excel one above another, but act for each other’s good, and pray for one another, and honor our brother or make honorable mention of his name, and not backbite and devour our brother. Why will not man learn wisdom by precept at this late age of the world, when we have such a cloud of witnesses and examples before us, and not be obliged to learn by sad experience everything we know. Must the new ones that are chosen to fill the places of those that are fallen, of the quorum of the Twelve, begin to exalt themselves, until they exalt themselves so high that they will soon tumble over and have a great fall, and go wallowing through the mud and mire and darkness, Judas-like, to the buffetings of Satan, as several of the quorum have done, or will they learn wisdom and be wise? O God! give them wisdom, and keep them humble, I pray.

When the Twelve or any other witnesses stand before the congregations of the earth, and they preach in the power and demonstration of the Spirit of God, and the people are astonished and confounded at the doctrine, and say, "That man has preached a powerful discourse, a great sermon," then let that man or those men take care that they do not ascribe the glory unto themselves, but be careful that they are humble, and ascribe the praise and glory to God and the Lamb; for it is by the power of the Holy Priesthood and the Holy Ghost that they have power thus to speak. What art thou, O man, but dust? And from whom receivest thou thy power and blessings, but from God?

Then, O ye Twelve! notice this Key, and be wise for Christ’s sake, and your own soul’s sake. Ye are not sent out to be taught, but to teach. Let every word be seasoned with grace. Be vigilant; be sober. It is a day of warning, and not of many words. Act honestly before God and man. Beware of Gentile sophistry; such as bowing and scraping unto men in whom you have no confidence. Be honest, open, and frank in all your intercourse with mankind.

O ye Twelve! and all Saints! profit by this important Key -- that in all your trials, troubles, temptations, afflictions, bonds, imprisonments and death, see to it, that you do not betray heaven; that you do not betray Jesus Christ; that you do not betray the brethren; that you do not betray the revelations of God, whether in Bible, Book of Mormon, or Doctrine and Covenants, or any other that ever was or ever will be given and revealed unto man in this world or that which is to come. Yea, in all your kicking and flounderings, see to it that you do not this thing, lest innocent blood be found upon your skirts, and you go down to hell. All other sins are not to be compared to sinning against the Holy Ghost, and proving a traitor to the brethren.

I like to feel, as I have expressed on many other occasions, that we are, as a people, as President Johnson has told us many, many times, preparing a people to redeem Zion. We have come on a long road and we have a much longer and harder road to follow in accomplishing this great design of our Father in heaven. As an example, and I am sure that is what God intended it to be -- the calling, through Joseph, for five hundred men to go and redeem Zion in 1834, February; and He would have been satisfied with one hundred. A set time had been given as September 1836, for the redemption of Zion, had they been prepared. But on this special occasion when they were sent forth to succor and help their brothers and sisters in Missouri, God called upon these, who turned out to be a little over two hundred, to go under Joseph -- under Joseph without murmuring, without complaining, as he was led by God to accomplish that mission -- and without murmuring.

How do we go, brothers and sisters? First, in families, under our head. Certainly we must have the Spirit of revelation, the Holy Ghost, as our constant guide and companion, and the Spirit of revelation. Had they gone under Joseph, they could have accomplished their mission according to the set time. But it failed because some, even close to Joseph, murmured and contended and complained, and were guilty again of those things which God said were the cause of their failure to redeem Zion in 1831 through 1833, because of jarrings and contentions, and strifes, and envyings, and for lustful and covetous desires. By these things they polluted their inheritances, brothers and sisters, these simple things which we seem to pass over as being justifiable as we go through life in our relations one with another, in seeking under the Spirit of the Holy United Order, the interest of our neighbor and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God.

Now we have a marvelous example before us, brothers and sisters, and I often think of how President Johnson, in following his head, was sent to Mexico to redeem a situation there, and by the gift and power of God he accomplished it through much sacrifice, in paying the debt that was incurred in the affairs that had taken place prior to that time. He went and did as he was sent. And again, after the terrible raid on this community in 1953, he went down and redeemed his people again, and brought them back home. His love for this people -- and the work of the holy Priesthood, the work of Jesus Christ, of Joseph Smith, the head of this dispensation, who is laboring on the other side continually for our good -- his love for this work knows no bounds. And I call upon you and all of us to show our love for him for his many sacrifices, and his labors, and now calling upon us to become a prepared people to redeem Zion.

I often think of the example of Heber C. Kimball and how he responded to Joseph, who called upon him to give his wife Vilate to Joseph; and he came and made the offering, a sacrifice like unto that of Abraham offering his son Isaac. In those cold, dark, and dreary days, in eastern Missouri, in Far West, when Heber C. Kimball was grieving and worrying about his family who were in captivity, he called upon the Lord for comfort and strength, and the Lord told him by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost: "My son Heber, hold on thy way, thou hast been faithful in following My words and the words of My servant Joseph," and then pronounced glorious blessings upon him in that time of suffering. Heber was the same with his head, Brigham Young, as you read his sermons in the Journals of Discourses.

In that same spirit, I desire to follow and sustain my head in Priesthood, Leroy S. Johnson, and pray God to help me to sustain him, and uphold him in all things by the revelations of Jesus Christ. And I call upon this people to rally around our head and let us go forward as though we had been called to go and redeem Zion, for that is the kind of preparation we are being called upon to make. It may be a long-term thing; but I feel as he does, that the time is growing very, very short.

So, let there be a reformation. I pray God that we may, through faith, and love, in honoring and sustaining the holy Priesthood and our head, go forward to accomplish the work, and will, and the purposes of God in becoming a prepared people, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Labor Daily as a Zion's Camp, Without Murmuring;
In Humility There Is Strength; Charity;
The Spirit of God Comes to Us Through the Head

I feel weak and unable to fulfill this assignment without the help of the Lord and His Spirit, particularly in speaking upon the subject which has been on my mind as I have sat here and contemplated this meeting. We have heard some well-deserved chastisements here today. The only thing that is not done is to carry them out and to learn by these chastisements, for whom the Lord loveth He chastiseth. President Johnson in particular, and all of the brethren, love this people and desire their salvation and exaltation and a preparation for the redemption of Zion.

There is only one answer to all of these things, brothers and sisters, as we have been told so many times. We must have the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost, as our constant companion. We will never be pure enough and perfect enough to be used by the Lord to redeem Zion until we have that. That is the thing that will make us one under President Johnson, who is our head and leader. I like to think, brothers and sisters, continually, that we should be walking, as it were, in the Camp of Zion on the way to redeem Zion. The Lord required that camp, and He still requires His people, to go without murmuring, without complaining, without contending, without jarrings and strifes and covetous and selfish desires, for these were the things by which His people polluted their inheritances.

Brother Johnson cries peace to us all the day long. The Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace. It is the spirit of love, the pure love of Christ. These things are not being done in our families. The only way, brothers and sisters, that we are going to get the Spirit of God, is as we have been told by the Lord in Section 136 to Brigham Young:

D.& C. 136

31. My people must be tried in all things, that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion; and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;
33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite, and to the condemnation of the ungodly.

37. Therefore, marvel not at these things, for ye are not yet pure; ye can not yet bear my glory; but ye shall behold it if ye are faithful in keeping all my words that I have given you, from the days of Adam to Abraham, from Abraham to Moses, and from Moses to Jesus and his apostles, and from Jesus and his apostles to Joseph Smith, whom I did call upon by mine angels, my ministering servants, and by mine own voice out of the heavens, to bring forth my work;

38. Which foundation he did lay, and was faithful; and I took him to myself.
39. Many have marveled because of his death; but it was needful that he should seal his testimony with his blood, that he might be honored and the wicked might be condemned.

40. Have I not delivered you from your enemies, only in that I have left a witness of my name?
41. Now, therefore, hearken, O ye people of my church; and ye elders listen together; you have received my kingdom.
42. Be diligent in keeping all my commandments, lest judgments come upon you, and your faith fail you, and your enemies triumph over you. So no more at present.

We cannot get and keep the Spirit of God except we be humble. The Lord said in Section 59:

D.& C. 59
21. And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not his commandments.

Humility is the secret, my dear brothers and sisters -- a broken heart and a contrite spirit, which is the spirit of repentance. The opposite of this is pride, self-righteousness; and I fear there are far too many among us who are self-righteous. I would like to read what overtook Moses.

John Taylor   Items on Priesthood  1899 Edition
What the sin was that Moses and Aaron committed does not distinctly appear, except it was in taking glory to themselves instead of giving God the glory. For God had commanded Moses to take the rod, he and Aaron, and smite the rock, which he did. In doing this, however, Moses said: "Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? * * * And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them." -- Num. xx, 10-12. This is the water of Meribah (or strife) because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them.

So for this thing, it appears that both Moses and Aaron had to be gathered up to their people without going into the promised land and go with the congregation. So here we have an example of not acknowledging and giving the glory to God. This, I am afraid, we are all too guilty of. Humility -- we cannot get the Spirit of God without it. I would like to read a few of the verses of the Doctrine and Covenants on this matter, which I think will help us if we will follow them.

D.& C. 1

24. Behold, I am God and have spoken it; these commandments are of me, and were given unto my servants in their weakness, after the manner of their language, that they might come to understanding.

25. And inasmuch as they erred it might be made known;

26. And inasmuch as they sought wisdom they might be instructed;

27. And inasmuch as they sinned they might be chastened, that they might repent;

28. And inasmuch as they were humble they might be made strong, and blessed from on high, and receive knowledge from time to time.

There is the key in all these verses. In humility there is strength. In order to have power with God we must know that our course is pleasing to God. This may seem to be a paradox. One might become puffed up if he knew that he pleased God, but not such as Abel and Enoch, who both had this testimony that they pleased God. But they were able, and did with all their heart, acknowledge God as the foundation for their pleasing Him. God blessed them with His Holy Spirit, and so they were able to walk perfect in their generation because God was their help and their stay, and He was acknowledged all the day long in humility.

D.& C. 11
12. And now, verily, verily, I say unto thee, put your trust in that Spirit which leadeth to do good -- yea, to do justly, to walk humbly, to judge righteously; and this is my Spirit.
The Spirit of God is, in itself, humility in us.

D.& C. 12
8. And no one can assist in this work except he shall be humble and full of love, having faith, hope, and charity, being temperate in all things, whatsoever shall be entrusted to his care.

D.& C. 29
1. Listen to the voice of Jesus Christ, your Redeemer, the Great I AM, whose arm of mercy hath atoned for your sins;
2. Who will gather his people even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, even as many as will hearken to my voice and humble themselves before me, and call upon me in mighty prayer.

These things are all so carefully interwoven -- faith, hope, charity, meekness, and lowliness of heart. They all go together and we cannot have one without the other. Section 54 verse 3, the Lord hardly ever addresses His people without mentioning this great attribute:

D.& C. 54
3. And if your brethren desire to escape their enemies, let them repent of all their sins, and become truly humble before me and contrite.

D.& C. 67
10. And again, verily I say unto you that it is your privilege, and a promise I give unto you that have been ordained unto this ministry, that inasmuch as you strip yourselves from jealousies and fears, and humble yourselves before me, for ye are not sufficiently humble, the veil shall be rent and you shall see me and know that I am -- not with the carnal neither natural mind, but with the spiritual.
11. For no man has seen God at any time in the flesh, except quickened by the Spirit of God.
12. Neither can any natural man abide the presence of God, neither after the carnal mind.
13. Ye are not able to abide the presence of God now; neither the ministering of angels; wherefore, continue in patience until ye are perfected.
14. Let not your minds turn back; and when ye are worthy, in mine own due time, ye shall see and know that which was conferred upon you by the hands of my servant Joseph Smith, Jun.

We have this glorious admonition in Section 121. I will skip over some.

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

Without self-righteousness.

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

The Holy Ghost, our constant companion, comes from the exercise of these glorious attributes which are of the Holy Spirit. They are the Holy Spirit, and we will become like God in the degree that we get and keep that Holy Spirit. Then we have Moroni:

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

Humble.
44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart; and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; The pure love of Christ which covers them all. The pure love of Christ will make us humble as He was humble and swallowed His will up in the will of God, His Father.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, That ye may be humble, patient, kind, benevolent, and have faith, perfect faith, coming to know that being full of this Holy Spirit, we please God, and we will then have perfect faith. We can approach Him and obtain the blessings that we desire in humility before God. It has been said: The nature of humility is such that if you say you have it, you have lost it. In saying you have it, I am afraid we border on self-righteousness.

So what is the sum and substance of the whole matter, brothers and sisters? We cannot obtain this great gift of God, the Holy Spirit, which is His mind, without being humble and pure before God. We cannot obtain the Holy Spirit except we get it through His servant who He has called and anointed to lead His people. One cannot be an aspiring man, a "great big Elder" and have the Spirit of God, because he is not one with his head. We cannot get it except through the presiding authority of the holy Priesthood. You try and get it if you can and be in opposition to President Johnson. This was the case as Heber explained it, Heber C. Kimball. "You cannot get the Spirit of God," he said -- in fact he put it in the form of a question: "How can you expect to get the Holy Ghost except through us?" speaking of Brigham more particularly, and he was one with Brigham. He was one with Joseph, and the Lord blessed him abundantly on the occasion when he was in Far West, his family absent from him for many months, and he called upon the Lord for comfort and strength. The voice of the Spirit told him to write, and in this the Lord told him, "Thou hast been faithful and careful to follow and keep my commandments as I have given them through my servant Joseph, whom you have also been careful to follow." This was the sense of it.

So we must, in our families, be faithful and true, humble and contrite in following the dictates of the Priesthood which presides over us, and we as a people must draw near to President Johnson. Wouldn't it be a wonderful thing if we could just keep in mind every day that we are taking additional steps on the way to the redemption of Zion, and be like unto the people of Enoch who followed that great head, so that they could take up the city that God would make His abode forever? I think this would be a wonderful way to bring ourselves to be one together in our families, and one together as a people under God through His servants.

God bless you, dear brothers and sisters. God bless me and help me to do my part, for I have need to repent. I have need to do more perfectly the things that I am speaking about here today. I have not been sufficiently humble. The only way, dear brothers and sisters, we can become pure in heart, that we can see God, is to be worthy to have the Holy Ghost upon us continually, walking in obedience to all the commandments, which I pray we may do in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Judgments Will Begin at the House of God;
D.& C. 121; How to Govern in the Priesthood

President Johnson has called upon us to read and follow the word of God as it is revealed in the Book of Mormon, the Doctrine and Covenants, and Pearl of Great Price; and I just want to leave a message from it here with you briefly, before we close.

D.& C. 112

23. Verily, verily, I say unto you, darkness covereth the earth, and gross darkness the minds of the people, and all flesh has become corrupt before my face.

24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

Do we realize this, brothers and sisters?

25. ...and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;
26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

Joseph Smith is the One Mighty and Strong, spoken of in Section 85, and he is going to be sent to set in order the House of God, upon which these judgments shall first come; at what point we are not given to know, whether before or after the judgments. President Johnson has continually warned us to be prepared against the day of visitation of these judgments. The whole House of God will have to be set in order, and before he comes, we have been told by the Priesthood, that everything that can be out of order will be out of order when he comes. So this whirlwind is going to come one of these days when we least expect. And now I would like to read the word of the Lord on how we may avoid them, and how we may be prepared, from Section 121.

D.& C. 121

34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?
35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --
36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.

"Whose right is it to rule", is what is before us, as we approach these perilous times, the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true; but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition, or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.
38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.
39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.
They do not humble themselves and submit themselves to God, and love Him with all their might, mind, and strength; and their neighbors as themselves.

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, humility.

41. ...and by love unfeigned;

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge,

Knowledge of Priesthood, brothers and sisters; knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the power of God unto salvation.

42. ...which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith,

He whose interest we seek. Who is my brother? Brother Joseph has described it in "The Economic Law of Heaven": All who are engaged in the same cause, the cause of Christ, to build His Kingdom, and to establish His Priesthood in the earth.

45. ...and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly;

Clean hands and pure hearts; then we may become vessels of God and His Holy Spirit.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;

We are in the presence of God when we have His Spirit.

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

These are the things we should be seeking, brothers and sisters, the doctrine of the Priesthood, which is God with us.
46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, A constant companion. That is why Joseph told Brigham, and why he has told all of the other Prophets since: "Get the Spirit of God and keep it, and never be without it; and then you will be just right."

46. ...and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

These words Joseph wrote from Liberty Jail to the brethren who were being driven, and killed, and persecuted. Joseph had called upon the Lord in this wise:

D.& C. 121

1. O God, where art thou? And where is the pavilion that covereth thy hiding place?
2. How long shall thy hand be stayed, and thine eye, yea thy pure eye, behold from the eternal heavens the wrongs of thy people and of thy servants, and thine ear be penetrated with their cries?
3. Yea, O Lord, how long shall they suffer these wrongs and unlawful oppressions, before thine heart shall be softened towards them, and thy bowels be moved with compassion toward them?
4. O Lord God Almighty, maker of heaven, earth, and seas, and of all things that in them are, and who controllest and subjectest the devil, and the dark and benighted dominion of Sheol -- stretch forth thy hand; let thine eye pierce; let thy pavilion be taken up; let thy hiding place no longer be covered; let thine ear be inclined; let thine heart be softened, and thy bowels moved with compassion toward us.
5. Let thine anger be kindled against our enemies; and, in the fury of thine heart, with thy sword avenge us of our wrongs.
6. Remember thy suffering saints, O our God; and thy servants will rejoice in thy name forever.

I perceive that we will be in such straitened (restrictive) circumstances ourselves, and be calling upon God likewise. We are to be beset by mobs.
That is one of the next great tests. We will then be calling upon the Lord in this wise, and receive the grand promises as Joseph received as he recorded the mind and will of God, and the promises and blessings of God in the verses that follow.
God help us, my dear brothers and sisters, to realize our true position, and seek unto the Lord in mighty prayer and faith to enable us to obey all of His commandments and follow in the wake of our President, Leroy S. Johnson, and his Council, whom I pray may all be one; and that we may all be one together, going down that road together, on the way for the redemption of Zion, in which Jesus Christ has promised that He, as well as His angels, should go before. And a people must be prepared to stand in His presence -- become like Him by being full of the Holy Ghost. God help us to get and keep His Spirit, and to go forward in love and in humility, the pure love of Christ directing all that we do, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Judgments of God

I, too, desire the Spirit of God to be with me as I carry out the instructions of President Johnson to read the word of the Lord as we have it in the Doctrine and Covenants. It is the best way I know to speak the word of God, and I desire the power of God to do so. The Gospel of preparation is that which is before us continually.

The Lord gave revelations to Joseph Smith, two of them very close together, one to become the preface to the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, and the other the appendix. President Johnson preaches to us out of the first one very emphatically; and I, also, out of the other. But I feel like, because of the words that he so often speaks to us, that we be prepared against the day of visitation, we have this message in Section 133:

D.& C. 133

1. Hearken, O ye people of my church, saith the Lord your God, and hear the word of the Lord concerning you --

2. The Lord who shall suddenly come to his temple; the Lord who shall come down upon the world with a curse to judgment; yea, upon all the nations that forget God, and upon all the ungodly among you.

It seems we must have become godly in some degree to become ungodly or disobedient. We enter into covenants initially in the waters of baptism, receive the gift of the Holy Ghost, and if we do not strive mightily, continually, to be obedient to those covenants, to keep every commandment that Jesus Christ has given us -- who redeemed us from the grave and suffered for our sins if we will be willing to obey and believe with all our hearts, and love Him and our Father with all our hearts -- we become ungodly. So obedience is the first law of heaven as we enter into the work of God seeking eternal salvation.

4. Wherefore, prepare ye, prepare ye, O my people;
He is speaking to His people.
4. ...sanctify yourselves; gather ye together, O ye people of my church, upon the land of Zion, all you that have not been commanded to tarry.

They were then gathering to Independence, Missouri, the center place of Zion, to build it up. But I take these words as being perfectly applicable to us because we are commanded to make this a Zion. Zion is a condition. Zion is in our heart. It is also a place. Where President Johnson is, that is where Zion is, and we are supposed to be building it up. Zion is within and it is where, under President Johnson and the holy Priesthood, we are commanded to prepare to go back to redeem Zion. We have got to prepare and have a Zion with us before we can do that and become like God.

5. Go ye out from Babylon. Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord.
The vessels of the Lord are the callings and ordinations to Priesthood, brethren, and we are called upon to be clean every whit, that we may be worthy of those blessings in the holy temple.

6. Call your solemn assemblies, and speak often one to another. And let every man call upon the name of the Lord.
7. Yea, verily I say unto you again, the time has come when the voice of the Lord is unto you: Go ye out of Babylon;

Come out of the world.
7. ...gather ye out from among the nations, from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

10. Yea, let the cry go forth among all people: Awake and arise and go forth to meet the Bridegroom; behold and lo, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Prepare yourselves for the great day of the Lord.
11. Watch, therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour.

12. Let them, therefore, who are among the Gentiles flee unto Zion.
13. And let them who be of Judah flee unto Jerusalem, unto the mountains of the Lord's house.

14. Go ye out from among the nations, even from Babylon, from the midst of wickedness, which is spiritual Babylon.

15. But verily, thus saith the Lord, let not your flight be in haste, but let all things be prepared before you; and he that goeth, let him not look back lest sudden destruction shall come upon him.

16. Hearken and hear, O ye inhabitants of the earth. Listen, ye elders of my church together, and hear the voice of the Lord; for he calleth upon all men, and he commandeth all men everywhere to repent.

17. For behold, the Lord God hath sent forth the angel crying through the midst of heaven, saying: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight, for the hour of his coming is nigh --

18. When the Lamb shall stand upon Mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand, having his Father's name written on their foreheads.

19. Wherefore, prepare ye for the coming of the Bridegroom; go ye, go ye out to meet him.

That was the cry then and it is still the cry now to God's people.

20. For behold, he shall stand upon the mount of Olivet, When He comes in His glory.

20. ...and upon the mighty ocean, even the great deep, and upon the islands of the sea, and upon the land of Zion.

21. And he shall utter his voice out of Zion, and he shall speak from Jerusalem, and his voice shall be heard among all people;

22. And it shall be a voice as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder, which shall break down the mountains, and the valleys shall not be found.

23. He shall command the great deep, and it shall be driven back into the north countries, and the islands shall become one land;

24. And the land of Jerusalem and the land of Zion shall be turned back into their own place, and the earth shall be like as it was in the days before it was divided.

25. And the Lord, even the Savior, shall stand in the midst of his people, and shall reign over all flesh.
26. And they who are in the north countries shall come in remembrance before the Lord; and their prophets shall hear his voice, and shall no longer stay themselves; and they shall smite the rocks, and the ice shall flow down at their presence.

27. And an highway shall be cast up in the midst of the great deep.
28. Their enemies shall become a prey unto them,

29. And in the barren deserts there shall come forth pools of living water; and the parched ground shall no longer be a thirsty land.
30. And they shall bring forth their rich treasures unto the children of Ephraim, my servants.

31. And the boundaries of the everlasting hills shall tremble at their presence.
32. And there shall they fall down and be crowned with glory, even in Zion, by the hands of the servants of the Lord, even the children of Ephraim.

33. And they shall be filled with songs of everlasting joy.
34. Behold, this is the blessing of the everlasting God upon the tribes of Israel, and the richer blessing upon the head of Ephraim and his fellows.

35. And they also of the tribe of Judah, after their pain, shall be sanctified in holiness before the Lord, to dwell in his presence day and night, forever and ever.
36. And now, verily saith the Lord, that these things might be known among you, O inhabitants of the earth, I have sent forth mine angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel, who hath appeared unto some and hath committed it unto man, who shall appear unto many that dwell on the earth.
37. And this gospel shall be preached unto every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people.

Then other great promises that are given. These are the things Brother Johnson is calling upon us to do and to prepare for. Joseph Smith gives us something of the nature of the sequence of some of these events. We have it on page 17 of the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith:

…the tribe of Judah will return to old Jerusalem. The city of Zion spoken of by David, in the one hundred and second Psalm, will be built upon the land of America, "And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads." (Isaiah xxxv:10); and then they will be delivered from the overflowing scourge that shall pass through the land. But Judah shall obtain deliverance at Jerusalem. See Joel ii:32; Isaiah xxvi:20 and 21; Jeremiah xxxi:12; Psalms 1:5; Ezekiel xxxiv:11, 12 and 13. These are testimonies that the Good Shepherd will put forth His own sheep, and lead them out from all nations where they have been scattered in a cloudy and dark day, to Zion, and to Jerusalem; besides many more testimonies which might be brought.

And now I am prepared to say by the authority of Jesus Christ, that not many years shall pass away before the United States shall present such a scene of bloodshed as has not a parallel in the history of our nation; pestilence, hail, famine, and earthquake will sweep the wicked of this generation from off the face of the land, This land of Joseph.

...to open and prepare the way for the return of the lost tribes of Israel from the north country. The people of the Lord, those who have complied with the requirements of the new covenant, have already commenced gathering together to Zion,  therefore I declare unto you the warning which the Lord has commanded me to declare unto this generation, remembering that the eyes of my Maker are upon me, and that to Him I am accountable for every word I say, wishing nothing worse to my fellow-men than their eternal salvation; therefore, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment is come." Repent ye, repent ye, and embrace the everlasting covenant, and flee to Zion, before the overflowing scourge overtake you, for there are those now living upon the earth whose eyes shall not be closed in death until they see all these things, which I have spoken, fulfilled. Remember these things; call upon the Lord while He is near, and seek Him while He may be found, is the exhortation of your unworthy servant.

(Signed) JOSEPH SMITH, JUN.
say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death. We are going on unto life or we will be going down to death. I am speaking of the second death.

Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men. If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil.

Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people. Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

God bless you, amen.

The Spirit of God;
Out of Small Things Comes That Which Is Great

While we are on that vein, Brother Hammon speaking of his first date reminded me of mine. My family was living in Ogden and I was going to the South Washington Junior High School. Somehow a party was got up and I don't know whether I asked her or she asked me. We went to a party where we played games like dominos and checkers and so forth. I was wearing a hand-me-down suit with bell-bottom trousers from Uncle Alma Timpson. When I stooped over to pick something up, the seam of my pants ripped out. I stayed sat the rest of the party, and walking home, somebody else decided they had to walk behind me. I had to walk with my hands back of me.

I didn't have any more till my senior year in High School; and then, somehow, I don't know how it happened, but I took the daughter of the presiding Patriarch of the Church, Helen Smith, to the graduation exercises. That did not last long.

Well, I feel to concur very heartily with what has been spoken of here regarding this holy Celestial Law. It savors of life eternal, the Family Order of Heaven. It must be visited with blessings by appointment of the Priesthood of God, and the sealing by the Priesthood of God to the end that we might abide that holy law according to the revelation to Joseph Smith, the Prophet. I am grateful for it and for the blessings that have been visited upon me and mine.

Brothers and sisters, the Holy Ghost is the thing uppermost in my mind and heart today to speak upon. Joseph Smith, that third member of the Godhead, was the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son, and he acts in that office. He is the head of this dispensation, truly a member of the Godhead, standing next to the Lord Jesus Christ; and he was perfectly able to speak of it, speak of the Holy Ghost and its powers and blessings.

I think we need to learn more about the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost. We are constantly urged and commanded, if you please, by the voice of God through His Priesthood, to get and keep the Spirit of God, as Joseph told Brigham in that dream in Winter Quarters, so that it would lead us just right. Unless we have the confirmation and testimony of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, and that the Priesthood of God is here with us, which has as its power the Holy Ghost; and that we are acting under its direction, we cannot go on. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood and by which all of its administrations must be conducted for the advancement of this people, in the preparation of this people for the redemption of Zion. I would like to read from the words of Joseph. He can speak better than I regarding this great gift and power which is given us after we have been baptized and covenanted with the Lord to keep all of His commandments.

Baptism is a sign to God, to angels, and to heaven that we do the will of God, and there is no other way beneath the heavens whereby God hath ordained for man to come to Him to be saved, and enter into the Kingdom of God, except faith in Jesus Christ, repentance, and baptism for the remission of sins, and any other course is in vain; then you have the promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost.

There are certain key words and signs belonging to the Priesthood which must be observed in order to obtain the blessing. The sign of Peter was to repent and be baptized for the remission of sins, with the promise of the gift of the Holy Ghost; and in no other way is the gift of the Holy Ghost obtained.
Through key words and signs belonging to the Priesthood.

There is a difference between the Holy Ghost and the gift of the Holy Ghost. Cornelius received the Holy Ghost before he was baptized, which was the convincing power of God unto him of the truth of the Gospel, but he could not receive the gift of the Holy Ghost until after he was baptized. Had he not taken this sign or ordinance upon him, the Holy Ghost which convinced him of the truth of God, would have left him. Until he obeyed these ordinances and received the gift of the Holy Ghost, by the laying on of hands, according to the order of God, he could not have healed the sick or commanded an evil spirit to come out of a man, and it obey him; for the spirits might say unto him, as they did to the sons of Sceva: "Paul we know and Jesus we know, but who are ye?" It mattereth not whether we live long or short on the earth after we come to a knowledge of these principles and obey them unto the end. I know that all men will be damned if they do not come in the way which He hath opened, and this is the way marked out by the word of the Lord.

The Church is a compact body composed of different members, and is strictly analogous to the human system, and Paul, after speaking of the different gifts, (of the Spirit) says, "Now ye are the body of Christ and members in particular; and God hath set some in the Church, first Apostles, secondarily Prophets, thirdly Teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all Teachers? Are all workers of miracles? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?" It is evident that they do not; yet are they all members of one body. All members of the natural body are not the eye, the ear, the head or the hand -- yet the eye cannot say to the ear, I have no need of thee, nor the head to the foot, I have no need of thee; they are all so many component parts in the perfect machine -- the one body; and if one member suffer, the whole of the members suffer with it; and if one member rejoice, all the rest are honored with it.

This is the nature of the Holy Spirit, brothers and sisters. We are bodies organized in families.

...and if one member suffer, the whole of the members suffer with it; and if one member rejoice, all the rest are honored with it. And so it should be with this whole people.
These, then, are all gifts; they come from God; they are of God; they are all the gifts of the Holy Ghost; they are what Christ ascended into heaven to impart;

I know Christ told the Apostles that unless He ascended into heaven, the Holy Ghost could not come. He is a member of the Godhead with Them. Unless He were to leave, the Holy Ghost could not come to them.

...and yet how few of them could be known by the generality of men. Peter and John were Apostles, yet the Jewish court scourged them as impostors. Paul was both an Apostle and prophet, yet they stoned him and put him into prison. The people knew nothing about it, although he had in his possession the gift of the Holy Ghost. Our Savior was "anointed with the oil of gladness above his fellows," yet so far from the people knowing Him, they said He was Beelzebub and crucified Him as an impostor. Who could point out a Pastor, a Teacher, or an Evangelist by their appearance, yet had they the gift of the Holy Ghost?

We need to know more about these gifts, brothers and sisters. That is why we have the Holy Ghost given us. The Holy Ghost itself is the greatest gift of life, and is given us that we might be one. It is the unifying power of God in families and as a people. It is the mind of the Father and the Son, and it has a diversity of gifts according as our needs may be.

But to come to the other members of the Church, and examine the gifts as spoken of by Paul, and we shall find that the world can in general know nothing about them, and that there is but one or two that could be immediately known, if they were all poured out immediately upon the imposition of hands. In I Cor. xii, Paul says, "There are diversities of gifts yet the same spirit, and there are differences of administrations but the same Lord; and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. But the manifestations of the Spirit is given unto every man to profit withal. For to one is given, by the Spirit, the Word of Wisdom, to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith, by the same Spirit;

Faith is a gift of God; so is repentance.

...to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another the discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. But all these worketh that one and the selfsame spirit, dividing to each man severally as he will.
The things of God are known only by the Spirit of God, and that is why it is given. Why? Because it is the mind of God.

There are several gifts mentioned here, yet which of them all could be known by an observer at the imposition of hands? The word of wisdom, and the word of knowledge, are as much gifts as any other, yet if a person possessed both of these gifts, or received them by the imposition of hands, who would know it? Another might receive the gift of faith, and they would be as ignorant of it. Or suppose a man had the gift of healing or power to work miracles, that would not then be known; it would require time and circumstances to call these gifts into operation. Suppose a man had the discerning of spirits, who would be the wiser of it? Or if he had the interpretation of tongues, unless someone spoke in an unknown tongue, he of course would have to be silent; there are only two gifts that could be made visible -- the gift of tongues and the gift of the prophecy.
These are things that are the most talked about, and yet if a person spoke in an unknown tongue, according to Paul's testimony, he would be a barbarian to those present. They would say that it was gibberish; and if he prophesied they would call it nonsense. The gift of tongues is the smallest gift perhaps of the whole, and yet it is one that is the most sought after.

By way of a sign.

The greatest, the best, and the most useful gifts would be known nothing about by an observer. It is the true that a man might prophesy, which is a great gift, and one that Paul told the people -- the Church -- to seek after and to covet, rather than to speak in tongues; but what does the world know about prophesying? Paul says that it "serveth only to those that believe." But does not the Scriptures say that they spake in tongues and prophesied? Yes; but who is it that writes these Scriptures? Not the men of the world or mere casual observers, but the Apostles -- men who knew one gift from another, and of course were capable of writing about it; if we had the testimony of the Scribes and Pharisees concerning the outpouring of the Spirit on the day of Pentecost, they would have told us that it was no gift, but that the people were "drunken with new wine," and we shall finally have to come to the same conclusion that Paul did -- "No man knows the things of God but by the Spirit of God;" for with the great revelations of Paul when he was caught up into the third heaven and saw things that were not lawful to utter, no man was apprised of it until he mentioned it himself fourteen years after; and when John had the curtains of heaven withdrawn, and by vision looked through the dark vista of future ages, and contemplated events that should transpire throughout every subsequent period of time, until the final winding up scene -- while he gazed upon the glories of the eternal world, saw an innumerable company of angels and heard the voice of God -- it was in the Spirit, on the Lord's day, unnoticed and unobserved by the world.

The Lord cannot always be known by the thunder of his voice, by the display of His glory or by the manifestation of His power, and those that are the most anxious to see these things, are the least prepared to meet them, and were the Lord to manifest His powers as He did to the children of Israel, such characters would be the first to say, "Let not the Lord speak any more, lest we His people die."

We would say to the brethren, seek to know God in your closets, call upon him in the fields. Follow the directions of the Book of Mormon, and pray over, and for your families, your cattle, your flocks, your herds, your corn, and all things that you possess; ask the blessing of God upon all your labors, and everything that you engage in. Be virtuous and pure;

For the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost cannot dwell in unclean tabernacles.

...be men of integrity and truth; keep the commandments of God; and then you will be able more perfectly to understand the difference between right and wrong -- between the things of God and the things of men; and your path will be like that of the just, which shineth brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

That perfect day, brothers and sisters, will be when we are crowned.

If the Saints are not to reign, for what purpose are they crowned? In an exhortation of the Lord to a certain Church in Asia, which was built up in the days of the Apostles, unto whom He communicated His word on that occasion by His servant John, He says, "Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown." And again, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with My Father in His Throne" (see Rev. iii). Those are the words of John in the Book of Revelation.
And again, it is written, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is.

And this, my dear brothers and sisters, cannot be unless we are possessed with a fullness of the Spirit. We cannot be like Him unless we have a fullness of His Spirit.

And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure" (I John iii:2, 3). How is it that these old Apostles should say so much on the subject of the coming of Christ? He certainly had once come; but Paul says, To all who love His appearing, shall be given the crown: and John says, When He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is.

Those are the words of Moroni, speaking of the glorious principle, the law of charity, the pure love of Christ. We must be filled with it so that we can see Him as He is.

Can we mistake such language as this? Do we not offer violence to our own good judgment when we deny the second coming of the Messiah? When has He partaken of the fruit of the vine new with His ancient Apostles in His Father’s kingdom, as He promised He would just before He was crucified?  "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself."

We find another promise to individuals living in the church at Sardis who had not defiled their garments: "And they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before His angels." John represents the sound which he heard from heaven, as giving thanks and glory to God, saying that the Lamb was worthy to take the book and to open its seals; because he was slain, and had made them kings and priests unto God: and they should reign on the earth (see Rev. v). In the 20th chapter we find a length of time specified, during which Satan is to be confined in his own place, and the Saints reign in peace, all these promises and blessings we find contained in the law of the Lord, which the righteous are to enjoy: and we might enumerate many more places where the same or similar promises are made to the faithful, but we do not deem it of importance to rehearse them here, as this epistle is now lengthy;

So we have these glorious promises if we keep the faith, obey every word of God, and be faithful and true to the end, overcoming death, hell, and the devil. Then we may sit down with Him on the throne of His Father. John Taylor spoke beautifully of these things in The Mediation and Atonement, and all of these glorious blessings which we may obtain through our faith unto the end. Now brothers and sisters, may we not weary in well-doing. I would like to read the actual words of the Lord in Section 64.

D.& C. 64

33. Wherefore, be not weary in well-doing, for ye are laying the foundation of a great work.

This is what we are engaged in, brothers and sisters, laying the foundation of a great work.

33. ...And out of small things proceedeth that which is great.

34. Behold, the Lord requireth the heart and a willing mind; and the willing and obedient shall eat the good of the land of Zion in these last days.

35. And the rebellious shall be cut off out of the land of Zion, and shall be sent away, and shall not inherit the land.

So let us live for these glorious promises. Be patient, long-suffering, and have all of the gifts of this pure love of Christ, charity, and be filled with the Holy Ghost, that we may be one with Him and see Him as He is in that great day when we shall be crowned, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Are Under Condemnation for Treating Lightly the Things of God;
We Are Not Sufficiently Humble

I am very grateful to be here in association with President Johnson and the brethren. I desire with all my heart to have the Spirit of God dictate what shall be said for our mutual benefit and edification, for I need instruction by the Spirit of God as do we all.

The Holy Ghost is given us to lead us into all truth and to abide all truth as given us in these things that Brother Timpson has brought to our attention. Indeed, that is the crowning principle and law of the Gospel, and was given by the Lord Jesus Christ and Joseph Smith to John Taylor in 1886, to preserve and to carry on and see that children were born under this covenant, bring forth choice spirits to be the nucleus of the great Millennium, in preparation for the glorious coming of Jesus Christ. Can we not see the great importance of that work that was done by our Savior and by another member of the Godhead, Joseph Smith, in bringing forth and continuing the work that Joseph had instituted in his mortal mission and is still continuing by the authority of the keys of the holy Priesthood which remain with him? And he is now being waited upon to come forth as the One Mighty and Strong to set in order the House of God. It is out of order, brothers and sisters.

The great work that he has given the Priesthood as pertaining to us through President Johnson is to prepare a people. And we must learn to abide this holy law. What a fearful thing to break that covenant, that oath and covenant that we enter into under the Holy Celestial Law -- those laws, rites, and ordinances pertaining to this holy law. On the other hand, what glorious blessings, thrones, dominions, and all the blessings of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to dwell forever in the presence of God, His Son Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost. President Johnson has called our attention most seriously to the fact that these ordinances and blessings have been treated lightly by this people. That law and ordinance was changed under the presidency of Heber J. Grant as to the Church, and for it they lost their Priesthood. Talk about treating lightly the things of God, and the Church from the beginning, almost.

This was spoken of by the Lord to Joseph in September of 1832, how they had treated lightly the things of God. And thus we are under condemnation, and we are still under that condemnation. One of the Elders on one occasion complained to me how President Johnson spoke so often of how we were still under that condemnation, and couldn't we hear of something else. The Lord told Joseph and six Elders whom He designated when He told them to go unto all the world, teach and bear the testimony to every creature:

D.& C. 84

63. And as I said unto mine apostles, even so I say unto you, for you are mine apostles, even God’s high priests; ye are they whom my Father hath given me; ye are my friends;

As a preamble to this He said to them:

D. & C. 84

49. And the whole world lieth in sin, and groaneth under darkness and under the bondage of sin.

50. And by this you may know they are under the bondage of sin, because they come not unto me.

Are we drawing near to God? If not, we are drawing unto the devil. That is what Joseph said. And so if we do not draw near to Him we are under the bondage of sin.

50. And by this you may know they are under the bondage of sin, because they come not unto me.

51. For whoso cometh not unto me is under the bondage of sin.

52. And whoso receiveth not my voice is not acquainted with my voice, and is not of me.

53. And by this you may know the righteous from the wicked, and that the whole world groaneth under sin and darkness even now.

54. And your minds in times past have been darkened because of unbelief, and because you have treated lightly the things you have received --

55. Which vanity and unbelief have brought the whole church under condemnation.

56. And this condemnation resteth upon the children of Zion, even all.

57. And they shall remain under this condemnation until they repent and remember the new covenant, even the Book of Mormon and the former commandments which I have given them, not only to say, but to do

Not only to say, but to do.

57. ...according to that which I have written --

58. That they may bring forth fruit meet for their Father's kingdom; otherwise there remaineth a scourge and judgment to be poured out upon the children of Zion.

59. For shall the children of the kingdom pollute my holy land? Verily, I say unto you, Nay.

I cannot tell you, my brothers and sisters, how much President Johnson yearns over this people, and we yearn with him and over our families. When you consider the great work that must be done in preparing a people, and how little the people are hearkening unto the instructions that he has given us, we may begin to understand why there remaineth a scourge to come upon the children of Zion.

So, my brothers and sisters, why do not we stop treating lightly these things and think we may receive a few stripes and be saved at last? All is not well in Zion, and there remaineth, my brothers and sisters, too much pride, too much self-righteousness, and not enough humility and meekness and lowliness of heart. This is why we treat lightly the things of God. I see in these words of the Lord to Joseph such great promises, if we will but repent and humble ourselves.

D.& C. 67

10. And again, verily I say unto you that it is your privilege, and a promise I give unto you that have been ordained unto this ministry, that inasmuch as you strip yourselves from jealousies and fears, and humble yourselves before me, for ye are not sufficiently humble, the veil shall be rent and you shall see me and know that I am -- not with the carnal neither natural mind, but with the spiritual.

The same blessings that are offered us in this holy covenant of marriage and promise.

11. For no man has seen God at any time in the flesh, except quickened by the Spirit of God.

12. Neither can any natural man abide the presence of God, neither after the carnal mind.

13. Ye are not able to abide the presence of God now; neither the ministering of angels; wherefore, continue in patience until ye are perfected.

And may I add: "sanctified and purified". And we must be chastened. Here are some wonderful instructions of Joseph on the value of chastisement:

TPJS Page 194

"Brother Kimball has given you a true explanation of the parable," and then read the parable of the vine and its branches, and explained it, and said, "If we keep the commandments of God, we should bring forth fruit and be the friends of God, and know what our Lord did.

"Some people say I am a fallen Prophet,
And we get some information to the effect that some say that Leroy S. Johnson is a fallen Prophet. Wo unto them.

"...because I do not bring forth more of the word of the Lord, Why do I not do it? Are we able to receive it? No! Not one in this room. He then chastened the congregation for their wickedness and unbelief, 'for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son and daughter whom he receiveth,' and if we do not receive chastisements then we are bastards and not sons."

On the subject of revelation, he said, a man would command his sons to dig potatoes and saddle his horse, but before he had done either he would tell him to do something else. This is all considered right; but as soon as the Lord gives a commandment and revokes that decree and commands something else, then the Prophet is considered fallen. Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness, for others can see that for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it. The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us, is because we do not keep them but reveal them; we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord?

The secrets of the Lord are involved in the holy endowments, so do not ask why we have not had them yet.

I can keep a secret till Doomsday.

Said the Prophet.

What greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend; then why not fight for our friend until we die?

Which brings forth the glorious principle of charity, and love, the pure love of Christ; which we cannot have until we are meek and lowly in heart, and offer in sacrifice the sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit. Joseph, in speaking to the Female Relief Society:

President Smith continued reading from the above-mentioned chapter, Which had to do with meekness, and love, and the principle of charity.

...and to give instructions respecting the order of God, as established in the Church, saying everyone should aspire only to magnify his own office and calling. ***

And then he read the 13th chapter of Corinthians:

"Though I speak with the tongues of men and angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal;"

Again speaking to the Female Relief Society:

Sisters of the society, shall there be strive among you? I will not have it. You must repent, and get the love of God. Away with self-righteousness! The best measure or principle to bring the poor to repentance is to administer to their wants.

So, between treating lightly the things of God and being full of pride and self-righteousness, we are not yet sufficiently humble. I pray, my dear brothers and sisters, that we will offer in sacrifice a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and repent. I desire to do so.

I am reminded of the early experiences in my life in this work with John Y. Barlow, whom I know of none who is more humble and meek and lowly -- President of Priesthood. And I heard him say on several occasions, "If I am in the way of the progress of this work, I pray God to remove me." And I feel to say the same.

I pray God that we may indeed get on our knees and pray God for forgiveness as we forgive one another. Stop these strifes, and contentions, and jarrings, and lustful and covetous desires. Become meek and lowly of heart and follow the teachings that our President is giving us from day to day, month to month; and that we may become one people, a prepared people in our families first, and then as a community; that we may be used in the due time of the Lord after the One Mighty and Strong shall come to set in order His House. And may we be found useful instruments in that great work. That must come first, brothers and sisters, the setting in order of the House of God before the City of Zion is built and redeemed and we be prepared. God bless us together that we may be one, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Again, I desire the Spirit of God to direct what I may say, for the Spirit of God penetrates more effectively than anything else. If you are not compatible with the Spirit of God, anything that can be said by the power of the Spirit will have no effect. Like cleaves to like. If you have the Spirit of God you can receive instructions from it. If you do not, you cannot.

So, I pray the Spirit of God will rest upon all of you and upon me, for I desire but to be an instrument in His hands to teach the truth, that we may be edified thereby. The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of truth.

My dear brothers and sisters, we have need to communicate with God. Without revelation there is no salvation. Without faith there is no salvation; and we cannot obtain revelation, one of the greatest gifts of the Spirit of God, except through faith.

I am grateful to have heard what I have today on the glorious principle of repentance, which follows faith. We cannot come unto God except we be meek and humble, and that is the means by which we obtain the Holy Spirit as it pertains to ourselves. We must first draw near to God, and we accomplish that by drawing near to His servants, and especially His servant Leroy S. Johnson, as the revelation says, "Whether it is by My voice or the voice of My servant, it is the same."

The channel by which we obtain the Spirit of God is through the Priesthood over us, the keyholder over all of us; and through our families, the Priesthood head in the family. And that Priesthood head must be one with his head. But all of this, my dear brothers and sisters, through faith -- one of the glorious attributes of the Holy Spirit, the attributes of God.

In order to have power, which is faith with God, we must know that our course is pleasing to God. We come to know our course is pleasing to God through obedience to all of the commandments, and by the sacrifice of all earthly things; through meekness, and lowliness, and a broken heart and a contrite spirit. Then we will be endowed with the Holy Ghost, with charity and love, which covers all.

What I am trying to come to today, by the grace of God, is to call upon you, and myself especially, to pray without ceasing, lest we be entering into temptation. If you want to know how to avoid or overcome temptation, get on your knees in meekness and lowliness of heart, with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and get and keep the Spirit of God, which has power over the devil and all his imps and every temptation that can come to us.

Lecture Seven

2. As we have seen in our former lectures that faith was the principle of action and of power in all intelligent beings, both in heaven and on earth, it will not be expected that we shall, in a lecture of this description, attempt to unfold all its effects.

I want to talk about its effects, which leads into prayer.

3. Let us here offer some explanation in relation to faith, that our meaning may be clearly comprehended. We ask, then, what are we to understand by a man's working by faith? We answer -- we understand that when a man works by faith he works by mental exertion instead of physical force.

Mental exertion. The mind of the Father and the Son is the Holy Spirit. That is mental isn't it?

3. ...It is by words, instead of exerting his physical powers, with which every being works when he works by faith. God said, "Let there be light, and there was light."

And all of the other great things that have been accomplished, have been accomplished through prayer, through words and mental exertion. Have we learned, brothers and sisters, how to exert our minds? If the mind of the Father be in us we certainly will learn how, very readily and most effectively.

Joseph Smith stands as a glorious example to us. After he had read from James, and desiring wisdom to know where to go and what to do, in his religious endeavor, in his exertion of his faith in God, he went to the woods, feeling and knowing that he would get an answer -- faith, and praying most fervently. Do we know how to pray fervently through our mind and through words? He did and he got the answer. And everything that has been restored by way of Priesthood and ordinances and blessings of the holy Gospel of the Son of God, have come through prayer, the exertion of the mind of this chosen Prophet of God, the Witness and Testator. Everything that came was through fervent prayer and faith in his prayers.

Now, I contend, or say rather, that as we do not enjoy the blessings of the Holy Spirit, we are not fervent in our prayers, and we do not have faith in our prayers. We are not living up to the light that God has given us; and we complain, "Why don't we have more?" It is because we do not have faith. We need the One Mighty and Strong to come and set in order the House of God, and this, of course, agreeable to the will of God, according to His time and His way. But believe me, brothers and sisters, that will not happen until someone has sufficient faith in their prayers. What a mighty force it would be; what a mighty power it would have with God if a sufficient number of people -- and let me bring it down to Priesthood, Elders of Israel, one with God's anointed -- all of the same mind and heart, with the same power of faith, could approach God. These blessings would be granted. And I say, we are mentally lazy. We have things too easy, and God is going to bring a persecution against this people. "Those who live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Are we suffering persecution today? We have it so easy that we have become mentally and physically lazy, speaking of us as a whole. But there are those who have true faith, true love, true fidelity to the words of God and to His servant and His servants. I don't think we need to be reminded of the statement of Lorin Woolley to the effect that, if He, the Lord, had twelve men who were one, faithful and true in all things, and had faith in the Lord God, that He would shake the earth.

Now, brothers and sisters, we are not going to make much progress unless we are able to approach God in faith and love; hope, faith and charity -- these three. The greatest of these is charity and love, the pure love of Christ, which I say is the Holy Spirit. Do we love God and His servants? Do we love God and Leroy S. Johnson? If so we should love one another. We can never be one, brothers and sisters, until we love one another, our neighbor as ourself, and seek the interest of our neighbor.

So, we must have faith in God and in a living Priesthood. The Lord tried to redeem Zion very shortly after the restoration of the holy Priesthood and the Gospel of the Son of God, and the first law that they were called upon to abide was the Holy United Order. They were sent to the center place to do it where they could be one people, and where they could have overcome all opposition and persecution and prosecution. And after they were driven out, here is what the Lord had to say; and I ask you now to see how near like this are we as a people?

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --
2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;
3. Yet I will own them, and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.
4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
And that was done in the similitude of the sacrifice of God's Only Begotten Son.

5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.
6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them;
Are these among this people? They certainly are, and they are in our families.

6. ...lustful and covetous desires
Do we brethren engaged in businesses and economic enterprises have these afflictions? And are we seeking the interest of our brother, or our own interests? Now the Lord says:

6. ...therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.
These common everyday things that occur in our families and in our community enterprises and our associations. Now, here is what I want to emphasize with all the power that is in me, as a warning to this people; and President Johnson has given it many times before:

7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.
We do not have many troubles today except the things I have just read about: jarrings, contentions and strifes. But they had those troubles because they had been slow to hearken to the Lord.

7. ...therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.

8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.

Now, brothers and sisters, how in the world are we going to come to God and get help in our troubles if we do not know that our course is pleasing to Him, if we are full of sin, and disobedience, and rebellion, and strivings, jarrings, contentions and strifes? It is as though we never spoke when we pray under those conditions. Why? Because we are without the Spirit of God. These things by which they polluted their inheritances in Zion, and of which so many of us are guilty, bar the Spirit of God. You cannot have them both.

One of my family came to me the other day and said she learned something in a discussion we had, a most simple truth: You cannot have the spirit of criticism and the spirit of charity at the same time. Doubt and faith cannot exist in the same person at the same, so Joseph tells us in these Lectures. So, we get right down to the final answer to all of these problems -- the Holy Spirit of God. Do we have it or do we not have it? President Johnson has told us so many, many times: The Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace, of love, of kindness, and pure knowledge. The Spirit of God dwells in one who is pure and clean before Him. The Holy Ghost cannot dwell in an unclean tabernacle, and we are tabernacles which clothe spirits, which are sons and daughters of God; and our Father is the Father of these bodies as well.

Now, let us be good stewards. We have been given this life and probation as stewards of God. Let us honor and purify these bodies. Let us honor and purify the holy ordinances that we have entered into. Let us magnify God and His holy ordinances by our faith, by our steadfastness, and our faith and faithfulness unto the end.

Remember, dear brothers and sisters, this holy order of matrimony, the covenants of which have been recited to us here today, is the most sacred and holy ordinance that has been given to us, and it requires that we be faithful and true unto the end in order to realize the blessings of thrones, and dominions and powers, and the glorious blessings of the holy resurrection, through our faithfulness unto the end. Are we breaking any of the laws, ordinances of this holy bond of matrimony? If we have, then we stand in a terrible condition before the Lord, because we have treated lightly these things, and we have not come to a point that Enoch and Abel came to, and all of the holy Prophets. They had this testimony that they pleased God. When we can come to that point, then we will have power with God, true faith in our prayers; and we can come to Him and move as one people to redeem Zion. This is what President Johnson is trying to accomplish, to prepare a people for this glorious purpose.

Joseph Smith came in 1886, to begin the setting in order process. How many years is that down to now? Seventy-eight years this century, and fourteen in the other -- ninety-two years. Joseph Smith is still behind the veil working in our behalf, and his fellow servants are trying to accomplish the things that God has asked us to do. President Johnson is the keyholder and the mouthpiece of God to us today. Let us sustain him, and follow his admonitions and instructions, and be one with him; love him with all our heart. Brothers and sisters, we love because of our love of God, the attributes of God as they exist in one another. I love that person most who is most like God. You cannot escape it. Brother Johnson is the most Christlike among us.

Now, let us be of one heart and faith. Let us be encouraged. Let us overcome all evil, and let us approach God with faith in our prayers, by coming to know that our course is pleasing to God through the sacrifice of all earthly things, and accomplish that work that God has set for us to do, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

The Love of God; Words of John the Beloved

I am grateful to hear these words of loyalty and faith from Brother Oler, who is in charge of the work in Canada and is a faithful co-laborer with this Priesthood, and especially with President Johnson. I am grateful to be here with you today and sustain these words of Brother Oler.
I have been deeply moved by the reading of the words of Jesus as quoted by Joseph Smith, Jun., the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son. We are constantly counseled and instructed, brothers and sisters, to get and keep the Spirit of God, as Joseph Smith instructed Brigham at Winter Quarters as the saints were on their way to these vastnesses of the holy Rocky Mountains, for they were sent here to make it holy. It has not been, but this is Zion until we are sent forth to redeem the center place which has been designated by the Lord. The First Comforter is the Holy Ghost.

The other Comforter spoken of is a subject of great interest, and perhaps understood by few of this generation. After a person has faith in Christ, repents of his sins, and is baptized for the remission of his sins and receives the Holy Ghost, (by the laying on of hands), which is the first Comforter, then let him continue to humble himself before God, hungering and thirsting after righteousness, and living by every word of God, and the Lord will soon say unto him, Son, thou shalt be exalted.

When the Lord has thoroughly proved him, and finds that the man is determined to serve Him at all hazards, then the man will find his calling and his election made sure, then it will be his privilege to receive the other Comforter, which the Lord hath promised the Saints, as is recorded in the testimony of St. John, in the 14th chapter,

In the Gospel of John. And I would like to read that chapter. As Jesus, meeting with the Twelve -- Peter and the Apostles:

St. John 14

1. Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
2. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.
3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.
4. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.
5. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?
6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
7. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.
8. Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.
9. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?
10. Believeth thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.
11. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.
12. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

And Joseph, in the Lectures on Faith, explains that mysterious statement.
13. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
14. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.
That was a promise given to Joseph Smith because of his great faith, and that his course was pleasing to God. God promised him anything that he would ask.
15. If ye love me, keep my commandments.

Said the Savior. Then the epistle of John. This was the great Apostle of love.
1 John 4
15. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.
16. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.
17. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.
18. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.
19. We love him, because he first loved us.

Our Father.
20. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?
21. And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

The two first great commandments.

St. John 14

16. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

The Second Comforter.

17. Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

Through the Holy Spirit.

18. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.
19. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

How? Through the Holy Spirit, which is the mind of the Father and the Son.

21. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me:

This works in the family, brothers and sisters.

21. ...and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22. Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
23. Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.
25. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

This was at the feast of the Passover when Jesus gave them the Sacrament and pointed out him who would betray Him, for on the morrow He would go.

26. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27. Peace I leave with you,
The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of peace.

27. ...my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

29. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30. Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

This beloved Apostle of Jesus Christ, John, was translated and is yet ministering among the children of men, among the Ten Tribes, and preparing them to come before the great coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. Now, brothers and sisters, I just desire to preach the Gospel of love as it is given here, and ascribe the honor and glory to God, and pray that we may be one as the Father and the Son are one; as Michael, Jesus, and Joseph are one; and pray that the time may soon come when the Father will send Joseph, the One Mighty and Strong, to set in order the House of God. And I pray, dear brothers and sisters, that we may be prepared to help to set in order the House of God, and to go on to redeem Zion, being one in the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Warning of the Judgments of God

I am grateful to be here in association with Presidents Hammon and Jessop, under assignment and direction of President Johnson, we meet with you in considering the things which the Lord desires us to understand and know and to be guided by.

I was deeply impressed last May, when the Council was all here with President Johnson, when he, our President and head, called upon us in all earnestness and seriousness, to read and to study and be guided by these scriptures which the Lord had commanded us to search, "for in them ye have eternal life." And I can't think of anything better in keeping with the instructions of President Johnson, viewing as I do the Gospel, as he has so frequently laid it out before us, of preparation.

Basically, that is what Joseph Smith was sent forth to do, to prepare the way of the Lord; and we had better believe it. When he saw the Father and the Son, he was told that he would be the instrument in preparing the way of the Lord. In this, he has acted in the office of an Elias, which was the great mission of John the Baptist in the meridian of time, preparing the way of the Lord. Joseph was sent forth to prepare the way of the Lord preparatory to His glorious coming, and to prepare us against the day of visitation of the judgments of God, that we might be a prepared people against those judgments and times that are now facing us.

In March of 1831, the Lord was preparing His people for the time when they should go to the borders of the Lamanites, which was the City of Zion, and where the great temple was to be built. And he was continually foreshadowing to the Prophet and His saints, what they were about to be sent forth to do. And afterwards, I would like to preface the main point of what I feel impressed to give you here today, the first few verses of Section 84.

D.& C. 84

1. A revelation of Jesus Christ unto his servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and six elders, as they united their hearts and lifted their voices on high.
2. Yea, the word of the Lord concerning his church, established in the last days for the restoration of his people, as he has spoken by the mouth of his prophets, and for the gathering of his saints to stand upon Mount Zion, which shall be the city of New Jerusalem.
3. Which city shall be built, beginning at the temple lot, which is appointed by the finger of the Lord, in the western boundaries of the State of Missouri, and dedicated by the hand of Joseph Smith, Jun., and others with whom the Lord was well pleased.

4. Verily this is the word of the Lord, that the city New Jerusalem shall be built by the gathering of the saints, beginning at this place, even the place of the temple, which temple shall be reared in this generation.

5. For verily this generation shall not all pass away until an house shall be built unto the Lord, and a cloud shall rest upon it, which cloud shall be even the glory of the Lord, which shall fill the house.

That was in 1832, September. Frequently the Lord told Joseph to tell the saints that these things are at our door; and we must realize, brothers and sisters, that the Lord was speaking according to His measurement of time. What is a generation? It has many different times and connotations. In the time of the Lord, we must realize that it has an extended meaning, "generation" involved in this Dispensation of the Fullness of Times.

I feel that we have in Section 45 of the Doctrine and Covenants, the word of the Lord to us, in which Jesus is spoken of as having told His disciples, in answer to their query, what would be the signs of His great and glorious coming. If that was at the door then, how much nearer is it now, one hundred and forty-seven years later? And we have, in partial fulfillment, some of the things that are given us here. And I ask that the Spirit of God will be with me as I read this voice of warning, this voice of warning to us, brothers and sisters.

D. & C. 45

1. Hearken, O ye people of my church,

We are trying to live the law of the Church of the Firstborn, brothers and sisters, and the true Church of God is where the Priesthood of God is and the people who follow it.

1. ...to whom the kingdom has been given; hearken ye and give ear to him who laid the foundation of the earth, who made the heavens and all the hosts thereof, and by whom all things were made which live, and move, and have a being.

2. And again I say, hearken unto my voice, lest death shall overtake you; in an hour when ye think not the summer shall be past, and the harvest ended, and your souls not saved.

3. Listen to him who is the advocate with the Father, who is pleading your cause before him --
And I am satisfied that our Lord, Jesus Christ, is pleading our cause before our Father in our behalf, and He is pleading our cause through the mouthpiece of God, President Leroy S. Johnson.

4. Saying: Father, behold the sufferings and death of him who did no sin, in whom thou wast well pleased; behold the blood of thy Son which was shed, the blood of him whom thou gavest that thyself might be glorified;

5. Wherefore, Father, spare these my brethren that believe on my name, that they may come unto me and have everlasting life.

6. Hearken, O ye people of my church, and ye elders listen together. This message wasn't just to the saints then. It is to us now; and as the Lord has said so frequently, "What I say unto one, you who can hear, I say unto all who follow." The message is still to us as it was then.

5. Wherefore, Father, spare these my brethren that believe on my name, that they may come unto me and have everlasting life.

6. Hearken O, ye people of my church, and ye elders listen together, and hear my voice while it is called today, and harden not your hearts; Hardening our hearts is the exact opposite of being humble before the Lord, and receptive. And those who harden their hearts are they who apostatize against our Lord.

7. For verily I say unto you that I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the light and life of the world -- a light that shineth in darkness and the darkness comprehendeth it not.

8. I came unto mine own, and mine own received me not; but unto as many as received me gave I power to do many miracles, and to become the sons of God; and even unto them that believed on my name gave I power to obtain eternal life.

9. And even so I have sent mine everlasting covenant into the world, to be a light to the world, and to be a standard for my people, and for the Gentiles to seek to it, and to be a messenger before my face to prepare the way before me.

10. Wherefore, come ye unto it, and with him that cometh I will reason as with men in days of old, and I will show unto you my strong reasoning.

11. Wherefore, hearken ye together and let me show unto you even my wisdom -- the wisdom of him whom ye say is the God of Enoch, and his brethren,
12. Who were separated from the earth, and were received unto myself -- a city reserved until a day of righteousness shall come -- a day which was sought for by all holy men, and they found it not because of wickedness and abominations;

It is wonderful that Melchizedek sought it and obtained.

13. And confessed they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth;

These, His Prophets.

14. But obtained a promise that they should find it and see it in their flesh.

15. Wherefore, hearken and I will reason with you, and I will speak unto you and prophesy, as unto men in days of old.

16. And I will show it plainly as I showed it unto my disciples as I stood before them in the flesh, and spake unto them, saying: As ye have asked of me concerning the signs of my coming, in the day when I shall come in my glory in the clouds of heaven, to fulfill the promises that I have made unto your fathers,

17. For as ye have looked upon the long absence of your spirits from your bodies to be a bondage, I will show unto you how the day of redemption shall come, and also the restoration of the scattered Israel.

18. And now ye behold this temple which is in Jerusalem, which ye call the house of God, and your enemies say that this house shall never fall.

19. But, verily I say unto you, that desolation shall come upon this generation as a thief in the night, and this people shall be destroyed and scattered among all nations.

At Old Jerusalem,

20. And this temple which ye now see shall be thrown down that there shall not be left one stone upon another.

21. And it shall come to pass, that this generation of Jews shall not pass away until every desolation which I have told you concerning them shall come to pass.

22. Ye say that ye know that the end of the world cometh; ye say also that ye know that the heavens and the earth shall pass away;

23. And in this ye say truly, for so it is; but these things which I have told you shall not pass away until all shall be fulfilled.
24. And this I have told you concerning Jerusalem; and when that day shall come, shall a remnant be scattered among all nations;
25. But they shall be gathered again; but they shall remain until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

26. And in that day shall be heard of wars and rumors of wars, and the whole earth shall be in commotion, and men's hearts shall fail them, and they shall say that Christ delayeth his coming until the end of the earth.
27. And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.

This we have.

28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;
29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.

30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. President Johnson has said that this time has been accomplished. The times of the Gentiles have been fulfilled, and that when the Manifesto and the turning away from the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ was done. And now the Gospel is unto the House of Israel, and the gathering of Israel.

31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass, until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.
That is the overflowing scourge, a desolating sickness covering the land, this land of Joseph.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places,
We are supposed to be His disciples, brothers and sisters. Will we hearken and stand in holy places, sanctify our homes, and the places that we inhabit, and make them holy unto the Lord? For only they shall stand.
32. ...and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.
We have a very good account of these things which the Lord told His Apostles, called disciples, in chapter 24 of Matthew, which was translated anew by the Prophet Joseph Smith, and we have it in the Pearl of Great Price. I commend this to your reading, for which this has a great deal to do with.

35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.
36. And when the light shall begin to break forth, it shall be with them like unto a parable which I will show you --
And these parables apply to us.
37. Ye look and behold the fig trees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;
38. Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.
39. And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.
40. And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.
41. And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.
42. And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.
43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;
44. And then they shall look for me, and, behold, I will come; and they shall see me in the clouds of heaven, clothed with power and great glory, with all the holy angels; and he that watches not for me shall be cut off.
45. But before the arm of the Lord shall fall, an angel shall sound his trump, and the saints that have slept shall come forth to meet me in the cloud.
46. Wherefore, if ye have slept in peace blessed are you; for as you now behold me and know that I am, even so shall ye come unto me and your souls shall live, and your redemption shall be perfected; and the saints shall come forth from the four quarters of the earth.
47. Then shall the arm of the Lord fall upon the nations.
48. And then shall the Lord set his foot upon this mount, and it shall cleave in twain,
The Mount of Olives is where He shall come first.
48. ...and the earth shall tremble and reel to and fro, and the heavens also shall shake.

49. And the Lord shall utter his voice, and all the ends of the earth shall hear it; and the nations of the earth shall mourn, and they that have laughed shall see their folly.
50. And calamity shall cover the mocker, and the scorners shall be consumed; and they that have watched for iniquity shall be hewn down and cast into the fire.

51. And then shall the Jews look upon me and say: What are these wounds in thine hands and in thy feet?
52. Then shall they know that I am the Lord; for I will say unto them: These wounds are the wounds with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. I am he who was lifted up. I am Jesus that was crucified. I am the Son of God.

53. And then shall they weep because of their iniquities; then shall they lament because they persecuted their king.
54. And then shall the heathen nations be redeemed, and they that knew no law shall have part in the first resurrection; and it shall be tolerable for them.

55. And Satan shall be bound, that he shall have no place in the hearts of the children of men.
56. And at that day, when I shall come in my glory, shall the parable be fulfilled which I spake concerning the ten virgins.
57. For they that are wise and have received the truth, and have taken the Holy Spirit for their guide, and have not been deceived -- verily I say unto you, they shall not be hewn down and cast into the fire, but shall abide the day.
58. And the earth shall be given unto them for an inheritance; and they shall multiply and wax strong, and their children shall grow up without sin unto salvation.
That is the Millennium.

59. For the Lord shall be in their midst, and his glory shall be upon them, and he will be their king and their lawgiver.

60. And now, behold, I say unto you, it shall not be given unto you to know any further concerning this chapter, until the New Testament be translated, and in it all these things shall be made known;

61. Wherefore I give unto you that ye may now translate it, that ye may be prepared for the things to come.

62. For verily I say unto you, that great things await you;

63. Ye hear of wars in foreign lands; but, behold, I say unto you, they are nigh, even at your doors, and not many years hence ye shall hear of wars in your own lands.

Yea, in this land.

64. Wherefore I, the Lord, have said, gather ye out from the eastern lands, assemble ye yourselves together ye elders of my church; go ye forth into the western countries, call upon the inhabitants to repent, and inasmuch as they do repent, build up churches unto me.

65. And with one heart and with one mind, gather up your riches that ye may purchase an inheritance which shall hereafter be appointed unto you.

66. And it shall be called the New Jerusalem, a land of peace, a city of refuge, a place of safety for the saints of the Most High God;

67. And the glory of the Lord shall be there, and the terror of the Lord also shall be there, insomuch that the wicked will not come unto it, and it shall be called Zion.

68. And it shall come to pass among the wicked, that every man that will not take his sword against his neighbor must needs flee unto Zion for safety.

69. And there shall be gathered unto it out of every nation under heaven; and it shall be the only people that shall not be at war one with another.

70. And it shall be said among the wicked: Let us not go up to battle against Zion, for the inhabitants of Zion are terrible; wherefore we cannot stand.

71. And it shall come to pass that the righteous shall be gathered out from among all nations, and shall come to Zion, singing with songs of everlasting joy.

72. And now I say into you, keep these things from going abroad unto the world until it is expedient in me, that ye may accomplish this work in the eyes of the people, and in the eyes of your enemies, that they may not know your works until ye have accomplished the thing which I have commanded you;

73. That when they shall know it, that they may consider these things.

74. For when the Lord shall appear he shall be terrible unto them, that fear may seize upon them, and they shall stand afar off and tremble.

75. And all nations shall be afraid because of the terror of the Lord, and the power of his might. Even so. Amen.

God help us to prepare against these things as we have been called upon so many times to do, that we may be humble and contrite, and offer a sacrifice of a broken heart and a contrite spirit; and repent and come unto Him with full purpose of heart, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

President Johnson Conquers Evil by Being Humble; Be Humble When Chastized;
Dream of Brigham Young Concerning the Spirit of God;
Why the Saints Were Driven from Zion;
Humility Through Sacrifice

I rejoice in being here with you, my dear brothers and sisters, under the direction of President Johnson. I desire, as he always says, the Spirit of God to dictate what may be said. I am reminded of the teaching of the Prophet Joseph Smith:

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death.
Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men.

Now here is the key, dear brothers and sisters:

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil. Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people.

Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

Brother Johnson is calling upon us continually to obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ and become like God. He calls upon us continually to prepare ourselves, that we might have a part in the redemption of Zion. We cannot be in that company, my dear brothers and sisters, save we are like Christ our Lord. No man can know that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

Joseph, in talking to the Relief Society in 1842, spoke some truths that I would like to say are like our President Leroy Johnson.

"Great big Elders," as he called them, who caused him much trouble; to whom he had taught the things of the kingdom in private councils, they would then go forth into the world and proclaim the things he had taught them, as their own revelations; said the same aspiring disposition will be in this Society, and must be guarded against; that every person should stand, and act in the place appointed, and thus sanctify the Society and get it pure. He said he had been trampled under foot by aspiring Elders, for all were infected with that spirit; for instance, John E. Page and others had been aspiring; they could not be exalted, but must run away as though the care and authority of the Church were vested with them. He said he had a subtle devil to deal with, and could only curb him by being humble.

This is how President Johnson has dealt with a man who has tried to beset this work and made threats against him. It has been a wonderful thing how he acted as Joseph did in dealing with this "subtle devil". I suppose you know who I am talking about -- Harold Blackmore. And the way he dealt with him was by being humble, not fighting back, and leaving him in the hands of the Lord. There is such great power, brothers and sisters, great strength and faith in being humble and being subject to God, and living by every word that He gives.

I am going to read again, brothers and sisters, some instructions of Joseph Smith, which are the very same things that are being taught to us by our President and head now. Joseph, standing before Brigham Young in a dream, said:

Truth 10:221

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright."

Our President conquers by having, all of the time, the Spirit of God. That is the power by which he lives, and breathes, and acts, and is such a great example to us.

...and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go; it will yield the fruits of the Kingdom. Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls;

One filled with the Holy Ghost feels nothing but peace and joy, and they can take and receive persecution and all manner of things from the fiery darts of the adversary, by remaining at peace and rejoicing in the power and blessings of God.

...it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord; and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Section 101 of the Doctrine and Covenants tells how and why the Saints were driven from their inheritances in Zion, in Jackson County. He gave this in December of 1833, after they had been driven out, and Joseph inquired why. He said they were first in need of chastisement for their transgressions. He said there were jarrings, and strife, and contentions, envyings, and lustful and covetous desires in their hearts. By these things they polluted their inheritances. That was a chastisement for the whole people then, who had been called and sent to redeem Zion and to build it up and to live under the Holy United Order. These are the things, brothers and sisters, that beset us in our families. President Johnson was saying something about that just today.

Did you notice what Joseph said to Brigham? If they have the Spirit of God it does away with all malice, and hatred, and strifes and jarrings. You cannot have, and do those things; you cannot have them in your heart, we cannot have them in our hearts, and still have the Spirit of God. It is impossible. When we have those things in our hearts we lose the Spirit of God -- if we had it. Do we know when we have it and when we don't? We should know if we know the fruits of the Spirit; and we are not going to become one without it. "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine," said the Lord.

So the glorious principle of love and charity, spoken of by Moroni -- which I say is indeed the Holy Spirit of God -- must be with us continually in order for us to be one. But what do we find in our families? Women cannot be chastised without flaring up, and some children the same. I think if we would see how our children receive it, mothers, you would learn how to receive it also. Chastisement is the means by which the Lord makes us humble. And if we would only respond by becoming humble, by humbling ourselves and praying constantly.

The only way we are going to get and keep the Spirit of God is through prayer. And how can we approach God and have our prayers answered? By the spirit of sacrifice, the spirit of sacrifice for one another, and for the whole people, and for the Priesthood. We need to learn the law of sacrifice, which will make us humble. The Lord continually, through all of His words, tells us that we must be humble, that we are not yet sufficiently humble to receive the blessings that we desire with all our hearts. If we desired them, we would be willing to pay the price to obtain them. So our desires may not be what they should; but I am sure it is with most.

Here is a wonderful instruction given by Daniel H. Wells, which one of the brethren, many years ago -- it was Joseph -- gave as the word of the Lord to the saints. "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." And here is one means by which we can become one, wives with husbands.

I say to the sisters, seek to have confidence in your husbands, and believe that they are capable of leading you; and when you seek instruction, believe them capable of giving it to you; and be faithful, humble, and obedient to them. Their feelings should not be concentrated in you,

They will be as you need and deserve it, if he is righteous; but the main thing he is talking about it this:

...but your feelings should be in them, and theirs should be in those who lead them in the Priesthood. Their feelings are concentrated in the Lord their God and what is ahead, and there is where they should be. You should be glad to see them step forward and walk onward in the path of their duty, and not require them to devote themselves to you to the exclusion of things and duties of life which lie before them. As they progress and lead on, you will feel to travel in the same road.

And there will be your joy, enjoying the Spirit of God mutually, and traveling down the same road of righteousness and truth; and loving this holy order, the Family Order of Heaven, with all your heart, might, mind, and strength.

As they progress and lead on, you will feel to travel in the same road. This is the order, and if order is maintained in this thing, you will see the beauty of it; and it will be a satisfaction to you and them to believe that your husband, he who is at your head, is progressing in the things of God. There is the responsibility of the man, and speaking also to the brethren in this.

That should be a satisfaction to you, and it will be, if you are inspired by the right spirit and feeling. In this way you will have happiness, and see good times.

So let us review this again. I would like to read the first few verses of Section 101, down to the point where I think it will be of some real help to us.

D.& C. 101

1. Verily I say unto you, concerning your brethren who have been afflicted, and persecuted, and cast out from the land of their inheritance --

2. I, the Lord, have suffered the affliction to come upon them, wherewith they have been afflicted, in consequence of their transgressions;

3. Yet I will own them,

That is a wonderful encouragement.
3. ...and they shall be mine in that day when I shall come to make up my jewels.

4. Therefore, they must needs be chastened and tried, even as Abraham, who was commanded to offer up his only son.
5. For all those who will not endure chastening, but deny me, cannot be sanctified.

6. Behold, I say unto you, there were jarrings, and contentions, and envyings, and strifes, and lustful and covetous desires among them; therefore by these things they polluted their inheritances.
7. They were slow to hearken unto the voice of the Lord their God; therefore, the Lord their God is slow to hearken unto their prayers, to answer them in the day of their trouble.
8. In the day of their peace they esteemed lightly my counsel; but, in the day of their trouble, of necessity they feel after me.
9. Verily I say unto you, notwithstanding their sins, my bowels are filled with compassion towards them. I will not utterly cast them off; and in the day of wrath I will remember mercy.

Thank God for His mercy and blessings unto us, dear brothers and sisters, and for the glorious principle of repentance, which is the means by which we become humble; through prayer and faith, and through sacrifice. We must pray over everything that we do if we would have the Lord before us and helping us at all times. And if anything is worth doing, it is worth doing right; and we cannot do it right without the Spirit of God. I would like to read what Joseph said regarding prayer.

We would say to the brethren, seek to know God in your closets, call upon him in the fields. Follow the directions of the Book of Mormon, and pray over, and for your families, your cattle, your flocks, your herds, your corn, and all things that you possess;

And the sisters, pray continually over your cooking, your sewing, your dishes; do them with the Spirit of God; and especially over your children. They are in your charge, mothers, to a very much greater extent than with the brethren. And Brigham Young went so far as to say that the mother, primarily, is going to have to answer if she has failed to do all she can, leaving them without excuse, and raising them up in light and truth and in love; raising them up in love, reproving betimes with sharpness when moved upon by the Holy Ghost, and then afterwards showing forth much love, lest they esteem you to be their enemy. Isn't that beautiful, the way Joseph describes that in Section 121?

Be virtuous and pure; be men of integrity and truth; keep the commandments of God; and then you will be able more perfectly to understand the difference between right and wrong -- between the things of God and the things of men;

Going towards God and away from the devil.

...and your path will be like that of the just, which shineth brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

Life is made up of small things, it seems, but these are great things when we put all these everyday activities into practice -- I mean these principles into our daily practice, and that is what makes up a life; until we become perfect as He is perfect, until we become like Him, which I pray we may do with all our heart, might, mind, and strength.

My dear brothers and sisters, if we would only take that first great commandment and all that it says and means into our lives, we would be following every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart -- with all thy heart, not part -- with all thy might, with all thy strength; and our neighbors as ourselves with all our heart. Then would we be perfect.

The pure love of Christ is given the name of charity by Moroni, and this covers all -- the Holy Spirit. I can't help but feel, as I read it, that is the Holy Spirit he is talking about. God is love. God is love and He is all of these other attributes which Joseph has revealed to us. And that is why He is God - - unchangeable, no respecter of persons, a God of truth and cannot lie, He is love. May we be filled with this love, as Moroni says, that we may see Him, our Lord Jesus Christ, at the last day, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Priesthood Principles of Education

This is a beautiful sight, brothers and sisters; young, middle-aged, and old. We are grateful to be here under the Presidency of President Musser. We miss President Johnson, who had to be in the South on other business.

As you probably know, this school is operated a corporate organization called "Alta Academy". We have organized under this as sort of an umbrella and protection for us to proceed in our rights as private citizens, to teach and train our children in a private school. Brother Steed and Brother Draper and I are trustees.

We have ten teachers and three aids, and one hundred eighteen students. We are growing, and I pray that we may be growing unto perfection as well as in numbers. Quality and quantity go together, desiring to bring here upon the Lord's footstool His children under the New and Everlasting Covenant.

I deeply appreciate the instructions and remarks of President Musser and the other brethren. I consider it an honor and a privilege to do what I can to further the education and instruction of our dear children, the sons and daughters of the Father. We have you for five hours of the day, which we want to make, as I have said before, an extension of the discipline and training of your homes. I ask the Spirit of God to direct me in making what remarks I have to give you here today. I consider it a privilege, as I say, to be able to serve in this capacity.

Just a little bit of humor: A child was asked how they liked the school they were going to. "Oh, it is a wonderful school; it is just the "principal" of the thing." [Laughter] I would like it to be a good principal, and teach good and correct principle, the other kind. I try to continually emphasize the grand principle that Brigham Young gave to Karl G. Maeser when he was sent to conduct the Brigham Young Academy in Provo. When he was asked for instructions, Brigham Young said, "Teach by the Holy Ghost." We can't go wrong if we do that; and I think we can follow the instructions that have been given us by the Prophet Joseph Smith:

We would say to the brethren, seek to know God in your closets, call upon him in the fields. Follow the directions of the Book of Mormon, and pray over, and for your families, your cattle, your flocks, your herds, your corn, and all things that you possess; ask the blessing of God upon all your labors, be men
And women,
...of integrity and truth; keep the commandments of God; and then you will be able more perfectly to understand the difference between right and wrong -- between the things of God and the things of men; and your path will be like that of the just, which shineth brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

So teachers and students, pray over your labors daily. If you have the Spirit of God you cannot become vandals or be children of violence. The Spirit of God is the Spirit of peace and love, and this is how we should govern ourselves. I can't think of -- well, maybe I can quote it -- a better instruction than the Lord gave through Joseph Smith the Prophet.

D.& C. 121
41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood,
And teachers should remember that they are operating under the power of the Priesthood over them, as agents of the Priesthood.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;
Let that be the criteria as we govern these children.

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
If we all have the Spirit of God, children, and teachers, and parents, we cannot have anything but peace, and love, and kindness, and joy, and rejoicing as we labor together. I consider this schooling that we are engaging in as part of our preparation to become the children of Zion.

As I say, I feel very keenly the responsibility, and I want the teachers to, as they have these children in their care for five hours a day. We are teaching reading, writing, arithmetic, history, English, and how to get along with one another. That is all I want about the social sciences -- how to get along with one another. We are here to work and study. This is not a social club. That is all they make of the public schools, just a social club, and I appreciate Brother Musser's instructions.

Now for the benefit of those who are just coming in now, and to remind us, those who have been with us -- the playground equipment on the east here is off-limits. There is not enough of it for everybody to use, and that is not what we are here for. You are sent out of doors when it is good weather to stretch your legs. It is no problem about having a little run around the place here on the pavement, not on the garden or the lawn.

Now to get down to our business of the day. We have ten rooms here set aside for our school, and adjacent restrooms. We are going to provide a fountain, I think, in the lower main hall on the west end. We have opened up two rooms south of the recreation room. There is a restroom there, but we can use another one adjacent. We don't want any running around in the school. When you get a drink of water, and hope we will have a fountain for you for this end and one over here, provide some cups for you, but don't play around with cups. I think I should say that last year, while the teachers may have mentioned to me some problem children, I did not have to talk to anyone. They were able to handle it. So do not be discouraged with the "principal of the thing". [Laughter]

I really appreciate the attitude and spirit of the children in general. I want you children to want to be here, because we can teach you in the right Spirit, and to take care of your work. Be diligent. Be diligent in your work, and be prayerful in your work, children. You should pray over your lessons, your studies, and all that you do, as Joseph the Prophet has told us. And teachers, be prayerful, each and every one in your work, in teaching the children in your care. That is the way you will get the Spirit of God, through faith and prayers, and faith in our prayers.

I would like to mention another principle that President Johnson has spoken of so many times. The spirit of competition is not to be in this school. Now it could be more particular. In your studies in your labors, children, don't compete with one another as they do in the sports and other things in the world. Do not seek to excel over one another; only do your best. The object of your studies and labors here should be to do your very best for your own sake. Seek learning, said the Lord to Joseph, by study and by prayer, out of the best books. We don't conduct a scholarship competition here at all as they do in the public schools. If you have done your best, then you have done the best; and it should be a satisfaction to you individually, children, that you have done your best and accomplished your work. We do some grading and we do some progress reports for you, but this is only to let you and your parents know how you are progressing under your teachers, and I am sure they will be honest and fair in every case. These things are only given to help you to maybe do better, change some of your habits of study and learning, and to let us learn, that we may be qualified to take our place in the great work in which we are engaged.

We need to learn to read above all things. If you cannot read, you cannot do arithmetic, you cannot do English, you cannot do history or anything else, and this is a great emphasis of our beginning studies in the First Grade and in their preparation for the First Grade. Out in the world there -- you should be so grateful that you are not going there -- young men and women are graduating from High School, and they cannot even read their diploma. Did you know that? If it should so be that we do have to come under the public school boards and have to give tests or be subjected to a testing, I am confident that you children can all pass with flying colors, and better than they do in the Public Schools. And I don't say that in a spirit of competition now, just in the spirit of qualifying.

There has been considerable publicity over the Singer family up in Summit County. They made the mistake of subjecting themselves to the local school board or school authorities. We have not done that. We just went right ahead, and when they thought they had jurisdiction, we had a letter from the State Department of Education, which said they have no jurisdiction over private schools as to curriculum or certification of teachers.

But I expect that we will be able to do better than the public schools. If we don't, we are not fulfilling our mission in the work that we have been set apart to do. And that is not in the spirit of competition. I just want us to qualify to learn for learning's sake, and that we may learn to become God's children and to be prepared to have a part in the redemption of Zion. Reading, writing, arithmetic, history, English, being able to express ourselves, are a very necessary part of our education and upbuilding. Joseph Smith in Nauvoo, and Brigham Young in Salt Lake and in Utah, were great advocates of a school and education for our people, and we are trying to carry on in that tradition.

I desire to now invoke the blessings of God upon us all, and pray that we may have a joyful time in working together here in this school, that we will be prepared to graduate into the presence of God in due time; and I ask it in Jesus' name, amen.

Faith; Spirit of Revelation; Unite With the One Man

I am grateful to be here and respond to the direction of President Johnson, and pray God to bless me with His Spirit that I may tell the truth, that it may be instructive to you and to me. What the Lord says unto one He says unto all. This is the condition under which the revelations of God have been given to Joseph Smith and to his successors in the holy Priesthood since, and I feel the need greater than you to get and keep the Spirit of God and to be one with the Father, through His servant Leroy Johnson.

There has been ringing in my ears the words of Brigham Young when he spoke about the saints coming out to the tops of the mountains according to the direction and revelation of God. He said so many of those people came willingly because they had to; which says to me they came, too many of them, murmuring. The reason that the set time was not accomplished for the redemption of Zion, which was set for September 1836, and this was given after the saints were driven out from Zion in 1833. Zion's Camp was set out to redeem Zion and to succor and help their brothers and sisters who were still in Missouri. This first and great commandment which Brother Timpson just closed with -- thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy might, and with all thy strength -- and this means that we go down the road with His servant without murmuring, loving our brother and our sister as ourselves, learning the grand truth that we should love our brother whom we can see. We cannot say we love our Father whom we cannot see if we do not do that. Apostle Orson Hyde said some things here that I would like to read in his word as a preface to what I feel to say here today.

JD 5:279  Orson Hyde  October 4, 1857  SLC

There is no doubt at all but that we shall have trials to pass through -- all, perhaps, that we are able to bear; for all strength that is given to us will be tested, and will be tried, and will be proven.

That is why we are here.

It is now for us to avoid one fatal rock, I may say, upon which the Israelites of old wrecked to a certain extent; and that is, that when they were gloriously delivered by the hand of our God and brought into the wilderness by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm, they murmured against Moses and they murmured against God because they could not enjoy the luxuries -- the good things of Egypt, such as they were wont to enjoy while in bondage.

How soon did they forget the mighty miracles that were wrought for their deliverance! There was a time that the Israelites could do nothing. They had come to the shores of the Red Sea: they could not advance; their enemies were in their rear, and they could not advance. When they looked forward, it seemed impossible for them to pass onward; and when they looked back, destruction awaited them; and in the midst of this they exclaimed, perhaps, "What shall we do?"

It appears that there was nothing to be done, and hence the word was to them to stand still and see the salvation of God. In due time Moses was directed to smite the waters of the Red Sea: the waters were divided and Israel bade to go forward.

It appears that the Lord will open the way wherever he requires his Saints to go, however dark and hedged up it may seem. Yet, when the time comes for us to take one step, the way will open;

President Barlow saw in a dream this wonderful principle. It seems we get up against the wall and do not know how we are going to take the next step. But if, through faith, we will take it, the wall will move and all obstacles will be removed.

...and it is not likely that we can see the final issue or the result of our journey at first. If we could see the end, there would be no trial of our faith; but all the time we must walk by faith, and not by sight.

It is a good deal in this respect as it was with the disciples of old: it was required that they should take no thought what they should eat, what they should drink, or wherewithal they should be clothed.
It was also required that they should take no thought what they should say, for they were told it should be given unto them in the very hour what they should speak; and so it will be given to the faithful and pure before the Lord in this age of the world in the very hour that it is required and in the very time that it is needed.

They will see how to take one step and where to place one foot; and if they cannot see where to put the second, they must wait till they can see where to put it.

This was the case with the children of Israel when they were bade to go through the Red Sea; for whether they could see the track open all the way across is very questionable with me; but as they saw where to take one step, so they were required to advance all the way through that mighty deep, and they went through dryshod; and the very means ordained for their salvation were the very means for the destruction of their enemies.

But after the children of Israel had such a glorious triumph and sang the songs of deliverance, how soon they murmured against the authority of God and the Holy One who was appointed to lead them. They wanted the flesh, the leeks, and onions of Egypt; and the Lord was forced to come out of his hiding-place and cut them off from the face of the earth; and there fell in one day three-and-twenty thousand. This is written for our example, that we through faith and patience of the Scriptures might have comfort.

It is written, "A prophet shall the Lord our God raise up like unto me:" that is Moses speaking: "And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall not hear that Prophet shall be cut off from among the people."

That Prophet, as it was told later in scripture, was to be Jesus Christ who would lead the saints to Zion in His person, as Moses led the children of Israel, dryshod over the Red Sea. The significant thing that I want to bring to our attention here today is:

"And it shall come to pass that whosoever shall not hear that Prophet shall be cut off from among the people."

To us, dear brothers and sisters, our Prophet is Leroy S. Johnson. He is our Moses, our Enoch, trying to lead us back into the presence of God through the redemption of Zion, trying to get us to be a prepared people.

This is the only people who profess to have Prophets of this character, even like unto Moses; and the word is that whosoever will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people. A Prophet shall be at the head to lead, as it was with Israel when Moses led them. Did he not say, "I will take and lead you as in days of old?" Well, then, the ministration and signs of Moses are to be enacted again.

That is what the Lord tells us in Section 105.

Joel shows us how they are to be. Read the 2nd chapter of Joel.

"Why," says the Lord, "I sent my angel before my people hitherto; but I have said that in the last days I will go myself before my people."

And that prophecy was confirmed in a revelation given in Section 105.

He has declared that he will utter his voice before his army, for his camp is very great.

Brethren and sisters, be agreed this respect, and be sure that when you ask for a thing you do not doubt it; but hold on to it and believe that you receive the things you ask for, and you shall have them. What mind of spirit is it that comes and says, "Now, I will go and ask for this or that; I do not know whether I will get it; it is a question whether my prayers are heard; but I will pray because it is my duty?"

Go willingly because we have to.

Now, a double-minded man is not a man of faith. We should consider what we want and what is the mind and will of God to grant us. Say, "So and so is the mind of God," and satisfy yourself that the prayer you are about to offer is really the mind and will of your Father in heaven; then bow down and ask for that thing or for those very things. And when we have asked for any blessing, never let a doubt arise in our minds as to whether we shall receive the blessing.

That is having faith in our prayers, but the Lord tells us that we should ask for that which is expedient, or it may turn to our condemnation. So we need the Spirit of revelation to pray and to have faith in our prayers.

Well now, brothers and sisters, the only way we are going to go down the road with Brother Johnson is to become one with our legitimate Priesthood head -- wives and children to their husbands and fathers, and the fathers one with President Johnson -- and to go down the road without murmuring. I am afraid that is the great problem which besets so many of our people -- too much complaining, too much finding fault, too much criticizing. I have heard from the lips of some Elders that President Johnson does not receive revelation as the head of Priesthood in times before, and the same kind of talk is coming out from among this people, both here and in the south. I just want to, without further ado, remind us again that whosoever shall not hear that Prophet shall be cut off from among the people.

I testify to you that President Leroy Johnson is our Prophet, our head, the mouthpiece of God, and that he has given us continually the truths of heaven by the Spirit of revelation day in and day out, month in and month out. For some reason or another they seem to be inclined to compare Brother Johnson with some other Priesthood head before. I would like to remind us all, brothers and sisters, beginning with Brigham Young, following Joseph Smith the Prophet -- through whom we have all that we have by way of revelation in the restoration of the holy Priesthood and the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ -- Brigham said, and he is accounted for as having given revelation: I have taught you people nothing but what I have been taught by Joseph Smith the Prophet. He taught only what they were able to receive. He did not tell everything the Prophet Joseph gave him. The people were not ready to receive it. I will tell you what Joseph Smith said on this matter.

President Joseph arose and said: "Brother Kimball has given you a true explanation of the parable," and then read the parable of the vine and its branches, and explained it, and said, "If we keep the commandments of God, we should bring forth fruit and be the friends of God, and know what our Lord did.

"Some people say I am a fallen Prophet,
They said this of him, and all of those "great big Elders", these aspiring Elders, said he was a fallen Prophet.
...because I do not bring forth more of the word of the Lord, Why do I not do it? Are we able to receive it? No! Not one in this room. He then chastened the congregation for their wickedness and unbelief, 'for whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son and daughter whom he receiveth,' and if we do not receive chastisements then we are bastards and not sons."

Bastards are illegitimate.

On the subject of revelation, he said, a man would command his sons to dig potatoes and saddle his horse, but before he had done either he would tell him to do something else. This is all considered right; but as soon as the Lord gives a commandment and revokes that decree and commands something else, then the Prophet is considered fallen. Because we will not receive chastisement at the hands of the Prophets and Apostles, the Lord chastiseth us with sickness and death. Let not any man publish his own righteousness,

"Beware the pride," said the Prophet in another place.

...for others can see that (his righteousness) for him; sooner let him confess his sins, and then he will be forgiven, and he will bring forth more fruit. When a corrupt man is chastised he gets angry and will not endure it.

Are we in our families, brothers and sisters, able to receive chastisement, correction, and direction by our Priesthood head? Are we able to receive chastisement and correction from President Johnson and his Council?

The reason we do not have the secrets of the Lord...

Brother Johnson told us this so strongly last time about endowments -- the reason we do not have them is that we are not clean every whit and we do not keep our secrets.

(Why) we do not have the secrets of the Lord revealed unto us, is because we do not keep them but reveal them; we do not keep our own secrets, but reveal our difficulties to the world, even to our enemies, then how would we keep the secrets of the Lord? I can keep a secret till Doomsday. Said the Prophet.

What greater love hath any man than that he lay down his life for his friend; then why not fight for our friend until we die? (December 19, 1841.) D.H.C. 4:478-479.

President Johnson is our greatest friend and our advocate. I want to testify to you that he is continually giving us revelations from the Lord. The trouble is that we do not recognize it. The Spirit of revelation is something I think we should learn a little something about. I will take a little more of your time. Oliver Cowdery was given the gift of translating the Book of Mormon during the time that Joseph was working on it and He told him that He would do it in this wise:

D.& C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

An angel did not come and tell him. The revelations of the Holy Ghost told him what to do and in faith he called upon God to deliver His people, and He did it by this Spirit of revelation. An angel did not tell Nephi to destroy the life of Laban in order to get the sacred records of the House of Israel. The Holy Spirit told him in his heart and in his mind, and he had faith in it. Giving the reason why Oliver failed in this promise and blessing, He said:

D. & C. 9

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me. That is not asking in faith, just merely asking.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; Exertion of the mind is what is called for. That is what Joseph tells us in the Seventh Lecture on Faith. Faith is the exertion of the mind, through words, through prayer.

8. ...then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

By the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Father and the Son. Now here is what revelation is:

D. & C. 68

2. And, behold, and lo, this is an ensample unto all those who were ordained unto this priesthood, whose mission is appointed unto them to go forth --

3. And this is the ensample unto them, that they shall speak as they are moved upon by the Holy Ghost.
4. And whatsoever they shall speak when moved upon by the Holy Ghost shall be scripture, shall be the will of the Lord, shall be the mind of the Lord, shall be the word of the Lord, shall be the voice of the Lord, and the power of God unto salvation.

Now, what do we expect by way of revelation, brothers and sisters, if we have not lived up to that which He had already given us, our Father and our God through His servant? So let us not be among those who will be cut off from among His people, who will not listen to the Prophet. I testify to you that President Johnson is the mouthpiece of God to us and he is hourly and daily, monthly, yearly, giving us the revelations of the Spirit of God, for he talks by that Spirit, the Holy Ghost, and God is sustaining him. Let us sustain him and follow his instructions lest we be cut off, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Funeral of Joseph H. Winther

I feel honored in being asked to speak on this sacred occasion. I desire to say only that which is pleasing to Father. I am grateful to have known Brother Winther. I know that his heart was right and he desired above all things to abide the Gospel of Jesus Christ in its fullness. I appreciate the splendid remarks of his son giving some additional information about his life and character. I don't think I can do better for the benefit of us here who are paying our respects to this good brother, than to read the remarks of the Prophet Joseph Smith at the funeral of Lorenzo D. Barnes in Nauvoo.

TPJS Page 294

Almost all who have fallen in these last days in the Church have fallen in a strange land.
That was when they were in the midst of great persecution.
This is a strange land to those who have come from a distance. We should cultivate sympathy for the afflicted among us. If there is a place on earth where men should cultivate the spirit and pour in the oil and wine in the bosoms of the afflicted, it is in this place; and this spirit is manifest here; and although a stranger and afflicted when he arrives, he finds a brother and a friend ready to administer to his necessities.

I would esteem it one of the greatest blessings, if I am to be afflicted in this world, to have my lot cast where I can find brothers and friends all around me. But this is not the thing I referred to: it is to have the privilege of having our dead buried on the land where God has appointed to gather His Saints together, and where there will be none but Saints, where they may have the privilege of laying their bodies where the Son of Man will make His appearance, and where they may hear the sound of the trump that shall call them forth to behold Him, that in the morn of the resurrection they may come forth in a body, and come up out of their graves and strike hands immediately in eternal glory and felicity, rather than be scattered thousands of miles apart. There is something good and sacred to me in this thing. The place where a man is buried is sacred to me. This subject is made mention of in the Book of Mormon and other scriptures. Even to the aborigines of this land, the burying places of their fathers are more sacred than anything else.

When I heard of the death of our beloved Brother Barnes, it would not have affected me so much, if I had the opportunity of burying him in the land of Zion.

I believe those who have buried their friends here, their condition is enviable. Look at Jacob and Joseph in Egypt, how they required their friends to bury them in the tomb of their fathers. See the expense which attended the embalming and the going up of the great company to the burial.

It has always been considered a great calamity not to obtain an honorable burial: and one of the greatest curses the ancient prophets could put on any man, was that he should go without a burial.

I have said, Father, I desire to die here among the Saints. But if this is not Thy will, and I go hence and die, wilt Thou find some kind friend to bring my body back, and gather my friends who have fallen in foreign lands, and bring them up hither, that we may all lie together.

I will tell you what I want. If tomorrow I shall be called to lie in yonder tomb, in the morning of the resurrection let me strike hands with my father, and cry, "My father," and he will say, "My son, my son," as soon as the rock rends and before we come out of our graves.

And may we contemplate these things so? Yes, if we learn how to live and how to die. When we lie down we contemplate how we may rise in the morning; and it is pleasing for friends to lie down together, locked in the arms of love, to sleep and wake in each other's embrace and renew their conversation.

Would you think it strange if I relate what I have seen in vision in relation to this interesting theme? Those who have died in Jesus Christ may expect to enter into all that fruition of joy when they come forth, which they possessed or anticipated here.

So plain was the vision, that I actually saw men, before they had ascended from the tomb, as though they were getting up slowly. They took each other by the hand and said to each other, "My father, my son, my mother, my daughter, my brother, my sister." And when the voice calls for the dead to arise, suppose I am laid by the side of my father, what would be the first joy of my heart? To meet my father, my mother, my brother, my sister; and when they are by my side, I embrace them and they me.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

* * *

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

I appreciate these sentiments, and I ask the blessings of God upon this family and the friends and neighbors, and those that Brother Winther loved. This power of love is all-consuming and accomplishes everything that we do worthwhile in life. And if we can merit the love of God and come back into His presence, that is the great object, and should be, at least of our lives. God bless us to this end, I pray in Jesus' name, amen.

Funeral of Curtis Lynn Jessop
Son of President Richard S. Jessop

I am grateful to have a part in this ordinance of laying away a brother in the New and Everlasting Covenant. I pray for the Spirit of God to bless me and say those things that He would have me say.
This is an ordinance of the Priesthood as we lay away a brother who has been called home according to the will of God, and I am sure the will of the Lord has been done concerning this young man. I didn't know him personally, but I do know his father, this beloved brother and fellow Apostle, and my heart goes to him and his family on this occasion. My whole desire is that all will be blessed and strengthened, and learn the things that the Lord has for us to learn from such an occasion. President Richard S. Jessop has been true and faithful, a servant of God, a faithful Apostle who has served from the day he learned of the work and the Priesthood of God with all his heart, might, mind, and strength. He has loved God and he has loved his Priesthood, and he has been loyal -- loyal to God, loyal to Priesthood, and loyal to his family, whom he has tried to raise up in light and truth according to the law of God.

We should all be grateful for the Gospel of Jesus Christ, its restoration and the restoration of the fullness of the holy Priesthood to guide and direct us through all of these things that we are called upon to go through. And what a glorious comfort it is to know that we have the gifts and blessings of God under His Priesthood. I just desire to make my remarks in the form of a prayer for Richard S. Jessop and his family, who have been called upon to mourn at this time; and to give us all a greater strength and hope for the living, to go on unto perfection; and that we will do all things and obey the word and will of God in all things; and I pray for this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Give Our Whole Heart; Criticism Leads to Apostasy

This is indeed a beautiful sight to meet with you, our dear friends, brothers, and sisters, co-laborers in the cause of Christ. I desire but to speak and act as dictated by the Spirit of God, and pray that I may be a useful instrument in His hands in instructing and informing us as to our way of life and our duties. I am grateful for the life and labors of President Johnson and that we have a great example of righteousness to enable us to follow. The Lord is surely good to us, leading us according to our needs and our righteous desires; and that last word "desire" is what I would like to talk about. It is involved in the first and greatest commandment which God has given us:
Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, all thy mind, and with all of thy strength; and the second is like unto it: Love thy neighbor as thyself.
Our neighbor is a creature of God, our brother, our sister, a child of God. We labor even in our families with our brother and sister spirits, who were with the Lord before they came here, and have come according to covenant.

I think the margin of difference in our faith, in our labors, is our unwillingness to give our whole heart, our whole mind, and all of our strength to overcoming satan, hell, and the devil, and in rendering perfect obedience to the commandments of God. I think Brigham Young described the condition which seems to generally prevail -- when the saints were required to come out West to the tops of the mountains that they might worship God and keep His commandments without molestation -- sadly enough Brigham said, "The saints came out," speaking of them generally,
"they came out here willingly, because they had to," which indicates to me that there was some feeling of protest on the part of many.

Now, I am wondering if this is not how we go about our family duties, go about our Priesthood duties, brethren. Are we doing it willingly because we have to? If so, we are not loving and serving God with all our heart, our might, mind, and strength. The spirit of criticism exists in families.
President Johnson has told us that this spirit of criticism will eventually lead us out of the work. If we continue in it we have need to repent. The message of the Priesthood has been from the beginning, and still is, that we repent and overcome and be perfect, that we may be useful in the hands of God as a clean, a pure, a free instrument in building up His Kingdom and establishing His Priesthood and His glory in the earth.

According to the instruction of President Johnson, I feel to be guided in my remarks by the word of the Lord as given in His revelations to Joseph the Prophet, for what He says unto one He says unto all, according to divine and correct principle, which is guidance for all of us. These revelations are given, in many instances, in connection with certain individual situations, the brethren at the time. But the Lord in speaking to Joseph, I find in all of the revelations while asked for, for individual situations, the Lord gives true and correct principles and His law and commandments as to how we shall act, how we shall be that we may come unto perfection and become like God, and glorify Him, our Father.
I find much consolation and encouragement, and yet true and correct principles -- how to abide in faith, walking in obedience to the commandments of God, in Section 82.

D. & C. 82

1. Verily, verily, I say unto you, my servants, that inasmuch as you have forgiven one another your trespasses, even so I, the Lord, forgive you.

There is a grand principle, how we should act in our relations one with another. We are required to live in the Spirit of the Holy United Order, and these are instructions to the Order at that time. We are to live in the Spirit of the Holy United Order in our families that we may come to a point where the Lord can bring us together and live the Holy United Order as a community, as saints of God.

2. Nevertheless, there are those among you who have sinned exceedingly; Isn't this true today?

2. ...y.ea, even all of you have sinned; but verily I say unto you, beware from henceforth, and refrain from sin, lest sore judgments fall upon your heads.

3. For of him unto whom much is given much is required; and he who sins against the greater light shall receive the greater condemnation.

4. Ye call upon my name for revelations, and I give them unto you; and inasmuch as ye keep not my sayings, which I give unto you, ye become transgressors; and justice and judgment are the penalty which is affixed unto my law.

5. Therefore, what I say unto one I say unto all:

He says this in so many of these revelations.

5. ...Watch, for the adversary spreadeth his dominions, and darkness reigneth;

6. And the anger of God kindleth against the inhabitants of the earth; and none doeth good, for all have gone out of the way.

7. And now, verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, will not lay any sin to your charge; go your ways and sin no more; but unto that soul who sinneth shall the former sins return, saith the Lord your God.

There is an immutable law we should never forget.

8. And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a new commandment, that you may understand my will concerning you;
9. Or, in other words, I give unto you directions how you may act before me, that it may turn to you for your salvation.

10. I, the Lord, am bound when ye do what I say; but when ye do not what I say, ye have no promise.

There it is, brothers and sisters -- if we feel to murmur and complain, let us look to this grand principle: Are we doing what God says? What reason, what basis have we for murmuring and complaining against His servant, and wives against their husbands, brethren against each other? This spirit of criticism will lead us into apostasy if it continues, if we do not cut it short. Just a little more from the word of the Lord. Joseph had just recently returned from the dedication of Zion in Jackson County, Missouri; it was in Kirtland.

D. & C. 64

1. Behold, thus saith the Lord your God unto you, O ye elders of my church, hearken ye and hear, and receive my will concerning you.

2. For verily I say unto you, I will that ye should overcome the world; wherefore I will have compassion upon you.

3. There are those among you who have sinned; but verily I say, for this once, for mine own glory, and for the salvation of souls, I have forgiven you your sins.

4. I will be merciful unto you, for I have given unto you the kingdom.

5. And the keys of the mysteries of the kingdom shall not be taken from my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., through the means I have appointed, while he liveth, inasmuch as he obeyeth mine ordinances.

6. There are those who have sought occasion against him without cause;

7. Nevertheless, he has sinned; but verily I say unto you, I, the Lord, forgive sins unto those who confess their sins before me and ask forgiveness, who have not sinned unto death.

8. My disciples, in days of old, sought occasion against one another and forgave not one another in their hearts; and for this evil they were afflicted and sorely chastened.

9. Wherefore, I say unto you, that ye ought to forgive one another; for he that forgiveth not his brother his trespasses standeth condemned before the Lord; for there remaineth in him the greater sin.
The greater sin is in him who forgiveth not his brother. Whoever carries grudges and feelings against their brother, the greater sin is in him.

10. I, the Lord, will forgive whom I will forgive, but of you it is required to forgive all men.

11. And ye ought to say in your hearts -- let God judge between me and thee, and reward thee according to thy deeds.

12. And him that repenteth not of his sins, and confesseth them not, ye shall bring before the church, and do with him as the scripture saith unto you, either by commandment or by revelation.

13. And this ye shall do that God may be glorified -- not because ye forgive not, having not compassion, but that ye may be justified in the eyes of the law, that ye may not offend him who is your lawgiver --

14. Verily I say, for this cause ye shall do these things.

So, brothers and sisters, we have need to humble ourselves and seek forgiveness one of another and live together in love; loving one another and seeking the interest of our neighbor with an eye single to the glory of God. To complete my remarks in connection with these principles, I wish to read the remarks of President Leroy S. Johnson, May 22, 1966, speaking of murmuring and complaining.

[He then read a sermon of President Leroy S. Johnson, May 22, 1966, also found on page 411 of this volume.]

Funeral of President Richard Seth Jessop
Born January 22, 1894. Died October 22, 1978

I pray God to give me strength by His Holy Spirit to speak what He has put into my heart regarding this true and faithful friend, and brother, and fellow servant of God. As I have sat listening to the wonderful things that have been said about this great man's character, my heart swelled with joy and love for this man; for I know and have this testimony that he pleased God, as did Enoch and Abel. He had the faith of the brother of Jared, the meekness and humility of King Benjamin, who labored with his hands for the saints, for his people. He had the pure love of Christ, true charity. He was a strong right arm of President John Y. Barlow and Leroy Johnson -- faithful and true. And he learned, as did Christ, obedience by the things he suffered. He had the patience in suffering of Job. I have never seen a character like him, and I would like to be like him. He is a counterpart of Leroy S. Johnson, whom I love with all my heart. And how I loved Richard Seth Jessop; and how I love my fellow brethren in this holy order.

What an example to all of us, brothers and sisters. And I would like to say, especially to his beloved family, what a glorious example you have to follow. I trust and pray that you will, all the remaining days of your lives, pattern you lives after his. I pray that we may all have the same hope, the same faith, the same charity, the pure love of Christ, that he had, and go on unto perfection, and be that people whom God can use to redeem Zion; which I ask in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Spirit of Revelation; Give Our Whole Heart; Criticism Leads to Apostasy

I am deeply grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here today under the direction of President Johnson. I desire above all things that the Spirit of God shall direct the remarks I may make that I may tell the truth under the gift and power of the Spirit of truth, the Holy Ghost. This is a most choice blessing, brothers and sisters -- the gift of the Holy Ghost. Joseph Smith said to Brigham Young in a dream for him to continually call upon the saints to get and keep the Spirit of God. I do not need to read the text of that statement of Brigham Young's in which he described that wonderful and pure and simple instruction that Joseph gave to him when he was inquiring as to the Family Order of Heaven. Joseph also said, "When we receive the gift of the Holy Ghost we receive the gift of revelation."

There are many gifts of the Spirit which are given the saints according to their time and need, and if we would only get and keep it continually, that it be our constant guide and companion, we would be able to fulfill all of the instructions that President Johnson has given us. As a matter of fact, if we were only obedient we would get the Spirit of God -- obedient and humble.
The Spirit of humility engendered by the Holy Ghost is the Spirit of repentance, and this we all need above all things, that we may be able to carry on in this great work in which we are engaged, and become a prepared people that the Lord can use. There are those among us who complain that President Johnson does not give revelation, new revelation, and I feel strongly impressed to tell this people the nature of the Spirit of revelation, God being my helper. I will go to the word of the Lord in the words of Joseph. I do not think that it can be stated any better than he did. After telling us what the First and the Second Comforter are -- the First Comforter being the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of revelation; the Second Comforter being the Lord Jesus Christ Himself -- he says this:

_The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings. A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.,) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass;_

And in my relations, associations with President Johnson, I have seen this Spirit of revelation work time after time, continually. This is why I have perfect confidence in him, and why I am sure he enjoys the perfect confidence of the Lord.

_...and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus._

That is the way to perfection. Without revelation, brothers and sisters, there is no salvation. Revelation given to this people must come through the mouthpiece of God, but we all are entitled to that Spirit and power of revelation in our own jurisdiction. If we do not have it, we do not have the Spirit of God. That is probably why we are not doing better than we are, because we lack that Spirit of revelation. We do not have to have God Himself, or His angels come to give us revelation. Joseph Smith in the first instance -- after having been visited by the Father and the Son as a young man, and later by the Angel Moroni, the instrumentality of the Lord through which he received the plates and translated through the gift and power of God, the Book of Mormon -- he had the Urim and Thummim to accomplish that great work, and he used the Urim and Thummim during that period, and later the seer stone. But it was not long before Joseph became perfectly acquainted with the Spirit of revelation; and most of these revelations which we have in the Doctrine and Covenants were dictated by the Holy Ghost, through the Spirit of revelation.

In that great letter that he wrote from Liberty Jail, giving instructions to the Apostles, the brethren in Far West, as to their labors and duties in searching for a place to go and settle outside of Missouri, if you will read that letter you will find as he goes along giving instructions to them, there is a change in which the Spirit of God speaks to him, and from that letter we now have Sections 121, 122, 123 -- some of the grandest truths in revelations we have received. Brother Phelps touched on something that I want to bring to our attention, a little more of instructions that the Lord gave to Oliver Cowdery. The Lord, through the Prophet Joseph, gave Oliver Cowdery the opportunity of receiving the gift of translation, and this is what He told him:

D.& C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

There was no angel to tell him what to do, this Moses. He had the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, which dictated his every move. The Lord spoke to him from time to time, and I dare say it was through the Holy Spirit. Brother Phelps read you the result of Oliver's attempt to do this translation work. He lacked the faith, and so the Lord took the privilege from him, and that is why. And I want to read that again.

D.& C. 9

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; One must exert one's mind.

8. ...then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

D.& C. 8

3. ...behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

I would like to read you another instance of the revelations of the Holy Spirit. Nephi and his brothers were directed by their father Lehi to go back after they had gone out into the wilderness to Jerusalem and obtain the records of their fathers from King Laban, and he went forward to accomplish the thing knowing that God would open up the way. His brothers stayed without the walls of the city while he went in to accomplish his mission.

1 Nephi 4

5. And it was by night; and I caused that they should hide themselves without the walls. And after they had hid themselves, I, Nephi, crept into the city and went forth towards the house of Laban.

6. And I was led by the Spirit, not knowing beforehand the things which I should do.

7. Nevertheless I went forth, and as I came near unto the house of Laban I beheld a man, and he had fallen to the earth before me, for he was drunken with wine.

8. And when I came to him I found that it was Laban.

9. And I beheld his sword, and I drew it forth from the sheath thereof; and the hilt thereof was of pure gold, and the workmanship thereof was exceedingly fine, and I saw that the blade thereof was of the most precious steel.

10. And it came to pass that I was constrained by the Spirit that I should kill Laban; but I said in my heart: Never at any time have I shed the blood of man. And I shrunk and would that I might not slay him.

11. And the Spirit said unto me again: Behold the Lord hath delivered him into thy hands. Yea, and I also knew that he had sought to take away mine own life; yea, and he would not hearken unto the commandments of the Lord; and he also had taken away our property.

12. And it came to pass that the Spirit said unto me again:

This is the Spirit of revelation.

12. ...Slay him, for the Lord hath delivered him into thy hands;

13. Behold the Lord slayeth the wicked to bring forth his righteous purposes. It is better that one man should perish than that a nation should dwindle and perish in unbelief.

14. And now, when I, Nephi, had heard these words, I remembered the words of the Lord which he spake unto me in the wilderness, saying that: Inasmuch as thy seed shall keep my commandments, they shall prosper in the land of promise.

15. Yea, and I also thought that they could not keep the commandments of the Lord according to the law of Moses, save they should have the law.

16. And I also knew that the law was engraven upon the plates of brass.

17. And again, I knew that the Lord had delivered Laban into my hands for this cause -- that I might obtain the records according to his commandments.

18. Therefore I did obey the voice of the Spirit, and took Laban by the hair of the head, and I smote off his head with his own sword.

19. And after I had smitten off his head with his own sword, I took the garments of Laban and put them upon mine own body; yea, even every whit; and I did gird on his armor about my loins.

He went in under that guise and obtained the plates, still guided by the Spirit of God in all that he did. Now, I think we can learn a great deal from these important events that took place in the lives of these servants and the Prophets of God: Nephi, Moses, Joseph Smith.

I would like to read you something else, brothers and sisters, that we may not have thought of, or at least not often enough -- Section 68. Orson Hyde was directed in this revelation through Joseph the Prophet to go and preach the word of God on a mission.
D.& C. 68

2. And, behold, and lo, this is an ensample unto all those who were ordained unto this priesthood, whose mission is appointed unto them to go forth --

3. And this is the ensample unto them, that they shall speak as they are moved upon by the Holy Ghost.

4. And whatsoever they shall speak when moved upon by the Holy Ghost shall be scripture, shall be the will of the Lord, shall be the mind of the Lord, shall be the word of the Lord, shall be the voice of the Lord, and the power of God unto salvation.

5. Behold, this is the promise of the Lord unto you, O ye my servants.

6. Wherefore, be of good cheer, and do not fear, for I the Lord am with you, and will stand by you; and ye shall bear record of me, even Jesus Christ, that I am the Son of the living God, that I was, that I am, and that I am to come.

I wonder, brothers and sisters, what some men expect. I want to bear testimony to you that the Spirit of revelation rests continually upon Leroy Sunderland Johnson -- the mouthpiece of God unto us, and the keyholder. I would like to close my remarks by reading the remarks of Leroy S. Johnson, May 22, 1966, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Sermon of President Leroy S. Johnson
LSJ Vol.1  Page 97  May 22, 1966  SLC

I trust that the few words I speak will be dictated by the Spirit of God. He was calling upon the Lord for the Spirit of revelation.

I have been very much interested in the remarks of the brethren. People have come to me and said, "Brother Johnson, why don't you give us new revelation? You have taught us all these things and now we feel like we need something new."

There is nothing new about the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the revelations that Joseph Smith and all of the Prophets down to the present have given. Bless your souls, we are not living according to the revelations that have been given.

I want to tell you something now. Maybe you know something about it and maybe you don't. There will be some that will be informed, but I want to ask you why it was that the Prophet Joseph said, "I wish to God I could give to this people one-tenth of what He has revealed to me. But if I do, there are men on the stand who would want to take my life," or something to that effect.

We are familiar with that quotation, I am sure.

We find in the Book of Ether, about the 4th chapter, the words of Moroni wherein he tells us that he opened the record of Ether and they were able to teach some of the words of Ether to the people -- some of the things that were in that record.

You know the Book of Ether is all the record we have of the history of the people of the brother of Jared, the Jaredites.

But the Lord told him to take those things and seal them up and seal up the interpretation thereof. He also tells us that the Lord told him that they would not come forth unto the Gentiles until the Gentiles repented and began to show forth the same faith that the brother of Jared had. Now, what were these records? What were the records that the brother of Jared had? It was the record of God's dealings with His people from the time of Adam until Jared's time. Now the record does not tell us that, but this is what we find recorded in the 107th Section of the Doctrine & Covenants:

"Three years previous to the death of Adam, he called Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, Enoch, and Methuselah, who were all high priests, with the residue of his posterity who were righteous, into the valley of Adam-ondi-Ahman, and there bestowed upon them his last blessing.

And the Lord appeared unto them, and they rose up and blessed Adam, and called him Michael, the prince, the archangel.
And the Lord administered comfort unto Adam, and said unto him: I have set thee to be at the head; a multitude of nations shall come of thee, and thou art a prince over them forever."

And Adam stood up in the midst of the congregation; and, notwithstanding he was bowed down with age, being full of the Holy Ghost, predicted whatsoever should befall his posterity unto the latest generation."

Now listen,
"These things were all written in the book of Enoch and are to be testified of in due time."

There is no doubt in my mind but what these are some of the things that were revealed to the Prophet Moroni. He claims that he read them. He had them, but the Lord told him to seal them up. When the Prophet Joseph Smith received the records, there was a portion of them that was sealed. The Book of Enoch was sealed with the exception of what little we have here, about nineteen or twenty chapters. Why do you think that the Lord allowed the whole Jaredite nation to be destroyed and none of them left? It was no more nor less than the fact that the Lord would not permit that people to continue to betray the sacred things that the Book contained. The greater the light that we get, the greater the condemnation, if we turn it away.

He would not permit them to do so, so He destroyed the whole nation. Enough of that record was revealed to the Nephites to condemn them because the Lord destroyed all of the Nephites. The Lamanites were permitted to remain, but what did He do to them? Just go out and look around where the Lamanites are. Go down into Mexico and see what He did to that people in order to keep them from desecrating further the records that were so precious in the sight of our Father.

If there are any of our people who feel like they have come to a point where they have overcome all things -- where they have overcome their weaknesses and imperfections and have no mental reservations whatsoever regarding the record of God -- let them begin to pray night and day for deliverance, because that is what this people will have to do, as has been stated here tonight. We will have to get down on our knees and pray for deliverance, because we cannot live in this wicked generation and become like Christ is -- overcoming all things. If there are any of us who think we have completely become as pure in our living, in our thoughts and actions, as Christ was, then we better look out. We had better begin to pray to the Lord for deliverance from the generation in which we live. Now these are some of the things, my brothers and sisters, that we will have to think about.

All we need to do is go into the records and begin to read, and then study our own lives and see if we have overcome to a point where we can command the protection of our Father in Heaven. If we even come to a point where we can ask the Lord to shower down fire from Heaven to protect us in the day of His judgments, we have a lot of work to do yet. I pray the spirit of repentance will settle upon us and that we will hasten to prepare ourselves against the day when the Lord is pouring out His judgments upon this wicked generation.

And I say with him:

God bless you, amen.

D.& C. 1; D.& C. 136

I feel very keenly this responsibility and ask the Lord to bless me with His Spirit, as I feel impressed to read the word of the Lord, and I would like to read it with His Spirit for our benefit. President Johnson has enjoined upon us lo, these many years, the instructions that the Lord gave through Joseph as we have it in Section 1 of the Doctrine and Covenants.

D.& C. 1

1. Hearken, O ye people of my church, saith the voice of him who dwells on high, and whose eyes are upon all men; yea, verily I say: Hearken ye people from afar; and ye that are upon the islands of the sea, listen together.

2. For verily the voice of the Lord is unto all men, and there is none to escape; and there is no eye that shall not see, neither ear that shall not hear, neither heart that shall not be penetrated.

3. And the rebellious shall be pierced with much sorrow; for their iniquities shall be spoken upon the housetops, and their secret acts shall be revealed.

4. And the voice of warning shall be unto all people, by the mouths of my disciples, whom I have chosen in these last days.

5. And they shall go forth and none shall stay them, for I the Lord have commanded them.

6. Behold, this is mine authority, and the authority of my servants, and my preface unto the book of my commandments, which I have given them to publish unto you, O inhabitants of the earth.

7. Wherefore, fear and tremble, O ye people, for what I the Lord have decreed in them shall be fulfilled.

8. And verily I say unto you, that they who go forth, bearing these tidings unto the inhabitants of the earth, to them is power given to seal both on earth and in heaven, the unbelieving and rebellious;

9. Yea, verily, to seal them up unto the day when the wrath of God shall be poured out upon the wicked without measure --

10. Unto the day when the Lord shall come to recompense unto every man according to his work, and measure to every man according to the measure which he has measured to his fellow man.

We are going to be judged according to how we measure to our fellow man, and they to us.

11. Wherefore the voice of the Lord is unto the ends of the earth, that all that will hear may hear:

12. Prepare ye, prepare ye for that which is to come, for the Lord is nigh;
We hear this warning continually, this voice of warning.

13. And the anger of the Lord is kindled, and his sword is bathed in heaven, and it shall fall upon the inhabitants of the earth.

14. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people;

15. For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant;
You cannot break a covenant unless you have had it given unto you.

16. They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way,
How striking are the words of John Taylor in that revelation given to him, that we should seek the Lord's will and way, not our own way.

16. ...and after the image of his own god, whose image is in the likeness of the world, and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great, which shall fall.
We must be careful we become not idol worshipers, even in this day -- the workmanship of our own hands.

17. Wherefore, I the Lord, knowing the calamity which should come upon the inhabitants of the earth, called upon my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and spake unto him from heaven, and gave him commandments;

18. And also gave commandments to others, that they should proclaim these things unto the world; and all this that it might be fulfilled, which was written by the prophets --

19. The weak things of the world shall come forth and break down the mighty and strong ones, that man should not counsel his fellow man, neither trust in the arm of flesh --

20. But that every man might speak in the name of God the Lord, even the Savior of the world;

21. That faith also might increase in the earth;

22. That mine everlasting covenant might be established;

And that is the work of the Lord to us -- the establishment of the Everlasting Covenant, the Celestial Law of Marriage and of the Holy United Order.

23. That the fulness of my gospel

For that is what it is. The Celestial Law of Marriage and the Holy United Order constitute the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

23. ...might be proclaimed by the weak and the simple unto the ends of the world, and before kings and rulers.

24. Behold, I am God and have spoken it; these commandments are of me, and were given unto my servants in their weakness, after the manner of their language, that they might come to understanding.

25. And inasmuch as they erred it might be made known;

26. And inasmuch as they sought wisdom they might be instructed;

Wisdom, knowledge, and understanding.

27. And inasmuch as they sinned they might be chastened, that they might repent;

28. And inasmuch as they were humble they might be made strong,

In humility before God only is there strength, in ascribing unto Him the honor and the glory for all that we have and are.

28. ...and blessed from on high, and receive knowledge from time to time.

29. And after having received the record of the Nephites, yea, even my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., might have power to translate through the mercy of God, by the power of God, the Book of Mormon.

30. And also those to whom these commandments were given, might have power to lay the foundation of this church, and to bring it forth out of obscurity and out of darkness, the only true and living church upon the face of the whole earth, with which I, the Lord, am well pleased, speaking unto the church collectively and not individually --

It is for this people and those engaged in this special Priesthood dispensation to seek unto the Church of the Firstborn. I will never forget the instruction I got from John Y. Barlow on that subject. The Lord's Church has been on a detour, this one that we are familiar with, now on the outside of the work and the Priesthood of God, and the bride is on a detour; but we seek unto the Church of the Firstborn.

31. For I the Lord cannot look upon sin with the least degree of allowance;
32. Nevertheless, he that repents and does the commandments of the Lord shall be forgiven;
33. And he that repents not, from him shall be taken even the light which he has received;

That is a fearful thing.
33. ...for my Spirit shall not always strive with man, saith the Lord of Hosts.

God help us when that is withdrawn, and we are no longer able to get it, get it back.

34. And again, verily I say unto you, O inhabitants of the earth: I the Lord am willing to make these things known unto all flesh;
35. For I am no respecter of persons, and will that all men shall know that the day speedily cometh; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand, when peace shall be taken from the earth, and the devil shall have power over his own dominion.

36. And also the Lord shall have power over his saints, and shall reign in their midst, and shall come down in judgment upon Idumea, or the world.
37. Search these commandments, for they are true and faithful, and the prophecies and promises which are in them shall all be fulfilled.

Brother Johnson continually calls upon us to read and follow these scriptures, the word of God to us, to this people and dispensation -- the Book of Mormon, the Doctrine and Covenants, and the Pearl of Great Price. Joseph Smith called upon the saints: "Search the scriptures; in them ye think ye have eternal life."
38. What I the Lord have spoken, I have spoken, and I excuse not myself; and though the heavens and the earth pass away, my word shall not pass away, but shall all be fulfilled, whether by mine own voice or by the voice of my servants, it is the same.

39. For behold, and lo, the Lord is God, and the Spirit beareth record, and the record is true, and the truth abideth forever and ever. Amen.

For us, brothers and sisters, it is to follow the word of the Lord as given by the mouthpiece of God, President Johnson; and we had better be very, very faithful. I would like now to turn to the appendix given at the same time to Joseph Smith, the appendix of the Doctrine and Covenants, so that we may know how these things are accomplished. We have given in this Section how the Ten Tribes shall come, and all the great events preceding the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ in glory. In a revelation given to Brigham Young we have these grand truths:

D. & C. 136

30. Fear not thine enemies, for they are in mine hands and I will do my pleasure with them.

31. My people must be tried in all things, that they may be prepared to receive the glory that I have for them, even the glory of Zion; and he that will not bear chastisement is not worthy of my kingdom.

That is the work President Johnson is trying to get us to prepare for, the glory of Zion in this redemption.

32. Let him that is ignorant learn wisdom by humbling himself and calling upon the Lord his God, that his eyes may be opened that he may see, and his ears opened that he may hear;

33. For my Spirit is sent forth into the world to enlighten the humble and contrite, and to the condemnation of the ungodly.

His Spirit is given to the humble and the contrite, those who come to Him with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. "Draw near unto Me," He says, "and I will draw near unto you."

34. Thy brethren have rejected you and your testimony, even the nation that has driven you out;

35. And now cometh the day of their calamity, even the days of sorrow, like a woman that is taken in travail; and their sorrow shall be great unless they speedily repent, yea, very speedily.
36. For they killed the prophets, and them that were sent unto them; and they have shed innocent blood, which crieth from the ground against them.
37. Therefore, marvel not at these things, for ye are not yet pure; "Be ye clean," President Johnson has told us, "purify ourselves."

37. ...ye can not yet bear my glory; but ye shall behold it if ye are faithful in keeping all my words that I have given you, from the days of Adam to Abraham, from Abraham to Moses, and from Moses to Jesus and his apostles, and from Jesus and his apostles to Joseph Smith, whom I did call upon by mine angels, my ministering servants, and by mine own voice out of the heavens, to bring forth my work;
38. Which foundation he did lay, and was faithful; and I took him to myself.

39. Many have marveled because of his death; but it was needful that he should seal his testimony with his blood, that he might be honored and the wicked might be condemned.
40. Have I not delivered you from your enemies, only in that I have left a witness of my name?
And hasn't He delivered us in our day, brothers and sisters? from these raids, and wars that have been declared upon us, and hasn't the Lord delivered us?

41. Now, therefore, hearken, O ye people of my church; and ye elders listen together; you have received my kingdom.
42. Be diligent in keeping all my commandments, lest judgments come upon you, and your faith fail you, and your enemies triumph over you. So no more at present. Amen and Amen.

May God help us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
I desire an interest in your faith and prayers, brothers and sisters, that I may speak under the influence and power of the Holy Ghost, the mind and will of God according to His word, which has been revealed to us. I am grateful for the instructions we have had from President Johnson today. As he was speaking of an example, I felt to desire of the Lord that I could follow his example and be like him, who I consider to be Godlike. We are here, brothers and sisters, to become like God, that we may stand in His presence. And regarding this great work of preparation, the great and final object which President Johnson has urged upon us, is that this people might be prepared to redeem Zion, and to have a part in the preparation and the building up of the City of Zion. I feel to make that subject the burden of my remarks here today, and again ask the Lord to bless me therein.

In Section 45, which is instructions to the Church and the brethren then, in their preparations to go to Zion, which was to follow in some six months or so, the Lord told Joseph this:

D.& C. 45

11. Wherefore, hearken ye together and let me show unto you even my wisdom -- the wisdom of him whom ye say is the God of Enoch, and his brethren,

12. Who were separated from the earth, and were received unto myself -- a city reserved until a day of righteousness shall come -- a day which was sought for by all holy men,

That is what is being sought for by our President today, as Peleg sought for it and prevailed, as Melchizedek, Shem sought for it and obtained, to join that holy city.

12. ...and they found it not because of wickedness and abominations;

Enoch and Melchizedek found it, and those who have come under the doctrine and the principle of translation have found it individually.

13. And...
These holy Prophets,

13. ...confessed they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth;

14. But obtained a promise that they should find it and see it in their flesh.

15. Wherefore, hearken and I will reason with you, and I will speak unto you and prophesy, as unto men in days of old.

We are under Joseph Smith as the head of this dispensation, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost, one of the Godhead, under direction to prepare a people for the redemption of Zion, that city which will be built up and will be caught up when the Zion of Enoch shall come down, at the glorious coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Ten Tribes are to come, and the remnant of Jacob are to assist in the building of that great city and the Temple of our God. With such a goal and with such great promises, why are we not more about the business of our God? Joseph Young, Sen., put in a little pamphlet in the organization of the Seventies -- of which he was president of the first quorum of Seventies -- relates some instructions that were given by Joseph the Prophet, and descriptions that were given of the City of Zion of old, and I thought would be instructive to us. We have had this read to us before, but in connection with this subject, I think it is very inspiring and should give us great incentive, particularly, as it speaks of our obtaining Zion in our hearts. That is where it has got to be first, before we can have a City of Zion.

The Seventies Journal  by Joseph Young

Enoch and His City

Enoch, the seventh from Adam, stands among the greatest spirits of antiquity, and foremost among those whom the Lord declared should be his rulers. One of the mightiest for the work he was destined to perform. Predisposed from his infancy to accept of everything that was revealed from God; and it being instinctively incorporated in his very nature to be eligible to every divine manifestation, he finally grew to be a God in humanity,

And that he was. The Book of Jasher, the third chapter, gives an account of what he considered to be the history of that great endeavor. There are some exaggerations in it, no doubt, but Joseph Smith said the Book of Jasher was mostly correct, and we see in this how he was directed first by an angel, and then came up so that he walked and talked with God as he prepared a people.
...and he received this testimony from his heavenly Father that he pleased Him.

This was said of Abel, Father Abel.

We read, from modern revelations given through Joseph Smith the Prophet, that Enoch was born in the 622d year of the world; was 25 years old when ordained under the hands of Adam, and was blessed (by God) at the age of 65. He walked with him 365 years, making him 430 years old when he and his city were translated. He obtained such favor with the Lord, that at his voice the mountains shook from their foundations, the rivers were turned out of their courses, and the lands came up out of the depths of the sea, upon which his enemies took refuge through fear.

The City of Enoch implies a problem, which is difficult of solution. It stands alone, without precedent or succession to the present period. The author is not advised that there is any published history, or any manuscript brought forth, which has survived the antediluvian dispensation, leaving any details of such extraordinary events as the gathering together of a righteous people called Zion, and of the building of so large and beautiful a city. Indeed, such an one as the Lord called "His abode for ever."

That is what it was called at the time it was taken up. I will now read a few words of Joseph at this point regarding Enoch and his dispensation. He said:

If Cain had fulfilled the law of righteousness as did Enoch, he could have walked with God all the days of his life, and never failed of a blessing.

And quoting from Genesis:

"And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah 300 years, and begat sons and daughters, and all the days of Enoch were 365 years; and Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him."  (Genesis 5:22-23.) Now this Enoch God reserved unto Himself, that he should not die at that time, and appointed unto him a ministry unto terrestrial bodies, of whom there has been but little revealed. He is reserved also unto the presidency of a dispensation, and more shall be said of him and terrestrial bodies in another treatise. His is a ministering angel, to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation, and appeared unto Jude as Abel did unto Paul; therefore Jude spoke of him (14, 15 verses). And Enoch, the seventh from Adam, revealed these sayings: "Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of His Saints.”

Paul was also acquainted with this character, and received instructions from him. "By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him; for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God; but without faith, it is impossible to please Him, for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a revealer to those who diligently seek Him." (Hebrews 11:5-6.)

So Enoch, by the grace and power of God, prepared a place which was to become the abode of God forever. And it has been my feeling that this is where our Lord Jesus Christ has His headquarters as He finishes up the great work and the preparation of this earth for a Celestial orb over which He is to preside. So it is the abode of God now.

Enoch and His City, Cont'd

The knowledge of such events must therefore have been the productions of inspired men.

From these revelations it may be inferred that the disciples of Enoch were gathered together. At his suggestion they built a city, on the site which he had selected. He had seen the heavens opened; had gazed upon cities that were celestial; had been familiar with the gorgeousness of the heavenly mansions, and the splendor of their architecture. Acquiring thereby a superior intelligence and that spirit of refinement and taste, which enabled him to instruct his brethren to build after the pattern of the heavenly.

The gathering of the people and the building of the city increased and continued for a great length of time, until it was consummated. The form, the order and the architecture of the buildings of the City of Enoch, presented to the eye a glory and splendor surpassing our sublimest conceptions of art. The gardens, orchards and vineyards; the lawns, shades and floral fields, partaking of the best selections of fruits, flowers and evergreens that could be collected, from far and near. Such had been the perfection attained by the favored persons who had listened to the voice and preaching of Enoch, and who comprised the inhabitants of his city.

Since the period of the first acquaintance of the author with Joseph Smith, the Prophet, he occasionally referred particularly to this subject, which transpired in the author’s hearing. Once in Kirtland, and once in Nauvoo. At the former place, in a meeting held in the year 1832, on the occasion of Elder Brigham Young speaking in tongues, the Prophet being present; it was the first time that the exercise of this gift had come under his notice. The congregation was at the time in a kneeling posture. As soon as Bro. Brigham had concluded his prayer, the Prophet rose to his feet and invited them to rise and be seated. Joseph then addressed them, and said: "Brethren, this tongue that we have heard is the gift of God, for He has made it known unto me, and I shall never oppose anything that comes from Him. I feel the spirit that Bro. Brigham has manifested in this gift of tongues, and I wish to speak myself in the tongue that it will please the Lord to give me." He accordingly spoke in what may be called an open and fluent language; more so than was commonly heard. He occupied some minutes in the exercise of the gift. After he had concluded he said, "Brethren, this is the language of our father Adam while he dwelt in Eden; and the time will again come, that when the Lord brings again Zion, the Zion of Enoch, this people will then all speak the language which I have just spoken."

Ten years subsequently, at Nauvoo, while naming historical incidents of antiquity, he alluded to the Church, or Zion of Enoch, and discoursed some time upon the nature of its organization, order and progress. He spoke with a view of correcting the teachings of some of the elders who had maintained the doctrine that the people of that church had passed through the ordeals necessary to consummate the work of complete immortality, and that they would be prepared to enter into the presence of the Father and the Son. This idea the Prophet took up, and revealed it in a different light -- in what may be styled a divine philosophy. He declared of the Church of Enoch "that they did not die; that they had not then gone through their last changes and greatest refinement; and that they had, nevertheless, triumphed over death. That the people, and the city, and the foundations of the earth on which it stood, had partaken of so much of the immortal elements, bestowed upon them by God through the teachings of Enoch, that it became philosophically impossible for them to remain any longer upon the earth; consequently, Enoch and his people, with the city which they occupied, and the foundations on which it stood, with a large piece of earth immediately connected with the foundations and the city, had assumed an aerial position within the limits of our solar system; and this in consequence of their faith."

Through faith, Enoch and his people accomplished these things.

He further said, "that inasmuch as they did not pass through all the refinement which was necessary, as the Lord lives, they would return to the earth, when they and the city would pass through the same fiery ordeals that yet await the earth; when it shall be transformed into a sea of glass, mingled with fire, and their preparations for a celestial abode of the glorified Saints shall be perfected." *

(FOOTNOTE: Joseph Smith said, on another occasion, in the hearing of some of the saints still surviving, that the City of Enoch would again take its place in the identical spot from which it had been detached, now forming that chasm of the earth, filled with water, called the Gulf of Mexico.)

Now here are some remarks that I feel that brings this matter down to us. It is glorious to talk about these wonderful things, but what are we going to do about it? We have this mission and this dispensation to accomplish the work of bringing about Zion.

The reader will naturally ask, What are the keys of the commencement of this city of Zion? The Scriptures say, in Paul's address to the Saints, "Know ye not that your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost?" and modern revelation says, "This is Zion -- THE PURE IN HEART." Who can doubt, then, that Zion is within us; a temple adorned with all the attributes of our Father in heaven.

These bodies that Brother Johnson has been talking about today, they are temples of the Holy Spirit, but they must become pure.

In that view of it, the recipient thereof beholds within himself the work of his Father, Within himself.

...and hears the voice of His Spirit; obeys all of His commandments, spiritual and temporal, without the least hesitation or mental reservation. He has such a body and spirit that God can write upon it.

When this spirit is fully established in the hearts of all the Saints, then there will be no idol ...in the way of their progress.
The great trouble is that the idols of the world are ever before us and brought powerfully before us through every media that the devil can use. Idol worship can take all kinds of different forms, all tools of the devil, which we must come out of, this Babylon.

One word, or command, is just as easy for them to hearken to and obey as another; and they realize the saying, "God is love; he that dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him."

Therefore, Zion is within.

Then they have a Zion first within their hearts; a germ of an abiding inheritance upon the new earth.

The Saints are looking for a modern Zion which shall be after the identical order of the ancient one; and for a time when the Apostles, with their President at their head, will rise up and thunder so loud, that if they do not shake the mountains from their foundations, they will have the effect of shaking pride and covetousness out of the hearts of the Saints.

Isn't that beautiful -- the metaphor of the great powers of Enoch in changing the face of the earth, shaking them out when the enemy came upon them? We must shake these things -- pride and covetousness, and strife and contention -- all those things of which the saints were guilty when they were driven from the place where they were sent to redeem. Let me read that again.

...and for a time when the Apostles, with their President at their head, will rise up and thunder so loud, that if they do not shake the mountains from their foundations, they will have the effect of shaking pride and covetousness out of the hearts of the Saints, who will be filled with righteousness -- Their only motive, the building up of Zion; making their faith and their works, their means and substance to bow to that end, and that only; and so continuing their labors in this good work, answering to the Zion within them, and erecting and adorning temples and mansions; building cities, and spreading abroad, until they shall become a model of the Zion of old, built by Enoch.

The Lord told the saints, after they had failed to redeem Zion, that the armies of Israel would have to become great and powerful and numerous before Zion could be redeemed: and that He Himself, not only angels, but He Himself, would go there and be their forward and their rearward.

Whether these designs of the Saints will be consummated in a very short period of time, or at a "set time" still more remote, it will and must be the fruits of their faith in the Lord God, or they will not be acknowledged as His people, according to the revelations which He has given concerning Zion.

If we have not made the progress that is required of us, it is because of our lack of faith. There is a simple answer to our problem. Our faith is not great enough. It was through the faith of Enoch and his people that that great object was obtained, and it must be so now in the time before us.

Taking this view of the subject, the Seventies and the Elders of Israel will be endowed with the power of their calling, in preaching the Gospel and gathering the people from the uttermost parts of the earth.

They were then engaged in that great work, the great missionary work. But there is to be another great and glorious missionary work to be accomplished by this people and this time, which is soon to come, when the Elders and the Apostles will go forward to bind up the law and seal up the testimony and give the great last warning and testimony to the Church of Jesus Christ and the people generally. And they will be able to go throughout Israel and not be withstood because the angels of God will be by their side to enable them to deliver that great warning and message. So these things apply to us, even now, after the passage of so much time since the day when this was written. And this was written in John Taylor's day, 1878.

Their words will be as the words of God to the people, in strengthening their hands and cheering their hearts to persevere, until Zion is built up and perfected on the earth, and the Lord shall appear in his glory and acknowledge it His abode, as He did the Zion of old.

I get great inspiration in reading and singing "Glorious Things Are Sung of Zion," and I indulge your time as I read these words by William W. Phelps:

Glorious Things Are Sung of Zion

1. Glorious things are sung of Zion,
   Enoch's city seen of old,
   Where the righteous, being perfect,
Walked with God in streets of gold.
Love and virtue, faith and wisdom,
Grace and gifts were all combined;
As himself each loved his neighbor;
All were one in heart and mind.

"Oneness" is the key word, that oneness which is wrought by the Holy Spirit of God being in the hearts and minds of all.

2. There they shunned the power of Satan
And observed celestial laws;
For in Adam-ondi-Ahman
Zion rose where Eden was.
When beyond the power of evil,
So that none could covet wealth,
One continual feast of blessings
Crowned their days with peace and health.

3. Then the towers of Zion glittered
Like the sun in yonder skies,
And the wicked stood and trembled
Filled with wonder and surprise.
Then their faith and works were perfect.
Lo, they followed their great Head!
So the city went to heaven,
And the world said, "Zion's fled!"

4. When the Lord returns with Zion,
And we hear the watchman cry,
Then we'll surely be united,
And we'll all see eye to eye.
Then we'll mingle with the angels,
And the Lord will bless his own.
Then the earth will be as Eden,
And we'll know as we are known.

So the message to us today, brothers and sisters, is that we obtain Zion within our hearts by becoming like God, which I pray we may do in preparation for that glorious, great work of redeeming Zion and preparing a place for the abode of God, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
President Johnson asked me to take some time, and in response, I ask the Lord to bless me with His Spirit that I may teach and testify by it. I suppose I have had so much experience in teaching classes in this work that I am rather inclined to take a text from scripture, or from Joseph, or the Prophets, and teach from that, the Lord being my Helper.

Joseph Smith is the head of this dispensation, and through him the holy Priesthood was restored in its fullness, and he held the keys of that Priesthood and the keys of this dispensation in which we live; and we are called upon to serve God and keep His commandments to the end that we may be prepared to redeem Zion.

Joseph is still at the helm under Jesus Christ. I thrill at reading the words of John Taylor, Section 135 of the Doctrine and Covenants, testifying of the great work and the place that he holds. And we have ample testimony that Joseph is the third member of the Godhead, acting in the office of the Holy Ghost, the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son; and we must never forget this. Jesus and Joseph came to John Taylor to set up this special dispensation of the holy Priesthood. And I testify unto you, brothers and sisters, that is the same authority coming down by way of keys to Leroy S. Johnson, and that he is acting under the direction of the Lord through Joseph, who is still directing the affairs of this work and Kingdom, and this great work of preparation. I thrilled at these words of the Prophet Joseph, page 364 of the Teachings, in which we gain an insight without his mentioning his own name and his standing as to what his true position and prophetic calling really was.

TPJS Page 364

The Savior has the words of eternal life. Nothing else can profit us. There is no salvation in believing an evil report against our neighbor. I advise all to go on to perfection, and search deeper and deeper into the mysteries of Godliness. A man can do nothing for himself unless God direct him in the right way; and the Priesthood is for that purpose.

The last time I spoke on this stand it was on the resurrection of the dead, when I promised to continue my remarks upon that subject. I still feel a desire to say something on this subject. Let us this very day begin anew, and now say, with all our hearts, we will forsake our sins and be righteous.

And then he reads from the 24th chapter of Matthew.

I thought the very oddity of its rendering would be edifying anyhow -- "And it will be preached, the Gospel of the kingdom, in the whole world, to a witness over all people: and then will the end come."

The Savior said when these tribulations should take place, it should be committed to a man who should be a witness over the whole world: the keys of knowledge, power and revelations should be revealed to a witness who should hold the testimony to the world. It has always been my province to dig up hidden mysteries -- new things -- for my hearers. Just at the time when some men think that I have no right to the keys of the Priesthood -- just at that time I have the greatest right.

And we better be careful to apply that same grand truth today as to the keyholder over us, under Joseph.

All the testimony is that the Lord in the last days would commit the keys of the Priesthood to a witness over all people.

Has the Gospel of the kingdom commenced in the last days? And will God take it from the man until He takes him Himself? I have read it precisely as the words flowed from the lips of Jesus Christ. John the Revelator saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth.

The scripture is ready to be fulfilled when great wars, famines, pestilence, great distress, judgments, &c., are ready to be poured out on the inhabitants of the earth. John saw the angel having the holy Priesthood, who should preach the everlasting Gospel to all nations. God had an angel -- a special messenger -- ordained and prepared for that purpose in the last days. Woe, woe be to that man or set of men who lift up their hands against God and His witness in these last days: for they shall deceive almost the very chosen ones!

My enemies say that I have been a true prophet. Why, I had rather be a fallen true prophet than a false prophet. When a man goes about prophesying, and commands men to obey his teachings, he must either be a true or false prophet. False prophets always arise to oppose the true prophets and they will prophesy so very near the truth that they will deceive almost the very chosen ones.

The doctrine of eternal judgments belongs to the first principles of the Gospel, in the last days. In relation to the kingdom of God, the devil always sets up his kingdom at the very same time in opposition to God. Every man who has a calling to minister to the inhabitants of the world was ordained to that very purpose in the Grand Council of heaven before this world was. I suppose I was ordained to this very office in that Grand Council. It is the testimony that I want that I am God's servant, and this people His people. The ancient prophets declared that in the last days the God of heaven should set up a kingdom which should never be destroyed, nor left to other people; and the very time that was calculated on, this people were struggling to bring it out.

The doctrine of eternal judgments belongs to the first principles of the Gospel, in the last days. In relation to the kingdom of God, the devil always sets up his kingdom at the very same time in opposition to God. Every man who has a calling to minister to the inhabitants of the world was ordained to that very purpose in the Grand Council of heaven before this world was. I suppose I was ordained to this very office in that Grand Council. It is the testimony that I want that I am God's servant, and this people His people. The ancient prophets declared that in the last days the God of heaven should set up a kingdom which should never be destroyed, nor left to other people; and the very time that was calculated on, this people were struggling to bring it out.

So, brothers and sisters, we are approaching a time when we are really going to have to decide once and for all whom we will serve and whom we will serve under. The great apostasies that took place in Kirtland, starting less than a year after the great endowment and glorious blessings that rested upon the Kirtland Temple, and those who were in there receiving an endowment; within one year, half of the Twelve apostatized and three or four others raised their voices against Joseph in that great apostasy in 1836, 1837.

John Taylor came from Canada having been preached to by Parley P. Pratt, and he obtained a testimony after great deliberation and prayer, and one which remained with him through the rest of his life. John Taylor was approached by Parley P. Pratt in Kirtland shortly after he came down from Canada, and said Joseph was a fallen Prophet. John Taylor said, "When were you right, Parley? When you testified of it up there in Canada to me, or now? If he was a Prophet then, he still is the man at the head of this dispensation, the chosen vessel of God." Fortunately, Parley repented very quickly. And you know, it is a strange thing, the thing that set the apostasy going was the great financial panic of 1837, and came about through affairs in the bank of Kirtland, the Kirtland Safety Society. These men were calling Joseph a thief, accusing him of stealing twenty thousand dollars from the bank, and more; when the man who accused him, he himself was guilty of it.
So we see how the devil can work under great stress of circumstances. The thing that I am trying to get at, brothers and sisters, is this glorious principle of the testimony of the Holy Ghost. No one can say that Jesus is the Christ but by the Holy Ghost, and the same goes as to the glorious office and calling and ministry of Joseph Smith, Jun. We have got to have that in order for us to stand. Every tub is going to have to stand on its own bottom.

I would like to read an item by Parley P. Pratt which is very true, published in the Millennial Star, and this is after he was back in full fellowship and sustaining the work and the Prophet of God.

Millennial Star 6:93  Parley P. Pratt

Brethren, no one's claims need any support. Those who hold the keys of the kingdom of God will be supported by the spirit of God, and by his angels, and also by the aid and prayers of the Saints. And they will say nothing about their 'claims,' nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them. And they will say nothing about their 'claims,' nor will they need the talents of men to advocate them.

If men hold the keys of the kingdom of God, they are not dependent upon men to support their claims;

Though we should when we have that testimony.

...but the church and all the world is dependent on them and on the keys committed to them for the ministration of salvation. They can shut and no more open, or open and no more shut. And to these authorities all must bow, so far as to be ministered to, and governed in the things of salvation, or else remain without the blessings of the kingdom.

I rejoice, brothers and sisters, in the life and labors of President Johnson, a chosen vessel for our day and time, called before he came here, as Joseph spoke of, in the Council of the Gods; ordained there to accomplish the work he is sent forth to do. All who hold these keys and power must know, and we must know, brothers and sisters, that these things were ordained before we came here. Abraham was told by the Lord, he stood among those spirits before they came here. He said, "Thou, Abraham, was one of those chosen before thou wast born to come and do the work you are now called upon to do." All these things were ordained and taken care of before we came here, and this is the case even now. I testify of it to you, and pray God to add to this testimony for all of us that we will come together under this great head.
I would like to feel, and I do with all my heart, that we are laboring under such a one as a Moses and an Enoch. It is that kind of power, and authority, and leadership that will prepare this people to go back and redeem Zion. This great work of preparation is the Gospel message itself. That is what it is given to us for.

So let us rally together and stand behind our head, and go as one man should have gone with Joseph when they were called to go back and redeem Zion in 1834. It was because they did not sustain him that they failed in their mission. Out of that camp came the original Twelve and the first Council of Seventy. The Lord chose them for their faith and faithfulness. In 1835, how strange within two or three years, half of them, at least of the Twelve, apostatized and turned against the Prophet.

So we need to know where the keys are and follow them, brothers and sisters, and be faithful and true and sustain what God gives us to sustain, and it is the same as doing it for the Lord. If we can get that testimony and keep it, and work incessantly as a body of people, then we can become one. It is the only way we will redeem Zion, is to have the Holy Ghost upon us to make us one; and without we be one, we are not the Lord's. He cannot use us.

So let us get the Spirit of God, which testifies of these things, and enables us to go without murmuring, without complaining, and without criticizing, and be one people. I pray that we as a people will do this, and go on to perfection, to be used as the Lord desires us to be used, and I pray for it in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

We Should Be as a Zion's Camp in Our Preparation; Follow the Revelations of God

I am deeply grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to have heard the truths that have been delivered to us by the speakers up to this time, and I trust that we will profit thereby and order our lives according to the direction of the Spirit of God, which I pray may actuate my remarks. I am grateful to be here and pray that we may participate in these blessings together.
I thrill at these teachings of Joseph in the Lectures on Faith, and I hope that after all of the teachings we have had from it we will gain that fundamental truth, and faith, and the power of faith that is brought about by knowing that our course is pleasing to God. Therein is the power of faith, brothers and sisters, and it is the only way we can have power with God; for He told us in Section 82 a "new doctrine", which seemed to be such at that time, and sometimes I wonder if it is not new to us each time we have it brought to our attention. "Know this," He said, "that if you do what I say, I am bound." Isn't that having power with God? If we are obedient, make the necessary sacrifices, and come to know thereby that our course is pleasing to Him, then we can call upon Him in faith and know according to His promise that He is bound to grant us the blessings that we seek and live for, in humility. "But if ye do not what I say," said the Lord, "ye have no promise:" and there is a lack of faith.

We have been given us by Joseph the Prophet, every way and means by which we can come back into the presence of God. And that is the end of our faith; that is the object of our faith. We have had grand examples of faith that have been brought to our attention by the Prophets, the lives of the Prophets and the experiences of them. Enoch brought to pass a dispensation of translated bodies through living the Holy United Order, the Order of Enoch, and a dwelling place for God. He said, "Behold Mine abode forever." And Melchizedek came to the same order -- Shem, the son of Noah, through his great faith and power that he had with God, and after whom the holy Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, after the order of the Enoch, was named. And so we have these glorious examples of faith and power with God, who have brought the saints of their time up into the presence of God.

I love the words and the revelations of Joseph, and feel to rejoice, as he did, in writing to the saints an epistle in September of 1842. We have it in Section 128. He had been speaking of the great work for the dead, for they must be saved also, as well as ourselves. The great work of the Millennium is going to be performing the ordinances of the Gospel, and of the holy Priesthood for and in behalf of our faithful progenitors; and our hearts will be turned to the fathers, and theirs to us through the sealing keys of Elijah.

D.& C. 128

19. Now, what do we hear in the gospel which we have received? A voice of gladness! A voice of mercy from heaven; and a voice of truth out of the
And we, my dear brothers and sisters, need to be reminded that we are, as it were, engaged in that Camp of Zion under the Gospel and work of preparation, to prepare a people to redeem Zion. How are we acting under the direction that Joseph gave to that Camp of Zion? I think that it applies to us. I have loved to feel that we are in that process. Many have been called and have been going forward, I suppose, according to their best light and knowledge; but we are going to have a conclusion that occurred at the close of that mission as a Camp of Zion.

19. ...As the dews of Carmel, so shall the knowledge of God descend upon them!
20. And again, what do we hear? Glad tidings from Cumorah! Moroni, an angel from heaven, declaring the fulfillment of the prophets -- the book to be revealed. A voice of the Lord in the wilderness of Fayette, Seneca county, declaring the three witnesses to bear record of the book! The voice of Michael on the banks of the Susquehanna, detecting the devil when he appeared as an angel of light! The voice of Peter, James, and John in the wilderness between Harmony, Susquehanna county, and Colesville, Broome county, on the Susquehanna river, declaring themselves as possessing the keys of the kingdom, and of the dispensation of the fulness of times!

21. And again, the voice of God in the chamber of old Father Whitmer, in Fayette, Seneca county, and at sundry times, and in divers places through all the travels and tribulations of this Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints! And the voice of Michael, the archangel; the voice of Gabriel, and of Raphael, and of divers angels, from Michael or Adam down to the present time, all declaring their dispensation, their rights, their keys, their honors, their majesty and glory, and the power of their priesthood; giving line upon line, precept upon precept; here a little, and there a little; giving us consolation by holding forth that which is to come, confirming our hope!

22. Brethren, shall we not go on in so great a cause? Go forward and not backward. Courage, brethren; and on, on to the victory! Let your hearts rejoice, and be exceedingly glad. Let the earth break forth into singing. Let the dead speak forth anthems of eternal praise to the King Immanuel, who hath ordained, before the world was, that which would enable us to redeem them out of their prison; for the prisoners shall go free.

23. Let the mountains shout for joy, and all ye valleys cry aloud; and all ye seas and dry lands tell the wonders of your Eternal King! And ye rivers, and brooks, and rills, flow down with gladness. Let the woods and all the trees of the field praise the Lord; and ye solid rocks weep for joy! And let the sun, moon, and the morning stars sing together, and let all the sons of God shout for joy! And let the eternal creations declare his name forever and ever! And again I say, how glorious is the voice we hear from heaven, proclaiming in our ears, glory, and salvation, and honor, and immortality, and eternal life; kingdoms, principalities, and powers!

These are promised in the holy Celestial Covenant of Marriage.

24. Behold, the great day of the Lord is at hand; and who can abide the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap; and he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. Let us, therefore, as a church and a people, and as Latter-day Saints, offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness; And in sacrifice, may we add.

24. ...and let us present in his holy temple, when it is finished, a book containing the records of our dead, which shall be worthy of all acceptation.

25. Brethren, I have many things to say to you on the subject; but shall now close for the present, and continue the subject another time. I am, as ever, your humble servant and never deviating friend,

JOSEPH SMITH.

Joseph Smith, the One Mighty and Strong, has already come in the first stages of his setting in order the House of God, in setting up this special dispensation of the holy Priesthood under John Taylor in 1886, and I know that he has continued behind the scenes in conducting this work and directing his successors, bearers of the keys of the holy Priesthood who are under covenant to prepare a people for the redemption of Zion, and keep all of these laws of the holy Gospel of Jesus Christ alive until he comes. What a glorious prospect we have, brothers and sisters, in fulfilling the promise that Jesus made when He told Joseph at that the time that Zion's Camp was called to go forth: "I will not only have My angels before you, but I will go before you," and the trees and all nature shall bow in humble submission and in rejoicing as that glorious event takes place.

This is what we are preparing for, brothers and sisters, but there is a time of testing that God places us through. We have got to show by our faith and our works and our sacrifice of all earthly things that we are ready and willing to follow His direction and counsel through His servants. I want to leave you, my dear brothers and sisters, a key Lorin Woolley said in his time: "If what we tell you does not square with the holy scriptures -- the Doctrine and Covenants, the Book of Mormon, and the Pearl of Great Price, ye shall not receive it." Leroy S. Johnson has told us the same thing many, many times: "Follow what we have here in this Triple Combination. If it does not square with that, you are not bound."

So, my dear brothers and sisters, let us be faithful. Read and follow the holy word of God as it is revealed to us in these scriptures given by Joseph, the head of this last dispensation, the Witness and Testator, the Holy Ghost, standing in the Holy Trinity -- the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Heber C. Kimball said, "Let me tell you, the Holy Ghost is a man." It could not be anyone but Joseph Smith, the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son, and he stands with Them. Joseph was next to Jesus Christ in having done more for the salvation of man from the beginning to the end. I love his memory, and pray for the time when I may be able to meet him -- and we all should, too -- for we will not come up to see the face of Jesus, or Father Michael without his approbation and approval. Let us always remember Them, the source of our blessings, and all that Joseph has done for us, by the power and authority God has given him and passed on down into our time. So we are not left without power, authority, and hope, and faith, and love to come unto God; which I pray we may do with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

I am grateful to be here with you, my dear brothers and sisters, under the direction of President Johnson, in company with my brethren, and I desire with all my heart to have the Spirit of God in what I say. I felt strongly impressed to present to you a recording of some teachings that I gave to my family one Sunday morning not too long ago, having to do with getting and keeping the Spirit of God -- how -- which I think we all need to be reminded of. The Lord being my Helper, I would like to read this to you, praying that it will help us along the way, and encourage us. The Lord knows we need encouragement with what we are facing, as to the things that have been brought to our attention here this afternoon. I hope it is not going to be too long.
[He then read his sermon given February 26, 1978, found on page 259. Then he continued:]

My dear brothers and sisters, we cannot have the Spirit of God and be at variance with our Priesthood head, and not support him; sustain him with all our heart. He has been called as the mouthpiece of God to stand as the oracle of God to us, and by and through him we will receive and obtain the Spirit of God, and be enabled to keep it by walking in obedience to all that he commands us by the revelations of God through him. And I pray with all my heart for the continued mighty labors of President Johnson in our behalf as he seeks to prepare this people. He tells us time and time again, we cannot do this work of preparation without getting and keeping the Spirit of God, which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Holy Spirit; How to Govern Through Priesthood; Spirit of Revelation

I am grateful to be here in association with Presidents Hammon and Musser, and in meeting assembled with you, my dear brothers and sisters, who are desiring to serve God and keep His commandments and make the preparation that President Johnson has called upon us to make. I pray for the Spirit of God to actuate me in the remarks I make here today to our mutual edification.
The Holy Spirit is the great Teacher. It testifies of the Father and the Son, and of Joseph, who acted in the office of the Holy Ghost, and is acting in that office. And we can know nothing or come to understanding without the whisperings of that small still voice, the Spirit of God, which Joseph spoke so strongly about in a dream to Brigham Young as being fundamentally necessary for us to progress and go on unto perfection.

To have the Holy Ghost as our constant companion is to be like God, because the Holy Spirit is the mind of God. It has all of the attributes of God. Thus, the great importance of our getting it and keeping it, and being bound continually by it.

The Holy Ghost is also the power of the holy Priesthood, through faith, and we should never forget it. And here is how, my dear brothers and sisters, we must govern by the power and authority of the holy Priesthood -- the Elders over their families, their wives and children; and this is how the Apostles are required to direct the work and teach the saints:

D.& C. 121

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --

These are the attributes of the Holy Spirit. They are set out in the seventh chapter of Moroni, and in the teachings of Paul to the Corinthians.

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

That Spirit of peace can reprove most effectively. And we must always be sure, brothers and sisters, that it is the Holy Spirit that dictates, and not a fit of anger in which we lose control. The Holy Spirit, by the Spirit of truth, is like a two-edged sword, and it cuts asunder to establish truth and righteousness.

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;

Do we do that, brothers and sisters, after we reprove a child, brethren reproving a wife? Brother Johnson speaks so often: "The Holy Spirit is a Spirit of peace." It is the Spirit of truth. And then it goes on to say:

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity
Which to me is the Holy Spirit. All the attributes of the principle of charity set out by Moroni are the attributes of the Holy Spirit.

45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God;
How? Because we come to know through sacrifice and obedience that our course is pleasing to God.

45. ...then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God,
That is the power of faith.

45. ...and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven;
That is what we need.

46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

Now brothers and sisters, we have need of the Spirit of God at all times. The most important thing is to get and keep the Spirit of God, which will lead us into all truth and perfection. And we will have power with God because it is the mind of God, as Joseph pointed out so beautifully in Lecture Five of the Lectures on Faith. We have an extension of that glorious principle in Section 93 of the Doctrine and Covenants.

Among the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and probably the most important, is the Spirit of revelation. Without revelation there is no salvation, brothers and sisters; and that is going to be the key for all of us as we proceed in making the preparation that is required. And with the help of the Lord, I would like to instruct us on what this Spirit of revelation is.

We always want to know how, and we should know how, and the Lord has pointed it out to us. Oliver Cowdery desired to know if he could assist in the translation of the Book of Mormon plates. And he inquired through Joseph, and the Lord said this to him:

D.

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

The Holy Ghost was upon him as he acted in behalf of God to bring the children of Israel out of bondage.

4. Therefore this is thy gift;

It is a gift, brothers and sisters.

4. ...apply unto it, and blessed art thou, for it shall deliver you out of the hands of your enemies, when, if it were not so, they would slay you and bring your soul to destruction.

Oliver proceeded to try and do this work of translation, but he failed. So the Lord shortly after said this to him:

D.

3. Be patient, my son, for it is wisdom in me, and it is not expedient that you should translate at this present time.

4. Behold, the work which you are called to do is to write for my servant Joseph.

5. And, behold, it is because that you did not continue as you commenced, when you began to translate, that I have taken away this privilege from you.

6. Do not murmur, my son, for it is wisdom in me that I have dealt with you after this manner.

7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.
Merely ask.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; That is what Joseph was talking about when he said, "Faith is the exertion of the mind" -- exertion.

8. ...then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

I think one of the most beautiful examples we have of the Spirit of revelation is in the mission that was undertaken at the command of his father by Nephi, when he was sent back to Jerusalem with his brothers to get from King Laban the plates and the records of their fathers. And I think it is worthwhile to read it just how it all happened. An angel wasn't standing by him, nor the Lord Himself to tell him what to do. He had to persuade his brothers to come along with him.

1 Nephi 4

4. Now when I had spoken these words,
To his brothers,

4. ...they were yet wroth, and did still continue to murmur; nevertheless they did follow me up until we came without the walls of Jerusalem.

5. And it was by night; and I caused that they should hide themselves without the walls. And after they had hid themselves, I, Nephi, crept into the city and went forth towards the house of Laban.

6. And I was led by the Spirit, not knowing beforehand the things which I should do.

7. Nevertheless I went forth, and as I came near unto the house of Laban I beheld a man, and he had fallen to the earth before me, for he was drunken with wine.

8. And when I came to him I found that it was Laban.

9. *And I beheld his sword, and I drew it forth from the sheath thereof; and the hilt thereof was of pure gold, and the workmanship thereof was exceeding fine, and I saw that the blade thereof was of the most precious steel.

10. And it came to pass that I was constrained by the Spirit that I should kill Laban; but I said in my heart: Never at any time have I shed the blood of man. And I shrunk and would that I might not slay him.

11. And the Spirit said unto me again: Behold the Lord hath delivered him into thy hands. Yea, and I also knew that he had sought to take away mine own life; yea, and he would not hearken unto the commandments of the Lord; and he also had taken away our property.

12. And it came to pass that the Spirit said unto me again: Slay him, for the Lord hath delivered him into thy hands;

13. Behold the Lord slayeth the wicked to bring forth his righteous purposes. It is better that one man should perish than that a nation should dwindle and perish in unbelief.

14. And now, when I, Nephi, had heard these words, I remembered the words of the Lord which he spake unto me in the wilderness, saying that: Inasmuch as thy seed shall keep my commandments, they shall prosper in the land of promise.

15. Yea, and I also thought that they could not keep the commandments of the Lord according to the law of Moses, save they should have the law.

16. And I also knew that the law was engraven upon the plates of brass.

17. And again, I knew that the Lord had delivered Laban into my hands for this cause -- that I might obtain the records according to his commandments.

18. Therefore I did obey the voice of the Spirit, and took Laban by the hair of the head, and I smote off his head with his own sword.

19. And after I had smitten off his head with his own sword, I took the garments of Laban and put them upon mine own body; yea, even every whit; and I did gird on his armor about my loins.

20. And after I had done this, I went forth unto the treasury of Laban. And as I went forth towards the treasury of Laban, behold, I saw the servant of Laban who had the keys of the treasury. And I commanded him in the voice of Laban, that he should go with me into the treasury.

21. And he supposed me to be his master, Laban, for he beheld the garments and also the sword girded about my loins.

22. And he spake unto me concerning the elders of the Jews, he knowing that his master, Laban, had been out by night among them.

And so this servant of Laban finally joined Nephi and went with him and the family of Lehi. Some further instruction on the Spirit of revelation is given on page 151 of the Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings.

He had been talking about the First and the Second Comforter -- the First Comforter, the Holy Ghost; the Second, the presence and confirmation by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, after having had their calling and election made sure.

A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, the Holy Spirit is pure intelligence.

...it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

Without revelation there is no salvation. And we are going to have to be governed by it, my dear brothers and sisters. Like has been quoted, everyone is going to have to stand on his own testimony, as a tub on its own bottom. And we are going to have to know for ourselves, and stop living on borrowed light.

I would like to point out that in the beginning, Joseph Smith the Prophet translated the Book of Mormon by the Urim and Thummim. It was shown through this instrument the words that he should dictate to Oliver in writing down in English the Book of Mormon. He had the Urim and Thummim and used it, as well as a seer stone in obtaining the earliest revelations that we have in the book of Doctrine and Covenants. But he learned this Spirit of revelation, as he had instructed here. And from then on, the revelations we have in the Doctrine and Covenants were dictated by the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God. And he walked by it continually. He was full of the Holy Ghost, and was thus able to bring about the restoration of all things, and is now heading this last dispensation under Christ. And he is still directing this work.
We are going to have to have this Spirit of revelation, as I say, for ourselves. I pray that we may seek unto it; get and keep the Spirit of God, which we must obtain through meekness and lowliness of heart, and by the power of faith. Come unto Him through His servants. President Johnson has this Spirit of revelation with him all the time. I have never seen or talked with him when he did not have the Spirit of God. I suppose there are times when one doesn't have it in the abundance that is necessary to reveal the Lord's word. But when acting in his office and calling as President of Priesthood and the mouthpiece of God, he speaks by this power of revelation, and in the ways pointed out here.

Now, my brothers and sisters, I have full faith and confidence that we are being led by Joseph from the other side through his successor in the keyholder position. And I pray God to bless us that we may become one people, not a divided people; and that we will go on to perfection, and be worthy to enter into the presence of the Lord by our having a fullness, and being filled with, the Holy Ghost. I ask it in Jesus' name, amen.

Through Faith Comes All Other Blessings

I am very grateful to be with you here today, brothers and sisters, in association with the brethren, and I would like, through the Spirit of God and the prayer of faith, to give us something to go on, and I will be very brief. I have always rejoiced in the teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith given us in the Lectures on Faith; which, if we would follow, we would really know what faith is; and through that, how to get the Spirit of God and keep it. Faith leads us into all of the other principles, ordinances, and blessings of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ: Baptism, repentance -- first, of course, faith in God and in His Son, Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost -- baptism by immersion for the remission of sins, signifying the great redemption, death, and the resurrection of our Lord; and then that great gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands of the holy Priesthood. We have a beautiful summary of the principles brought out in that great work, the Lectures on Faith, in these brief words:
Faith

The effort to yield obedience to the laws of heaven, if persevered in, will, in time bring the consciousness that the course of life being pursued is in accordance with the will of God;

Therein, my dear brothers and sisters, is the power of faith, because He said, "If ye do what I say, I am bound; if ye do not what I say, ye have no promise," and, "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." So by this, and having the Spirit of God as our constant companion, we draw near to God, we have the attributes of God, which is the Holy Spirit. It is the mind of our Father and Jesus Christ, and it is the attributes of the eternal Godhead: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

...and by a union of these three elements, that is, a belief in the existence of God, a correct conception of his character, and a knowledge that the course of life pursued is approved of him -- will render faith perfect, We cannot come unto the Father except by perfect faith.

...will constitute it a principle of power, the incentive to all action -- as really it is, whether in temporal or spiritual things -- leading from one degree of knowledge or excellence to another, from righteousness to righteousness, until the heavens will be opened to them and they will hold communion with the Church of the First Born, That is the Church we are striving for, brothers and sisters, the Church of the Firstborn.

...with Jesus Christ, and with God the Father, and thus will they make their calling and election sure -- through faith ripening into knowledge. Which I pray we may lay hold on with all our heart, might, mind, and strength; loving God and our fellows, our neighbors with all our heart, to His name's honor and glory, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Holy Spirit; We Are No Longer on Neutral Ground;
How to Labor in the Priesthood; Dream of Brigham Young
I do not know why so much attention has been focused on me here today, but it places a terrible responsibility on me. And I desire with all my heart to be dictated by the Spirit of God, to guide the subject of my remarks here today. I have sat here thinking how to go about it in such a way that would be most instructive to you and me; because every time I speak on the subject, I learn more of it for myself. It is the most profound thing that we have to deal with. It is the gift of God, the greatest gift which God has given us, next to life itself. It is eternity itself, brethren and sisters. Having a fullness of it, a fullness is what makes a man a God. You analyze it. I think the best approach I can give is to read the words of Brigham Young when he introduced the Adam-God Doctrine.

JD 1:50  Brigham Young  April 9, 1852  SLC

The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of the Lord, and issues forth from Himself, and may properly be called God's minister to execute His will in immensity; being called to govern by His influence and power; but He is not a person of tabernacle as we are, and as our Father in Heaven and Jesus Christ are.

The Holy Ghost is the Spirit of the Lord, and issues forth from Himself, and is the mind of the Father and the Son. It is the most pure and holy and refined substance. And it is the power by which God created the earth, through faith. It is the glory of God. It is intelligence, or the glory of God, or light and truth. Read carefully Section 93; read Lecture Five of the Lectures on Faith, and we begin to get some understanding of the nature of this great thing that God has given us through the laying on of hands of His Priesthood. It is the power of the Priesthood by which God operates. God is Priesthood; Priesthood is God. And the power of that Priesthood is the Spirit by which He operates, and which the Lord has given us that we might come into the world and enter into His holy law -- Celestial Marriage, the Family Order of Heaven. We have got to learn to live the Holy United Order along with it. These are the two grand crowning principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We must enter in at the gate for us to begin at the beginning, by faith and repentance, coming to God with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. We are immersed in water in token and sign of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and by which our sins are remitted, and by which we may then come clean to God. Then His servants lay their hands upon our heads for the gift of the Holy Ghost. As we go along, we must learn all about it, brothers and sisters. Because of our weaknesses and sometimes sins, we lose it. It is there; it is everywhere. It is indivisible, as the Priesthood is indivisible, as God Himself is indivisible. You cannot get it by calling for a portion of it like you would cut a piece of pie. It is indivisible. You either have it or you do not have it.

There are three spirits: The spirit of man, the Spirit of God, and the spirit of the devil. When we undertook to obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we forever left neutral ground. And this spirit put in us, then is actuated by one or the other. Joseph Smith said -- I am going to make references to the scripture, in the words of Joseph.

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death. Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men. If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God,

And that is what the Holy Spirit is for. The attributes of the Holy Spirit are the attributes of God. That is why He is God.

If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil.

You cannot stand still and be neutral. It is impossible.

Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people.

Then he said the grand thing, which illustrates the humility and love of God of this God over us in this dispensation.

Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

The Holy Spirit is the pure love of Christ -- charity, as it is described in the seventh of Moroni. I get great comfort in reading that. This tells us what the Spirit of God is and is not, the last few verses of chapter 7 of Moroni. I do not know that I need to read it here. Section 121 to me is some of the grandest instructions on the exercise of the power of the Priesthood, which is the Spirit of God.

D. & C. 121

40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.
41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
These are the attributes of the Holy Spirit.

42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;

And we have got to know that we have it. Sometimes we are without it, thinking we have it when we lose our temper. Some of the most powerful corrections and rebukes I have ever had have come by the power of the Holy Ghost, when you know you have had it. It pierces you to your soul, and it results in coming before the Lord with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, that we might get it back again. But how much more wonderful it would be if we had it all the time, and we would not have to have these rebukes.

43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost; and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy; Isn't that beautiful? I cannot think of a more perfect way to govern and direct a child, brethren, or a wife. Afterwards, put your arm around the child and tell him or her you love them; you had to do this for their good.
Chastisement comes also as a gift of God, for He chastises whom He loves.
That is the spirit in which we reprove or correct those who are under us.

44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.
45. Let thy bowels also be full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.

We have got to be clean vessels for the Spirit of God to enter into this temple. And I will prove that from Section 93.
46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

There is the ultimate aim.

D. & C. 93

11. And I, John, bear record that I beheld his glory, as the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, even the Spirit of truth, which came and dwelt in the flesh, and dwelt among us.

12. And I, John, saw that he received not of the fulness at first, but received grace for grace.

Let me pause to maybe help you understand another word that we generally do not understand -- it has helped me -- this word "grace". We are saved by grace, one Apostle tells us. It is the Spirit of God. It is that simple.

13. And he received not of the fulness at first, but continued from grace to grace, until he received a fulness;

He grew by the gift and power of the Holy Ghost.

14. And thus he was called the Son of God, because he received not of the fulness at the first.

15. And I, John, bear record, and lo, the heavens were opened, and the Holy Ghost descended upon him in the form of a dove, and sat upon him, and there came a voice out of heaven saying: This is my beloved Son.

16. And I, John, bear record that he received a fulness of the glory of the Father.

The Holy Spirit.

17. And he received all power, both in heaven and on earth, and the glory of the Father was with him, for he dwelt in him.

18. And it shall come to pass, that if you are faithful you shall receive the fulness of the record of John.

What a glorious day when will we have that -- the record of Enoch, and the record of the brother of Jared, and the record that was written when Christ visited the Nephites, the remnant who survived the great judgments that occurred at that time. Things were said and done that were not lawful to utter, but to write. And I am sure a record was kept of them. Now, here is the thing that has appealed to me so strongly:
19. I give unto you these sayings that you may understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship,

What you worship.

19. ...that you may come unto the Father in my name, and in due time receive of his fulness.

I think it worthwhile, if you want me to take the time, to read part of Lecture Five. What a pity these Lectures were taken out of the Doctrine and Covenants.

Lecture Five

2. ...And he being the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth, and having overcome,

That is what we are here for. We are here to overcome as He did. He is the great Prototype, the pattern on the way to perfection.

2. ...received a fullness of the glory of the Father, possessing the same mind with the Father, which mind is the Holy Spirit, that bears record of the Father and the Son, and these three are one; or, in other words, these three constitute the great, matchless, governing and supreme power over all things; by whom all things were created and made that were created and made, and these three constitute the Godhead, and are one;

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It is indicated by Joseph in Section 130, that the Holy Ghost is a personage of Spirit, which, as I understand, centers in the Father, and which issues forth from Him. Otherwise He could not dwell in your heart. That is what Joseph said.

2. ...these three constitute the Godhead, and are one; the Father and the Son possessing the same mind, the same wisdom, glory, power, and fullness -- filling all in all; the Son being filled with the fullness of the mind, glory, and power;

Note the words "mind", "glory", and "power".

2. ...or, in other words, the spirit, glory, and power, of the Father, possessing all knowledge and glory, and the same kingdom, sitting at the right hand of power, in the express image and likeness of the Father, mediator for man, being filled with the fullness of the mind of the Father; Just like I read here in Section 93.

2. ...or, in other words, the Spirit of the Father, which Spirit is shed forth upon all who believe on his name and keep his commandments;
That gets it down to us. Let us talk about the saints now in connection with this glorious Spirit.

2. ...and all those who keep his commandments shall grow up from grace to grace,
As Jesus did.
2. ...and become heirs of the heavenly kingdom, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; possessing the same mind,
See how it was with the Father and the Son? Now the saints:

2. ...possessing the same mind, being transformed into the same image or likeness,
How? By the Spirit.
2. ...even the express image of him who fills all in all; being filled with the fullness of his glory, and become one in him, even as the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one.
"If ye are not one, ye are not Mine." The Holy Ghost does it.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation,
How? We have come to know who we worship, now, and what we worship, which is their power and glory. We know the character of God. Yes, we know who we worship -- Father Michael and His Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Now let us bring it down to that third personage of the Godhead, like the Father and the Son -- Joseph Smith, acting in that office of the Witness and Testator of the Father and the Son. We begin to see, then, the great power, glory, and the position of Joseph Smith the Prophet, a God over this dispensation, and next only to Jesus Christ.

3. From the foregoing account of the Godhead, which is given in his revelations, the saints have a sure foundation laid for the exercise of faith unto life and salvation, through the atonement and mediation of Jesus Christ; by whose blood they have a forgiveness of sins, and also a sure reward laid up for them in heaven, even that of partaking of the fullness of the Father and the Son through the Spirit.
This is the medium.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them.

There is only one Heir, Jesus Christ. The rest of the saints become joint heirs with Jesus Christ through adoption, as John Taylor so beautifully explains in The Mediation and Atonement. Have you ever understood this? all of this, brothers and sisters, coming up to see the face of God, through the Spirit.

3. ...As the Son partakes of the fullness of the Father through the Spirit, so the saints are, by the same Spirit, to be partakers of the same fullness, to enjoy the same glory; for as the Father and the Son are one, so, in like manner, the saints are to be one in them. Through the love of the Father, the mediation of Jesus Christ, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, they are to be heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

I undertook, about a year ago, to sit down with my family to explain some of these things about how to get and keep the Spirit of God, how we lose it and how we can get it back. I have got it written down here, but it would take an hour to read it. I really hesitate. If Brother Johnson is willing, I will be glad to make copies and send to you if you would like it. Joseph tells us some of the things that I made use of in that treatise. I am going to read the pertinent part here today, found on page 221 of volume 10 of the Truth.

Truth 10:221

Joseph stepped towards him, looked very earnestly yet pleasantly, and said:

"Tell the brethren to be humble and faithful and be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord, and it will lead them aright. Be careful and not turn away the small, still voice; it will teach them what to do and where to go. It will yield the fruits of the kingdom.

What to do and where to go, and how to do it. All of these things we need, don't we, in abiding this holy law? You cannot abide the law of God without the Spirit of God.

Tell the brethren to keep their heart open to conviction, so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other spirits -- it will whisper peace and joy to their souls; it will take malice, hatred, strife and all evil from their hearts, and their whole desire will be to do good, bring forth righteousness and build up the Kingdom of God. Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord, they will go right. Be sure to tell the brethren to keep the Spirit of the Lord;

He kept repeating it.

...and if they will, they will find themselves just as they were organized by our Father in Heaven before they came into the world. Our Father in Heaven organized the human family, but they are all disorganized and in great confusion."

Joseph again said to him: "Tell the people to be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord and follow it and it will lead them just right."

Now he said here, "When the Holy Ghost comes upon you, be ready to receive it." And I said in the first place, you either have it or you don't. We may have it all the time, but it is a matter of degree, or intensity. It comes in greater or less power, according to our need. Do you understand what I am saying?

[One of the brethren said: Excuse me, Brother Jeffs, Brother Taylor had it in such abundance he was lifted off from the floor.]

[One of the brethren continued: And yet his hearers had it; they were able to hear and understand what he said, and they were seated on their chairs.]

[President Jeffs continued:] There was great power, a great abundance of it on that occasion. At the dedication of the Kirtland Temple, what power. Tons of flame issued forth from the roof of that building. Angels came, the brethren prophesied, and Jesus appeared to Joseph and Oliver on the pulpit area, on the breastwork of the pulpit in the temple. There was a great manifestation and power. But to us individually, as we go through life, it is a Spirit of peace, a spirit of strength, and power with God. Through that Spirit we reach and communicate with God. As I say, that Spirit is around us. All we need to do is tune in. But we have got to be true vessels of the Lord to do it. And I am going to read further from Section 93.

JD 16:41 Brigham Young May 18, 1873 Ogden

A declaratory statement

This is in the Deseret News.

...is sufficient for those who are prepared to receive the spirit of revelation for themselves,

One of the great gifts of the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of revelation.
...but with most of the human family we have to reason and explain. A really pure person is very scarce; but when the heart is truly pure, the Lord can write upon it, and the Truth is received without argument or doubt or disputation.

Funeral of Bertha Dockstader Burnham

I feel grateful and honored in being asked to have a part in this sacred ordinance and service, and pray for the Spirit of God to be with me as I present to you the words of Joseph Smith the Prophet; which I think is a great strength and comfort to all under these circumstances. I feel that this truth should be mentioned or said here: Sister Bertha, going through her whole life, in the end chose the better part and sought to obey the law of Sarah. In connection with this holy law in which we all have a great part, I do not think we even need to mention at whose service this was said.

TPJS  Page 294

Almost all who have fallen in these last days in the Church have fallen in a strange land. This is a strange land to those who have come from a distance. We should cultivate sympathy for the afflicted among us. If there is a place on earth where men should cultivate the spirit and pour in the oil and wine in the bosoms of the afflicted, it is in this place; and this spirit is manifest here; and although a stranger and afflicted when he arrives, he finds a brother and a friend ready to administer to his necessities.

This is the way it should be.

I would esteem it one of the greatest blessings, if I am to be afflicted in this world, to have my lot cast where I can find brothers and friends all around me. But this is not the thing I referred to: it is to have the privilege of having our dead buried on the land where God has appointed to gather His Saints together, and where there will be none but Saints, where they may have the privilege of laying their bodies where the Son of Man will make His appearance, and where they may hear the sound of the trump that shall call them forth to behold Him, that in the morn of the resurrection they may come forth in a body, and come up out of their graves and strike hands immediately in eternal glory and felicity, rather than be scattered thousands of miles apart. There is something good and sacred to me in this thing. The place where a man is buried is sacred to me. This subject is made mention of in the Book of Mormon and other scriptures. Even to the aborigines of this land, the burying places of their fathers are more sacred than anything else.

When I heard of the death of our beloved Brother Barnes, it would not have affected me so much, if I had the opportunity of burying him in the land of Zion.

And this is what this people are looking to.

I believe those who have buried their friends here, their condition is enviable. Look at Jacob and Joseph in Egypt, how they required their friends to bury them in the tomb of their fathers. See the expense which attended the embalming and the going up of the great company to the burial.

It has always been considered a great calamity not to obtain an honorable burial: and one of the greatest curses the ancient prophets could put on any man, was that he should go without a burial.

I have said, Father, I desire to die here among the Saints. But if this is not Thy will, and I go hence and die, wilt Thou find some kind friend to bring my body back, and gather my friends who have fallen in foreign lands, and bring them up hither, that we may all lie together.

I will tell you what I want. If tomorrow I shall be called to lie in yonder tomb, in the morning of the resurrection let me strike hands with my father, and cry, "My father," and he will say, "My son, my son," as soon as the rock rends and before we come out of our graves.

And may we contemplate these things so? Yes, if we learn how to live and how to die. When we lie down we contemplate how we may rise in the morning; and it is pleasing for friends to lie down together, locked in the arms of love, to sleep and wake in each other's embrace and renew their conversation.

Would you think it strange if I relate what I have seen in vision in relation to this interesting theme? Those who have died in Jesus Christ may expect to enter into all that fruition of joy when they come forth, which they possessed or anticipated here.

So plain was the vision, that I actually saw men, before they had ascended from the tomb, as though they were getting up slowly. They took each other by the hand and said to each other, "My father, my son, my mother, my daughter, my brother, my sister." And when the voice calls for the dead to arise, suppose I am laid by the side of my father, what would be the first joy of my heart? To meet my father, my mother, my brother, my sister; and when they are by my side, I embrace them and they me.

It is my meditation all the day, and more than my meat and drink, to know how I shall make the Saints of God comprehend the visions that roll like an overflowing surge before my mind.

All your losses will be made up to you in the resurrection, provided you continue faithful. By the vision of the Almighty I have seen it.

More painful to me are the thoughts of annihilation than death. If I have no expectation of seeing my father, mother, brothers, sisters and friends again, my heart would burst in a moment, and I should go down to my grave.

The expectation of seeing my friends in the morning of the resurrection cheers my soul and makes me bear up against the evils of life. It is like their taking a long journey, and on their return we meet them with increased joy.

God has revealed His Son from the heavens and the doctrine of the resurrection also; and we have a knowledge that those we bury here God will bring up again, clothed upon and quickened by the Spirit of the great God; and what mattereth it whether we lay them down, or we lay down with them when we can keep them no longer? Let these truths sink down in our hearts, that we may even here begin to enjoy that which shall be in full hereafter.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna to Almighty God, that rays of light begin to burst forth upon us even now. I cannot find words in which to express myself. I am not learned, but I have as good feelings as any man.

O that I had the language of the archangel to express my feelings once to my friends! But I never expect to in this life. When others rejoice, I rejoice; when they mourn, I mourn.

To Marcellus Bates let me administer comfort. You shall soon have the company of your companion in a world of glory, and the friends of Brother Barnes and all the Saints who are mourning. This has been a warning voice to us all to be sober and diligent and lay aside mirth, vanity and folly, and to be prepared to die tomorrow.

And here is a beautiful thought, on the occasion of another service similar to this:

When we lose a near and dear friend, upon whom we have set our hearts, it should be a caution unto us not to set our affections too firmly upon others, knowing that they may in like manner be taken from us. Our affections should be placed upon God and His work, more intensely than upon our fellow beings. (April 9, 1842.) D.H.C. 4:587.

This is a message we should receive here, those who remain and continue in life to work out our own salvation. God bless us that we may come up to see the face of God, and have a part with those who are called upon to redeem Zion. May the Lord bless and comfort this family and all connected with them. And may we all understand the great and glorious principle as we rely in faith and humility upon God: "All things shall work together for good, to them who love God." God bless you, amen.

Become One People Behind President Johnson; Judgments; Charity

I desire with all my heart to speak only as directed by the Spirit of God in sustaining President Johnson in this great work in which we are engaged. The great teacher, brethren and sisters, is the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Priesthood, and we cannot obtain the things spoken of today without the Spirit of God and becoming like God. President Johnson is striving with all his might to fulfill the great mission he has been given -- to prepare a people for the redemption of Zion. He has told us time and time again, we cannot do this save we have the Holy Ghost. The Lord has reminded us through him that unless we are one we are not the Lord's. We cannot be one except through the Holy Ghost. I would like to take as a text, something that President Johnson has called to our attention so often -- Section 1 of the Doctrine and Covenants, beginning at verse 34.

D. & C. 1

34. And again, verily I say unto you, O inhabitants of the earth: I the Lord am willing to make these things known unto all flesh;
35. For I am no respecter of persons, and will that all men shall know that the day speedily cometh; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand, when peace shall be taken from the earth, and the devil shall have power over his own dominion.

36. And also the Lord shall have power over his saints, and shall reign in their midst,
He wants us to be one, and become the saints of God over whom God can reign.
36. ...and shall come down in judgment upon Idumea, or the world.

37. Search these commandments,
This Three-in-One. Everything we need is in this volume.
37. Search these commandments for they are true and faithful,
The Lord has spoken of how He had brought this forth, the Book of Mormon, and the revelations which were about to be published by the gift and power of God through Joseph Smith, Jun., the Witness of the Father and the Son, and the third member of the Godhead. I have added the latter, but that is who the Lord was talking about.

37. Search these commandments for they are true and faithful, and the prophecies and promises which are in them shall all be fulfilled.
38. What I the Lord have spoken, I have spoken, and I excuse not myself; and though the heavens and the earth pass away, my word shall not pass away, but shall all be fulfilled, whether by mine own voice or by the voice of my servants, it is the same.

39. For behold, and lo, the Lord is God, and the Spirit beareth record, and the record is true, and the truth abideth forever and ever.
So, the great need that we have, brothers and sisters, is to get and keep the Spirit of God. As Joseph Smith told Brigham Young in a dream, "Get and keep the Spirit of God." It will lead us into all truth and tell us what to do at all times, and it shall be our constant guide and companion, as promised in the latter part of Section 121, which Joseph wrote by the gift and power of God from Liberty Jail to the brethren. I am going to feel content to deliver the word of God as given by Joseph Smith through these revelations. I refer you now to Section 45. It had been speaking of how the Savior talked to His Twelve about His second coming and what would be the signs of His coming and of the judgments that would be involved. Let us go to verse 27.

D.& C. 45

27. And the love of men shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound.
This is the condition of the world today, with a vengeance.

28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;
President Johnson has told us that the times of the gentiles has been fulfilled in 1890, when the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, under its President, turned away from the Law of Abraham, the fullness of the Gospel, the law of Celestial and Plural Marriage. The work of God now is to those who seek to obey God and keep all of His commandments with all their heart, and they must seek it. Since that time there has been no real fruitful proselyting of the Gospel to the gentiles. The Gospel is now to Israel and the gathering of Israel, and this has been going on now for lo, these many years.

28. And when the times of the Gentiles is come in, a light shall break forth among them that sit in darkness, and it shall be the fulness of my gospel;
That is what this Priesthood, under its worthy senior and head has been trying to do according to the covenants that were given them, and they accepted September 27, 1886, John Taylor knowing that the Church was about to give up that sacred and holy law. His Priesthood was to carry on and see that that law was obeyed, and that children should be born under that law until Christ should come. The sealing keys were given in a channel that would be preserved until Christ comes. It has been recounted to us here this afternoon.

29. But they receive it not; for they perceive not the light, and they turn their hearts from me because of the precepts of men.
Isn't that going on today?

30. And in that generation shall the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

Let me read that last verse again.

31. And there shall be men standing in that generation, that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge; for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

I cannot think of a judgment that would be worse than that, but there is more.

32. But my disciples shall stand in holy places, and shall not be moved; but among the wicked, men shall lift up their voices and curse God and die.

33. And there shall be earthquakes also in divers places, and many desolations; yet men will harden their hearts against me, and they will take up the sword, one against another, and they will kill one another.

34. And now, when I the Lord had spoken these words unto my disciples, they were troubled.

35. And I said unto them: Be not troubled, for, when all these things shall come to pass, ye may know that the promises which have been made unto you shall be fulfilled.

36. And when the light shall begin to break forth, it shall be with them like unto a parable which I will show you --

37. Ye look and behold the figtrees, and ye see them with your eyes, and ye say when they begin to shoot forth, and their leaves are yet tender, that summer is now nigh at hand;

38. Even so it shall be in that day when they shall see all these things, then shall they know that the hour is nigh.

39. And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man.

40. And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath.

41. And they shall behold blood, and fire, and vapors of smoke.

42. And before the day of the Lord shall come, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon be turned into blood, and the stars fall from heaven.
43. And the remnant shall be gathered unto this place;
44. And then they shall look for me, and, behold, I will come; and they shall see me in the clouds of heaven, clothed with power and great glory; with all the holy angels; and he that watches not for me shall be cut off.

Now, speaking of the judgments, let us bring it down to just how it is going to happen -- Section 112 verse 24:

D. & C. 112

24. Behold, vengeance cometh speedily upon the inhabitants of the earth, a day of wrath, a day of burning, a day of desolation, of weeping, of mourning, and of lamentation; and as a whirlwind it shall come upon all the face of the earth, saith the Lord.

25. And upon my house shall it begin,

Do we ever think of this, brethren and sisters?

25. And upon my house shall it begin, and from my house shall it go forth, saith the Lord;

26. First among those among you, saith the Lord, who have professed to know my name and have not known me, and have blasphemed against me in the midst of my house, saith the Lord.

Those are frightening words, and we are about to see them fulfilled. The great need we have is to repent of our sins, confess them, come before the Lord and His servants with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. The Lord told the saints many times in the days of Joseph, and He is telling us today time after time after time, to repent, confess our sins where they should be confessed, come to the Lord with a broken heart and a contrite spirit, and go forth unto perfection that we might stand in these holy places. Do we realize, brothers and sisters, the only way a place can become holy is by this sanctification of the righteous, sanctifying the house, the land, and the places upon which they dwell. If there be anything unclean or unholy in the midst thereof, then the Lord cannot fulfill these promises which He has made. He says, "If ye do what I say, I am bound; if ye do not what I say, ye have no promise."

So, the great work we have to do is to become one people behind our head, and it must be centered in one head. President Johnson is the worthy senior and the head of the Priesthood, the keyholder, and the mouthpiece of God. It is for his Council to be one with him. And it is for you, my dear brothers and sisters, to be one behind and with them. I am going to read you a little from Section 28.

D.& C. 28

1. Behold, I say unto thee, Oliver,
Let me remind us all that Oliver was with Joseph when Peter, James, and John conferred upon them the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, and the Apostleship, the highest Priesthood that God gives to man to be His representatives upon the earth.

1. Behold, I say unto thee, Oliver, that it shall be given unto thee that thou shalt be heard by the church in all things whatsoever thou shalt teach them by the Comforter, concerning the revelations and commandments which I have given.
2. But, behold, verily, verily, I say unto thee, no one shall be appointed to receive commandments and revelations in this church excepting my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., for he receiveth them even as Moses.
3. And thou shalt be obedient unto the things which I shall give unto him, even as Aaron, Aaron was a great Apostle, along with Moses. Did you know that? Neither Moses nor Aaron were permitted to go into the promised land because of what occurred in the Waters of Strife, when they took the glory for having struck the rock and brought forth water; nevertheless, they both were to receive their blessings, and Moses was translated before the children of Israel moved on into the Holy Land, the Promised land.

3. And thou shalt be obedient unto the things which I shall give unto him, even as Aaron, to declare faithfully the commandments and the revelations, with power and authority unto the church.
4. And if thou art led at any time by the Comforter to speak or teach, or at all times by the way of commandment unto the church, thou mayest do it. That is all I want to do, brothers and sisters, as one of his counselors.

5. But thou shalt not write by way of commandment, but by wisdom;
6. And thou shalt not command him who is at thy head, and at the head of the church;
The head of this people.

7. For I have given him the keys of the mysteries, and the revelations which are sealed, until I shall appoint unto them another in his stead.
That is how it was in the days of Joseph. That is how it was in the days of Brigham Young, and of John Taylor, and of John W. Woolley, and so on; and that is how it is today. That is how it should and must be if we are going to follow after our head in the great work of preparation for the redemption of Zion.

Now, let us all take our place, and fill it with great integrity and faithfulness, and be faithful and true until Christ comes, after the redemption of Zion. The most perfect sermon, or the means by which I can find that we can learn obedience -- we seem to have to learn obedience by the things we suffer. Christ did, though He was the Son of God. Said the great Apostle, "Yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered." And it looks like we are going to have to suffer. It is the last few verses of Moroni 7.

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.

43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.

There it is again. Everywhere I read, we cannot obtain the gifts of God, the Holy Spirit, except we be meek and lowly of heart.

44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly of heart.

That is how we get the Spirit of God.

44. ...and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity;

Which he defines later as the pure love of Christ. I cannot see anything in this, other than that it is the Holy Spirit, the Holy Ghost, which has all of the attributes of God; and which, if we obtain, we will be like Him.

44. ...for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

The pure love of Christ. We now see what it is and what it is not. This should help us to live by it, brothers and sisters.

45. And charity suffereth long,

It is long-suffering and patient.

45. ...and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up,
If we are meek and lowly in heart we cannot be puffed up.

45. ...seeketh not her own,

It is unselfish.

45. ...is not easily provoked,

It:

45. ...thinketh no evil,

It is pure and clean. It:

45. ...rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth,

We love the truth for the truth's sake, lest we be given a delusion that we might believe a lie and thus be damned. We must so love truth that we may be given that which Paul said. It:

45. ...beareth all things,

It:

45. ...believeth all things,

It:

45. ...hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Only he who endureth faithfully unto the end shall have eternal life.

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart,

That is faith in action, the exertion of the mind and the heart. Joseph Smith spoke how, on occasions he wanted the mind and will of God, he prayed most earnestly and fervently, and he had to exert his mind, and his heart, knowing he would receive an answer; walking as seeing Him who is invisible. He had seen Him, of course -- Joseph had.

48. ...pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, Filled with the Holy Ghost, if you please.

48. ...which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; that ye may become the sons of God; that when he shall appear we shall be like him,
Why? Because we are filled with the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Father and the Son; and we must be likewise one.

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure. Amen.

Must Gather Around One Man;
Historical Accounts of Unity;
Criticism Is the Beginning of Apostasy

As always, dear brethren and sisters, I am delighted and thrilled to look at your faces in this congregation, assembled under the direction of President Johnson, and I desire the Spirit of God to be with me above all things, that I may teach and speak by the Spirit of God to our mutual edification. This great need that we have of getting and keeping the Spirit of God is constantly on my mind; first for myself and my family, whom I am responsible for to the Lord. I am anxious, as I know President Johnson is as he yearns over and for us, that all of you get and keep the Spirit of God in your families. The great need is to set in order our families.

Many men have come into this work with an aspiring nature, and they go through many years sorrowing because they have not been called up to do what they consider to be a most important work to them. I have been impressed with the grand truth, brethren, Elders bearing the holy Melchizedek Priesthood, supposed to be vessels of God, that there is no greater calling than to be a father and a god over one's family, to raise his wives and children up in light and truth to the honor and glory of God. I cannot think of a greater work and mission, and that is the very nature of this holy Celestial Law. Truly, Brigham Young said, in St. George in the temple there, "The fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the law of Celestial Marriage and the Holy United Order." We truly cannot abide the Celestial Law of Marriage without abiding the law of the Holy United Order in that family unit. That is where it has got to begin, and when we have enough families living according to this fullness of the Gospel, abiding it under the guidance and direction of the Holy Ghost, will we get a people who can redeem Zion.

I am constantly impressed with the way that Enoch was able to get a people together as he had the revelations of God, and was called, actually, to preside over a special dispensation to Terrestrial bodies. That holy city which was taken up was that which the Prophets of God since have been trying and laboring to bring a people up to the same order. It is a wonderful thing to understand that Melchizedek, or Shem, King of Shalom -- the Bible calls it Salem -- sought the city of Enoch; and with the power of the holy Priesthood and through perfect faith, he brought up a people to the Order of Enoch.

The holy Priesthood, brothers and sisters, is called the holy Priesthood after the order of the Son of God, after the order of Enoch, after the order of Melchizedek -- this highest Priesthood. It is rather significant to me that these two grand characters and Prophets and Apostles brought up people to live the Holy United Order.

There was another people we have record of, the Nephites. After the cataclysmic judgments that came upon the earth, the changes that were made in the earth, darkness for three days and three nights, Jesus Christ came after His death and resurrection in the Eastern Continent. And through the power of His Godship and Priesthood, He inspired a people to live the law of unity, of oneness. They abided in that order of things for one hundred sixty-five years. He called Twelve Apostles to lead them. Three of them were translated, as was Enoch and his city; and these three continued during that period leading the people in perfect unity.

These things to me, brothers and sisters, are parallels of what is being required at this day and time when the Lord provided a special dispensation within the dispensation of Joseph Smith through John Taylor, the preservation of the holy Priesthood and the Celestial Laws, the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel. That is the work and mission of that Priesthood which was given then and which has come down to us now. The thing that appeals to me in all of these historical instances of a people becoming one, is that they had to gather around one man, the oracle and the mouthpiece of God. I do not think we are going to do the same job which we are called upon to do on any other terms. The agent of God upon the earth at this time, through whom He will reveal His mind and will and give direction for this people is President Johnson.
I would just like to conclude by reading something that I think will help us to accomplish this work, the modus operandi. Do you remember that Solomon in one of his proverbs spoke of seven abominations which the Lord hated? You know what they are. One of the worst and the last mentioned was sowing discord among brethren; and among them was bearing false witness. One of the grand truths and characteristics regarding our Father in heaven, whom we are called upon to become like, is that He is a God of truth and cannot lie. That is the kind of man President Johnson is to me. I would like to give you another figure or instance that I think will help us if we will follow it. Brigham Young said, I take this from Journal 4 page 297:

JD 4:297  Brigham Young  March 29, 1857  SLC

It is folly in the extreme for persons to say that they love God, when they do not love their brethren; We must love our head if we love God. "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." Our commandments come through His agent.

It is folly in the extreme for persons to say that they love God, when they do not love their brethren; and it is of no use for them to say that they have confidence in God, when they have none in righteous men, for they do not know anything about God. It is reasonable for the Elders of Israel to be very sanguine and strenuous on this point. And were I to be asked whether I have any experience in this matter, I can tell the people that once in my life I felt a want of confidence in brother Joseph Smith, soon after I became acquainted with him. It was not concerning religious matters -- it was not about his revelations -- but it was in relation to his financiering -- to his managing the temporal affairs which he undertook. A feeling came over me that Joseph was not right in his financial management, though I presume the feeling did not last sixty seconds, and perhaps not thirty. But that feeling came on me once and once only, from the time I first knew him to the day of his death. Isn't that wonderful?

It gave me sorrow of heart, and I clearly saw and understood, by the spirit of revelation manifested to me, that if I was to harbor a thought in my heart that Joseph could be wrong in anything, I would begin to lose confidence in him, and that feeling would grow from step to step, and from one degree to another, until at last I would have the same lack of confidence in his being the mouthpiece for the Almighty, and I would be left, as brother Hooper observed, upon the brink of the precipice, ready to plunge into what we may call the gulf of infidelity, ready to believe neither in God nor His servants, and to say that there is no God, or, if there is, we do not know anything about Him;

You see what are the implications.

...that we are here, and by and bye shall go from here, and that is all we shall know. Such persons are like those to whom the Apostle calls "As natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed." Though I admitted in my feelings and knew all the time that Joseph was a human being and subject to err,

And this is true.

...still it was none of my business to look after his faults.

I repented of my unbelief, and that too, very suddenly; I repented about as quickly as I committed the error. It was not for me to question whether Joseph was dictated by the Lord at all times and under all circumstances or not. I never had the feeling for one moment, to believe that any man or set of men or beings upon the face of the whole earth had anything to do with him, for he was superior to them all, and held the keys of salvation over them. Had I not thoroughly understood this and believed it, I much doubt whether I should ever have embraced what is called "Mormonism."

He was called of God; God dictated him, and if He had a mind to leave him to himself and let him commit an error, that was no business of mine. And it was not for me to question it, if the Lord was disposed to let Joseph lead the people astray, for He had called him and instructed him to gather Israel and restore the Priesthood and kingdom to them.

George Q. Cannon was a rare character and he spoke on this wise from Washington D.C. about Brigham Young:

George Q. Cannon  (Reference Unknown)

To describe my feelings upon the death of this man of God, whom I love so much, and who had always treated me with such kindness and affection, is impossible. I have endeavored to appreciate these manifestations of affection and love, and now that he is gone, I feel exceedingly thankful that I had these to the last, that nothing occurred to alienate his feelings from me. On my part, he was in my eyes as perfect a man as I ever knew. I never desired to see his faults. I closed my eyes to them. To me he was a Prophet of God, the head of the dispensation on the earth (at that time), holding the keys under the Prophet Joseph Smith, and in my mind there clustered about him holding this position everything holy and sacred to be revered.

Some, I am satisfied now as I write this in Washington, January 17, 1878, have thought that I carried this feeling too far. But I know this, that in revering him the Prophet of the Lord, in obeying him, in being governed by his counsel, in bearing testimony to his teachings and his character, I have been blessed of the Lord. Peace has been in my heart, light has rested upon me, and the Lord has borne witness to me that my course was pleasing to him.

Now that Brother Brigham is gone, I rejoice in this. I never criticized or found fault with his conduct, his counsel, or his teachings at any time, in my heart, much less in my words or actions. This is a pleasure to me now. The thought that ever was with me was, if I criticize or find fault with, or judge Brother Brigham, how far shall I go? If I commence, where shall I stop? I dare not to trust myself in such a course. I know that apostasy frequently resulted from the indulgence of the spirit of criticizing and faultfinding.

That is indeed the beginning of apostasy.

Others of greater strength, wisdom, and experience than myself, might do many things and escape evil consequences which I dare not do. Some of the brethren, as I have learned, since the death of President Brigham Young, did have feelings concerning his course. They did not approve of it, and felt oppressed, and yet they dare not exhibit their feelings to him. He ruled with so strong and stiff a hand, and they felt that it would be of no use. In a few words, the feeling seems to be that he transcended the bounds of the authority which he legitimately held. I have been greatly surprised to find so much dissatisfaction in such quarters. It is felt that the funds of the Church have been used with the freedom not warranted by the authority which he held and some even feel that in the promulgation of doctrine, he took liberties beyond which he was legitimately entitled. I shall have more to say upon these points hereafter.

I give you these things with a hope and prayer that they will be helpful to us as we face the great trials of our faith, and the judgments of God which are soon to be poured out, beginning at the house of God, as the Lord told Joseph in Section 112. God bless us and help us to be one, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

President Johnson the Most Christlike Man; Must Get Behind the One Man; A Day of Accounting Is Upon Us;
It Is All or Nothing at All

I pray that the Spirit of God will direct me in my remarks here today, and that it may be a means of gratifying and blessing us all, that we may go down the road together as President Johnson so often says. I say amen to the remarks of Brother Truman. They are my exact sentiments, as well expressed from that which he read to us.

President Johnson is a man I love with all my heart, and I want to tell you why. The love of brethren transcends any other in life but the love of the chosen of God, for the chosen of God has to come in the same way as we love God. I love God because of the perfection of His attributes and character. That is what I worship in God -- the perfection of His character and attributes; and that is what I love in Roy Johnson. He is the most Christlike as any man I know, and stands in the position that God has called him to fill before he came here. Like Joseph Smith said, he was called by the Council before he came here to fill his position; and Brother Johnson is his legal successor. I say, though there are other Apostles, they come under the direction of the head, the chief Apostle, who leads us today; and that is the place I desire to be. I desire to be an advocate for him and to build him up, and we should all be doing the same thing. Why? Because he holds the keys, the means to obtain the mind and will of God; as Brigham Young said after the death of Joseph Smith, when Sidney Rigdon and others came to try and take charge. He has the means to obtain the mind and will of God for us, and all revelation must come through him for the people.

And as I have expressed here and other places, I do not think that we are going to get anywhere unless we get behind this one man. As the people were called upon in the days of Enoch, they got behind that one man, who had direct access to the mind and will of God and walked and talked with God; and it is the same as with Moses in his day. We, altogether too many of us, brothers and sisters, have treated lightly this man and his teachings. And it is exemplified, I think, in the way we partake of the Sacrament, just as a matter of form and ceremony, without realizing what we are doing. If we do not partake of the Sacrament worthily, which is offered us, we may be subject to sickness and death, according to the way Heber C. Kimball talked to the saints in his day, and as Paul talked to the saints in his day.

I believe, verily, that we are now approaching the day of accounting. Like I said last time I spoke here, the Lord Jesus Christ said to the people, "If ye are not for Me, ye are against Me," and He spews the lukewarm, those who are neither hot nor cold, out of His mouth. He cannot use halfhearted people. It is all or nothing at all -- the Kingdom of God or nothing, brothers and sisters. I think it is time we stopped dallying around, because the day of accounting is at hand. And these are the words of our Prophet, Leroy S. Johnson.

I would just like to read you a little piece here, which sounds so much like this man, our Prophet. It is written by a writer of the world, but it is the idea behind it that I want to put over.

"The Prophet" (RTJ Book of Quotes Page 83)

He said, "I see." And they said: "He's crazy; crucify him." He still said, "I see." And they said: "He's an extremist." And they tolerated him. And he continued to say: "I see." And they said: "He's eccentric." And they rather liked him, but smiled at him. And he stubbornly said again: "I see." And they said: "There's something in what he says." And they gave him half an ear. But he said as if he's never said it before: "I see." And at last they were awake; and they gathered about him and built a temple in his name.

We are called upon to make these bodies and these spirits temples of God, and that is all He wants for us.

And yet he only said: "I see." And they wanted to do something for him. "What can we do to express to you our regret?" He only smiled. He touched them with the ends of his fingers and kissed them. What could they do for him? "Nothing more than you have done," he answered. And what was that, they wanted to know? "You see," he said, "that's reward enough; you see, you see."

And that is all He wants -- to see and understand and be obedient and become like God by getting and keeping the Spirit of God. We cannot do this work of redemption, which Brother Johnson has been called to perform through this people, without our having the Spirit of God and obtaining a fullness of it. We can never be one people without having the Spirit of God. That is what makes us one, and that is why the Lord says, "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine."

That Holy Spirit centers in Himself and in Jesus Christ, who is with Him. That Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son. And He is in us through that Spirit; and we become one with Them through that Spirit -- no other way. As Joseph Smith tells us in the Lectures on Faith, there is no room for halfway measures. There is no room for lukewarmness, and there is no room for anything but all that we have to offer God. And certainly, there is going to be some plucking off. There is going to be a calling up and a choosing, and these are the things that we should keep in mind, brothers and sisters.

I love this instruction that we have of the Lord through the Prophet Joseph Smith, which he wrote from Liberty Jail:

D.& C. 121

34. Behold, there are many called, but few are chosen. And why are they not chosen?

35. Because their hearts are set so much upon the things of this world, and aspire to the honors of men, that they do not learn this one lesson --

36. That the rights of the priesthood are inseparably connected with the powers of heaven, and that the powers of heaven cannot be controlled nor handled only upon the principles of righteousness.

37. That they may be conferred upon us, it is true;

That is the calling.

37. ...but when we undertake to cover our sins, or to gratify our pride, our vain ambition,

Does this describe some of us?

37. ...or to exercise control or dominion or compulsion upon the souls of the children of men, in any degree of unrighteousness, behold, the heavens withdraw themselves; the Spirit of the Lord is grieved; and when it is withdrawn, Amen to the priesthood or the authority of that man.

38. Behold, ere he is aware, he is left unto himself, to kick against the pricks, to persecute the saints, and to fight against God.
39. We have learned by sad experience that it is the nature and disposition of almost all men, as soon as they get a little authority, as they suppose, they will immediately begin to exercise unrighteous dominion.
40. Hence many are called, but few are chosen.
And that is the way it is going to be with us -- out of the heart's core of this people.

41. No power or influence can or ought to be maintained by virtue of the priesthood, only by persuasion, by long-suffering, by gentleness and meekness, and by love unfeigned;
This is Leroy Johnson.
42. By kindness, and pure knowledge, which shall greatly enlarge the soul without hypocrisy, and without guile --
43. Reproving betimes with sharpness, when moved upon by the Holy Ghost;
And I have seen him do it.
43. ...and then showing forth afterwards an increase of love toward him whom thou hast reproved, lest he esteem thee to be his enemy;
44. That he may know that thy faithfulness is stronger than the cords of death.
45. Let thy bowels be also full of charity towards all men, and to the household of faith, and let virtue garnish thy thoughts unceasingly; then shall thy confidence wax strong in the presence of God; and the doctrine of the priesthood shall distil upon thy soul as the dews from heaven.
46. The Holy Ghost shall be thy constant companion, and thy scepter an unchanging scepter of righteousness and truth; and thy dominion shall be an everlasting dominion, and without compulsory means it shall flow unto thee forever and ever.

God help us to act according to these principles of righteousness and love. President Johnson yearns over this people, and I dare say the illnesses he is suffering now is, in a large measure, due to the stress and the strains that he has been going through in our behalf. But he is going to come through and be stronger than ever and lead us. God help us to have faith in God, in Jesus Christ, in Joseph Smith, and in this agent of God, a living Priesthood; and that we may all go down the road together, as many as will obey every word that proceedeth forth from the mouth of God through this man; that we may be as one man in the hands of God to redeem Zion, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Attributes of the Holy Spirit;
We Become One Through Keeping the Spirit of God

I would just like to leave with you a very brief message here, which I desire to give by the Spirit of God. I can be very sure that I speak the truth when I read the revelations of God to Joseph the Prophet. This is a marvelous guide and director that we have, and it applies to all as it applied in the first place to Joseph Smith, Sen., father of Joseph the Prophet, who had asked to know the will of God concerning him. And we should seek to know the will of God concerning us, which we can obtain by learning the Spirit of God, the Spirit of revelation; this great gift that we have been given after baptism through the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost.

D.& C. 4

1. Now behold a marvelous work is about to come forth among the children of men.

2. Therefore, O ye that embark in the service of God,

I take it, all sitting here in this room have undertaken this great work.

2. ...see that ye serve him with all your heart, might, mind and strength, that ye may stand blameless before God at the last day.

With all your heart, might, mind, and strength. All that we have we consecrate to the service of God. If we would all do this, we would not be found in confusion in any way, shape, or form. It would be "The Kingdom of God or nothing," for if we are not working for the Kingdom of God, it will certainly be nothing. That is how it is. If we will do this, we will stand blameless before God at the last day.

3. Therefore, if ye have desires to serve God ye are called to the work;

Many are called but few are chosen.

4. For behold the field is white already to harvest;

They were then beginning to preach the Gospel. But the field is white already to harvest in our own lives, in that we become perfect, as God is perfect, in our generation.

4. ...and lo, he that thrusteth in his sickle with his might, the same layeth up in store that he perisheth not, but bringeth salvation to his soul;

Now these that follow are the attributes of the Holy Spirit, which is the mind of the Father and the Son; which, if we have -- this Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God, the gift of the Holy Ghost -- we will obtain every attribute concerning it, which it has. This Holy Spirit centers in the Father and issues forth from Himself, as Brigham Young said.

5. And faith, hope, charity and love, with an eye single to the glory of God, qualify him for the work.

6. Remember faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, brotherly kindness, godliness, charity, humility, diligence.

7. Ask, and ye shall receive; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who was one with the Father, has these things. If we will receive these things as they are given by the mouths of His servants, the Prophets, then we shall be in line to receive the great blessings that we desire.

Let us remember the great thing that was spoken of by John the Beloved, of the Savior. "If you love Me, keep My commandments," said the Savior. "But how can you say you love Me, whom ye cannot see, if ye love not your neighbor," your brother, "whom ye can see?" There is the great secret involved in the first two great commandments: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, might, mind, and strength; and thy neighbor as thyself." What peace and joy would be in our hearts if we had this Spirit, this Holy Spirit that President Johnson has enjoined upon us, and all of the Prophets before.

President Barlow had this revelation, the same as Joseph and Brigham and John, and all of the others have enjoined upon us. If ye have the Spirit of God, ye have the attributes of God. That is putting it in a little different way, maybe, than has been said before; and I think I can say with all assurance, they were speaking the word of God to us. If we will get and keep the Spirit of God, it will take care of all our problems. We will be able to live together in love. We will be one. "If ye are not one, ye are not Mine," said the Lord. And He is going to have to have a people in that condition to redeem Zion. This is what President Johnson has been enjoining upon us.
Therefore, my brothers and sisters, let us be humble, contrite, and come to the Lord with a broken heart and a contrite spirit; and sacrifice all earthly things, that we may obtain that character and attribute that will be pleasing to God, and that we may have this testimony that we please Him. Then our faith will be perfect, and we will come to Him as one people, which I pray we may do, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
Must Have the Spirit of Revelation for Ourselves;
We Have Treated the Celestial Laws Lightly; Marriage Covenant

I am grateful to be here with you, my brothers and sisters, in association with President Hammon and by appointment of President Johnson. We should realize that we carry on in this work by his direction. I pray for the Spirit of God to be with me in speaking, that I may be an instrument in His hands to edify and instruct and bless us with His Spirit.

I was glad to hear this song today. I have, on occasion through the many years, felt to read this poem, the words of this song. I don't suppose we listen very carefully to the words of these songs, these hymns that are given us, but there is a wonderful sermon in these words -- the spirit of humility and obedience and being responsive to the whisperings of the Spirit of God and the word of God.

Hushed Was the Evening Hymn
1. Hushed was the evening hymn;
The temple courts were dark;
The lamp was burning dim
Before the sacred ark;
When suddenly a voice divine
Rang through the silence of the shrine.
2. The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel slept;
His watch the temple child,
The little Levite kept;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed,
The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.
3. O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of thy word,
Like him to answer at thy call
And to obey thee first of all.

4. O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits,
Wherein thy house thou art
Or watches at thy gates,
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of thy will!

5. O give me Samuel's mind,
A sweet unmurmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To thee in life and death,
That I may read with childlike eyes,
Truths that are hidden from the wise!

This reminds me of the item that was printed in the Deseret News, and I think it would be helpful for us if I read it to you:

JD 16:41  Brigham Young  May 18, 1873  Ogden

A declaratory statement is sufficient for those who are prepared to receive the spirit of revelation for themselves,

Let us remember as we go on down the road, that it is going to be required of us that we have the spirit of revelation to know for ourselves what our course should be, as a tub sits on its own bottom. We cannot live on borrowed light.

A declaratory statement is sufficient for those who are prepared to receive the spirit of revelation for themselves, but with most of the human family we have to reason and explain. A really pure person is very scarce; but when the heart is truly pure,

Like Samuel's.

...the Lord can write upon it, and the truth is received without argument or doubt or disputation.

That is the nature of the gift of the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God to us; the spirit of truth, pure intelligence, which we may receive through the Spirit of revelation. We are constantly reminded, brothers and sisters, that we are under condemnation still, because we treat lightly the things of God -- the ordinances, the laws and the covenants of the holy Priesthood, and the things that are revealed to us by the Spirit of revelation through the servants of God.

Speaking of the holy Sacrament, we take this and receive this holy ordinance as a matter of course without thinking what we are doing. Heber C. Kimball spoke of this very important matter in terms that should put the fear of God into us, if we will only realize what we are doing when we partake of the emblems of the body and the spilt blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. I am sure that one of the reasons that the people of Zion were scattered and chastised was because of their treating lightly these things, as the Lord said. They polluted their inheritances by their jarrings, their strifes, their contentions, their envyings, and with their lustful and covetous desires. The Lord said by these things they polluted their inheritances. They had come to Zion to abide the Celestial Law, the Holy United Order, which was to be a schoolmaster to prepare them for the higher ordinances and blessings of the Gospel. This is how we treat lightly the things of God, is through these means that the Lord set out to the saints who were driven out of Zion in Missouri. We are still struggling under the same condemnation and chastisements.

The special work and dispensation was given through John Taylor in 1886, in which the High Priesthood was set up and organized and the work continued, to keep alive the law of Celestial and Plural Marriage, the highest law and ordinance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; those brethren were set apart and placed under a solemn covenant that they would see to it that children were born under this holy law until Christ should come. The Family Order of Heaven is the very foundation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and that has to be lived and abided under the Holy United Order, the crowning principles of the Gospel and the laws of the holy Priesthood. And I feel to say here today that these holy covenants entered into in the Celestial Law of Marriage, the sealing ordinance, have been treated lightly by altogether too many. When we enter into this law, we are receiving the grandest blessings and promises that God has offered His children. I cannot think of a more wonderful Patriarchal blessing that could be given than the words of the sealing ordinance. After all, it is the Patriarchal Law of Marriage.

Do we realize this, brothers and sisters? The authority and the power that is given to administer this great and holy law is by the holy Apostleship and the Patriarchal Priesthood, which are borne by those who are called and set apart and ordained to this great work. I feel like reading the ordinance again, the words of it, so that we can be reminded of what we have entered into and desire to enter into, or we should desire to with a full purpose of heart, realizing what we are entering into -- the holy covenants. It is by oath and covenant that we enter into this sacred relationship by which we bring the sons and daughters of God, these spirits into the world in this last and greatest dispensation, in preparation for the coming of Christ, the ushering in of the great Millennium and the redemption of Zion. That is the work we are engaged in, and it has to be done through this Family Order of Heaven. That is the means by which our Father became God and our Father.

Do you, Brother ______, take Sister ______ by the right hand, and receive her unto yourself to be your lawful and wedded wife, and you to be her lawful and wedded husband, for time and all eternity, with a covenant and promise, on your part, that you will fulfill all the laws, rites and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony in the new and everlasting covenant, doing this in the presence of God, angels, and these witnesses, of your own free will and choice?

Do you, Sister ______, take Brother ______ by the right hand, and give yourself to him to be his lawful and wedded wife for time and all eternity, Give yourself to him,
...with a covenant and promise on your part, that you will fulfill all the laws, rites and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony in the new and everlasting covenant, doing this in the presence of God, angels, and these witnesses, of your own free will and choice?

Do we realize what are the laws, rites, and ordinances pertaining to this holy bond of matrimony? It involves the law of obedience, the law of sacrifice, the law of chastity, and other similar laws which are involved in an endowment.

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by authority of the Holy Priesthood, I pronounce you legally and lawfully husband and wife, for time and for all eternity, and I seal upon you the blessings of the holy resurrection, with power to come forth in the morning of the first resurrection, clothed with glory, immortality, and eternal lives; and I seal upon you the blessings of thrones and dominions, and principalities, and powers, and exaltations, together with the blessings of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Is there a grander thing that we can receive by promise under a patriarchal blessing than this, with the means provided to become Kings and Queens, Priests and Priestesses unto God and Gods? This is what lies before us in abiding and obeying this holy law and covenant.

And I say unto you, be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth.
This can be done only by having clean hands and pure hearts, if we are going to raise up to the Lord with pure and clean bodies, tabernacles for these spirits that He sends forth in this last day and time.

And I say unto you, be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth, that you may have joy and rejoicing in your posterity in the day of the Lord Jesus.
All of this unto the honor and glory of God, as vessels in His hands, as temples. These bodies were given to us to make temples. That temple which is defiled, God will destroy -- verse 35 of Section 93 if you want authority for it. Now here is the touchstone as it involves our treating with love and honor for God:

All these blessings, together with all other blessings pertaining to the new and everlasting covenant, I seal upon your heads, through your faithfulness unto the end,

All of these things are conditional. Any patriarchal blessing you receive is conditioned upon your faithfulness unto the end, and this holy sealing ordinance is given on the same conditions, that we magnify this holy law -- the husband magnifying the holy Priesthood, the wife and wives magnifying the Priesthood of her husband to the honor and glory of God, to bring forth pure bodies that may be inhabited by pure spirits, innocent spirits, which God sends forth. He is sending them forth only through that channel; the means of redeeming Zion and preparing for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, in glory; and, of course, this all being done by the authority of the holy Priesthood, and in the name of the Holy Trinity -- Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Yes, brothers and sisters, altogether too many treat this holy ordinance lightly; and altogether too often are those covenants and oaths broken. We are dealing with most sacred and holy things. This is an endowment upon us, an endowment -- not the endowments, which are received in holy places, but it is an endowment. It doesn't take the place of the holy endowments, but it is an endowment, brothers and sisters, if we will only receive it.

When the Kirtland Temple was finished, the Lord had called upon them to build that sacred edifice out of their poverty, under the law of sacrifice, giving all they had to accomplish this, to provide a place where the Lord Himself could come and see them. They were called upon to prepare for an endowment in that sacred building. That endowment was, as to the Priesthood, the sacred ordinance of the washing of feet, and the anointing of feet for the attendant blessings as dictated by the Holy Ghost. In addition to this, holy angels were there. The Holy Ghost, in tongues of fire, rested upon the building, and the Lord Jesus Christ appeared and stood upon the breastwork of that temple before Joseph and Oliver. All of these things together were a glorious endowment, with power from on high, and all of this that the servants of God were to be sent out to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to gather Israel, and to bring a people together, in the future, to redeem Zion.

Now, when these sacred and holy things are defiled, or rejected, or treated lightly, how do you suppose our beloved Father feels about us? By holy and immutable laws, He has to act according to His word. There are penalties attached to every oath and covenant which may be broken, and they are very severe, according to the gravity of the oath and covenant and the ordinance and the things which God offers us.

So we should be very much aware of these things, brothers and sisters, and I just wanted to call our attention to it briefly here today. Do we realize, brothers and sisters, that this is a people that is called upon to be prepared to redeem and build up Zion, to prepare another place for the abode of God forever, which is to be caught up and meet the city of Enoch, a Zion, and they together to constitute that great work of the Millennium when this earth will be translated and the beings upon the earth at that time live without sin? We are preparing, my brothers and sisters, for the building of a city similar to that of Enoch, preparing for the coming of the Ten Tribes to assist in that great project, that great work. We are preparing finally, I pray, to see our Lord Jesus Christ come in glory; and before that, the Lord Jesus Christ and His angels will lead that great concourse of saints to go back and redeem Zion, and to build it up. We must be of a character filled with the Holy Ghost, that we can stand in His presence.

I mention these things, brothers and sisters, to keep us reminded of the great object our Father in heaven has for us in view, and which our President, Leroy Sunderland Johnson, continually and constantly calls to our attention, and calls upon us to prepare for. We cannot do it without the Spirit of God.
So we must learn this Spirit -- seek with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and with perfect faith to lay hold upon this Holy Spirit and all of its gifts, to enable us to become perfect in our generation, perfect in the sight of God, that we may be that people to redeem Zion. God bless us to this end, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

The Coming Crisis; Revelation Necessary

I am grateful to be with you, brothers and sisters, under the direction of President Johnson as we are called to gather here today, and in association with my brethren. I am most grateful for the life and labors of President Johnson, who has constantly taught us in the Spirit of revelation what we needed to do to be a prepared people. And I ask the Spirit of God to be with me as I call attention to some of the things President Johnson has called upon us to read and consider, but which I fear most of us have not done. He asked us to read and consider "The Coming Crisis". We are in the midst of it, brothers and sisters, and no more prophetic pronouncement was penned than was given in this article which appeared in the fifteenth volume of the Millennial Star in 1853. Now I would like to read a few pertinent parts of this for us, with comments, as the Spirit of God directs.

THE COMING CRISIS -- HOW TO MEET IT

Strong Delusions

...it must also be acknowledged that God, the true and living Sovereign of heaven and earth, will contribute to produce the delusion.

Speaking of the delusions that are mentioned in Second Thessalonians.

He has said that "HE WILL SEND THEM STRONG DELUSIONS THAT THEY MIGHT BELIEVE A LIE." He gives His reason and apology for acting after this strange manner -- because, knowing the truth, they do not love it unadulterated. And knowing God, they do not choose to glorify Him as God. Therefore their foolish hearts become darkened, and God suffers Satan to compound and mix up truth and error in such proportions as to be captivating and strongly delusive. As a snare, this composition will be ingeniously mixed and administered to all nations, by skillful and practiced hands.

Revelation Necessary

And who shall be able to withstand?

And I am sure this is one of the most pertinent parts of the article that President Johnson desired us to understand.

Do you think that your great sagacity and the compass of your profound, philosophical turn of mind will enable you to detect the error and delusion of these arts? Oh, man, this is a vain hope. Your mind will not be competent to detect the delusion. God Himself will allow Satan to ply your scrutinizing eye with powers and sophistications far beyond your capacity to detect. Do you say then, I will stand aloof from investigation, I will shun all acquaintance with these mysterious workings, in order that I may not be carried away with their delusive influence? Vain hope. Oh man, you cannot be neutral.

You cannot be neutral. It has been explained time and again through the years, that once having been given the gift of the Holy Ghost -- having repented, and been baptized, and received the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands of the holy Priesthood, one then chooses to be with God. He has thereafter left neutral ground.

You must choose your side and put on your armor. Those that come not up to the help of the Lord in the day of battle, will be sorely cursed. The captive Hebrew Daniel stood up boldly against all the governors and whole realm of Babylon with their monarch at their head. Daniel readily acknowledged that it was not from any wisdom in him, above other men, that he could surpass the astrologers and magicians. But holding intercourse with the God of heaven, he became endowed with a supernatural comprehension that effectually shielded him against supernatural delusion.

This is what is called revelation, one of the greatest gifts of the Holy Spirit, which is given us that we may detect delusions and detect false and delusive spirits, and lay hold upon the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost -- the greatest gift of God to man, next to life itself -- and the powers and gifts of the holy Priesthood, which administers these gifts and powers. The Holy Spirit is the power of the holy Priesthood, and unless that Spirit is with that Priesthood to do it, it is not done. The Lord says so in Section 20.
Thereby he (Daniel) escaped the snare that entwined around the great statesmen and governors of that immense empire of Babylon. Thereby those who take refuge in the name of the Lord and in immediate revelation from heaven, will be safe, and no others. He that is not for God and the principle of immediate revelation, will inevitably be ensnared, overcome, and destroyed. Because he that is not for Him must be against Him.

Have you ever thought of this, brothers and sisters? If you are not for Him you are against Him. President Johnson, within the last few months -- I think it was in December of 1978 -- told the saints in the South, "The time has come when we must stand up and be counted," meaning: "If you are not for me, you are against me." That means a positive attitude, having the gifts and powers of the Holy Ghost to stand for God and His mouthpiece -- His anointed, if you please.

Because he that is not for Him must be against Him. No man in any age was ever for God or even a friend of God, that did not hold intercourse with Him personally, and receive for himself the revelations of His will. The rock of revelation, by which Peter knew Jesus Christ, is the only basis upon which any man can escape the strong delusion which God will send among the nations, through Satan and his mediums and coadjutors. Reader, if you live long, you will be compelled to take a side for God or for Satan. Satan was allowed to try a compulsory process upon as good a man as Job. The whirlwind and tempestuous elements, with disease and death, were put into Satan’s hand that he might compel Job to abandon his integrity. Had not Job possessed the key of revelation from God, he would have been compelled to have made peace with Satan and forsake the Lord. His wife urged him to do so -- says she, "Curse God and die"; or, in other words, take the side of Satan against God.

Necessary to Know God

You cannot know God without present revelation.

And we are given a quotation from the Joseph the Prophet:

[Footnote #4: "It is the first principle of the Gospel to know for a certainty the character of God, and to know that we may converse with Him as one man converses with another, and that He was once a man like us: yea, that God himself, the Father of us all, dwelt on an earth the same as Jesus Christ himself did." --Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, pp., 345, 346.] Did you ever think of this most solemn and essential truth, before?
You may have been accustomed to pray, all your lifetime, and as yet you, even you, do not know God. You may have heard many thousand sermons, with a sincere desire both to remember and practice them, and yet you do not know God.

We as saints, as we are supposed to be, are pretty much in this same category, though this was addressed to people of the world. What is our true faith?

But it has been decided in the court of heaven, that no man can know the Father but the Son, and he to whom the Son revealeth him. Now, has Jesus Christ ever revealed God the Father to you, dear reader? Be honest with yourself, and do not err in your answer to this most important question. However much the Son may have revealed the Father to Prophets, Patriarchs, and Apostles of old, the question still remains in full force--has he revealed Him to you? A revelation to another man is by no means a revelation to you.

Do we know, brothers and sisters, anything about the true Spirit of revelation, how to get it, how is it applied to us? Read Sections 8 and 9 of the Doctrine and Covenants as they were applied to Oliver Cowdery, who tried to translate the Book of Mormon plates. We have got to get revelation for ourselves, and the means are given us. And skipping down:

You most assuredly cannot call Jesus, Lord, only by the Holy Ghost.

Have we come to a position where we can really say that for ourselves? We pray, and we go to and fro about our labors. We come to meetings; we are instructed. But do we know by the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, and that He has a legal representative upon the earth?

If the Holy Ghost is confirmed upon you, by the imposition of the hands of the true Priesthood, then you can know God for yourself. Why? Because the Holy Ghost teaches all things, even the deep things of God. This generation needs present revelations from heaven, as much as any other generation ever did, because they are quite as wicked as Sodom ever was. They practice as gross sensuality and beastliness, as glaring robbery and murder, as much treachery and lying, and are as ardent for war and blood-guiltiness, as ever the ancient Canaanites were. Now, reader, you need present revelation from God to your own dear self, in order to help you out of this nasty, confused labyrinth, and to set your feet firmly upon the solid rock of revelation. Mere flesh and blood cannot help you now. It requires an Almighty arm to effect your deliverance. Therefore, put no more trust in man, for a curse rests upon him that will be guided by the precepts of man. I do not ask you to be guided by what I say to you, unless the Lord from heaven shall reveal to you that I speak the truth, even as it is in Christ. Although I know that I am declaring heaven's truth to you, in all sobriety, yet, my knowing it, does not suffice for you. You also must know it for yourself, and not for another. This is your right and your privilege. For God has made this promise to you, and not to you, reader, only, but to all others whom He calls to repentance. Now, go and get revelation for yourself. If you are penitently desirous with all your heart to get revelation from God to your own self, go to some one whom God has called and ordained to confer the Gift of the Holy Ghost upon men, according to His promise in the Acts of the Apostles, and I promise you in the name of Jesus Christ, whose I am both by covenant and by sacrifice, that you shall have the desire of your heart. Even so. Amen.

Testimony of President Jessop Concerning the Keyholder

Our next speaker will be President Richard Seth Jessop, of whom I have never known a man more humble, and meek, and obedient. [He then read a sermon of President Richard S. Jessop, April 30, 1978, also found on page 511 of this volume.]

Funeral of Warren Elmer Johnson

I feel it a great pleasure and privilege to speak at the service honoring the life and labors of our dear friend, Patriarch Elmer Johnson. I had a particular kindred feeling of this great and good man, and I loved the spirit that was in him. He was fully qualified to act in the office of Patriarch, the giving of Patriarchal blessings; many, many of which have been given to gladden the hearts and increase the faith of those who receive them. One of the outstanding attributes and characteristics of this man that stands out in my memory and in my feelings, is that he was truly humble and meek.

This is the sweet Spirit that was in our Savior. He was meek and lowly of heart. It was once asked, "Who is the greatest among you?" In the activities of the Savior, He said, "He who is the servant of all." And that was the Savior. He was the great Prototype, which I know for certain that Patriarch Johnson tried to emulate in his life -- a meek and humble man. "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth." A definition has been given of this great attribute of meekness as comprising all of the laws, and ordinances, and doctrines of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It requires a full and a whole life, devoting one's heart, might, mind, and strength to the service of God and his fellow men.

As I contemplate the character of Brother Johnson, I think of the grand definition of charity and the attributes that are required to lay hold upon it, as we have it in the seventh chapter of Moroni, which I would like to review here today. These services, I always feel, are for the living. The record of this great and good man has been made, and we should follow the example of these men of God.

Moroni 7

42. Wherefore, if a man have faith he must needs have hope; for without faith there cannot be any hope.
43. And again, behold I say unto you that he cannot have faith and hope, save he shall be meek, and lowly of heart.
44. If so, his faith and hope is vain, for none is acceptable before God, save the meek and lowly in heart;

That is a broad and a great statement, and a grand truth for us to be guided by.

44. ...and if a man be meek and lowly in heart, and confesses by the power of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, he must needs have charity; for if he have not charity he is nothing; wherefore he must needs have charity.

45. And charity suffereth long, and is kind, and envieth not, and is not puffed up, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, and rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

These are all characteristics of this good and great man. And let us see why:

46. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, if ye have not charity, ye are nothing, for charity never faileth. Wherefore, cleave unto charity, which is the greatest of all, for all things must fail --

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ,
That to me is the Holy Spirit of God, which embraces all of these attributes and characteristics of God. The Holy Spirit centers in the Father, issues forth from Himself to go throughout His dominions, and is the power of the holy Priesthood. The Holy Ghost, surely, is the pure love of Christ.

47. But charity is the pure love of Christ, and it endureth forever; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with him.

48. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, pray unto the Father with all the energy of heart, that ye may be filled with this love, which he hath bestowed upon all who are true followers of his Son, Jesus Christ; We are instructed in the Lectures on Faith to be so skilled that we may be filled with the Holy Ghost. To be filled with this love is the same thing.

48. ...that ye may become the sons of God;
For such are they who obtain a fullness of the Holy Spirit, and of this pure love of Christ, and become like Him.

48. ...that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is; that we may have this hope; that we may be purified even as he is pure.

I never saw Brother Johnson but what I felt the Spirit of God was with him. It was in him in order to give these Patriarchal blessings, and to bless and govern his family. So I would call upon his family to follow after their great father, this faithful and true man. He was devoted and true to his Priesthood head, his beloved brother, Leroy S. Johnson, and acknowledged him for who and what he is. That is the great touchstone, brothers and sisters, that we get our loyalties straightened out, and put it where God places His confidence.

Now, may the Lord bless his family, and bless us all that we may follow after these things. I pray that the Lord will sustain and uphold all who desire to live the fullness of the Everlasting Gospel and abide in the same; loving God with all our heart, might, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourself in this pure love of Christ, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Pray Night and Day for Deliverance;
Hasten Our Preparation

I am grateful for this privilege, and especially grateful for the life and labors of President Johnson in this great work in which we are engaged. I pray for the Spirit of God to be with me as I read to you the sermon of President Johnson, the latter part of February last before he became ill, which I have appreciated beyond measure.

LSJ Vol.4  Page 1704  February 18, 1979  SLC

Once more, I am grateful, my brothers and sisters, for the blessings of the Lord upon all of us -- especially upon myself, for He has blessed me with wonderful health and strength and with continued power of speech. All this, I am grateful for, and I hope that He can continue to bless all of us that we might continue to come out and be instructed through the mouths of His servants. I trust that He will put words in my mouth this afternoon that we might be instructed from on high, for I want nothing to go over this pulpit only the words of God to us to help us continue our preparation of repentance of our sins and preparing ourselves for His great work ahead.

RTJ 4:507  August 19, 1979  Sandy

Inasmuch as He has promised to all the holy prophets that He would redeem His people -- Israel, we are now living in the consummation of this great and glorious day of the redemption of Israel. Not all of the blood of Israel has been gathered out from among the nations of the earth yet. But the word has gone forth that Joseph Smith the Prophet saw the Father and the Son and was instructed to deliver this great message to the world. But the world at large has so far rejected his testimony. Even those who are being converted today to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints do not believe in the fundamental principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as they were given to the Prophet Joseph Smith. So, we can rest assured, my dear brothers and sisters, that we are greatly blessed to have these principles taught to us from Sunday to Sunday, from month to month. We have been greatly blessed because we have this Doctrine & Covenants, the Book of Mormon and the Pearl of Great Price to refer to as the word of God to the generation in which we live. For it is the word of God to us, and if we will study it and adhere to its teachings, it will bring us eternal life. For the Lord has said so.

We are living in a day when great tribulation covers the earth, from one end of the earth to the other; all the nations are disturbed in their feelings. For the hour of the reign of unrighteousness is fast coming to an end, at least upon the land of Joseph. We want to remember that North and South America was given to the descendants of Joseph, who was sold into Egypt, for an inheritance. This is the land upon which the Millennium will start. This is the land upon which a cloud will hang over it by day and a pillar of fire by night; and all nations will stand afar off and see what is being done and will say that it is the workings of great men, and "Let us not go up to battle against Zion for the armies of Zion are terrible." The armies of Zion will not be armed with powder and lead, and guns to fire it with. But they will be armed with the breastwork of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and their banners will be "The Kingdom of God or Nothing." This will put fear in the hearts of men.

Let us not wait any longer, my dear brothers and sisters. Let us labor night and day with ourselves. Let us commence to pray night and day for deliverance. Deliverance from what? From the evil powers that possess the hearts of men today. Let us get the Coming Crisis and How to Meet It, and read it. Then let us begin to fear and tremble because of our condition; and let us get the Spirit of God and keep it with us, that we might have peace in our minds and be able to walk down the road with our heads up, in the face of all opposition that might come our way. We are going to have to have it.

It has been read to us today by Brother Musser what is going to happen, and it is going to happen upon this continent, for the Lord has said, "In my House shall it begin." This book tells us that Christ told the Nephite people that after the city of the New Jerusalem was built, the great missionary work will begin in carrying the fulness of the everlasting Gospel to the nations of the earth. Why? Because the Gentile nation would not receive the testimony of Joseph Smith the Prophet. The conditions will be such that the rest of the world will sit up and take notice and they dare not persecute further the servants of God when they go through preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And all nations will sit up and take notice. And all who will believe will accept the Gospel -- but not all will accept the Gospel. The Lord has said that when Christ comes, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is the Christ. But will they all believe that this is the only way to eternal life? No. Never. But they will come under the protection of the Kingdom of God; and they will seek for knowledge concerning the Kingdom of God and its righteousness. Brigham Young tells us that we will live in despair of ever seeing everybody accept the Gospel of Jesus Christ, although they confess that Jesus is the Christ and that He came as the great deliverer of His people -- Israel. But all who will repent and be baptized by water and have hands laid upon them for the gifts of the Holy Ghost and will keep the commandments of God, will be ushered in and numbered among the children of Israel.

The great blessing given to the great prophet Abraham is about to be fulfilled in this last dispensation of the fullness of times. The Lord said that He took six days to create the earth and He rested on the seventh. And He will give His spirits that He has created an opportunity for six thousand years to come to the earth and prepare themselves to be saved during the seventh thousand years. So, all who can be saved will be saved during that period of time.

What a golden opportunity you have, my brothers and sisters, of calling upon God night and day for deliverance -- from this very hour on until deliverance comes. For you heard today that deliverance would finally come after much tribulation. We are not out of the woods yet. The servants of God, the saints of God, those who have purified their lives and are living according to the commandments that the Lord has given us for our eternal salvation, must continue their preparation, must dedicate themselves to the building up and establishing the Kingdom of God in the earth and be ready to be used when that One Mighty and Strong comes forth and makes his call again for a great army to go out and build the city and the temple. And from that place, it will spread to all the House of Israel.

I hope, my brothers and sisters, that we can hasten our preparation. The great charge to the Prophet Joseph Smith was to teach nothing but repentance and preparation to this generation in which we live, this generation of Gentiles; for the Gospel is about to be taken away from them and go into the House of Israel again. And missionaries will be called after the work of redemption begins, and all who will come to Zion will be ushered in and they will be numbered among the House of Israel. We want to remember that there are twelve tribes in that great House and they will have to come to Zion for their blessings. And they will go back to their own lands, the lands of their own inheritances, and they will operate under the direction of each tribe as the Lord has said.

Let us hasten our preparation! Let us not waste anymore time, but let us teach our children correct principles that they might not go down with the wicked. I see a lot of our young people who are not listening to the counsels of their fathers and the Priesthood. And it makes our hearts ache because we know they are the children of our Father. Most of them have come through the new and everlasting covenant; I hope that all who are here today are numbered among that body of people who have been born and raised under the new and everlasting covenant, that we might lay some claim upon the blessings of God.

Let us hasten our preparation, that we might be found worthy of the blessings of eternal life, that the Lord will be justified in protecting us in the day and hour when we are called upon to endure great tribulation. Let us be prepared against that day! He says, "Try me, and see if I won't pour out blessings that you cannot contain." So, let us put Him to the test this once and see what He will do for us. We have had a little touch already of what He can do for us and we don't have to fight -- He says, "If you will keep my commandments, I will fight your battles." Let us have confidence in what He says! We have tried Him out a little and we have found He can do it. Let us get down to business and keep the commandments of God, and let us hasten our preparation because we only have a few years left from what this book tells us. This book will tell you, if you will read it, what the Lord says about the great preparation that we have got to make and what the condition will be if we will keep the commandments of God. So, let us keep the commandments of God -- we who have been into the waters of baptism and had hands laid upon us for the gifts of the Holy Ghost.

I pray the blessings of God to be upon us, each and everyone, that we might hasten our preparation, I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Testimony of President Jessop Concerning the Keyholder

I am grateful to the Lord for the presence here of President Johnson, that he is able to preside. I am grateful to be here with him and Brother Hammon. I desire the Spirit of God to be with me as it was with President Jessop as he spoke to this people on the 30th day of April, 1978. I think I will follow this pattern today of reading the message of my brethren. I think you will appreciate hearing the words of President Richard S. Jessop, whose sentiments are mine.

Richard S. Jessop Colorado City, Arizona April 30, 1978

I have been very much interested, my dear brothers and sisters and friends, at what I have been listening to. I hope what I say will be inspired by the Spirit of God that I will advance something in the shape of the doctrine of eternal truth that will be of value to all of us.

I have sat here thinking of the condition we are in as compared with the world, the revelation of heaven to our minds and lives to the effect that there is one man on the earth at a time on whom the keys of the eternal Priesthood are conferred. I sat here thinking on the condition of the world with regard to that sacred vessel of the Lord. If I don't have access to that instrument, that man, that character, whoever he is, how do we expect to ever attain to eternal life when this man holds the keys to it? Without the ability to apply ourselves to cooperation with that character? It has been my privilege, as I have oftentimes said -- the close, intimate, personal association with the man a good portion of my life, that I have had close association with that man; I don't know how to appreciate enough. I do appreciate it but not quite enough. If that man whom we acknowledge and recognize as holding the key position, and in case somebody should conclude that that is not the case, is not the character of the man, then pray tell who, where can such a character be found?

Many of us continuously bear witness that we know under the revelation of the Spirit of God who that character is and we do have personal association with him. So I continually come back to the question -- "Many an individual may think, 'Well, that man has certain faults and failings I don't approve of, how can I sustain him?'" But if he isn't a man whom you can sustain, where will you find such a character? I have observed far and wide in my bit of experience in this life prominent men always finding fault with truth raised up because of conduct. I am convinced, it is my testimony, my conviction and my attitude is that we have access to that character; and that his wisdom, association, his grace, his conduct and his spiritual influence over us is within reach of every person within this building and all the rest that are in association with him. What more shall I ask? One thing I must ask, and that is to prevail on the Lord to extend to me the power and influence and spirit of repentance, because I can get the benefits of that blessing through that man. I don't know of any other character in my experience of whom I can look for guidance and direction to the degree I can by associating with President Johnson. In the life of Jesus, two thousand years ago, there was one man on the earth at a time who held a certain position. And that position is conveyed upon another man today, and has been through the ages and will continue to be until the winding up scene of this old mother earth on which we dwell.

I don't know how to be thankful enough for the sacred privilege I have of being so intimately acquainted with God's servants, the prophets, and have access to His Servant on the earth in this day and time and dispensation. And again and again and again I ask the continuance and interrogation as, if this is not the man whom we claim it is, where will you find such a being? As far as anybody among us can tell, there is no other character that occupies that same position. Others, growing weary, striving to have the same association with these characters, but they miss the mark until they concentrate their devotion where the Lord places His. That is my witness and my testimony.

I hope and pray, dear brothers and sisters and friends, that we can improve as a body of people, as individuals, until we are ready and willing to receive the testimony of these prophetic characters. Because there is still one man on the earth at a time during each man's administration that occupies that position. The Lord knows their integrity and weaknesses and imperfections and He knows all about us. And if we want to be godlike in our nature and disposition, here is one example it is pretty safe to follow. Where can you find his equal? He is a man devoted entirely to the service of the Lord God Almighty. That is my witness that he has principle, integrity, devotion and character the quality of Leroy Sunderland Johnson. Help us, dear Father, that we will not miss the boat by going off astray into by and forbidden paths till we miss the way to get back Home. That is my mission, intent and desire and prayer for us all. Let us hold up and sustain and maintain our devotion and integrity and our whole ambition to sustaining the Lord. In the place where He (The Lord) devotes His confidence is the place for me to put mine. That is my conviction, my dear brothers and sisters and friends, and I hope the same for each one.

The Gospel is true and we know it is true. We know the Priesthood of God is conveyed to men on the earth and repose in the hands of mortal men in this day and dispensation and will continue to be so until the winding up scene, as we call it. So here we are; here stands the challenge, so let us go to,

Go down the road, as President Johnson says, together.

...uphold and sustain one another in everything that is right and correct. If everything that is right and correct was white and everything that is error were black, we wouldn't have much difficulty in distinguishing between right and wrong. But the mixtures, mixed right and wrong in such a field -- grey, black and white mixed together oftentimes, the people are in difficulty to determine between the right and the wrong. There is so much error in the best of us and so much good in the worst of us, it ill becomes any of us to criticize the rest of us.

God help us to remember this.

There is so much error in the best of us and so much good in the worst of us, it ill becomes any of us to criticize the rest of us.

Let us bring ourselves to the unity, my dear brothers and sisters, unite ourselves in the same type of advancement and integrity and devotion. My conviction is that President Leroy Sunderland Johnson is the key man bearing witness and testimonies of the Prophets before him. So let us press on continuously and everlastingly maintaining our devotion to the truth, being thankful and grateful -- how grateful we need to be. What a debt of gratitude we owe to the Lord and to His servants for the privileges and opportunities that are ours. May the Lord bless and prosper all of them to the accomplishment of their most earnest desires is my humble prayer for each one, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Must be Like God; Spirit of Revelation

I am grateful, my dear brothers and sisters, to be here under the appointment of President Johnson for this meeting and in association with my brethren. I desire but to be an instrument in the hands of the Lord in saying only that which He would have me say by the Spirit and power of the Holy Ghost.

I have in mind to begin with only one item, which I have felt often to refer to for my own benefit, as well as that of my family and the saints, spoken by the Prophet Joseph Smith:

TPJS Page 216

Joseph the Seer arose in the power of God; reproved and rebuked wickedness before the people, in the name of the Lord God. He wished to say a few words to suit the condition of the general mass, and then said: I shall speak with authority of the Priesthood in the name of the Lord God, which shall prove a savor of life unto life, or of death unto death.
That is what is before us as Brigham Young and the Prophet Joseph frequently spoke before the people.

Notwithstanding this congregation profess to be Saints, yet I stand in the midst of all [kinds of] characters and classes of men. If you wish to go where God is, you must be like God, or possess the principles which God possesses, for if we are not drawing towards God in principle, we are going from Him and drawing towards the devil.

The very nature of this great gift of the Holy Ghost, which is given us by the laying on of hands of the Priesthood, is to enable us to discern which direction we shall go.

Yes, I am standing in the midst of all kinds of people. Search your hearts, and see if you are like God. I have searched mine, and feel to repent of all my sins.

I think that is about enough for a sermon, but to enable us to act on this grand principle, I would like to read to you the words of Joseph in connection with this Spirit of revelation, the gift of the Holy Ghost.

TPJS Page 151

The Spirit of Revelation is in connection with these blessings.

After which the Prophet had outlined the nature of the First Comforter and the Second Comforter -- the Holy Ghost, and the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ.

A person may profit by noticing the first intimation of the spirit of revelation; for instance, when you feel pure intelligence flowing into you, it may give you sudden strokes of ideas, so that by noticing it, you may find it fulfilled the same day or soon; (i.e.) those things that were presented unto your minds by the Spirit of God, will come to pass; and thus by learning the Spirit of God and understanding it, you may grow into the principle of revelation, until you become perfect in Christ Jesus.

By this means, then, we draw near to God. And by getting and keeping the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost, as our constant companion, we become like God; for the Holy Spirit is the mind of the Father and the Son. It centers in the Father and issues forth from Him to all His dominions. And if this be the mind of the Father and the Son, it must have inherently in it all the attributes of God. If we have it, we will have the attributes of God to guide us and help us and see us through this mortal probation. This Spirit of revelation the Lord revealed to Joseph Smith, and through him to Oliver Cowdery.

D. & C. 8

1. Oliver Cowdery, verily, verily, I say unto you, that assuredly as the Lord liveth, who is your God and your Redeemer, even so surely shall you receive a knowledge of whatsoever things you shall ask in faith, with an honest heart, believing that you shall receive a knowledge concerning the engravings of old records, which are ancient, which contain those parts of my scripture of which has been spoken by the manifestation of my Spirit.

2. Yea, behold, I will tell you in your mind and in your heart, by the Holy Ghost, which shall come upon you and which shall dwell in your heart.

3. Now, behold, this is the spirit of revelation; behold, this is the spirit by which Moses brought the children of Israel through the Red Sea on dry ground.

Having failed in this, the Lord told him in another revelation in the same
7. Behold, you have not understood; you have supposed that I would give it unto you, when you took no thought save it was to ask me.

8. But, behold, I say unto you, that you must study it out in your mind; then you must ask me if it be right, and if it is right I will cause that your bosom shall burn within you; therefore, you shall feel that it is right.

9. But if it be not right you shall have no such feelings, but you shall have a stupor of thought that shall cause you to forget the thing which is wrong; therefore, you cannot write that which is sacred save it be given you from me.

10. Now, if you had known this you could have translated; nevertheless, it is not expedient that you should translate now.

This statement of the Prophet Joseph Smith is indeed very critical, and the key situation that we must be governed by, by the standards that I have read to you here from the word of God and the words of Joseph Smith. We can tell without fail which spirit we are acted upon by this means.

Brigham Young gave some very pertinent instructions in this connection, which I feel should be read in connection with what is before us.

I will say a few words in regard to your belief in being led, guided, and directed by one man. Brother Jackman has said that our enemies hate the fact of our being led by one man.

That is why they hated the Prophet Joseph Smith in his day, and Brigham, and John Taylor. But there is a key here:

Thousands of times my soul has been lifted to God the Father, in the name of Jesus, to make that verily true in every sense of the word, that we may be led by the man Jesus Christ, through Joseph Smith the Prophet.

The one who had the means to obtain the mind and will of God for his brothers and sisters. Brigham Young, after the effort of Sidney Rigdon to obtain the guardianship of the Church, stated that he had the means to obtain the mind and will of God. Of course; he was the mouthpiece of God, and he had the keys to obtain it.

You may inquire how we are to know that we are so led. I refer you to the exhortation you have heard so frequently from me. Do not be deceived, any of you; if you are deceived, it is because you deceive yourselves. You may know whether you are led right or wrong, as well as you know the way home; for every principle God has revealed carries its own convictions of its truth to the human mind, and there is no calling of God to man on earth but what brings with it the evidences of its authenticity. Let us take a course that leads to the perpetuity of the natural life which God has given us, and honour it. Should we pursue this course faithfully, and never bestow one thought for the life that is to come, we are just as sure of that immortal life as we are of the life we now possess. This, in fact, is the only way in which we can be prepared to inherit that more glorious life.

What a pity it would be if we were led by one man to utter destruction! Are you afraid of this? I am more afraid that this people have so much confidence in their leaders that they will not inquire for themselves of God whether they are led by Him. I am fearful they settle down in a state of blind self-security, trusting their eternal destiny in the hands of their leaders with a reckless confidence that in itself would thwart the purposes of God in their salvation, and weaken that influence they could give to their leaders, did they know for themselves, by the revelations of Jesus, that they are led in the right way. Let every man and woman know, by the whispering of the Spirit of God to themselves, whether their leaders are walking in the path the Lord dictates, or not. This has been my exhortation continually.

And in connection with this he speaks of agency, and the will that is within us.

Brother Joseph W. Young remarked this morning that he wished the people to receive the word of the Lord through his servants, be dictated by them, and have no will of their own. I would express it in this wise: God has placed within us a will, and we should be satisfied to have it controlled by the will of the Almighty.

And he could add: "By the gift and power of the Holy Ghost, which is the mind of the Almighty."

Let the human will be indomitable for right. It has been the custom of parents to break the will until it is weakened, and the noble, Godlike powers of the child are reduced to a comparative state of imbecility and cowardice. Let that heaven-born property of human agents be properly
